moved sedition within the same of old time; for which cause was this city laid waste. 16We inform the king that, if this city be built, and the walls finished, by this means you shall have no portion beyond the River. 17Then the king sent an answer to Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and in the rest of the country beyond the River:
Peace, and so forth. 18The letter which you sent to us has been plainly read before me. 19I decreed, and search has been made, and it is found that this city of old time has made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made in it. 20There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all the country beyond the River; and tribute, custom, and toll, was paid to them.
21Make a decree now to cause these men to cease, and that this city not be built, until a decree shall be made by me. 22Take heed that you not be slack herein: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings? 23Then when the copy of king Artachshasta' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went in haste to Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power. 24Then ceased the work of God's house which is at Jerusalem; and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darayavush king of Persia.

5 Now the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem; in the name of the God of Israel they prophesied to them.
2Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build God's house which is at Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God, helping them. 3At the same time came to them Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shetharbozenai, and their companions, and said thus to them,
"Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?" 4Then they[a] asked them, "What are the names of the men who are constructing this building? 5But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, and they did not make them cease, until the matter should come to Darayavush, and then answer should be returned by letter concerning it. 6The copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shetharbozenai, and his companions the Apharsachites, who were beyond the River, sent to Darayavush the king; 7they sent a letter to him, in which was written thus: To Darayavush the king, all peace. 8Be it known to the king, that we went into the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls; and this work goes on with diligence and prospers in their hands. [9]Then we asked those elders, and said to them thus, "Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?" [10]We asked them their names also, to inform you that we might write the names of the men who were at their head. [11]Thus they returned us answer, saying, "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and are building the house that was built these many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished. [12]But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. [13]But in the first year of Koresh king of Babylon, Koresh the king made a decree to build this house of God. [14]The gold and silver vessels also of God's house, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought into the temple of Babylon, those Koresh the king took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor; [15]and he said to him, 'Take these vessels, go, put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let God's house be built in its place.' [16]Then the same Sheshbazzar came, and laid the foundations of God's house which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now has it been in building, and yet it is not completed. [17]Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let a search be made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Koresh the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem; and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter."

6 Then Darayavush the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the archives, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon. [2]There was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of Media, a scroll, and there was written in it as follows: "Memorandum: [3]In the first year of Koresh the king, Koresh the king made a decree: Concerning God's house at Jerusalem, let the house be built, the place where they offer sacrifices, and let its foundations be strongly laid; its height one hundred three feet and four inches;[a] and its breadth one hundred three feet and four inches; [4]with three layers of great stones, and one[b] layer of timber. And let the expenses be given out of the king's house. [5]Also let the gold and silver vessels of God's house, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, be restored, and brought again to the temple which is at Jerusalem, everyone to its place; and you shall put them in God's house. 6Now therefore, Tattenai, governor beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and your companions the Apharsachites, who are beyond the River, you must stay far from there. 7Leave the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in its place. 8Moreover I make a decree what you shall do to these elders of the Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the River, expenses be given with all diligence to these men, that they be not hindered. 9That which they have need of, both young bulls, and rams, and lambs, for burnt offerings to the God of heaven; also wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of the priests who are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail; 10that they may offer sacrifices of pleasant aroma to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. 11Also I have made a decree, that whoever shall alter this word, let a beam be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and fastened thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this: 12and the God who has caused his name to dwell there overthrow all kings and peoples who shall put forth their hand to alter the same, to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darayavush have made a decree; let it be done with all diligence. 13Then Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and their companions, because Darayavush the king had sent a decree, did accordingly with all diligence. 14The elders of the Jews built and prospered, through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. They built and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the decree of Koresh, and Darayavush, and Artachshasta king of Persia. 15This house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darayavush the king. 16The children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the people from the exile, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy. 17They offered at the dedication of this house of God one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. 18They set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the book of Moses. 19The people from the exile kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. 20For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were pure: and they killed the Passover lamb for all the people from the exile, and for their brothers the priests, and for themselves. 21The children of Israel who had come again out of the captivity, and all such as had separated themselves to them from the filthiness of the nations of the land, to seek YHWH, the God of Israel, ate, 22and kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for YHWH had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, to strengthen their hands in the work of God's house, the God of Israel.

7 Now after these things, in the reign of Artachshasta king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, [2]the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, [3]the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, [4]the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, [5]the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest; [6]this Ezra went up from Babylon: and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which YHWH, the God of Israel, had given; and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of YHWH his God on him. [7]There went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim, to Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artachshasta the king. [8]He came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. [9]For on the first day of the first month he began to go up from Babylon; and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, for the good hand of his God was on him. [10]For Ezra had set his heart to seek the law of YHWH, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and ordinances. [11]Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artachshasta gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, even the scribe of the words of the commandments of YHWH, and of his statutes to Israel: [12]Artachshasta, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect and so forth. [13]I make a decree, that all those of the people of Israel, and their priests and the Levites, in my realm, who are minded of their own free will to go to Jerusalem, go with you. [14]Because you are sent of the king and his seven counselors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of your God which is in your hand, [15]and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem, [16]and all the silver and gold that you shall find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem; [17]therefore you shall with all diligence buy with this money bulls, rams, lambs, with their meal offerings and their drink offerings, and shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem. [18]Whatever shall seem good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do that after the will of your God. [19]The vessels that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver before the God of Jerusalem. [20]Whatever more shall be needful for the house of your God, which you shall have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house. [21]I, even I Artachshasta the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers who are beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done with all diligence, 22to one hundred talents of silver, and to one hundred measures of wheat, and to one hundred baths of wine, and to one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.

23Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven; for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? 24Also we inform you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, the singers, doorkeepers, Nethinim, or servants of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or toll, on them. 25You, Ezra, after the wisdom of your God who is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges, who may judge all the people who are beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and teach him who doesn't know them.

26Whoever will not do the law of your God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed on him with all diligence, whether it be to death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment. 27Blessed be YHWH, the God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of YHWH which is in Jerusalem; 28and has extended loving kindness to me before the king, and his counselors, and before all the king's powerful officers. I was strengthened according to the hand of YHWH my God on me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

8 Now these are the heads of their ancestral houses, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artachshasta the king: 2Of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom. Of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel. Of the sons of David, Hattush 3the son[a] of Shecaniah; of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah; and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males one hundred fifty.
4Of the sons of Pahath-Moab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerahiah; and with him two hundred males. 5Of the sons of Zattu,[b] Shecaniah the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males. 6Of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan; and with him fifty males. 7Of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah; and with him seventy males. 8Of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael; and with him eighty males. 9Of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel; and with him two hundred and eighteen males. 10Of the sons of Bani,[c] Shelomoth[d] the son of Josiphiah, and with him one hundred sixty males. 11Of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai; and with him twenty-eight males.

12Of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan; and with him one hundred ten males. 13Of the sons of Adonikam, who were the last; and these are their names: Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah; and with them sixty males. 14Of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zakkur;[a] and with them seventy males. 15I gathered them together to the river that runs to Ahava; and there we camped three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi. 16Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, who were teachers.

21Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek of him a straight way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance. 22For I was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way, because we had spoken to the king, saying, "The hand of our God is on all those who seek him, for good; but his power and his wrath is against all those who forsake him."

23So we fasted and begged our God for this: and he was entreated of us. 24Then I set apart twelve of the chiefs of the priests, namely, Sherebiah, and Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers with them, 25and weighed to them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering for the house of our God, which the king, and his counselors, and his officials, and all Israel there present, had offered: 26I weighed into their hand six hundred fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels one hundred talents; of gold one hundred talents; 27and twenty bowls of gold, of one thousand darics; and two vessels of fine bright bronze, precious as gold. [28]I said to them, "You are holy to YHWH, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to YHWH, the God of your fathers.

[29]Watch, and keep them, until you weigh them before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites, and the leaders of ancestral houses of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the rooms of the house of YHWH." [30]So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God. [31]Then we departed from the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was on us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the bandit by the way.

[32]We came to Jerusalem, and stayed there three days. [33]On the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, the Levite; [34]the whole by number and by weight: and all the weight was written at that time. [35]The exiles who had returned from captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering to YHWH. [36]They delivered the king's commissions to the king's satraps, and to the governors beyond the River: and they furthered the people and God's house.

9 Now when these things were completed, the leaders approached me and said, "The people of Israel, and the priests and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, following their abominations, even those of the Canaanites, the Hethites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. [2]For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy seed have mixed themselves with the peoples of the lands. Indeed, the hand of the officials and leaders has been foremost in this trespass."

[3]When I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my robe, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down confounded. [4]Then were assembled to me everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of their trespass of the captivity; and I sat confounded until the evening offering. [5]At the evening offering I arose up from my humiliation, even with my garment and my robe torn; and I fell on my knees, and spread out my hands to YHWH my God; [6]and I said, "My God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to you, my God; for our iniquities have increased over our head, and our guiltiness has grown up to the heavens. [7]Since the days of our fathers we have been exceeding guilty to this day; and for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests, have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to confusion of face, as it is this day. [8]Now for a little moment grace has been shown from YHWH our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. [9]For we are bondservants; yet our God has not forsaken us in our bondage, but has extended loving kindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

[10]"Now, our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken your commandments, [11]which you have commanded by your servants the prophets, saying, 'The land, to which you go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness. [12]Now therefore do not give your daughters to their sons, neither take their daughters to your sons, nor seek their peace or their prosperity forever; that you may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children forever.'

10 Now while Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before God's house, there was gathered together to him out of Israel a very great assembly of men and women and children; for the people wept very bitterly. [2]Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered Ezra, "We have trespassed against our God, and have married foreign women of the peoples of the land. Yet now there is hope for Israel concerning this thing. [3]Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God. Let it be done according to the law. [4]Arise; for the matter belongs to you, and we are with you. Be courageous, and do it."

5Then Ezra arose, and made the chiefs of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they would do according to this word. So they swore. 6Then Ezra rose up from before God's house, and went into the room of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib. And while he stayed[a] there, he ate no bread, nor drank water; for he mourned because of their trespass of the captivity. 7They made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the descendants of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Jerusalem; 8and that whoever did not come within three days, according to the counsel of the officials and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the assembly of the captivity. 9Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together to Jerusalem within the three days; it was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month: and all the people sat in the broad place before God's house, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain.

10Ezra the priest stood up, and said to them, "You have trespassed, and have married foreign women, to increase the guilt of Israel. 11Now therefore make confession to YHWH, the God of your fathers, and do his pleasure; and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the foreign women."

12Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, "As you have said concerning us, so must we do. 13But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand outside; neither is this a work of one day or two; for we have greatly transgressed in this matter. 14Let now our leaders represent the whole assembly, and let all those who are in our cities who have married foreign women come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and its judges, until the fierce wrath of our God be turned from us, until this matter is resolved."
15Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah stood up against this; and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them. 16But the descendants of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest selected for himself[b] men, heads of fathers' houses, according to their fathers' houses, and all of them by their names. So they began their sessions[c] on the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. 17And they finished with all the men who had married foreign women by the first day of the first month. 18Among the sons of the priests there were found who had married foreign women: of the sons of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and

1 The words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah. Now it happened in the month Chislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, 2that Hanani, one of my brothers, came, he and certain men out of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. 3They said to me, “The remnant who are left of the captivity there in the province are in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and its gates are burned with fire." [4]It happened, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days; and I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven, [5]and said, "I beg you, YHWH, the God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments: [6]Let your ear now be attentive, and your eyes open, that you may listen to the prayer of your servant, which I pray before you at this time, day and night, for the children of Israel your servants while I confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against you. Yes, I and my father's house have sinned. [7]We have dealt very corruptly against you, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the ordinances, which you commanded your servant Moses.

[8]"Remember, I beg you, the word that you commanded your servant Moses, saying, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you abroad among the peoples; [9]but if you return to me, and keep my commandments and do them, though some of you were cast out to the farthest horizon, yet will I gather them from there, and will bring them to the place that I have chosen, to cause my name to dwell there.'[a]

[10]"Now these are your servants and your people, whom you have redeemed by your great power, and by your strong hand. [11]Lord, I beg you, let your ear be attentive now to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants, who delight to fear your name; and please prosper your servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man."

Now I was cup bearer to the king.

2 It happened in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artachshasta[b] the king, when[c] wine was before me,[d] that I took up the wine, and gave it to the king. Now I had not been sad before in his presence. [2]The king said to me, "Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing else but sorrow of heart."

Then I was very much afraid. [3]I said to the king, "Let the king live forever. Why shouldn't my face be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates have been consumed with fire?"

[4]Then the king said to me, "For what do you make request?"

So I prayed to the God of heaven. [5]I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, that you would send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may build it."

[6]The king said to me (the queen was also sitting by him), "For how long shall your journey be? And when will you return?"

So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time. [7]Moreover I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah; [8]and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel by the temple, for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into."

The king granted my requests, because of the good hand of my God on me. [9]Then I came to the governors beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent with me captains of the army and horsemen. [10]When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly, because a man had come to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. [11]So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days. [12]I arose in the night, I and some few men with me. And I told no one what my God put into my heart to do for Jerusalem; neither was there any animal with me, except the animal that I rode on. [13]I went out by night by the Valley Gate, even toward the Serpent's Well, and to the Dung Gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and its gates were consumed with fire. [14]Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool, but there was no place for the animal that was under me to pass. [15]Then went I up in the night by the wadi, and viewed the wall; and I turned back, and entered by the Valley Gate, and so returned. [16]The rulers did not know where I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest who did the work. [17]Then I said to them, "You see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire. Come, let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we won't be disgraced." [18]I told them of the hand of my God which was good on me, as also of the king's words that he had spoken to me.

They said, "Let's rise up and build." So they strengthened their hands for the good work.

[19]But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they ridiculed us, and despised us, and said, "What is this thing that you are doing? Will you rebel against the king?"

[20]Then answered I them, and said to them, “The God of heaven will prosper us. Therefore we, his servants, will arise and build; but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.”

3 Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests, and they built the Sheep Gate. They sanctified it and set up its doors; they sanctified it as far as the Tower of the Hundred and[a] as far as the Tower of Hananel. [2]And the men of Jericho built next to him. And next to them Zaccur son of Imri built. [3]The sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate. They laid its beams, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. [4]Next to them, Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz made repairs. Next to them, Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel made repairs. Next to them, Zadok the son of Baana made repairs. [5]Next to them, the Tekoites made repairs; but their nobles did not put their necks to the work of their lord. [6]Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate. They laid its beams, and set up its doors, and its bolts, and its bars. [7]Next to them, Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, repaired the residence of the governor beyond the River. [8]Next to him, Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, goldsmiths, made repairs. Next to him, Hananiah one of the perfumers made repairs, and they fortified Jerusalem even to the Broad Wall. [9]Next to them, Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs. [10]Next to them, Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs[b] across from his house. Next to him, Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs. [11]Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hasshub the son of Pahath-Moab, repaired another portion, and the Tower of the Ovens. [12]Next to him, Shallum the son of Hallohesh, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, he and his daughters, made repairs. [13]Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and one thousand seven hundred twenty-two feet six inches[c] of the wall to the Dung Gate. [14]Malchijah the son of Rechab, the ruler of the district of Beth Haccherem repaired the Dung Gate. He built it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. [15]Shallum[d] the son of Colhozeh, the ruler of the district of Mizpah repaired the Fountain Gate. He built it, and covered it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and 18After him, their brothers, Binnui[c] the son of Henadad, the ruler of half the district of Keilah made repairs. 19Next to him, Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, repaired another portion, across from the ascent to the armory at the turning of the wall. 20After him, Baruch the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired another portion, from the turning of the wall to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest. 21After him, Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz repaired another portion, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib. 22After him, the priests, the men of the Plain made repairs. 23After them, Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs across from their house. After them, Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah made repairs beside his own house. 24After him, Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another portion, from the house of Azariah to the turning of the wall, and to the corner. 25Palal the son of Uzai made repairs opposite the turning of the wall, and the tower that stands out from the upper house of the king, which is by the court of the guard. And after him Pedaiah the son of Parosh made repairs. 26(Now the Nethinim lived in Ophel, to the place over against the Water Gate toward the east, and the tower that stands out.) 27After him the Tekoites repaired another portion, over against the great tower that stands out, and to the wall of Ophel. 28Above the Horse Gate, the priests made repairs, everyone across from his own house. 29After them, Zadok the son of Immer made repairs across from his own house. After him, Shemaiah the son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the East Gate made repairs. 30After him,[d] Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another portion. After him, Meshullam the son of Berechiah made repairs across from his room. 31After him, Malchijah one of the goldsmiths to the house of the Nethinim, and of the merchants, made repairs over against the Miphkad Gate, and to the ascent of the corner. 32Between the ascent of the corner and the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

4 But it happened that when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. [2]And he spoke before his brothers and the army of Samaria, and said, "What are these[a] feeble Jews doing? Will they restore it for themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, which are burned?"
[3]Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, "What they are building, if a fox climbed up it, he would break down their stone wall."

[4]"Hear, our God; for we are despised; and turn back their insults on their own head, give them up for a spoil in a land of captivity; [5]do not cover their iniquity, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before you; for they have insulted the builders."

[6]So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to half its height: for the people had a mind to work. [7]But it happened that when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabians, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem went forward, and that the breaches began to be filled, then they were very angry; [8]and they conspired all of them together to come and fight against Jerusalem, and to cause confusion in it. [9]But we made our prayer to our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. [10]Judah said, "The strength of the bearers of burdens is fading, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall." [11]Our adversaries said, "They shall not know, neither see, until we come into their midst, and kill them, and cause the work to cease."

[12]It happened that when the Jews who lived by them came, they said to us ten times from all places, "Wherever you turn, they will attack us." [13]Therefore set I in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in the open places, I set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. [14]I looked, and rose up, and said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses." [15]It happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had brought their counsel to nothing, that we returned all of us to the wall, everyone to his work.

16It happened from that time forth that half of my servants would do the work and half of them held[a] the spears, and[b] the shields, and the bows, and the body armor; and the rulers stood behind the whole house of Judah 17who were building the wall. And those who carried loads held their load with one hand and with the other held a weapon; 18and the builders, everyone wore his sword at his side, and so built. He who sounded the trumpet was by me. 19I said to the nobles, and to the rulers and to the rest of the people, "The work is great and large, and we are separated on the wall, one far from another. 20Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally there to us.[c] Our God will fight for us."

21So we worked in the work:
and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning until the stars appeared. 22Likewise at the same time said I to the people, "Let everyone with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and may labor in the day." 23So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us took off our clothes. Everyone took his weapon to the water.

5 Then there arose a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brothers the Jews. 2For there were that said, "We, our sons and our daughters, are many. Let us get grain, that we may eat and live." 3Some also there were that said,
"We are mortgaging our fields, and our vineyards, and our houses. Let us get grain, because of the famine." 4There were also some who said, "We have borrowed money for the king's tribute using our fields and our vineyards as collateral. 5Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brothers, our children as their children. Look, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters have been brought into bondage. Neither is it in our power to help it; for other men have our fields and our vineyards."

6I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.
7Then I consulted with myself, and contended with the nobles and the rulers, and said to them, "You exact usury, everyone of his brother." I held a great assembly against them.
8I said to them, "We, after our ability, have redeemed our brothers the Jews that were sold to the nations; and would you even sell your brothers, and should they be sold to us?" Then they held their peace, and found never a word.
9Also I said, "The thing that you do is not good. Ought you not to walk in the fear of our God, to prevent the taunts of the nations our enemies? 10I likewise, my brothers and my servants, lend them money and grain. Please let us stop this usury. 11Please restore to them, even this day, their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, that you are charging them."

12Then they said, "We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do, even as you say."

Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they would do according to this promise.
13Also I shook out my lap, and said,
"So may God shake out every man from his house, and from his labor, that doesn't perform this promise; even thus be he shaken out, and emptied."

All the assembly said,
"Amen," and praised YHWH. The people did according to this promise.
14Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even to the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brothers have not eaten the bread of the governor. 15But the former governors who were before me were supported by the people, and took bread and wine from them, besides forty shekels of silver; yes, even their servants ruled over the people: but I did not do so, because of the fear of God. 16Yes, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered there to the work. 17Moreover there were at my table, of the Jews and the rulers, one hundred fifty men, besides those who came to us from among the nations that were around us.
18Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this I did not demand the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy on this people. 19Remember to me, my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.

6 Now it happened, when it was reported to Sanballat and Tobiah, and to Geshem the Arabian, and to the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left in it; (though even to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates;) 2that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, "Come, let us meet together at Ha-Kephirim in the plain of Ono." But they intended to harm me.

3I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work, so that I can't come down. Why should the work cease, while I leave it, and come down to you?" 4They sent to me four times after this sort; and I answered them the same way. 5Then Sanballat sent his servant to me the same way the fifth time with an open letter in his hand, 6in which was written, "It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu says it, that you and the Jews intend to rebel. Because of that, you are building the wall. You would be their king, according to these words. 7You have also appointed prophets to preach of you at Jerusalem, saying, 'There is a king in Judah.' Now it will be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together."

8Then I sent to him, saying, "There are no such things done as you say, but you imagine them out of your own heart." 9For they all would have made us afraid, saying, "Their hands will be weakened from the work, that it not be done. But now, strengthen my hands."

10I went to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabel, who was shut in at his home; and he said, "Let us meet together in God's house, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple; for they will come to kill you; yes, in the night will they come to kill you."

11I said, "Should such a man as I flee? Who is there that, being such as I, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in." 12I discerned, and look, God had not sent him; but he pronounced this prophecy against me. Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. 13He hired so that I would be afraid, do so, and sin, and that they might have material for an unfavorable report, that they might taunt me. 14"Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and also the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear."

15So the wall was finished in the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days. 16And it happened, when all our enemies heard of it, and all the surrounding nations saw it, that they lost their confidence; for they recognized that this work was done by our God. 17Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah's letters came to them. 18For there were many in Judah sworn to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah; and his son Jehohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah as wife. 19Also they spoke of his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

7 Now it happened, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were appointed, 2that I put my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the commander of the fortress, in charge of Jerusalem; for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. 3I said to them, "Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while they stand guard, let them shut the doors, and you bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, everyone in his watch, with everyone near his house."

4Now the city was wide and large; but the people were few in it, and the houses were not built. 5My God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found written in it: 6These are the people of the

who went up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addan,[a] and Immer; but they could not prove their ancestral houses, nor their descent, whether they were of Israel: 62The descendants of Delaiah, the descendants of Tobiah, the descendants of Nekoda, six hundred forty-two. 63Of the priests: the descendants of Hobaiah, the descendants of Hakkoz, the descendants of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name. 64These searched for their genealogical records, but couldn't find them. Therefore were they deemed polluted and put from the priesthood. 65The governor said to them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, until there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim. 66The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred sixty, 67besides their male servants and their female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven: and they had two hundred forty-five singing men and singing women. 68Their horses were seven hundred thirty-six; their mules, two hundred forty-five; 69their camels, four hundred thirty-five; their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred twenty. 70Some from among the heads of ancestral houses gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury one thousand darics of gold, fifty basins, and five hundred thirty priests' garments. 71Some of the heads of ancestral houses gave into the treasury of the work twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand two hundred minas of silver. 72That which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven priests' garments. 73So the priests, and the Levites, and the gatekeepers, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinim, and all Israel, lived in their cities. When the seventh month had come, the children of Israel were in their cities.

8 All the people gathered themselves together as one man into the square that was before the Water Gate; and they spoke to Ezra the scribe to bring the scroll of the law of Moses, which YHWH had commanded to Israel. 2Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, both men and women, and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month. 3And he read it before the square that was before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women, and of those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the scroll of the law. 4Ezra the scribe stood on a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Uriah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchijah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam. 5Ezra opened the scroll in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up: 6and Ezra blessed YHWH, the great God. All the people answered, "Amen, Amen," with the lifting up of their hands. They bowed their heads, and worshiped YHWH with their faces to the ground. 7Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah,[a] the Levites, explained the law to the people, and the people stayed in their place. 8They read in the scroll, in the law of God, distinctly; and they gave the sense, so that they understood the reading. 9Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites who taught the people, said to all the people, "This day is holy to YHWH your God. Do not mourn, nor weep." For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. 10Then he said to them, "Go your way. Eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not be grieved; for the joy of YHWH is your strength."

12All the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared to them. 13On the second day were gathered together the heads of ancestral houses of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, to Ezra the scribe, even to give attention to the words of the law. 14They found written in the law, how that YHWH had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month; 15and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, "Go out to the mountain, and get olive branches, and branches of wild olive, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written."

16So the people went out, and brought them, and made themselves booths, everyone on the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of God's house, and in the broad place of the Water Gate, and in the broad place of the Ephraim Gate. 17All the assembly of those who had come again out of the captivity made booths, and lived in the booths; for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun to that day the children of Israel had not done so. There was very great gladness. 18Also day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read in the scroll of the law of God. They kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according to the ordinance.

9 Now in the twenty-fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackcloth, and earth on them. 2The descendants of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. 3They stood up in their place, and read in the scroll of the law of YHWH their God a fourth part of the day; and a fourth part they confessed, and worshiped YHWH their God. 4Then Jeshua, and Binnui,[a] Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani of the Levites stood up on the stairs, and cried with a loud voice to YHWH their God. 5Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, "Stand up and bless YHWH your God from everlasting to everlasting. Blessed be your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. 6You are YHWH, even you alone. You have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their army, the earth and all things that are on it, the seas and all that is in them, and you preserve them all. The army of heaven worships you. 7You are YHWH, the God who chose Abram, and brought him out of Ur Kasdim, and gave him the name of Abraham, 8and found his heart faithful before you, and made a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanite, the Hethite, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite, and the Girgashite, to give it to his descendants, and have performed your words; for you are righteous.

9"You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their cry by the Red Sea, 10and showed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, and against all his servants, and against all the people of his land; for you knew that they dealt proudly against them, and made a name for yourself, as it is this day. 11You divided the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and you cast their pursuers into the depths, as a stone into the mighty waters. 12Moreover, in a pillar of cloud you led them by day; and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light in the way in which they should go.

13"You came down also on Mount Sinai, and spoke with them from heaven, and gave them right ordinances and true laws, good statutes and commandments, 14and made known to them your holy Sabbath, and commanded them commandments, and statutes, and a law, by Moses your servant, 15and gave them bread from the sky for their hunger, and brought forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and commanded them that they should go in to possess the land which you had sworn to give them.

16"But they and our fathers dealt proudly and hardened their neck, did not listen to your commandments, 17and refused to obey, neither were they mindful of your wonders that you did among them, but hardened their neck, and appointed a leader to return to their slavery in Egypt.[a] But you are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and did not forsake them. 18Yes, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, 'This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt,' and had committed awful blasphemies; 19yet you in your manifold mercies did not forsake them in the wilderness: the pillar of cloud did not depart from over them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go. 20You gave also your good Spirit to instruct them, and did not withhold your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst.

21"Yes, forty years you sustained them in the wilderness.
They lacked nothing. Their clothes did not grow old, and their feet did not swell. 22Moreover you gave them kingdoms and peoples, which you allotted according to their portions. So they possessed the land of Sihon[b] king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.
23You also multiplied their children as the stars of the sky, and brought them into the land concerning which you said to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24"So the children went in and possessed the land, and you subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands, with their kings, and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they pleased.
25They took fortified cities, and a rich land, and possessed houses full of all good things, cisterns dug out, vineyards, and olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance. So they ate, were filled and became fat, and delighted themselves in your great goodness.

26"Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against you, and cast your law behind their back, and killed your prophets that testified against them to turn them again to you, and they committed awful blasphemies. 27Therefore you delivered them into the hand of their adversaries, who distressed them. In the time of their trouble,

[a]9:17 Hebrew Mss LXX. MT reads "in their rebellion"

when they cried to you, you heard from heaven; and according to your manifold mercies you gave them saviors who saved them out of the hand of their adversaries. 28But after they had rest, they did evil again before you; therefore left you them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them; yet when they returned, and cried to you, you heard from heaven; and many times you delivered them according to your mercies, 29and testified against them, that you might bring them again to your law. Yet they dealt proudly, and did not listen to your commandments, but sinned against your ordinances, (which if a man does, he shall live in them), turned their backs, stiffened their neck, and would not hear. 30Yet many years you put up with them, and testified against them by your Spirit through your prophets. Yet would they not give ear. Therefore you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.

31"Nevertheless in your manifold mercies you did not make a full end of them, nor forsake them; for you are a gracious and merciful God. 32Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness, do not let all the travail seem little before you, that has come on us, on our kings, on our leaders, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all your people, since the time of the kings of Assyria to this day. 33However you are just in all that has come on us; for you have dealt truly, but we have done wickedly; 34neither have our kings, our leaders, our priests, nor our fathers, kept your law, nor listened to your commandments and your testimonies with which you testified against them. 35For they have not served you in their kingdom, and in your great goodness that you gave them, and in the large and rich land which you gave before them, neither did they turn from their wicked works.

36"Look, we are servants this day, and as for the land that you gave to our fathers to eat its fruit and its good, look, we are servants in it. 37It yields much increase to the kings whom you have set over us because of our sins: also they have power over our bodies, and over our livestock, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress. 38Yet for all this, we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our leaders, our Levites, and our priests, seal it."

10 Now those who sealed were: Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah, 2Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, 3Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah, 4Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, 5Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, 6Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, 7Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, 8Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah; these were the priests. 9The Levites: namely, Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel; 10and their brothers, Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, 11Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah, [12]Zakkur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, [13]Hodiah, Bani, Beninu. [14]The chiefs of the people: Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, [15]Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, [16]Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, [17]Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur, [18]Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai, [19]Hariph, Anathoth, Nobai, [20]Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, [21]Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua, [22]Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, [23]Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub, [24]Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek, [25]Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, [26]and Ahiah, Hanan, Anan, [27]Malluch, Harim, Baanah. [28]The rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nethinim, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge, and understanding— [29]they joined with their brothers, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of YHWH,[a] and his ordinances and his statutes; [30]and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons; [31]and if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy of them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and that we would forego the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt. [32]Also we made ordinances for ourselves, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God; [33]for the show bread, and for the continual meal offering, and for the continual burnt offering, for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God. [34]We cast lots, the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn on the altar of YHWH our God, as it is written in the law; [35]and to bring the first fruits of our ground, and the first fruits of all fruit of all kinds of trees, year by year, to the house of YHWH; [36]also the firstborn of our sons, and of our livestock, as it is written in the law, and the firstborn of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God; [37]and that we should bring the first fruits of our coarse meal, our contributions, the fruit of every tree, the new wine and the oil to the priests to the storerooms of the house of our God; and the tithes of our land to the Levites, for the Levites take the tithes in all the cities where we work. [38]The priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the rooms, into the treasure house.

39For the children of Israel and the descendants of Levi shall bring the wave offering of the grain, of the new wine, and of the oil, to the rooms, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests who minister, and the gatekeepers, and the singers. We will not forsake the house of our God.

11 And the princes of the people lived in Jerusalem. And the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts in the other cities.
2The people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to dwell in Jerusalem. 3Now these are the chiefs of the province who lived in Jerusalem; but in the cities of Judah everyone lived in his possession in their cities: Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinim, and the descendants of Solomon's servants. 4In Jerusalem lived certain of the people of Judah, and of the people of Benjamin. Of the people of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the descendants of Perez; 5and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Colhozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of a Shelanite.[a] 6All the sons of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were four hundred sixty-eight valiant men. 7These are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiah. 8After him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty-eight. 9Joel the son of Zikri was their overseer; and Judah the son of Hassenuah was second over the city. 10Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jakin, 11Azariah[b] the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of God's house, 12and their brothers who did the work of the house, eight hundred twenty-two;
and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, 13and his brothers, chiefs of ancestral houses, two hundred forty-two; and Amashsai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, 14and his[c] brothers, mighty men of valor, one hundred twenty-eight; and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of Haggedolim. 15Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; 16and Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chiefs of the Levites, who had the oversight of the outward business of God's house; 17and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zikri,[a] the son of Asaph, the praise[b] leader who led in thanksgiving and prayer, and Bakbukiah, the second among his brothers; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. 18All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred eighty-four. 19Moreover the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers, who kept watch at the gates, were one hundred seventy-two. 20The residue of Israel, of the priests, the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, everyone in his inheritance. 21But the temple servants lived on Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of the temple servants. 22The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, of the sons of Asaph, the singers, over the business of God's house. 23For there was a commandment from the king concerning them, and a settled provision for the singers, as every day required. 24Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the descendants of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people. 25As for the villages, with their fields, some of the people of Judah lived in Kiriath Arba and its towns, and in Dibon and its towns, and in Jekabzeel and its villages, 26and in Jeshua, and in Moladah, and Beth Pelet, 27and in Hazar Shual, and in Beersheba and its towns, 28and in Ziklag, and in Meconah and in its towns, 29and in En Rimmon, and in Zorah, and in Jarmuth, 30Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, Azekah and its towns. So they camped from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom. 31And some[c] of the people of Benjamin also lived from Geba onward, at Michmash and Aiah, and at Bethel and its towns, 32at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, 33Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, 34Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, 35Lod, and Ono, Ge-harashim. 36Of the Levites, certain divisions in Judah settled in Benjamin's territory.

12 Now these are the priests and the Levites who went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, 2Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, 3Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, 4Iddo, Ginnethon,[d] Abijah, 5Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, 6Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah. 7Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah. These were the chiefs of the priests and of their brothers in the days of Jeshua. 8Moreover the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, who was over the thanksgiving, he and his brothers.

