"And I will also give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you…" (Ezekiel 36:26a)

FOREWORD

The goal of this work is to provide a modern and accurate English translation of the Bible for the public domain.

The New Heart English Bible (NHEB) YHWH edition is adapted from the World English Bible, public domain. The 9th edition of the Hebrew Tanakh, edited by Wayne A. Mitchell (MTH), public domain 2015-2023, was used for the Old Testament. The Masoretic Leningrad Codex was corrected with Dead Sea Scrolls, Samaritan Pentateuch, Septuagint, Syriac Peshitta, Aramaic Targum, Old Latin and Vulgate manuscripts, along with Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia (5th ed.) and other Hebrew editions. For the New Testament, the 4th edition of The Greek New Testament, edited by Wayne A. Mitchell (2022), was used.

It is hoped that this work will reach many, and the Good News of Jesus Christ will expand even further the kingdom of God.

Genesis

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. 2Now the earth was formless and empty, and darkness was on the surface of the watery depths. And God's Spirit was hovering over the surface of the waters.

3And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.[a] 4And God saw that the light was good. And God separated the light from the darkness. 5And God called the light Day,[b] and the darkness he called Night.[c] There was evening and there was morning, one day.

6And God said, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." And it was so.[d] 7And God made the expanse, and separated the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse. 8And God called the expanse Sky.[e] And God saw that it was good.[f] There was evening and there was morning, a second day.
9And God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered to one gathering,[g] and let the dry land appear." And it was so. And the waters under the sky gathered to their gatherings,[h] and the dry land appeared.[i] 10And God called the dry land Earth,[j] and the gatherings[k] of the waters he called Seas.[l] And God saw that it was good.

LXX reads "and all the x of the earth," which has lost chayat חית "wild animals" in its Hebrew Vorlage from homoioarcton by sight confusion. MT read "and all the wild animals of the earth" but lost "of the earth" (along with "and over all the creatures that crawl") from homoioarcton. So now, let us send him out,[c] lest he reach out his hand and take also of the tree of life and eat, and live forever." 23Therefore YHWH[d] sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which he was taken. 24So he drove out the man; and he stationed the cherubim at the east of the garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every direction, to guard the way to the tree of life.

MT lacks "let us send him out" from an early homoioteleuton in a square script: תה-חה, with loss of אתו. A homoioarcton involving a nun-pey confusion in Paleo-Hebrew is also possible. Cf. Brug, TCOT, 13. The apparent missing words have been assumed to be an intended ellipse, but copyist oversight appears more likely. Cf. B. Fischer, Vetus Latina. [e]4:1 LXX OL(E) Bo(pap. Bodmer III) Bo(k) Hier Ms Chr, cf. 4:25. The Masoretic Hebrew text (MT) reads "from YHWH." One will notice in the footnotes an interchange of God and YHWH or God to YHWH in the manuscripts and quotations in early commentaries for Genesis. For example, at Genesis 15:6 the LXX and quotations in Romans 4:3, Galatians 3:6, and James 2:23 have God, while the MT has YHWH. Some sections of MT Genesis escaped the later scribal changes from God to YHWH, e.g., Genesis 31:5-48, 31:50-35:15, where it exclusively reads God, angel of God, and building an altar to God (35:1,3). Surely if Jacob and others knew the name YHWH they would have used it in those sections. There are also cases where YHWH was clearly added, since the shortest reading lacks the name, e.g., 2:19; 3:22; 9:26; 14:22; 15:2,8; 16:13; 19:13(2), 24(2); 21:1(2); 24:7,12,27(x2),42,48(2),52,56; 25:21; 27:7,20; 28:13(2); 32:9,23(2). In addition, in Genesis we have Mehai-el and Methusha-el (4:18), Mahalal-el (5:12), Abima-el (10:28), Beth-el (12:8), El Paran (14:6), El Elyon (14:19), Ishma-el (16:11), El Ro'i (16:13), El Shaddai (17:1), El Olam (21:33), Kemu-el (22:21), Bethu-el (22:22), Peni-el (32:30), El Elohe Isra-el (33:20), El Beth-el (35:7), Reu-el (36:4), Mehetab-el (36:39), Magdi-el (36:43), Jemu-el (46:10), Hamu-el (46:12), Jachle-el (46:14), Malki-el (46:17), and Jachze-el (46:24). Thus, we find -el rather than -yah, the only possible exception being the land of Moriah (22:2). So the question is, was the name YHWH known to people before Moses?

2 Again she gave birth, to Cain's brother Abel.[a] Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. 3 As time passed, it happened that Cain brought an offering to God[b] from the fruit of the ground. 4 And Abel also brought some of the firstborn of his flock and of its fat. God[c] looked favorably on Abel and his offering, 5 but he did not look favorably on Cain and his offering. Cain was very angry, and the expression on his face fell. 6 God[d] said to Cain, "Why are you angry? Why has the expression of your face fallen? 7 If you do well, will it not be lifted up?
If you do not do well, sin lies in wait at the door. It desires to control you, but you must rule over it." 8 Cain said to Abel, his brother, "Let's go into the field.[e]" It happened when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel, his brother, and killed him.

9 Then God[f] said to Cain, "Where is Abel, your brother?" He said, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?"

10 God[g] said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries out to me from the ground. 11 Now you are cursed because of the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.
12 From now on, when you till the ground, it won't yield its strength to you. You shall be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth."

13 Cain said to God,[h] "My punishment is greater than I can bear. 14 Look, you have driven me out this day from the surface of the ground. I will be hidden from your face, and I will be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth. It will happen that whoever finds me will kill me."

15 YHWH said to him, "Not so.[i] Whoever kills Cain vengeance will be taken on him sevenfold." YHWH[j] appointed a sign for Cain, [h]8:4 The mountains of Ararat were a region known during Moses’ time, i.e. in the Middle Bronze Age, and may therefore not be the same geographical area as the Iron Age kingdom of Urartu and or the Ararat mentioned in 2 Kings 19:37, Isaiah 37:38 or Jeremiah 51:27. The petrified remains of Noah’s ship can still be seen on Takhte Soleyman in the Alborz mountain range.

waters receded continually to the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains became visible.

6It happened at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ship which he had made, 7and he sent forth a raven. It went back and forth, until the waters had dried up from the earth. 8Then he sent forth a dove from it, to see if the waters had abated from the surface of the ground, 9but the dove found no place to rest her foot, and she returned to him into the ship; for the waters were on the surface of the whole earth. He put forth his hand, and took her, and brought her to him into the ship. 10And he waited[a] yet another seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ship. 11The dove came back to him at evening, and, look, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off. So Noah knew that the waters had abated from the earth. 12He stayed yet another seven days, and sent forth the dove; and she did not return to him any more.

15God spoke to Noah, saying, 16"Go out of the ship, you, and your wife, and your sons, and your sons' wives with you. 17Bring[c] out with you every living thing that is with you of all flesh, of flying creatures, and animals, and every creature that crawls on the earth, that they may swarm on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth."

18And Noah went forth, with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives with him. 19And[d] every wild animal, and every tame animal,[e] and every flying creature, and every crawling creature[f] that crawls on the earth, after their families, went out of the ship.

20Noah built an altar to God,[g] and took of every clean animal, and of every clean flying creature, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. 21And God[h] smelled the pleasing 18The sons of Noah who came out from the ship were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Ham is the father of Canaan. 19These were the three sons of Noah, and from them the whole earth was populated.

20Noah, a farmer, was the first to plant a vineyard. 21He drank of the wine and got drunk. He was uncovered within his tent. 22And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father naked and told his two brothers outside. 23Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it on both their shoulders, went in backwards, and covered the nakedness of their father. Their faces were turned the other way, and they did not see their father's nakedness. 24Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his youngest son had done to him. 25He said, "Canaan is cursed. He will be servant of servants to his brothers." 26He said, "Blessed be[b] the God of Shem. Let Canaan be his servant. 27May God enlarge Japheth. Let him dwell in the tents of Shem. Let Canaan be his servant."

28Noah lived three hundred fifty years after the flood. 29All the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years, then he died.

10 Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah and of Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Sons were born to them after the flood.

[6]The sons of Ham: Cush, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan. [7]The sons of Cush: Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan. [8]Cush became the father of Nimrod. He began to be a mighty one on the earth. [9]He was a mighty hunter before God.[a] Therefore it is said, "Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before God.[b]" [10]And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Akkad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.[c] [11]Out of that land he went forth into Assyria, and built Nineveh, and Rehoboth Ir, and Calah, [12]and Resen, between Nineveh and the great city of Calah. [13]And Mizraim became the father of Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, [14]And Pathrusim, and Casluhim, which the Philistines descended from, and Caphtorim.

[15]And Canaan became the father of Sidon, his firstborn, and Heth, [16]and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, and the Girgashites, [17]and the Hivites, and the Arkites, and the Sinites, [18]and the Arvadites, and the Zemarites, and the Hamathites. Afterward the families of the Canaanites were spread abroad. [26]And Joktan became the father of Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, [27]and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah, [28]and Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba, [29]and Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab. families, after their languages, in their lands, after their nations.

11 The whole earth was of one language and of one speech.[a] 2It happened, as they traveled from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they settled there. 3And they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly." They had brick for stone, and they used tar for mortar. 4They said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top reaches to the sky, and let us make ourselves a name, lest we be scattered abroad on the surface of the whole earth."

5And God[b] came down to see the city and the tower, that humankind was building. 6And God[c] said, "Look, they are one people, and they all have one language, and this is what they begin to do. So now nothing which they plan to do will be too difficult for them. 7Come, let us go down, and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech." 8So God[d] scattered them abroad from there on the surface of all the earth. They stopped building the city.[e] 9Therefore its name was called Babel, because there God[f] confused the language of all the earth. From there he[g] scattered them abroad on the surface of all the earth.[h] father of Nahor, and fathered sons and daughters.[a] [24]Nahor lived seventy-nine[b] years, and became the father of Terah. [25]Nahor lived one hundred and twenty-nine[c] years after he became the father of Terah, and fathered sons and daughters.[d] [26]Terah lived seventy years, and became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

[27]Now these are the generations of Terah. Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran. And Haran became the father of Lot. [28]And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur Kasdim. [29]And Abram and Nahor took wives. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran who was also the father of Iscah. [30]And Sarai was barren. She had no child.[e] [31]And Terah took Abram his son, Lot the son of Haran, his grandson, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife, and with them he[f] set out from Ur Kasdim to go into the land of Canaan. But when they came to Haran, they settled there. [32]And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years. And Terah died in Haran.

12 Now God[g] had[h] said to Abram, "Go out from your country, and from your relatives, and from your father's house, to the land that I will show you.[i] [2]And I will make of you a great nation. that time the Canaanites were in the land.

7Then God[a] appeared to Abram and said to him,[b] "I will give this land to your offspring.[c]" He[d] built an altar there to God,[e] who appeared to him. 8He left from there to the mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, having Bethel on the west, and Ai on the east. There he built an altar[f] and called on the name of God.[g] 9And Abram traveled on, continuing toward the Negev.

10There was a famine in the land, so Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there, because the famine was severe in the land. 11It happened, when he had come near to enter Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, "Look, I know what a beautiful woman you are. 12It will happen, when the Egyptians will see you, that they will say, 'This is his wife.' 13One who had escaped came and told Abram, the Hebrew. Now he lived by the oaks of Mamre, the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner; and these were allies of Abram. 14When Abram heard that his relative was taken captive, he mobilized[b] his trained men, born in his house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued as far as Dan.[c] 15He divided his forces against them at night, he and his servants, and attacked them, and pursued them to Hobah, which is north of Damascus. 16He brought back all the possessions, and also brought back his relative, Lot, and his possessions, as well as the women and the other people.

17The king of Sodom went out to meet him, after his return from the defeat of Kedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, at the valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley). 18Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; now he was priest of God Most High. 19He blessed him,[d] and said, "Blessed be Abram by God

15 After these things the word of YHWH[c] came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your shield; your reward will be very great."

12When the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell on Abram. And look, a terror of great darkness fell on him. 13And he said to Abram, "Know for certain that your descendants will live as foreigners in a land that is not theirs; and they will be servants there. And they will oppress them four hundred years. 14But I will also judge that nation whom they will serve. And afterward they will come out[a] with many possessions. 15But you will go to your fathers in peace. You will be buried in a good old age. 16In the fourth generation they will come here again, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete." 17It came to pass that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, look, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces.

Please go in to my servant. It may be that I will obtain children by her." Abram listened to the voice of Sarai. 3So Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar the Egyptian, her servant, after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to Abram her husband to be his wife. 4He slept with Hagar, and she conceived. When she saw that she had conceived, she looked on her mistress with contempt. 5Sarai said to Abram, "This wrong is your fault. I gave my servant to your embrace, and when she saw that she had conceived, she despised me. God[f] judge between me and you."

6But Abram said to Sarai, "Look, your maid is in your hand. Do to her whatever is good in your sight." Sarai dealt harshly with her, so she fled from her presence. 7And 15But Sarah denied it, saying, “I did not laugh,” for she was afraid. He said, “No, but you did laugh.”

16The men rose up from there, and looked toward Sodom. Abraham went with them to see them on their way. 17And God[d] said, “Will I hide from Abraham what I am about to do, 18seeing that Abraham will surely become a great and mighty nation,[e] and all the nations of the earth will be blessed through him? 19For I have made myself known to him, so that he may command his children and his household after him, that they may keep the way of YHWH, to do righteousness and justice, so that God[f] may bring to Abraham that which he has spoken to him.” 20And YHWH said, “Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is so grievous, 21I will go down now, and see whether they have done entirely according to the outcry which has come to me. And if not, I will know.”

22The men turned from there, and went toward Sodom, but Abraham remained standing before YHWH.[g] 23Abraham drew near, and said, “Will you sweep away the righteous with the wicked? 24What if there are fifty righteous within the city? Will you sweep it away and not spare the place for the fifty righteous who are in it? 25Be it far from you to do things like that, to kill the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be like the wicked. May that be far from you. Shouldn’t the Judge of all the earth do right?”

26YHWH said, “If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sake.” 27Abraham answered, “Look, I have taken it on myself to speak to the Lord, I who am but dust and ashes. 28What if there will lack five of the fifty righteous? Will you destroy all the city for lack of five?” He said, “I will not destroy it, if I find forty-five there.”

12The men said to Lot, "Do you have anybody else here? Sons-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and whoever you have in the city, bring them out of the place: 13for we will destroy this place, because the outcry against them has grown great before God[a] that he[b] has sent us to destroy it."

14Lot went out, and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were pledged to marry his daughters, and said, "Get up. Get out of this place, for God[c] will destroy the city." But he seemed to his sons-in-law to be joking.

[29]It happened, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the middle of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot lived.

[30]Lot went up out of Zoar, and lived in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he was afraid to live in Zoar. He lived in a cave with his two daughters. [31]The firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is not a man in the land to sleep with us according to the custom of all the land. [32]Come, let's make our father drink wine, and we will sleep with him, that we may preserve our family through our father." [33]They made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and slept with her father. He did not know when she lay down, nor when she arose. [34]It came to pass on the next day, that the firstborn said to the younger, "Look, I slept last night with my father. Let us make him drink wine again, tonight. You go in, and lie with him, that we may preserve our father's family." [35]They made their father drink wine that night also. The younger went and slept with him. He did not know when she lay down, nor when she got up. [36]Thus both of Lot's daughters became pregnant by their father. [37]The firstborn bore a son, and named him Moab.[b] He is the father of the Moabites to this day. [38]The younger also bore a son, and called his name Ben Ammi. He is the father of the people of Ammon to this day.

20 Abraham traveled from there toward the land of the Negev, and lived between Kadesh and Shur. He lived as a foreigner in Gerar. [2]Abraham said about Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah. [3]But God came to Abimelech in a dream of the night, and said to him, "Look, you are a dead man, because of the woman whom you have taken. For she is a man's wife."

[4]Now Abimelech had not come near her. He said, "Lord, will you kill even a righteous nation? [5]Did not he tell me, 'She is my sister?' She, even she herself, said, 'He is my brother.' In the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands have I done this."

6God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I also withheld you from sinning against me. Therefore I did not allow you to touch her. 7Now therefore, restore the man's wife. For he is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you will live. If you do not restore her, know for sure that you will die, you, and all who are yours."

8Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ear. The men[a] were very scared. 9Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him, "What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done." 10Abimelech said to Abraham, "What were you thinking, to do this thing?"

11Abraham said, "Because I thought, 'Surely the fear of God is not in this place, so they will kill me because of my wife.' 12Besides, she is indeed my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife. 13It happened, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said to her, 'This is your kindness which you shall show to me. Everywhere that we go, say of me, "He is my brother."'"

14Abimelech took[b] sheep and cattle, male servants and female servants, and gave them to Abraham, and restored Sarah, his wife, to him. 15Abimelech said, "Look, my land is before you. Dwell where it pleases you." 16To Sarah he said, "Look, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver. Look, it is to cover the offense against you before all who are with you. In front of all you are vindicated."

17Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his female servants, and they bore children. 18For God[c] had made every woman infertile in the household of Abimelech, because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

21 Now God[d] visited Sarah as he had said, and[e] did to Sarah as he had spoken. 2Sarah conceived, and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. 3Abraham called his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac.[a] 4Abraham circumcised his son, Isaac, when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. 5Abraham was one hundred years old when his son, Isaac, was born to him. 6Sarah said, "God has made me laugh. Everyone who hears will laugh with me." 7She said, "Who would have said to Abraham, that Sarah would nurse children? For I have borne him a son in his old age."

8The child grew, and was weaned. Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. 9Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking.[b] 10Therefore she said to Abraham, "Cast out this slave woman and her son. For the son of this slave woman will not be heir with my son, Isaac."[c] 11The thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight on account of his son. 12God said to Abraham, "Do not let it be grievous in your sight because of the boy, and because of your slave woman. In all that Sarah says to you, listen to her voice. For from Isaac will your descendants be called.[d] 13And I will also make a great[e] nation of the son of the slave woman, because he is your offspring." 14Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took food and a skin of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder; and gave her the child, and sent her away. She departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba. 15The water in the skin was gone, and she shoved the boy under one of the shrubs. 16She went and sat down opposite him, a good way off, about a bow shot away. For she said, "Do not let me see the death of the boy." So she sat across him, and he wept loudly.[f] 17And God heard the voice of the boy, and the angel of God called to Hagar from the sky and said to her, "What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid. For God has heard the voice of the boy where he is. 18Get up, lift up the boy, and hold him by your hand. For I will make him a great nation."

19God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. She went and filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink. 20God was with the boy, and he grew. He lived in the wilderness, and became, as he grew up, an archer. 21He lived in the wilderness of Paran. His mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

[22]It happened at that time, that Abimelech and Phicol the commander of his army spoke to Abraham, saying, "God is with you in all that you do. [23]Now, therefore, swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son. But according to the kindness that I have done to you, you shall do to me, and to the land in which you have lived as a foreigner."

[24]And Abraham said, "I swear." [25]Abraham complained to Abimelech because of a water well, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away. [26]Abimelech said, "I do not know who has done this thing. Neither did you tell me, neither did I hear of it, until today."

[27]Abraham took sheep and cattle, and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made a covenant. [28]Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. [29]Abimelech said to Abraham, "What do these seven ewe lambs which you have set by themselves mean?"

[30]He[a] said, "You shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand, that it may be a witness to me, that I have dug this well." [31]Therefore he called that place Beersheba,[b] because they both planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and called there on the God. [34]Abraham lived as a

They both went together. 7Isaac spoke to Abraham his father, and said, "My father?" He said, "Here I am, my son." He said, "Here is the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?"

8Abraham said, "God will provide[b] himself the lamb[c] for a burnt offering, my son." So they both went together. 9They came to the place which God had told him of. Abraham built the altar there and arranged the wood, and bound his son Isaac and placed him on the altar, on top of the wood. 10Abraham reached out his hand, and took the knife to kill his son.

11But an angel of God[d] called to him out of the sky, and said, "Abraham, Abraham." And he said, "Here I am."

12He said, "Do not lay your hand on the boy, neither do anything to him. For now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only one, from me."

13And Abraham looked up and saw behind him[e] a ram caught in the thicket by his horns. And Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up as a burnt offering instead of his son. 14Abraham called the name of that place Elohim[f] Yireh.[g] As it is said to this day, "On the mountain, God[h] will provide."

15The angel of God[i] called to Abraham a second time out of the sky, 16and said, "I have sworn by myself," says YHWH, "because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only one, from me,[j] 17I will indeed bless you, and I will greatly multiply your offspring[k] like the stars of the sky, and like the sand which is on the seashore; and your offspring will possess the gate of their enemies. 18And through your offspring all the nations of the earth will be blessed,[l] because you have obeyed my voice."

went together to Beersheba. Abraham lived at Beersheba.

[20]It happened after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, "Look, Milcah also has borne children to your brother Nahor: [21]Uz his firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram, [22]Kesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel." [23]Bethuel became the father of Rebekah. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother. [24]His secondary wife, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maacah.

23 Sarah lived one hundred twenty-seven years. This was the length of Sarah's life. [2]Sarah died in Kiriath Arba[a] (that is, Hebron), in the land of Canaan. Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her. [3]Abraham rose up from before his dead, and spoke to the sons of Heth, saying, [4]"I am a stranger and a foreigner living with you. Give me a possession of a burying-place with you, that I may remove my dead for burial."

[5]The sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him, [6]"Hear us, my lord. You are a prince of God among us. Bury your dead in the best of our tombs. None of us will withhold from you his tomb to prevent you from burying your dead."

[7]Abraham rose up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, to the sons of Heth. [8]He talked with them, saying, "If you agree that I may remove my dead for burial, hear me, and approach Ephron the son of Zohar[b] for me, [9]that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he owns; it is at the end of his field. For the full price let him give it to me in your presence as a burial place."

[10]Now Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth. Ephron the Hethite answered Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Heth, even of all who went in at the gate of his city, saying, [11]"No, my lord, hear me. I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it. In the presence of the sons of my people I give it to you. Bury your dead."

[12]Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land. [13]He spoke to Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, "But if you will, please hear me. I will give the price of the field. Take it from me, and I will bury my dead there."

[14]Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him, [15]"My lord, listen to me. What is a piece of land worth four hundred shekels of silver between me and you? Therefore bury your dead."

16 Abraham listened to Ephron. Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver which he had named in the audience of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, according to the current merchants' standard.

17 So the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all of its borders, were deeded 18 to Abraham as a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city. 19 After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre (that is, Hebron), in the land of Canaan. 20 The field, and the cave that is in it, were deeded to Abraham as a possession for a burial place by the sons of Heth.

24 Now Abraham was old, and well advanced in years. YHWH had blessed Abraham in all things. 2 Abraham said to his servant, the elder of his house, who ruled over all that he had, "Please put your hand under my thigh. 3 I will make you swear by the[a] God of heaven and[b] earth, that you shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I live. 4 But you shall go to my country, and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son Isaac."

5 The servant said to him, "What if the woman isn't willing to follow me to this land? Must I then bring your son back to the land from which you came?" 6 Abraham said to him, "Be careful that you do not take my son back there. 7 Now the[c] God of heaven, who took me from my father's house, and from the land of my birth, who spoke to me, and who swore to me, saying, 'I will give this land to your offspring'[d] -- he will send his angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there. 8 If the woman isn't willing to follow you, then you shall be free from this oath to me. Only you shall not bring my son there again."

his master's with him. He arose, and went to Aram Naharaim, to the city of Nahor. 11He made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water at the time of evening, the time that women go out to draw water. 12He said,[a] "God of my master Abraham, please give me success this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham. 13Look, I am standing by the spring of water. The daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water. 14Let it happen, that the young woman to whom I will say, 'Please let down your pitcher, that I may drink,' and she will say, 'Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink,'—let her be the one you have appointed for your servant Isaac. By this I will know that you have shown kindness to my master."

15It happened, before he had finished speaking,[b] that look, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel the son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher on her shoulder. 16The young woman was very beautiful to look at, a virgin; no man had ever slept with her. She went down to the spring, filled her pitcher, and came up. 17The servant ran to meet her, and said, "Please give me a drink, a little water from your pitcher."

18She said, "Drink, my lord." She hurried, and let down her pitcher to her hands, and gave him a drink. 19When she had finished giving him drink, she said, "I will also draw for your camels, until they have finished drinking." 20She hurried, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again to the well to draw, and drew for all his camels.

21The man looked steadfastly at her, remaining silent, to know whether God[c] had made his journey prosperous or not. 22It happened, as the camels had finished drinking, that the man took a gold ring weighing a beka,[d] which he put on her nose,[e] and two bracelets for her hands[f] weighing ten [shekels][g] of gold, 23and said, "Whose daughter are you? 61 Rebekah arose with her female servants. They rode on the camels, and followed the man. The servant took Rebekah, and went his way. 62 Isaac came from the way of Beer Lahai Roi, for he lived in the land of the Negev. 63 Isaac went out to walk in the field at the evening. He lifted up his eyes, and saw, and, look, there were camels coming. 64 Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she dismounted from the camel. 65 She said to the servant, “Who is the man who is walking in the field to meet us?” The servant said, “It is my master.” She took her veil, and covered herself. 66 The servant told Isaac all the things that he had done. 67 Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah’s tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife. He loved her. Isaac was comforted after his mother’s death.

25 Abraham took another wife, and her name was Keturah. 2 She bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. 3 Jokshan became the father of Sheba, and Dedan. The sons of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim. 4 The sons of Midian: Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah. 5 And Abraham gave all that he owned to his son[a] Isaac, 6 and to the sons of Abraham’s secondary wives, Abraham gave gifts. He sent them away from Isaac his son, while he was still living, eastward, to the east country. 7 This was the length of Abraham’s life: one hundred seventy-five years. 8 Abraham breathed his last, and died in a good old age, an old man and satisfied,[b] and was gathered to his people. 9 Isaac and Ishmael, his sons, buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron, the son of Zohar the Hethite, which is near Mamre, 10 the field which Abraham purchased from the sons of Heth. Abraham was buried there with Sarah, his wife. 11 It happened after the death of Abraham that God blessed Isaac, his son. Isaac lived by Beer Lahai Roi.

12 Now these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham’s son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah’s servant, bore to Abraham. 13 These are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to the order of their birth: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth, then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, 14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa, 15 Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. 16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their villages, and by their encampments: twelve princes, according to their clans. 17These are the years of the life of Ishmael: one hundred thirty-seven years. He breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people. 18They lived from Havilah to Shur, which is near Egypt, all the way to Asshur. He settled near all his kinsmen.

19This is the history of the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son. Abraham became the father of Isaac. 20Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramean of Paddan Aram, the sister of Laban the Aramean, to be his wife.
21Isaac prayed[a] for his wife, because she was barren. And God[b] was moved by his prayer, and Rebekah his wife conceived. 22The children struggled together within her. She said, "If all is well, why am I like this?" She went to inquire of God.[c] 23And he[d] said to her,
"Two nations are in your womb.
Two peoples will be separated from your body. The one people will be stronger than the other people. The elder will serve the younger."[e] 24When the time came for her to give birth, look, there were twins in her womb. 25The first came out red all over, like a hairy garment.

They named him Esau.[f] 26After that, his brother came out, and his hand had hold on Esau's heel. He was named Jacob.[g] Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them.

27The boys grew. Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field.
Jacob was a quiet man, living in tents. 28And Isaac loved Esau, because he had a taste for wild animals, but Rebekah loved Jacob.
29Now Jacob was cooking stew, and Esau came in from the field, and he was famished. 30Esau said to Jacob, "Please feed me with that same red stew, for I am famished." Therefore his name was called Edom.

31Jacob said, "First, sell me your birthright."

32Esau said, "Look, I am about to die. What good is the birthright to me?"

33Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore to him, and he sold his birthright to Jacob. 34Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils.
He ate and drank, rose up, and went his way. So Esau despised his birthright.

26 There was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines, to Gerar. 2And God[a] appeared to him, and said, "Do not go down into Egypt. Live in the land I will tell you about. 3Sojourn in this land, and I will be with you, and will bless you. For to you, and to your descendants, I will give all these lands, and I will establish the oath which I swore to Abraham your father. 4I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the sky, and will give to your descendants all these lands, and by your descendants will all the nations of the earth be blessed, 5because Abraham[b] obeyed my voice, and kept my requirements, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws."

6So Isaac settled in Gerar. 7The men of the place asked him about his wife. He said, "She is my sister," for he was afraid to say,[c] "My wife," lest, he thought, "the men of the place might kill me for Rebekah, because she is beautiful to look at." 8It happened, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and look, Isaac was caressing Rebekah, his wife. 9Abimelech called Isaac, and said, "Look, surely she is your wife. Why did you say, 'She is my sister?'" Isaac said to him, "Because I thought, 'Lest I die because of her.'"

10Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have slept with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us."

11Abimelech commanded all the people, saying, "He who touches this man or his wife will surely be put to death."

12Isaac sowed in that land, and reaped in the same year one hundred times what he planted. And God[d] blessed him. 13The man became wealthy, and prospered more and more until he became very wealthy. 14He had possessions of flocks, possessions of herds, and a great household. The Philistines envied him. 15Now all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped, and filled with earth. 16Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go from us, for you are much mightier than we."

17Isaac departed from there, camped in the valley of Gerar, and lived there.

18Isaac dug again the wells which the servants[e] of his father Abraham had dug. For the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham. And he called their names after the names by which his father had called them. 19Isaac's servants dug in the valley, and found there a well of flowing water. 20The herdsmen of Gerar argued with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, "The water is ours." He called the name of the well Esek, because they contended with him. 21They dug another well, and they argued over that, also. He called its name Sitnah. 22He left that place, and dug another well. They did not argue over that one. He called it Rehoboth. He said, "For now God[a] has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land."

23He went up from there to Beersheba. 24And God[b] appeared to him the same night, and said, "I am the God of Abraham your father. Do not be afraid, for I am with you, and will bless you, and multiply your descendants for my servant Abraham's sake."

26Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath his friend, and Phicol the commander of his army. 27Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me, and have sent me away from you?"

28They said, "We saw plainly that God[c] was with you. We said, 'Let there now be an oath between us, even between us and you,[d] and let us make a covenant with you, 29that you will do us no harm, as we have not touched you, and as we have done to you nothing but good, and have sent you away in peace.' You are now the blessed of God.[e]" 30He made them a feast, and they ate and drank. 31They rose up some time in the morning, and swore an oath to each other. Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace. 32It happened the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had dug, and said to him, "We have found water." 33He called it Shibah.[f] Therefore the name of the city is Beersheba[g] to this day.

27 It happened, that when Isaac was old, and his eyesight was failing so that he could not see, he called Esau his elder son, and said to him, "My son?" He said to him, "Here I am."

2He said, "Look, I am old now. I do not know the day of my death. 3Now therefore, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and hunt down a wild animal for me. 4Make me the tasty food that I love and bring it to me to eat, so that I may bless you before I die."

5Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. And Esau went out to the field to hunt for a wild animal and bring it back to his father.[a] 6And Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, "Look, I heard your father speak to Esau your brother, saying, 7'Bring me a wild animal and prepare for me some tasty food, that I may eat it and bless you in my presence[b] before my death.' 8Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command you. 9Go now to the flock, and get me from there two choice young goats. I will prepare them in a tasty way for your father, the way he likes it. 10You shall bring it to your father, that he may eat, so that he may bless you before his death."

11Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, "Look, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man. 12What if my father touches me? I will seem to him as a deceiver, and I would bring a curse on myself, and not a blessing."

13His mother said to him, "Let your curse be on me, my son. Only obey my voice, and go get them for me."

14He went, and got them, and brought them to his mother. His mother prepared some tasty food, just the way his father liked it. 15Rebekah took the good clothes of Esau, her elder son, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob, her younger son. 16She put the skins of the young goats on his hands, and on the smooth of his neck. 17She handed the tasty food and the bread which she had prepared to her son Jacob.

18He came to his father, and said, "My father?" He said, "Here I am. Who are you, my son?"

19Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn. I have done what you asked me to do. Please sit up and eat what I hunted so that you can bless me."

[21]Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come near, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not."

[22]Jacob went near to Isaac his father. He felt him, and said, "The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau." [23]He did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like those of his brother Esau. So he blessed him. [24]He said, "Are you really my son Esau?" He said, "I am."

[25]He said, "Bring it near to me, and I will eat of what my son hunted so that I can bless you." He brought it near to him, and he ate. He brought him wine, and he drank. [26]His father Isaac said to him, "Come near now, and kiss me, my son." [27]He came near, and kissed him. He smelled the scent of his clothing, and blessed him, and said, "Look, the scent of my son is as the scent of a[b] field which God[c] has blessed.
[28]God[d] give you of the dew of the sky, of the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and new wine.
[29]Let peoples serve you, and nations bow down to you.
Be lord over your brothers.
Let your mother's sons bow down to you.
Cursed be everyone who curses you.
Blessed be everyone who blesses you."

[30]It happened, as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had just left the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. [31]He also made some tasty food, and brought it to his father. He said to his father, "Let my father get up and eat of what his son caught, so that you may bless me."

[32]Isaac his father said to him, "Who are you?" He said, "I am your son, your firstborn, Esau."

[33]Isaac trembled violently, and said, "Who was it then that hunted an animal and brought it to me, and I ate it all before you came, and have blessed him? Yes, he will be blessed."

[34]When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried out loudly and bitterly, and said to his father, "Bless me, even me also, my father."

35He said, “Your brother came with deceit, and has taken away your blessing.”

36He said, “Isn’t he rightly named Jacob? For he has taken what should have been mine these two times. He took away my birthright. Look, now he has taken away my blessing.” He said, “Haven’t you reserved a blessing for me?”

37Isaac answered Esau, “Look, I have made him your lord, and I have made all of his brothers his servants. And I have sustained him with grain and new wine. What then can I do for you, my son?”

38Esau said to his father, “Have you but one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, my father.”[a] Esau lifted up his voice, and wept.

39Isaac his father answered him, “Look, of the fatness of the earth will be your dwelling, and of the dew of the sky from above.
40By your sword will you live, and you will serve your brother.
It will happen, when you will break loose, that you shall shake his yoke from off your neck.”

41Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him. Esau said in his heart, “The days of mourning for my father are at hand. Then I will kill my brother Jacob.”

42The words of Esau, her elder son, were told to Rebekah.
She sent and called Jacob, her younger son, and said to him, “Look, your brother Esau comforts himself about you by planning to kill you. 43Now therefore, my son, obey my voice. Arise, flee to Laban, my brother, in Haran. 44Stay with him a few days, until your your brother’s anger against you 28 Isaac called Jacob, blessed him, and commanded him, “You must not take a wife from the Bethuel your mother’s father. Take a wife from there from the daughters of Laban, your mother’s 5Isaac sent Jacob away. He went to Paddan Aram to Laban, son of Bethuel the Aramean, Rebekah's brother, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

6Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan Aram, to take for himself a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a command, saying, "You must not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan," 7and that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and left for Paddan Aram. 8Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan did not please Isaac, his father. 9Esau went to Ishmael, and took, besides the wives that he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth, to be his wife.

10Jacob went out from Beersheba, and went toward Haran. 11He came to a certain place, and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. He took one of the stones of the place, and put it under his head, and lay down in that place to sleep. 12And he dreamed. And look, a stairway was set upon the earth, and its top reached to heaven. And look, the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. 13And God[b] stood above it, and said, "I am[c] the God of Abraham your grandfather, and the God of Isaac. The land on which you are lying I will give to you and to your descendants. 14Your descendants will be as the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south. And through you and through your descendants will all the families of the earth be blessed. 15And look, I am with you, and will watch over you wherever you go, and will bring you again into this land. For I will not leave you, until I have done that which I have spoken of to you."

16Then Jacob woke up from his sleep, and said, "Surely God[d] is in this place, and I did not know it." 17He was afraid, and said, "How awesome is this place. This is none other than God's house, and this is the gate of heaven."

18 And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put under his head, and set it up as a standing-stone, and poured oil on top of it. 19 He called the name of that place Bethel, though previously the city was named Luz.
20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, "If God will be with me, and will watch over me on this journey I am taking, and will give me food to eat, and clothing to put on, 21 so that I come again to my father's house in peace, and he[a] will be my God, 22 then this stone, which I have set up as a standing-stone, will be God's house. Of all that you will give me I will surely give the tenth to you."

29 Then Jacob went on his journey, and came to the land of the people of the east. 2 He looked and saw a well in the field, and look, three flocks of sheep lying there by it. For out of that well they watered the flocks. The stone on the well's mouth was large. 3 Now all the flocks would be gathered there, and they would roll the stone from the well's mouth, and water the sheep, and put the stone again on the well's mouth in its place.
4 Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where are you from?" They said, "We are from Haran." 5 He said to them, "Do you know Laban, the grandson[b] of Nahor?" They said, "We know him."

6 He said to them, "Is it well with him?" They said, "It is well.
See, Rachel, his daughter, is coming with the sheep."

7 He[c] said, "Look, it is still the middle of the day, not time to gather the livestock together. Water the sheep, and go, pasture them."

8 They said, "We can't, until all the flocks are gathered together, and they roll the stone from the well's mouth. Then we water the sheep."

9 While he was yet speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she was tending them. 10 It happened, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban, his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban, his mother's brother, that Jacob went over and rolled the stone from the well's mouth and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother. 11 Jacob kissed Rachel, and wept loudly. 12 Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's brother, and that he was Rebekah's son. She ran and told her father.

13 It happened, when Laban heard the news of Jacob, his sister's son, that he ran to meet Jacob, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. Jacob told Laban all these things. 14 Laban said to him, Surely you are my bone and my flesh. He lived with him for a month. 15Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my brother, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me what your wages should be?"

16Laban had two daughters. The name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. 17Leah looked rather plain,[a] but Rachel was beautiful in form and beautiful in appearance. 18Jacob loved Rachel. He said, "I will serve you seven years for Rachel, your younger daughter."

19Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you, than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me."

20Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and it seemed only a few days to him because of his love for her.

21Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, for my time is completed, so that I may sleep with her."

22Laban gathered together all the people of the place, and gave a feast. 23It happened in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter and brought her to him, and he slept with her. 24Laban gave Zilpah his female servant to his daughter Leah as a servant. 25It happened in the morning that, look, it was Leah. He[b] said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Did I not work for you to have Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?"
26Laban said, "It is not our custom here to give the younger before the firstborn. 27Fulfill the week of this one, and I[c] will give you the other also for the service which you will serve with me yet seven other years."

28Then Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week. He gave him Rachel his daughter as wife. 29Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah, his female servant, to be her servant. 30So he slept with Rachel also, and he loved Rachel more than Leah. And he worked with him another seven years.

31YHWH saw that Leah was unloved, so he made her fertile, but Rachel was barren. 32Leah conceived, and bore a son, and she named him Reuben.[d] For she said, "Because God[e] has looked at my affliction, and given me a son.[f] For 3She said, "Look, my servant Bilhah. Sleep with her, so that she 4So she gave him Bilhah her servant as a wife, and Jacob slept with her. 5Bilhah conceived, and 16 Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, "You must sleep with me; for I have surely hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he slept with her that night. 17 God listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son. 18 Leah said, "God has given me my wages, because I gave my servant to my husband." So she named him Issachar.[a] 19 Leah conceived again, and bore a sixth son to Jacob. 20 Leah said, "God has given me with a good gift. Now my husband will live with me, because I have borne him six sons." So she named him Zebulun.[b] 21 Afterwards, she bore a daughter, and named her Dinah.

22 Then God remembered Rachel, and he[c] listened to her and made her fertile. 23 She conceived and bore a son, and said, "God has taken away my shame." 24 So she named him Joseph,[d] saying, "May God[e] add another son to me."

25 It happened, when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, "Send me away, that I may go to my own place, and to my country. 26 Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know the service I have given you." 27 Laban said to him, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, stay here, for I have learned by divination that God[f] has blessed me for your sake." 28 He said, "Name your wages, and I will pay it."

29 He said to him, "You know how I have served you, and how well your livestock have done with me. 30 For you had little before I came, and it has increased abundantly. And God[g] has blessed you wherever I worked. Now when will I also provide for my own household?"

31 He said, "What should I give you?" Jacob said, "You do not need to give me anything. If you will do this one thing for me, I will again pasture your flock and take care of it. 32 I will pass through all your flock today, removing from there every speckled and spotted one, and every black one among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats. This will be my wages. 33 So my honesty will testify for me later on, when the subject of my wages comes before you. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and black among the sheep that I have in my possession, will be counted as stolen."

[34]Laban said, "Look, let it be as you have said."

[35]That day, he removed the male goats that were streaked and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white in it, and all the black ones among the sheep, and put them in the care of his sons. [36]He set three days' journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob pastured the rest of Laban's flocks.

[37]Jacob took fresh branches from poplar, almond and plane trees and made white streaks by peeling them, exposing white stripes on the branches. [38]He set up the peeled branches which he had peeled opposite the flocks in the troughs, that is, the watering places where the flocks came to drink. And since they bred when they came to drink, [39]the flocks bred in front of the branches, and the flocks brought bore streaked, speckled, and spotted.

[40]Jacob separated the lambs, and made the flocks face toward the streaked and all the black in the flock of Laban. So he kept his own flocks separate, and did not put them into Laban's flock. [41]It happened, whenever the stronger of the flock were breeding, that Jacob would set up the branches in front of the flock in the troughs, so that they would breed near the branches; [42]but for the weaker of the flock, he did not put them there. So the weaker would be Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's. [43]Thus the man became very rich, and had large flocks, female servants and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

31 He heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, "Jacob has taken away all that was our father's. From that which was our father's he has gained all this wealth." [2]Jacob saw the expression on Laban's face, and look, it was not as it had been. [3]Then God[a] said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers, and to your relatives, and I will be with you."

[4]Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field where his flock was, [5]and said to them, "I see the expression on your father's face, that it is not what it was before. But the God of my father has been with me. [6]You know that I have served your father with all of my strength. [7]Yet your father has cheated me and changed my wages ten times, but God did not allow him to hurt me. [8]If he said this, 'The speckled will be your wages,' then all the flock bore speckled. If he said this, 'The streaked will be your

9Thus God has taken away your father's livestock and given them to me. 10And it came about at the time when the flocks were breeding I looked up and saw in a dream, and look, the male goats which leaped on the flock were streaked, speckled, and spotted. 11The angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob,'[a] and I said, 'Here I am.' 12He said, 'Now lift up your eyes, and look, all the male goats which leap on the flock are streaked, speckled, and spotted, for I have seen all that Laban has done to you. 13I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a standing-stone, where you made a vow to me. Now arise, go out from this land and return to the land of your birth.'"

14Rachel and Leah answered him, "Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? 15Aren't we regarded by him as foreigners? For he has sold us, and he has used up what was paid for us. 16For all the wealth which God has taken away from our father, that is ours and our children's. Now then, whatever God has said to you, do."

20Jacob outwitted Laban the Aramean by not telling him that he intended to flee. 21So he fled with everything that he had, and he arose and crossed the River,[c] and set out toward the hill country of Gilead.

22Laban was told on the third day that Jacob had fled. 23He took his relatives with him, and pursued after him for seven days, and caught up with him in the hill country of Gilead. 24God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night, and said to him, "Be careful that you do not speak to Jacob either good or bad."

25Laban caught up with Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country, and Laban with his relatives camped in the hill country of Gilead. 26Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done? You have deceived me, and carried away my daughters like captives taken in war? [27]Why did you flee in secret and deceive me, and not tell me, so that I might have sent you away with joy and singing, with a tambourine and with a lyre. [28]And you did not allow me to kiss my sons and my daughters? Now you have done foolishly. [29]It is in my power to do you harm, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, 'Be careful that you do not speak to Jacob either good or bad.' [30]Now you have indeed gone away, because you longed greatly for your father's house. But why have you stolen my gods?"

[31]Jacob answered Laban, "Because I was afraid, for I thought that you would take your daughters from me by force. [32]Anyone you find your gods with shall not live. In the presence of our relatives, identify what I have that is yours, and take it with you." For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

[33]Laban went into Jacob's tent, into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two female servants; but he did not find them. He went out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent. [34]Now Rachel had taken the idols, put them in the camel's saddle, and sat on them. Laban searched the whole tent, but did not find them. [35]She said to her father, "Do not let my lord be angry that I can't get up for you; for I am having my period." He searched, but did not find the idols.

[36]Jacob was angry, and argued with Laban. Jacob answered Laban, "What is my trespass? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued after me? [37]Now that you have searched around in all my stuff, did you find anything from all of your household's belongings? Put it here before my relatives and your relatives, that they may judge between the two of us. [38]These twenty years I have been with you. Your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried their young, and I haven't eaten the rams of your flocks. [39]That which was torn by animals I did not bring to you. I bore its loss. You demanded payment from me whether stolen by day or stolen by night. [40]I was consumed by the heat during the day and by the frost at night, and sleepless nights. [41]These twenty years I have been in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times. [42]Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the one whom Isaac fears, had been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God has seen my harsh treatment and my hard work, and rebuked you last night."

[43]Laban answered Jacob, "The daughters are my daughters, the children are my children, the flocks are my flocks, and all that you see is mine. But what can I do this day to these my daughters, or to their children whom they have borne? [44]So now, come, let us make a covenant, you and I, and let it be a witness between the two of us." And he said to him, "Look, there is no one with us; see, God is witness between me and you."[a] 45Jacob took a stone and set it up as a standing-stone. 46Jacob said to his relatives, "Gather stones." So they took stones and made a mound. They ate there by the mound. 47Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha,[b] but Jacob called it Galeed.[c] 48Laban said, "This mound is a witness between me and you today." Therefore it was named Galeed 49and Mizpah, for he said, "God[d] watch between me and you, when we are absent from each other. 50If you mistreat my daughters, or if you take wives besides my daughters, although no one is with us; see, God is witness between me and you." 51Laban said to Jacob, "See this mound, and see the standing-stone, which I have set between me and you. 52May this mound be a witness, and the standing-stone be a witness, that I will not pass over this mound to you, and that you will not pass over this mound and this standing-stone to me, to do harm. 53The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor,[e] judge between us." Then Jacob swore by the fear of his father Isaac. 54Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain, and called his relatives to eat the meal. They ate the meal and stayed all night on the mountain. 55Early in the morning, Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them. Laban departed and returned to his place.

32 Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him. 2When he saw them, Jacob said, "This is God's camp." He called the name of that place Mahanaim.[f]

Isaac,[a] who said to me, 'Return to your country, and to your relatives, and I will do you good,' [10]I am not worthy of the least of all the loving kindnesses and of all the faithfulness which you have shown to your servant; for with just my staff I passed over this Jordan, and now I have become two camps. [11]Please deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear that he will come and attack me and the mothers with the children. [12]You said, 'I will surely do you good and make your descendants as the sand of the sea, which can't be counted because there are so many.'"

[13]So he spent the night there and selected from what he had aquired a present for his brother Esau: [14]two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, [15]thirty milk camels with their young, forty cows, ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys. [16]He entrusted them into the hands of his servants as separate herds, and said to his servants, "Pass over before me, and keep some distance between the herds." [17]He instructed the first, saying, "When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying, 'Whose are you? Where are you going? Whose are these ahead of you?' [18]Then you shall say, 'They are your servant, Jacob's. It is a present sent to my lord Esau. And look, he also is behind us.'" [19]He instructed also the second, and the third, and all that followed the herds, saying, "This is how you are to speak to Esau, when you find him. [20]You shall say, 'Not only that, but look, your servant Jacob is behind us.'" For, he said, "I will appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will meet him. Perhaps he will accept me."

[22]He got up that night and took his two wives, and his two female servants, and his eleven sons and crossed over the ford of the Jabbok. [23]He took them and sent them across the stream, and sent over all his possessions. [24]Then Jacob was left alone. And a man wrestled with him until the rising of the dawn. [25]When he saw that he did not defeat him, he struck the socket of his hip, and Jacob's hip was dislocated as he wrestled with him. [26]Then he said, "Let me go, for the dawn is breaking." But Jacob said, "I won't let you go unless you bless me."

[27]And he said to him, "What is your name?" He said, "Jacob." [28]Then he said, "Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel,[b] because you have struggled with God and with men and have prevailed."

29Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask what my name is?" And he blessed him there.

33 Now Jacob looked up and saw that Esau approaching, and with him four hundred men. He divided the children between Leah, Rachel, and the two female servants. 2He put the female servants and their children in front, Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph last. 3He himself went on ahead of them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he approached his brother.

4Esau ran to meet him, embraced him, hugged his neck, and kissed him. And they wept. 5And he looked up and saw the women and the children, and said, "Who are these with you?" He said, "The children whom God has graciously given your servant." 6Then the female servants came forward with their children, and they bowed themselves. 7Leah also and her children came forward, and bowed themselves. After them, Joseph came forward with Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

8Esau said, "What do you mean by all this company which I met?" Jacob said, "To find favor in the sight of my lord."

9Esau said, "I have enough, my brother; keep what you have for yourself."

10Jacob said, "No, please, if I have now found favor in our sight, then accept my present from my hand, because I have seen your face, which is like seeing the face of God, since you have accepted me. 11Please take the gift that I brought to you, because God has been gracious to me, and because I have enough." Thus he urged him, and he took it.

12Esau said, "Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go ahead of you."

13Jacob said to him, "My lord knows that the children are tender, and that the sheep and cattle with me have their young, and if they overdrive them one day, the whole herd will die. 14Please let my lord pass on ahead of his servant, and I will move along slowly, at the pace of the herds that are before me and at the pace of the children, until I come to my lord at Seir."

15 Esau said, "Let me now leave with you some of my people who are with me." But he said, "What need is there? Please indulge me, my lord."

16 So Esau returned that day on the road to Seir. 17 But Jacob traveled to Succoth, and he built himself a house, and made shelters for his livestock. Therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.[a] 18 After Jacob came from Paddan Aram, he arrived safely at the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, and camped near the city. 19 He purchased the parcel of land where he had pitched his tent, from the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, for a hundred kesitahs.[b] 20 He erected an altar there and called it El Elohe Israel.[c]

34 Dinah, the daughter whom Leah had borne to Jacob, went out to visit the women of the region. 2 When Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, the ruler of the land, saw her. He grabbed her, and raped her, and humiliated her. 3 Then he became very attached to Dinah, the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the young woman, and spoke kindly to the young woman. 4 Shechem spoke to his father, Hamor, saying, "Get me this young woman as my wife."

5 Now Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah, his daughter; and his sons were with his livestock in the field. Jacob remained silent until they came. 6 Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him. 7 The sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard it. The men were grieved, and they were very angry, because he had disgraced Israel by sexually assaulting Jacob's daughter; a thing that should not be done. 8 Hamor spoke with them, saying, "The heart of my son Shechem is set on your daughter. Please give her to him as a wife. 9 Arrange marriages with us. Give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves. 10 You may settle among us, and the land will be open to you. Live and trade in it, and aquire property in it."

11 Shechem said to her father and to her brothers, "Let me find favor in your sight, and whatever you ask of me I will give. 12 Ask me for a very expensive bride price, and I will pay whatever you ask of me, but give me the young woman as a wife."

13 The sons of Jacob replied deceitfully to Shechem and his father Hamor, because he had defiled their sister Dinah. 14 And they said to them, "We can't do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised; for that would be a disgrace to us. 15 Only on this condition will we agree with you; that you become like us by circumcising all your males; 16 then will we give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to ourselves, and we will live among you and become one people. 17 But if you will not listen to us and be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and go away."

18 Their words pleased Hamor and Shechem, Hamor's son. 19 The young man did not delay to do this thing, because he was delighted with Jacob's daughter. Now he was the most important of anyone in his father's house. 20 Hamor and his son Shechem came to the gate of their city, and spoke to the men of their city, saying, 21 "These men are at peace with us. Therefore let them live in the land and travel in it. For look, the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters as wives for ourselves, and let us give them our daughters. 22 Only on this condition will the men agree to live with us as one people: that every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised. 23 Won't their livestock and their possessions and all their animals be ours? Only let us agree with them, so they will settle among us."

24 All who went out of the gate of his city agreed with Hamor and his son Shechem; and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city. 25 It happened on the third day, when they were still in pain, that two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword and came into the unsuspecting city and killed all the males. 26 They killed Hamor and his son Shechem with their swords and took Dinah out of Shechem's house and left. 27 Jacob's sons entered over the dead and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister. 28 They took their flocks, their herds, their donkeys, and whatever was in the city and was in the field, 29 and all their wealth.
They took captive all their little ones and their wives, and took as plunder everything that was in the houses. 30 Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me, to make me odious to the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites. I am few in number. They will gather themselves together against me and attack me, and I and my household will be destroyed."

31 But they said, "Should he treat our sister like a prostitute?"

35 And God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel, and live there. Make an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau."

[2]Then Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, "Get rid of the foreign gods that you have among you, and purify yourselves and change your clothes. [3]Let us arise and go up to Bethel, and I will make an altar there to God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and has been with me wherever I went."

[4]So they gave to Jacob all the foreign gods which were in their possession, and the rings that were in their ears, and Jacob buried them under the oak that was near Shechem. [5]Then they set out, and a terror of God was upon the cities that were around them, so that they did not pursue the sons of Jacob. [6]So Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him. [7]He built an altar there, and called the place El Bethel, because there God had revealed himself to him when he was fleeing from his brother. [8]Now Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried under an oak outside Bethel. So he called its name Allon Bakuth.[a]

[9]And God appeared to Jacob again after he returned from Paddan Aram, and blessed him. [10]God said to him, "Your name is Jacob. Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but your name will be Israel." So he called his name Israel. [11]And God said to him, "I am El Shaddai.[b] Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations will come from you, and kings will come from your body. [12]The land which I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I will give it to you, and I will give the land to your descendants after you."

[13]Then God went up from him in the place where he spoke with him. [14]And Jacob set up a standing-stone in the place where he spoke with him, a pillar of stone. And he poured out a drink offering on it, and poured oil on it. [15]Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him Bethel.[c]

[16]Then they set out from Bethel. There was still some distance to come to Ephrath, and Rachel went into labor, and her labor was difficult. [17]When she was in the difficult labor, the midwife said to her, "Do not be afraid, for now you have another son."

[18]It happened, as her life was departing (for she died), that she named him Ben-Oni,[d] but his father named him Benjamin.[e] [19]So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).

20 Jacob set up a standing-stone on her grave. It is the standing-stone of Rachel's grave to this day. 21 And Israel traveled and pitched his tent beyond Migdal Eder.

22 It happened, while Israel lived in that land, that Reuben went and slept with Bilhah, his father's secondary wife, and Israel heard about it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve. 23 The sons of Leah: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun. 24 The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.
25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's servant: Dan and Naphtali. 26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's servant: Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Paddan Aram. 27 So Jacob came to Isaac his father at Mamre in Kiriath Arba (which is Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had sojourned.
28 Now the days of Isaac were one hundred eighty years. 29 And Isaac took his last breath and died, and was gathered to his people, old and full of days. And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

36 Now these are the generations of Esau (that is, Edom).
2 Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah the daughter of Elon, the Hethite; and Oholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon, the Hivite; 3 and Basemath,[a] Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebaioth. 4 Adah bore to Esau Eliphaz. Basemath bore Reuel. 5 Oholibamah bore Jeush,[b] and Jalam, and Korah. These are the sons of Esau, who were born to him in the land of Canaan. 6 Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, and all the people of his household, with his livestock, all his animals, and all of the property he had acquired in the land of Canaan, and went out from the land of Canaan[c] away from the presence of his brother Jacob. 7 For their possessions were too great for them to remain together, and the land in which they were traveling could not support them because of their livestock. 8 And Esau (also known as Edom) settled in the hill country of Seir.

9 These are the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in the hill country of Seir: 10 these are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, the son of Adah, the wife of Esau; and Reuel, the son of Basemath, the wife of Esau. 11 The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz. 12 Timna was the secondary wife to Eliphaz, Esau's son; and she bore to Eliphaz Amalek. These are the sons of Adah, Esau's wife. 13 These are the sons of Reuel: Nahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife. 14These were the sons of Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife: she bore to Esau Jeush, and Jalam, and Korah.

20These are the sons of Seir the Horite, the inhabitants of the land: Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, 21and Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan. These are the chiefs of the Horites, the sons of Seir in the land of Edom. 22The sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam. Lotan's sister was Timna. 23These are the sons of Shobal: Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shepho, and Onam. 24These are the sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah. This is the Anah who found the hot springs in the desert as he pastured the donkeys of his father Zibeon. 25These are the sons of Anah: Dishon, and Oholibamah the daughter of Anah. 26These are the sons of Dishon: Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Keran. 27These are the sons of Ezer: Bilhan, and Zaavan, and Akan. 28These are the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran. 29These are the chiefs of the Horites: chief Lotan, chief Shobal, chief Zibeon, chief Anah, 30chief Dishon, chief Ezer, and chief Dishan: these are the chiefs of the Horites, according to their chiefs in the land of Seir.

31These are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom, before any king reigned over the children of Israel. 32Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom. The name of his city was Dinhabah. 33When Bela died, and Jobab, the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place. 34And Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place. 35And Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad who struck Midian in the field of Moab reigned in his place. The name of his city was Avith. 36And Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place. 37And Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth-on-the-River reigned in his place. 38And Shaul died, and Baal Hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place. 39And Baal Hanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadad[a] reigned in his place. The name of his city was Pau. His wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-Zahab.

37 Jacob lived in the land where his father had sojourned, in the land of Canaan. 2These are the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, tended the flock with his brothers; he was an assistant to the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives. And Joseph brought a bad report about them to their father. 3Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he had been born to him in his old age. And he made a long ornamented robe[b] for him. 4His brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, and they hated him, and couldn't speak a kind word to him.

5Now Joseph had a dream, and he told it to his brothers, and they hated him all the more. 6He said to them, "Please listen to this dream I had: 7And look, we were binding sheaves in the field, and look, my sheaf arose and also stood upright. And look, your sheaves gathered around it and bowed down to my sheaf."

8Then his brothers said to him, "Will you indeed reign over us? Or will you indeed rule over us?" So they hated him all the more for his dreams and for what he said. 9And he had another dream, and told it to his father and[c] to his brothers, and said, "Look, I had yet another dream, and look, the sun and the moon and eleven stars bowed down to me." 10When he told it to his father and to his brothers, his father rebuked him, and said to him, "What is this dream that you had? Will I and your mother and your brothers indeed come and bow down to the ground in front of you?" 11His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept thinking about the matter.

12Now his brothers went to pasture their father's flock near Shechem. 13And Israel said to Joseph, "Aren't your brothers pasturing the flock near Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them." And he said to him, "I am ready."

[14]So he said to him, "Go now, see whether it is well with your brothers and well with the flock, and report back to me." So he sent him from the Valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem. [15]And a man found him, and look, he was wandering in the field. And the man asked him, "What are you looking for?"

[16]He said, "I am looking for my brothers. Tell me, please, where they are pasturing the flock."

[17]The man said, "They have left here, for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'" So Joseph went after his brothers, and found them in Dothan. [18]Now they saw him in the distance, and before he reached them they plotted against him to kill him. [19]And they said to one another, "Look, this dreamer is coming. [20]Come now, and let's kill him and throw him into one of the cisterns, and we will say that a vicious animal has devoured him. Then we will see what will become of his dreams."

[21]But Reuben heard it, and delivered him out of their hands, and said, "Let's not take his life." [22]Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood. Throw him into this pit that is in the wilderness, but lay no hand on him"—that he might deliver him out of their hands, to restore him to his father. [23]It happened, when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped Joseph of his robe, the long ornamented robe that he was wearing. [24]And they took him and threw him into the cistern. (Now the pit was empty. There was no water in it.)

[25]Then they sat down to eat a meal. And they looked up, and look, a caravan of Ishmaelites was coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing aromatic gum and balm and myrrh on their way to carry them down to Egypt. [26]Then Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? [27]Come, and let's sell him to the Ishmaelites, and not lay a hand on him, for he is our brother, our flesh." And his brothers agreed. [28]So the Midianites merchants passed by, and they pulled him up and lifted Joseph out of the cistern, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they brought Joseph to Egypt.

[29]And Reuben returned to the cistern and saw that Joseph wasn't in the cistern; and he tore his clothes.[a] 30He went back to his brothers and said, "The boy is gone. Now, what am I to do?" 31They took Joseph's robe and killed a male goat and dipped the robe in the blood. 32And they sent the long ornamented robe and they brought it to their father, and said, "We found this. Please examine it to see whether it is your son's robe or not."

33And he recognized it, and said, "It is my son's robe. A vicious animal has devoured him. Joseph is without doubt torn to pieces." 34Then Jacob tore his clothes, and put sackcloth around his waist, and mourned for his son many days. 35All his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. And he said, "Indeed, I will go down to Sheol[b] to my son mourning." And his father wept for him. 36Now the Midianites[c] sold him into Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, the captain of the guard.

38 It happened at that time that Judah moved away from his brothers and stayed with an Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. 2There Judah saw the daughter of a Canaanite whose name was Shua. And he married her and slept with her. 3She conceived and gave birth to a son, and he named him Er. 4She conceived again and gave birth to a son, and she named him Onan. 5Then she gave birth to another son, and named him Shelah. And he was at Kezib when she gave birth to him. 6And Judah got a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar. 7Now Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of YHWH, so God[d] killed him. 8Then Judah said to Onan, "Sleep with your brother's wife and fulfill the duty of a brother-in-law to her, and raise up offspring for your brother." 9But Onan knew that the offspring wouldn't be his. So it happened when he slept with his brother's wife that he released his semen on the ground, so that he would not produce offspring for his brother. 10And what he did was evil in the sight of God,[e] so he killed him also. 11Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Remain a widow in your father's house until my son Shelah is grown up." For he thought, "I do not want him to die too, like his brothers." So Tamar went and lived in her father's house.

saying, “Look, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep.” 14She took off her widow’s clothes and covered herself with a veil, and wrapped herself, and sat at the entrance to Enaim, which is on the way to Timnah. For she saw that Shelah was grown up, and she had not been given to him as a wife. 15When Judah saw her, he thought that she was a prostitute because she had covered her face. 16He went over to her by the road and said, “Please come, let me sleep with you,” for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. She said, “What will you give me for sleeping with you?”

17He said, “I will send you a young goat from the flock.” She said, “Will you give me something as a guarantee until you send it?”

18He said, “What kind of guarantee should I give you?” She replied, “Your signet and your cord and your staff that is in your hand.” So he gave them to her, and slept with her, and she became pregnant by him. 19And she got up and left, and took off her veil, and put on her widow’s clothing. 20Judah sent the young goat by his friend, the Adullamite, to receive the guarantee back from the woman’s hand, but he did not find her. 21Then he asked the men of the place, saying, “Where is the prostitute that was at Enaim by the road?” They said, “There has been no prostitute here.”

22He returned to Judah, and said, “I haven’t found her; and also the men of the place said, ‘There has been no prostitute here.’” 23Judah said, “Let her keep the things, lest we be publicly shamed. Look, I sent this young goat, but you did not find her.”

24Now it happened about three months later that Judah was told, saying, “Tamar, your daughter-in-law, has turned to prostitution, and now, look, she is pregnant by prostitution.” Judah said, “Bring her out, and let her be burned.” 25When she was brought out, she sent word to her father-in-law, saying, “By the man who owns these I am pregnant.” She also said, “Please discern whose these are—the signet, and the cord, and the staff.”

26Then Judah recognized them, and said, “She is more righteous than I, since I did not give her to my son Shelah.” He did not sleep with her again. 27It happened when it was time for her to give birth, that look, there were twins in her womb. 28As she was in labor, one put out a hand, and the midwife took a scarlet thread and tied it on his hand, saying, “This one came out first.” 29It happened, as he drew back his hand, that look, his brother came out, and she said, “How did you break through?” So he was named Perez.[a] 30Afterward his brother came out, that had the scarlet thread on his hand, so he was named Zerah.[a]

39 Now Joseph was brought down to Egypt, and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, the captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had brought him down there. 2And YHWH was with Joseph, and he became a successful man. And he was in the household of his master the Egyptian. 3And his master saw that God[b] was with him, and that God[c] made everything that he did to succeed in his hands. 4So Joseph found favor in the sight of his master,[d] and attended him, and he made him overseer of his house, and all that he had he put under his authority. 5And it came about that from the time that he made him overseer of his household and over all that he had, that YHWH[e] blessed[f] the Egyptian's house because of Joseph; and the blessing of YHWH[g] was on all that he had, in the house and in the field. 6So he left everything that he had in Joseph's care. He did not concern himself with anything, except for the food which he ate. Now Joseph was handsome in form and appearance. 7And it came to pass after these things that his master's wife took notice of Joseph and she said, "Sleep with me."

8But he refused, and said to his master's wife, "Look, my master does not concern himself with anything in his house, and he has put all that he has into my care. 9There is no one greater in this household than I am, nor has he kept back anything from me but you, since you are his wife. How then can I do such a great evil, and sin against God?"

10And although she spoke to Joseph day after day, he did not listen to her to sleep with her or to be with her. 11Now it happened about this time that he went into the house to do his work, and there were none of the men of the house inside. 12She grabbed him by his garment, saying, "Sleep with me." And he left his garment in her hand and ran outside. 13When she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and had run outside, 14she called to the men of her house, and spoke to them, saying, "Look, he has brought in a Hebrew to us to mock us. He came in to me to sleep with me, and I cried with a loud voice. 15It happened, when he heard that I raised my voice and cried out, that he left his garment by me and ran outside." 16So she left his

19And it happened when his master heard the words that his wife spoke to him, saying, "This is what your servant did to me," that he became furious. 20Then Joseph's master took him and put him into the prison, the place where the king's prisoners were bound, and he was there in prison. 21But God[b] was with Joseph and showed him kindness and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison.
22The keeper of the prison put Joseph in charge of all the prisoners who were in the prison; he was made responsible for everything that was done there. 23The keeper of the prison paid no attention to anything that was under his supervision, because God[c] was with him, and[d] made everything he did successful.

40 It happened after these things that the cupbearer of the king of Egypt and his baker offended their lord, the king of Egypt. 2Pharaoh was angry with his two officers, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker. 3So he put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the prison, the place where Joseph was confined. 4The captain of the guard assigned them to Joseph, and he attended them. They stayed in prison for some time. 5And the cupbearer and the baker for the king of Egypt, who were confined in jail, both had a dream the same night, and each dream had its own meaning. 6Joseph met them in the morning and looked at them and saw that they were sad. 7He asked Pharaoh's officers who were with him in custody in his master's house, saying, "Why do you look so sad today?"

8They said to him, "We both had dreams, but there is no one who can interpret it." Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Please tell it to me."

9The chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, "In my dream, look, a vine was in front of me, 10and in the vine were three branches. When it budded, its blossoms opened, and its clusters ripened into grapes. 11Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes and squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I placed the cup into Pharaoh's hand."

12Then Joseph said to him,
"This is its interpretation: the three branches are three days. 13Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your office.
You will put Pharaoh's cup into his hand as you used to when you were his cupbearer. 14But remember me when it goes well for you, and please do me the kindness to mention me to Pharaoh and get me out of this prison. 15For indeed, I was kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing that they should have put me into the pit."

16When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was favorable, he said to Joseph, "I also appeared in my dream, and look, three baskets of white bread were on my head. 17In the top basket there was all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head."

18Joseph answered, "This is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days. 19Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head from off you, and impale you on a pole, and the birds will eat your flesh off you." 20And it happened on the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he gave a feast for all his servants, and he lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and the head of the chief baker among his servants. 21He restored the chief cupbearer to his position again, and he placed the cup into Pharaoh's hand; 22but he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them. 23But the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

41 Now it happened at the end of two full years that Pharaoh had a dream, and look, he was standing by the Nile. 2And look, there came up out of the Nile seven cows, sleek and fat, and they grazed among the reeds. 3And look, seven other cows came up after them out of the Nile, miserable-looking and thin, and stood by the other cows at the edge of the Nile. 4The miserable-looking and thin cows ate up the seven sleek and fat cows.
Then Pharaoh woke up. 5And he slept and dreamed a second time.
And look, seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, healthy and good. 6Then look, seven heads of grain, thin and blasted with the east wind, sprouted up after them. 7The thin heads swallowed up the seven healthy and full heads. Then Pharaoh woke up, and look, it was a dream. 8It happened in the morning that his mind was troubled, so he summoned all of Egypt's magicians and wise men.
And Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh.

9Then the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying, "I remember my faults today.
10Pharaoh was angry with his servants and put me in prison in the house of the captain of the guard, me and the chief baker. 11We had a dream on the same night, he and I, each having a dream with its own meaning. [12]Now a young Hebrew was there with us, a servant of the captain of the guards, and we told him, and he interpreted our dreams to us, to each man he interpreted according to his own dream. [13]And it happened just the way he interpreted them to us, so it was: I was restored to my office, and he was hanged."

[14]Then Pharaoh summoned Joseph, and they brought him quickly out of the pit. And he shaved himself, changed his clothes, and came in to Pharaoh. [15]And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I had a dream, but there is no one who can interpret it. I have heard it said about you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it."

[17]Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "In my dream, look, I stood on the edge of the Nile. [18]And look, there came up out of the river seven cows, fat and sleek, and they grazed among the reeds. [19]And look, seven other cows came up after them, scrawny and very miserable-looking and thin. I had never seen such bad-looking cows in all the land of Egypt. [20]The thin and miserable-looking cows ate up the first seven fat cows. [21]But when they had eaten them up, no one would have known that they had eaten them, for they were still as miserable-looking as at the beginning. Then I woke up. [22]And I fell asleep,[b] and I saw in my dream, and look, seven heads of grain growing on one stalk, full and good. [23]And look, seven heads of grain, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprouted up after them. [24]And the seven[c] thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven good heads of grain. And I told it to the magicians, but no one could tell me its meaning."

[25]Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "The dreams of Pharaoh are one. God has told Pharaoh what he is about to do. [26]The seven good cows represent seven years, and the seven good heads of grain represent seven years. The dreams are the same. [27]And the seven thin and miserable-looking cows that came up after them represent seven years, and also the seven empty heads of grain blasted with the east wind. They are seven years of famine. [28]It is just as I said to Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what he is about to do. [29]Look, seven years of great abundance will come throughout all the land of Egypt. [30]But after them seven years of famine will come, and all the abundance will be forgotten in the land of Egypt. The famine will devastate the land, 31and the abundance will not be remembered in the land because of the famine that follows it, for it will be very severe. 32Now the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice because the matter has been fixed by God, and God will carry it out soon.

37The proposal was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants. 38Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find such a one as this, a man in whom is the Spirit of God?" 39So Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Because God has shown you all of this, there is no one as discerning and wise as you. 40You will be in charge of my house, and according to your word will all my people be ruled. Only with regard to the throne will I be greater than you." 41Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Look, I have put you in charge over all the land of Egypt." 42Then Pharaoh took off his signet ring from his hand and put it on Joseph's hand, and clothed him in robes of fine linen, and put a gold chain around his neck. 43And he had him ride in the second chariot which he had, and they called out before him, "Bow the knee.[c]" So he put him in charge over the entire land of Egypt. 44Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, but without your permission no one will do anything or go anywhere[d] in all the land of Egypt." 45Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphenath-Paaneah.[e] And he gave him Asenath the daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, as a wife. So Joseph went out through the land of Egypt.

46Joseph was thirty years old when he began to serve[f] Pharaoh king of Egypt. Joseph left the presence of Pharaoh and went throughout all the land of Egypt. 47During the seven years of abundance the land produced large harvests.[g] 48And he collected all the food during the seven years when there was abundance[h] in the land of Egypt, and put the food in the cities. He placed in every city the food from the fields surrounding it.

49 Joseph stored up grain in great abundance, like the sand of the sea, until he stopped measuring it, because it could not be measured.
50 To Joseph were born two sons before the year of famine came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On, bore to him.
51 Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh:[a] "For God has made me forget all my trouble and all my father's household." 52 And the name of the second he called Ephraim[b]: "For God has made me fruitful in the land of my suffering." 53 And the seven years of abundance that occurred in the land of Egypt came to an end.
54 Then the seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was food.
55 When all the land of Egypt experienced the famine, the people cried to Pharaoh for food. Then Pharaoh said to all Egypt, "Go to Joseph. Whatever he says to you, do." 56 So the famine was over all the surface of the land. Then Joseph opened all the storehouses of grain[c] and sold[d] to the Egyptians. And the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.
57 And all the countries came to Egypt to Joseph to buy grain, because the famine was severe in all the earth.

42 Now Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt, so Jacob said to his sons, "Why do you look at one another?" 2 He said, "Look, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us from there, so that we may live and not die." 3 So Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt.
4 But Jacob did not send Joseph's brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he said, "Some harm might happen to him."
5 So the sons of Israel went to buy grain[e] among the other travelers, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.
6 Now Joseph was the ruler[f] over the country, and it was he who sold to all the people of the land. Joseph's brothers came and bowed themselves down to him with their faces to the ground.
7 Joseph saw his brothers, and he recognized them, but he acted like he did not know them, and spoke harshly with them. And he said to them, "Where do you come from?"

And they said, “From the land of Canaan to buy food.”

8So Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him. 9Then Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed about them, and said to them, “You are spies. You have come to look for the vulnerabilities[a] of the country.”

10But they said to him, “No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food. 11We are all sons of one man. We are honest men. Your servants are not spies.”

12But he said to them, “No, but you have come to look for the vulnerabilities of the country.”

14But Joseph said to them, “It is as I said to you, saying, ‘You are spies.’ 15This is how you will be tested. By the life of Pharaoh, you will not leave from here until your youngest brother comes here. 16Send one of you, and let him get your brother, and you will stay in prison, so that your words can be tested, whether there is truth in you. Or else, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you are spies.” 17So he put all of them together in prison for three days.

18Then Joseph said to them the third day, “Do what I say, and live, for I fear God. 19If you are honest, then let one of your brothers remain confined in your prison; but you go and[b] carry grain for the hunger of your households. 20But bring your youngest brother to me so that your words will be verified, and you won’t die.” To this they agreed. 21Then they said to one another, “We are certainly guilty concerning our brother, because we saw how distressed he was when he pleaded with us, and we wouldn’t listen. Therefore this distress has come upon us.” 22Reuben answered them, saying, “Did I not tell you, saying, ‘Do not sin against the boy,’ but you wouldn’t listen? Therefore, look, now comes a reckoning for his blood.” 23Now they did not know that Joseph could understand them, since he was speaking through an interpreter. 24He stepped away from them and wept. Then he returned to them and talked with them. Then he took Simeon from them and bound him in front of them. 25Then Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain, and to restore every man’s silver into his sack, and to give them food for the journey. And it was done for them.

there. [27]As one of them opened his sack to give his donkey food at the lodging place, he saw his silver. Look, it was in the mouth of his sack. [28]He said to his brothers, "My silver has been returned. Look, it is in my sack." And they were dismayed, and they turned trembling to one another, saying, "What is this that God has done to us?" [29]Then they returned to their father Jacob to the land of Canaan, and told him all that had happened to them, saying, [30]"The man, the lord of the country, spoke harshly to us, and he put us in custody[a] as spies of the country. [31]But we said to him, 'We are honest men. We are not spies. [32]We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no more, and the youngest is now with our father in the land of Canaan.' [33]The man, the lord of the country, said to us, 'By this I will know that you are honest men: leave one of your brothers with me, and take grain[b] for the hunger of your households, and go your way. [34]Bring your youngest brother to me. Then I will know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. So I will deliver your brother to you, and you may travel in the land.'"

[35]Then it happened as they emptied their sacks, that look, every man's bag of silver was in his sack. When they and their father saw their bags of silver, they were afraid. [36]Then their father Jacob said to them, "You have deprived me of my children. Joseph is no more, Simeon is no more, and you want to take Benjamin away. All this has come against me."

[37]Reuben spoke to his father, saying, "Kill my two sons if I do not bring him to you. Put him in my care, and I will bring him back to you." [38]But he said, "My son will not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. If harm should happen to him on the journey you are taking, then you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol."

43 Now the famine was severe in the land. [2]So it came about when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought out of Egypt, that their father said to them, "Go again, buy us a little more food."

[3]But Judah spoke to him, saying, "The man strictly warned us, saying, 'You may not see my face unless your brother is with you.' [4]If you'll send our brother with us, we'll go down and buy you food, [5]but if you will not send him, we will not go down, for the man said to us, 'You may not see my face unless your brother is with you.'"

[6]Then Israel said, "Why did you bring this trouble on me by telling the man that you had another brother?"

7They said, "The man kept asking about ourselves, and concerning our relatives, saying, 'Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?' So we just answered his questions. How were we to know that he would say, 'Bring your brother down?'"

8Then Judah said to his father Israel, "Send the boy with me and we'll get up and go, so that we may live and not die, both we and you, and also our little ones. 9I will be collateral for him. You can hold me responsible for him. If I fail to bring him to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever, 10for if we hadn't delayed, surely we would have returned a second time by now."

11Then their father Israel said to them, "If it must be so, then do this: Take some of the best fruits of the land in your bags and bring a gift for the man, a little balm, a little honey, spices and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds. 12Take twice as much silver in your hand, and take back the silver that was returned in the mouth of your sacks. Perhaps it was an oversight. 13Take your brother also, and get up, go back to the man. 14May El Shaddai[a] grant you mercy before the man, that he may release to you your other brother and Benjamin. If I am deprived of my children, then I am deprived."

15The men took this gift, and they took twice as much silver with them, and Benjamin. Then they got up and went down to Egypt, and presented themselves before Joseph. 16When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the servant of his house, "Bring the men into the house, and slaughter an animal and prepare it; for the men will eat with me at noon."

17The man did as Joseph had said, and the man brought the men to Joseph's house. 18But the men were afraid because they were brought to Joseph's house, and they said, "It is because of the silver that was returned in our sacks the first time that we are brought here; so that he may capture us, and make us slaves, and take our donkeys." 19So they came near to the man of Joseph's house and they spoke to him at the entrance of the house, 20and said, "My lord, we indeed came down the first time to buy food. 21But when we came to the lodging place, we opened our sacks, and look, every man's silver was in the mouth of his sack, our silver in full weight. So we have brought it back in our hand. 22We have brought down additional silver with us to buy food. We do not know who put our silver in our sacks."

23He said, "Peace to you. Do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks. I received your silver." Then he brought Simeon out to them. 24The man brought the men into Joseph's house and gave them water, and they washed their feet. Then he gave their donkeys food. 25They prepared the gift for Joseph's arrival at noon, for they heard that they would eat a meal there.

26When Joseph came home, they prepared the gift they had brought with them into the house, and bowed themselves down to him with their face[a] to the ground. 27Then he asked them of their welfare, and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?"

28And they answered, "Your servant, our father, is well.[b] He is still alive." Then he said, "Blessed be that man by God."[c] And they bowed and prostrated themselves. 29And he looked up and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, "Is this your youngest brother, of whom you told me about?" Then he said, "God be gracious to you, my son." 30Then Joseph hurried out, for he was overcome with emotion because of his brother, and he was at the point of tears. So he entered into his chamber and wept there. 31Then he washed his face and came out. And he controlled himself and said, "Serve the food."
32They served him by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because the Egyptians could not eat food with the Hebrews, for that is disgraceful to the Egyptians. 33And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth, and the men looked at each other with amazement. 34Then he gave portions to them in front of him, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. So they drank until they all became drunk.

44 Then he instructed the manager of his house, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with as much food as they can carry, and put each man's silver in the mouth of his sack. 2Put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, along with the silver for his grain." So he did according to the word that Joseph had told him. 3As soon as the morning dawned, the men were sent off along with their donkeys. 4When they were far from the city, Joseph said to his manager, "Up, go after the men, and when you overtake them, ask them, 'Why have you repaid evil for good? 5Why have you stolen my silver cup?[a] Isn't it from this that my lord drinks and by which he indeed uses for divination? You have done evil in doing this.'" 6And he caught up with them and spoke these words to them.

7But they said to him, "Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants that they should do such a thing. 8Look, the money that we found in the mouths of our sacks we brought back to you from the land of Canaan. How then could we steal silver or gold from your lord's house? 9With whomever of your servants it is found, he must die, and we also will be my lord's slaves."

10And he said, "Very well, then, it will be as you say. The one with whom it is found will be my slave, but you will be blameless."

14So Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he was still there, and they fell to the ground before him. 15And Joseph said to them, "What is this deed that you have done? Didn't you know that a man like me can indeed practice divination?"

16Then Judah said, "What can we say to my lord? What can we speak? And how can we clear ourselves? God has uncovered the guilt of your servants. Look, we are my lord's slaves, both we, and the one in whose possession the cup was found."

17But he said, "Far be it from me that I should do so. The man in whose possession the cup was found, he will be my slave. But as for you, go up to your father in peace." 18Then Judah approached him, and said, "My lord, please allow your servant to speak a word in the ears of my lord, and do not become angry with your servant, for you are like Pharaoh himself. 19My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Do you have a father or a brother?' 20And we said to my lord, 'We have a father, an old man, and a child born when he was old, a little one, and his brother is dead, and he is his mother's only child, and his father loves him.' 21Then you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me, so that I can see him myself.' 22And we said to my lord, 'The boy can't leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.' 23But you said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again.' [24]And it happened when we came up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord. [25]But our father said, 'Go again, buy us a little food.' [26]We said, 'We can't go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down, for we cannot see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.' [27]Then your servant my father said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons. [28]And the one disappeared from me, and I said, "Surely he is torn in pieces." And I haven't seen him since. [29]If you take this one also from me, and harm happens to him, you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol.' [30]So now, when I come to your servant my father and the boy is not with us, since his life is bound up in the boy's life, [31]it will happen, when he sees that the boy is not with us,[a] that he will die. Your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant our father with sorrow to Sheol. [32]For your servant became collateral for the boy to my father, saying, 'If I do not bring him to you, then I will bear the blame to my father forever.' [33]So now, please let your servant remain instead of the boy, a slave to my lord, and let the boy go up with his brothers. [34]For how will I go up to my father if the boy isn't with me? I could not bear to see the misery that would come on my father."

45 Then Joseph could no longer control himself before all those who stood before him, so he cried out, "Send everyone away from me." So no one stood with him while Joseph made himself known to his brothers. [2]And he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard it, and the house of Pharaoh heard about it. [3]Then Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph. Is my father still live?" But his brothers couldn't answer him, for they were terrified at his presence. [4]Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Come near to me, please." So they moved closer. And he said, "I am Joseph, your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. [5]Now do not be upset or angry with yourselves that you sold me here, for God sent me before you to preserve life. [6]For the famine has been in the land these two years, and there will be five more years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest. [7]God sent me ahead of you to preserve for you a remnant on the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. [8]So now, it wasn't you who sent me here, but God, and he has made me a father to Pharaoh, lord of all his house, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.[b] [9]Now hurry and go up to my father and tell him, 'This is what your son Joseph says, "God has made me lord of all

delay. 10You shall dwell in the land me, you, your children, and your children's children, and your flocks, and your herds, and everything that you have. 11There I will provide for you, for there are still five years of famine to come, otherwise you and your household and all that you have would become destitute."' 12Look, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth which is speaking to you. 13So you must tell my father about all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen. But you must hurry and bring my father down here." 14Then he threw his arms around his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, and Benjamin wept on his shoulder.

15And he kissed all his brothers and wept on them, and after that his brothers talked with him.

16Now the report of it was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, "Joseph's brothers have come." It pleased Pharaoh and his servants.
17And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers, 'Do this: Load your animals and go. Enter the land of Canaan. 18Take your father and your families and come to me, and I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the richness of the land.' 19Now you are commanded, 'Do this : Take wagons from the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father and come.
20Also, do not worry about your possessions, for the best of all of the land of Egypt is yours."

21So the sons of Israel did that. And Joseph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provisions for the journey. 22He gave to all of them, to each one, a change of clothing. But to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of clothing. 23To his father he sent the following: ten donkeys loaded with the best things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and food and provision for his father on the journey. 24So he sent his brothers off, and as they departed he said to them, "Do not be fearful on the journey."

25So they went up out of Egypt and came into the land of Canaan to their father Jacob. 26And they told him, saying, "Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt." But he was unmoved, because he did not believe them.
27But when they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said to them, and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to transport him, the spirit of their father Jacob revived. 28Then Israel said, "I'm convinced. My son

Joseph is still alive. I will go and 46 So Israel set out with all that he had and arrived at Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. 2And God spoke to Israel in a vision[a] at night, and said, "Jacob, Jacob." And he said, "Here I am."

3He said, "I am God, the God of your father. Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for there I will make you into a great nation. 4I will go down with you into Egypt, and I myself will surely bring you up again, and Joseph will close your eyes."

5Then Jacob rose up from Beersheba, and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob, and their little ones, and their wives on the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him. 6So they took their livestock and their possessions which they had aquired in the land of Canaan, and arrived in Egypt, Jacob and all his descendants with him, 7his sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and he brought all his descendants with him to Egypt. 8Now these are the names of the sons of Israel who went to Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn. 9And the sons of Reuben: Hanoch, and Pallu, and Hezron, and Carmi. 10And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jakin, and Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman. 11And the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. 12And the sons of Judah: Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Perez, and Zerah; but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And he presented himself to him and he threw his arms around his neck and wept for a long time. 30Then Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die since I have seen your face, that you are still alive."

31Then Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and speak with Pharaoh and will tell him, 'My brothers and my father's household who were in the land of Canaan have come to me. 32The men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock, and they have brought their flocks and their herds and all that they have.'

33And it will come to pass, when Pharaoh summons you and says, 'What is your occupation?' 34that you are to say, 'Your servants have looked after livestock from our youth until now, both we, and our fathers:' in order that you may settle in the land of Gesen; since all shepherds are detestable to the Egyptians."

47 Then Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brothers, with their flocks, their herds, and all that they own, have come from the land of Canaan. And look, they are in the land of Gesen." [2]And from among his brothers he took five men and presented them before Pharaoh. [3]Then Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?" And they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we, and our fathers."

[4]And they said to Pharaoh, "We have come to sojourn in the land, for there is no pasture for your servants' flocks. For the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. So now, please let your servants live in the land of Gesen."

[5]Then Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, "Your father and your brothers have come to you, [6]and the land of Egypt is before you. Settle your father and your brothers in the best of the land. They may live in the land of Gesen. If you know any able men among them, then put them in charge of my livestock."

[7]Then Joseph brought in his father Jacob, and presented him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. [8]And Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How many are the days of the years of your life?"

[9]So Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The days of the years of my sojourning are one hundred thirty years. Few and difficult have been the years of my life, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their sojourning." [10]Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh and went out from Pharaoh's presence.

[11]Joseph settled his father and his brothers, and gave them property in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses,[a] as Pharaoh had commanded. [12]And Joseph provided food for his father, his brothers, and all of his father's household, according to the number of their dependents.

[13]Now there was no food in all the land, for the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan grew weak because of the famine. [14]Joseph gathered up all of the money to be found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, for the grain they were purchasing. And Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's treasury.[b] [15]And when the money was all spent in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us food, for why should we die in your presence? For our money is gone."

[16]Then Joseph said, "Give me your livestock and I will give you food[a] for your livestock, if your silver is gone."

17So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them food in exchange for the horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle, and for the donkeys. And he fed them with food in exchange for all their livestock for that year. 18When that year was over, they came to him the next year and said to him, "We will not hide from my lord that all our silver is spent and that the herds of livestock belong to my lord. There is nothing left, as my lord can see, except our bodies and our lands. 19Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we and our land will be servants to Pharaoh. Give us seed so that we may live and not die, and that the land won't become desolate."

20So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, because every Egyptian sold his field, since the famine was severe on them. So the land became Pharaoh's. 21And as for the people, he subjugated them as slaves[b] from one end of the border of Egypt to the other end of it. 22Only he did not buy the land of the priests, for the priests had an allotment from Pharaoh, and they lived off their allotment which Pharaoh gave them. Therefore they did not have to sell their land. 23Then Joseph said to the people, "Look, I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. Look, here is seed for you so you can plant the seed in the land. 24And it will come to pass at the harvests that you must give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four-fifths will be yours for seed for the field, and for your food, and for those of your households, and as food for your little ones."

25Then they said, "You have saved our lives. Let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's slaves."

26So Joseph made it a statute still in effect for the land of Egypt, that a fifth must go to Pharaoh. Only the land of the priests alone did not become Pharaoh's.

27So Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the land of Gesen. And they aquired property in it and were fertile and became numerous. 28And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were one hundred forty-seven years. 29And the time approached for Israel to die, so he summoned his son Joseph and said to him, "If now I have found favor in your sight, please put your hand under my thigh and deal kindly and truly with me. Please do not bury me in Egypt, 30but when I lie down with my fathers you must carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place." And he said, "I will do what you have asked." 31Then he said, "Take an oath to me," and he took an oath to him. Then Israel bowed[a] over the top of his staff.[b]

48 And it came about after these things that someone said to Joseph, "Look, your father is sick." And taking with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, he went to Jacob.[c] 2And someone reported to Jacob, and said, "Look, your son Joseph has come to you." Then Israel strengthened himself and sat up in the bed. 3And Jacob said to Joseph, "El Shaddai[d] appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me, 4and said to me, 'Look, I will make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will make of you a company of peoples, and will give this land to your descendants after you for an everlasting possession.' 5And now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you into Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine, as Reuben and Simeon are. 6And your offspring born to you after them will be yours. But in their inheritance they are to be called after the names of their brothers.[e] 7But as for me, when I came from Paddan Aram,[f] Rachel died, in my sorrow,[g] in the land of Canaan on the journey, when there was still some distance to go to Ephrath. And I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem)."

8Then Israel saw Joseph's sons, and said, "Who are these?" 9And Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons, whom God has given me here." And he said, "Please bring them to me, so that I can bless them." 10Now the eyes of Israel were failing because of his age, so that he couldn't see. Then he brought them near to him, and he kissed them and embraced them. 11And Israel said to Joseph, "I did not expect to see your face, but look, God has let me see your offspring as well." 12Then Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the ground. 13And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near to him. 14And Israel stretched out his right hand and placed it on Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand on Manasseh's head, crossing his hands, although Manasseh was the firstborn. 15Then he blessed Joseph, and said, "The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has been my shepherd all my life to this day, 16the Angel who has redeemed me from all evil, bless the boys. And may my name be carried on in them, and the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac. And may they grow into a multitude upon the earth."

19But his father refused, and said, "I know, my son, I know. He also will become a people, and he also will be great. However, his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will become a multitude of nations." 20So he blessed them that day, saying, "By you Israel will pronounce blessing, saying, 'God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh.'" Thus he put Ephraim before Manasseh. 21Then Israel said to Joseph, "Look, I am about to die, but God will be with you, and God will bring you back from this land[a] to the land of your fathers. 22Moreover, I give to you one portion[b] more than your brothers, which I took out of the hand of the Amorites with my sword and with my bow."

Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hethite, 30 in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is near Mamre in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought along with the field from Ephron the Hethite as a burial place. 31 There they buried Abraham and his wife Sarah. There they buried Isaac and his wife Rebekah, and there I buried Leah. 32 The field and the cave that is in it were purchased from the sons of Heth." 33 When Jacob finished instructing his sons, he drew his legs up into the bed and breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.

4When the days for mourning for him had passed, Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, "If now I have found favor in your sight, please speak in the ears of Pharaoh, saying, 5'My father made me take an oath, saying, "Look, I am dying. Bury me in the tomb that I dug for myself in the land of Canaan." Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my father, and I will return again.'"

6And Pharaoh said, "Go up, and bury your father, in keeping with your oath."

7So Joseph went up to bury his father, and all the officials of Pharaoh went up with him, the elders of his household, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, 8all the household of Joseph, his brothers, and his father's household. Only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Gesen. 9And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen. It was a very large company. 10Then they came to the threshing floor of Atad which is across the Jordan, and they mourned there with a great and very bitter lamentation. And he observed seven days of mourning for his father. 11When the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "This is a deep mourning by the Egyptians." Therefore, its name was called Abel Mizraim,[a] which is across the Jordan. 12So his sons did to him just as he commanded them, 13for his sons carried him into the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah near Mamre, which Abraham bought along with the field as a burial site from Ephron the Hethite. 14Then after he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers and all that went up with him to bury his father.

15When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "It may be that Joseph will hate us, and will pay us back in full for all of the evil that we did to him." 16So they sent a message to Joseph, saying, "Your father gave this command before he died, saying, 17'Thus you are to tell Joseph, "Now please forgive the transgression of your brothers and their sin, because they did evil to you."' And now, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father." And Joseph wept when they spoke to him. 18Then his brothers also went and fell down in front of him, and they said, "Look, we are your slaves." 19But Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid, for am I in the place of God? 20As for you, you meant evil against me, but[b] God turned it into good in order to bring about this present result, to save the lives of many people. 21So therefore, do not be afraid. 22So Joseph lived in Egypt, he, and his father's household. And Joseph lived one hundred ten years. 23Joseph saw Ephraim's descendants to the third generation. The children also of Makir, the son of Manasseh, were counted as Joseph's own.[a] 24And Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die, but God will surely take care of you and bring you up out of this land to the land which he promised to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob." 25Then Joseph made the sons of Israel take an oath, saying, "God will surely take care of you. Then you must carry up my bones from here." 26So Joseph died, being one hundred ten years old, and they embalmed him and placed him in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

1 These are the names of the sons of Israel who came to Egypt with Jacob,[b] each with his household: 2Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, 3Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, 4Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher. 5All the people who were directly descended from Jacob were seventy-five,[c] and Joseph was in Egypt already. 6Joseph died, as did all his brothers, and all that generation. 7The children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and grew exceedingly mighty; and the land was filled with them.

8Now there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. 9He said to his people, "Look, the people of the sons of Israel are more and mightier than we. 10Come, let us deal wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it happen that when any war breaks out, they also join themselves to our enemies, and fight against us, and escape out of the land." 11Therefore they set taskmasters over them to afflict them with their burdens. They built storage cities for Pharaoh: Pithom and Rameses. 12But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and the more they spread out.[d] And they were in dread of the children of Israel. 13And the Egyptians ruthlessly made the children of Israel labor, 14and they made their lives bitter with hard labor, in mortar and in brick, and in all manner of labor in the field, all their labors which they ruthlessly made them do.

15The king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah, [16]and he said, "When you perform the duty of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them on the birth stool; if it is a son, then you shall kill him; but if it is a daughter, then she shall live." [17]But the midwives feared God, and did not do what the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the baby boys alive. [18]The king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said to them, "Why have you done this thing, and have saved the boys alive?"

[19]The midwives said to Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women aren't like the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous, and give birth before the midwife comes to them."

[20]God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied, and grew very mighty. [21]It happened, because the midwives feared God, that he gave them families. [22]Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, "You are to cast every son who is born to the Hebrews[a] into the river, but every daughter you are to keep alive."

2 A man of the house of Levi went and took a daughter of Levi as his wife. [2]The woman conceived, and bore a son. When she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him three months. [3]When she could no longer hide him, she took a papyrus box for him and coated it with bitumen and with pitch. And she put the child in it and put it among the rushes by the bank of the river. [4]And his sister stood at a distance, to see what would be done to him. [5]Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe at the river. Her maidens walked along by the riverside. She saw the box among the rushes, and sent her handmaid to get it. [6]She opened it, and saw the child, and look, the baby cried. And she[b] had compassion on him, and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children."

[7]Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Should I go and call a nurse for you from the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you?"

The maiden went and called the child's mother. [9]Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child away, and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages."

The woman took the child, and nursed it. [10]The child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son.

She named him Moses,[a] and said, "Because I drew him out of the water."

[11]It happened in those days, when Moses had grown up, that he went out to his brothers, and looked at their burdens. He saw an Egyptian striking a Hebrew, one of his brothers. [12]He looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no one, he killed the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

[13]He went out the second day, and look, two men of the Hebrews were fighting with each other. He said to him who did the wrong, "Why do you strike your fellow?"

[14]He said, "Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you plan to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?"[b] Moses was afraid, and said, "Surely this thing is known." [15]Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and lived in the land of Midian, and he sat down by a well.

[16]Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters. They came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. [17]The shepherds came and drove them away; but Moses stood up and helped them, and drew water for them,[c] and watered their flock. [18]When they came to Reuel, their father, he said, "How is it that you have returned so early today?"

[19]They said, "An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and moreover he drew water for us, and watered the flock."

[20]He said to his daughters, "Where is he? Why is it that you have left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread."

[21]And Moses was content to dwell with the man. And he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter in marriage.[d] [22]She bore a son, and he named him Gershom,[e] for he said, "I have lived as a foreigner in a foreign land."

[23]It happened in the course of those many days, that the king of Egypt died, and the children of Israel sighed because of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up to God because of the bondage. [24]God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. [25]God saw

14 And God said to Moses, "I AM THAT I AM,"[a] and he said, "You shall tell the children of Israel this:
'I AM[b] has sent me to you.'" 15 And God said moreover to Moses, "You shall tell the children of Israel this,
'YHWH, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham,[c] the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you.' This is my name forever, and this is my memorial to all generations. 16 Go, and gather the elders of the people of[d] Israel together, and tell them, 'YHWH, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has appeared to me, saying, "I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt; 17 and I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites, and the Hethites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Girgashites,[e] and the Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey."' 18 They will listen to your voice, and you shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt, and you shall tell him, 'The[f] God of the Hebrews has met with us. Now please let us go three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to[g] our God.' 19 I know that the king of Egypt won't give you permission to go, except by a mighty hand. 20 I will put forth my hand and strike Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in its midst, and after that he will let you go. 21 I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, and it will happen that when you go, you shall not go empty-handed. 22 But every woman shall ask of her neighbor, and of her who visits her house, articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing; and you shall put them on your sons, and on your daughters. So you shall plunder the Egyptians.

4 Moses answered, "But, look, they will not believe me, nor listen to my voice; for they will say, 'God[h] has not appeared to you.'"

2 YHWH said to him, "What is that in your hand?"

He said, "A staff."

3 He said, "Throw it on the ground."

[a]4:5 LXX adds "and"
[b]4:6 DSS MT Mss LXX SP add "from his cloak" [c]4:11 LXX. MT reads "YHWH." God has made all people, including those who, for whatever reason, happen to be deaf, or blind, or mute, or have a problem with speaking well, as Moses did. But God is there to help.

[18]Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said to him, “Please let me go and return to my brothers who are in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive.” Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.”

[19]YHWH said to Moses in Midian, “Go, return into Egypt; for all the men who sought your life are dead.”

[20]Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them on a donkey, and he returned to the land of Egypt. Moses took God’s staff in his hand. [21]YHWH said to Moses, “When you go back into Egypt, see that you do before Pharaoh all the wonders which I have put in your hand, but I will harden his heart and he will not let the people go. [22]You shall tell Pharaoh, ‘Thus says YHWH, Israel is my son, my firstborn, [23]and I have said to you, “Let my son go, that he may serve me;” and you have refused to let him go. Look, I will kill your son, your firstborn.’”

[24]It happened on the way at a lodging place, that YHWH met him and wanted to kill him. [25]Then Zipporah took a flint, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet; and she said, “Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me.”

[26]So he let him alone. Then she said, “You are a bridegroom of blood,” because of the circumcision.

[27]YHWH said to Aaron, “Go into the wilderness to meet Moses.”

He went, and met him on God’s mountain, and kissed him. [28]Moses told Aaron all the words of YHWH with which he had sent him, and all the signs with which he had instructed him. [29]Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel. [30]Aaron spoke all the words which God[a] had spoken to Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people. [31]The people believed, and when they heard that God[b] had visited the children of Israel, and that he had seen their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshiped.

5 Afterward Moses and Aaron came, and said to Pharaoh, “This is what YHWH, God of Israel, says, ‘Let my people go, that they may hold a feast to me in the wilderness.’”

[2]Pharaoh said, “Who is YHWH, that I should listen to his voice to let Israel go? I do not know YHWH, and moreover I will not let Israel go.”

[3]They said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us go three days’ journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to[c] our God, lest he fall on us with pestilence, or with the sword."

4The king of Egypt said to them, "Why do you, Moses and Aaron, take[a] the people from their work? Get back to your burdens." 5Pharaoh said, "Look, the people of the land are now many, and you make them rest from their burdens." 6The same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people, and their officers, saying, 7"You shall no longer give the people straw to make brick, as before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves. 8The number of the bricks, which they made before, you require from them. You shall not diminish anything of it, for they are idle; therefore they cry, saying, 'Let us go and[b] sacrifice to our God.' 9Let heavier work be laid on the men so they may labor at it and pay no attention to lying words."

10The taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spoke to the people, saying, "This is what Pharaoh says: 'I will not give you straw. 11Go yourselves, get straw where you can find it, for nothing of your work shall be diminished.'" 12So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather dry stalks for straw. 13The taskmasters kept pressing them, saying, "Fulfill your work quota, your daily amount, as when there was straw.[c]" 14The officers of the children of Israel, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, "Why haven't you fulfilled your quota both yesterday and today, in making brick as before?"

15Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried to Pharaoh, saying, "Why do you deal this way with your servants? 16No straw is given to your servants, and they tell us, 'Make bricks.' And look, your servants are beaten, but the fault is with your own people."

17But he said, "You are slackers! Slackers! Therefore you say, 'Let us go and sacrifice to God.[d]' 18Go therefore now, and work, for no straw shall be given to you, yet you shall deliver the same number of bricks."

19The officers of the children of Israel saw that they were in trouble, when it was said, "You shall not diminish anything from your daily quota of bricks."

20They met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh: 21and they said to them, "May God[e] look at you, and judge, because you have made us a stench to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us."

22 Moses returned to YHWH, and said,[a] "Lord, why have you brought trouble on this people? Why is it that you have sent me? 23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has brought trouble on this people; neither have you delivered your people at all."

6 YHWH said to Moses, "Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh, for by a strong hand he shall let them go, and by a strong hand he shall drive them out of his land."
2 Then God spoke to Moses, and said to him, "I am YHWH. 3 And I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob as El Shaddai,[b] but I did not make myself known to them by my name YHWH. 4 And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their sojournings, in which they were foreigners. 5 Moreover I have heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage, and I have remembered my covenant. 6 Therefore tell the children of Israel, 'I am YHWH, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm, and with great judgments: 7 and I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God; and you shall know that I am YHWH your God, who brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. 8 I will bring you into the land which I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it to you as a possession. I am YHWH.'"

9 Moses spoke so to the children of Israel, but they did not listen to Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.

10 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 11 "Go in, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land."

12 Moses spoke before YHWH, saying, "Look, the children of Israel haven't listened to me. How then shall Pharaoh listen to me, who am of uncircumcised lips?" 13 YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and gave them a command to the children of Israel, and to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

stretch forth my hand on Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them."

6Moses and Aaron did so. As YHWH commanded them, so they did. 7Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron eighty-three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh.

8YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 9"When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, 'Perform a [a]miracle.' then you shall tell Aaron, 'Take your staff, and cast it down before Pharaoh, that it become a serpent.'"

14YHWH said to Moses, "Pharaoh's heart is stubborn. He refuses to let the people go. 15Go to Pharaoh in the morning. Look, he goes out to the water; and you shall stand by the river's bank to meet him; and the staff which was turned to a serpent you shall take in your hand. 16You shall tell him, 'YHWH, God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying, "Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness:" and look, until now you haven't listened. 17Thus says YHWH, "In this you shall know that I am YHWH. Look, I will strike with the staff that is in my hand on the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood. 18The fish that are in the river shall die, and the river shall become foul; and the Egyptians shall loathe to drink water from the river.[b]"'" 19YHWH said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Take your staff, and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their streams, and over their pools, and over all their ponds of water, that they may become blood; and there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone.'"