9 Also Bakbukiah and Unni,[a] their brothers, were over against them according to their offices. 10 Jeshua became the father of Joiakim, and Joiakim became the father of Eliashib, and Eliashib became the father of Joiada, 11 and Joiada became the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan became the father of Jaddua. 12 In the days of Joiakim were priests, heads of ancestral houses: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah; 13 of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah,
Jehohanan; 14 of Malluch,[b]
Jonathan; of Shecaniah,[c] Joseph; 15 of Harim, Adna; of Meremoth,[d] Helkai; 16 of Iddo,[e] Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam; 17 of Abijah, Zikri; of Minjamin, of Moadiah, Piltai; 18 of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan; 19 and of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi; 20 of Sallu,[f] Kallai; of Amok, Eber; 21 of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethanel. 22 As for the Levites, in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, there were recorded the heads of ancestral houses; also the priests, in the reign of Daryavesh[g] the Persian. 23 The sons of Levi, heads of ancestral houses, were written in the scroll of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.
24 The chiefs of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers over against them, to praise and give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, watch next to watch.
25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were gatekeepers keeping the watch at the storehouses of the gates. 26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest the scribe. 27 At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with giving thanks, and with singing, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and with harps. 28 The sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain around Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Netophathites; 29 also from Beth Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had built them villages around Jerusalem. 30 The priests and the Levites purified themselves; and they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. 31Then I brought up the leaders of Judah onto the wall, and appointed two great companies who gave thanks and went in procession. One went on the right hand on the wall toward the Dung Gate; 32and after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the leaders of Judah, 33and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, 34Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, 35and certain of the priests' sons with trumpets: Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zakkur, the son of Asaph; 36and his brothers, Shemaiah, and Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God; and Ezra the scribe was before them. 37By the Fountain Gate, and straight before them, they went up by the stairs of the City of David, at the ascent of the wall, above the house of David, even to the Water Gate eastward. 38The other company of those who gave thanks went to meet them, and I after them, with the half of the people, on the wall, above the Tower of the Ovens, to the Broad Wall, 39and above the Ephraim Gate, and by the Jeshanah Gate, and by the Fish Gate, and the Tower of Hananel, and the Tower of the Hundred, and as far as the Sheep Gate. And they stood still in the Gate of the Guard. 40So stood the two companies of those who gave thanks in God's house, and I, and the half of the rulers with me; 41and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets; 42and Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer. 43They offered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy; and the women also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off. 44On that day men were appointed over the storerooms, for the contributions, the first fruits, and the tithes, to gather into them from[a] the fields of the cities the portions appointed by the law for the priests and Levites, for Judah rejoiced over the priests and the Levites who ministered. 45They performed the duty of their God, and the duty of the purification, and so did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son. 46For long ago in the days of David and Asaph there were directors[b] of the singers and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. 47All Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the gatekeepers, as every day required: and they set apart that which was for the Levites; and the Levites set apart that which was for the sons of Aaron.

13 On that day they read in the scroll of Moses in the audience of the people; and in it was found written, that an Ammonite and a Moabite should not enter into the assembly of God forever, 2because they did not meet the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, to curse them: however our God turned the curse into a blessing. 3It came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude. 4Now before this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the rooms of the house of our God, being allied to Tobiah, 5had prepared for him a great room, where before they laid the meal offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers; and the wave offerings for the priests. 6But in all this, I was not at Jerusalem; for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I went to the king: and after certain days asked I leave of the king, 7and I came to Jerusalem, and understood the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing him a room in the courts of God's house. 8It grieved me severely: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the room. 9Then I commanded, and they cleansed the rooms: and there brought I again the vessels of God's house, with the meal offerings and the frankincense. 10I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them; so that the Levites and the singers, who did the work, had fled everyone to his field. 11Then I contended with the rulers, and said, "Why is God's house forsaken?" I gathered them together, and set them in their place. 12Then brought all Judah the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the treasuries. 13And I commanded[a] Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites be in charge of the storerooms. And next to them was Hanan the son of Zakkur, the son of Mattaniah, for they were considered trustworthy, and their responsibility was the distribution to their brothers. 14Remember me, my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its observances. 15In those days I saw in Judah some men treading winepresses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day in which they sold food. 16There lived men of Tyre also in it, who brought in fish, and all kinds of wares, and sold on the Sabbath to the people of Judah, and in Jerusalem. 17Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, "What evil thing is this that you do, and profane the Sabbath day? 18Did not your fathers do thus, and did not our God bring all this disaster on us, and on this city? Yet you bring more wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath."

19It came to pass that, when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. I set some of my servants over the gates, that no burden should be brought in on the Sabbath day. 20So the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside of Jerusalem once or twice. 21Then I testified against them, and said to them, "Why do you stay around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you." From that time on, they did not come on the Sabbath. 22I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Remember to me, my God, this also, and spare me according to the greatness of your loving kindness. 23In those days also saw I the Jews who had married women of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab: 24and their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Judean language, but according to the language of each people. 25I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves. 26Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations was there no king like him, and he was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless foreign women caused even him to sin. 27Shall we then listen to you to do all this great evil, to trespass against our God in marrying foreign women?" 28One of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me. 29Remember them, my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priests,[a] and of the Levites. 30Thus I cleansed them from all foreigners, and appointed duties for the priests and for the Levites, everyone in his work; 31and for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the first fruits. Remember me, my God, for good.

Esther

1 Now it happened in the days of Achashyerosh[b] (this is Achashyerosh

[a]13:29 Hebrew Ms LXX Mss Syr. MT reads sg

who reigned from India even to Ethiopia, over one hundred twenty-seven provinces), [2]that in those days, when the King Achashyerosh sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace, [3]in the third year of his reign, he made a feast for all his officials and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him. [4]He displayed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honor of his excellent majesty many days, even one hundred eighty days. [5]When these days were fulfilled, the king made a seven day feast for all the people who were present in Shushan the palace, both great and small, in the court of the garden of the king's palace. [6]There were hangings of white, green, and blue material, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and marble pillars. The couches were of gold and silver, on a pavement of red, white, yellow, and black marble. [7]They gave them drinks in golden vessels of various kinds, including royal wine in abundance, according to the bounty of the king. [8]In accordance with the law, the drinking was not compulsory; for so the king had instructed all the officials of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure. [9]Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to King Achashyerosh.

[10]On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcass, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of Achashyerosh the king, [11]to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the royal crown, to show the people and the officials her beauty; for she was beautiful. [12]But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by the eunuchs. Therefore the king was very angry, and his anger burned in him. [13]Then the king said to the wise men, who knew the times, (for it was the king's custom to consult those who knew law and judgment; [14]and the next to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven officials of Persia and Media, who saw the king's face, and sat first in the kingdom), [15]"What shall we do to the queen Vashti according to law, because she has not done the bidding of the King Achashyerosh by the eunuchs?"

[16]Memucan answered before the king and the officials, "Vashti the queen has not done wrong to just the king, but also to all the officials, and to all the people who are in all the provinces of the King Achashyerosh. [17]For this deed of the queen will become known to all women, causing them to show contempt for their husbands, when it is reported, 'King Achashyerosh commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she did not come.' [18]Today, the princesses of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen's deed will tell all the king's officials. This will cause much contempt and wrath. [19]If it please the king, let a royal commandment go from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it cannot be altered, that Vashti may never again come before King Achashyerosh; and let the king give her royal estate to another who is better than she. [20]When the king's decree which he shall make is published throughout all his kingdom (for it is great), all the wives will give their husbands honor, both great and small."

[21]And this advice pleased the king and the officials, and the king did according to the word of Memucan: [22]for he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, that every man should rule his own house, speaking in the language of his own people.

2 After these things, when the wrath of King Achashyerosh was pacified, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. [2]Then the king's servants who served him said, "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king. [3]Let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the beautiful young virgins to the citadel of Shushan, to the women's house, to the custody of Hegai the king's eunuch, keeper of the women. Let cosmetics be given them; [4]and let the maiden who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti." The thing pleased the king, and he did so.

[5]There was a certain Jew in the citadel of Shushan, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite, [6]who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. [7]He brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter; for she had neither father nor mother. The maiden was fair and beautiful; and when her father and mother were dead, Mordecai took her for his own daughter. [8]So it happened, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together to the citadel of Shushan, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was taken into the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. [9]The maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness from him. He quickly gave her cosmetics and her portions of food, and the seven choice maidens who were to be given her out of the king's house. He moved her and her maidens to the best place in the women's house. [10]Esther had not made known her people nor her relatives, because Mordecai had instructed her that she should not make it known. 11Mordecai walked every day in front of the court of the women's house, to find out how Esther did, and what would become of her.

12Each young woman's turn came to go in to King Achashyerosh after her purification for twelve months (for so were the days of their purification accomplished, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet fragrances and with preparations for beautifying women). 13The young woman then came to the king like this: whatever she desired was given her to go with her out of the women's house to the king's house. 14In the evening she went, and on the next day she returned into the second women's house, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch, who kept the secondary wives. She came in to the king no more, unless the king delighted in her, and she was called by name. 15Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, came to go in to the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's eunuch, the keeper of the women, advised. Esther obtained favor in the sight of all those who looked at her. 16So Esther was taken to King Achashyerosh into his royal house in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. 17The king loved Esther more than all the women, and she obtained favor and kindness in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown on her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai did not bow down or pay him homage. [3]Then the king's servants, who were in the King's Gate, said to Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's commandment?" [4]Now it came to pass, when they spoke daily to him, and he did not listen to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's reason would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew. [5]When Haman saw that Mordecai did not bow down, nor pay him homage, Haman was full of wrath. [6]But he scorned the thought of laying hands on Mordecai alone, for they had made known to him Mordecai's people. Therefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Achashyerosh, even Mordecai's people.

[7]In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Achashyerosh, they cast Pur (that is, the lot) before Haman from day to day, and from month to month,[a] and chose the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. [8]Haman said to King Achashyerosh, "There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom, and their laws are different than other people's. They do not keep the king's laws. Therefore it is not for the king's profit to allow them to remain. [9]If it pleases the king, let it be written that they be destroyed; and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who are in charge of the king's business, to bring it into the king's treasuries."

[10]The king took his ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. [11]The king said to Haman, "The silver is given to you, the people also, to do with them as it seems good to you." [12]Then the king's scribes were called in on the first month, on the thirteenth day of the month; and all that Haman commanded was written to the king's satraps, and to the governors who were over every province, and to the officials of every people, to every province according its writing, and to every people in their language. It was written in the name of King Achashyerosh, and it was sealed with the king's ring. [13]Letters were sent by couriers into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to plunder their possessions. [14]A copy of the letter, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that they should be ready against that day. [15]The couriers went forth in haste by the king's commandment, and the decree was given out in the citadel of Shushan. The king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

4 Now when Mordecai found out all that was done, Mordecai tore his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and wailed loudly and a bitterly. [2]He came even before the King's Gate, for no one is allowed inside the King's Gate clothed with sackcloth. [3]In every province, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes. [4]Esther's maidens and her eunuchs came and told her this, and the queen was exceedingly grieved. She sent clothing to Mordecai, to replace his sackcloth; but he did not receive it. [5]Then Esther called for Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs, whom he had appointed to attend her, and commanded him to go to Mordecai, to find out what this was, and why it was. [6]So Hathach went out to Mordecai, to city square which was before the King's Gate. [7]Mordecai told him of all that had happened to him, and the exact sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews. [8]He also gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out in Shushan to destroy them, to show it to Esther, and to declare it to her, and to urge her to go in to the king, to make petition to him, and to make request before him, for her people.

[9]Hathach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai. [10]Then Esther spoke to Hathach, and gave him a message to Mordecai: [11]"All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, know, that whoever, whether man or woman, comes to the king into the inner court without being called, there is one law for him, that he be put to death, except those to whom the king might hold out the golden scepter, that he may live. I have not been called to come in to the king these thirty days."

[12]They told to Mordecai Esther's words. [13]Then Mordecai asked them return answer to Esther, "Do not think to yourself that you will escape in the king's house any more than all the Jews. [14]For if you remain silent now, then relief and deliverance will come to the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Who knows if you haven't come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

[15]Then Esther asked them to answer Mordecai, [16]"Go, gather together all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day. I and my maidens will also fast the same way. Then I will go in to the king, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish." [17]So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

5 Now it happened on the third day that Esther put on her royal clothing, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, next to the king's house. The king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, next to the entrance of the house. [2]When the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she obtained favor in his sight; and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. So Esther came near, and touched the top of the scepter. [3]Then the king asked her, "What would you like, queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given you even to the half of the kingdom."

[4]Esther said, "If it seems good to the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

[5]Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly, so that it may be done as Esther has said." So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

[6]The king said to Esther at the banquet of wine, "What is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed."

[7]Then Esther answered and said, "My petition and my request is this. [8]If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I will prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king has said."

[9]Then Haman went out that day joyful and glad of heart, but when Haman saw Mordecai in the King's Gate, that he did not stand up nor move for him, he was filled with wrath against Mordecai. [10]Nevertheless Haman restrained himself, and went home. There, he sent and called for his friends and Zeresh his wife. [11]Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, the multitude of his children, all the things in which the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the officials and servants of the king. [12]Haman also said, "Yes, Esther the queen let no man come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and tomorrow I am also invited by her together with the king. [13]Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the King's Gate."
[14]Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, "Let a gallows be made seventy-three feet eight inches[a] high, and in the morning speak to the king about hanging

[a]5:14 Or, 22.5 meters, using the short cubit of 45 centimeters. Lit. fifty cubits Mordecai on it. Then go in merrily with the king to the banquet." This pleased Haman, so he had the gallows made.

6 On that night, the king couldn't sleep. He commanded the book of records of the chronicles to be brought, and they were read to the king. [2]It was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, who were doorkeepers, who had tried to lay hands on the King Achashyerosh. [3]The king said, "What honor and dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?"

Then the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."

[4]The king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had come into the outer court of the king's house, to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

The king said, "Let him come in." [6]So Haman came in. The king said to him, "What shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor?"

Now Haman said in his heart, "Who would the king delight to honor more than myself?" [7]Haman said to the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honor, [8]let royal clothing be brought which the king uses to wear, and the horse that the king rides on, and on the head of which a crown royal is set. [9]And let the clothing and the horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble officials, and let him[a] clothe the man whom the king delights to honor with them, and have him ride on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him, 'Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor.'"

[10]Then the king said to Haman, "Hurry and take the clothing and the horse, as you have said, and do this for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the King's Gate. Let nothing fail of all that you have spoken."

[11]Then Haman took the clothing and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and had him ride through the city square, and proclaimed before him, "Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor."

[12]Mordecai came back to the King's Gate, but Haman hurried to his house, mourning and having his head covered. [13]Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish descent, you will not prevail against him, but you will surely fall before him." [14]While they were yet talking with him, the king's eunuchs came, and hurried to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

7 So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen. [2]The king said again to Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, "What is your petition, queen Esther? It shall be granted you. What is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed."

[3]Then Esther the queen answered, "If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request. [4]For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondservants and bondmaids, I would have held my peace, although the adversary could not have compensated for the king's loss."

[5]Then King Achashyerosh said to Esther the queen, "Who is he, and where is he who dared presume in his heart to do so?"

Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. [7]The king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden. Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. [8]Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman had fallen on the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, "Will he even assault the queen in front of me in the house?" As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.
[9]Then Harbonah, one of the eunuchs who were with the king said, "Look, the gallows seventy-three feet eight inches[a] high, which Haman has made for Mordecai, who spoke good for the king, is standing at Haman's house."

The king said, "Hang him on it."

[10]So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

8 On that day, King Achashyerosh gave the house of Haman, the Jews' enemy, to Esther the queen.

[a]7:9 Or, 22.5 meters, using the short cubit of 45 centimeters. Lit. fifty cubits

Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was to her.
2The king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.
3Esther spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and begged him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his plot that he had devised against the Jews. 4Then the king held out to Esther the golden scepter. So Esther arose, and stood before the king. 5She said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his sight, and the thing seem right to the king, and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces. 6For how can I endure to see the disaster that would come to my people? How can I endure to see the destruction of my relatives?"

7Then King Achashyerosh said to Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, "See, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged on the gallows, because he laid his hand on the Jews. 8Write also to the Jews, as it pleases you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring; for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may not be reversed by any man."

9Then the king's scribes were called at that time, in the third month Sivan, on the twenty-third day of the month; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to the Jews, and to the satraps, and the governors and officials of the provinces which are from India to Ethiopia, one hundred twenty-seven provinces, to every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, and to the Jews in their writing, and in their language. 10He wrote in the name of King Achashyerosh, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by courier on horseback, riding on royal horses that were bread from swift steeds. 11In those letters, the king granted the Jews who were in every city to gather themselves together, and to defend their life, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, their little ones and women, and to plunder their possessions, 12on one day in all the provinces of King Achashyerosh, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. 13A copy of the letter, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that the Jews should be ready for that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. 14So the couriers who rode on royal horses went out, hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. The decree was given out in the citadel of Shushan.

15Mordecai went out of the presence of the king in royal clothing of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a robe of fine linen and purple; and the city of Shushan shouted and was glad. 16The Jews had light, gladness, joy, and honor. 17In every province, and in every city, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had gladness, joy, a feast, and a good day. Many from among the peoples of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews was fallen on them.

9 Now in the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the month, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, on the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to conquer them, (but it was turned out the opposite happened, that the Jews conquered those who hated them), 2the Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the King Achashyerosh, to lay hands on those who wanted to harm them. No one could withstand them, because the fear of them had fallen on all the people. 3And all the officials of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and those who did the king's business helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai had fallen on them. 4For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordecai grew greater and greater. 5The Jews struck all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and with slaughter and destruction, and did what they wanted to those who hated them. 6In the citadel of Shushan, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men. 7They killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, 8Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, 9Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha, 10the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jew's enemy, but they did not lay their hand on the plunder. 11On that day, the number of those who were slain in the citadel of Shushan was brought before the king. 12The king said to Esther the queen, "The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in the citadel of Shushan, including the ten sons of Haman; what then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces. Now what is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your further request? It shall be done."

13Then Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according to this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."

14The king commanded this to be done. A decree was given out in Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons. 15The Jews who were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and killed three hundred men in Shushan; but they did not lay their hand on the spoil. 16The other Jews who were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, defended their lives, had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of those who hated them; but they did not lay their hand on the plunder. 17This was done on the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of that month they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness. 18But the Jews who were in Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth and on the fourteenth days of the month; and on the fifteenth day of that month, they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. 19Therefore the Jews of the villages, who live in the unwalled towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, a good day, and a day of sending presents of food to one another. 20Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Achashyerosh, both near and far, 21to enjoin them that they should keep the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month Adar yearly, 22as the days in which the Jews had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned to them from sorrow to gladness, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending presents of food to one another, and gifts to the needy. 23The Jews accepted the custom that they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them; 24because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast "Pur," that is the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them; 25but when this became known to the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he had devised against the Jews, should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. 26Therefore they called these days "Purim,[a]" from the word "Pur." Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come to them, 27the Jews established, and imposed on themselves, and on their descendants, and on all those who joined themselves to them, so that it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to what was written, and according to its appointed time, every year; 28and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memory of them perish among their descendants.

29Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority to confirm this second letter of Purim. 30He sent letters to all the Jews, to the hundred twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Achashyerosh, with words of peace and truth, [31]to confirm these days of Purim in their appointed times, as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had decreed, and as they had imposed upon themselves and their descendants, in the matter of the fastings and their cry. [32]The commandment of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

10 King Achashyerosh laid a tribute on the land, and on the islands of the sea. [2]All the acts of his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? [3]For Mordecai the Jew was next to King Achashyerosh, and great among the Jews, and accepted by the multitude of his brothers, seeking the good of his people, and speaking peace to all his descendants.

1 There was a man in the land of Uz,[a] whose name was Job, and that man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God, and turning away from evil. [2]There were born to him seven sons and three daughters. [3]His possessions also were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the people of the east. [4]His sons went and held a feast in the house of each one on his day; and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. [5]It was so, when the days of their feasting had run their course, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed[b] God in their hearts." Job did so continually.

[6]Now it happened on the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before YHWH, that Satan also came among them. [7]YHWH said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Then Satan answered YHWH, and said, "From going back and forth on the earth, and from walking up and down on it."

[8]YHWH said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant, Job? For there is none like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil." 9Then Satan answered YHWH, and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing? 10Haven't you made a hedge around him, and around his household, and around all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his livestock have increased in the land. 11But put forth your hand now, and strike all that he has, and he will curse[a] you to your face."

12YHWH said to Satan,
"Look, all that he has is in your power. Only do not put forth your hand on him."

So Satan went forth from the presence of YHWH. 13Now the day came when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, 14that there came a messenger to Job, and said, "The oxen were plowing, and the donkeys grazing beside them, 15and Sheba attacked, and took them away. Yes, they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

16While he was still speaking,
there also came another, and said,
"The fire of God has fallen from the sky, and has burned up the sheep and the young men, and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

17While he was still speaking,
there came also another, and said,
"The Kasdim made three bands, and swept down on the camels, and have taken them away, and killed the young men with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you."

18While he was still speaking,
there came also another, and said,
"Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, 19and look, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people, and they are dead. I alone have escaped to tell you."

20Then Job arose, and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell down with his face to the ground.
21He said, "Naked I came out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return there. YHWH gave, and YHWH has taken away. Blessed be the name of YHWH." 22In all this, Job did not sin, nor charge God with wrongdoing.

2 Again it happened on the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before YHWH, that Satan came also among them to present himself before YHWH.
2YHWH said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"

[a]1:11 Cf. v. 5 fn

Satan answered YHWH, and said, “From going back and forth on the earth, and from walking up and down on it.”

3 YHWH said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job? For there is none like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil. And he still holds firmly to his integrity, although you incited me against him, to ruin him without cause.”
4 Then Satan answered YHWH, and said, “Skin for skin. Indeed, all that a man has he will give for his life.
5 But put forth your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse[a] you to your face.”

6 YHWH said to Satan, “Look, he is in your power. Only preserve his life.”
7 So Satan went forth from the presence of YHWH, and struck Job with painful boils from the sole of his foot to the top of his head. 8 And he took for himself a potsherd to scrape himself with while he sat among the ashes. 9 Then his wife said to him, “Do you still hold firmly to your integrity? Curse[b] God, and die.”

10 But he said to her, “You speak as one of the foolish women would speak. Shall we indeed accept good at the hand of God, and shall we not accept adversity?” In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

In all this Job did not sin with his lips. 11 Now when Job’s three friends heard of all this adversity that had come on him, they each came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, and they made an appointment together to come to sympathize with him and to comfort him. 12 When they lifted up their eyes from a distance, and did not recognize him, they raised their voices, and wept; and they each tore his robe, and threw dust in the air over their heads. 13 So they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spoke a word to him, for they saw that his pain was very great.

3 After this Job opened his mouth, and cursed his day. 2 Job answered: 3 “Let the day perish in which I was born, the night which said, ‘A man is conceived.’ 4 Let that day be darkness.
Do not let God from above seek for it, neither let the light shine on it.
5 Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own.
Let a cloud dwell on it.
Let the blackness of the day terrify it.
6 As for that night, let thick darkness seize on it.

[a] 2:5 Cf. 1:5 fn

[b] 2:9 Ibid

Let it not rejoice among the days of the year.
Let it not come into the number of the months.
7 Look, let that night be barren.
Let no joyful voice come in
it.
8 Let them curse it who curse the day,[a]
who are ready to rouse up leviathan.
9 Let the stars of its twilight be dark.
Let it look for light, but have none,
neither let it see the eyelids
of the morning,
10 because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb,
nor did it hide trouble from my eyes.

11 "Why did I not die from the
womb?
Why did I not give up the spirit when my mother bore me?
12 Why did the knees receive me?
Or why the breast, that I should suck?
13 For now should I have lain down and been quiet.
I should have slept, then I would have been at rest, 14 with kings and counselors of the earth,
who built up waste places
for themselves;
15 or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver:
16 or as a hidden untimely birth I had not been,
as infants who never saw light.
17 There the wicked cease from troubling.
There the weary are at rest.
18 There the prisoners are at ease
together.
They do not hear the voice of the taskmaster.
19 The small and the great are there.
The servant is free from his master.

20 "Why is light given to him who is in misery,
life to the bitter in soul, 21 Who long for death, but it doesn't come;
and dig for it more than for hidden treasures, 22 who rejoice exceedingly,
and are glad, when they can find the grave?
23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid,
whom God has hedged in?
24 For my sighing comes before I eat.
My groanings are poured out like water.
25 For the thing which I fear comes on me,
That which I am afraid of comes to me.
26 I am not at ease, neither am I quiet, neither have I
rest;
but trouble comes."

[a] 3:8 Or, "Yamm," a Canaanite deity of the sea

4 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered,
2 "If someone ventures to talk with you, will you be grieved?
But who can withhold himself from speaking?
3 Look, you have instructed many,
you have strengthened the weak hands.
4 Your words have supported him who was falling,
You have made firm the feeble knees.
5 But now it is come to you, and you faint.
It touches you, and you are troubled.
6 Isn't your piety your confidence?
Isn't the integrity of your ways your hope?

7 "Remember, now, whoever perished, being innocent?
Or where were the upright cut off?
8 According to what I have seen, those who plow iniquity, and sow trouble,
reap the same.
9 By the breath of God they perish.
By the blast of his anger are they consumed.
10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, the teeth of the young lions, are broken.
11 The old lion perishes for lack of prey.
The cubs of the lioness are scattered abroad.

12 "Now a thing was secretly brought to me.
My ear received a whisper of it.
13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on men, 14 fear came on me, and trembling, which made all my bones shake.
15 Then a spirit passed before my face.
The hair of my flesh stood up.
16 It stood still, but I couldn't discern its appearance.
A form was before my eyes.
Silence, then I heard a voice, saying, 17 'Shall mortal man be more just than God?
Shall a man be more pure than his Maker?
18 Look, he puts no trust in his servants.
He charges his angels with error.
19 How much more, those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed before the moth.
20 Between morning and evening they are destroyed.
They perish forever without any regarding it.
21 Isn't their tent cord plucked up within them?
They die, and that without wisdom.'

5 “Call now; is there any who will answer you?
To which of the holy ones will you turn?
2For resentment kills the foolish
man,
and jealousy kills the simple.
3I have seen the foolish taking root,
but suddenly I cursed his habitation.
4His children are far from safety.
They are crushed in the gate.
Neither is there any to deliver them, 5whose harvest the hungry eats up, and take it even out of the thorns.
And the thirsty[a] swallow up their wealth.
6For affliction doesn’t come forth from the dust, neither does trouble spring out of the ground; 7but man is born to trouble, as the sparks fly upward.

8“But as for me, I would seek God.
I would commit my cause to
God, 9who does great things that can’t be fathomed, marvelous things without number;
10who gives rain on the earth, and sends waters on the fields;
11so that he sets up on high those who are low,
those who mourn are exalted to safety.
12He frustrates the devices of the crafty,
So that their hands can’t perform their enterprise.
13He traps the wise in their own craftiness;
the counsel of the cunning is carried headlong.
14They meet with darkness in the day time,
and grope at noonday as in the night.
15But he saves from the sword of their mouth,
even the needy from the hand of the mighty.
16So the poor has hope, and injustice shuts her
mouth.

17“Look, blessed is the man whom God corrects.
Therefore do not despise the chastening of Shaddai.
18For he wounds, and binds up.
He injures, and his hands make whole.
19He will deliver you in six troubles;
yes, in seven there shall no evil touch you.
20In famine he will redeem you
from death;
in war, from the power of the sword.
21You shall be hidden from the scourge of the tongue, neither shall you be afraid of destruction when it comes.

[a]5:5 Syriac Vg Aquilla Symmachus.
MT reads “snares”

22 At destruction and famine you shall laugh, neither shall you be afraid of the animals of the earth.
23 For you shall be in league with the stones of the field.
The animals of the field shall be at peace with you.
24 You shall know that your tent is in peace.
You shall visit your fold, and shall miss nothing.
25 You shall know also that your descendants shall be great, and your offspring as the grass of the earth.
26 You shall come to your grave in a full age, like a shock of grain comes in its season.
27 Look this, we have searched it, so it is.
Hear it, and know it for your good."

6 Then Job answered,
2 "Oh that my anguish were weighed, and all my calamity laid in the balances.
3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas, therefore have my words been rash.
4 For the arrows of Shaddai are within me.
My spirit drinks up their poison.
The terrors of God set themselves in array against me.
5 Does the wild donkey bray when he has grass?
Or does the ox low over his fodder?
6 Can that which has no flavor be eaten without salt?
Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
7 My soul refuses to touch them.
They are as loathsome food to me.

8 "Oh that I might have my request, that God would grant the thing that I long for, 9 even that it would please God to crush me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off.
10 Be it still my consolation, yes, let me exult in pain that doesn't spare, that I have not denied the words of the Holy One.
11 What is my strength, that I should wait?
What is my end, that I should be patient?
12 Is my strength the strength of stones?
Or is my flesh of bronze?
13 Isn't it that I have no help in me,
That wisdom is driven quite from me?

14 "To the despairing, kindness should be shown from his friend; even to him who forsakes the fear of Shaddai.
15 My brothers have dealt deceitfully as a brook, as the channel of brooks that pass away; 16 Which are black by reason of the ice, in which the snow hides itself.

[17]In the dry season, they vanish.
When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.
[18]The caravans that travel beside them turn aside.
They go up into the waste, and perish.
[19]The caravans of Tema looked.
The companies of Sheba waited for them.
[20]They were distressed because they were confident.
They came there, and were confounded.
[21]For now you are nothing.
You see a terror, and are afraid.
[22]Did I say, 'Give to me?' or, 'Offer a present for me from your substance?' [23]or, 'Deliver me from the adversary's hand?' or, 'Redeem me from the hand of the oppressors?'

[24]"Teach me, and I will hold my peace.
Cause me to understand wherein I have erred.
[25]How forcible are words of uprightness.
But your reproof, what does it reprove?
[26]Do you intend to reprove words, seeing that the speeches of one who is desperate are as wind?
[27]Yes, you would even cast lots for the fatherless, and make merchandise of your friend.
[28]Now therefore be pleased to look at me, for surely I shall not lie to your face.
[29]Please return.
Let there be no injustice.
Yes, return again.
My cause is righteous.
[30]Is there injustice on my tongue?
Can't my taste discern mischievous things?

7 "Isn't a man forced to labor on earth?
Aren't his days like the days of a hired hand?
[2]As a servant who earnestly desires the shadow, as a hireling who looks for his wages, [3]so am I made to possess months of misery, wearisome nights are appointed to me.
[4]When I lie down, I say,
'When shall I arise, and the night be gone?'
I toss and turn until the dawning of the day.
[5]My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust.
My skin closes up, and breaks out afresh.
[6]My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.
[7]Oh remember that my life is a breath.
My eye shall no more see good.
[8]The eye of him who sees me shall see me no more.
Your eyes shall be on me, but I shall not be.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanishes away,
so he who goes down to Sheol shall come up
no more.
10 He shall return no more to his
house,
neither shall his place know him any more.

11 "Therefore I will not keep silent.
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit.
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
12 Am I a sea, or a sea monster, that you put a guard over
me?
13 When I say, 'My bed shall comfort me.
My couch shall ease my complaint;' 14 then you scare me with dreams, and terrify me through visions:
15 so that my soul chooses strangling,
death rather than my bones.
16 I loathe my life.
I do not want to live forever.
Leave me alone, for my days are but a breath.
17 What is man, that you should magnify him,
that you should set your mind on him, 18 that you should visit him every morning,
and test him every moment?
19 How long will you not look away from me,
nor leave me alone until I swallow down my spittle?
20 If I have sinned, what do I do to you, you watcher of
men?
Why have you set me as a mark for you,
so that I am a burden to myself?
21 Why do you not pardon my disobedience, and take away my iniquity?
For now shall I lie down in the dust.
You will seek me diligently, but I shall not be."

8 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
2 "How long will you speak these things?
Shall the words of your mouth be a mighty
wind?
3 Does God pervert justice?
Or does Shaddai pervert
righteousness?
4 If your children have sinned against him,
He has delivered them into the hand of their disobedience.
5 If you want to seek God diligently,
make your petition to Shaddai.
6 If you were pure and upright, surely now he would awaken
for you,
and make the habitation of your
righteousness
prosperous.
7 Though your beginning was small,
yet your latter end would greatly increase.

8 "Please inquire of past generations.
Find out about the learning of their fathers.
9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing,
because our days on earth are a shadow.)
10 Shall they not teach you, tell
you,
and utter words out of their
heart?

11 "Can the papyrus grow up without mire?
Can the rushes grow without
water?
12 While it is yet in its greenness, not cut down,
it withers before any other reed.
13 So are the paths of all who forget
God.
The hope of the godless man shall perish,
14 Whose confidence shall break apart,
Whose trust is a spider's web.
15 He shall lean on his house, but it shall not stand.
He shall cling to it, but it shall not endure.
16 He is green before the sun.
His shoots go forth over his garden.
17 His roots are wrapped around the rock pile.
He sees the place of stones.
18 If he is destroyed from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, 'I have not seen you.' 19 Look, this is the joy of his way: out of the earth, others shall spring.

20 "Look, God will not cast away a blameless man, neither will he uphold the
evildoers.
21 He will still fill your mouth with laughter,
your lips with shouting.
22 Those who hate you shall be clothed with shame.
The tent of the wicked shall be no more."

9 Then Job answered,
2 "Truly I know that it is so,
but how can man be just with God?
3 If he is pleased to contend with
him,
he can't answer him one time in a thousand.
4 God who is wise in heart, and mighty in strength:
who has hardened himself against him, and prospered?
5 He removes the mountains, and they do not know it, when he overturns them in his anger.
6 He shakes the earth out of its place.
Its pillars tremble.
7 He commands the sun, and it doesn't rise,
and seals up the stars.
8 He alone stretches out the heavens,

and treads on the waves of the sea.[a] 9He makes Osh, Kesil, and Kimah,[b]
and the chambers of the south.
10He does great things past finding out;
yes, marvelous things
without number.
11Look, he goes by me, and I do not see him.
He passes on also, but I do not perceive him.
12Look, he snatches away.
Who can hinder him?
Who will ask him, 'What are you doing?'

13"God will not withdraw his
anger.
The helpers of Rahab stoop under him.
14How much less shall I answer
him,
And choose my words to argue with him?
15Though I were righteous, yet I wouldn't answer him.
I would make petition to my judge.
16If I had called, and he had answered me,
yet I wouldn't believe that he listened to my voice.
17For he bruises me with a storm, and multiplies my wounds without cause.
18He will not allow me to catch my breath,
but fills me with bitterness.
19If it is a matter of strength, look, he is mighty.
And if of justice, who will summon him[c]?
20Though I am righteous, my own mouth shall condemn
me.
Though I am blameless, it shall prove me perverse.
21I am blameless.
I do not regard myself.
I despise my life.

22"It is all the same.
Therefore I say he destroys the blameless and the wicked.
23If the scourge kills suddenly, he will mock at the trial of the innocent.
24The earth is given into the hand of the wicked.
He covers the faces of its judges.
If not he, then who is it?

25"Now my days are swifter than a runner.
They flee away, they see no
good, 26They have passed away as the swift ships,
as the eagle that swoops on the prey.
27If I say, 'I will forget my
complaint,
I will put off my sad face, and cheer up;'
28I am afraid of all my sorrows,

[a]9:8 Matthew 14:26; Mark 6:49; John 6:19

[b]9:9 Or, "He makes the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades"

[c]9:19 Cf. LXX. MT reads "me"

I know that you will not hold me innocent.
29 I shall be condemned.
Why then do I labor in vain?
30 If I wash myself with snow water,[a]
and cleanse my hands with lye, 31 yet you will plunge me in the ditch.
My own clothes shall abhor
me.
32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, that we should come together in judgment.
33 There is no umpire between us, that might lay his hand on us both.
34 Let him take his rod away from
me.
Let his terror not make me
afraid;
35 then I would speak, and not fear
him,
for I am not so in myself.

10 "My soul is weary of my life.
I will give free course to my complaint.
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
2 I will tell God, 'Do not condemn
me.
Show me why you contend
with me.
3 Is it good to you that you should oppress,
that you should despise the work of your hands, and smile on the counsel of the wicked?
4 Do you have eyes of flesh?
Or do you see as man sees?
5 Are your days as the days of mortals,
or your years as man's years, 6 that you inquire after my iniquity, and search after my sin?
7 Although you know that I am not
wicked,
there is no one who can deliver out of your hand.

8 "'Your hands have framed me and fashioned me altogether,
yet you destroy me.
9 Remember, I beg you, that you have fashioned me as clay.
Will you bring me into dust
again?
10 Haven't you poured me out like milk,
and curdled me like cheese?
11 You have clothed me with skin and flesh,
and knit me together with bones and sinews.
12 You have granted me life and
loving kindness.
Your visitation has preserved my spirit.
13 Yet you hid these things in your
heart.
I know that this is with you:
14 if I sin, then you mark me.

[a] 9:30 Heb. kethib bemo, which may reflect the ancient Semitic spelling for water, as found in the Ebla tablets

You will not acquit me from my iniquity.
15If I am wicked, woe to me.
If I am righteous, I still shall not lift up my head, being filled with disgrace, and conscious of my affliction.
16And if I lift myself up, you hunt me like a lion.
Again you show yourself powerful to me.
17You renew your witnesses
against me,
and increase your indignation on me.
Changes and warfare are
with me.

18"'Why, then, have you brought me forth out of the
womb?
I wish I had given up the spirit, and no eye had seen me.
19I should have been as though I had not been.
I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.
20Aren't my days few?
Cease then.
Leave me alone, that I may find a little comfort, 21before I go where I shall not return from,
to the land of darkness and of the shadow of
death;
22the land dark as midnight, of the shadow of death,
without any order,
where the light is as midnight.'"

11 Then Zophar, the Naamathite,
answered,
2"Shouldn't the multitude of words be answered?
Should a man full of talk be justified?
3Should your boastings make men hold their peace?
When you mock, shall no man make you
ashamed?
4For you say, 'My doctrine is pure.
I am clean in your eyes.'
5But oh that God would speak, and open his lips against
you, 6that he would show you the secrets of wisdom.
For true wisdom has two sides.
Know therefore that God exacts of you less than your iniquity deserves.

7"Can you fathom the mystery of
God?
Or can you probe the limits of Shaddai?
8They are high as heaven. What can you do?
They are deeper than Sheol.
What can you know?
9Its measure is longer than the
earth,
and broader than the sea.
10If he passes by, or confines, or convenes a court, then who can oppose him?
11For he knows false men.
He sees iniquity also, even though he doesn't consider it.
12An empty-headed man becomes wise

when a man is born as a wild donkey's colt.

13"If you set your heart aright, stretch out your hands toward him.
14If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away.
Do not let unrighteousness dwell in your tents.
15Surely then you shall lift up your face without spot;
Yes, you shall be steadfast,
and shall not fear:
16for you shall forget your misery.
You shall remember it as waters that are passed away.
17Life shall be clearer than the noonday.
Though there is darkness, it shall be as the
morning.
18You shall be secure, because there is hope.
Yes, you shall search, and shall take your rest in safety.
19Also you shall lie down, and none shall make you
afraid.
Yes, many shall court your favor.
20But the eyes of the wicked shall fail.
They shall have no way to flee.
Their hope shall be the giving up of the spirit."

12 Then Job answered,
2"No doubt, but you are the people,
and wisdom shall die with you.
3But I have understanding as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.
Yes, who doesn't know such things as these?
4I am like one who is a joke to his neighbor,
I, who called on God, and he answered.
The just, the blameless man is a joke.
5In the thought of him who is at ease there is contempt for misfortune.
It is ready for them whose foot slips.
6The tents of robbers prosper.
Those who provoke God are secure,
who carry their god in their
hands.

7"But ask the animals, now, and they shall teach you;
the birds of the sky, and they shall tell you.
8Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach you.
The fish of the sea shall declare to you.
9Who doesn't know that in all these,
the hand of YHWH[a] has done
this,
10in whose hand is the life of every living thing,

[a]12:9 MT LXX Syr. Five Hebrew Mss read "God." Cf. Isaiah 41:20 and the breath of all humankind?

[11]Doesn't the ear try words, even as the palate tastes its food?
[12]With aged men is wisdom, in length of days
understanding.

[13]"With him is wisdom and might.
He has counsel and
understanding.
[14]Look, he breaks down, and it can't be built again.
He imprisons a man, and there can be no release.
[15]Look, he withholds the waters, and they dry up.
Again, he sends them out, and they overturn the
earth.
[16]With him is strength and
wisdom.
The deceived and the
deceiver are his.
[17]He leads counselors away stripped.
He makes judges fools.
[18]He loosens the bond of kings.
He binds their waist with a belt.
[19]He leads priests away stripped,
and overthrows the mighty.
[20]He removes the speech of those who are trusted,
and takes away the understanding of the elders.
[21]He pours contempt on princes, and loosens the belt of the strong.
[22]He uncovers deep things out of darkness,
and brings out to light the shadow of death.
[23]He increases the nations, and he destroys them.
He enlarges the nations, and he leads them captive.
[24]He takes away understanding from the chiefs of the people of the earth,
and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.
[25]They grope in the dark without
light.
He makes them stagger like a drunken man.

13 "Look, my eye has seen all this.
My ear has heard
and understood it.
[2]What you know, I know also.
I am not inferior to you.

[3]"Surely I would speak to Shaddai.
I desire to reason with God.
[4]But you are forgers of lies.
You are all physicians of no value.
[5]Oh that you would be completely silent.
Then you would be wise.
[6]Hear now my reasoning.
Listen to the pleadings of my lips.
[7]Will you speak unrighteously for
God,
and talk deceitfully for him?
[8]Will you show partiality to him?
Will you contend for God?
[9]Is it good that he should search you out?
Or as one deceives a man, will you deceive him?
[10]He will surely reprove you if you secretly show partiality.

[11]Shall not his majesty make you
afraid,
And his dread fall on you?
[12]Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes,
Your defenses are defenses of clay.

[13]"Be silent, leave me alone, that I may speak.
Let come on me what will.
[14]Why should I take my flesh in my teeth,
and put my life in my hand?
[15]Look, though he should kill me,
I will hope in him.[a] Nevertheless, I will argue my ways before him.
[16]This also shall be my salvation, that a godless man shall not come before him.
[17]Hear diligently my speech.
Let my declaration be in your ears.
[18]See now, I have set my cause in order.
I know that I am righteous.
[19]Who is he who will contend with
me?
For then would I hold my peace and give up the spirit.

[20]"Only do not do two things to
me;
then I will not hide myself from your face:
[21]withdraw your hand far from me;
and do not let your terror make me afraid.
[22]Then call, and I will answer; or let me speak, and you answer me.
[23]How many are my iniquities and sins?
Make me know my disobedience and my
sin.
[24]Why hide you your face, and hold me for your
enemy?
[25]Will you harass a driven leaf?
Will you pursue the dry stubble?
[26]For you write bitter things
against me,
and make me inherit the iniquities of my youth: [27]You also put my feet in the stocks,
and mark all my paths.
You set a bound to the soles of my feet, [28]though I am decaying like a rotten thing,
like a garment that is moth-eaten.

14 "Man, who is born of a woman,
is of few days, and full of trouble.
[2]He comes forth like a flower, and is cut down.
He also flees like a shadow, and doesn't continue.
[3]Do you open your eyes on such a one,
and bring me into judgment
with you?
[4]Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean?

[a]13:15 MT Qere Hebrew Mss LXX Syr Vg, reading lw "(hope) to/in him." MT Kethib reads l' "no (hope)"

Not one.
[5]Seeing his days are determined,
the number of his months is
with you,
and you have appointed his bounds that he can't pass;
[6]Look away from him, that he may rest,
until he shall accomplish, as a hireling, his day.

[7]"For there is hope for a tree,
If it is cut down, that it will sprout again,
that the tender branch of it will not cease.
[8]Though its root grows old in the
earth,
and its stock dies in the ground,
[9]yet through the scent of water it will bud, and put forth boughs like a plant.
[10]But man dies, and is laid low.
Yes, man gives up the spirit, and where is he?
[11]As the waters fail from the sea, and the river wastes and dries up, [12]so man lies down and doesn't rise.
Until the heavens are no more, they shall not awake,
nor be roused out of their sleep.

[13]"Oh that you would hide me in Sheol,
that you would keep me secret, until your wrath is past,
that you would appoint me a set time, and remember me.
[14]If a man dies, shall he live again?
All the days of my warfare would I wait, until my release should
come.
[15]You would call, and I would answer you.
You would have a desire to the work of your
hands.
[16]But now you number my steps.
Do you not watch over my
sin?
[17]My disobedience is sealed up in a bag.
You fasten up my iniquity.

[18]"But the mountain falling comes to nothing.
The rock is removed out of its place;
[19]The waters wear the stones.
The torrents of it wash away the dust of the earth.
So you destroy the hope of
man.
[20]You forever prevail against him, and he departs.
You change his face, and send him away.
[21]His sons come to honor, and he doesn't know it.
They are brought low, but he doesn't perceive it of
them.
[22]But his flesh on him has pain, and his soul within him mourns."

15 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered,

[2]“Should a wise man answer with vain knowledge, and fill himself with the east
wind?
[3]Should he reason with unprofitable talk,
or with speeches with which he can do no good?
[4]Yes, you do away with fear, and hinder devotion before
God.
[5]For your iniquity teaches your
mouth,
and you choose the language of the crafty.
[6]Your own mouth condemns you, and not I.
Yes, your own lips testify
against you.

[7]“Are you the first man who was born?
Or were you brought forth before the hills?
[8]Have you heard the secret counsel
of God?
Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
[9]What do you know, that we do not know?
What do you understand,
which is not in us?
[10]With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged
men,
much elder than your father.
[11]Are the consolations of God too small for you,
even the word that is gentle toward you?
[12]Why does your heart carry you away?
Why do your eyes flash, [13]That you turn your spirit against
God,
and let such words go out of your mouth?
[14]What is man, that he should be clean?
What is he who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?
[15]Look, he puts no trust in his holy ones.
Yes, the heavens are not clean in his sight;
[16]how much less one who is abominable and corrupt,
a man who drinks iniquity
like water.

[17]“I will show you, listen to me; that which I have seen I will declare: [18](Which wise men have told by their fathers,
and have not hidden it; [19]to whom alone the land was given,
and no stranger passed
among them):
[20]the wicked man writhes in pain all his days,
even the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor.
[21]A sound of terrors is in his ears.
In prosperity the destroyer shall come on him.
[22]He doesn’t believe that he shall return out of darkness.
He is waited for by the sword.
[23]He wanders abroad for bread, saying, ‘Where is it?’
He knows that the day of darkness is ready at his
hand.
[24]Distress and anguish make him
afraid.

They prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.
25Because he has stretched out his hand against God,
and behaves himself proudly against Shaddai; 26he runs at him with a stiff neck, with the thick shields of his bucklers;
27because he has covered his face with his fatness,
and gathered fat on his thighs.
28He has lived in desolate cities, in houses which no one
inhabited,
which were ready to become heaps.
29He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall their possessions be extended on the earth.
30He shall not depart out of
darkness.
The flame shall dry up his branches.
By the breath of God's mouth shall he go
away.
31Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself;
for emptiness shall be his reward.
32It shall be accomplished before his time.
His branch shall not be green.
33He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine,
and shall cast off his flower as the olive tree.
34For the company of the godless shall be barren,
and fire shall consume the tents of bribery.
35They conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.
Their heart prepares deceit."

16 Then Job answered,
2"I have heard many such things.
You are all miserable comforters.
3Shall vain words have an end?
Or what provokes you that you answer?
4I also could speak as you do.
If your soul were in my soul's place,
I could join words together
against you,
and shake my head at you, 5but I would strengthen you with my mouth.
The solace of my lips would relieve you.

6"Though I speak, my grief is not subsided.
Though I forbear, what am I eased?
7But now he has worn me out.
You have laid waste all my company.
8You have shriveled me up. This is a witness against me.
My leanness rises up against
me.
It testifies to my face.
9He has torn me in his wrath, and persecuted me.
He has gnashed on me with his teeth.
My adversary sharpens his eyes on me.
10They have gaped on me with their mouth.

They have struck me on the cheek reproachfully.
They gather themselves together against me.
[11]God delivers me to the ungodly, and casts me into the hands of the wicked.
[12]I was at ease, and he broke me apart.
Yes, he has taken me by the neck, and dashed me to pieces.
He has also set me up for his target.
[13]His archers surround me.
He splits my kidneys apart, and does not spare.
He pours out my gall on the ground.
[14]He breaks me with breach on breach.
He runs on me like a giant.
[15]I have sewed sackcloth on my skin,
and have thrust my horn in
the dust.
[16]My face is red with weeping.
Deep darkness is on my eyelids.
[17]Although there is no violence in my hands,
and my prayer is pure.

[18]"Earth, do not cover my blood.
Let my cry have no place to rest.
[19]Even now, look, my witness is in heaven.
He who vouches for me is on high.
[20]My friends scoff at me.
My eyes pour out tears to
God,
[21]that he would maintain the right of a man with God,
of a son of man with his
neighbor.
[22]For when a few years have
come,
I shall go the way from where I shall not return.

17 "My spirit is consumed.
My days are extinct,
And the grave is ready for
me.
[2]Surely there are mockers with me.
My eye dwells on their provocation.

[3]"Now give a pledge, be collateral for me with yourself.
Who is there who will strike hands with me?
[4]For you have hidden their heart from understanding,
Therefore you shall not exalt
them.
[5]He who denounces his friends for a prey,
Even the eyes of his children shall fail.

[6]"But he has made me a byword of the people.
They spit in my face.
[7]My eye also is dim by reason of sorrow.
All my members are as a shadow.
[8]Upright men shall be astonished at this.
The innocent shall stir up himself against the godless.
[9]Yet shall the righteous hold on his way.

He who has clean hands shall grow stronger
and stronger.
10But as for you all, come on now
again;
I shall not find a wise man among you.
11My days are past, my plans are broken off,
as are the thoughts of my
heart.
12They change the night into day, saying ‘The light is near’ in the presence of
darkness.
13If I look for Sheol as my house, if I have spread my couch in the darkness,
14If I have said to corruption, ‘You are my father;’
to the worm, ‘My mother,’ and ‘my sister;’
15where then is my hope?
As for my hope, who shall see it?
16Shall it go down with me to the gates of Sheol,
or descend together into the dust?”

18 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
2“How long will
you hunt for words?
Consider, and afterwards we will speak.
3Why are we counted as animals, which have become unclean
in your sight?
4You who tear yourself in your
anger,
shall the earth be forsaken
for you?
Or shall the rock be removed out of its place?
5“Yes, the light of the wicked shall be put out,
The spark of his fire shall not shine.
6The light shall be dark in his tent.
His lamp above him shall be put out.
7The steps of his strength shall be shortened.
His own counsel shall cast him down.
8For he is cast into a net by his own feet,
and he wanders into its mesh.
9A snare will take him by the heel.
A trap will catch him.
10A noose is hidden for him in the ground,
a trap for him in the way.
11Terrors shall make him afraid on every side,
and shall chase him at his heels.
12His strength shall be famished.
Calamity shall be ready at his side.
13The members of his body shall be devoured.
The firstborn of death shall devour his members.
14He shall be rooted out of his tent where he trusts.
He shall be brought to the king of terrors.
15There shall dwell in his tent that which is none of his.
Sulfur shall be scattered on his habitation.
16His roots shall be dried up beneath.
Above shall his branch be cut off.
17His memory shall perish from
the earth.

He shall have no name in the street.
18He shall be driven from light into
darkness,
and chased out of the world.
19He shall have neither son nor grandson among his
people,
nor any remaining where he sojourned.
20Those who come after shall be astonished at his day, as those who went before were frightened.
21Surely such are the dwellings of the unrighteous.
This is the place of him who doesn't know God."

19 Then Job answered,
2"How long will
you torment me,
and crush me with words?
3You have reproached me ten times.
You aren't ashamed that you attack me.
4If it is true that I have erred, my error remains with myself.
5If indeed you will magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach;
6know now that God has subverted
me,
and has surrounded me with his net.

7"Look, I cry out 'Injustice.' but there is no justice.
8He has walled up my way so that I can't pass, and has set darkness in my paths.
9He has stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head.
10He has broken me down on every side, and I am gone.
My hope he has plucked up like a tree.
11He has also kindled his wrath
against me.
He counts me among his adversaries.
12His troops come on together, build a siege ramp against
me,
and camp around my tent.

13"He has put my brothers far from
me.
My acquaintances are wholly estranged from
me.
14My relatives have gone away.
My familiar friends have forgotten me.
15Those who dwell in my house, and my maids, count
me for a stranger.
I am a foreigner in their sight.
16I call to my servant, and he gives me no answer.
I beg him with my mouth.
17My breath is offensive to my wife.
I am loathsome to the children of my own
mother.
18Even young children despise me.
If I arise, they speak against
me.
19All my familiar friends abhor
me.
They whom I loved have turned against me.

[20]My bones stick to my skin and to my flesh.
I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.

[21]"Have pity on me, have pity on me, you my friends; for the hand of God has touched me.
[22]Why do you persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?

[23]"Oh that my words were now written.
Oh that they were inscribed in a scroll.
[24]That with an iron pen and lead they were engraved in the rock forever.
[25]But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives.
In the end, he will stand upon the earth.
[26]After my skin is destroyed, then in my flesh shall I see God, [27]Whom I, even I, shall see on my side.
My eyes shall see, and not as a stranger.

My heart is consumed within me.
[28]If you say, 'How we will persecute him, because the root of the matter is found in him.'[a] [29]Be afraid of the sword, for wrath brings the punishments of the sword, that you may know there is a judgment."

20 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered, [2]"Therefore do my thoughts give answer to me, even by reason of my haste that is in me.
[3]I have heard the reproof which puts me to shame.
The spirit of my understanding answers me.
[4]Do you not know this from old time, since humankind was placed on earth, [5]that the triumphing of the wicked is short, the joy of the godless but for a moment?
[6]Though his height mount up to the heavens, and his head reach to the clouds, [7]yet he shall perish forever like his own dung.
Those who have seen him shall say, 'Where is he?'
[8]He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found.
Yes, he shall be chased away like a vision of the night.

[a]19:28 Hebrew Mss Versions. MT reads "in me"

[9]The eye which saw him shall see him no more,
neither shall his place any more see him.
[10]His children shall seek the favor of the poor.
His hands shall give back his wealth.
[11]His bones are full of his youth, but youth shall lie down with him in the dust.

[12]"Though wickedness is sweet in
his mouth,
though he hide it under his
tongue, [13]though he spare it, and will not let it go,
but keep it still within his
mouth;
[14]yet his food in his bowels is turned.
It is cobra venom within
him.
[15]He has swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit
them up again.
God will cast them out of his belly.
[16]He shall suck cobra venom.
The viper's tongue shall kill
him.
[17]He shall not look at the rivers, the flowing streams of honey and butter.
[18]That for which he labored he shall restore, and shall not swallow it down.
According to the substance that he has gotten, he shall not rejoice.
[19]For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor.
He has violently taken away a house, and he shall not build it up.

[20]"Because he knew no quietness within him,
he shall not save anything of that in which he delights.
[21]There was nothing left that he did not devour, therefore his prosperity shall not endure.
[22]In the fullness of his sufficiency, distress shall overtake
him.
The hand of everyone who is in misery shall come
on him.
[23]When he is about to fill his belly, he will cast the fierceness of his wrath
on him.
It will rain on him while he is eating.
[24]He shall flee from the iron weapon.
The bronze arrow shall strike him through.
[25]He draws it forth, and it comes out of his body.
Yes, the glittering point comes out of his liver.
Terrors are on him.
[26]All darkness is laid up for his treasures.
An unfanned fire shall devour him.
It shall consume that which is left in his tent.
[27]The heavens shall reveal his iniquity.
The earth shall rise up against him.
[28]The increase of his house shall depart.
They shall rush away in the day of his wrath.

[29]This is the portion of a wicked man from God, the heritage appointed to him by God."

21 Then Job answered,
[2]"Listen diligently to my speech.
Let this be your consolation.
[3]Allow me, and I also will speak;
After I have spoken, mock on.
[4]As for me, is my complaint to man?
Why shouldn't I be impatient?
[5]Look at me, and be astonished.
Lay your hand on your mouth.
[6]When I remember, I am troubled.
Horror takes hold of my flesh.

[7]"Why do the wicked live, become old, yes, and grow mighty in power?
[8]Their child is established with them in their sight, their offspring before their eyes.
[9]Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them.
[10]Their bulls breed without fail.
Their cows calve, and do not miscarry.
[11]They send forth their little ones like a flock.
Their children dance.
[12]They sing to the tambourine and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the pipe.
[13]They spend their days in prosperity.
In an instant they go down to Sheol.
[14]They tell God, 'Depart from us, for we do not want to know about your ways.
[15]Who is Shaddai, that we should serve him?
What profit should we have, if we pray to him?'
[16]Look, their prosperity is not in their hand.
The counsel of the wicked is far from me.

[17]"How often is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out, that their calamity comes on them, that he distributes sorrows in his anger?
[18]How often is it that they are as stubble before the wind, as chaff that the storm carries away?
[19]You say, 'God lays up his iniquity for his children.'
Let him recompense it to himself, that he may know it.
[20]Let his own eyes see his destruction.
Let him drink of the wrath of Shaddai.
[21]For what does he care for his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off?

[22]"Shall any teach God knowledge, seeing he judges those who are high?
[23]One dies in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

[24]His pails are full of milk.
The marrow of his bones is moistened.
[25]Another dies in bitterness of
soul,
and never tastes of good.
[26]They lie down alike in the dust.
The worm covers them.

[27]"Look, I know your thoughts, the devices with which you would wrong me.
[28]For you say, 'Where is the house of the prince?
Where is the tent in which the wicked lived?' [29]Haven't you asked wayfaring
men?
Do you not know their evidences,
[30]that the evil man is reserved to the day of calamity,
That they are led forth to the day of wrath?
[31]Who shall declare his way to his face?
Who shall repay him what he has done?
[32]Yet he will be borne to the grave.
Men shall keep watch over the tomb.
[33]The clods of the valley shall be sweet to him.
All men shall draw after
him,
as there were innumerable
before him.
[34]So how can you comfort me with nonsense,
seeing that in your answers there remains only falsehood?"

22 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered,
[2]"Can a man be profitable to God?
Surely he who is wise is profitable to himself.
[3]Is it any pleasure to Shaddai, that you are righteous?
Or does it benefit him, that you make your ways
perfect?
[4]Is it for your piety that he reproves you,
that he enters with you into judgment?
[5]Isn't your wickedness great?
Neither is there any end to your iniquities.
[6]For you have taken pledges from your brother for nothing,
and stripped the naked of their clothing.
[7]You haven't given water to the weary to drink, and you have withheld bread from the hungry.
[8]But as for the mighty man, he had
the earth.
The honorable man, he lived in it.
[9]You have sent widows away empty,
and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.
[10]Therefore snares are around you.
Sudden fear troubles you, [11]or darkness, so that you can not see,
and floods of waters cover
you.

[12]"Isn't God in the heights of
heaven?

See the height of the stars, how high they are.
13You say, ‘What does God know?
Can he judge through the thick darkness?
14Thick clouds are a covering to him, so that he doesn’t see.
He walks on the vault of the sky.’ 15Will you keep the old way, which wicked men have trodden, 16who were snatched away before their time,
whose foundation was poured out as a stream, 17who said to God, ‘Depart from us;’
and, ‘What can Shaddai do for us?’
18Yet he filled their houses with good things,
but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
19The righteous see it, and are glad.
The innocent ridicule them, 20saying, ‘Surely those who rose up against us are cut off.
The fire has consumed the remnant of them.’

21“Acquaint yourself with him, now, and be at peace.
Thereby good shall come to
you.
22Please receive instruction from
his mouth,
and lay up his words in your
heart.
23If you return to Shaddai, you shall be built up, if you put away unrighteousness far from your tents.
24Lay your treasure in the dust, the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks.
25Shaddai will be your treasure, and precious silver to you.
26For then you will delight yourself in Shaddai, and shall lift up your face to
God.
27You shall make your prayer to him, and he will hear
you.
You shall pay your vows.
28And you will also decree a thing, and it will be established for you,
and
light will shine on your
ways.
29When they cast down, you shall say, ‘be lifted up.’ And he will save the humble.
30He will even deliver him who is not innocent.
Yes, he shall be delivered through the cleanness
of your hands.”

23 Then Job answered,
2“Even today my complaint is rebellious.
His hand is heavy in spite of my groaning.
3Oh that I knew where I might find
him.
That I might come even to his seat.
4I would set my cause in order
before him,

and fill my mouth with arguments.
5I would know the words which he would answer me,
and understand what he would tell me.
6Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?
No, but he would listen to
me.
7There the upright might reason with him,
so I should be delivered forever from my judge.

8"If I go east, he is not there;
if west, I can't find him; 9He works to the north, but I can't see him.
He turns south, but I can't catch a glimpse of
him.
10But he knows the way that I take.
When he has tried me, I shall come forth like gold.
11My foot has held fast to his steps.
I have kept his way, and not turned aside.
12I haven't gone back from the commandment of his lips.
I have treasured up the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.
13But he stands alone, and who can oppose him?
What his soul desires, even that he does.
14For he performs that which is appointed for me.
Many such things are with
him.
15Therefore I am terrified at his presence.
When I consider, I am afraid of him.
16For God has made my heart faint.
Shaddai has terrified me.
17Because I was not cut off before the darkness,
neither did he cover the thick darkness from my face.

24 "Why aren't times made known by Shaddai?
Why do not those who know him see his days?
2There are people who remove the landmarks.
They violently take away flocks, and feed them.
3They drive away the donkey of the fatherless,
and they take the widow's ox for a pledge.
4They turn the needy out of the
way.
The poor of the earth all hide themselves.
5Look, as wild donkeys in the desert,
they go forth to their work, seeking diligently for
food.
The wilderness yields them bread for their children.
6They cut their provender in the field.
They glean the vineyard of the
wicked.
7They lie all night naked without clothing, and have no covering in the cold.

[8]They are wet with the showers of the
mountains,
and embrace the rock for lack of a shelter.
[9]There are those who pluck the fatherless from the breast,
and take a pledge of the poor, [10]So that they go around naked without clothing.
Being hungry, they carry the sheaves.
[11]They make oil within the walls of these men.
They tread wine presses, and suffer thirst.
[12]From out of the populous city, men groan.
The soul of the wounded cries out,
yet God doesn't regard the folly.

[13]"These are of those who rebel against the light.
They do not know its ways,
nor abide in its paths.
[14]The murderer rises with the light.
He kills the poor and needy.
In the night he is like a thief.
[15]The eye also of the adulterer waits for the twilight, saying, 'No eye shall see
me.'
He disguises his face.
[16]In the dark they dig through houses.
They shut themselves up in the daytime.
They do not know the light.
[17]For the morning is to all of them like thick darkness, for they know the terrors of the thick darkness.

[18]"They are foam on the surface of the waters.
Their portion is cursed in the
earth.
They do not turn into the way of the vineyards.
[19]Drought and heat consume the snow waters,
so does Sheol those who have sinned.
[20]The womb shall forget him.
The worm shall feed sweetly
on him.
He shall be no more remembered.
Unrighteousness shall be broken as a tree.
[21]He devours the barren who do not bear.
He shows no kindness to the widow.
[22]Yet he preserves the mighty by his power.
He rises up who has no assurance of life.
[23]He gives them security, and they rest in it.
His eyes are on their ways.
[24]They are exalted; yet a little while, and they are gone.
Yes, they are brought low, they are taken out of the way as all others,
and are cut off as the tops of the ears of grain.
[25]If it isn't so now, who will prove me a liar,
and make my speech worth
nothing?"

25 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
2 "Dominion and fear are with him.
He makes peace in his high places.
3 Can his armies be counted?
On whom does his light not arise?
4 How then can man be just with God?
Or how can he who is born of a woman be clean?
5 Look, even the moon has no brightness, and the stars are not pure in his sight; 6 How much less man, who is a worm, the son of man, who is a worm."

26 Then Job answered,
2 "How have you helped him who is without power.
How have you saved the arm that has no strength.
3 How have you counseled him who has no wisdom, and plentifully declared sound knowledge.
4 To whom have you uttered words?
Whose spirit came forth from you?

5 "Those who are deceased tremble, those beneath the waters and all that live in them.
6 Sheol[a] is naked before him, and Abaddon[b] has no covering.
7 He stretches out the north over empty space, and hangs the earth on nothing.
8 He binds up the waters in his thick clouds, and the cloud is not burst under them.
9 He encloses the face of his throne, and spreads his cloud on it.
10 He has described a boundary on the surface of the waters, and to the confines of light and darkness.
11 The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his rebuke.
12 He stirs up the sea with his power, and by his understanding he strikes through Rahab.
13 By his Spirit the heavens are garnished.
His hand has pierced the swift serpent.
14 Look, these are but the outskirts of his ways.
How small a whisper do we hear of him.
But the thunder of his power who can understand?"

27 Job again took up his parable, and said,
2 "As God lives, who has taken away my right,

[a] 26:6 Sheol is the lower world or the grave

[b] 26:6 Abaddon means Destroyer

Shaddai, who has made my soul bitter.
3(For the length of my life is still in me,
and the spirit of God is in my nostrils);
4surely my lips shall not speak unrighteousness,
neither shall my tongue utter deceit.
5Far be it from me that I should justify you.
Until I die I will not put away my integrity
from me.
6I hold fast to my righteousness, and will not let it go.
My conscience will not accuse me as long as I live.

7"Let my enemy be as the wicked.
Let him who rises up against me be as the unrighteous.
8For what is the hope of the godless, when he is cut off, when God takes away his life?
9Will God hear his cry when trouble comes on him?
10Will he delight himself in Shaddai,
and call on God at all times?
11I will teach you about the hand of God.
That which is with Shaddai will I not conceal.
12Look, all of you have seen it yourselves;
why then have you become altogether vain?

13"This is the portion of a wicked man with God,
the heritage of oppressors, which they receive from Shaddai.
14If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword.
His offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
15Those who remain of him shall be buried in death.
His widows shall make no lamentation.
16Though he heap up silver as the
dust,
and prepare clothing as the
clay;
17he may prepare it, but the just shall put it on,
and the innocent shall divide the silver.
18He builds his house as the moth, as a booth which the watchman makes.
19He lies down rich, but he shall not do so again.
He opens his eyes, and it is gone.
20Terrors overtake him like waters.
A storm steals him away in the night.
21The east wind carries him away,
and he departs.
It sweeps him out of his
place.
22For it hurls at him, and does not spare,
as he flees away from his
hand.
23Men shall clap their hands at
him,
and shall hiss him out of his
place.

28 "Surely there is a mine for silver,

and a place for gold which they refine.
2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and copper is smelted out of the ore.
3 Man sets an end to darkness, and searches out, to the furthest bound,
the stones of obscurity and of thick darkness.
4 He breaks open a shaft away from where people live.
They are forgotten by the foot.
They hang far from men, they swing back and forth.
5 As for the earth, out of it comes bread;
Underneath it is turned up as it were by fire.
6 Sapphires come from its rocks.
It has dust of gold.
7 That path no bird of prey knows, neither has the falcon's eye seen it.
8 The proud animals have not trodden it,
nor has the fierce lion passed by there.
9 He puts forth his hand on the flinty rock,
and he overturns the mountains by the roots.
10 He cuts out channels among the rocks.
His eye sees every precious thing.
11 He binds the streams that they do not trickle.
The thing that is hidden he brings forth to light.