20Moses and Aaron did so, as YHWH commanded; and he lifted up the staff, and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood. 21The fish that were in the river died; and the river became foul, and the Egyptians couldn't drink water from the river; and the blood was throughout all the land of Egypt. 22The magicians of Egypt did in like manner with their secret arts; and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them; as YHWH had spoken. [23]Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he lay even this to heart. [24]All the Egyptians dug around the river for water to drink; for they couldn't drink of the water of the river. [25]Seven days were fulfilled, after YHWH had struck the river.

8 YHWH spoke to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh, and tell him, "This is what YHWH says, 'Let my people go, that they may serve me. [2]If you refuse to let them go, look, I will plague all your borders with frogs: [3]and the river shall swarm with frogs, which shall go up and come into your house, and into your bedchamber, and on your bed, and into the house of your servants, and on your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs: [4]and the frogs shall come up both on you, and on your people, and on all your servants.'" [5]YHWH said to Moses, "Tell Aaron your brother,[a] 'Stretch forth your hand with your staff over the rivers, over the streams, and over the pools, and cause frogs to come up on the land of Egypt.'" [6]Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt. [7]The magicians[b] did in like manner with their secret arts, and brought up frogs on the land of Egypt.

[8]Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, "Pray to YHWH, that he take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to YHWH."

[9]Moses said to Pharaoh, "I give you the honor of setting the time that I should pray for you, and for your servants, and for your people, that the frogs be destroyed from you and your houses,[c] and remain in the river only."

[10]He said, "Tomorrow." He said, "Be it according to your word, that you may know that there is none like YHWH our God. [11]The frogs shall depart from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people. They shall remain in the river only."

[12]Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried to YHWH concerning the frogs which he had brought on Pharaoh. [13]YHWH did according to the word of Moses, and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courts, and out of the fields. [14]They gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank. [15]But when Pharaoh saw that there was a respite, he hardened his heart, and did not listen to them, as YHWH had spoken.

23Moses stretched forth his staff toward the heavens, and YHWH sent thunder, and hail, and fire fell to the earth. YHWH rained hail on the land of Egypt. 24So there was very severe hail, and fire mixed with the hail, such as had not been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. 25The hail struck throughout all the land of every plant of the field, and broke wicked. 28Pray to YHWH; for there has been enough of God's thunder and hail and fire.[b] I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer."

29Moses said to him, "As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands to YHWH. The thunders shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that you may know that the earth is YHWH's. 30But as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet fear YHWH God."

31The flax and the barley were struck, for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was in bloom.

not struck, for they are late.
33 Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands to YHWH; and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain no longer poured on the land. 34 When Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants. 35 The heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the children of Israel go, just as YHWH had spoken through Moses.

10 YHWH said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I may show these my signs in the midst of them, 2 and that you may tell in the hearing of your son, and of your son's son, what things I have done to Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that you may know that I am YHWH."

3 Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and said to him, "This is what YHWH, the God of the Hebrews, says: 'How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me. 4 Or else, if you refuse to let my people go, look, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your country, 5 and they shall cover the surface of the earth, so that one won't be able to see the earth. They shall eat the residue of that which has escaped, which remains to you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which grows for you out of the field. 6 Your houses shall be filled, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; as neither your fathers nor your fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were on the earth to this day.'" He turned, and went out from Pharaoh.

7 Pharaoh's servants said to him, "How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve[a] their God. Do you not yet know that Egypt is destroyed?"

8 Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, and he said to them, "Go, serve[b] your God; but who are those who will go?"

9 Moses said, "We will go with our young and with our old; with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast to YHWH." 10 He said to them, "YHWH be with you if I will let you go with your dependents. See, evil is clearly before your faces. 11 Not so. Go now you who are men, and serve God[c]; for that is what you desire." They were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

12 YHWH said to Moses,
"Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up on the land of Egypt and eat every plant of the land,[a] even all that the hail has left." 13Moses stretched forth his staff over the land of Egypt, and YHWH brought an east wind on the land all that day, and all the night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. 14The locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the borders of Egypt. They were very grievous. Before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. 15For they covered the surface of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened, and they ate every plant of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. There remained nothing green, either tree or plant of the field, through all the land of Egypt. 16Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and he said, "I have sinned against YHWH your God, and against you. 17Now therefore please forgive my sin again, and pray to YHWH your God, that he may also take away from me this death." 18He went out from Pharaoh, and prayed to God.[b] 19YHWH turned an exceeding strong west wind, which took up the locusts, and drove them into the Red Sea.[c] There remained not one locust in all the borders of Egypt. 20But YHWH hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go.

21YHWH said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt."
22Moses stretched forth his hand toward the sky, and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days. 23They did not see one another, neither did anyone rise from his place for three days; but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

24Then Pharaoh called to Moses and to Aaron[d] and said, "Go, serve YHWH.[e] Only let your flocks and your herds stay behind. Let your dependents also go with you."

25Moses said, "You must also give into our hand sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to YHWH our God. 26Our livestock also must go with us; not a hoof is[f] left behind, for of it we must take to serve YHWH our God; and we do not know with what we must serve YHWH, until we come there."

27But YHWH hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he wouldn't let them go. [28]Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me. Make sure you never see my face again; for in the day you see my face you shall die."

[29]Moses said, "You have spoken well. I will see your face again no more."

11 YHWH said to Moses, "Yet one plague more will I bring on Pharaoh, and on Egypt; afterwards he will let you go. When he lets you go, he will surely thrust you out altogether. [2]Speak now in the hearing of the people, and let them ask every man of his neighbor, and every woman of her neighbor, articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing.[a]" [3]YHWH gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

[4]And Moses said,[b] "This is what YHWH says: 'About midnight I will go out into the midst of Egypt, [5]and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne, even to the firstborn of the female servant who is behind the mill; and all the firstborn of livestock. [6]There shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there has not been, nor shall be any more. [7]But against any of the children of Israel a dog won't even bark or move its tongue, against man or animal; that you may know that YHWH makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel. [8]All these your servants shall come down to me, and bow down themselves to me, saying, "Get out, with all the people who follow you;" and after that I will go out.'" He went out from Pharaoh in hot anger.

[9]YHWH said to Moses, "Pharaoh won't listen to you, that my[c] wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt." [10]Moses and Aaron did all these[d] wonders before Pharaoh, and YHWH hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 Now YHWH spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, [2]"This month shall be to you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year to you. a lamb, then he and his neighbor next to his house shall take one according to the number of the souls; according to what everyone can eat you shall make your count for the lamb. [5]Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male in its first year. You shall take it from the sheep, or from the goats: [6]and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month; and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at evening. [7]They shall take some of the blood, and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel, on the houses in which they shall eat it. [8]They shall eat the flesh in that night, roasted with fire, and unleavened bread. They shall eat it with bitter herbs. [9]Do not eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted with fire; with its head, its legs and its inner parts. [10]You shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; but that which remains of it until the morning you shall burn with fire. [11]This is how you shall eat it: with your waist girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it in haste: it is YHWH's Passover. [12]For I will go through the land of Egypt in that night, and will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and animal. Against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am YHWH. [13]The blood shall be to you for a token on the houses where you are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and there shall no plague be on you to destroy you, when I strike the land of Egypt. [14]This day shall be to you for a memorial, and you shall keep it a feast to YHWH: throughout your generations you shall keep it a feast by an ordinance forever.

[15]"'Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread; even the first day you shall put away yeast out of your houses, for whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. [16]In the first day there shall be to you a holy convocation, and in the seventh day a holy convocation; no manner of work shall be done in them, except that which every man must eat, that only may be done by you. [17]You shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this same day have I brought your regiments out of the land of Egypt: therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations by an ordinance forever. [18]In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty first day of the month at evening. [19]For seven days yeast must not be found in your houses, for whoever eats that which is leavened, that person must be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he is a foreigner, or one who is born in the land. [20]You must eat nothing leavened. In all your places where you live you must eat unleavened bread.'"

[21]Then Moses called for all the elders of the children of[a] Israel, and said to them, "Go and select lambs according to your clans, and kill the Passover lamb. [22]And you are to take a bunch of hyssop and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and apply it on the top and on both sides of the doorframe with the blood that is in the basin. And none of you is to go out of the door of his house until morning. [23]For YHWH will pass through to strike the Egyptians, and when he sees the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe, YHWH will pass over the door and will not allow the destroyer to enter your houses to strike you. [24]And you must observe this as an ordinance for you and your children forever. [25]And it shall come to pass when you enter the land which YHWH will give you, as he has promised, you must keep this ceremony. [26]And it shall be, when your children ask you, 'What do you mean by this ceremony?' [27]that you shall say, 'It is the sacrifice of YHWH's Passover, because he passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he struck the Egyptians but spared our houses.'" And the people bowed down and worshiped. [28]Then the children of Israel went away and did as YHWH had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

[29]And it came to pass at midnight that YHWH killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the prisoner who was in the prison, and all the firstborn of livestock. [30]And Pharaoh got up during the night, he, and all his servants, and all Egypt, and there was loud wailing in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not someone dead. [31]Then he summoned for Moses and Aaron during the night, and said, "Get up, get out from among my people, both you and the children of Israel; and go, serve YHWH, as you have requested. [32]Take your flocks and your herds, as you have requested, and be gone, but bless me also."

[33]The Egyptians were urgent with the people to send them out of the land quickly, for they said, "We will all be dead." [34]So the people took their dough before it was leavened, with their kneading bowls wrapped in their clothing on their shoulders.

[35]Now the children of Israel did according to what Moses told them, for they had asked the Egyptians for articles of silver and articles of gold and clothing. [36]And YHWH gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, and they gave them whatever they wanted. And so they plundered Egypt.

[a]12:21 LXX Syr Vg. MT lacks "of the children of," from homoioteleuton: ny-ny 37 And the children of Israel traveled from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides their dependents.[a] 38 And a mixed crowd also went up with them, and a huge number of livestock, both flocks and herds.

39 And they baked unleavened loaves using the dough that they had brought out of Egypt; for it wasn't leavened, because they were thrust out of Egypt, and couldn't wait, nor had they prepared any provisions for themselves. 40 Now the time that the children of Israel lived in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years. 41 And it came to pass at the end of four hundred thirty years, to the day, it came to pass that all the regiments of YHWH went out from the land of Egypt. 42 It was a night when YHWH kept vigil to bring them out from the land of Egypt. So on this night all the children of Israel must keep a vigil to YHWH throughout their generations.

43 And YHWH said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the ordinance of the Passover. No foreigner may eat of it, 44 but every man's servant who is bought for money, after you have circumcised him, may he eat of it. 45 A foreigner and a hired servant must not eat of it. 46 It is to be eaten in one house. You must not take any of the meat outside the house, and you are not to break any of its bones.[b] 47 All the congregation of Israel is to keep it. 48 If a foreigner lives with you and wants to keep the Passover to YHWH, all his males must be circumcised, and then he may take part and observe it, and he will be like one who is born in the land. But no uncircumcised person may eat of it.
49 The same law will apply to the native-born and to the foreigner who lives among you." 50 So all the children of Israel did as YHWH commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did. 51 And it happened on this very day that YHWH brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their regiments.

13 Then YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 2 "Set apart to me all the firstborn. Whatever is first from the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of animal; it is mine."

3 And Moses said to the people, "Remember this day in which you came out from Egypt, out of the house of slavery, for with a mighty hand YHWH brought you out from this place. No leavened bread shall be eaten. 4 On this day, in the month of Abib, you are going out. 5 And it shall be, when YHWH brings you into the land of the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the with milk and honey, that you must keep this ceremony in this month.

6 Six[a] days you are to eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day is a feast to YHWH.
7 Unleavened bread is to be eaten throughout the seven days. Nothing leavened is to be seen among you, nor is any leaven to be seen among you in all your territory.
8 And you are to tell your son on that day, saying, 'It is because of what YHWH did for me when I came out of Egypt.' 9 And it shall be as a sign to you on your hand and as a reminder between your eyes, so that the law of YHWH may be in your mouth, for with a mighty hand YHWH brought you out of Egypt.
10 Therefore you are to keep this ordinance at its appointed time from year to year.

11 "And it shall be, when YHWH brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore to you and to your fathers, and gives it to you, 12 that you are to set apart to YHWH everything that is first from the womb. Every firstborn male animal belongs to YHWH.
13 Every firstborn of a donkey you are to redeem with a lamb, but if you will not redeem it, then you must break its neck. And every firstborn of man among your sons you must redeem.
14 And it shall be, when your son asks you in the future, saying, 'What is this?' then you are to tell him, 'With a mighty hand YHWH brought us out from Egypt, from the house of slavery.
15 And it happened, when Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, that YHWH killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of people and the firstborn of animals. This is why I am sacrificing to YHWH any male that is first from the womb of an animal, but all my firstborn sons I redeem.' 16 So it will be as a sign on your hand and at the front of a headband around your forehead, for with a mighty hand YHWH brought us out of Egypt."

17 Then it came to pass when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God did not lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was nearby, for God said, "Lest the people change their minds when they see war and return to Egypt." 18 So God led the people around by the way of the wilderness to the Red Sea. And the children of Israel went up from the land of Egypt prepared for battle.
19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had made the children of Israel swear an oath, saying, "God will surely attend to you, and you are to carry my bones up with you from this place."
20 Then they set out from Succoth and camped at Etham on the edge of the wilderness.
21 And God[b] went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them on their way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so that they could travel by day and by night.
22 He did not take away the pillar of cloud by day nor the pillar of fire at night from in front of the people.

14 Now YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 2"Speak to the children of Israel, that they turn back and camp before Pi-hahiroth,[a] between Migdol[b] and the sea, before Baal Zephon.[c] You shall camp opposite it by the sea. 3Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, 'They are wandering in the land. The wilderness has boxed them in.' 4And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will pursue them. And I will gain glory because of Pharaoh and because of all his army, and the Egyptians shall know that I am YHWH." And they did so.

5And when the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, the heart of Pharaoh and his servants was turned against the people, and they said, "What is this we have done, that we have let Israel go from serving us?" 6Then he made ready his chariot, and took his army with him; 7and he took six hundred select chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and officers over all of them. 8And YHWH hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel; and the children of Israel were going out triumphantly.[d] 9And the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh and his horsemen and his army, and overtook them camping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal Zephon.

10When Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and look, the Egyptians were marching[e] after them, and they were very afraid. So the children of Israel cried out to YHWH. 11And they said to Moses, "Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What have you done to us by bringing us out of Egypt? 12Isn't this the word that we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, 'Leave us alone so that we may serve the Egyptians?' For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness."

13But Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid, stand still, and see the salvation of God,[f] which he will work for you today, for the Egyptians you see today, you will never, ever see again. 14YHWH will fight for you, and you must be still."

15Then YHWH said to Moses, "Why are you crying out to me? Tell the children of Israel to go forward. 16And as for you, lift up your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, and the children of Israel will go through the midst of the sea on dry ground.

after them, and I will receive glory over Pharaoh and all his army, his chariots and his horsemen. 18 Then the Egyptians will know that I am YHWH, when I receive glory over Pharaoh, his chariots and his who was going in front of the camp of Israel moved and went behind them, and the pillar of cloud moved from in front of them and stood behind them. 20 So it came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel. Thus it was a cloud and darkness and it lit up the night so that the one did not come near the other all night.

21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and YHWH pushed the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and made the sea into dry land, so the waters were divided. 22 Then the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea on the dry ground, and the waters were a wall to them on their right and on their left. 23 And the Egyptians pursued and went in after them into the midst of the sea, all of Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. 24 And it happened, in the morning watch, that YHWH looked down on the Egyptian camp through the pillar of fire and cloud and threw the camp into confusion. 25 And he bound[a] their chariot wheels so that they drove them with difficulty. And the Egyptians said, "Let's flee from before Israel, for YHWH fights for them against the Egypt."

26 Then YHWH said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the waters may flow back on the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen." 27 So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its normal state at daybreak. Now the Egyptians were trying to escape from it, but YHWH shook off[b] the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.
28 Then the waters returned and covered the chariots, the horsemen, the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea. None of them survived. 29 But the children of Israel walked on dry ground in the midst of the sea, and the waters
were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left. 30 Thus YHWH saved Israel that day from the power of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on great power which YHWH used against the Egyptians, then the people feared YHWH, and they believed God and his servant

19 For the horses of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and YHWH brought back the waters of the sea on them; but the children of Israel walked on dry land in the midst of the sea. 20 Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a tambourine in her hand; and all the women went out after her with tambourines and with dances.

22 Moses led Israel onward from the Red Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water. 23 When they came to Marah, they couldn't drink from the waters of Marah, for they were bitter. Therefore its name was called Marah.[b] 24 The people murmured against Moses, saying, "What shall we drink?" 25 Then he cried to YHWH. YHWH showed him a tree, and he threw it into the waters, and the waters were made sweet. There he made a statute and an ordinance for them, and there he tested them; 26 and he said, "If you will diligently listen to the voice of YHWH your God, and will do that which is right in his eyes, and will pay attention to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you, which I have put on the Egyptians; for I am YHWH[c] who heals you.[d]

4Then said YHWH to Moses, "Look, I will rain bread from heaven[b] for you, and the people shall go out and gather a day's portion every day, that I may test them, whether they will walk in my law, or not. 5It shall come to pass on the sixth day, that they shall prepare that which they bring in, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily." 6Moses and Aaron said to all the[c] children of Israel, "At evening, then you shall know that YHWH has brought you out from the land of Egypt; 7and in the morning, then you shall see the glory of YHWH, because he has heard your murmurings against God.[d] Who are we, that you murmur against us?" 8Moses said, "Now YHWH shall give you meat to eat in the evening, and in the morning bread to satisfy you; because YHWH hears your murmurings which you murmur against him. And who are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against God.[e]" 9Moses said to Aaron, "Tell all the congregation of the children of Israel, 'Come near before God,[f] for he has heard your murmurings.'" 10It happened, as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and look, the glory of YHWH appeared in the cloud. 11YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 12"I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel. Speak to them, saying, 'At evening you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread: and you shall know that I am YHWH your God.'"

everyone according to his eating; an omer a head, according to the number of your persons, you shall take it, every man for those who are in his tent." 17The children of Israel did so, and gathered some more, some less. 18When they measured it with an omer, he who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack. [a]They gathered every man according to his eating. 19Moses said to them, "Let no one leave of it until the morning." 20Notwithstanding they did not listen to Moses, but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and became foul: and Moses was angry with them. 21They gathered it morning by morning, everyone according to his eating. When the sun grew hot, it melted. 22It happened that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one, and all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses. 23He said to them, "This is that which YHWH has spoken, 'Tomorrow is a solemn rest, a holy Sabbath to YHWH. Bake that which you want to bake, and boil that which you want to boil; and all that remains over lay up for yourselves to be kept until the morning.'" 24They laid it up until the morning, as Moses asked, and it did not become foul, neither was there any worm in it. 25Moses said, "Eat that today, for today is a Sabbath to YHWH. Today you shall not find it in the field. 26Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day is the Sabbath. In it there shall be none." 27It happened on the seventh day, that some of the people went out to gather, and they found none. 28YHWH said to Moses, "How long do you refuse to keep my commandments and my laws? 29Look, because YHWH has given you the Sabbath, therefore he gives you on the sixth day the bread of two days. Everyone stay in his place. Let no one go out of his place on the seventh day." 30So the people rested on the seventh day. 31The house of Israel called its name Manna,[b] and it was like coriander seed, white; and its taste was like wafers with honey. 32Moses said, "This is the thing which YHWH has commanded, 'Let an omer-full of it be kept throughout your generations, that they may see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.'" 33Moses said to Aaron, "Take a jar, and put an omer-full of manna in it, and place it before God,[c] to be kept throughout your generations." 34As YHWH commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept. 35The children of Israel ate the manna forty years, until they came to an inhabited land. They ate the manna until they came to the borders of the land of Canaan. 36Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.

17 All the congregation of the children of Israel traveled from the wilderness of Sin, by their journeys, according to YHWH's commandment, and camped in Rephidim; but there was no water for the people to drink. 2Therefore the people quarreled with Moses, and said, "Give us water to drink."

Moses said to them, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test YHWH?"

3The people were thirsty for water there; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us, our children, and our livestock with thirst?"

4Moses cried to YHWH, saying, "What shall I do with these people? They are almost ready to stone me."

5YHWH said to Moses, "Walk on before the people, and take the elders of Israel with you, and take the staff in your hand with which you struck the Nile, and go. 6Look, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb. You shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink." Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. 7He called the name of the place Massah,[a] and Meribah,[b] because the children of Israel quarreled, and because they tested YHWH, saying, "Is YHWH among us, or not?"

8Then Amalek came and fought with Israel in Rephidim. 9Moses said to Joshua, "Choose men for us, and go out, fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with God's staff in my hand." 10So Joshua did as Moses had told him, and fought with Amalek; and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. 11It happened, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. 12But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur held up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side. His hands were steady until sunset. 13Joshua defeated Amalek and his people[c] with the edge of the sword. 14YHWH said to Moses, "Write this for a memorial on a scroll, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: that I will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek from under the sky." 15Moses built an altar, and called its name YHWH our Banner.[d] 16He said, "A hand upon the throne of YAH. YHWH will have war with Amalek from generation to generation."

18 Now Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, how that YHWH had brought Israel out of Egypt. 2Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, received Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her away, 3and her two sons. The name of one son was Gershom,[a] for Moses said, "I have lived as a foreigner in a foreign land". 4The name of the other was Eliezer,[b] for he said, "My father's God was my help and delivered me from Pharaoh's sword." 5Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses into the wilderness where he was camped, at the Mountain of God. 6And he said to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons with her." 7Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and bowed and kissed him. They asked each other of their welfare, and they came into the tent. 8Moses told his father-in-law all that YHWH had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardships that had come on them on the way, and how YHWH delivered them. 9Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which YHWH had done to Israel, in that he had delivered them out of the hand of the Egyptians.[c] 10Jethro said, "Blessed be YHWH, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh; who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. 11Now I know that YHWH is greater than all gods because of the thing in which they dealt arrogantly against them." 12Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God. Aaron came with all of the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.

13It happened on the next day, that Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood around Moses from the morning to the evening. 14When Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did to the people, he said, "What is this thing that you do for the people? Why do you sit alone, and all the people stand around you from morning to evening?"

15Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to inquire of God. 16When they have a matter, they come to me, and I judge between a man and his neighbor, and I make them know the statutes of God, and his laws." 17Moses' father-in-law said to him, "The thing that you do is not good. 18You will surely wear away, both you, and this people that is with you; for the thing is too heavy for you. You are not able to perform it yourself alone. 19Listen now to my voice. I will give you counsel, and God be with you. You represent the people before God, and bring the causes to God. 20You shall teach them the statutes[a] and the laws, and shall show them the way in which they must walk, and the work that they must do. 21Moreover you shall provide[b] out of all the people able men, such as fear God: men of truth, hating unjust gain; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. 22Let them judge the people at all times. It shall be that every great matter they shall bring to you, but every small matter they shall judge themselves. So shall it be easier for you, and they shall share the load with you. 23If you will do this thing, and God commands you so, then you will be able to endure, and all of these people also will go to their place in peace."

24So Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law, and did all that he had said. 25Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. 26They judged the people at all times. They brought the hard causes to Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves. 27Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went his way into his own land.

19 In the third month after the children of Israel had gone forth out of the land of Egypt, on that same day they came into the wilderness of Sinai. 2When they had departed from Rephidim, and had come to the wilderness of Sinai, they camped in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before the mountain. 3Moses went up to God, and God[c] called to him out of the mountain, saying, "This is what you shall tell the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel: 4'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings, and brought you to myself. 5Now therefore, if you will indeed obey my voice, and keep my covenant, then you shall be my own possession from among all peoples; for all the earth is mine; 6and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests,[d] and a holy nation.' These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel." 7Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and set before them all these words which God[e] commanded him. 8All the people answered together, and said, "All that God[f] has spoken we will do." Moses reported the words of the people to God.[g] 9YHWH said to Moses, "Look, I come to you in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and

Moses told the words of the people

"Go to the people, and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and let ready against the third day; for on the third day YHWH will come down in the sight of all the people on Mount Sinai. 12You shall set bounds to the people all around, saying, 'Be careful that you do not go up onto the mountain, or touch its border. Whoever touches the mountain shall be surely put to death. 13No hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot through;[a] whether it is animal or man, he shall not live.' When the trumpet sounds long, they shall come up to the mountain."

14Moses went down from the mountain to the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes. 15He said to the people, "Be ready by the third day. Do not have sexual relations with a woman." 16It happened on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain, and the sound of an exceedingly loud trumpet; and all the people who were in the camp trembled.
17Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God; and they stood at the lower part of the mountain.
18And Mount Sinai was wrapped in smoke because God[b] descended on it in fire; and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly.
19When the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by a voice. 20YHWH came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain. YHWH called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.
21God[c] said to Moses, "Go down, warn the people, lest they break through to God[d] to look, and many of them perish. 22Let the priests also, who come near to God,[e] sanctify themselves, or YHWH will break out against them." 23Moses said to God,[f] "The people can't come up to Mount Sinai, for you warned us, saying, 'Set bounds around the mountain, and sanctify it.'" 24YHWH said to him, "Go down and you shall bring Aaron up with you, but do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to God,[g] or he will break out against them."

25So Moses went down to the people, and told them.

24 He said to Moses, "Come up to YHWH, you, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship[a] from a distance. 2Moses alone shall come near God,[b] but they shall not come near, neither shall the people go up with him."

3Moses came and told the people all the words of God,[c] and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, "All the words which YHWH has spoken we will do."

4Moses wrote all the words of YHWH, and rose up early in the morning, and built an altar under the mountain, and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. 5He sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of cattle to God.[d] 6Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. 7He took the book of the covenant and read it in the hearing of the people, and they said, "All that YHWH has spoken will we do, and be obedient."
8Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, "This is the blood of the covenant, which God has commanded you[e] concerning all these words."

the two stones on the shoulder straps of the ephod, to be stones of memorial for the sons of Israel: and Aaron shall bear their names before YHWH on his two shoulders for a memorial.[a] 13You shall make settings of gold, 14and two chains of pure gold; you shall make them like cords of braided work: and you shall put the braided chains on the settings.[b] 15"You shall make a breastplate of judgment, the work of the skillful workman; like the work of the ephod you shall make it; of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, you shall make it. 16It shall be square and folded double; a span[c] shall be its length of it, and a span its breadth. 17You shall set in it settings of stones, four rows of stones: a row of ruby, topaz, and beryl shall be the first row; 18and the second row a turquoise, a sapphire[d], and an emerald; 19and the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; 20and the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper: they shall be enclosed in gold in their settings. 21The stones shall be according to the names of the sons of Israel, twelve, according to their names; like the engravings of a signet, everyone according to his name, they shall be for the twelve tribes. 22You shall make on the breastplate chains like cords, of braided work of pure gold. 23You shall make on the breastplate two rings of gold, and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. 24You shall put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. 25The other two ends of the two braided chains you shall put on the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod in its forepart. 26You shall make two rings of gold, and you shall put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on its edge, which is toward the side of the ephod inward. 27You shall make two rings of gold, and shall put them on the two shoulder straps of the ephod underneath, in its forepart, close by its coupling, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod. 28They shall bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate may not swing out from the ephod. 29Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel on the breastplate for judging over his heart, when he goes in to the holy place, as a continual reminder before God.[e] 30You are to put in the breastplate for judging the Urim and the Thummim; and they are to be over Aaron's heart, when he goes in before YHWH. And Aaron will carry the means to make decisions for the children of Israel

31"You shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue. 32It shall have a hole for the head in its midst: it shall have a binding of woven work around its hole, as it were the hole of a coat of mail, that it not be torn. 33On its hem you shall make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, around its hem; and bells of gold between and around them: 34a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, around the hem of the robe. 35It shall be on Aaron to minister: and its sound shall be heard when he goes in to the holy place before YHWH, and when he comes out, that he not die.

36"You shall make a plate of pure gold, and engrave on it, like the engravings of a signet, 'HOLY TO YHWH.' 37You shall put it on a lace of blue, and it shall be on the sash; on the front of the sash it shall be. 38It shall be on Aaron's forehead, and Aaron shall bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall make holy in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always on his forehead, that they may be accepted before YHWH. 39You shall weave the coat in checker work of fine linen, and you shall make a turban of fine linen, and you shall make a sash, the work of the embroiderer.

40"You shall make coats for Aaron's sons, and you shall make sashes for them and you shall make headbands for them, for glory and for beauty. 41You shall put them on Aaron your brother, and on his sons with him, and shall anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister to me in the priest's office. 42You shall make them linen breeches to cover the flesh of their nakedness; from the waist even to the thighs they shall reach: 43They shall be on Aaron, and on his sons, when they go in to the Tent of Meeting, or when they come near to the altar to minister in the holy place; that they do not bear iniquity, and die: it shall be a statute forever to him and to his descendants after him.

29 "This is the thing that you shall do to them to make them holy, to minister to me in the priest's office: take one young bull and two rams without blemish, 2unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil: you shall make them of fine wheat flour. 3You shall put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams. 4You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shall wash them with water. 5You shall take the garments, and put on Aaron[a] the coat, the robe of the ephod, the ephod, and the breastplate, and dress him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod; 6and you shall set the turban on his head, and put the holy crown on the turban. 7Then you shall take the anointing oil, and pour it on his head, and anoint him.

8You shall bring his sons, and put coats on them. 9You shall wrap sashes around them,[a] and bind headbands on them: and they shall have the priesthood by a perpetual statute: and you shall consecrate Aaron and his sons.

10"You shall bring the bull before the Tent of Meeting: and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the bull.[b] 11You shall kill the bull before YHWH, at the door of the Tent of Meeting. 12You shall take of the blood of the bull, and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger; and you shall pour out all the blood at the base of the altar. 13You shall take all the fat that covers the entrails, the cover of the liver, the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, and burn them on the altar.
14But the flesh of the bull, and its skin, and its dung, you shall burn with fire outside of the camp: it is a sin offering.

15"You shall also take the one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram. 16You shall kill the ram, and you shall take its blood, and sprinkle it around on the altar.
17You shall cut the ram into its pieces, and wash its entrails, and its legs, and put them with its pieces, and with its head. 18You shall burn the whole ram on the altar: it is a burnt offering to YHWH; it is a pleasant aroma, an offering made by fire to YHWH.

19"You shall take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall
lay their hands on the head of the ram. 20Then you shall kill the ram, and take some of its blood, and put it on the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and on the tip of the right ear of his sons, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood around on the altar. 21You shall take of the blood that is on the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron, and on his garments, and on his sons, and on the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be made holy, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him. 22Also you shall take some of the ram's fat, the fat tail, the fat that covers the entrails, the cover of the liver, the two kidneys, the fat that is on them, and the right thigh (for it is a ram of consecration), 23and one loaf of bread, one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of unleavened bread that is before YHWH. 24You shall put all of this in Aaron's hands, and in his sons' hands, and shall wave them for a wave offering before YHWH. 25You

[a]29:9 LXX and Leviticus 8:13. While MT has the objective pronoun "them" it also adds "Aaron and his sons" shall take them from their hands, and burn them on the altar on the burnt offering, for a pleasant aroma before YHWH: it is an offering made by fire to YHWH.

[b]29:10 LXX adds "before YHWH, at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting"

[26]"You shall take the breast of Aaron's ram of consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before YHWH: and it shall be your portion. [27]You shall sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the thigh of the wave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons: [28]and it shall be for Aaron and his sons as their portion forever from the children of Israel; for it is a wave offering: and it shall be a wave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, even their wave offering to YHWH.

[29]"The holy garments of Aaron shall be for his sons after him, to be anointed in them, and to be consecrated in them. [30]Seven days shall the son who is priest in his place put them on, when he comes into the Tent of Meeting to minister in the holy place.

[31]"You shall take the ram of consecration, and boil its flesh in a holy place. [32]Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, at the door of the Tent of Meeting. [33]They shall eat those things with which atonement was made, to consecrate and sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat of it, because they are holy. [34]If anything of the flesh of the consecration, or of the bread, remains to the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

[35]"You shall do so to Aaron, and to his sons, according to all that I have commanded you. You shall consecrate them seven days. [36]Every day you shall offer the bull of sin offering for atonement: and you shall cleanse the altar, when you make atonement for it; and you shall anoint it, to sanctify it. [37]Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar, and sanctify it: and the altar shall be most holy; whatever touches the altar shall be holy.

offering of the morning, and according to its drink offering, for a pleasant aroma, an offering made by fire to YHWH. 42It shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the Tent of Meeting before YHWH, where I will meet with you, to speak there to you. 43There I will meet with the children of Israel; and the place shall be sanctified by my glory. 44I will sanctify the Tent of Meeting and the altar: Aaron also and his sons I will sanctify, to minister to me in the priest's office. 45I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. 46They shall know that I am YHWH their God, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I might dwell among them: I am YHWH[a] their God.

30 "You shall make an altar to burn incense on. You shall make it of acacia wood. 2Its length shall be a twenty-one inches,[b] and its breadth twenty-one inches. It shall be square, and its height shall be three feet five inches.[c] Its horns shall be of one piece with it. 3You shall overlay it with pure gold, its top, its sides around it, and its horns; and you shall make a gold molding around it. 4You shall make two golden rings for it under its molding; on its two ribs, on its two sides you shall make them; and they shall be for places for poles with which to bear it. 5You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold. 6You shall put it before the veil that is by the ark of the testimony, before the mercy seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with you. 7Aaron shall burn incense of sweet spices on it every morning. When he tends the lamps, he shall burn it. 8When Aaron lights the lamps at evening, he shall burn it, a perpetual incense before YHWH throughout your generations. 9You shall offer no strange incense on it, nor burnt offering, nor meal offering; and you shall pour no drink offering on it. 10Aaron shall make atonement on its horns once in the year; with the blood of the sin offering of atonement once in the year he shall make atonement for it throughout your generations. It is most holy to YHWH."

11YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 12"When you take a census of the children of Israel, according to those who are numbered among them, then each man shall give a ransom for his soul to YHWH, when you number them; that there be no plague among them when you number them. 13They shall give this, everyone who passes over to those who are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary; (the shekel is twenty gerahs;) half a shekel for an offering to YHWH. 14Everyone who passes over to those who are numbered, from twenty years old and upward, shall give the offering to YHWH. 15The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less, than the half shekel, when they give the offering of YHWH, to make atonement for your souls. 16You shall take the atonement money from the children of Israel, and shall appoint it for the service of the Tent of Meeting; that it may be a memorial for the children of Israel before YHWH, to make atonement for your souls."

17YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 18"You shall also make a basin of bronze, and its base of bronze, in which to wash. You shall put it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it. 19Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet in it. 20When they go into the Tent of Meeting, they shall wash with water, that they not die; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn an offering made by fire to YHWH. 21So they shall wash their hands and their feet,[a] that they not die: and it shall be a statute forever to them, even to him and to his descendants throughout their generations."

22Moreover YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 23"Also take fine spices: of liquid myrrh, five hundred shekels; and of fragrant cinnamon half as much, even two hundred and fifty; and of fragrant cane, two hundred and fifty; 24and of cassia five hundred, after the shekel of the sanctuary; and a hin of olive oil. 25You shall make it a holy anointing oil, a perfume compounded after the art of the perfumer: it shall be a holy anointing oil. 26You shall use it to anoint the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the testimony, 27the table and all its articles, the lampstand and its accessories, the altar of incense, 28the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin with its base. 29You shall sanctify them, that they may be most holy. Whatever touches them shall be holy. 30You shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and sanctify them, that they may minister to me in the priest's office. 31You shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'This shall be a holy anointing oil to me throughout your generations. 32It shall not be poured on man's flesh, neither shall you make any like it, according to its composition: it is holy. It shall be holy to you. 33Whoever compounds any like it, or whoever puts any of it on a stranger, he shall be cut off from his people.'"

34YHWH said to Moses, "Take to yourself sweet spices, gum resin, and onycha, and galbanum; sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be an equal weight; 35and you shall make incense of it, a perfume after the art of the perfumer, seasoned with salt, pure and holy: [36]and you shall beat some of it very small, and put some of it before the testimony in the Tent of Meeting, where I will meet with you. It shall be to you most holy. [37]The incense which you shall make, according to its composition you shall not make for yourselves: it shall be to you holy for YHWH. [38]Whoever shall make any like that, to smell of it, he shall be cut off from his people."

31 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Look, I have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah: [3]and I have filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship, [4]to devise skillful works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, [5]and in cutting of stones for setting, and in carving of wood, to work in all manner of workmanship. [6]I, look, I have appointed with him Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the heart of all who are wise-hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded you: [7]the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the testimony, the mercy seat that is on it, all the furniture of the Tent, [8]the table and its vessels, the pure lampstand with all its vessels, the altar of incense, [9]the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, the basin and its base, [10]the finely worked garments—the holy garments for Aaron the priest—the garments of his sons to minister in the priest's office, [11]the anointing oil, and the incense of sweet spices for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded you they shall do."

[12]YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [13]"Speak also to the children of Israel, saying, 'Most certainly you shall keep my Sabbaths: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that you may know that I am YHWH who sanctifies you. [14]You shall keep the Sabbath therefore; for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it shall surely be put to death; for whoever does any work on it, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. [15]Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, holy to YHWH. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day shall surely be put to death. [16]Therefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant. [17]It is a sign between me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days YHWH made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.'" [18]He gave to Moses, when he finished speaking with him on Mount Sinai, the two tablets of the testimony, stone tablets, written with God's finger.

32 When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together to Aaron, and said to him, "Come, make us gods, which shall go before us; for this Moses, the man[a] who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him."[b]

2Aaron said to them, "Take off the golden rings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them to me."

3All the people took off the golden rings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron. 4He received what they handed him, and fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made it a molten calf; and they said, "These are your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt."

5When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made a proclamation, and said, "Tomorrow shall be a feast to YHWH."

7And YHWH spoke to Moses, saying,[d] "Go down at once, for your people whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt have corrupted themselves. 8They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them. They have made themselves a molten calf, and have worshiped it, and have sacrificed to it, and said, 'These are your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt.'"

9YHWH said to Moses, "I have seen these people, and look, they are a stiff-necked people. 10Now therefore leave me alone, that my wrath may burn hot against them, and that I may consume them; and I will make of you a great nation."

11Moses pleaded with YHWH his God, and said, "YHWH, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, that you have brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? 12Why should the Egyptians speak, saying, 'He brought them forth for evil, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the surface of the earth?' Turn from your fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against your people. 13Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, to whom you swore by your own self, and said to them, 'I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the sky, and all this land that I have spoken of I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.'"

14 YHWH repented of the evil which he said he would do to his people.

15 Moses turned, and went down from the mountain, with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand; tablets that were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other they were written. 16 The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tables.

17 When Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, "There is the noise of war in the camp."

18 He said, "It isn't the voice of those who shout for victory, neither is it the voice of those who cry for being overcome; but the noise of those who sing that I hear." 19 It happened, as soon as he came near to the camp, that he saw the calf and the dancing: and Moses' anger grew hot, and he threw the tablets out of his hands, and broke them beneath the mountain. 20 He took the calf which they had made, and burnt it with fire, ground it to powder, and scattered it on the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.

21 Moses said to Aaron, "What did these people do to you, that you have brought a great sin on them?"

22 Aaron said, "Do not let the anger of my lord grow hot. You know the people, that they are set on evil. 23 For they said to me, 'Make us gods, which shall go before us; for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.' 24 I said to them, 'Whoever has any gold, let them take it off:' so they gave it to me; and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf."

25 When Moses saw that the people had broken loose, (for Aaron had let them loose for a derision among their enemies), 26 then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, "Whoever is on YHWH's side, come to me."

All the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him. 27 He said to them, "Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, 'Every man put his sword on his thigh, and[a] go back and forth from gate to gate throughout the camp, and every man kill his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.'" 28 The sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. 29 And Moses said, "You have been consecrated today to YHWH, each one at the cost of his son and of his brother, so he has given a blessing to you this day." 30It happened on the next day, that Moses said to the people, "You have committed a great sin. And now I will go up to God.[a] Perhaps I can make atonement for your sin."

31Moses returned to YHWH, and said, "Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made themselves gods of gold. 32Yet now, if you will, forgive their sin—and if not, please blot me out of your book which you have written."

33YHWH said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book. 34Now go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you. Look, my angel shall go before you. Nevertheless in the day when I punish, I will punish them for their sin." 35YHWH struck the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

33 YHWH spoke to Moses, "Depart, go up from here, you and the people that you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants.' 2I will send an angel before you; and I will drive out the Canaanite, and[b] the Amorite, and the Hethite, and the Perizzite, and the Girgashite,[c] and[d] the Hivite, and the Jebusite: 3to a land[e] flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of you, for you are a stiff-necked people, lest I consume you in the way."

4When the people heard this evil news, they mourned: and no one put on his jewelry.

5YHWH said to Moses, "Tell the children of Israel, 'You are a stiff-necked people. If I were to go up into your midst for one moment, I would consume you. Therefore now take off your jewelry from you, that I may know what to do to you.'" 6The children of Israel stripped themselves of their jewelry from Mount Horeb onward.

7Now Moses used to take the tent and to pitch it outside the camp, far away from the camp, and he called it "The Tent of Meeting." It happened that everyone who sought YHWH went out to the Tent of Meeting, which was outside the camp. 8It happened that when Moses went out to the Tent, that all the people rose up, and stood, everyone at their tent door, and watched Moses, until he had gone into the Tent. 9It happened, when Moses entered into the Tent, that the pillar of cloud descended, stood at the door of the Tent, and spoke with Moses. 10All the people saw the pillar of cloud stand at the door of the Tent, and all the people rose up and worshiped, everyone at their tent door. 11YHWH spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. He turned again into the camp, but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, did not depart out of the Tent.

12Moses said to YHWH, "Look, you tell me, 'Bring up this people:' and you haven't let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.' 13Now therefore, if I have found favor in your sight, please show me now your ways, that I may know you, so that I may find favor in your sight: and consider that this nation is your people."

14He said, "My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest."

15He said to him, "If your presence doesn't go with me, do not carry us up from here. 16For how would people know that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people? Isn't it in that you go with us, so that we are separated, I and your people, from all the people who are on the surface of the earth?"

17YHWH said to Moses, "I will do this thing also that you have spoken; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name."

18He said, "Please show me your glory."

19He said, "I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim the name of YHWH before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy."[a] 20He said, "You cannot see my face, for man may not see me and live." 21YHWH also said, "Look, there is a place by me, and you are to station yourself on the rock. 22It will happen, while my glory passes by, that I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and will cover you with my hand until I have passed by; 23then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back; but my face shall not be seen."

34 YHWH said to Moses, "Chisel two stone tablets like the first:[b] and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. 2Be ready by the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and station yourself there to me on the top of the mountain. 3No one shall come up with you; neither let anyone be seen throughout all the mountain; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mountain."

4He chiseled two tablets of stone like the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up to Mount Sinai, as YHWH had commanded him, and took in his hand two stone tablets. 5YHWH descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of YHWH. 6YHWH passed by before him, and proclaimed, "YHWH. YHWH, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness and truth, 7keeping loving kindness for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin; and that will by no means clear [the guilty], visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, upon the third and on the fourth [generation]."

8Moses hurried and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshiped. 9He said, "If now I have found favor in your sight,[a] please let my Lord go in the midst of us; although this is a stiff-necked people; pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance."

10He said, "Look, I make a covenant: before all your people I will do marvels, such as have not been worked in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people among which you are shall see the work of YHWH; for it is an awesome thing that I do with you. 11Observe that which I command you this day. Look, I drive out before you the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hethite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Girgashite,[b] and the Jebusite. 12Be careful, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it be for a snare in the midst of you: 13but you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and you shall cut down their Asherim;[c] 14for you shall worship no other god: for YHWH,[d] whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God. 15Do not make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, lest they play the prostitute after their gods, and sacrifice to their gods, and one call you and you eat of his sacrifice; 16and you take of their daughters to your sons,[e] and their daughters play the prostitute after their gods, and make your sons play the prostitute after their gods. 17You shall make no cast idols for yourselves.

18"You shall keep the feast of unleavened bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month Abib; for in the month Abib you came out from Egypt. 19All firstborn of the womb are mine, and all your male[a] cattle, the firstborn of ox or sheep. 20The firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb: and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem. No one shall appear before me empty.

21"Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest: in plowing time and in harvest you shall rest. 22You shall observe the feast of weeks with the first fruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of harvest at the year's end.
23Three times in the year all your males shall appear before Lord[b] YHWH, the God of Israel. 24For I will drive out nations before you and enlarge your borders; neither shall any man desire your land when you go up to appear before YHWH, your God, three times in the year.

25"You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the Passover be left to the morning. 26You shall bring the first of the first fruits of your ground to the house of YHWH your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk."

27YHWH said to Moses,
"Write you these words: for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel."

28He was there with YHWH forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread, nor drank water.
He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

29It happened, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mountain, that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone by reason of his speaking with him. 30When Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, look, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come near him.
31Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him; and Moses spoke to them. 32Afterward all the children of Israel came near, and he gave them all of the commandments that YHWH had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.
33When Moses was done speaking with them, he put a veil on his face.
34But when Moses went in before YHWH to speak with him, he took the veil off, until he came out; and

he came out, and spoke to the children of Israel that which he was commanded. 35The children of Israel saw Moses' face, that the skin of Moses' face shone: and Moses put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

35 Moses assembled all the congregation of the children of Israel, and said to them, "These are the words which YHWH has commanded, that you should do them. 2'Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of solemn rest to YHWH: whoever does any work in it shall be put to death. 3You shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations on the Sabbath day.'"

10"'Let every wise-hearted man among you come, and make all that YHWH has commanded: 11the tabernacle, its outer covering, its roof, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets; 12the ark, and its poles, the mercy seat, the curtain to screen it; 13the table with its poles and all its vessels, and the show bread; 14the lampstand also for the light, with its vessels, its lamps, and the oil for the light; 15and the altar of incense with its poles, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, the screen for the door, at the door of the tabernacle; 16the altar of burnt offering, with its grating of bronze, its poles, and all its vessels, the basin and its base; 17the hangings of the court, its pillars, their sockets, and the screen for the gate of the court; 18the pins of the tabernacle, the pins of the court, and their cords; 19the finely worked garments, for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.'"

20All the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. 21They came, everyone whose heart stirred him up, and everyone whom his spirit made willing, and brought YHWH's offering, for the work of the Tent of Meeting, and for all of its service, and for the holy garments. 22They came, both men and women, as many as were willing-hearted, and brought brooches, earrings, signet rings, and armlets, all jewels of gold; even every man who offered an offering of gold to YHWH. 23Everyone, with whom was found blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats' hair, rams' skins dyed red, and sea cow hides, brought them. 24Everyone who did offer an offering of silver and bronze brought YHWH's offering; and everyone, with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it. [25]All the women who were wise-hearted spun with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, the blue, the purple, the scarlet, and the fine linen. [26]All the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun the goats' hair. [27]And the leaders brought the onyx stones, and the stones to be set, for the ephod and for the breastplate; [28]and the spice, and the oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense. [29]The children of Israel brought a freewill offering to YHWH; every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all the work, which YHWH had commanded to be made by Moses.

[30]Moses said to the children of Israel, "Look, God[a] has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. [31]He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship; [32]and to make skillful works, to work in gold, in silver, in bronze, [33]in cutting of stones for setting, and in carving of wood, to work in all kinds of skillful workmanship. [34]He has put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. [35]He has filled them with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of workmanship, of the engraver, of the skillful workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of those who do any workmanship, and of those who make skillful works.

36 "Bezalel and Oholiab shall work with every wise-hearted man, in whom YHWH[b] has put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all the work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that YHWH has commanded."

[2]Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab, and every wise-hearted man, in whose heart God[c] had put wisdom, even everyone whose heart stirred him up to come to the work to do it: [3]and they received from Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, with which to make it. They brought yet to him freewill offerings every morning. [4]All the wise men, who performed all the work of the sanctuary, each came from his work which they did. [5]They spoke to Moses, saying, "The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which YHWH commanded to make."

[6]Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, "Let neither man nor woman make anything else for the offering for the sanctuary." So the people were restrained from bringing. 7For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

8All the wise-hearted men among those who did the work made the tabernacle with ten curtains; of fine twined linen, blue, purple, and scarlet, with cherubim, the work of the skillful workman, they made them. 9The length of each curtain was forty-eight feet three inches,[a] and the breadth of each curtain six feet eleven inches.[b] All the curtains were the same size. 10He coupled five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he coupled one to another. 11He made loops of blue on the edge of the one curtain from the edge in the coupling. Likewise he made in the edge of the curtain that was outmost in the second coupling. 12He made fifty loops in the one curtain, and he made fifty loops in the edge of the curtain that was in the second coupling. The loops were opposite one to another. 13He made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains one to another with the clasps: so the tabernacle was a unit.
14He made curtains of goats' hair for a covering over the tabernacle. He made them eleven curtains. 15The length of each curtain was fifty-one feet eight inches,[c] and six feet eleven inches[d] the breadth of each curtain. The eleven curtains were the same size. 16He coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. 17He made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was outmost in the coupling, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain which was outmost in the second coupling. 18He made fifty clasps of bronze to couple the tent together, that it might be a unit. 19He made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of sea cow hides above.
20He made the boards for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing up. 21Seventeen feet three inches[e] was the length of a board, and two feet seven inches[f] the breadth of each board. 22Each board had two tenons, joined one to another. He made all the boards of the tabernacle this way. 23He made the boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south side southward. 24He made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. 25For the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty boards, 26and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. 27For the far part of the tabernacle westward he made six boards. 28He made two boards for the corners of the tabernacle in the far part. 29They were double beneath, and in like manner they were all the way to its top to one ring. He did thus to both of them in the two corners. 30There were eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; under every board two sockets.

37 Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood. Its length was four feet four inches,[a] and its breadth two feet seven inches,[b] and two feet seven inches its height. 2He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a molding of gold for it around it. 3He cast four rings of gold for it, in its four feet; even two rings on its one side, and two rings on its other side. 4He made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold. 5He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to bear the ark. 6He made a mercy seat of pure gold. Its length was four feet four inches,[c] and two feet seven inches,[d] its breadth. 7He made two cherubim of gold. He made them of beaten work, at the two ends of the mercy seat; 8one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other end. He made the cherubim of one piece with the mercy seat at its two ends. 9The cherubim spread out their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, with their faces toward one another. The faces of the cherubim were toward the mercy seat.

10He made the table of acacia wood. Its length was three feet five inches,[e] and its breadth was twenty-one inches,[f] and its height was two feet seven inches.[g] 11He overlaid it with pure gold, and made a gold molding around it. 12He made a border of a handbreadth around it, and made a golden molding on its border around it. 13He cast four rings of gold for it, and put the rings in the four corners that were on its four feet. 14The rings were close by the border, the places for the poles to carry the table. 15He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold, to carry the table. 16He made the vessels which were on the table, its dishes, its spoons, its bowls, and its pitchers with which to pour out, of pure gold.

17He made the lampstand of pure gold. He made the lampstand of beaten work. Its base, its shaft, its cups, its buds, and its flowers were of one piece with it. 18There were six branches going out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of its one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of its other side: 19three cups made like almond blossoms in one branch, a bud and a flower, and three cups made like almond blossoms in the other branch, a bud and a flower: so for the six branches going out of the lampstand. 20In the lampstand were four cups made like almond blossoms, its buds and its flowers; 21and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, for the six branches going out of it. 22Their buds and their branches were of one piece with it. The whole thing was one beaten work of pure gold. 23He made its seven lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff dishes, of pure gold. 24He made it of a talent of pure gold, with all its vessels.
25He made the altar of incense of acacia wood. It was square: its length was twenty-one inches,[a] and its breadth twenty-one inches. Its height was three feet five inches.[b] Its horns were of one piece with it. 26He overlaid it with pure gold, its top, its sides around it, and its horns. He made a gold molding around it. 27He made two golden rings for it under its molding crown, on its two ribs, on its two sides, for places for poles with which to carry it. 28He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold. 29He made the holy anointing oil and the pure incense of sweet spices, after the art of the perfumer.

38 He made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood. It was square. Its length was eight feet seven inches,[c] its breadth was eight feet seven inches, and its height was five feet two inches.[d] 2He made its horns on its four corners. Its horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with bronze. 3He made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the fire pans. He made all its vessels of bronze. 4He made for the altar a grating of a network of bronze, under the ledge around it beneath, reaching halfway up. 5He cast four rings for the four ends of bronze grating, to be places for the poles. 6He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with bronze. 7He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to carry it. He made it hollow with planks.

8He made the basin of bronze, and its base of bronze, out of the mirrors of the ministering women who ministered at the door of the Tent of Meeting.
9He made the court: for the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, one hundred seventy-two feet three inches;[a] 10their pillars were thirty-four feet five inches,[b] and their sockets thirty-four feet five inches, of bronze; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver. 11For the north side one hundred seventy-two feet three inches;[c] their pillars thirty-four feet five inches, and their sockets thirty-four feet five inches, of bronze; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver.
12For the west side were hangings of eighty-six feet one inch,[d] their pillars seventeen feet three inches,[e] and their sockets seventeen feet three inches; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver.
13For the east side eastward eighty-six feet one inch. 14The hangings for the one side were twenty-five feet ten inches;[f] their pillars five feet two inches,[g] and their sockets five feet two inches; 15and so for the other side: on this hand and that hand by the gate of the court were hangings of twenty-five feet ten inches;[h] their pillars five feet two inches,[i] and their sockets five feet two inches. 16All the hangings around the court were of fine twined linen. 17The sockets for the pillars were of bronze. The hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver; and the overlaying of their capitals, of silver; and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver. 18The screen for the gate of the court was the work of the embroiderer, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen.
Thirty-four feet five inches[j] was the length, and the height in the breadth was eight feet seven inches,[k] like to the hangings of the court. 19Their pillars were six feet eleven inches,[l] silver, and the overlaying of their capitals, and their fillets, of silver. [20]All the pins of the tabernacle, and around the court, were of bronze.

[21]This is the amount of material used for the tabernacle, even the Tabernacle of the Testimony, as they were counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest. [22]Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that YHWH commanded Moses. [23]With him was Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a skillful workman, and an embroiderer in blue, in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen.

[24]All the gold that was used for the work in all the work of the sanctuary, even the gold of the offering, was twenty-nine talents, and seven hundred thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary. [25]The silver of those who were numbered of the congregation was one hundred talents, and one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary: [26]a beka a head, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for everyone who passed over to those who were numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty men. [27]The one hundred talents of silver were for casting the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the veil; one hundred sockets for the one hundred talents, a talent for a socket. [28]Of the one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, overlaid their capitals, and made fillets for them. [29]The bronze of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand four hundred shekels. [30]With this he made the sockets to the door of the Tent of Meeting, the bronze altar, the bronze grating for it, all the vessels of the altar, [31]the sockets around the court, the sockets of the gate of the court, all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins around the court.

39 Of the blue, purple, and scarlet, they made finely worked garments, for ministering in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron; as YHWH commanded Moses.

[2]He made the ephod of gold, blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen. [3]They beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, in the purple, in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, the work of the skillful workman. [4]They made shoulder straps for it, joined together. At the two ends it was joined together. [5]The skillfully woven band that was on it, with which to fasten it on, was of the same piece, like its work; of gold, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen; as YHWH commanded Moses.

[6]They worked the onyx stones, enclosed in settings of gold, engraved with the engravings of a signet, according to the names of the sons of Israel. [7]He put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod, to be stones of memorial for the children of Israel, as YHWH commanded Moses.

[8]He made the breastplate, the work of a skillful workman, like the work of the ephod; of gold, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen. [9]It was square. They made the breastplate double. Its length was a span, and its breadth a span, being double. [10]They set in it four rows of stones. A row of ruby, topaz, and beryl was the first row; [11]and the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire[a], and an emerald; [12]and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; [13]and the fourth row, a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. They were enclosed in gold settings. [14]The stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names; like the engravings of a signet, everyone according to his name, for the twelve tribes. [15]They made on the breastplate chains like cords, of braided work of pure gold. [16]They made two settings of gold, and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. [17]They put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. [18]The other two ends of the two braided chains they put on the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod, in its front. [19]They made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on its edge, which was toward the side of the ephod inward. [20]They made two rings of gold, and put them on the two shoulder straps of the ephod underneath, in its front, close by its coupling, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod. [21]They bound the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not come loose from the ephod, as YHWH commanded Moses.

[22]He made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue. [23]The opening of the robe in its midst was like the opening of a coat of mail, with a binding around its opening, that it should not be torn. [24]They made on the skirts of the robe pomegranates of blue, purple, scarlet, and twined linen. [25]They made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates around the skirts of the robe, between the pomegranates; [26]a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, around the skirts of the robe, to minister in, as YHWH commanded Moses.

[27]They made the coats of fine linen of woven work for Aaron, and for his sons, [28]and the turban of fine linen, and the linen headbands of fine linen, and the linen breeches of fine twined linen, [29]and the sash of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, the work of the embroiderer, as YHWH commanded Moses.

32Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting was finished. The children of Israel did according to all that YHWH commanded Moses; so they did. 33They brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent, with all its furniture, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, 34the covering of rams' skins dyed red, the covering of sea cow hides, the veil of the screen, 35the ark of the testimony with its poles, the mercy seat, 36the table, all its vessels, the show bread, 37the pure lampstand, its lamps, even the lamps to be set in order, all its vessels, the oil for the light, 38the golden altar, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, the screen for the door of the Tent, 39the bronze altar, its grating of bronze, its poles, all of its vessels, the basin and its base, 40the hangings of the court, its pillars, its sockets, the screen for the gate of the court, its cords, its pins, all the instruments of the service of the tabernacle, for the Tent of Meeting, 41the finely worked garments for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office. 42According to all that YHWH commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did all the work. 43Moses saw all the work, and look, they had done it as YHWH had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses blessed them.

40 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 2"On the first day of the first month you shall raise up the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting. 3You shall put the ark of the testimony in it, and you shall veil the ark with the curtain. 4You shall bring in the table, and set in order the things that are on it. You shall bring in the lampstand, and light its lamps. 5You shall set the golden altar for incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the screen of the door to the tabernacle. 6You shall set the altar of burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting. 7You shall set the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and shall put water in it. 8You shall set up the court around it, and hang up the screen of the gate of the court. 9You shall take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is in it, and shall make it holy, and all its furniture: and it will be holy. 10You shall anoint the altar of burnt offering, with all its vessels, and sanctify the altar: and the altar will be most holy. 11You shall anoint the basin and its base, and sanctify it. 12You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shall wash them with water. 13You shall put on Aaron the holy garments; and you shall anoint him, and sanctify him, that he may minister to me in the priest's office.

14You shall bring his sons, and put coats on them. 15You shall anoint them, as you anointed their father, that they may minister to me in the priest's office. Their anointing shall be to them for an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations." 16Moses did so.
According to all that YHWH commanded him, so he did.

17It happened in the first month in the second year,[a] on the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was set up. 18And Moses erected the tabernacle, and put its sockets in place, and set up its hooks and[b] its boards, and put in its bars, and he erected its pillars. 19He spread the covering over the tent, and put the roof of the tabernacle above on it, as YHWH commanded Moses. 20He took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the poles on the ark, and put the mercy seat above on the ark. 21He brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the curtain as the screen, and concealed the ark of the testimony, as YHWH commanded Moses. 22He put the table in the Tent of Meeting, on the side of the tabernacle northward, outside of the veil. 23He set the bread in order on it before YHWH, as YHWH commanded Moses. 24He put the lampstand in the Tent of Meeting, opposite the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward. 25He lit the lamps before YHWH, as YHWH commanded Moses. 26He put the golden altar in the Tent of Meeting before the veil; 27and he burnt incense of sweet spices on it, as YHWH commanded Moses. 28He put up the screen of the door to the tabernacle. 29He set the altar of burnt offering at the door of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the meal offering, as YHWH commanded Moses. 30He set the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water in it, with which to wash. 31Moses, Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and their feet there. 32When they went into the Tent of Meeting, and when they came near to the altar, they washed, as YHWH commanded Moses. 33He raised up the court around the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the screen of the gate of the court. So Moses finished the work.

34Then the cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of YHWH filled the tabernacle.
35Moses wasn't able to enter into the Tent of Meeting, because the cloud stayed on it, and YHWH's glory filled the tabernacle. 36When the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel went onward, throughout all their journeys; 37but if the cloud wasn't taken up, then they did not travel until the day that it was taken up.
38For the cloud of YHWH was on the tabernacle by day, and there was fire in the cloud by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

Leviticus

1 YHWH called to Moses, and spoke to him out of the Tent of Meeting, saying, 2"Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When anyone of you offers an offering to YHWH, you shall offer your offering of the livestock, from the herd and from the flock.

3"'If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall offer a male without blemish. He shall offer it at the door of the Tent of Meeting, that he may be accepted before YHWH. 4He shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. 5And he shall kill the bull before YHWH. Aaron's sons, the priests, shall present the blood and sprinkle the blood around on the altar that is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. 6And he shall skin the burnt offering, and cut it into pieces. 7The sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar, and lay wood in order on the fire; 8and Aaron's sons, the priests, shall lay the pieces, the head, and the fat in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar; 9but its entrails and its legs he shall wash with water. The priest shall burn the whole on the altar, for a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to YHWH.

10"'If his offering is from the flock,[a] from the sheep, or from the goats, for a burnt offering, he shall offer a male without blemish.[b] 11He shall kill it on the north side of the altar before YHWH. Aaron's sons, the priests, shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar. 12He shall cut it into its pieces, with its head and its fat. The priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar, 13but the entrails and the legs he shall wash with water. The priest shall offer the whole, and burn it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to YHWH.

14"'If his offering to YHWH is a burnt offering of birds, then he shall offer his offering of turtledoves, or of young pigeons. 15The priest shall bring it to the altar, and wring off its head, and burn it on the altar; and its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar; 16and he shall take away its crop with its filth, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, in the place of the ashes. 17He shall tear it by its wings, but shall not divide it apart. The priest shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to YHWH.

2 "'When anyone offers a grain offering to YHWH, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it.[a] 2He shall bring it to Aaron's sons, the priests; and he shall take his handful of its fine flour, and of its oil, with all its frankincense; and the priest shall burn its memorial on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to YHWH. 3That which is left of the meal offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'. It is a most holy thing of the offerings of YHWH made by fire.

4"'When you offer an offering of a meal offering baked in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil. 5If your offering is a meal offering of the griddle, it shall be of unleavened fine flour, mixed with oil. 6You shall cut it in pieces, and pour oil on it. It is a meal offering. 7If your offering is a meal offering of the pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. 8And you[b] shall bring the meal offering that is made[c] of these things to YHWH, and it shall be presented to the priest, and he shall bring it to the altar. 9The priest shall take from the meal offering its memorial, and shall burn it on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to YHWH. 10That which is left of the meal offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'. It is a thing most holy of the offerings of YHWH made by fire.

11"'No meal offering, which you shall offer to YHWH, shall be made with yeast; for you shall burn no yeast, nor any honey, as an offering made by fire to YHWH. 12As an offering of firstfruits you shall offer them to YHWH: but they shall not ascend for a pleasant aroma on the altar. 13Every offering of your meal offering you shall season with salt; neither shall you allow the salt of the covenant of your God[d] to be lacking from your meal offering. With all your offerings you shall offer salt.

14"'If you offer a meal offering of first fruits to YHWH, you shall offer for the meal offering of your first fruits grain in the ear parched with fire, bruised grain of the fresh ear. 15You shall put oil on it, and lay frankincense on it: it is a meal offering. 16The priest shall burn as its memorial, part of its bruised grain, and part of its oil, along with all its frankincense: it is an offering made by fire to YHWH.

4 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'If anyone sins unintentionally, in any of the things which YHWH has commanded not to be done, and does any one of them: [3]if the anointed priest sins so as to bring guilt on the people, then let him offer for his sin, which he has sinned, a young bull without blemish to YHWH for a sin offering. [4]He shall bring the bull to the door of the Tent of Meeting before YHWH; and he shall lay his hand on the head of the bull and kill the bull before YHWH. [5]The anointed priest shall take some of the blood of the bull, and bring it to the Tent of Meeting. [6]The priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before YHWH, before the veil of the sanctuary. [7]The priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense before YHWH, which is in the Tent of Meeting; and he shall pour out all of rest of the blood of the bull at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. [8]He shall take all the fat of the bull of the sin offering off of it; the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat that is on the entrails, [9]and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, he shall take away, [10]as it is taken off of the bull of the sacrifice of peace offerings. The priest shall burn them on the altar of burnt offering. [11]The bull's skin, all its flesh, with its head, and with its legs, its entrails, and its dung, [12]even the whole bull shall he carry forth outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire. Where the ashes are poured out it shall be burned.

[13]"'If the whole congregation of Israel sins, and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done any of the things which YHWH has commanded not to be done, and are guilty; [14]when the sin in which they have sinned is known, then the assembly shall offer a young bull for a sin offering, and bring it before the Tent of Meeting. [15]The elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before YHWH; and the bull shall be killed before YHWH. [16]The anointed priest shall bring of the blood of the bull to the Tent of Meeting: [17]and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before YHWH, before the veil. [18]He shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before YHWH, that is in the Tent of Meeting; and the rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. [19]All its fat he shall take from it, and burn it on the altar. [20]Thus shall he do with the bull; as he did with the bull of the sin offering, so shall he do with this; and the priest shall make atonement for them, and they shall be forgiven. [21]He shall carry forth the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull. It is the sin offering for the assembly.

22"'When a ruler sins, and unwittingly does any one of all the things which YHWH his God has commanded not to be done, and is guilty; 23if his sin, in which he has sinned, is made known to him, he shall bring as his offering a goat, a male without blemish. 24He shall lay his hand on the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before YHWH. It is a sin offering. 25The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering. He shall pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering. 26All its fat he shall burn on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin, and he will be forgiven.

27"'If anyone of the common people sins unwittingly, in doing any of the things which YHWH has commanded not to be done, and is guilty; 28if his sin, which he has sinned, is made known to him, then he shall bring for his offering a goat, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has sinned. 29He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill the sin offering in the place of burnt offering. 30The priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar. 31All its fat he shall take away, like the fat is taken away from off of the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it on the altar for a pleasant aroma to YHWH; and the priest shall make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven.

32"'If he brings a lamb as his offering for a sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish. 33He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering. 34The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and all the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar. 35All its fat he shall take away, like the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn them on the altar, on the offerings of YHWH made by fire; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin that he has sinned, and he will be forgiven.

5 "'If anyone sins, in that he hears the voice of adjuration, he being a witness, whether he has seen or known, if he doesn't report it, then he shall bear his iniquity.

2"'Or if anyone touches any unclean thing, whether it is the carcass of an unclean animal, or the carcass of unclean livestock, or the carcass of unclean crawling creatures, and it is hidden from him, and he is unclean, then he shall be guilty.

3"'Or if he touches the uncleanness of man, whatever his uncleanness is with which he is unclean, and it is hidden from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty.

4"'Or if anyone swears rashly with his lips to do evil, or to do good, whatever it is that a man might utter rashly with an oath, and it is hidden from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty of one of these. 5It shall be, when he is guilty of one of these, he shall confess that in which he has sinned: 6and he shall bring his trespass offering to YHWH for his sin which he has sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin.[a]

7"'If he can't afford a lamb, then he shall bring his trespass offering for that in which he has sinned, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, to YHWH; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. 8He shall bring them to the priest, who shall first offer the one which is for the sin offering, and wring off its head from its neck, but shall not sever it completely. 9He shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering. 10He shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the ordinance; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin which he has sinned, and he shall be forgiven.

11"'But if he can't afford two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he shall bring his offering for that in which he has sinned, the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering. He shall put no oil on it, neither shall he put any frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering. 12He shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it as the memorial portion, and burn it on the altar, on the offerings of YHWH made by fire. It is a sin offering. 13The priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin that he has sinned in any of these things, and he will be forgiven; and the rest shall be the priest's, as the meal offering.'"

14YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 15"If anyone commits a trespass, and sins unwittingly, in the holy things of YHWH; then he shall bring his trespass offering to YHWH, a ram without blemish from the flock, according to your estimation in silver by shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering. 16He shall make restitution for that which he has done wrong in the holy thing, and shall add a fifth part to it, and give it to the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and he will be forgiven.

17"If anyone sins, and does any of the things which YHWH has commanded not to be done; though he did not know it, yet he is guilty, and shall bear his iniquity. 18He shall bring a ram without blemish from of the flock, according to your estimation, for a trespass offering, to the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning the thing in which he sinned and did not know it, and he will be forgiven. 19It is a trespass offering. He is certainly guilty before YHWH."

6 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 2"If anyone sins, and commits a trespass against YHWH, and deals falsely with his neighbor in a matter of deposit, or of bargain, or of robbery, or has oppressed his neighbor, 3or has found what was lost and lies about it and swears falsely concerning any of the sinful things that a man may do; 4then it shall be, if he has sinned, and is guilty, he shall restore that which he took by robbery, or the thing which he has gotten by oppression, or the deposit which was committed to him, or the lost thing which he found, 5or any thing[a] about which he has sworn falsely; he shall restore it even in full, and shall add a fifth part more to it. To him to whom it belongs he shall give it, in the day of his being found guilty. 6He shall bring his trespass offering to YHWH, a ram without blemish from the flock, according to your estimation, for a trespass offering, to the priest. 7The priest shall make atonement for him before YHWH, and he will be forgiven concerning whatever he does to become guilty."

8YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 9"Command Aaron and his sons, saying, 'This is the law of the burnt offering: the burnt offering shall be on the hearth on the altar all night until the morning; and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it.[b] 10The priest shall put on his linen garment, and he shall put on his linen breeches upon his body; and he shall remove the ashes from where the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar. 11He shall take off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a clean place. 12The fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it, it shall not go out; and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning: and he shall lay the burnt offering in order upon it, and shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings. 13Fire shall be kept burning on the altar continually; it shall not go out.

offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before YHWH, before the altar. 15He shall take from there his handful of the fine flour of the meal offering, and of its oil, and all the frankincense which is on the meal offering, and shall burn it on the altar for a pleasant aroma, as its memorial, to YHWH. 16That which is left of it Aaron and his sons shall eat. It shall be eaten without yeast in a holy place. They shall eat it in the court of the Tent of Meeting 17It shall not be baked with yeast. I have given it as their portion of my offerings made by fire. It is most holy, as the sin offering, and as the trespass offering. 18Every male among the descendants of Aaron shall eat of it, as their portion forever throughout your generations, from the offerings of YHWH made by fire. Whoever touches them shall be holy.'"

19YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 20"This is the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer to YHWH in the day when he is anointed: the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering perpetually, half of it in the morning, and half of it in the evening. 21It shall be made with oil in a griddle. When it is soaked, you shall bring it in. You shall offer the meal offering in baked pieces for a pleasant aroma to YHWH. 22The anointed priest that will be in his place from among his sons shall offer it. By a statute forever, it shall be wholly burnt to YHWH. 23Every meal offering of a priest shall be wholly burned. It shall not be eaten."

24YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 25"Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, 'This is the law of the sin offering: in the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall be killed before YHWH. It is most holy. 26The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place, in the court of the Tent of Meeting.
27Whatever shall touch its flesh shall be holy. When there is any of its blood sprinkled on a garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled in a holy place. 28But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken; and if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, it shall be scoured, and rinsed in water. 29Every male among the priests shall eat of it: it is most holy. 30No sin offering, of which any of the blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be eaten: it shall be burned with fire.

7 "'This is the law of the trespass offering. It is most holy. 2In the place where they kill the burnt offering, he shall kill the trespass offering;
and its blood he shall sprinkle around on the altar. 3He shall offer all of its fat: the fat tail, and the fat that covers the entrails, 4and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away; 5and the priest shall burn them on the altar for an offering made by fire to YHWH: it is a trespass offering. 6Every male among the priests may eat of it. It shall be eaten in a holy place. It is most holy.

7"'As is the sin offering, so is the trespass offering; there is one law for them. The priest who makes atonement with them shall have it. 8The priest who offers any man's burnt offering, even the priest shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered. 9Every meal offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the pan, and on the griddle, shall be the priest's who offers it. 10Every meal offering, mixed with oil or dry, belongs to all the sons of Aaron, one as well as another.

11"'This is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which one shall offer to YHWH. 12If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mixed with oil. 13With cakes of leavened bread he shall offer his offering with the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving. 14Of it he shall offer one out of each offering for a heave offering to YHWH. It shall be the priest's who sprinkles the blood of the peace offerings. 15The flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the day of his offering. He shall not leave any of it until the morning.

16"'But if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow, or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day that he offers his sacrifice; and on the next day what remains of it shall be eaten: 17but what remains of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burned with fire. 18If any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings is eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed to him who offers it. It will be an abomination, and the soul who eats any of it will bear his iniquity.

19"'The flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten. It shall be burned with fire. As for the flesh, everyone who is clean may eat it; 20but the soul who eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, that belongs to YHWH, having his uncleanness on him, that soul shall be cut off from his people. 21When anyone touches any unclean thing, the uncleanness of man, or an unclean animal, or any unclean abomination, and eats some of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which belong to YHWH, that soul shall be cut off from his people.'"

22YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 23"Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'You shall eat no fat, of bull, or sheep, or goat. 24The fat of that which dies of itself, and the fat of that which is torn of animals, may be used for any other service, but you shall in no way eat of it. 25For whoever eats the fat of the animal, of which men offer an offering made by fire to YHWH, even the soul who eats it shall be cut off from his people. [26]You shall not eat any blood, whether it is of bird or of animal, in any of your dwellings. [27]Whoever it is who eats any blood, that soul shall be cut off from his people.'"

[28]YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [29]"Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings to YHWH shall bring his offering to YHWH out of the sacrifice of his peace offerings. [30]With his own hands he shall bring the offerings of YHWH made by fire. He shall bring the fat with the breast, that the breast may be waved for a wave offering before YHWH. [31]The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'. [32]The right thigh you shall give to the priest for a heave offering out of the sacrifices of your peace offerings. [33]He among the sons of Aaron who offers the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, shall have the right thigh for a portion. [34]For the waved breast and the heaved thigh I have taken from the children of Israel out of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons as their portion forever from the children of Israel.'"

[35]This is the anointing portion of Aaron, and the anointing portion of his sons, out of the offerings of YHWH made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister to YHWH in the priest's office; [36]which YHWH commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, in the day that he anointed them. It is their portion forever throughout their generations. [37]This is the law of the burnt offering, of the meal offering, and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the consecration, and of the sacrifice of peace offerings; [38]which YHWH commanded Moses in Mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel to offer their offerings to YHWH, in the wilderness of Sinai.

8 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and the bull of the sin offering, and the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread; [3]and assemble all the congregation at the door of the Tent of Meeting."

[4]Moses did as YHWH commanded him; and the congregation was assembled at the door of the Tent of Meeting. [5]Moses said to the congregation, "This is the thing which YHWH has commanded to be done." [6]Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water. [7]He put the coat on him, tied the sash on him, clothed him with the robe, put the ephod on him, and he tied the skillfully woven band of the ephod on him, and fastened it to him with it. [8]He placed the breastplate on him; and in the breastplate he put the Urim and the Thummim. [9]He set the turban on his head; and on the turban, in front, he set the golden plate, the holy crown; as YHWH commanded Moses. [10]Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and sanctified them. [11]He sprinkled it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its vessels, and the basin and its base, to sanctify them. [12]He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him. [13]Moses brought Aaron's sons, and clothed them with coats, and tied sashes on them, and put headbands on them; as YHWH commanded Moses.

[14]He brought the bull of the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull of the sin offering. [15]He killed it; and Moses took the blood, and put it around on the horns of the altar with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the altar, and sanctified it, to make atonement for it. [16]He took all the fat that was on the entrails, and the cover of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat; and Moses burned it on the altar. [17]But the bull, and its skin, and its flesh, and its dung, he burned with fire outside the camp; as YHWH commanded Moses. [18]He presented the ram of the burnt offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. [19]He killed it; and Moses sprinkled the blood around on the altar. [20]He cut the ram into its pieces; and Moses burned the head, and the pieces, and the fat. [21]He washed the entrails and the legs with water; and Moses burned the whole ram on the altar. It was a burnt offering for a pleasant aroma. It was an offering made by fire to YHWH; as YHWH commanded Moses. [22]He presented the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. [23]He killed it; and Moses took some of its blood, and put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot. [24]He brought Aaron's sons; and Moses put some of the blood on the tip of their right ear, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the great toe of their right foot; and Moses sprinkled the blood around on the altar. [25]He took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the entrails, and the cover of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right thigh; [26]and out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before YHWH, he took one unleavened cake, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat, and on the right thigh. [27]He put all these in Aaron's hands and in his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before YHWH. [28]Moses took them from their hands, and burned them on the altar on the burnt offering. They were a consecration for a pleasant aroma. It was an offering made by fire to YHWH. [29]Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before YHWH. It was Moses' portion of the ram of consecration, as YHWH commanded Moses. [30]Moses took some of the anointing oil, and some of the blood which was on the altar, and sprinkled it on Aaron, on his garments, and on his sons, and on his sons' garments with him, and sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

31Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, "Boil the flesh at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and there eat it and the bread that is in the basket of consecration, as I commanded, saying, 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it.' 32What remains of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn with fire. 33You shall not go out from the door of the Tent of Meeting seven days, until the days of your consecration are fulfilled: for he shall consecrate you seven days. 34What has been done this day, so YHWH has commanded to do, to make atonement for you. 35You shall stay at the door of the Tent of Meeting day and night seven days, and keep YHWH's command, that you do not die: for so I am[a] commanded." 36Aaron and his sons did all the things which YHWH commanded by Moses.

9 It happened on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel; 2and he said to Aaron, "Take a calf from the herd for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before YHWH. 3You shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'Take a male goat for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both a year old, without blemish, for a burnt offering; 4and a bull and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before YHWH; and a meal offering mixed with oil: for today YHWH appears to you.'"

5They brought what Moses commanded before the Tent of Meeting: and all the congregation drew near and stood before YHWH. 6Moses said, "This is the thing which YHWH commanded that you should do: and the glory of YHWH shall appear to you." 7Moses said to Aaron, "Draw near to the altar, and offer your sin offering, and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself, and for the people; and offer the offering of the people, and make atonement for them; as YHWH commanded."

8So Aaron drew near to the altar, and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself. 9The sons of Aaron presented the blood to him; and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it on the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the altar: 10but the fat, and the kidneys, and the cover from the liver of the sin offering, he burned upon the altar; as YHWH commanded Moses. 11The flesh and the skin he burned with fire outside the camp. 12He killed the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons delivered the blood to him, and he sprinkled it around on the altar. 13They delivered the burnt offering to him, piece by piece, and the head: and he burned them upon the altar. 14He washed the entrails and the legs, and burned them on the burnt offering on the altar. 15He presented the people's offering, and took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people, and killed it, and offered it for sin, like the first. 16He presented the burnt offering, and offered it according to the ordinance. 17He presented the meal offering, and filled his hand from there, and burned it upon the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning. 18He also killed the bull and the ram, the sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people: and Aaron's sons delivered to him the blood, which he sprinkled around on the altar, 19and the fat of the bull and of the ram, the fat tail, and that which covers the entrails, and the kidneys, and the cover of the liver: 20and they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burned the fat on the altar: 21and the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved for a wave offering before YHWH, as Moses commanded. 22Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people, and blessed them; and he came down from offering the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings.

23Moses and Aaron went into the Tent of Meeting, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of YHWH appeared to all the people. 24There came forth fire from before YHWH, and consumed the burnt offering and the fat upon the altar: and when all the people saw it, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

10 And the two[a] sons of Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, each took his censer and put fire in it, and laid incense on it, and offered strange fire before YHWH, which he[b] had not commanded them. 2And fire came forth from before YHWH, and devoured them, and they died before YHWH.

3Then Moses said to Aaron, "This is what YHWH spoke of, saying,

'I will show myself holy to those who come near me, and before all the people I will be glorified.'"

Aaron held his peace. 4Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, "Draw near, carry your brothers from before the sanctuary out of the camp." 5So they drew near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp, as Moses had said.

6Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and to Ithamar, his sons,[c] "Do not let the hair of your heads go loose, neither tear your clothes; that you do not die, and that he not be angry with all the congregation: but let your brothers, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which YHWH has kindled. 7You shall not go out from the door of the Tent of Meeting, lest you die; for the anointing oil of YHWH is on you." They did according to the word of Moses.

8YHWH spoke to Aaron, saying, 9"Drink no wine nor strong drink, you, nor your sons with you, when you go into the Tent of Meeting,[a] that you do not die: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations: 10and that you are to make a distinction between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean; 11and that you are to teach the children of Israel all the statutes which YHWH has spoken to them by Moses."

12Moses spoke to Aaron, and to Eleazar and to Ithamar, his sons who were left, "Take the meal offering that remains of the offerings of YHWH made by fire, and eat it without yeast beside the altar; for it is most holy; 13and you shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your portion, and your sons' portion, of the offerings of YHWH made by fire: for so I am commanded. 14The waved breast and the heaved thigh you shall eat in a clean place, you, and your sons, and your daughters with you: for they are given as your portion, and your sons' portion, out of the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the children of Israel. 15The heaved thigh and the waved breast they shall bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before YHWH: and it shall be yours, and your sons' with you, as a portion forever; as YHWH has commanded."

16Moses diligently inquired about the goat of the sin offering, and, look, it was burned: and he was angry with Eleazar and with Ithamar, the sons of Aaron who were left, saying, 17"Why haven't you eaten the sin offering in the place of the sanctuary, seeing it is most holy, and he has given it to you[b] to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before YHWH? 18Look, its blood was not brought into the inner part of the sanctuary: you certainly should have eaten it in the sanctuary, as I commanded."

19Aaron spoke to Moses, "Look, this day they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before YHWH; and such things as these have happened to me: and if I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been pleasing in the sight of YHWH?"

11 YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them, [2]"Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'These are the living things which you may eat among all the animals that are on the earth. [3]Whatever parts the hoof, and is cloven-footed, and chews the cud among the animals, that you may eat.

[4]"'Nevertheless these you shall not eat of those that chew the cud, or of those who part the hoof:[a] the camel, because he chews the cud but doesn't have a parted hoof, he is unclean to you. [5]The coney, because he chews the cud but doesn't have a parted hoof, he is unclean to you. [6]The hare, because she chews the cud but doesn't part the hoof, she is unclean to you. [7]The pig, because he has a split hoof, and is cloven-footed, but doesn't chew the cud, he is unclean to you. [8]Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch; they are unclean to you.

[9]"'These you may eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, that you may eat. [10]All that do not have fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of all the living creatures that are in the waters, they are an abomination to you, [11]and you detest them. You shall not eat of their flesh, and you shall detest their carcasses. [12]Whatever has no fins nor scales in the waters, that is an abomination to you.

[13]"'These you shall detest among the birds; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the vulture, and the black vulture, [14]and the red kite, any kind of black kite, [15]any kind of raven, [16]the horned owl, the screech owl, and the gull, any kind of hawk, [17]the little owl, the cormorant, the great owl, [18]the white owl, the desert owl, the osprey, [19]the stork,[b] any kind of heron, the hoopoe, and the bat.

[20]"'All flying insects that walk on all fours are an abomination to you. [21]Yet you may eat these: of all winged crawling creatures that go on all fours, which have legs above their feet, with which to hop on the earth. [22]Even of these you may eat: any kind of locust, any kind of katydid, any kind of cricket, and any kind of grasshopper. [23]But all winged crawling creatures which have four feet, are an abomination to you.

12 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying,
2"Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'If a woman conceives, and bears a male child, then she shall be unclean seven days; as in the days of her monthly period she shall be unclean. 3In the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. 4She shall continue in the blood of purification thirty-three days. She shall not touch any holy thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying are completed. 5But if she bears a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her period; and she shall continue in the blood of purification sixty-six days.

6"'When the days of her purification are completed, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring to the priest at the door of the Tent of Meeting, a year old lamb for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin offering: 7and he shall offer it before YHWH, and[d] make atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the fountain of her blood.

bears, whether a male or a female.

she shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons;[e] the one for a burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and the priest shall make atonement for her, and she shall be clean.'"

13 YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 2"When a man shall have a rising in his body's skin, or a scab, or a bright spot, and it becomes in the skin of his body the plague of leprosy, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons, the priests: 3and the priest shall examine the plague in the skin of the body: and if the hair in the plague has turned white, and the appearance of the plague is deeper than the body's skin, it is the plague of leprosy; and the priest shall examine him, and pronounce him unclean. [4]If the bright spot is white in the skin of his body, and its appearance isn't deeper than the skin, and its hair hasn't turned white, then the priest shall isolate the infected person for seven days. [5]The priest shall examine him on the seventh day, and, look, if in his eyes the plague is arrested, and the plague hasn't spread in the skin, then the priest shall isolate him for seven more days. [6]The priest shall examine him again on the seventh day; and look, if the plague has faded, and the plague hasn't spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. It is a scab. He shall wash his clothes, and be clean. [7]But if the scab spreads on the skin, after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall show himself to the priest again. [8]The priest shall examine him; and look, if the scab has spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is leprosy.

[9]"When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought to the priest; [10]and the priest shall examine him. Look, if there is a white rising in the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and there is raw flesh in the rising, [11]it is a chronic leprosy in the skin of his body, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. He shall not isolate him, for he is unclean.

[12]"If the leprosy breaks out all over the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of the infected person from his head even to his feet, as far as it appears to the priest; [13]then the priest shall examine him; and, look, if the leprosy has covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean of the plague. It has all turned white: he is clean. [14]But whenever raw flesh appears in him, he shall be unclean. [15]The priest shall examine the raw flesh, and pronounce him unclean: the raw flesh is unclean. It is leprosy. [16]Or if the raw flesh turns again, and is changed to white, then he shall come to the priest; [17]and the priest shall examine him; and, look, if the plague has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him clean of the plague. He is clean.

[18]"When the body has a boil on its skin, and it has healed, [19]and in the place of the boil there is a white rising, or a bright spot, reddish-white, then it shall be shown to the priest; [20]and the priest shall examine it; and look, if its appearance is lower than the skin, and its hair has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. It has broken out in the boil. [21]But if the priest examines it, and look, there are no white hairs in it, and it isn't deeper than the skin, but is dim, then the priest shall isolate him seven days. [22]If it spreads in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a plague.[a] 23But if the bright spot stays in its place, and hasn't spread, it is the scar from the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24"Or when the body has a burn from fire on its skin, and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish-white, or white, 25then the priest shall examine it; and look, if the hair in the bright spot has turned white, and its appearance is deeper than the skin; it is leprosy. It has broken out in the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. 26But if the priest examines it, and look, there is no white hair in the bright spot, and it isn't lower than the skin, but is faded; then the priest shall isolate him seven days. 27The priest shall examine him on the seventh day. If it has spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. 28If the bright spot stays in its place, and hasn't spread in the skin, but is faded, it is the swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; for it is the scar from the burn.

29"When a man or woman has a plague on the head or on the beard, 30then the priest shall examine the plague; and look, if its appearance is deeper than the skin, and the hair in it is yellow and thin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is an itch, it is leprosy of the head or of the beard. 31If the priest examines the plague of itching, and look, its appearance isn't deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall isolate him the person infected with itching seven days. 32On the seventh day the priest shall examine the plague; and look, if the itch hasn't spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the appearance of the itch isn't deeper than the skin, 33then he shall be shaved, but he shall not shave the itch; and the priest shall shut him up who has the itch seven more days. 34On the seventh day, the priest shall examine the itch; and look, if the itch hasn't spread in the skin, and its appearance isn't deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. He shall wash his clothes, and be clean. 35But if the itch spreads in the skin after his cleansing, 36then the priest shall examine him; and look, if the itch has spread in the skin, the priest shall not look for the yellow hair; he is unclean. 37But if in his eyes the itch is arrested, and black hair has grown in it; the itch is healed, he is clean. The priest shall pronounce him clean.

38"When a man or a woman has bright spots in the skin of the body, even white bright spots; 39then the priest shall examine them; and look, if the bright spots on the skin of their body are a dull white, it is a harmless rash, it has broken out in the skin; he is clean.

40"If a man's hair has fallen from his head, he is bald. He is clean. 41If his hair has fallen off from the front part of his head, he is forehead bald. He is clean. 42But if there is on the bald head, or the bald forehead, a reddish-white plague; it is leprosy breaking out in his bald head, or his bald forehead. 43Then the priest shall examine him; and, look, if the rising of the plague is reddish-white in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, like the appearance of leprosy in the skin of the flesh, 44he is a leprous man. He is unclean. The priest shall surely pronounce him unclean. His plague is on his head.

47"The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it is a woolen garment, or a linen garment; 48whether it is in warp, or woof; of linen, or of wool; whether in a skin, or in anything made of skin; 49if the plague is greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything made of skin; it is the plague of leprosy, and shall be shown to the priest. 50The priest shall examine the plague, and isolate the plague seven days. 51He shall examine the plague on the seventh day. If the plague has spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in the skin, whatever use the skin is used for, the plague is a destructive mildew. It is unclean. 52He shall burn the garment, whether the warp or the woof, in wool or in linen, or anything of skin, in which the plague is: for it is a destructive mildew. It shall be burned in the fire.

53"If the priest examines it, and look, the plague hasn't spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin; 54then the priest shall command that they wash the thing in which the plague is, and he shall isolate it seven more days. 55Then the priest shall examine it, after the plague is washed; and look, if the plague hasn't changed its color, and the plague hasn't spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it in the fire. It is a mildewed spot, whether the bareness is inside or outside. 56If the priest looks, and look, the plague has faded after it is washed, then he shall tear it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof: 57and if it appears again in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin, it is spreading. You shall burn with fire that in which the plague is. 58The garment, either the warp, or the woof, or whatever thing of skin it is, which you shall wash, if the plague has departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and it will be clean."

59This is the law of the plague of mildew in a garment of wool or linen, either in the warp, or the woof, or in anything of skin, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

14 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying,

2"This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing. He shall be brought to the priest, 3and the priest shall go forth out of the camp. The priest shall examine him, and look, if the plague of leprosy is healed in the leper, 4then the priest shall command them to take for him who is to be cleansed two living clean birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop. 5The priest shall command them to kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water. 6As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water. 7He shall sprinkle on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird go into the open field.

8"He who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and bathe himself in water; and he shall be clean. After that he shall come into the camp, but shall dwell outside his tent seven days. 9It shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off. He shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his body in water, then he shall be clean.

10"On the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish,[a] and one ewe lamb a year old without blemish, and three tenths of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering, mingled with oil, and one log of oil. 11The priest who cleanses him shall set the man who is to be cleansed, and those things, before YHWH, at the door of the Tent of Meeting.

12"The priest shall take one of the male lambs, and offer him for a trespass offering, with the log of oil, and wave them for a wave offering before YHWH. 13He shall kill the male lamb in the place where they kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the place of the sanctuary; for as the sin offering is the priest's, so is the trespass offering. It is most holy. 14The priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his

19"The priest shall offer the sin offering, and[a] make atonement for him who is to be cleansed because of his uncleanness: and afterward he shall kill the burnt offering; 20and the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the meal offering on the altar.[b] The priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

21"If he is poor, and can't afford so much, then he shall take one male lamb for a trespass offering to be waved, to make atonement for him, and one tenth of an ephah of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering, and a log of oil; 22and two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to afford; and the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering.

23"On the eighth day he shall bring them for his cleansing to the priest, to the door of the Tent of Meeting, before YHWH. 24The priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before YHWH. 25He shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering. The priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. 26The priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand; 27and the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before YHWH. 28Then the priest shall put some of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the place of the blood of the trespass offering. 29The rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before YHWH. 30He shall offer one of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons, such as he is able to afford, 31the[c] one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meal offering.

32This is the law for him in whom is the plague of leprosy, who is not able to afford the sacrifice for his cleansing.

33YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 34"When you have come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put a spreading mildew in a house in the land of your possession, 35then he who owns the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, 'There seems to me to be some sort of plague in the house.' 36The priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest goes in to examine the plague, that all that is in the house not be made unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to inspect the house. 37He shall examine the plague; and look, if the plague is in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, and it appears to be deeper than the wall; 38then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days. 39The priest shall come again on the seventh day, and look.[a] If the plague has spread in the walls of the house, 40then the priest shall command that they take out the stones in which is the plague, and cast them into an unclean place outside of the city: 41and he shall cause the inside of the house to be scraped all over, and they shall pour out the mortar, that they scraped off, outside of the city into an unclean place. 42They shall take other[b] stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house.

43"If the plague comes again, and breaks out in the house, after he has taken out the stones, and after he has scraped the house, and after it was plastered; 44then the priest shall come in and look; and look, if the plague has spread in the house, it is a destructive mildew in the house. It is unclean. 45And he shall break down the house, its stones, and its timber, and all the house's mortar. He shall carry them out of the city into an unclean place.

46"Moreover he who goes into the house while it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening. 47He who lies down in the house shall wash his clothes;[c] and he who eats in the house shall wash his clothes.

48"If the priest shall come in, and examine it, and look, the plague hasn't spread in the house, after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed. 49To cleanse the house he shall take

So shall he make atonement for the house; and it shall be clean."

54This is the law for any plague of leprosy, and for an itch, 55and for the destructive mildew of a garment, and for a house, 56and for a rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot; 57to teach when it is unclean, and when it is clean.

This is the law of leprosy.

15 YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 2"Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When any man has a discharge from his body, because of his discharge he is unclean. 3This shall be his uncleanness in his discharge: whether his body runs with his discharge, or his body has stopped from his discharge, it is his uncleanness. All the days of the discharge of his body, even if his body obstructs his discharge,[a] it is his uncleanness.

4"'Every bed whereon he who has the discharge lies shall be unclean; and everything he sits on shall be unclean. 5Whoever touches his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. 6He who sits on anything whereon the man who has the discharge sat shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

7"'He who touches the body of him who has the discharge shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

8"'If he who has the discharge spits on him who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

12"'The earthen vessel, which he who has the discharge touches, shall be broken; and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13"'When he who has a discharge is cleansed of his discharge, then he shall count to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes; and he shall bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.

14"'On the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before YHWH to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and give them to the priest: 15and the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. The priest shall make atonement for him before YHWH for his discharge.

16"'If any man has an emission of semen, then he shall bathe all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the evening. 17Every garment, and every skin, whereon the semen is, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening. 18If a man lies with a woman and there is an emission of semen, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the evening.

19"'If a woman has a discharge, and her discharge in her flesh is blood, she shall be in her impurity seven days: and whoever touches her shall be unclean until the evening.

20"'Everything that she lies on in her impurity shall be unclean. Everything also that she sits on shall be unclean. 21Whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. 22Whoever touches anything that she sits on shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. 23If it is on the bed, or on anything whereon she sits, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until the evening.

25"'If a woman has a discharge of her blood many days not in the time of her period, or if she has a discharge beyond the time of her period; all the days of the discharge of her uncleanness shall be as in the days of her period: she is unclean. 26Every bed whereon she lies all the days of her discharge shall be to her as the bed of her period: and everything whereon she sits shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her period. 27Whoever touches these things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

28"'But if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall count to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean. 29On the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the Tent of Meeting. 30The priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her before YHWH for the uncleanness of her discharge.

31"'Thus you shall separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, so they will not die in their uncleanness, when they defile my tabernacle that is in their midst.'"

32This is the law of him who has a discharge, and of him who has an emission of semen, so that he is unclean thereby; 33and of her who has her period, and of a man or woman who has a discharge, and of him who lies with her who is unclean.

16 YHWH spoke to Moses, after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they drew near before YHWH, and died; 2and YHWH said to Moses, "Tell Aaron your brother, not to come at all times into the Most Holy Place within the veil, before the mercy seat which is on the ark; lest he die: for I will appear in the cloud on the mercy seat.

3"Herewith shall Aaron come into the sanctuary: with a young bull for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering. 4He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches on his body, and shall put on the linen sash, and he shall be dressed with the linen turban. They are the holy garments. He shall bathe[a] his body in water, and put them on. 5He shall take from the congregation of the children of Israel two male goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

6"Aaron shall offer the bull of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make atonement for himself and for his house. 7He shall take the two goats, and set them before YHWH at the door of the Tent of Meeting. 8Aaron shall cast lots for the two goats; one lot for YHWH, and the other lot for the scapegoat.[b] 9Aaron shall present the goat on which the lot fell for YHWH, and offer him for a sin offering. 10But the goat, on which the lot fell for the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before YHWH, to make atonement for him, to send 15"Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people,[a] and bring his blood within the veil, and do with his blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat: 16and he shall make atonement for the Holy Place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions, even all their sins; and so he shall do for the Tent of Meeting, that dwells with them in the midst of their uncleanness. 17There shall be no one in the Tent of Meeting when he enters to make atonement in the Holy Place, until he comes out, and has made atonement for himself and for his household, and for all the assembly of Israel.

18"He shall go out to the altar that is before YHWH and make atonement for it, and shall take some of the bull's blood, and some of the goat's blood, and put it around on the horns of the altar. 19He shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and make it holy from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

20"When he has made an end of atoning for the Holy Place, the Tent of Meeting, and the altar,[b] he shall present the live goat. 21Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions, even all their sins; and he shall put them on the head of the goat, and shall send him away into the wilderness by the hand of a man who is in readiness. 22The goat shall carry all their iniquities on himself to a solitary land, and he shall let the goat go in the wilderness.

26"He who lets the goat go for the scapegoat shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp. 27The bull for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be carried forth outside the camp; and they shall burn their skins, their flesh, and their dung with fire. 28He who burns them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

29"It shall be a statute to you forever: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall humble your souls, and shall do no manner of work, both the native and the foreigner who sojourns in your midst: 30for on this day shall atonement be made for you, to cleanse you; from all your sins you shall be clean before YHWH. 31It is a Sabbath of solemn rest to you, and you shall afflict your souls; it is a statute forever. 32The priest, who is anointed and who is consecrated to be priest in his father's place, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen garments, even the holy garments. 33Then he shall make atonement for the Holy Sanctuary; and he shall make atonement for the Tent of Meeting and for the altar; and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.

34"This shall be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for the children of Israel once in the year because of all their sins."

It was done as YHWH commanded Moses.

17 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 2"Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them: 'This is the thing which YHWH has commanded, 3Whatever man there is of the house of Israel,[c] who kills a bull, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or who kills it outside the camp, 4and hasn't brought it to the door of the Tent of Meeting, so as to sacrifice it for a burnt offering or peace offering to YHWH to be acceptable as a soothing aroma, and whoever shall kill it outside, and shall not bring it to the door of the 5This is to the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they sacrifice in the open field, that they may bring them to YHWH, to the door of the Tent of Meeting, to the priest, and sacrifice them for sacrifices of peace offerings to YHWH. 6The priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of YHWH at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and burn the fat for a pleasant aroma to YHWH. 7They shall no more sacrifice their sacrifices to the goat idols, after which they play the prostitute. This shall be a statute forever to them throughout their generations.'

8"'You shall say to them, 'Any man there is of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who live as foreigners among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice, 9and doesn't bring it to the door of the Tent of Meeting, to sacrifice it to YHWH; that man shall be cut off from his people.

her freedom; they shall be punished. They shall not be put to death, because she was not free. 21He shall bring his trespass offering to YHWH, to the door of the Tent of Meeting, even a ram for a trespass offering. 22The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before YHWH for his sin which he has committed: and the sin which he has committed shall be forgiven him.

23"'When you come into the land,[a] and have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as forbidden.[b] Three years shall they be forbidden to you. It shall not be eaten. 24But in the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy, for giving praise to YHWH. 25In the fifth year you shall eat its fruit, that it may yield its increase to you. I am YHWH your God.

26"'You shall not eat any meat with the blood still in it; neither shall you practice divination, nor practice sorcery.

27"'You shall not cut the hair on the sides of your heads, neither shall you clip off the edge of your beard.

28"'You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor tattoo any marks on you. I am YHWH.[c] 29"'Do not profane your daughter, to make her a prostitute; lest the land fall to prostitution, and the land become full of wickedness.

33"'If a stranger lives as a foreigner with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong. 34The stranger who lives as a foreigner with you shall be to you as the native-born among you, and you shall love him as yourself; for you lived as foreigners in the land of Egypt. I am YHWH your God.

35"'You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in measures of length, of weight, or of quantity. 36You shall have just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin. 20 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 2"Moreover, you shall tell the children of Israel, 'Anyone of the children of Israel, or from the foreigners who sojourn in Israel, who gives any of his offspring to Molech; he shall surely be put to death. The people of the land shall stone him with stones. 3I also will set my face against that person, and will cut him off from among his people because he has given of his offspring to Molech, to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name. 4If the people of the land all hide their eyes from that person, when he gives of his offspring to Molech, and do not put him to death; 5then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all who play the prostitute after him, to play the prostitute with Molech, from among their people.

6"'The person that turns to spirits of the dead, and to familiar spirits, to prostitute himself with them, I will even set my face against that person, and will cut him off from among his people.

7"'Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be holy;[a] for I am YHWH your God. 8You shall keep my statutes, and do them. I am YHWH who sanctifies you.

9"'For everyone who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death:[b] he has cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be upon him.

10"'The man who commits adultery with another man's wife[c] shall surely be put to death, both the adulterer and the adulteress. 11The man who lies with his father's wife has uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

12"'If a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have committed a perversion; their blood shall be upon them.

13"'If a man has sexual relations with a male, as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

14"'If a man takes a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burned with fire, both he and they; that there may be no wickedness among you.

15"'If a man lies with an animal, he shall surely be put to death; and you shall kill the animal.

any animal, and lies down with it, you shall kill the woman, and the animal: they shall surely be put to them.

17"'If a man takes his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and sees her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness; it is a shameful thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of the children of their people: he has uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.

18"'If a man lies with a woman having her monthly period, and uncovers her nakedness; he has made naked her fountain, and she has uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

19"'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, nor of your father's sister; for he has made naked his close relative: they shall bear their iniquity. 20If a man lies with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.

21"'If a man takes his brother's wife, it is an impurity: he has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

22"'You shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my ordinances, and do them; that the land, where I am bringing you to dwell, may not vomit you out.
23You shall not walk in the customs of the nation, which I am casting out before you: for they did all these things, and therefore I abhorred them. 24But I have said to you, "You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey." I am YHWH your God, who has separated you from the peoples.

25"'You shall therefore make a distinction between the clean animal and the unclean, and between the unclean fowl and the clean: and you shall not make yourselves abominable by animal, or by bird, or by anything with which the ground teems, which I have separated from you as unclean for you. 26You shall be holy to me: for I, YHWH,[a] am holy, and have set you apart from the peoples, that you should be mine.

among his people; [2]except for his relatives that are near to him: for his mother, for his father, for his son, for his daughter, for his brother, [3]and for his virgin sister who is near to him, who has had no husband; for her he may defile himself. [4]He shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

[5]"'They shall not shave their heads, neither shall they shave off the corners of their beards, nor make any cuttings in their flesh. [6]They shall be holy to their God, and not profane the name of their God; for they offer the offerings of YHWH made by fire, the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy.