12 "But where shall wisdom be found?
Where is the place of
understanding?
13 Man doesn't know its price; Neither is it found in the land of the living.
14 The deep says, 'It isn't in me.'
The sea says, 'It isn't with
me.'
15 It can't be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for its price.
16 It can't be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire[a].
17 Gold and glass can't equal it, neither shall it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.
18 No mention shall be made of coral or of crystal.
Yes, the price of wisdom is above rubies.
19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, Neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
20 From where then comes
wisdom?
Where is the place of
understanding?
21 Seeing it is hidden from the eyes of all living,
and kept close from the birds of the sky.
22 Destruction and Death say,
'We have heard a rumor of it with our ears.'

23 "God understands its way, and he knows its place.

[a] 28:16 Or, lapis lazuli

[24]For he looks to the farthest parts of the earth,
and sees under the whole
sky.
[25]He establishes the force of the wind.
Yes, he measures out the waters by measure.
[26]When he made a decree for the rain,
and a way for the lightning of the thunder;
[27]then he saw it, and declared it.
He established it, yes, and searched it out.
[28]To man he said,
'Look, the fear of the Lord,
that is wisdom.
To depart from evil is
understanding.'"

29 Job again took up his parable, and said,
[2]"Oh that I were as in the months
of old,
as in the days when God watched over me;
[3]when his lamp shone on my head, and by his light I walked through darkness,
[4]as I was in the ripeness of my days, when the friendship of God was in my tent,
[5]when Shaddai was yet with me, and my children were around me,
[6]when my steps were washed with butter,
and the rock poured out streams of oil for me, [7]when I went forth to the city gate, when I prepared my seat in the street.
[8]The young men saw me and hid themselves.
The aged rose up and stood.
[9]The princes refrained from talking,
and laid their hand on their
mouth.
[10]The voice of the nobles was hushed,
and their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth.
[11]For when the ear heard me, then it blessed me;
and when the eye saw me, it commended me: [12]Because I delivered the poor who cried,
and the fatherless also, who had none to help him, [13]the blessing of him who was ready to perish came
on me,
and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
[14]I put on righteousness, and it clothed me.
My justice was as a robe and a diadem.
[15]I was eyes to the blind, and feet to the lame.
[16]I was a father to the needy.
The cause of him who I did not know, I searched
out.
[17]I broke the jaws of the
unrighteous,
and plucked the prey out of his teeth.
[18]Then I said, 'I shall die in my own house,
I shall number my days as the sand.
[19]My root is spread out to the waters.
The dew lies all night on my branch.

[20]My glory is fresh in me.
My bow is renewed in my hand.'

[21]"Men listened to me, waited, and kept silence for my counsel.
[22]After my words they did not speak again.
My speech fell on them.
[23]They waited for me as for the rain.
Their mouths drank as with the spring rain.
[24]I smiled on them when they had no confidence.
They did not reject the light of my face.
[25]I chose out their way, and sat as chief.
I lived as a king in the army, as one who comforts the mourners.

30 "But now those who are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs.
[2]Of what use is the strength of their hands to me, men in whom ripe age has perished?
[3]They are gaunt from lack and famine.
They gnaw the dry ground, in the gloom of waste and desolation.
[4]They pluck salt herbs by the bushes.
The roots of the broom are their food.
[5]They are driven out from the midst of men.
They cry after them as after a thief;
[6]So that they dwell in frightful valleys, and in holes of the earth and of the rocks.
[7]Among the bushes they bray;
and under the nettles they are gathered together.
[8]They are children of fools, yes, children of base men.
They were flogged out of the land.

[9]"Now I have become their song.
Yes, I am a byword to them.
[10]They abhor me, they keep their distance from me, and do not hesitate to spit in my face.
[11]For he has untied his cord, and afflicted me;
and they have thrown off restraint before me.
[12]On my right hand rise the rabble.
They thrust aside my feet,
They cast up against me their ways of destruction.
[13]They mar my path,
They set forward my calamity, without anyone's help.
[14]As through a wide breach they come, in the midst of the ruin they roll themselves in.
[15]Terrors have turned on me.
They chase my honor as the wind.
My welfare has passed away as a cloud.

[16]"Now my soul is poured out within me.

Days of affliction have taken hold on me.
17In the night season my bones are pierced in me,
and the pains that gnaw me take no rest.
18By great force is my garment disfigured.
It binds me about as the collar of my coat.
19He has cast me into the mire.
I have become like dust and ashes.
20I cry to you, and you do not answer me.
I stand up, and you gaze at
me.
21You have turned to be cruel to
me.
With the might of your hand you persecute me.
22You lift me up to the wind, and drive me with it.
You dissolve me in the storm.
23For I know that you will bring me to death,
To the house appointed for all living.

24"However doesn't one stretch out a hand in his fall?
Or in his calamity therefore cry for help?
25Did I not weep for him who was in trouble?
Wasn't my soul grieved for
the needy?
26When I looked for good, then evil came;
When I waited for light,
there came darkness.
27My heart is troubled, and doesn't rest.
Days of affliction have come
on me.
28I go mourning without the sun.
I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help.
29I am a brother to jackals, and a companion to ostriches.
30My skin grows black and peels
from me.
My bones are burned with heat.
31Therefore my harp has turned to mourning,
and my pipe into the voice of those who weep.

31 "I made a covenant with my eyes, how then should I look lustfully at a young woman?
2For what is the portion from God above,
and the heritage from Shaddai on high?
3Is it not calamity for the
unrighteous,
and disaster for evildoers?
4Doesn't he see my ways, and number all my steps?

5"If I have walked with falsehood, and my foot has hurried to deceit
6(let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know my integrity);
7if my step has turned out of the
way,
if my heart walked after my eyes,
if any defilement has stuck to my hands,
8then let me sow, and let another eat.

Yes, let the produce of my field be rooted out.

9"If my heart has been enticed to a woman,
and I have lain in wait at my neighbor's door, 10then let my wife grind for another,
and let others sleep with her.
11For that would be a heinous crime.
Yes, it would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges:
12For it is a fire that consumes to destruction,
and would root out all my
increase.

13"If I have despised the cause of my male servant
or of my female servant, when they contended with
me;
14What then shall I do when God rises up?
When he visits, what shall I answer him?
15Did not he who made me in the womb make him?
Did not the same one fashion us in the
womb?

16"If I have withheld the poor from their desire,
or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail, 17or have eaten my morsel alone, and the fatherless has not eaten of it 18(no, from my youth he grew up with me as with a father,
her have I guided from my mother's womb);
19if I have seen any perish for want of clothing,
or that the needy had no covering; 20if his heart hasn't blessed me, if he hasn't been warmed with my sheep's fleece;
21if I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, because I saw my help in the gate, 22then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade,
and my arm be broken from the bone.
23For calamity from God is a terror to me.
Because his majesty, I can do nothing.

24"If I have made gold my hope, and have said to the fine gold, 'You are my confidence;'
25If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great,
and because my hand had gotten much;
26if I have seen the sun when it shined,
or the moon moving in splendor, 27and my heart has been secretly enticed,
and my hand threw a kiss
from my mouth, 28this also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges;
for I should have denied the God who is above.

29 "If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me,
or lifted up myself when evil found him; 30 (yes, I have not allowed my mouth to sin
by asking his life with a curse);
31 if the men of my tent have not said,
'Who can find one who has not been filled with his meat?' 32 (the foreigner has not lodged in the street,
but I have opened my doors to the traveler);
33 if like Adam I have covered my transgressions,
by hiding my iniquity in my
heart, 34 because I feared the great multitude,
and the contempt of families terrified me,
so that I kept silence, and did not go out of the door—
35 oh that I had one to hear me.
(look, here is my signature, let Shaddai answer
me);
let the accuser write my indictment.
36 Surely I would carry it on my shoulder;
and I would bind it to me as a crown.
37 I would declare to him the number of my steps;
as a prince would I go near to him.
38 If my land cries out against me, and its furrows weep
together;
39 if I have eaten its fruits without money,
or have caused its owners to lose their life, 40 let briars grow instead of wheat, and stinkweed instead of barley."

The words of Job are ended.

32 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. 2 Then the wrath of Elihu the son of Barakel, the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was kindled against Job. His wrath was kindled because he justified himself rather than God. 3 Also his wrath was kindled against his three friends, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job. 4 Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job, because they were elder than he. 5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.

6 Elihu the son of Barakel the Buzite answered,
"I am young, and you are very old; Therefore I held back, and did not dare show you my opinion.
7 I said, 'Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.' 8 But there is a spirit in man, and the breath of Shaddai gives them
understanding.
9 It is not the great who are wise, nor the aged who understand justice.

[10]Therefore I said, ‘Listen to me; I also will show my opinion.’

[11]“Look, I waited for your words, and I listened for your reasoning,
while you searched out what to say.
[12]Yes, I gave you my full attention, but there was no one who convinced Job,
or who answered his words,
among you.
[13]Beware lest you say, ‘We have found wisdom,
God may refute him, not
man;’ [14]for he has not directed his words
against me;
neither will I answer him with your speeches.

[15]“They are amazed. They answer
no more.
They do not have a word to say.
[16]Shall I wait, because they do not speak,
because they stand still, and answer no more?
[17]I also will answer my part, and I also will show my opinion.
[18]For I am full of words.
The spirit within me constrains me.
[19]Look, my breast is as wine which has no vent;
like new wineskins it is ready to burst.
[20]I will speak, that I may be refreshed.
I will open my lips and answer.
[21]Please do not let me respect any man’s person,
neither will I give flattering titles to any man.
[22]For I do not know how to give flattering titles;
or else my Maker would soon take me away.

33 “However, Job, please hear my speech,
and listen to all my words.
[2]See now, I have opened my
mouth.
My tongue has spoken in my
mouth.
[3]My words shall utter the uprightness of my
heart.
That which my lips know they shall speak
sincerely.
[4]The Spirit of God has made me,
and the breath of Shaddai gives me life.
[5]If you can, answer me.
Set your words in order before me, and stand
forth.
[6]Look, I am toward God even as you are.
I am also formed out of the
clay.
[7]Look, my terror shall not make you afraid, neither shall my pressure be heavy on you.

[8]“Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
I have heard the voice of your words, saying, [9]‘I am clean, without disobedience.

I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me.
10Look, he finds occasions against
me.
He counts me for his enemy.
11He puts my feet in the stocks.
He marks all my paths.'

12"Look, I will answer you. In this you are not just,
for God is greater than man.
13Why do you strive against him, because he doesn't give account of any of his matters?
14For God speaks once, yes twice, though man pays no attention.
15In a dream, in a vision of the night,
when deep sleep falls on
men,
in slumbering on the bed; 16Then he opens the ears of men, and seals their instruction, 17That he may withdraw man from his purpose,
and hide pride from man.
18He keeps back his soul from the pit,
and his life from perishing
by the sword.
19He is chastened also with pain on his bed,
with continual strife in his bones;
20So that his life abhors bread, and his soul choicest food.
21His flesh is so consumed away, that it can't be seen.
His bones that were not seen stick out.
22Yes, his soul draws near to the pit,
and his life to the destroyers.
23"If there is beside him an angel, an interpreter, one among a thousand,
to show to man what is right
for him;
24then God is gracious to him, and says,
'Deliver him from going down to the pit,
I have found a ransom.' 25His flesh shall be fresher than a child's.
He returns to the days of his youth.
26He prays to God, and he is favorable to him, so that he sees his face with joy.
He restores to man his
righteousness.
27He sings before men, and says,
'I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it did not profit me.
28He has redeemed my soul from going into the pit.
My life shall see the light.'

29"Look, God works all these things,
twice, yes three times, with a
man, 30to bring back his soul from the pit,
that he may be enlightened with the light of the living.
31Mark well, Job, and listen to me.
Hold your peace, and I will
speak.
32If you have anything to say,
answer me.
Speak, for I desire to justify
you.
33If not, listen to me.

Hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom."

34 Moreover Elihu answered, 2"Hear my words,
you sages.
Give ear to me, you who have knowledge.
3For the ear tries words, as the palate tastes food.
4Let us choose for us that which is right.
Let us know among ourselves what is
good.
5For Job has said, 'I am righteous, God has taken away my
right:
6Notwithstanding my right I am considered a liar.
My wound is incurable, though I am without disobedience.'
7What man is like Job,
who drinks scorn like water, 8Who goes in company with
evildoers,
and walks with wicked men?
9For he has said, 'It profits a man
nothing
that he should delight himself with God.'

10"Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding:
far be it from God, that he should do wickedness, from Shaddai, that he should commit iniquity.
11For the work of a man he will render to him,
and cause every man to find according to his ways.
12Yes surely, God will not do wickedly, neither will Shaddai pervert
justice.
13Who put him in charge of the
earth?
or who has appointed him over the whole world?
14If he set his heart on himself,
If he gathered to himself his spirit and his breath, 15all flesh would perish together, and man would turn again to
dust.

16"If now you have understanding, hear this.
Listen to the voice of my words.
17Shall even one who hates justice govern?
Will you condemn him who is righteous and mighty?—
18Who says to a king, 'Vile.' or to nobles, 'Wicked.'?
19Who doesn't respect the persons of princes,
nor regards the rich more than the poor;
for they all are the work of his hands.
20In a moment they die, even at midnight.
The people are shaken and pass away.
The mighty are taken away without a hand.

21"For his eyes are on the ways of a man.
He sees all his goings.
22There is no darkness, nor thick gloom,
where evildoers may hide
themselves.

23 For he doesn't need to consider a man further,
that he should go before God in judgment.
24 He breaks in pieces mighty men in ways past finding
out,
and sets others in their place.
25 Therefore he takes knowledge of their works.
He overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed.
26 He strikes them as wicked men in the open sight of others; 27 because they turned aside from following him,
and wouldn't pay attention to any of his ways, 28 so that they caused the cry of the poor to come to him.
He heard the cry of the afflicted.
29 When he gives quietness, who then can condemn?
When he hides his face, who then can see him?
Alike whether to a nation, or
to a man,
30 that the godless man may not reign,
that there be no one to ensnare the people.

31 "For has any said to God,
'I am guilty, but I will not offend any more.
32 Teach me that which I do not see.
If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more'?
33 Shall his recompense be as you desire, that you refuse
it?
For you must choose, and not I.
Therefore speak what you know.
34 Men of understanding will tell
me,
yes, every wise man who hears me:
35 'Job speaks without knowledge.
His words are without
wisdom.'
36 I wish that Job were tried to the end,
because of his answering like wicked men.
37 For he adds rebellion to his sin.
He claps his hands among
us,
and multiplies his words against God."

35 Moreover Elihu
answered,
2 "Do you think this to be your right, or do you say, 'My righteousness is more than God's,'
3 That you ask, 'What advantage will it be to you?
What profit shall I have,
more than if I had sinned?'
4 I will answer you, and your companions with
you.
5 Look to the heavens, and see.
See the skies, which are higher than you.
6 If you have sinned, what effect do you have against him?
If your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to him?
7 If you are righteous, what do you give him?

Or what does he receive from your hand?
[8]Your wickedness may hurt a man as you are,
and your righteousness may profit a son of man.

[9]"By reason of the multitude of oppressions they cry
out.
They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty.
[10]But none says, 'Where is God my Maker,
who gives songs in the night, [11]who teaches us more than the animals of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?'
[12]There they cry, but none gives answer,
because of the pride of evil
men.
[13]Surely God will not hear an empty cry,
neither will Shaddai regard
it.
[14]How much less when you say you do not see him.
The cause is before him, and you wait for him.
[15]But now, because he has not visited in his anger, neither does he greatly regard arrogance.
[16]Therefore Job opens his mouth with empty talk,
and he multiplies words without knowledge."

36 Elihu also continued, and said,

[2]"Bear with me a little, and I will show you;
for I still have something to say on God's behalf.
[3]I will get my knowledge from afar,
and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
[4]For truly my words are not false.
One who is perfect in knowledge is with
you.

[5]"Look, God is mighty, and doesn't despise
anyone.
He is mighty in strength of
understanding.
[6]He doesn't preserve the life of the
wicked,
but gives to the afflicted their right.
[7]He doesn't withdraw his eyes from the righteous,
but with kings on the throne, he sets them forever, and they are exalted.
[8]If they are bound in fetters, and are taken in the cords of afflictions, [9]then he shows them their work, and their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly.
[10]He also opens their ears to instruction,
and commands that they return from iniquity.
[11]If they listen and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity,
and their years in pleasures.
[12]But if they do not listen, they shall perish by the
sword;

they shall die without
knowledge.

13"But those who are godless in heart lay up anger.
They do not cry for help when he binds them.
14They die in youth.
Their life perishes among the unclean.
15He delivers the afflicted by their affliction,
and opens their ear in oppression.
16Yes, he would have allured you out of distress, into a broad place, where there is no restriction.
That which is set on your table would be full of fatness.

17"But you are full of the judgment of the wicked.
Judgment and justice take hold of you.
18Do not let riches entice you to wrath,
neither let the great size of a bribe turn you aside.
19Would your wealth sustain you in distress,
or all the might of your
strength?
20Do not desire the night, when people are cut off in their place.
21Take heed, do not regard
iniquity;
for you have chosen this rather than affliction.
22Look, God is exalted in his power.
Who is a teacher like him?
23Who has prescribed his way for
him?
Or who can say, 'You have committed
unrighteousness?'

24"Remember that you magnify his work,
whereof men have sung.
25All men have looked thereon.
Man sees it afar off.
26Look, God is great, and we do not know him.
The number of his years is unsearchable.
27For he draws up the drops of
water,
which distill in rain from his vapor, 28Which the skies pour down and which drop on humankind
abundantly.
29Yes, can any understand the spreading of the clouds,
and the thunderings of his pavilion?
30Look, he spreads his light around
him.
He covers the bottom of the sea.
31For by these he judges the
people.
He gives food in abundance.
32He covers his hands with the lightning,
and commands it to strike the mark.
33Its noise tells about him, and the livestock also concerning the storm that comes up.

37 "Yes, at this my heart trembles,

and is moved out of its
place.
2Hear, oh, hear the noise of his
voice,
the sound that goes out of
his mouth.
3He sends it forth under the whole sky,
and his lightning to the farthest parts of the
earth.
4After it a voice roars.
He thunders with the voice of his majesty.
He doesn't hold back anything when his voice is heard.
5God thunders marvelously with his voice.
He does great things, which we can't comprehend.
6For he says to the snow, 'Fall on
the earth;'
likewise to the shower of rain,
and to the showers of his mighty rain.
7He seals up the hand of every
man,
that all men whom he has made may know it.
8Then the animals take cover, and remain in their dens.
9Out of its chamber comes the storm,
and cold out of the north.
10By the breath of God, ice is given,
and the breadth of the waters
is frozen.
11Yes, he loads the thick cloud with moisture.
He spreads abroad the cloud of his lightning.
12It is turned around by his guidance,
that they may do whatever he commands them on the surface of the habitable world, 13Whether it is for correction, or for his land, or for loving kindness, that he causes it to come.

14"Listen to this, Job.
Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of
God.
15Do you know how God controls
them,
and causes the lightning of his cloud to shine?
16Do you know the workings of the clouds,
the wondrous works of him who is perfect in
knowledge?
17You whose clothing is warm, when the earth is still by reason of the south
wind?
18Can you, with him, spread out
the sky,
which is strong as a cast metal mirror?
19Teach us what we shall tell him, for we can't make our case by reason of darkness.
20Shall it be told him that I would
speak?
Or should a man wish that he were swallowed
up?
21Now men do not see the light which is bright in the skies,
but the wind passes, and clears them.
22Out of the north comes golden splendor.

With God is awesome majesty.
23 We can't reach Shaddai.
He is exalted in power.
In justice and great righteousness, he will not oppress.
24 Therefore men revere him.
He doesn't regard any who are wise of heart."

38 Then YHWH answered Job out of the whirlwind, 2 "Who is this who darkens counsel by words without
knowledge?
3 Brace yourself like a man, for I will question you, then you answer me.

4 "Where were you when I laid the foundations of the
earth?
Declare, if you have
understanding.
5 Who determined its measures, if you know?
Or who stretched the line on
it?
6 Whereupon were its foundations fastened?
Or who laid its cornerstone,
7 when the morning stars sang
together,
and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 "Or who shut up the sea with doors,
when it broke forth from the
womb,
9 when I made clouds its garment, and wrapped it in thick
darkness,
10 marked out for it my bound,
set bars and doors, 11 and said, 'Here you may come, but no further.
Here your proud waves shall be stayed?'

12 "Have you commanded the morning in your days, and caused the dawn to know its place; 13 that it might take hold of the farthest parts of the
earth,
and shake the wicked out of
it?
14 It is changed as clay under the seal,
and stands forth as a garment.
15 From the wicked, their light is withheld.
The high arm is broken.

16 "Have you entered into the springs of the sea?
Or have you walked in the recesses of the deep?
17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of
death?
18 Have you comprehended the earth in its breadth?
Declare, if you know it all.

19 "What is the way to the dwelling of light?
As for darkness, where is its
place, 20 that you should take it to its bound,
that you should discern the paths to its house?

21 Surely you know, for you were born then,
and the number of your days is great.
22 Have you entered the treasuries of the snow,
or have you seen the treasures of the hail, 23 which I have reserved against the time of trouble,
against the day of battle and war?
24 By what way is the lightning distributed,
or the east wind scattered on
the earth?
25 Who has cut a channel for the flood water, or the path for the thunderstorm;
26 To cause it to rain on a land where no man is;
on the wilderness, in which there is no man; 27 to satisfy the waste and desolate
ground,
to cause the tender grass to spring forth?
28 Does the rain have a father?
Or who fathers the drops of dew?
29 Out of whose womb came the ice?
The gray frost of the sky, who has given birth to
it?
30 The waters become hard like stone,
when the surface of the deep
is frozen.

31 "Can you fasten the chains of Kimah,
or loosen the cords of Kesil?[a] 32 Can you lead forth the Mazzaroth in their season?
Or can you lead Aysh with her children?[b] 33 Do you know the laws of the heavens?
Can you establish its dominion over the
earth?

34 "Can you lift up your voice to the clouds,
That abundance of waters
may cover you?
35 Can you send forth lightnings, that they may go?
Do they report to you, 'Here we are?'
36 Who has put wisdom in the inward parts?
Or who has given understanding to the mind?
37 Who can number the clouds by
wisdom?
Or who can pour out the bottles of the sky, 38 when the dust runs into a mass, and the clods of earth stick
together?

39 "Can you hunt the prey for the lioness,
or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, 40 when they crouch in their dens, and lie in wait in the thicket?

[a] 38:31 Or, "chains of the Pleiades, or loosen the cords of Orion?"

[b] 38:31 Or, "lead the Bear with her cubs?"

41 Who provides for the raven his prey,
when his young ones cry to
God,
and wander for lack of food?

39 "Do you know the time when the mountain goats give birth?
Do you watch when the doe bears fawns?
2 Can you number the months that they fulfill?
Or do you know the time when they give birth?
3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young,
they end their labor pains.
4 Their young ones become strong.
They grow up in the open field.
They go forth, and do not return again.

5 "Who has set the wild donkey free?
Or who has loosened the bonds of the swift donkey,
6 Whose home I have made the wilderness,
and the salt land his dwelling place?
7 He scorns the tumult of the city, neither does he hear the shouting of the driver.
8 The range of the mountains is his pasture,
He searches after every green thing.

9 "Will the wild ox be content to serve you?
Or will he stay by your feeding trough?
10 Can you hold the wild ox in the furrow with his harness?
Or will he till the valleys after you?
11 Will you trust him, because his strength is great?
Or will you leave to him
your labor?
12 Will you have faith in him, that he will bring in[a] your grain,
and gather it to your threshing floor?

13 "The wings of the ostrich wave proudly;
but are they the feathers and plumage of love?
14 For she leaves her eggs on the
earth,
warms them in the dust, 15 and forgets that the foot may crush them,
or that the wild animal may trample them.
16 She deals harshly with her young ones, as if they were not hers.
Though her labor is in vain,
she is without fear, 17 because God has deprived her of
wisdom,
neither has he imparted to her understanding.

[a] 39:12 MT Qere. MT Kethib "will return," an apparent waw-yod confusion

18 When she lifts up herself on high, she scorns the horse and his rider.

19 "Have you given the horse might?
Have you clothed his neck with a quivering mane?
20 Have you made him to leap as a locust?
The glory of his snorting is awesome.
21 He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength.
He goes out to meet the armed men.
22 He mocks at fear, and is not dismayed, neither does he turn back from the sword.
23 The quiver rattles against him, the flashing spear and the javelin.
24 He eats up the ground with fierceness and rage, neither does he stand still at the sound of the trumpet.
25 As often as the trumpet sounds he snorts, 'Aha.'
He smells the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

26 "Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, and stretches her wings toward the south?
27 Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up, and makes his nest on high?
28 On the cliff he dwells, and makes his home, on the point of the cliff, and the stronghold.
29 From there he spies out the prey.
His eyes see it afar off.
30 His young ones also suck up blood.
Where the slain are, there he is."

40 Moreover YHWH answered Job,
2 "Shall he who argues contend with Shaddai?
He who argues with God, let him answer it."

3 Then Job answered YHWH,
4 "Look, I am of small account.
What shall I answer you?
I lay my hand on my mouth.
5 I have spoken once, and I will not answer;
Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further."

6 Then YHWH answered Job out of the whirlwind, 7 "Now brace yourself like a man.
I will question you, and you will answer me.
8 Will you even annul my judgment?
Will you condemn me, that you may be justified?
9 Or do you have an arm like God?
Can you thunder with a voice like him?

10 "Now deck yourself with excellency and dignity.

Array yourself with honor and majesty.
11 Pour out the fury of your anger.
Look at everyone who is proud, and bring him
low.
12 Look at everyone who is proud, and humble him.
Crush the wicked in their
place.
13 Hide them in the dust together.
Bind their faces in the hidden place.
14 Then I will also admit to you that your own right hand can save you.

15 "Look now at the sauropod, which I made as well
as you.
He eats grass as an ox.
16 Look now, his strength is in his thighs.
His force is in the muscles of his belly.
17 He moves his tail like a cedar.
The sinews of his thighs are knit together.
18 His bones are like tubes of bronze.
His limbs are like bars of iron.
19 He is the chief of the ways of
God.
He who made him gives him
his sword.
20 Surely the mountains produce food for him,
where all the animals of the field play.
21 He lies under the lotus trees, in the covert of the reed, and the marsh.
22 The lotuses cover him with their shade.
The willows of the brook surround him.
23 Look, if a river overflows, he doesn't tremble.
He is confident, though the Jordan swells even to
his mouth.
24 Shall any take him when he is on the watch,
or pierce through his nose with a snare?

41 "Can you draw out Deinosuchus with a fishhook,
or press down his tongue with a cord?
2 Can you put a rope into his nose, or pierce his jaw through with a hook?
3 Will he make many petitions to
you,
or will he speak soft words
to you?
4 Will he make a covenant with
you,
that you should take him for a servant forever?
5 Will you play with him as with a bird?
Or will you bind him for your girls?
6 Will traders barter for him?
Will they part him among the merchants?
7 Can you fill his skin with barbed irons,
or his head with fish spears?
8 If you lay a hand on him, you will remember the battle, and you will never do it again.
9 Look, the hope of him is in vain.

Won't one be cast down even at the sight of
him?
10None is so fierce that he dare stir him up.
Who then is he who can stand before me?
11Who has confronted me, that I should repay?
Everything under the heavens is mine.

12"I will not keep silence concerning his limbs, nor his mighty strength, nor his goodly frame.
13Who can strip off his outer garment?
Who shall come within his jaws?
14Who can open the doors of his face?
Around his teeth is terror.
15Strong scales are his pride, shut up together with a close seal.
16One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.
17They are joined one to another.
They stick together, so that they can't be pulled apart.
18His sneezing flashes out light.
His eyes are like the eyelids
of the morning.
19Out of his mouth go burning torches.
Sparks of fire leap forth.
20Out of his nostrils a smoke goes, as of a boiling pot over a fire of reeds.
21His breath kindles coals.
A flame goes forth from his
mouth.
22There is strength in his neck.
Terror dances before him.
23The flakes of his flesh are joined
together.
They are firm on him.
They can't be moved.
24His heart is as firm as a stone, yes, firm as the lower millstone.
25When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid.
They retreat before his thrashing.
26If one attacks him with the sword, it can't prevail;
nor the spear, the dart, nor the pointed shaft.
27He counts iron as straw;
and bronze as rotten wood.
28The arrow can't make him flee.
Sling stones are like chaff to
him.
29Clubs are counted as stubble.
He laughs at the rushing of the javelin.
30His undersides are like sharp potsherds,
leaving a trail in the mud like a threshing sledge.
31He makes the deep to boil like a pot.
He makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
32He makes a path shine after him.
One would think the deep had white hair.
33On earth there is not his equal,
that is made without fear.
34He sees everything that is high.
He is king over all the sons of pride."

42 Then Job answered YHWH,
2"I know that you can do all things,

and that no purpose of yours can be restrained.
3You asked, 'Who is this who hides counsel without
knowledge?'
therefore I have uttered that which I did not understand,
things too wonderful for me,
which I did not know.
4You said, 'Listen, now, and I will
speak;
I will question you, and you will answer me.'
5I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear,
but now my eye sees you.
6Therefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes."

7It was so, that after YHWH had spoken these words to Job, YHWH said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has. 8Now therefore, take to yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept him, that I not deal with you according to your folly. For you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has."

10YHWH turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends. YHWH gave Job twice as much as he had before. 11Then came there to him all his brothers, and all his sisters, and all those who had been of his acquaintance before, and ate bread with him in his house. They comforted him, and consoled him concerning all the evil that YHWH had brought on him. And each of them gave him a kesitah and a gold ring.

12So YHWH blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand female donkeys. 13He had also seven sons and three daughters. 14He called the name of the first, Jemimah; and the name of the second, Keziah; and the name of the third, Keren Happuch. 15In all the land were no women found so beautiful as the daughters of Job. Their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers. 16After this Job lived one hundred forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, to four generations. 17So Job died, being old and full of days.

The Psalms

BOOK I

Psalm 1

[1]Blessed is the one[a] who doesn't follow the advice[b] of the wicked, or take[c] the path of sinners, or join in[d] with scoffers.
[2]But his delight is in the law of YHWH, and on his law he meditates day and night.
[3]And he is like a tree planted by flowing streams,
that brings forth its fruit in its season,
and its leaf does not wither, and whatever he does shall prosper.
[4]Not so with the wicked;[e] instead, they are like the chaff which the wind drives away.[f] [5]Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the
righteous.
[6]For YHWH knows the way of the
righteous,
but the way of the wicked
shall perish.

Psalm 2

[1]Why do the nations rage, and the peoples plot in vain?
[2]The kings of the earth take a stand,
and the rulers take counsel
together,
against YHWH, and against his Anointed One[g]: [3]"Let's tear off their shackles, and throw off their ropes from us."
[4]The one who sits in the heavens laughs.
YHWH[h] scoffs at them.
[5]Then he will speak to them in his
anger,
and terrify them in his
wrath:
[6]"But I myself have installed my king on Zion, my holy mountain."
[7]I will tell of the decree.
YHWH said to me, "You are my son.
Today I have become your father.[i] [8]Ask of me, and I will give the nations as your inheritance,
and the farthest parts of the earth for your possession.
[9]You shall rule[j] them with an iron scepter.

Psalm 3

A Psalm by David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

1YHWH, how my adversaries have increased.
Many rise up against me.
2Many there are who say of my
soul,
"There is no salvation for him in God."
Selah.
3But you, YHWH, are a shield
around me,
my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.
4I cried out to YHWH with my
voice,
and he answered me from his holy mountain. Selah.
5I lay down and slept.
I awoke, for YHWH sustains
me.
6I am not afraid of ten thousands of people who have set themselves against me on every side.
7Arise, YHWH.
Save me, my God.
For you slap all my enemies in the
face.
You break the teeth of the
wicked.
8Salvation belongs to YHWH.
Your blessing is upon your
people.
Selah.

Psalm 4

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm by David.

1Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness.[c]
You set me free in my distress.
Be gracious to me and hear
my prayer.
2You sons of man, how long will you shame my honor,
love what is worthless,
chase after a lie?
Selah.

Psalm 5

For the Chief Musician, with the flutes. A Psalm by David.

[1]Listen to my words, YHWH.
Consider my meditation.
[2]Give attention to the voice of my cry, my King and my God;
for to you do I pray.
[3]YHWH, in the morning you shall

In the morning I will lay my desires wickedness.

Evil can't live with you.
[5]The arrogant shall not stand in your sight.
You hate all evildoers.
[6]You will destroy those who speak lies.
YHWH despises a person of bloodshed and deceit.
[7]But as for me, in the abundance of your loving kindness I will enter into your house.
I will bow toward your holy temple in reverence of
you.
[8]Lead me, YHWH, in your righteousness because of my enemies.
Make your way straight before me.

Psalm 6

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, upon the eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm by David.

1 YHWH, do not rebuke me in your
anger,
neither discipline me in your
wrath.
2 Be gracious to me, YHWH, for I am frail YHWH, heal me, for my bones are trembling.
3 And my soul is greatly troubled.

4 Return, YHWH. Deliver my soul.

6 I am weary with my groaning.

bed;
I melt my couch with my tears.
7 My eye wastes away because of grief.
It grows old because of all my adversaries.
8 Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity,
for YHWH has heard the sound of my weeping.
9 YHWH has heard my plea.
YHWH has accepted my prayer.
10 May all my enemies be ashamed and greatly terrified.
May they turn back,
suddenly ashamed.

Psalm 7

A meditation by David, which he sang to YHWH, concerning the words of Cush, the Benjamite.

1 YHWH, my God, I take refuge in
you.
Save me from all those who pursue me, and deliver
me,

[a] 5:9 Or "deceive." Hol2584: "be smooth, slippery, false." Romans 3:13

[2]lest they tear apart my soul like a lion,
ripping it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.
[3]YHWH, my God, if I have done
this,
if there is iniquity in my
hands,
[4]if I have rewarded evil to him who was at peace with me, or oppressed[a] my enemy without
cause,
[5]let the enemy pursue my soul, and overtake it;
yes, let him tread my life down to
the earth,
and lay my glory in the dust.
Selah.
[6]Arise, YHWH, in your anger.
Lift up yourself against the rage of my adversaries.[b] Awake, my God;[c] you have appointed judgment.
[7]And let the congregation of the peoples surround
you,
and rule over them on high.
[8]YHWH administers judgment to the peoples.
Judge me, YHWH, according to my righteousness, and to my integrity that is in
me.
[9]Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end,
but establish the righteous.[d]
The righteous God tests hearts and minds.
[10]My shield is with God, who saves the upright in
heart.
[11]God is a righteous judge, yes, a God who has indignation every day.
[12]If a man doesn't relent, he will sharpen his sword;
he has bent and strung his bow.
[13]He has also prepared for himself deadly weapons.
He makes ready his flaming arrows.
[14]Look, he travails with iniquity.
Yes, he has conceived
mischief,
and brought forth falsehood.
[15]He has dug a hole, and has fallen into the pit which he made.
[16]The trouble he causes shall return to his own head, and his violence shall come down on the crown of his own head.
[17]I will give thanks to YHWH according to his
righteousness,
and will sing praise to the name of YHWH Most High.[e]

For the Chief Musician; on an instrument of Gath. A Psalm by David.

[1]YHWH, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth.
You have put[a] your glory upon the heavens.
[2]From the lips of children and infants you have established praise,[b]
because of your adversaries, that you might silence the enemy and the avenger.
[3]When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars which you have set in
place;
[4]what is man, that you think of
him,
and the son of man
that you care for him?
[5]For you have made him a little lower than the angels.[c] You have crowned him with glory and honor, [6]and[d] you made him ruler over the works of your hands.
You have put all things under his feet:[e] [7]all sheep and cattle, and also the wild animals, [8]the birds of the sky, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes through the paths of the seas.
[9]YHWH, our Lord, how majestic is your name
in all the earth.

[e]8:4-6 Hebrews 2:6-8

[f]9:1 Psalm 9 and 10 is an acrostic poem following the letters of the Hebrew alphabet. Each stanza begins with the Hebrew letter named in its heading

4 For you have upheld my just
cause.
You sit on the throne judging righteously.

5 You have rebuked the nations.
You have destroyed the
wicked.
You have blotted out their name forever and ever.
6 The enemy is overtaken by endless ruin;
and the very memory of the cities which you have overthrown has perished.

7 But YHWH reigns forever.
He has prepared his throne for judgment.
8 And he will judge the world in
righteousness.
He will judge the peoples
with equity.

9 YHWH will also be a refuge for
the oppressed,
a refuge in times of trouble.
10 And those who know your name will put their trust in
you,
for you, YHWH, have not forsaken those who seek you.

11 Sing praises to YHWH, who dwells in Zion,
and declare among the people what he has done.

12 For he who takes revenge against murderers remembers
them.
He doesn't forget the cry of the afflicted.

13 Have mercy on me, YHWH.
See my affliction by those who hate me.
You lift me up from the gates of
death,
14 so that I may tell all your praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion. I will rejoice in your
salvation.

15 The nations have fallen into the pit they had made.
In the net which they hid,
their feet are caught.

16 YHWH has made himself known.
He has executed judgment.
The wicked is snared by the work of his own
hands.

17 The wicked shall be turned back to Sheol, even all the nations that forget God.

18 For the needy shall not always be forgotten;
the hope of the poor shall not[a] perish forever.

19 Arise, YHWH. Do not let man

[a] 9:18 Hebrew Ms LXX Tg Syr. MT lacks "not"

Psalm 10

For the Chief Musician.

[1]Why do you stand far off,
YHWH?
Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?
[2]In arrogance, the wicked hunt down the weak.
They are caught in the schemes that they devise.

[3]For the wicked boasts of his heart's cravings,
and he blesses the greedy, scorning YHWH.

[4]The wicked in his proud countenance does not seek. All his thoughts are "There is no God."
[5]His ways are firm[a] at all times.
Your judgments are turned aside.[b] As for all his adversaries, he sneers at them.
[6]He says in his heart, "I shall not be shaken.
From generation to generation I shall not experience calamity."

[7]His mouth is full of cursing and bitterness[c] and oppression.
Under his tongue is mischief and iniquity.
[8]He lies in wait near the villages.
From ambushes, he murders
the innocent.

His eyes are secretly set against the helpless.
[9]He lurks in secret as a lion in his ambush.
He lies in wait to catch the helpless.
He catches the helpless, when he draws him in his net.
[10]The helpless are crushed.
They collapse.
They fall under his strength.
[11]He says in his heart, "God has forgotten.
He hides his face.
He will never see it."

[b]10:5 LXX, reading antanaireitai "take away" = סרו., the samekh strophe. MT reads מרום "height," a possible samekh-mem confusion, with dittography of the final mem

[c]10:7 LXX, reading pikrias = wmrrwt "bitterness." MT reads wmrmwt "deceit," an apparent scribal misreading of the consonantal text. Romans 3:14

12 Arise, YHWH.
God, lift up your hand.
Do not forget the helpless.
13 Why does the wicked person condemn God,
and say in his heart, "You will not seek (an accounting)."

14 But you do see trouble and grief.
You consider it to take it into your hand.
You help the victim and the fatherless.

15 Break the arm of the wicked.
As for the evil man, seek out his wickedness until you find none.
16 YHWH is King forever and ever.
The nations have perished from his land.

17 YHWH, you have heard the desire of the humble.
You will prepare their heart.
You will cause your ear to hear,
18 to judge the fatherless and
the oppressed,
that man who is of the earth
may terrify no more.

Psalm 11

For the Chief Musician. By David.

1 In YHWH, I take refuge.
How can you say to my soul,
"Flee as a bird to your mountain."
2 For, look, the wicked bend their bows.
They set their arrows on the strings, that they may shoot in darkness at the upright
in heart.
3 If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?
4 YHWH is in his holy temple.
YHWH is on his throne in
heaven.
His eyes look upon the poor.[a] His eyes examine the descendants of Adam.
5 YHWH examines the righteous, but the wicked and the one who loves violence his soul hates.
6 On the wicked he will rain blazing coals;
fire, sulfur, and scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup.
7 For YHWH is righteous.
He loves righteousness.
The upright shall see his
face.

1 Help, YHWH; for the faithful

2Everyone lies to his neighbor.
They speak with flattering lips, and with a double
heart.
3May YHWH cut off all flattering
lips,
and the tongue that boasts, 4who have said, "With our tongue[a] we will prevail.
Our lips are our own.
Who is lord over us?"
5"Because of the oppression of the weak and because of the groaning of the needy,
I will now arise," says
YHWH;
"I will place in safety the one who longs for it."
6The words of YHWH are flawless
words,
as silver refined in a clay

7You, YHWH, will protect us.[b]
You will guard us[c] from this 8The wicked walk on every side,

Psalm 13

every day?
How long shall my enemy

Psalm 14

For the Chief Musician. By David.

[1]The fool has said in his heart,
"There is no God."
They are corrupt.
They do abominable works.
There is none who does
good.
[2]YHWH looks down from heaven on the descendants of Adam,
to see if there are any who
are wise,
who seek after God.
[3]They have all turned away.
They have together become corrupt.
There is no one who does

[4]Have all evildoers no knowledge, who eat up my people as

They do not call on YHWH.
[5]There they are utterly terrified, for God is in the generation

[6]You would frustrate the plans of the lowly,
but YHWH is his refuge.
[7]Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of
Zion.
When YHWH restores the fortunes of his people, may Jacob rejoice, may Israel be glad.

Psalm 15

A Psalm by David.

[1]YHWH, who shall dwell in your sanctuary?
Who shall live on your holy
mountain?
[2]He who walks blamelessly and does what is right, and speaks truth in his heart.
[3]He doesn't slander with his
tongue,
nor does evil to his friend, nor lifts up an insult against his neighbor.
[4]In his eyes a vile man is despised, but he honors those who fear
YHWH.
He keeps an oath even when it hurts, and doesn't change it.
[5]He doesn't lend out his money for interest,
nor take a bribe against the innocent.
The one who does these things will never be upended.

Psalm 16

A Poem by David.

[1]Preserve me, God, for in you do I take refuge.
[2]I[b] said to YHWH, "You are my Lord.

[a]14:3 Romans 3:10-12

[b]16:2 Hebrew Mss LXX Syr Vg. MT reads "You"

Apart from you I have no good thing." 3 As for the holy ones who are in the land, they are the excellent ones in whom is all my delight.

4 Their sorrows will multiply who pay a dowry for another.[a]
Their drink offerings of blood I will not offer, nor take their names on my lips.
5 YHWH is the portion of my inheritance and my cup.
You made my lot secure.

6 The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places.
Yes, beautiful is my inheritance.
7 I will bless YHWH, who has given me counsel.
Yes, my heart instructs me in the night seasons.
8 I have put YHWH before me at all times. Because he is at my right hand I will never be upended.
9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue[b] rejoices.
My body shall also dwell in safety.
10 For you will not abandon my soul in Sheol, neither will you allow your Holy One to see decay.[c] 11 You make known to me the path of life.
In your presence is fullness of joy.[d]
In your right hand there are pleasures forevermore.

Psalm 17

A Prayer by David.

1 Hear, YHWH, my righteous plea;
Give ear to my prayer, that doesn't go out of deceitful lips.
2 Let my sentence come forth from your presence.
Let your eyes look on equity.
3 You have proved my heart.
You have visited me in the night.
You have tried me, and found nothing.
I have resolved that my mouth shall not disobey.
4 As for the works of men, by the word of your lips,

[a] 16:4 I.e., for another god. Cf. Isaiah 42:8
[b] 16:9 LXX, reading glossa = lswny "tongue." MT reads kbwdy "glory," an apparent scribal misreading in an early square script in a damaged scroll
[c] 16:10 LXX, reading diaphthoran "decay, corruption, destruction," which is more related to the Hebrew verb shachet "bring decay, ruin, destruction" (Hol8538) cf. A. Groenewald: Psalm 16 and Acts of the Apostles – Part II, OTE 21/2 (2008), 350. MT vocalizes as shachat "pit, grave" (Hol8539). Acts 2:27, 13:35
[d] 16:11 Acts 2:25-28

I have kept myself from the ways of the violent.
5My steps have held fast to your paths.
My feet have not slipped.
6I have called on you, for you will answer me, God.
Turn your ear to me.
Hear my speech.
7Show your marvelous loving kindness,
you who save those who take refuge by your right hand from their
enemies.
8Keep me as the apple of your eye.
Hide me under the shadow of your wings,
9from the wicked who oppress me, my deadly enemies, who surround me.
10They close up their callous hearts.
With their mouth they speak proudly.
11They have tracked me down[a];
suddenly they
surround me.
They watch closely,
crouching down to the
ground.
12He is like a lion that is greedy of his prey,
as it were a young lion lurking in secret
places.
13Arise, YHWH, confront him.
Cast him down.
Deliver my soul from the wicked by your sword;
14from men with your hand,
YHWH,
from men of the world, whose portion is in this life.
You fill their womb with treasure.
They are satisfied with children,
and they leave their wealth to their little ones.
15As for me, I shall see your face in righteousness.
I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with seeing your form.

Psalm 18

For the Chief Musician. By David the servant of YHWH, who spoke to YHWH the words of this song in the day that YHWH delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said,

1I love you, YHWH, my strength.
2YHWH is my Rock, my fortress, and my deliverer;
my God, my Rock, in whom I take refuge;
my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.
3I call on YHWH, who is worthy to be praised;
and I am saved from my
enemies.
4The waves[b] of death surrounded
me,

[a]17:11 Hebrew Ms. MT reads “our steps”

[b]18:4 2Samuel 22:5. MT reads “cords,” under the influence of v.5 and similarity in early square script. The and the currents of ungodliness overwhelmed me.

5The cords of Sheol were around
me.
The snares of death came on
me.
6In my distress I called upon
YHWH,
and cried out to my God.
He heard my voice out of his temple,
and my cry before him came into his ears.
7Then the earth shook and trembled.
The foundations also of the mountains quaked and were shaken,
because he was angry.
8Smoke went out of his nostrils.
Consuming fire came out of
his mouth.
Coals were kindled by it.
9He bowed the heavens also, and came down.
Thick darkness was under his feet.
10He rode on a cherub, and flew.
Yes, he soared on the wings of the wind.
11He made darkness his hiding place,
his canopy around him thick clouds dark with
water.
12From the brightness before him his thick clouds passed on,
with hailstones and coals of
fire.
13YHWH also thundered in the sky.
The Most High uttered his voice.
14And he sent out arrows[a] and scattered them, and he shot lightning bolts and routed them.
15And the depths of the sea[b] appeared.
The foundations of the world were laid bare at your rebuke, YHWH,
at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.
16He sent from on high.
He took me.
He drew me out of many
waters.
17He delivered me from my strong
enemy,
from those who hated me;
for they were too
mighty for me.
18They came on me in the day of my calamity,
but YHWH was my support.
19He brought me forth also into a large place.
He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
20YHWH has rewarded me according to my
righteousness.
According to the cleanness of my hands has he recompensed me.
21For I have kept the ways of
YHWH,
and have not wickedly departed from my
God.
22For all his ordinances were before me.

parallelism with "torrents" favors "waves"

[a]18:14 LXX Vg and 2Samuel 22:15. MT reads "his arrows" [b]18:16 Enclitic mem

I did not put away his statutes from me.
23I was also blameless with him.
I kept myself from my
iniquity.
24Therefore YHWH has rewarded me according to my
righteousness,
according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.
25With the faithful you show yourself faithful.
With the innocent[a] you show yourself innocent.[b] 26With the pure you show yourself pure.
And with the crooked you show yourself
tortuous.
27For you will save a humble
people,
but the eyes of the proud you will bring low.
28For you light my lamp. YHWH my God lights up my
darkness.
29For by you, I advance through a troop.
By my God, I leap over a wall.
30As for God, his way is perfect.
The word of YHWH is pure.
He is a shield to all those who take refuge in
him.
31For who is God, except YHWH?
Who is a rock, besides our
God, 32the God who girds me with strength, and makes my way blameless?
33He makes my feet like deer's feet,
and sets me on my high
places.
34He teaches my hands to war, so that my arms bend a bow of bronze.
35You have also given me the shield of your
salvation,
and your right hand holds
me up,
and your help has made me great.
36You have enlarged my steps under me,
My feet have not slipped.
37I pursued my enemies and overtook them,
and I did not turn back until they were destroyed.
38I struck them through, so that they did not rise.
They fell beneath my feet.
39For you have equipped me with strength for the battle.
You have subdued under me those who rose up
against me.
40You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, that I might cut off those
who hate me.
41They cried, but there was none to save;
even to YHWH, but he did not answer them.

[a]18:25 2Samuel 22:26 LXX Mss. MT adds "man"

[b]18:25 LXX. MT reads "blameless...blameless"

42 Then I ground them as fine as the dust on the surface of a path.[a]
Like the mud in the streets, I trampled[b] them.
43 You have delivered me from the strivings of the people.
You have made me the head of the nations.
A people whom I have not known shall serve me; 44 as soon as they hear of me they obey me. Foreigners come cringing to me;
45 they are not bound in chains.[c] 46 YHWH lives; and blessed be my rock.
Exalted be the God of my
salvation,
47 even the God who executes vengeance for me, and subdues peoples under
me.
48 He rescues me from my enemies.
Yes, you lift me up above those who rise up
against me.
You deliver me from the violent man.
49 Therefore I will praise you, YHWH, among the nations,
and will sing praises to your name.[d]
50 He gives great deliverance to his king,
and shows loving kindness to his anointed, to David and to his descendants, until forever.

Psalm 19

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

1 The heavens declare the glory of
God.
The expanse shows his handiwork.
2 Day after day they pour forth
speech,
and night after night they display knowledge.
3 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.
4 Their voice[e] has gone out to all
the earth,
their words to the farthest
part of the world.
In them he has set a tent for the

7 YHWH's Law is perfect, restoring the soul.
YHWH's testimony is sure,

8 YHWH's precepts are right, rejoicing the heart.
YHWH's commandment is

9 The fear of YHWH is clean,

YHWH's ordinances are true,

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yes, than much fine gold;
sweeter also than honey and the extract of the 11 Moreover by them is your servant warned.

In keeping them there is great reward.
12 Who can discern his errors?
Forgive me from hidden errors.

13 Keep back your servant also from presumptuous
sins.
Let them not have dominion over me.
Then I will be upright.
I will be blameless and innocent of great transgression.
14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my
heart
be acceptable in your sight always,[a] YHWH, my rock[b] and my redeemer.

Psalm 20

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

1 May YHWH answer you in the day of trouble.
May the name of the God of Jacob set you up on high.
2 He will send you help from the sanctuary,
and give you support from
Zion.
3 He will remember all your offerings,
and accept your burnt
sacrifice.
Selah.
4 He will grant you your heart's desire,
and fulfill all your plans.
5 We will triumph in your
salvation.
In the name of our God, we will set up our banners.

May YHWH grant all your requests.

anointed.
He will answer him from his holy heaven,
with a mighty act[a] of deliverance by his right hand.
[7]Some trust in chariots, and some in horses,
but we trust the name of YHWH our God.
[8]They are bowed down and fallen, but we rise up, and stand upright.
[9]Save, YHWH.
Let the King answer us when we call.

Psalm 21

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

[1]The king rejoices in your strength, YHWH.
How greatly he rejoices in your salvation.
[2]You have given him his heart's desire,
and have not withheld the request of his lips.
Selah.
[3]For you meet him with the blessings of goodness.
You set a crown of fine gold on his head.
[4]He asked life of you, you gave it
to him,
even length of days forever
and ever.
[5]His glory is great in your
salvation.
You lay honor and majesty
on him.
[6]For you make him most blessed
forever.
You make him glad with joy
in your presence.
[7]For the king trusts in YHWH.
Through the loving kindness of the Most High, he shall not be moved.
[8]Your hand will find out all of your enemies.
Your right hand will find all[b] those who hate you.
[9]You will make them as a fiery furnace in the time of your anger.
YHWH will swallow them up in his wrath.
The fire shall devour them.
[10]You will destroy their descendants from the
earth,
their posterity from among the descendants of
Adam.
[11]Though they intend evil against
you,
devising a wicked scheme,
they will not succeed.
[12]For you will make them turn their back, when you aim drawn bows
at their face.
[13]Be exalted, YHWH, in your
strength,
so we will sing and praise your power.

Psalm by David.

[1]My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?[a]
Why are you so far from helping me, and from the words of my groaning?
[2]My God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer;
in the night season, and am not silent.
[3]But you are holy,
you who inhabit the praises of Israel.
[4]Our fathers trusted in you.
They trusted, and you delivered them.
[5]They cried to you, and escaped.
They trusted in you, and were not put to shame.
[6]But I am a worm, and no man; scorned by people and despised by the
people.
[7]All those who see me mock me.
They insult me with their lips. They shake their heads,[b] saying, [8]"He trusts in YHWH;
let him deliver him.[c] Let him rescue him, since he delights in him."
[9]But you brought me out of the
womb.
You made me trust at my mother's breasts.
[10]I was cast on you from my mother's womb.
You are my God since my mother bore me.
[11]Do not be far from me, for trouble is near.
For there is none to help.
[12]Many bulls have surrounded me.
Mighty ones of Bashan have encircled me.
[13]They open their mouths wide
against me,
like a lion[d] tearing prey and roaring.
[14]I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint.
My heart is like wax;
it is melted within me.
[15]My strength is dried up like a potsherd,
and my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth;[e]
and you have brought me into the dust of death.

have enclosed me.

[2]When evildoers came at me to eat up my flesh,
even my adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.
[3]Though an army is deployed
against me,
my heart shall not fear.
Though war should rise against
me,
even then I will be confident.
[4]One thing I have asked of YHWH, that I will seek after,
that I may dwell in the house of YHWH all the days of my life,
to see YHWH's beauty,
and to inquire in his temple.
[5]For in the day of trouble he will keep me secretly in his pavilion.
In the covert of his tabernacle he will hide
me.
He will lift me up on a rock.
[6]Now my head will be lifted up above my enemies
around me.
I will offer sacrifices of joy in his tent.
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to YHWH.

[7]Hear, YHWH, when I cry with my
voice.
Have mercy also on me, and
answer me.
[8]My heart said of you, "Seek his face." Your face, YHWH, I will seek."
[9]Do not hide your face from me.
Do not put your servant away in anger.
You have been my help.
Do not abandon me, neither forsake me, God of my salvation.
[10]When my father and my mother forsake me,
then YHWH will take me up.
[11]Teach me your way, YHWH.
Lead me in a straight path, because of my
enemies.
[12]Do not deliver me over to the desire of my
adversaries,

[a] 26:11 LXX(AL) cf. BHS add "YHWH" for false witnesses have risen up against me,

such as breathe out violence.
13 I am still confident of this:
I will see the goodness of YHWH in the land of the living.
14 Wait for YHWH.
Be strong, and let your heart take courage.
Yes, wait for YHWH.

Psalm 28

By David.

1 To you, YHWH, I call.
My rock, do not be deaf to
me;
lest, if you are silent to me,
I would become like those who go down into the pit.
2 Hear[a] the voice of my petitions, when I cry to you,
when I lift up my hands toward your Most Holy Place.
3 Do not draw me away with the
wicked,
with evildoers who speak peace with their neighbors,
but mischief is in their hearts.
4 Give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings.
Give them according to the operation of their
hands.
Bring back on them what they deserve.
5 Because they do not regard the works of YHWH, nor the operation of his
hands,
he will break them down and not build them up.

6 Blessed be YHWH,
because he has heard the voice of my petitions.
7 YHWH is my strength and my shield.
My heart has trusted in him, and I am helped.
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices.
With my song I will thank
him.
8 YHWH is the strength of his
people.
He is a stronghold of salvation to his
anointed.
9 Save your people,
and bless your inheritance.
Be their shepherd also,
and bear them up forever.

Psalm 29

A Psalm by David.

1 Ascribe to YHWH, you sons of the mighty,
ascribe to YHWH glory and
strength.

[a] 28:2 LXX(L) cf. BHS adds "YHWH"

[2]Ascribe to YHWH the glory due to his name.
Worship YHWH in holy array.

[3]The voice of YHWH is on the waters.
The God of glory[a] thunders, even YHWH on many
waters.
[4]The voice of YHWH is powerful.
The voice of YHWH is full of majesty.
[5]The voice of YHWH breaks the cedars.
Yes, YHWH breaks in pieces
the cedars of Lebanon.
[6]He makes them also to skip like a calf;
Lebanon and Sirion like a young, wild ox.
[7]The voice of YHWH strikes with flashes of lightning.
[8]The voice of YHWH shakes the wilderness.
YHWH shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
[9]The voice of YHWH makes the large trees[b] tremble, and strips the forests bare.
In his temple everything says, “Glory.”

[10]YHWH sat enthroned at the Flood.
Yes, YHWH sits as King
forever.
[11]YHWH will give strength to his
people.
YHWH will bless his people with peace.

Psalm 30

A Psalm. A Song for the Dedication of the Temple. By David.

[1]I will extol you, YHWH, for you have raised me up,
and have not made my foes to rejoice over me.
[2]YHWH my God, I cried to you, and you have healed me.
[3]YHWH, you have brought up my soul from Sheol.
You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.
[4]Sing praise to YHWH, you his faithful ones.
Give thanks to his holy
name.
[5]For his anger is but for a moment.[c]
His favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping may stay for the night, but joy comes in the
morning.
[6]As for me, I said in my prosperity,
“I shall never be moved.”
[7]You, YHWH, when you favored me, made my mountain stand strong;
but when you hid your face,
I was troubled.
[8]I cried to you, YHWH.

[a]29:3 El Hakabod
[b]29:9 Vocalization BHS. MT “the deer”
[c]30:5 LXX Syr read “is in his wrath”

To YHWH[a] I made petition: [9]"What profit is there in my destruction, if I go down to the pit?
Shall the dust praise you?
Shall it declare your truth?
[10]Hear, YHWH, and have mercy on
me.
YHWH, be my helper."
[11]You have turned my mourning into dancing for me.
You have removed my sackcloth, and clothed
me with gladness,
[12]To the end that my heart may sing praise to you, and not be silent.
YHWH my God, I will give thanks to you forever.

Psalm 31

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

[1]In you, YHWH, I take refuge.
Let me never be disappointed.
Deliver me in your
righteousness.
[2]Bow down your ear to me.
Deliver me speedily.
Be to me a strong rock, a house of defense to save
me.
[3]For you are my rock and my fortress,
therefore for your name's sake[b] lead me and guide me.
[4]Pluck me out of the net that they have laid secretly for
me,
for you are my stronghold.
[5]Into your hands I commit my spirit.[c]
You redeem me, YHWH,
God of truth.[d]
[6]I hate those who regard lying vanities,
but I trust in YHWH.
[7]I will be glad and rejoice in your
loving kindness,
for you have seen my
affliction.
You have known my soul in adversities.
[8]You have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy.
You have set my feet in a large place.
[9]Have mercy on me, YHWH, for I am in distress.
My eye, my soul, and my body waste away with grief.
[10]For my life is spent with sorrow, my years with sighing.
My strength fails because of my affliction,[e]
and my bones waste away.
[11]Because of all my adversaries I have become utterly contemptible to my neighbors,
A fear to my acquaintances.

Those who saw me on the street fled from me.
12I am forgotten from their hearts like a dead man.
I am like broken pottery.
13For I have heard the slander of many, terror on every side,
while they conspire together
against me,
they plot to take away my
life.
14But I trust in you, YHWH.
I said, "You are my God."
15My times are in your hand.
Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute
me.
16Make your face to shine on your

Save me in your loving kindness.
17Let me not be disappointed, YHWH, for I have called on you.
Let the wicked be disappointed.
Let them be silent in Sheol.
18Let the lying lips be mute, which speak against the righteous insolently, with pride and
contempt.
19Oh how great is your goodness,[a] which you have stored up for those who fear
you,
which you have worked for those who take refuge
in you,
before the descendants of
Adam.
20In the shelter of your presence you will hide them from the plotting of
man.
You will keep them secretly in a dwelling away from the strife of tongues.
21Praise be to YHWH, for he has shown me his marvelous loving kindness in a besieged
city.
22As for me, I said in my haste, "I am cut off from before

Nevertheless you heard the voice of my petitions
when I cried to you.
23Oh love YHWH, all you his faithful ones.
YHWH preserves the faithful,
and fully recompenses him who behaves arrogantly.
24Be strong, and let your heart take courage,
all you who hope in YHWH.

Psalm 32

By David. A contemplative psalm.

1Happy are those whose transgressions are forgiven,
and[b] whose sins are covered.

[a]31:19 Hebrew Mss LXX cf. BHS add "YHWH"

[b]32:1 LXX. MT lacks "and"

[2]Happy is the one[a] to whom YHWH does not charge with sin, in whose spirit there is no deceit.[b] [3]When I kept silence, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day
long.
[4]For day and night your hand was heavy on me to my destruction[c] in the heat of summer.
Selah.
[5]I acknowledged my sin to you.
I did not hide my iniquity.
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to
YHWH,"
and you forgave the iniquity of my sin.
Selah.
[6]For this, let everyone who is faithful pray to you in a time when you may be found.
Surely when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach to him.
[7]You are my hiding place.
You will preserve me from trouble.
You will surround me with songs of deliverance.
Selah.
[8]I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go.
I will counsel you with my eye on you.
[9]Do not be like the horse, or like the mule, which have no understanding,
who are controlled by bit and bridle, or else they will not come near to
you.
[10]Many sorrows come to the
wicked,
but loving kindness shall surround him who trusts in YHWH.
[11]Be glad in YHWH, and rejoice, you righteous.
Shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart.

Psalm 33

[1]Rejoice in YHWH, you righteous.
Praise is fitting for the
upright.
[2]Give thanks to YHWH with the lyre.
Sing praises to him with the harp of ten strings.
[3]Sing to him a new song.
Play skillfully with a shout of joy.
[4]For the word of YHWH is right.
All his work is done in faithfulness.
[5]He loves righteousness and
justice.
The earth is full of the loving kindness of
YHWH.
[6]By the word of YHWH the heavens were made;

[a]32:2 Heb. adam. BDB 130: man, human being, anyone
[b]32:2 Romans 4:7-8
[c]32:4 LXX Hier. MT reads "me. My strength was sapped" and all their host by the breath of his

mouth.
[7]He gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap.
He lays up the deeps in storehouses.
[8]Let all the earth fear YHWH.
Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of
him.
[9]For he spoke, and it was done.
He commanded, and it stood firm.
[10]YHWH nullifies the counsel of
the nations.
He makes the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect.
[11]The counsel of YHWH stands fast
forever,
the thoughts of his heart to all generations.
[12]Blessed is the nation whose God is YHWH,
the people whom he has chosen for his own
inheritance.
[13]YHWH looks from heaven.
He sees all the descendants of Adam.
[14]From the place of his habitation he looks out on all the inhabitants of the
earth,
[15]he who fashions all of their hearts;
and he considers all of their works.
[16]There is no king saved by the multitude of an army.
A mighty man is not delivered by great
strength.
[17]A horse is a vain thing for safety, neither does he deliver any by his great power.
[18]Look, YHWH's eye is on those who fear him,
on those who hope in his
loving kindness;
[19]to deliver their soul from
death,
to keep them alive in famine.
[20]Our soul waits for YHWH.
He is our help and our shield.
[21]For our heart rejoices in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.
[22]Let your loving kindness be on us, YHWH,
since we have hoped in you.

Psalm 34

By David; when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

[1]I will bless YHWH at all times.
His praise will always be in
my mouth.

[2]My soul shall boast in YHWH.
The humble shall hear of it,
and be glad.

[3]Oh magnify YHWH with me.
Let us exalt his name
together.

[4]I sought YHWH, and he answered
me,
and delivered me from all my fears.

[5]They looked to him and were radiant,

and their faces[a] are not ashamed.

[6]This poor man cried, and YHWH heard him,
and saved him out of all his troubles.

[7]The angel of YHWH encamps around those who fear
him,
and delivers them.

[8]Oh taste and see that YHWH is
good.
Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.

[9]Oh fear YHWH, you his holy
ones,
for there is no lack with those who fear him.

[10]The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger, but those who seek YHWH shall not lack any good thing.

[11]Come, you children, listen to me.
I will teach you the fear of
YHWH.

[12]Who is someone who desires
life,
and loves many days, that he may see good?

[13]Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking lies.

[14]Turn away from evil, and do
good.
Seek peace, and pursue it.

[15]The eyes of YHWH are toward the righteous.
His ears listen to their cry.

[16]YHWH's face is against those who do evil,[b]
to cut off the memory of them from the earth.

[17]The righteous[c] cry out, and YHWH hears,
and delivers them out of all their troubles.

[18]YHWH is near to those who have a broken heart, and saves those who have a crushed spirit.

[19]Many are the afflictions of the
righteous,
but YHWH delivers him out of them all.

[20]He[d] protects all of his bones.
Not one of them is broken.[e]

[21]Evil shall kill the wicked.

Psalm 35

By David.

1 Contend, YHWH, with those who contend with me.
Fight against those who fight
against me.
2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for my help.
3 Brandish the spear and block those who pursue me.
Tell my soul, "I am your
salvation."
4 Let those who seek after my soul be disappointed and brought to dishonor.
Let those who plot my ruin be turned back and confounded.
5 Let them be as chaff before the
wind,
YHWH's angel driving them
on.
6 Let their way be dark and slippery,
YHWH's angel pursuing
them.
7 For without cause they have hidden their net in a pit for me.
Without cause they have dug a pit for my soul.
8 Let destruction come on him unawares.
Let his net that he has hidden catch himself.
Let him fall into that
destruction.

9 My soul shall be joyful in YHWH.
It shall rejoice in his
salvation.
10 All my bones shall say, "YHWH, who is like you,
who delivers the poor from him who is too strong
for him;
yes, the poor and the needy from him who robs
him?"
11 Unrighteous witnesses rise up.
They ask me about things that I do not know about.
12 They reward me evil for good,
to the bereaving of my soul.

13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth.
I afflicted my soul with fasting;
and my prayer returned into my own bosom.
14 I behaved myself as though it had been my friend or my brother.
I bowed down mourning, as one who mourns his mother.
15 But in my adversity, they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together.
The attackers gathered themselves together
against me, and I did not know it.
They tore at me, and did not cease.

16 When I tripped, they mocked me relentlessly;[a] they gnashed their teeth at
me.
17 YHWH,[b] how long will you look on?
Rescue my soul from their
destruction,
my precious life from the lions.
18 I will give you thanks in the great assembly.
I will praise you among many people.
19 Do not let those who are my enemies wrongfully
rejoice over me;
neither let those who hate me without a cause[c]
and wink their eyes.
20 For they do not speak peace, but they devise deceitful words against those who are quiet in the
land.
21 Yes, they opened their mouth wide against me.
They said, "Aha. Aha. Our eye has seen it."
22 You have seen it, YHWH. Do not keep silent.
YHWH,[d] do not be far from
me.
23 Wake up. Rise up to defend me, my God.
My Lord, contend for me.
24 Vindicate me, YHWH my God, according to your
righteousness.
Do not let them gloat over
me.
25 Do not let them say in their heart, "Aha. Aha.[e] Our desire."
Do not let them say, "We have swallowed him
up."
26 Let them be put to shame and confounded together
who rejoice at my calamity.
Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor who magnify themselves against me.