[7]"'They shall not marry a woman who is a prostitute, or profane; neither shall they marry a woman divorced from her husband: for he is holy to[a] his God. [8]You shall sanctify him therefore; for he offers the bread of[b] your God: he shall be holy to you: for I YHWH, who sanctify you, am holy.

[9]"'The daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself by playing the prostitute, she profanes[c] her father: she shall be burned with fire.

[10]"'He who is the high priest among his brothers, upon whose head the anointing oil is poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not let the hair of his head hang loose, nor tear his clothes; [11]neither shall he go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother; [12]neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him. I am YHWH.

[13]"'He shall take a wife in her virginity. [14]A widow, or one divorced, or a woman who has been defiled, or a prostitute, these he shall not marry: but a virgin of his own people shall he take as a wife. [15]He shall not profane his offspring among his people: for I am YHWH who sanctifies him.'"

[16]YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [17]"Say to Aaron, 'None of your descendants throughout their generations who has a blemish, may approach to offer the bread of his God. [18]For whatever man he is that has a blemish, he shall not draw near: a blind man, or a lame, or he who has a flat nose, or any deformity, [19]or a man who has an injured foot, or an injured hand, [20]or hunchbacked, or a dwarf,[d] or one who has a defect in his eye, or an itching disease, or scabs, or who has damaged testicles; [21]no man of the descendants of Aaron the priest, who has a blemish, shall come near to present offerings to your God[a] made by fire. Since he has a blemish, he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God. 22He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy, and of the holy. 23He shall not come near to the veil, nor come near to the altar, because he has a blemish; that he may not profane my sanctuaries,[b] for I am YHWH who sanctifies them.'" 24So Moses spoke to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel.

22 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 2"Tell Aaron and his sons to separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, which they make holy to me, and that they not profane my holy name. I am YHWH.

3"Tell them, 'If anyone of all your descendants throughout your generations approaches the holy things, which the children of Israel make holy to YHWH, having his uncleanness on him, that soul shall be cut off from before me. I am YHWH.[c]

4"'No man of the descendants of Aaron is a leper or has an issue, may eat of the holy things, until he is clean. Whoever touches anything that is unclean by the dead, a man who has had a seminal emission; 5or whoever touches any[d] crawling creature, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatever uncleanness he has; 6the person that touches any such shall be unclean until the evening, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he bathe his body in water. 7When the sun is down, he shall be clean; and afterward he shall eat of the holy things, because it is his bread. 8That which dies of itself, or is torn by animals, he shall not eat, defiling himself by it. I am YHWH.

9"'They shall therefore follow my requirements, lest they bear sin for it, and die because of it, if they profane it. I am YHWH[e] who sanctifies them.

10"'No stranger shall eat of the holy thing: a foreigner living with the priests, or a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing. 11But if a priest buys a slave, purchased by his money, he shall eat of it; and such as are born in his house, they shall eat of his bread. 12If a priest's daughter is married to an outsider, she shall not eat of the heave offering of the holy things. 13But if a priest's daughter is a widow, or divorced, and has no child, and has returned to her father's house, as in her youth, she may eat of her father's bread: but no stranger shall eat any of it.

14"'If a man eats something holy unwittingly, then he shall add the fifth part of its value to it, and shall give the holy thing to the priest. 15The priests shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer to YHWH, 16and so cause them to bear the iniquity that brings guilt, when they eat their holy things: for I am YHWH who sanctifies them.'"

17YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 18"Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them, 'Any man of the house of Israel or the foreigners who sojourn[a] in Israel, who offers his offering, whether it be any of their vows, or any of their freewill offerings, which they offer to YHWH for a burnt offering; 19that you may be accepted, you shall offer a male without blemish, of the bulls, of the sheep, or of the goats. 20But whatever has a blemish, that you shall not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you. 21Whoever offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to YHWH to accomplish a vow, or for a freewill offering, of the herd or of the flock, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish in it. 22Blind, injured, maimed, having a wart, festering, or having a running sore, you shall not offer these to YHWH, nor make an offering by fire of them on the altar to YHWH. 23Either a bull or a lamb that has any deformity or lacking in his parts, that you may offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted. 24That which has its testicles bruised, crushed, broken, or cut, you shall not offer to YHWH; neither shall you do thus in your land. 25Neither shall you offer the bread of your God from the hand of a foreigner of any of these; because their corruption is in them. There is a blemish in them. They shall not be accepted for you.'"

26YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 27"When a bull, or a sheep, or a goat, is born, then it shall remain seven days with its mother; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for the offering of an offering made by fire to YHWH. 28Whether it is an ox or a sheep, you shall not kill it and its young both in one day.

29"When you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to YHWH, you shall sacrifice it so that you may be accepted. 30It shall be eaten on the same day; you shall leave none of it until the morning. I am YHWH.

31"Therefore you shall keep my commandments, and do them. I am YHWH. 32You shall not profane my holy name, but I will be made

23 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying,
2"Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them,
'The set feasts of YHWH, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my set feasts.

3"'Six days shall work be done: but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation; you shall do no manner of work. It is a Sabbath to YHWH in all your dwellings.

4"'These are the set feasts of YHWH, even holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their appointed season. 5In the first month, on the fourteenth day[a] of the month in the evening, is YHWH's Passover. 6On the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread to YHWH. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. 7In the first day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no regular work. 8But you shall offer an offering made by fire to YHWH seven days. In the seventh day is a holy convocation: you shall do no regular work.'"

9YHWH spoke to Moses,
saying, 10"Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When you have come into the land which I give to you, and shall reap its harvest, then you shall bring the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest: 11and he shall wave the sheaf before YHWH, to be accepted for you. On the next day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it. 12On the day when you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a male lamb without blemish a year old for a burnt offering to YHWH.
13The meal offering with it shall be two tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire to YHWH for a pleasant aroma; and the drink offering with it shall be of wine, the fourth part of a hin. 14You shall eat neither bread, nor roasted grain, nor fresh grain, until this same day, until you have brought the offering of your God. This is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

15"'You shall count from the next day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven Sabbaths shall be completed: 16even to the next day after the seventh Sabbath you shall number fifty days; and you shall offer a new meal offering

They shall be baked with yeast, for first fruits to YHWH. 18You shall present with the bread seven lambs without blemish a year old, one young bull, and two rams.[a] They shall be a burnt offering to YHWH, with their meal offering, and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of a sweet aroma to YHWH. 19You shall offer one male goat for a sin offering, and two male lambs a year old for a sacrifice of peace offerings.[b] 20The priest shall wave them with the bread of the first fruits for a wave offering before YHWH, with the two lambs. They shall be holy to YHWH for the priest.[c] 21You shall make proclamation on the same day: there shall be a holy convocation to you; you shall do no regular work. This is a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22"'When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap into the corners of your field, neither shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest: you shall leave them for the poor, and for the foreigner. I am YHWH your God.'"

23YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 24"Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, shall be a solemn rest to you, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation. 25You shall do no regular work; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to YHWH.'"

26YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 27"However on the tenth day of this seventh month is the day of atonement[d]: it shall be a holy convocation to you, and you shall afflict yourselves; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to YHWH. 28You shall do no manner of work in that same day; for it is a day of atonement[e], to make atonement for you before YHWH your God. 29For whoever it is who shall not deny himself in that same day; shall be cut off from his people. 30Whoever it is who does any manner of work in that same day, that person I will destroy from among his people. 31You shall do no manner of work: it is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. 32It shall be a Sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you shall deny yourselves. In the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening, you shall keep your Sabbath."

[37]"'These are the appointed feasts of YHWH, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire to YHWH, a burnt offering, and a meal offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, each on its own day; [38]besides the Sabbaths of YHWH, and besides your gifts, and besides all your vows, and besides all your freewill offerings, which you give to YHWH.

[39]"'So on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the fruits of the land, you shall keep the feast of YHWH seven days: on the first day shall be a solemn rest, and on the eighth day shall be a solemn rest. [40]You shall take on the first day the fruit of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before YHWH your God seven days. [41]You shall keep it a feast to YHWH seven days in the year: it is a statute forever throughout your generations; you shall keep it in the seventh month. [42]You shall dwell in booths seven days. All who are native-born in Israel shall dwell in booths, [43]that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I am YHWH your God.'"

24 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Command the children of Israel, that they bring to you pure olive oil beaten for the light, to cause a lamp to burn continually. [3]Outside of the veil of the Testimony, in the Tent of Meeting, shall Aaron[a] keep it in order from evening to morning before YHWH continually: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations. [4]He shall keep in order the lamps on the pure gold lampstand before YHWH continually.

[10]The son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel; and the son of the Israelite woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp. [11]The son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name, and cursed; and they brought him to Moses. His mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan. [12]They put him in custody, until the will of YHWH should be declared to them.

[13]YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [14]"Bring out of the camp him who cursed; and let all who heard him lay their hands on his head, and let all the congregation stone him. [15]You shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'Whoever curses his[a] God shall bear his sin. [16]He who blasphemes the name of YHWH, he shall surely be put to death; all the congregation shall certainly stone him: the foreigner as well as the native-born, when he blasphemes the Name, shall be put to death.

[17]"'He who strikes any man mortally shall surely be put to death. [18]He who strikes an animal mortally shall make it good, life for life. [19]If anyone injures his neighbor; as he has done, so shall it be done to him: [20]fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth;[b] as he has injured someone, so shall it be done to him. [21]He who kills an animal shall make it good; and he who kills a man shall be put to death. [22]You shall have one kind of law, for the foreigner as well as the native-born: for I am YHWH your God.'"

[23]Moses spoke to the children of Israel; and they brought forth him who had cursed out of the camp, and stoned him with stones. The children of Israel did as YHWH commanded Moses.

25 YHWH said to Moses in Mount Sinai, [2]"Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall keep a Sabbath to YHWH. [3]Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather in its fruits; [4]but in the seventh year there shall be a Sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a Sabbath to YHWH. You shall not sow your field or prune your vineyard. [5]What grows of itself in your harvest you shall not reap, and the grapes of your undressed vine you shall not gather. It shall be a year of solemn rest for the land. [6]The Sabbath of the land shall be for food for you; for yourself, for your servant, for your maid, for your hired servant, and for your stranger, who lives as a foreigner with you.

7For your livestock also, and for the animals that are in your land, shall all its increase be for food.

8"'You shall count off seven Sabbaths of years, seven times seven years; and there shall be to you the days of seven Sabbaths of years, even forty-nine years. 9Then you shall sound the loud trumpet on the tenth day of the seventh month.
On the Day of Atonement you shall sound the trumpet throughout all your land. 10You shall make the fiftieth year holy, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee to you; and each of you shall return to his own property, and each of you shall return to his family. 11That fiftieth year shall be a jubilee to you. In it you shall not sow, neither reap that which grows of itself, nor gather from the undressed vines.
12For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you. You shall eat of its increase out of the field.

13"'In this Year of Jubilee each of you shall return to his property.

14"'If you sell anything to your neighbor, or buy from your neighbor, you shall not wrong one another. 15According to the number of years after the Jubilee you shall buy from your neighbor. According to the number of years of the crops he shall sell to you. 16According to the length of the years you shall increase its price, and according to the shortness of the years you shall diminish its price; for he is selling the number of the crops to you.
17You shall not wrong one another; but you shall fear your God: for I am YHWH your God.

18"'Therefore you shall do my statutes, and keep my ordinances and do them; and you shall dwell in the land in safety.
19The land shall yield its fruit, and you shall eat your fill, and dwell in it in safety. 20If you said, "What shall we eat the seventh year?
Look, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase;" 21then I will command my blessing on you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for the three years. 22You shall sow the eighth year, and eat of the fruits, the old store; until the ninth year, until its fruits come in, you shall eat the old store.

23"'The land shall not be sold in perpetuity, for the land is mine; for you are strangers and live as foreigners with me. 24In all the land of your possession you shall grant a redemption for the land.

25"'If your brother becomes poor, and sells some of his possessions, then his kinsman who is next to him shall come, and redeem that which his brother has sold. 26If a man has no one to redeem it, and he becomes prosperous and finds sufficient means to redeem it; 27then let him reckon the years since its sale, and restore the surplus to the man to whom he sold it; and he shall return to his property. 28But if he isn't able to get it back for himself, then what he has sold shall remain in the hand of him who has bought it until the Year of Jubilee: and in the Jubilee it shall be released, and he shall return to his property.

29"'If a man sells a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it has been sold. For a full year he shall have the right of redemption. 30If it isn't redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in[a] the walled city shall be made sure in perpetuity to him who bought it, throughout his generations. It shall not be released in the Jubilee. 31But the houses of the villages which have no wall around them shall be reckoned with the fields of the country; they may be redeemed; and they shall be released in the Jubilee.

35"'If your brother has become poor, and his hand can't support him among you; then you shall uphold him. As a stranger and a sojourner he shall live with you. 36Take no interest from him or profit, but fear your God;[b] that your brother may live among you. 37You shall not lend him your money at interest, nor give him your food for profit. 38I am YHWH your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

39"'If your brother has grown poor among you, and sells himself to you; you shall not make him to serve as a slave. 40As a hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with you; he shall serve with you until the Year of Jubilee: 41then he shall go out from you, he and his children with him, and shall return to his own family, and to the possession of his fathers. 42For they are my servants, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt. They shall not be sold as slaves. 43You shall not rule over him with harshness, but shall fear[c] your God.

44"'As for your male and your female slaves, whom you may have; of the nations that are around you, from them you may buy male and female slaves. 45Moreover of the children of the strangers who sojourn among you, of them you may buy, and of their families who are with you, which they have conceived in your land; and they will be your property. 46You may make them an inheritance for your children after you, to hold for a possession; of them may you take your slaves forever: but over your brothers the children of Israel you shall not rule, one over another, with harshness.

47"'If a stranger or sojourner with you becomes rich, and your brother beside him has grown poor, and sells himself to the stranger or foreigner living among you, or to a member of the stranger's family; 48after he is sold he may be redeemed. One of his brothers may redeem him; 49or his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or any who is a close relative to him of his family may redeem him; or if he has grown rich, he may redeem himself. 50He shall reckon with him who bought him from the year that he sold himself to him to the Year of Jubilee: and the price of his sale shall be according to the number of years; according to the time of a hired servant shall he be with him. 51If there are yet many years, according to them he shall give back the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for. 52If there remain but a few years to the year of jubilee, then he shall reckon with him; according to his years of service he shall give back the price of his redemption. 53As a servant hired year by year shall he be with him: he shall not rule with harshness over him in your sight. 54If he isn't redeemed by these means, then he shall be released in the Year of Jubilee, he, and his children with him. 55For to me the children of Israel are servants; they are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt. I am YHWH your God.

26 "'You shall make for yourselves no idols, neither shall you raise up an engraved image or a pillar, neither shall you place any figured stone in your land, to bow down to it: for I am YHWH your God.

2"'You shall keep my Sabbaths, and have reverence for my sanctuary. I am YHWH.

3"'If you walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; 4then I will give you your rains in their season, and the land shall yield its increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. 5Your threshing shall reach to the vintage, and the vintage shall reach to the sowing time; and you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely.

6"'I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and no one will make you afraid; and I will remove evil animals out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. 7You shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. 8Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall chase ten thousand; and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

9"'I will have respect for you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and will establish my covenant with you. 10You shall eat old store long kept, and you shall move out the old because of the new. 11And I will set my tabernacle[a] among you, and my soul will not abhor you. 12I will walk among you, and will be your God, and you will be my people.[b] 13I am YHWH your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves; and I have broken the bars of your yoke, and made you go upright.

14"'But if you will not listen to me, and will not do all these commandments; 15and if you shall reject my statutes, and if your soul abhors my ordinances, so that you will not do all my commandments, but break my covenant; 16I also will do this to you: I will appoint terror over you, even consumption and fever, that shall consume the eyes, and make the soul to pine away;
and you will sow your seed in vain, for your enemies will eat it. 17I will set my face against you, and you will be struck before your enemies.
Those who hate you will rule over you; and you will flee when no one pursues you.

18"'If you in spite of these things will not listen to me, then I will chastise you seven times more for your sins. 19I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your sky like iron, and your soil like bronze; 20and your strength will be spent in vain; for your land won't yield its increase, neither will the trees of the land[c] yield their fruit.

21"'If you walk contrary to me, and won't listen to me, then I will bring seven times more plagues on you according to your sins. 22I will send the wild animals among you, which will rob you of your children, destroy your livestock, and make you few in number; and your roads will become desolate.

23"'If by these things you won't be reformed to me, but will walk contrary to me; 24then I will also walk contrary to you; and I will strike you, even I, seven times for your sins. 25I will bring a sword upon you, that will execute the vengeance of the covenant; and you will be gathered together within your cities: and I will send the pestilence among you; and you will be delivered into the hand of the enemy. 26When I break your staff of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver your bread again by weight: and you shall eat, and not be satisfied.

27"'If you in spite of this won't listen to me, but walk contrary to me; 28then I will walk contrary to you in wrath; and I also will chastise you seven times for your sins. [29]You will eat the flesh of your sons, and you will eat the flesh of your daughters. [30]I will destroy your high places, and cut down your incense altars, and cast your dead bodies upon the bodies of your idols; and my soul will abhor you. [31]I will lay your cities waste, and will bring your sanctuaries to desolation, and I will not take delight in the sweet fragrance of your offerings. [32]I will bring the land into desolation; and your enemies that dwell in it will be astonished at it. [33]I will scatter you among the nations, and I will draw out the sword after you: and your land will be a desolation, and your cities shall be a waste. [34]Then the land will enjoy its sabbaths as long as it lies desolate and you are in your enemies' land. Even then the land will rest and enjoy its sabbaths. [35]As long as it lies desolate it shall have rest, even the rest which it did not have in your sabbaths, when you lived on it.

[36]"'As for those of you who are left, I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies: and the sound of a driven leaf will put them to flight; and they shall flee, as one flees from the sword; and they will fall when no one pursues. [37]They will stumble over one another, as it were before the sword, when no one pursues:
and you will have no power to stand before your enemies. [38]You will perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies will eat you up. [39]Those of you who are left will rot away in their iniquity in the lands of their enemies;[a] and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they rot away with them.

[40]"'If they confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, in their trespass which they trespassed against me, and also that, because they walked contrary to me, [41]I also walked contrary to them, and brought them into the land of their enemies: if then their uncircumcised heart is humbled, and they then accept the punishment of their iniquity; [42]then I will remember my covenant with Jacob; and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham; and I will remember the land. [43]The land also will be left by them, and will enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them:
and they will accept the punishment of their iniquity; because, even because they rejected my ordinances, and their soul abhorred my statutes. [44]Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them; for I am YHWH their God; [45]but I will for their sake remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God. I am YHWH.'"

[a]26:39 Hebrew Mss SP Versions. A hey-kaph interchange

[46]These are the statutes, ordinances and laws, which YHWH made between him and the children of Israel in Mount Sinai by Moses.

27 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, 'When a man makes a vow, the persons shall be for YHWH by your valuation. [3]Your valuation shall be of a male from twenty years old even to sixty years old, even your valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary. [4]If it is a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels. [5]If the person is from five years old even to twenty years old, then your valuation shall be for a male twenty shekels, and for a female ten shekels. [6]If the person is from a month old even to five years old, then your valuation shall be for a male five shekels of silver, and for a female your valuation shall be three shekels of silver. [7]If the person is from sixty years old and upward; if it is a male, then your valuation shall be fifteen shekels, and for a female ten shekels. [8]But if he is poorer than your valuation, then he shall be set before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to the ability of him who vowed shall the priest value him.

[9]"'If it is an animal, of which men offer an offering to YHWH, all that any man gives of such to YHWH becomes holy. [10]He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change animal for animal, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy. [11]If it is any unclean animal, of which they do not offer as an offering to YHWH, then he shall set the animal before the priest; [12]and the priest shall value it, whether it is good or bad. As you the priest values it, so shall it be. [13]But if he will indeed redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of it to its valuation.

[14]"'When a man dedicates his house to be holy to YHWH, then the priest shall evaluate it, whether it is good or bad: as the priest shall evaluate it, so shall it stand. [15]If he who dedicates it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall be his.

[16]"'If a man dedicates to YHWH part of the field of his possession, then your valuation shall be according to the seed for it: the sowing of a homer of barley shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver. [17]If he dedicates his field from the Year of Jubilee, according to your valuation it shall stand. [18]But if he dedicates his field after the Jubilee, then the priest shall reckon to him the money according to the years that remain to the Year of Jubilee; and an abatement shall be made from your valuation. [19]If he who dedicated the field will indeed redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall remain his. [20]If he will not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more; 21but the field, when it goes out in the Jubilee, shall be holy to YHWH, as a field devoted; it shall be owned by the priests.

22"'If he dedicates to YHWH a field which he has bought, which is not of the field of his possession, 23then the priest shall reckon to him the worth of your valuation up to the Year of Jubilee; and he shall give your valuation on that day, as a holy thing to YHWH. 24In the Year of Jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land belongs. 25All your valuations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs to the shekel.

26"'Only the firstborn among animals, which is made a firstborn to YHWH, no man may dedicate it; whether an ox or sheep, it is YHWH's. 27If it is an unclean animal, then he shall buy it back according to your valuation, and shall add to it the fifth part of it: or if it isn't redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation.

28"'Notwithstanding, no devoted thing, that a man shall devote to YHWH of all that he has, whether of man or animal, or of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy to YHWH.

29"'No one devoted, who shall be devoted from among men, shall be ransomed; he shall surely be put to death.

30"'All the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the trees, is YHWH's. It is holy to YHWH. 31If a man redeems anything of his tithe, he shall add a fifth part to it. 32All the tithe of the herds or the flocks, whatever passes under the rod, the tenth shall be holy to YHWH. 33He shall not search whether it is good or bad, neither shall he change it: and if he changes it at all, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy. It shall not be redeemed.'" 34These are the commandments which YHWH commanded Moses for the children of Israel on Mount Sinai.

1 YHWH spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the Tent of Meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, 2"Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israel, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, every male, one by one; 3from twenty years old and upward, all who are able to go out to war in Israel. You and Aaron shall number them by their divisions. 4With you there shall be a man of every tribe; everyone head of his fathers' house. 5These are the names of the men who shall stand with you:

Of Reuben: Elizur the son of Shedeur.
6Of Simeon: Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.
7Of Judah: Nahshon the son of Amminadab.
8Of Issachar: Nethanel the son of Zuar.
9Of Zebulun: Eliab the son of Helon.
10Of the people of Joseph: Of Ephraim: Elishama the son of Ammihud.
Of Manasseh: Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.
11Of Benjamin: Abidan the son of Gideoni.
12Of Dan: Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.
13Of Asher: Pagiel the son of Ochran.
14Of Gad: Eliasaph the son of Reuel.[a] 15Of Naphtali: Ahira the son of Enan."

16These are those who were called of the congregation, the leaders of the tribes of their fathers; they were the heads of the thousands of Israel. 17Moses and Aaron took these men who are mentioned by name. 18They assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month[b]; and they declared their ancestry by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, one by one. 19As YHWH commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20Now the descendants of Reuben, Israel's firstborn, their generations according to their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, one by one, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war; 21those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Reuben, were forty-six thousand five hundred.

22Of the descendants of Simeon, their generations, according to their families, by their fathers' houses, those who were numbered of it, according to the number of the names, one by one, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war; 23those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

24Of the descendants of Gad, their generations, according to their families, by their fathers' houses,
according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war; 25those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Gad, were

[a]1:14 LXX Syr. MT reads "Deuel," an apparent dalet-resh (ד-ר) confusion

[b]1:18 LXX adds "of the second year" forty-five thousand six hundred fifty.

[26]Of the descendants of Judah, their generations, according to their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war; [27]those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Judah, were sixty-four thousand six hundred.

[28]Of the descendants of Issachar, their generations, according to their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war; [29]those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Issachar, were fifty-four thousand four hundred.

[30]Of the descendants of Zebulun, their generations, according to their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war; [31]those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Zebulun, were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

[32]Of the sons of Joseph, of the descendants of Ephraim, their generations, according to their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war; [33]those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Ephraim, were forty thousand five hundred.

[34]Of the descendants of Manasseh, their generations, according to their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war; [35]those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Manasseh, were thirty-two thousand two hundred.

[36]Of the descendants of Benjamin, their generations, according to their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war; [37]those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Benjamin, were thirty-five thousand four hundred.

[38]Of the descendants of Dan, their generations, according to their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war; [39]those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Dan, were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

[40]Of the descendants of Asher, their generations, according to their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war; [41]those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Asher, were forty-one thousand five hundred.

42Of the descendants of Naphtali, their generations, according to their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war; 43those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Naphtali, were fifty-three thousand four hundred.

44These are those who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, and the leaders of Israel, being twelve men;[a] each representing his fathers' house. 45So all those who were numbered of the children of Israel by their fathers' houses, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war in Israel; 46even all those who were numbered were six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty. 47But the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them. 48For YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 49"Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, neither shall you take a census of them among the children of Israel; 50but appoint the Levites over the Tabernacle of the Testimony, and over all its furnishings, and over all that belongs to it. They shall carry the tabernacle, and all its furnishings; and they shall take care of it, and shall camp around it. 51When the tabernacle is to move, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites shall set it up. The stranger who comes near shall be put to death. 52The children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, according to their divisions. 53But the Levites shall camp around the Tabernacle of the Testimony, that there may be no wrath on the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be responsible for the Tabernacle of the Testimony."

54Thus the children of Israel did. According to all that YHWH commanded Moses,[b] so they did.

2 YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 2"The children of Israel shall camp every man by his own standard, with the banners of their fathers' houses: at a distance from the Tent of Meeting shall they camp around it."

3Those who camp on the east side toward the sunrise shall be of the standard of the camp of Judah, according to their divisions: and the prince of the people of Judah shall be Nahshon the son of Amminadab. 4His division, and those who were numbered of them, were seventy-four thousand six hundred.

who were numbered of them, were thirty-five thousand four hundred.

24"All who were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were one hundred eight thousand one hundred, according to their divisions. They shall set out third.

25"On the north side shall be the standard of the camp of Dan according to their divisions: and the prince of the people of Dan shall be Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. 26His division, and those who were numbered of them, were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

27"Those who camp next to him shall be the tribe of Asher: and the prince of the people of Asher shall be Pagiel the son of Ochran. 28His division, and those who were numbered of them, were forty-one thousand and five hundred.

29"The tribe of Naphtali: and the prince of the people of Naphtali shall be Ahira the son of Enan. 30His division, and those who were numbered of them, were fifty-three thousand four hundred.

31"All who were numbered of the camp of Dan were one hundred fifty-seven thousand six hundred. They shall set out last by their standards."

32These are those who were numbered of the children of Israel by their fathers' houses. All who were numbered of the camps according to their armies were six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty. 33But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel; as YHWH commanded Moses.

34Thus the children of Israel did. According to all that YHWH commanded Moses, so they camped by their standards, and so they set out, everyone by their families, according to their fathers' houses.

3 Now these are the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that YHWH spoke with Moses in Mount Sinai. 2These are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

3These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests who were anointed, whom he[a] consecrated to minister in the priest's office. 4Nadab and Abihu died before YHWH, when they offered strange fire before YHWH, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children. Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office in the presence of Aaron their father.

5YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 6"Bring the tribe of Levi near, and set them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister to him. 7They shall keep his requirements, and the requirements of the whole congregation before the Tent of Meeting, to do the service of the tabernacle. [8]They shall keep all the furnishings of the Tent of Meeting, and the obligations of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle. [9]You shall give the Levites to Aaron and to his sons. They are wholly given to him on the behalf of the children of Israel. [10]And you shall appoint Aaron and his sons, and they attend to their priesthood;[a] but the unauthorized person who comes near shall be put to death."

[11]YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [12]"Look, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn who open the womb among[b] the children of Israel;[c] and the Levites shall be mine: [13]for all the firstborn are mine. On the day that I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I made holy to me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and animal. They shall be mine. I am YHWH."

[14]YHWH spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, [15]"Count the descendants of Levi by their fathers' houses, by their families. You shall count every male from a month old and upward."

[16]Moses numbered them according to the word of YHWH, as he was commanded.

[17]These were the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari.

[18]These are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei.

[19]The sons of Kohath by their families: Amram, and Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

[20]The sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi.

These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.

[21]Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimeites: these are the families of the Gershonites.

[22]Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those who were numbered of them were seven thousand five hundred.

[23]The families of the Gershonites shall camp behind the tabernacle westward.

[c]3:12 LXX SP add "they will be their redemption"

[24]The prince of the fathers' house of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Lael. [25]The duty of the sons of Gershon in the Tent of Meeting shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, its covering, and the screen for the door of the Tent of Meeting, [26]and the curtaining of the court, and the screen for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and around the altar, and its cords for all of its service.

[27]Of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites. [28]According to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, there were eight thousand six hundred, keeping the requirements of the sanctuary.

[29]The families of the sons of Kohath shall camp on the south side of the tabernacle. [30]The prince of the fathers' house of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. [31]Their duty shall be the ark, the table, the lamp stand, the altars, the vessels of the sanctuary with which they minister, and the screen, and all its service. [32]Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be chief of the leaders of the Levites, with the oversight of those who keep the requirements of the sanctuary.

[33]Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites. These are the families of Merari. [34]Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand two hundred.

[35]The prince of the fathers' house of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail. They shall camp on the north side of the tabernacle. [36]The appointed duty of the sons of Merari shall be the tabernacle's boards, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, all its instruments, all its service, [37]the pillars of the court around it, their sockets, their pins, and their cords. [38]Those who camp before the tabernacle eastward, in front of the Tent of Meeting toward the sunrise, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the requirements of the sanctuary for the duty of the children of Israel. The unauthorized person who comes near shall be put to death. [39]All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of YHWH, by their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty-two thousand.

[40]YHWH said to Moses, "Number all the firstborn males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names. [41]You shall take the Levites for me (I am YHWH) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the livestock of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the livestock of the children of Israel."

42Moses numbered, as YHWH commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Israel. 43All the firstborn males according to the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those who were numbered of them, were twenty-two thousand two hundred seventy-three.

44YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 45"Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock; and the Levites shall be mine. I am YHWH. 46For the redemption of the two hundred seventy-three of the firstborn of the children of Israel, who exceed the number of the Levites, 47you shall take five shekels apiece for each one; after the shekel of the sanctuary you shall take them (the shekel is twenty gerahs): 48and you shall give the money, with which the remainder of them is redeemed, to Aaron and to his sons."

49Moses took the redemption money from those who exceeded the number of those who were redeemed by the Levites; 50from the firstborn of the children of Israel he took the money, one thousand three hundred sixty-five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary: 51and Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of YHWH, as YHWH commanded Moses.

4 YHWH spoke to Moses
and to Aaron, saying, 2"Take a census of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families, by their fathers' houses, 3from thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all who enter into the service, to do the work in the Tent of Meeting. 4This is the service of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting, the most holy things. 5When the camp moves forward, Aaron shall go in, and his sons, and they shall take down the veil of the screen, and cover the ark of the Testimony with it, 6and shall put a covering of sealskin on it, and shall spread over it a cloth all of blue, and shall put in its poles. 7On the table of show bread they shall spread a blue cloth, and put on it the dishes, the spoons, the bowls, and the pitchers for pouring with them;[a] and the continual bread shall be on it. 8They shall spread on them a scarlet cloth, and cover the same with a covering of sealskin, and shall put in its poles. 9They shall take a blue cloth, and cover the lampstand of the light, and its lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff dishes, and all its oil vessels, with which they minister to it. 10They shall put it and all its vessels within a covering of sealskin, and shall put it on the frame. 11On the golden altar they shall spread a blue cloth, and cover it with a covering of sealskin, and shall put in its poles. 12They shall take all the vessels of ministry, with which they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a blue cloth, and cover them with a covering of sealskin, and shall put them on the frame. 13They shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth on it. 14They shall put on it all its vessels, with which they minister about it, the fire pans, the flesh hooks, the shovels, and the basins; all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread on it a covering of sealskin, and put in its poles.[a]

15"When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary, and all the furniture of the sanctuary, as the camp moves forward; after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to carry it: but they shall not touch the sanctuary, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting.

16"The duty of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be the oil for the light, the sweet incense, the continual meal offering, and the anointing oil, the requirements of all the tabernacle, and of all that is in it, the sanctuary, and its furnishings."

17YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 18"Do not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites; 19but thus do to them, that they may live, and not die, when they approach to the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them everyone to his service and to his burden; 20but they shall not go in to see the sanctuary even for a moment, lest they die."

21YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 22"Take a census of the sons of Gershon also, by their fathers' houses, by their families; 23you shall count them from thirty years old and upward until fifty years old; all who enter in to wait on the service, to do the work in the Tent of Meeting. 24This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and in bearing burdens: 25they shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle, and the Tent of Meeting, its covering, and the covering of sealskin that is above on it, and the screen for the door of the Tent of Meeting, 26and the tapestries of the court, and the screen for the door of the gate of the court, which is by the tabernacle and around the altar, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and whatever shall be done with them. So they are to serve. 27At the commandment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burden, and in all their service; and you shall appoint their duty to them in all their responsibilities. [28]This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the Tent of Meeting: and their duty shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

[29]"As for the sons of Merari, you shall number them by their families, by their fathers' houses; [30]you shall count them from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who enters on the service, to do the work of the Tent of Meeting. [31]This is the duty of their burden, according to all their service in the Tent of Meeting: the tabernacle's boards, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, [32]and the pillars of the court around it, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service. And you shall assign by name all[a] the items he must carry. [33]This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service, in the Tent of Meeting, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest."

[34]Moses and Aaron and the leaders of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites by their families, and by their fathers' houses, [35]from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for work in the Tent of Meeting. [36]Those who were numbered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred fifty. [37]These are those who were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all who served in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of YHWH by Moses.

[38]Those who were numbered of the sons of Gershon, their families, and by their fathers' houses, [39]from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for work in the Tent of Meeting, [40]even those who were numbered of them, by their families, by their fathers' houses, were two thousand six hundred thirty. [41]These are those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, all who served in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of YHWH. [42]Those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, by their families, by their fathers' houses, [43]from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for work in the Tent of Meeting, [44]even those who were numbered of them by their families, were three thousand two hundred. [45]These are those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of YHWH by Moses. 46All those who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the leaders of Israel numbered, by their families, and by their fathers' houses, 47from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered in to do the work of service, and the work of bearing burdens in the Tent of Meeting, 48even those who were numbered of them, were eight thousand five hundred eighty. 49According to the commandment of YHWH they were numbered by Moses, everyone according to his service, and according to his burden. Thus were they numbered by him, as YHWH commanded Moses.

5 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 2"Command the children of Israel that they put out of the camp every leper, and everyone who has an issue, and whoever is unclean by the dead. 3Both you shall put male and female outside of the camp; that they not defile their camp, in the midst of which I dwell."

4The children of Israel did so, and put them out outside of the camp; as YHWH spoke to Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 6"Speak to the children of Israel: When a man or woman commits any sin that men commit, so as to trespass against YHWH, and that[a] soul is guilty; 7then he shall confess his sin which he has done, and he shall make restitution for his guilt in full, and add to it the fifth part of it, and give it to him in respect of whom he has been guilty. 8But if the man has no kinsman to whom restitution may be made for the guilt, the restitution for guilt which is made to YHWH shall be the priest's; besides the ram of the atonement, by which atonement shall be made for him. 9Every heave offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they present to the priest, shall be his. 10Every man's holy things shall be his: whatever any man gives the priest, it shall be his."

offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to memory. 16The priest shall bring her near, and set her before YHWH; 17and the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water. 18The priest shall set the woman before YHWH, and let the hair of the woman's head go loose, and put the meal offering of memorial in her hands, which is the meal offering of jealousy. The priest shall have in his hand the water of bitterness that brings a curse. 19The priest shall cause her to swear, and shall tell the woman, 'If no man has lain with you, and if you haven't gone aside to uncleanness, being under your husband, be free from this water of bitterness that brings a curse. 20But if you have gone astray, being under your husband, and if you are defiled, and some man has lain with you besides your husband:' 21then the priest shall cause the woman to swear with the oath of cursing, and the priest shall tell the woman, 'YHWH make you a curse and an oath among your people, when YHWH allows your thigh to fall away, and your body to swell; 22and this water that brings a curse will go into your bowels, and make your body swell, and your thigh fall away.' The woman shall say, 'Amen, Amen.'

23"The priest shall write these curses on a scroll, and he shall blot them out into the water of bitterness.[a] 24He shall make the woman drink the water of bitterness that causes the curse; and the water that causes the curse shall enter into her and become bitter. 25The priest shall take the meal offering of jealousy out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the meal offering before YHWH, and bring it to the altar. 26The priest shall take a handful of the meal offering, as its memorial, and burn it on the altar, and afterward shall make the woman drink the water. 27When he has made her drink the water, then it shall happen, if she is defiled, and has committed a trespass against her husband, that the water that causes the curse will enter into her and become bitter, and her body will swell, and her thigh will fall away: and the woman will be a curse among her people. 28If the woman isn't defiled, but is clean; then she shall be free and will conceive children.

29"This is the law of jealousy, when a wife, being under her husband, goes astray, and is defiled; 30or when the spirit of jealousy comes on a man, and he is jealous of his wife; then he shall set the woman before YHWH, and the priest shall execute on her all this law. 31The man shall be free from iniquity, and that woman shall bear her iniquity."

6 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them: When either man or woman shall make a special vow, the vow of a Nazirite, to separate himself to YHWH, [3]he shall separate himself from wine and strong drink. He shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of fermented drink, neither shall he drink any juice of grapes, nor eat fresh grapes or dried. [4]All the days of his separation he shall eat nothing that is made of the grapevine, from the seeds even to the skins.

[5]"All the days of his vow of separation there shall no razor come on his head, until the days are fulfilled, in which he separates himself to YHWH. He shall be holy. He shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow long.

[6]"All the days that he separates himself to YHWH he shall not go near a dead body. [7]He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die; because his separation to God is on his head. [8]All the days of his separation he is holy to YHWH.

[9]"If any man dies very suddenly beside him, and he defiles the head of his separation; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing. On the seventh day he shall shave it. [10]On the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the Tent of Meeting. [11]The priest shall offer one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make atonement for him, because he sinned by reason of the dead, and shall make his head holy that same day. [12]He shall separate to YHWH the days of his separation, and shall bring a male lamb a year old for a trespass offering; but the former days shall be void, because his separation was defiled.

[13]"This is the law of the Nazirite: when the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall be brought to the door of the Tent of Meeting, [14]and he shall offer his offering to YHWH, one male lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb a year old without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace offerings, [15]and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and their meal offering, and their drink offerings. [16]The priest shall present them before YHWH, and shall offer his sin offering, and his burnt offering. [17]He shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings to YHWH, with the basket of unleavened bread. The priest shall offer also its meal offering, and its drink offering. [18]The Nazirite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of peace offerings. [19]The priest shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them on the hands of the Nazirite, after he has shaved the head of his separation; [20]and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before YHWH. This is holy for the priest, together with the breast that is waved and the thigh that is offered. After that the Nazirite may drink wine.

[21]"This is the law of the Nazirite who vows, and of his offering to YHWH for his separation, besides that which he is able to get. According to his vow which he vows, so he must do after the law of his separation."

[22]YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [23]"Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, 'This is how you shall bless the children of Israel.' You shall tell them, [24]'YHWH bless you, and keep you.

[25]YHWH make his face to shine on you,
and be gracious to you.
[26]YHWH lift up his face toward you,
and give you peace.'

[27]"So they shall put my name on the children of Israel; and I will bless them."

7 It happened on the day that Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle, and had anointed it and sanctified it, with all its furniture, and the altar with all its vessels, and had anointed and sanctified them; [2]that the leaders of Israel, the heads of their ancestral houses, offered. These were the leaders of the tribes. These are they who were over those who were numbered: [3]and they brought their offering before YHWH, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for every two of the leaders, and for each one an ox: and they presented them before the tabernacle. [4]YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [5]"Accept these from them, that they may be used in doing the service of the Tent of Meeting; and you shall give them to the Levites, to every man according to his service."

[6]Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites. [7]He gave two wagons and four oxen to the sons of Gershon, according to their service: [8]and he gave four wagons and eight oxen to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. [9]But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because the service of the sanctuary belonged to them; they carried it on their shoulders.

[10]And the leaders gave offerings for the dedication of the altar in the day that it was anointed, even the leaders gave their offerings before the altar.

[11]YHWH said to Moses, "They shall offer their offering, each prince on his day, for the dedication of the altar."

[12]He who offered his offering the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah, [13]and his offering was: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering; [14]one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense;[15]one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering; [16]one male goat for a sin offering; [17]and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

[18]On the second day Nethanel the son of Zuar, prince of Issachar, gave his offering. [19]He offered for his offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering; [20]one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense; [21]one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering; [22]one male goat for a sin offering; [23]and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nethanel the son of Zuar.

[24]On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, prince of the people of Zebulun [25]gave his offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering; [26]one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense;[27]one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering; [28]one male goat for a sin offering; [29]and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

[30]On the fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur, prince of the people of Reuben [31]gave his offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering; [32]one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense; [33]one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering; [34]one male goat for a sin offering; [35]and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

[36]On the fifth day Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, prince of the people of Simeon [37]gave his offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine

flour mixed with oil for a meal
offering; [38]one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense; [39]one young bull, one ram, one male lamb
a year old, for a burnt offering; [40]one male goat for a sin offering;
[41]and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old: this was the offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

[42]On the sixth day, Eliasaph the son of Reuel,[a] prince of the people of Gad [43]gave his offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine
flour mixed with oil for a meal
offering; [44]one golden ladle of ten
shekels, full of incense; [45]one
young bull, one ram, one male lamb
a year old, for a burnt offering;
[46]one male goat for a sin offering;
[47]and for the sacrifice of peace
offerings, two head of cattle, five
rams, five male goats, and five
male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliasaph the son of Reuel.[b]

[48]On the seventh day Elishama the son of Ammihud, prince of the people of Ephraim [49]gave his offering:
one silver platter, the weight of
which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the
sanctuary; both of them full of fine
flour mixed with oil for a meal
offering; [50]one golden ladle of ten
shekels, full of incense; [51]one young bull, one ram, one male lamb
a year old, for a burnt offering;
[52]one male goat for a sin offering;
[53]and for the sacrifice of peace
offerings, two head of cattle, five
rams, five male goats, and five
male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elishama the son of Ammihud.

[54]On the eighth day Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, prince of the people of Manasseh [55]gave his offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal
offering; [56]one golden ladle of ten
shekels, full of incense; [57]one
young bull, one ram, one male lamb
a year old, for a burnt offering;
[58]one male goat for a sin offering;
[59]and for the sacrifice of peace
offerings, two head of cattle, five
rams, five male goats, and five
male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

[60]On the ninth day Abidan the son of Gideoni, prince of the people of Benjamin [61]gave his offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred

[b]7:47 LXX Syr. MT reads "Deuel"

thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of
the sanctuary; both of them full of
fine flour mixed with oil for a meal
offering; 62one golden ladle of ten
shekels, full of incense; 63one
young bull, one ram, one male lamb
a year old, for a burnt offering;
64one male goat for a sin offering;
65and for the sacrifice of peace
offerings, two head of cattle, five
rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Abidan the son of Gideoni.

66On the tenth day Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, prince of the people of Dan 67gave his offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of
seventy shekels, after the shekel of
the sanctuary; both of them full of
fine flour mixed with oil for a meal
offering; 68one golden ladle of ten
shekels, full of incense; 69one
young bull, one ram, one male lamb
a year old, for a burnt offering;
70one male goat for a sin offering;
71and for the sacrifice of peace
offerings, two head of cattle, five

male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Pagiel the son of Ochran.

78On the twelfth day Ahira the son of Enan, prince of the people of Naphtali 79gave his offering: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of
seventy shekels, after the shekel of
the sanctuary; both of them full of
fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering; 80one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense; 81one
young bull, one ram, one male lamb
a year old, for a burnt offering;
82one male goat for a sin offering;
83and for the sacrifice of peace
offerings, two head of cattle, five
rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.

84This was the dedication of the altar, on the day when it was anointed, by the leaders of Israel: twelve silver platters, twelve silver bowls, twelve golden ladles; 85each silver platter weighing one hundred thirty shekels, and each bowl seventy; all the silver of the vessels two thousand four hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; 86the twelve golden ladles, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece, after the shekel of the sanctuary; all the gold of the ladles weighed one hundred twenty shekels; 87all the cattle for the burnt offering twelve bulls, the rams twelve, the male lambs a year old twelve, and their meal offering;[a] and the male goats for a sin offering twelve; 88and all the cattle for the sacrifice of peace offerings twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the male goats sixty, the male lambs a year old sixty. This was the dedication of the altar, after it was anointed.

89When Moses went into the Tent of Meeting to speak with YHWH, he heard his voice[b] speaking to him from above the mercy seat that was on the ark of the Testimony, from between the two cherubim: and he spoke to him.

8 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 2"Speak to Aaron, and tell him, 'When you light the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in front of the lampstand.'" 3Aaron did so. He lit its lamps to light the area in front of the lampstand, as YHWH commanded Moses. 4This was the workmanship of the lampstand, beaten work of gold. From its base to its flowers, it was beaten work: according to the pattern which YHWH had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.

5YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 6"Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them. 7You shall do this to them, to cleanse them: sprinkle the water of cleansing on them, let them shave their whole bodies with a razor, and let them wash their clothes, and cleanse themselves. 8Then let them take a young bull, and its meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil; and another young bull you shall take for a sin offering. 9You shall present the Levites before the Tent of Meeting. You shall assemble the whole congregation of the children of Israel. 10You shall present the Levites before YHWH. The children of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites, 11and Aaron shall offer the Levites before YHWH for a wave offering, on the behalf of the children of Israel, that it may be theirs to do the service of YHWH. 12The Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, and you shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering to YHWH, to make atonement for the Levites. 13You shall set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them as a wave offering to YHWH. 14Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine.

15"After that, the Levites shall go in to do the service of the Tent of Meeting: and you shall cleanse them, and offer them as a wave offering. 16For they are wholly given to me from among the children of Israel; instead of all who open the womb, even the firstborn of all the children of Israel, I have taken them to me. 17For all the firstborn among the children of Israel are mine, both man and animal. On the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for myself. 18I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel. 19I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the Tent of Meeting, and to make atonement for the children of Israel; that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come near to the sanctuary."

9 YHWH spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, 2"Moreover let the children of Israel keep the Passover in its appointed season. 3On the fourteenth day of this month, at evening, you shall keep it in its appointed season—according to all its statutes, and according to all its ordinances, you shall keep it."

4Moses spoke to the children of Israel, that they should keep the Passover. 5They kept the Passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at evening, in the wilderness of Sinai. According to all that YHWH commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did. 6There were certain men, who were unclean because of the dead body of a man, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day, and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day. 7Those men said to him, “We are unclean because of the dead body of a man. Why are we kept back, that we may not offer the offering of YHWH in its appointed season among the children of Israel?”

9YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 10“Say to the children of Israel, ‘If any man of you or of your generations is unclean by reason of a dead body, or is on a journey far away, he shall still keep the Passover to YHWH. 11In the second month, on the fourteenth day at evening they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. 12They shall leave none of it until the morning, nor break a bone of it. [a]According to all the statute of the Passover they shall keep it. 13But the man who is clean, and is not on a journey, and fails to keep the Passover, that soul shall be cut off from his people. Because he did not offer the offering of YHWH in its appointed season, that man shall bear his sin. 14If a foreigner lives among you, and desires to keep the Passover to YHWH; according to the statute of the Passover, and according to its ordinance, so shall he do. You shall have one statute, both for the foreigner, and for him who is born in the land.’”

15On the day that the tabernacle was raised up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, even the Tent of the Testimony: and at evening it was over the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until morning. 16So it was continually. The cloud covered it by day,[b] and the appearance of fire by night. 17Whenever the cloud was taken up from over the Tent, then after that the children of Israel traveled; and in the place where the cloud remained, there the children of Israel camped. 18At the commandment of YHWH, the children of Israel traveled, and at the commandment of YHWH they camped. As long as the cloud remained on the tabernacle they remained camped. 19When the cloud stayed on the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the command of God,[c] and did not travel. 20Sometimes the cloud was a few days on the tabernacle; then according to the commandment of YHWH they remained camped, and according to the commandment of YHWH they traveled. 21Sometimes the cloud was from evening until morning; and when the cloud was taken up in the morning, they traveled: or by day and by night, when the cloud was taken up, they traveled. 22Whether it was two days, or a month, or a year that the cloud stayed on the tabernacle, remaining on it, the children of Israel remained camped, and did not travel; but when it was taken up, they traveled. [23]At the commandment of YHWH they camped, and at the commandment of YHWH they traveled. They kept YHWH's command, at the commandment of YHWH by Moses.

10 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Make two trumpets of silver. You shall make them of beaten work. You shall use them for the calling of the congregation, and for the journeying of the camps. [3]When they blow them, all the congregation shall gather themselves to you at the door of the Tent of Meeting. [4]But if they blow just one, then the leaders, the heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves to you. [5]When you blow an alarm, the camps that lie on the east side shall go forward. [6]When you blow an alarm the second time, the camps that lie on the south side shall go forward. They shall blow an alarm for their journeys. [7]But when the assembly is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm. [8]The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets. This shall be to you for a statute forever throughout your generations. [9]When you go to war in your land against the adversary who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets. Then you will be remembered before YHWH your God, and you will be saved from your enemies.

[10]"Also in the day of your gladness, and in your set feasts, and in the beginnings of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be to you for a memorial before your God. I am YHWH your God."

[11]It happened in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, that the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle of the testimony. [12]The children of Israel went forward according to their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud abode in the wilderness of Paran. [13]They first went forward according to the commandment of YHWH by Moses.

[14]First, the standard of the camp of the people of Judah went forward according to their armies. Nahshon the son of Amminadab was over his army. [15]Nethanel the son of Zuar was over the army of the tribe of the people of Issachar. [16]Eliab the son of Helon was over the army of the tribe of the people of Zebulun. [17]The tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari, who bore the tabernacle, went forward. [18]The standard of the camp of Reuben went forward according to their armies. Elizur the son of Shedeur was over his army. [19]Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai was over the army of the tribe of the people of Simeon. [20]Eliasaph the son of Reuel[a] was over the army of the tribe of the people of Gad.

[21]The Kohathites set forward, bearing the sanctuary. The others set up the tabernacle before they arrived.

[22]The standard of the camp of the people of Ephraim set forward according to their armies. Elishama the son of Ammihud was over his army. [23]Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur was over the army of the tribe of the people of Manasseh. [24]Abidan the son of Gideoni was over the army of the tribe of the people of Benjamin.

[25]The standard of the camp of the people of Dan, which was the rearward of all the camps, set forward according to their armies. Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai was over his army. [26]Pagiel the son of Ochran was over the army of the tribe of the people of Asher. [27]Ahira the son of Enan was over the army of the tribe of the people of Naphtali. [28]Thus were the travels of the children of Israel according to their armies; and they went forward.

[29]Moses said to Hobab, the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' brother-in-law,[b] "We are journeying to the place of which YHWH said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and we will treat you well; for YHWH has spoken good concerning Israel."

[30]He said to him, "I will not go; but I will depart to my own land, and to my relatives."

[31]He said, "Do not leave us, please; because you know how we are to camp in the wilderness, and you can be our eyes. [32]And it shall be, if you go with us, that it shall be that whatever good YHWH does to us, we will do the same to you."

[33]They set forward from the Mount of YHWH three days' journey. The ark of the covenant of YHWH went before them three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them. [34]The cloud of YHWH was over them by day, when they set forward from the camp. [35]It happened, when the ark went forward, that Moses said, "Rise up, YHWH, and let your enemies be scattered. Let those who hate you flee before you." [36]When it rested, he said, "Return, YHWH, to the ten thousands of the thousands of Israel."

11 The people were complaining in the ears of YHWH. When YHWH heard it, his anger was kindled; and YHWH's fire burnt among them, and consumed some of the outskirts of the camp.

[a]10:20 LXX Syr. MT reads "Deuel," an apparent dalet-resh (ד-ר) confusion

[b]10:29 Heb. choten, a relation by marriage. Here translated as brother-in-law

[2]The people cried to Moses; and Moses prayed to YHWH, and the fire abated. [3]The name of that place was called Taberah[a], because YHWH's fire burnt among them.

[4]The mixed multitude that was among them lusted exceedingly: and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, "Who will give us flesh to eat? [5]We remember the fish, which we ate in Egypt for nothing; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic; [6]but now we have lost our appetite. There is nothing at all except this manna to look at." [7]The manna was like coriander seed, and its appearance like the appearance of bdellium.
[8]The people went around, gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in mortars, and boiled it in pots, and made cakes of it. Its taste was like the taste of fresh oil. [9]When the dew fell on the camp in the night, the manna fell on it.

[10]Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, every man at the door of his tent;
and the anger of YHWH was kindled greatly; and Moses was displeased. [11]Moses said to YHWH, "Why have you treated with your servant so badly? Why haven't I found favor in your sight, that you lay the burden of all this people on me? [12]Have I conceived all this people? Have I brought them forth, that you should tell me, 'Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries a nursing infant, to the land which you swore to their fathers?' [13]Where could I get meat to give to all this people? For they weep to me, saying, 'Give us meat, that we may eat.' [14]I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me. [15]If you treat me this way, please kill me right now, if I have found favor in your sight; and do not let me see my wretchedness."

[16]YHWH said to Moses,
"Gather to me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them to the Tent of Meeting, that they may stand there with you. [17]I will come down and talk with you there.
I will take of the Spirit which is on you, and will put it on them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you not bear it yourself alone.

[18]"Say to the people, 'Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow, and you will eat flesh; for you have wept in the ears of YHWH, saying, "Who will give us flesh to eat? For it was well with us in Egypt." Therefore YHWH will give you flesh, and you will eat.
[19]You will not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days, [20]but a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it is loathsome to you; because that you have rejected YHWH who is among you, and [a]11:3 Taberah means "burning" have wept before him, saying, “Why did we come out of Egypt?”””

[21]Moses said, “The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand men on foot; and you have said, ‘I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.’ [22]Shall flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to be sufficient for them? Shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to be sufficient for them?”

[23]YHWH said to Moses, “Has YHWH’s hand grown short? Now you will see whether my word will happen to you or not.”

[24]Moses went out, and told the people the words of YHWH; and he gathered seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them around the Tent. [25]YHWH came down in the cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit that was on him, and put it on the seventy elders: and it happened that when the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but they did so no more. [26]But two men remained in the camp. The name of one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the Spirit rested on them; and they were of those who were written, but had not gone out to the Tent; and they prophesied in the camp. [27]A young man ran, and told Moses, and said, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

[29]Moses said to him, “Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all YHWH’s people were prophets, that YHWH would put his Spirit on them.” [30]Moses went into the camp, he and the elders of Israel. [31]A wind from YHWH went out and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, about a day’s journey on this side, and a day’s journey on the other side, around the camp, and about three feet[a] above the ground. [32]The people rose up all that day, and all the night, and all the next day,[b] and gathered the quails. He who gathered least gathered ten homers;[c] and they spread them all abroad for themselves around the camp. [33]While the flesh was yet between their teeth, before it was chewed, the anger of YHWH was kindled against the people, and YHWH struck the people with a very great plague. [34]The name of that place was called Kibroth Hattaavah,[d] because there they buried the people who lusted.

the people traveled to Hazeroth; and they stayed at Hazeroth.

12 Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married; for he had married a Cushite woman. 2They said, "Has YHWH indeed spoken only with Moses? Hasn't he spoken also with us?" And YHWH heard it.

3Now the man Moses was very humble, above all the men who were on the surface of the earth. 4YHWH spoke suddenly to Moses, to Aaron, and to Miriam, "You three come out to the Tent of Meeting."

The three of them came out.
5YHWH came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood at the door of the Tent, and called Aaron and Miriam; and they both came forward. 6He[a] said,[b] "Hear now my words. If there is a prophet among you, I YHWH will make myself known to him in a vision. I will speak with him in a dream. 7My servant Moses is not so. He is faithful in all my house.
8With him I will speak mouth to mouth, openly,[c] and not in riddles; and he shall see YHWH's form.
Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant, against Moses?" 9The anger of YHWH was kindled against them; and he departed. 10The cloud departed from over the Tent; and look, Miriam was leprous, as white as snow. Aaron looked at Miriam, and look, she was leprous.

11Aaron said to Moses, "Oh, my lord, please do not count this sin against us, in which we have done foolishly, and in which we have sinned. 12Let her not, I pray, be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb."

13Moses cried to YHWH, saying, "Heal her, God, I beg you."

14YHWH said to Moses, "If her father had but spit in her face, shouldn't she be ashamed seven days? Let her be shut up outside of the camp seven days, and after that she shall be brought in again."

15Miriam was shut up outside of the camp seven days, and the people did not travel until Miriam was brought in again. 16Afterward the people traveled from Hazeroth, and camped in the wilderness of Paran.

13 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying,
2"Send men, that they may spy out the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel. Of every tribe of their fathers, you shall send a man, every one a prince among them."

3Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran according to the commandment of YHWH: all of them men who were heads of the children of Israel. 4These were their names: Of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zakkur. 5Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori. 6Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh. 7Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph. 8Of the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Nun. 9Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu. 10Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi. 11Of the tribe of Joseph, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi. 12Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli. 13Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael. 14Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi. 15Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Maki.[a] 16These are the names of the men who Moses sent to spy out the land. Moses called Hoshea the son of Nun Joshua. 17Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, "Go up this way by the Negev, and go up into the hill country: 18and see the land, what it is; and the people who dwell in it, whether they are strong or weak, whether they are few or many; 19and what the land is that they dwell in, whether it is good or bad; and what cities they are that they dwell in, whether in camps, or in strongholds; 20and what the land is, whether it is fat or lean, whether there is wood in it, or not. Be courageous, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the first-ripe grapes." 21So they went up, and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, to Lebo Hamath. 22They went up by the Negev, and came to Hebron; and Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the descendants of Anak, were there. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.) 23They came to the Valley of Eshcol, and cut down from there a branch with one cluster of grapes on it,[b] and they bore it on a staff between two. They also brought some of the pomegranates and figs. 24That place was called[c] the Valley of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the children of Israel cut down from there. 25They returned from spying out the land at the end of forty days. 26They went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, to the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word to them, and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land. 27They told him, and said, "We came to the land where you sent us; and surely it flows with milk and honey; and this is its fruit. 28However the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified and very large. Moreover, we saw the descendants of Anak there. [29]Amalek dwells in the land of the Negev: and the Hethites, and the Hivites,[a] and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the hill country; and the Canaanite dwells by the sea, and along by the side of the Jordan." [30]Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, "Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it." [31]But the men who went up with him said, "We aren't able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we." [32]They brought up an evil report of the land which they had spied out to the children of Israel, saying, "The land, through which we have gone to spy it out, is a land that eats up its inhabitants; and all the people who we saw in it are men of great stature. [33]There we saw the Nephilim, the sons of Anak, who come of the Nephilim: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight."

14 All the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept that night. [2]All the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said to them, "Would that we had died in the land of Egypt, or would that we had died in this wilderness. [3]Why does YHWH bring us to this land, to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will be a prey: wouldn't it be better for us to return into Egypt?" [4]And they said to one another, "Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt." [5]Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel. [6]Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were of those who spied out the land, tore their clothes: [7]and they spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, "The land, which we passed through to spy it out, is an exceeding good land. [8]If YHWH delights in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it to us; a land which flows with milk and honey. [9]Only do not rebel against YHWH, neither fear the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defense is removed from over them, and YHWH is with us. Do not fear them." [10]But all the congregation threatened to stone them with stones. Then the glory of YHWH appeared[b] at the Tent of Meeting to all the children of Israel. [11]YHWH said to Moses, "How long will this people despise me? And how long will they not believe in me, for all the signs which I have worked among them? [12]I will strike them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and I will make of you and your father's house[c] a nation greater and mightier than

They have heard that you YHWH are in the midst of this people; for you YHWH are seen face to face, and your cloud stands over them, and you go before them, in a pillar of cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night. [15]Now if you killed this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of you will speak, saying, [16]'Because YHWH was not able to bring this people into the land which he swore to them, therefore he has slain them in the wilderness.' [17]Now please let the power of the Lord be great, according as you have spoken, saying, [18]'YHWH is slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness,[a] forgiving iniquity and disobedience;[b] and that will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children,[c] upon the third and upon the fourth generation.' [19]Please pardon the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of your loving kindness, and according as you have forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now." [20]YHWH said, "I have pardoned according to your word. [21]But truly, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of YHWH; [22]because all those men who have seen my glory, and my signs, which I worked in Egypt and in the wilderness, yet have tempted me these ten times, and have not listened to my voice; [23]surely they shall not see the land which I swore to their fathers, neither shall any of those who despised me see it: [24]but my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and has followed me fully, him will I bring into the land into which he went; and his descendants shall possess it. [25]Now the Amalekite and the Canaanite dwell in the valley: tomorrow turn, and go into the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea." [26]YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, [27]"How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, that murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me. [28]Tell them, 'As I live, says YHWH, surely as you have spoken in my ears, so will I do to you: [29]your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness; and all who were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against me, [30]surely you shall not come into the land, concerning which I swore that I would make you dwell in it, except

Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. 31But your little ones, that you said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which you have rejected. 32But as for you, your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness. 33Your children shall be wanderers in the wilderness forty years, and shall bear your prostitution, until your dead bodies be consumed in the wilderness. 34After the number of the days in which you spied out the land, even forty days, for every day a year, you will bear your iniquities, even forty years, and you will know my alienation.' 35I, YHWH, have spoken, surely this will I do to all this evil congregation, who are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die." 36The men, whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up an evil report against the land, 37even those men who brought up an evil report of the land, died by the plague before YHWH. 38But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, remained alive of those men who went to spy out the land. 39Moses told these words to all the children of Israel: and the people mourned greatly. 40They rose up early in the morning, and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, "Look, we are here, and will go up to the place which YHWH has promised: for we have sinned." 41Moses said, "Why now do you disobey the commandment of YHWH, since it shall not prosper? 42Do not go up, for YHWH isn't among you; that you not be struck down before your enemies. 43For there the Amalekite and the Canaanite are before you, and you shall fall by the sword: because you are turned back from following YHWH, therefore YHWH will not be with you."

44But they presumed to go up to the top of the mountain: nevertheless the ark of the covenant of YHWH, and Moses, did not depart out of the camp. 45Then the Amalekite came down, and the Canaanite who lived in that mountain, and struck them and beat them down, even to Hormah.

15 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 2"Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When you have come into the land of your habitations, which I give to you, 3and will make an offering by fire to YHWH, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice, to accomplish a vow, or as a freewill offering, or in your set feasts, to make a pleasant aroma to YHWH, of the herd, or of the flock; 4then he who offers his offering shall offer to YHWH a meal offering of a tenth part of an ephah of fine flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of oil: 5and wine for the drink offering, the fourth part of a hin, you shall prepare with the burnt offering, or for the sacrifice, for each lamb.

6"'Or for a ram, you shall prepare for a meal offering two tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour mixed with the third part of a hin of oil: [7]and for the drink offering you shall offer the third part of a hin of wine, of a pleasant aroma to YHWH. [8]When you prepare a bull for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice, to accomplish a vow, or for peace offerings to YHWH; [9]then shall he offer with the bull a meal offering of three tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil: [10]and you shall offer for the drink offering half a hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to YHWH.

[11]Thus shall it be done for each bull, or for each ram, or for each of the male lambs, or of the young goats. [12]According to the number that you shall prepare, so you shall do to everyone according to their number.

[13]"'All who are native-born shall do these things in this way, in offering an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to YHWH. [14]If a stranger lives as a foreigner with you, or whoever may be among you throughout your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to YHWH; as you do, so he shall do. [15]For the assembly, there shall be one statute for you, and for the stranger who lives among you, a statute forever throughout your generations: as you are, so shall the foreigner be before YHWH. [16]One law and one ordinance shall be for you, and for the stranger who lives as a foreigner with you.'"

[17]YHWH spoke to Moses,
saying, [18]"Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When you come into the land where I bring you, [19]then it shall be that when you eat of the bread of the land, you shall offer up a wave offering to YHWH. [20]Of the first of your dough you shall offer up a cake for a wave offering: as the wave offering of the threshing floor, so you shall heave it. [21]Of the first of your dough you shall give to YHWH a wave offering throughout your generations.

not observe all these commandments, which YHWH has spoken to Moses, [23]even all that YHWH has commanded you by Moses, from the day that YHWH gave commandment, and onward throughout your generations; [24]then it shall be, if it be done unwittingly, without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bull for a burnt offering, for a pleasant aroma to YHWH, with the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it, according to the ordinance, and one male goat for a sin offering. [25]The priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and they shall be forgiven; for it was an error, and they have brought their offering, an offering made by fire to YHWH, and their sin offering before YHWH, for their error: [26]and all the congregation of the children of Israel shall be forgiven, and the stranger who lives as a foreigner among them; for in respect of all the people it was done unwittingly.

[27]"'If one person sins unwittingly, then he shall offer a female goat a year old for a sin offering. 28The priest shall make atonement for the soul who errs, when he sins unwittingly, before YHWH, to make atonement for him; and he shall be forgiven. 29You shall have one law for him who does anything unwittingly, for him who is native-born among the children of Israel, and for the stranger who lives as a foreigner among them.

30"'But the person who acts defiantly, whether he is native-born or a foreigner, the same blasphemes God,[a] and that person is to be cut off from among his people. 31Because he has despised the word of YHWH, and has broken his commandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity shall be on him.'"

32While the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath day. 33Those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation. 34They put him in custody, because it had not been declared what should be done to him.

35YHWH said to Moses, "The man shall surely be put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside of the camp." 36All the congregation brought him outside of the camp, and stoned him to death with stones; as YHWH commanded Moses.

37YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 38"Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them that they should make themselves fringes[b] in the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put on the fringe[c] of each border a cord of blue: 39and it shall be to you for a fringe[d], that you may look on it, and remember all the commandments of YHWH, and do them; and that you not follow after your own heart and your own eyes, after which you use to play the prostitute; 40that you may remember and do all my commandments, and be holy to your God. 41I am YHWH your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am YHWH your God."

congregation are holy, everyone of them, and YHWH is among them: why then lift yourselves up above the assembly of YHWH?" 4When Moses heard it, he fell on his face: 5and he spoke to Korah and to all his company, saying, "In the morning YHWH[a] will show who are his, and who is holy, and will bring him near to him. The one whom he has chosen[b] he will bring near to him. 6Do this: take censers, Korah, and all his company; 7and put fire in them, and put incense on them before YHWH tomorrow: and it shall be that the man whom YHWH chooses, he shall be holy. You have gone too far, you sons of Levi." 8Moses said to Korah, "Hear now, you sons of Levi. 9Is it a small thing to you, that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do the service of the tabernacle of YHWH, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them; 10and that he has brought you near, and all your brothers the sons of Levi with you? and do you seek the priesthood also? 11Therefore you and all your company are gathered together against God.[c] And Aaron, what is he that you murmur against him?"

12Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab; and they said, "We won't come up: 13is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, but you must also make yourself a prince over us? 14Moreover you haven't brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: will you put out the eyes of these men? We won't come up." 15Moses was very angry, and said to YHWH, "Do not respect their offering: I have not taken one donkey from them, neither have I hurt one of them."
20YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 21"Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment." 22They fell on their faces, and said, "God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and will you be angry[d] with all the congregation?"

[27]So they went away from the tent of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram, came out, and stood at the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little ones. [28]Moses said, "Hereby you shall know that YHWH has sent me to do all these works; for they are not from my own mind. [29]If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then YHWH hasn't sent me. [30]But if YHWH make a new thing, and the ground open its mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain to them, and they go down alive into Sheol; then you shall understand that these men have despised YHWH."

[31]It happened, as he made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground split apart that was under them; [32]and the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and all the men who appertained to Korah, and all their goods. [33]So they, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into Sheol: and the earth closed on them, and they perished from among the assembly. [34]All Israel that were around them fled at their cry; for they said, "Lest the earth swallow us up." [35]Fire came forth from YHWH, and devoured the two hundred fifty men who offered the incense.

[36]YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [37]"Speak to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter the fire yonder; for they are holy, [38]even the censers of these sinners against their own lives; and let them be made beaten plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before YHWH; therefore they are holy; and they shall be a sign to the children of Israel." [39]Eleazar[a] the priest took the bronze censers, which those who were burnt had offered; and they beat them out for a covering of the altar, [40]to be a memorial to the children of Israel, to the end that no stranger, who isn't of the descendants of Aaron, comes near to burn incense before YHWH; that he not be as Korah, and as his company: as YHWH spoke to him by Moses. [41]But on the next day all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, "You have killed YHWH's people." [42]It happened, when the congregation was assembled against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the Tent of Meeting: and look, the cloud covered it, and the glory of YHWH appeared. 43Moses and Aaron came to the front of the Tent of Meeting. 44YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 45"Get away from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment." They fell on their faces.

46Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer, and put fire from off the altar in it, and lay incense on it, and carry it quickly to the congregation, and make atonement for them; for wrath has gone out from YHWH. The plague has begun."

47Aaron did as Moses said, and ran into the midst of the assembly; and look, the plague has begun among the people: and he put on the incense, and made atonement for the people. 48He stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed. 49Now those who died by the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides those who died about the matter of Korah. 50Aaron returned to Moses to the door of the Tent of Meeting: and the plague was stayed.

17 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 2"Speak to the children of Israel, and take of them rods, one for each fathers' house, of all their princes according to their fathers' houses, twelve rods: write every man's name on his rod. 3You shall write Aaron's name on the rod of Levi; for there shall be one rod for each head of their fathers' houses. 4You shall lay them up in the Tent of Meeting before the testimony, where I meet with you. 5It shall happen, that the rod of the man whom I shall choose shall bud: and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against you."

6Moses spoke to the children of Israel; and all their leaders gave him rods, one for each leader, according to their ancestral houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods. 7Moses laid up the rods before YHWH in the tent of the testimony.

8It happened on the next day, that Moses went into the tent of the testimony; and look, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and put forth buds, and produced blossoms, and bore ripe almonds. 9Moses brought out all the rods from before YHWH to all the children of Israel: and they looked, and took every man his rod.

10YHWH said to Moses, "Put back the rod of Aaron before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the rebels; that you may make an end of their murmurings against me, that they not die." 11Moses did so. As YHWH commanded him, so he did.

12The children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, "Look, we perish. We are undone. We are all undone. 13Everyone who comes near, who comes near to the tabernacle of YHWH, dies. Will we all perish?"

18 YHWH said to Aaron, "You and your sons and your fathers' house with you shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary; and you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood. 2Your brothers also, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, bring near with you, that they may be joined to you, and minister to you: but you and your sons with you shall be before the tent of the testimony. 3They shall keep your commands, and the duty of all the Tent: only they shall not come near to the vessels of the sanctuary and to the altar, that they not die, neither they, nor you. 4They shall be joined to you, and keep the responsibility of the Tent of Meeting, for all the service of the Tent: and a stranger shall not come near to you.

5"You shall perform the duty of the sanctuary, and the duty of the altar; that there be no more wrath on the children of Israel. 6And as for me, look, I have taken your brothers the Levites from among the children of Israel; they are a gift to you,[a] given to YHWH, to do the service of the Tent of Meeting. 7You and your sons with you shall keep your priesthood for everything concerning the altar, and for that inside the veil; and you shall serve: I give you the priesthood as a service of gift: and the stranger who comes near shall be put to death."

8YHWH spoke to Aaron, "I, look, I have given you the command of my wave offerings, even all the holy things of the children of Israel; to you have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to your sons, as a portion forever. 9This shall be yours of the most holy things from the fire: every offering of theirs, even every meal offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every trespass offering of theirs, which they shall render to me, shall be most holy for you and for your sons. 10You shall eat of it like the most holy things. Every male shall eat of it. It shall be holy to you.

11"This is yours, too: the wave offering of their gift, even all the wave offerings of the children of Israel. I have given them to you, and to your sons and to your daughters with you, as a portion forever. Everyone who is clean in your house shall eat of it.

12"All the best of the oil, and all the best of the vintage, and of the grain, the first fruits of them which they give to YHWH, to you have I given them. 13The first-ripe fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to YHWH, shall be yours; everyone who is clean in your house shall eat of it.

Israel shall be yours. 15Everything that opens the womb, of all flesh which they offer to YHWH, both of man and animal shall be yours: nevertheless you shall surely you shall redeem the firstborn of unclean animals. 16You shall redeemed of them from a month old, according to your estimation, shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

17"But you shall not redeem firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat. They are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar, and shall burn their fat for an

of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer to YHWH, have I given you, and your sons and your daughters with you, as a portion forever: it is a covenant of and to your descendants with you."

20YHWH said to Aaron, "You shall have no inheritance in their land, neither shall you have any portion among them. I am your portion and your inheritance among the children of Israel.

21"To the descendants of Levi, look, I have given all the tithe in Israel for an inheritance, in return for their service which they serve, even the service of the Tent of Meeting. 22Hereafter the children of Israel shall not come near the Tent of Meeting, lest they bear sin, and die. 23But the Levites shall do the service of the Tent of Meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations; and among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance. 24For the tithe of the children of Israel, which they offer as a wave offering to YHWH, I have given to the Levites for an inheritance: therefore I have said to them, 'Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.'"

25YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 26"Moreover you shall speak to the Levites, and tell them, 'When you take of the children of Israel the tithe which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then you shall offer up a wave offering of it for YHWH, a tithe of the tithe. 27Your wave offering shall be reckoned to you, as though it were the grain of the threshing floor, and as the fullness of the winepress. 28Thus you also shall offer a wave offering to YHWH of all your tithes, which you receive of the children of Israel; and of it you shall give YHWH's wave offering to Aaron the priest. 29Out of all your gifts you shall offer every wave offering of YHWH, of all its best, even the holy part of it out of it.'

30"Therefore you shall tell them, 'When you heave its best from it, then it shall be reckoned to the Levites as the increase of the threshing floor, and as the increase of the winepress. 31You shall eat it in every place, you and your households[a]: for it is your reward in return for your service in the Tent of Meeting. 32You shall bear no sin by reason of it, when you have heaved from it its best: and you shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, that you not die.'"

19 YHWH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 2"This is the statute of the law which YHWH has commanded: Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring you a red heifer without spot, in which is no blemish, and which was never yoked. 3And you shall give it to Eleazar the priest, and they shall bring it outside of the camp, and they[b] shall slaughter it in his presence. 4And Eleazar the priest shall take of its blood with his finger, and sprinkle this blood toward the front of the Tent of Meeting seven times. 5Then he shall burn the heifer in his sight; its skin, and its flesh, and its blood, with its dung, he shall burn. 6And the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer. 7Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the evening. 8He who burns her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the evening.

9"A man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up outside of the camp in a clean place; and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for a water for impurity: it is a sin offering. 10He who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening: and it shall be to the children of Israel, and to the stranger who lives as a foreigner among them, for a statute forever.

11"He who touches the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days: 12the same shall purify himself with water on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he doesn't purify himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean. 13Whoever touches a dead person, the body of a man who has died, and doesn't purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of YHWH; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because the water for impurity was not sprinkled on him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet on him.

14"This is the law when a man dies in a tent: everyone who comes into the tent, and everyone who is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days. 15Every open vessel, which has no covering bound on it, is unclean.

16"Whoever in the open field touches one who is slain with a sword, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

17"For the unclean they shall take of the ashes of the burning of the sin offering; and running water shall be put thereto in a vessel: 18and a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it on the tent, and on all[a] the vessels, and on the persons who were there, and on him who touched the bone, or the slain, or the dead, or the grave: 19and the clean person shall sprinkle on the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day: and on the seventh day he shall purify him; and he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at evening. 20But the man who shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from the midst of the assembly, because he has defiled the sanctuary of YHWH: the water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean. 21It shall be a perpetual statute to them: and he who sprinkles the water for impurity shall wash his clothes, and he who touches the water for impurity shall be unclean until evening.

22"Whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and the soul that touches it shall be unclean until evening."

20 The children of Israel, even the whole congregation, came into the wilderness of Zin in the first month: and the people stayed in Kadesh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there. 2There was no water for the congregation: and they assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron. 3The people strove with Moses, and spoke, saying, "We wish that we had died when our brothers died before YHWH. 4Why have you brought the assembly of YHWH into this wilderness, that we should die there, we and our animals? 5Why have you made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in to this evil place? It is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink."

6Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and fell on their faces: and the glory of YHWH appeared to them. 7YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 8"Take the rod, and assemble the congregation, you, and Aaron your brother, and speak to the rock before their eyes, that it give forth its water; and you shall bring forth to them water out of the rock; so you shall give the congregation and their livestock drink."

9Moses took the rod from before YHWH, as he commanded him. 10Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock, and he said to them, "Hear now, you rebels; shall we bring you water out of this rock for you?" 11Moses lifted up his hand, and struck the rock with his rod twice: and water came forth abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their livestock.

12YHWH said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not believe in me, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them."

13These are the waters of Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with YHWH, and he was sanctified in them.[a] 14Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, saying:

"Thus says your brother Israel: You know all the travail that has happened to us: 15how our fathers went down into Egypt, and we lived in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians dealt ill with us, and our fathers: 16and when we cried to YHWH, he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and brought us forth out of Egypt: and look, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of your border.

17"Please let us pass through your land: we will not pass through field or through vineyard, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go along the king's highway; we will not turn aside to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed your border."

18Edom said to him, "You shall not pass through me, lest I come out with the sword against you."

19The children of Israel said to him, "We will go up by the highway; and if we drink of your water, I and my livestock, then will I give its price: let me only, without doing anything else, pass through on my feet."

[a]20:13 DSS SP add "And Moses said, Lord GOD, you have begun to show your servant your greatness, and your strong hand: for what god is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to your works, and according to your mighty acts? Please let me go over and see the good land that is beyond the Jordan, that good hill country, and Lebanon." And YHWH said to Moses, "Enough from you; speak no more to me of this matter. Go up to the top of Pisgah, and lift up your eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and see with your eyes: for you shall not go over this Jordan." Cf. Deuteronomy 3:24-27

20He said, “You shall not pass through.” Edom came out against him with many people, and with a strong hand. 21Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border, so Israel turned away from him.

22They traveled from Kadesh: and the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, came to Mount Hor. 23YHWH spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor, by the border of the land of Edom, saying, 24“Aaron shall be gathered to his people; for he shall not enter into the land which I have given to the children of Israel, because you rebelled against my word at the waters of Meribah. 25Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up to Mount Hor; 26and strip Aaron of his garments, and put them on Eleazar his son: and Aaron shall be taken, and shall die there.”

27Moses did as YHWH commanded: and they went up into Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation. 28Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them on Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.
29When all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they wept for Aaron thirty days, even all the house of Israel.

21 When the Canaanite king of Arad who lived in the Negev heard that Israel came by the way of Atharim, then he fought against Israel, and took some of them captive. 2Israel vowed a vow to YHWH, and said, “If you will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities.” 3YHWH listened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites[a]; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and the name of the place was called Hormah.

4They traveled from Mount Hor by the way to the Red Sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way.
5The people spoke against God, and against Moses, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, and there is no water; and our soul loathes this light bread.”

6YHWH sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and many people of Israel died. 7The people came to Moses, and said, “We have sinned, because we have spoken against YHWH, and against you. Pray to YHWH, that he take away the serpents from us.” Moses prayed for the people.

8YHWH said to Moses, “Make a fiery serpent, and set it on a standard: and it shall happen, that everyone who is bitten, when he sees it, shall live.” 9Moses made a serpent of bronze, and set it on the standard: and it happened, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked to the serpent of bronze, he lived. 10The children of Israel traveled, and camped in Oboth. 11They traveled from Oboth, and camped at Iyeabarim, in the wilderness which is before Moab, toward the sunrise. 12From[a] there they traveled, and camped in the Valley of Zered. 13From[b] there they traveled, and camped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness, that comes out of the border of the Amorites: for the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. 14Therefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of YHWH, "Waheb in Suphah, the valleys of the Arnon, 15the slope of the valleys that incline toward the dwelling of Ar, leans on the border of Moab."

16From there they traveled to Beer: that is the well of which YHWH said to Moses, "Gather the people together, and I will give them water."

17Then sang Israel this song:
"Spring up, well; sing to it: 18the well, which the princes dug, which the nobles of the people dug, with the scepter, and with their staffs."

From the wilderness they traveled to Mattanah; 19and from Mattanah to Nahaliel; and from Nahaliel to Bamoth; 20and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the field of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looks down on the desert. 21Israel[c] sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, 22"Let me pass through your land: we will not turn aside into field, or into vineyard; we will not drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's highway, until we have passed your border."

23Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness, and came to Jahaz; and he fought against Israel. 24Israel struck him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, even to the people of Ammon; for the border of the people of Ammon was strong. 25Israel took all these cities: and Israel lived in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its towns. 26For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even to the Arnon. 27Therefore those who speak in proverbs say, "Come to Heshbon.

Let the city of Sihon be built and established; [28]for a fire has gone out of Heshbon,
a flame from the city of Sihon.
It has devoured Ar of Moab, swallowed up[a] the high places of the Arnon.
[29]Woe to you, Moab.
You are undone, people of Chemosh.
He has given his sons as fugitives, and his daughters into captivity,
to Sihon king of the Amorites.
[30]And we shot at them.
Heshbon has perished as far as Dibon.
And we have laid waste as far as Nophah, which reaches to Medeba."

[31]Thus Israel lived in the land of the Amorites. [32]Moses sent to spy out Jazer; and they took its towns, and drove out the Amorites who were there. [33]They turned and went up by the way of Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

[34]YHWH said to Moses, "Do not fear him: for I have delivered him into your hand, and all his people, and his land; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon."

[35]So they struck him, and his sons and all his people, until there was none left him remaining: and they possessed his land.

22 The children of Israel traveled, and camped in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan at Jericho. [2]Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. [3]Moab was very afraid of the people, because they were many: and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel. [4]Moab said to the elders of Midian, "Now this multitude will lick up all that is around us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field." Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time.

[5]He sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor, at Pethor on the river, to the land of the people of Ammon,[b] to call him, saying, "Look, there is a people who came out from Egypt. Look, they cover the surface of the earth, and they are settling next to me. [6]And now please come, curse this people for me, for they are too mighty for me. Perhaps I shall prevail, that we may strike them, and that I may drive them out of the land; for I know that he whom you 7The elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the fees for divination in their hand; and they came to Balaam, and spoke to him the words of Balak. 8And he said to them, "Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as YHWH shall speak to me." The princes of Moab stayed with Balaam. 9And God came to Balaam, and said,[a] "Who are these men with you?" 10And Balaam said to God, "Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent to me, saying,[b] 11'Look, this people has come out of Egypt and they cover the surface of the earth.[c] Come now, curse them for me; perhaps I shall be able to fight against them, and shall drive them out.[d]'"

12And God said to Balaam, "You are not to go with them, and you are not to curse the people, for they are blessed." 13And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said to the princes of Balak, "Go to your lord;[e] for God[f] refuses to permit me to go with you."

14The princes of Moab rose up, and they went to Balak, and said, "Balaam refuses to come with us."

15Then Balak again sent princes, more in number and more honorable than these. 16They came to Balaam, and said to him, "Thus says Balak the son of Zippor, 'Please let nothing hinder you from coming to me: 17for I will greatly honor you, and whatever you say to me I will do for you.[g] Please come therefore, and curse this people for me.'"

18Balaam answered the servants of Balak, "If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I can't go beyond the command of YHWH my God, to do less or more.[h] 19Now therefore, you also stay here tonight, that I may know what else YHWH will say to me."

20God came to Balaam at night, and said to him, "If the men have come to call you, rise up, go with them; but only the word which I speak to you, that you shall do."

21Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab. 22God's anger was kindled because he went; and the angel of YHWH placed himself in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him. 23The donkey saw the angel of God[a] standing in the way, with his sword drawn in his hand; and the donkey turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam struck the donkey, to turn her into the way. 24Then the angel of God[b] stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side. 25The donkey saw the angel of God,[c] and she thrust herself to the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and he struck her again.

26The angel of God[d] went further, and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left. 27The donkey saw the angel of God,[e] and she lay down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he struck the donkey with his staff.
28And God[f] opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?"

29Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you have mocked me, I wish there were a sword in my hand, for now I would have killed you."

30The donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey, on which you have ridden all your life long to this day? Was I ever in the habit of doing so to you?" He said, "No."

31Then God[g] opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of God[h] standing in the way, with his sword drawn in his hand; and he bowed his head, and fell on his face. 32The angel of God[i] said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Look, I have come forth as an adversary, because your way is perverse before me: 33and the donkey saw me, and turned aside before me these three times. Unless she had turned aside from me, surely now I would have killed you, and saved her alive."

34Balaam said to the angel of YHWH, "I have sinned; for I did not know that you stood in the way against me. Now therefore, if it displeases you, I will go back again." 35The angel of God[j] said to Balaam, "Go with the men; but only the word that I shall speak to you, that you shall speak." So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

38Balaam said to Balak, "Look, I have come to you: have I now any power at all to speak anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that shall I speak."

39Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath Huzoth. 40Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes who were with him. 41It happened in the morning, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high places of Baal; and he saw from there the utmost part of the people.

23 Balaam said to Balak, "Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bulls and seven rams."

2Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bull and a ram. 3Balaam said to Balak, "Station yourself by your burnt offering, and I[a] will go. Perhaps God[b] will come to meet me, and whatever he shows me I will tell you." And Balak went off and stationed himself by his offering, and Balaam called to God[c] and went off to a barren height. 4And God met Balaam, and he said to him, "I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered up a bull and a ram on every altar."

5And God[d] put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, "Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak."

6He returned to him, and look, he was standing by his burnt offering, he, and all the princes of Moab.[e] 7He took up his parable, and said, [25]Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place; and Balak also went his way.

25 Now Israel stayed in Shittim; and the people defiled themselves by having sexual relations with the women of Moab, [2]and they called the people to the sacrifices of their gods; and the people ate, and bowed down to their gods. [3]Israel joined himself to Baal Peor: and the anger of YHWH was kindled against Israel. [4]YHWH said to Moses, "Take all the chiefs of the people, and hang them up to YHWH before the sun, that the fierce anger of YHWH may turn away from Israel."

[5]Moses said to the judges of Israel, "Everyone kill his men who have joined themselves to Baal Peor."

[6]Look, one of the children of Israel came and brought to his brothers a Midianite woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, while they were weeping at the door of the Tent of Meeting.
[7]When Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from the midst of the congregation, and took a spear in his hand; [8]and he went after the man of Israel into the pavilion, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her body. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel. [9]Those who died by the plague were twenty-four thousand.
[10]YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, son of Aaron the priest, has turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, in that he was jealous with my jealousy among them, so that I did not consume the children of covenant of peace: [13]and it shall be him, the covenant of an everlasting for his God, and made atonement for the children of Israel.'" of Israel that was slain, who was slain with the Midianite woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of a fathers' house among the Simeonites. [15]The name of the Midianite woman who was slain was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur; he was head of the people of a fathers' house in Midian.

[16]And YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, "Speak to the children of Israel, saying,[a] them; [18]for they harassed you with their tricks, with which they have deceived you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of the prince of Midian, their sister, who was slain on the day of the plague in the matter of Peor.'"

26 It happened after the plague, that YHWH spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying, [2]"Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, by their fathers' houses, all who are able to go forth to war in Israel." [3]Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying, [4]"Take a census, from twenty years old and upward; as YHWH commanded Moses and the children of Israel."

57These are those who were numbered of the Levites after their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites. 58These are the families of Levi: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korahites. Kohath became the father of Amram. 59The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt: and she bore to Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. 60To Aaron were born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. 61Nadab and Abihu died, when they offered strange fire before YHWH. 62Those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel. 63These are those who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho. 64But among these there was not a man of them who were numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai. 65For YHWH had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. There was not left a man of them, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

27 Then drew near the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah. 2They stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, at the door of the Tent of Meeting, saying, 3"Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not among the company of those who gathered themselves together against YHWH in the company of Korah: but he died in his own sin; and he had no sons. 4Why should the name of our father be taken away from among his family, because he had no son? Give to us a possession among the brothers of our father."

daughter. [9]If he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers. [10]If he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers. [11]If his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his kinsman who is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be to the children of Israel a statute and ordinance, as YHWH commanded Moses.'"

[12]YHWH said to Moses, "Go up into this mountain of Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the children of Israel. [13]When you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother was gathered; [14]because you rebelled against my word in the wilderness of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify me at the waters before their eyes." (These are the waters of Meribah of Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.)

[15]Moses spoke to YHWH, saying, [16]"Let YHWH, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation, [17]who may go out before them, and who may come in before them, and who may lead them out, and who may bring them in; that the congregation of YHWH not be as sheep which have no shepherd."

[18]YHWH said to Moses, "Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him; [19]and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation; and commission him in their sight. [20]You shall put of your honor on him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may obey. [21]He shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire for him by the judgment of the Urim before YHWH: at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him, even all the congregation."

[22]Moses did as YHWH commanded him; and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation: [23]and he laid his hands on him, and commissioned him, as YHWH spoke by Moses.

28 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Command the children of Israel, and tell them, 'My offering, my food for my offerings made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to me, you shall observe to offer to me in their due season.' [3]You shall tell them, 'This is the offering made by fire which you shall offer to YHWH: male lambs a year old without blemish, two day by day, for a continual burnt offering. [4]You shall offer the one lamb in the morning, and you shall offer the other lamb at evening; [5]with the tenth part of an ephah[a] of fine flour for a meal offering, mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil. 6It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in Mount Sinai for a pleasant aroma, an offering made by fire to YHWH. 7Its drink offering shall be the fourth part of a hin for the one lamb. You shall pour out a drink offering of strong drink to YHWH in the holy place. 8The other lamb you shall offer at evening: as the meal offering of the morning, and as the drink offering of it, you shall offer it, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to YHWH.

9"'On the Sabbath day two male lambs a year old without blemish, and two tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering, mixed with oil, and the drink offering of it: 10this is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, besides the continual burnt offering, and the drink offering of it.

11"'In the beginnings of your months you shall offer a burnt offering to YHWH: two young bulls, and one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish; 12and three tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering, mixed with oil, for each bull; and two tenth parts of fine flour for a meal offering, mixed with oil, for the one ram; 13and a tenth part of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering to every lamb; for a burnt offering of a pleasant aroma, an offering made by fire to YHWH.
14Their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine for a bull, and the third part of a hin for the ram, and the fourth part of a hin for a lamb: this is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year. 15One male goat for a sin offering to YHWH; it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering, and the drink offering of
it.

16"'In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, is YHWH's Passover. 17On the fifteenth day of this month shall be a feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten. 18In the first day shall be a holy servile work; 19but you shall offer an offering made by fire, a burnt offering to YHWH: two young bulls, and one ram, and seven male lambs a year old; they shall be to you without blemish; 20and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil: you shall offer three tenth parts for a bull, and two tenth parts for the ram. 21You shall offer a tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs; 22and one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you. 23You shall offer these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering. 24In this way you shall offer daily, for seven days, the food of the offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to YHWH: it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering, and the drink offering of it. [25]On the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation: you shall do no servile work.

[26]"'Also in the day of the first fruits, when you offer a new meal offering to YHWH in your feast of weeks, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work; [27]but you shall offer a burnt offering for a pleasant aroma to YHWH: two young bulls, one ram, seven male lambs a year old; [28]and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts for each bull, two tenth parts for the one ram, [29]a tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs; [30]one male goat, to make atonement for you. [31]Besides the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, you shall offer them (they shall be to you without blemish), and their drink offerings.

29 "'In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work: it is a day of blowing of trumpets to you. [2]You shall offer a burnt offering for a pleasant aroma to YHWH: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish; [3]and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts for the bull, two tenth parts for the ram, [4]and one tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs; [5]and one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you; [6]besides the burnt offering of the new moon, and the meal offering of it, and the continual burnt offering and the meal offering of it, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance, for a pleasant aroma, an offering made by fire to YHWH.

[7]"'On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; and you shall afflict your souls: you shall do no kind of work; [8]but you shall offer a burnt offering to YHWH for a pleasant aroma: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old; they shall be to you without blemish; [9]and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts for the bull, two tenth parts for the one ram, [10]a tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs: [11]one male goat for a sin offering; besides the sin offering of atonement, and the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, and their drink offerings.

[12]"'On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work, and you shall keep a feast to YHWH seven days: [13]and you shall offer a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to YHWH; thirteen young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old; they shall be without blemish; [14]and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts for every bull of the thirteen bulls, two tenth parts for each ram of the two rams, [15]and a tenth part for every lamb of the fourteen lambs; [16]and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.

[17]"'On the second day you shall offer twelve young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish; [18]and their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance; [19]and one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, and their drink offerings.

[20]"'On the third day eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish; [21]and their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance; [22]and one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.

[23]"'On the fourth day ten bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish; [24]their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance; [25]and one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.

[26]"'On the fifth day nine bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish; [27]and their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance; [28]and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.

[29]"'On the sixth day eight bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish; [30]and their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance; [31]and one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, the meal offering of it, and the drink offerings of it.

[32]"'On the seventh day seven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish; [33]and their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance; [34]and one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.

[35]"'On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly: you shall do no servile work; [36]but you shall offer a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to YHWH: one bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish; [37]their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the ordinance: [38]and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.

[39]"'You shall offer these to YHWH in your set feasts, besides your vows, and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meal offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings.'"

[40]Moses told the children of Israel according to all that YHWH commanded Moses.

30 Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the children of Israel, saying, "This is the thing which YHWH has commanded. [2]When a man vows a vow to YHWH, or swears an oath to bind his soul with a bond, he shall not break his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

[3]"Also when a woman vows a vow to YHWH, and binds herself by a bond, being in her father's house, in her youth, [4]and her father hears her vow, and her bond with which she has bound her soul, and her father holds his peace at her; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond with which she has bound her soul shall stand. [5]But if her father disallow her in the day that he hears, none of her vows, or of her bonds with which she has bound her soul, shall stand: and YHWH will forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

[6]"If she has a husband, while her vows are on her, or the rash utterance of her lips, with which she has bound her soul, [7]and her husband hears it, and holds his peace at her in the day that he hears it; then her vows shall stand, and her bonds with which she has bound her soul shall stand. [8]But if her husband forbids her in the day that he hears it, then he shall make void her vow which is on her, and the rash utterance of her lips, with which she has bound her soul: and YHWH will forgive her.

[9]"But the vow of a widow, or of her who is divorced, everything with which she has bound her soul, shall stand against her.

[10]"If she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath, [11]and her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and did not disallow her; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond with which she bound her soul shall stand. [12]But if her husband made them null and void in the day that he heard them, then whatever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband has made them void; and YHWH will forgive her. [13]Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void. [14]But if her husband says nothing to her from day to day, then he establishes all her vows, or all her bonds, which are on her: he has established them, because he says nothing to her on the day that he heard them. 15But if he shall make them null and void after that he has heard them, then he shall bear her iniquity."

16These are the statutes, which YHWH commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between a father and his daughter, being in her youth, in her father's house.

31 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 2"Avenge the children of Israel for the Midianites. Afterward you shall be gathered to your people."

3Moses spoke to the people, saying, "Arm men from among you for the war, that they may go against Midian, to execute YHWH's vengeance on Midian. 4Of every tribe one thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, you shall send to the war." 5So there were delivered, out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war. 6Moses sent them, one thousand of every tribe, to the war, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the vessels of the sanctuary and the trumpets for the alarm in his hand. 7They warred against Midian, as YHWH commanded Moses; and they killed every male. 8They killed the kings of Midian with the rest of their slain: Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian: Balaam also the son of Beor they killed with the sword. 9The children of Israel took captive the women of Midian and their little ones; and all their livestock, and all their flocks, and all their goods, they took for a prey. 10All their cities in the places in which they lived, and all their encampments, they burnt with fire. 11They took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of man and of animal. 12They brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the children of Israel, to the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by the Jordan at Jericho. 13Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation, went forth to meet them outside of the camp. 14Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, who came from the service of the war. 15Moses said to them, "Have you saved all the women alive? 16Look, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against YHWH in the matter of Peor, and so the plague was among the congregation of YHWH. 17Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known man by lying with him. 18But all the girls, who have not known man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

19"Encamp outside of the camp seven days: whoever has killed any person, and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day, you and your captives. [20]As to every garment, and all that is made of skin, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood, you shall purify yourselves."

[21]Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who went to the battle, "This is the statute of the law which YHWH has commanded Moses: [22]however the gold, and the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead, [23]everything that may withstand the fire, you shall make to go through the fire, and it shall be clean; nevertheless it shall be purified with the water for impurity: and all that doesn't withstand the fire you shall make to go through the water. [24]You shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean; and afterward you shall come into the camp."

[25]YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, [26]"Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of man and of animal, you, and Eleazar the priest, and the heads of the ancestral houses of the congregation; [27]and divide the prey into two parts: between the men skilled in war, who went out to battle, and all the congregation. [28]Levy a tribute to YHWH of the men of war who went out to battle: one soul of five hundred; of the persons, of the cattle, of the donkeys, and of the flocks. [29]Take it of their half, and give it to Eleazar the priest, for YHWH's wave offering. [30]Of the children of Israel's half, you shall take one drawn out of every fifty, of the persons, of the cattle, of the donkeys, and of the flocks, of all the livestock, and give them to the Levites, who perform the duty of the tabernacle of YHWH."

[31]Moses and Eleazar the priest did as YHWH commanded Moses.

[32]Now the prey, over and above the booty which the men of war took, was six hundred seventy-five thousand sheep, [33]and seventy-two thousand head of cattle, [34]and sixty-one thousand donkeys, [35]and thirty-two thousand persons in all, of the women who had not known man by lying with him. [36]The half, which was the portion of those who went out to war, was in number three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep: [37]and YHWH's tribute of the sheep was six hundred seventy-five. [38]The cattle were thirty-six thousand; of which YHWH's tribute was seventy-two. [39]The donkeys were thirty thousand five hundred; of which YHWH's tribute was sixty-one. [40]The persons were sixteen thousand; of whom YHWH's tribute was thirty-two persons. [41]Moses gave the tribute, which was YHWH's wave offering,[a] to Eleazar the priest, as YHWH commanded half, which Moses divided off from the men who warred 43(now the congregation's half was three 47even of the children of Israel's half, Moses took one drawn out of every fifty, both of man and of animal, and gave them to the Levites, who performed the duty of the tabernacle of YHWH; as YHWH 48The officers who were over the thousands of the army, the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, came near to Moses; 49and they said to Moses, "Your servants have taken the sum of the men of war who are under our command, and there lacks not one man of us. 50We have brought YHWH's offering, what every man has gotten, of jewels of gold, armlets, and bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and necklaces, to make atonement for our souls before YHWH."

51Moses and Eleazar the priest took their gold, even all worked jewels. 52All the gold of the wave offering that they offered up to YHWH, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred fifty shekels. 53(The men of war had taken booty, every man for himself.) 54Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the Tent of Meeting, for a memorial for the children of Israel before YHWH.

of livestock: and when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that look, the place was a place for livestock; 2the people of Gad and the people of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the congregation, saying, 3"Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Sibmah,[a] and Nebo, and Beon, 4the land which YHWH struck before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock; and your servants have livestock." 5They said, "If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for a possession; do not bring us over the Jordan."

6Moses said to the people of Gad, and to the people of Reuben, "Shall your brothers go to the war, and shall you sit here? 7Why do you discourage the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which YHWH has given them?

them from Kadesh Barnea to see the land. [9]For when they went up to the Valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which YHWH had given them. [10]YHWH's anger was kindled in that day, and he swore, saying, [11]'Surely none of the men who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward,[a] shall see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; because they have not wholly followed me: [12]except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun; because they have followed YHWH completely.' [13]YHWH's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander back and forth in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation, who had done evil in the sight of YHWH, was consumed.

[14]"Look, you have risen up in your fathers' place, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of YHWH toward Israel. [15]For if you turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and you will destroy all this people."

[16]They came near to him, and said, "We will build sheepfolds here for our livestock, and cities for our little ones: [17]but we ourselves will be ready armed to go before the children of Israel, until we have brought them to their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land. [18]We will not return to our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance. [19]For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan, and forward; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side of the Jordan eastward."

[20]Moses said to them, "If you will do this thing, if you will arm yourselves to go before YHWH to the war, [21]and every armed man of you will pass over the Jordan before YHWH, until he has driven out his enemies from before him, [22]and the land is subdued before YHWH; then afterward you shall return, and be guiltless towards YHWH, and towards Israel; and this land shall be to you for a possession before YHWH.

[23]"But if you will not do so, look, you have sinned against YHWH; and be sure your sin will find you out. [24]Build cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which has proceeded out of your mouth."

[25]The people of Gad and the people of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, "Your servants will do as my lord commands. [26]Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock, shall be there in the cities of Gilead; [27]but your servants will pass over, every man who is armed for war, before YHWH to battle, as my lord says."

[28]So Moses commanded concerning them to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the ancestral houses of the tribes of the children of Israel. [29]Moses said to them, "If the people of Gad and the people of Reuben will pass with you over the Jordan, every man who is armed to battle before YHWH, and the land is subdued before you; then you are to give them the land of Gilead for a possession. [30]But if they will not pass over with you armed to battle before YHWH, then you are to bring over their children and their wives and their flocks before you into the land of Canaan,[a] and they are to have possessions among you in the land of Canaan."

[31]The people of Gad and the people of Reuben answered, saying, "As YHWH has said to your servants, so will we do. [32]We will pass over armed before YHWH into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us beyond the Jordan."

[33]Moses gave to them, even to the people of Gad, and to the people of Reuben, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, according to its cities and borders, even the cities of the surrounding land. [34]The people of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, [35]and Atrothshophan, and Jazer, and Jogbehah, [36]and Beth Nimrah, and Beth Haran: fortified cities, and folds for sheep. [37]The people of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kiriathaim, [38]and Nebo, and Baal Meon, (their names being changed), and Sibmah: and they gave other names to the cities which they built. [39]The descendants of Makir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it. [40]Moses gave Gilead to Makir the son of Manasseh; and he lived in it. [41]Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its towns, and called them Havvoth Jair. [42]Nobah went and took Kenath, and its villages, and called it Nobah, after his own name.