27 Let them shout for joy and be glad, who favor my righteous cause.
And let them say continually, "YHWH
be magnified,
who delights in the peace[f] of his servant."
28 My tongue shall talk about your righteousness and about your praise all day long.

[1]Transgression speaks to the wicked within his[a]
heart.
There is no fear of God before his eyes.[b] [2]For he flatters himself in his own eyes,
too much to detect and hate his sin.
[3]The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit.
He has ceased to be wise and to do good.
[4]He plots iniquity on his bed.
He sets himself in a way that is not good.
He doesn't abhor evil.

[5]Your loving kindness, YHWH, is in the heavens.
Your faithfulness reaches to
the skies.
[6]Your righteousness is like the mountains of God.
Your judgments are like a great deep.
YHWH, you preserve man
and animal.
[7]How precious is your loving kindness, God.
The descendants of Adam take refuge under the shadow of your wings.
[8]They shall be abundantly satisfied with the abundance of your house.
You will make them drink of the river of your pleasures.
[9]For with you is the spring of life.
In your light shall we see light.

[10]Oh continue your loving kindness to those who your righteousness to the upright in heart.

[11]Do not let the foot of pride come

Do not let the hand of the wicked drive me away.
[12]There evildoers are fallen.
They are thrust down, and

Psalm 37

By David.

[1]Do not fret because of evildoers, neither be envious against those who work
unrighteousness.
[2]For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither like the green herb.

[3]Trust in YHWH, and do good.
Dwell in the land, and enjoy safe pasture.
[4]Also delight yourself in YHWH, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

[5]Commit your way to YHWH.
Trust also in him, and he will act.

6 And he will make your righteousness go forth
as the light,
and your justice as the noonday.

7 Rest in YHWH, and wait patiently
for him.
Do not fret because of him who prospers in his
way,
because of the man who makes wicked plots happen.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake
wrath.
Do not fret, it leads only to evildoing.
9 For evildoers shall be cut off, but those who wait for YHWH shall inherit the
land.

10 For yet a little while, and the wicked will be no
more.
Yes, though you look for his place, he isn't there.
11 But the humble shall inherit the
land,
and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked plots against the just,
and gnashes at him with his teeth.
13 YHWH[a] will laugh at him, for he sees that his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow,
to cast down the poor and
needy,
to kill those who are upright in the way.
15 Their sword shall enter into their own heart.
Their bows shall be broken.
16 Better is a little that the righteous has,
than the abundance of many
wicked.
17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, but YHWH upholds the
righteous.

18 YHWH knows the days of the perfect.
Their inheritance shall be
forever.
19 They shall not be disappointed in the time of evil.
In the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish.
The enemies of YHWH shall be like the burning of an oven.[b]
They will vanish—
vanish like smoke.

21 The wicked borrow, and do not pay back, but the righteous give generously.

[a] 37:13 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"

[b] 37:20 DSS, reading "like the burning of an oven." MT reads "like glory among the pastures"

22 For such as are blessed by him shall inherit the land.
Those who are cursed by him shall be cut off.

23 The steps of a man are established by YHWH, and he delights in his way.
24 Though he stumble, he shall not fall,
for YHWH holds him up with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old,
yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken,
nor his children begging for
bread.
26 All day long he deals graciously and lends,
and his offspring are a blessing.

27 Turn away from evil, and do
good.
Live securely forever.
28 For YHWH loves justice, and doesn't forsake his faithful ones.
They are preserved forever, but the children of the wicked shall be cut
off.
29 The righteous shall inherit the
land,
and live in it forever.

30 The mouth of the righteous talks of wisdom.
His tongue speaks justice.

31 The law of his God is in his
heart.
None of his steps shall slide.

32 The wicked watches the
righteous,
and seeks to kill him.
33 YHWH will not leave him in his hand,
nor condemn him when he is judged.

34 Wait for YHWH, and keep his
way,
and he will exalt you to inherit the land.
When the wicked are cut off,
you shall see it.

35 I have seen the wicked wielding great power, and towering like a cedar of Lebanon.[a] 36 And I passed by[b], and look, he was not.
And I looked for him, but he could not be found.

37 Observe the blameless, and see the upright,
for there is a future for the man of peace.
38 As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together.
The future of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 The[c] salvation of the righteous is
from YHWH.

[a] 37:35 LXX. MT reads "and spreading himself like a native green tree"

[b] 37:36 LXX Syr Hier. MT reads "And he passed by"

[c] 37:39 Hebrew Mss. MT adds "and"

He is their stronghold in the time of trouble.
40 And YHWH helps them, and rescues them.
He rescues them from the wicked, and saves them,
Because they have taken refuge in him.

Psalm 38

A Psalm by David, for a memorial.

1 YHWH, do not rebuke me in your wrath, neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.
2 For your arrows have pierced me, your hand presses hard on me.
3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation, neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin.
4 For my iniquities have gone over my head.
As a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me.
5 My wounds are loathsome and corrupt, because of my foolishness.
6 I am pained and bowed down greatly.
I go mourning all day long.
7 For my waist is filled with burning.
There is no soundness in my flesh.
8 I am faint and severely bruised.
I have groaned by reason of the anguish of my heart.
9 YHWH,[a] all my desire is before you.
My groaning is not hidden from you.
10 My heart throbs.
My strength fails me.
As for the light of my eyes, it has also left me.
11 My loved ones and my friends keep their distance because of my affliction.
My kinsmen stand far away.
12 They also who seek after my life lay snares.
Those who seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and meditate deceits all day long.
13 But I, as a deaf man, do not hear.
I am as a mute man who doesn't open his mouth.
14 Yes, I am as a man who doesn't hear, in whose mouth are no reproofs.
15 For in you, YHWH, do I hope.
You will answer, YHWH[b] my God.
16 For I said, "Do not let them[c] gloat over me, or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips."

[a] 38:9 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"
[b] 38:15 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"
[c] 38:16 LXX adds "my enemy," possibly lost in MT from homoioteleuton: y-y 17For I am ready to fall.

My pain is continually
before me.
18Yes, I confess my iniquity.
I am anxious because of my
sin.
19But my enemies, for no reason,[a] are many.
Those who hate me wrongfully are numerous.
20They who also render evil for good are adversaries to
me, because I follow what is
good.
21Do not forsake me, YHWH.
My God, do not be far from
me.
22Hurry to help me,
YHWH,[b] my salvation.

Psalm 39

For the Chief Musician. For Jeduthun. A Psalm by David.

1I said, "I will watch my ways, so that I do not sin with my tongue.
I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me."
2I was mute with silence.
I held my peace, even from
good.
My sorrow was stirred.
3My heart was hot within me.
While I meditated, the fire burned:
I spoke with my tongue:
4"YHWH, show me my end, what is the measure of my
days.
Let me know how frail I am.
5Look, you have made my days handbreadths.
My lifetime is as nothing before you.
Surely every man stands as a breath."
Selah.
6"Surely a person walks like a shadow.
Surely he heaps up vain things of wealth,[c]
and doesn't know who will gather them.
7And now, YHWH,[d] what do I wait for?
My hope is in you.
8Deliver me from all my
transgressions.
Do not make me the taunt of fools.
9I was mute.
I did not open my mouth,
because you did it.
10Remove your scourge away from
me.
I am overcome by the blow of your hand.
11When you rebuke and correct man for iniquity,
You consume his wealth like a moth.

12“Hear my prayer, YHWH, and

Psalm 40

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

1I waited patiently for YHWH, and he turned to me, and heard my cry.
2He also brought me up out of a pit of tumult,
out of the miry clay;
and he set my feet on a rock, making my steps secure.
3And he has put a new song in my mouth, even praise to our God.
Many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in
YHWH.
4Blessed is the man who makes YHWH his trust, and doesn’t respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.
5Many, YHWH, my God, are the wonderful works
which you have done, and your thoughts which are toward us.
They can’t be declared back to
you.
If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.
6Sacrifice and offering you did not
desire,
but a body[a] you prepared[b] for me.
Whole burnt offering and sin offering you did not require.[c] 7Then I said, “Look, I have come.
It is written about me in the scroll of a book;
8to do your will, O God, [d] I desired.
And your Law is within my heart.

[a]40:6 LXX Mss, reading soma de = ugewiyyah וגויה “but a body,” see, e.g., Genesis 47:18 and Daniel 10:6 where LXX soma translates Hebrew gewiyyah. MT has misread as oznayim… אזנים “ears,” a graphic confusion in a damaged scroll under the influence of the word אז later in the text

[d]40:8 LXX(pap. Leipzig 39, IVth cent.) Ms Syr, reading theos = אלהים, cf. Psalm 36:7. MT reads “my God,” in reminiscence of v.5. Hebrews 10:5-7

9 I have proclaimed glad news of righteousness in the great assembly.
Look, I will not seal my lips,
YHWH, you know.
10 I have not hidden your righteousness within my heart.
I have declared your faithfulness and your
salvation.
I have not concealed your loving kindness and your truth from the great assembly.
11 Do not withhold your tender mercies from me,
YHWH.
Let your loving kindness and your truth continually preserve me.
12 For innumerable evils have surrounded me.
My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up.
They are more than the hairs of
my head.
My heart has failed me.
13 Be pleased, YHWH, to deliver
me.
Hurry to help me, YHWH.
14 Let them be put to shame and confounded together
who seek after my soul to destroy it.
Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor who delight in my hurt.
15 Let them be desolate by reason of their shame that tell me, "Aha. Aha." 16 Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in
you.
Let such as love your salvation say continually, "Let YHWH be exalted."
17 But I am poor and needy.
May YHWH[a] think about me.
You are my help and my deliverer.
Do not delay, my God.

Psalm 41

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

1 Blessed is he who considers the poor and needy.[b] YHWH will deliver him in the day of evil.
2 YHWH will protect him, and keep him alive.
He shall be blessed on the
earth,
and he will not surrender him to the will of his enemies.
3 YHWH will sustain him on his sickbed,
and restore him from his bed of illness.
4 I said, "YHWH, have mercy on
me.
Heal me, for I have sinned
against you."

[a] 40:17 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"

[b] 41:1 LXX Tg. MT lacks "and needy" from sight confusion in Paleo-Hebrew: bywn-bywm

[5]My enemies speak evil against
me:
"When will he die, and his name perish?"
[6]If he comes to see me, he speaks falsehood.
His heart gathers iniquity to itself.
When he goes abroad, he tells it.
[7]All who hate me whisper together
against me.
They imagine the worst for
me.
[8]"A wicked thing is poured out on him;[a] and he who lies down will not rise again."
[9]Even my own close friend, in whom I trusted,
who ate my bread,
has lifted up his heel against me.[b]

[10]But you, YHWH, have mercy on me, and raise me up, that I may repay them.
[11]By this I know that you delight
in me,
because my enemy doesn't triumph over me.
[12]As for me, you uphold me in my
integrity,
and set me in your presence
forever.

[13]Blessed be YHWH, the God of
Israel,
from everlasting and to everlasting.
Amen and amen.

BOOK II

Psalm 42

For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by the sons of Korah.

[1]As the deer pants for the water brooks,
so my soul pants after you,
God.[c] [2]My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When shall I come and appear before God?
[3]My tears have been my food day and night,
while they continually ask me, "Where is your
God?" [4]These things I remember, and pour out my soul
within me,
how I used to go in the tent of the Majestic One,[d] to the house of God,
with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a holy day.
[5]Why are you in despair, my soul?
Why are you disturbed within me? Hope in

[a]41:8 LXX reads "me"
[b]41:9 John 13:18
[c]42:1 MT LXX. Hebrew Mss Tg Syr read "YHWH" [d]42:4 Or, "tent of the Mighty One." Cf. LXX Syr Vg. MT reads "go with the throng I was walking with"

God. For I will again give him thanks, my saving presence and my God.[a] [6]My soul is in despair within me.
Therefore I remember you from the land of the Jordan,
the heights of Hermon, from the hill Mizar.
[7]Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls.
All your breakers and waves
have swept over me.

[8]YHWH will command his loving kindness in the daytime.
In the night his song shall be
with me:
a prayer to the God of my
life.
[9]I will ask God, my Rock, "Why have you forgotten
me?
Why do I go mourning
because of the oppression of the
enemy?"
[10]As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries taunt
me,
while they continually ask me, "Where is your
God?" [11]Why are you in despair, my
soul?
Why are you disturbed
within me?
Hope in God. For I will again give him thanks,
my saving presence and my God.

Psalm 43

[1]Vindicate me, God, and plead my cause against a faithless nation.
Oh, deliver me from the deceitful and unjust
man.
[2]For you, God, are my strength.[b] Why have you rejected
me?
Why do I go mourning
because of the oppression of the
enemy?
[3]Oh, send out your light and your truth.
Let them lead me.
Let them bring me to your holy mountain,
To your tents.
[4]Then I will go to the altar of God, to God, my exceeding joy.
I will praise you on the harp, God,
my God.
[5]Why are you in despair, my soul?
Why are you disturbed
within me?
Hope in God.
For I will again give him thanks, my saving presence and my God.

Psalm 44

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah. A contemplative psalm.

[1]We have heard with our ears,
God;
our fathers have told us, what work you did in their
days,
in the days of old.
[2]You drove out the nations with your hand,
but you planted them.
You afflicted the peoples,
but you spread them abroad.
[3]For they did not get the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm
save them;
but your right hand, and your arm, and the light of your
face,
because you were favorable to them.
[4]You are my King, my God, who commands[a] victories for Jacob.
[5]Through you we will push back our adversaries.
Through your name we will trample down those who rise up against us.
[6]For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save
me.
[7]But you have saved us from our
adversaries,
and have shamed those who hate us.
[8]In God we have made our boast all day long,
we will give thanks to your name forever.
Selah.

[9]But now you rejected us, and brought us to dishonor,
and do not go out with our armies.
[10]You make us turn back from the adversary.
Those who hate us take spoil
for themselves.
[11]You have made us like sheep for
food,
and have scattered us among
the nations.
[12]You sell your people for nothing, and have gained nothing from their sale.
[13]You make us the taunt of our neighbors,
a scoffing and a derision to those who are around
us.
[14]You make us a byword among
the nations,
a shaking of the head among
the peoples.
[15]All day long my dishonor is before me,
and shame covers my face, [16]At the taunt of one who reproaches and verbally abuses,
because of the enemy and the avenger.

[a]44:4 LXX Syr. MT has a different word division, and reads “my King, God. Command”

17 All this has come on us, yet have we not forgotten you,
Neither have we been false to your covenant.
18 Our heart has not turned back, neither have our steps strayed from your path, 19 Though you have crushed us in the haunt of jackals, and covered us with the shadow of death.
20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or spread forth our hands to a strange god;
21 won't God search this out?
For he knows the secrets of the heart.
22 For your sake we are killed all day long.
We are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.[a] 23 Wake up.
Why do you sleep, YHWH[b]?
Arise.
Do not reject us forever.
24 Why do you hide your face, and forget our affliction and our oppression?
25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust.
Our body cleaves to the earth.
26 Rise up to help us.
Redeem us for your loving kindness' sake.

Psalm 45

For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies." A contemplation by the sons of Korah. A wedding song.

1 My heart overflows with a noble theme.
I recite my verses for the king.
My tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer.
2 You are the most handsome of the sons of men.
Grace has anointed your lips, therefore God has blessed you forever.
3 Gird your sword on your thigh, mighty one:
your splendor and your majesty.
4 In your majesty ride on victoriously on behalf of truth, humility, and righteousness.
Let your right hand display awesome deeds.
5 Your arrows are sharp.[c]
The nations fall under you, with arrows in the heart of the king's enemies.
6 Your throne, God, is forever and ever.
A scepter of equity is the scepter of your kingdom.
7 You have loved righteousness, and hated wickedness.

[a] 44:22 Romans 8:36
[b] 44:23 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"
[c] 45:5 LXX cf. BHS adds "Mighty One"

Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your companions.[a] 8 All your garments smell like myrrh and aloes and[b] cassia.
Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad.
9 Kings' daughters are among your honorable women.
At your right hand the queen stands in gold of Ophir.[c] 10 Listen, daughter, consider, and turn your ear.
Forget your own people, and also your father's
house.
11 So the king will desire your beauty,
honor him, for he is your
lord.
12 The daughter of Tyre comes with a gift.
The rich among the people will seek your favor.
13 The princess inside is all glorious.
Her clothing is interwoven with gold.
14 She shall be led to the king in embroidered work.
The virgins, her companions who follow her, shall be brought to you.
15 With gladness and rejoicing they shall be led.
They shall enter into the king's palace.
16 Your sons will take the place of your fathers.
You shall make them princes
in all the earth.
17 I will make your name to be remembered in all
generations.
Therefore the peoples shall give you thanks
forever and ever.

Psalm 46

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah. According to Alamoth.[d]

1 God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
2 Therefore we won't be afraid, though the earth
changes,
though the mountains are shaken into the heart of the seas;
3 though its waters roar and are troubled,
though the mountains
tremble with their swelling.
Selah.

4 There is a river, the streams of which make the city of God glad,

[a] 45:6-7 Hebrews 1:8-9 [b] 45:8 Hebrew Mss LXX Tg Syr Vg. MT lacks "and" the holy place of the tents of the Most High.

5God is in her midst. She shall not be moved.
God will help her at dawn.
6The nations raged. The kingdoms were moved.
He lifted his voice, and the earth melted.
7YHWH of hosts is with us.
The God of Jacob is our refuge.
Selah.

8Come, see YHWH's works, what desolations he has made in the earth.
9He makes wars cease throughout
the earth.
He breaks the bow, and shatters the spear.
He burns the chariots in the
fire.
10"Be still, and know that I am
God.
I will be exalted among the
nations.
I will be exalted in the
earth."
11YHWH of hosts is with us.
The God of Jacob is our refuge.
Selah.

Psalm 47

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

1Oh clap your hands, all you
nations.
Shout to God with the voice of triumph.
2For YHWH Most High is awesome.
He is a great King over all
the earth.
3He subdues nations under us, and peoples under our feet.
4He chooses our inheritance for us, the glory of Jacob whom he loved.
Selah.
5God has gone up with a shout, YHWH with the sound of a trumpet.
6Sing praise to God, sing praises.
Sing praises to our King, sing praises.
7For God is the King of all the
earth.
Sing praises with
understanding.
8God reigns over the nations.
God sits on his holy throne.
9The princes of the peoples are gathered together,
the people of the God of Abraham.
For the shields of the earth belong to God.
He is greatly exalted.

Psalm 48

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

1Great is YHWH, and greatly to be praised,
in the city of our God, in his holy mountain.
2Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth,
is Mount Zion, in the far north,
the city of the great King.
3God has shown himself in her citadels as a refuge.

4For, look, the kings assembled themselves,
they passed by together.
5They saw it, then they were amazed.
They were dismayed.
They hurried away.
6Trembling took hold of them
there,
pain, as of a woman in travail.
7With the east wind, you break the ships of Tarshish.
8As we have heard, so we have seen, in the city of YHWH of hosts, in the city of our
God.
God will establish it forever.
Selah.
9We have thought about your loving kindness, God, in the midst of your temple.
10As is your name, God, so is your praise to the farthest parts of the
earth.
Your right hand is full of
righteousness.
11Let Mount Zion be glad.
Let the daughters of Judah
rejoice,
Because of your judgments.[a] 12Walk about Zion, and go around her.
Number its towers.
13Consider her defenses.
Examine her palaces, that you may tell it to the next generation.
14For this God is our God forever and ever.[b]
He will guide us forever.[c]

Psalm 49

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by the sons of Korah.

1Hear this, all you peoples.
Listen, all you inhabitants of the world, 2both low and high,
rich and poor together.
3My mouth will speak words of
wisdom.
My heart shall utter
understanding.
4I will incline my ear to a proverb.
I will open my riddle on the harp.
5Why should I fear in the days of evil,
when the iniquity of those who deceive me surrounds me?
6They trust in their wealth, and boast in the multitude of their riches.
7Truly[d] these cannot redeem a person,
nor give to God a ransom for
him.
8For the redemption of their life is costly,
no payment is ever enough, 9that he should live on forever, that he should not see corruption.

[a]48:11 Hebrew Ms LXX Syr add "YHWH"
[b]48:14 Elohenu Olam
[c]48:14 LXX. MT reads "until death"
[d]49:7 Hebrew Mss cf. v.16. MT reads "brother"

10 For he sees that wise men die; likewise the fool and the senseless perish, and leave their wealth to others.
11 Their tombs[a] are their homes forever, and their dwelling places to all generations.
They name their lands after themselves.
12 But man, despite his riches, doesn't endure.
He is like the animals that perish.
13 This is the destiny of those who are foolish, and of those who approve their sayings.
Selah.
14 They are appointed as a flock for Sheol.
Death shall be their shepherd.
The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning.
Their beauty shall decay in Sheol, far from their mansion.
15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol, for he will receive me.
Selah.
16 Do not be afraid when a man is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased.
17 For when he dies he shall carry nothing away.
His glory shall not descend after him.
18 Though while he lived he blessed his soul—and men praise you when you do well for yourself—19 he shall go to the generation of his fathers.
They shall never see the light.
20 A man who has riches without understanding, is like the animals that perish.

Psalm 50

A Psalm by Asaph.

1 The Mighty One, God, YHWH, speaks, and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.
2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shines forth.
3 Our God comes, and does not keep silent.
A fire devours before him.
It is very stormy around him.
4 He calls to the heavens above, to the earth, that he may judge his people: 5 "Gather my faithful ones together to me,

[a] 49:11 LXX Tg Syr, reading qbrm "tombs." MT reads qrbm "inward part," a metathesis of beth and resh those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice."

6 The heavens shall declare his
righteousness,
for God himself is judge.
Selah.
7 "Hear, my people, and I will
speak;
Israel, and I will testify
against you.
I am God, your God.
8 I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices.
Your burnt offerings are continually before me.
9 I have no need for a bull from your stall,
nor male goats from your pens.
10 For every animal of the forest is mine,
and the livestock on a thousand hills.
11 I know all the birds of the
mountains.
The wild animals of the field
are mine.
12 If I were hungry, I would not tell
you,
for the world is mine, and all that is in it.
13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?
14 Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving.
Pay your vows to the Most High.
15 Call on me in the day of trouble.
I will deliver you, and you will honor me."

16 But to the wicked God says,
"What right do you have to declare my statutes, that you have taken my covenant on your lips, 17 seeing you hate instruction, and throw my words behind
you?
18 When you saw a thief, you consented with him, and have participated with adulterers.

19 "You give your mouth to evil.
Your tongue frames deceit.
20 You sit and speak against your brother.
You slander your own mother's son.
21 You have done these things, and I kept silent.
You thought that I was just like you.
I will rebuke you, and accuse you in front of your eyes.

22 "Now consider this, you who forget God,
lest I tear you into pieces, and there be none to deliver.
23 Whoever offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving glorifies
me;
and to him who orders his conduct I will show the salvation of God."

Psalm 51

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

[1]Have mercy on me, God,
according to your
loving kindness.
According to the multitude
of your tender mercies, blot out my
transgressions.
[2]Wash me thoroughly from my
iniquity.
Cleanse me from my sin.
[3]For I know my transgressions.
My sin is constantly before
me.
[4]Against you, and you only, have I sinned,
and done that which is evil
in your sight;
that you may be proved right when you speak,
and justified when you judge.[a] [5]Look, I was brought forth in
iniquity.
In sin my mother conceived
me.
[6]Look, you desire truth in the inward parts.
You teach me wisdom in the inmost place.
[7]Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean.
Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
[8]Let me hear joy and gladness,
That the bones which you have broken may rejoice.
[9]Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all of my iniquities.
[10]Create in me a clean heart, O
God.
Renew a right spirit within
me.
[11]Do not throw me from your presence,
and do not take your holy Spirit from me.
[12]Restore to me the joy of your
salvation.
Uphold me with a willing
spirit.
[13]Then I will teach transgressors your ways.
Sinners shall be converted to
you.
[14]Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, the God of my
salvation.
My tongue shall sing aloud of your righteousness.
[15]YHWH,[b] open my lips.
My mouth shall declare your praise.
[16]For you do not delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it.
You have no pleasure in burnt offering.
[17]The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.
A broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

[18]Do well in your good pleasure to
Zion.
Build the walls of Jerusalem.
[19]Then you will delight in the sacrifices of
righteousness,
in burnt offerings and in whole burnt offerings.
Then they will offer bulls on your altar.

Psalm 52

For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, "David has come to Abimelech's house."

[1]Why do you boast of mischief, mighty man?
God's loving kindness endures continually.
[2]Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
[3]You love evil more than good, lying rather than speaking the truth.
Selah.
[4]You love all devouring words, you deceitful tongue.
[5]God will likewise destroy you
forever.
He will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent,
and root you out of the land of the living.
Selah.
[6]The righteous also will see it, and fear,
and laugh at him, saying, [7]"Look, this is the man who did not make God his
strength,
but trusted in the abundance of his riches,
and was confident in his desire."
[8]But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God's
house.
I trust in God's loving kindness forever and ever.
[9]I[a] will give you thanks forever, because you have done
it.
I will hope in your name, for it is good,
in the presence of your faithful ones.

Psalm 53

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Mahalath." A contemplation by David.

[1]The fool has said in his heart,
"There is no God."
They are corrupt, and have done abominable
iniquity.
There is no one who does
good.
[2]God looks down from heaven on the descendants of
Adam,
to see if there are any who
are wise,
who seek after God.
[3]Every one of them has gone back.
They have become filthy
together.
There is no one who does good, no, not one.[b] [4]Have evildoers no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread,

[a]52:11 OL cf. BHS read "YHWH"

[b]53:3 Romans 3:10-12

and do not call on God?
5There they will be in great fear, where no fear had been,
for God will scatter the bones of those who encamp against you.
You will put them to shame, because God has rejected
them.
6Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of
Zion.
When God[a] brings back his people from captivity,
may Jacob rejoice,
may Israel be glad.

Psalm 54

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, "Isn't David hiding himself among us?"

1Save me, God, by your name.
Vindicate me in your might.
2Hear my prayer, God.
Listen to the words of my
mouth.
3For strangers have risen up
against me.
Violent men have sought after my soul.
They haven't set God before them.
Selah.
4Look, God is my helper.[b] YHWH[c] is the one who sustains my soul.
5He will repay the evil to my
enemies.
Destroy them in your truth.
6With a free will offering, I will sacrifice to you.
I will give thanks to your name, YHWH, for it is
good.
7For he has delivered me out of all trouble.
My eye has seen triumph over my enemies.

Psalm 55

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David.

1Listen to my prayer, God.
Do not hide yourself from my petition.
2Attend to me, and answer me.
I am restless in my complaint, and moan, 3Because of the voice of the
enemy,
Because of the oppression of
the wicked.
For they bring suffering on me.
In anger they hold a grudge
against me.
4My heart is severely pained
within me.
The terrors of death have fallen on me.

[5]Fearfulness and trembling have come on me.
Horror has overwhelmed
me.
[6]I said, “Oh that I had wings like a dove.
Then I would fly away, and be at rest.
[7]Look, then I would wander far off.
I would lodge in the wilderness.”
Selah.
[8]“I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and storm.”
[9]Confuse them, YHWH,[a] and confound their language,
for I have seen violence and strife in the city.
[10]Day and night they prowl around on its walls.
Malice and abuse are also within her.
[11]Destructive forces are within her.
Threats and lies do not depart from her streets.
[12]For it was not an enemy who insulted me,
then I could have endured it.
Neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up
against me,
then I would have hid myself from him.
[13]But it was you, a man like me, my companion, and my familiar friend.
[14]We took sweet fellowship
together.
We walked in God’s house with company.
[15]Let death come suddenly on
them.
Let them go down alive into Sheol.
For wickedness is in their dwelling, in the midst of them.
[16]As for me, I will call on God.
YHWH will save me.
[17]Evening, morning, and at noon, I will cry out in distress.
He will hear my voice.
[18]He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against me, although there are many who oppose me.
[19]God, who is enthroned forever, will hear, and humble[b] them.
Selah.

They never change,
who do not fear God.
[20]He has stretched out his hand against those who were at peace with
him.
He has violated his covenant.
[21]His mouth was smooth as butter, but his heart was war.
His words were softer than oil, yet they were drawn swords.

[22]Throw your burden upon YHWH, and he will take care
of you.
He will never allow the righteous to be
upended.
[23]But you, God, will bring them down into the pit of destruction.

Psalm 56

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Silent Dove in Distant Lands." A poem by David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

[1]Be merciful to me, God, for man wants to swallow me
up.
All day long, he attacks and oppresses me.
[2]My enemies want to swallow me up all day long,
for they are many who fight proudly against me.
[3]When I am afraid,
I will put my trust in you.
[4]In God, I praise his word.
In God, I put my trust.
I will not be afraid.
What can flesh do to me?
[5]All day long they twist my words.
All their thoughts are against me for evil.
[6]They conspire and lurk, watching my steps, they are eager to take my life.
[7]Shall they escape by iniquity?
In anger cast down the peoples, God.
[8]You number my wanderings.
You put my tears into your bottle.
Aren't they in your book?
[9]Then my enemies shall turn back in the day that I call.
I know this, that God is for
me.
[10]In God, I will praise his word.
In YHWH, I will praise his word.
[11]I have put my trust in God.
I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?
[12]Your vows are on me, God.
I will give thank offerings to
you.
[13]For you have delivered my soul
from death,
and prevented my feet from falling,
that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

Psalm 57

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

[1]Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me,
for my soul takes refuge in
you.
Yes, in the shadow of your wings, I will take refuge,
until disaster has passed.
[2]I cry out to God Most High, to God who accomplishes my requests for me.
[3]He will send from heaven, and save me,

[a]55:23 LXX adds "YHWH" he rebukes the one who is pursuing me.

Selah.
God will send out his loving kindness and his truth.
[4]My soul is among lions.
I lie among those who are set on fire,
even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows,
and their tongue a sharp
sword.
[5]Be exalted, God, above the
heavens.
Let your glory be above all
the earth.

[6]They have prepared a net for my steps.
My soul is bowed down.
They dig a pit before me.
They fall into its midst themselves.
Selah.
[7]My heart is steadfast, God, my heart is steadfast.
I will sing, yes, I will sing
praises.
[8]Wake up, my glory. Wake up, psaltery and harp.
I will wake up the dawn.
[9]I will give thanks to you, YHWH,[a] among the peoples.
I will sing praises to you
among the nations.
[10]For your great loving kindness reaches to the heavens, and your truth to the skies.
[11]Be exalted, God, above the
heavens.
Let your glory be over all
the earth.

Psalm 58

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David.

[1]Do you rulers[b] indeed speak
righteousness?
Do you judge blamelessly, you descendants of
Adam?
[2]No, in your heart you plot injustice.
You measure out the violence of your hands
in the earth.
[3]The wicked go astray from the
womb.
They are wayward as soon as they are born,
speaking lies.
[4]Their poison is like the poison of a serpent;
like a deaf viper that stops its ear,
[5]which doesn't listen to the voice of charmers, no matter how skillful the charmer may be.
[6]Break their teeth, God, in their
mouth.
Break out the great teeth of the young lions,
YHWH.
[7]Let them vanish as water that

[9]Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns,
he will sweep away the green and the burning
alike.
[10]The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance.
He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked; [11]so that men shall say, "Most certainly there is a reward for the
righteous.
Most certainly there is a God who judges the earth."

Psalm 59

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

[1]Deliver me from my enemies, my
God.
Set me on high from those who rise up against
me.
[2]Deliver me from evildoers.
Save me from the bloodthirsty men.
[3]For, look, they lie in wait for my soul.
The mighty gather themselves together
against me,
not for my disobedience, nor for my sin, YHWH.
[4]I have done no wrong, yet they are ready to attack me.
Rise up, look, and help me.
[5]You, YHWH, the God of hosts,[a] the God of Israel,
rouse yourself to punish the
nations.
Show no mercy to the wicked traitors.
Selah.
[6]They return at evening, howling like dogs,
and prowl around the city.
[7]Look, they spew with their
mouth.
Swords are in their lips,
"For," they say, "who hears
us?"
[8]But you, YHWH, laugh at them.
You scoff at all the nations.
[9]Oh, my Strength, I watch for you, for God is my high tower.[b] [10]My God of mercy[c] will come to meet me.
God will let me look at my enemies in triumph.
[11]Do not kill them, or my people may forget.
Scatter them by your power,
and bring them down,
YHWH,[d] our shield.

the words of their lips, let them be caught in their pride,
for the curses and lies which they utter.

Selah.
14 At evening let them return.
Let them howl like a dog, and go around the city.
15 They shall wander up and down for food,
and wait all night if they aren't satisfied.

16 But I will sing of your strength.
Yes, I will sing aloud of your loving kindness

Psalm 60

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lily of the Covenant." A teaching poem by David, when he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned, and killed twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

1 God, you have rejected us.
You have broken us down.
You have been angry.
Restore us, again.
2 You have made the land tremble.
You have torn it.
Mend its fractures,
for it quakes.
3 You have shown your people hard things.
You have made us drink the wine that makes us stagger.
4 You have given a banner to those who fear you,
that it may be displayed because of the truth.
Selah.
5 So that your beloved may be delivered,
save with your right hand and answer me.[a] 6 God has spoken from his
sanctuary:
"I will triumph.
I will divide Shechem, and measure out the Valley of Succoth.
7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine.
Ephraim also is the defense of my head.
Judah is my scepter.
8 Moab is my wash basin.
I will throw my shoe on Edom.