33 These are the journeys of the children of Israel, when they went forth out of the land of Egypt by their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. [2]Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the commandment of YHWH: and these are their journeys according to their goings out. [3]They traveled from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the next day after the Passover the children of Israel went out triumphantly in the sight of all the Egyptians, 4while the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, whom YHWH had struck among them: on their gods also YHWH executed judgments. 5The children of Israel traveled from Rameses, and camped in Succoth. 6They traveled from Succoth, and camped in Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderness. 7They traveled from Etham, and turned back to Pihahiroth, which is before Baal Zephon: and they camped before Migdol. 8They traveled from before[a] Hahiroth, and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness: and they went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and camped in Marah. 9They traveled from Marah, and came to Elim: and in Elim were twelve springs of water, and seventy palm trees; and they camped there. 10They traveled from Elim, and camped by the Red Sea. 11They traveled from the Red Sea, and camped in the wilderness of Sin. 12They traveled from the wilderness of Sin, and camped in Dophkah. 13They traveled from Dophkah, and camped in Alush. 14They traveled from Alush, and camped in Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink. 15They traveled from Rephidim, and camped in the wilderness of Sinai. 16They traveled from the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in Kibroth Hattaavah. 17They traveled from Kibroth Hattaavah, and camped in Hazeroth. 18They traveled from Hazeroth, and camped in Rithmah. 19They traveled from Rithmah, and camped in Rimmon Perez. 20They traveled from Rimmon Perez, and camped in Libnah. 21They traveled from Libnah, and camped in Rissah. 22They traveled from Rissah, and camped in Kehelathah. 23They traveled from Kehelathah, and camped in Mount Shepher. 24They traveled from Mount Shepher, and camped in Haradah. 25They traveled from Haradah, and camped in Makheloth. 26They traveled from Makheloth, and camped in Tahath. 27They traveled from Tahath, and camped in Terah. 28They traveled from Terah, and camped in Mithkah. 29They traveled from Mithkah, and camped in Hashmonah. 30They traveled from Hashmonah, and camped in Moseroth. 31They traveled from Moseroth, and camped in Bene Jaakan. 32They traveled from Bene Jaakan, and camped in Hor Haggidgad. 33They traveled from Hor Haggidgad, and camped in Jotbathah. 34They traveled from Jotbathah, and camped in Abronah. 35They traveled from Abronah, and camped in Ezion Geber. 36They traveled from Ezion Geber, and camped in the wilderness of Zin (that is, Kadesh). 37They traveled from Kadesh, and camped in Mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom. 38Aaron the priest went up into Mount Hor at the commandment of YHWH, and died there, in the fortieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fifth month, on the first day of the month. 39Aaron was one hundred twenty-three years old when he died in Mount Hor. 40The Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the Negev in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel. 41They traveled from Mount Hor, and camped in Zalmonah. 42They traveled from Zalmonah, and camped in Punon. 43They traveled from Punon, and camped in Oboth. 44They traveled from Oboth, and camped in Iye Abarim, in the border of Moab. 45They traveled from Iyim, and camped in Dibon Gad. 46They traveled from Dibon Gad, and camped in Almon Diblathaim. 47They traveled from Almon Diblathaim, and camped in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo. 48They traveled from the mountains of Abarim, and camped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho. 49They camped by the Jordan, from Beth Jeshimoth even to Abel Shittim in the plains of Moab. 50YHWH spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying, 51Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, "When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, 52then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, destroy all their stone idols, destroy all their molten images, and demolish all their high places. 53You shall take possession of the land, and dwell in it; for I have given the land to you to possess it. 54You shall inherit the land by lot according to your families; to the more you shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer you shall give the less inheritance: wherever the lot falls to any man, that shall be his. You shall inherit according to the tribes of your fathers.

55"But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then those you let remain of them will be as pricks in your eyes and as thorns in your sides, and they will harass you in the land in which you dwell. 56It shall happen that as I thought to do to them, so will I do to you."

34 YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 2"Command the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When you come into the land of Canaan (this is the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, even the land of Canaan according to its borders), 3then your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin along by the side of Edom, and your south border shall be from the end of the Salt Sea eastward; 4and your border shall turn about southward of the ascent of Akrabbim, and pass along to Zin; and the goings out of it shall be southward of Kadesh Barnea; and it shall go forth to Hazar Addar, and pass along to Azmon; 5and the border shall turn about from Azmon to the Wadi of Egypt,[a] and the goings out of it shall be at the sea.

6"'For the western border, the Great Sea shall be a border to you; this shall be your west border.

7"'This shall be your north border: from the Great Sea you shall mark out for you Mount Hor; 8from Mount Hor you shall mark out to Lebo Hamath; and the goings out of the border shall be at Zedad; 9and the border shall go forth to Ziphron, and the goings out of it shall be at Hazar Enan: this shall be your north border.

10"'You shall mark out your east border from Hazar Enan to Shepham; 11and the border shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain; and the border shall go down, and shall reach to the side of the sea of Kinnereth eastward; 12and the border shall go down to the Jordan, and the goings out of it shall be at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land according to its borders around it.'"

13Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, "This is the land which you shall inherit by lot, which YHWH has commanded to give to the nine tribes, and to the half-tribe; 14for the tribe of the people of Reuben according to their fathers' houses, and the tribe of the people of Gad according to their fathers' houses, have received, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received, their inheritance: 15the two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise."

16YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 17"These are the names of the men who shall divide the land to you for inheritance: Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun. 18You shall take one prince of every tribe, to divide the land for inheritance. 19These are the names of the men: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh. 20Of the tribe of the people of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud. 21Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon. 22Of the tribe of the people of Dan a prince, Bukki the son of Jogli. 23Of the people of Joseph: of the tribe of the people of Manasseh a prince, Hanniel the son of Ephod. 24Of the tribe of the people of Ephraim a prince, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan. 25Of the tribe of the people of Zebulun a prince, Elizaphan the son of Parnach. 26Of the tribe of the people of Issachar a prince, Paltiel the son of Azzan. 27Of the tribe of the people of Asher a prince, Ahihud the son of Shelomi. 28Of the tribe of the people of Naphtali a prince, Pedahel the son of Ammihud." 29These are they whom YHWH commanded to divide the inheritance to the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

35 YHWH spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying, 2"Command the children of Israel that they give to the Levites of the inheritance of their possession cities to dwell in; and you shall give suburbs for the cities around them to the Levites. 3The cities shall they have to dwell in; and their suburbs shall be for their livestock, and for their substance, and for all their animals.
4"'The suburbs of the cities, which you shall give to the Levites, shall be from the wall of the city and outward one thousand seven hundred twenty-two feet six inches,[a] around it. 5You shall measure outside of the city for the east side three thousand four hundred forty-five feet[b], and for the south side three thousand four hundred forty-five feet, and for the west side three thousand four hundred forty-five feet, and for the north side three thousand four hundred forty-five feet, the city being in the midst. This shall be to them the suburbs of the cities.

6"'The cities which you shall give to the Levites, they shall be the six cities of refuge, which you shall give for the manslayer to flee to: and besides them you shall give forty-two cities. 7All the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be forty-eight cities together with their suburbs. 8Concerning the cities which you shall give of the possession of the children of Israel, from the many you shall take many; and from the few you shall take few: everyone according to his inheritance which he inherits shall give of his cities to the Levites." 9YHWH spoke to Moses, saying, 10"Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, 11then you shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the manslayer who kills any person unwittingly may flee there. 12The cities shall be to you for refuge from the avenger, that the manslayer not die, until he stands before the congregation for judgment. 13The cities which you shall give shall be for you six cities of refuge. 14You shall give three cities beyond the Jordan, and you shall give three cities in the land of Canaan; they shall be cities of refuge. 15For the children of Israel, and for the stranger and for the foreigner living among them, shall these six cities be for refuge; that everyone who kills any person unwittingly may flee there.

16"'But if he struck him with an instrument of iron, so that he died, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. 17If he struck him with a stone in the hand, by which a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. 18Or if he struck him with a weapon of wood in the hand, by which a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. 19The avenger of blood shall himself put the murderer to death: when he meets him, he shall put him to death. 20If he thrust him of hatred, or hurled at him, lying in wait, so that he died, 21or in enmity struck him with his hand, so that he died; he who struck him shall surely be put to death. He is a murderer, the murderer must surely be put to death;[a] the avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death when he meets him.

22"'But if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or hurled on him anything without lying in wait, 23or with any stone, by which a man may die, not seeing him, and cast it on him, so that he died, and he was not his enemy, neither sought his harm; 24then the congregation shall judge between the striker and the avenger of blood according to these ordinances; 25and the congregation shall deliver the manslayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to his city of refuge, where he was fled: and he shall dwell in it until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with the holy oil.

26"'But if the manslayer shall at any time go beyond the border of his city of refuge, where he flees, 27and the avenger of blood find him outside of the border of his city of refuge, and the avenger of blood kill the manslayer; he shall not be guilty of blood, 28because he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the manslayer shall return into the land of his possession.

29"'These things shall be for a statute and ordinance to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

30"'Whoever kills any person, the murderer shall be slain at the mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against any person that he die.

31"'Moreover you shall take no ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death; but he shall surely be put to death.

32"'You shall take no ransom for him who is fled to his city of refuge, that he may come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.[b]

33"'So you shall not pollute the land in which you are: for blood, it pollutes the land; and no expiation can be made for the land for the blood that is shed in it, but 36 The heads of the ancestral houses of the family of the people of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and spoke before Moses and before Eleazar the priest[a] and before the leaders, the heads of the ancestral houses of the children of Israel. 2And they said, "YHWH commanded my lord to give the land for inheritance by lot to the children of Israel: and my lord was commanded by YHWH to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters. 3If they are married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then will their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers, and will be added to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they shall belong: so will it be taken away from the lot of our inheritance. 4When the jubilee of the children of Israel shall be, then will their inheritance be added to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they shall belong: so will their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers."

5Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of YHWH, saying, "The tribe of the sons of Joseph speaks right.
6This is the thing which YHWH does command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them be married to whom they think best; only into the family of the tribe of their father shall they be married. 7So shall no inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe; for the children of Israel shall all keep the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers. 8Every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel shall be wife to one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may possess every man the inheritance of his fathers. 9So shall no inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; for the tribes of the children of Israel shall each keep his own inheritance."

10The daughters of Zelophehad did as YHWH commanded Moses: 11for Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to their father's brothers' sons. 12They were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph; and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father. 13These are the commandments and the ordinances which YHWH commanded by the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

Deuteronomy

1 These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Arabah opposite Suph,[a] between Paran, and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Dizahab. 2It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh Barnea. 3It happened in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spoke to the children of Israel, according to all that YHWH had given him in commandment to them; 4after he had struck Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth and[b] in Edrei. 5Beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying, 6"YHWH our God spoke to us in Horeb, saying, You have lived long enough in this mountain: 7turn, and take your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites, and to all the places near there, in the Arabah, in the hill country, and in the lowland, and in the Negev, and by the sea coast, the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Perath. 8Look,[c] I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which I[d] swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them and to their descendants after them."

9I spoke to you at that time, saying, "I am not able to bear you myself alone: 10YHWH your God has multiplied you, and look, you are this day as the stars of the sky for multitude. 11YHWH, the God of your fathers, make you a thousand times as many as you are, and bless you, as he has promised you. 12How can I myself alone bear your encumbrance, and your burden, and your strife? 13Take wise men of understanding and well known according to your tribes, and I will make them heads over you."

14You answered me, and said, "The thing which you have spoken is good to do." 15So I took the heads of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, and captains of fifties, and captains of tens, and officers, according to your tribes. 16I commanded your judges at that time, saying, "Hear cases between your brothers, and judge righteously between a man and his brother, and the foreigner who is living with him. [17]You shall not show partiality in judgment; you shall hear the small and the great alike; you shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's. The case that is too hard for you, you shall bring to me, and I will hear it." [18]I commanded you at that time all the things which you should do. [19]We traveled from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw, by the way to the hill country of the Amorites, as YHWH our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh Barnea. [20]I said to you, "You have come to the hill country of the Amorites, which YHWH our God gives to us. [21]Look, YHWH your God has set the land before you: go up, take possession, as YHWH, the God of your fathers, has spoken to you; do not be afraid, neither be dismayed."

[22]You came near to me everyone of you, and said, "Let us send men before us, that they may search the land for us, and bring us word again of the way by which we must go up, and the cities to which we shall come."

[23]The thing pleased me well; and I took twelve men of you, one man for every tribe: [24]and they turned and went up into the hill country, and came to the Valley of Eshcol, and spied it out. [25]They took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down to us, and brought us word again, and said, "It is a good land which YHWH our God gives to us."

[26]Yet you wouldn't go up, but rebelled against the commandment of YHWH your God: [27]and you murmured in your tents, and said, "Because YHWH hated us, he has brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us. [28]Where are we going up? Our brothers have made our heart to melt, saying, 'The people are greater and taller than we; the cities are great and fortified up to the sky; and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakim there.'"

[29]Then I said to you, "Do not dread, neither be afraid of them. [30]YHWH your God who goes before you, he will fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes, [31]and in the wilderness, where you have seen how that YHWH your God bore you, as a man does bear his son, in all the way that you went, until you came to this place."

[32]Yet in this thing you did not believe YHWH your God, [33]who went before you in the way, to seek you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to show you by what way you should go, and in the cloud by day. [34]YHWH heard the voice of your words, and was angry, and swore, saying, [35]"Surely not one of these men of this evil generation shall see the good land, which I swore to give to your fathers, [36]except Caleb the son of Jephunneh: he shall see it; and to him will I give the land that he has trodden on, and to his children, because he has wholly followed YHWH."

37Also YHWH was angry with me for your sakes, saying,
"You also shall not go in[a] there: 38Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall go in there. Encourage him, because he will cause Israel to inherit it.
39Moreover your little ones, whom you said should be a prey, and your children, who this day have no knowledge of good or evil, they shall go in there, and to them will I give it, and they shall possess it.
40But as for you, turn, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea."

41Then you answered and said to me, "We have sinned against YHWH our God,[b] we will go up and fight, according to all that YHWH our God commanded us." Every man of you put on his weapons of war, and presumed to go up into the hill country.

42YHWH said to me, "Tell them, 'Do not go up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest you be struck before your enemies.'" 43So I spoke to you, and you did not listen; but you rebelled against the commandment of YHWH, and were presumptuous, and went up into the hill country.

44The Amorites, who lived in that hill country, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and beat you down in Seir, even to Hormah. 45You returned and wept before YHWH; but YHWH did not listen to your voice, nor gave ear to you. 46So you stayed in Kadesh many days, according to the days that you remained.

2 Then we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea, as YHWH spoke to me; and we encircled Mount Seir many days.

2YHWH spoke to me, saying,
3"You have encircled this mountain

7For YHWH your God has blessed you in all the work of your hand; he has known your walking through this great[a] wilderness: these forty years YHWH your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing.

8So we passed by from our brothers the descendants of Esau, who dwell in Seir, from the way of the Arabah from Eilat and from Ezion Geber. We turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

10(The Emim lived there before, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakim: 11these also are accounted Rephaim, as the Anakim; but the Moabites call them Emim. 12The Horites also lived in Seir before, but the descendants of Esau succeeded them; and they destroyed them from before them, and lived in their place; as Israel did to the land of his possession, which YHWH gave to them.)
13"Now rise up, depart,[b] and cross over the Wadi Zered." So we went over the Wadi Zered. 14The days in which we came from Kadesh Barnea, until we had come over the Wadi Zered, were thirty-eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were consumed from the midst of the camp, as YHWH swore to them. 15Moreover the hand of God[c] was against them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp, until they were consumed. 16So it happened, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people, 17that YHWH spoke to me, saying, 18"You are this day to pass over Ar, the border of Moab: 19and when you come near over against the people of Ammon, do not bother them, nor contend with them;[d] for I will not give you of the land of the people of Ammon for a possession; because I have given it to the descendants of Lot for a possession."

20(That also is accounted a land of Rephaim: Rephaim lived in it before; but the Ammonites call them Zamzummim, 21a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakim; but YHWH destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them, and lived in their place; 22as he did for the descendants of Esau, who dwell in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites from before them; and they succeeded them, and lived in their place even to this day: 23and the Avvim, who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorim, who came

24"Rise up, take your journey, and pass over the Valley of the Arnon: look, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land; begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle. 25This day will I begin to put the dread of you and the fear of you on the peoples who are under the whole sky, who shall hear the report of you, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of you."

26I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying, 27"Let me pass through your land: I will go along by the highway, I will turn neither to the right hand nor to the left. 28You shall sell me food for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: only let me pass through on my feet, 29as the people of Esau who dwell in Seir, and the Moabites who dwell in Ar, did to me; until I shall pass over the Jordan into the land which YHWH our God gives us." 30But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him; for YHWH your[a] God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into your hand, as at this day.

31YHWH said to me, "Look, I have begun to deliver up Sihon[b] and his land before you: begin to possess, that you may inherit[c] his land." 32Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Jahaz. 33YHWH our God delivered him up before us; and we struck him, and his sons,[d] and all his people. 34We took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed every inhabited city, with the women and the little ones; we left none remaining: 35only the livestock we took for a prey to ourselves, with the spoil of the cities which we had taken. 36From Aroer, which is on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the valley, even to Gilead, there was not a city too high for us; YHWH our God delivered up all before us: 37only to the land of the people of Ammon you did not come near; all the side of the river Jabbok, and the cities of the hill country, and wherever YHWH our God forbade us.

3 Then we turned, and went up the way to Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. 2YHWH said to me, "Do not 3So YHWH our God delivered into our hand Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we struck him until none was left to him remaining. 4We took all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we did not take from them; sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. 5All these were cities fortified with high walls, gates, and bars; besides the unwalled towns a great many. 6We utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying every inhabited city, with the women and the little ones. 7But all the livestock, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves. 8We took the land at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, from the Valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon. 9(The Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir.) 10We took all the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, to Salecah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. 11(For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of the Rephaim; look, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; isn't it in Rabbah of the people of Ammon? Thirteen feet three inches[a] was its length, and five feet eleven inches[b] its breadth, according to the standard measure.[c]) 12This land we took in possession at that time: from Aroer, which is by the Valley of the Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead, and its cities, gave I to the Reubenites and to the Gadites: 13and the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, gave I to the half-tribe of Manasseh. All the region of Argob, with all Bashan, was called the land of Rephaim. 14Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and called them, even Bashan, after his own name, Havvoth Jair, to this day.) 15I gave Gilead to Makir. 16To the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead[d] to the Valley of the Arnon, the middle of the valley, and its border, even to the river Jabbok, which is the border of the people of Ammon; 17the Arabah also, and the Jordan and its border, from Kinnereth even to the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, under the slopes of Pisgah eastward.

18I commanded you at that time, saying, "YHWH your God has given you this land to possess it: you shall pass over armed before your brothers the children of Israel, all the men of valor. 19But your wives, and your little ones, and your livestock, (I know that you

[21]I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, "Your eyes have seen all that YHWH your God has done to these two kings: so shall YHWH do to all the kingdoms where you go over. [22]Do not fear them, for YHWH your God himself will fight for you."

[23]I begged YHWH at that time, saying, [24]"Lord YHWH, you have begun to show your servant your greatness, and your strong hand:[b] for what god is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to your works, and according to your mighty acts? [25]Please let me go over and see the good land that is beyond the Jordan, that good hill country, and Lebanon."

[26]But YHWH was angry with me for your sakes, and did not listen to me; and YHWH said to me, "Enough from you; speak no more to me of this matter. [27]Go up to[c] the top of Pisgah, and lift up your eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and see with your eyes: for you shall not go over this Jordan. [28]But commission Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him; for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you shall see." [29]So we stayed in the valley over against Beth Peor.

4 Now, Israel, listen to the statutes and to the ordinances, which I teach you,[d] to do them; that you may live, and go in and possess the land which YHWH, the God of your fathers, gives you. [2]You shall not add to the word which I command you, neither shall you diminish from it, that you may keep the commandments of YHWH your God which I command you. [3]Your eyes have seen what YHWH did because of Baal Peor; for all the men who followed Baal Peor, YHWH your God has destroyed them from the midst of you. [4]But you who were faithful to YHWH your God are all alive this day. [5]Look, I have taught you statutes and ordinances, even as YHWH my God commanded me, that you should do so in the midst of the land where you go in to possess it. [9]Only be careful, and keep your soul diligently, lest you forget the things which your eyes saw, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life; but make them known to your children and your children's children; [10]the day that you stood before YHWH your God in Horeb, when YHWH said to me, "Assemble me the people, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children." [11]You came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire to the heart of the sky, with darkness, cloud, and thick darkness.[a] [12]YHWH spoke to you out of the midst of the fire: you heard the voice of words, but you saw no form; you only heard a voice.

[13]He declared to you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even the ten commandments; and he wrote them on two tablets of stone. [14]YHWH commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and ordinances, that you might do them in the land where you go over to possess it. [15]Therefore watch yourselves carefully; for you saw no kind of form on the day that YHWH spoke to you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire. [16]Lest you corrupt yourselves, and make yourself an engraved image in the form of any figure, the likeness of male or female, [17]the likeness of any animal that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the sky, [18]the likeness of any crawling creature that crawls[b] on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the water below the land; [19]and lest you lift up your eyes to the sky, and when you see the sun and the moon and the stars, even all the host of heaven, you are drawn away and worship them, and serve them, which YHWH your God has allotted to all the peoples under the whole sky. [20]But God[c] has taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be to him a people of inheritance, as at this day.

[21]Furthermore YHWH was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I should not go over the Jordan, and that I should not go in to that good land, which YHWH your God gives you for an inheritance: [22]but I must die in this land, I must not go over the Jordan; but you shall go over, and possess that good land. [23]Be careful, lest you forget the covenant of YHWH your God, which he made with you, and make you an engraved image in the form of anything which YHWH your God has forbidden you. [24]For YHWH your God is a devouring fire, a jealous God.

[25]When you shall father children, and children's children, and you shall have been long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make an engraved image in the form of anything, and shall do that which is evil in the sight of YHWH your God, to provoke him to anger; [26]I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto you go over the Jordan to possess it; you shall not prolong your days on it, but shall utterly be destroyed. [27]YHWH will scatter you among the peoples, and you shall be left few in number among the nations, where YHWH will drive you. [28]There you shall serve other[a] gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell. [29]But from there you shall seek YHWH your God, and you shall find him, when you search after him with all your heart and with all your soul.

[30]When you are in oppression, and all these things have come on you, in the latter days you shall return to YHWH your God, and listen to his voice: [31]for YHWH your God is a merciful God; he will not fail you, neither destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which he swore to them. [32]For ask now of the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created humankind on the earth, and from the one end of the sky to the other, whether there has been anything as this great thing is, or has been heard like it? [33]Did a people ever hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live?

[34]Or has God tried to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, according to all that YHWH your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? [35]It was shown to you so that you might know that YHWH is God. There is no one else besides him. [36]Out of heaven he made you to hear his voice, that he might instruct you: and on earth he made you to see his great fire; and you heard his words out of the midst of the fire.

you, and that you may go in and possess the good land which YHWH[a] swore to your fathers, 19to thrust out all your enemies from before you, as YHWH has spoken.

20When your son asks you in time to come, saying, "What do the testimonies, the statutes, and the ordinances, which YHWH our God has commanded you mean?" 21then you shall tell your son, "We were Pharaoh's bondservants in Egypt: and YHWH brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand; 22and YHWH showed great and awesome signs and wonders on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his house, before our eyes; 23and he brought us out from there, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he swore to our fathers. 24YHWH commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear YHWH our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as at this day. 25It shall be righteousness to us, if we observe to do all this commandment before YHWH our God, as he has commanded us."

7 When YHWH your God shall bring you into the land where you go to possess it, and shall cast out many nations before you, the Hethite, and the Girgashite, and the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, seven nations greater and mightier than you; 2and when YHWH your God shall deliver them up before you, and you shall strike them; then you shall utterly destroy them: you shall make no covenant with them, nor show mercy to them; 3neither shall you make marriages with them; your daughter you shall not give to his son, nor shall you take his daughter for your son. 4For he will turn away your son from following me, that he[b] may serve other gods; so the anger of YHWH[c] would be kindled against you, and he would destroy you quickly. 5But you shall deal with them like this: you shall break down their altars, and dash their pillars in pieces, and cut down their Asherim, and burn their engraved images with fire. 6For you are a holy people to YHWH your God: YHWH your God has chosen you to be a people for his own possession, above all peoples who are on the face of the earth. 7YHWH did not set his love on you, nor choose you, because you were more in number than any people; for you were the fewest of all peoples: 8but because YHWH loves you, and because he would keep the oath which he swore to your fathers, has YHWH brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. 9Know therefore that YHWH your God, he is God, the faithful God,[d] who keeps covenant and loving kindness with them who love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations, [10]and repays those who hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him who hates him, he will repay him to his face. [11]You shall therefore keep the commandment, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which I command you this day, to do them. [12]It shall happen, because you listen to these ordinances, and keep and do them, that YHWH your God will keep with you the covenant and the loving kindness which he swore to your fathers: [13]and he will love you, and bless you, and multiply you; he will also bless the fruit of your body and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your livestock and the young of your flock, in the land which he swore to your fathers to give you. [14]You shall be blessed above all peoples: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your livestock. [15]And YHWH will take away from you all sickness, and none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which you have seen and which[a] you have known, will he put on you, but he will lay them on all who hate you. [16]You shall consume all the peoples whom YHWH your God shall deliver to you; your eye shall not pity them: neither shall you serve their gods; for that will be a snare to you. [17]If you shall say in your heart, "These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them?" [18]you shall not be afraid of them: you shall well remember what YHWH your God did to Pharaoh, and to all Egypt; [19]the great trials which your eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the outstretched arm, by which YHWH your God brought you out: so shall YHWH your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid. [20]Moreover YHWH your God will send the hornet among them until those who are left and hide themselves from you perish. [21]You shall not be scared of them; for YHWH your God is in your midst, a great and awesome God. [22]YHWH your God will cast out those nations before you by little and little: you may not consume them at once, lest the animals of the field increase on you. [23]But YHWH your God will deliver them up before you, and will confuse them with a great confusion, until they be destroyed. [24]He will deliver their kings into your hand, and you shall make their name to perish from under the sky: no man shall be able to stand before you, until you have destroyed them. [25]You shall burn the engraved images of their gods with fire. You shall not covet the silver or the gold that is on them, nor take it for yourself, lest you be snared in it; for it is an abomination to YHWH your God. [26]You shall not bring an abomination into your house, and become a devoted thing like it. You shall utterly detest it, and you shall utterly abhor it; for it is a devoted thing.

8 You shall observe to do all the commandment which I command you this day, that you may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which YHWH swore to your fathers. 2You shall remember all the way which YHWH your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, to prove you, and[a] to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments, or not. 3He humbled you, and allowed you to be hungry, and fed you with manna, which you did not know, neither did your fathers know; that he might make you know that humankind cannot live by bread alone, but by every word[b] that proceeds out of the mouth of God[c] shall humankind live. 4Your clothing did not grow old on you, neither did your foot swell, these forty years. 5You shall consider in your heart that as a man chastens his son, so YHWH your God chastens you. 6You shall keep the commandments of YHWH your God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him. 7For YHWH your God brings you into a good and spacious[d] land, a land of brooks of water, of springs, and underground water flowing into valleys and hills; 8a land of wheat and barley, and vines and fig trees and pomegranates; a land of olive trees and honey; 9a land in which you shall eat bread without scarcity, and[e] in which you will lack nothing; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you may dig copper. 10You shall eat and be full, and you shall bless YHWH your God for the good land which he has given you. 11Beware lest you forget YHWH your God, in not keeping his commandments, and his ordinances, and his statutes, which I command you this day: 12lest, when you have eaten and are full, and have built goodly houses, and lived in them;[f] 13and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied; 14then your heart be lifted up, and you forget YHWH your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage; 15who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, with fiery serpents and scorpions, and thirsty ground where there was no water; who brought you forth water out of the rock of flint; 16who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers did not know; that he might humble you, and that he might prove you, to do you good at your latter end: [17]and lest you say in your heart, "My power and the might of my hand has gotten me this wealth." [18]But you shall remember YHWH your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth; that he may establish his covenant which he swore to your fathers,[a] as at this day.

[19]It shall be, if you shall forget YHWH your God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify[b] against you this day that you shall surely perish. [20]As the nations that YHWH makes to perish before you, so you shall perish; because you wouldn't listen to the voice of YHWH your God.

9 Hear, Israel: you are to pass over the Jordan this day, to go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and fortified up to the sky, [2]a people great[c] and tall, the sons of the Anakim, whom you know, and of whom you have heard say, "Who can stand before the sons of Anak?" [3]Know therefore this day, that YHWH your God is he who goes over before you as a devouring fire; he will destroy them, and he will bring them down before you: so you shall drive them out, and make them to perish quickly, as YHWH has spoken to you.

[4]Do not say in your heart, after YHWH your God has thrust them out from before you, saying, "For my righteousness YHWH has brought me in to possess this land"; because YHWH drives them out before you because of the wickedness of these nations. [5]Not for your righteousness, or for the uprightness of your heart, do you go in to possess their land; but for the wickedness of these nations YHWH[d] does drive them out from before you, and that he may establish the word which he[e] swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. [6]Know therefore, that YHWH your God doesn't give you this good land to possess it for your righteousness; for you are a stiff-necked people. [7]Remember, do not forget, how you provoked YHWH your God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that you went forth out of the land of Egypt, until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against YHWH. [8]Also in Horeb you provoked YHWH to wrath, and YHWH was angry with you to destroy you. [9]When I was gone up onto the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, even the tablets of the covenant which YHWH made with you, then I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water. [10]YHWH delivered to me the two tablets of stone written with the finger of God; and on them were all the words which YHWH spoke with you on the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.

[11]It came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that YHWH gave me the two tablets of stone, even the tablets of the covenant. [12]YHWH said to me, "Arise, get down quickly from here; for your people whom you have brought out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they have quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image."

[13]Furthermore YHWH spoke to me, saying, "I have seen this people, and look, it is a stiff-necked people: [14]let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under the sky; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they."
[15]So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire: and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands. [16]I looked, and look, you had sinned against YHWH your God; you had made yourselves a molten calf: you had turned aside quickly out of the way which YHWH had commanded you. [17]I took hold of the two tablets, and cast them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes. [18]I fell down before YHWH, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water; because of all your sin which you sinned, in doing that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, to provoke him to anger. [19]For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, with which YHWH was angry against you to destroy you. But YHWH listened to me that time also. [20]YHWH was very angry with Aaron to destroy him: and I prayed for Aaron also at the same time. [21]I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, grinding it very small, until it was as fine as dust: and I cast its dust into the brook that descended out of the mountain. [22]At Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth Hattaavah, you provoked YHWH to wrath. [23]When YHWH sent you from Kadesh Barnea, saying, "Go up and possess the land which I have given you"; then you rebelled against the commandment of YHWH your God, and you did not believe him, nor listen to his voice. [24]You have been rebellious against YHWH from the day that I[a] knew you. [25]So I fell down before YHWH the forty days and forty nights that I fell down, because YHWH had said he would destroy you. [26]I prayed to God,[b] and said, "Lord YHWH, do not destroy your people and your inheritance, that you have redeemed through your greatness, that you have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

[27]Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not look to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin, [28]lest the land you brought us out from say, 'Because YHWH was not able to bring them into the land which he promised to them, and because he hated them, he has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.' [29]Yet they are your people and your inheritance, which you brought out[a] by your great power[b] and by your outstretched arm."

10 At that time YHWH said to me, "Cut two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to me onto the mountain, and make an ark of wood. [2]I will write on the tables the words[c] that were on the first tables which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark." [3]So I made an ark of acacia wood, and cut two tablets of stone like the first, and went up onto the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand. [4]He wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which YHWH spoke to you on the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly: and YHWH gave them to me. [5]I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they are as YHWH commanded me. [6](The children of Israel traveled from Beeroth Bene Jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his place. [7]From there they traveled to Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of brooks of water. [8]At that time YHWH set apart the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of YHWH, to stand before YHWH to minister to him, and to bless in his name, to this day. [9]Therefore Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brothers; YHWH is his inheritance, according as YHWH your God spoke to him.)

[10]I stayed on the mountain, as at the first time, forty days and forty nights: and YHWH listened to me that time also, and[d] YHWH would not destroy you. [11]YHWH said to me, "Arise, take your journey before the people; and they shall go in and possess the land, which I swore to their fathers to give to them."

[12]Now, Israel, what does YHWH your God require of you, but to fear YHWH your God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve YHWH your God with all your heart and with all your soul, [13]to keep the commandments of YHWH,[e] and his statutes, which I command you this day for your good? 14Look, to YHWH your God belongs heaven and the heaven of heavens, the earth, with all that is in it. 15Only YHWH had a delight in your fathers to love them, and he chose their descendants after them, even you above all peoples, as at this day.

16Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiff-necked. 17For YHWH your God, he is God of gods, and Lord of lords, the great God, the mighty, and the awesome, who doesn't respect persons, nor takes reward. 18He does execute justice for the fatherless and widow, and loves the foreigner, in giving him food and clothing. 19Therefore love the foreigner; for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.
20You shall fear YHWH your God; you shall serve him; and you shall cling to him, and you shall swear by his name. 21He is your praise, and he is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things, which your eyes have seen.

22Your fathers went down into Egypt with seventy persons; and now YHWH your God has made you as the stars of the sky for multitude.

11 Therefore you shall love YHWH your God, and keep his instructions, and his statutes, and his ordinances, and his commandments, always. 2Know this day: for I do not speak with your children who have not known, and who have not seen the chastisement of YHWH your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his outstretched arm, 3and his signs, and his works, which he did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and to all his land; 4and what he did to the army of Egypt, to their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Red Sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how YHWH has destroyed them to this day; 5and what he did to you in the wilderness, until you came to this place; 6and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben; how the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and every living thing that followed them, in the midst of all Israel: 7but your eyes have seen all the great work of YHWH which he did. 8Therefore you shall keep every commandment which I command you this day, that you may be strong, and multiply,[a] and go in and possess the land, where you go over[b] to possess it; 9and that you may prolong your days in the land, which YHWH swore to your fathers to give to them and to their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey. 10For the land, where you go in to possess it, isn't as the land of Egypt, that you came out from, where you sowed your seed, and watered it with your feet,[a] as a garden of herbs; 11but the land, where you go over to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys which drinks water of the rain of the sky, 12a land which YHWH your God cares for: the eyes of YHWH your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year even to the end of the year. 13It shall happen, if you shall listen diligently to my commandments which I command you this day, to love YHWH your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, 14that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the former rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, and your new wine, and your oil. 15I will give grass in your fields for your livestock, and you shall eat and be full. 16Be careful, lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; 17and the anger of YHWH be kindled against you, and he shut up the sky, so that there shall be no rain, and the land shall not yield its fruit; and you perish quickly from off the good land which YHWH gives you. 18Therefore you shall lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul; and you shall bind them for a sign on your hand, and they shall be for symbols between your eyes. 19You shall teach them your children, talking of them, when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up. 20You shall write them on the door posts of your house, and on your gates; 21that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which YHWH swore to your fathers to give them, as the days of the heavens above the earth. 22For if you shall diligently keep all this commandment which I command you to do,[b] to love YHWH your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cling to him; 23then will YHWH drive out all these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourselves. 24Every place whereon the sole of your foot shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness, and Lebanon, from the river, the river Perath, even to the western sea shall be your border. 25No man shall be able to stand before you: YHWH your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you on all the land that you shall tread on, as he has spoken to you. 26Look, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse: 27the blessing, if you shall listen to the commandments of YHWH your God, which I command you this day; 28and the curse, if you shall not listen to the commandments of YHWH your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which you have not known. 29It shall happen, when YHWH your God shall bring you into the land where you go to possess it, that you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim, and the curse on Mount

Ebal. 30Aren't they beyond the Jordan, behind the way of the going down of the sun, in the land of the Canaanites who dwell in the Arabah, over against Gilgal, beside the oak[a] of Moreh? 31For you are to pass over the Jordan to go in to possess the land which YHWH your God gives you, and you shall possess it, and dwell in it. 32You shall observe to do all the statutes and the ordinances which I set before you this day.

12 These are the statutes and the ordinances which you shall observe to do in the land which YHWH, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess it, all the days that you live on the earth. 2You shall surely destroy all the places in which the nations that you shall dispossess served their gods, on the high mountains, and on the hills, and under every green tree: 3and you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and burn their Asherim with fire; and you shall cut down the engraved images of their gods; and you shall destroy their name out of that place. 4You shall not do so to YHWH your God. 5But to the place which YHWH your God shall choose out of all your tribes, to put his name there, even to his habitation you shall seek, and there you shall come; 6and there you shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and the wave offering of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock: 7and there you shall eat before YHWH your God, and you shall rejoice in all that you put your hand to, you and your households, in which YHWH your God has blessed you. 8You shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, every man whatever is right in his own eyes; 9for you haven't yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which YHWH your God gives you. 10But when you go over the Jordan, and dwell in the land which YHWH your God causes you to inherit, and he gives you rest from all your enemies around you, so that you dwell in safety; 11then it shall happen that to the place which YHWH your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there, there you shall bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the wave offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which you vow to your God.[b] 12You shall rejoice before YHWH your God, you, and your sons, and your daughters, and your male servants, and your female servants, and the Levite who is within your gates, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you. 13Be careful that you do not offer your burnt offerings in every place that you see; 14but in the place which YHWH shall choose in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command you. 15Notwithstanding, you may kill and eat flesh within all your gates, after all the desire of your soul, according to the blessing of YHWH your God which he has given you: the unclean and the clean may eat of it, as of the gazelle, and as of the deer. 16Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it out on the earth as water. 17You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your grain, or of your new wine, or of your oil, or the firstborn of your herd or of your flock, nor any of your vows which you vow, nor your freewill offerings, nor the wave offering of your hand; 18but you shall eat them before YHWH your God in the place which YHWH your God shall choose, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your male servant, and your female servant, and the Levite who is within your gates: and you shall rejoice before YHWH your God in all that you put your hand to. 19Be careful that you do not forsake the Levite as long as you live in your land.

20When YHWH your God shall enlarge your border, as he has promised you, and you shall say, "I want to eat meat," because your soul desires to eat meat; you may eat meat, after all the desire of your soul. 21If the place which YHWH your God shall choose to put his name there is too far from you, then you shall kill of your herd and of your flock, which God[a] has given you, as I have commanded you; and you may eat within your gates, after all the desire of your soul. 22Even as the gazelle and as the deer is eaten, so you shall eat of it: the unclean[b] and the clean may eat of it alike. 23Only be sure that you do not eat the blood: for the blood is the life; and you shall not eat the life with the flesh. 24You shall not eat it; you shall pour it out on the earth as water. 25You shall not eat it; that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, when you shall do that which is right in the eyes of YHWH.[c] 26Only your holy things which you have, and your vows, you shall take, and go to the place which YHWH shall choose,[d] 27and you shall offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, on the altar of YHWH your God; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of YHWH your God; and you shall eat the flesh. 28Observe and hear and do[e] all these words which I command you,[f] that it may go well with you, and with your children after you forever, when you do that which is good and right in the eyes of YHWH your God.

13 If there arise in the midst of you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and he give you a sign or a wonder, 2and the sign or the wonder come to pass, of which he spoke to you, saying, "Let us go after other gods" (which you have not known) "and let us serve them"; 3you shall not listen to the words of that prophet, or to that dreamer of dreams: for YHWH your God proves you, to know whether you love YHWH your God with all your heart and with all your soul. 4You shall walk after YHWH your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and you shall serve him, and cling to him. 5That prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death, because he has spoken rebellion against YHWH your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to draw you aside out of the way which YHWH your God commanded you to walk in. So you shall put away the evil from the midst of you.

6If your brother, the son of your father, or[a] the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife you embrace, or your friend who is closest to you, entice you secretly, saying, "Let us go and serve other gods," which you have not known, you, nor your fathers; 7of the gods of the peoples who are around you, near to you, or far off from you, from the one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth; 8you shall not consent to him, nor listen to him; neither shall your eye pity him, neither shall you spare, neither shall you conceal him: 9but you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first on him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people. 10You shall stone him to death with stones, because he has sought to draw you away from YHWH your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. 11All Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall not do any more such wickedness as this is in the midst of you.

which YHWH your God gives you to dwell there, saying, 13Certain base fellows are gone out from the midst of you, and have drawn away the inhabitants of their[a] city, saying, "Let us go and serve other gods," which you have not known; 14then you shall inquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and, look, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is done in the midst of you, 15you shall surely strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, and all that is in it and its livestock, with the edge of the sword. 16You shall gather all its plunder into the midst of its street, and shall burn with fire the city, and all its plunder as a whole burnt offering to YHWH your God: and it shall be a ruin forever; it shall not be built again. 17Nothing of the devoted thing shall cling to your hand; that YHWH may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and show you mercy, and have compassion on you, and multiply you, as he has sworn to your fathers; 18when you shall listen to the voice of YHWH your God, to keep all his commandments which I command you this day, to do that which is right[b] in the eyes of YHWH your God.

14 You are the people of YHWH your God: you shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead. 2For you are a holy people to YHWH your God, and YHWH[c] has chosen you to be a people for his own possession, above all peoples who are on the face of the earth. 3You shall not eat any abominable thing. 4These are the animals which you may eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat, 5the deer, and the gazelle, and the roebuck, and the wild goat, and the ibex, and the antelope, and the chamois. 6Every animal that parts the hoof, and has the hoof cloven in two and chews the cud, among the animals, that may you eat.

7Nevertheless these you shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of those who have the hoof cloven: the camel, and the hare, and the rabbit; because they chew the cud but do not part the hoof, they are unclean to you. 8The pig, because it has a split hoof,[d] but doesn't chew the cud, is unclean to you: of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch. 9These you may eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fins and scales may you eat; 10and whatever doesn't have fins and scales you shall not eat; it is unclean to you.

[19]All winged crawling creatures are unclean to you: they[c] shall not be eaten. [20]Of all clean birds you may eat. [21]You shall not eat of anything that dies of itself: you may give it to the foreigner living among you who is within your gates, that he may eat it; or you may sell it to a foreigner: for you are a holy people to YHWH your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

[22]You shall surely tithe all the increase of your seed, that which comes forth from the field year by year. [23]You shall eat before YHWH your God, in the place which he shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there, the tithe of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock; that you may learn to fear YHWH your God always.

[24]If the way is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry it, because the place is too far from you, which YHWH your God shall choose, to set his name there, when YHWH your God shall bless you; [25]then you shall turn it into money, and bind up the money in your hand, and shall go to the place which YHWH your God shall choose: [26]and you shall bestow the money for whatever your soul desires, for cattle, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatever your soul asks of you; and you shall eat there before YHWH your God, and you shall rejoice, you and your household.

[27]The Levite who is within your gates, you shall not forsake him; for he has no portion nor inheritance with you. [28]At the end of every three years you shall bring forth all the tithe of your increase in the same year, and shall lay it up within your gates: [29]and the Levite, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the foreigner living among you, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are within your gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that YHWH your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

every creditor shall release that which he has lent to his neighbor; he shall not exact it of his neighbor and his brother; because YHWH's release has been proclaimed. 3Of a foreigner you may exact it: but whatever of yours is with your brother your hand shall release. 4However there shall be no poor with you; (for YHWH[a] will surely bless you in the land which YHWH your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it;) 5if only you diligently listen to the voice of YHWH your God, to observe to do all this commandment which I command you this day. 6For YHWH your God will bless you, as he promised you: and you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow; and you shall rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over you. 7If a poor man, one of your brothers, is with you within any of your gates in your land which YHWH your God gives you, you shall not harden your heart, nor shut your hand from your poor brother; 8but you shall surely open your hand to him, and shall surely lend him sufficient for his need, which he lacks. 9Be careful lest there be a wicked thought[b] in your heart, saying, "The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand"; and your eye be evil against your poor brother, and you give him nothing; and he cry to YHWH against you, and it be sin to you. 10You must surely give to him,[c] and your heart is not to be grieved when you give to him; because for this thing YHWH your God will bless you in all your work, and in all that you put your hand to. 11For the poor will never cease out of the land: therefore I command you, saying, You shall surely open your hand to your brother, to your needy, and to your poor, in your land. 12If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you, and serves you six years; then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you. 13When you let him go free from you, you shall not let him go empty: 14you shall furnish him liberally out of your flock, and out of your threshing floor, and out of your winepress, as[d] YHWH your God has blessed you, you shall give to him. 15You shall remember that you were a bondservant in the land of Egypt, and YHWH your God redeemed you: therefore I command you[e] this thing today. 16It shall be, if he tells you, "I will not go out from you"; because he loves you and your house, because he is well with you; 17then you shall take an awl, and thrust it through his ear to the door, and he shall be your

Also to your female servant you shall do likewise. 18It shall not seem hard to you, when you let him go free from you; for to the double of the hire of a hireling has he served you six years: and YHWH your God will bless you in all that you do. 19All the firstborn males that are born of your herd and of your flock you shall sanctify to YHWH your God: you shall do no work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock. 20You shall eat it before YHWH your God year by year in the place which YHWH shall choose, you and your household. 21If it has any blemish, is lame or blind, or has any defect whatever, you shall not sacrifice it to YHWH your God. 22You shall eat it within your gates: the unclean and the clean[a] shall eat it alike, as the gazelle, and as the deer. 23Only you shall not eat its blood; you shall pour it out on the ground as water.

16 Observe the month of Abib, and keep the Passover to YHWH your God; for in the month of Abib YHWH your God brought you forth out of Egypt by night. 2You shall sacrifice the Passover to YHWH your God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which YHWH[b] shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there. 3You shall eat no leavened bread with it. You shall eat unleavened bread with it seven days, even the bread of affliction; for you came forth out of the land of Egypt in haste: that you may remember the day when you came forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life. 4No yeast shall be seen with you in all your borders seven days; neither shall any of the flesh, which you sacrifice the first day at evening, remain all night until the morning. 5You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates, which YHWH your God gives you; 6but at the place which YHWH your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell in, there you shall sacrifice the Passover at evening, at the going down of the sun, at the season that you came forth out of Egypt. 7You shall roast and eat it in the place which YHWH your God shall choose: and you shall turn in the morning, and go to your tents. 8Six days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to YHWH your God; you must not do any work on it.[c] 9You shall count for yourselves seven weeks: from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain you shall begin to number seven weeks. 10You shall keep the feast of weeks to YHWH your God with a tribute of a freewill offering of your hand, which you shall give, according as YHWH your God blesses you: 11and you shall rejoice before YHWH your God, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your male servant, and your female servant, and the Levite who is within your gates, and the foreigner, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are in the midst of you, in the place which YHWH your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there. 12You shall remember that you were a bondservant in[a] Egypt: and you shall observe and do these statutes. 13You shall keep the feast of tents seven days, after that you have gathered in from your threshing floor and from your winepress: 14and you shall rejoice in your feast, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your male servant, and your female servant, and the Levite, and the foreigner, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are within your gates. 15You shall keep a feast to YHWH your God seven days in the place which YHWH[b] shall choose; because YHWH your God will bless you in all your increase, and in all the work of your hands, and you shall be altogether joyful. 16Three times in a year shall all your males appear before YHWH your God in the place which he shall choose: in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tents; and they shall not appear before YHWH empty: 17every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of YHWH your God which he has given you. 18You shall make judges and officers in all your gates, which YHWH your God gives you, according to your tribes; and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment. 19You shall not wrest justice: you shall not respect persons; neither shall you take a bribe; for a bribe does blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous. 20You shall follow that which is altogether just, that you may live, and inherit the land which YHWH your God gives you. 21You shall not plant for yourselves an Asherah of any kind of tree beside the altar of YHWH your God, which you shall make for yourselves. 22Neither shall you set yourself up a pillar; which YHWH your God hates.

17 You shall not sacrifice to YHWH your God an ox, or a sheep, in which is a blemish, or anything evil; for that is an abomination to YHWH your God. 2If there is found in the midst of you, within any of your gates which YHWH your God gives you, man or woman, who does that which is evil in the sight of YHWH your God, in transgressing his covenant, 3and has gone and served other gods, and worshiped them, or the sun, or the moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded; 4and it be told you, and you have heard of it, then you shall inquire diligently; and look, if it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is done in Israel, 5then you shall bring forth that man or that woman, who has done this evil thing, to your gates, even the man or the woman; and you shall stone them to death with stones. 6At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he who is to die be put to death; at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death. 7The hand of the witnesses shall be first on him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people. So you shall put away the evil from the midst of you. 8If there arises a matter too hard for you in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within your gates; then you shall arise, and go up to the place which YHWH your God shall choose;[a] 9and you shall come to the priests the Levites, and to the judge who shall be in those days: and you shall inquire; and they shall show you the sentence of judgment. 10You shall do according to the tenor of the sentence which they shall show you from that place which YHWH[b] shall choose; and you shall observe to do according to all that they shall teach you: 11according to the tenor of the law which they shall teach you, and according to the judgment which they shall tell you, you shall do; you shall not turn aside from the sentence which they shall show you, to the right hand, nor to the left. 12The man who does presumptuously, in not listening to the priest who stands to minister there before YHWH your God, or to the judge, even that man shall die: and you shall put away the evil from Israel. 13All the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously.

14When you have come to the land which YHWH your God gives you, and shall possess it, and shall dwell in it, and shall say, "I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are around me"; 15you shall surely set him king over yourselves, whom YHWH your God shall choose: one from among your brothers you shall set king over you; you may not put a foreigner over you, who is not your brother. 16Only he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he may multiply horses; because YHWH has said to you, "You shall not go back that way again." 17Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart not turn away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.

18It shall be, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law on a scroll in the presence of the Levitical priests. 19And it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life; that he may learn to fear YHWH his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them; 20that his heart not be lifted up above his brothers, and that he not turn aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children, in the midst of Israel.

18 The priests the Levites, all the tribe of Levi, shall have no portion nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of YHWH made by fire, and his inheritance. 2They shall have no inheritance among their brothers: YHWH is their inheritance, as he has spoken to them. 3This shall be the priests' due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep, that they shall give to the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw. 4The first fruits of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, you shall give him. 5For YHWH your God has chosen him out of all your tribes, to stand to minister in the name of YHWH, him and his sons for ever. 6If a Levite comes from any of your gates out of all Israel, where he lives as a foreigner, and comes with all the desire of his soul to the place which YHWH shall choose; 7then he shall minister in the name of YHWH his God, as all his brothers the Levites do, who stand there before YHWH. 8They shall have like portions to eat, besides that which comes of the sale of his patrimony. 9When you have come into the land which YHWH your God gives you, you shall not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. 10There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, one who practices divination, or tells fortunes, or interprets omens, or a sorcerer, 11or who casts spells, or consults a medium or a familiar spirit, or inquires of the dead. 12For whoever does these things is an abomination to YHWH.[a] And because of these abominations YHWH your God is driving them out from before you. 13You shall be blameless before YHWH your God. 14For these nations, that you shall dispossess, listen to those who practice sorcery, and to diviners; but as for you, YHWH your God has not allowed you so to do. 15YHWH your God will raise up to you a prophet from the midst of you, of your brothers, like me.[b] You shall listen to him. 16This is according to all that you desired of YHWH your God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, "Let me not hear again the voice of YHWH my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I not die."

17YHWH said to me, "They have well said that which they have spoken. 18I will raise them up a prophet from among their brothers, like you; and I will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I shall command him. 19It shall happen, that whoever will not listen to my words which he shall speak in my name, I will call him to account.[c] 20But the prophet, who shall speak a word presumptuously in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or who shall speak in the name of other gods, that same prophet shall die."

[21]If you say in your heart, "How shall we know the word which YHWH has not spoken?" [22]When a prophet speaks in the name of YHWH, if the thing doesn't follow, nor happen, that is the thing which YHWH has not spoken: the prophet has spoken it presumptuously, you shall not be afraid of him.

19 When YHWH your God shall cut off the nations, whose land YHWH your God gives you, and you succeed them, and dwell in their cities, and in their houses; [2]you shall set apart three cities for you in the midst of your land, which YHWH your God gives you to possess it. [3]You shall prepare you the way, and divide the borders of your land, which YHWH your God causes you to inherit, into three parts, that every manslayer may flee there. [4]This is the case of the manslayer, that shall flee there and live: whoever kills his neighbor unawares, and did not hate him in time past; [5]as when a man goes into the forest with his neighbor to chop wood, and his hand fetches a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the handle, and lights on his neighbor, so that he dies; he shall flee to one of these cities and live: [6]lest the avenger of blood pursue the manslayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and strike him mortally; whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he did not hate him in time past. [7]Therefore I command you, saying, You shall set apart three cities for yourselves. [8]If YHWH your God enlarges your border, as he has sworn to your fathers, and gives you all the land which he promised to give to your fathers; [9]if you keep all this commandment to do it, which I command you this day, to love YHWH your God, and to walk ever in his ways; then you shall add three cities more for yourselves, besides these three: [10]that innocent blood not be shed in the midst of your land, which YHWH your God gives you for an inheritance, and so blood be on you. [11]But if any man hates his neighbor, and lies in wait for him, and rises up against him, and strikes him mortally so that he dies, and he flees into one of these cities; [12]then the elders of his city shall send and bring him there, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. [13]Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall put away the innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with you. [14]You shall not remove your neighbor's landmark, which they of old time have set, in your inheritance which you shall inherit, in the land that YHWH your God gives you to possess it. [15]One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sins: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall every[a] word be established.[b] 16If an unrighteous witness rise up against any man to testify against him of wrongdoing, 17then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before YHWH, before the priests and the judges who shall be in those days; 18and the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, look, if the witness is a false witness, and has testified falsely against his brother; 19then you shall do to him as he had thought to do to his brother: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you. 20Those who remain shall hear, and fear, and shall hereafter commit no more any such evil in the midst of you. 21Your eyes shall not pity: life[c] for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

20 When you go forth to battle against your enemies, and see horses, chariots, and[d] a people more than you, you shall not be afraid of them; for YHWH your God is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. 2It shall be, when you draw near to the battle, that the priest shall approach and speak to the people, 3and shall tell them, "Hear, Israel, you draw near this day to battle against your enemies: do not let your heart faint; do not be afraid, nor tremble, neither be scared of them; 4for YHWH your God is he who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you."

5The officers shall speak to the people, saying, "What man is there who has built a new house, and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it. 6What man is there who has planted a vineyard, and has not used its fruit? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man use its fruit. 7What man is there who has pledged to be married a wife, and has not taken her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her." 8The officers shall speak further to the people, and they shall say, "What man is there who is fearful and fainthearted? Let him go and return to his house, lest his brother's heart melt as his heart." 9It shall be, when the officers have made an end of speaking to the people, that they shall appoint captains of armies at the head of the people.

10When you draw near to a city to fight against it, then proclaim peace to it. 11It shall be, if it makes you answer of peace, and opens to you, then it shall be, that all the people who are found in it shall become tributary to you, and shall serve you. 12If it will make no peace with you, but will make war against you, then you shall besiege your God delivers them into your hands, and you carry them away captive, 11and see among the captives a beautiful woman, and you desire to take her to be your wife, 12then you shall bring her home to your house; and she shall shave her head, and trim her nails; 13and she shall remove the clothing she was wearing when captured, and shall remain in your house, and mourn her father and her mother a full month. And after that you may go in to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife. 14It shall be, if you are not pleased with her, then you must let her go[a] where she wants; but you may not sell her for money or treat her as a commodity,[b] since you have had relations[c] with her. 15If a man has two wives, the one loved, and the other unloved, and they have borne him children, both the loved and the unloved; and if the firstborn son is hers who was unloved; 16then it shall be, in the day that he causes his sons to inherit that which he has, that he may not make the son of the loved the firstborn before the son of the unloved, who is the firstborn: 17but he shall acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the unloved, by giving him a double portion of all that he has; for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his. 18If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, who will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and, though they chasten him, will not listen to them; 19then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out to the elders of his city, and to the gate of his place; 20and they shall tell the elders of his city, "This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard." 21All the men of his city shall stone him to death with stones: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you; and all Israel shall hear, and fear.

22If a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be put to death, and you hang him on a tree; 23his body shall not remain all night on the tree, but you shall surely bury him the same day; for cursed by God;[a] that you do not defile your land which YHWH your God gives you for an inheritance.

22 You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide yourself from them: you shall surely bring them again to your brother. 2If your brother isn't near to you, or if you do not know him, then you shall bring it home to your house, and it shall be with you until your brother seek after it, and you shall restore it to him. 3So you shall do with his donkey; and so you shall do with his garment; and so you shall do with every lost thing of your brother's, which he has lost, and you have found: you may not hide yourself. 4You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fallen down by the way, and hide yourself from them: you shall surely help him to lift them up again. 5A woman shall not wear men's clothing, neither shall a man put on women's clothing; for whoever does these things is an abomination to YHWH your God.
6If a bird's nest chance to be before you in the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, and the hen sitting on the young, or on the eggs, you shall not take the hen with the young: 7you shall surely let the mother go, but the young you may take to yourself; that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days.
8When you build a new house, then you shall make a battlement for your roof, that you do not bring blood on your house, if any man fall from there. 9You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, lest the whole fruit be forfeited, the seed which you have sown, and the increase of the vineyard. 10You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together. 11You shall not wear a mixed stuff, wool and linen together. 12You shall make yourselves fringes[b] on the four borders of your cloak, with which you cover yourself.

13If any man takes a wife, and goes in to her, and hates her, 14and accuses her of shameful things, and brings up an evil name on her, and says, "I took this woman, and when I came near to her, I did not find in her the tokens of virginity"; 15then shall the father of the young woman, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the young woman's virginity to the elders of the city in the gate; 16and the young woman's father shall tell the elders, "I gave my daughter to this man to wife, and he hates her; 17and look, he has accused her of shameful things, saying, 'I did not find in your daughter the tokens of virginity;' and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity." They shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city. 18The elders of that city shall take the man and chastise him; 19and they shall fine him one hundred shekels of silver, and give them to the father of the young woman, because he has brought up an evil name on a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days.

20But if this thing be true, that the tokens of virginity were not found in the young woman; 21then they shall bring out the young woman to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death with stones, because she has done folly in Israel, to play the prostitute in her father's house: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you. 22If a man be found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both of them die, the man who lay with the woman, and the woman: so you shall put away the evil from Israel. 23If there is a young woman who is a virgin pledged to be married to a husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her; 24then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones; the woman, because she did not cry, being in the city; and the man, because he has humbled his neighbor's wife: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you. 25But if the man find the woman who is pledged to be married in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her; then the man only who lay with her shall die: 26but to the woman you shall do nothing; there is in the woman no sin worthy of death: for as when a man rises against his neighbor, and kills him, even so is this matter; 27for he found her in the field, the pledged to be married woman cried, and there was none to save her. 28If a man find a woman who is a virgin, who is not pledged to be married, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found; 29then the man who lay with her shall give to the woman's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife, because he has humbled her; he may not put her away all his days. 30A man shall not take his father's wife, and shall not uncover his father's skirt.

23 No one whose testicles are crushed or whose male organ is cut off may enter the assembly of YHWH. 2No one of illegitimate birth shall enter into the assembly of YHWH; even to the tenth generation shall none of his enter into the assembly of YHWH. 3An Ammonite or a Moabite shall not enter into the assembly of YHWH; even to the tenth generation shall none belonging to them enter into the assembly of YHWH forever: 4because they did not meet you with bread and with water in the way, when you came forth out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you. 5Nevertheless YHWH your God wouldn't listen to Balaam; but YHWH your God turned the curse into a blessing to you, because YHWH your God loved you. 6You shall not seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days forever. 7You shall not abhor an Edomite; for he is your brother:

you shall not abhor an Egyptian, because you lived as a foreigner in his land. [8]The children of the third generation who are born to them shall enter into the assembly of YHWH. [9]When you go forth in camp against your enemies, then you shall keep yourselves from every evil thing. [10]If there is among you any man who is not clean by reason of that which happens him by night, then shall he go outside of the camp. He shall not come within the camp: [11]but it shall be, when evening comes on, he shall bathe himself in water; and when the sun is down, he shall come within the camp. [12] You shall have a place also outside of the camp, where you shall go outside there; [13]and you shall have a spade among your tools; and it shall be, when you sit down outside, you shall dig therewith, and shall turn and cover that which comes from you: [14]for YHWH your God walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you, and to give up your enemies before you; therefore your camp shall be holy, that he may not see an unclean thing in you, and turn away from you. [15]You shall not deliver to his master a servant who is escaped from his master to you: [16]he shall dwell with you, in the midst of you, in the place which he shall choose within one of your gates, where it pleases him best: you shall not oppress him. [17]There shall be no prostitute of the daughters of Israel, neither shall there be a sacred male prostitute of the children of Israel. [18]You shall not bring the hire of a prostitute, or the wages of a dog, into the house of YHWH your God for any vow: for even both these are an abomination to YHWH your God. [19]You shall not lend on interest to your brother; interest of money, interest of food, interest of anything that is lent on interest: [20]to a foreigner you may lend on interest; but to your brother you shall not lend on interest, that YHWH your God may bless you in all that you put your hand to, in the land where you go in to possess it. [21]When you shall vow a vow to YHWH your God, you shall not be slack to pay it: for YHWH your God will surely require it of you; and it would be sin in you. [22]But if you shall forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in you. [23]That which is gone out of your lips you shall observe and do; according as you have vowed to YHWH your God, a freewill offering, which you have promised with your mouth. [24]When you come into your neighbor's vineyard, then you may eat of grapes your fill at your own pleasure; but you shall not put any in your vessel. [25]When you come into your neighbor's standing grain, then you may pluck the ears with your hand; but you shall not move a sickle to your neighbor's standing grain.

24 When a man takes a wife, and marries her, then it shall be, if she find no favor in his eyes, because he has found some unseemly thing in her, that he shall write her a bill of divorce, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house. [2]When she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife. [3]If the latter husband hate her, and write her a bill of divorce, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house; or if the latter husband die, who took her to be his wife; [4]her former husband, who sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that is abomination before YHWH: and you shall not cause the land to sin, which YHWH your God gives you for an inheritance. [5]When a man takes a new wife, he shall not go out in the army, neither shall he be assigned any business: he shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer his wife whom he has taken. [6]No man shall take the mill or the upper millstone to pledge; for he takes a life in pledge. [7]If a man be found stealing any of his brothers of the children of Israel, and he deal with him as a slave, or sell him; then that thief shall die: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you. [8]Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that you observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded them, so you shall observe to do. [9]Remember what YHWH your God did to Miriam, by the way as you came forth out of Egypt. [10]When you do lend your neighbor any kind of loan, you shall not go into his house to get his pledge. [11]You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you do lend shall bring forth the pledge outside to you. [12]If he be a poor man, you shall not sleep with his pledge; [13]you shall surely restore to him the pledge when the sun goes down, that he may sleep in his garment, and bless you: and it shall be righteousness to you before YHWH your God. [14]You shall not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, whether he be of your brothers, or of your foreigners who are in your land within your gates: [15]in his day you shall give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down on it; for he is poor, and sets his heart on it: lest he cry against you to YHWH, and it be sin to you. [16]The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin. [17]You shall not deprive the foreigner, or the fatherless of justice, nor take a widow's clothing in pledge; [18]but you shall remember that you were a bondservant in Egypt, and YHWH your God redeemed you there: therefore I command you to do this thing. [19]When you reap your harvest in your field, and have forgot a sheaf in the field, you shall not go again to get it: it shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow; that YHWH your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. [20]When you beat your olive tree, you shall not go over the boughs again: it shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow.[a] [21]When you harvest your vineyard, you shall not glean it after yourselves: it shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow. [22]You shall remember that you were a bondservant in the land of Egypt: therefore I command you to do this thing.

25 If there is a controversy between men, and they come to judgment, and the judges judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked; [2]and it shall be if the wicked man deserves to be beaten, that the judge shall make him lie down and be beaten in his presence with a number of stripes, according to his guilt. [3]He may give him forty stripes and no more. Otherwise, if he should go on and beat him with more stripes than these, your brother will be humiliated in your eyes. [4]You shall not muzzle the ox when he treads out the grain. [5]If brothers dwell together, and one of them die, and have no son, the wife of the dead shall not be married outside to a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in to her, and take her to him as wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her. [6]It shall be, that the firstborn whom she bears shall succeed in the name of his brother who is dead, that his name not be blotted out of Israel.

[7]If the man doesn't want to take his brother's wife, then his brother's wife shall go up to the gate to the elders, and say, "My husband's brother refuses to raise up to his brother a name in Israel; he will not perform the duty of a husband's brother to me." [8]Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak to him: and if he stand, and say, "I do not want to take her"; [9]then his brother's wife shall come to him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face; and she shall answer and say, "So shall it be done to the man who does not build up his brother's house." [10]His name shall be called in Israel, The house of him who has his shoe untied.

[13]You shall not have in your bag diverse weights, a great and a small. [14]You shall not have in your house diverse measures, a great and a small. [15]You shall have a perfect and just weight. You shall have a perfect and just measure, that your days may be long in the land which YHWH your God gives you. [16]For all who do such things, all who do unrighteously, are an abomination to YHWH your God. [17]Remember what Amalek did to you by the way as you came forth out of Egypt; [18]how he met you by the way, and struck the hindmost of you, all who were feeble behind you, when you were faint and weary; and he did not fear God. [19]Therefore it shall be, when YHWH your God has given you rest from all your enemies all around, in the land which YHWH your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it, that you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under the sky; you shall not forget.

26 It shall be, when you have come in to the land which YHWH your God gives you for an inheritance, and possess it, and dwell in it, 2that you shall take of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you shall bring in from your land that YHWH your God gives you; and you shall put it in a basket, and shall go to the place which YHWH your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there. 3You shall come to the priest who shall be in those days, and tell him, "I profess this day to YHWH your[a] God, that I am come to the land which YHWH swore to our fathers to give us." 4The priest shall take the basket out of your hand, and set it down before the altar of YHWH your God. 5You shall answer and say before YHWH your God, "A wandering Aramean was my father, and he went down into Egypt, and lived there, few in number, and there he became a nation, great, mighty, and numerous. 6The Egyptians mistreated us, and afflicted us, and laid on us hard bondage: 7and we cried to YHWH, the God of our fathers, and YHWH heard our voice, and saw our affliction, and our toil, and our oppression; 8and YHWH brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror, and with signs, and with wonders; 9and he has brought us into this place, and has given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. 10Now, look, I have brought the first of the fruit of the ground, which you, YHWH, have given me." You shall set it down before YHWH your God, and worship before YHWH your God. 11And you shall rejoice in all the good which YHWH your God has given to you and to your house, you, and the Levite, and the foreigner who is among you.

12When you have made an end of tithing all the tithe of your increase in the third year, which is the year of tithing, then you shall give it to the Levite, to the foreigner, to the fatherless, and to the widow, that they may eat within your gates, and be filled. 13You shall say before YHWH your God, "I have put away the holy things out of my house, and also have given them to the Levite, and to the foreigner, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all your commandment which you have commanded me: I have not transgressed any of your commandments, neither have I forgotten them: 14I have not eaten of it in my mourning, neither have I put away of it, being unclean, nor given of it for the dead: I have listened to the voice of YHWH my God; I have done according to all that you have commanded me. 15Look down from your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless your people Israel, and the ground which you have given us, as you swore to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey."

16This day YHWH your God commands you to do these statutes and ordinances: you shall therefore keep and do them with all your heart, and with all your soul. 17You have declared YHWH this day to be your God, and that you would walk in his ways, and keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his ordinances, and listen to his voice: 18and YHWH has declared you this day to be a people for his own possession, as he has promised you, and that you should keep all his commandments; 19and to make you high above all nations that he has made, for fame, and for praise,[a] and for honor; and that you may be a holy people to YHWH your God, as he has spoken.[b]

27 Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, "Keep all the commandment which I command you this day. 2It shall be on the day when you shall pass over the Jordan to the land which YHWH your God gives you, that you shall set yourself up great stones, and plaster them with plaster: 3and you shall write on them all the words of this law, when you have passed over; that you may go in to the land which YHWH your God gives you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as YHWH, the God of your fathers, has promised you. 4It shall be, when you have passed over the Jordan, that you shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in Mount Ebal, and you shall plaster them with plaster. 5There you shall build an altar to YHWH your God, an altar of stones: you shall lift up no iron on them. 6You shall build the altar of YHWH your God of uncut stones; and you shall offer burnt offerings thereon to YHWH your God: 7and you shall sacrifice peace offerings, and shall eat there; and you shall rejoice before YHWH your God. 8You shall write on the stones all the words of this law very plainly."

9Moses and the priests the Levites spoke to all Israel, saying, "Keep silence, and listen, Israel: this day you have become the people of YHWH your God. 10You shall therefore obey the voice of YHWH your God, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command you this day."

11Moses commanded the people the same day, saying, 12"These shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people, when you have passed over the Jordan: Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin. 13These shall stand on Mount Ebal for the curse: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. 14The Levites shall answer, and tell all the men of Israel with a loud voice, 15'Cursed is the man who makes an engraved or molten image, an abomination to YHWH, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and sets it up in secret.' All the people shall answer and say, 'Amen.' 16'Cursed is he who sets light by his father or his mother.' All the people shall say, 'Amen.' 17'Cursed is he who removes his neighbor's landmark.' All the people shall say, 'Amen.' 18'Cursed is he who makes the blind to wander out of the way.' All the people shall say, 'Amen.' 19'Cursed is he who wrests the justice due the foreigner, fatherless, and widow.' All the people shall say, 'Amen.' 20'Cursed is he who lies with his father's wife, because he has uncovered his father's skirt.' All the people shall say, 'Amen.' 21'Cursed is he who lies with any kind of animal.' All the people shall say, 'Amen.' 22'Cursed is he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother.' All the people shall say, 'Amen.' 23'Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law.' All the people shall say, 'Amen.' 24'Cursed is he who strikes his neighbor in secret.' All the people shall say, 'Amen.' 25'Cursed is he who takes a bribe to kill an innocent person.' All the people shall say, 'Amen.' 26'Cursed is he who doesn't confirm all[a] the words[b] of this law to do them.'[c] All the people shall say, 'Amen.'"

28 It shall happen, if you shall listen diligently to the voice of YHWH your God, to observe to do all his commandments which I command you this day, that YHWH your God will set you on high above all the nations of the earth: 2and all these blessings shall come on you, and overtake you, if you shall listen to the voice of YHWH your God. 3You shall be blessed in the city, and you shall be blessed in the field. 4You shall be blessed in the fruit of your body, the fruit of your ground, the fruit of your animals, the increase of your livestock, and the young of your flock. 5Your basket and your kneading trough shall be blessed. 6You shall be blessed when you come in, and you shall be blessed when you go out. 7YHWH will cause your enemies who rise up against you to be struck before you. They will come out against you one way, and will flee before you seven ways. 8YHWH will command the blessing on you in your storehouses, and in all that you put your hand to; and he will bless you in the land which YHWH your God gives you. 9YHWH will establish you for a holy people to himself, as he has sworn to you; if you shall keep the commandments of YHWH your God, and walk in his ways.

10All the peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of YHWH; and they shall be afraid of you. 11YHWH will make you plenteous for good, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, in the land which YHWH swore to your fathers to give you.
12YHWH will open to you his good treasure in the sky, to give the rain of your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand: and you shall lend to many nations, and you shall not borrow. 13YHWH will make you the head, and not the tail; and you shall be above only, and you shall not be beneath; if you shall listen to the commandments of YHWH your God, which I command you this day, to observe and to do, 14and shall not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them. 15But it shall come to pass, if you will not listen to the voice of YHWH your God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command you this day, that all these curses shall come on you, and overtake you. 16You shall be cursed in the city, and you shall be cursed in the field. 17Your basket and your kneading trough shall be cursed. 18The fruit of your body, the fruit of your ground, the increase of your livestock, and the young of your flock shall be cursed. 19You shall be cursed when you come in, and you shall be cursed when you go out. 20YHWH will send on you cursing, confusion, and rebuke, in all that you put your hand to do, until you are destroyed, and until you perish quickly; because of the evil of your doings, by which you have forsaken me.[a] 21YHWH will make the pestilence cling to you, until he has consumed you from off the land, where you go in to possess it. 22YHWH will strike you with consumption, and with fever, and with inflammation, and with fiery heat, and with the sword, and with blight, and with mildew; and they shall pursue you until you perish.
23Your sky that is over your head shall be bronze, and the earth that is under you shall be iron. 24YHWH will make the rain of your land powder and dust: from the sky shall it come down on you, until you are destroyed. 25YHWH will cause you to be struck before your enemies; you shall go out one way against them, and shall flee seven ways before them: and you shall be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth. 26Your dead body shall be food to all birds of the sky, and to the animals of the earth; and there shall be none to frighten them away. 27YHWH will strike you with the boil of Egypt, and with the tumors, and with the scurvy, and with the itch, of which you can not be healed. 28YHWH will strike you with madness, and with blindness, and with astonishment of heart; 29and you shall grope at noonday, as the blind gropes in darkness, and you shall not prosper in your ways:

[31]Your ox shall be slain before your eyes, and you shall not eat of it: your donkey shall be violently taken away from before your face, and shall not be restored to you: your sheep shall be given to your enemies, and you shall have none to save you. [32]Your sons and your daughters shall be given to another people; and your eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day: and there shall be nothing in the power of your hand. [33]The fruit of your ground, and all your labors, shall a nation which you do not know eat up; and you shall be only oppressed and crushed always; [34]so that you shall be mad for the sight of your eyes which you shall see. [35]YHWH will strike you in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore boil, of which you can not be healed, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head. [36]YHWH will bring you, and your king whom you shall set over you, to a nation that you have not known, you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods, wood and stone. [37]You shall become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all the peoples where YHWH shall lead you away. [38]You shall carry much seed out into the field, and shall gather little in; for the locust shall consume it. [39]You shall plant vineyards and dress them, but you shall neither drink of the wine, nor harvest; for the worm shall eat them. [40]You shall have olive trees throughout all your borders, but you shall not anoint yourself with the oil; for your olives shall drop off. [41]You shall father sons and daughters, but they shall not be yours; for they shall go into captivity. [42]All your trees and the fruit of your ground shall the locust possess. [43]The foreigner who is in the midst of you shall mount up above you higher and higher; and you shall come down lower and lower. [44]He shall lend to you, and you shall not lend to him: he shall be the head, and you shall be the tail. [45]All these curses shall come on you, and shall pursue you, and overtake you, until you are destroyed; because you did not listen to the voice of YHWH your God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded you: [46]and they shall be on you for a sign and for a wonder, and on your descendants forever. [47]Because you did not serve YHWH your God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, by reason of the abundance of all things; [48]therefore you shall serve your enemies whom YHWH shall send against you, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron on your neck, until he has destroyed you. [49]YHWH will bring a nation against you from far away, from a distant land,[a] as the eagle flies; a nation whose language you shall not understand; [50]a nation of fierce facial expressions, that shall not respect the person of the old, nor show favor to the young, [51]and shall eat the fruit of your livestock, and the fruit of your ground, until you are destroyed; that also shall not leave you grain, new wine, or oil, the increase of your livestock, or the young of your flock, until they have caused you to perish. [52]They shall besiege you in all your gates, until your high and fortified walls come down, in which you trusted, throughout all your land; and they shall besiege you in all your gates throughout all your land, which YHWH your God has given you. [53]You shall eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters, whom YHWH your God has given you, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemies shall distress you. [54]The man who is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children whom he has remaining; [55]so that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat, because he has nothing left him, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy shall distress you in all your gates. [56]The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not adventure to set the sole of her foot on the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter, [57]and toward her young one who comes out from between her feet, and toward her children whom she shall bear; for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy shall distress you in your gates. [58]If you will not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and fearful name, YHWH your God; [59]then YHWH will make your plagues extraordinary, and the plagues of your descendants, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and severe sicknesses, and of long continuance. [60]He will bring on you again all the diseases of Egypt, which you were afraid of; and they shall cling to you. [61]Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, YHWH will bring them on you, until you are destroyed. [62]You shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of the sky for multitude; because you did not listen to the voice of YHWH your God. [63]It shall happen that as YHWH rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you, so YHWH will rejoice over you to cause you to perish, and to destroy you; and you shall be plucked from off the land where you go in to possess it. [64]YHWH will scatter you among all peoples, from the one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth; and there you shall serve other gods, which you have not known, you nor your fathers, even wood and stone. 65Among these nations you shall find no ease, and there shall be no rest for the sole of your foot: but YHWH will give you there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and pining of soul; 66and your life shall hang in doubt before you; and you shall fear night and day, and shall have no assurance of your life. 67In the morning you shall say, "I wish it were evening." and at evening you shall say, "I wish it were morning." for the fear of your heart which you shall fear, and for the sight of your eyes which you shall see. 68YHWH will bring you into Egypt again with ships, by the way of which I said to you, You shall see it no more again: and there you shall sell yourselves to your enemies for bondservants and for bondmaids, and no man shall buy you.

29 These are the words of the covenant which YHWH commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which he made with them in Horeb. 2Moses called to all Israel, and said to them, You have seen all that YHWH did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land; 3the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs, and those great wonders: 4but YHWH[a] has not given you a heart to understand, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, to this day.[b] 5I have led you forty years in the wilderness. Your clothes have not worn out on you, and your shoes have not worn out on your feet. 6You have not eaten bread, neither have you drunk wine or strong drink; that you may know that I am YHWH your God. 7When you came to this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us to battle, and we struck them: 8and we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of the Manassites. 9Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that you may prosper in all that you do. 10You stand this day all of you before YHWH your God; your heads, your tribes, your elders, and your officers, even all the men of Israel, 11your little ones, your wives, and your foreigner who is in the midst of your camps, from the one who cuts your wood to the one who draws your water; 12that you may enter into the covenant of YHWH your God, and into his oath, which YHWH your God makes with you this day, 13so that he may establish you today as his people, and that he may your God, as he spoke to you and as he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. 14Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath, 15but with him who stands here with us this day before YHWH our God, and also with him who is not here with us this day 16(for you know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed; [17]and you have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them); [18]lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turns away this day from YHWH our God, to go to serve the gods of those nations; lest there should be among you a root that bears gall and wormwood; [19]and it happen, when he hears the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, "I shall have peace, though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart, to destroy the moist with the dry." [20]God[a] will not be willing to forgive him, but then the anger of YHWH and his jealousy will burn against that man, and every curse that is written in this book shall rest on him, and YHWH will blot out his name from under heaven. [21]YHWH will set him apart to evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that is written in this book of the law.

[22]The generation to come, your children who shall rise up after you, and the foreigner who shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses with which YHWH has made it sick; [23]and that the whole land of it is sulfur, salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor bears, nor any grass grows in it, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which YHWH overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath: [24]even all the nations shall say, "Why has YHWH done thus to this land? What does the heat of this great anger mean?"

[25]Then men shall say, "Because they forsook the covenant of YHWH, the God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, [26]and went and served other gods, and worshiped them, gods that they did not know, and that he had not given to them: [27]therefore the anger of YHWH was kindled against this land, to bring on it all the curse that is written in this book; [28]and YHWH rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as at this day."

[29]The secret things belong to YHWH our God; but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

30 It shall happen, when all these things have come on you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you, and you shall call them to mind among all the nations, where YHWH your God has driven you, [2]and shall return to YHWH your God, and shall obey his voice according to all that I command you this day, you and your children, with all your heart, and with all your soul; [3]that then YHWH your God will turn your captivity, and have compassion on you, and will return and gather you from all the peoples, where YHWH your God has scattered you. [4]If any of you are driven out to the farthest horizon, from there will YHWH your God gather you, and from there he will bring you back: [5]and YHWH your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it; and he will do you good, and multiply you above your fathers. [6]YHWH your God will circumcise your heart, and the heart of your descendants, to love YHWH your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, that you may live. [7]YHWH your God will put all these curses on your enemies, and on those who hate you, who persecuted you. [8]You shall return and obey the voice of YHWH, and do all his commandments which I command you this day. [9]YHWH your God will make you plenteous in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your womb, and in the fruit of your ground, and in the fruit of your livestock,[a] for YHWH will again rejoice over you for good, as he rejoiced over your fathers; [10]if you shall obey the voice of YHWH your God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law; if you turn to YHWH your God with all your heart, and with all your soul.

[11]For this commandment which I command you this day is not too difficult for you, nor is it far off.[b] [12]It is not in heaven, that you should say, "Who will go up into heaven for us, and get it for us, and proclaim it to us, so that we may obey it?"[c] [13]And it is not in the deep of the sea, that you should say, "Who will go down into the deep[d] of the sea for us, and get it for us, and proclaim it to us, so that we may obey it?" MT reads for the latter מעבר "from across," a misreading involving beth-mem confusions in an early square script. The word ירד was misread as יעבר "cross over" under the influence of the first misreading מעבר, possibly in a damaged scroll. Cf. Proverbs 25:3; Isaiah 7:11. On beth-mem confusions see J. F. hand,[a] so that you can do it. 15Look, I have set before you this day life and good, and death and evil.

16If you obey the commandments of YHWH your God[b] that I command you this day to love YHWH your God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his ordinances, then you will live and multiply, and YHWH your God will bless you in the land where you are going to possess it.
17But if your heart turns away, and you will not hear, but shall be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them; 18I declare to you this day that you will certainly perish; you will not live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. 19I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse: therefore choose life, that you may live, you and your descendants; 20to love YHWH your God, to obey his voice, and to cling to him; for he is your life, and the length of your days; that you may dwell in the land which YHWH swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them."

31 And Moses finished[c] speaking all these words to all Israel. 2He said to them, "I am one hundred twenty years old this day; I can no more go out and come in: and YHWH has said to me, 'You shall not go over this Jordan.' 3YHWH your God, he will go over before you; he will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them.
Joshua shall go over before you, as YHWH has spoken. 4YHWH will do to them as he did to Sihon and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land; whom he destroyed.
5YHWH will deliver them up before you, and you shall do to them according to all the commandment which I have commanded you. 6Be strong and courageous, do not be afraid, nor be scared of them: for YHWH your God is he who is going with you; he will not leave you nor forsake you."[d]

7Moses called to Joshua, and said to him in the sight of all Israel,
"Be strong and courageous: for you shall go with this people into the land which YHWH has sworn to their fathers to give them; and you shall cause them to inherit it.
8YHWH, he it is who does go before you; he will be with you, he will not fail you, neither forsake you: do not be afraid, neither be dismayed."

9 Moses wrote this law,[a] and delivered it to the priests the sons of Levi, who bore the ark of the covenant of YHWH, and to all the elders of Israel. 10 Moses commanded them, saying, "At the end of every seven years, in the set time of the year of release, in the feast of tents, 11 when all Israel has come to appear before YHWH your God in the place which he shall choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing.
12 Assemble the people, the men and the women and the little ones, and your foreigner who is within your gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear YHWH your God, and observe to do all the words of this law; 13 and that their children, who have not known, may hear, and learn to fear YHWH your God, as long as you live in the land where you go over the Jordan to possess it."

14 YHWH said to Moses,
"Look, your days approach that you must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the Tent of Meeting, that I may commission him." Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the Tent of Meeting.

15 YHWH appeared in the Tent in a pillar of cloud: and the pillar of cloud stood over the door of the Tent. 16 YHWH said to Moses, "Look, you shall sleep with your fathers; and this people will rise up, and play the prostitute after the strange gods of the land, where they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.
17 Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall come on them; so that they will say in that day, 'Haven't these evils come on us because[b] our God is not among us?' 18 I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evil which they shall have worked, in that they are turned to other gods.

19 "Now therefore write the words of[c] this song for yourselves, and teach it to the children of Israel:
put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel. 20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swore to their fathers, flowing with milk and honey, and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and grown fat; then will they turn to other gods, and serve them, and despise me, and break my covenant. 21 It shall happen, when many evils and troubles have come on them, that this song shall testify before them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their descendants: for I know their imagination which they frame this day, before I have brought them into the land which I swore." [22]So Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

[23]He commissioned Joshua the son of Nun, and said, "Be strong and courageous; for you shall bring the children of Israel into the land which I swore to them: and I will be with you."
[24]It happened, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law on a scroll, until they were finished, [25]that Moses commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of YHWH, saying, [26]"Take this book of the law, and put it by the side of the ark of the covenant of YHWH your God, that it may be there for a witness against you. [27]For I know your rebellion, and your stiff neck: look, while I am yet alive with you this day, you have been rebellious against God[a]; and how much more after my death? [28]Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes, and your elders and your judges[b] and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to witness against them. [29]For I know that after my death you will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will happen to you in the latter days; because you will do that which is evil in the sight of YHWH, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands."

[30]Moses spoke in the ears of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song, until they were finished.

32 Give ear, you heavens, and I will speak.
Let the earth hear the words of my mouth.
[2]My doctrine shall drop as the rain.
My speech shall condense as the dew, as the small rain on the tender grass, as the showers on the herb.
[3]For I will proclaim the name of YHWH.
Ascribe greatness to our God.
[4]The Rock,[c] his work is perfect, for all his ways are justice.
A faithful God and without iniquity, just and right is he.

[i]32:43 DSS MT. LXX adds "and render vengeance" his enemies, and he will recompense them that hate him,[a] and he[b] atones for the land of his people.[c] 44Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Joshua[d] the son of Nun. 45Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel; 46He said to them, "Set your heart to all the words which I testify to you this day, which you shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law. 47For it is no vain thing for you; because it is your life, and through this thing you shall prolong your days in the land, where you go over the Jordan to possess it."

48YHWH spoke to Moses that same day, saying, 49"Go up into this mountain of Abarim, to Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho; and see the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel for a possession; 50and die on the mountain where you go up, and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor, and was gathered to his people: 51because you trespassed against me in the midst of the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah of Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because you did not sanctify me in the midst of the children of Israel.
52For you shall see the land before you; but you shall not go there into the land which I give the children of Israel."

33 This is the blessing, with which Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death. 2He said, "YHWH came from Sinai, and dawned from Seir upon us.[e] He shone forth from Mount Paran.
He came from the ten thousands of holy ones.
At his right hand was a fiery law for them.
3Yes, he loves the people.
All his holy ones are in your hand.
They sat down at your feet;
each receives your words.
4Moses commanded us a law, an inheritance for the assembly of Jacob.
5He was king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people were gathered, all the tribes of Israel together.

6"Let Reuben live, and not die; Nor let his men be few."

7This is for Judah. He said, "Hear, YHWH, the voice of Judah.
Bring him in to his people.

8 Of Levi he said,
"Give to Levi[a] your Thummim and your Urim to your faithful one, whom you proved at Massah, with whom you strove at the waters of Meribah; 9 who said of his father, and of his mother, 'I have not seen him;' Neither did he acknowledge his brothers, Nor did he know his own children:
For they have observed your word, and keep your covenant.
10 They shall teach Jacob your ordinances, and Israel your law.
They shall put incense before you, and whole burnt offering on your altar.
11 YHWH, bless his substance.
Accept the work of his hands.
Strike the loins[b] of those who rise against him, of those who hate him, that they not rise again."

12 Of Benjamin he said,
"The beloved of YHWH shall dwell in safety by him.
He covers him all the day long.
He dwells between his shoulders."

13 Of Joseph he said,
"His land is blessed by YHWH, for the precious things of the heavens, for the dew, for the deep that couches beneath, 14 with the choices fruits of the sun, and the bounteous yield of the months, 15 with the finest produce of the ancient mountains, and the abundance of the everlasting hills,

18 Of Zebulun he said,

20Of Gad he said,
"He who enlarges Gad is blessed.
He dwells as a lioness, and tears the arm, yes, the crown of the head.
21He provided the first part for himself,
for there was the lawgiver's

He came with the heads of the

He executed the

YHWH,
his ordinances with Israel."

22Of Dan he said,
"Dan is a lion's cub that leaps out of Bashan."

23Of Naphtali he said,
"Naphtali, satisfied with favor, full of the blessing of YHWH,

24Of Asher he said,
"Asher is blessed with children.
Let him be acceptable to his brothers.
Let him dip his foot in oil.
25Your bars shall be iron and bronze.
As your days, so your strength will be.

26"There is none like God,

In his majesty through the

He thrust out the enemy from before you,
and said, 'Destroy.' 28Israel dwells in safety;
the fountain of Jacob alone, In a land of grain and new wine.
Yes, his heavens drop down dew.
29You are happy, Israel.
Who is like you, a people saved by YHWH,
the shield of your help, the sword of your excellency.
Your enemies shall submit themselves to you.
You shall tread on their high places."

34 Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. YHWH showed him all the land of Gilead, to Dan, 2and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah as far as the western sea, 3and the Negev, and the Plain of the Valley of Jericho the city of palm trees, to Zoar. 4YHWH said to him, "This is the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not go over there."

5So Moses the servant of YHWH died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of YHWH. 6And he[a] buried him in the valley in the land of Moab over against Beth Peor: but no man knows of his tomb to this day.
7Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural vigor diminished. 8The children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days: so the days of weeping in the mourning for Moses were ended. 9Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands on him: and the children of Israel listened to him, and did as YHWH commanded Moses. 10There has not arisen a prophet since in Israel like Moses, whom YHWH knew face to face, 11in all the signs and the wonders, which YHWH sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land, 12and in all the mighty hand, and in all the great terror, which Moses worked in the sight of all Israel.

Joshua

1 Now it happened after the death of Moses the servant of YHWH, that YHWH spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' servant, saying, 2Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, you, and all this people, to the land which I give to them, even to the children of Israel. 3I have given you every place that the sole of your foot will tread on, as I told Moses.
4From the wilderness, and this Lebanon, even to the great river, the river Perath, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your border. 5No man will be able to stand before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not fail you nor forsake you. 6Be strong and of good courage; for you shall cause this people to inherit the land which I swore to their fathers to give them. 7Only be strong and very courageous, to observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go. 8This book of the law shall not depart out of your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it: for then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall have good success. 9Haven't I commanded you? Be strong and of good courage. Do not be afraid, neither be dismayed: for YHWH your God is with you wherever you go.

10Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, 11"Pass through the midst of the camp, and command the people, saying, 'Prepare food; for within three days you are to pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which YHWH your God gives you to possess it.'"

12Joshua spoke to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, saying, 13"Remember the word which Moses the servant of YHWH commanded you, saying, 'YHWH your God gives you rest, and will give you this land. 14Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock, shall live in the land which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan; but you shall pass over before your brothers armed, all the mighty men of valor, and shall help them 15until YHWH has given your brothers rest, as he has given you, and they have also possessed the land which YHWH your God gives them. Then you shall return to the land of your possession, and possess it, which Moses the servant of YHWH gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise.'"

16They answered Joshua, saying, "All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.
17Just as we listened to Moses in all things, so will we listen to you.
Only may YHWH your God be with you, as he was with Moses.
18Whoever rebels against your commandment, and doesn't listen to your words in all that you command him, he shall be put to death. Only be strong and of good courage."

2 And Joshua the son of Nun secretly sent two young men out of Shittim as spies, saying, "Go, view the land, and Jericho." And the two young men went and came to Jericho and entered[a] into the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab, and slept there.

2The king of Jericho was told, "Look, men of the children of Israel came in here to spy out the land." 3So the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, "Bring out the men who came to you[b] tonight;[c] for they have come to spy out all the land."

4The woman took the two men and hid them. Then she said, "Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they came from. 5It happened about the time of the shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out. Where the men went, I do not know. Pursue them quickly; for you will overtake them." 6But she had brought them up to the roof, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order on the roof. 7The men pursued them the way to the Jordan to the fords: and as soon as those who pursued them had gone out, they shut the gate. 8Before they had lain down, she came up to them on the roof; 9and she said to the men, "I know that YHWH has given you the land, and that the fear of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away before you. 10For we have heard how YHWH dried up the water of the Red Sea before you, when you came out of Egypt; and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and to Og, whom you utterly destroyed. 11As soon as we had heard it, our hearts melted, neither did there remain any more spirit in any man, because of you: for YHWH your God, he is God in heaven[a] above, and on earth beneath. 12Now therefore, please swear to me by YHWH, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father's house, and give me a true token; 13and that you will save alive my father, my mother, my brothers, and my sisters, and all that they have, and will deliver our lives from death."

14The men said to her, "Our life for yours, even to death, if you do not talk about this business of ours; and it shall be, when YHWH gives us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with you."

15Then she let them down by a cord through the window; for her house was on the side of the wall, and she lived on the wall.[b] 16She said to them, "Go to the mountain, lest the pursuers find you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers have returned.[c] Afterward, you may go your way."

17The men said to her, "We will be guiltless of this your oath which you have made us to swear. 18Look, when we come into the land, you shall bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which you did let us down by. You shall gather to yourself into the house your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father's household. 19It shall be that whoever goes out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood will be on his head, and we will be guiltless. Whoever is with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand is on him. [20]But if you talk about this business of ours, then we shall be guiltless of[a] your oath which you have made us to swear."

[21]She said, "According to your words, so be it." She sent them away, and they departed. She tied the scarlet line in the window.

[22]They went, and came to the mountain, and stayed there three days, until the pursuers had returned. The pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but did not find them. [23]Then the two men returned, descended from the mountain, passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun; and they told him all that had happened to them. [24]They said to Joshua, "Truly YHWH has delivered into our hands all the land. Moreover, all the inhabitants of the land melt away before us."

3 Joshua rose up early in the morning; and they moved from Shittim, and came to the Jordan, he and all the children of Israel. They lodged there before they passed over. [2]It happened after three days, that the officers went through the midst of the camp; [3]and they commanded the people, saying, "When you see the ark of the covenant of YHWH your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then you shall move from your place, and follow it. [4]However, keep a distance of about two thousand nine hundred fifty-three feet[b] between yourselves and the ark. Do not come near to it, that you may know the way by which you must go; for you have not passed this way before."

[5]Joshua said to the people, "Sanctify yourselves; for tomorrow YHWH will do wonders among you."

[6]Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people." They took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.

[7]YHWH said to Joshua, "Today I will begin to magnify you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. [8]You shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, saying, 'When you come to the brink of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.'"

[9]Joshua said to the children of Israel, "Come here, and hear the words of YHWH your God." [10]Joshua said, "Hereby you shall know that the living God[c] is among you, and that he will without fail drive the Canaanite, and the Hethite, and the Hivite, and the Perizzite, and the Girgashite, and the Amorite, and the Jebusite out from before you. 11Look, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth passes over before you into the Jordan. 12Now therefore take twelve men from the sons[a] of Israel, one man for each tribe. 13It shall come to pass, when the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of YHWH, the Lord of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, that the waters of the Jordan will be cut off, even the waters that come down from above; and they shall stand in one heap."

14It happened, when the people moved from their tents to pass over the Jordan, the priests who bore the ark of the covenant being before the people, 15and when those who bore the ark had come to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who bore the ark had dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks all the time of harvest), 16that the waters which came down from above stood, and rose up in one heap, a great way off, at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan; and those that went down toward the sea of the Arabah, even the Salt Sea, were wholly cut off. Then the people passed over right against Jericho. 17The priests who bore the ark of the covenant of YHWH stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan; and all Israel passed over on dry ground, until all the nation had passed completely over the Jordan.

4 It happened, when all the nation had completely passed over the Jordan, that YHWH spoke to Joshua, saying, 2"Take twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man, 3and command them, saying, 'Take up for yourselves from here,[b] from the middle of the Jordan from the place where the feet of the priests stood firm,[c] twelve stones, and carry them over with you, and lay them down in the lodging place, where you will lodge tonight.'"

4Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man. 5Joshua said to them, "Pass over before me in the presence of[d] the ark of YHWH your God into the middle of the Jordan, and each of you pick up a stone and put it on your shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel; 6that this may be a sign among you, that when your children ask in time to come, saying, 'What do you mean by these stones?' 7then you shall tell them, 'Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of YHWH. When it passed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. These stones shall be for a memorial to the children of Israel forever.'"

8The children of Israel did as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the middle of the Jordan, as YHWH spoke to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel; and they carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there. 9Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood; and they are there to this day. 10For the priests who bore the ark stood in the middle of the Jordan, until everything was finished that YHWH commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua; and the people hurried and passed over. 11It happened, when all the people had completely passed over, that the ark of YHWH passed over, with the priests, in the presence of the people.

12The people of Reuben, and the people of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, passed over armed before the children of Israel, as Moses spoke to them. 13About forty thousand men, ready and armed for war passed over before YHWH to battle, to the plains of Jericho. 14On that day, YHWH magnified Joshua in the sight of all[a] Israel; and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life.

15YHWH spoke to Joshua, saying, 16"Command the priests who bear the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of the Jordan."

17Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, "Come up out of the Jordan." 18It happened, when the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of YHWH had come up out of the middle of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up to the dry ground, that the waters of the Jordan returned to their place, and went over all its banks, as before. 19The people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and camped in Gilgal, on the east border of Jericho.

20Joshua set up those twelve stones, which they took out of the Jordan, in Gilgal. 21He spoke to the children of Israel, saying, "When your children ask their fathers in time to come,[b] saying, 'What do these stones mean?' 22Then you shall let your children know,

[a]4:14 LXX adds "the people"

[b]4:21 LXX reads "When your children ask you" saying, 'Israel came over this Jordan on dry land. 23For YHWH your God dried up the waters of the Jordan from before you, until you had passed over, as YHWH your God did to the Red Sea which he dried up from before us, until we had passed over; 24that all the peoples of the earth may know the hand of YHWH, that it is mighty; that you may fear YHWH your God forever.'"

5 And it happened, when all the kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, who were by the sea, heard how that YHWH had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the children of Israel, until they[a] had passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel. 2At that time, YHWH said to Joshua, "Make flint knives, and circumcise again[b] the children of Israel.[c]" 3Joshua made himself flint knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at the Hill of the Foreskins. 4This is the reason Joshua circumcised: all the people who came out of Egypt, who were males, even all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt. 5For all the people who came out were circumcised; but all the people who were born in the wilderness by the way as they came out of Egypt had not been circumcised. 6For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, that is, the men of war who came out of Egypt, perished, because they did not listen to the voice of YHWH, those to whom YHWH swore that they would not see[d] the land which YHWH swore to their ancestors that he would give us, a land flowing with milk and honey. 7And their children, whom he raised up in their place, were circumcised by Joshua; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them on the way. 8And it happened, when they were done circumcising all the nation, that they stayed in their places in the camp until they were healed.

9And YHWH said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away the disgrace of Egypt from off you." Therefore the name of that place was called Gilgal,[e] to this day. 10The children of Israel camped in Gilgal. They kept the[f] Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening in the plains of Jericho. 11They ate unleavened cakes and parched grain of the produce of the land on the next day after the Passover, in the same day. 12The manna ceased on the next day, after they had eaten of the produce of the land. The children of Israel did not have manna any more; but they ate of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

13 It happened, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and look, a man stood in front of him with his sword drawn in his hand. Joshua went to him, and said to him, "Are you for us, or for our adversaries?" 14 And he said to him,[a] "Truly I am the commander of the army of YHWH. Now I have come."

And Joshua fell facedown to the ground, and worshipped, and said to him, "What does my lord say to his servant?"

15 The commander of the army of YHWH said to Joshua, "Take your shoes off of your feet; for the place on which you stand is holy." Joshua did so.

6 Now Jericho was tightly shut up because of the children of Israel. No one went out, and no one came in. 2 YHWH said to Joshua, "Look, I have given Jericho into your hand, with its king and the mighty men of valor. 3 All your men of war shall march around the city, going around the city once. You shall do this six days. 4 Seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark. On the seventh day, you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets. 5 It shall be that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall go up every man straight before him."

6 Joshua the son of Nun called the priests, and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of YHWH." 7 And he[b] said to the people, "Advance. March around the city, and let the armed men pass on before YHWH's ark."

8 It was so, that when Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before YHWH advanced, and blew the trumpets; and the ark of the covenant of YHWH followed them. 9 The armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the ark went after them. The trumpets sounded as they went.

10 Joshua commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout, nor let your voice be heard, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I tell you to shout. Then you shall shout." [11]So he caused the ark of YHWH to go around the city, going about it once. Then they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp. [12]Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of YHWH. [13]The seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of YHWH went on continually, and blew the trumpets: and the armed men went before them. The rear guard came after the ark of YHWH. The trumpets sounded as they went. [14]The second day they marched around the city once, and returned into the camp. They did this six days.

[15]It happened on the seventh day, that they rose early at the dawning of the day, and marched around the city in the same way seven times. Only on this day they marched around the city seven times. [16]It happened at the seventh time, when the priests blew the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, "Shout, for YHWH has given you the city. [17]The city shall be devoted, even it and all that is in it, to YHWH. Only Rahab the prostitute shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. [18]But as for you, only keep yourselves from the devoted thing, so as not to covet[a] and take of the devoted thing and make the camp of Israel accursed, and bring trouble on it. [19]But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, are holy to YHWH. They shall come into YHWH's treasury." [20]So the people shouted, and the priests blew the trumpets. It happened, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, that the people shouted with a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. [21]They utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, both young and old, and ox, and sheep, and donkey, with the edge of the sword.
[22]And Joshua said to the two young men[b] who had spied out the land, "Go into the prostitute's house, and bring out from there the woman and all that she has, as you swore to her." [23]The young men who were spies went in, and brought out Rahab with her father, her mother, her brothers, and all that she had. They also brought out all her relatives, and they set them outside of the camp of Israel. [24]They burnt the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only they put the silver, the gold, and the vessels of bronze and of iron into the treasury of YHWH's house. [25]But Rahab the prostitute, her father's household, and all that she had, Joshua saved alive. She lived in the midst of Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers, whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

[26]Joshua commanded them with an oath at that time, saying, "Cursed be the man before YHWH, who rises up and builds this city Jericho.[a] With the loss of his firstborn shall he lay its foundation, and with the loss of his youngest son shall he set up its gates." [27]So YHWH was with Joshua; and his fame was in all the land.

The men went up and spied out Ai. [3]They returned to Joshua, and said to him, "Do not let all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and strike Ai. Do not make all the people to toil there, for there are only a few of them." [4]So about three thousand men of the people went up there, and they fled before the men of Ai. [5]The men of Ai struck about thirty-six men of them, and they chased them from before the gate even to the Shebarim,[b] and struck them at the descent. The hearts of the people melted, and became like water. [6]Joshua tore his clothes, and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of YHWH until the evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads. [7]Joshua said, "Alas, Lord YHWH, why have you brought this people over the Jordan at all, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to cause us to perish? I wish that we had been content and lived beyond the Jordan. [8]Oh, Lord, what shall I say, after that Israel has turned their backs before their enemies. [9]For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and will surround us, and cut off our name from the earth. What will you do for your great name?"

[10]YHWH said to Joshua, "Get up. Why are you fallen on your face like that? [11]Israel has sinned, and they have even transgressed my covenant which I commanded them. And they have even taken of the devoted things, and have also stolen, and also deceived. They have even put it among their own stuff. [12]Therefore the children of Israel can't stand before their enemies. They turn their backs before their enemies, because they have become devoted for destruction. I will not be with you any more, unless you destroy the devoted things from among you. [13]Get up. Sanctify the people, and say, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, for YHWH, the God of Israel, says, “There is a devoted thing in the midst of you, Israel. You cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the devoted thing from among you.” 14In the morning therefore you shall be brought near by your tribes. It shall be that the tribe which YHWH selects shall come near by families. The family which YHWH selects shall come near by households. The household which YHWH selects shall come near man by man. 15It shall be, that he who is taken with the devoted thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he has, because he has transgressed the covenant of YHWH, and because he has done a disgraceful thing in Israel.’”

16So Joshua rose up early in the morning and brought Israel near by their tribes. The tribe of Judah was selected. 17He brought near the families[a] of Judah; and he selected the family of the Zerahites. He brought near the family of the Zerahites man by man, and Zabdi was selected. 18He brought near his household man by man, and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was selected. 19Joshua said to Achan, “My son, please give glory to YHWH, the God of Israel, and make confession to him. Tell me now what you have done. Do not hide it from me.”

20Achan answered Joshua, and said, “I have truly sinned against YHWH, the God of Israel, and this is what I have done. 21When I saw among the spoil a beautiful garment from Shinar, two hundred shekels of silver, and a bar of gold weighing fifty shekels, then I coveted them and took them. Look, they are hidden in the ground in the middle of my tent, with the silver under it.”

22So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent. Look, it was hidden in his tent, with the silver under it. 23They took them from the middle of the tent, and brought them to Joshua and to all the children of Israel. They laid them down before YHWH. 24Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the robe, the wedge of gold, his sons, his daughters, his cattle, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and all that he had; and they brought them up to the Valley of Achor. 25Joshua said, “Why have you troubled us? YHWH will trouble you this day.” All Israel stoned him with stones, and they burned them with fire and stoned them with stones. 26They raised over him a great heap of stones that remains to this day. YHWH turned from the fierceness of his anger. Therefore the name of that place was called “The Valley of Achor” to this day.

8 YHWH said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid, neither be dismayed. Take all the people of war with you, and arise, go up to Ai. Look, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, with his people, his city, and his land. 2You shall do to Ai and her king as you did to Jericho and her king, except its spoil and its livestock, you shall take for a plunder for yourselves. Set an ambush for the city behind it."

3So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up to Ai. Joshua chose thirty thousand men, the mighty men of valor, and sent them out by night. 4He commanded them, saying, "Look, you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, but all of you be ready. 5I, and all the people who are with me, will approach to the city. It shall happen, when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will flee before them. 6They will come out after us, until we have drawn them away from the city; for they will say, 'They flee before us, like the first time.' So we will flee before them, 7and you shall rise up from the ambush, and take possession of the city; for YHWH your God will deliver it into your hand. 8It shall be, when you have seized on the city, that you shall set the city on fire. You shall do this according to the word of YHWH. Look, I have commanded you."

9Joshua sent them out; and they went to set up the ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua stayed among the people that night. 10Joshua rose up early in the morning, mustered the people, and went up, he and the elders,[a] before the people to Ai. 11All the people, even the men of war who were with him, went up, and drew near, and came before the city, and camped on the north side of Ai. Now there was a valley between him and Ai. 12He took about five thousand men, and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city. 13So they set the people, even all the army who was on the north of the city, and their ambush on the west of the city; and Joshua went[b] that night into the midst of the valley. 14And it happened, when the king of Ai saw it, that he[c] hurried and rose up early,[d] and the men of the city went out[e] to engage them[a] directly[b] in battle, he and all his people, to the meeting place in front of the Arabah;[c] but he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city. [15]Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. [16]All the people who were in the city[d] were called together to pursue after them. They pursued Joshua, and were drawn away from the city. [17]There was not a man left in Ai or Beth El who did not go out after Israel. They left the city open, and pursued Israel.

[18]YHWH said to Joshua, "Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand."

Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city. [19]The ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and entered into the city, and took it. They hurried and set the city on fire. [20]When the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and look, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way. The people who fled to the wilderness turned back on the pursuers. [21]When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and killed the men of Ai. [22]The others came out of the city against them, so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side. They struck them, so that they let none of them remain or escape. [23]They captured the king of Ai alive, and brought him to Joshua.

[24]And it came to pass when Israel had made an end of killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the plains, and on the mountain[e] on the slope,[f] where they pursued them, and they had all fallen by the edge of the sword until they were destroyed, then all Israel returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword. [26]For Joshua did not draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the javelin, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. sundown Joshua commanded, and they took his body down from the tree, and threw it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raised a great heap of stones on it that remains to this day.

30Then Joshua built an altar to YHWH, the God of Israel, on Mount Ebal, 31as Moses the servant of YHWH commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, "an altar of uncut stones, on which no man has touched with an iron tool." They offered burnt offerings on it to YHWH, and sacrificed peace offerings. 32He wrote there on the stones a copy of the Law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel. 33All Israel, and their elders and officers, and their judges, stood on this side of the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, who carried the ark of YHWH's covenant, the foreigner as well as the native; half of them in front of Mount Gerizim, and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of YHWH had commanded at the first, that they should bless the children of Israel. 34Afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that is written in the book of the law. 35There was not a word of all that Moses commanded[a], which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, with the women, the little ones, and the foreigners who were among them.

9 It happened, when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan, in the hill country, and in the lowland, and on all the shore of the Great Sea in front of Lebanon, the Hethite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard of it 2that they gathered themselves together to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord. 3But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai, 4they also resorted to a ruse, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks on their donkeys, and wineskins, old and torn and bound up, 5and old and patched shoes on their feet, and wore old garments. All the bread of their provision was dry and moldy. 6They went to Joshua to the camp at Gilgal, and said to him, and to the men of Israel, "We have come from a far country. Now therefore make a covenant with us."

7The men of Israel said to the Hivites, "What if you live among us. How could we make a covenant with you?"

8They said to Joshua, "We are your servants."

country because of the name of YHWH your God; for we have heard of his fame, all that he did in Egypt, [10]and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon and to Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth. [11]Our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, 'Take provision in your hand for the journey, and go to meet them, and tell them, "We are your servants. Now make a covenant with us."' [12]This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we went out to go to you; but now, look, it is dry, and has become moldy. [13]These wineskins, which we filled, were new; and look, they are torn. These our garments and our shoes have become old because of the very long journey."

[14]The men sampled their provisions, and did not ask counsel from the mouth of YHWH. [15]Joshua made peace with them, and made a covenant with them, to let them live. The leaders of the congregation swore to them. [16]It happened at the end of three days after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were their neighbors, and that they lived among them. [17]The children of Israel traveled and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Kephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath Jearim. [18]The children of Israel did not strike them, because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by YHWH, the God of Israel. And the whole congregation murmured against the leaders. [19]But all the leaders said to all the congregation, "We have sworn to them by YHWH, the God of Israel; and now therefore we may not touch them. [20]This we will do to them, and let them live; lest wrath be on us, because of the oath which we swore to them." [21]And the leaders said to them, "Let them live." So they became wood cutters and drawers of water for all the congregation, and all the congregation did[a] as the leaders had spoken to them.

[22]Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, "Why have you deceived us, saying, 'We are very far from you,' when you live among us? [23]Now therefore you are cursed, and some of you will never fail to be bondservants, both wood cutters and drawers of water for the house of my God."

[24]They answered Joshua, and said, "Because your servants were certainly told how YHWH your God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you. Therefore we were very afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing. [25]Now, look, we are in your hand. Do to us [26]He did so to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, so that they did not kill them. [27]That day Joshua made them wood cutters and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of YHWH,[a] to this day, in the place which he should choose.

[b]10:1 Heb. Yerushalem, from yarah "foundation" (Job 38:6; Genesis 31:51; BDB 4155; 2Chronicles 20:16 Jeruel: Yeru "founded" (by) El "God"; BDB 4151), and shalem "(n.) peace," or "(adj.) safe, secure." Prior to the Dead Sea Scrolls, Yerushalem was vocalized without a waw for the –uw sound: yrshlmh (7th cent. BC Jerusalem Papyrus, with hey of direction: "to Jerusalem," cf. Isaiah 36:2); yrshlm (6th cent. BC graffito from Horvat Bet Loya/Khirbet Beit Lei; 2nd cent. BC Hasmonean jar handle stamp impressions, Western Hill in Jerusalem. The LXX reads Ierousalem). The early Akkadian for Yerushalem is Urusalim "city (Uru) of peace (salim)" (e.g. EA 289 14 U-ru-sa-lim). Rainey notes that from the standpoint of purely Canaanite pronunciation, one should read U-ru-sha-lim. In Sennacherib's Annals (Taylor Prism) in Col. 3 (701 BC), it reads: (iii 74) "Moreover, (as for) Hezekiah (u (m).kha-za-qi-a-u) of the land of Judah (KUR.ia-u-da-a-a)… (iv 25) city of Jerusalem (URU.ur-sa-li-im-mu), [his] royal city (URU LUGAL-[ti-shu])." Cf. 2 Kings 18:13-37, 19:1-36; Isaiah 36:1-22, 37:1-37. The Akkadian transliterations of Yerushalem are most likely a corruption of Yeru- or Ir-shalem by assimilation of vowels. The occurrence of the triconsonantal sh-l-m meaning "safety," peace," or "complete" in most ancient Semitic language regions is early and widespread: Proto-Semitic: shal-am "to be safe, well"; Akkadian: shalamu/salamu "peace, friendly relations, alliance" (e.g. EA 12 r.10 shal-mi…sh-la-mi "safety…peace"), and salimu "peace, concord" (e.g. EA 11 r. 22 sa-li-mu "amity, peace"); Hebrew: shalem "(n.) peace," or "(adj.) safe, secure" (Genesis 14:18; Psalm 76:2; BDB 10005; Hebrews 7:2 Gk. eirene, for meaning of Salem: "peace, harmony"), and shalom: "completeness, soundness, welfare, peace" (Genesis 15:15 al. BDB 10002); Ugaritic: shlm "(v.) complete" and "(n.) peace"; Phoenician: shlm "peace, to be complete." Assyrian Dictionary (S), J.A.Brinkman, et al. (eds) (1984), 89-92, 100-103; A. R. Bomhard and J. peace with Joshua and with[a] Israel, and were among them; [2]that they were very afraid, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty. [3]Therefore Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, to Piram king of Jarmuth, to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying, [4]"Come up to me, and help me, and let us strike Gibeon; for it has made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel." [5]Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their armies, and camped against Gibeon, and made war against it. [6]The men of Gibeon sent to Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, "Do not abandon your servants. Come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us; for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the hill country have gathered together against us."

[7]So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor. [8]YHWH said to Joshua, "Do not fear them, for I have delivered them into your hands. Not a man of them will stand before you."

[9]Joshua therefore came on them suddenly. He went up from Gilgal all night. [10]YHWH confused them before Israel, and he killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them by the way of the ascent of Beth Horon, and struck them to Azekah and to Makkedah. [11]And it happened, as they fled from before the sons[b] of Israel while they were at the descent of Beth Horon, that YHWH cast down[c] stones from the sky on them as far as Azekah, and they died. There were more who died from the hailstones than who the children of Israel killed with the sword.

[12]Then Joshua spoke to YHWH in the day when YHWH delivered up the Amorites into the hand of Israel, when he struck them down at Gibeon, and they were struck down[d] before the children of Israel; and he said in the sight of Israel, "Sun, stand still on Gibeon. You, moon, stop in the Valley of Aijalon."

[13]The sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the nation had avenged themselves of their enemies. Isn't this written in the book of Jashar? The sun stayed in the midst of the sky, and did not hurry to go down about a whole day. [14]There was no day like that before it or after it, that YHWH listened to the voice of a man; for YHWH fought for Israel.

15Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp to Gilgal. 16These five kings fled, and hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah. 17Joshua was told, saying, "The five kings are found, hidden in the cave at Makkedah."

18Joshua said, "Roll large stones to the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them; 19but do not stay. Pursue your enemies, and attack them from the rear. Do not allow them to enter into their cities; for YHWH your God has delivered them into your hand."

20It happened, when Joshua and the children of Israel had finished killing them with a very great slaughter until they were consumed, and the remnant which remained of them had entered into the fortified cities, 21that all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace. None moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel. 22Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave, and bring those five kings out of the cave to me."

23They did so, and brought those five kings out of the cave to him: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. 24It happened, when they brought those kings out to Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the chiefs of the men of war who went with him, "Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings."

They came near, and put their feet on their necks.

25Joshua said to them, "Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed. Be strong and of good courage, for YHWH will do this to all your enemies against whom you fight."

26Afterward Joshua struck them, put them to death, and hanged them on five trees. They were hanging on the trees until the evening. 27It happened at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave in which they had hidden themselves, and laid great stones on the mouth of the cave, which remain to this very day.

28Joshua took Makkedah on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, with its king. He utterly destroyed them and all the souls who were in it. He left none remaining. He did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

29Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah, and fought against Libnah. 30YHWH delivered it also, with its king, into the hand of Israel. He struck it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls who were in it. He left none remaining in it. He did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

31 Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish, and camped against it, and fought against it. 32 YHWH delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel. He took it on the second day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, with all the souls who were in it, according to all that he had done to Libnah. 33 Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua struck him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.

34 Joshua passed from Lachish, and all Israel with him, to Eglon; and they camped against it fought against it. 35 They took it on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword. He utterly destroyed all the souls who were in it that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, to Hebron; and they fought against it. 37 They took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, with its king and all its cities, and all the souls who were in it. He left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but he utterly destroyed it, and all the souls who were in it.

38 Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir, and fought against it. 39 He took it, with its king and all its cities. They struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls who were in it. He left none remaining. As he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to its king; as he had done also to Libnah, and to its king. 40 So Joshua struck all the land, the hill country, and the Negev, and the lowland, and the slopes, and all their kings.
He left none remaining, but he utterly destroyed all that breathed, as YHWH, the God of Israel, commanded. 41 And Joshua struck them from Kadesh Barnea to Gaza, and the entire region of Goshen[a] as far as Gibeon. 42 Joshua took all these kings and their land at one time, because YHWH, the God of Israel, fought for Israel. 43 Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the heights[a] of Dor on the west, [3]to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and the Amorite, and the Hethite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the hill country, and the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mizpah. [4]They went out, they and all their armies with them, many people, even as the sand that is on the seashore in multitude, with very many horses and chariots. [5]All these kings met together; and they came and camped together at the waters of Merom, to fight with Israel.

[6]YHWH said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid because of them; for tomorrow at this time, I will deliver them up all slain before Israel. You shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire."

[7]So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly, and fell on them. [8]YHWH delivered them into the hand of Israel, and they struck them, and chased them to Greater Sidon, and to Misrephoth Maim, and to the Valley of Mizpeh eastward. They struck them until they left them none remaining. [9]Joshua did to them as YHWH told him. He hamstrung their horses and burnt their chariots with fire. [10]Joshua turned back at that time, and took Hazor, and struck its king with the sword: for Hazor used to be the head of all those kingdoms. [11]They struck all the souls who were in it with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them. There was no one left who breathed. He burnt Hazor with fire. [12]Joshua captured all the cities of those kings, with their kings, and he struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed them; as Moses the servant of YHWH commanded. [13]But as for the cities that stood on their mounds, Israel burned none of them, except Hazor only. Joshua burned that. [14]The children of Israel took all the spoil of these cities, with the livestock, as spoils for themselves; but every man they struck with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them. They did not leave any who breathed.

[15]As YHWH commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua. Joshua did so. He left nothing undone of all that YHWH commanded Moses. [16]So Joshua captured all that land, the hill country, all the Negev, all the land of Goshen, the lowland, the Arabah, the hill country of Israel, and the lowland of the same; [17]from Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir, even to Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon under Mount Hermon. He took all their kings, struck them, and put them to death. [18]Joshua made war a long time with all those kings. [19]There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon.[a] They took all in battle. 20For it was of YHWH to harden their hearts, to come against Israel in battle, that he might utterly destroy them, that they might have no favor, but that he might destroy them, as YHWH commanded Moses. 21Joshua came at that time, and cut off the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel: Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities. 22There were none of the Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel. Only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, did some remain. 23So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that YHWH spoke to Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. The land had rest from war.

12 Now these are the kings of the land, whom the children of Israel struck, and possessed their land beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise, from the Valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the Arabah eastward: 2Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, and the middle of the valley, and half Gilead, even to the river Jabbok, the border of the people of Ammon; 3and the Arabah to the sea of Kinnereth[b], eastward, and to the sea of the Arabah, even the Salt Sea, eastward, the way to Beth Jeshimoth; and on the south, under the slopes of Pisgah: 4and the border of Og king of Bashan, of the remnant of the Rephaim, who lived at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, 5and ruled in Mount Hermon, and in Salecah, and in all Bashan, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and half Gilead, as far as[c] the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

13 Now Joshua was old and well stricken in years. YHWH said to him, "You are old and advanced in years, and there remains yet very much land to be possessed. [2]This is the land that still remains: all the regions of the Philistines, and all the Geshurites; [3]from the Shihor, which is before Egypt, even to the border of Ekron northward, which is counted as Canaanite; the five lords of the Philistines; the Gazites, and the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avvim, [4]on the south; all the land of the Canaanites, and from Arah[g] that belongs to the Sidonians to Aphek, to the border of the Amorites; [5]and the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Baal Gad under Mount Hermon to Lebo Hamath; [6]all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim, even all the Sidonians; them will I drive out from before the children of Israel: only you allocate it to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you. Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond the Jordan eastward, even as Moses the servant of YHWH gave them: [9]from Aroer, that is on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain of Medeba to Dibon; [10]and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the people of Ammon; [11]and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salecah; [12]all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (the same was left of the remnant of the Rephaim); for Moses attacked these, and drove them out. [13]Nevertheless the children of Israel did not drive out the Geshurites, nor the Maacathites: but Geshur and Maacath dwell in the midst of Israel to this day. [14]Only he gave no inheritance to the tribe of Levi. The offerings of YHWH, the God of Israel, made by fire are his inheritance, as he spoke to him. [15]Moses gave to the tribe of the people of Reuben according to their families. [16]Their border was from Aroer, that is on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain by Medeba; [17]Heshbon, and all its cities that are in the plain; Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon, [18]Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, [19]Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar in the mount of the valley, [20]Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, Beth Jeshimoth, [21]all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck with the chiefs of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the princes of Sihon, who lived in the land. [22]The children of Israel also killed Balaam, the son of Beor, the soothsayer, with the sword, among the rest of their slain.

[23]The border of the people of Reuben was the bank of the Jordan. This was the inheritance of the people of Reuben according to their families, the cities and its villages.
[24]Moses gave to the tribe of Gad, to the people of Gad, according to their families. [25]Their border was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the people of Ammon, to Aroer that is before Rabbah; [26]and from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpeh, and Betonim; and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir[a]; [27]and in the valley, Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, the Jordan's bank, to the uttermost part of the sea of Kinnereth beyond the Jordan eastward. [28]This is the inheritance of the people of Gad according to their families, the cities and its villages.

[29]Moses gave an inheritance to the half-tribe of Manasseh. It was for the half-tribe of the people of Manasseh according to their families. [30]Their border was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities. [31]Half Gilead, Ashtaroth, and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were for the people of Makir the son of Manasseh, even for the half of the people of Makir according to their families.

[32]These are the inheritances which Moses distributed in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan at Jericho, eastward. [33]But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance. YHWH, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as he spoke to them.

14 These are the inheritances which the children of Israel took in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of ancestral houses of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed to them, [2]by the lot of their inheritance, as YHWH commanded by the hand of Moses, to give[a] to the nine tribes, and for the half-tribe. [3]For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe beyond the Jordan; but to the Levites he gave no inheritance among them. [4]For the people of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: and they gave no portion to the Levites in the land, except cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their livestock and for their property. [5]The children of Israel did as YHWH commanded Moses, and they divided the land.

[6]Then the people of Judah drew near to Joshua in Gilgal. Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know the thing that YHWH spoke to Moses the man of God concerning me and concerning you in Kadesh Barnea. [7]I was forty years old when Moses the servant of YHWH sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land. I brought him word again as it was in my heart. [8]Nevertheless, my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt; but I wholly followed YHWH my God. [9]Moses swore on that day, saying, 'Surely the land where you walked shall be an inheritance to you and to your children forever, because you have wholly followed YHWH my God.' [10]Now, look, YHWH has kept me alive, as he spoke, these forty-five years, from the time that YHWH spoke this word to Moses, while Israel walked in the wilderness. Now, look, I am eighty-five years old, today. [11]I am still as strong today as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now for war, to go out and to come in. 12Now therefore give me this hill country, of which YHWH spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how the Anakim were there, and great and fortified cities. It may be that YHWH will be with me, and I shall drive them out, as YHWH spoke."

13Joshua blessed him; and he gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance. 14Therefore Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day; because he wholly followed YHWH, the God of Israel. 15Now the name of Hebron before was Kiriath Arba, after the greatest man among the Anakim. The land had rest from war.

15 The lot for the tribe of the people of Judah according to their families was to the border of Edom, even to the wilderness of Zin southward, toward the Negev in the far south. 2Their south border was from the uttermost part of the Salt Sea, from the bay that looks southward; 3and it went out southward of the ascent of Akrabbim, and passed along to Zin, and went up by the south of Kadesh Barnea, and passed along by Hezron, went up to Addar, and turned about to Karka; 4and it passed along to Azmon, went out at the Wadi of Egypt;[a] and the border ended at the sea. This was their[b] southern border. 5The east border was the Salt Sea, even to the end of the Jordan. The border of the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the end of the Jordan. 6The border went up to Beth Hoglah, and passed along by the north of Beth Arabah; and the border went up to the Stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. 7The border went up to Debir from the Valley of Achor, and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, that is over against the ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the river. The border passed along to the waters of En Shemesh, and ended at En Rogel. 8The border went up by the Valley of Ben Hinnom to the slope of the Jebusites southward (that is, Jerusalem); and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the Valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the farthest part of the Valley of Rephaim northward. 9The border extended from the top of the mountain to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities[c] of Mount Ephron; and the border extended to Baalah (that is, Kiriath Jearim); 10and the border turned about from Baalah westward to Mount Seir, and passed along to the side of Mount Jearim on the north (that is, Kesalon), and went down to Beth

13To Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a portion among the people of Judah, according to the commandment of YHWH to Joshua, even Kiriath Arba, named after the father of Anak (that is, Hebron). 14Caleb drove out the three sons of Anak: Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the descendants of Anak. 15He went up against the inhabitants of Debir. Now the name of Debir formerly was Kiriath Sepher. 16Caleb said, "He who strikes Kiriath Sepher, and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter as wife." 17Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife. 18It happened, when she came, that she had him ask her father for a field. She got off of her donkey, and Caleb said, "What do you want?"

19She said, "Give me a blessing. Because you have set me in the land of the Negev, give me also springs of water." He gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

20This is the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Judah according to their families. 21The farthest cities of the tribe of the people of Judah toward the border of Edom in the south were Kabzeel, and Arad,[a] and Jagur, 22and Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah,[b] 23and Kedesh, and Hazor Ithnan,[c] 24Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth, 25and Hazor Hadattah, and Kerioth Hezron (that is, Hazor), 26Amam, and Shema, and Moladah, 27and Hazar Gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth Pelet, 28and Hazar Shual, and Beersheba and its villages,[d] 29Baalah, and Iyim, and Ezem, 30and Eltolad, and Bethul,[e] and Hormah, 31and Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sansannah, 32and Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and En Rimmon.[f] All the cities are twenty-nine, with their villages. 33In the border of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethath, which is before Shechem. The border went along to the right hand to[a] Jashub[b] and to[c] En Tappuah. 8The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh; but Tappuah, on the border of Manasseh, belonged to the people of Ephraim. 9The border went down to Wadi Kanah, southward of the wadi. These cities belonged to Ephraim among the cities of Manasseh. The border of Manasseh was on the north side of the wadi, and ended at the sea. 10Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea was his border. They reached to Asher on the north, and to Issachar on the east. [11]And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher, Beth Shean and its towns, and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Endor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns; three regions. [12]Yet the people of Manasseh couldn't drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

[13]It happened, when the children of Israel had grown strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and did not utterly drive them out. [14]The people of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, "Why have you given me just one lot and one part for an inheritance, since I am a great people, because YHWH has blessed me so far?"

[15]Joshua said to them, "If you are a great people, go up to the forest, and clear land for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the Rephaim; since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you."

[16]The people of Joseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us. All the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both those who are in Beth Shean and its towns, and those who are in the Valley of Jezreel."

[17]Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, "You are a great people, and have great power. You shall not have one lot only; [18]but the hill country shall be yours. Although it is a forest, you shall cut it down, and its farthest extent shall be yours; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron, and though they are strong."

18 The whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled themselves together at Shiloh, and set up the Tent of Meeting there. The land was subdued before them. [2]Seven tribes remained among the children of Israel, which had not yet divided their inheritance. [3]Joshua said to the children of Israel, "How long will you neglect to go in to possess the land, which YHWH, the God of your fathers,[a] has given you? [4]Appoint for you three men of each tribe. I will send them, and they shall arise, walk through the land, and describe it according to their inheritance; and they shall come to me. [5]They shall divide it into seven portions. Judah shall live in his borders on the south, and the house of Joseph shall live in their borders on the north. [6]You shall survey the land into seven parts, and bring the description here to me; and I will cast lots for you here before YHWH our God. 7For the Levites have no portion among you; for the priesthood of YHWH is their inheritance. Gad, Reuben, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of YHWH gave them."

8The men arose and went. Joshua commanded those who went to survey the land, saying, "Go walk through the land, survey it, and come again to me. I will cast lots for you here before YHWH in Shiloh."

11The lot of the tribe of the people of Benjamin came up according to their families. The border of their lot went out between the people of Judah and the people of Joseph. 12Their border on the north quarter was from the Jordan. The border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the hill country westward. It ended at the wilderness of Beth Aven. 13The border passed along from there to Luz, to the side of Luz (that is, Bethel), southward. The border went down to Ataroth Addar, by the mountain that lies on the south of Lower Beth Horon. 14The border extended, and turned around on the west quarter southward, from the mountain that lies before Beth Horon southward; and ended at Kiriath Baal (that is, Kiriath Jearim), a city of the people of Judah. This was the west quarter. 15The south quarter was from the farthest part of Kiriath Jearim. The border went out westward, and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah. 16The border went down to the farthest part of the mountain that lies before the Valley of Ben Hinnom, which is in the Valley of Rephaim northward. It went down to the Valley of Hinnom, to the slope of the Jebusites southward, and went down to En Rogel. 17It extended northward, went out at En Shemesh, and went out to Geliloth, which is over against the ascent of Adummim. It went down to the Stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. 18And it passed on to the north to the shoulder of Beth Arabah,[a] and went down to the Arabah. 19The border passed along to the side of Beth Hoglah northward; and the border ended at the north bay of the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan. This was the south border. 20The Jordan was its border on the east quarter. This was the inheritance of the people of Benjamin, by the borders around it, according to their families. 21Now the cities of the tribe of the people of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Beth Hoglah, and Emek Keziz, 22and Beth Arabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel, 23and Avvim, and Parah, and Ophrah, 24and Chephar Ammoni, and Ophni, and Geba; twelve cities with their villages.

25Gibeon, and Ramah,[a] and Beeroth, 26and Mizpeh, and Kephirah, and Mozah, 27and Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah, 28and Zelah,[b] Haeleph, and Jebus[c] (that is, Jerusalem), and[d] Gibeath, and Kiriath Jearim[e]; fourteen cities[f] with their villages. This is the inheritance of the people of Benjamin according to their families.

19 The second lot came out for Simeon, even for the tribe of the people of Simeon according to their families. Their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the people of Judah.
2And they had for their inheritance Beersheba,[g] and Moladah, 3and Hazar Shual, and Balah, and Ezem, 4and Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah, 5and Ziklag, and Beth Marcaboth, and Hazar Susah, 6and Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhen; thirteen cities with their villages; 7En Rimmon,[h] and Token,[i] and Ether, and Ashan; four cities with their villages; 8and all the villages that were around these cities to Baalath Beer, Ramath Negev. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Simeon according to their families. 9Out of the part of the people of Judah was the inheritance of the people of Simeon; for the portion of the people of Judah was too much for them. Therefore the people of Simeon had inheritance in the midst of their inheritance.

10And the third lot came up for the people of Zebulun according to their families, and the border of their inheritance was to Sadud.[j] 11Their border went up westward, and to Maralah, and reached to Dabbesheth, and it reached to the wadi that is before Jokneam. 12And it turned from 17The fourth lot came out for Issachar, even for the people of Issachar according to their families. 18And their border was to Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem, 19and Hapharaim, and Shion, and Anaharath, 20and Daberath,[d] and Kishion, and Ebez, 21and Remeth, and Engannim, and En Haddah, and Beth Pazzez. 22The border reached to Tabor, and Shahazumah, and Beth Shemesh; and their border ended at the Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages. 23This is the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Issachar according to their families, the cities with their villages.

24The fifth lot came out for the tribe of the people of Asher according to their families. 25Their border was from[e] Helkath (and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph, 26and Allammelech, and Amad, and Mishal) and it reached to Carmel westward, and to Shihor Libnath. 27And it turned eastward to Beth Dagon, and reached to Zebulun and to the Valley of Iphtah El on the north. Achzib, 30and Acco,[a] and Aphek, and Rehob: twenty-two cities with their villages. 31This is the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

40The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the people of Dan according to their families. 41And the border of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir Shemesh, 42and Shaalbin,[b] and Aijalon, and Jithlah, 43and Elon, and Timnah, and Ekron, 44and Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath, 45and Jehud, and Azzur,[c] and Bene Berak, and Gath Rimmon, 46and from the sea,[d] Jarkon, and Rakkon,[e] with the border over against Joppa. 47And the border of the people of Dan slipped out of their control, so the people of Dan went up and fought against Leshem,[f] and after capturing it and striking it with the sword they took possession of it and dwelt in it, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their ancestor. 48This is the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

49So they made an end of distributing the land for inheritance by its borders. The children of Israel gave an inheritance among them to Joshua the son of Nun. 50According to the commandment of YHWH, they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim; and he built the city, and lived there. [51]These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of ancestral houses of the tribes of the children of Israel distributed by lot in Shiloh before YHWH, at the door of the Tent of Meeting. So they made an end of dividing the land.

20 YHWH spoke to Joshua, saying, [2]"Speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'Assign the cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you by Moses, [3]that the manslayer who kills any person accidentally or unintentionally may flee there. They shall be for you a refuge from the avenger of blood. [4]He shall flee to one of those cities, and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city. They shall take him into the city with them, and give him a place, that he may live among them. [5]If the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver up the manslayer into his hand; because he struck his neighbor unintentionally, and did not hate him before. [6]He shall dwell in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days. Then the manslayer shall return, and come to his own city, and to his own house, to the city he fled from.'"

[7]They set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah. [8]Beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer on the wilderness plateau out of the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh. [9]These were the appointed cities for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger who sojourns among them, that whoever kills any person unintentionally might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stands before the congregation.

21 Then the heads of ancestral houses of the Levites came near to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of ancestral houses of the tribes of the children of Israel. [2]They spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, "YHWH commanded Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for our livestock." [3]The children of Israel gave to the Levites out of their inheritance, according to the commandment of YHWH, these cities with their suburbs. [4]The lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. The descendants of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, had thirteen cities by lot out of the tribe of Judah, out of the tribe of the Simeonites, and out of the tribe of Benjamin. [5]The rest of the descendants of Kohath had ten cities by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh. 6The descendants of Gershon had thirteen cities by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, out of the tribe of Asher, out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan. 7The descendants of Merari according to their families had twelve cities by lot[a] out of the tribe of Reuben, out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun. 8The children of Israel gave these cities with their suburbs by lot to the Levites, as YHWH commanded by Moses. 9They gave out of the tribe of the people of Judah, and out of the tribe of the people of Simeon,[b] these cities which are mentioned by name: 10and they were for the descendants of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the people of Levi; for theirs was the first lot. 11They gave them Kiriath Arba, named after the father of Anak (that is, Hebron), in the hill country of Judah, with its suburbs around it. 12But they gave the fields of the city and its villages to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession. 13To the descendants of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron with its suburbs, the city of refuge for the manslayer, Libnah with its suburbs, 14Jattir with its suburbs, Eshtemoa with its suburbs, 15Holon with its suburbs, Debir with its suburbs, 16Ashan[c] with its suburbs, Juttah with its suburbs, and Beth Shemesh with its suburbs; nine cities out of those two tribes. 17Out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its suburbs, Geba with its suburbs, 18Anathoth with its suburbs, and Almon with its suburbs; four cities. 19All the cities of the descendants of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

20The families of the descendants of Kohath, the Levites, even the rest of the descendants of Kohath, had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim. 21They gave them Shechem with its suburbs in the hill country of Ephraim, the city of refuge for the manslayer, and Gezer with its suburbs, 22Kibzaim with its suburbs, and Beth Horon with its suburbs; four cities. 23Out of the tribe of Dan, Elteke with its suburbs, Gibbethon with its suburbs, 24Aijalon with its suburbs, Gath Rimmon with its suburbs; four cities. 25Out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Taanach with its suburbs, and Beth Shean[d] with its suburbs; two cities. 26All the cities of the families of the rest of the descendants of Kohath were ten with their suburbs.

27They gave to the descendants of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the half-tribe of Manasseh Golan in Bashan with its suburbs, the city of refuge for the manslayer, and Be Eshterah with its suburbs; two cities. 28Out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishion with its suburbs, Daberath with its suburbs, 29Jarmuth with its suburbs, En Gannim with its suburbs; four cities. 30Out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its suburbs, Abdon with its suburbs, 31Helkath with its suburbs, and Rehob with its suburbs; four cities. 32Out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its suburbs, the city of refuge for the manslayer, Hammothdor with its suburbs, and Kartan with its suburbs; three cities. 33All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their suburbs.
34To the families of the descendants of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its suburbs, Kartah with its suburbs, 35Rimmon[a] with its suburbs, and Nahalal with its suburbs; four cities. 36And across the Jordan opposite Jericho,[b] from the tribe of Reuben: a city of refuge for the manslayer,[c] Bezer in the wilderness, (on) the plateau,[d] with its suburbs, Jahaz with its suburbs, 37Kedemoth with its suburbs, and Mephaath with its suburbs; four cities. 38Out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its suburbs, the city of refuge for the manslayer, and Mahanaim with its suburbs, 39Heshbon with its suburbs, Jazer with its suburbs; four cities in all. 40All these were the cities of the descendants of Merari according to their families, even the rest of the families of the Levites. Their lot was twelve cities.

22 Then Joshua called the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, 2and said to them, "You have kept all that Moses the servant of YHWH commanded you, and have listened to my voice in all that I commanded you. 3You have not left your brothers these many days to this day, but have performed the duty of the commandment of YHWH your God. 4Now YHWH your God has given rest to your brothers, as he spoke to them. Therefore now return and go to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of YHWH gave you beyond the Jordan. 5Only take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of YHWH commanded you, to love YHWH your God, to walk in all his ways, to keep his commandments, to hold fast to him, and to serve him with all your heart[a] and with all your soul."

6So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away; and they went to their tents. 7Now to the one half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given inheritance in Bashan; but to the other half gave Joshua among their brothers beyond the Jordan westward. Moreover when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them, 8and spoke to them, saying, "Return with much wealth to your tents, with very much livestock, with silver, with gold, with bronze, with iron, and with very much clothing. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers."

9The people of Reuben and the people of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession, which they owned, according to the commandment of YHWH by Moses. 10When they came to the region about the Jordan, that is in the land of Canaan, the people of Reuben and the people of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by the Jordan, a great altar to look at. 11The children of Israel heard this, "Look, the people of Reuben and the people of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar in the forefront of the land of Canaan, in the region about the Jordan, on the side that pertains to the children of Israel." 12When the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up against them to war. 13The children of Israel sent to the people of Reuben, and to the people of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, 14and with him ten princes, one prince of a fathers' house for each of the tribes of Israel; and every one of them heads of ancestral houses among the thousands of Israel. 15They came to the people of Reuben, and to the people of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying, 16"Thus says the whole congregation of YHWH, 'What trespass is this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following YHWH, in that you have built you an altar, to rebel this day against YHWH? 17Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves to this day, although there came a plague on the congregation of YHWH, 18that you must turn away this day from following YHWH? It will be, seeing that you rebel today against YHWH, that tomorrow he will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel. 19However, if the land of your possession is unclean, then pass over to the land of the possession of YHWH, in which YHWH's tabernacle dwells, and take possession among us; but do not rebel against YHWH, nor rebel against us, in building an altar other than the altar of YHWH our God. 20Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the devoted thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? That man did not perish alone in his iniquity.'"

21Then the people of Reuben and the people of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered, and spoke to the heads of the thousands of Israel, 22"El, God, YHWH. El, God, YHWH. He knows; and Israel shall know. If it was in rebellion, or if in trespass against YHWH, do not save us this day, 23that we have built us an altar to turn away from following YHWH; or if to offer burnt offering or meal offering, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings, let YHWH himself require it. 24If we have not out of concern done this, and for a reason, saying, 'In time to come your descendants might speak to our descendants, saying, "What have you to do with YHWH, the God of Israel? 25For YHWH has made the Jordan a border between us and you, you people of Reuben and people of Gad. You have no portion in YHWH."' So your children might make our children cease from fearing YHWH. 26Therefore we said, 'Let's now prepare to build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice; 27but it will be a witness between us and you, and between our generations after us, that we may perform the service of YHWH before him with our burnt offerings, with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings;' that your descendants may not tell our descendants in time to come, 'You have no portion in YHWH.' 28Therefore we said, 'It shall be, when they tell us or our generations this in time to come, that we shall say, "Look the pattern of the altar of YHWH, which our fathers made, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice; but it is a witness between us and you."' 29Far be it from us that we should rebel against YHWH, and turn away this day from following YHWH, to build an altar for burnt offering, for meal offering, or for sacrifice, besides the altar of YHWH our God that is before his tabernacle."

30When Phinehas the priest, and the leaders of the congregation, even the heads of the thousands of Israel that were with him, heard the words that the people of Reuben and the people of Gad and the people of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them well. 31Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the people of Reuben, to the people of Gad, and to the people of Manasseh, "Today we know that YHWH is in the midst of us, because you have not committed this trespass against YHWH. Now you have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of YHWH." 32And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the leaders, returned from the people of Reuben, and from the people of Gad,[a] out of the land of Gilead, to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again. 33The thing pleased the children of Israel; and the children of Israel blessed God, and spoke no more of going up against them to war, to destroy the land in which the people of Reuben and the people of Gad[b] lived. 34The people of Reuben and the people of Gad[c] called the altar: "A witness between us that YHWH is God."

23 It happened after many days, when YHWH had given rest to Israel from their enemies all around, and Joshua was old and well advanced in years, 2that Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders and for their heads, and for their judges and for their officers, and said to them, "I am old and well advanced in years. 3You have seen all that YHWH your God has done to all these nations because of you; for it is YHWH your God who has fought for you.

4Look, I have allotted to you these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun. 5And YHWH your God will himself thrust them out from before you, and drive them out of your sight, and he will send wild animals against them until he utterly destroys them and their kings from before you;[d] and you will inherit their land, as YHWH your God spoke to you.

6Therefore be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that you not turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left; 7that you not come among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow down yourselves to them; [8]but hold fast to YHWH your God, as you have done to this day. [9]For YHWH has driven great and strong nations out from before you. But as for you, no man has stood before you to this day.

[10]One man of you shall chase a thousand; for YHWH your God is he who fights for you, as he spoke to you. [11]And be very watchful of yourselves to love YHWH your God. [12]Else if you do at all go back, and hold fast to the remnant of these nations, even these who remain among you, and make marriages with them, and go in to them, and they to you; [13]know for a certainty that YHWH your God will no longer drive these nations from out of your sight; but they shall be a snare and a trap to you, a scourge in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which YHWH your God has given you. [14]Look, today I am going the way of all the earth. You know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one thing has failed of all the good things which YHWH your God spoke concerning you. All have happened to you. Not one thing has failed of it. [15]It shall happen that as all the good things have come on you of which YHWH your God spoke to you, so YHWH will bring on you all the evil things, until he has destroyed you from off this good land which YHWH your God has given you, [16]when you disobey the covenant of YHWH your God, which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods, and bow down yourselves to them. Then the anger of YHWH will be kindled against you, and you will perish quickly from off the good land which he has given to you."

24 Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God. [2]Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, 'Your fathers lived of old time beyond the River, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nahor: and they served other gods. [3]I took your father Abraham from beyond the River, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his descendants, and gave him Isaac. [4]And I gave to Isaac Jacob and Esau. And I gave to Esau Mount Seir, to possess it. And Jacob and his children went down into Egypt, and became there a great and numerous and mighty nation, and the Egyptians afflicted them.[a] 5And I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did in its midst: and afterward I brought you out. 6I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and you came to the sea. The Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and with horsemen to the Red Sea. 7When they cried out to YHWH, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea on them, and covered them; and your eyes saw what I did in Egypt: and you lived in the wilderness many days. 8I brought you into the land of the Amorites, that lived beyond the Jordan: and they fought with you; and I gave them into your hand.

You possessed their land; and I destroyed them from before you.
9Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and fought against Israel. He sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you; 10but I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he blessed you still. So I delivered you out of his hand.
11You went over the Jordan, and came to Jericho. The men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Canaanite, the Hethite, the Girgashite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; and I delivered them into your hand. 12I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; not with your sword, nor with your bow. 13I gave you a land whereon you had not labored, and cities which you did not build, and you live in them.
You eat of vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.' 14Now therefore fear YHWH, and serve him in sincerity and in truth.
Put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve YHWH. 15If it seems evil to you to serve YHWH, choose this day whom you will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve YHWH."

16The people answered, "Far be it from us that we should forsake YHWH, to serve other gods; 17for it is YHWH our God who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way in which we went, and among all the peoples through the midst of whom we passed. 18YHWH drove out from before us all the peoples, even the Amorites who lived in the land. Therefore we also will serve YHWH; for he is our God."

19Joshua said to the people, "You can't serve YHWH; for he is a holy God.[a] He is a jealous God.[b] He will not forgive your disobedience nor your sins. 20If you forsake YHWH, and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you harm, and consume you, after he has done you good."

21The people said to Joshua,
"No; but we will serve YHWH." 22Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen you YHWH, to serve him."

They said, "We are witnesses."

23"Now therefore put away the foreign gods which are among you, and incline your heart to YHWH, the God of Israel."

24The people said to Joshua,
"We will serve YHWH our God, and we will listen to his voice."

25So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem. 26Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God; and he took a great stone, and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of YHWH.
27Joshua said to all the people, "Look, this stone shall be a witness against us; for it has heard all the words of YHWH which he spoke to us. It shall be therefore a witness against you, lest you deny your God." 28So Joshua sent the people away, every man to his inheritance.

29It happened after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of YHWH, died, being one hundred ten years old. 30They buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath Serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of the mountain of Gaash. 31Israel served YHWH all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, and had known all the work of YHWH, that he had worked for Israel. 32They buried the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, in Shechem, in the parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for a hundred kesitahs.[a] They became the inheritance of the people of Joseph. 33Eleazar the son of Aaron died. They buried him in the hill of Phinehas his son, which was given him in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges

1 It happened after the death of Joshua, the children of Israel asked of YHWH, saying, "Who should go up first to fight for us against the Canaanites?"

2YHWH said, "Judah should go up. Look, I have delivered the land into his hand." 3Judah said to Simeon his brother, "Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with you into your lot." So Simeon

[a]24:32 A unit of money of unknown value and or weight went with him. [4]Judah went up; and YHWH delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they struck of them in Bezek ten thousand men. [5]They found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek; and they fought against him, and they struck the Canaanites and the Perizzites. [6]But Adoni-Bezek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes. [7]Adoni-Bezek said, "Seventy kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, scavenged under my table: as I have done, so God has requited me." They brought him to Jerusalem,[a] and he died there. [8]The people of Judah fought against Jerusalem, and took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire. [9]Afterward the people of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who lived in the hill country, and in the Negev, and in the lowland. [10]And Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron, and Hebron came out in opposition[b] (now the name of Hebron before was Kiriath Arba), and they struck Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.[c]

[11]From there he went against the inhabitants of Debir. (Now the name of Debir before was Kiriath Sepher.) [12]Caleb said, "He who strikes Kiriath Sepher, and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter as wife." [13]Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife.

[14]It happened, when she came to him, that she got him to ask her father for a field. And she got off from her donkey,[d] and Caleb said to her, "What would you like?"

[15]She said to him, "Give me a blessing; since you have given me the land in the Negev, give me also springs of water." So Caleb gave her according to her heart[e] the upper springs and the lower springs. [16]And the descendants of[f] the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law,[g] went up out of the city of palm trees with the people of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which is in the Negev of Arad; and they went and lived with the people.[h] [17]Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they struck the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. The name of the city was called Hormah. [18]Also Judah took[a] Gaza with its territory, and Ashkelon with its territory, and Ekron with its territory, and Ashdod with its surrounding lands.[b] 19YHWH was with Judah; and drove out the inhabitants of the hill country; for he could[c] not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron. 20They gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had spoken. And from there he possessed the three cities,[d] and he drove out from there the three sons of Anak. 21The people of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem; but the Jebusites dwell with the people of Benjamin in Jerusalem[e] to this day.

22And the house of Joseph also went up against Bethel; and YHWH[f] was with them. 23And the house of Joseph[g] sent out spies to Bethel. (Now the name of the city before was Luz.) 24And the spies saw a man coming out of the city, and they captured him,[h] and they said to him, "Please show us the entrance into the city, and we will show you mercy." 25He showed them the entrance into the city; and they struck the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man go and all his family. 26The man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called its name Luz, which is its name to this day.

27Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shean and its towns, nor Taanach and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land. 28It happened, when Israel had grown strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and did not utterly drive them out. 29Ephraim didn't drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer; but the Canaanites lived in Gezer among them.[i] 30Zebulun didn't drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites lived among them, and became subject to forced labor. 31Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of Acco, nor the inhabitants of Sidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob; 32but the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out. 33Naphtali didn't drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth Anath; but he lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh and of Beth Anath became subject to forced labor. 34The Amorites forced the people of Dan into the hill country; for they would not allow them to come down to the valley; 35but the Amorites would dwell in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim: yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed,[a] so that they became subject to forced labor. 36The border of the Amorites[b] was from the ascent of Akrabbim, from Sela and upward.

2 The angel of YHWH came up from Gilgal to Bochim.[c] He said,[d] "I[e] made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you to the land which I swore to your fathers; and I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you: 2and you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land;[f] you shall break down their altars.' But you have not listened to my voice: why have you done this? 3Therefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you, but they will become your adversaries,[g] and their gods will be a snare to you."
4It happened, when the angel of YHWH spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept. 5They called the name of that place Bochim: and they sacrificed there to YHWH. 6Now when Joshua had sent the people away, the children of Israel[h] went every man to his inheritance to possess the land. 7The people served YHWH all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work of YHWH that he had worked for Israel. 8Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of YHWH, died, being one hundred ten years old. 9They buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Timnath Serah,[i] in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of the mountain of Gaash. 10And all that generation were also gathered to their fathers. And there arose another generation after them who did not know YHWH, nor the works which he had done for Israel.

11The children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, and served the Baals; 12and they forsook YHWH, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed themselves down to them: and they provoked YHWH to anger. 13They forsook YHWH,[a] and served Baal and the Ashtaroth.
14The anger of YHWH was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of marauders who plundered them; and he sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. 15Wherever they went out, the hand of YHWH was against them for harm, as YHWH had spoken, and as YHWH had sworn to them: and they were in great distress. 16YHWH raised up judges, who saved them out of the hand of those who plundered them.
17Yet they did not listen to their judges; for they played the prostitute after other gods, and bowed themselves down to them: they turned aside quickly out of the way in which their fathers walked, obeying the commandments[b] of YHWH; but they did not do so.
18When YHWH raised up judges for them, then YHWH was with the judge, and saved them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it grieved YHWH because of their groaning by reason of those who oppressed them and troubled them. 19But it happened, when the judge was dead, that they turned back, and dealt more corruptly than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down to them; they did not cease from their practices, and they did not turn aside[c] from their stubborn ways. 20The anger of YHWH was kindled against Israel; and he said, "Because this nation has transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not obeyed my voice; 21I will no longer drive out before them any of the nations that Joshua[d] left when he died; 22that by them I may test Israel, whether they will keep the way of YHWH to walk in it, as their fathers kept it, or not." 23So YHWH left those nations, without driving them out quickly; nor did he deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

3 Now these are the nations which YHWH left, to prove Israel by them, even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan; 2only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing of it: 3namely, the five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites who lived on Mount

Lebanon, from Mount Baal Hermon to Lebo Hamath. 4They were left, to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would listen to the commandments of YHWH, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses. 5The children of Israel lived among the Canaanites, the Hethites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites: 6and they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their own daughters to their sons and served their gods. 7The children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, and forgot YHWH their God, and served the Baals and the Asheroth. 8Therefore the anger of YHWH was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushan Rishathaim king of Aram Naharaim;[a] and the children of Israel served Cushan Rishathaim eight years. 9When the children of Israel cried to YHWH, YHWH raised up a savior to the people of[b] Israel, who saved them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother; and he obeyed him.[c] 10The Spirit of YHWH came on him, and he judged Israel; and he went out to war,[d] and YHWH delivered Cushan Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand: and his hand prevailed against Cushan Rishathaim. 11The land had rest forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died. 12The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH: and YHWH strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done that which was evil in the sight of YHWH. 13He gathered to him the people of Ammon and Amalek; and he went and struck Israel, and they possessed the city of palm trees. 14The children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years. 15But when the children of Israel cried to YHWH, YHWH raised them up a savior, Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a man left-handed. The children of Israel sent tribute by him to Eglon the king of Moab. 16Ehud made him a sword which had two edges, eighteen inches[e] in length; and he girded it under his clothing on his right thigh. 17He offered the tribute to Eglon king of Moab: now Eglon was a very fat man. 18When he had made an end of offering the tribute, he sent away the people who bore the tribute. 19But he himself turned back from the quarries that were by Gilgal, and[f] said, "I have a secret message for you, O king." The king[g] said, "Keep silence." All who stood by him went out from him.

[23]Then Ehud went forth into the porch,[f] and shut the doors of the upper room on him, and locked them.

[24]Now when he was gone out, his[g] servants came; and they saw, and look, the doors of the upper room were locked; and they said, "Surely he is covering his feet in the upper room." [25]They waited until they were ashamed; and look, he did not open the doors of the upper room: therefore they took the key, and opened them, and look, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth. [26]Ehud escaped while they waited[h], and passed beyond the quarries, and escaped to Seirah. [28]He said to them, "Follow after me; for YHWH[j] has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand." They went down after him, and took the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites, and did not allow a man to pass over. [29]They struck of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, every lusty man, and every man of valor; and there escaped not a man. [30]So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. was evil in the sight of YHWH, when Ehud was dead.[a] 2YHWH sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth Haggoyim.
3The children of Israel cried to YHWH: for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the people of[b] Israel. 4Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, she judged Israel at that time. 5She lived under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment. 6She[c] sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh Naphtali, and said to him, "Hasn't YHWH, the God of Israel, commanded, 'Go and draw to Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men of the people of Naphtali and of the people of Zebulun? 7I will draw to you, to the river Kishon, Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into your hand.'" 8Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go, for I do not know the day on which YHWH prospers his angel with me.[d]"

9She said, "I will surely go with you, but know[e] that the journey that you take will not be for your honor; for YHWH will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman." Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh. 10Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali together to Kedesh; and there went up ten thousand men at his feet: and Deborah went up with him. 11Now Heber the Kenite had separated himself from the Kenites, even from the descendants of Hobab the brother-in-law[f] of Moses, and had pitched his tent as far as the oak in Zaanannim, which is by Kedesh.
12And it was reported to Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor. 13Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth Haggoyim, to the river Kishon. 14Deborah said to Barak, "Arise, for this is the day in which YHWH has delivered Sisera into your hand. Hasn't YHWH gone out before you?" So Barak went down from Mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him. 15YHWH confused Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his army, with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera got off from his chariot, and fled away on his feet. 16But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the army, to Harosheth Haggoyim: and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; there was not a man left. 17However Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. 18Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, "Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; do not be afraid." He came in to her into the tent, and she covered him with a rug.

19He[a] said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink; for I am thirsty." She opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

20He[b] said to her, "Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man comes and inquires of you, and says, 'Is there any man here?' that you shall say, 'No.'"

21Then Jael Heber's wife took a tent peg, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him, and struck the pin into his temples, and it pierced through into the ground; for he was in a deep sleep; so he died. 22Look, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said to him, "Come, and I will show you the man whom you seek." He came to her; and look, Sisera lay dead, and the tent peg was in his temples. 23So[c] God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel. 24The hand of the children of Israel prevailed more and more against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.[d]

5 Then Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam sang on that day, saying,

2"Because the leaders took the lead in Israel, because the people offered themselves willingly, be blessed, YHWH.

3"Hear, you kings.
Give ear, you princes.
I, even I, will sing to YHWH.

4"YHWH, when you went forth out of Seir, when you marched out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, the sky also dropped.
Yes, the clouds dropped water.

6 And the children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, and YHWH delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years. 2 And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel; and because of Midian the children of Israel made for themselves the dens which are in the mountains, and the caves, and the strongholds. 3 And so it was, when[c] Israel had sown, that Midian, Amalek, and the Kedemites would come up against them. 4 And they camped against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, as far as Gaza, and they left no sustenance in[d] Israel, as well as sheep, or ox, or donkey. 5 For they came up with their livestock and their tents and their camels.[e] They would come in like locusts in number, and they[f] were innumerable. 7It happened, when the children of Israel cried to YHWH because of Midian, 8that YHWH sent a prophet to the children of Israel, and he said to them, "Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, 'I brought you up from the land of[a] Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage; 9and I delivered you out of the hand of the you their land; 10and I said to you,

"I am YHWH your God; you shall 11The angel of YHWH came, and sat under the oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained to Joash the Abiezrite:[b] and his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites.

12The angel of YHWH appeared to him, and said to him, "YHWH is with you, mighty warrior."

13Gideon said to him, "Oh, my lord, if YHWH[c] is with us, why then has all this happened to us?
Where are all his wondrous works which our fathers told us of, saying, 'Didn't YHWH bring us up from Egypt?' But now YHWH[d] has cast us off, and delivered us into the hand of Midian."

14And YHWH looked at him, and said, "Go in this strength of yours and save Israel from the hand of Midian. Look,[e] haven't I sent you?" 15He[f] said to him, "O Lord, how shall I save Israel? Look, my family is the poorest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's 16YHWH[g] said to him,

"Surely I[h] will be with you, and you show me a sign that it is you who talk with me. 18Please do not go away, until I come to you, and bring out my present, and lay it

He said, "I will wait until you come back."

19Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of meal: the meat he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out to him under the oak, and presented it.

[20]The angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened cakes, and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth."

And he did so. [21]Then the angel of YHWH put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there went up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and the angel of YHWH departed out of his sight.

[22]Gideon saw that he was the angel of YHWH; and Gideon said, "Alas, Lord YHWH. Because I have seen the angel of YHWH face to face."

[23]YHWH said to him, "Peace be to you. Do not be afraid. You shall not die."

[24]Then Gideon built an altar there to YHWH, and called it "YHWH is Peace."[a] To this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

[25]It happened the same night, that YHWH said to him, "Take your father's bull, even the second bull seven years old, and tear down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut down the Asherah that is beside it; [26]and build an altar to YHWH your God on the top of this stronghold, in the orderly manner, and take the second bull, and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah which you shall cut down."

[27]Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as YHWH had spoken to him: and it came about, because he feared his father's household and the men of the city, so that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

[28]When the men of the city arose early in the morning, look, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the Asherah was cut down that was by it, and the second bull was offered on the altar that was built.
[29]And they said to one another, "Who has done this thing?"

When they inquired and asked, they said, "Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing."

[30]Then the men of the city said to Joash, "Bring out your son, that he may die, because he has broken down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the Asherah that was by it." [31]Joash said to all who stood against him, "Will you contend for Baal? Or will you save him? He who will contend for him, let him be put to death while it is yet morning: if he is a god, let him contend for himself, because someone has broken down his altar." [32]Therefore on that day he named him Jerubbaal, saying, "Let Baal contend against him, because he has broken down his altar."

[a]6:24 Or, "YHWH Shalom"

33Then all Midian and Amalek and the Kedemites[a] assembled themselves together; and they crossed over,[b] and camped in the Valley of Jezreel. 34But the Spirit of YHWH came on Gideon; and he blew a trumpet; and Abiezer was gathered together after him. 35He sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; and they also were gathered together after him: and he sent messengers to Asher, and to Zebulun, and to Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

36Gideon said to God, "If you will save Israel by my hand, as you have spoken, 37look, I will put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then shall I know that you will save Israel by my hand, as you have spoken."

38It was so; for he rose up early on the next day, and pressed the fleece together, and wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.

39Gideon said to God, "Do not let your anger be kindled against me, and I will speak but this once.
Please let me make one more test with the fleece; let it now be dry only on the fleece, and on all the ground let there be dew."

40God did so that night, for it was dry on the fleece only, and there was dew all over the ground.

7 Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people who were with him, rose up early, and camped beside the spring of Harod. And the camp of Midian[c] was on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley. 2YHWH said to Gideon, "The people who are with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.' 3Now[d] therefore proclaim in the ears of the people, saying,
'Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return and depart from Mount Gilead.' There returned of the people twenty-two thousand; but ten thousand remained.

4YHWH said to Gideon, "The people are yet too many; bring them down to the water, and I will try them for you there: and it shall be, that of whom I tell you, This shall go with you, the same shall go with you; and of whoever I tell you, This shall not go with you, the same shall not go. 5So he brought down the people to the water. And YHWH said to Gideon, "Everyone who laps of the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall put to one on his knees to drink with hand to mouth[a] shall be on the other side.[b]" 6The number of those who lapped with their tongues[c] was three hundred men, but all the rest of the people got down on their knees to drink water. 7YHWH said to Gideon, "By the three hundred men who lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand; and let all the people go every man to his home."

8So the people took food in their hand, and their trumpets; and he sent all the men of Israel every man to his tent, but retained the three hundred men. And the camp of Midian was beneath him in the valley. 9It happened the same night, that YHWH said to him, "Arise, get down into the camp; for I have delivered it into your hand. 10But if you fear to go down, go with Purah your servant down to the camp: 11and you shall hear what they say; and afterward will your hands be strengthened to go down into the camp." Then he went down with Purah his servant to the outermost part of the armed men who were in the camp.

12And Midian, Amalek, and all the Kedemites lay along in the valley as numerous as locusts; and their camels were without number, as numerous as the sand which is on the seashore. 13When Gideon had come, look, there was a man telling a dream to his friend; and he said, "Look, I had a dream, and look, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian, and came to the tent, and struck it so that it fell, and turned it upside down, so that the tent collapsed."

14His friend answered, "This is nothing less than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel. Into his hand God[d] has delivered Midian, and all the army."

15It was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and its interpretation, that he worshiped, and he returned into the camp of Israel, and said, "Get up, for YHWH has delivered into your hand the army of Midian."

16He divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put into the hands of all of them trumpets, and empty pitchers, with torches within the pitchers.

17He said to them, "Look at me, and do likewise. And look, when I come to the outermost part of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so you shall do. 18When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then you blow the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say,
"For YHWH and for Gideon."

19So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outermost part of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch, when they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and broke in pieces the pitchers that were in their hands. 20The three companies blew the trumpets, and broke the pitchers, and held the torches in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands with which to blow; and they called out, "The sword of YHWH and of Gideon.'" 21They each stood in his place every man around the camp; and all the army ran; and they shouted, and put them to flight. 22They blew the three hundred trumpets, and YHWH set every man's sword against each other throughout the camp; and the army fled as far as Beth Shittah toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abel Meholah, by Tabbath. 23The men of Israel were gathered together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after Midian. 24Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, "Come down against Midian, and capture the waters, as far as Beth Barah, even the Jordan." So all the men of Ephraim were gathered together, and seized the waters as far as Beth Barah, even the Jordan. 25They took the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian. Then they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.

8 The men of Ephraim said to him, "Why have you done such a thing to us, not calling us when you went to fight with Midian?" And they argued with him fiercely. 2He said to them, "What have I now done in comparison with you? Isn't the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? 3God[a] has delivered into your hand the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and what was I able to do in comparison with you?"[b] Then their anger subsided toward him, when he had said that.

4Gideon came to the Jordan, and passed over, he, and the three hundred men who were with him, exhausted and famished.[c] 5He said to the men of Succoth, "Please give loaves of bread to the people who follow me; for they are exhausted, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.

"6The princes of Succoth said, "Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?"

[b]8:3 LXX(A) adds "And they desisted," possibly lost from homoioteleuton by sight confusion: z-w

7Gideon said, "Therefore when YHWH has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will thresh your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers."

8He went up there to Penuel, and spoke to them in like manner; and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered. 9He spoke also to the men of Penuel, saying, "When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower."

10Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of all the army of the Kedemites; for there fell one hundred twenty thousand men who drew sword. 11And Gideon went up by the way of those who dwell in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, opposite Zebah,[a] and struck the army, when the army was unsuspecting. 12Zebah and Zalmunna fled, and he pursued after them, and he took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and routed the entire army. 13Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle from the ascent of Heres. 14He caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him: and he described for him the officials of Succoth, and its elders, seventy-seven men. 15He[b] came to the men of Succoth, and said, "Look Zebah and Zalmunna, concerning whom you taunted me, saying, "Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your men who are weary?" 16He took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he threshed[c] the men of Succoth. 17He broke down the tower of Penuel, and killed the men of the city.

18Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, "What kind of men were they whom you killed at Tabor?"

They answered, "As you are, so were they; each one resembled the son of a king."

19He[d] said, "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As YHWH lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you."

20He said to Jether his firstborn, "Get up, and kill them." But the youth did not draw his sword; for he feared, because he was yet a youth.

21Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Rise up yourself, and kill us, for a man is judged by his strength." Gideon arose, and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescent ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

22Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, "Rule[a] over us, both you, and your son, and your son's son also; for you have saved us out of the hand of Midian."

23Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: YHWH shall rule over you." 24Gideon said to them, "I would make a request of you, that you would give me every man the earrings from his plunder." (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

25They answered, "We will willingly give them." They spread a garment, and every one of them threw an earring from his plunder. 26The weight of the golden earrings that he requested was one thousand and seven hundred pieces of gold,[b] besides the crescents, and the pendants, and the purple clothing that was on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were about their camels' necks. 27Gideon made an ephod of it, and put it in his city, even in Ophrah: and all Israel prostituted themselves after it there; and it became a snare to Gideon, and to his house. 28So Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, and did not become a threat again. The land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon. 29Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house. 30Gideon had seventy sons conceived from his body; for he had many wives. 31His secondary wife who was in Shechem, she also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech. 32Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. 33It happened, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and played the prostitute after the Baals, and made[c] Baal Berith their god. 34The children of Israel did not remember YHWH their God, who had delivered them out of the hand of all their enemies on every side; 35neither did they show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shown to Israel.

9 Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother's brothers, and spoke with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, 2"Please speak in the ears of all the lords of Shechem, 'Is it better for you that all the sons of Jerubbaal, who are seventy persons, rule over you, or that one rule over you?' Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh.'"

22Abimelech was prince over Israel three years. 23And God sent a spirit of hostility between Abimelech and the lords of Shechem; and the lords of Shechem dealt treacherously with[b] Abimelech: 24that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might come, and that their blood might be laid on Abimelech their brother, who killed them, and on the men of Shechem, who strengthened his hands to kill his brothers. 25And the lords of Shechem set an ambush for him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all who came along that way by them. And it was told to[c] Abimelech. 26And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brothers, and went over to Shechem; and the lords of Shechem put their trust in him. 27They went out into the field, and gathered their vineyards, and trod the grapes, and held festival, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech. 28Gaal the son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Isn't he the son of Jerubbaal, and Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem. But why should we serve him? 29Would that this people were under my hand. Then I would remove Abimelech. I would say[d] to Abimelech, "Increase your army, and come out."

30When Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was[e] kindled. 31He sent messengers to Abimelech in Arumah,[f] saying, "Look, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem; and look, they constrain the city to take part against you. 32Now therefore, rise up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field. 33And it shall be that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, you shall rise early, and rush on the city. against you, then do whatever you can to them."

34 Abimelech rose up, and all the people who were with him, by night, and they lay in wait against Shechem in four companies. 35 And it happened early in the morning[a] that Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city. And Abimelech rose up, and the people who were with him, from the ambush.

36 When Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, "Look, there are people coming down from the tops of the mountains."

Zebul said to him, "You see the shadow of the mountains as if they were men."

37 Gaal spoke again and said, "Look, there are people coming down by the central part of the land, and one company comes by the way of the Diviners' Oak.[b]"

38 Then Zebul said to him, "Where is now your mouth, that you said, 'Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?' Is not this the people that you have despised? Please go out now and fight with them."

39 And Gaal went out before the lords of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech. 40 Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and there fell many wounded, even to the entrance of the gate of the city.[c] 41 And Abimelech returned[d] to Arumah; and Zebul drove out Gaal and his brothers, so that they could not dwell in Shechem. 42 It happened on the next day, that the people went out into the field; and they[e] told Abimelech. 43 He took the people, and divided them into three companies, and waited in ambush in the field; and he looked, and look, the people came forth out of the city. He rose up against them, and struck them. 44 Abimelech, and the companies that were with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city: and the two companies rushed against all who were in the field, and struck them. 45 Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and killed the people who were in it. And he destroyed the city, and sowed it with salt.

46 And when all the lords of the Tower of Shechem heard of it, they entered into the stronghold of the house of El Berith. 47 And it was told Abimelech that all the lords of the Tower of Shechem were gathered together. 48 So Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people who were with him; and Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a branch from the trees, and took it up, and laid it on his shoulder. And he said to the people who were with him, "What you have seen me do, do quickly, and do as I have done." [49]All the people likewise cut down his branch and followed Abimelech, and put them on the stronghold, and set the stronghold on fire on them; so that all the men of the Tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women. [50]Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and camped against Thebez, and took it. [51]But there was a strong tower within the city, and all the men and women fled, and all the lords of the city, and shut themselves in, and got them up to the roof of the tower. [52]Abimelech came to the tower, and fought against it, and[a] drew near to the door of the tower to burn it with fire. [53]A certain woman threw down an upper millstone on Abimelech's head, and broke his skull.

[54]Then he called quickly to the young man his armor bearer, and said to him, "Draw your sword, and kill me, that men not say of me, 'A woman killed him.'" So the young man thrust him through, and he died.

[55]When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man to his place. [56]Thus God requited the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did to his father, in killing his seventy brothers; [57]and all the wickedness of the men of Shechem did God return on their heads, and on them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

10 After Abimelech there arose to save Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he lived in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim. [2]He judged Israel twenty-three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir. [3]After him arose Jair, the Gileadite; and he judged Israel twenty-two years. [4]He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys, and they had thirty towns,[b] which are called Havvoth Jair to this day, which are in the land of Gilead. [5]Jair died, and was buried in Kamon.

[6]The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, and served the Baals, and the Ashtaroth, and the gods of Aram, and the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the people of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; and they forsook YHWH, and did not serve him. [7]The anger of YHWH was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the people of Ammon. [8]And they shattered and oppressed the children of Israel that year. Eighteen years they oppressed all the children of Israel that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead. [9]The people of Ammon passed over the Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was very distressed. [10]The children of Israel cried to YHWH, saying, "We have sinned against you, even because we have forsaken our God, and have served the Baals."

[11]YHWH said to the children of Israel, "Did I not save you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the people of Ammon, and from the Philistines? [12]Also the Sidonians, and Amalek, and Midian[a] oppressed you; and you cried to me, and I saved you out of their hand. [13]Yet you have forsaken me, and served other gods. Therefore I will save you no more. [14]Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen; let them save you in the time of your distress."

[15]The children of Israel said to YHWH, "We have sinned. Do to us whatever seems good to you; only[b] deliver us, please, this day."

[16]They put away the foreign gods from among them, and served YHWH; and his soul was grieved with the misery of Israel.

[17]Then the people of Ammon were gathered together, and camped in Gilead. The children of Israel assembled themselves together, and camped at Mizpah. [18]And the people, the leaders of Gilead, said to each other, "What man is he who will begin to fight against the people of Ammon? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

11 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, and he was the son of a prostitute. And Gilead became the father of Jephthah. [2]Gilead's wife bore him sons; and when his wife's sons grew up, they drove out Jephthah, and said to him, "You shall not inherit in our father's house; for you are the son of another woman." [3]Then Jephthah fled from his brothers, and lived in the land of Tob: and there were gathered vain fellows to Jephthah, and they went out with him. [4]It happened after a while, that the people of Ammon made war against Israel. [5]It was so, that when the people of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah out of the land of Tob; [6]and they said to Jephthah, "Come and be our chief, that we may fight with the people of Ammon."

7And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me, and drive me out of my father's house, and sent me away from you?[a] And why have you come to me now when you are in distress?" 8The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "Not so.[b] We have turned to you now, that you may go with us, and fight with the people of Ammon; and you shall be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

9Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you bring me home again to fight with the people of Ammon, and YHWH delivers them before me, shall I be your head?"

10The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "YHWH shall be witness between us; surely according to your word so will we do."

11Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and chief over them. And Jephthah spoke all his words before YHWH in Mizpah. 12Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon, saying, "What have you to do with me, that you have come to me to fight against my land?" 13And the king of the people of Ammon answered the messengers of Jephthah, "Because Israel took away my land, when he came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok, and to the Jordan. Now therefore restore it peaceably, and I will depart.[c]" 14And the messengers returned to Jephthah,[d] and Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the people of Ammon; 15and he said to him, "Thus says Jephthah: 'Israel did not take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the people of Ammon, 16but when they came up from Egypt, and Israel went through the wilderness to the Red Sea and came to Kadesh; 17then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, 'Please let me pass through your land.' But the king of Edom did not listen. In the same way, he sent to the king of Moab; but he would not. So Israel stayed in Kadesh.

18Then they went through the wilderness, and went around the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and they camped on the other side of the Arnon; but they did not come within the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was the boundary of Moab. 19Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, “Please let me[a] pass through your land to our land.’ 20But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory; but Sihon gathered all his people together, and camped in Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

21YHWH, the God of Israel, delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them. So Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country. 22They possessed all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness even to the Jordan.

23So now YHWH, the God of Israel, has driven out the Amorites from before his people Israel, and should you possess them? 24Won’t you possess that which Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whoever YHWH our God has driven out from before us, we will possess. 25And now are you anything better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever contend against Israel, or did he ever fight against them? 26While Israel lived in Heshbon and its towns, and in Aroer and its towns, and in all the cities that are along by the side of the Arnon, three hundred years; why did you not liberate[b] them within that time?

27I therefore have not sinned against you, but you do me wrong by making war against me. YHWH, the Judge, be judge this day between the children of Israel and the people of Ammon.”

28However the king of the people of Ammon did not listen to the words of Jephthah which he sent him. 29Then the Spirit of YHWH came on Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over to the people of Ammon. 30Jephthah made a vow to YHWH, and said, “If you will indeed deliver the people of Ammon into my hand, 31then it shall be that whatever comes forth from the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the people of Ammon, it shall be YHWH’s, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering.”

32So Jephthah passed over to the people of Ammon to fight against them; and YHWH delivered them into his hand. 33He struck them from Aroer until you come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and to Abel Keramim, with a very great slaughter. So the people of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

become a stumbling block in my who trouble me. For I have given 36She said to him, "My father, since you have given your word to YHWH; do to me as you promised, because YHWH has taken

Ammon." 37She said to her father,
"Let this thing be done for me: leave me alone two months, that I may depart and go down on the mountains, and weep because of my virginity, I and my companions."

38He said, "Go." He sent her away for two months: and she departed, she and her companions, and wept because of her virginity on the mountains. 39It happened at the end of two months, that she returned to her father, who did with her according to what he had became a custom in Israel, 40that the daughters of Israel went yearly four days in a year to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

12 The men of Ephraim were gathered together, and passed northward; and they said to Jephthah, "Why did you pass over to fight against the people of Ammon, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house on you with fire."

2And Jephthah said to them, "I they seized him, and killed him at that time of Ephraim forty-two six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in his city in Gilead.[a] [8]After him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. [9]He had thirty sons; and thirty

Israel seven years. [10]Ibzan died, 13 The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH; and YHWH delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years. [2]There was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren, and did not bear. [3]The angel of YHWH appeared to the woman, and said to her, "See now, you are barren, and do not bear; but you shall conceive, and bear a son.

[4]Now therefore please be careful and drink no wine nor strong drink, and do not eat any unclean thing.
[5]For look, you shall conceive, and bear a son; and no razor will come on his head; for the child shall be a

And he shall begin to save Israel out of the hand of the Philistines."

[6]Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, "A man of God came to me, and his face was like the face of the angel of God, very awesome; and I didn't ask him where he was from, neither did he tell me his name, [7]but he said to me, 'Look, you shall conceive, and bear a son. And now drink no wine nor strong drink, and do not eat any unclean thing; for the child

[8]Then Manoah pleaded with YHWH, and said, "Oh, Lord, please let the man of God whom you did send come again to us, and teach[b] us what we shall do to the child who shall be born."

[a]12:7 LXX. MT reads "in one of the cities of Gilead."

9God listened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoah, her husband, wasn't with her. 10The woman ran quickly, and told her husband, and said to him, "Look, the man who came to me the other day has appeared to me."

11Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said to him, "Are you the man who spoke to the woman?" He said, "I am." 12Manoah said, "Now let your word[a] happen. How shall the child be raised and what is he to do?"

13The angel of YHWH said to Manoah, "Of all that I said to the woman let her be careful. 14She may not eat of anything that comes of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing. All that I have commanded her she is to observe."

15Manoah said to the angel of YHWH, "Please, stay a bit longer that we may prepare a young goat for you."

16The angel of YHWH said to Manoah, "Though you detain me, I won't eat of your bread. And if you prepare a burnt offering, you must offer it to YHWH." For Manoah did not know that he was the angel of YHWH.

17Manoah said to the angel of YHWH, "What is your name, that when your words come true we may honor you?"

18And the angel of YHWH said to him, "Why do you ask for my name? It is incomprehensible."

19So Manoah took the young goat and a grain offering, and offered it on the rock to YHWH, YHWH who works wonders.[b] And Manoah and his wife looked on.
20For it happened, when the flame went up toward the sky from off the altar, that the angel of YHWH ascended in the flame of the altar.
And Manoah and his wife looked on, and they fell on their faces to the ground. 21But the angel of YHWH did not appear again to Manoah or to his wife. Then Manoah knew that he was the angel of YHWH. 22Manoah said to his wife, "We shall surely die, because we have seen God."

23But his wife said to him, "If YHWH meant to kill us, he wouldn't have received a burnt offering and a grain offering from us, neither would he have shown us all these things, nor would he have spoken to us now like this." 24The woman bore a son, and named him Samson. And the child grew, and YHWH blessed him. 25And the Spirit of YHWH began to direct[c]

14 And Samson went down to Timnah, and saw a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines, and she was right in his eyes.[a]" [2]He came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, "I have seen a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines. Now therefore get her for me as wife."

[3]Then his father and his mother said to him, "Is there not a woman among the daughters of your brothers, or among all my[b] people, that you go to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" And Samson said to his father, "Get her for me, for she is right in my eyes." [4]But his father and his mother did not know that it was of YHWH, for he sought for an opportunity against the Philistines. Now at that time the Philistines had rule over[c] Israel. [5]Then Samson went down with his father and his mother to Timnah. And he turned aside[d] and went[e] into the vineyards of Timnah, and look, a young lion roared against him. [6]And the Spirit of YHWH rushed upon him, and he tore him as he would have torn a young goat. And he had nothing in his hand, but he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done. [7]He went down and talked with the woman, and she was right in Samson's eyes. [8]After a while he returned to take her; and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion, and look, there was a swarm of bees in the body of the lion, and honey. [9]He took it into his hands, and went on, eating as he went. And he came to his father and mother, and gave to them, and they ate. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey out of the body of the lion. [10]His father went down to the woman, and Samson made a feast there,[f] since young men used to do so. [11]It happened, when they saw[g] him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him. [12]Samson said to them, "Let me now put forth a riddle to you. "Out of the eater came forth food.
Out of the strong came forth sweetness."

They couldn't in three days declare the riddle. 15And it happened on the fourth[a] day, that they said to Samson's wife, "Entice your husband, that he may tell us the riddle, lest we burn you and your father's house with fire. Did you invite us here[b] to impoverish us?" 16Samson's wife wept before him, and said, "You just hate me, and do not love me. You have put forth a riddle to the children of my people, and haven't told it me."

And he said to her, "Look, I haven't told it to my father or my mother, and shall I tell you?"

17She wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it happened on the seventh day, that he told her, because she pressed him hard; and she told the riddle to the children of her people. 18The men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, "What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than a lion?"

He said to them,
"If you hadn't plowed with my heifer, you wouldn't have found out my riddle."

19The Spirit of YHWH rushed upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and struck thirty men of them, and took their belongings, and gave their garments to those who explained the riddle. His anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house. 20But Samson's wife was given to his companion, who had been his friend.

15 But after a while, in the time of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a young goat; and he said, "I will go in to my wife into the room."

But her father wouldn't allow him to go in. 2Her father said, "I most certainly thought that you had utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to your companion. Isn't her younger sister more beautiful than she is? Please take her, instead."

3Samson said to him,[c] "This time I will be blameless in regard of the Philistines, when I harm them." 4Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches, and turned tail to tail, and put a torch in the midst between every two tails. 5And when he had set fire to the torches, he let them go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards and[a] olive groves. 6Then the Philistines said, "Who has done this?" They said, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife, and given her to his companion." The Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father's house[b] with fire. 7Samson said to them, "Because you did this, I will surely take revenge on you, and after that I will cease." 8He struck them hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and he went down and lived in the cleft of the rock of Etam. 9Then the Philistines went up, and camped in Judah, and spread out in Lehi. 10The men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?" They said, "We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he has done to us."

11Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then is this that you have done to us?" He[c] said to them, "As they did to me, so have I done to them."

12They said to him, "We have come down to bind you, that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines."

Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you will not fall on me yourselves."

13They spoke to him, saying, "No; but we will bind you fast, and deliver you into their hand; but surely we will not kill you." They bound him with two new ropes, and brought him up from the rock.

14When he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted as they met him: and the Spirit of YHWH rushed upon him, and the ropes that were on his arms became like flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands dropped from off his hands. 15And he found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, and reached down and took it, and struck a thousand men with it. 16Samson said, "With the jawbone of a donkey, heaps on heaps; with the jawbone of a donkey I have struck a thousand men." 17It happened, when he had finished speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand; and that place was called Ramath Lehi. 18He was very thirsty, and called on YHWH, and said, "You have given this great deliverance by the hand of your servant; and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?"

19And God split the hollow place that is at Lehi, and water came out of it. When he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived: therefore its name was called En Hakkore,[a] which is in Lehi, to this day. 20He judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

16 Samson went to Gaza, and saw a prostitute there, and went in to her. 2And it was reported[b] to the Gazites, saying, "Samson is here." They surrounded him, and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city, and were quiet all night, saying, "Wait until morning light, then we will kill him." 3Now Samson rested until midnight, but got up at midnight and took hold of the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and pulled them up, bar and all, and put them on his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the mountain that is overlooking Hebron, and set them down there.[c] 4It came to pass afterward, that he fell in love with a woman in the Valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. 5The lords of the Philistines came up to her, and said to her, "Entice him, and see in which his great strength lies, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and we will each give you eleven hundred[d] pieces of silver."

6Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me where your great strength lies, and how you can be bound and subdued."

7Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven green cords that were never dried, then shall I become weak, and be as another man." 8Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green cords which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. 9Now she had an ambush waiting in the inner room. She said to him, "The Philistines are on you, Samson." He broke the cords, as a string of tow is broken when it touches the fire. So his strength was not known.

10Delilah said to Samson, "Look, you have mocked me, and told me lies: now please tell me with which you might be bound."

11He said to her, "If they only bind me with new ropes with which no work has been done, then shall I become weak, and be as another man."

12So Delilah took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said to him, "The Philistines are on you, Samson." The ambush was waiting in the inner room. He broke them off his arms like a thread.

13 Delilah said to Samson, "Until now, you have mocked me and told me lies. Tell me how you might be bound." He said to her, "If you weave the seven braids on my head with the fabric and fasten them with the pin, then I will be he slept, Delilah took the seven braids on his head and wove them with the fabric,[a] and she fastened it with the pin, and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson." And he awoke from his sleep, and pulled away the pin of the loom and the fabric. 15 She said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and have not told me where your great strength lies." 16 It happened, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, that his soul was troubled to death. 17 He told her all his heart, and said to her, "No razor has ever come on my head; for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If I am shaved, then my strength will go from me, and I will become weak, and be like any other man."

18 When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, "Come up this once, for he has told me[b] all his heart." Then the lords of the Philistines went[c] up to her, and brought the money in their hands.
19 She made him sleep on[d] her knees; and she called for a man, and shaved off the seven locks of his head; and he began to weaken,[e] and his strength went from him. 20 She said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson."

He awoke out of his sleep, and said, "I will go out as at other times, and shake myself free." But he didn't know that YHWH had departed from him. 21 The Philistines seized him, and gouged out his eyes. And they brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with bronze shackles, and he ground at the mill in the prison. 22 However the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaved. 23 The lords of the Philistines gathered them together to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon, and to celebrate; for they said, "Our god has delivered Samson our enemy into our hand." 24 When the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said, "Our god has delivered our enemy and the destroyer of our country, who has slain many of us,

25 And it happened, when their hearts were merry, that they said, "Call for Samson, that he may entertain us." So they called for Samson out of the prison; and he performed before them. And they were striking him.[a] And they set him between the pillars; [26]and Samson said to the boy who held him by the hand, "Allow me to feel the pillars on which the house rests, that I may lean on them." And the boy did so.[b]

[27]Now the house was full of men and women, and all the lords of the Philistines were there. And there were on the roof about three thousand men and women watching while Samson performed. [28]Samson called to YHWH, and said, "Lord YHWH, please remember me, and please strengthen me only this once, God,[c] that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes." [29]Samson took hold of the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and leaned on them, the one with his right hand, and the other with his left. [30]Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines." He bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell on the lords, and on all the people who were in it. So the dead that he killed at his death were more than those who he killed in his life. [31]Then his brothers and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the burial site of Manoah his father. He judged Israel twenty years.

[3]And he restored the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother; and his mother said, "I most certainly dedicate the silver to YHWH from my hand for my son, to make an engraved image and a molten image."

those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes. 7There was a young man out of Bethlehem Judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite; and he lived there. 8The man departed out of the city, out of Bethlehem Judah, to live where he could find a place, and he came to the hill country of Ephraim to the house of Micah, as he traveled. 9Micah said to him, "Where did you come from?"

He said to him, "I am a Levite of Bethlehem Judah, and I am going to settle wherever I may find a place." 10Micah said to him, "Dwell with me, and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten pieces of silver by the year, and a suit of clothing, and your food."[a] So the Levite went in. 11The Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was to him as one of his sons. 12Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah. 13Then Micah said, "Now I know that YHWH will do good to me, seeing I have a Levite as my priest."

18 In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was looking for an inheritance to dwell in; for to that day, their inheritance had not fallen to them among the tribes of Israel. 2The people of Dan sent of their family five men from their whole number, men of valor, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said to them, "Go, explore the land." They came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and stayed there. 3When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite; and they turned in that direction, and said to him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? And what is your business here?"

4He said to them, "Thus and so has Micah dealt with me, and he has hired me, and I have become his priest." 5They said to him, "Please ask counsel of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous."

6The priest said to them, "Go in peace. YHWH will watch over you on your journey."

7Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people who were there, and how they lived in security, after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and secure; for there was no one in the land possessing authority that might trouble them in anyway, and they were far from the Sidonians, and had no dealings with Aram.[b]

[11]Then the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men armed with weapons of war, set forth from there. [12]They went up, and camped in Kiriath Jearim, in Judah. Therefore they called that place Mahaneh Dan[b] to this day; look, it is behind Kiriath Jearim.

[13]They passed there to the hill country of Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah. They turned their faces, and said to Micah, "What's wrong with you, that you come with such a company?" 24He said, "You have taken away my gods which I made for myself,[c] and the priest, and have gone away, and what more do I have? How then do you say to me, 'What's wrong with you?'"

25The people of Dan said to him, "Do not let your voice be heard among us, or angry men will attack you, and you lose your life, with the lives of your household."

26The people of Dan went their way; and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house. 27They took that which Micah had made, and the priest whom he had, and came to Laish, to a people quiet and secure, and struck them with the edge of the sword; and they burnt the city with fire. 28There was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no dealings with anyone, and it was in the valley that lies by Beth Rehob. They built the city, and lived there. 29They called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their ancestor, who was born to Israel. However the name of the city was originally Laish. 30The people of Dan set up for themselves the engraved image. And Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Moses,[d] and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the exile from the land. 31So they set up for themselves Micah's engraved image which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

secondary wife was angry[a] with him and went away from him to her father's house in Bethlehem of Judah, and was there about four months. 3Her husband arose, and went after her, to speak kindly to her, to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of donkeys. And she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the young woman saw him, he rejoiced to meet him. 4His father-in-law, the young woman's father, welcomed him; and he stayed with him three days. So they ate and drank and stayed there.

5It happened on the fourth day, that they arose early in the morning, and he rose up to depart: and the young woman's father said to his son-in-law, "Refresh yourself with a piece of bread, and after that you may go." 6So they sat down, ate, and drank, both of them together. Then the young woman's father said to the man, "Please agree to stay the night, and enjoy yourself." 7The man rose up to depart; but his father-in-law urged him, and he stayed there again. 8He arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart; and the young woman's father said, "Please refresh yourself and stay until the day declines." And the two of them ate and drank.[b] 9When the man rose up with his secondary wife and his servant to leave, his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him, "Look, now the day draws toward evening, please stay the night. Look, the day grows to an end, stay here, and enjoy yourself; and tomorrow you can get up early for your journey so that you may go home." 10But the man wouldn't stay that night, but he rose up and departed, and went toward Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). And there were with him a couple of saddled donkeys, and his secondary wife and his servant[c] were with him.

11When they were by Jebus, the day was almost gone, and the servant said to his master, "Please come and let us stop at this city of the Jebusites, and spend the night in it."

12His master said to him, "We won't go into the city of a foreigner that is not of the children of Israel, but we will pass over to Gibeah." 13He said to his servant, "Come and let us try to reach one of those places and we will spend the night in Gibeah or Ramah." 14So they passed on and went their way; and the sun set on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin. 15They turned that way to go in to spend the night in Gibeah. And he went in and they sat down in the street of the city; for there was no one who would take them into their house to spend the night.

16Look, there came an old man from his work out in the field at evening. Now the man was of the hill country of Ephraim, and he was residing in Gibeah; but the men of the place were Benjamites. 17He lifted up his eyes, and saw the traveler in the street of the city. And the old man said, “Where are you going, and where did you come from?” 18He said to him, “We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah to the farther side of the hill country of Ephraim. I am from there, and I went to Bethlehem in Judah. And I am going to my home,[a] and there is no one who will take me into his home. 19Yet there is both straw and feed for our donkeys, and there is bread and wine also for me, and for your female servant, and for the young man who is with your servants. There is no lack of anything.”

20And the old man said, “Peace be to you. I will take care of all your needs; however, do not spend the night in the square.” 21So he brought him into his house, and fed the donkeys. And they washed their feet, and ate and drank. 22As they were enjoying themselves, look, the men of the city, some wicked men of the city surrounded the house, beating at the door. And they spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, “Bring out the man who came into your house, that we may have sex with him.”

23The man, the master of the house, went out to them, and said to them, “No, my brothers, please do not act so wickedly; since this man has come into my house. Do not do this disgraceful thing. 24Look, here is my virgin daughter and his secondary wife. I will bring them out now. Ravish them and do with them what seems good to you; but do not do any such a disgraceful thing to this man.”

25But the men wouldn’t listen to him: so the man laid hold of his secondary wife, and brought her out to them. And they raped her and abused her all night until the morning, and when the day began to dawn they let her go. 26Then at daybreak the woman arrived and fell down at the door of the man’s house where her lord was, until daylight. 27Her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way; and look, the woman his secondary wife was fallen down at the door of the house, with her hands on the threshold.

28And he said to her, "Get up, and let us go." But there was no answer, for she was dead.[b] So he placed her on the donkey, and the man rose up and went to his home.

29When he had come into his house, he took a knife, and took hold of his secondary wife and divided her, limb by limb, into twelve pieces, and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel. 30And it was so, that all who saw it said, "Nothing like this has been done or seen since the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt until this day." And he commanded the men whom he sent, saying, "This is what you will say to all the men of Israel, 'Has anything like this happened since the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt until this day?[a] Consider it, take counsel, and speak.'"

20 Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was assembled as one man, from Dan even to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, to YHWH at Mizpah. 2The leaders of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen who drew sword. 3(Now the people of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone up to[b] Mizpah.) The children of Israel said, "Tell us, how did this wickedness happen?"

4The Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, "I came into Gibeah that belongs to Benjamin, I and my secondary wife, to spend the night. 5And the leaders of Gibeah rose against me, and surrounded the house at night. They intended to kill me, and they raped my secondary wife,[c] and she is dead. 6I took my secondary wife, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the territory of the inheritance of Israel; for they have committed wickedness and disgrace in Israel. 7Look, you children of Israel, all of you, give your advice and counsel here."

8All the people arose as one man, saying, "None of us will go to his tent, neither will any of us return to his house. 9But now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah: we will go up[d] against it by lot; 10and we will take ten men of one hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and one hundred of one thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to get food for the people, those setting forth,[e] that Benjamin they may repay all the disgrace that they[a] have committed in Israel." [11]So all the men of Israel gathered against the city, united as one man.

[12]The tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What wickedness is this that has happened among you? [13]Now therefore deliver up the men, the wicked men who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel." But the sons[b] of Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brothers, the children of Israel.

[14]The people of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel. [15]The people of Benjamin were numbered on that day out of the cities twenty-six thousand men who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who were numbered seven hundred chosen men. [16]Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men left-handed; everyone could sling stones at a hair and not miss. [17]The men of Israel, besides Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men who drew sword: all these were men of war.

[18]The children of Israel[c] arose, and went up to Bethel, and asked counsel of God; and they said, "Who shall go up for us first to battle against the people of Benjamin?"

YHWH said, "Judah will go up[d] first." [19]The children of Israel rose up in the morning, and camped against Gibeah. [20]The men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel set the battle in array against them at Gibeah. [21]The people of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites on that day twenty-two thousand men. [22]The people, the men of Israel, encouraged themselves, and set the battle again in array in the place where they set themselves in array the first day. [23]The children of Israel went up and wept before YHWH until evening; and they asked of YHWH, saying, "Shall I again draw near to battle against the people of Benjamin my brother?"

YHWH said, "Go up against him."

[24]The children of Israel came near against the people of Benjamin the second day. [25]Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

[26]Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came to Bethel, and wept, and sat there before YHWH, and fasted that day until evening; and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before YHWH. [27]The children of Israel asked of YHWH (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, [28]and Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days), "Shall I yet again go out to battle against the people of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease?" YHWH said, "Go up; for tomorrow I will deliver him into your hand."

[29]Israel set ambushes all around Gibeah. [30]The children of Israel went up against the people of Benjamin on the third day, and set themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times. [31]The people of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to strike and kill some of the people, as at other times, on the highways, of which one goes up to Bethel, and the other to Gibeah, in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

[32]The people of Benjamin said, "They are defeated before us, as previously." But the children of Israel said, "Let us flee, and draw them away from the city to the highways." [33]All the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and set themselves in array at Baal Tamar. And the men of Israel in ambush rushed out of their place west[a] of Geba. [34]There came over against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was severe; but they didn't know that disaster was close upon them. [35]YHWH struck Benjamin before Israel; and the children of Israel destroyed of Benjamin that day twenty-five thousand one hundred men: all armed with swords. [36]So the people of Benjamin saw that they were defeated; for the men of Israel gave ground to Benjamin, because they trusted the ambushers whom they had set against Gibeah. [37]The ambushers hurried, and rushed on Gibeah; and the ambushers drew themselves along, and struck all the city with the edge of the sword. [38]Now the appointed sign between the men of Israel and the ambushers was that they should make a great cloud of smoke rise up out of the city. [39]The men of Israel turned in the battle, and Benjamin began to strike and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons; for they said, "Surely they are defeated before us, as in the first battle." [40]But when the cloud began to arise up out of the city in a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them; and look, the whole city went up in smoke into the sky. [41]The men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were terrified; for they saw that disaster had come on them. 42Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel to the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and those who came out of the cities destroyed them in its midst. 43They surrounded Benjamin, and they pursued them from Nohah[a] and overtook them near Gibeah toward the east. 44There fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valor.

45They turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon: and they killed on the highways five thousand men, and followed hard after them to Gidom, and struck down two thousand men. 46So that all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand swordsmen; all these were valiant fighters. 47But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and stayed in the rock of Rimmon four months. 48The men of Israel turned again on the people of Benjamin, and struck them with the edge of the sword, both the entire city, and the livestock, and all that they found: moreover all the cities which they found they set on fire.

21 Now the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpah, saying, "There shall not any of us give his daughter to Benjamin as wife." 2The people came to Bethel, and sat there until evening before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept severely. 3They said, "YHWH God of Israel, why has this happened in Israel, that there should be today one tribe lacking in Israel?"

4It happened on the next day that the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. 5The children of Israel said, "Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who did not come up in the assembly to YHWH?" For they had made a great oath concerning anyone who did not come up to YHWH to Mizpah, saying, "He shall surely be put to death." 6The children of Israel grieved for Benjamin their brother, and said, "There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day. 7How shall we do for wives for those who remain, seeing we have sworn by YHWH that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?" 8They said, "What one is there of the tribes of Israel who did not come up to YHWH to Mizpah?" Look, no one came to the camp from Jabesh Gilead to the assembly. 9For when the people were numbered, look, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead there. 10The congregation sent there twelve thousand men of the most valiant, and commanded them, saying, "Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the little ones.

[a]20:43 Or, "them at their resting place" or "them at Menuhah" 11This is the thing that you shall do: you shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman who has slept with a man, but the virgins you are to keep alive." And they did so.[a] 12They found among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead four hundred young virgins who had never slept with a man; and they brought them to the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13The whole congregation sent and spoke to the people of Benjamin who were in the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed peace to them.
14Benjamin returned at that time; and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh Gilead: and yet so they weren't enough for them.
15The people grieved for Benjamin, because YHWH had made a gap in the tribes of Israel. 16Then the elders of the congregation said, "How shall we provide wives for those who remain, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?" 17They said, "How will an inheritance remain[b] for the survivors of Benjamin, that a tribe not be blotted out from Israel.
18However we may not give them wives of our daughters, for the children of Israel had sworn, saying, 'Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin.'" 19They said, "Look, there is a feast of YHWH from year to year in Shiloh, which is on the north of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah." 20They commanded the people of Benjamin, saying, "Go and lie in wait in the vineyards, 21and watch.
If the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then come out of the vineyards, and each man catch his wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. 22It shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, that we will say to them, 'Grant them graciously to us, because we didn't take wives for each man in battle, neither did you give them to them, otherwise you would now be guilty.'"

23The people of Benjamin did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of those who danced, whom they carried off.
They went and returned to their inheritance, built the cities, and lived in them. 24The children of Israel departed there at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from there every man to his inheritance.
25In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

Ruth

1 It happened in the days when the judges judged, that there was a famine in the land. A certain man of Bethlehem Judah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons. 2The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Kilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem Judah. They came into the country of Moab, and continued there. 3Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left, and her two sons. 4And they took for themselves wives from the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they lived there about ten years. 5Mahlon and Kilion both died, and the woman was bereaved of her two children and of her husband. 6Then she arose with her daughters-in-law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that YHWH had visited his people in giving them bread. 7She went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah. 8Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each of you to her mother's house. May YHWH deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead, and with me. 9YHWH grant you that you may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband."

Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voice, and wept. 10They said to her, "No, but we will return with you to your people."

11Naomi said, "Go back, my daughters. Why do you want to go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? 12Go back, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, 'I have hope,' if I should even have a husband tonight, and should also bear sons; 13would you then wait until they were grown? Would you then refrain from having husbands? No, my daughters, for it grieves me much for your sakes, for the hand of YHWH has gone out against me."

14They lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law and returned to her people,[a] but Ruth clung to her. 15She said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people, and to her god. Follow your sister-in-law."

16Ruth said, "Do not urge me to leave you, and to return from following after you, for where you go, I will go; and where you stay, I

[a]1:14 LXX. MT lacks "and returned to her people," from haplography: h_w-h_w will stay; your people shall be my people, and your God my God; 17 where you die, will I die, and there will I be buried. YHWH do so to me, and more also, if anything but death part you and me."

18 When she saw that she was steadfastly minded to go with her, she left off speaking to her.

19 So they two went until they came to Bethlehem. It happened, when they had come to Bethlehem, that all the city was moved about them, and they asked, "Is this Naomi?"
20 She said to them, "Do not call me Naomi.[a] Call me Marah;[b] for Shaddai has dealt very bitterly with me. 21 I went out full, and YHWH has brought me home again empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since YHWH has testified against me, and Shaddai has afflicted me?" 22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her, who returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of barley harvest.

2 Naomi had a kinsman[c] of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech, and his name was Boaz. 2 Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, "Let me now go to the field, and glean among the ears of grain after him in whose sight I shall find favor."

She said to her, "Go, my daughter." 3 She went, and came and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and she happened to come to the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

4 Look, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, "YHWH be with you."

They answered him, "YHWH bless you."

5 Then Boaz said to his servant who was set over the reapers, "Whose young woman is this?"

6 The servant who was set over the reapers answered, "It is the Moabite woman who came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab. 7 She said, 'Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.' So she came, and has continued even from the morning until now, except that she stayed a little in the house."

8 Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen, my daughter. Do not go to glean in another field, and do not go from here, but stay here close to my maidens. 9 Let your eyes be on the field that they reap, and go after them. Haven't I commanded the young men not to touch you? When you are thirsty, go to the vessels, and drink from that which the young men have drawn."

[10]Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your sight, that you should take knowledge of me, since I am a foreigner?"

[11]Boaz answered her, "It has fully been shown to me, all that you have done to your mother-in-law since the death of your husband; and how you have left your father and your mother, and the land of your birth, and have come to a people that you didn't know before. [12]May YHWH repay your work, and a full reward be given you from YHWH, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge."

[13]Then she said, "Let me find favor in your sight, my lord, because you have comforted me, and because you have spoken kindly to your handmaid, though I am not as one of your handmaidens."

[14]At meal time Boaz said to her, "Come here, and eat of the bread, and dip your morsel in the vinegar."

She sat beside the reapers, and they reached her parched grain, and she ate, and was satisfied, and left some of it. [15]When she had risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, "Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not humiliate her. [16]Also pull out some for her from the bundles, and leave it, and let her glean, and do not rebuke her."

[17]So she gleaned in the field until evening; and she beat out that which she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah[a] of barley. [18]She took it up, and went into the city; and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought out and gave to her that which she had left after she was sufficed.

[19]Her mother-in-law said to her, "Where have you gleaned today? And where have you worked? Blessed be he who noticed you."

She showed her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, "The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz." [20]Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "Blessed be he of YHWH, who has not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead." Naomi said to her, "The man is a close relative to us, one of our near kinsmen."

[21]And Ruth the Moabitess said,[b] "He even said to me, 'You

[a]2:17 1 ephah is about 22 litres or about 2/3 of a bushel

[b]2:21 LXX reads "And Ruth said to her mother-in-law" shall stay close to my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.'"

22 Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his maidens, and that they not meet you in any other field." 23 So she stayed close to the maidens of Boaz, to glean to the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and she lived with her mother-in-law.

3 Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, shall I not seek rest for you, that it may be well with you? 2 Now isn't Boaz our kinsman, with whose maidens you were? Look, he winnows barley tonight at the threshing floor. 3 Therefore wash yourself, anoint yourself, and put on your clothes,[a] and go down to the threshing floor, but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. 4 It shall be, when he lies down, that you shall notice the place where he lies, and you shall go in, and uncover his feet, and lie down; then he will tell you what you shall do."

5 She said to her, "All that you say I will do." 6 She went down to the threshing floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law told her. 7 When Boaz had eaten and drank, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. She came quietly, uncovered his feet, and lay down. 8 It happened at midnight, that the man was startled and turned over; and look, a woman lay at his feet. 9 He said, "Who are you?"

She answered, "I am Ruth your handmaid. Therefore spread the corner of your garment over your handmaid; for you are a redeeming kinsman."

10 He said, "Blessed are you by YHWH, my daughter. You have shown more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as you didn't follow young men, whether poor or rich. 11 Now, my daughter, do not be afraid; I will do to you all that you say; for all the city of my people does know that you are a worthy woman. 12 Now it is true that I am a redeeming kinsman; however there is a redeemer closer than I am. 13 Stay this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform for you the part of a redeemer, well; let him do the redeemer's part. But if he will not do the part of a redeemer for you, then I will do the part of a redeemer for you, as YHWH lives. Lie down until the morning."

14 She lay at his feet until the morning. She rose up before one could discern another. For he said, "Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor." [15]He said, "Bring the cloak that is on you, and hold it." She held it; and he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her; and he went into the city.

[16]When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, "How did it go, my daughter?"

She told her all that the man had done to her. [17]She said, "He gave me these six measures of barley; for he said me,[a] 'Do not go empty-handed to your mother-in-law.'"

[18]Then she said, "Wait, my daughter, until you know how the matter will fall; for the man will not rest, until he has finished the thing this day."

4 Now Boaz went up to the gate, and sat down there. Look, the near kinsman of whom Boaz spoke came by; to whom he said, "Come over here, friend, and sit down." He turned aside, and sat down. [2]He took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, "Sit down here." They sat down. [3]He said to the near kinsman, "Naomi, who has come back out of the country of Moab, is selling the parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's. [4]I thought to disclose it to you, saying, 'Buy it before those who sit here, and before the elders of my people.' If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know. For there is no one to redeem it besides you; and I am after you." He said, "I will redeem it." [5]Then Boaz said, "On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi and from[b] Ruth the Moabitess, you must also aquire the widow of the deceased, to raise up the name of the deceased on his inheritance."

[6]The near kinsman said, "I can't redeem it for myself, lest I mar my own inheritance. Take my right of redemption for yourself; for I can't redeem it."

[7]Now this was the custom in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning exchanging, to confirm all things: a man took off his sandal, and gave it to his neighbor; and this was the way of attestation in Israel. [8]So the near kinsman said to Boaz, "Buy it for yourself." And he took off his sandal and gave it to him.[c]

[9]Boaz said to the elders, and to all the people, "You are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Kilion's and Mahlon's, from the hand of Naomi. [10]Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, Have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the deceased on his inheritance, that the name of the deceased may not be cut off from among his brothers, and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses this day."

[11]All the people who were in the gate, and the elders, said, "We are witnesses. May YHWH make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, which two built the house of Israel; and treat you worthily in Ephrathah, and be famous in Bethlehem. [12]Let your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of the offspring which YHWH shall give you of this young woman."