[a] 60:5 MT Qere and Versions. MT Kethib reads "us"

I shout[a] in triumph over[b]

9Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
10Haven't you, God, rejected us?
You do not go out with our armies, God.
11Give us help against the adversary,
for the help of man is vain.
12Through God we shall do valiantly,
for it is he who will tread down our adversaries.

Psalm 61

For the Chief Musician. For a stringed instrument. By David.

1Hear my cry, God.
Listen to my prayer.
2From the most remote place of the earth, I will call to you, when my heart is overwhelmed.
Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
3For you have been a refuge for
me,
a strong tower from the
enemy.
4I will dwell in your tent forever.
I will take refuge in the shelter of your wings.
Selah.
5For you, God, have heard my vows.
You have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.
6You will prolong the king's life;
his years shall be for generations.
7He shall be enthroned in God's presence forever.
Appoint your loving kindness and truth,
that they may preserve
him.
8So I will sing praise to your name
forever,
that I may fulfill my vows day after day.

Psalm 62

For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthan. A Psalm by David.

1My soul rests in God alone, for[c] my salvation is from
him.
2He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress—
I will never be upended.

5My soul, wait in silence for God for my expectation is from

6He alone is my rock and my

I will not be upended.
7With God is my salvation and my

The rock of my strength, and 8Trust in him at all times,

In the balances they will go up.
They are together lighter

10Do not trust in oppression.
Do not become vain in

If riches increase,
do not set your heart on 11God has spoken once;

twice I have heard this,
that power belongs to God.
12Also to you, YHWH,[a] belongs
loving kindness,
for you reward every man according to his work.

Psalm 63

A Psalm by David, when he was in the desert of Judah.

1God, you are my God.
I will earnestly seek you.
My soul thirsts for you.
My flesh longs for you,
in a dry and weary land, where there is no
water.
2So I have seen you in the
sanctuary,
watching your power and
your glory.
3Because your loving kindness is better than life,
my lips shall praise you.
4So I will bless you while I live.
I will lift up my hands in your name.
5My soul shall be satisfied as with the richest food.
My mouth shall praise you with joyful lips, 6when I remember you on my bed,
and think about you in the night watches.
7For you have been my help.
I will rejoice in the shadow of your wings.
8My soul stays close to you.
Your right hand holds me
up.
9But those who seek my soul, to destroy it,

[a]62:12 Hebrew Mss. MT reads “Lord” shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 They shall be given over to the power of the sword.
They shall be jackal food.
11 But the king shall rejoice in God.
Everyone who swears by him will praise him, for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be silenced.

Psalm 64

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

1 Hear my voice, God, in my complaint.
Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
2 Hide me from the conspiracy of
the wicked,
from the noisy crowd of the ones doing evil;
3 who sharpen their tongue like a
sword,
and aim their arrows, deadly
words,
4 to shoot innocent men from ambushes.
They shoot at him suddenly and fearlessly.
5 They encourage themselves in evil plans.
They talk about laying snares secretly.
They say, "Who will see
them?"
6 They plot injustice; they hide[a] a well-conceived plan.
Surely man's mind and heart are cunning.
7 But God will shoot at them.
They will be suddenly struck down with an arrow.
8 Their own tongues shall ruin
them.
All who see them will shake their heads.
9 All humankind shall be afraid.
They shall declare the work
of God,
and shall wisely ponder what
he has done.
10 The righteous shall be glad in
YHWH,
and shall take refuge in him.
All the upright in heart shall praise him.

Psalm 65

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song.

1 Praise awaits you, God, in Zion.
And to you shall vows be performed.
2 You who hear prayer,
to you all men will come.
3 Sins overwhelmed me, but you atoned for our
transgressions.
4 Blessed is the one you choose, and bring near,
that he may dwell in your

[a] 64:7 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "we are finished"

We will be filled with the goodness of your
house,
your holy temple.
5By awesome deeds of righteousness, you answer us,
God of our salvation.
You who are the hope of every part of the earth,
of those who are far away on the sea;
6Who by his power forms the
mountains,
having armed yourself with
strength;
7who stills the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves,[a] and the turmoil of the nations.
8Even those who live in faraway places are awestruck at your wonders.
You call the morning's dawn and the evening with songs of joy.
9You visit the earth, and water it.
You greatly enrich it.
The river of God is full of water.
You provide them grain, for so you have ordained
it.
10You drench its furrows.
You level its ridges.
You soften it with showers.
You bless it with a crop.
11You crown the year with your bounty.
Your carts overflow with abundance.
12The wilderness grasslands overflow.
The hills are clothed with gladness.
13The pastures are covered with flocks.
The valleys also are clothed with grain.
They shout for joy.
They also sing.

Psalm 66

For the Chief Musician. A song. A Psalm.

1Make a joyful shout to God, all
the earth.
2Sing to the glory of his
name.
Offer glory and praise.
3Tell God, "How awesome are your deeds.
Through the greatness of your power, your enemies submit themselves to you.
4All the earth will worship you, and will sing to you;
they will sing to your name."
Selah.
5Come, and see God's deeds—awesome work on behalf of the descendants of
Adam.
6He turned the sea into dry land.
They went through the river on foot.
There, we rejoiced in him.
7He rules by his might forever.
His eyes watch the nations.

[a]65:7 Matthew 8:26; Mark 4:39; Luke 8:24

Do not let the rebellious rise up against him.
Selah.
[8]Praise our God, you peoples.
Make the sound of his praise
heard,
[9]who preserves our life among the living,
and doesn't allow our feet to
be moved.
[10]For you, God, have tested us.
You have refined us, as silver is refined.
[11]You brought us into prison.
You laid a burden on our backs.
[12]You allowed men to ride over our heads.
We went through fire and through water, but you brought us out to a spacious place.[a] [13]I will come into your temple with burnt offerings.
I will pay my vows to you, [14]which my lips promised,
and my mouth spoke, when I was in distress.
[15]I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals,
with the offering of rams,
I will offer bulls with goats.
Selah.
[16]Come, and hear, all you who fear
God.
I will declare what he has done for my soul.
[17]I cried to him with my mouth.
He was extolled with my
tongue.
[18]If I cherished sin in my heart, YHWH[b] wouldn't have listened.
[19]But most certainly, God has listened.
He has heard the voice of
my prayer.
[20]Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer,
nor his loving kindness from
me.

Psalm 67

For the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Psalm. A song.

[1]May God be merciful to us, bless
us,
and cause his face to shine on us.
Selah.
[2]That your way may be known on
earth,
and your salvation among all
nations,
[3]let the peoples praise you, God.
Let all the peoples praise
you.
[4]Let the nations be glad and sing for joy,
for you will judge the world in righteousness. You will judge[c] the peoples with equity, and guide the nations on earth.
Selah.

Every part of the earth shall fear him.

Psalm 68

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song.

[1]Let God arise.[a] Let his enemies be scattered, and let them who hate him flee before him.
[2]As smoke is driven away, so drive them away.
As wax melts before the fire,
so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
[3]But let the righteous be glad.
Let them rejoice before God.
Yes, let them rejoice with gladness.
[4]Sing to God. Sing praises to his name.
Extol him who rides on the clouds:[b] to YAH, his name.
Rejoice before him.
[5]A father of the fatherless, and a defender of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.
[6]God sets the lonely in families.
He brings out the prisoners with singing, but the rebellious dwell in a sun-scorched land.
[7]God, when you went forth before your people, when you marched through the wilderness.
Selah.
[8]The earth trembled.
The sky also poured down rain at the presence of the God of Sinai—at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
[9]You, God, sent a plentiful rain.
You confirmed your inheritance, when it was weary.
[10]Your congregation lived in it.
You, God, prepared your goodness for the poor.
[11]YHWH[c] announced the word;
a great company of women proclaim the good news.
[12]"Kings of armies flee. They flee."
She who waits at home divides the spoil, [13]while you sleep among the campfires, the wings of a dove sheathed with silver, her feathers with shining gold.
[14]When Shaddai scattered kings in her, it snowed on Zalmon.

thousands and thousands of thousands.
YHWH[a] is among them, from Sinai, in holiness.
18You have ascended on high.
You have led away captives.
And you gave[b] gifts to people;[c] but the rebellious will not dwell in the presence of God.[d]

19Blessed be YHWH,[e] who daily bears our burdens,
even the God who is our
salvation.
Selah.
20God is to us a God of deliverance.
To YHWH[f] belongs escape
from death.
21But God will strike through the head of his enemies, the hairy scalp of such a one as still continues in his guiltiness.
22YHWH[g] said, "I will bring you again from Bashan,
I will bring you again from the depths of the sea; 23That you may crush them, dipping your foot in
blood,
that the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies." 24They have seen your processions, God,
even the processions of my God, my King,[h] into the sanctuary.
25The singers went before, the minstrels followed after,
in the midst of the ladies playing with tambourines, 26"Bless God in the congregations, even YHWH from the fountain of Israel."
27There is little Benjamin, their ruler,
the princes of Judah, their council,
the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

[28]Summon your strength, O God,[a]
the strength, O God,
as you did for us before.
[29]Because of your temple at Jerusalem,
kings shall bring presents to
you.
[30]Rebuke the wild animal of the

the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the

Being humbled, may it bring bars of silver.
Scatter the nations that delight in war.
[31]Envoys shall come out of Egypt.
Ethiopia shall hurry to [32]Sing to God, you kingdoms of

Sing praises to YHWH.[b]
Selah.
[33]To him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which are
of old;
look, he utters his voice, a mighty voice.
[34]Ascribe strength to God.
His excellency is over Israel, his strength is in the skies.
[35]You are awesome, God, in your sanctuaries.
The God of Israel gives strength and power to his people.
Praise be to God.

Psalm 69

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Lilies." By David.

[1]Save me, God, for the waters have come up to my neck.
[2]I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold.
I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.
[3]I am weary with my crying.
My throat is dry.
My eyes fail, looking for my
God.
[4]Those who hate me without a cause[c] are more than the hairs of my head.
Those who want to cut me off, being my enemies wrongfully, are
mighty.
I have to restore what I did not take away.
[5]God, you know my foolishness.
My sins aren't hidden from
you.
[6]Do not let those who wait for you be put to shame because of me,[d] YHWH of hosts.
Do not let those who seek you be brought to dishonor through me,
God of Israel.
[7]Because for your sake I suffer insults.
Shame has covered my face.

[8]I have become a stranger to my brothers,
a foreigner to my mother's [9]For the zeal of your house consumes me.[a]

The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.[b] [10]When I wept and I fasted, it brought me insults.
[11]When I made sackcloth my clothing,
I became a byword to them.
[12]Those who sit in the gate talk about me.
I am the song of the drunkards.
[13]But as for me, my prayer is to you, YHWH, in an acceptable time.
God, in the abundance of
your loving kindness,
answer me in the truth
of your salvation.
[14]Deliver me out of the mire, and do not let me sink.
Let me be delivered from those who hate me,
and out of the deep
waters.
[15]Do not let the flood waters overwhelm me, neither let the deep swallow
me up.
Do not let the pit shut its mouth on me.

[16]Answer me, YHWH, for your loving kindness is
good.
According to the multitude
of your tender mercies, turn to me.
[17]Do not hide your face from your servant,
for I am in distress.
Answer me speedily.
[18]Draw near to my soul, and redeem it.
Ransom me because of my
enemies.
[19]You know how I am insulted, and my shame, and my disgrace.
My adversaries are all before
you.
[20]Insults have broken my heart, so that I am in despair.
I looked for some to take pity, but there was none;
for comforters, but I found
none.
[21]They also gave me gall for my
food.
In my thirst, they gave me vinegar to drink.[c]

3 The mountains shall bring

His enemies shall lick the dust.
10 The kings of Tarshish and of the islands will bring tribute.
The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

the poor, who has no helper.
13 He will have pity on the poor and needy.
He will save the souls of the needy.
14 He will redeem their soul from oppression and violence.
Their blood will be precious in his sight.
15 And he shall live, and the gold of Sheba shall be given to him.
Men shall pray for him continually.
He shall bless him all day long.
16 There shall be abundance of grain throughout the land.

BOOK III

Psalm 73

A Psalm by Asaph.

1 Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.
2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone.
My steps had nearly slipped.
3 For I was envious of the arrogant,

[a] 72:17 LXX reads “sun. And all the tribes of the earth”

[b] 72:18 Hebrew Mss LXX Mss Syr. MT adds “God” when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

[4]For there are no struggles in their death, but their strength is firm.
[5]They are free from burdens of men, neither are they plagued like other men.
[6]Therefore pride is like a chain around their neck.
Violence covers them like a garment.
[7]Their sin[a] proceeds forth from fatness.
Their hearts overflow with imaginations.
[8]They scoff and speak with malice.
In arrogance, they threaten oppression.
[9]They have set their mouth in the heavens.
Their tongue walks through the earth.
[10]Therefore his people turn to them, and they drink up waters of abundance.
[11]They say, "How does God know?
Is there knowledge in the Most High?" [12]Look, these are the wicked.
Being always at ease, they increase in riches.
[13]Surely in vain I have cleansed my heart, and washed my hands in innocence, [14]For all day long have I been plagued, and punished every morning.
[15]If I had said, "I will speak thus;"
look, I would have betrayed the generation of your children.
[16]When I tried to understand this,
it was too painful for me; [17]Until I entered God's sanctuary, and considered their latter end.
[18]Surely you set them in slippery places.
You throw them down to destruction.
[19]How they are suddenly destroyed.
They are completely swept away with terrors.
[20]As a dream when one wakes up, so, YHWH,[b] when you awake, you will despise their fantasies.
[21]For my soul was grieved.
I was embittered in my heart.
[22]I was so senseless and ignorant.
I was a brute beast before you.
[23]Nevertheless, I am continually with you.
You have held my right hand.
[24]You will guide me with your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.
[25]Who do I have in heaven?
There is no one on earth who I desire besides you.
[26]My flesh and my heart fails, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

[a]73:7 Cf. LXX Syr and BHS. MT reads "eye"

[b]73:20 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"

27 For, look, those who are far from you shall perish.
You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to
you.
28 But it is good for me to come close to God.
I have made[a] YHWH my
refuge,
that I may tell of all your works in the gates of the daughter of Zion.[b]

Psalm 74

A contemplation by Asaph.

1 God, why have you rejected us
forever?
Why does your anger
smolder against the sheep of your pasture?
2 Remember your congregation, which you purchased
of old,
which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your
inheritance;
Mount Zion, in which you have lived.
3 Lift up your feet to the perpetual ruins,
all the evil that the enemy has done in the
sanctuary.
4 Your adversaries have roared in the midst of your assembly.
They have set up their standards as signs.
5 They behaved like men wielding axes,
cutting through a thicket of trees.
6 Now they break all its carved work down with hatchet and hammers.
7 They have burned your sanctuary to the
ground.
They have profaned the dwelling place of your Name.
8 They said in their heart, "We will crush them
completely."
They have burned up all the places in the land where God was worshiped.
9 We see no miraculous signs.
There is no longer any prophet,
neither is there among us anyone who knows how long.
10 How long, God, shall the enemy mock?
Shall the enemy blaspheme your name forever?
11 Why do you draw back your hand, even your right
hand?
Take it out of your pocket and consume them.
12 Yet God is my King from long ago,
working salvation in the midst of the earth.

[a] 73:28 Hebrew Mss LXX Syr. MT adds "Lord"

[b] 73:28 LXX. MT lacks "in the gates… Zion," possibly from sight confusion in a square script: k_bs-n_ms

[13]You divided the sea by your strength.
You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.
[14]You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces.
You gave him as food to people and desert creatures.
[15]You opened up spring and stream.
You dried up mighty rivers.
[16]The day is yours, the night is also yours.
You have prepared the light and the sun.
[17]You have set all the boundaries
of the earth.
You have made summer and winter.

[18]Remember this, that the enemy has mocked you,
YHWH.
Foolish people have blasphemed your
name.
[19]Do not deliver the soul of your dove to wild beasts.
Do not forget the life of your poor forever.
[20]Honor your covenant, for haunts of violence fill the dark places of the
earth.
[21]Do not let the oppressed return ashamed.
Let the poor and needy
praise your name.
[22]Arise, God. Plead your own
cause.
Remember how the foolish man mocks you all
day.
[23]Do not forget the voice of your adversaries.
The tumult of those who rise up against you ascends continually.

Psalm 75

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

[1]We give thanks to you, God.
We give thanks, for your Name is near.
Men tell about your wondrous works.

[2]When I choose the appointed time,
I will judge blamelessly.
[3]The earth and all its inhabitants quake.
I firmly hold its pillars.
Selah.
[4]I said to the arrogant, "Do not boast."
I said to the wicked, "Do not lift up the horn.
[5]Do not lift up your horn on high.
Do not speak with a stiff neck."
[6]For neither from the east, nor from the west,
nor yet from the south,
comes exaltation.
[7]But God is the judge.
He puts down one, and lifts up another.
[8]For in the hand of YHWH there is a cup,
full of foaming wine mixed with spices.
He pours it out.

Indeed the wicked of the earth drink and drink it to its very dregs.

9But I will declare this forever:
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.
10I will cut off all the horns of the
wicked,
but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

Psalm 76

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

1In Judah, God is known.
His name is great in Israel.
2And his abode is in Salem, and his lair in Zion.
3There he broke the flaming arrows of the bow,
the shield, and the sword, and the weapons of war.
Selah.
4Glorious are you, and excellent, more than mountains of game.
5Valiant men lie plundered, they have slept their last sleep.
None of the men of war can lift their hands.
6At your rebuke, God of Jacob, both chariot and horse are cast into a deep sleep.
7You, even you, are to be feared.
Who can stand in your sight when you are angry?
8You pronounced judgment from
heaven.
The earth feared, and was silent,
9when God arose to judgment,
to save all the afflicted ones
of the earth.
Selah.
10Surely the wrath[a] of man praises
you.
The survivors of your wrath are restrained.
11Make vows to YHWH your God, and fulfill them.
Let all of his neighbors bring presents to him who is to be feared.
12He humbles the spirit of princes.
He is feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm by Asaph.

1My cry goes to God.
Indeed, I cry to God for help,
and for him to listen to me.
2In the day of my trouble I sought
YHWH.[b]
My hand was stretched out in the night, and did not get tired.

[a]76:10 LXX reads “the inward thought.” Syr: “the wisdom”

[b]77:2 Hebrew Mss. MT reads “Lord”

My soul refused to be comforted.
3I remember God, and I groan.
I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed.
Selah.

4You hold my eyelids open.
I am so troubled that I can't
speak.
5I have considered the days of old,
the years of ancient times.
6I remember my song in the night.
I consider in my own heart;
my spirit diligently inquires:
7"Will YHWH[a] reject us forever?
Will he be favorable no
more?
8Has his loving kindness vanished
forever?
Does his promise fail for generations?
9Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has he, in anger, withheld his compassion?"
Selah.
10And I thought, "This is my wounding,
that the right hand of the Most High has changed."
11I will remember the works of YAH;
for I will remember your wonders of old.
12I will also meditate on all your work,
and consider your doings.
13Your way, God, is in the
sanctuary.
What god is great like God?
14You are the God who does wonders.
You have made your strength known among
the peoples.
15You have redeemed your people with your arm,
the sons of Jacob and Joseph.
Selah.
16The waters saw you, God.
The waters saw you, and they writhed.
The depths also convulsed.
17The clouds poured out water.
The skies resounded with thunder.
Your arrows also flashed around.
18The voice of your thunder was in the whirlwind.
The lightnings lit up the world.
The earth trembled and shook.
19Your way was through the sea; your paths through the great
waters.
Your footsteps were not known.
20You led your people like a flock, by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

A contemplation by Asaph.

1Hear my teaching, my people.
Turn your ears to the words of my mouth.

[a]77:7 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"

[2]I will open my mouth in a parable.[a]
I will utter dark sayings since the beginning of the world,[b] [3]which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.
[4]We will not hide them from their descendants,
telling to the generation to come the praises of
YHWH,
his strength, and his wondrous works that he has done.
[5]For he established a testimony in Jacob,
and appointed a teaching in Israel,
which he commanded our fathers,
that they should make them known to their children;
[6]that the generation to come might know it, the children
yet unborn,
and[c] arise and tell their
children,
[7]that they might set their hope in
God,
and not forget the works of
God,
but keep his commandments, [8]and might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation,
a generation that did not make their hearts loyal,
whose spirit was not steadfast with God.
[9]The people of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows,
turned back in the day of battle.
[10]They did not keep God's covenant,
and refused to walk by his Law.
[11]They forgot his doings, his wondrous works that he had shown them.
[12]He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
[13]He split the sea, and caused them to pass through.
He made the waters stand as a heap.
[14]In the daytime he also led them with a cloud,
and all night with a light of
fire.
[15]He split rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.
[16]He brought streams also out of the rock,
and caused waters to run down like rivers.
[17]Yet they still went on to sin
against him,
to rebel against the Most High in the desert.
[18]They tempted God in their heart

---

[a]78:2 LXX Syr pl.

[b]78:2 OL Ms, reading ab initio saeculi = מִנֵּי קֶדֶם הָעוֹלָם. MT lacks הָעוֹלָם from homoioteleuton: m-m Matthew 13:35

[c]78:6 LXX Syr. MT lacks "and" from haplography of the preceding letter by asking food according to their desire.

19Yes, they spoke against God.
They said, “Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?
20Look, he struck the rock, so that waters gushed out,
and streams overflowed.
Can he give bread also?
Will he provide flesh for his
people?”
21Therefore YHWH heard, and was angry.
A fire was kindled against
Jacob,
anger also went up against
Israel,
22because they did not believe in God,
and did not trust in his
salvation.
23Yet he commanded the clouds
above,
and opened the doors of
heaven.
24He rained down manna on them to eat,
and gave them bread[a] from heaven.[b] 25Man ate the bread of the mighty
ones.
He sent them food to the full.
26He caused the east wind to blow in the sky.
By his power he guided the south wind.
27He rained also flesh on them as
the dust;
winged birds as the sand of the seas.
28And he let it fall in the midst of his camp,
all around his tent.
29So they ate, and were well filled.
He gave them their own
desire.
30They did not turn from their cravings.
Their food was yet in their mouths, 31when the anger of God went up against them, killed some of the fattest of
them,
and struck down the young men of Israel.
32For all this they still sinned, and did not believe in his wondrous works.
33Therefore he consumed their days in vanity,
and their years in terror.
34When he killed them, then they inquired after him.
They returned and sought
God earnestly.
35They remembered that God was their rock,
the Most High God, their
redeemer.
36But they flattered him with their
mouth,
and lied to him with their
tongue.
37For their heart was not right with
him,
neither were they faithful in his covenant.
38But he, being merciful, forgave iniquity, and did not destroy them.
Yes, many times he turned his anger away,

[a]78:24 Or, grain

[b]78:24 John 6:31

and did not stir up all his wrath.
39He remembered that they were but flesh,
a wind that passes away, and doesn't come again.
40How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness, and grieved him in the desert.
41They turned again and tempted
God,
and gave pain to the Holy
One of Israel.
42They did not remember his hand, nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary;
43how he set his signs in Egypt, his wonders in the field of Zoan, 44he turned their rivers into blood, and their streams, so that they could not drink.
45He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured
them;
and frogs, which destroyed
them.
46He gave also their increase to the caterpillar,
and their labor to the locust.
47He destroyed their vines with hail,
their sycamore fig trees with frost.
48He gave over their livestock also to the hail,
and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.
49He threw on them the fierceness of his anger,
wrath, indignation, and
trouble,
and a band of destroying angels.
50He made a path for his anger.
He did not spare their soul
from death,
but gave their life over to the pestilence,
51and struck all the firstborn in Egypt,
the chief of their strength in the tents of Ham.
52But he led forth his own people like sheep,
and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
53He led them safely, so that they weren't afraid, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
54He brought them to the border of his sanctuary,
to this mountain, which his right hand had taken.
55He also drove out the nations
before them,
allotted them for an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.
56Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High
God,
and did not keep his testimonies;
57but turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers.
They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.
58For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their engraved images.
59When God heard this, he was angry,
and greatly abhorred Israel;

60So that he forsook the tabernacle at Shiloh,
the tent where he dwelt
among men;
61and delivered his strength into captivity,
his glory into the adversary's
hand.
62He also gave his people over to the sword,
and was angry with his
inheritance.
63Fire devoured their young men.
Their virgins had no wedding song.
64Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows couldn't weep.
65Then YHWH[a] awakened as one out of sleep,
like a mighty man who shouts by reason of wine.
66He struck his adversaries backward.
He made them a permanent shame.
67Moreover he rejected the tent of Joseph,
and did not choose the tribe of Ephraim, 68But chose the tribe of Judah,
Mount Zion which he loved.
69He built his sanctuary like the heights,
like the earth which he has established forever.
70He also chose David his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds;
71from following the ewes that have their young,
he brought him to be the shepherd of Jacob his servant,[b] and Israel his inheritance.
72So he was their shepherd according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

Psalm 79

A Psalm by Asaph.

1God, the nations have come into your inheritance.
They have defiled your holy temple.
They have laid Jerusalem in
heaps.
2They have given the dead bodies of your servants to be food for the birds of the sky,
the flesh of your faithful to the animals of the
earth.
3Their blood they have shed like water around
Jerusalem.
There was no one to bury
them.
4We have become objects of contempt to our neighbors,
mocked and ridiculed by those who are around
us.
5How long, YHWH?

[a]78:65 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"

[b]78:71 Hebrew Mss LXX. MT reads "people"

Will you be angry forever?
Will your jealousy burn like fire?
[6]Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you;
on the kingdoms that do not call on your name; [7]For they have devoured Jacob, and destroyed his homeland.
[8]Do not hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us.
Let your tender mercies speedily meet us, for we are in desperate need.
[9]Help us, God of our salvation, for the glory of your name.
Deliver us, and forgive our sins, for your name's sake.
[10]Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?" Let it be known among the nations, before our eyes, that vengeance for your servants' blood is being poured out.
[11]Let the sighing of the prisoner come before you.
According to the greatness of your power, free[a] those who are sentenced to death.
[12]Pay back to our neighbors seven times into their lap the insults with which they have insulted you, YHWH.[b] [13]So we, your people and sheep of your pasture, will give you thanks forever.
We will praise you forever, to all generations.

Psalm 80

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lilies of the Covenant." A Psalm by Asaph.

[1]Hear us, Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock, you who sit above the cherubim, shine forth.
[2]Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your might.
Come to save us.
[3]Restore us, God.
Cause your face to shine,
and we will be saved.

[4]YHWH the God of hosts,
How long will you be angry against the prayer of your people?
[5]You have fed them with the bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in large measure.
[6]You make us a source of contention to our neighbors.
Our enemies have mocked us.
[7]Restore us, God of hosts.
Cause your face to shine,
and we will be saved.
[8]You brought a vine out of Egypt.

[a]79:11 Tg Syr cf. BHS. MT reads "preserve"

[b]79:12 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"

You drove out the nations, and planted it.
9You cleared the ground for it.
It took deep root, and filled the land.
10The mountains were covered with its shadow.
Its boughs were like God's
cedars.
11It sent out its branches to the sea,
Its shoots to the River.
12Why have you broken down its walls,
so that all those who pass by the way pluck it?
13The boar out of the wood ravages it.
The wild animals of the field
feed on it.
14Return, we beg you, God of hosts.
Look down from heaven,
and see, and visit this
vine,
15the stock which your right hand planted,
the branch that you made strong for yourself.
16It's burned with fire.
It's cut down.
They perish at your rebuke.
17Let your hand be on the man of your right hand,
on the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.
18So we will not turn away from
you.
Revive us, and we will call on your name.
19Restore us, YHWH the God of
hosts.
Cause your face to shine,
and we will be saved.

Psalm 81

For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. By Asaph.

1Sing aloud to God, our strength.
Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob.
2Raise a song, and bring here the tambourine,
the pleasant lyre with the harp.
3Blow the trumpet at the New Moon,
at the full moon, on our feast
day.
4For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
5He appointed it in Joseph for a testimony,
when he went out over the land of Egypt,
I heard a language that I did not know.
6"I removed his shoulder from the burden.
His hands were freed from the basket.
7You called in trouble, and I delivered you.
I answered you in the secret place of thunder.
I tested you at the waters of Meribah."
Selah.

8"Hear, my people, and I will testify to you,
Israel, if you would listen to
me.
9There shall be no strange god in
you,
neither shall you worship any foreign god.

10 I am YHWH, your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
11 But my people did not listen to my voice.
Israel desired none of me.
12 So I let them go after the stubbornness of their hearts, that they might walk in their own counsels.
13 Oh that my people would listen to me, that Israel would walk in my ways.
14 I would soon subdue their enemies, and turn my hand against their adversaries.
15 The haters of YHWH would cringe before him, and their punishment would last forever.
16 And he would have fed him with the finest wheat, and satisfied you with honey from the rock."

Psalm 82

A Psalm by Asaph.

1 God presides in the assembly of God.
He judges among the gods.[a] 2 "How long will you judge unjustly, and show partiality to the wicked?"
Selah.

3 "Defend the weak, the poor, and the fatherless.
Maintain the rights of the poor and oppressed.
4 Rescue the weak and needy.
Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked."
5 They do not know, neither do they understand.
They walk back and forth in darkness.
All the foundations of the earth are shaken.
6 I said, "You are gods,[b] all of you are sons of the Most High.
7 Nevertheless you shall die like men, and fall like one of the rulers." 8 Arise, God, judge the earth, for you inherit all of the nations.

Psalm 83

A song. A Psalm by Asaph.

1 God, do not be silent.
Do not be deaf,
and do not be inactive, God.
2 For, look, your enemies make an uproar.
Those who hate you are hostile.

[a] 82:1 YHWH calls carriers of the Word of God elohim "gods" or "divine beings." Cf. verse 6; Psalm 8:5; John 10:34, 35; Hebrews 2:7. Cf. also Isaiah 44:6

[b] 82:6 John 10:34

[3]They devise crafty plans against your people,
and conspire together against your treasured
ones.
[4]They say, “Come, and let us annihilate them as a nation;
let the name of Israel may be remembered no more.”
[5]For they plot a unified strategy; they make a covenant
against you;
[6]the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites,
Moab, and the Hagrites, [7]Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek, Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre.
[8]Assyria too is joined with them;
they lend support to the descendants of Lot.
Selah.
[9]Do to them as you did to Midian, as to Sisera, as to Jabin at the Kishon River, [10]who were destroyed at Endor, who became manure for the
ground.
[11]Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb,
all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna, [12]who said, “Let us take possession for ourselves the pastures
of God.”
[13]My God, make them like tumbleweed;
like dead weeds blown by the wind.
[14]Like a fire that consumes a forest,
and like the flames that consume the
mountains,
[15]so pursue them with your gale winds, and terrify them with your
storm.
[16]Cover their faces with shame, so that they might seek your name, YHWH.
[17]Let them be put to shame and terrified forever;
let them perish in disgrace, [18]that they will know that you alone, whose name is
YHWH,
are the Most High over all
the earth.

Psalm 84

For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

[1]How lovely are your dwellings,
YHWH of hosts.
[2]My soul longs, yes, yearns for the courts of YHWH.
My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.
[3]Yes, the sparrow has found a home,
and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may have her young,
near your altars, YHWH of hosts, my King, and
my God.
[4]Blessed are those who dwell in your house.
They are ever praising you.
Selah.
[5]Blessed are those whose strength is in you,
who have set their hearts on a pilgrimage.

[6]Passing through the Valley of Baca, he makes it[a] into a spring.
Yes, the autumn rain covers it with blessings.
[7]They go from strength to strength.
Everyone of them appears before God in Zion.
[8]YHWH, the God of hosts, hear my prayer.
Listen, God of Jacob.
Selah.
[9]Look, God our shield, look at the face of your
anointed.
[10]For a day in your courts is better than a thousand.
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of God,[b]
than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.
[11]For YHWH God is a sun and a shield.
YHWH will give grace and
glory.
He withholds no good thing from those who walk blamelessly.
[12]YHWH of hosts,
blessed is the man who trusts in you.

Psalm 85

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by the sons of Korah.

[1]YHWH, you have been favorable to your land.
You have restored the fortunes of Jacob.
[2]You have forgiven the iniquity of your people.
You have covered all their sin.
Selah.
[3]You have taken away all your
wrath.
You have turned from the fierceness of your
anger.
[4]Restore us, God of our salvation, and cause your indignation toward us to cease.
[5]Will you be angry with us
forever?
Will you draw out your anger to all
generations?
[6]Won't you[c] revive us again, that your people may rejoice
in you?
[7]Show us your loving kindness,
YHWH.
Grant us your salvation.
[8]I will hear what God, YHWH, will
speak,
for he will speak peace to his people, his faithful
ones;

[a]84:6 Hebrew Mss LXX. MT reads "they make it"
[b]84:10 Hebrew Mss LXX Tg Syr. MT reads "my God," having lost a mem, possibly by haplography [c]85:6 LXX reads "God." A possible metathesis of aleph and lamed but let them not turn again to folly.

[9]Surely his salvation is near those who fear him, that glory may dwell in our land.
[10]Mercy and truth meet together.
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
[11]Truth springs out of the earth.
Righteousness has looked down from heaven.
[12]Yes, YHWH will give that which is good.
Our land will yield its increase.
[13]Righteousness goes before him,
And prepares the way for his steps.

Psalm 86

A Prayer by David.