[13]So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife; and he went in to her, and YHWH gave her conception, and she bore a son. [14]The women said to Naomi, "Blessed be YHWH, who has not left you this day without a redeemer; and let his name be famous in Israel. [15]He shall be to you a restorer of life, and sustain you in your old age, for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him." [16]Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and looked after him. [17]The women, her neighbors, gave him a name, saying, "There is a son born to Naomi." And they named him Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

[18]Now these are the generations of Perez: Perez became the father of Hezron, [19]and Hezron became the father of Ram, and Ram became the father of Amminadab, [20]and Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon became the father of Salmon,[a] [21]and Salmon became the father of Boaz, and Boaz became the father of Obed, [22]and Obed became the father of Jesse, and Jesse became the father of David.

children, but Hannah had no children. 3This man went up out of his city from year to year to worship and to sacrifice to YHWH of hosts[a] in Shiloh. The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, priests of YHWH, were there. 4When the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions: 5but to Hannah he gave a double portion; for he loved Hannah, but YHWH had shut up her womb. 6Her rival taunted her severely, to irritate her, because YHWH had shut up her womb. 7As he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of YHWH, so she taunted her; therefore she wept, and did not eat. 8Elkanah her husband said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? Why is your heart grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons?"

9So Hannah rose after eating and drinking in Shiloh, and stood before YHWH.[b] Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat by the doorpost of the temple of YHWH. 10She was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to YHWH, and wept bitterly. 11She vowed a vow, and said, "YHWH of hosts, if you will indeed look on the affliction of your handmaid, and remember me, and not forget your handmaid, but will give to your handmaid a son, then I will set him before you as a Nazirite until the day of his death. And he will not drink wine or strong drink,[c] and no razor will come on his head."

12It happened, as she multiplied prayers before YHWH, that Eli saw her mouth. 13And[d] she was speaking in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard. Therefore Eli thought she was drunk. 14So Eli said to her, "How long will you make yourself drunk? Put away your wine from you."

15And Hannah answered, "No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I poured out my soul before YHWH. 16Do not count your handmaid as a worthless woman; for I have been speaking out of the abundance of my distress and my anguish."

17Then Eli answered, "Go in peace; and may the God of Israel grant your petition that you have asked of him."

18She said, "Let your handmaid find favor in your sight." So the woman went her way, and entered her quarters,[e] and ate;[f] and

21The man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer to YHWH the yearly sacrifice, and to redeem his vow and all the tithes of his land.[c] 22But Hannah did not go up; for she said to her husband, "Not until the child is weaned; then I will bring him, that he may appear before YHWH, and stay there forever."[d]

[11]Elkanah went to Ramah[c] to his house. The child served YHWH before Eli the priest.[d] [12]Now the sons of Eli were base men; they did not know YHWH. [13]The custom of the priests with the people was that when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came, while the flesh was boiling, with a fork of three teeth in his hand; [14]and he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fork brought up the priest took therewith. So they did in Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there. [15]Yes, before they burnt the fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man who sacrificed, "Give meat to roast for the priest; for he will not accept boiled meat from you, but raw."

But, they did not listen to the voice of their father, because YHWH intended to kill them. 26The child Samuel grew on, and increased in favor both with YHWH, and also with men.

3 The child Samuel ministered to YHWH before Eli. The word of YHWH was rare in those days; there was no frequent vision.
2It happened at that time, when Eli was lying down in his place (now his eyes had begun to grow dim, so that he could not see), 3and the lamp of God hadn't yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in YHWH's temple, where the ark of God was; 4that YHWH called,
"Samuel. Samuel."[e] And he said,
"Here I am." 5He ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am; for you called me." He said, "I did not call; lie down again." He went and lay down.

6YHWH called yet again,
"Samuel. Samuel." And he arose[f] and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am; for you called me." He answered, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." 7Now Samuel did not yet know YHWH, neither was the word of YHWH yet revealed to him. 8YHWH called Samuel again the third time. He arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am; for you called me."

Eli perceived that YHWH had called the child. 9Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he calls you, that you shall say, 'Speak, YHWH; for your servant hears.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place. [10]YHWH came, and stood, and called as at other times, "Samuel. Samuel."

Then Samuel said, "Speak; for your servant hears."

[11]YHWH said to Samuel, "Look, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of everyone who hears it shall tingle. [12]In that day I will perform against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from the beginning even to the end. [13]For I have told him that I will judge his house forever, for the iniquity which he knew, because his sons were cursing God,[a] and he did not restrain them. [14]Therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be removed with sacrifice nor offering forever."

[15]And Samuel lay there until the morning, and in the morning he got up[b] and opened the doors of the house of YHWH. And Samuel was afraid to tell Eli the vision. [16]Then Eli called Samuel, and said, "Samuel, my son."

He said, "Here I am."

[17]He said, "What is the thing that he has spoken to you? Please do not hide it from me. God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things that he spoke to you in your ears.[c]" [18]And Samuel told him everything, and did not hide anything from him. And he said, "It is YHWH. Let him do what seems good to him."

[19]Samuel grew, and YHWH was with him, and let none of his words fall to the ground. [20]All Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of YHWH. [21]YHWH appeared again in Shiloh; for YHWH revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of YHWH.[d]

4 And Samuel's words came to all Israel. And Eli grew very old, and his sons kept advancing in their wicked behavior before YHWH. And it came to pass in those days that the Philistines gathered themselves together against Israel.[e] And Israel went out to meet them[f] in battle, and camped beside Ebenezer, and the Philistines camped in Aphek. [2]The Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was struck before the Philistines; and they killed of the army in the field about four thousand men.

3When the people had come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has YHWH struck us today before the Philistines? Let us get the ark of the covenant of YHWH out of Shiloh to us, that it may come among us, and save us out of the hand of our enemies."

6When the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, "What does the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" They understood that the ark of YHWH had come into the camp. 7The Philistines were afraid, for they said, "Gods have come into the camp." They said, "Woe to us. For there has not been such a thing before. 8Woe to us. Who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods that struck the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the wilderness. 9Be strong, and behave like men, O you Philistines, that you not be servants to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Strengthen yourselves like men, and fight." 10So they[a] fought, and Israel was defeated, and they fled every man to his tent. And there was a very great slaughter, for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen. 11The ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain. 12There ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes torn, and with earth on his head. 13When he came, look, Eli was sitting on his seat by the side[b] of the gate[c] watching the road, for his heart trembled for the ark of God. When the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out. 14When Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, "What does the noise of this tumult mean?" The man hurried, and came and told Eli.

15Now Eli was ninety-eight years old; and his eyes were set, so that he could not see.[d] 16The man said to Eli, "I am he who came out of the army, and I fled today out of the army."

He said, "How did the matter go, my son?"

the Philistines, and there has been also a great slaughter among the people. Your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been captured."

[18]It happened, when he made mention of the ark of God, that Eli fell from off his seat backward by the side of the gate; and his neck broke, and he died; for he was an old man, and heavy. He had judged Israel forty years.

[19]His daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered. When she heard the news that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and gave birth; for her pains came on her. [20]About the time of her death the women who stood by her said to her, "Do not be afraid; for you have given birth to a son." But she did not answer, neither did she regard it. [21]She named the child Ichabod,[a] saying, "The glory has departed from Israel"; because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband. [22]She said, "The glory has departed from Israel; for the ark of God is taken."

5 Now the Philistines had taken the ark of God, and they brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. [2]The Philistines took the ark of God[b], and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. [3]And the Ashdodites rose early on the next day, and look, Dagon had fallen on his face[c] before the ark of YHWH. So they raised up[d] Dagon and set him in his place again. [4]And it happened[e] when they arose early the next morning, look, Dagon had fallen on his face[f] before the ark of YHWH; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off on the threshold. Only Dagon's torso[g] was intact. [5]Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any who come into Dagon's house, step on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, to this day.

[6]But the hand of YHWH was heavy on the Ashdodites, and he ravaged them and afflicted them with tumors, both Ashdod and its territory. And he brought up against them mice, and they burst out in their ships, and mice sprang up in the midst of their land, and there was a great terror of death in the city.[h]

7When the men of Ashdod saw what was happening, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel shall not stay with us; for his hand is severe on us, and on Dagon our god." 8So they sent and gathered all the lords of the Philistines to them, and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" Then the Gittites[a] answered, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried over to us.[b]" So they brought the ark of God[c] to Gath.[d]

9And it happened after they had brought it to Gath,[e] the hand of YHWH was against the city with a very great confusion: and he struck the men of the city, both small and great; and tumors broke out on them. 10So they sent the ark of God[f] to Ekron. It happened, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, "Why have you[g] brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us,[h] to kill us[i] and our[j] people?"

11And they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and they said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to its own place, so that it will not kill us and our people." For there was a very heavy terror of death[k] throughout all the city when the ark of God[l] arrived[m] there. 12The men who did not die were struck with the tumors; and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

6 The ark of YHWH was in the country of the Philistines seven months. 2The Philistines called for the priests, and for the diviners, and for the magicians,[n] saying, "What shall we do with the ark of YHWH?
Tell us how we should send it to its place."

3And they said, "If you are going to[o] send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty.
But return to him a reparation, then you shall be healed and he will be reconciled to you. Will not,[a] then, his hand be removed from you?" 4Then they said, "What shall be the trespass offering which we shall return to him?" They said, "Five golden tumors, and five golden mice,[b] for the number of the lords of the Philistines; for one plague was on you all,[c] and on your lords. 5Therefore you shall make images of your tumors, and images of your mice that ravage the land, and you shall give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land. 6Why then do you harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When he had worked wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed?

7"Now therefore take and prepare yourselves a new cart, and two milk cows, on which there has come no yoke; and tie the cows to the cart, and bring their calves home from them; 8and take the ark of YHWH, and lay it on the cart; and put the figures of gold, which you return him for a trespass offering, in a box by its side; and send it away, that it may go. 9And watch; if it goes up by the way of its own territory to Beth Shemesh, then he has done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that struck us; it was a chance that happened to us." 10The men did so, and took two milk cows, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home; 11and they put the ark of YHWH on the cart, and the box with the mice of gold and the images of their tumors. 12The cows took the straight way by the way to Beth Shemesh; they went along the highway, mooing as they went, and did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. And the lords of the Philistines followed them to the territory of Beth Shemesh. 13And those of Beth Shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley, and they lifted up their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it. 14The cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, and stood there, where there was a great stone. And they split the wood of the cart, and offered up the cows for a burnt offering to YHWH. 15The Levites took down the ark of YHWH, and the chest that was with it, in which the articles of gold were, and put them on the great stone. And the men of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day to YHWH. 16When the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day. 17These are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned for a trespass offering to YHWH: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Ashkelon one, for Gath one, for

Ekron one; [18]and the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fortified cities and of country villages, even to the great stone, whereon they set down the ark of YHWH`. That stone remains to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh. [19]But the sons of Jeconiah did not rejoice with the people of Beth Shemesh when they saw[a] the ark of YHWH. So he struck seventy men of them,[b] and the people mourned, because YHWH had struck the people with a great slaughter. [20]And the men of Beth Shemesh said, "Who is able to stand before this holy thing?[c] And to whom should he go up from us?"

[21]They sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath Jearim, saying, "The Philistines have brought back the ark of YHWH; come down, and bring it up to yourselves."

7 The men of Kiriath Jearim came and took up the ark of YHWH and brought it into the house of Abinadab, which was[d] on the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of YHWH. [2]It happened, from the day that the ark stayed in Kiriath Jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel lamented after YHWH. [3]Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, "If you do return to YHWH with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from among you, and direct your hearts to YHWH, and serve him only; and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines." [4]Then the children of Israel removed the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and served YHWH only. [5]Samuel said, "Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray for you to YHWH." [6]They gathered together to Mizpah, and drew water, and poured it out before YHWH, and fasted on that day, and said there, "We have sinned against YHWH." Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpah. [7]When the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. When the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines. [8]The children of Israel said to Samuel, "Do not cease to cry to YHWH your[e] God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines." [9]Samuel took a suckling lamb, and offered it for a whole burnt offering to YHWH: and Samuel cried to YHWH for Israel; and YHWH answered him. [10]As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel; but YHWH thundered with a great thunder on that day on the Philistines, and confused them; and they were struck down before Israel. 11The men of Israel went out of Mizpah, and pursued the Philistines, and struck them, as far as below Beth Kar.

12Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpah and Jashan,[a] and called its name Ebenezer,[b] saying, "YHWH helped us until now." 13So the Philistines were subdued,[c] and they came no more within the territory of Israel. The hand of YHWH was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath; and Israel recovered its territory out of the hand of the Philistines. There was peace between Israel and the Amorites. 15Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. 16He went from year to year in circuit to Bethel and Gilgal, and Mizpah; and he judged Israel in all those places. 17His return was to Ramah,[d] for there was his house; and there he judged Israel: and he built there an altar to YHWH.

8 It happened, when Samuel was old, that he made his sons judges over Israel. 2Now the name of his firstborn was Joel; and the name of his second, Abijah: they were judges in Beersheba. 3His sons did not walk in his ways, but turned aside toward dishonest gain, and took bribes, and perverted justice. 4Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel to Ramah; 5and they said to him, "Look, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the nations." 6But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, "Give us a king to judge us." Samuel prayed to YHWH.

7YHWH said to Samuel, "Listen to the voice of the people in all that they tell you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me, that I should not be king over them. 8According to all the works which they have done to me[e] since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even to this day, in that they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also to you. 9Now therefore listen to their voice: however you shall protest solemnly to them, and shall show them the way of the king who shall reign over them."

[10]Samuel told all the words of YHWH to the people who asked of him a king. [11]He said, "This will be the way of the king who shall reign over you: he will take your sons, and appoint them to him, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and they shall run before his chariots. [12]And he will appoint for himself commanders of thousands, and commanders of fifties; and he will assign some to plow his ground, and to reap his harvest, and gather his vintage,[a] and to make his implements of war, and the equipment of his chariots. [13]He will take your daughters to be perfumers, and to be cooks, and to be bakers. [14]He will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive groves, even their best, and give them to his servants. [15]He will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants. [16]He will take your male servants, and your female servants, and your best cattle[b], and your donkeys, and put them to his work. [17]He will take the tenth of your flocks: and you shall be his servants. [18]You shall cry out in that day because of your king whom you shall have chosen for yourselves, and YHWH will not answer you in that day[c].[d]"

[19]But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; and they said, "No; but we will have a king over us, [20]that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles."

[21]Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he repeated them in the hearing of YHWH. [22]YHWH said to Samuel, "Listen to their voice, and make them a king." Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Every man go to his city."

9 Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a Benjamite, a mighty man of valor. [2]He had a son, whose name was Saul, a handsome young man; and there was no one among the children of Israel more handsome than he was. From his shoulders and upward he was taller than any of the people.

[3]Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, "Take now one of the servants with you, and arise, go and look for the donkeys." So Saul got up and took one of the servants of his father with him and went to look for the donkeys of his

5When they had come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, and let us return, lest my father stop caring about the donkeys, and be anxious for us."

6He said to him, "See now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is a man who is held in honor. All that he says surely comes to pass. Now let us go there. Perhaps he can tell us concerning our journey on which we have set out."

7Then Saul said to his servant, "But look, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the bread is gone in our vessels, and there is no gift to bring to the man of God. What do we have?"

8The servant answered Saul again, and said, "Look, I have in my hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver. I will give that to the man of God, to tell us our way." 9(In earlier times in Israel, whenever someone went to inquire of God, he would say, "Come, and let us go to the seer"; for he who is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer.)

10Then Saul said to his servant, "Well said. Come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was. 11As they went up the ascent to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer here?"

12They answered them, and said, "He is. Look, he is ahead of you. Hurry now, for he has come today into the city; for the people have a sacrifice today in the high place. 13As soon as you have come into the city, you shall immediately find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat; for the people will not eat until he comes, because he blesses the sacrifice;[c] afterward those who are invited eat. Now therefore go up; for at this time you shall find him."

14They went up to the city. As they came within the city, look, Samuel came out toward them, to go up to the high place.

the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be prince over my people Israel; and he shall save my people out of the hand of the Philistines; for I have seen the suffering[a] of my people, because their cry has come to me."

17When Samuel saw Saul, YHWH said to him, "Look, the man of whom I spoke to you. This one shall have authority over my people."

18Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate,[b] and said, "Please tell me where the seer's house is."

19And Samuel answered Saul, and said, "I am he.[c] Go up before me to the high place, for you will eat with me today. In the morning I will let you go, and will tell you all that is in your heart. 20As for your donkeys who were lost three days ago, do not set your mind on them; for they have been found. And for whom does all Israel desire? Is it not for you, and for all your father's house?"

21Saul answered, "Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And my family the least of all the families of the tribe[d] of Benjamin? Why then do you speak to me like this?"

22Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the guest room, and made them sit in the best place among those who were invited, who were about thirty persons. 23And Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I told you to set aside." 24The cook picked up the leg, and that which was attached to it, and set it before Saul. And he said, "Look, here is what has been kept for you. Set it before you and eat, because it was kept especially for you until the right time; because I said, 'I have invited the people.'" So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

25When they had come down from the high place into the city, they prepared a bed[e] for Saul on the roof, 26and he slept.[f] And it happened about daybreak that Samuel called to Saul on[g] the roof, saying, "Get up, that I may send you away." So Saul arose, and they went out, both of them, he and Samuel, outside. 27As they were going down at the edge of the city, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant that he should pass on 10 Then Samuel took the vial of oil and poured it on his head, and kissed him, and said, "Has not YHWH anointed you to be ruler over his people Israel? And you shall rule over the people of YHWH, and you shall save them out of the hand of their enemies all around. And this shall be the sign to you[a] that YHWH has anointed you to be ruler over his inheritance. 2When you have departed from me today, then you shall find two men by Rachel's tomb, in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will tell you, 'The donkeys which you went to seek have been found; and look, your father has stopped caring about the donkeys, and is anxious for you, saying, "What shall I do for my son?"'

5"After that you shall come to Gibeath Elohim, where the Philistine garrison is. 8"You shall go down before me to Gilgal; and look, I will come down to you, to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings: you shall wait seven days, until I come to you, and show you what you shall do." 9It was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart: and all those signs happened that day. 10And he[c] went from there[d] to Gibeah,[e] and look, a band of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came mightily on him, and he prophesied among [12]One of the same place answered, "Who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb, "Is Saul also among the prophets?" [13]When he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

[14]Saul's uncle said to him and to his servant, "Where did you go?"

He said, "To seek the donkeys. When we saw that they were not found, we came to Samuel."

[15]Saul's uncle said, "Please tell me what Samuel said to you."

[16]Saul said to his uncle, "He told us plainly that the donkeys were found." But concerning the matter of the kingdom, of which Samuel spoke, he did not tell him.

[17]Samuel called the people together to YHWH to Mizpah; [18]and he said to the children of Israel, "Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, 'I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you:' [19]but you have this day rejected your God, who himself saves you out of all your calamities and your distresses; and you have said, 'No. Set a king over us.' Now therefore present yourselves before YHWH by your tribes, and by your thousands."

[20]So Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken. [21]He brought the tribe of Benjamin near by their families, and the family of the Matrites was taken. And he brought the family of the Matrites near man by man,[a] and Saul the son of Kish was taken. But when they looked for him, he could not be found. [22]Therefore they asked of YHWH further, "Is there a man yet to come here?" YHWH answered, "Look, he has hidden himself among the baggage."

[23]They ran and fetched him there; and when he stood among the people, he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward. [24]Samuel said to all the people, "You see him whom YHWH has chosen, that there is none like him among all the people?"

All the people shouted, and said, "Let the king live."

words of the men of Jabesh. 6The Spirit of God[a] came mightily on Saul when he heard those words, and his anger was kindled greatly. 7He took a yoke of oxen, and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the borders of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, "Whoever doesn't come forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen." The dread of YHWH fell on the people,[b] and they came out as one man. 8He numbered them in Bezek; and the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. 9And he[c] said to the messengers who came, "Thus you shall tell the men of Jabesh Gilead,[d] 'Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have deliverance.'" The messengers came and told the men of Jabesh; and they were glad.[e] 10Therefore the men of Jabesh said, "Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you shall do with us all that seems good to you." 11It was so on the next day, that Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and struck the Ammonites[f] until the heat of the day: and it happened, that those who remained were scattered, so that no two of them were left together. 12And the people said to Samuel, "Who is it that said Saul should not[g] reign over us? Bring those men so we may put them to death."

13Saul said, "There shall not a man be put to death this day; for today YHWH has worked deliverance in Israel." 14Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there." 15All the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul king before YHWH in Gilgal; and there they offered sacrifices of peace offerings before YHWH; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

12 Samuel said to all Israel, "Look, I have listened to your voice in all that you said to me, and have made a king over you. 2Now, look, the king walks before you; and I am old and gray-headed; and look, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my youth to this day. 3Here I am. three thousand men of Israel, of which two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the hill country of Bethel, and one thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. And the rest of the people he sent away, each to his own home. 3Jonathan struck the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba: and the Philistines heard of it. Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear." 4All Israel heard that Saul had struck the garrison of the Philistines, and also that Israel has become repulsive to the Philistines. Then the people were summoned to Saul at Gilgal. 5The Philistines assembled themselves together to fight with Israel, and brought up against Israel[a] three[b] thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the seashore in multitude: and they came up, and camped in Michmash, eastward of Beth Aven. 6When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were distressed), then the people hid themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in coverts, and in pits. 7Now some of the Hebrews had gone over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead; but as for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling. 8And he stayed seven days, according to the time that Samuel had said.[c] But Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and the people began to abandon him. 9Saul said, "Bring here the burnt offering to me, and the peace offerings." He offered the burnt offering.

10It came to pass that as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, look, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might greet him. 11Samuel said, "What have you done?"Saul said, "Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that you did not come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines assembled themselves together at Michmash; 12therefore I said, 'Now the Philistines will come down on me to Gilgal, and I haven't entreated the favor of YHWH.' that which YHWH commanded you."

15And Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal, and the rest of the people went up after Saul to meet him after the men of war, when they had come up from Gilgal[a] to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people who were present with him, about six hundred men. 16And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people who were present with them, stayed in Geba of Benjamin: but the Philistines camped in Michmash. 17The spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned to the way that leads to Ophrah, to the land of Shual; 18and another company turned the way to Beth Horon; and another company turned the way of the border that looks down on the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness. 19Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel; for the Philistines had said, "Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears." 20But all Israel would go down to the Philistines, each to sharpen his plowshare, mattock, axe, and sickle;[b] 21and the charge[c] was one payim[d] for the plowshares and for the mattocks, and three shekels[e] for picks and axes and to set the goads. 22So it came to pass in the day of battle,[f] that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan; but Saul and his son Jonathan had them. 23The garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

14 Now it fell on a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who bore his armor, "Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on the other side." But he did not tell his father. 2Saul stayed in the uttermost part of Gibeah[g] under the pomegranate tree which is in Migron: and the people who were with him were about six hundred men; 3and Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of YHWH in Shiloh, wearing an ephod. The people did not know that Jonathan was gone. 4Between the passes, by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines' garrison, there was a rocky crag on the one side, and a rocky crag on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. 5The one crag rose up on the north in front of Michmash, and the other on the south in front of Geba. 6Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armor, "Come, and let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised. It may be that YHWH will work for us; for there is no restraint on YHWH to save by many or by few." 7His armor bearer said to him, "Do all that your heart inclines toward.[a] Look, I am with you, my heart is as your heart."[b] 8Then Jonathan said, "Look, we will pass over to the men, and we will reveal ourselves to them. 9If they say thus to us, 'Wait until we come to you.' then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up to them. 10But if they say this, 'Come up to us.' then we will go up; for YHWH has delivered them into our hand. This shall be the sign to us."

11Both of them revealed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, "Look, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they had hidden themselves." 12The men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armor bearer, and said, "Come up to us, and we will show you something."

Jonathan said to his armor bearer, "Come up after me; for YHWH has delivered them into the hand of Israel." 13Jonathan climbed up on his hands and on his feet, and his armor bearer after him. And they fell before[c] Jonathan; and his armor bearer killed them after him. 14That first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armor bearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were half a furrow's length in an acre of land. 15And there was a terror in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. The garrison and even the raiders were terrified. And the earth quaked, and it became a terror of God.[d] 16And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin saw, and look, the multitude was scattering here[e] and there. 17Then Saul said to the people who were with him, 20Saul and all the people who were with him were gathered together, and came to the battle: and look, every man's sword was against his fellow: a very great confusion. 21Now the Hebrews who were with the Philistines as before, and who went up with them into the camp, they too turned[b] to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. 22Likewise all the men of Israel who had hidden themselves in the hill country of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed closely after them in the battle. 23So YHWH saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over by Beth Aven.[c] And all the people with Saul were about ten thousand men. And the battle extended itself into every city in the hill country of Ephraim.[d]

24And Saul committed a great blunder that day,[e] for he had placed the people under an oath, saying, "Cursed is the man who eats any food until it is evening, and I am avenged of my enemies." So none of the people tasted food.

25All the people came into the forest; and there was honey on the ground. 26When the people had come to the forest, look, a flow of honey, but no man would raise[f] his hand to his mouth; for the people feared the oath. 27But Jonathan did not hear when his father commanded the people with the oath, so he put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and dipped it in the honeycomb, and raised his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened. 28Then one of the people answered, and said, "Your father directly commanded the people with an oath, saying, 'Cursed is the man who eats food this day.'" The people were faint.

As YHWH lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he has worked with God this day." So the people rescued Jonathan, and he did not die.

46Then Saul went up from following the Philistines; and the Philistines went to their own place. 47Now when Saul had taken the kingdom over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the people of Ammon, and against Edom, and against Beth Rehob,[c] and against the king[d] of Zobah, and against the Philistines; and wherever he turned, he was victorious.[e] 48He did valiantly, and struck the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hand of its plunderers.[f] was the son of Abiel. 52There was severe war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any mighty man, or any valiant man, he took him to him.

15 Samuel said to Saul, "YHWH sent me to anoint you to be king over his people, over Israel. Now therefore listen to the voice of the words of YHWH. 2Thus says YHWH of hosts, 'I will punish[a] Amalek for what he did to Israel, how he set himself against him in the way, when he came up out of Egypt. 3Now go and strike Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and do not spare them; but kill both man and woman, infant and nursing baby, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.'" 4Saul summoned the people, and numbered them in Telaim,[b] two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah. 5Saul came to the city of Amalek, and lay in wait in the valley. 6Saul said to the Kenites, "Go, depart, go down from among the Amalekites, lest I sweep you away[c] with them; for you showed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt." So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

YHWH anointed you king over Israel; 18and YHWH sent you on a journey, and said to you,[e] 'Go, and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until you[f] have destroyed them.' 19Why then did you not obey the voice of YHWH, but took the spoils, and did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH?"

20Saul said to Samuel, "But I have obeyed the voice of YHWH,[g] and have gone the way which YHWH sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites. 21But the people took of the spoil, sheep and cattle, the chief of the devoted things, to sacrifice to YHWH your God in Gilgal."

Look, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat of rams. 23For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as idolatry and teraphim. Because you have rejected the word of YHWH, he has also rejected you from being king."

24Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of YHWH, and your words, because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice. 25Now therefore, please pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship YHWH."

[26]Samuel said to Saul, “I will not return with you; for you have rejected the word of YHWH, and YHWH has rejected you from being king over Israel.” [27]As Samuel turned about to go away, he grabbed the skirt of his robe, and it tore. [28]Samuel said to him, “YHWH has torn the kingdom of Israel from you this day, and has given it to a neighbor of yours who is better than you. [29]And also the Eternal One of Israel will not retract[a] or change his mind; for he is not a man that he should change his mind.”

[30]Then he said, “I have sinned: yet please honor me now before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and come back with me, that I may worship YHWH your God.”

[31]So Samuel went back with Saul; and he[b] worshiped YHWH. [32]Then Samuel said, “Bring here to me Agag the king of the Amalekites.” And Agag came to him trembling. And Agag said, “Surely death is bitter.”[c]

[33]Samuel said, “As your sword has made women childless, so your mother will be childless among women.” Samuel cut Agag in pieces before YHWH in Gilgal.

[34]Then Samuel went to Ramah;[d] and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul. [35]And Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death; for Samuel mourned for Saul. And YHWH grieved that he had made Saul king over Israel.

16 YHWH said to Samuel, “How long will you mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and go. I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite; for I have provided a king for myself among his sons.”

[2]Samuel said, “How can I go? If Saul hears it, he will kill me.”

YHWH said, “Take a heifer with you, and say, I have come to sacrifice to YHWH. [3]Call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do. You shall anoint to me him whom I name to you.”

[4]And Samuel did what YHWH said, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city came to meet him trembling. And they[e] said, “Is your visit peaceful,[f] seer[g]?”

5And he said, “Peaceful; I

Sanctify yourselves, and come with

Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice. 6It happened, when they had come, that he looked at

YHWH said to Samuel, “Do not

Jesse called Abinadab, and made

Samuel said to Jesse, “Send

17 Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle; and they were gathered together at Socoh, which belongs to Judah, and camped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephes Dammim. 2Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and camped in the Valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines. 3The Philistines stood on the mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them. 4There went out a champion out of the camp[b] of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six feet eight inches.[c] 5He had a helmet of bronze on his head, and he was clad with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze. 6And he had bronze shin guards on his legs, and a javelin of bronze between his shoulders. 7The staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and his shield bearer went before him. 8He stood and shouted to the armies of Israel, and said to them, "Why have you come out to set your battle in array? Am I not a Philistine, and you servants to Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. 9If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants; but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then you will be our servants, and serve us." 10The Philistine said, "I defy the armies of Israel this day. Give me a man, that we may fight together."

[11]When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid. [12]Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem in Judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons. And in the days of Saul the man was old and advanced in years.[a] [13]The three eldest sons of Jesse had gone after Saul to the battle. And the names of his[b] sons who went to the battle were Eliab, the firstborn, and Abinadab, the second, and Shimeah,[c] the third. [14]David was the youngest; and the three eldest followed Saul. [15]Now David went back and forth from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem. [16]The Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days. [17]Jesse said to David his son, "Now take for your brothers an ephah of this parched grain, and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly to the camp and give[d] them to your brothers; [18]and bring these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand, and see how your brothers are doing, and bring back news." [19]Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the Valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines. [20]David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the place of the wagons, as the army which was going forth to the fight shouted for the battle. [21]Israel and the Philistines put the battle in array, army against army. [22]David left his baggage in the hand of the keeper of the baggage, and ran to the army, and came and greeted his brothers. [23]As he talked with them, look, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the ranks of the Philistines, and spoke according to the same words: and David heard them. [24]All the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were terrified. [25]The men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who has come up? He has surely come up to defy Israel. It shall be, that the man who kills him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house exempt in Israel."

[26]David spoke to the men who stood by him, saying, "What shall be done to the man who kills this Philistine, and takes away the disgrace from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?"

[27]The people answered him in this way, saying, "So shall it be done to the man who kills him."

heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, "Why have you left those few sheep in the 29David said, "What have I 30He turned away from him toward another, and spoke like that again; and the people answered him again the same way. 31When the words were heard which David spoke, they rehearsed them before Saul; and he sent for him. 32David said to Saul, "Let not my lord's[a] heart fail 33Saul said to David, "You appearance. 43The Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with a stick and stones?" And David said, "No, worse than a dog."[a] And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. 44The Philistine said to David, "Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the sky, and to the animals of the field."[b]

45Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a javelin: but I come to you in the name of YHWH of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. 46Today, YHWH will deliver you into my hand; and I will strike you, and take your head from off you. And I will give your corpse and the corpses[c] of the Philistine army this very day to the birds of the air, and to the wild animals of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in[d] Israel, 47and that all this assembly may know that YHWH doesn't save with sword and spear: for the battle is YHWH's, and he will give you into our hand." 48It happened, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew near to meet David, that David hurried, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. 49David put his hand in his bag, took a stone, and slung it, and struck the Philistine in his forehead; and the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth. 50So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and struck the Philistine, and killed him; but there was no sword in the hand of David. 51Then David ran, and stood over the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of its sheath, and killed him, and cut off his head therewith. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled. 52The men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued them[e] as far as Gath,[f] and to the gates of Ekron.[g] The wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even to Gath, and to Ekron. 53The children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they plundered their camp. 54David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem;[h] but he put his armor in his tent. 55When Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I can't tell."

[56]The king said, "Inquire whose son the young man is."

[57]As David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand. [58]Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, you young man?"

David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

18 It happened, when he had made an end of speaking to Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. [2]Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house. [3]Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. [4]Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him, and gave it to David, and his clothing, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his sash. [5]Then Saul set him over the men of war, and David went out, succeeding wherever Saul sent him.[a] And it was good in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants. [6]It happened as they came, when David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tambourines, with joy, and with instruments of music. [7]The women sang one to another as they played, and said, "Saul has slain his thousands, David his ten thousands."

[8]Saul was very angry, and this saying displeased him; and he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands. What can he have more but the kingdom?" [9]Saul eyed David from that day and forward. [10]It happened on the next day, that an evil spirit from God came mightily on Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house. David played with his hand, as he did day by day. Saul had his spear in his hand; [11]and Saul threw the spear; for he said, "I will pin David even to the wall." David escaped from his presence twice. [12]Saul was afraid of David, because YHWH was with him, and had departed from Saul. [13]Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people.

14David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and YHWH was with him. 15When Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he stood in awe of him.
16But all Israel and Judah loved David; for he went out and came in before them. 17Saul said to David,
"Look, my elder daughter Merob,[a] I will give her to you as wife. Only be valiant for me, and fight YHWH's battles." For Saul said, "Do not let my hand be on him, but let the hand of the Philistines be on him." 18David said to Saul, "Who am I, and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?"

19But it happened at the time when Merob,[b] Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as wife. 20Mikal, Saul's daughter, loved David; and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. 21And Saul thought, "I will give her to him, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Therefore Saul said to David, "You shall this day be my son-in-law a second time." 22Then Saul commanded his servants, "Talk with David secretly, and say,
'Look, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you. So now therefore be the king's son-in-law.'"

23Saul's servants spoke those words in the ears of David. David said, "Does it seem to you a little thing to be the king's son-in-law, since I am a poor man, and insignificant?"

24The servants of Saul told him, saying, "David spoke like this."

25Saul said, "You shall tell David, 'The king desires no dowry except one hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies.'" Now Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. 26When his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law. The days were not expired; 27and David arose and went, he and his men, and killed of the Philistines one hundred[c] men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the king, that he might be the king's son-in-law. Then Saul gave him his daughter Mikal as wife.
28And Saul saw and knew that YHWH was with David, and that all Israel[d] loved him, 29then Saul was even more afraid of David. So Saul was David's enemy continually.
30Then the leaders of the Philistines went forth: and it happened, as often as they went forth, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was highly esteemed.

19 Saul spoke to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David. But Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted much in David. 2Jonathan told David, saying, "Saul my father seeks to kill you. Now therefore, please take care of yourself in the morning, and keep hidden in a secret place.[a] 3I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will talk with my father about you; and if I see anything, I will tell you."

4Jonathan spoke good of David to Saul his father, and said to him, "Do not let the king sin against his servant, against David; because he has not sinned against you, and because his works have been very good toward you; 5for he put his life in his hand, and struck the Philistine, and YHWH worked a great victory for all Israel. You saw it, and rejoiced. Why then will you sin against innocent blood, to kill David without a cause?"

6Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan: and Saul swore, "As YHWH lives, he shall not be put to death."

7Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all those things. Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as before. 8There was war again. David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and killed them with a great slaughter; and they fled before him.

9An evil spirit from God[b] was on Saul, as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand; and David was playing with his hand. 10Saul sought to pin David even to the wall with the spear; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he stuck the spear into the wall. David fled, and escaped that night. 11Saul sent messengers to David's house, to watch him, and to kill him in the morning. Mikal, David's wife, told him, saying, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed." 12So Mikal let David down through the window. He went, fled, and escaped. 13Mikal took the teraphim, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair at its head, and covered it with the clothes. 14When Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, "He is sick."

15Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him." 16When the messengers came in, look, the teraphim was in the bed, with the pillow of goats' hair at its head.

17Saul said to Mikal, "Why have you deceived me thus, and let my enemy go, so that he is escaped?"

Mikal answered Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go. Why should I kill you?'"

18 Now David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and lived in the dwellings.[a] 19 And it was told to Saul, saying, "Look, David is in the dwellings at Ramah."

20 And Saul sent messengers to capture David. But when they[b] saw a company[c] of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as head over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied. 21 When it was told to Saul, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied. 22 And Saul became very angry,[d] and he himself also went to Ramah, and came to the cistern of the threshing floor that is on the bare hill.[e] And he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?" And one said, "Look, they are in the dwellings[f] at Ramah."

23 So he went there to the dwellings at Ramah. Then the Spirit of God came on him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to the dwellings at Ramah. 24 He also stripped off his clothes, and he also prophesied before Samuel,[g] and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

20 Then David fled from the dwellings at Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my iniquity? What is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?"

2 He said to him, "Far from it; you shall not die. Look, my father does nothing either great or small, but that he discloses it to me; and why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so."

4Then Jonathan said to David, "Whatever your soul desires, I will even do it for you."

5So David said to Jonathan, "Look, tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king to eat. Instead, let me go so that I may hide myself in the field until evening.[b] 6If your father missed me at all, then say, 'David urgently requested of me that he might run to Bethlehem his city, for it is the yearly sacrifice there for all the family.' 7If he says, 'It is well;' your servant shall have peace: but if he be angry, then know that evil is determined by him. 8Therefore deal kindly with your servant; for you have brought your servant into a covenant of YHWH with you: but if there is iniquity in me, kill me yourself; for why should you bring me to your father?"

9Jonathan said, "Far be it from you; for if I should at all know that evil were determined by my father to come on you, then wouldn't I tell you that?"

11Jonathan said to David, "Come, and let us go out into the field." They both went out into the field. 12Jonathan said to David, "YHWH, the God of Israel, is witness.[c] When I have studied my father, about this time tomorrow, or the third day, look, if there is good toward David, shall I not then send to you, and disclose it to you? 13God[d] do so to Jonathan, and more also, should it please my father to do you evil, if I do not disclose it to you, and send you away, that you may go in peace. And may YHWH be with you, as he has been with my father. 14And if I am still alive, deal loyally with me.[e] But if I die, 15do not cut off your loyalty from my house forever. And[f] when YHWH cuts off the enemies of David, each one from the face of the earth, 16if[g] the name of Jonathan be cut off from[h] the house of David, then may YHWH require it at the hand of the enemies of David." 17And Jonathan swore to David[a] again, because he loved him, for he loved him as he loved his own soul. 18Then Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the new moon: and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty. 19On the third day you should go down quickly, and come to the place where you hid yourself when this started, and stay by that mound.[b] 20And as for me, on the third day I will shoot arrows to its side, as though I shot at a mark. 21Look, I will send the boy, saying, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I tell the boy, 'Look, the arrow[c] is on this side of you. Take it;' then come; for there is peace to you and no hurt, as YHWH lives. 22But if I say this to the boy, 'Look, the arrow[d] is beyond you;' then go your way; for YHWH has sent you away. 23Concerning the matter which you and I have spoken of, look, YHWH is a witness[e] between you and me forever."

24So David hid himself in the field. And when the new moon had come, the king sat at the table[f] to eat. 25The king sat on his seat, as at other times, even on the seat by the wall; and Jonathan sat opposite,[g] and Abner sat by Saul's side: but David's place was empty. 26Nevertheless Saul did not say anything that day: for he thought, "Something has happened to him. He is not clean. Surely he is not clean."

27It happened on the next day after the new moon, the second day, that David's place was empty. Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why hasn't the son of Jesse come to the table,[h] either yesterday or today?"

28Jonathan answered Saul, and said,[i] "David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem. 29He said, 'Please let me go, for our family has a sacrifice in the city. And as for me, my brothers[j] have ordered me to be there. Now, if I have found favor in your eyes, please let me go away and see my brothers.' Therefore he has not come to the king's table."

30Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said to him, "You son of a perverse rebellious woman,[k] do I not know that you are the companion[l] of the

32But Jonathan answered Saul,[b] "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?"

33Then Saul raised[c] his spear at him to strike him, and Jonathan realized that this evil[d] from his father to kill David was determined. 34So Jonathan sprang up[e] from the table in fierce anger, and ate no food the second day of the month; for he was grieved for David, because his father had dishonored him. 35It happened in the morning, that Jonathan went out him. 36He said to the[f] boy, "Run,

And as the boy ran, he shot an arrow, causing it to pass beyond, had come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the boy, and said, "Isn't the arrow beyond you?" 38Jonathan called after the youth,[h] "Go fast.

Hurry. Do not delay." Jonathan's boy gathered up the arrows, and came to his master. 39But the boy did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew the matter. 40Jonathan gave his weapons to his boy, and said to him, "Go, carry them to the city."

41As soon as the boy was gone, David arose from beside the mound,[i] and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times. They kissed one another, and wept one with another, and David wept the most. 42Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, because we have both sworn in the name of YHWH, saying, 'YHWH shall be[j] my descendants and your and departed; and Jonathan went 3Now, if[c] there are five loaves of bread under your control, give them into my hand, or whatever there is."

4And the priest answered David, and said, "There is no common bread in my control, but there is holy bread. If[d] the young men have kept themselves from women, they may eat of it."[e]

5And David answered the priest, and said to him, "Truly women have been kept from us as always when I set out. All[f] the young men are holy, even when it is an ordinary mission. So how much more today will their vessels be holy?" 6So the priest gave him what had been consecrated, for there was no bread there but the show bread, that had been removed[g] before YHWH, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

7Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before YHWH; and his name was Doeg the Edomite, the best of the herdsmen who belonged to Saul. 8David said to Ahimelech, "Isn't there here under your control spear or sword? For I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste."

9The priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, look, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind an ephod.[h] If you will take that, take it; for there is no other except that here."

David said, "There is none like that. Give it to me."

10David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath. 11The servants of Achish said to him, "Isn't this David the king of the land? Did they not sing one to another about him in dances, saying, 'Saul has slain his thousands, David his ten thousands?'" 12David laid up these words in his heart, and was very afraid of Achish the king of Gath. 13He changed his behavior before them, and pretended to be mad in Why then have you brought him to me? 15Do I lack madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?"

22 David therefore departed there, and escaped to the cave of Adullam. When his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down there to him. 2Everyone who was in distress, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented, gathered themselves to him; and he became captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men. 3David went there to Mizpeh of Moab, and he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and my mother stay[b] with you, until I know what God will do for me." 4He brought them before the king of Moab; and they lived with him all the while that David was in the stronghold. 5The prophet Gad said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold. Depart, and go into the land of Judah." Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hereth.[c] 6Saul heard that David had been discovered, and the men who were with him. Now Saul was in Gibeah, sitting under the tamarisk tree at the high place,[d] with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him.

7And he said to them,[e] "Hear now, you Benjamites. Will the son of Jesse give everyone of you fields and vineyards, will he make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, 8that all of you have conspired against me, and there is none who discloses to me when my son makes a covenant[f] with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you who is sorry for me, or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?"

9Then Doeg the Edomite, who stood by the servants of Saul, answered and said, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. 10He inquired of God[g] for him, gave him food, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

[11]Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests who were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king. [12]Saul said, "Hear now, you son of Ahitub."

He answered, "Here I am, my lord."

[13]Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread, and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?"

[14]Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, "Who among all your servants is so faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law, and a commander[a] over[b] your bodyguard, and honored in your house? [15]Have I today begun to inquire of God for him? Be it far from me. Do not let the king impute anything to his servant, nor to all the house of my father; for your servant knows nothing of all this, less or more."

[16]The king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you, and all your father's house." [17]The king said to the guard who stood about him, "Turn, and kill the priests of YHWH; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew that he fled, and did not disclose it to me." But the servants of the king wouldn't put forth their hand to fall on the priests of YHWH. [18]The king said to Doeg, "Turn and attack the priests."

Doeg the Edomite turned, and he attacked the priests, and he killed on that day eighty-five people who wore a linen ephod. [19]He struck Nob, the city of the priests, with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and nursing babies, and cattle and donkeys and sheep.[c] [20]One of the sons of Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after David. [21]Abiathar told David that Saul had slain YHWH's priests. [22]David said to Abiathar, "I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I am responsible[d] for all the lives of your father's house. [23]Stay with me, do not be afraid; for he who seeks my life seeks your life. For with me you shall be in safeguard."

2Therefore David inquired of YHWH, saying, "Shall I go and strike these Philistines?" YHWH said to David, "Go strike the Philistines, and save Keilah."

3David's men said to him, "Look, we are afraid here in Judah: how much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?"

4Then David inquired of YHWH yet again. YHWH answered him, and said, "Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into your hand."

7Now it was told Saul that David had come to Keilah. So Saul said, "God has sold[b] him into my hand, for he has shut himself in by entering into a town that has gates and bars." 8Then Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men. 9David knew that Saul was devising mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod[c] here." 10Then David said, "YHWH, God of Israel, your servant has surely heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake. 11And now, will[d] Saul come down, as your servant has heard? YHWH, God of Israel,[e] tell your servant." And YHWH said, "He will come down."

12Then David said, "Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul?"

YHWH said, "They will deliver you up."

13Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went wherever they could go. And Saul was told[f] that David had escaped Keilah; so he gave up the pursuit. 14David stayed in the wilderness in the strongholds, and remained in the hill country in the wilderness of Ziph. deliver him into his hand. 15Now David was afraid that Saul had come out to seek his life. And David was in the wilderness of Ziph at Horesh.

16Jonathan, Saul's son, set out and came to David at Horesh and encouraged him in YHWH.[a] 17He said to him, "Do not be afraid; for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you; and you shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next to you; and that also Saul my father knows." 18They both made a covenant before YHWH: and David stayed at Horesh, and Jonathan went to his house. 19Then the Ziphites came up to Saul to Gibeah, saying, "Doesn't David hide himself with us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hakilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon? 20Now therefore, O king, come down, according to all the desire of your soul to come down. It will be our responsibility to deliver him up into the king's hand."

21Saul said, "You are blessed by YHWH; for you have had compassion on me. 22Please go investigate[b] again, and look around and learn the place where his swift foot is,[c] for I am told that he is very clever. 23See therefore, and find out all the hiding places where he hides himself, and come back to me when you know for certain, and I will go with you. And it shall happen, if he is in the land, that I will search for him among all the thousands of Judah."

24They arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah on the south of Jeshimon. 25Saul and his men went to seek him. When David was told, he went down to the rock, and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. When Saul heard that, he pursued David in the wilderness of Maon. 26And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain. And David was hurrying to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men surrounded David and his men to take them. 27But a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Hurry and come; for the Philistines have made a raid on the land." 28So Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines. Therefore they called that place Rock of Divisions.29David went up from there, and lived in the strongholds of En Gedi.

24 It happened, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, "Look, David is in the wilderness of En Gedi." 2Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men on the rocks of the wild goats. [3]He came to the sheep pens by the way, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to relieve himself. Now David and his men were abiding in the innermost parts of the cave. [4]The men of David said to him, "Look, the day of which YHWH said to you, 'Look, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him as it shall seem good to you.'" Then David arose, and cut off an edge of Saul's robe secretly. [5]It happened afterward, that David's heart struck him, because he had cut off an edge of Saul's robe.[a] [6]He said to his men, "YHWH forbid that I should do this thing to my lord, YHWH's anointed, to put forth my hand against him, since he is YHWH's anointed." [7]So David restrained his men with these words and did not allow them to rise against Saul. And Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way. [8]Afterward David also arose and went out of the cave, and called after Saul, saying, "My lord the king."

When Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the earth, and showed respect. [9]David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to men's words, saying, 'Look, David seeks your harm?' [10]Look, this day your eyes have seen how that YHWH had delivered you today into my hand in the cave, but I refused[b] to kill you, and my eye[c] spared you; and I said, 'I will not put forth my hand against my lord; for he is YHWH's anointed.' [11]Moreover, my father, look, yes, see the skirt of your robe in my hand; for in that I cut off the skirt of your robe, and did not kill you, know and see that there is neither evil nor disobedience in my hand, and I have not sinned against you, though you hunt for my life to take it. [12]May YHWH judge between me and you, and may YHWH avenge me of you; but my hand shall not be on you. [13]As the proverb of the ancients says, 'Out of the wicked comes forth wickedness;' but my hand shall not be on you. [14]Against whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue? After a dead dog, or[d] one flea? [15]May YHWH therefore be judge and give sentence between me and you. May he see and plead my cause, and deliver me out of your hand."

[16]It came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" Saul lifted up his voice, and wept. [17]He said to David, "You are more righteous than I; for you have done good to me, whereas I have done evil to you. [18]You have declared this day how you have dealt well with me, in that[e] YHWH had delivered me up into your hand and you did not kill me. [19]For if a man Therefore may YHWH reward you good for that which you have done this day.[a] [20]Now, look, I know that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand. [21]Swear now therefore to me by YHWH, that you will not cut off my descendants after me, and that you will not destroy my name out of my father's house."

[22]David swore to Saul. Saul went home; but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

25 Samuel died; and all Israel gathered themselves together, and lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. David arose, and went down to the wilderness of Maon.[b] [2]There was a man in Maon, whose possessions were in Carmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. [3]Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail. And the woman was intelligent and beautiful, but the man was harsh and evil in his dealings; and the man[c] was a Calebite. [4]David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep. [5]David sent ten young men, and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name. [6]Thus you are to say to my brother,[d] 'Peace be to you, and peace be to your house, and peace be to all that you have. [7]And now, look,[e] I have heard that you have shearers. evil is determined against our master, and against all his house; for he is such a worthless fellow that one can't speak to him."

18Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves of bread, two bottles of wine, five sheep ready dressed, five measures of parched grain, one hundred clusters[c] of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on donkeys. 19She said to her young men, "Go on before me.
Look, I come after you." But she did not tell her husband, Nabal. 20It was so, as she rode on her donkey, and came down by the covert of the mountain, that look, David and his men came down toward her; and she met them.

21Now David had said,
"Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained to him. He has returned me evil for good. 22God do so to[d] David, and more also, if I leave of all that belongs to him by the morning light so much as one who urinates on a wall."

23When Abigail saw David, she hurried, and got off from her donkey, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground. 24She fell at his feet, and said, "On me, my lord, on me be the iniquity; and please let your handmaid speak in your ears. Hear the words of your handmaid.
25Please do not let my lord regard this worthless fellow, even Nabal; for as his name is, so is he. Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; but I, your handmaid, did not see the young men of my lord, whom you sent. [26]Now therefore, my lord, as YHWH lives, and as your soul lives, since YHWH has withheld you from blood guiltiness, and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now therefore let your enemies, and those who seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal. [27]Now this present which your servant has brought to my lord, let it be given to the young men who follow my lord. [28]Please forgive the trespass of your handmaid. For YHWH will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord fights the battles of YHWH; and evil shall not be found in you all your days. [29]Though men may rise up to pursue you, and to seek your soul, yet the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with YHWH your God. He will sling out the souls of your enemies, as from the hollow of a sling. [30]It shall come to pass, when YHWH has done to my lord according to all the good that he has spoken concerning you, and shall have appointed you prince over Israel, [31]that this shall be no grief to you, nor offense of heart to my lord, either that you have shed blood without cause, or that my lord has avenged himself. When YHWH has dealt well with my lord, then remember your handmaid."

[32]David said to Abigail, "Blessed is YHWH, the God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me. [33]Blessed is your discretion, and blessed are you, that have kept me this day from blood guiltiness, and from avenging myself with my own hand. [34]For indeed, as YHWH, the God of Israel, lives, who has withheld me from hurting you, unless you had hurried and come to meet me, surely there wouldn't have been left to Nabal by the morning light so much as one who urinates on a wall.[a]"

[35]So David received of her hand that which she had brought him: and he said to her, "Go up in peace to your house. Look, I have listened to your voice, and have granted your request."

[36]Abigail came to Nabal; and look, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk. Therefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light. [37]It happened in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, that his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him, and he became as a stone. [38]It happened about ten days after, that YHWH struck Nabal, so that he died. [39]When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed is YHWH, who has taken my side in the matter of Nabal's insult, and has kept back his servant from evil. YHWH has returned the evildoing of Nabal on his own head." David sent and spoke concerning Abigail, to take her to him as wife. [40]When the servants of David had come to Abigail to Carmel, they spoke to her, saying, "David has sent us to you, to take you to him as wife."

[41]She arose, and bowed herself with her face to the earth, and said, "Look, your handmaid is a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord." [42]Abigail hurried, and arose, and rode on a donkey, with five female servants of hers who followed her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife. [43]David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they both became his wives. [44]Now Saul had given Mikal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti the son of Laish, who was of Gallim.

26 The Ziphites came to Saul to Gibeah, saying, "Doesn't David hide himself in the hill of Hakilah, which is before Jeshimon?" [2]Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. [3]Saul camped in the hill of Hakilah, which is before Jeshimon, near the road. But David stayed in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness. [4]David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul had certainly come. [5]David arose, and came to the place where Saul had camped; and David saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his army: and Saul lay within the place of the wagons, and the people were camped around him. [6]Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hethite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp?" Abishai said, "I will go down with you." [7]So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, look, Saul lay sleeping within the place of the wagons, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the people lay around him.

[8]Then Abishai said to David, "God has delivered up your enemy into your hand this day. Now therefore please let me strike him with the spear to the earth at one stroke, and I will not strike him the second time."

[9]David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him; for who can put forth his hand against YHWH's anointed, and be guiltless?" [10]David said, "As YHWH lives, YHWH will strike him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall go down into battle and perish. [11]YHWH forbid that I should put forth my hand against YHWH's anointed; but now please take the spear that is at his head, and the jar of water, and let us go."

[12]So David took the spear and the jar of water from Saul's head; and they went away: and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither did any awake; for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from YHWH was fallen on them. 13Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of the mountain afar off; a great space being between them. 14And David called to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Do you not answer, Abner?" Then Abner answered, "Who are you that calls?" [a] 15David said to Abner, "Aren't you a man? Who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not kept watch over your lord, the king? For one of the people came in to destroy the king your lord. 16This thing isn't good that you have done. As YHWH lives, you are worthy to die, because you have not kept watch over your lord, YHWH's anointed. Now look, where is the king's spear, and where is[b] the jar of water that was by his head?"

17Saul knew David's voice, and said, "Is this your voice, my son David?"

David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king." 18He said, "Why does my lord pursue after his servant? For what have I done? Or what evil is in my hand? 19Now therefore, please let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If it is so that God[c] has stirred you up against me, let him accept an offering. But if it is from human beings, they are cursed before YHWH; for they have driven me out this day that I shouldn't cling to YHWH's inheritance, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.' 20Now therefore, do not let my blood fall to the earth away from the presence of YHWH; for the king of Israel has come out to seek a flea,[d] as when one hunts a partridge in the mountains."

21Then Saul said, "I have sinned. Return, my son David; for I will no more do you harm, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. Look, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly."

22And David answered and said, "Look, the king's spear.[e] Now let one of the young men come over and get it. 23YHWH will render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness; because YHWH delivered you into my hand today, and I wouldn't put forth my hand against YHWH's anointed. 24Look, as your life was respected this day in my eyes, so let my life be respected in the eyes of YHWH, and let him deliver me out of all oppression."

25Then Saul said to David, "You are blessed, my son David. You shall both do mightily, and shall surely prevail." So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

27 David said in his heart, "I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me except[a] that I escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul will despair of me, to seek me any more in all the borders of Israel. So shall I escape out of his hand." 2David arose, and passed over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Maoch, king of Gath. 3David lived with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelite, and Abigail the Carmelite, Nabal's wife. 4It was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more again for him. 5David said to Achish, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities in the country, that I may dwell there. For why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?" 6Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: why Ziklag pertains to the kings of Judah to this day. 7The number of the days that David lived in the country of the Philistines was a full year and four months. 8David and his men went up, and made a raid on the Geshurites, and the Girzites, and the Amalekites. And look, the land was inhabited[b] from Telam,[c] going in the direction of Shur, [d] as far as the land of Egypt.

9David struck the land, and saved neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the cattle, and the donkeys, and the camels, and the clothing; and he returned, and came to Achish.

10Achish said, "Against whom[e] have you made a raid today?" David would say, "Against the Negev of Judah," or "Against the Negev of the Jerahmeel,[f]" or "Against the Negev of the Kenizzites."[g] 11David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring them to Gath, saying, "Lest they should tell of us, saying, 'David has done this, and this has been his way all the time he has lived in the country of the Philistines.'" 12Achish believed David, saying, "He has made his people Israel utterly to abhor him.

28 It happened in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. Achish said to David, "Know assuredly that you are to go out with me to battle,[a] you and your men."

2David said to Achish, "Therefore you shall know what your servant will do." Achish said to David, "Therefore I will make you my bodyguard for ever."

3Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. Saul had removed the mediums, and spiritists, from the land. 4The Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and camped in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they camped in Gilboa.

5When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly. 6When Saul inquired of YHWH, YHWH did not answer him, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets. 7Then Saul said to his servants, "Find for me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her." His servants said to him, "Look, there is a woman who is a medium at Endor."

8Saul disguised himself, and put on other clothing, and went, he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night. And he said, "Divine a spirit for me, please, and bring up for me the one whom I name to you."

9The woman said to him, "Look, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and spiritists[b] out of the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to cause me to die?"

10Saul swore to her by YHWH, saying, "As YHWH lives, no punishment shall happen to you for this thing."

11Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up to you?"

He said, "Bring Samuel up for me."

12When the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice; and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, "Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul."

13The king said to her, "Do not be afraid. For what do you see?" The woman said to Saul, "I see a god coming up out of the earth."

14He said to her, “What does he look like?” She said, “An old[a] man comes up. He is covered with a robe.” Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground, and showed respect.

15Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me, to bring me up?” Saul answered, “I am very distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God has departed from me, and answers me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams. Therefore I have called you, that you may make known to me what I shall do.” 16Samuel said, “Why then do you ask of me, since YHWH has departed from you and is with your neighbor[b]? 17YHWH has done to you as he spoke by me. YHWH has torn the kingdom out of your hand, and given it to your neighbor, even to David. 18Because you did not obey the voice of YHWH, and did not execute his fierce wrath on Amalek, therefore YHWH has done this thing to you this day.
19Moreover YHWH will deliver Israel also with you into the hand of the Philistines; and tomorrow you and your sons with you will fall.[c] YHWH will deliver the army of Israel also into the hand of the Philistines.”

20Then Saul fell immediately his full length on the earth, and was terrified, because of the words of Samuel. There was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night. 21The woman came to Saul, and saw that he was very troubled, and said to him, “Look, your handmaid has listened to your voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have listened to your words which you spoke to me. 22Now therefore, please listen also to the voice of your handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength, when you go on your way.”

23But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, pressed him;[d] and he listened to their voice.
So he arose from the earth, and sat on the bed. 24The woman had a hurried and killed it; and she took flour, and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread of it. 25She brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they ate. Then they rose up, and went away that

2 The lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands; and David and his men passed on in the rear with Achish.

3 Then the leaders of the Philistines said, "What about these Hebrews?" And Achish said to the leaders of the Philistines, "Isn't this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or rather these years, and I have found no fault in him since he defected[a] to me[b] until this day?"

4 But the leaders of the Philistines were angry with him; and the leaders of the Philistines[c] said to him, "Make the man return, that he may go back to his place where you have appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become an adversary to us. For with what should this fellow reconcile himself to his lord? Should it not be with the heads of these men? 5 Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, 'Saul has slain his thousands, David his ten thousands?'"

6 Then Achish called David, and said to him, "As YHWH lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my sight; for I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me to this day. Nevertheless, the lords do not favor you. 7 Therefore now return, and go in peace, that you not displease the lords of the Philistines."

8 David said to Achish, "But what have I done? What have you found in your servant so long as I have been before you to this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

9 Achish answered David, "I know that you are good in my sight, as an angel of God. Nevertheless the leaders of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.' 10 Therefore now rise up early in the morning, you and the servants of your lord who have come with you, and go to the place which I allotted to you. As for evil remarks,[d] take none to heart; for you are good in my sight.[e] And as soon as you are up early in the morning, and have light, depart."

11 So David rose up early, he and his men, to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. The Philistines went up to Jezreel.

30 It happened, when David and his men had come to Ziklag on the third day, that Amalek[a] had made a raid on the Negev, and on Ziklag, and had struck Ziklag, and burned it with fire, 2and had taken captive the women and all[b] who were in it, both small and great. They did not kill any, but carried them off, and went their way. 3When David and his men came to the city, look, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captive. 4Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep. 5David's two wives were taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelite, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. 6David was greatly distressed; for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David strengthened himself in YHWH his God. 7David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Please bring me here the ephod." Abiathar brought the ephod to David. 8David inquired of YHWH, saying, "If I pursue after this troop, shall I overtake them?" He answered him, "Pursue; for you shall surely overtake them, and shall without fail recover all."

9So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the Wadi Besor, where those who were left behind stayed. 10But David pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred stayed behind,[c] who were so faint that they couldn't cross the Wadi Besor. 11They found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he ate; and they gave him water to drink.

12They gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins. When he had eaten, his spirit came again to him; for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights. 13David asked him, "To whom do you belong? Where are you from?" He said, "I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days ago I fell sick. 14We made a raid on[d] the Negev of the Kerethites, and on that which belongs to Judah, and on the Negev of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire."

15David said to him, "Will you bring me down to this troop?" He said, "Swear to me by God that you will neither kill me, nor deliver me up into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down to this troop." And he swore to him.[e]

31 Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa. 2The Philistines followed hard on Saul and on his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malkishua, the sons of Saul. 3The battle was fierce against Saul, and the archers[c] found him, and he was wounded by the archers. 4Then Saul said to his armor bearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and torture me." But his armor bearer would not; for he was terrified. Therefore Saul took his sword, and fell on it. 5When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword, and died with him. 6So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armor bearer, and all his men, that same day together. 7When the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those who were beyond the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their[d] cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them. 8It happened on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. 9They cut off his head, and stripped off his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to carry the news to[e] their idols, and to the people. 10They put his armor in the house of the Ashtaroth; and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth Shan. 11But when the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, 12all the valiant men arose and traveled all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth Shan, and brought them to Jabesh and burnt them there. 13They took their bones, and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

The Second Book of Samuel

1 It happened after the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had stayed two days in Ziklag; 2it happened on the third day, that look, a man came out of the camp from Saul, with his clothes torn and dirt on his head. And it came about when he came to David that he fell to the ground and paid homage. 3David said to him, "Where do you come from?"

He said to him, "I have escaped out of the camp of Israel." 4David said to him, "How did it go? Please tell me."

He answered, "The people have fled from the battle, and many of the people also have fallen and are dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also."

5David said to the young man who had told him this, "How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?"

6The young man who told him said, "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa and saw Saul leaning on his spear. And look, the chariots and the horsemen were closing in on him. 7When he turned around he saw me, and called to me. I answered, 'Here I am.' 8He said to me, 'Who are you?' I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.' 9He said to me, 'Please stand beside me, and kill me; for anguish has taken hold of me, yet[a] there is life in me still.' 10So I stood beside him, and killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after he had fallen. Then I took the crown that was on his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them here to my lord."

11Then David grabbed his clothes and tore them, and all the men with him did the same. 12They mourned, and wept, and fasted until evening, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of YHWH, and for the house of Israel; because they had fallen by the sword. 13David said to the young man who had told him, "Where are you from?"

He answered, "I am the son of a foreigner, an Amalekite."

14David said to him, "How is it that you were not afraid to put forth your hand to destroy YHWH's anointed?" 15David called one of the young men, and said, "Go near, and fall on him." He struck him, so that he died. 16David said to him, "Your blood is on your head, for your mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I have killed YHWH's anointed.'"

17And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son, 18and said it should be taught to the people of Judah.[a] Look, it is written in the book of Jashar.

19"Your glory, Israel, is slain on your high places.
How the mighty have fallen.
20Do not tell it in Gath.
Do not publish it in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,
lest the daughters of the uncircumcised celebrate.
21You mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew nor rain on you, nor fields of offerings.
For there the shield of the mighty was dishonored.
The shield of Saul, no longer anointed with oil.
22From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, Jonathan's bow did not retreat.
Saul's sword did not return empty.
23Saul and Jonathan, beloved and lovely,
not separated.
Lovely[b] in their life, and in their death
they were not separated.
They were swifter than eagles.
They were stronger than lions.
24You daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you luxuriously in scarlet,
who put ornaments of gold on your clothing.
25How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle.
Jonathan is slain on your high places.
26I grieve for you, my brother Jonathan.
You have been very pleasant to me.
Your love for me was a wonder,
more than the love of women.
27How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished."

2 It happened after this, that David inquired of YHWH, saying, "Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah?" YHWH said to him, "Go up." David said, "Where shall I go up?" He said, "To Hebron."

2So David went up there, and and there they anointed David king

[5]David sent messengers to the men because you have shown this kindness to your lord,[a] Saul, and have buried him. [6]Now may YHWH kindness, because you have done this thing. [7]Now therefore let your [8]Now Abner the son of Ner, followed David. [11]The time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and and the servants of Ishbaal[e] the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. [13]Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met them by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the Blades, which is in Gibeon. 17The battle was very severe that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated before the servants of David. 18The three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel. And Asahel was as quick on his feet as a wild gazelle.

19Asahel pursued after Abner, and as he went he did not turn to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner. 20Then Abner looked behind him, and said, "Is it you, Asahel?" He answered, "It is I."

21Abner said to him, "Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and grab one of the young men, and take his armor." But Asahel would not stop from pursuing him. 22Abner said again to Asahel, "Stop pursuing me. Why should I strike you to the ground?
How then should I hold up my face to Joab your brother?" 23But he refused to stop. Therefore Abner with the back end of the spear struck him in the body, so that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place. And it came about that all who came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died, stopped there. 24But Joab and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they had come to the hill of Ammah, that lies before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon. 25The sons of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and formed a single group, and stood on the top of a hill.
26Then Abner called to Joab, and said, "Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitterness in the latter end?
How long shall it be then, before you ask the people to stop pursuing their brothers?"

27Joab said, "As YHWH[a] lives, if you had not spoken, surely the people would not have given up the pursuit of their brothers until the morning." 28So Joab blew the trumpet; and all the people stopped, and no longer chased after Israel, and they no longer fought. 29Abner and his men went all that night through the Arabah; and they passed over the Jordan, and marched the whole morning, and came to Mahanaim. 30Joab returned from pursuing Abner. And when he had gathered all the people together, there were missing from David's servants nineteen men and Asahel. 31But the servants of David had struck of the people of[b] Benjamin, from[c] the men of Abner, three hundred and sixty men who died. 32They took up Asahel, and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was in Bethlehem. Joab and his men went all night, and the day broke on them at Hebron.

Saul grew weaker and weaker.
2Now sons were born to David in Hebron. And his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam of Jezreel; 3and his second, Daluiah,[a] of Abigail[b] the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom[c] the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; 4and the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah, of Abital; 5and the sixth, Ithream, of Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron. 6And it came about while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner was gaining power in the house of Saul. 7Now Saul had a secondary wife, named[d] Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And Ishbaal[e] son of Saul[f] said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's secondary wife?" 8Then Abner was very angry over the words of Ishbaal, and said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah[g]? Until today, is it for myself that I have been doing all these things, showing[h] loyalty to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not

David? And yet you charge me this day with a fault concerning[i] this more also, if, as YHWH has sworn to David, I do not do even so to him;[j] 10to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beersheba."

11And Ishbaal could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him. 12Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf,[k] saying, "Whose is the land?" and saying, "Make your alliance with me, and look, my hand shall be with you, to bring all Israel around to you."

13He said, "Good. I will make a covenant with you, but one thing I require of you. That is, you shall not see my face unless you first bring Mikal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face."

14David sent messengers to Ishbaal, Saul's son, saying, "Give

[16]Her husband went with her, weeping as he went, and followed her to Bahurim.[b] Then Abner said to him, "Go. Return." So he returned. [17]Abner advised the elders of Israel, saying, "For some time you have wanted David to be king over you. [18]Now then do it, for YHWH has spoken of David, saying, 'By the hand of my servant David, I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.'"[c]

[19]And Abner also spoke privately to the sons[d] of Benjamin. And Abner also spoke privately to David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and to the whole house of Benjamin. [20]So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. David made Abner and the men who were with him a feast. [21]Abner said to David, "I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your soul desires." David sent Abner away, and he left in peace.

[22]Look, the servants of David and Joab were returning[e] from a raid, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he left in peace. [23]When Joab and all the army who was with him had come, they told Joab, saying, "Abner the son of Ner came to David,[f] and he has sent him away, and he left in peace." [24]Then Joab came to the king, and said, "What have you done? Look, Abner came to you. Why is it that you have sent him away? Now he has gone. [25]You know the evil ways[g] of Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you do."

[26]When Joab had left David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah; but David did not know it. [27]When Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the midst of the gate to speak with him quietly, and struck him there in[h] the abdomen, so that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.[i] [28]Afterward, when David heard it, he said, "I and my kingdom are

Let there not fail from the house of Joab one who has an issue, or who is a leper, or who leans on a staff, or who falls by the sword, or who lacks bread."

[30]So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle. [31]David said to Joab, and to all the people who were with him, "Tear your clothes, and clothe yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner." And King David followed the coffin. [32]They buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept. [33]The king lamented for Abner, and said, "Should Abner die as a fool dies? [34]Your hands were not bound in chains,[d] your feet were not put into fetters. As a man falls before the ruthless, so you fell." All the people wept again over him.

[35]Then all the people came to persuade David to eat bread while it was yet day; but David swore, saying, "God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or anything else, until the sun goes down." [36]All the people took notice of it, and it pleased them; as whatever the king did pleased all the people. [37]So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to kill Abner the son of Ner. [38]The king said to his servants, "Do you not realize that a leader and a great man has fallen this day in Israel? [39]I am this day weak, though anointed king. And these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too brutal for me. May YHWH reward the evildoer according to his wickedness." 4 Now when Ishbaal,[e] Saul's son, heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, he lost courage,[f] and all Israel was troubled. [2]And Ishbaal,[g] Saul's son,[h] had two men who were captains of bands; the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the people of Benjamin (for Beeroth was regarded as belonging to the people of Benjamin; [3]and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and have lived as foreigners there until this day).

[4]Now Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son whose feet were crippled.

He was five years old when the news came of Saul and Jonathan from Jezreel, and his nurse took him up and fled. And it happened as she was hurrying to get away that he fell and was injured. And his name was Mippibaal.[a]

[5]The sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ishbaal, as he took his rest at noon. [6]And look,[b] the doorkeeper of the house had been sifting wheat, and she became drowsy and fell asleep.[c] And Rechab and his brother Baanah slipped by. [7]And they went into the house where he was lying on his bed in his bedchamber. And they struck him and killed him, and beheaded him. And they took his head and went by the way of the Arabah all night. [8]They brought the head of Ishbaal to David at Hebron, and said to the king, "Look, the head of Ishbaal, the son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life. YHWH has avenged my lord the king this day of Saul and his descendants."

[9]David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, "As YHWH lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity, [10]when someone told me, 'Look, Saul is dead,' thinking to have brought good news, I took hold of him, and killed him in Ziklag, which was the reward I gave him for his news. [11]How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house on his bed, shall I not now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth?" [12]David commanded his young men, and they killed them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up beside the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbaal, and buried it in the grave of Abner in Hebron.

5 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron,[d] saying, "Look, we are your bone and your flesh. [2]In times past, when Saul was king over us, it was you who led out and brought in Israel. garrison in Edom,[a] and all the Edomites became servants to David. YHWH gave victory to David wherever he went. 15David reigned over all Israel; and David executed justice and righteousness to all his people. 16Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; 17and Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, were priests; and Shisha[b] was scribe; 18and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers.

9 David said, "Is there yet any who is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?" 2There was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba, and they called him to David; and the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?"

Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. 11Then Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king commands his servant, so your servant shall do." So Mippibaal ate[c] at David's[d] table like one of the king's sons. 12Mippibaal had a young son, whose name was Micah.[e] All that lived in the house of Ziba were servants to Mippibaal. 13So Mippibaal lived in Jerusalem; for he ate continually at the king's table. He was lame in both his feet.

10 It happened after this, that the king of the people of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his place. 2David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent by his servants to comfort him concerning his father. David's servants came into the land of the people of Ammon.

3But the leaders of the people of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, "Do you think that David honors your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Hasn't David sent his servants to you to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?" 4So Hanun took David's servants and shaved off[f] their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. 5When David was told,[g] he sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. men of Israel, and put them in array against the Arameans: [10]The rest of the people he committed into the hand of Abishai his brother; and he put them in array against the people of Ammon. [11]He said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you. [12]Be courageous, and let us be strong for our people, and for the cities of our God; and YHWH do that which seems good to him." [13]So Joab and the people who were with him drew near to the battle against the Arameans: and they fled before him. [14]When the people of Ammon saw that the Arameans had fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, and entered into the city. Then Joab returned from the people of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem. [15]When the Arameans saw that they were defeated by the people[a] of Israel, they gathered themselves together. [16]Hadadezer sent, and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the River: and they came to Helam, with Shobach the captain of the army of Hadadezer at their head. [17]It was told David; and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. The Arameans set themselves in array against David, and fought with him. [18]The Arameans fled before Israel; and David killed of the Arameans seven hundred charioteers, and forty thousand foot soldiers,[b] and struck Shobach the captain of their army, so that he died there. [19]When all the kings who were servants to Hadadezer saw that they were defeated before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Arameans feared to help the people of Ammon any more.

[4]David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in to him, and he lay with her (for she was purified from her uncleanness);[d] and she returned to her house. [5]The woman conceived; and she sent and

6Then David sent to Joab and said,[a] "Send me Uriah the Hethite." So Joab sent Uriah to him.[b] 7And Uriah came to him, and David asked about the prosperity of Joab, and of the prosperity of the people, and of the prosperity of the war. And he said, "Its well."[c] 8And David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house, and wash your feet." So Uriah went out from the presence[d] of the king, and a gift from the king was sent after him. 9But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house. 10And it was reported[e] to David, saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house." So David said to Uriah, "Haven't you come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"

11Uriah said to David, "The ark, Israel, and Judah, are staying in tents; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are camped in the open field. Shall I then go into my house to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As YHWH lives,[f] and as you live, I will not do this thing."

12David said to Uriah, "Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart." So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day. 13And the next day David summoned[g] him, and he ate and drank in his presence, and he made him drunk. But in the evening he went out and lay on a bed[h] with the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house. 14It happened in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. 15He wrote in the letter, saying, "Send[i] Uriah to the forefront of the hottest battle, and retreat from him, that he may be struck, and die." 16It happened, when Joab kept watch on[j] the city, that he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew that valiant men were. 17The men of the city went out, and fought with Joab. Some of the people fell, even of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hethite died also. 18Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war; 19and he commanded the messenger, saying, "When you have finished telling all him,[a] "There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor. 2The rich man had very many flocks and herds, 3but the poor man had nothing, except one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and raised. It grew up together with him, and with his children. It ate of his own food, drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was to him like a daughter. 4A traveler came to the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man who had come to him, but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man who had 5David's anger was greatly kindled against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As YHWH lives, the man who has done this is worthy to die. 6He shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity." 7Nathan said to David, "You are the man. This is what YHWH, the God of Israel, says: 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul. 8I gave you your master's house, and your master's wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that would have been too little, I would have added to you many more such things. 9Why have you despised[b] YHWH, to do that which is evil in his sight? You have struck Uriah the Hethite with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have slain him with the sword of the people of Ammon. 10Now therefore the sword will never depart from your house, because you have despised me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hethite to be your wife.'

11"This is what YHWH says:
'Look, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes, and give them to your neighbor, and he will lie with your wives in the sight of this sun. 12For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.'"

13David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against YHWH." Nathan said to David, "YHWH also has put away your sin. You will not die. 14However, because by this deed you have shown utter contempt for[c] YHWH, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15Then Nathan went to his home.
And God[d] struck the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and it was very sick. 16Then David sought from[e] God on behalf of the child.

him[a] to lift him up from the ground, but he was unwilling, and he would not eat food with them. 18It happened on the seventh day, that the child died. The servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead; for they said, "Look, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he did not listen to our voice. How will he then harm himself, if we tell him that the child is dead?"

19But when David noticed[b] that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead; and David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" They said, "He is dead."

20Then David arose from the ground, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his clothing; and he came into the house of YHWH, and worshiped. Then he went to his own house, and he asked for bread to eat.[c] And they set bread before him, and he ate. 21Then his servants said to him, "What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept and kept vigil[d] for the child while he was alive; but when the child was dead, you rose up and ate bread."

22He said, "While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, 'Who knows whether YHWH will not be gracious to me, that the child may live?' 23But now he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back[e]? I shall go to him, but he will not return to me."

set on David's head. He brought out the spoil of the city, a very great amount. 31He brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws, and iron picks, and iron axes, and to labor at the brick kiln. And he did the same to all the cities of the people of Ammon. David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

13 It happened after this, that Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. 2Amnon was so troubled that he fell sick because of his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and it seemed hard to Amnon to do anything to her. 3But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab,[a] the son of Shimeah, David's brother. Now Jonadab was very crafty.[b] 4He said to him, "Why, son of the king, are you so sad from day to day? Won't you tell me?"

Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

5Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed, and pretend to be sick. When your father comes to see you, tell him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me bread to eat, and dress the food in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it from her hand.'"

6So Amnon lay down and faked being sick. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let my sister Tamar come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand." 7Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Go now to your brother Amnon[c] and prepare food for him." 8So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was lying down. And she took dough, and kneaded it, and made cakes while he watched, and baked the cakes. 9She took the pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. Amnon said, "Have all men leave me." Every man went out from him. 10Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the room, that I may eat from your hand." Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the room to Amnon her brother. 11When she had brought them near to him to eat, he took hold of her, and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."

12She answered him, "No, my brother, do not force me. For no such thing ought to be done in Israel. Do not do this folly. 13I, where would I carry my shame? And as for you, you will be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from you."

14However he would not listen to her voice; but being stronger than she, he forced her, and lay with her. 15Then Amnon hated her with exceeding great hatred; for the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her.[a] Amnon said to her, "Arise, be gone."

16And Tamar said to him,
"Don't, my brother, for this latter evil in sending me away is greater than the former thing that you did to me."[b] But he would not listen to her.
17Then he called the young man who served him, and said, "Send[c] this one away from me, and bolt the door after her." 18Now she was wearing an ornamented robe, for this was what the king's virgin daughters used to wear. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her. 19Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore her ornamented robe that she wore.
And she put her hand on her head and went away, crying aloud as she went. 20Absalom her brother said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been desolate[d] in her brother Absalom's house. 21But when king David heard of all these things, he was very angry. But he did not inflict pain on the spirit of his son Amnon, because he loved him, for he was his firstborn.[e] 22Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad; for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had violated his sister Tamar. 23It happened after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal Hazor, which is beside Ephraim:

31Then the king arose, and tore his garments, and lay on the ground; and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.[a] 32Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered, "Do not let my lord the king[b] suppose that they have killed all the young men, the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead; for by the appointment of Absalom this has been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar. 33Now therefore do not let my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead; for Amnon only is dead." 34But Absalom fled. And the young man who kept the watch lifted up his eyes and looked, and he saw many men coming on the road behind him[c] from the side of the mountain in the descent. comforted concerning Amnon, since he was dead.

14 Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was toward Absalom. 2Joab[a] sent to Tekoa, and fetched there a wise woman, and said to her, "Please act like a mourner, and put on mourning clothing, please, and do not anoint yourself with oil, but be as a woman who has mourned a long time for the dead. 3Go in to the king, and speak like this to him." So Joab put the words in her mouth. 4And the woman of Tekoa went[b] to the king, and she bowed down with her face to the ground, and showed respect, and said, "Help, O king."

5The king said to her, "What ails you?"

She answered, "Truly I am a widow, and my husband is dead. 6Your handmaid had two sons, and they both fought together in the field, and there was no one to part them, but the one struck the other, and killed him. 7Look, the whole family has risen against your handmaid, and they say, 'Deliver him who struck his brother, that we may kill him for the life of his brother whom he killed, and so destroy the heir also.' Thus they would quench my coal which is left, and would leave to my husband neither name nor remainder on the surface of the earth."

8The king said to the woman, "Go to your house,[c] and I will give a command concerning you."

9The woman of Tekoa said to the king, "My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house; and the king and his throne be guiltless."

10The king said, "Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall not touch you any more."

11Then she said, "Please let the king remember YHWH your God, that the avenger of blood destroy not any more, lest they destroy my son." He said, "As YHWH lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground."

12Then the woman said, "Please let your handmaid speak a word to my lord the king." He said, "Say on."
13The woman said, "Why then have you devised such a thing against the people of God? For in speaking this word the king is as one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring home again his banished one. 14For we must die, and are as water split on the ground, which can't be gathered up again; neither does God take away life, but devises means, that he who is banished not

16For the king will hear and[b] deliver 18Then the king answered the

The woman said, "Let my lord the 19The king said, "Is the hand turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken; for your servant Joab, he urged me, and he put all these done this thing. My lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know that which 21The king said to Joab,

"Look now, I have done this thing.
Go therefore, bring the young man Absalom back."

22Joab fell to the ground on his face, showed respect, and blessed the king. Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord, king, in that the king has performed the request of his servant." 23So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.
24The king said, "Let him return to his own house, but let him not see my face." So Absalom returned to his own house, and did not see the king's face. 25Now in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. 26When he cut the hair of his head (now it was at every year's end that he cut it; because it was heavy on him, therefore he cut it); he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred[f] shekels, after the king's weight. 27To Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar.

"Look, I sent to you, saying, 'Come here, that I may send you to the king, to say, "Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still. Now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there is iniquity in me, let him kill me."'"

33 So Joab came to the king, and told him; and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king kissed Absalom.

15 And after this Absalom began to furnish[c] himself with a chariot and horses, and fifty men to run before him. 2 And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the road of the gate. Then when[d] anyone had a dispute which should come to the king for judgment, then Absalom would call[e] to him and say, "What city are you from?" When he said, "Your servant is of one of the tribes of Israel," 3 then Absalom would say to him, "Look, your matters are good and right; but there is no one from the king to hear you." 4 And Absalom would say, "Oh that I were made judge in the land, then anyone who had a dispute and a judgment could come to me, and I would give him justice."

5 It was so, that when any man came near to do him obeisance, he would extend his hand and embrace him, and kiss him. 6 Absalom did this sort of thing to all Israel who came to the king for judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel. 7 It happened at the end of four[a] years, that Absalom said to the king, "Please let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed to YHWH, in Hebron. 8For your servant vowed a vow while I stayed at Geshur in Aram, saying, 'If YHWH will bring me back[b] to Jerusalem, then I will serve YHWH in Hebron.[c]'"

9The king said to him, "Go in peace."

So he arose, and went to Hebron. 10But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, 'Absalom is king in Hebron.'" 11Two hundred men went with Absalom out of Jerusalem, who were invited, and went in their simplicity; and they did not know anything. 12And he sent and invited[d] Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city, even from Giloh, while he was offering the sacrifices. The conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom. 13A messenger came to David, saying, "The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom."

14David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, "Arise, and let us flee; for else none of us shall escape from Absalom. Make speed to depart, lest he overtake us quickly, and bring down evil on us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword."

15The king's servants said to the king,[e] "Look, your servants are ready to do whatever my lord[f] the king chooses." 16And the king went out with all his household following him. But the king left ten women, who were secondary wives, to take care of the palace. 17So the king went out with all his servants[g] following him, and they stopped at the last house.
18And all the people[h] passed on before him. And all those with him, all the officers and warriors, were six hundred men, and they passed on before him. [21]Ittai answered the king, and said, "As YHWH lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether for death or for life, even there also will your servant be."
[22]David said to Ittai, "Go and pass over." Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones who were with him. [23]And all the land wept aloud as all the people crossed over. And the king crossed the Wadi Kidron, and all the people passed before him on[b] the Olive road[c] into the wilderness.
[24]Look, Zadok also came, and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God[d]; and they set down the ark of God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people finished passing out of the city. [25]The king said to Zadok, "Return the ark of God to the city. If I find favor in the eyes of YHWH, he will bring me back and show me both it and his dwelling place; [26]but if he should say, 'I have no delight in you;' look, here I am. Let him do to me as seems good to him." [27]The king said also to Zadok the priest, "Aren't you a seer? Return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. [28]Look, I will wait at the fords of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me." [29]Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem; and they stayed there. [30]David went up by the Ascent of the Olives, and wept as he went up; and he had his head covered, and went barefoot: and all the people who were with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up. [31]And it had been told to David, saying, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom." David said, "YHWH,[e] please turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness." [32]It happened that when David had come to the top, where God was worshiped, look, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat torn, and earth on his head. [33]David said to him, "If you pass on with me, then you will be a burden to me; [34]but if you return to the city, and tell Absalom, 'Your brothers have left, O king, after your father left, and now[f] I am your servant, O king. 37So Hushai, David's friend, came into the city; and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

16 When David was a little past the top, look, Ziba the servant of Mippibaal[a] met him, with a couple of donkeys saddled, and on them two hundred loaves of bread, and one hundred clusters of raisins, and one hundred summer fruits, and a bottle of wine. 2The king said to Ziba, "What do you mean by these?" Ziba said, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as are faint in the wilderness may drink." 3The king said, "Where is your master's son?" Ziba said to the king, "Look, he is staying in Jerusalem; for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will restore me the kingdom of my father.'"

4Then the king said to Ziba, "Look, all that pertains to Mippibaal is yours." Ziba said, "I do obeisance. Let me find favor in your sight, my lord, O king."

5When king David came to Bahurim, look, a man of the family of the house of Saul came out, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera. He came out, and cursed still as he came. 6He cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David, and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left. 7Shimei said when he cursed, "Be gone, be gone, you man of blood, and base fellow. 8YHWH has returned on you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned. YHWH has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son. Look, you are caught by your own mischief, because you are a man of blood."

9Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Please let me go over and take off his head." 10The king said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? Because he curses, and because YHWH has said to him, 'Curse David;' who then shall say, 'Why have you done so?'"

[11]David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, “Look, my son, who came forth from my bowels, seeks my life. How much more this Benjamite, now? Leave him alone, and let him curse; for YHWH has invited him. [12]It may be that YHWH will look on my affliction[a] and return[b] good to me for his cursing today.” [13]So David and his men went by the way; and Shimei went along on the hillside opposite him, and cursed as he went, threw stones at his flank,[c] and threw dirt. [14]The king, and all the people who were with him, arrived weary at the Jordan,[d] and he refreshed himself there. [15]Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. [16]It happened, when Hushai the Archite, David’s friend, had come to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, “Long live the king.
Long live the king.”

[17]Absalom said to Hushai, “Is this your kindness to your friend?
Why did you not go with your friend?”

[18]Hushai said to Absalom, “No; but whomever YHWH, and this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen, his will I be, and with him I will stay. [19]Again, whom should I serve? Shouldn’t I serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father’s presence, so will I be in your presence.”

[20]Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, “Give your counsel what we shall do.”

[21]Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Go in to your father’s secondary wives, that he has left to keep the house. Then all Israel will hear that you are abhorred by your father. Then the hands of all who are with you will be strong.”

[22]So they spread Absalom a tent on the top of the house; and Absalom went in to his father’s secondary wives in the sight of all Israel. [23]The counsel of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if a man inquired at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

17 Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Let me now choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David tonight. [2]I will come on him while he is weary and exhausted, and will make him afraid. All the people who are with him shall flee. I will strike the king only, [3]and I will bring back all the people to you, as a bride returns to her husband.[a] You seek the life of only one man; then[b] all the people will be in peace."

[4]The saying pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel. [5]Then Absalom said, "Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he says."

[6]When Hushai had come to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him, saying, "Ahithophel has spoken like this. Shall we do what he says? And if not, speak up."

[7]Hushai said to Absalom, "The counsel that Ahithophel has given this time is not good." [8]Hushai said moreover, "You know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are fierce in their minds, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field.[c] Your father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

[9]Look, he is now hidden in some pit, or in some other place. It will happen, when some of them have fallen at the first, that whoever hears it will say, 'There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.' [10]Even he who is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, will utterly melt; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are valiant men. [11]But, I strongly advise as follows,[d] that all Israel be gathered together to you, from Dan even to Beersheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that you personally go into battle.
[12]So shall we come on[e] him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light on him as the dew falls on the ground; and of him and of all the men who are with him we will not leave so much as one. [13]Moreover, if he be gone into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there isn't one small stone found there."

[14]Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel." For YHWH had ordained to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that YHWH might bring evil on Absalom. [15]Then Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, "Ahithophel counseled Absalom and the elders of Israel that way; and I have counseled this way. 17Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying by En Rogel; and a female servant used to go and tell them; and they went and told king David. For they might not be seen to come into the city. 18But a boy saw them, and told Absalom. Then they both went away quickly, and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down there. 19The woman took and spread the covering over the well's mouth[a], and spread out bruised grain on it; and nothing was known. 20Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house; and they said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?"

The woman said to them, "They have gone over the brook of water."
When they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. 21It happened, after they had departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David; and they said to him,[b] "Arise and pass quickly over the water; for thus has Ahithophel counseled against you." 22Then David arose, and all the people who were with him, and they passed over the Jordan. By the morning light there lacked not one of them who had not gone over the Jordan. 23When Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey, and arose, and went home, to his city, and set his house in order, and hanged himself; and he died, and was buried in the tomb of his father. 24Then David came to Mahanaim. Absalom passed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. 25Absalom set Amasa over the army instead of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man, whose name was Jether[c] the Ishmaelite,[d] who went in to Abigail[e] the daughter of Jesse,[f] sister to Zeruiah, Joab's mother. 26Israel and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead. 27It happened, when David had come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the people of Ammon, and Makir the son of Ammiel of Lodebar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, 28brought beds, and basins, and pottery utensils, and wheat, and barley, and meal, and parched grain, and beans,

The king said to the people, "I will surely go forth with you myself also."

3But the people said, "You must not go out, for if we retreat, no one[e] will care about us. If half of us die, no one[f] will care about us. But you[g] are worth ten thousand of us. 11Joab said to the man who told him, "Look, you saw it, and why did you not strike him there to the ground? I would have given you ten pieces of silver, and a belt." 12The man said to Joab, "Though I should receive a thousand pieces of silver in my hand, I still wouldn't put forth my hand against the king's son; for in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, 'Protect the young man Absalom for my[a] sake.' 13Otherwise if I had dealt falsely against his life (and there is no matter hidden from the king), then you yourself would have set yourself against me."

14Then Joab said, "I'm not going to wait like this with you." He took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak. 15Ten young men who bore Joab's armor surrounded and struck Absalom, and killed him. 16Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel; for Joab held back the people. 17They took Absalom, and cast him into the great pit in the forest, and raised over him a very great heap of stones. Then all Israel fled everyone to his tent. 18Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself the pillar, which is in the King's Valley; for he said, "I have no son to keep my name in memory." He called the pillar after his own name; and it is called Absalom's monument, to this day. 19Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, "Let me now run, and bear the king news, how that YHWH has avenged him of his enemies."

24Now David was sitting between the two gates, and the watchman went up to the roof of the gate to the wall and lifted up his eyes and looked and saw a man was running alone towards him.[a] 25And the watchman called out, and told the king. And the king said, "If he is alone, there is good news in his mouth." And he came closer and closer. 26And the watchman saw another man running. And the watchman above the gate[b] called out, and said, "Look, another[c] man running alone." And the king said, "He also brings good news."

27The watchman said, "I think the running of the first one is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok." The king said, "He is a good man, and comes with good news."
28And Ahimaaz came near[d] and said to the king, "All is well." He bowed himself before the king with his face to the earth, and said, "Blessed is YHWH your God, who has delivered up the men who lifted up their hand against my lord the king." 29The king said, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" And Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab, the king's servant, sent your servant off,[e] I saw a great commotion, but I do not know what it was."

5Joab came into the house to the king, and said, "You have shamed this day the faces of all your servants, who this day have saved your life, and the lives of your sons and of your daughters, and the lives of your wives, and the lives of your secondary wives; 6in that you love those who hate you, and hate those who love you. For you have declared this day, that leaders and servants are nothing to you. For today I perceive that if Absalom had lived, and all of us had died[b], then you would be pleased. 7Now therefore arise, go out, and speak to comfort your servants; for I swear by YHWH, if you do not go out, not a man will stay with you this night. That would be worse to you than all the evil that has happened to you from your youth until now."
8Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. They told to all the people, saying, "Look, the king is sitting in the gate." All the people came before the king. Now Israel had fled every man to his tent. 9And all the people were arguing throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king delivered us out of the hand of our enemies, and he saved us out of the hand of the Philistines, but now he has fled from the land and from being over his kingdom.[c] 10And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why do you not speak a word of bringing the king back?" And the talk of all Israel came to the king.[d]

11So king David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, "Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, 'Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house? 12You are my brothers, you are my bone and my flesh. Why then are you the last to bring back the king?' 13And say to Amasa, 'Aren't you my bone and my flesh? Now then,[e] God do so to me, and more also, if you aren't commander of the army before me continually in place of Joab.'" 14Thus he won over the heart of all the men of Judah, even as one man, so that they sent to the king, saying, "Return, you and all your servants."

Gilgal, having come down[a] to meet the king, to bring the king across the Jordan. 16And Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite who was from Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David. 17And there were a thousand men from Benjamin with him. But Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him, waded through the Jordan ahead of the king, 18and they crossed the ford to bring over the king's household, and to do what was good in his sight. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, when he had crossed over the Jordan. 19He said to the king, "Do not let my lord impute iniquity to me, nor remember that which your servant did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart. 20For your servant knows that I have sinned. Therefore look, I have come this day the first of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king."

21But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered, "Shall Shimei not be put to death for this, because he cursed YHWH's anointed?" 22David said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should this day be adversaries to me? Shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? For do you[b] not realize that I am this day king over Israel?" 23The king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." The king swore to him.

24Now Mippibaal[c] son of Jonathan son[d] of Saul came down to meet the king; and he had neither cared for his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came home safely.[e] 25It happened, when he had come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mippibaal?" 26He answered, "My lord, O king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said to him, 'Saddle[f] a donkey for me so that I may ride on it and go with the king,' for your servant is lame. 27He has slandered your servant to my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God. 29The king said to him, "Why do you speak any more of your matters? I say, you and Ziba divide the land." 30Mippibaal said to the king, "Yes, let him take all, because my lord the king has come in peace to his own house." 31Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim; and he went over the Jordan with the king, to conduct him from[a] the Jordan. 32Now Barzillai was a very old man, eighty years old; and he had provided for the king while he was staying[b] at Mahanaim, for he was a very rich man.
33The king said to Barzillai, "Come over with me, and I will sustain you with me in Jerusalem." 34Barzillai said to the king, "How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? 35I am this day eighty years old. Can I discern between good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be yet a burden to my lord the king? 36Your servant would but just go over the Jordan with the king. Why should the king repay me with such a reward? 37Please let your servant turn back again, that I may die in my own city, by the grave of my father and my mother. But look, your servant Kimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good to you."

38The king answered, "Kimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good to you. Whatever you require of me, that I will do for you." 39All the people crossed over the Jordan, but the king remained.[c] Then the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned to his own place. 40So the king went over to Gilgal, and Kimham went over with him. All the people of Judah brought the king over, and also half the people of Israel. 41Look, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, "Why have our brothers the men of Judah stolen you away, and brought the king, and his household, over the Jordan, and all David's men with him?"

43 The men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, "We have ten parts in the king, and we are the firstborn[b] rather than you.
Why then did you despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king?" The words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

20 There happened to be there a base fellow, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bikri, a Benjamite: and he blew the trumpet, and said, "We have no portion in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse.
Every man to his tents, Israel."

2 So all the men of Israel went up from following David, and followed Sheba the son of Bikri; but the men of Judah joined with their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem. 3 David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women his secondary wives, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in custody, and provided them with sustenance, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up to the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 Then the king said to Amasa, "Call me the men of Judah together within three days, and be here present." 5 So Amasa went to call the men of Judah together; but he stayed longer than the set time which he had appointed him. 6 David said to Abishai, "Now Sheba the son of Bikri will do us more harm than Absalom did. Now then,[c] take your lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get himself fortified cities, and escape out of our sight."

7 There went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men; and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bikri. 8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them.
Joab was clothed in his apparel of war that he had put on, and on it was a sash with a sword fastened on his waist in its sheath; and as he went forth it fell out. 9 Joab said to Amasa, "Is it well with you, my brother?" Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him. 10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand.
So he struck him with it in the body, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and did not strike him again; and he died. Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bikri. 11 There men, and said, “He who favors Joab, and he who is for David, let him follow Joab.” 12Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the midst of the highway. When the man saw that all the people stood still, he carried Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a garment over him, when he saw that everyone who came by him stood still. 13When he was taken out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bikri. 14He went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel of[a] Beth Maacah, and all the Bikrites[b]; and they assembled and followed him. 15They came and besieged him in Abel of Beth Maacah, and they built a siege ramp against the city, and it stood against the outer wall; and all the people who were with Joab battered the wall, to bring it down.

16Then a wise woman cried out of the city, “Hear, hear. Please say to Joab, ‘Come near here, that I may speak with you.’” 17He came near to her; and the woman said, “Are you Joab?” He answered, “I am.” Then she said to him, “Hear the words of your handmaid.” He answered, “I do hear.”

18Then she spoke, saying, "They used to say a saying, 'Let them inquire in Abel and in Dan whether 19that which the faithful of Israel established has been carried out.’[c] You seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why do you want to swallow up the inheritance of YHWH[d]?” 20Joab answered, “Far be it[e] from me that I should swallow up or destroy. 21The matter is not so. But a man of the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bikri by name, has lifted up his hand against the king, even against David. Deliver him only, and I will depart from the city.” The woman said to Joab, “Look, his head shall be thrown to you over the wall.”

22Then the woman went to all the people[f] in her wisdom. They cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bikri, and threw it out to Joab. He blew the trumpet, and they were dispersed from the city, every man to his tent. Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king. 23Now Joab was over all the army of Israel; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites; 24and Adoniram[g] was over the men subject to forced labor; and Jehoshaphat the son of 21 There was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David sought the face of YHWH. YHWH said, "It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he put to death the Gibeonites." [2]The king called the Gibeonites, and spoke to them. (Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn to them[c]: and Saul sought to kill them in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah.) [3]And David said to the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? And with what shall I make atonement, that you may bless[d] the inheritance of YHWH?"

[4]The Gibeonites said to him, "It is no matter of silver or gold between us and Saul, or his house; neither is it for us to put any man to death in Israel."

He said, "Whatever you say, that will I do for you."

She allowed neither the birds of the sky to rest on them by day, nor the animals of the field by night. 11It was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the secondary wife of Saul, had done. 12David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh Gilead, who had stolen them from the street of Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, in the day that the Philistines killed Saul in Gilboa; 13and he brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son: and they gathered the bones of those who were hanged.
14They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. After that God was entreated for the land.
15The Philistines had war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines, and David became exhausted. 16And Dodo son of Joash,[a] one of the descendants of the Raphah, captured him. His spear weighed three hundred bronze shekels,[b] and he was girded with a new sword, and he thought he could kill David.

[b]22:45 Psalm 18:45, cf. DSS spacing, reading piel: yekachashu. MT reads hith: yitkachashu [c]22:45 Psalm 18:45 cf. DSS word order. In MT, following a dittography of bny nkr yk from v.45 which was copied onto the beginning of v.46, a homoioarcton occurred: bny nkr-bny nkr, which removed the last four words of v.45. The words were restored to the beginning of v.45, resulting in a different word order [d]22:46 DSS LXX Mss. MT reads "Foreigners will fade away, and gird themselves from their strongholds," which is the result of 1) a dittography of bny nkr yk from v.45 in the original word order, cf. v.45 fn, 2) the production of the word yblw "will fade away" from yk + l' following the initial dittography, and 3) the misreading of the last word by one letter, resulting in the word for "from their strongholds." Cf. E. Ulrich, The Biblical Qumran Scrolls (2010), 319-20 [e]22:49 DSS LXX(L). MT reads "rescue" [f]23:1 DSS LXX(L). MT reads "man who was raised on high" [g]23:3 LXX(L) OL. MT reads "Israel"

5For is not my house like this with God?
For he has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and

Will he not bring about my every desire?

6But all of the ungodly shall be as thorns to be thrust

They shall be utterly burned with 8These are the names of the warriors whom David had: Jeshbaal[a] the son of Hachmoni,[b] leader of the Three.[c] He wielded his spear[d] against eight hundred whom he killed at one time. 9After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo,[e] the[f] Ahohite,[g] one of the Three warriors. He was with David in Pas Dammim[h] when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle, and the men of Israel had retreated. 10He arose, and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand froze to the sword; and YHWH worked a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to take spoil. 11After him was Shamma the son of Agee the[i] Hararite. The Philistines were gathered together at Lehi,[a] where there was a plot of ground full of lentils; and the people fled from the Philistines. [12]But he stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and killed the Philistines; and YHWH worked a great victory. [13]And three of the Thirty chief men went down, and came to David in the harvest time to the cave of Adullam; and the troop of the Philistines was camped in the Valley of Rephaim. [14]David was then in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. [15]And David had a craving and said, "Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate."

[16]The Three warriors broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but he would not drink of it, but poured it out to YHWH. 24 Again the anger of YHWH was kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them, saying, "Go, number Israel and Judah." 2The king said to Joab and the captains[c] of the army, who were with him, "Now go back and forth through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beersheba, and number the people, that I may know the sum of the people."

3Joab said to the king, "Now may YHWH your God add to the people, however many they may be, one hundred times; and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king delight in this thing?"
4Notwithstanding, the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the army. Joab and the captains of the army went out from the presence of the king, to number the children of Israel. 5They crossed over the Jordan and began[d] at Aroer, and from[e] the city that is in the middle of the valley of Gad; then on to Jazer. 6Then they came to Gilead, and to the region of the Hethites, to Kedesh;[f] and they came to Dan,[g] and around to Sidon, 7and came to the stronghold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites; and they went out to the south of Judah, at Beersheba. 8So when they had gone back and forth through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. 9Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men. 10David's heart struck him after that he had numbered the people. David said to YHWH, "I have sinned greatly in that which I have done. But now, YHWH, put away, I beg you, the iniquity of your servant; for I have done very foolishly."

11When David rose up in the morning, the word of YHWH came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying, 12"Go and speak to David, 'Thus says YHWH, "I offer you

13So Gad came to David, and told him, and said to him, “Shall three[a] years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days’ pestilence in your land? Now answer, and consider what answer I shall return to him who sent me.”
14David said to Gad, “I am in distress. Let me[b] fall now into the hand of YHWH; for his mercies are great. Let me not fall into the hand of man.”

15So[c] YHWH sent a pestilence on Israel from the morning even to the appointed time; and the destruction began among the people.[d] And there died of the people from Dan even to Beersheba seventy thousand men. 16When the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, YHWH relented of the disaster, and said to the angel who destroyed the people, “It is enough. Now stay your hand.” The angel of YHWH was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite. And David lifted up his eyes and saw the angel of YHWH standing between earth and the sky, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell down on their faces.[e]

17David spoke to YHWH when he saw the angel who struck the people, and said,[f] “Look, I have sinned, and I, the shepherd,[g] have done great evil.[h] But these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand be against me, and against my father’s house.”

18Gad came that day to David, and said to him, “Go up, build an altar to YHWH on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.”

19David went up according to the saying of Gad, as YHWH commanded. 20And Arauna looked out and saw the king[a] and his servants coming on toward him, so Araunah went out and bowed himself before the king[b] with his face to the ground. 21And Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" David said, "To buy your threshing floor, to build an altar to YHWH, that the plague may be stopped from afflicting the people."

22Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good to him. Look, the cattle for the burnt offering, and the threshing instruments and the yokes of the oxen for the wood." 23All these[c] Araunah gave to the king. And Araunah said to the king, "May YHWH your God accept you."

24The king said to Araunah, "No; but I will most certainly buy it from you for a price. I will not offer burnt offerings to YHWH my God which cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. 25David built an altar to YHWH there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So YHWH responded to the plea for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.[d]

The First Book of Kings

1 Now king David was old and advanced in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he couldn't keep warm. 2Therefore his servants said to him, "Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin. And let her attend the king, and care for him; and let her lie in your bosom, that my lord the king may keep warm." 3So they sought for a beautiful young woman throughout all the borders of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king. 4The young woman was very beautiful; and she became the king's attendant and served him;but the king did not know her intimately. 5Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king." So he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. 6His father had never scolded him at any time by saying, "Why have you done so?" And he was also a very handsome man; and he was born after Absalom. 7And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest. And they followed Adonijah and helped him. 8But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David, were not with Adonijah. 9And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fatlings[a] by the stone of Zoheleth, which is near En Rogel; and he called all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants: 10but he did not invite Nathan the prophet, or Benaiah, or the mighty men, or his brother Solomon. 11Then Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Haven't you heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith reigns, and David our lord doesn't know it? 12Now therefore come, please let me give you advice, that you may save your own life, and the life of your son Solomon. 13Go in to king David, and tell him, 'Did you not, my lord, king, swear to your handmaid, saying, "Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne"? Why then does Adonijah reign?' 14And[b] look, while you are still there speaking with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words."

15Bathsheba went in to the king into the room. The king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite was attending to the king. 16Bathsheba bowed, and showed respect to the king. The king said, "What would you like?" 17And she said to him,[c] "My lord, you swore by YHWH your God to your handmaid, 'Assuredly Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne.' 18Now, look, Adonijah reigns; and you,[d] my lord the king, do not know it. 19And he has sacrificed many oxen and fatlings[e] and sheep, and has invited all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the commander of the army; but he hasn't invited Solomon your servant. 20And now, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you to announce to them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. 21Otherwise it will happen, when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be considered criminals."

king after me, and he shall sit on my throne?' [25]For he has gone down today and has sacrificed oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons, and the commanders[a] of the army, and Abiathar the priest. Look, they are eating and drinking before him, and say, 'Long live king Adonijah.' [26]But me, me your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon, he has not invited. [27]Has this thing been brought about by my lord the king, and you haven't told your servants[b] who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

[28]Then king David answered, "Summon Bathsheba to me." So she came into the king's presence, and stood before him.[c] [29]And the king vowed, saying, "As YHWH lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity, [30]most certainly as I vowed to you by YHWH, the God of Israel, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place;' so I certainly will do this day."

[31]Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground, paying homage to the king, and said, "Let my lord king David live forever."

[32]And King David said, "Summon to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada." They came before the king. [33]The king said to them, "Take with you the servants of your lord, and have Solomon my son ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon. [34]And have Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel. Blow the trumpet, and say, 'Long live king Solomon.' [35]Then you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne; for he shall be king in my place. I have appointed him to be prince over Israel and over Judah."

[36]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, "Amen. May YHWH, the God of my lord the king, say so. [37]As YHWH has been with my lord the king, even so may he be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David."

on king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon. 39Zadok the priest took the horn of oil out of the Tent, and anointed Solomon. They blew the trumpet; and all the people said,
"Long live king Solomon."

40All the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth split open at their sound. 41Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating.
When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "Why is this noise of the city being in an uproar?"

42While he yet spoke, look, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said,
"Come in; for you are a worthy man, and bring good news."

43Jonathan answered Adonijah, "No. Our lord king David has made Solomon king.
44The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and they have caused him to ride on the king's mule. 45Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon. They have come up from there rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that you have heard.
46Also, Solomon sits on the throne of the kingdom. 47Moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, 'May your God[a] make the name of Solomon better than your name, and make his throne greater than your throne;' and the king bowed himself on the bed. 48Also thus said the king, 'Blessed be YHWH, the God of Israel, who has given one[b] to sit on my throne this day, my eyes even seeing it.'"

49All the guests of Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and each man went his way. 50Adonijah feared because of Solomon; and he arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. 51It was told Solomon, saying, "Look, Adonijah fears king Solomon; for, look, he has laid hold on the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let king Solomon swear to me first that he will not kill his servant with the sword.'" 52Solomon said, "If he shows himself a worthy man, not a hair of him shall fall to the earth; but if wickedness be found in him, he shall die."

53So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. He came and bowed down to king Solomon; and Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

2 Now the days of David drew near that he should die; and he commanded Solomon his son, the instruction of YHWH your God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, his commandments, his ordinances, and his testimonies, according to that which is written in the law of Moses, that you may wherever you turn yourself. 4That YHWH may establish his word which he spoke concerning me, saying, 'If your children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail you,' he said, 'a man on the throne of Israel.'

5"Moreover you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, even what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner, and to Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed, avenging[a] the blood of war in peacetime, and put the blood of war on my[b] belt that was about my

I fled from Absalom your brother.

I swore to him by YHWH, saying, 'I fathers, and was buried in the City of David. 11The days that David reigned over Israel were forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem.[c] 12Solomon sat on the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was firmly established. 13Then Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, and did homage to her.[d] And she said, "Do

"Peaceably." 14He said moreover,
"I have something to tell you." She said, "Say on."

Israel set their faces on me, that I tell you 'no'), that he give me Abishag the Shunammite as wife."

18 Bathsheba said, "Alright. I will speak for you to the king."

19 Bathsheba therefore went to king Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. The king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself to her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a throne to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand. 20 Then she said, "I ask one small petition of you; do not deny me."

The king said to her, "Ask on, my mother; for I will not deny you."

21 She said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as wife."

22 King Solomon answered his mother, "Why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also. For he is my elder brother. For him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.[a]" 23 Then king Solomon swore by YHWH, saying, "God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life. 24 Now therefore as YHWH lives, who has established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as he promised, surely Adonijah shall be put to death this day."
25 King Solomon sent by Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell on him, so that he died. 26 To Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to Anathoth, to your own fields; for you are worthy of death. But I will not at this time put you to death, because you bore the ark of[b] YHWH before David my father, and because you were afflicted in all in which my father was afflicted." 27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest to YHWH, that he might fulfill the word of YHWH, which he spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 The news came to Joab; for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he did not turn after Absalom.[c] Joab fled to the Tent of YHWH, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. 29 It was told king Solomon, "Joab has fled to the Tent of YHWH, and look, he is by the altar." And Solomon sent to Joab, saying, "What happened to you, that you have fled to the altar?" And Joab said, "Because I was afraid of you, so I fled to YHWH." And Solomon sent to[d] Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, fall on him."

30 Benaiah came to the Tent of YHWH, and said to him, "Thus says the king, 'Come forth.'" He said, "No; but I will die here." Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, "Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me." 31The king said to him, "Do as he has said, and fall on him, and bury him; that you may take away this day[a] the innocent blood which Joab shed without cause, from me and from my father's house. 32YHWH will return his blood on his own head, because he fell on two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword, and my father David did not know it: Abner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the army of Judah. 33So shall their blood return on the head of Joab, and on the head of his descendants forever. But to David, and to his descendants, and to his house, and to his throne, there shall be peace forever from YHWH."

34Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell on him, and killed him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. 35The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army; and the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar.[b] 36The king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and do not go out from there anywhere. 37For on the day you go out, and pass over the wadi of the Kidron, know for certain that you shall surely die: your blood shall be on your own head.[c]" 38Shimei said to the king, "The saying is good. As my lord the king has said, so will your servant do." Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.

39It happened at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away to Achish, son of Maacah, king of Gath. They told Shimei, saying, "Look, your servants are in Gath."

40Shimei arose, and saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his servants; and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath. 41It was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had come again.

42The king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Did I not adjure you by YHWH, and warn you, saying, 'Know for certain, that on the day you go out, and walk abroad any where, you shall surely die?' You said to me, 'The saying that I have heard is good.' 43Why then have you not kept the oath of YHWH, and the commandment that I have instructed you with?" 44The king said moreover to Shimei, "You know all the wickedness which your heart is privy to, that you did to David my father. Therefore YHWH shall return your wickedness on your own head. 45But king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before YHWH forever." 46So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out, and fell on him, so that he died. The kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

3 And Solomon became the son-in-law of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the City of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of YHWH, and the wall of Jerusalem all around. 2Only the people sacrificed in the high places, because there was no house built for the name of YHWH until those days. 3Solomon loved YHWH, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. 4The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place. Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. 5In Gibeon YHWH appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask what I shall give you."

6Solomon said, "You have shown to your servant David my father great loving kindness, according as he walked before you in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with you. You have kept for him this great loving kindness, that you have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. 7Now, YHWH my God, you have made your servant king instead of David my father. I am but a little child. I do not know how to go out or come in. 8Your servant is in the midst of your people which you have chosen, a great people, that can't be numbered nor counted for multitude. 9Give your servant therefore an understanding heart to judge your people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to judge this your great people?"

10The speech pleased YHWH,[a] that Solomon had asked this thing. 11God said to him, "Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself long life, neither have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice; 12look, I have done according to your word.[b] Look, I have given you a wise and an understanding heart; so that there has been none like you before you, neither after you shall any arise like you. 13I have also given you that which you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that there shall not be any among the kings like you, all your days. 14If you will walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days."

15Solomon awoke; and look, it was a dream. Then he arose[a] and came to Jerusalem, and stood before the[b] ark of the covenant of YHWH, and offered up burnt offerings, offered peace offerings, and made a feast[c] for all his servants.

16Then two women who were prostitutes came to the king, and stood before him. 17The one woman said, "Oh, my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house. I delivered a child with her in the house. 18It happened the third day after I delivered, that this woman delivered also. We were together. There was no stranger with us in the house, just us two in the house. 19This woman's child died in the night, because she lay on it. 20She arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while your handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. 21When I rose in the morning to nurse my child, look, it was dead; but when I had looked at it in the morning, look, it was not my son, whom I bore."

22The other woman said, "No; but the living is my son, and the dead is your son."

This said, "No; but the dead is your son, and the living is my son." Thus they spoke before the king.

23Then the king said, "The one says, 'This is my son who lives, and your son is the dead;' and the other says, 'No; but your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.'" 24The king said, "Get me a sword." They brought a sword before the king. 25The king said, "Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.[d]"

26Then the woman whose the living child was spoke to the king, for her heart yearned over her son, and she said, "Oh, my lord, give her the living child, and in no way kill it." But the other said, "It shall be neither mine nor yours. Divide it."

27Then the king answered, "Give her the living child, and in no way kill it. She is its mother."

28All Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do justice.

4 King Solomon was king over all Israel. 2These were the officials whom he had: Azariah the son of Zadok, the priest; 3Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder; 4and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the army;[a] and Zadok and Abiathar were priests; 5and Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers; and Zabud the son of Nathan was chief minister, the king's friend; 6and Ahishar was over the palace; and Eliab son of Joab was over the army;[b] and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the men subject to forced labor.

7Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, who provided food for the king and his household: each man had to make provision for a month in the year. 8These are their names: Ben Hur, in the hill country of Ephraim; 9Ben Deker, in Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and Beth Shemesh, and Elon[c] Beth Hanan; 10Ben Hesed, in Arubboth (to him belonged Socoh, and all the land of Hepher[d]);

11Ben Abinadab, in all the height of Dor (he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon as wife); 12Baana the son of Ahilud, in Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth Shean which is beside Zarethan, beneath Jezreel, from Beth Shean to Abel Meholah, as far as beyond Jokmeam; 13Ben Geber, in Ramoth Gilead (to him belonged the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; to him belonged the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars); 14Ahinadab the son of Iddo, in Mahanaim; 15Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he also took Basemath the daughter of Solomon as wife); 16Baana the son of Hushai, in Asher and in Aloth; 17Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar; 18Shimei the son of Ela, in Benjamin; 19Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only prefect in the land of Judah.[e] 20Judah and Israel were many as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and making merry.

21And Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River, and to[f] the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. They brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life. 22Solomon's provision for one day was thirty measures of fine flour, and sixty measures of meal, [23]ten head of fat cattle, and twenty head of cattle out of the pastures, and one hundred sheep, besides deer, and gazelles, and roebucks, and fattened fowl. [24]For he had dominion over all on this side the River, from Tiphsah even to Gaza, over all the kings on this side the River: and he had peace on all sides around him.

[25]Judah and Israel lived safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon. [26]And Solomon had four[a] thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. [27]Those officers provided food for king Solomon, and for all who came to king Solomon's table, every man in his month; they let nothing be lacking. [28]And they also brought barley and straw for the horses and the steeds to the place where the officers were, every man according to his duty.

[29]God gave Solomon wisdom and exceptional insight, and very great understanding, even as the sand that is on the seashore. [30]Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the people of the east, and all the wisdom of Egypt. [31]For he was wiser than all men; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all the nations all around. [32]He spoke three thousand proverbs; and his songs were one thousand five.

[33]He spoke of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall; he spoke also of animals, and of birds, and of crawling creatures, and of fish. [34]There came of all peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

5 Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the place of his father: for Hiram was ever a lover of David. [2]Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, [3]"You know how that David my father could not build a house for the name of YHWH his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until YHWH put them under the soles of his feet. [4]But now YHWH my God has given me rest on every side. There is neither adversary, nor evil occurrence.

[5]Look, I purpose to build a house for the name of YHWH my God, as YHWH spoke to David my father, saying, 'Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, he shall build the house for my name.' [6]Now therefore command that they cut me cedar trees out of Lebanon. My servants shall be with your servants; and I will give you wages for your servants according to all that you shall say. For you know that there is not among us any who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians."

7It happened, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, "Blessed is YHWH this day, who has given to David a wise son over this great people." 8Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, "I have heard the message which you have sent to me. I will satisfy all your desire concerning cedar wood and concerning the wood of evergreens. 9My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon to the sea. I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the place that you shall appoint me, and will cause them to be broken up there, and you shall receive them. You shall accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household." 10So Hiram gave Solomon timber of cedar and timber of fir according to all his desire. 11Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand cors of wheat for food to his household, and twenty thousand baths[a] of pure oil. Solomon gave this to Hiram year by year. 12YHWH gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and the two of them made a covenant. 13King Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men. 14He sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses; a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home; and Adoniram was over the men subject to forced labor. 15Solomon had seventy thousand who bore burdens, and eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains; 16besides Solomon's chief officers who were over the work, three thousand and six hundred,[b] who bore rule over the people who labored in the work. 17The king commanded, and they cut out great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with worked stone. 18Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the Gebalites cut them, and prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.

6 It happened in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Ziv, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of YHWH. 2The house which king Solomon built for YHWH, its length was one hundred three feet

Seventeen feet and three inches[e] was its breadth before the house. 4For the house he made windows of fixed lattice work. 5Against the wall of the house he built stories all around, against the walls of the house all around, both of the temple and of the inner sanctuary; and he made side-rooms all around. 6The lowest story[f] was eight feet and seven inches[g] broad, and the middle was ten feet and four inches[h] broad, and the third was twelve feet and one inch[i] broad; for on the outside he made offsets in the wall of the house all around, that the beams should not have hold in the walls of the house. 7The house, when it was in building, was built of stone prepared at the quarry; and there was neither hammer nor axe nor[j] any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building. 8And[k] the door for the lowest[l] side-rooms was in the right side of the house: and they went up by winding stairs into the middle story, and out of the middle into the third.[m] 9So he built the house, and finished it; and he covered the house with beams and planks of cedar. 10He built the stories against all the house, each eight feet and seven inches[n] high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

11The word of YHWH came to Solomon, saying, 12"Concerning this house which you are building, if you will walk in my statutes, and execute my ordinances, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I establish my word with you, which I spoke to David your father. 13I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel."

14So Solomon built the house, and finished it. 15He built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar: from the floor of the house to the walls of the ceiling, he covered them on the inside with wood; and he covered the floor of the house with boards of fir. 16He built thirty-four feet and five inches, on the back part of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the beams,[a] and he built this within as an inner sanctuary, the most holy place. 17In front of the temple sanctuary was sixty-eight feet and eleven inches.[b] 18And the inside of[c] the house was cedar, carved with buds and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen. 19He prepared an inner sanctuary in the midst of the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of YHWH. 20And before the sanctuary was thirty-four feet and five inches[d] in length, and thirty-four feet and five inches in breadth, and thirty-four feet and five inches in its height; and he overlaid it with pure gold. And he made[e] the altar of cedar. 21So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold, and he drew chains of gold across, in front of the inner sanctuary, and he overlaid it with gold. 22The whole house he overlaid with gold, until all the house was finished: also the whole altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary he overlaid with gold.

23In the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim of olive wood, each seventeen feet and three inches[f] high. 24Eight feet and seven inches[g] was the one wing of the cherub, and eight feet and seven inches the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing to the uttermost part of the other were seventeen feet and three inches.[h] 25The other cherub was seventeen feet and three inches[i]: both the cherubim were of one measure and one form. 26The height of the one cherub was seventeen feet and three inches,[j] and so was it of the other cherub. 27He set the cherubim within the inner house; and the wings of the cherubim were stretched forth, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house. 28He overlaid the cherubim with gold. 29He carved all the walls of the house around with carved figures of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, inside and outside. 30The floor of the house he overlaid with gold, inside and outside. 31For the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood: the lintel and door posts were a fifth part of the wall. 32So he made two doors of olive wood; and he carved on them carvings of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread the gold on the cherubim, and on the palm trees. 33So also he made for the entrance of the temple door posts of olive wood, out of a fourth part of the wall; 34and two doors of fir wood: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves[a] of the other door were folding. 35He carved cherubim and palm trees and open flowers; and he overlaid them with gold fitted on the engraved work. 36He built the inner court with three courses of cut stone, and a course of cedar beams. 37In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of YHWH laid, in the month Ziv. 38In the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished throughout all its parts, and according to all its fashion. So was he seven years in building it.

7 Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house. 2For he built the house of the forest of Lebanon; its length was one hundred seventy-two feet and three inches,[b] and its breadth eighty-six feet and two inches,[c] and its height fifty-one feet and eight inches.[d] on four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on the pillars. 3It was covered with cedar above atop the beams which were on the pillars, and the pillars numbered[e] forty-five; fifteen in a row. 4There were beams in three rows, and window was over against window in three ranks. 5All the doors and posts were made square with beams: and window was over against window in three ranks. 6He made the porch of pillars; its length was eighty-six feet and two inches,[f] and its breadth fifty-one feet and eight inches.[g]; and a porch before them; and pillars and a threshold before them. 7He made the porch of the throne where he was to judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from floor to rafters.[h] 8His house where he was to dwell, the other court within the porch, was of the like work. He made also a house for Pharaoh's daughter (whom Solomon had taken as wife), like this porch. 9All these were of costly stones, even of cut stone, according to measure, sawed with saws, inside and outside, even from the foundation to the coping, and so on the outside to the great court. 10The foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of seventeen feet and three inches,[i] and stones of thirteen feet and nine inches.[j] 11Above were costly stones, even cut stone, according to measure, and cedar wood. 12The great court around had three courses of cut stone, and a course of cedar beams; like as the inner court of the house of YHWH, and the porch of the house. 13King Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre. 14He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in bronze; and he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill, to work all works in bronze. He came to king Solomon, and performed all his work. 15For he cast[a] the two pillars of bronze, thirty-one feet[b] was the height of one pillar; and a line of twenty feet and eight inches[c] could encompass the one pillar, and its thickness hollowed out was almost three inches[d]; and so was[e] the second pillar. 16He made two capitals of molten bronze, to set on the tops of the pillars: the height of the one capital was eight feet and seven inches[f] and the height of the other capital was eight feet and seven inches. 17There were nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital. 18So he made the pomegranates,[gh] two rows around on the one network, to cover the capitals that were on the top of the pillars[i]; and he did so for the other capital. 19The capitals that were on the top of the pillars in the porch were of lily work, six feet and eleven inches.[j] 20And the capitals were on the two pillars, even above and close to the rounded projection which was beside the network. And there were two hundred pomegranates in rows all around on the capital, and the same around the other capital.[k] 21He set up the pillars at the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called its name Jakin; and he set up the left pillar, and called its name Boaz. 22On the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.[l] 23He made the molten sea of seventeen feet and three inches,[m] from brim to brim, round in compass, and its height was eight feet and seven inches[n]; and a line of fifty-one feet and eight [26]It was almost three inches[c] thick: and its brim was worked like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it held two thousand baths. [27]He made the ten bases of bronze; six feet and eleven inches[d] was the length of one base, and six feet and eleven inches its breadth, and five feet and two inches[e] its height. [32]The four wheels were underneath the panels; and the axles of the wheels were in the base: and the height of a wheel was two feet and seven inches. [33]The work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axles, and their rims, and their spokes, and their naves, were all molten. [34]There were four supports at the four corners of each base: its supports were of the base itself. [35]In the top of the base was there a round compass ten and a quarter inches[h] high; and on the top of the base its stays and its panels were of the same. [36]On the plates of its stays, and on its panels, he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, according to the space of each, with wreaths all around. [37]In this way, he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one form. [38]He made ten basins of bronze: one basin contained forty baths; and every basin was six feet and eleven inches[i]; and on every one of the ten bases one basin. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he worked for king Solomon in the house of YHWH: 41the two pillars, and the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; 42and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars; 43and the ten bases, and the ten basins on the bases; 44and one[b] sea, and the twelve oxen under the sea; 45and the pots, and the shovels, and the basins: even all these vessels, which Hiram made for king Solomon, in the house of YHWH,[c] were of burnished bronze. 46The king cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan. 47Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: the weight of the bronze could not be found out. 48Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of YHWH: the golden altar, and the table whereupon the show bread was, of gold; 49and the lampstands, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the inner sanctuary, of pure gold; and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold; 50and the cups, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire pans, of pure gold; and the hinges, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, of the temple, of gold. 51Thus all the work that[d] Solomon performed in the house of YHWH was finished. Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated, the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of YHWH.

of Israel, who were assembled to him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and cattle, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. 6The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of YHWH to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the most holy place, under the wings of the cherubim. 7For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its poles above. 8The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place before the inner sanctuary; but they were not seen outside. And there they are to this day. 9There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone[a] which Moses put there at Horeb, when YHWH made a covenant[b] with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. 10It came to pass, when the priests had come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of YHWH, 11so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for the glory of YHWH filled the house of YHWH. 12Then Solomon said,[c] "YHWH has said that he would dwell in the thick cloud. 13I have surely built you a house of habitation, a place for you to dwell in forever."

14The king turned his face about, and blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood. 15He said, "Blessed is YHWH, the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David your father, and has with his hand fulfilled it, saying, 16'Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, so that my name might be there; nor did I choose anyone to be a leader over my people Israel. [54]It was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and petition to YHWH, he arose from before the altar of YHWH, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread forth toward heaven. [55]He stood, and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying, [56]"Blessed be YHWH, who has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that he promised. There has not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by Moses his servant. [57]May YHWH our God be with us, as he was with our fathers. Let him not leave us, nor forsake us; [58]that he may incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his ordinances, which he commanded our fathers. [59]Let these my words, with which I have made petition before YHWH, be near to YHWH our God day and night, that he may maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel, as every day shall require; [60]that all the peoples of the earth may know that YHWH, he is God. There is no other.

[61]"Let your heart therefore be perfect with YHWH our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day."

[62]The king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before YHWH. [63]Solomon offered for the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to YHWH, two and twenty thousand head of cattle, and one hundred twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of YHWH. [64]The same day the king made the middle of the court holy that was before the house of YHWH; for there he offered the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before YHWH was too little to receive the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings. 65So Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly, from Lebo Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt,[a] before YHWH our God, in the house which he built, eating and drinking and rejoicing before YHWH our God[b] seven days and seven days; fourteen days.[c] 66And[d] on the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that YHWH had shown to David his servant, and to Israel his people.

9 It happened, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of YHWH, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do, 2that YHWH appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon. 3And YHWH said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your petition that you have made before me. 10It happened at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of YHWH and the king's house 11(now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire), that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. 12Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they did not please him. 13He said, "What cities are these which you have given me, my brother?" He called them the land of Cabul to this day. 14Hiram sent to the king one hundred twenty talents of gold.
15This is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised, to build the house of YHWH, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer. 16Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites who lived in the city, and given it for a portion to his daughter, Solomon's wife. 17Solomon built Gezer, and Lower Beth Horon, 18and Baalath, and Tamar[c] in the wilderness, in the land, 19and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. 20As for all the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hethites, the Perizzites,[d] the Hivites, and the Jebusites,[e] who were not of the children of Israel; 21their descendants who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel were not able utterly to destroy, of them Solomon conscripted for slave labor to this day. 22But of the children of Israel Solomon made no bondservants; but they were the men of war, and his servants, and his commanders, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen. 23These were the chief officers who were over Solomon's work, five hundred fifty, who bore rule over the people who labored in the work. 24But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the City of David to her house which Solomon had built for her: then he built Millo. 25Solomon [26]King Solomon also had a fleet ships at Ezion Geber, which is near Eilat[a] on the shore of the Red Sea,[b] in the land of Edom. [27]Hiram sent in the navy his servants, sailors who had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon. [28]They came to Ophir, and fetched from there gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

10 When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of YHWH, she came to prove him with hard questions. [2]She came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bore spices, and very much gold, and precious stones; and when she had come to Solomon, she talked with him of all that was in her heart. [3]Solomon told her all her questions: there was not anything hidden from the king which he did not tell her. [4]When the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, [5]and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their clothing, and his cup bearers, and his burnt offerings which he presented at the house of YHWH; it left her breathless. [6]She said to the king, "It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom. [7]However I did not believe the words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it. Look, the half was not told me. Your wisdom and prosperity exceed the fame which I heard. [8]Happy are your wives,[c] happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you, who hear your wisdom. [9]Blessed is YHWH your God, who delighted in you, to set you on the throne of Israel. Because of YHWH's everlasting love for Israel, therefore he made you king, to do justice and righteousness." [10]She gave the king one hundred twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones. There came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

[11]The navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of almug trees and precious stones. [12]The king made of the almug trees pillars for the house of YHWH, and for the king's house, harps also and stringed instruments for the singers: there came no such almug

13King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned, and went to her own land, she and her servants.
14Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold, 15besides that which the traders brought, and the traffic of the merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia,[a] and of the governors of the country. 16King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of gold went to each shield. 17He made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three minas of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.
18Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the finest gold. 19There were six steps to the throne, and the top of the throne was round behind; and there were stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays. 20Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps: there was nothing like it made in any kingdom. 21And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and washing vessels were of gold,[b] and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. None were of silver; it was not considered anything in the days of Solomon. 22For the king had at sea a navy of Tarshish with the navy of Hiram: once every three years came the navy of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. 23So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom.
24All the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.
25They brought every man his tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, and armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.
26Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. 27The king made[c] silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. 28The horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt and Kue; and the king's merchants received them from Kue at a price. 29And came up and went out of Egypt a chariot[a] for six hundred[b] pieces of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty[c]; and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Aram, they brought them out by their means.

11 Now king Solomon loved women, and he took[d] many foreign women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the[e] Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites;[f] 2of the nations concerning which YHWH said to the children of Israel, "You shall not go among them, neither shall they come among you; for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods." Solomon clung to these in love. 3He had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred secondary wives; and his wives turned away his heart. 4For it happened, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods; and his heart was not perfect with YHWH his God, as was the heart of David his father. 5For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites,[g] and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. 6Solomon did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, and did not completely follow after YHWH, as did David his father. 7Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, on the mountain that is before Jerusalem, and for Milcom[h] the abomination of the people of Ammon.[i] 8So he did for all his foreign wives, who burnt incense and sacrificed to their gods. 9YHWH was angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned away from YHWH, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, 10and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods. But he did not obey that which YHWH commanded. 11Therefore YHWH said to Solomon, "Because this is done by you, and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you, and will give it to your servant. 12Notwithstanding I will not do it in your days, for David your father's sake; but I will tear it out of the hand of your son. 13However I will not tear away all 14YHWH raised up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad[a] the Edomite. He was of the royal line in Edom.[b] 15For it happened, when David had conquered[c] Edom, and Joab the commander of the army was gone up to bury the slain, and had struck every male in Edom 16(for Joab and all Israel remained there six months, until he had killed every male in Edom); 17that Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt, Hadad being yet a little child. 18They arose out of Midian, and came to Paran; and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, and appointed him food, and gave him land. 19Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him as wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. 20The sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes raised[d] in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh. 21When Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to my own country."

22Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that look, you seek to go to your own country?" He answered, "Nothing, however only let me depart."[e]

Zererah, a servant of Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, he also lifted up his hand against the king. 27This was the reason why he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, and repaired the breach of the City of David his father. 28The man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valor; and Solomon saw the young man that he was industrious, and he put him in charge of all the labor of the house of Joseph. 29And it happened at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him[a] on the way and caused him to turn aside out of the way.[b] Now he[c] had dressed himself with a new garment, and the two were alone in the countryside. 30And Ahijah laid hold of the new garment that was on him, and tore it in twelve pieces. 31He said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces; for thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, 'Look, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to you 32(but he shall have one tribe, for my servant David's sake and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel); 33because he[d] has forsaken me, and has worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the people of Ammon. Solomon. [41]Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, aren't they written in the book of the acts of Solomon? [42]The time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years. [43]Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David his father.[a] And Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

12 Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. [2]And it happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam lived in Egypt), he came straight to his own city in the land of Zererah[b] in the hill country of Ephraim.[c] [3]And they sent and called for him. And Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came, and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, [4]"Your father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make you the grievous service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you."

[5]He said to them, "Depart for three days, then come back to me."

The people departed. [6]King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, "What counsel do you give me to return answer to this people?"

[7]They spoke to him, saying, "If you will be a servant to this people this day, and will serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."

[8]But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. [9]He said to them, "What counsel do you give, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter?'"

[10]The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you shall tell this people who spoke to you, saying,

‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but make it lighter to us;’ you shall say to them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist.
11Now whereas my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.’”

12So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king asked, saying, “Come to me again the third day.” 13The king answered the people roughly, and forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, 14and spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, “My father made[a] your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.” 15So the king did not listen to the people; for it was a thing brought about of YHWH, that he might establish his word, which YHWH spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. 16When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, “What portion do we have in David? We[b] have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, Israel. Now tend[c] your own house, David.” So Israel departed to their tents.
17But as for[d] the children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.
18Then king Rehoboam sent Adoniram,[e] who was over the men subject to forced labor; and all Israel stoned him to death with stones. King Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. 19So Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day. 20It happened, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned,[f] that they sent and called him to the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none who followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.
21When Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty[g] warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, 23“Speak to Rehoboam the Everyone return to his house; for this thing is of me.”’” So they listened to the word of YHWH, and returned and went their way, according to the word of YHWH.

25Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and lived in it; and he went out from there, and built Penuel. 26Jeroboam said in his heart, “Now the kingdom will return to the house of David. 27If this people goes up to offer sacrifices in the house of YHWH at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn again to their lord, even to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will kill me, and return to Rehoboam king of Judah.” 28Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves[a] of gold; and he said to the people,[b] “It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Look and see your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt.” 29He set the one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan. 30Then this thing became a sin, for the people went before the one at Bethel and before the one[c] as far as Dan. 31And he made houses[d] on high places, and made priests from among all the people, who were not of the sons of Levi. 32Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah, and he went up to the altar; he did so in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places that he had made. 33He went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart: and he ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and went up to the altar, to burn incense.

13 Look, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of YHWH to Beth El: and Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense. 2He cried against the altar by the word of YHWH, and said, “Altar, altar, thus says YHWH: ‘Look, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name. On you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and they will burn men’s bones on you.’” 3He gave a sign the same day, saying, “This is the sign which YHWH has spoken: Look, the altar will be split apart, and the ashes that are on it will be poured out.”

4It happened, when the king heard the saying of the man of God, which he cried against the altar in Bethel, that Jeroboam put out his hand from the altar, saying, "Seize him." His hand, which he put out against him, dried up, so that he could not draw it back again to himself. 5The altar also was split apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of YHWH. 6The king answered the man of God, "Now plead for the favor of YHWH your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again."

The man of God entreated YHWH, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before.

7The king said to the man of God, "Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward."

8The man of God said to the king, "Even if you gave me half of your house, I would not go in with you, neither would I eat bread nor drink water in this place; 9for so was it commanded me by the word of YHWH, saying, 'You shall eat no bread, nor drink water, neither return by the way that you came.'" 10So he went another way, and did not return by the way that he came to Bethel.

11Now there lived an old prophet in Bethel; and one of his sons[a] came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel. And[b] they also told their father the words which he had spoken to the king.

12Their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" Now his sons showed him[c] the way the man of God went, who came from Judah. 13He said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled the donkey for him; and he rode on it. 14He went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak. He said to him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?"

He said, "I am." 15Then he said to him, "Come home with me, and eat bread."

16He said, "I may not return with you, nor go in with you; neither will I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place. 17For it was said to me by the word of YHWH, 'You shall eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that you came.'"

19So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water. 20It happened, as they sat at the table, that the word of YHWH came to the prophet who brought him back; 21and he cried to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, "Thus says YHWH, 'Because you have been disobedient to the mouth of YHWH, and have not kept the commandment which YHWH your God commanded you, 22but came back, and have eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which he said to you, "Eat no bread, and drink no water"; your body shall not come to the tomb of your

23It happened, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for the prophet whom he had brought back. 24When he had gone, a lion met him by the way, and killed him.
His body was cast in the way, and the donkey stood by it. The lion also stood by the body. 25Look, men passed by, and saw the body cast in the way, and the lion standing by the body; and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet lived. 26When the prophet who brought him back from the way heard of it, he said, "It is the man of God who was disobedient to the mouth of YHWH.
Therefore YHWH has delivered him to the lion, which has mauled him and slain him, according to the word of YHWH, which he spoke to him." 27He spoke to his sons, saying, "Saddle the donkey for me." They saddled it. 28He went and found his body cast in the way, and the donkey and the lion standing by the body. The lion had not eaten the body, nor mauled the donkey. 29The prophet took up the body of the man of God, and laid it on the donkey, and brought it back.
And he came to the city of the old prophet[a] to mourn and to bury him.
30He laid his body in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, "Alas, my brother."

31It happened, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, "When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb in which the man of God is buried. Lay my bones beside his bones. 32For the saying which he proclaimed by the word of YHWH against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, will surely happen."

33After this thing Jeroboam did not return from his evil way, but again made priests of the high will tell you what will become of the child."

4Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age. 5YHWH said to Ahijah, "Look, the wife of Jeroboam comes to inquire of you concerning her son; for he is sick.
Thus and thus you shall tell her; for it will be, when she comes in, that she will pretend to be another woman."

6It was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said,
"Come in, you wife of Jeroboam.
Why do you pretend to be another?
For I am sent to you with heavy news. 7Go, tell Jeroboam, 'Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel:
"Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you prince over my people Israel, 8and tore the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it you; and yet you have not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in my eyes, 9but have done evil above all who were before you, and have gone and made you other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and have cast me behind your back: 10therefore, look, I will bring disaster on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam everyone who urinates on a wall,[b] he who is shut up and he who is left at large in Israel, and will utterly sweep away the house of Jeroboam, as a man sweeps away dung, until it is all gone. 11He who dies of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and he who dies in the field shall the birds of the sky eat: for YHWH has spoken it."' 12Arise therefore, and go to your house.
When your feet enter into the city, the child shall die. 13All Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him; for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward YHWH, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam. 14Moreover YHWH will raise him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam. This is day. What?
Even now. 15For YHWH will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and he will root up Israel out of this good land which he gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the River, because they have made their Asherim, provoking YHWH to anger. [16]He will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he has sinned, and with which he has made Israel to sin."

[17]Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah. As she came to the threshold of the house, the child died. [18]All Israel buried him, and mourned for him, according to the word of YHWH, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the prophet. [19]The rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, look, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. [20]The days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his place. [21]Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which YHWH had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. [22]Judah did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, above all that their fathers had done. [23]For they also built them high places, and pillars, and Asherim, on every high hill, and under every green tree; [24]and there were also male shrine prostitutes in the land: they did according to all the abominations of the nations which YHWH drove out before the children of Israel. [25]It happened in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem; [26]and he took away the treasures of the house of YHWH, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all: and he took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made. [27]King Rehoboam made in their place shields of bronze, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house. [28]It was so, that as often as the king went into the house of YHWH, the guard bore them, and brought them back into the guard room. [29]Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [30]There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. [31]Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. Abijam his son reigned in his place.

15 Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat began Abijam to reign over Judah. [2]He reigned three years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. [3]He walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; and his heart was not perfect with YHWH his God, as the heart of David his father. [4]Nevertheless for David's sake, YHWH his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem; 5because David did that which was right in the eyes of YHWH, and did not turn aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except only in the matter of Uriah the Hethite. 6Now there was war between Abijam[a] and Jeroboam all the days of his life. 7The rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? There was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. 8Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the City of David: and Asa his son reigned in his place. 9In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Asa to reign over Judah. 10He reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. 11Asa did that which was right in the eyes of YHWH, as did David his father. 12And he banished the male temple prostitutes out of the land and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. 13Also Maacah his mother he removed from being queen, because she had made an abominable image for an Asherah; and Asa cut down her image, and burnt it in the Kidron Valley. 14But the high places were not taken away: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect with YHWH all his days. 15He brought into the house of YHWH the things that his father had dedicated, and the things that himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. 16There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. 17Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. 18Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of YHWH, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants; and king Asa sent them to Ben Hadad, the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Aram, who lived at Damascus, saying, 19"Let there be[b] a treaty between me and you, between my father and your father. Look, I have sent to you a present of silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me."

and its timber, with which Baasha had built; and king Asa built therewith Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah. 23Now the rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. 24Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father; and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place. 25Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah; and he reigned over Israel two years. 26He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin. 27Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha struck him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon. 28Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha killed him, and reigned in his place. 29It happened that, as soon as he was king, he struck all the house of Jeroboam: he did not leave to Jeroboam any who breathed, until he had destroyed him; according to the saying of YHWH, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite; 30for the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and with which he made Israel to sin, because of his provocation with which he provoked YHWH, the God of Israel, to anger. 31Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 32There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. 33In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel in Tirzah for twenty-four years. 34He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.

16 The word of YHWH came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying, 2"Because I exalted you out of the dust, and made you ruler over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins; 3look, I will utterly sweep away Baasha and his house; and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. 4The dogs will eat Baasha's descendants who die in the city; and he who dies of his in the field the birds of the sky will eat."

5Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 6Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah; and Elah his son reigned in his place.[a] 7Moreover by the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of YHWH against Baasha, and against his house, both because of all the evil that he did in the sight of YHWH, to provoke him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he struck him.

8In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah for two years. 9His servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him.
Now he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household in Tirzah. 10And Zimri went in and struck him, and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place. 11It happened, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he struck all the house of Baasha: he did not leave him a single one who urinates on a wall,[b] neither of his relatives, nor of his friends.
12Thus Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of YHWH, which he spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, 13for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned, and with which they made Israel to sin, to provoke YHWH, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. 14Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
15In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. Now the people were camped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.
16The people who were camped heard it said, "Zimri has conspired, and has also struck the king." Therefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp. 17Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. 18It happened, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the citadel of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died, 19for his sins which he sinned in doing that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin. 20Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he committed, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
21Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri. 22But the people who followed Omri prevailed against the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Joram his brother at that time,[c] and Omri became king in the place of Tibni.[a] 23In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel for twelve years. He reigned six years in Tirzah. 24He bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver; and he built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill, Samaria. 25Omri did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, and dealt wickedly above all who were before him. 26For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins with which he made Israel to sin, to provoke YHWH, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. 27Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he showed,

aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 28So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son reigned in his place. 29In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years. 30Ahab the son of Omri did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH[b] above all that were before him. 31It happened, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshiped him. 32He reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. 33Ahab made the Asherah; and Ahab did yet more to provoke YHWH, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him. 34In his days Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho: he laid its foundation with the loss of Abiram his firstborn, and set up its gates with the loss of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of YHWH, which he spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

17 And Elijah the Tishbite, of the inhabitants[c] of Gilead, said to Ahab, "As YHWH, the God of Israel, lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, except by my word." 2And the word of YHWH came to him, saying, 3"Go away from here, turn eastward, and hide yourself by the Wadi Cherith, that is near the Jordan. 4And it shall be that you will drink from the wadi. I have commanded the ravens to feed you there." 5So he went and did according to the word of YHWH; for he went and lived by the Wadi Cherith, that is near the Jordan. 6And the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening.
And he drank from the wadi. 7And it happened after a while that the wadi dried up, because there was no rain in the land. 8The word of YHWH came to him, saying,

9"Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and stay there.
Look, I have commanded a widow there to provide for you."

10So he got up and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, look, a widow was there gathering wood. And he called to her, and said, "Please bring me a little water in a pitcher, that I may drink."

11And as she was going to get it, he called to her, and said, "Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand."

12She said, "As YHWH your God lives, I do not have anything baked, except a handful of flour in a jar, and a little oil in a jug. Look, I am gathering a couple of sticks, that I may go in and bake it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die."

13And Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid. Go and do as you have said. But make me of it a little cake first, and bring it out to me, and afterward make some for yourself and for your son. 14For thus says YHWH, the God of Israel,
'The jar of flour shall not empty, neither shall the jug of oil be empty, until the day that YHWH sends rain on the surface of the land.'"

15And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah.
And she, and he, and her household, ate for a long time.
16The jar of flour did not empty, neither did the jug of oil become empty, according to the word of YHWH, which he spoke by Elijah.
17It happened after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick. And his illness was so severe that there was no breath left in him. 18And she said to Elijah, "What do we have in common, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to memory, and to kill my son."

19And he said to her, "Give me your son." And he took him out of her lap and carried him up into the room where he stayed, and laid him on his own bed. 20He cried to YHWH, and said, "YHWH my God, have you also brought disaster on the widow with whom I sojourn, by killing her son?"

21And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and called out to YHWH, and said, "YHWH my God, please let this child's soul come into him again."

22YHWH listened to the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived. 23And Elijah[a] took the child and brought him down out of the room into the house and gave him to his mother. And Elijah said, "See, your son lives."

[a]17:23 LXX reads "And it was so. The lad cried out, and he"

[24]And the woman said to Elijah, "Now I know that you are a man of God and that the word of YHWH in your mouth is the truth."

18 And it happened after many days that the word of YHWH came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, "Go, present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the land."
[2]So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab. And the famine was severe in Samaria. [3]And Ahab summoned Obadiah, the steward of the house. (Now Obadiah feared YHWH greatly. [4]And it came about, when Jezebel was killing the prophets of YHWH, that Obadiah took one hundred prophets and hid them, fifty by fifty[a] in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.) [5]And Ahab said to Obadiah, "Go through the land, to all the springs of water, and to all the wadis. Perhaps we may find grass and save the horses and mules alive, that we not lose all the animals."

[6]So they divided the land between them to explore it; Ahab went one way alone, and Obadiah went another way alone. [7]And as Obadiah was on the way, look, Elijah met him; and he recognized him and fell on his face and said, "Is it you, my lord Elijah?"

[8]He answered him, "It is I. Go, tell your lord, 'Look, Elijah is here.'"

[9]And he said, "How have I sinned, that you would deliver your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me? [10]As YHWH your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom, where my lord has not sent to seek you. When they said, 'He is not here,' he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they did not find you. [11]Now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, "Look, Elijah is here."' [12]It will happen, as soon as I am gone from you, that the Spirit of YHWH will carry you I do not know where; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he can't find you, he will kill me. But I, your servant, have feared YHWH from my youth. [13]Wasn't it told my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of YHWH, how I hid one hundred men of YHWH's prophets, fifty by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water? [14]Now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, "Look, Elijah is here";' and he will kill me."

[15]Elijah said, "As YHWH of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely present myself to him today." [16]So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah. [17]It happened, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, "Is that you, you troubler of Israel?"

[a]18:4 Hebrew Mss Tg. MT lacks "fifty" from whole-word haplography 18He answered, “I have not troubled Israel; but you, and your father’s house, in that you have forsaken the commandments of YHWH, and you have followed the Baals. 19Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel to Mount Carmel, and four hundred fifty of the prophets of Baal, and four hundred of the prophets of the Asherah, who eat at Jezebel’s table.”

20So Ahab sent to all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together at Mount Carmel. 21Elijah came near to all the people, and said, “How long will you keep limping between two positions? If YHWH is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him.”

But the people did not answer him a word.

22Then Elijah said to the people, “I, even I only, am left a prophet of YHWH; but the prophets of Baal are four hundred and fifty men, and the prophets of Asherah four hundred.[a] 23Let them therefore give us two bulls; and let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under. And I will prepare the other bull, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under it. 24You call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of YHWH, and the god who answers by fire, he is God.”

All the people answered, “It is well said.”

25Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Choose one bull for yourselves, and prepare it first, for you are the majority, and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it.”

26And they took the bull which was given them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, “Baal, answer us.” But there was no voice, nor any who answered. And they limped about the altar they[b] had made. 27And it came about, at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, “Cry aloud, for he is a god. Maybe he is thinking about it, or he is busy,[c] or he is on a trip, or perhaps he is sleeping and must be awakened.”

28And they cried aloud, and cut themselves, as was their custom, with swords and spears, until the blood gushed out on them. 29And when midday was past, they prophesied until the offering up of the offering; but there was no voice, no answer, and no response. 30Elijah said to all the people, “Come near to me”; and all the people came near to him. repaired the altar of YHWH that had been torn down. 31Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of YHWH came, saying, "Israel shall be your name." 32And with the stones he built an altar in the name of YHWH.
And he made a trench around the altar, large enough to contain two seahs of seed. 33And he arranged the wood, and cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood. 34And he said, "Fill four jars with water, and pour it on the burnt offering, and on the wood." And they did so.[a] And he said, "Do it a second time"; and they did it the second time. And he said, "Do it a third time"; and they did it the third time. 35And the water ran around the altar; and he also filled the trench with water.

36It happened at the time of the offering up of the offering, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, "YHWH, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your word. 37Hear me, YHWH, hear me, that this people may know that you, YHWH, are God, and that you have turned their heart back again."

38Then the fire of YHWH fell, and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. 39And when all the people saw it, they fell facedown and said, "YHWH, he is God. YHWH, he is God."

40And Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal. Do not let one of them escape."

And they seized them. And Elijah brought them down to the Wadi Kishon, and killed them there.

41And Elijah said to Ahab, "Get up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of a heavy rain."

42So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bowed himself down toward the ground, and put his face between his knees. 43And he said to his servant, "Go up now, look toward the sea." So he went up, and looked, and said, "There is nothing." Then he said, "Go again" seven times. And the servant went again seven times.[b]

44It happened at the seventh time, that he said, "Look, a small cloud, like a man's hand, is rising out of the sea."

He said, "Go up, tell Ahab, 'Get ready and go down, so that the rain doesn't stop you.'"

45It happened in a little while, that the sky grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a heavy rain. Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel. 46The hand of YHWH was on Elijah; and he tucked his cloak into his belt and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

19 Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the came and sat down under a broom tree. And he requested for himself that he might die, and said, "It is enough. Now, YHWH, take away my life, for I am no better than my fathers."

5He lay down and slept under a broom tree. And look, an angel touched him, and said to him,
"Arise and eat."

6He looked, and look, there was at his head a cake baked on the coals, and a jar of water. He[c] ate and drank, and lay down again.
7The angel of YHWH came again the second time, and touched him, and said, "Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you."

8And he got up and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the Mount of God. 9And there he came to a cave and lodged there; and look, the word of YHWH came to him, and he said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

10He said, "I have been very jealous for YHWH, the God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and slain your prophets with the sword, and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away."

11And he said, "Go out tomorrow[d] and stand on the mountain before YHWH." Look, YHWH passed by, and a great and strong wind tore the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before YHWH; but YHWH was not in the wind. After the wind an earthquake; but YHWH was not in the earthquake. 12After the earthquake a fire passed; but

YHWH was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice. 13It was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his cloak, and went out, and stood in the entrance of the cave. Look, a voice came to him, and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

14He said, "I have been very jealous for YHWH, the God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and slain your prophets with the sword, and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away."
15YHWH said to him, "Go, return on your way, and you will come to the way[a] of the wilderness of Damascus, and when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael to be king over Aram. 16You shall anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi to be king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel Meholah to be prophet in your place. 17It shall happen, that he who escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu will kill; and he who escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha will kill. 18Yet I have kept for myself[b] seven thousand people[c] in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal,[d] and every mouth that has not kissed him."

19So he departed there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing, with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed over to him, and cast his cloak on him. 20He left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, "Let me please kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you."

He said to him, "Go back again; for what have I done to you?"

21He returned from following him, and took the yoke of oxen, and killed them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave to the people, and they ate. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and served him.

20 Ben Hadad the king of Aram gathered all his army together; and there were thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and fought against it. 2He sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel, into the city, and said to him, "Thus says Ben Hadad, 3'Your silver and your gold is mine. Your wives also and your children, even the best, are mine.'"

[d]19:18 Romans 11:4

4The king of Israel answered, "It is according to your saying, my lord, O king. I am yours, and all that I have."

5The messengers came again, and said, "Ben Hadad says, 'I sent indeed to you, saying, "You shall deliver me your silver, and your gold, and your wives, and your children; 6but I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house, and the houses of your servants; and it shall be, that whatever is pleasant in their[a] eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away."'"

7Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, "Please notice how this man seeks mischief; for he sent to me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold;
and I did not deny him."

8All the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not listen, neither consent."

9Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben Hadad, "Tell my lord the king, 'All that you sent for to your servant at the first I will do; but this thing I cannot do.'" The messengers departed, and brought him back the message. 10Ben Hadad sent to him, and said, "The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people who follow me."

11The king of Israel answered, "Tell him, 'Do not let him who puts on his armor brag like he who takes it off.'"

12It happened, when Ben Hadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings, in the pavilions, that he said to his servants, "Prepare to attack." They prepared to attack the city.

13Look, a prophet came near to Ahab king of Israel, and said, "Thus says YHWH, 'Have you seen all this great multitude? Look, I will deliver it into your hand this day; and you shall know that I am YHWH.'"

14Ahab said, "By whom?" He said, "Thus says YHWH, 'By the young men of the governors of the districts.'"

Then he said, "Who shall begin the battle?"

He answered, "You."

15Then he mustered the young men of the governors of the districts, and they were two hundred and thirty-two. After them, he mustered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand. 16They went out at noon. But Ben Hadad was drinking

[a]20:6 LXX Syr Vg. MT reads "your"

himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings who helped him. 17The young men of the governors of the districts went out first; and Ben Hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, "Men are coming out from Samaria."

18He said, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; or if they have come out for war, take them alive."

19So these went out of the city, the young men of the governors of the districts, and the army which followed them. 20They each killed his man. The Arameans fled, and Israel pursued them. Ben Hadad the king of Aram escaped on a horse with horsemen. 21The king of Israel went out, and struck the horses and chariots, and killed the Arameans with a great slaughter. 22The prophet came near to the king of Israel, and said to him, "Go, strengthen yourself, and mark, and see what you do; for at the return of the year the king of Aram will come up against you."

23The servants of the king of Aram said to him, "Their god is a god of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we. But let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. 24Do this thing: take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their place. 25Muster an army, like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot. We will fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than them."

He listened to their voice, and did so. 26It happened at the return of the year, that Ben Hadad mustered the Arameans, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel. 27The children of Israel were mustered, and were provisioned, and went against them. The children of Israel camped before them like two little flocks of young goats; but the Arameans filled the country. 28A man of God came near and spoke to the king of Israel, and said,[a] "Thus says YHWH, 'Because the Arameans have said, "YHWH is a god of the hills, but he is not a god of the valleys"; therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am YHWH.'" 29They camped one over against the other seven days. So it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel killed one hundred thousand footmen of the Arameans in one day. 30But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men who were left. Ben Hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner room. 31His servants said to him, "See now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please let us put sackcloth on our bodies, and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel. Maybe he will save your life."

[32]So they put sackcloth on their bodies and ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, "Your servant Ben Hadad says, 'Please let me live.'"

He said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

[33]Now the men were looking for an omen, and they seized upon it from him,[a] and they said, "Ben Hadad is your brother." Then he said, "Go, bring him." Then Ben Hadad came out to him, and he had him come up into the chariot. [34]Ben Hadad said to him, "The cities which my father took from your father I will restore. You shall make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria."

"I," said Ahab, "will let you go with this covenant." So he made a covenant with him, and let him go.

[35]A certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow by the word of YHWH, "Please strike me."

The man refused to strike him. [36]Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed the voice of YHWH, look, as soon as you are departed from me, a lion shall kill you." As soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and killed him.

[37]Then he found another man, and said, "Please strike me."

The man struck him, smiting and wounding him. [38]So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with his headband over his eyes. [39]As the king passed by, he cried to the king; and he said, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and look, a man turned aside, and brought a man to me, and said, 'Guard this man. If by any means he be missing, then your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.' [40]As your servant was busy here and there, he was gone."

The king of Israel said to him, "So your judgment shall be; you yourself have decided it."

[41]He hurried, and took the headband away from his eyes; and the king of Israel recognized that he was of the prophets. [42]He said to him, "Thus says YHWH, 'Because you have let go out of your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life

[a]20:33 Hebrew Mss Versions cf. BHS. MT has misdivided two words shall go for his life, and your people for his people.'" 43The king of Israel went to his house sullen and angry, and came to Samaria.

21 It happened after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, near the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. 2Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is near to my house; and I will give you for it a better vineyard than it. Or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its worth in money."

3Naboth said to Ahab, "May YHWH forbid me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you."

4Ahab came into his house sullen and angry because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." He laid himself down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread. 5But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, "Why is your spirit so sad, that you eat no bread?"

6He said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard for it.' He answered, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'" 7Jezebel his wife said to him, "Do you now govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise, and eat bread, and let your heart be merry. I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite." 8So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who were in his city, who lived with Naboth. 9She wrote in the letters, saying, "Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. 10Set two men, base fellows, before him, and let them testify against him, saying, 'You cursed[a] God and the king.' Then carry him out, and stone him to death."

11The men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, according as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them. 12They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. 13The two men, the base fellows, came in and sat before him. The base fellows testified against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth cursed God and the king." Then they carried him out of the city, and stoned him to death with stones. 14Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned, and is dead."

15It happened, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead."

16It happened, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it. 17The word of YHWH came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 18"Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who dwells in Samaria. Look, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it. 19You shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says YHWH, "Have you killed and also taken possession?"' You shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says YHWH, "In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, dogs will lick your blood, even yours."'"

20And Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, my enemy?" And he answered, "I have found you, because you have sold yourself[a] to do that which is evil in the sight of YHWH, to provoke him to anger.[b] 21Thus says YHWH,[c] 'Look, I will bring disaster on you, and will utterly sweep you away and will cut off from Ahab everyone, slave or free in Israel. 22I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah for the provocation with which you have provoked me to anger, and have made Israel to sin.'" 23YHWH also spoke of Jezebel, saying, "The dogs shall eat Jezebel in the district[d] of Jezreel. 24The dogs will eat he who dies of Ahab in the city; and the birds of the sky will eat he who dies in the field."

25But there was none like Ahab, who sold himself to do that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. 26He did very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom YHWH cast out before the children of Israel. 27It happened, when Ahab heard those words, that he tore his clothes, and put sackcloth on his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

[28]The word of YHWH came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, [29]"See how Ahab humbles himself before me? Because he humbles himself before me, I will not bring the disaster in his days; but in his son's days will I bring the disaster on his house."

22 They continued three years without war between Aram and Israel. [2]It happened in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel. [3]The king of Israel said to his servants, "You know that Ramoth Gilead is ours, and we are still, and do not take it out of the hand of the king of Aram?" [4]He said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to battle to Ramoth Gilead?"

Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." [5]Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire first for the word of YHWH."

[6]Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall I go against Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?" They said, "Go up; for YHWH[a] will deliver it into the hand of the king."

[7]But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there here a prophet of YHWH, that we may inquire of him?"

[8]The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of YHWH, Micaiah the son of Imlah; but I hate him; for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil."

Jehoshaphat said, "Do not let the king say so."

[9]Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, "Quickly get Micaiah the son of Imlah."

[10]Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.
[11]Zedekiah the son of Kenaanah made him horns of iron, and said, "Thus says YHWH, 'With these you shall push the Arameans, until they are consumed.'" [12]All the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper; for YHWH will deliver it into the hand of the king."

[13]The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying,
"See now, the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth.
Please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak good."

[a]22:6 Hebrew Mss Tg. MT reads
"Lord"

[14]Micaiah said, “As YHWH lives, what YHWH says to me, that I will speak.”

[15]When he had come to the king, the king said to him, “Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall we forbear?”

He answered him, “Go up and prosper; and YHWH will deliver it into the hand of the king.” [16]The king said to him, “How many times do I have to adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of YHWH?”

[17]He said, “I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. YHWH said, ‘These have no master. Let them each return to his house in peace.’”

[18]The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?”

[19]Micaiah said, “Therefore hear the word of YHWH. I saw YHWH sitting on his throne, and all the army of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left. [20]YHWH said, ‘Who shall entice Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth Gilead?’ One said one thing; and another said another. [21]A spirit came out and stood before YHWH, and said, ‘I will entice him.’ [22]YHWH said to him, ‘How?’ He said, ‘I will go out and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ He said, ‘You will entice him, and will also prevail. Go out and do so.’ [23]Now therefore, look, YHWH has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; and YHWH has pronounced disaster against you.”

[24]Then Zedekiah the son of Kenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, “Which way did the Spirit of YHWH go from me to speak to you?”

[25]Micaiah said, “Look, you will see on that day, when you go into an inner room to hide yourself.”

[26]The king of Israel said, “Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king’s son. [27]Say, ‘Thus says the king, “Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.”’”

[28]Micaiah said, “If you return at all in peace, YHWH has not spoken by me.” He said, “Listen, all you people.”

[29]So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. [30]The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat,[a] "I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but you put on your robes." The king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle.

31Now the king of Aram had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, except only with the king of Israel. 32It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "Surely that is the king of Israel." and they turned aside to fight against him. Jehoshaphat cried out.[b] 33It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. 34A certain man drew his bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor. Therefore he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn your hand, and carry me out of the battle; for I am severely wounded." 35The battle increased that day. The king was propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans, and died at evening. The blood ran out of the wound into the bottom of the chariot. 36A cry went throughout the army about the going down of the sun, saying, "Every man to his city, and every man to his country."

37So the king died,[c] and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria. 38They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood where the prostitutes washed themselves; according to the word of YHWH which he spoke.

39Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 40So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his place. 41Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. 42Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. 43He walked in all the way of Asa his father; He did not turn aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of YHWH: however the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. 44Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel. 45Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he showed, and how he warred, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [46]The remnant of the male temple prostitutes, that remained in the days of his father Asa, he put away out of the land. [47]There was no king in Edom: a deputy was king. [48]Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold: but they did not go; for the ships were broken at Ezion Geber.

[49]Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Jehoshaphat would not. [50]Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father; Jehoram his son reigned in his place. [51]Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel. [52]He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, in which he made Israel to sin. [53]He served Baal, and worshiped him, and provoked to anger YHWH, the God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

The Second Book of Kings

1 Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. [2]Ahaziah fell down through the lattice in his upper room that was in Samaria, and was sick. So he sent messengers, and said to them, "Go, inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I will recover of this sickness."

[3]But the angel of YHWH said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and tell them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you go to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? [4]Now therefore thus says YHWH, "You shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die."'" Elijah departed.

[5]The messengers returned to him, and he said to them, "Why is it that you have returned?"

[6]They said to him, "A man came up to meet us, and said to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you, and tell him, "Thus says YHWH, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you send to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die.'"'"

[7]He said to them, "What kind of man was he who came up to meet you, and told you these words?"

[8]They answered him, "He was a hairy man, and wearing a leather belt around his waist."

He said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite."

[9]Then the king sent a captain of fifty with his fifty to him. He went up to him; and look, he was sitting on the top of the hill. He said to him, “Man of God, the king has said, ‘Come down.’”

[10]Elijah answered to the captain of fifty, “If I am a man of God, let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty.” Fire came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty.

[11]Again he sent to him another captain of fifty and his fifty. And he went up[a] and said to him, “Man of God, the king has said, ‘Come down quickly.’”

[12]And Elijah answered and said to him,[b] “If I am a man of God, let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty.” The fire of God came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty.

[13]And he tried again and sent a third captain with his fifty. The third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and begged him, and said to him, “Man of God, please let my life, and the life of these fifty your servants, be precious in your sight. [14]Look, fire came down from the sky, and consumed the two former captains of fifty with their fifties. But now let my life be precious in your sight.”

[15]The angel of YHWH said to Elijah, “Go down with him. Do not be afraid of him.”

He arose, and went down with him to the king. [16]He said to him, “Thus says YHWH, ‘Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die.’”

[17]So he died according to the word of YHWH which Elijah had spoken. And his brother[c] Jehoram began to reign in his place in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son. [18]Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?[d]

YHWH has sent me as far as Bethel."

Elisha said, "As YHWH lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel.

3The sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that YHWH will take away your master from your head today?"

He said, "Yes, I know it; hold your peace."

4Elijah said to him, "Elisha, please wait here, for YHWH has sent me to Jericho."

He said, "As YHWH lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." So they came to Jericho.

5The sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came near to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that YHWH will take away your master from your head today?"

He answered, "Yes, I know it. Hold your peace."

6Elijah said to him, "Please wait here, for YHWH has sent me to the Jordan."

He said, "As YHWH lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." They both went on. 7Fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood opposite them at a distance; and they both stood by the Jordan. 8Elijah took his cloak, and wrapped it together, and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that the two of them went over on dry ground. 9It happened, when they had gone over, that Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask what I shall do for you, before I am taken from you."

Elisha said, "Please let a double portion of your spirit be on me."

10He said, "You have asked a hard thing. If you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so."

11It happened, as they still went on, and talked, that look, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated them; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. 12Elisha saw it, and he cried, "My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen."

He saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and tore them in two pieces. 13And he picked up the cloak of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of the Jordan. 14And he took the cloak of Elijah that fell from him, and struck the water, and it did not divide.[a] And he said, "Where is YHWH, the God of Elijah, even he?" And he struck the water a second time,[b] and they divided to the one side and to the other; and Elisha crossed over. 15When the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho over against him saw him, they said, "The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha." They came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him. 16They said to him, "See now, there are with your servants fifty strong men. Please let them go and seek your master. Perhaps the Spirit of YHWH has taken him up and thrown him into the Jordan, or[c] on some mountain, or into some valley. He said, "You shall not send them."

17When they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, "Send them." They sent therefore fifty men; and they searched for three days, but did not find him. 18They came back to him, while he stayed at Jericho; and he said to them, "Did I not tell you not to go?"

19The men of the city said to Elisha, "Look, please, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the land miscarries."

20He said, "Bring me a new jar, and put salt in it." They brought it to him. 21He went out to the spring of the waters, and threw salt into it, and said, "Thus says YHWH, 'I have healed these waters. There shall not be from there any more death or miscarrying.'" 22So the waters were healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke.

23He went up from there to Bethel. As he was going up by the way, some youths came out of the city and mocked him, and said to him, "Go up, you baldy. Go up, you baldhead." 24He looked behind him and saw them, and cursed them in the name of YHWH. Two female bears came out of the woods, and mauled forty-two of those youths. 25He went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

3 Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. 2He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, but not like his father, and like his mother; for he put away the pillar of Baal that his father had made. [3]Nevertheless he held to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; he did not depart from it. [4]Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep breeder; and he rendered to the king of Israel the wool of one hundred thousand lambs, and of one hundred thousand rams. [5]But it happened, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. [6]King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time, and mustered all Israel. [7]He went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me against Moab to battle?"

He said, "I will go up. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." [8]He said, "Which way shall we go up?"

He answered, "The way of the wilderness of Edom." [9]So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom; and they made a circuit of seven days' journey. There was no water for the army, nor for the animals that followed them. [10]The king of Israel said, "Alas. For YHWH has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab."

[11]But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there here a prophet of YHWH, that we may inquire of YHWH by him?"

One of the king of Israel's servants answered, "Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah."

[12]And Jehoshaphat said, "The word of YHWH is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah[a] and the king of Edom went down to him.

[13]Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father, and to the prophets of your mother."

The king of Israel said to him, "No; for YHWH has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab." [14]Elisha said, "As YHWH of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I respect the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward you, nor see you. [15]But now bring me a minstrel." It happened, when the minstrel played, that the hand of YHWH came on him. [16]He said, "Thus says YHWH, 'Make this valley full of trenches.' [17]For thus says YHWH, 'You will not see wind, neither will you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, and you will drink, both you and your livestock and your animals. [18]This is but a light thing in the sight of YHWH. He will also deliver the Moabites into your hand. [19]You shall strike every fortified city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all springs of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.'" [20]It happened in the morning, about the time of offering the offering, that look, water came by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

[21]Now when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, they gathered themselves together, all who were able to put on armor, and upward, and stood on the border. [22]They rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water over against them as red as blood. [23]They said, "This is blood. The kings are surely destroyed, and they have struck each other. Now therefore, Moab, to the spoil."

[24]When they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went forward into the land smiting the Moabites. [25]They beat down the cities; and on every good piece of land they cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the springs of water, and felled all the good trees, until in Kir Hareseth only they left its stones; however the men armed with slings went about it, and struck it. [26]When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too severe for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew sword, to break through to the king of Edom; but they could not. [27]Then he took his eldest son who would have reigned in his place, and offered him for a burnt offering on the wall. There was great wrath against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

4 Now a wife from among the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared YHWH, but the creditor has come to take for himself my two children to be his slaves."

[2]Then Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your servant has nothing in the house, except a small jar of oil."

[3]Then he said, "Go, ask for containers from outside, from all your neighbors, empty containers. [4]Then go in and shut the door behind yourself and your sons and pour into all these containers, and you are to set each one aside when it is full."

[5]So she left him and shut the door behind herself and her sons; they kept bringing her containers, and she kept pouring. [6]Now it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, "Bring me another container." But he said to her, "There aren't any more." Then the oil stopped flowing.

[7]Then she came and told the man of God, and he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debt, and you and your sons can live on the rest."

[8]Now it happened one day that Elisha traveled to Shunem, where there was a prominent woman, who urged him to eat some food. so whenever he passed by, he would stop in there to eat some food. [9]And she said to her husband, "Look now, I know that this is a holy man of God who often passes by us. [10]Please, let's make a little room on the wall, and let's set up a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp for him there, so that whenever he comes to us, he can stay there."

[11]Now it happened one day he came there, and he turned into the upper room and rested. [12]And he said to Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite." So he called for her and she stood before him. [13]And he said to him, "Say now to her, 'Look, you have gone to all this trouble for us. What can I do for you? Can I put in a good word for you to the king, or to the commander of the army?'" She answered, "I have a home among my own people."

[14]So he said, "What then can I do for her?" And Gehazi replied, "Actually, she has no son, and her husband is old."

[15]Then he said, "Call her." And when he had called her, she stood in the doorway. [16]And he said, "At this season, when the time comes around, you will be holding a son." And she said, "No, my lord, man of God, do not lie to your servant."

[17]But the woman conceived, and bore a son at that season, when the time came around, just as Elisha had said to her. [18]And the child grew and it happened one day that he went out to his father to the harvest workers. [19]And he said to his father, "My head, my head." And he said to his servant, "Carry him to his mother."

[20]And when he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her lap until noon, and died. [21]Then she went up and put him on the bed of the man of God and shut the door behind him and left. [22]Then she called to her husband and said, "Please send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God and then return."

[23]But he said, "Why would you want to see him today? It is not the new moon or Sabbath." And she said, "It's alright."

[24]Then she saddled a donkey, and said to her servant, "Lead on; do not slow down for me unless I tell you."

[25]So she went and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. So it happened when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, “Look, there is the Shunammite. 26Please run now to meet her and ask her, ‘Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?’” And she answered, “It is well.”

27But when she came to the man of God to the mountain, she grabbed hold of his feet. And Gehazi came near to push her away, but the man of God said, “Leave her alone, for she is in severe anguish, and YHWH has hidden it from me and has not told me.”

28Then she said, “Did I ask a son from my lord? Did I not say, ‘Do not mislead me?’”

29Then he said to Gehazi, “Tuck your cloak into your belt, and take my staff in your hand, and go. If you meet anyone, do not greet him, and if anyone greets you, do not reply. And lay my staff on the face of the child.”

30But the mother of the child said, “As YHWH lives and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.” So he arose and followed her.

31Now Gehazi went on ahead of them and placed the staff on the face of the child, but there was no sound or response. Therefore he came back to meet him and told him, saying, “The child did not wake up.”

32When Elisha arrived at the house, look, the child was dead, lying on his bed. 33So he went in and shut the door on the two of them and prayed to YHWH. 34Then he got up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands, and he stretched himself upon him, and the body of the child grew warm. 35Then he returned and walked in the house once back and forth, and went up and stretched himself upon him, and the child sneezed seven times and the child opened his eyes. 36Then he called to Gehazi and said, “Call this Shunammite.” So he called her. When she had come in to him, he said, “Pick up your son.”

37Then she came in and fell at his feet and bowed herself to the ground. Then she picked up her son and left.

38Now Elisha came again to Gilgal, while there was a famine in the land. And the sons of the prophets were sitting before him, and he said to his servant, “Put on the large pot, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets.”

39Then one of them went out into the field to gather herbs and found a wild vine, and gathered as many of its gourds as his garment would hold, and came and cut them up into the pot of stew, for he was unaware what it was. 40So they poured out for the men to eat. Now it happened, as they were eating of the stew, that they cried out, and said, “Man of God, there is death in the pot.” And they could not eat it.

41But he said, “Bring some flour.”[a] And he threw it into the pot and said, “Pour it out for the people, that they may eat.” And there was no harm in the pot.

42Now a man from Baal Shalishah came and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of grain in his sack. And he said, “Give to the people, that they may eat.”

43But his servant said, “What, should I set this before a hundred men?” So he said, “Give them to the people so that they may eat, for thus says YHWH, ‘They will eat, and will have some left over.’”

44So he set it before them, and they ate, and had some left over, according to the word of YHWH.

5 Now Naaman, captain of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man with his master, and honorable, because by him YHWH had given victory to Aram: he was also a mighty man of valor, but he was a leper. 2The Arameans had gone out in bands, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maiden; and she waited on Naaman’s wife. 3She said to her mistress, “I wish that my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria. Then he would heal him of his leprosy.”

4Someone went in, and told his lord, saying, “The maiden who is from the land of Israel said this.”

5The king of Aram said, “Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel.”

He departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of clothing. 6He brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, “Now when this letter has come to you, look, I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may heal him of his leprosy.”

7It happened, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he tore his clothes, and said, “Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends to me to heal a man of his leprosy? But please consider and see how he seeks a quarrel against me.”

8It was so, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, “Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel.”

[a]4:41 Hebrew Mss Versions. MT reads “And bring some flour” 9So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariots, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. 10Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall come again to you, and you shall be clean."

11But Naaman was angry, and went away, and said, "Look, I thought, 'He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of YHWH[a] his God, and wave his hand over the place, and heal the leper.' 12Aren't Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel?
Couldn't I go[b] wash in them, and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.

13His servants came near, and spoke to him, and said, "My father, if[c] the prophet had asked you to do some great thing, wouldn't you have done it? How much rather then, when he says to you, 'Wash, and be clean?'"

14Then he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. 15He returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him; and he said, "See now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel. Now therefore, please take a gift from your servant."

16But he said, "As YHWH lives, before whom I stand, I will receive none."

He urged him to take it; but he refused. 17Naaman said, "If not, then, please let two mules' burden of earth be given to your servant; for your servant will from now on offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice to other gods, but to YHWH. 18In this thing may YHWH pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon. When I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, may YHWH pardon your servant in this thing."

19He said to him, "Go in peace."

So he departed from him a little way. 20But Gehazi the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, "Look, my master has spared this Naaman the Aramean, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought. As YHWH lives, I will run after him, and take something from him."

21So Gehazi followed after Naaman. When Naaman saw one running after him, he came down from the chariot to meet him, and said, “Is all well?”

[22]He said, “All is well. My master has sent me, saying, ‘Look, even now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothing.’”

[23]Naaman said, “Be pleased to take two talents.” He urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing, and laid them on two of his servants; and they carried them before him. [24]When he came to the hill, he took them from their hand, and stored them in the house. Then he let the men go, and they departed. [25]But he went in, and stood before his master. Elisha said to him, “Where did you come from, Gehazi?”

He said, “Your servant went nowhere.”

[26]He said to him, “Did not my heart go with you, when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive groves and vineyards, and sheep and cattle, and male servants and female servants? [27]Therefore the leprosy of Naaman will cling to you and to your descendants forever.”

He went out from his presence a leper, as white as snow.

6 The sons of the prophets said to Elisha, “See now, the place where we dwell before you is too small for us. [2]Please let us go to the Jordan, and every man take a beam from there, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell.”

He answered, “Go.”

[3]One said, “Please be pleased to go with your servants.”

He answered, “I will go.” [4]So he went with them. When they came to the Jordan, they cut down wood. [5]But as one was felling a beam, the axe head fell into the water. Then he cried, and said, “Alas, my master. For it was borrowed.”

[6]The man of God asked, “Where did it fall?” He showed him the place. He cut down a stick, threw it in there, and made the iron float. [7]He said, “Take it.” So he put out his hand and took it.

[8]Now the king of Aram was warring against Israel; and he took counsel with his servants, saying, “My camp will be in such and such a place.”

[9]The man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, “Beware that you not pass such a place; for the Arameans are coming down there.” [10]The king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of; and he saved himself there, not once nor twice. 11The heart of the king of Aram was very troubled about this. He called his servants, and said to them, “Won’t you show me which of us is for the king of Israel?”

12One of his servants said, “No, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom.”

13He said, “Go and see where he is, that I may send and get him.”

It was told him, saying, “Look, he is in Dothan.”

14Therefore he sent horses, chariots, and a great army there. They came by night, and surrounded the city. 15When the servant of the man of God had risen early, and gone out, look, an army with horses and chariots was around the city. His servant said to him, “Alas, my master. What shall we do?”

16He answered, “Do not be afraid; for those who are with us are more than those who are with them.” 17Then Elisha prayed and said, “YHWH, please open his eyes, that he may see.” YHWH opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and look, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire around Elisha. 18When they came down to him, Elisha prayed to YHWH, and said, “Please strike this people with blindness.”

He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. 19Elisha said to them, “This is not the way, neither is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek.” He led them to Samaria. 20It happened, when they had come into Samaria, that Elisha said, “YHWH, open the eyes of these men, that they may see.”

YHWH opened their eyes, and they saw; and look, they were in the midst of Samaria. 21The king of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them, “My father, shall I strike them? Shall I strike them?”

22He answered, “You shall not strike them. Would you strike those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.”

23He prepared great feast for them. When they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. The bands of Aram stopped raiding the land of Israel.

24It happened after this, that Benhadad king of Aram gathered all his army, and went up and besieged Samaria. 25There was a great famine in Samaria. Look, they besieged it, until a donkey’s head was sold for eighty pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a kab[a] of dove's dung for five pieces of silver. [26]As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried to him, saying, "Help, my lord, O king."

[27]He said, "If YHWH doesn't help you, from where could I help you? From of the threshing floor, or from the winepress?" [28]The king said to her, "What ails you?"

She answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.' [29]So we boiled my son, and ate him: and I said to her on the next day, 'Give your son, that we may eat him;' and she has hidden her son."

[30]It happened, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he tore his clothes. Now he was passing by on the wall, and the people looked and saw that he had sackcloth against his skin. [31]Then he said, "God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stay on him this day."

[32]But Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. Then the king sent a man from before him; but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold the door shut against him. Isn't the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

[33]While he was still talking with them, look, the messenger came down to him. Then he said, "Look, this disaster is from YHWH. Why should I wait for YHWH any longer?"

7 Elisha said, "Hear the word of YHWH. Thus says YHWH, 'Tomorrow about this time a measure of fine flour will be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.'"

[2]Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, "Look, if YHWH made windows in heaven, could this thing be?"

He said, "Look, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat of it."

[3]Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate. And they said to one another, "Why do we sit here until we die? [4]If we say, 'We will enter into the city,' then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. If we sit still here, we also die. Now therefore come, and let us surrender to the army of the Arameans. If they save us alive, we will live; and if they kill us, we will only die."

[a]6:25 A kab was a dry measure unit, equivalent to about one quart or one liter.

5They rose up in the twilight, to go to the camp of the Arameans. When they had come to the outermost part of the camp of the Arameans, look, there was no man there. 6For YHWH[a] had made the army of the Arameans to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great army: and they said one to another, Look, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come on us. 7Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their donkeys, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life. 8When these lepers came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and ate and drink, and carried there silver, and gold, and clothing, and went and hid it. Then they came back, and entered into another tent, and carried there also, and went and hid it. 9Then they said one to another, "We aren't doing right. This day is a day of good news, and we keep silent. If we wait until the morning light, punishment will overtake us. Now therefore come, let us go and tell the king's household."

10So they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city; and they told them, saying, "We came to the camp of the Arameans, and, look, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but the horses tied, and the donkeys tied, and the tents as they were."

11The gatekeepers called out, and it was reported to the king's household within. 12The king arose in the night, and said to his servants, "I will now show you what the Arameans have done to us. They know that we are hungry. Therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, 'When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive, and get into the city.'"

13And one of his servants answered, "Please let some take five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city. Look, they are like the whole multitude of Israel who have already perished.[b] Let us send and see."

14They took therefore two chariots with horses; and the king sent after the army of the Arameans, saying, "Go and see."

15They went after them to the Jordan; and look, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Arameans had cast away in their haste. The messengers returned, and told the king. [16]The people went out, and plundered the camp of the Arameans. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of YHWH. [17]The king appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to be in charge of the gate: and the people trod on him in the gate, and he died as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him. [18]It happened, as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, "Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria"; [19]and that captain answered the man of God, and said, "Now, look, if YHWH should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be?" and he said, "Look, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat of it." [20]It happened like that to him; for the people trod on him in the gate, and he died.[a]

8 Now Elisha had spoken to the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise, and go, you and your household, and stay for a while wherever you can; for YHWH has called for a famine. It shall also come on the land seven years."

[2]The woman arose, and did according to the word of the man of God. She went with her household, and lived in the land of the Philistines seven years. [3]It happened at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines. Then she went forth to cry to the king for her house and for her land. [4]Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, "Please tell me all the great things that Elisha has done." [5]It happened, as he was telling the king how he had restored to life him who was dead, that look, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. Gehazi said, "My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life."

[6]When the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed to her a certain officer, saying, "Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now."

[7]Elisha came to Damascus; and Benhadad the king of Aram was sick. It was told him, saying, "The man of God has come here."

[8]The king said to Hazael, "Take a present in your hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of YHWH by him, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'"

[a]7:20 Vg Mss cf. DSS add "according to the word of the man of God"

9So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, "Your son Benhadad king of Aram has sent me to you, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'"

10Elisha said to him, "Go, say to him,[a] 'You shall surely recover;' however YHWH has shown me that he shall surely die." 11He settled his gaze steadfastly on him, until he was ashamed. Then the man of God wept.

12Hazael said, "Why do you weep, my lord?"

He answered, "Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel. You will set their strongholds on fire, and you will kill their young men with the sword, and will dash in pieces their little ones, and rip up their women with child."

13Hazael said, "But what is your servant, who is but a dog, that he should do this great thing?"

Elisha answered, "YHWH has shown me that you will be king over Aram."

14Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?"

He answered, "He told me that you would surely recover."

15It happened on the next day, that he took a thick cloth,[b] dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died. Then Hazael reigned in his place.
16In the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat then being king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign. 17He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign. He reigned eight years in Jerusalem.[c] 18He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for he had the daughter of Ahab as wife. He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH. 19However YHWH would not destroy Judah, for David his servant's sake, as he promised him to give to him a lamp for his children always.

20In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. 21Then Joram passed over to Zair, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, and the captains of the chariots; and the people fled to their tents. 22So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time. 23The rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 24Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his place. 25In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign. 26Twenty-two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri king of Israel. 27He walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, as did the house of Ahab; for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab. 28He went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead: and the Arameans wounded Joram. 29King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Arameans had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

9 Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him, "Put your belt on your waist, take this vial of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth Gilead. 2When you come there, find Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brothers, and carry him to an inner room. 3Then take the vial of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, 'Thus says YHWH, "I have anointed you king over Israel."' Then open the door, flee, and do not wait."

4So the young prophet went to Ramoth Gilead. 5When he came, look, the captains of the army were sitting. Then he said, "I have a message for you, captain." Jehu said, "To which of us all?" He said, "To you, O captain."

6He arose, and went into the house. Then he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, "Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, 'I have anointed you king over the people of YHWH, even over Israel. 7You shall strike the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of YHWH, at the hand of Jezebel. 8For the whole house of Ahab shall perish. I will cut off from Ahab everyone who urinates against a wall,[a] both him who is shut up and him who is left at large in Israel. 9I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah. 10The dogs will eat Jezebel on the plot of ground of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her.'" He opened the door, and fled.

[11]Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said to him, "Is all well? Why did this mad fellow come to you?"

He said to them, "You know the man and what his talk was." [12]They said, "That is a lie. Tell us now."

He said, "He said to me, 'Thus says YHWH, I have anointed you king over Israel.'"

[13]Then they hurried, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew the trumpet, saying, "Jehu is king."

[14]So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram was keeping Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Aram; [15]but king Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Arameans had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Aram.) Jehu said, "If this is your thinking, then let no one escape and go out of the city, to go to tell it in Jezreel." [16]So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram. [17]Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, "I see a company."

Joram said, "Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?'"

[18]So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?'"

Jehu said, "What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me."

The watchman said, "The messenger came to them, but he isn't coming back."

[19]Then he sent out a second on horseback, who came to them, and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?'"

Jehu answered, "What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me."

[20]The watchman said, "He came to them, and isn't coming back. The driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he drives furiously."

[21]Joram said, "Get ready."

They got his chariot ready. Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu, and found him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite. [22]It happened, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?"

He answered, "What peace, so long as the prostitution of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft abound?"

23Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, "There is treason, Ahaziah."

24Jehu drew his bow with his full strength, and shot Joram between his arms; and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.[a] 25Then Jehu said to Bidkar his captain, "Pick him up, and throw him in the plot of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for I[b] remember how when you and I rode together behind Ahab his father, YHWH pronounced this judgment on him: 26'Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons,' says YHWH; 'and I will repay you in this plot of ground,' says YHWH. Now therefore take and cast him onto the plot of ground, according to the word of YHWH."

27But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. Jehu followed after him, and said, "Shoot him also." And they shot him[c] in the chariot at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. He fled to Megiddo, and died there. 28His servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the City of David. 29In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah. 30When Jehu had come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her eyes, and attired her head, and looked out at the window. 31As Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, "Do you come in peace, Zimri, you murderer of your master?"

32He lifted up his face to the window, and said, "Who is on my side? Who?"

Two or three eunuchs looked out at him.

33He said, "Throw her down."

So they threw her down; and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses. Then he trampled her under foot. 34When he had come in, he ate and drink; and he said, "See now to this cursed woman, and bury her; for she is a king's daughter."

35They went to bury her; but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands. 36Therefore they came back, and told him.

He said, "This is the word of YHWH, which he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ‘The dogs will eat the flesh of Jezebel on the plot of Jezreel, 37and the body of Jezebel shall be as dung on the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel, so that they shall not say, “This is Jezebel.”’”

10 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, to the rulers of the city,[a] even the elders, and to the guardians of the sons of Ahab, saying, 2“Now as soon as this letter comes to you, since your master’s sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, fortified cities[b] also, and weapons. 3Select the best and fittest of your master’s sons, set him on his father’s throne, and fight for your master’s house.”

4But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, “Look, the two kings did not stand before him. How then shall we stand?” 5He who was over the household, and he who was over the city, the elders also, and those who raised the children, sent to Jehu, saying, “We are your servants, and will do all that you ask us. We will not make any man king. You do that which is good in your eyes.”

6Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, “If you are on my side, and if you will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men your master’s sons, and come to me to Jezreel by tomorrow this time.”

Now the king’s sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who brought them up. 7It happened, when the letter came to them, that they took the king’s sons, and killed them, even seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him to Jezreel. 8A messenger came, and told him, “They have brought the heads of the king’s sons.”

He said, “Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning.” 9It happened in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, “You are righteous. Look, I conspired against my master, and killed him; but who struck all these? 10Know now that nothing shall fall to the earth of the word of YHWH, which YHWH spoke concerning the house of Ahab. For YHWH has done that which he spoke by his servant Elijah.”

11So Jehu struck all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, with all his great men, his familiar friends, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

12He arose and departed, and went to Samaria. As he was at Beth Eked of the Shepherds on the way, 13 Jehu met with the brothers[a] of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said,

"Who are you?"

They answered, "We are the brothers of Ahaziah. We are going down to greet the children of the king and the children of the queen."

14 He said, "Take them alive."

They took them alive, and killed them at the pit of the shearing house, even forty-two men. He did not leave any of them. 15 When he had departed from there, he met Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him. He greeted him, and said to him, "Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart?" Jehonadab answered, "It is." And he said,[b] "If it is, give me your hand." He gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot.

16 He said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for YHWH." So he[c] made him ride in his chariot.
17 When he came to Samaria, he struck all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of YHWH, which he spoke to Elijah.
18 Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu will serve him much. 19 Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all of his worshippers, and all of his priests. Let none be absent; for I have a great sacrifice to Baal.
Whoever is absent, he shall not live." But Jehu did it in subtlety, intending that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

20 Jehu said, "Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal."

They proclaimed it. 21 Jehu sent through all Israel; and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that did not come. They came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled from one end to another. 22 He said to him who was over the vestry, "Bring out robes for all the worshippers of Baal."

He brought robes out to them. 23 Jehu went with Jehonadab the son of Rechab into the house of Baal. Then he said to the worshippers of Baal, "Search, and look that there are here with you none of the servants of YHWH, but the worshippers of Baal only."

24 They went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had appointed him eighty men outside, and said, "If any of the men whom I bring into your hands escape, he who lets him go, his life shall be for the life of him."

[25]It happened, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, "Go in, and kill them. Let none escape." They struck them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal. [26]They brought out the pillar[a] that was in the house of Baal, and burned it. [27]They broke down the pillar of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it a latrine, to this day. [28]Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

[29]However from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin, Jehu did not depart from after them, the golden calves that were in Bethel, and that were in Dan. [30]YHWH said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in executing that which is right in my eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your descendants of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel."

[31]But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of YHWH, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin. [32]In those days YHWH began to cut off from Israel; and Hazael struck them in all the borders of Israel; [33]from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the Valley of the Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan. [34]Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? [35]Jehu slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria. Jehoahaz his son reigned in his place. [36]The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

11 Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal family. [2]But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and secretly took him away from among the king's sons who were to be executed, even him and his nurse, and put them in the bedroom. So he was hidden from Athaliah and was not put to death; [3]He was with her hidden in the house of YHWH six years. Athaliah reigned over the land. [4]In the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the captains over hundreds of the Carites and of the guard, and brought them to him into the house of YHWH; and he made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of YHWH, and showed them the king's son. [5]He commanded them, saying, "This is the thing that you shall do: a third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath, shall be keepers of the watch of the king's house. 6A third part shall be at the Foundation Gate, and a third part at the gate behind the guard. So you shall keep the watch of the house, and be a barrier. 7The two companies of you, even all who go out on the Sabbath, shall keep the watch of the house of YHWH around the king. 8You shall surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand; and he who comes within the ranks, let him be slain. Be with the king when he goes out, and when he comes in."

9The captains over hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded; and they took every man his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath, with those who were to go out on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. 10The priest delivered to the captains over hundreds the spears and shields that had been king David's, which were in the house of YHWH. 11The guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, around the king. 12Then he brought out the king's son, and put the crown on him, and gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, "Long live the king."

13When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the house of YHWH: 14and she looked, and look, the king stood by the pillar, as the tradition was, and the captains and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and cried, "Treason. Treason."

15Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks. Kill him who follows her with the sword." For the priest said, "Do not let her be slain in the house of YHWH." 16So they made way for her; and she went by the way of the horses' entry to the king's house. She was slain there. 17Jehoiada made a covenant between YHWH and the king and the people, that they should be YHWH's people; between the king also and the people. 18All the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and broke it down; his altars and his images broke they in pieces thoroughly, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. The priest appointed officers over the house of YHWH. 19He took the captains over hundreds, and the Carites, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of YHWH, and came by the way of the Gate of the Guard to the king's house. He sat on the throne of the kings. 20So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. Athaliah they had slain with the sword at the king's house.

[21]Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.

12 In the seventh year of Jehu began Jehoash to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba. [2]Jehoash did that which was right in the eyes of YHWH all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him. [3]However the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. [4]Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the holy things that is brought into the house of YHWH, in current money, the money of the persons for whom each man is rated, and all the money that it comes into any man's heart to bring into the house of YHWH, [5]let the priests take it to them, every man from his acquaintance; and they shall repair the breaches of the house, wherever any breach shall be found."

[6]But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house. [7]Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and for the other priests, and said to them, "Why do you not repair the breaches of the house? Now therefore take no more money from your treasurers, but deliver it for the breaches of the house."

[8]The priests consented that they should take no more money from the people, neither repair the breaches of the house. [9]But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of YHWH: and the priests who kept the threshold put in it all the money that was brought into the house of YHWH. [10]It was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and they put up in bags and counted the money that was found in the house of YHWH. [11]They gave the money that was weighed out into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of YHWH: and they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders, who worked on the house of YHWH, [12]and to the masons and the stone cutters, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the breaches of the house of YHWH, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it.

[13]But there were not made for the house of YHWH cups of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of YHWH; [14]for they gave that to those who did the work, and repaired therewith the house of YHWH. [15]Moreover they did not demand an accounting from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to give to those who did the work; for they dealt faithfully. [16]The money for the trespass offerings, and the money for the sin offerings, was not brought into the house of YHWH: it was the priests'.

17Then Hazael king of Aram went up, and fought against Gath, and took it; and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem. 18Jehoash king of Judah took all the holy things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own holy things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of YHWH, and of the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Aram: and he went away from Jerusalem. 19Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of
the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 20His servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and struck Joash at the house of Millo, on the way that goes down to Silla. 21For Jozabad[a] the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David: and Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

13 In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria for seventeen years. 2He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; he did not depart from it.

3The anger of YHWH was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Aram, and into the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, continually. 4Jehoahaz begged YHWH, and YHWH listened to him; for he saw the oppression of Israel, how that the king of Aram oppressed them. 5(YHWH gave Israel a savior, so that they went out from under the hand of the Arameans; and the children of Israel lived in their tents as before.
6Nevertheless they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin; they[b] walked in them.
And the Asherah also remained in Samaria.) 7For he did not leave to Jehoahaz of the people any more than fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Aram destroyed them, and made them like the dust in threshing.

8Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 9Jehoahaz slept with his was evil in the sight of YHWH; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; but he walked in it.

12 Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 13 Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat on his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. 14 Now Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness of which he died: and Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over him, and said, "My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen."

15 Elisha said to him, "Take bow and arrows"; and he took to him bow and arrows. 16 He said to the king of Israel, "Put your hand on the bow"; and he put his hand on it. Elisha laid his hands on the king's hands. 17 He said, "Open the window eastward"; and he opened it. Then Elisha said, "Shoot." and he shot. He said, "YHWH's arrow of victory, even the arrow of victory over Aram; for you shall strike the Arameans in Aphek, until you have consumed them."

18 He said, "Take the arrows"; and he took them. He said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground"; and he struck three times, and stopped. 19 The man of God was angry with him, and said, "You should have struck five or six times. Then you would have struck Aram until you had consumed it, whereas now you shall strike Aram just three times."

20 Elisha died, and they buried him. Now the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year. 21 It happened, as they were burying a man, that look, they spied a band; and they cast the man into the tomb of Elisha: and as soon as the man touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet. 22 Hazael king of Aram oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. 23 But YHWH was gracious to them, and had compassion on them, and had respect to them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his presence as yet. 24 Hazael king of Aram died; and Benhadad his son reigned in his place. 25 Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Joash struck him three times, and recovered the cities of Israel.

14 In the second year of Joash son of Joahaz king of Israel began Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah to reign. 2 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem. 3 He did that which was right in the eyes of YHWH, yet not like David his father: he did according to all that Joash his father had done. 4However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

5It happened, as soon as the kingdom was established in his hand, that he killed his servants who had slain the king his father: 6but the children of the murderers he did not put to death; according to that which is written in the scroll of the law of Moses, as YHWH commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin." 7He killed of Edom in the Valley of Salt ten thousand, and took Sela by war, and called its name Joktheel, to this day. 8Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us look one another in the face."

9Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as wife. Then a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed by, and trampled down the thistle. 10You have indeed struck Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Enjoy the glory of it, and stay at home; for why should you meddle to your harm, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you?'" 11But Amaziah would not listen. So Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. 12Judah was defeated by Israel; and they fled every man to his tent. 13Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, six hundred eighty-nine feet.[a] 14He took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of YHWH, and in the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

15Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 16Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his place. 17Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.

[18]Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [19]They made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent after him to Lachish, and killed him there. [20]They brought him on horses; and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the City of David. [21]All the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah. [22]He built Eilat, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

[23]In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria for forty-one years. [24]He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH: he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. [25]He restored the border of Israel from Lebo Hamath to the sea of the Arabah, according to the word of YHWH, the God of Israel, which he spoke by his servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was of Gath Hepher.[a] [26]For YHWH saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter; for there was none shut up nor left at large, neither was there any helper for Israel. [27]YHWH did not say that he would blot out the name of Israel from under the sky; but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash. [28]Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damascus, and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, for Israel, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? [29]And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, and he was buried in Samaria[b] with the kings of Israel; and Zechariah his son reigned in his place.

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign. [2]Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. [3]He did that which was right in the eyes of YHWH, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. [4]However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

[5]YHWH struck the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house. Jotham the king's son was over the household, judging the people of the land. [6]Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 7Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his place.

8In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months. 9He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, as his fathers had done: he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. 10Then Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him and struck him down at Ibleam[a] and put him to death, and reigned in his place. 11Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, look, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. 12This was the word of YHWH which he spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel." So it came to pass.

13Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned for a month in Samaria. 14Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and killed him, and reigned in his place. 15Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, look, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
16Then Menahem struck Tiphsah,[b] and all who were in it, and its borders, from Tirzah: because they did not open to him, therefore he struck it; and all the women in it who were with child he ripped up. 17In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi began to reign over Israel for ten years in Samaria. 18He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH: he did not depart all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin.

19There came against the land Pul the king of Assyria; and Menahem gave Pul one thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand. 20Menahem exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and did not stay there in the land. 21Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

22Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his place. 23In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria for two years. 24He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH: he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. 25Pekah the son of Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him, and struck him in Samaria, in the citadel of the king's house, with Argob and Arieh; and with him were fifty men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and reigned in his place.

26Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, look, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. 27In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria for twenty years. 28He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH: he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin.

29In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel Beth Maacah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he carried them captive to Assyria. 30Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck him, and killed him, and reigned in his place, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. 31Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, look, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign. 33He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok. 34He did that which was right in the eyes of YHWH; he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done. 35However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. He built the Upper Gate of the house of YHWH. 36Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 37In those days YHWH began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Aram, and Pekah the son of Remaliah. 38Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. 2Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he did not do that which was right in the eyes of YHWH his God, like David his father. 3But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yes, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations, whom YHWH cast out from before the children of Israel. [4]He sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

[5]Then Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him. [6]At that time Rezin king of Aram recovered Eilat to Aram, and drove the Jews from Eilat; and the Arameans came to Eilat, and lived there, to this day. [7]So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Aram, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me." [8]Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of YHWH, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.

[9]The king of Assyria listened to him; and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried its people captive to Kir, and killed Rezin. [10]King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria, and saw the altar that was at Damascus; and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and its pattern, according to all its workmanship. [11]Urijah the priest built an altar: according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so Urijah the priest made it for the coming of king Ahaz from Damascus.

[12]When the king had come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king drew near to the altar, and offered on it. [13]He burnt his burnt offering and his meal offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings, on the altar. [14]The bronze altar, which was before YHWH, he brought from the forefront of the house, from between his altar and the house of YHWH, and put it on the north side of his altar.

[15]King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, "On the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening meal offering, and the king's burnt offering, and his meal offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meal offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice; but the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by." [16]Urijah the priest did so, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

[17]King Ahaz cut off the panels of the bases, and removed the basin from off them, and took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stone. [18]The covered way for the Sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry outside, turned he to the house of YHWH, because of the king of Assyria. [19]Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 20Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

17 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah began to reign in Samaria over Israel for nine years. 2He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, yet not as the kings of Israel who were before him. 3Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and brought him tribute. 4The king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

5Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. 6In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. 7It was so, because the children of Israel had sinned against YHWH their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods, 8and walked in the statutes of the nations, whom YHWH cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they made.

9The children of Israel did secretly things that were not right against YHWH their God: and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city; 10and they set them up pillars and Asherim on every high hill, and under every green tree; 11and there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the nations whom YHWH carried away before them; and they worked wicked things to provoke YHWH to anger; 12and they served idols, of which YHWH had said to them, "You shall not do this thing." 13Yet YHWH testified to Israel, and to Judah, by every prophet, and every seer, saying, "Turn from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets." 14Notwithstanding, they would not listen, but hardened their neck, like the neck of their fathers, who did not believe in YHWH their God. 15They rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified to them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and followed the nations that were around them, concerning whom YHWH had commanded them that they should not do like them. 16They forsook all the commandments of YHWH their

God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made an Asherah, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served Baal. [17]They caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, practiced divination and sorcery, and sold themselves to do that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, to provoke him to anger. [18]Therefore YHWH was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only. [19]Also Judah did not keep the commandments of YHWH their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made. [20]YHWH rejected all the descendants of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of plunderers, until he had cast them out of his sight. [21]For he tore Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drove Israel from following YHWH, and made them sin a great sin. [22]The children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they did not depart from them; [23]until YHWH removed Israel out of his sight, as he spoke by all his servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away out of their own land to Assyria to this day. [24]The king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Avva, and from Hamath and Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel; and they possessed Samaria, and lived in the cities of it. [25]So it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they did not fear YHWH: therefore YHWH sent lions among them, which killed some of them. [26]Therefore they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations which you have carried away, and placed in the cities of Samaria, do not know the law of the god of the land. Therefore he has sent lions among them, and look, they kill them, because they do not know the law of the god of the land."

[27]Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Carry there one of the priests whom you brought from there; and let him[a] go and live there, and let him teach them the law of the god of the land."

[28]So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear YHWH. [29]However every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities in which they lived. [30]The men of Babylon made Succoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, [31]and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burnt their children in the fire to Adrammelech and

[a]17:27 LXX Mss Syr Vg. MT reads "them"

Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. 32And they worshiped YHWH, yet they established their abominations in the houses of the high places which they made in Samaria, each nation in the city in which they dwelt.[a] And they worshiped YHWH, yet appointed from among themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33And they worshiped YHWH, yet served their own gods, after the ways of the nations from among whom they had been carried away. 34To this day they do what they did before: they do not fear YHWH, neither do they follow their statutes, or their ordinances, or the law or the commandment which YHWH commanded the descendants of Jacob, whom he named Israel; 35with whom YHWH had made a covenant, and commanded them, saying, "You shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them; 36but you shall fear YHWH, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, and you shall bow yourselves to him, and you shall sacrifice to him. 37The statutes and the ordinances, and the law and the commandment, which he wrote for you, you shall observe to do forevermore. You shall not fear other gods. 38You shall not forget the covenant that I have made with you; neither shall you fear other gods. 39But you shall fear YHWH your God; and he will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies." 40However they did not listen, but they did what they did before. 41So these nations feared YHWH, and served their engraved images. Their children likewise, and their children's children, as their fathers did, so they do to this day.

18 Now it happened in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. 2He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah. 3He did that which was right in the eyes of YHWH, according to all that David his father had done. 4He removed the high places, and broke the pillars, and cut down the Asherah: and he broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made; for in those days the children of Israel burned incense to it; and he called it Nehushtan. 5He trusted in YHWH, the God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among them that were before him. 6For he joined with YHWH; he did not depart from following him, but kept his commandments, which YHWH commanded Moses. [7]YHWH was with him; wherever he went forth he prospered: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and did not serve him. [8]He struck the Philistines to Gaza and its borders, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city. [9]It happened in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it. [10]At the end of three years they took it: in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. [11]The king of Assyria carried Israel away to Assyria, and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, [12]because they did not obey the voice of YHWH their God, but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of YHWH commanded, and would not hear it, nor do it. [13]Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them. [14]Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, "I have offended; return from me. That which you put on me, I will bear." The king of Assyria appointed to Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. [15]Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of YHWH, and in the treasures of the king's house. [16]At that time, Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of YHWH's temple, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria. [17]The king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rabsaris and Rabshakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great army to Jerusalem. They went up and came to Jerusalem[a] and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is on the highway of the Launderers' Field. [18]When they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebnah the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder. [19]Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, "What confidence is this in which you trust? [20]Do you think that empty words are strategy and power for war? Now on whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me? [21]Now, look, you trust in the staff of this bruised reed, even in Egypt. If a man leans on it, it will go into his hand, and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust on him. [22]But if you tell me, 'We trust in YHWH our God;' isn't that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?' [23]Now therefore, please give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. [24]How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? [25]Have I now come up without YHWH against this place to destroy it? YHWH said to me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it.'"""

[a]18:17 Hebrew Mss LXX Syr Vg. MT repeats "and they went up and came" due to dittography

[26]Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebnah, and Joah, said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in the Aramaic language; for we understand it. Do not speak with us in the Judean language, in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

[27]But Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me to your master, and to you, to speak these words? Hasn't he sent me to the men who sit on the wall, to eat their own dung, and to drink their own water with you?" [28]Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Judean language, and spoke, saying, "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria. [29]Thus says the king, 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you out of my[a] hand. [30]Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in YHWH, saying, "YHWH will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." [31]Do not listen to Hezekiah.' For thus says the king of Assyria, 'Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and everyone of you eat of his vine, and everyone of his fig tree, and everyone drink the waters of his own cistern; [32]until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and of honey, that you may live, and not die. Do not listen to Hezekiah, when he persuades you, saying, "YHWH will deliver us." [33]Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? [34]Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?[b] Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? [35]Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that YHWH should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?'"

[36]But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, "Do not answer him." [37]Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, came with Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

[a]18:29 Hebrew Mss LXX Tg Syr Vg. MT reads "his"

[b]18:34 LXX(L) Vg Mss read "Sepharvaim? And where are the gods of the land of Samaria?"

19 It happened, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of YHWH. [2]He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. [3]They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, 'This day is a day of trouble, of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to deliver them. [4]It may be YHWH your God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which YHWH your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.'"

[5]So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. [6]Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall tell your master, 'Thus says YHWH, "Do not be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. [7]Look, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."'"

[8]So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish. [9]When he heard it said of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "Look, he has come out to fight against you," he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying, [10]'Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, "Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. [11]Look, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. Will you be delivered? [12]Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the people of Eden that were in Telassar? [13]Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?"'" [14]Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the house of YHWH, and spread it before YHWH. [15]Hezekiah prayed before YHWH, and said, "YHWH, the God of Israel, who sit above the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. [16]Incline your ear, YHWH, and hear. Open your eyes, YHWH, and see. Hear the words of Sennacherib, with which he has sent to defy the living God. [17]Truly, YHWH, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands, [18]and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone. Therefore they have destroyed them. [19]Now therefore, YHWH our God, save us, I beg you, out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, YHWH, are God alone." [20]Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, 'Whereas you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard you. [21]This is the word that YHWH has spoken concerning him:

"The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you.
The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. [22]Whom have you defied and blasphemed?
Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel. [23]By your messengers you have defied YHWH,[a] and have said,
'With the multitude of my chariots, I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon; and I will cut down its tall cedars, and its choice fir trees; and I will enter into his farthest lodging place, the forest of his fruitful field. [24]I have dug and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet will I dry up all the rivers of Egypt.' [25]Haven't you heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times?
Now have I brought it to pass, that it should be yours to lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps.
[26]Therefore their inhabitants were of small power. They were dismayed and confounded. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the rooftops when it is scorched by the east wind.[b] [27]But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your raging against me. [28]Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in your nose, and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came."

[29]"'This shall be the sign to you: You shall eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs of the same; and in the third year sow, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat its fruit. [30]The remnant that has escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. [31]For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go out, and out of Mount Zion those who shall escape. The zeal of YHWH of hosts[c] will do this.'

[32]"Therefore thus says YHWH concerning the king of Assyria, 'He shall not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither shall he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. [33]By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and he shall not come to this city,' says YHWH.
[34]'For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake, and for my servant David's sake.'"

[35]It happened that night, that the angel of YHWH went out, and struck one hundred eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. When men arose early in the morning, look, these were all dead bodies. [36]So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and lived at Nineveh. [37]It happened, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

20 In those days was Hezekiah sick to death. Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, "Thus says YHWH, 'Set your house in order; for you shall die, and not live.'"

[2]Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to YHWH, saying, [3]"Remember now, YHWH, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight." Hezekiah wept bitterly.

[4]It happened, before Isaiah had gone out of the middle court,[a] that the word of YHWH came to him, saying, [5]"Turn back, and tell Hezekiah the prince of my people, 'Thus says YHWH, the God of David your father, "I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Look, I will heal you. On the third day, you shall go up to the house of YHWH. [6]I will add to your days fifteen years. I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for my own sake, and for my servant David's sake."'"

[7]Isaiah said, "Take a cake of figs."

They took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered. [8]Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What shall be the sign that YHWH will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of YHWH the third day?"

[9]Isaiah said, "This shall be the sign to you from YHWH, that YHWH will do the thing that he has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps?"

[10]Hezekiah answered, "It is a light thing for the shadow to go forward ten steps. Nay, but let the shadow return backward ten steps."

[11]Isaiah the prophet cried to YHWH; and he brought the shadow ten steps backward, by which it had gone down on the dial of Ahaz.
[12]At that time Marduk-Baladan[b] the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick, and had recovered.[a] 13Hezekiah was delighted at this,[b] and showed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious oil, and the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not show them. 14Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say? From where did they come to you?"

Hezekiah said, "They have come from a far country, even from Babylon."

15He said, "What have they seen in your house?"

Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

16Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of YHWH. 17'Look, the days come, that all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store to this day, shall be carried to Babylon. Nothing shall be left,' says YHWH. 18'Of your sons who shall issue from you, whom you shall father, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.'"

19Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of YHWH which you have spoken is good." He said moreover, "Isn't it so, if peace and truth shall be in my days?"

20Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool, and the conduit, and brought water into the city, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 21Hezekiah slept with his fathers; and Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

21 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hephzibah. 2He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, after the abominations of the nations whom YHWH cast out before the children of Israel. 3For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made an Asherah, as did Ahab king of Israel, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served them. 4He built altars in the house of YHWH, of which YHWH said, "I will put my name in Jerusalem." 5He built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of YHWH. 6He made his son to pass through the fire, and practiced sorcery, and practiced divination, and consulted mediums, and spiritists: he worked much evil in the sight of YHWH, to provoke him to anger. 7He set the engraved image of Asherah, that he had made, in the house of which YHWH said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name forever; 8neither will I cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land which I gave their fathers, if only they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them." 9But they did not listen: and Manasseh seduced them to do that which is evil more than the nations did whom YHWH destroyed before the children of Israel. 10YHWH spoke by his servants the prophets, saying, 11"Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations, and has done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and has made Judah also to sin with his idols; 12therefore thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, 'Look, I bring such disaster on Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both his ears shall tingle. 13I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down. 14I will cast off the remnant of my inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies. They will become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; 15because they have done that which is evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even to this day.'"

16Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin with which he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of YHWH. 17Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 18Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his place. 19Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. 20He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, as Manasseh his father did. 21He walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshiped them: 22and he forsook YHWH, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of YHWH. 23The servants of Amon conspired against him, and put the king to death in his own house.

[24]But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place. [25]Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [26]He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah his son reigned in his place.

22 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath. [2]He did that which was right in the eyes of YHWH, and walked in all the way of David his father, and did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. [3]It happened in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of YHWH, saying, [4]"Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may melt down[a] the silver which is brought into the house of YHWH, which the keepers of the threshold have gathered of the people. [5]Let them deliver it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of YHWH; and let them give it to the workmen who are in the house of YHWH, to repair the breaches of the house, [6]to the carpenters, and to the builders, and to the masons, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the house. [7]However there was no accounting made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand; for they dealt faithfully."

[8]Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the scroll of the law in the house of YHWH." Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan, and he read it. [9]Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, "Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of YHWH." [10]Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has delivered a scroll to me." Shaphan read it before the king. [11]It happened, when the king had heard the words of the scroll of the law, that he tore his clothes. [12]The king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Micaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying, [13]"Go inquire of YHWH for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this scroll that is found; for great is the wrath of YHWH that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this scroll, to do according to all that which is written concerning us."

[a]22:4 LXX(L) Tg Vg and v.9. MT reads "may count"

[14]So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter); and they talked with her. [15]She said to them, "Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel: 'Tell the man who sent you to me, [16]"Thus says YHWH, 'Look, I will bring disaster on this place, and on its inhabitants, even all the words of the scroll which the king of Judah has read. [17]Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and it shall not be quenched.'" [18]But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of YHWH, thus you shall tell him, "Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel: 'Concerning the words which you have heard, [19]because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before YHWH, when you heard what I spoke against this place, and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and have torn your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you,' says YHWH. [20]'Therefore look, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the disaster which I will bring on this place.'"'" They brought back this message to the king.

23 The king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. [2]The king went up to the house of YHWH, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the scroll of the covenant which was found in the house of YHWH. [3]The king stood by the pillar, and made a covenant before YHWH, to walk after YHWH, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and all his soul, to confirm the words of this covenant that were written in this scroll; and all the people stood to the covenant. [4]The king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the threshold, to bring forth out of YHWH's temple all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the Asherah, and for all the host of heaven, and he burned them outside of Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel. [5]He put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places around Jerusalem; those also who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven. [6]He brought out the Asherah from the house of YHWH, outside of Jerusalem, to the Kidron Valley, and burned it in the Kidron Valley, and beat it to dust, and cast its dust on the graves of the common people. [7]He broke down the living quarters of the temple prostitutes, that were in the house of YHWH, where the women wove coverings for the Asherah. [8]He brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba; and he broke down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. [9]Nevertheless the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of YHWH in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers. [10]He defiled Topheth, which is in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech. [11]He took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of the house of YHWH, by the room of Nathan Melech the officer, who was in the court; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire. [12]The king broke down the altars that were on the roof of the upper room of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of YHWH, and beat them down from there, and cast their dust into the Kidron Valley. [13]The king defiled the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mountain of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the people of Ammon. [14]He broke in pieces the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, and filled their places with the bones of men. [15]Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he broke down; and he burned the high place and beat it to dust, and burned the Asherah. [16]And as Josiah turned himself, he saw the tombs that were there in the mountain. And he sent, and took the bones out of the tombs, and burned them on the altar, and defiled it, according to the word of YHWH which the man of God proclaimed, when Jeroboam stood by the altar at the feast. And he turned and raised his eyes to the tomb of the man of God[a] who proclaimed these things. [17]Then he said, "What monument is that which I see?"

The men of the city told him, "It is the tomb of the man of God, who came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that you have done against the altar of Bethel."

18He said, "Let him be. Let no man move his bones." So they let his bones alone, with the bones of Samaria. 19All the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke YHWH[a] to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel.

20He killed all the priests of the high places that were there, on the altars, and burned men's bones on them; and he returned to Jerusalem.
21The king commanded all the people, saying, "Keep the Passover to YHWH your God, as it is written in this scroll of the covenant." 22Surely there was not kept such a Passover from the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah; 23but in the eighteenth year of king Josiah was this Passover kept to YHWH in Jerusalem. 24Moreover Josiah removed the mediums, and spiritists, and the teraphim, and the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might confirm the words of the law which were written in the scroll that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of YHWH.
25Like him was there no king before him, who turned to YHWH with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him.
26Notwithstanding, YHWH did not turn from the fierceness of his great wrath, with which his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocation with which Manasseh had provoked him.
27YHWH said, "I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and I will cast off this city which I have chosen, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, 'My name shall be there.'"

28Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the

to a tribute of one hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold. 34Pharaoh Necoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the place of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim: but he took Jehoahaz away; and he came to Egypt, and died there. 35Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of everyone according to his taxation, to give it to Pharaoh Necoh. 36Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. 37He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, according to all that his fathers had done.

24 In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him. 2YHWH sent against him bands of the Chaldeans, and bands of the Arameans, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the people of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of YHWH, which he spoke by his servants the prophets. 3Surely at the commandment of YHWH this came on Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did, 4and also for the innocent blood that he shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood: and YHWH would not pardon. 5Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 6So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers; and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place. 7The king of Egypt did not come again out of his land any more; for the king of Babylon had taken, from the Wadi of Egypt to the river Perath, all that pertained to the king of Egypt. 8Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned in Jerusalem three months: and his mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. 9He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, according to all that his father had done. 10At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. 11Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to the city, while his servants were besieging it; 12and Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his officers, and his officers. And the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign. 13He carried out there all the treasures of the house of YHWH, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold, which Solomon king of Israel had made in YHWH's temple, as YHWH had said. 14He carried away all Jerusalem, and all the officials, and all the mighty men of valor, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths; none remained, except the poorest sort of the people of the land. 15He carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon; and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the chief men of the land, carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. 16All the men of might, even seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths one thousand, all of them strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon. 17The king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's father's brother, king is his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah. 18Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. 19He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. 20For through the anger of YHWH, it happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

25 It happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and camped against it; and they built forts against it around it. 2So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. 3On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. 4Then a breach was made in the city,[a] and all the men of war fled[b] by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden (now the Chaldeans were against the city around it); and they went[c] by the way of the Arabah. 5But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. 6Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment on him. 7They killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon. 8Now in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, to Jerusalem. 9He burnt the house of YHWH, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burnt he with fire. 10All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down the walls around Jerusalem.

[11]Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude. [12]But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to work the vineyards and fields. [13]The Chaldeans broke up the pillars of bronze that were in the house of YHWH and the bases and the bronze sea that were in the house of YHWH, and carried the bronze pieces to Babylon. [14]They took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they ministered. [15]The captain of the guard took away the fire pans, the basins, that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver. [16]The two pillars, the one sea, and the bases, which Solomon had made for the house of YHWH, the bronze of all these vessels was without weight. [17]The height of the one pillar was thirty-one feet[a], and a capital of bronze was on it; and the height of the capital was eight feet seven inches[b], with network and pomegranates on the capital around it, all of bronze: and like to these had the second pillar with network. [18]The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold: [19]and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and five men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe, the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the city. [20]Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. [21]The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. [22]As for the people who were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor. [23]Now when all the captains of the forces, they and their men,[c] heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life: 30and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him of the king, every day a portion, all the days of his life.

10 Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa. [2]The Philistines followed hard after Saul and after his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malkishua, the sons of Saul. [3]The battle grew fierce against Saul, and the archers overtook him; and he was wounded by the archers. [4]Then said Saul to his armor bearer, Draw your sword, and thrust me through therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armor bearer would not; for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took his sword, and fell on it. [5]When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword, and died. [6]So Saul died, and his three sons; and all his house died together. [7]When all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them. [8]It happened on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. [9]They stripped him, and took his head, and his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to carry the news to their idols, and to the people. [10]They put his armor in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the house of Dagon. [11]When all the inhabitants[b] of Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, [12]all the valiant men arose, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. [13]So Saul died for his trespass which he committed against YHWH, because of the word of YHWH, which he did not keep; and also because he asked counsel of one who had a familiar spirit, to inquire thereby, [14]and did not inquire of YHWH: therefore he killed him, and turned the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

11 Then all Israel gathered together to David at Hebron, saying, "Look, we are your bone and your flesh. [2]In times past, even when Saul was king, it was you who led out and brought in Israel. YHWH your God said to you, 'You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, and you shall rule over my people Israel.'" [3]So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before YHWH; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of YHWH by Samuel. [4]David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus); and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there. 5The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You shall not come in here." Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion, that is, the City of David. 6David said, "Whoever strikes the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain." Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and was made chief. 7David lived in the stronghold; therefore they called it the City of David. 8He built the city all around, from the Millo even around; and Joab repaired the rest of the city. 9David grew greater and greater; for YHWH of hosts was with him. 10Now these are the chief of the warriors whom David had, who gave him strong support in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of YHWH concerning Israel. 11This is the number of the warriors whom David had: Jeshbaal[a] the son of Hachmoni, leader of the Three.[b] And he wielded his spear against eight[c] hundred and killed them at one time. 12After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the Three warriors. 13He was with David at Pas Dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where there was a plot of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines. 14And he[d] took his stand in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and killed the Philistines; and YHWH saved them by a great victory. 15And three of the Thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines were camped in the Valley of Rephaim. 16David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. 17And David had a craving and said, "Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate."

18The Three broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to YHWH, 19and said, "Far be it from me before my God, that I should do this. Jerimoth, and Baaliah,[a] and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite,[b] 6Elkanah, and Isshiah, and Azarel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites, 7and Joelah,[c] and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.[d] 8Of the Gadites there separated themselves to David to the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for war, that could handle shield and spear; whose faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as the roes on the mountains; 9Ezer the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, 10Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, 11Attai the sixth, Eliel[e] the seventh, 12Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, 13Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh. 14These of the sons of Gad were captains of the army: he who was least was equal to one hundred, and the greatest to one thousand. 15These are those who went over the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west. 16There came of the people of Benjamin and Judah to the stronghold to David. 17David went out to meet them, and answered them, "If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart shall be knit to you; but if you have come to betray me to my adversaries, since there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it." 18Then the Spirit came on Amasai, who was chief of the Thirty, and he said, "We are yours, David, and on your side, you son of Jesse: peace, peace be to you, and peace be to your helpers; for your God helps you." Then David received them, and made them captains of the band. 19Of Manasseh also there fell away some to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle; but they did not help them; for the lords of the Philistines sent him away after consultation, saying, "He will fall away to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads."

20As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah,[f] and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of thousands who were of Manasseh. 21They helped David against the band of rovers: for they were all mighty men of valor, and were captains in the army. 22For from day to day men came to David to help him, until there was a great army, like the army of God. 23These are the numbers of the heads of those who were armed for war, who came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of YHWH. [24]The people of Judah who bore shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, armed for war. [25]Of the people of Simeon, mighty men of valor for the war, seven thousand and one hundred. [26]Of the descendants of Levi four thousand and six hundred. [27]Jehoiada was the leader of the household of Aaron; and with him were three thousand and seven hundred, [28]and Zadok, a young man mighty of valor, and of his father's house twenty-two captains. [29]Of the people of Benjamin, the brothers of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Saul. [30]Of the people of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men in their fathers' houses. [31]Of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were mentioned by name, to come and make David king. [32]Of the people of Issachar, men who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their heads were two hundred; and all their brothers were at their commandment. [33]Of Zebulun, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array, with all kinds of instruments of war, fifty thousand, to help David[a] without a double heart. [34]Of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty-seven thousand. [35]Of the Danites who could set the battle in array, twenty-eight thousand six hundred. [36]Of Asher, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array, forty thousand. [37]On the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all kinds of instruments of war for the battle, one hundred twenty thousand. [38]All these being men of war, who could order the battle array, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king. [39]They were there with David three days, eating and drinking; for their brothers had made preparation for them. [40]Moreover those who were near to them, as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on donkeys, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, food of meal, cakes of figs, and clusters of raisins, and wine, and oil, and cattle, and sheep in abundance: for there was joy in Israel.

13 David consulted with the captains of thousands and of hundreds, even with every leader. [2]David said to all the assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and if there is a breakthrough from YHWH our God, let us send abroad everywhere to our brothers who are left in all the land of Israel, with whom the priests and Levites are in their cities that have suburbs, that they may gather themselves to us; 3and let us bring again the ark of our God to us. For we did not seek it in the days of Saul." 4All the assembly said that they would do so; for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. 5So David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor of Egypt even to Lebo Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim. 6And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath Jearim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God,[a] which is called by the name of YHWH enthroned on the cherubim. 7They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. 8David and all Israel played before God with all their might, even with songs, and with harps, and with stringed instruments, and with tambourines, and with cymbals, and with trumpets. 9When they came to the threshing floor of Nodan,[b] Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled. 10The anger of YHWH was kindled against Uzza, and he struck him, because he put forth his hand to the ark; and there he died before God. 11David was displeased, because YHWH had broken forth on Uzza; and he called that place Perez Uzza, to this day. 12David was afraid of God that day, saying, "How can I bring the ark of God to me?" 13So David did not move the ark to him into the City of David, but diverted it to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite. 14The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house three months: and YHWH blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that he had.

14 Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and craftsmen of a wall, and craftsmen of wood, to build him a palace. 2And David knew that YHWH had established him king over Israel; for his kingdom was exalted on high, for his people Israel's sake. 3David took more wives at Jerusalem; and David became the father of more sons and daughters. 4These are the names of the children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon, 5and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Eliphelet,[c] 6and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, 7and Elishama, and Baaliada,[d] and Eliphelet. 8When the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David: and David heard of it, and went out against them. 9Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the Valley of Rephaim. 10David inquired of God, saying, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand?” YHWH said to him, “Go up; for I will deliver them into your hand.”

11So they came up to Baal Perazim, and David struck them there; and David said, God has broken through my enemies by my hand, like a breakthrough of waters. Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.[a] 12They left their gods there; and David gave commandment, and they were burned with fire. 13The Philistines yet again made a raid in the valley. 14And David inquired again of God; and God said to him, “You shall not go up after them. Turn away from them, and come at them opposite the balsam trees. 15And it shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, that then you shall go out to battle; for God has gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines.”

16David did as God commanded him, and he[b] struck the army of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gezer. 17The fame of David went out into all lands; and YHWH brought the fear of him on all nations.

15 David made him houses in the City of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent. 2Then David said, “No one ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites. For YHWH has chosen them to carry the ark of God, and to minister to him forever.” 3David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of YHWH to its place, which he had prepared for it. 4David gathered together the sons of Aaron, and the Levites: 5of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and his brothers one hundred twenty; 6of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and his brothers two hundred twenty; 7of the sons of Gershom, Joel the chief, and his brothers one hundred thirty; 8of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and his brothers two hundred; 9of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and his brothers eighty; 10of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and his brothers one hundred twelve. 11David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12and said to them, “You are the heads of the ancestral houses of the Levites. Sanctify yourselves, both you and your brothers, that you may bring up the ark of YHWH, the God of Israel, to the place that I have prepared for it. 13For because you were not prepared[a] the first time, YHWH our God made an outbreak against us, because we did not seek him according to the ordinance." 14So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of YHWH, the God of Israel. 15The descendants of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of YHWH. 16David spoke to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brothers the singers, with instruments of music, stringed instruments and harps and cymbals, sounding aloud and lifting up the voice with joy. 17So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brothers, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brothers, Ethan the son of Kushaiah; 18and with them their brothers of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben,[b] and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and[c] Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah[d] were doorkeepers. 19So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were given cymbals of bronze to sound aloud; 20and Zechariah, and Jaaziel,[e] and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with stringed instruments set to Alamoth; 21and Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps tuned to the eight-stringed lyre, to lead. 22Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was over the song: he instructed about the song, because he was skillful. 23Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark. 24Shebaniah, and Joshaphat, and Nethanel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, blew the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-Edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark. 25So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of YHWH out of the house of Obed-Edom with joy. 26It happened, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of YHWH, that they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. 27David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites who bore the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: and David had on him an ephod of linen. 28Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of YHWH with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with stringed instruments and harps. [29]It happened, as the ark of the covenant of YHWH came to the City of David, that Mikal the daughter of Saul looked out at the window, and saw king David dancing and playing; and she despised him in her heart.

16 They brought in the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had set up for it: and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. [2]When David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of YHWH. [3]He dealt to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. [4]He appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of YHWH, and to celebrate and to thank and praise YHWH, the God of Israel: [5]Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, Jaaziel,[a] and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, with stringed instruments and with harps; and Asaph with cymbals, sounding aloud; [6]and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually, before the ark of the covenant of God.

17 It happened, when David lived in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, "Look, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of YHWH is under curtains."

2Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart; for God is with you."

3It happened the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, 4"Go and tell David my servant, 'Thus says YHWH, "You shall not build me a house to dwell in; 5for I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day, but have gone about[a] from tent to tent, and from tabernacle to tabernacle.[b] 6In all places in which I have walked with all Israel, did I speak a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to be shepherd of my people, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?'"'

7"Now therefore, you shall tell my servant David, 'Thus says YHWH of hosts, "I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, that you should be prince over my people Israel. 8I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you. I will make you a name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth. 9I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the first, 10and from the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel; and I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover I tell you that YHWH will build you a house. 11And it will come about when your days are fulfilled,[c] when you must go to be with your fathers, that I will raise up your descendant after you, who shall be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom. 12He will build me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. 13I will be his father, [20]YHWH, there is none like you, neither is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears. [21]And who is like your people Israel, the one nation on earth whom God went out to redeem to be a people for himself, to make a name for yourself by great and awesome deeds, by driving out from before your people, whom you redeemed out of Egypt, a nation[d] and its gods[e]? [22]And you made your people Israel for yourself to be your people forever; and you, YHWH, became their God. [23]Now, YHWH, let the word that you have spoken concerning your servant, and concerning his house, be established forever, and do as you have spoken. [24]Let your name be established and magnified forever, saying, 'YHWH of hosts is the God of Israel,'[f] and the house of David your servant is established before you. [25]For you[g] have revealed to your servant that you will build him a house. Therefore your servant has found courage to pray before you. [26]Now, YHWH, you are God, and have promised this good thing to your servant. [27]Now it has pleased you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever before you; for you, YHWH, have blessed, and it is blessed forever."

took Gath and its towns out of the hand of the Philistines. 2He struck Moab; and the Moabites became servants to David, and brought tribute. 3David struck Hadadezer king of Zobah to Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Perath. 4David took from him one thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for one hundred chariots. 5When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck of the Arameans twenty-two thousand men. 6Then David put garrisons[a] in Aram of Damascus; and the Arameans became servants to David, and brought tribute. YHWH gave victory to David wherever he went. 7And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. 8From Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took very much bronze, with which Solomon made the bronze sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of bronze. 9When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, 10he sent Hadoram his son to king David, to Greet him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him; (for Hadadezer had wars with Tou;) and he had with him all kinds of vessels of gold and silver and bronze. 11King David also dedicated these to YHWH, with the silver and the gold that he took from all the nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the people of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek. 12Moreover Abishai[b] the son of Zeruiah struck of the Edomites in the Valley of Salt eighteen thousand. 13He put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became servants to David. YHWH gave victory to David wherever he went. 14David reigned over all Israel; and he executed justice and righteousness to all his people. 15Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; 16and Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech[c] the son of Abiathar, were priests; and Shisha[d] was scribe; 17and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief about the king.

will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. David's servants came into the land of the people of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. [3]But the leaders of the people of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David honors your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Haven't his servants come to you to search, to overthrow, and to spy out the land?" [4]So Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. [5]Then there went certain persons, and told David how the men were served. He sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. The king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

[6]When the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the people of Ammon sent one thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Aram Maacah, and out of Zobah. [7]So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people, who came and camped before Medeba. The people of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle. [8]When David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the army of the mighty men. [9]The people of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the gate of the city: and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field. [10]Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Arameans. [11]The rest of the people he committed into the hand of Abishai[a] his brother; and they put themselves in array against the people of Ammon. [13]Be courageous, and let us be strong for our people, and for the cities of our God. May YHWH do that which seems good to him." [14]So Joab and the people who were with him drew near before the Arameans to the battle; and they fled before him. [15]When the people of Ammon saw that the Arameans had fled, they likewise fled before Abishai[b] his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem. the captain of the army of Hadadezer at their head. 17It was told David; and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came on them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Arameans, they fought with him. 18The Arameans fled before Israel; and David killed of the Arameans the men of seven thousand chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shobach[a] the captain of the army. 19When the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David, and served him: neither would the Arameans help the people of Ammon any more.

20 It happened, at the time of the return of the year, at the time when kings go out, that Joab led forth the army, and wasted the country of the people of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. Joab struck Rabbah, and overthrew it. 2David took the crown of their king[b] from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set on David's head: and he brought forth the spoil of the city, a very great amount. 3He brought forth the people who were in it, and set them to work[c] with saws, and with iron picks, and with axes.[d] David did so to all the cities of the people of Ammon. David and all the people returned to Jerusalem. 4Now it happened afterward that there was again war[e] with the Philistines at Gezer; then Sibbekai the Hushathite killed Sippai, a descendant of the Rephaim; and they were subdued. 5There was again war with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair[f] the Bethlehemite[g] killed the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. 6There was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were twenty-four, six on each hand, and six on each foot; and he also was descended from the Raphah. 7When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimeah[h] David's brother killed him. 8These were the descendants of the Raphah in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

Israel. 2And David said to Joab and to the leaders of the people, "Go, number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan; and bring me word, that I may know the sum of them."

3Joab said, "May YHWH make his people a hundred times as many as they are. But, my lord the king, aren't they all my lord's servants? Why does my lord require this thing? Why will he be a cause of guilt to Israel?"

4Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem. 5Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to David. All those of Israel were one million one hundred thousand men who drew sword: and in Judah were four hundred seventy thousand men who drew sword. 6But he did not count Levi and Benjamin among them; for the king's word was abominable to Joab. 7God was displeased with this thing; therefore he struck Israel. 8David said to God, "I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing. But now, put away, I beg you, the iniquity of your servant; for I have done very foolishly."

9YHWH spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying, 10"Go and speak to David, saying, 'Thus says YHWH, "I offer you three things. Choose one of them, that I may do it to you."'" 11So Gad came to David, and said to him, "Thus says YHWH, 'Take your choice: 12either three years of famine; or three months of fleeing[a] from before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or else three days the sword of YHWH, even pestilence in the land, and the angel of YHWH destroying throughout all the borders of Israel. Now therefore consider what answer I shall return to him who sent me.'"

13David said to Gad, "I am in distress.[b] Let me fall, I pray, into the hand of YHWH; for his mercies are very great. Let me not fall into the hand of man."

14So YHWH sent a pestilence on Israel; and seventy thousand men of Israel fell. 15God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. As he was about to destroy, YHWH saw, and he relented of the disaster, and said to the destroying angel, "It is enough; now stay your hand." The angel of YHWH was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan[c] the Jebusite. 16David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of YHWH standing between earth and the sky, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem.

Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces. 17David said to God, "Isn't it I who commanded the people to be numbered? It is even I who have sinned and done very wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand, YHWH my God, be against me, and against my father's house; but not against your people, that they should be plagued."
18Then the angel of YHWH commanded Gad to tell David that David should go up, and raise an altar to YHWH in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. 19David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spoke in the name of YHWH. 20Ornan turned back, and saw the king,[a] and his four sons who were with him hiding themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat. 21As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground. 22Then David said to Ornan, "Give me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build thereon an altar to YHWH. You shall sell it to me for the full price, that the plague may be stopped from afflicting the people."

23Ornan said to David, "Take it for yourself, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes. Look, I give the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal offering. I give it all."

24King David said to Ornan, "No; but I will most certainly buy it for the full price. For I will not take that which is yours for YHWH, nor offer a burnt offering without cost."

25So David gave to Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place. 26David built an altar to YHWH there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on YHWH; and he answered him from heaven by fire on the altar of burnt offering, and it consumed the burnt offering.[b] 27YHWH commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into its sheath. 28At that time, when David saw that YHWH had answered him in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. 29For the tabernacle of YHWH, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering, were at that time in the high place at Gibeon. 30But David couldn't go before it to inquire of God; for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of YHWH.

22 Then David said, "This is the house of YHWH God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel." 2David gave orders to gather together the foreigners who were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to cut worked stones to build God's house. [3]David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the couplings; and bronze in abundance without weight; [4]and cedar trees without number: for the Sidonians and they of Tyre brought cedar trees in abundance to David. [5]David said, "Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for YHWH must be exceedingly magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries. I will therefore make preparation for it." So David prepared abundantly before his death. [6]Then he called for Solomon his son, and commanded him to build a house for YHWH, the God of Israel. [7]David said to Solomon, "My son, as for me, it was in my heart to build a house to the name of YHWH my God. [8]But the word of YHWH came to me, saying, 'You have shed blood abundantly, and have made great wars. You shall not build a house to my name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight. [9]Look, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest. I will give him rest from all his enemies all around; for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days. [10]He shall build a house for my name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.'

[11]Now, my son, may YHWH be with you and prosper you, and build the house of YHWH your God, as he has spoken concerning you. [12]May YHWH give you discretion and understanding, and put you in charge of Israel; that so you may keep the law of YHWH your God. [13]Then you will prosper, if you observe to do the statutes and the ordinances which YHWH gave Moses concerning Israel. Be strong, and courageous. Do not be afraid, neither be dismayed. [14]Now, look, in my affliction I have prepared for the house of YHWH one hundred thousand talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron without weight; for it is in abundance. I have also prepared timber and stone; and you may add to them. [15]There are also workmen with you in abundance, cutters and workers of stone and timber, and all kinds of men who are skillful in every kind of work: [16]of the gold, the silver, and the bronze, and the iron, there is no number. Arise and be doing, and may YHWH be with you."

[17]And David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,[a] [18]"Isn't YHWH your God with you? Hasn't he given you rest on every side? For he has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before YHWH, and before his people. [19]Now set your heart and your soul to seek after YHWH your God. 23 Now David was old and full of days; and he made Solomon his son king over Israel. 2And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel, with the priests and the Levites. 3The Levites were numbered from thirty years old and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty-eight thousand. 4David said, "Of these, twenty-four thousand were to oversee the work of the house of YHWH; six thousand were officers and judges; 5four thousand were doorkeepers; and four thousand praised YHWH with the instruments which I made, for giving praise." 6David divided them into divisions according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. 7Of the Gershonites: Ladan and Shimei. 8The sons of Ladan: Jehiel the chief, and Zetham, and Joel, three. 9The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth,[a] and Haziel, and Haran, three. heads of ancestral houses of those who were counted individually, in the number of names by their polls, who do[a] the work for the service of the house of YHWH, from twenty years old and upward. 25For David said, "YHWH, the God of Israel, has given rest to his people; and he dwells in Jerusalem forever. 26Also the Levites will no longer need to carry the tabernacle and all its vessels for its service." 27For by the last words of David the sons of Levi were numbered, from twenty years old and upward. 28For their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of YHWH, in the courts, and in the rooms, and in the purifying of all holy things, even the work of the service of God's house 29involving[b] the show bread, the fine flour for a meal offering, whether of unleavened wafers, or of that which is baked in the pan, or of that which is soaked, and for all kinds of measure and size; 30and to stand every morning to thank and praise YHWH, and likewise in the evening; 31and to offer all burnt offerings to YHWH, on the Sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the set feasts, in number according to the ordinance concerning them, continually before YHWH; 32and that they should keep the duty of the Tent of Meeting, and the duty of the holy place, and the duty of the sons of Aaron their brothers, for the service of the house of YHWH.

God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. 6All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of YHWH, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps, for the service of God's house; Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman being under the order of the king. 7The number of them, with their brothers who were instructed in singing to YHWH, even all who were skillful, was two hundred eighty-eight. 8And they cast lots, watch with watch,[e] the small as the great, the teacher as the pupil. 9Now the first lot came out for Asaph of Joseph, his sons and his brothers, twelve[f]; the second to Gedaliah, his brothers and his sons, twelve: 10the third to Zakkur, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 11the fourth to Zeri,[g] his sons and his brothers, twelve: 12the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 13the sixth to Bukkiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 14the seventh to Asarelah,[h] his sons and his brothers, twelve: 15the eighth to Jeshaiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 16the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 17the tenth to Shimei, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 18the eleventh to Uzziel,[i] his sons and his brothers, twelve: 19the twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 20for the thirteenth, Shubael, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 21for the fourteenth, Mattithiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 22for the fifteenth to Jerimoth,[j] his sons and his brothers, twelve: 23for the sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 24for the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 25for the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 26for the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 27for the 29 David the king said to all the assembly, "Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great; for the palace is not for man, but for YHWH God. 2Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for the things of gold, and the silver for the things of silver, and the bronze for the things of bronze, the iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood; onyx stones, and stones to be set, stones for inlaid work, and of various colors, and all kinds of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. 3In addition, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, since I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, I give it to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, 4even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, with which to overlay the walls of the houses; 5of gold for the things of gold, and of silver for the things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be made by the hands of artisans. Who then offers willingly to consecrate himself this day to YHWH?" 6Then the leaders of ancestral houses, and the leaders of the tribes of Israel, and the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, with the officers over the king's work, offered willingly; 7and they gave for the service of God's[b] house of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand darics, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of bronze eighteen thousand talents, and of iron a hundred thousand talents. 8They with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of YHWH, under the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. 9Then the people rejoiced, because they offered willingly, because with a perfect heart they offered willingly to YHWH: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy. 10Therefore David blessed YHWH before all the assembly; and David said, "You are blessed, YHWH, the God of Israel our father, forever and ever. 11Yours, YHWH, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty. For all that is in the heavens and in the earth is yours. Yours is the kingdom, YHWH, and you are exalted as head above all. 12Both riches and honor come from you, and you rule over all; and in your hand is power and might; and it is in your hand to make great, and to give strength to all. 13Now therefore, our God, we thank you, and praise your glorious name. 14But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you. 15For we are strangers before you, and foreigners, as all our fathers were. Our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no remaining.[a] 16YHWH our God, all this store that we have prepared to build you a house for your holy name comes from your hand, and is all your own. 17I know also, my God, that you try the heart, and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things. Now have I seen with joy your people, that are present here, offer willingly to you. 18YHWH, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of your people, and prepare their heart for you; 19and give to Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep your commandments, your testimonies, and your statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for which I have made provision." 20David said to all the assembly, "Now bless YHWH your God."

All the assembly blessed YHWH, the God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads and prostrated themselves before YHWH and the king. 21They sacrificed sacrifices to YHWH, and offered burnt offerings to YHWH, on the next day after that day, even one thousand bulls, one thousand rams, and one thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel, 22and ate and drink before YHWH on that day with great gladness. They made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and they anointed him[b] to YHWH to be prince, and Zadok to be priest. 23Then Solomon sat on the throne of YHWH as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him. 24And all the leaders, the mighty men, and also all of the sons of king David submitted themselves to Solomon the king. 25YHWH magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel. 26Now David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. 27The time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three years[a] in Jerusalem. [28]He died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor: and Solomon his son reigned in his place. [29]Now the acts of David the king, first and last, look, they are written in the history of Samuel the seer, and in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the history of Gad the seer, [30]with all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

The Second Book of Chronicles

1 Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and YHWH his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly. [2]Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every prince in all Israel, the heads of the ancestral houses. [3]So Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the Tent of Meeting of God, which Moses the servant of YHWH had made in the wilderness. [4]But David had brought the ark of God up from Kiriath Jearim to the place that David had prepared for it; for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.[b] [5]Moreover the bronze altar, that Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, was there[c] before the tabernacle of YHWH: and Solomon and the assembly were seeking counsel there. [6]Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before YHWH, which was at the Tent of Meeting, and offered one thousand burnt offerings on it. [7]In that night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, "Ask what I shall give you." [8]Solomon said to God, "You have shown great loving kindness to David my father, and have made me king in his place. [9]Now, YHWH God, let your promise to David my father be established; for you have made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude. [10]Now give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this your people, that is so great?"

[11]God said to Solomon, "Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches, wealth, or honor, nor the life of those who hate you, neither yet have asked long life; but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge my people, over whom I have made you king: [12]wisdom and knowledge is granted to you. I will give you riches, wealth, and honor, such as none of the kings have had who have been before you; neither shall there any after you have the like."

13So Solomon came from the high place that was at Gibeon, from before the Tent of Meeting, to Jerusalem; and he reigned over Israel. 14Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had one thousand four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. 15The king made silver and gold to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. 16The horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt and from Kue;[a] the king's merchants purchased them from Kue. 17They brought up and brought out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of Aram, they brought them out by their means.

2 Now Solomon purposed to build a house for the name of YHWH, and a house for his kingdom. 2Solomon counted out seventy thousand men to bear burdens, and eighty thousand men who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them. 3Solomon sent to Hiram[b] the king of Tyre, saying, "As you dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build him a house in which to dwell, so deal with me. 4Look, I am about to build a house for the name of YHWH my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him incense of sweet spices, and for[c] the continual show bread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts of YHWH our God. This is an ordinance forever to Israel.

5"The house which I build is great; for our God is great above all gods. 6But who is able to build him a house, since heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain him? Who am I then, that I should build him a house, except just to burn incense before him?

7"Now therefore send me a man skillful to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and who knows how to engrave engravings, to be with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father provided.

Lebanon: and look, my servants shall be with your servants, 9even to prepare me timber in abundance; for the house which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful. 10Look, I will give to your servants, the cutters who cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil."
11Then Hiram[a] the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, "Because YHWH loves his people, he has made you king over them." 12Hiram[b] continued, "Blessed be YHWH, the God of Israel, that made heaven and earth, who has given to David the king a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, that should build a house for YHWH, and a house for his kingdom. 13Now I have sent a skillful man, endowed with understanding, Hiram Abi,[c] 14the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan; and his father was a man of Tyre, skillful to work in gold, and in silver, in bronze, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson, also to engrave any kind of engraving, and to execute any design; that there may be a place appointed to him with your skillful men, and with the skillful men of my lord David your father.

15"Now therefore the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine, which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants: 16and we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as you shall need; and we will bring it to you in floats by sea to Joppa; and you shall carry it up to Jerusalem." 17Solomon numbered all the foreigners who were in the land of Israel, after the numbering with which David his father had numbered them; and they were found one hundred fifty-three thousand six hundred. 18He set seventy thousand of them to bear burdens, and eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred overseers to set the people at work.

3 Then Solomon began to build the house of YHWH at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where he[d] appeared to David his father, at the place that David had designated, on the threshing floor of Ornan[e] the Jebusite. 2And he began to build in the[f] second month, in the fourth year of his reign. 3Now these are the foundations which Solomon laid for the building of God's house.

He made one hundred basins of gold. 9Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid their doors with bronze. 10He set the sea on the right side of the house[k] eastward, toward the south. 11And Hiram[l] made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram[a] made an end of doing the work that he did for king Solomon in God's house: [12]the two pillars, and the bowls, and the two capitals which were on the top of the pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars, [13]and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars. [14]He made also the bases, and the basins made he on the bases; [15]one sea, and the twelve oxen under it [16]The pots, the shovels, the forks, and all its vessels Hiram Abi[b] made for king Solomon for the house of YHWH of bright bronze. [17]The king cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.[c] [18]Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the bronze could not be found out. [19]Solomon made all the vessels that were in God's house, the golden altar also, and the tables with the show bread on them; [20]and the lampstands with their lamps, to burn according to the ordinance before the inner sanctuary, of pure gold; [21]and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold, and that perfect gold; [22]and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire pans, of pure gold: and as for the entry of the house, the inner doors of it for the most holy place, and the doors of the main hall of the temple were of gold.

5 Thus all the work that Solomon did for the house of YHWH was finished. Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated, even the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of God. [2]Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the ancestral leaders of the children of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of YHWH out of the City of David, which is Zion. [3]And all the men of Israel assembled themselves to the king at the feast, which was in the seventh month. [4]All the elders of Israel came: and the Levites took up the ark; [5]and they brought up the ark, and the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; these the priests the Levites brought up. [6]King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled to him, were before the ark, sacrificing sheep and cattle, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. [7]The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of YHWH to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the most holy place, under the wings of the cherubim. [8]For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its poles above. [9]The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place[a] before the inner sanctuary; but they were not seen outside. And they[b] are there to this day. [10]There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Moses put at Horeb, when YHWH made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt. [11]It happened, when the priests had come out of the holy place, (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, regardless of the divisions; [12]also the Levites who were the singers, all of them, even Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and their brothers, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals and stringed instruments and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them one hundred twenty priests sounding with trumpets;) [13]it happened, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking YHWH; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised YHWH, saying, "For he is good; for his loving kindness endures forever," then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of YHWH, [14]so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of YHWH filled God's house.

6 Then Solomon said, "YHWH has said that he would dwell in the thick cloud. [2]But I have built you a house of habitation, and a place for you to dwell in forever."

[3]The king turned his face, and blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood. [4]He said, "Blessed be YHWH, the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David my father, and has with his hands fulfilled it, saying, [5]'Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there; nor did I choose any man to be a leader over my people Israel: [6]but I chose Jerusalem, that my name may be there; and I chose David to be over my people Israel.' [7]Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of YHWH, the God of Israel. [8]But YHWH said to David my father, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart: [9]nevertheless you shall not build the house; but your son who shall come forth out of your body, he shall build the house for my name.'

[10]"YHWH has performed his word that he spoke; for I have risen up in the place of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as YHWH promised, and have built the house for the name of YHWH, the God of Israel. 11There I have set the ark, in which is the covenant of YHWH, which he made with the children of Israel." 12He stood before the altar of YHWH in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands 13(for Solomon had made a bronze scaffold, eight feet and seven inches[a] long, and eight feet and seven inches broad, and five feet and two inches[b] high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and on it he stood, and kneeled down on his knees before all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven;) 14and he said, "YHWH, God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven, or on earth; you who keep covenant and loving kindness with your servants, who walk before you with all their heart; 15who have kept with your servant David my father that which you promised him: yes, you spoke with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is this day.

16"Now therefore, YHWH, the God of Israel, keep with your servant David my father that which you have promised him, saying, 'There shall not fail you a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children take heed to their way, to walk in my law as you have walked before me.' 17Now therefore, YHWH, the God of Israel, let your word be verified, which you spoke to your servant David.

18"But will God indeed dwell with humankind on the earth? Look, heaven and the highest heaven can't contain you; how much less this house which I have built. 19Yet have respect for the prayer of your servant, and to his petition, YHWH my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant prays before you; 20that your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, even toward the place where you have said that you would put your name; to listen to the prayer which your servant shall pray toward this place. 21Listen to the petitions of your servant, and of your people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: yes, hear from your dwelling place, even from heaven; and when you hear, forgive.

[28]"If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there is blight or mildew, locust or caterpillar; if their enemies besiege them in the land of their gates; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is; [29]whatever prayer and petition be made by any man, or by all your people Israel, who shall know every man his own plague and his own sorrow, and shall spread forth his hands toward this house: [30]then hear from heaven, your dwelling place and forgive, and render to every man according to all his ways, whose heart you know; (for you, even you only, know the hearts of the children of humankind;) [31]that they may fear you, to walk in your ways, so long as they live in the land which you gave to our fathers.

[32]"Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, when he shall come from a far country for the sake of your name, for they shall hear of your great name,[a] and your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm, when they shall come and pray toward this house, [33]then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for; that all the peoples of the earth may know your name, and fear you, as does your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by your name.

[34]"If your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to you toward this city which you have chosen, and the house which I have built for your name; [35]then hear from heaven their prayer and their petition, and maintain their cause.

7 Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of YHWH filled the house. [2]The priests could not enter into the house of YHWH, because the glory of YHWH filled YHWH's house.
[3]All the children of Israel looked on, when the fire came down, and the glory of YHWH was on the house; and they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshiped, and gave thanks to YHWH, saying,
"For he is good;
for his loving kindness endures for ever." [4]Then the king and all the people offered sacrifice before YHWH.
[5]King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand head of cattle, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated God's house. [6]The priests stood, according to their positions; the Levites also with instruments of music of YHWH, which David the king had made to give thanks to YHWH, when David praised by their ministry, saying "For his loving kindness endures for ever." The priests sounded trumpets before them; and all Israel stood.

[7]Moreover Solomon made the middle of the court holy that was before the house of YHWH; for

[a]6:42 Hebrew Mss LXX. MT reads

there he offered the burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat. [8]So Solomon held the feast at that time seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly, from Lebo Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt. [9]On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. [10]On the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that YHWH had shown to David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people. [11]Thus Solomon finished the house of YHWH, and the king's house: and he successfully completed all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of YHWH, and in his own house.

[12]YHWH appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him, "I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice.

[13]If I shut up the sky so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send a plague among my people; [14]then if my people who are called by my name will humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. [15]Now my eyes shall be open, and my ears attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place. [16]For now have I chosen and made this house holy, that my name may be there forever; and my eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually.
[17]As for you, if you will walk before me as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep my statutes and my ordinances; [18]then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, according as I covenanted with David your father, saying, 'There shall not fail you a man to be ruler in Israel.' [19]But if you turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; [20]then I will pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for my name, I will cast out of my sight, and I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples. [21]And this house, which is exalted, will become a heap of ruins.[a] Everyone who passes by it will be astonished, and will say, 'Why has YHWH done this to this land, and to this house?' [22]And they shall answer, 'Because they abandoned YHWH, the God of their fathers, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and took other gods, worshiped them, and served them. Therefore he has brought all these disasters on them.'"

8 It happened at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the house of YHWH, and his own house, [2]that the cities which Hiram[a] had given to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there. [3]Solomon went to Hamath Zobah, and prevailed against it. [4]He built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities, which he built in Hamath. [5]Also he built Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon, fortified cities, with walls, gates, and bars; [6]and Baalath, and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. [7]As for all the people who were left of the Hethites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel; [8]of their descendants who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel did not destroy, of them Solomon conscripted for slave[b] labor to this day. [9]But of the children of Israel, Solomon made no slaves for his work; but they were men of war, and his commanders, and his captains,[c] and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen. [10]These were the chief officers of king Solomon: five hundred[d] fifty, who ruled over the people.

[11]Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the City of David to the house that he had built for her; for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places where the ark of YHWH has come are holy."
[12]Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to YHWH on the altar of YHWH, which he had built before the porch, [13]even as the duty of every day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the Sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts, three times in the year, in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tents. [14]He appointed, according to the ordinance of David his father, the divisions of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their offices, to praise, and to minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required; the doorkeepers also by their divisions at every gate: for so had David the man of God commanded. 15They did not depart from the commandment of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures. 16Now all the work of Solomon was carried out from[a] the day of the foundation of the house of YHWH, until it was finished. So the house of YHWH was completed. 17Then went Solomon to Ezion Geber, and to Eilat,[b] on the seashore in the land of Edom. 18And Hiram[c] sent him ships and servants who had knowledge of the sea by the hands of his servants; and they came with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and fetched from there four hundred fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

9 When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great train, and camels that bore spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she had come to Solomon, she talked with him of all that was in her heart. 2Solomon told her all her questions; and there was not anything hidden from Solomon which he did not tell her. 3When the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, 4and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their clothing, his cup bearers also, and their clothing, and his burnt offerings[d] which he presented at the house of YHWH; it left her breathless.

5She said to the king, "It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom. 6However I did not believe their words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it; and look, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me: you exceed the fame that I heard. 7Happy are your wives,[e] and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you, and hear your wisdom. 8Blessed be YHWH your God, who delighted in you, to set you on his throne, to be king for YHWH your God: because your God loved Israel, to establish them forever, therefore he made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness." 9She gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, and spices in great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. 10The servants also of Hiram;[f] and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from

Ophir, brought algum[a] trees and precious stones. [11]The king made of the algum trees steps[b] for the house of YHWH, and for the king's house, and harps and stringed instruments for the singers: and there were none like these seen before in the land of Judah. [12]King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides that which she had brought to the king. So she turned, and went to her own land, she and her servants. [13]Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, [14]besides that which the traders and merchants brought: and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon. [15]King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to each shield. [16]He made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. [17]Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. [18]And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays. [19]Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps: there was nothing like it made in any kingdom. [20]All king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: silver was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon. [21]For the king had ships that went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram; once every three years came the ships of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. [22]So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. [23]All the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. [24]They brought every man his tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. [25]Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he stationed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. [26]He ruled over all the kings from the River even to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. [27]The king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. [28]They brought horses for Solomon out of Egypt, and out of all lands. [29]Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, aren't they written in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat? [30]Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. 31Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the City of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

10 Rehoboam went to Shechem; for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. 2It happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it, (for he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of king Solomon), that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. 3They sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came, and they spoke to Rehoboam, saying, 4"Your father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make you the grievous service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you."

5He said to them, "Come again to me after three days."

The people departed. 6King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, "What counsel do you give me to return answer to this people?"

7They spoke to him, saying, "If you are kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."

10The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you shall tell the people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but make it lighter on us;' thus you shall say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist. 11Now whereas my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.'"

12So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king asked, saying, "Come to me again the third day." 13The king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, 14and spoke to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

15So the king did not listen to the people; for it was brought about of God, that YHWH might establish his word, which he spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. 16When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, "What portion have we in David?

Neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every man to your tents, Israel. Now see to your own house, David." So all Israel departed to their tents.

17But as for the children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. 18Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the men subject to forced labor; and the children of Israel stoned him to death with stones. King Rehoboam made speed to get himself up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. 19So Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day.

11 When Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, one hundred eighty thousand chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. 2But the word of YHWH came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, 3"Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, 4'Thus says YHWH, "You shall not go up, nor fight against your brothers. Return every man to his house; for this thing is of me."'" So they listened to the word[a] of YHWH, and returned from going against Jeroboam. 5Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Judah. 6He built Bethlehem, and Etam, and Tekoa, 7Beth Zur, and Soco, and Adullam, 8and Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph, 9and Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah, 10and Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, fortified cities. 11He fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of food, and oil and wine. 12He put shields and spears in every city, and made them exceeding strong. Judah and Benjamin belonged to him. 13The priests and the Levites who were in all Israel resorted to him out of all their border. 14For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons cast them off, that they should not execute the priest's office to YHWH; 15and he appointed him priests for the high places, and for the male goats, and for the calves which he had made. 16After them, out of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their hearts to seek YHWH, the God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to YHWH, the God of their fathers. 17So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years; for they walked three years in the way of David and Solomon. 18Rehoboam took him a wife, Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, and[b] of Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse; [19]and she bore him sons: Jeush, and Shemariah, and Zaham. [20]After her he took Maacah the daughter of Absalom; and she bore him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.[a] [21]Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his secondary wives: (for he took eighteen wives, and sixty secondary wives, and became the father of twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.) [22]Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah to be chief, the prince among his brothers; for he intended to make him king. [23]He dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his sons throughout all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, to every fortified city: and he gave them food in abundance. He sought for them many wives.

12 It happened, when the kingdom of Rehoboam was established, and he was strong, that he forsook the law of YHWH, and all Israel with him. [2]It happened in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had trespassed against YHWH, [3]with twelve hundred chariots, and sixty thousand horsemen. The people were without number who came with him out of Egypt: the Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians. [4]He took the fortified cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem. [5]And Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam, and to the leaders of Judah, who were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, "Thus says YHWH, 'You have forsaken me, therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.'"

[6]Then the leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, "YHWH is righteous."

[7]When YHWH saw that they humbled themselves, the word of YHWH came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them; but I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. [8]Nevertheless they shall be his servants, that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries."

[9]So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of YHWH, and the treasures of the king's house. He took it all away. He also took away the shields of gold which Solomon had made. [10]King Rehoboam made in their place shields of bronze, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house. 11It was so, that as often as the king entered into the house of YHWH, the guard came and bore them, and brought them back into the guard room. 12When he humbled himself, the wrath of YHWH turned from him, so as not to destroy him altogether: and moreover in Judah there were good things found. 13So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which YHWH had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. 14He did that which was evil, because he did not set his heart to seek YHWH. 15Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last,[a] aren't they written in the histories of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, after the way of genealogies? There were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. 16And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers, and he was buried[b] in the City of David. And Abijah his son reigned in his place.

13 In the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah. 2He reigned three years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maacah[c] the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. 3Abijah joined battle with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: and Jeroboam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, who were mighty men of valor. 4Abijah stood up on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel: 5Ought you not to know that YHWH, the God of Israel, gave the kingdom over Israel to David forever, even to him and to his descendants by a covenant of salt? 6Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up, and rebelled against his lord. 7There were gathered to him worthless men, base fellows, who strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them.

8"Now you think to withstand the kingdom of YHWH in the hand of the descendants of David; and you are a great multitude, and there are with you the golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods. 9Haven't you driven out the priests of YHWH, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made priests for yourselves after the ways of the peoples of other lands? so that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams, the same may be a priest of those who are no gods.

10"But as for us, YHWH is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and we have priests ministering to YHWH, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites in their work: 11and they burn to YHWH every morning and every evening burnt offerings and sweet incense. They also set the show bread in order on the pure table; and the lampstand of gold with its lamps, to burn every evening: for we keep the instruction of YHWH our God; but you have forsaken him. 12Look, God is with us at our head, and his priests with the trumpets of alarm to sound an alarm against you. Children of Israel, do not fight against YHWH, the God of your fathers; for you shall not prosper." 13But Jeroboam caused an ambush to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambush was behind them. 14When Judah looked back, look, the battle was before and behind them; and they cried to YHWH, and the priests sounded with the trumpets. 15Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it happened, that God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. 16The children of Israel fled before Judah; and God delivered them into their hand. 17Abijah and his people killed them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men. 18Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the people of Judah prevailed, because they relied on YHWH, the God of their fathers. 19Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Bethel with its towns, and Jeshanah with its towns, and Ephron[a] with its towns. 20Jeroboam did not recover strength again in the days of Abijah. YHWH struck him, and he died. 21But Abijah grew mighty, and took to himself fourteen wives, and became the father of twenty-two sons, and sixteen daughters. 22The rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the commentary of the prophet Iddo.

14 So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David; and Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet ten years. 2Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of YHWH his God: 3for he took away the foreign altars, and the high places, and broke down the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, 4and commanded Judah to seek YHWH, the God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment. 5Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the sun images: and the kingdom was quiet before him. 6He built fortified cities in Judah; for the land was quiet, and he had no war in those years, because YHWH had given him rest. 7For he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities, and make walls around them, with towers, gates, and bars. The land is still ours. Since we have sought[a] YHWH our God, he has sought us[b] and he has given us rest on every side." So they built and prospered. 8Asa had an army that bore bucklers and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bore shields and drew bows, two hundred eighty thousand: all these were mighty men of valor. 9There came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an army of a million troops, and three hundred chariots; and he came to Mareshah. 10Then Asa went out to meet him, and they set the battle in array in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. 11Asa cried to YHWH his God, and said, "YHWH, there is none besides you to help, between the mighty and those who have no strength. Help us, YHWH our God; for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this multitude. YHWH, you are our God. Do not let man prevail against you."

12So YHWH struck the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled. 13Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar: and there fell of the Ethiopians so many that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before YHWH, and before his army; and they carried away very much booty. 14They struck all the cities around Gerar; for the fear of YHWH came on them: and they plundered all the cities; for there was a great amount of plunder in them. 15They struck also the tents of livestock, and carried away sheep in abundance, and camels, and returned to Jerusalem.

15 The Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded: 2and he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. YHWH is with you, while you are with him; and if you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will forsake you. 3Now for a long time Israel was without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law. 4But when in their distress they turned to YHWH, the God of Israel, and sought him, he was found by them. 5In those times there was no peace to him who went out, nor to him who came in; but great troubles were on all the inhabitants of the lands. 6They were broken in pieces, nation against nation, and city against city; for God troubled them with all adversity. 7But you be strong, and do not let your hands be slack; for your work shall be rewarded."

[b]14:7 Revocalization cf. LXX Syr

[8]When Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Azariah the son of[a] Oded the prophet, he took courage and put away the abominations out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin and out of the cities which he had taken from the hill country of Ephraim; and he renewed the altar of YHWH, that was before the vestibule of YHWH. [9]He gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those who lived with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that YHWH his God was with him. [10]So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. [11]They sacrificed to YHWH in that day, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred head of cattle and seven thousand sheep. [12]They entered into the covenant to seek YHWH, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul; [13]and that whoever would not seek YHWH, the God of Israel, should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. [14]They swore to YHWH with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets. [15]All Judah rejoiced at the oath; for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and YHWH gave them rest all around. [16]Also Maacah, the mother of Asa the king, he removed from being queen, because she had made an abominable image for an Asherah; and Asa cut down her image, and made dust of it, and burnt it in the Kidron Valley. [17]But the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days. [18]He brought into God's house the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. [19]There was no more war to the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

16 In the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. [2]Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of YHWH and of the king's house, and sent to Ben Hadad king of Aram, who lived at Damascus, saying, [3]"Let there be a treaty between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Look, I have sent you silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me."

[4]Ben Hadad listened to king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they struck Ijon, and Dan, and Abel Maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali. 5It happened, when Baasha heard of it, that he left off building Ramah, and let his work cease. 6Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and its timber, with which Baasha had built; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah. 7At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said to him, "Because you have relied on the king of Aram, and have not relied on YHWH your God, therefore is the army of the king of Aram escaped out of your hand. 8Weren't the Ethiopians and the Lubim a huge army, with chariots and horsemen exceeding many? Yet, because you relied on YHWH, he delivered them into your hand. 9For the eyes of YHWH run back and forth throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein you have done foolishly; for from now on you shall have wars."

10Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in the prison; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time. 11Look, the acts of Asa, first and last, look, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. 12In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa was diseased in his feet; his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he did not seek YHWH, but to the physicians. 13Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign. 14They buried him in his own tomb[a] that he had dug out in the City of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with spices and various kinds of sweet-scented herbs[b] prepared by the perfumers' art, and they made a very great fire for him.

17 Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Israel. 2He placed forces in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken. 3YHWH was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David,[c] and did not seek the Baals, 4but sought to the God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel. 5Therefore YHWH established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat tribute; and he had riches and honor in abundance. 6His heart was lifted up in the ways of YHWH: and furthermore he took away the high places and the Asherim out of Judah. 7Also in the third year of his reign he sent his officials, even Ben Hail, and Obadiah, and Zechariah, and Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah; 8and with them the Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tobadonijah, the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests. 9They taught in Judah, having the scroll of the law of YHWH with them; and they went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught among the people. 10The fear of YHWH fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. 11Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and silver for tribute; the Arabians also brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred male goats. 12Jehoshaphat grew great exceedingly; and he built in Judah fortresses and cities of store. 13He had many works in the cities of Judah; and men of war, mighty men of valor, in Jerusalem. 14This was the numbering of them according to their fathers' houses: Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him mighty men of valor three hundred thousand; 15and next to him Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred eighty thousand; 16and next to him Amasiah the son of Zikri, who willingly offered himself to YHWH; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor. 17Of Benjamin: Eliada a mighty man of valor, and with him two hundred thousand armed with bow and shield; 18and next to him Jehozabad and with him one hundred eighty thousand ready prepared for war. 19These were those who waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

18 Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance; and he joined affinity with Ahab. 2After certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. Ahab killed sheep and cattle for him in abundance, and for the people who were with him, and moved him to go up with him to Ramoth Gilead. 3Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me to Ramoth Gilead?" He answered him, "I am as you are, and my people as your people. We will be with you in the war." 4Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire first for the word of YHWH."

5Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?"

They said, "Go up; for God will deliver it into the hand of the king."

6But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there here a prophet of YHWH besides, that we may inquire of him?"

7The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is yet one man
by whom we may inquire of YHWH; but I hate him, for he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla."

Jehoshaphat said, "Do not let
the king say so."

8Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, "Get Micaiah the son of Imla quickly."

9Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, and they were sitting in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them. 10Zedekiah the son of Kenaanah made him horns of iron, and said, "Thus says YHWH, 'With these you shall push the Arameans, until they are consumed.'"

11All the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper; for YHWH will deliver it into the hand of the king."

12The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying,
"Look, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth. Let your word therefore, please be like one of theirs, and speak good."

13Micaiah said, "As YHWH lives, whatever my God says to me,[a] that I will speak."

14When he had come to the king, the king said to him,
"Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?"

He said, "Go up, and prosper.
They shall be delivered into your hand."

15The king said to him, "How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of YHWH?"

16He said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd.
YHWH said, 'These have no master. Let them return every man to his house in peace.'"

17The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

18Micaiah said, "Therefore hear the word of YHWH: I saw YHWH sitting on his throne, and all the army of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left. 19YHWH said, 'Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth Gilead?' One spoke saying in this way, and another saying in that way. 20A spirit came

[a]18:13 LXX Vg 1 Kings 22:14. MT lacks "to me" from haplography: 'lhy-'ly out, stood before YHWH, and said, ‘I will entice him.’

“YHWH said to him, ‘How?’

21“He said, ‘I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’

“He said, ‘You will entice him, and will prevail also. Go forth, and do so.’

22“Now therefore, look, YHWH has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets; and YHWH has pronounced disaster concerning you.”

23Then Zedekiah the son of Kenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, “Which way did the Spirit of YHWH go from me to speak to you?”

24Micaiah said, “Look, you shall see on that day, when you shall go into an inner room to hide yourself.”

27Micaiah said, “If you return at all in peace, YHWH has not spoken by me.” He said, “Listen, you peoples, all of you.” 28So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. 29The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but you put on your robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went into the battle. 30Now the king of Aram had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, “Fight neither with small nor[a] great, except only with the king of Israel.”

31It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, “It is the king of Israel.” Therefore they turned around to fight against him. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and YHWH helped him; and God moved them to depart from him. 32It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. 33A certain man drew his bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor. Therefore he said to the driver of the chariot, “Turn your hand, and carry me out of the army; for I am severely wounded.” 34The battle increased that day. However the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot against the Arameans until the evening; and about the time of the going down of the sun, he died.

19 Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. [2]Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked, and love those who hate YHWH? Because of this, wrath is on you from before YHWH. [3]Nevertheless there are good things found in you, in that you have put away the Asheroth out of the land, and have set your heart to seek God."

[4]Jehoshaphat lived at Jerusalem: and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and brought them back to YHWH, the God of their fathers. [5]He set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, [6]and said to the judges, "Consider what you do: for you do not judge for man, but for YHWH; and he is with you in the judgment. [7]Now therefore let the fear of YHWH be on you. Take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with YHWH our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of bribes."

[8]Moreover in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed Levites and priests, and of the heads of the ancestral houses of Israel, for the judgment of YHWH, and for controversies. They returned to Jerusalem. [9]He commanded them, saying, "Thus you shall do in the fear of YHWH, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. [10]Whenever any controversy shall come to you from your brothers who dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and ordinances, you shall warn them, that they not be guilty towards YHWH, and so wrath come on you and on your brothers. Do this, and you shall not be guilty. [11]Look, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of YHWH; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all the king's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and may YHWH be with the good."

20 It happened after this, that the people of Moab, and the people of Ammon, and with them some of the Meunites,[a] came against Jehoshaphat to battle. [2]Then some came who told Jehoshaphat, saying, "A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea from Edom.[b] Look, they are in Hazazon Tamar" (that is, En Gedi). [3]Jehoshaphat was alarmed, and set himself to seek to YHWH. He proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. [4]Judah gathered themselves together, to seek help from YHWH. They came out of all the cities of Judah to seek YHWH. [5]Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of YHWH, before the new court; [6]and he said, "YHWH, the God of our fathers, aren't you God in heaven? Aren't you ruler over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might are in your hand, so that no one is able to withstand you. [7]Did you not, our God, drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel, and give it forever to the descendants of Abraham your friend? [8]They lived in it, and have built you a sanctuary in it for your name, saying, [9]'If evil comes on us—the sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine—we will stand before this house, and before you, (for your name is in this house), and cry to you in our affliction, and you will hear and save.' [10]Now, look, the people of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, whom you would not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned aside from them, and did not destroy them; [11]look, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of your possession, which you have given us to inherit. [12]Our God, will you not judge them? For we have no might against this great company that comes against us; neither know we what to do, but our eyes are on you."

[13]All Judah stood before YHWH, with their little ones, their wives, and their children. [14]Then the Spirit of YHWH came on Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, the Levite, of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the assembly; [15]and he said, "Listen, all Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and you king Jehoshaphat. Thus says YHWH to you, 'Do not be afraid, neither be dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's. [16]Tomorrow go down against them. Look, they are coming up by the ascent of Ziz. You shall find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jeruel. [17]You will not need to fight this battle. Set yourselves, stand still, and see the salvation of YHWH with you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed. Go out against them tomorrow, for YHWH is with you.'"

[18]Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before YHWH, worshipping YHWH. [19]The Levites, of the descendants of the Kohathites and of the descendants of the Korahites, stood up to praise YHWH, the God of Israel, with an exceeding loud voice. [20]They rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Listen to me, Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem. Believe in YHWH your God, so you will be established.

Believe his prophets[a], and you will prosper."

21When he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed those who should sing to YHWH, and give praise in holy array, as they went out before the army, and say, Give thanks to YHWH; for his loving kindness endures forever. 22When they began to sing and to praise, YHWH set ambushers against the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were struck. 23For the people of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, utterly to kill and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, everyone helped to destroy another. 24When Judah came to the place overlooking the wilderness, they looked at the multitude; and look, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and there were none who escaped. 25When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take their spoil, they found among them in abundance both riches and dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in taking the spoil, it was so much. 26On the fourth day they assembled themselves in the Valley of Berachah; for there they blessed YHWH: therefore the name of that place was called The Valley of Berachah to this day. 27Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in their forefront, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for YHWH had made them to rejoice over their enemies. 28They came to Jerusalem with stringed instruments and harps and trumpets to the house of YHWH. 29The fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the countries, when they heard that YHWH fought against the enemies of Israel. 30So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet; for his God gave him rest all around. 31Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. 32He walked in the way of Asa his father, and did not turn aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of YHWH. 33However the high places were not taken away; neither as yet had the people set their hearts to the God of their fathers. 34Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, look, they are written in the history of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is inserted in the book of the kings of Israel. 35After this Jehoshaphat king of Judah joined himself with Ahaziah king of Israel. The same did very wickedly: 36and he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish; and they made the ships in Ezion Geber. 37Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, “Because you have joined yourself with Ahaziah, YHWH has destroyed your works.” The ships were broken, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

[a]20:20 MT LXX(be2) Mss Tg Vg Arm (pl). LXX (sg)

21 Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David: and Jehoram his son reigned in his place. [2]He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel. [3]Their father gave them great gifts, of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fortified cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn. [4]Now when Jehoram was risen up over the kingdom of his father, and had strengthened himself, he killed all his brothers with the sword, and various also of the princes of Israel. [5]Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. [6]He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for he had the daughter of Ahab as wife: and he did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH. [7]However YHWH would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a lamp to him and to his children always. [8]In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. [9]Then Jehoram passed over with his captains, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, along with the captains of the chariots. [10]So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day: then Libnah revolted at the same time from under his hand, because he had forsaken YHWH, the God of his fathers. [11]Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and made the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the prostitute, and led Judah astray. [12]A letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, “Thus says YHWH, the God of David your father, ‘Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, [13]but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the prostitute, like the house of Ahab did, and also have slain your brothers of your father’s house, who were better than yourself: [14]look, YHWH will strike with a great plague your people, and your children, and your wives, and all your substance; [15]and you shall have great sickness by disease of your bowels, until your bowels fall out by reason of the sickness, day by day.’”

[16]YHWH stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians who are beside the Ethiopians: [17]and they came up against Judah, and broke into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king’s house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, except Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons. [18]After all this YHWH struck him in his bowels with an incurable disease. [19]It happened, in process of time, at the end of two years, that his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness, and he died of severe diseases. His people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers. [20]Thirty-two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years: and he departed without being desired; and they buried him in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

22 The inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place; for the band of men who came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. [2]Ahaziah was twenty-two[a] years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri. [3]He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab; for his mother was his counselor to do wickedly. [4]He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, as did the house of Ahab; for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction. [5]He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead: and the Arameans wounded Joram. [6]He returned to be healed in Jezreel from[b] the wounds which they had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. Ahaziah[c] the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick. [7]Now the destruction of Ahaziah was of God, in that he went to Joram: for when he had come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom YHWH had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. [8]It happened, when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, that he found the princes of Judah, and the sons[d] of the brothers of Ahaziah, ministering to Ahaziah, and killed them. [9]He sought Ahaziah, and they caught him (now he was hiding in Samaria), and they brought him to Jehu, and killed him; and they buried him, for they said, "He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought YHWH with all his heart." The house of Ahaziah had no power to hold the kingdom. [10]Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal family of the house of Judah. [11]But Jehosheba,[a] the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and secretly took him away from among the king's sons who were slain, and put him and his nurse in the bedroom. So Jehosheba, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah, so that she did not kill him. [12]He was with them hidden in God's house six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

23 In the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zikri, into covenant with him. [2]They went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the heads of ancestral houses of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem. [3]All the assembly made a covenant in the house of God with the king. And he showed them the king's son.[b] And he said to them, "Look, the king's son shall reign, as YHWH has spoken concerning the sons of David. [4]This is the thing that you shall do. A third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be gatekeepers of the thresholds. [5]A third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation. All the people shall be in the courts of YHWH's house. [6]But let no one come into the house of YHWH, except the priests, and those who minister of the Levites. They shall come in, for they are holy, but all the people shall follow YHWH's instructions. [7]The Levites shall surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand. Whoever comes into the house, let him be slain. Be with the king when he comes in, and when he goes out."

[8]So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath; with those who were to go out on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss the shift. [9]Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds the spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in God's house. [10]He set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, around the king. [11]Then he[c] brought out the king's son, and put[a] the crown on him, and gave him the testimony, and made him king: and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him; and they said, "Long live the king."

12When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of YHWH: 13and she looked, and, look, the king stood by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets; the singers also played musical instruments, and led the singing of praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and said, "Treason. Treason."

14Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks; and whoever follows her, let him be slain with the sword." For the priest said, "Do not kill her in YHWH's house." 15So they made way for her. She went to the entrance of the Horse Gate to the king's house; and they killed her there. 16Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, and all the people, and the king, that they should be YHWH's people. 17All the people went to the house of Baal, and broke it down, and broke his altars and his images in pieces, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. 18Jehoiada appointed the officers of the house of YHWH under the hand of the priests and[b] the Levites, and he appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites,[c] whom David had assigned over the house of YHWH, to offer the burnt offerings of YHWH, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, according to the order of David. 19He set the gatekeepers at the gates of the house of YHWH, that no one who was unclean in anything should enter in. 20He took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of YHWH: and they came through the Upper Gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom. 21So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. Athaliah they had slain with the sword.

24 Joash was seven years old when he began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah, of Beersheba. 2Joash did that which was right in the eyes of YHWH all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

[3]Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he became the father of sons and daughters. [4]It happened after this, that Joash intended to restore the house of YHWH. [5]He gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather money to repair the house of your God from all Israel from year to year.
See that you expedite this matter." However the Levites did not do it right away. [6]The king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said to him, "Why haven't you required of the Levites to bring in the tax of Moses the servant of YHWH, and of the assembly of Israel, out of Judah and out of Jerusalem, for the tent of the testimony?" [7]For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up God's house; and they also gave all the dedicated things of the house of YHWH to the Baals.
[8]So the king commanded, and they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of YHWH.
[9]They made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in for YHWH the tax that Moses the servant of God laid on Israel in the wilderness. [10]And all the leaders and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and threw it into the chest, until it was full. [11]It was so, that whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the chief priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. [12]The king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of YHWH; and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of YHWH, and also such as worked iron and bronze to repair the house of YHWH. [13]So the workmen worked, and the work of repairing went forward in their hands, and they set up God's house in its state, and strengthened it. [14]When they had made an end, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, of which were made vessels for the house of YHWH, even vessels with which to minister and to offer, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. They offered burnt offerings in the house of YHWH continually all the days of Jehoiada. [15]But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died; one hundred thirty years old was he when he died. [16]They buried him in the City of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and toward God and his house. [17]Now after the death of Jehoiada the leaders of Judah came and paid homage to the king. And the king listened to them. [18]They forsook the house of[a] YHWH, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols: and wrath came on Judah and Jerusalem for this their guiltiness. [19]Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again to YHWH; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear. [20]The Spirit of God came on Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people, and said to them, "Thus says God, 'Why do you disobey the commandments of YHWH, so that you can't prosper? Because you have forsaken YHWH, he has also forsaken you.'"

[21]They conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of YHWH. [22]Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his son. When he died, he said, "May YHWH look at it, and repay it." [23]It happened at the end of the year, that the army of the Arameans came up against him. And they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the leaders of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king in[a] Damascus. [24]For the army of the Arameans came with a small company of men; and YHWH delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken YHWH, the God of their fathers. So they executed judgment on Joash. [25]When they were departed for him (for they left him very sick), his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the son[b] of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed, and he died; and they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings. [26]These are those who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess. [27]Now concerning his sons, and the many[c] oracles against him, and the rebuilding of God's house, look, they are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

25 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddan, of Jerusalem. [2]He did that which was right in the eyes of YHWH, but not with a perfect heart. [3]Now it happened, when the kingdom was firmly in his grasp,[d] that he killed his servants who had killed his father the king. [4]But he did not put their children to death, but did according to that which is written in the law in the scroll of Moses, as YHWH commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin." [5]Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and ordered them according to their fathers' houses, under captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, even all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and upward, and found them three hundred thousand chosen men, able to go forth to war, who could handle spear and shield. [6]He hired also one hundred thousand mighty men of valor out of Israel for one hundred talents of silver. [7]A man of God came to him, saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you; for YHWH is not with Israel, with all the people of Ephraim. [8]But if you will go, take action, be strong for the battle. God will overthrow you before the enemy; for God has power to help, and to overthrow."

[9]Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel?"

The man of God answered, "YHWH is able to give you much more than this."

[10]Then Amaziah separated them, the army that had come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: therefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in fierce anger. [11]Amaziah took courage, and led forth his people, and went to the Valley of Salt, and struck ten thousand of the people of Seir. [12]The people of Judah carry away ten thousand alive, and brought them to the top of the rock, and threw them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were broken in pieces. [13]But the men of the army whom Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell on the cities of Judah, from Samaria even to Beth Horon, and struck of them three thousand, and took much spoil. [14]Now it happened, after that Amaziah had come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the people of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense to them. [15]Therefore the anger of YHWH was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent to him a prophet, who said to him, "Why have you sought after the gods of the people, which have not delivered their own people out of your hand?"

[16]It happened, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, "Have we made you one of the king's counselors? Stop. Why should you be struck down?"

Then the prophet stopped, and said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this, and have not listened to my counsel."

[17]Then Amaziah king of Judah consulted his advisers, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us look one another in the face."

[18]Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as his wife; then a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed by, and trampled down the thistle. 19You say to yourself that you have struck Edom; and your heart lifts you up to boast. Now stay at home. Why should you meddle with trouble, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you?'"

20But Amaziah would not listen; for it was of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they had sought after the gods of Edom. 21So Joash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. 22Judah was defeated by Israel; and they fled every man to his tent. 23Joash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate,[a] six hundred eighty-nine feet.[b] 24He took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in God's house with Obed-Edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. 26Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, look, aren't they written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? 27Now from the time that Amaziah turned away from following YHWH, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem. He fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish, and killed him there. 28They brought him on horses, and buried him with his fathers in the City of David.[c]

26 All the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah. 2He built Eilat,[d] and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers. 3Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jecoliah,[e] of Jerusalem. 4He did that which was right in the eyes of YHWH, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. 5He set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the fear[f] of God, and as long as he sought YHWH, God made him prosper. 6He went forth and warred against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities in the country of Ashdod, and among the Philistines. 7God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who lived in Gur Baal,[a] and[b] the Meunites. 8The Meunites[c] gave tribute to Uzziah, and his name spread abroad even to the entrance of Egypt; for he grew exceeding strong. 9Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, and at the Valley Gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. 10He built towers in the wilderness, and dug out many cisterns, for he had many cattle;[d] in the Shephelah and in the plain he had farmers, and vinedressers in the hills and in the fertile fields, for he loved the land. 11Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting men, who went out to war by bands, according to the number of their reckoning made by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains. 12The whole number of the heads of ancestral houses, even the mighty men of valor, was two thousand and six hundred. 13Under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, who made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. 14Uzziah prepared for them, even for all the army, shields, and spears, and helmets, and coats of mail, and bows, and stones for slinging. 15He made in Jerusalem engines, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and on the battlements, with which to shoot arrows and great stones. His name spread far abroad; for he was marvelously helped, until he was strong. 16But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up, so that he did corruptly, and he trespassed against YHWH his God; for he went into YHWH's temple to burn incense on the altar of incense. 17Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him eighty priests of YHWH, who were valiant men: 18and they resisted Uzziah the king, and said to him, "It isn't for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to YHWH, but for the priests the descendants of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the sanctuary; for you have trespassed; neither shall it be for your honor from YHWH God."

19Then Uzziah was angry; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was angry with the priests, the leprosy broke forth in his forehead before the priests in the house of YHWH, beside the altar of incense. 20Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked on him, and look, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out quickly from there; yes, himself hurried also to go out, because YHWH had struck him. 21Uzziah the king was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of YHWH: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. 22Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, wrote. 23So Uzziah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, "He is a leper." Jotham his son reigned in his place.

27 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. 2He did that which was right in the eyes of YHWH, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: however he did not enter into YHWH's temple. The people still did corruptly. 3He built the Upper Gate of the house of YHWH, and he carried out considerable work on the wall of Ophel. 4Moreover he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers. 5He fought also with the king of the people of Ammon, and prevailed against them. The people of Ammon gave him the same year one hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. The people of Ammon gave that much to him in the second year also, and in the third. 6So Jotham became mighty, because he ordered his ways before YHWH his God. 7Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, look, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. 8He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. 9Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

28 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he did not do that which was right in the eyes of YHWH, like David his father; 2but he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for the Baals. 3Moreover he burnt incense in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, and made his sons pass through[a] the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom YHWH cast out before the children of Israel. 4He sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. 5Therefore YHWH his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Aram; and they struck him, and carried away of his a great multitude of captives, and brought them to Damascus. He was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who struck him with a great slaughter. 6For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed in Judah one hundred twenty thousand in one day, all of them valiant men; because they had forsaken YHWH, the God of their fathers. 7Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the ruler of the house, and Elkanah who was next to the king. 8The children of Israel carried away captive of their brothers two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria. 9But a prophet of YHWH was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out to meet the army that came to Samaria, and said to them, "Look, because YHWH, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, he has delivered them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage which has reached up to heaven. 10Now you purpose to keep under the people of Judah and Jerusalem for bondservants and bondmaids for yourselves. Aren't there even with you trespasses of your own against YHWH your God? 11Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives, that you have taken captive from your brothers; for the fierce wrath of YHWH is on you." 12Then some of the heads of the people of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war, 13and said to them, "You shall not bring in the captives here: for you purpose that which will bring on us a trespass against YHWH, to add to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel."

14So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the leaders and all the assembly. 15The men who have been mentioned by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all who were naked among them, dressed them, gave them sandals, and gave them something to eat and to drink, anointed them, carried all the feeble of them on donkeys, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brothers. Then they returned to Samaria. 16At that time king Ahaz sent to the king[a] of Assyria to help him. 17For again the Edomites had come and struck Judah, and carried away captives. 18The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland, and of the Negev of Judah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, and Aijalon, and Gederoth, and Soco with its towns, and Timnah with its towns, Gimzo also and its towns: and they lived there. 19For YHWH brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel; for he had dealt wantonly in Judah, and trespassed severely against YHWH. [20]Tilgath Pilneser king of Assyria came to him, and distressed him, but did not strengthen him. [21]For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of YHWH, and out of the house of the king and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria: but it did not help him. [22]In the time of his distress, he trespassed yet more against YHWH, this same king Ahaz. [23]For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, which struck him; and he said, "Because the gods of the kings of Aram helped them, so I will sacrifice to them, that they may help me." But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel. [24]Ahaz gathered together the vessels of God's house, and cut in pieces the vessels of God's house, and shut up the doors of the house of YHWH; and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem. [25]In every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger YHWH, the God of his fathers. [26]Now the rest of his acts, and all his ways, first and last, look, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. [27]Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem; for they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

29 Hezekiah began to reign when he was twenty-five years old; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. [2]He did that which was right in the eyes of YHWH, according to all that David his father had done. [3]He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of YHWH, and repaired them. [4]He brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the broad place on the east, [5]and said to them, "Listen to me, you Levites. Now sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of YHWH, the God of your fathers, and carry out the filthiness out of the holy place. [6]For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the sight of YHWH our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of YHWH, and turned their backs. [7]Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel. [8]Therefore the wrath of YHWH was on Judah and Jerusalem, and he has delivered them to be tossed back and forth, to be an astonishment, and a hissing, as you see with your eyes. [9]For, look, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. [10]Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with YHWH, the God of Israel, that his fierce anger may turn away from us. [11]My sons, do not be negligent now; for YHWH has chosen you to stand before him, to minister to him, and that you should be his ministers, and burn incense."

[12]Then the Levites arose, Mahath, the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the descendants of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah; [13]and of the descendants of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the descendants of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; [14]and of the descendants of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the descendants of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel. [15]They gathered their brothers, and sanctified themselves, and went in, according to the commandment of the king by the words of YHWH, to cleanse the house of YHWH. [16]The priests went in to the inner part of the house of YHWH, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in YHWH's temple into the court of the house of YHWH. The Levites took it, to carry it out abroad to the Kidron Valley. [17]Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of YHWH; and they sanctified the house of YHWH in eight days: and on the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.
[18]Then they went in to Hezekiah the king within the palace, and said, "We have cleansed all the house of YHWH, and the altar of burnt offering, with all its vessels, and the table of show bread, with all its vessels. [19]Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign threw away when he trespassed, have we prepared and sanctified; and look, they are before the altar of YHWH."

[20]Then Hezekiah the king arose early and gathered the officials of the city and went up to the house of YHWH. [21]They brought seven bulls, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven male goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. He commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of YHWH. [22]So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: and they killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood on the altar: they killed also the lambs, and sprinkled the blood on the altar.
[23]They brought near the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly; and they laid their hands on them: [24]and the priests killed them, and they made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel; for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel. [25]He set the Levites in the house of YHWH with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet; for the commandment was of YHWH by his prophets. [26]The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. [27]Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song of YHWH began also, and the trumpets, together with the instruments of David king of Israel. [28]All the assembly worshiped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all[a] this continued until the burnt offering was finished. 29When they had made an end of offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves and worshiped. 30Moreover Hezekiah the king and the leaders commanded the Levites to sing praises to YHWH with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. They sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshiped. 31Then Hezekiah answered, "Now you have consecrated yourselves to YHWH; come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of YHWH." The assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings. 32The number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to YHWH. 33The consecrated things were six hundred head of cattle and three thousand sheep. 34But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: therefore their brothers the Levites helped them, until the work was ended, and until the priests had sanctified themselves; for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. 35Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and with the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of YHWH was set in order. 36Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, because of that which God had prepared for the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

30 Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of YHWH at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to YHWH, the God of Israel. 2For the king had taken counsel, and his officials, and all the assembly in Jerusalem, to keep the Passover in the second month. 3For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. 4The thing was right in the eyes of the king and of all the assembly. 5So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to YHWH, the God of Israel, at Jerusalem: for they had not kept it in great numbers in such sort as it is written. 6So the couriers went with the letters from the king and his officers throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, "Children of Israel, turn again to YHWH, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that he may return to the remnant of you who have escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria. 7Do not be like your fathers, and like your brothers, who trespassed against YHWH, the God of their fathers, so that he gave them up to desolation, as you see. 8Now do not be stiff-necked, as your fathers were; but yield yourselves to YHWH, and enter into his sanctuary, which he has sanctified forever, and serve YHWH your God, that his fierce anger may turn away from you. 9For if you turn again to YHWH, your brothers and your children shall find[a] compassion before those who led them captive, and shall come again into this land: for YHWH your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if you return to him."

[a]29:28 LXX Syr Vg lack "all"

10So the couriers passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even to Zebulun: but they ridiculed them, and mocked them. 11Nevertheless some from Asher and from[b] Manasseh and from Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem. 12Also in Judah came the hand of God to give them one heart, to do the commandment of the king and of the leaders by the word of YHWH. 13Many people assembled at Jerusalem to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great assembly. 14They arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the Kidron Valley. 15Then they killed the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought burnt offerings into the house of YHWH. 16They stood in their place after their order, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood which they received of the hand of the Levites. 17For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves: therefore the Levites were in charge of killing the Passovers for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to YHWH. 18For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover otherwise than it is written. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying, "May the good YHWH pardon everyone 19who sets his heart to seek God, YHWH, the God of his fathers, even if they aren't clean according to the purification of the sanctuary."

20YHWH listened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. 21The children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised YHWH day by day, singing with loud instruments to YHWH. 22Hezekiah spoke comfortably to all the Levites who had good understanding in the service of YHWH. So they completed[a] the seven days of the feast, offering sacrifices of peace offerings, and making confession to YHWH, the God of their fathers. 23The whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days; and they kept another seven days with gladness. 24For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the assembly for offerings one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the leaders gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep. And a great number of priests sanctified themselves. 25All the assembly of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the assembly who came out of Israel, and the foreigners who came out of the land of Israel, and who lived in Judah, rejoiced. 26So there was great joy in Jerusalem; for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem. 27Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy habitation, even to heaven.

31 Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah, and broke in pieces the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, and broke down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities. 2Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites after their divisions, every man according to his service, both the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp of YHWH. 3He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of YHWH. 4Moreover he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the law of YHWH. 5As soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel gave in abundance the first fruits of grain, new wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly. 6The children of Israel and Judah, who lived in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep, and the tithe of dedicated things which were consecrated to YHWH their God, and laid them by heaps. 7In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month. 8And when Hezekiah and the leaders came and saw the heaps, they blessed YHWH, and his people Israel. 9Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. 10Azariah the chief priest, of the house of Zadok, answered him and said, "Since people began to bring the offerings into the house of YHWH, we have eaten and had enough, and have left plenty: for YHWH has blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store." 11Then Hezekiah commanded them to prepare rooms in the house of YHWH; and they prepared them. 12They brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: and over them Conaniah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was second. 13Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismakiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of God's house. 14Kore the son of Jimnah the Levite, the keeper at the east gate, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the offerings of YHWH, and the most holy things. 15Under him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, alongside[a] the priests, to faithfully make disbursements to their brothers by divisions, as well to the great as to the small: 16besides those who were reckoned by genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even everyone who entered into the house of YHWH, as the duty of every day required, for their service in their offices according to their divisions. 17This is[b] the enrollment of the priests by their fathers' houses, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their offices by their divisions; 18and those who were reckoned by genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their office of trust they sanctified themselves in holiness. 19Also for the descendants of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every city, there were men who were mentioned by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all who were reckoned by genealogy among the Levites. 20Hezekiah did so throughout all Judah; and he worked that which was good and right and faithful before YHWH his God. 21In every work that he began in the service of God's house, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

32 After these things, and this faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and camped against the fortified cities, and thought to win them for himself. [2]When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that he intended to fight against Jerusalem, [3]he took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the springs which were outside of the city; and they helped him. [4]So many people gathered together, and they stopped all the springs, and the brook that flowed through the midst of the land, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water?"

[5]He took courage, and built up all the wall that was broken down, and raised towers upon it,[a] and the other wall outside, and strengthened Millo in the City of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance. [6]He set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the broad place at the gate of the city, and spoke comfortably to them, saying, [7]"Be strong and courageous, do not be afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude who is with him; for there is a greater with us than with him. [8]With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is YHWH our God to help us, and to fight our battles." The people rested themselves on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah. [9]After this, Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem, (now he was before Lachish, and all his power with him), to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were at Jerusalem, saying, [10]Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, "In whom do you trust, that you remain under siege in Jerusalem? [11]Doesn't Hezekiah persuade you, to give you over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, 'YHWH our God will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?' [12]Hasn't the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, 'You shall worship before one altar, and on it you shall burn incense?' [13] Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands in any way able to deliver their land out of my hand? [14]Who was there among all the gods of those nations which my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand? [15]Now therefore do not let Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you in this way, neither believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you out of my hand?"

[16]His servants spoke yet more against YHWH God, and against his servant Hezekiah. [17]He also wrote letters insulting YHWH, the God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, “As the gods of the nations of the lands, which have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall the God of Hezekiah not deliver his people out of my hand.” 18They cried with a loud voice in the Judean language to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. 19They spoke of the God of Jerusalem, as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of men’s hands. 20Hezekiah the king, and Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, prayed because of this, and cried to heaven. 21YHWH sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty men of valor, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. When he had come into the house of his god, some of his own offspring killed him there with the sword. 22Thus YHWH saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and gave them rest[a] on every side. 23Many brought gifts to YHWH to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah; so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from thenceforth. 24In those days Hezekiah was sick even to death: and he prayed to YHWH; and he spoke to him, and gave him a sign. 25But Hezekiah did not render again according to the benefit done to him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath on him, and on Judah and Jerusalem. 26Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of YHWH did not come on them in the days of Hezekiah. 27Hezekiah had a very great amount of riches and honor: and he provided him treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all kinds of goodly vessels; 28storehouses also for the increase of grain and new wine and oil; and stalls for all kinds of animals, and flocks in folds. 29Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very much substance. 30This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper spring of the waters of Gihon, and brought them straight down on the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah prospered in all his works. 31However concerning the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent to him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart. 32Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his good deeds, look, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. 33Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the tombs of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honor at his death. Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

33 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. [2]He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, after the abominations of the nations whom YHWH cast out before the children of Israel. [3]For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; and he reared up altars for the Baals, and made Asheroth, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served them. [4]He built altars in the house of YHWH, of which YHWH said, "My name shall be in Jerusalem forever." [5]He built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of YHWH. [6]He also made his children to pass through the fire in the Valley of Ben Hinnom; and he practiced sorcery, divination, and witchcraft, and consulted mediums, and spiritists: he worked much evil in the sight of YHWH, to provoke him to anger. [7]He set the engraved image of the idol, which he had made, in God's house, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name forever: [8]neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from off the land which I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them, even all the law and the statutes and the ordinances given by Moses." [9]Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that they did more evil than the nations whom YHWH destroyed before the children of Israel did. [10]YHWH spoke to Manasseh, and to his people; but they gave no heed. [11]Therefore YHWH brought on them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh in chains, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon. [12]When he was in distress, he begged YHWH his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. [13]He prayed to him; and he was entreated by him, and heard his petition, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that YHWH was God. [14]Now after this he built an outer wall to the City of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance at the Fish Gate; and he encircled Ophel with it, and raised it up to a very great height: and he put valiant captains in all the fortified cities of Judah. [15]He took away the foreign gods, and the idol out of the house of YHWH, and all the altars that he had built in the mountain of the house of YHWH, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city. [16]He built up the altar of YHWH, and offered thereon sacrifices of peace offerings and of thanksgiving, and commanded Judah to serve YHWH, the God of Israel. [17]Nevertheless the people sacrificed still in the high places, but only to YHWH their God.

[18]Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of YHWH, the God of Israel, look, they are written among the acts of the kings of Israel. [19]His prayer also, and how God was entreated of him, and all his sin and his trespass, and the places in which he built high places, and set up the Asherim and the engraved images, before he humbled himself, look, they are written in the Record of the Seers.[a] [20]So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the garden[b] of his own house. And Amon his son reigned in his place. [21]Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. [22]He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, as did Manasseh his father; and Amon sacrificed to all the engraved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them. [23]He did not humble himself before YHWH, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but this same Amon trespassed more and more. [24]His servants conspired against him, and put him to death in his own house. [25]But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

34 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. [2]He did that which was right in the eyes of YHWH, and walked in the ways of David his father, and did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. [3]For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the Asherim, and the engraved images, and the molten images. [4]They broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence; and the incense altars that were on high above them he cut down; and the Asherim, and the engraved images, and the molten images, he broke in pieces, and made dust of them, and strewed it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. [5]He burnt the bones of the priests on their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem. [6]He did this in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon, even to Naphtali, around in their ruins. [7]He broke down the altars, and beat the Asherim and the engraved images into powder, and cut down all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel, and returned to Jerusalem. [8]Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had[c] purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of YHWH his God. 9They came to Hilkiah the high priest, and delivered the money that was brought into God's house, which the Levites, the keepers of the threshold, had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and of the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 10They delivered it into the hand of the workers[a] who had the oversight of the house of YHWH; and the workmen who labored in the house of YHWH gave it to mend and repair the house; 11even to the carpenters and to the builders gave they it, to buy cut stone, and timber for couplings, and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. 12The men did the work faithfully: and their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and others of the Levites, all who were skillful with instruments of music. 13Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and set forward all who did the work in every kind of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and gatekeepers. 14When they brought out the money that was brought into the house of YHWH, Hilkiah the priest found the scroll of the law of YHWH given by Moses. 15Hilkiah answered Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the scroll of the law in the house of YHWH." Hilkiah delivered the scroll to Shaphan.

16Shaphan carried the scroll to the king, and moreover brought back word to the king, saying, "All that was committed to your servants, they are doing. 17They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of YHWH, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of the workmen." 18Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a scroll." Shaphan read it before the king.
19It happened, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he tore his clothes. 20The king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Acbor[b] the son of Micaiah,[c] and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying, 21"Go inquire of YHWH for me, and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found; for great is the wrath of YHWH that is poured out[d] on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of YHWH, to do according to all that is written in this scroll." 22So Hilkiah and those whom the king had sent[a] went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah,[b] the son of Harhas,[c] keeper of the wardrobe; (now she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter;) and they spoke to her to that effect. 23She said to them, "Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel: 'Tell the man who sent you to me, 24"Thus says YHWH, 'Look, I will bring disaster on this place, and on its inhabitants, even all the curses that are written in the scroll which they have read before the king of Judah. 25Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore is my wrath poured out on this place, and it shall not be quenched.'"' 26But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of YHWH, thus you shall tell him, 'Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel: "As touching the words which you have heard, 27because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God, when you heard his words against this place, and against its inhabitants, and have humbled yourself before me, and have torn your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you," says YHWH. 28"Look, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the disaster that I will bring on this place, and on its inhabitants."'"

They brought back word to the king. 29Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. 30The king went up to the house of YHWH, and all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, both great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the scroll of the covenant that was found in the house of YHWH. 31The king stood in his place, and made a covenant before YHWH, to walk after YHWH, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this scroll. 32He caused all who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand. The inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. 33Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all who were found in Israel to serve, even to serve YHWH their God. All his days they did not depart from following YHWH, the God of their fathers.

35 Josiah kept a Passover to YHWH in Jerusalem: and they killed the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the first month. 2He set the priests in their offices, and encouraged them to the service of the house of YHWH. 3He said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to YHWH, "Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built. There shall no more be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve YHWH your God, and his people Israel. 4Prepare yourselves after your fathers' houses and[a] by your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son. 5Stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brothers the lay people, and let there be for each a portion of a fathers' house of the Levites. 6Kill the Passover lamb, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brothers, to do according to the word of YHWH by Moses."

7Josiah gave to the lay people, of the flock, lambs and young goats, all of them for the Passover offerings, to all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls: these were of the king's substance. 8And his officials gave for a freewill offering to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites; and[b] Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, the rulers of God's house, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small livestock, and three hundred head of cattle. 9Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover offerings five thousand small livestock, and five hundred head of cattle. 10So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites by their divisions, according to the king's commandment. 11They killed the Passover lamb, and the priests sprinkled the blood[c] from their hand, and the Levites flayed them. 12They removed the burnt offerings, that they might give them according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the lay people, to offer to YHWH, as it is written in the scroll of Moses. So they did with the cattle. 13They roasted the Passover with fire according to the ordinance: and the holy offerings boiled they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the lay people. 14Afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests, because the priests the descendants of Aaron were busy with offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night: therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the descendants of

Aaron. [15]The singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the gatekeepers were at every gate: they did not need to depart from their service; for their brothers the Levites prepared for them. [16]So all the service of YHWH was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of YHWH, according to the commandment of king Josiah. [17]The children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. [18]There was no Passover like that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did any of the kings of Israel keep such a Passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [19]In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this Passover kept. [20]After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight against Carchemish by the Perath: and Josiah went out against him. [21]But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, "What have I to do with you, you king of Judah? I come not against you this day, but against the house with which I have war. God has commanded me to make haste. Beware that it is God who is with me, that he not destroy you."

[22]Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and did not listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. [23]The archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, because I am seriously wounded."

[24]So his servants took him out of the chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had, and brought him to Jerusalem; and he died, and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. [25]Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and singing women spoke of Josiah in their lamentations to this day; and they made them an ordinance in Israel: and look, they are written in the lamentations. [26]Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his good deeds, according to that which is written in the law of YHWH, [27]and his acts, first and last, look, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

36 Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and they anointed him and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem. [2]Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. [3]The king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem, and fined the land one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. [4]The king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. Neco took

Joahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt. [5]Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH his God. [6]Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. [7]Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of YHWH to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. [8]Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, look, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place. [9]Jehoiachin was eighteen[a] years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH. [10]At the return of the year king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of YHWH, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem. [11]Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: [12]and he did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH his God; he did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of YHWH. [13]He also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart against turning to YHWH, the God of Israel. [14]Moreover all the chiefs of the priests, and the people, trespassed very greatly after all the abominations of the nations; and they polluted the house of YHWH which he had made holy in Jerusalem. [15]YHWH, the God of their fathers, sent to them by his messengers, rising up early and sending, because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place: [16]but they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and scoffed at his prophets, until the wrath of YHWH arose against his people, until there was no remedy. [17]Therefore he brought on them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or gray-headed: he gave them all into his hand. [18]All the vessels of God's house, great and small, and the treasures of the house of YHWH, and the treasures of the king, and of his officials, all these he brought to Babylon. [19]They burnt God's house, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels of it. [20]He carried those who had escaped from the sword away to Babylon; and they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia: [21]to fulfill the word of YHWH by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its Sabbaths. As long as it

Ezra

1 Now in the first year of Koresh[b] king of Persia, that the word of YHWH by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, YHWH stirred up the spirit of Koresh king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, 2"Thus says Koresh king of Persia, 'YHWH, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he has commanded me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. 3Whoever there is among you of all his people, may his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of YHWH, the God of Israel (he is God), which is in Jerusalem.

4Whoever is left, in any place where he lives, let the men of his place help him with silver, with gold, with goods, and with animals, besides the freewill offering for God's house which is in Jerusalem.'"

5Then the heads of ancestral houses of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, even all whose spirit God had stirred to go up rose up to build the house of YHWH which is in Jerusalem. 6All those who were around them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver,[c] with gold, with goods, and with animals, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered.

7Also Koresh the king brought forth the vessels of the house of YHWH, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought out of Jerusalem, and had put in the house of his gods; 8even those, Koresh king of Persia brought out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them to

Ami. 58All the Nethinim, and the descendants of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety-two. 59These were those who went up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer; but they could not show whether their fathers' house, and their descent, were from Israel: 60the descendants of Delaiah, the descendants of Tobiah, the descendants of Nekoda, six hundred fifty-two. 61Of the descendants of the priests: the descendants of Habaiah, the descendants of Hakkoz, the descendants of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name. 62These sought their place among those who were registered by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they deemed polluted and put from the priesthood. 63The governor said to them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, until there stood up a priest with Urim and with Thummim. 64The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred sixty, 65besides their male servants and their female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven: and they had two hundred singing men and singing women. 66Their horses were seven hundred thirty-six; their mules, two hundred forty-five; 67their camels, four hundred thirty-five; their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty. 68Some of the heads of ancestral houses, when they came to the house of YHWH which is in Jerusalem, offered willingly for God's house to set it up in its place: 69they gave after their ability into the treasury of the work sixty-one thousand darics of gold, and five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priests' garments. 70So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim, lived in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

3 When the seventh month had come, and the children of Israel were in their[a] cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. 2Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak stood up with his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brothers, and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God. 3In spite of their fear because of the peoples of the surrounding lands, they set the altar on its base; and they offered burnt offerings on it to YHWH, even burnt offerings morning and evening. 4They kept the feast of tents, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the ordinance, as the duty of every day required; 5and afterward the continual burnt offering, the offerings of the new moons, of all the set feasts of YHWH that were consecrated, and of everyone who willingly offered a freewill offering to YHWH. 6From the first day of the seventh month, they began to offer burnt offerings to YHWH; but the foundation of YHWH's temple was not yet laid. 7They also gave money to the masons, and to the carpenters. They also gave food, drink, and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, according to the grant that they had from Koresh King of Persia.

8Now in the second year of their coming to God's house at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, began the work and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to have the oversight of the work of YHWH's house. 9Then Jeshua stood with his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Hodaviah[a], together, to have the oversight of the workmen in God's house: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brothers the Levites. 10When the builders laid the foundation of YHWH's temple, they set the priests in their clothing with trumpets, with the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise YHWH, according to the directions of David king of Israel. 11They sang to one another in praising and giving thanks to YHWH, "For he is good, for his loving kindness endures forever toward Israel." All the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised YHWH, because the foundation of the house of YHWH had been laid.

12But many of the priests and Levites and heads of ancestral houses, the old men who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice. Many also shouted aloud for joy, 13so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard far away.

4 Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the people from the exile were building a temple to YHWH, the God of Israel; 2then they drew near to Zerubbabel, and to the heads of ancestral houses, and said to them, "Let us build with you; for we seek your God, as you do; and we sacrifice to him[b] since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us up here."

3But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of ancestral houses of Israel, said to them, "You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves together will build to YHWH, the God of Israel, as king Koresh the king of Persia has commanded us." 4Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building, 5and hired counselors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Koresh king of Persia, even until the reign of Darayavush[a] king of Persia. 6In the reign of Achashyerosh,[b] in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7In the days of Artachshasta[c] wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of his companions, to Artachshasta king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in Aramean, and set forth in the Aramaic language. 8Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artachshasta the king as follows: 9[From] Rehum the commander, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions, the Dinaites, and the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Shushanchites, the Dehaites, the Elamites, 10and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asnappar brought over, and set in the cities[d] of Samaria, and in the rest of the country beyond the River. 11This is the copy of the letter that they sent to Artachshasta the king: Your servants the men beyond the River. And now, 12be it known to the king, that the Jews who came up from you have come to us to Jerusalem; they are building the rebellious and wicked city, and have finished the walls, and repaired the foundations.
12Be it known to the king, that the Jews who came up from you have come to us to Jerusalem; they are building the rebellious and wicked
city, and have finished the walls, and repaired the foundations. 13Be it known now to the king that if this city is built, and the walls finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and in the end it will be hurtful to the kings. 14Now because we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not appropriate for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore have we sent and informed the king; 15that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers: so you shall find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful to kings and provinces, and that they have