[1]Hear, YHWH, and answer me,
for I am poor and needy.
[2]Preserve my soul, for I am faithful.
You, my God, save your servant who trusts in you.
[3]Be merciful to me, YHWH,[a] for I call to you all day long.
[4]Bring joy to the soul of your servant, for to you, YHWH,[b] do I lift up my soul.
[5]For you, YHWH,[c] are good, and ready to forgive; abundant in loving kindness to all those who call on you.
[6]Hear, YHWH, my prayer.
Listen to the voice of my petitions.
[7]In the day of my trouble I will call on you, for you will answer me.
[8]There is no one like you among the gods, YHWH,[d] nor any deeds like your deeds.
[9]All nations you have made will come and worship before you, YHWH.[e]
They shall glorify your name.
[10]For you are great, and do wondrous things.
You are God alone.
[11]Teach me your way, YHWH.
I will walk in your truth.
Make my heart undivided to fear your name.
[12]I will praise you, YHWH[f] my God, with my whole heart.
I will glorify your name forevermore.
[13]For your loving kindness is great toward me.
You have delivered my soul from the lowest Sheol.
[14]God, the proud have risen up against me.
A company of violent men have sought after my soul, and they do not hold regard for you before them.

[d]86:5 Hebrew Mss. MT reads “Lord”

15 But you, YHWH,[a] are a merciful and gracious God,
slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness and
truth.
16 Turn to me, and have mercy on
me.
Give your strength to your
servant.
Save the son of your handmaid.
17 Show me a sign of your goodness,
that those who hate me may see it, and be shamed, because you, YHWH, have helped me, and comforted me.

Psalm 87

A Psalm by the sons of Korah; a Song.

1 His foundation is in the holy
mountains.
2 YHWH loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
3 Glorious things are spoken about you, city of God.
Selah.
4 I will record Rahab[b] and Babylon among those who acknowledge me.
Look, Philistia, Tyre, and also Ethiopia:
"This one was born there."
5 Yes, of Zion it will be said, "This one and that one was born in her;"
the Most High himself will establish her.
6 YHWH will count, when he writes up the peoples,
"This one was born there."
Selah.
7 And those who sing as well as the pipers:
"My whole source of joy is in you."

Psalm 88

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah. For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Suffering of Affliction." A contemplation by Heman, the Ezrahite.

1 YHWH, the God of my salvation,[c] I have cried day and night before you.
2 Let my prayer enter into your presence.
Turn your ear to my cry.
3 For my soul is full of troubles.
My life draws near to Sheol.
4 I am counted among those who go down into the pit.
I am like a man who has no
help,
5 set apart among the dead, like the slain who lie in the grave,
whom you remember no
more.

[a] 86:15 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"
[b] 87:4 Rahab is a reference to Egypt
[c] 88:1 YHWH Elohe Yeshuathi

They are cut off from your hand.
[6]You have laid me in the lowest pit, in the darkest depths.
[7]Your wrath lies heavily on me.
You have afflicted me with all your waves.
Selah.
[8]You have taken my friends from me.
You have made me an abomination to them.
I am confined, and I can't escape.
[9]My eyes are dim from grief.
I have called on you daily, YHWH.
I have spread out my hands to you.
[10]Do you show wonders to the dead?
Do the dead rise up and praise you?
Selah.
[11]Is your loving kindness declared in the grave?
Or your faithfulness in Destruction?
[12]Are your wonders made known in the dark?
Or your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
[13]But to you, YHWH, I have cried.
In the morning, my prayer comes before you.
[14]YHWH, why do you reject my soul?
Why do you hide your face from me?
[15]I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up.
While I suffer your terrors, I am distracted.
[16]Your fierce wrath has gone over me.
Your terrors have cut me off.
[17]They came around me like water all day long.
They completely engulfed me.
[18]You have put lover and friend far from me, and my friends into darkness.

Psalm 89

A contemplation by Ethan, the Ezrahite.

[1]I will sing of the loving kindness of YHWH forever.
With my mouth I will make known your faithfulness to all generations.
[2]I indeed declare, "Love stands firm forever.
You established the heavens.
Your faithfulness is in them."

[3]"I have made a covenant with my chosen one,
I have sworn to David, my servant,
[4]'I will establish your offspring forever, and build up your throne for all generations.'"
Selah.
[5]The heavens will praise your wonders, YHWH; your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.
[6]For who in the skies can be compared to YHWH?

Who among the sons of God is like YHWH, 7a very awesome God in the council of the holy
ones,
to be feared above all those who are around him?
8YHWH, the God of hosts, who is a mighty one like you,
YAH?
Your faithfulness is around
you.
9You rule the pride of the sea.
When its waves rise up, you calm them.[a] 10You have broken Rahab in pieces, like one of the slain.
You have scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.
11The heavens are yours.
The earth also is yours;
the world and its fullness.
You have founded them.
12The north and the south, you have created them.
Tabor and Hermon rejoice in
your name.
13You have a mighty arm.
Your hand is strong, and your right hand is exalted.
14Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne.
Loving kindness and truth go before your face.
15Blessed are the people who know the joyful shout.
They walk in the light of your presence, YHWH.
16In your name they rejoice all
day.
In your righteousness, they are exalted.
17For you are the glory of their
strength.
In your favor, our horn will be exalted.
18For our shield belongs to YHWH; our king to the Holy One of Israel.
19Then you spoke in a vision to your faithful ones, and said, "I have bestowed strength on the warrior.
I have exalted a young man from the people.
20I have found David, my servant.
I have anointed him with my holy oil, 21with whom my hand shall be established.
My arm will also strengthen
him.
22No enemy will tax him.
No wicked man will oppress
him.
23I will beat down his adversaries
before him,
and strike those who hate
him.
24But my faithfulness and my loving kindness will be with him.
In my name, his horn will be exalted.
25I will set his hand also on the sea,
and his right hand on the rivers.

[a]89:9 Matthew 8:26; Mark 4:39; Luke 8:24

[26]He will call to me, ‘You are my Father,
my God, and the rock of my
salvation.’
[27]I will also appoint him my firstborn,
the highest of the kings of
the earth.
[28]I will keep my loving kindness for him forevermore.
My covenant will stand firm
with him.
[29]And I will establish his descendants forever, and his throne as the days of
heaven.
[30]If his children forsake my Law, and do not walk in my ordinances;
[31]if they break my statutes, and do not keep my commandments;
[32]then I will punish their sin with the rod,
and their iniquity with stripes.
[33]But I will not completely take my loving kindness
from him,
nor allow my faithfulness to
fail.
[34]I will not break my covenant, nor alter what my lips have uttered.
[35]Once have I sworn by my holiness,
I will not lie to David.
[36]His descendants will endure
forever,
his throne like the sun before
me.
[37]It will be established forever like the moon,
the faithful witness in the sky.”
Selah.

[38]But you have rejected and spurned.
You have been angry with your anointed.
[39]You have renounced the covenant of your servant.
You have defiled his crown in the dust.
[40]You have broken down all his hedges.
You have brought his strongholds to ruin.
[41]All who pass by the way rob
him.
He has become an object of ridicule to his neighbors.
[42]You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries.
You have made all of his enemies rejoice.
[43]Yes, you turn back the edge of
his sword,
and haven’t supported him in battle.
[44]You have ended his splendor, and thrown his throne down to the ground.
[45]You have shortened the days of his youth.
You have covered him with shame.
Selah.
[46]How long, YHWH?
Will you hide yourself
forever?
Will your wrath burn like
fire?
[47]Remember how short my time is.
Have you created the descendants of Adam
for no reason?
[48]What man is he who shall live and not see death,

who shall deliver his soul from the power of Sheol?
Selah.
49YHWH,[a] where are your former loving kindnesses,
which you swore to David in your faithfulness?
50Remember, YHWH,[b] the ridicule of all the many peoples against your servants
I have borne in my heart, 51how your enemies have ridiculed, YHWH,
how they have ridiculed the footsteps of your anointed one.

52Blessed be YHWH forevermore.
Amen, and Amen.

BOOK IV

Psalm 90

A Prayer by Moses, the man of God.

1YHWH,[c] you have been our dwelling place[d] for all generations.
2Before the mountains were brought forth,
before you had formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, you are
God.
3You turn man to destruction, saying,
"Return, you descendants of Adam."
4For a thousand years in your sight are just like yesterday when it is past,
like a watch in the night.
5You sweep them away as they sleep.
In the morning they sprout like new grass.
6In the morning it sprouts and springs up.
By evening, it is withered and dry.
7For we are consumed in your
anger.
We are troubled in your
wrath.
8You have set our iniquities before
you,
our secret sins in the light of your presence.
9For all our days have passed away in your wrath.
We bring our years to an end as a sigh.
10The days of our years are seventy,
or even by reason of strength eighty years;
yet their pride is but labor
and sorrow,
for it passes quickly, and we fly away.

[a]89:49 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"
[b]89:50 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"
[c]90:1 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"
[d]90:1 Hebrew Mss LXX reads "our refuge." An apparent nun-zayin confusion

[11]Who knows the power of your
anger,
your wrath according to the fear that is due to you?
[12]So teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of
wisdom.
[13]Relent, YHWH.
How long?
Have compassion on your
servants.
[14]Satisfy us in the morning with
your loving kindness,
that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
[15]Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted
us,
for as many years as we have seen evil.
[16]Let your work appear to your
servants;
your glory to their children.
[17]Let the favor of YHWH[a] our God be on us;
establish the work of our hands for us;
yes, establish[b] the work of our hands.

Psalm 91

[1]He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High
will rest in the shadow of Shaddai.
[2]I will[c] say of YHWH, "He is my refuge and my fortress;
my God, in whom I trust." [3]For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler, and from the deadly
pestilence.
[4]He will cover you with his feathers.
Under his wings you will take refuge.
His truth is an[d]
encompassing shield.
[5]You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by
day;
[6]nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor of the destruction that wastes at noonday.
[7]A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your
right hand;
but it will not come near
you.
[8]You will only look with your eyes,
and see the recompense of
the wicked.
[9]Because you have made YHWH, my refuge,
the Most High, your
dwelling place,
[10]no evil shall overtake you; no plague shall come near your dwelling.
[11]For he will put his angels in charge of you,
to guard you in all your
ways.
[12]In their hands they will lift you
up,

so that you will not strike your foot against a

13 You will tread upon the lion and

You will trample the young lion and the serpent

14 "Because he has set his love on me, therefore I will deliver him.
I will set him on high, because he has known
my name.
15 He will call on me, and I will answer him.
I will be with him in trouble.
I will deliver him, and honor
him.
16 I will satisfy him with long life, and show him my
salvation."

Psalm 92

A Psalm. A song for the Sabbath day.

1 It is a good thing to give thanks to
YHWH,
to sing praises to your name,
Most High;
2 to proclaim your loving kindness in the morning,
and your faithfulness every
night,
3 with the ten-stringed lute, with the harp,
and with the melody of the lyre.
4 For you, YHWH, have made me glad through your work.
I will triumph in the works
of your hands.
5 How great are your works,
YHWH.
Your thoughts are very deep.
6 A senseless man doesn't know, neither does a fool understand this:
7 though the wicked spring up as the grass,
and all the evildoers
flourish,
they will be destroyed
forever.
8 But you, YHWH, are on high
forevermore.
9 For, look, your enemies, YHWH, for, look, your enemies shall perish.
All the evildoers will be scattered.
10 But you have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox.
I am anointed with fresh oil.
11 My eye has also seen my enemies.
My ears have heard of the wicked enemies who rise up against me.
12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree.
He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
13 They are planted in YHWH's
house.
They will flourish in our God's courts.
14 They will still bring forth fruit in old age.

[a] 91:12 Matthew 4:6; Luke 4:10-11

They will be full of sap and
green, 15 to show that YHWH is
upright.
He is my Rock,
and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalm 93

1 YHWH reigns.
He is clothed with majesty.
YHWH is armed with
strength.
The world also is established.
It can't be moved.
2 Your throne is established from long ago.
You are from everlasting.
3 The floods have lifted up, YHWH, the floods have lifted up their voice.
The floods lift up their waves.
4 Above the voices of many waters, the mighty breakers of the sea,
YHWH on high is mighty.
5 Your statutes stand firm.
Holiness adorns your house,
YHWH, forevermore.

Psalm 94

1 YHWH, you God to whom vengeance belongs,
you God to whom vengeance belongs,
shine forth.
2 Rise up, you judge of the earth.
Pay back the proud what they deserve.
3 YHWH, how long will the wicked, how long will the wicked triumph?
4 They pour out arrogant words.
All the evildoers boast.
5 They break your people in pieces,
YHWH,
and afflict your heritage.
6 They kill the widow and the alien, and murder the fatherless.
7 They say, "YAH will not see, neither will Jacob's God consider."
8 Consider, you senseless among
the people;
you fools, when will you be
wise?
9 He who implanted the ear, won't he hear?
He who formed the eye,
won't he see?
10 He who disciplines the nations, won't he punish?
He who teaches man knows.
11 YHWH knows the thoughts of man,[a]
that they are futile.[b] 12 Blessed is the man whom you discipline, YAH,
and teach out of your Law; 13 that you may give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit is dug for the
wicked.

[a] 94:11 1Co 3:20 reads sophos "wise." In DSS Isaiah script אדם "man" and חכם "wise" are very similar, suggesting the possibility of a misreading

[b] 94:11 1Co 3:20

[14]For YHWH won't reject his
people,
neither will he forsake his
inheritance.
[15]For judgment will return to
righteousness.
All the upright in heart shall follow it.
[16]Who will rise up for me against
the wicked?
Who will stand up for me against the evildoers?
[17]Unless YHWH had been my help, my soul would have soon lived in silence.
[18]When I said, "My foot is slipping."
Your loving kindness,
YHWH, held me up.
[19]In the multitude of my thoughts
within me,
your comforts delight my
soul.
[20]Shall the throne of wickedness have fellowship with
you,
which brings about mischief
by statute?
[21]They gather themselves together against the soul of the
righteous,
and condemn the innocent
blood.
[22]But YHWH has been my high tower,
my God, the rock of my
refuge.
[23]He has brought on them their own iniquity,
and will cut them off in their own wickedness.
YHWH, our God, will cut them off.

Psalm 95

[1]Oh come, let's sing to YHWH.
Let's shout aloud to the rock of our salvation.
[2]Let's come before his presence with thanksgiving.
Let's extol him with songs.
[3]For YHWH is a great God, a great King above all gods.
[4]In his hand are the deep places[a] of
the earth.
The heights of the mountains are also his.
[5]The sea is his, and he made it.
His hands formed the dry
land.
[6]Oh come, let's worship and bow down.
Let's kneel before YHWH, our Maker,
[7]for he is our God.
We are the people of his pasture,
and the sheep in his care.
Today, if you would hear his voice.
[8]Do not harden your heart, as at Meribah,
as in the day of Massah in
the wilderness,
[9]when your fathers tempted me, tested me, and saw my work.
[10]For forty years I loathed that generation,
and said, "It is a people who go astray in their heart,

[a]95:4 Hebrew Ms LXX read "distant, ends" and they do not know my

ways.”
11Therefore I swore in my wrath, “They won’t enter into my rest.”[a]

Psalm 96

1Sing to YHWH a new song.
Sing to YHWH, all the earth.
2Sing to YHWH.
Bless his name.
Proclaim his salvation from day to day.
3Declare his glory among the
nations,
his marvelous works among all the peoples.
4For great is YHWH, and greatly to
be praised.
He is to be feared above all gods.
5For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but YHWH made the
heavens.
6Honor and majesty are before
him.
Strength and beauty are in
his sanctuary.
7Ascribe to YHWH, you families of
nations,
ascribe to YHWH glory and
strength.
8Ascribe to YHWH the glory due to
his name.
Bring an offering, and come into his courts.
9Worship YHWH in holy array.
Tremble before him, all the
earth.
10Say among the nations, “YHWH reigns.”
The world is also established.
It can’t be moved.
He will judge the peoples
with equity.
11Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice.
Let the sea roar, and its fullness.
12Let the field and all that is in it exult.
Then all the trees of the woods shall sing for joy 13before YHWH; for he comes,
for he comes to judge the
earth.
He will judge the world with
righteousness,
the peoples with his truth.

Psalm 97

1YHWH reigns.
Let the earth rejoice.
Let the multitude of islands be glad.
2Clouds and darkness are around
him.
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
3A fire goes before him, and burns up his adversaries on every side.
4His lightning lights up the world.
The earth sees, and trembles.

[a]95:11 Hebrews 4:3,5

[5]The mountains melt like wax at the presence of
YHWH,
at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
[6]The heavens declare his
righteousness.
All the peoples have seen his glory.
[7]Let all them be shamed who serve engraved images,
who boast in their idols.
Worship him, all you gods.[a] [8]Zion heard and was glad.
The daughters of Judah
rejoiced,
because of your judgments,
YHWH.
[9]For you, YHWH, are most high above all the earth.
You are exalted far above all
gods.
[10]You who love YHWH, hate evil.
He preserves the souls of his faithful ones.
He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
[11]Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright
in heart.
[12]Be glad in YHWH, you righteous
people.
Give thanks to his holy Name.

Psalm 98

A Psalm.

[1]Sing to YHWH a new song, for he has done marvelous
things.
His right hand, and his holy arm, have worked salvation for him.
[2]YHWH has made known his
salvation.
He has openly shown his righteousness in the sight of the nations.
[3]He has remembered his loving kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.
Every part of the earth has seen the salvation of our God.
[4]Make a joyful noise to YHWH, all
the earth.
Burst out and sing for joy,
yes, sing praises.
[5]Sing praises to YHWH with the
harp,
with the harp and the voice of melody.
[6]With trumpets and sound of the ram's horn,
make a joyful noise before the King, YHWH.
[7]Let the sea roar with its fullness;
the world, and those who dwell in it.
[8]Let the rivers clap their hands.
Let the mountains sing for joy together.
[9]Let them sing before YHWH, for he comes to judge the
earth.
He will judge the world with
righteousness,
and the peoples with equity.

[a]97:7 LXX Syr read "angels." Cf. Deuteronomy 32:43; Hebrews 1:6

Psalm 99

[1]YHWH reigns. Let the peoples tremble.
He sits enthroned among the cherubim;
the earth shakes.
[2]YHWH is great in Zion.
He is high above all the peoples.
[3]Let them praise your great and awesome name.
He is Holy.

[4]The King's strength also loves
justice.
You do establish equity.
You execute justice and righteousness in Jacob.
[5]Exalt YHWH our God.
Worship at his footstool.
He is Holy.
[6]Moses and Aaron were among his priests,
Samuel among those who call on his name;
they called on YHWH, and he answered them.
[7]He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud.
They kept his testimonies,
the statute that he gave them.
[8]You answered them, YHWH our
God.
You are a God who forgave[a]
them,
although you took vengeance for their doings.

[9]Exalt YHWH, our God.
Worship at his holy
mountain,
for YHWH, our God, is holy.

Psalm 100

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

[1]Shout for joy to YHWH, all you

[2]Serve YHWH with gladness.
Come before his presence with singing.
[3]Know that YHWH, he is God.
It is he who has made us, and we belong to him.[b]
We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
[4]Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
and into his courts with praise.
Give thanks to him, and
bless his name.
[5]For YHWH is good.
His loving kindness endures
forever,
and his faithfulness to all
generations.

[b]100:3 Hebrew Mss MT Qere LXX Syr Vg. MT Kethib reads "and not we ourselves"

To you, YHWH, I will sing praises.
[2]I will be careful to live a blameless life.
When will you come to[a] me?
I will walk within my house with a blameless heart.
[3]I will set no vile thing before my eyes.
I hate the deeds of faithless
men.
They will not cling to me.
[4]A perverse heart will be far from
me.
I will have nothing to do with evil.
[5]I will silence whoever secretly slanders his neighbor.
I won't tolerate one who is haughty and conceited.
[6]My eyes will be on the faithful of
the land,
that they may dwell with me.
He who walks in a perfect way, he will serve me.
[7]He who practices deceit won't dwell within my
house.
He who speaks falsehood won't be established before my eyes.
[8]Morning by morning, I will destroy all the wicked
of the land;
to cut off all evildoers from YHWH's city.

Psalm 102

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before YHWH.

[1]Hear my prayer, YHWH.
Let my cry come to you.
[2]Do not hide your face from me in the day of my distress.
Turn your ear to me.
Answer me quickly in the day when I call.
[3]For my days consume away like smoke.
My bones are burned like a hearth.
[4]My heart is blighted like grass, and withered,
for I forget to eat my bread.
[5]By reason of the voice of my groaning,
my bones stick to my skin.
[6]I am like a pelican of the wilderness.
I have become as an owl of the waste places.
[7]I watch, and have become like a sparrow that is alone on the housetop.
[8]My enemies reproach me all day.
Those who are mad at me use my name as a curse.
[9]For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mixed my drink with tears,
[10]Because of your indignation and your wrath,
for you have taken me up,
and thrown me away.
[11]My days are like a long shadow.

[a]101:2 DSS reads "for"

I have withered like grass.

12 But you, YHWH, will abide
forever;
your renown endures to all
generations.
13 You will arise and have mercy on Zion;
for it is time to have pity on
her.
Yes, the set time has come.
14 For your servants take pleasure in her stones,
and have pity on her dust.
15 So the nations will fear the name of YHWH;
all the kings of the earth
your glory.
16 For YHWH has built up Zion.
He has appeared in his glory.
17 He has responded to the prayer of the destitute,
and has not despised their
prayer.
18 This will be written for the generation to come,
that a people yet to be created may praise
YAH.
19 For he has looked down from the height of his
sanctuary.
From heaven, YHWH looked at the earth;
20 to hear the groans of the prisoner;
to free those who are condemned to death;
21 that men may declare the name of YHWH in Zion,
and his praise in Jerusalem; 22 when the peoples are gathered
together,
the kingdoms, to serve
YHWH.

23 He weakened my strength along the course.
He shortened my days.
24 I said, "My God, do not take me away in the midst of my days.
Your years are throughout
all generations.
25 In the beginning, YHWH,[a] you established the foundation of the
earth.
The heavens are the works[b]
of your hands.
26 They will perish, but you remain;
and they will all wear out like a garment.
You will change them like a cloak, and they will be changed.
27 But you are the same.
Your years will have no end.[c] 28 The children of your servants will continue.
and their descendants will be established before
you."

[2]Praise YHWH, my soul, and do not forget all his benefits;
[3]who forgives all your sins;[a] who heals all your diseases; [4]who redeems your life from
destruction;
who crowns you with loving kindness and tender mercies;
[5]who satisfies your desire with good things;
your youth is renewed like

[6]YHWH executes righteous acts, and justice for all who are oppressed.
[7]He made known his ways to Moses,
his deeds to the children of Israel.
[8]YHWH is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness.
[9]He will not always accuse; neither will he stay angry
forever.
[10]He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor repaid us for our
iniquities.
[11]For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so great is his loving kindness toward those
who fear him.
[12]As far as the east is from the west,
so far has he removed our transgressions from us.
[13]Like a father has compassion on his children, so YHWH has compassion
on those who fear him.
[14]For he knows how we are made.
He remembers that we are
dust.
[15]As for man, his days are like grass.
As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.
[16]For the wind passes over it, and it is gone,
and its place remembers it
no more.
[17]But YHWH's loving kindness is from everlasting to everlasting with those who fear him,
his righteousness to children's children; [18]to those who keep his covenant, to those who remember to obey his precepts.
[19]YHWH has established his throne
in the heavens.
His kingdom rules over all.
[20]Praise YHWH, all[b] you angels of his,
who are mighty in strength,
who fulfill his word,
obeying the voice of his

Psalm 104

[1]Bless YHWH, my soul.
YHWH, my God, you are very great.
You are clothed with splendor and majesty.
[2]He covers himself with light as with a garment.
He stretches out the heavens like a curtain.
[3]He lays the beams of his chambers in the waters.
He makes the clouds his chariot.
He walks on the wings of the wind.
[4]He makes his angels[a] winds,

[5]He laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be moved forever and ever.[d] [6]You covered it with the deep as with a cloak.
The waters stood above the mountains.
[7]At your rebuke they fled.
At the voice of your thunder they hurried away.
[8]The mountains rose,
the valleys sank down,
to the place which you had assigned to them.
[9]You have set a boundary that they may not pass over;
that they do not turn again to cover the earth.
[10]He sends forth springs into the valleys.
They run among the mountains.
[11]They give drink to every animal of the field.
The wild donkeys quench their thirst.
[12]The birds of the sky nest by them;
among the branches they give forth a sound.[e] [13]He waters the mountains from his chambers.
The earth is filled with the fruit of your works.
[14]He causes the grass to grow for the livestock, and plants for man to cultivate,
that he may bring forth food out of the earth: [15]wine that makes glad the heart of man, oil to make his face to shine, and bread that strengthens man's heart.
[16]YHWH's trees are well watered, the cedars of Lebanon, which he has planted;

The rocks are a refuge for the rock badgers.

forever,
the word which he commanded to a thousand generations, [9]the covenant which he made with Abraham,
his oath to Isaac,
[10]and confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute;
to Israel as an everlasting
covenant,
[11]saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan,
the lot of your inheritance;" [12]when they were but a few men in number,
yes, very few, and foreigners
in it.
[13]They went about from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another people.
[14]He allowed no one to do them wrong.
Yes, he reproved kings for their sakes, [15]"Do not touch my anointed ones.
Do my prophets no harm." [16]He called for a famine on the
land.
He destroyed the food supplies.
[17]He sent a man ahead of them,
Joseph, sold as a slave.
[18]They bruised his feet with shackles.
His neck was locked in
irons,
[19]until the time that his word happened, and YHWH's word proved
him true.
[20]The king sent and freed him;
even the ruler of peoples, and let him go free.
[21]He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all of his possessions;
[22]to discipline[a] his princes at his pleasure, and to teach his elders
wisdom.
[23]Israel also came into Egypt.
Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
[24]He increased his people greatly, and made them stronger than their adversaries.
[25]He turned their heart to hate his
people,
to conspire against his
servants.
[26]He sent Moses, his servant, and Aaron, whom he had chosen.
[27]They performed miracles among
them,

[a]105:22 LXX Syr Hier, reading "to discipline, instruct.." MT reads "to bind" and wonders in the land of Ham.

[28]He sent darkness, and made it dark, but they[a] rebelled against his words.
[29]He turned their waters into blood, and killed their fish.
[30]Their land swarmed with frogs, even in the chambers of their kings.
[31]He spoke, and swarms of flies came,
and gnats in all their territory.
[32]He gave them hail for rain, flaming fire in their land.
[33]He struck their vines and also their fig trees, and shattered the trees of their country.
[34]He spoke, and the locusts came,
and the grasshoppers, without number, [35]ate up every plant in their land;
and ate up the fruit of their ground.
[36]He struck also all the firstborn in their land, the first fruits of all their manhood.
[37]And he brought them out with silver and gold, and there was no one among their tribes who stumbled.
[38]Egypt was glad when they departed, for the fear of them had fallen on them.
[39]He spread a cloud for a covering, fire to give light in the night.
[40]They asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of the sky.
[41]He opened the rock, and waters gushed out.
They ran as a river in the dry places.
[42]For he remembered his holy word, and Abraham, his servant.
[43]He brought forth his people with joy, his chosen with singing.
[44]He gave them the lands of the nations.
They took the labor of the peoples in possession, [45]that they might keep his statutes, and observe his laws.
Praise YAH.

Psalm 106

[1]Praise YAH.
Give thanks to YHWH, for he is good, for his loving kindness endures forever.
[2]Who can utter the mighty acts of YAH, or fully declare all his praise?
[3]Blessed are those who uphold justice, who practice righteousness at all times.
[4]Remember me, YHWH, with the favor that you show to your people.
Visit me with your salvation,

[a]105:28 LXX Syr. MT adds “did not”

5 that I may see the prosperity of your chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation, that I may glory with your inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers.
We have committed iniquity.
We have done wickedly.
7 Our fathers did not understand your wonders in Egypt.
They did not remember the multitude of your loving kindnesses, but were rebellious at the sea, even at the Red Sea.
8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power known.
9 He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up; so he led them through the depths, as through a desert.
10 He saved them from the hand of him who hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
11 The waters covered their adversaries.
There was not one of them left.
12 Then they believed his words.
They sang his praise.

13 They soon forgot his works.
They did not wait for his counsel, 14 but gave in to craving in the desert, and tested God in the wasteland.
15 He gave them their request, but sent leanness into their soul.
16 They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron, YHWH's holy one.
17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.
18 A fire was kindled in their company.
The flame burned up the wicked.
19 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshiped a molten image.
20 Thus they exchanged their glory for an image of a bull that eats grass.
21 They forgot God, their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt, 22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and awesome things by the Red Sea.
23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had Moses, his chosen, not stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, so that he wouldn't destroy them.
24 Yes, they despised the pleasant land.
They did not believe his word, 25 but murmured in their tents, and did not listen to YHWH's voice.

[26]Therefore he swore to them that he would overthrow them in the wilderness, [27]and that he would make their offspring fall
among the nations,
and scatter them in the lands.
[28]They joined themselves also to Baal Peor,
and ate the sacrifices of the dead.
[29]Thus they provoked him to anger with their deeds.
The plague broke in on
them.
[30]Then Phinehas stood up, and executed judgment,
so the plague was stopped.
[31]That was credited to him for
righteousness,
for all generations to come.
[32]They angered him also at the waters of Meribah, so that Moses was troubled for their sakes;
[33]because they were rebellious against his spirit,
he spoke rashly with his lips.
[34]They did not destroy the peoples, as YHWH commanded them, [35]but mixed themselves with
the nations,
and learned their works.
[36]They served their idols, which became a snare to
them.
[37]Yes, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
[38]They shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan.
The land was polluted with
blood.
[39]Thus were they defiled with their works,
and prostituted themselves in their deeds.
[40]Therefore YHWH burned with anger against his
people.
He abhorred his inheritance.
[41]He gave them into the hand of
the nations.
Those who hated them ruled over them.
[42]Their enemies also oppressed
them.
They were brought into subjection under their
hand.
[43]Many times he delivered them, but they were rebellious in their counsel,
and were brought low in their iniquity.
[44]Nevertheless he regarded their distress,
when he heard their cry.
[45]He remembered for them his covenant,
and repented according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.
[46]He made them also to be pitied by all those who carried them captive.

[47]Save us, YHWH, our God, gather us from among the
nations,
to give thanks to your holy
name,
to triumph in your praise.

[48]Blessed be YHWH, the God of
Israel,
from everlasting to
everlasting.

And let all the people say,
"Amen."
Praise YAH.

BOOK V

Psalm 107

[1]Give thanks to YHWH, for he is good,
for his loving kindness endures
forever.
[2]Let the redeemed by YHWH say
so,
whom he has redeemed from the hand of the
adversary,
[3]And gathered out of the lands,
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.
[4]They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way.
They found no city to live in.
[5]Hungry and thirsty,
their soul fainted in them.
[6]Then they cried to YHWH in their
trouble,
and he delivered them out of their distresses,
[7]he led them also by a straight
way,
that they might go to a city
to live in.
[8]Let them praise YHWH for his
loving kindness,
for his wonderful works for
the descendants of
Adam.
[9]For he satisfies the longing soul.
He fills the hungry soul with
good.
[10]Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,
being bound in affliction and
iron,
[11]because they rebelled against the words of God,
and condemned the counsel
of the Most High.
[12]Therefore he brought down their heart with labor.
They fell down, and there was none to help.
[13]Then they cried to YHWH in
their trouble,
and he saved them out of their distresses.
[14]He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of
death,
and broke their bonds in sunder.
[15]Let them praise YHWH for his
loving kindness,
for his wonderful works for
the descendants of
Adam.

[16]For he has broken the gates of bronze,
and cut through bars of iron.
[17]Fools are afflicted because of their disobedience, and because of their
iniquities.
[18]Their soul abhors all kinds of food.
They draw near to the gates of death.
[19]Then they cried to YHWH in
their trouble;
he saved them out of their distresses.

[20]He sent his word and healed
them;
he delivered them[a] from their traps.
[21]Let them praise YHWH for his
loving kindness,
for his wonderful works for
the descendants of
Adam.

[22]Let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
and declare his works with singing.
[23]Those who go down to the sea in ships,
who do business in great
waters;
[24]These see YHWH's works, and his wonders in the deep.
[25]For he commands, and raises the stormy wind,
which lifts up its waves.
[26]They mount up to the sky; they go down again to the depths.
Their soul melts away
because of trouble.
[27]They reel back and forth, and stagger like a drunken
man,
and are at their wits' end.
[28]Then they cry to YHWH in their
trouble,
and he brings them out of their distress.
[29]He makes the storm a calm, so that its waves are still.[b] [30]Then they are glad because it is calm,
so he brings them to their desired haven.
[31]Let them praise YHWH for his
loving kindness,
for his wonderful works for
the descendants of
Adam.

[32]Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the
people,
and praise him in the seat of the elders.
[33]He turns rivers into a desert, water springs into a thirsty
ground, [34]and a fruitful land into a salt waste,
for the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
[35]He turns a desert into a pool of
water,
and a dry land into water springs.
[36]There he makes the hungry live, that they may prepare a city
to live in,
[37]sow fields, plant vineyards, and reap the fruits of
increase.
[38]He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied greatly.
He doesn't allow their livestock to decrease.
[39]Again, they are diminished and bowed down through oppression, trouble,
and sorrow.
[40]He pours contempt on princes,

[a]107:20 wimallet probably shares the pronomial suffix with weyirpa'em. LXX Syr add suff 3 pl

and causes them to wander
in a trackless waste.
41 Yet he lifts the needy out of their
affliction,
and increases their families like a flock.
42 The upright will see it, and be glad.
All the wicked will shut
their mouths.
43 Whoever is wise will pay attention to these
things.
They will consider the loving kindnesses of
YHWH.

Psalm 108

A Song. A Psalm by David.

1 My heart is steadfast, God.
I will sing and I will make music with my soul.
2 Wake up, harp and lyre.
I will wake up the dawn.
3 I will give thanks to you, YHWH,
among the nations.
I will sing praises to you
among the peoples.
4 For your loving kindness is great above the heavens.
Your faithfulness reaches to
the skies.
5 Be exalted, God, above the
heavens.
Let your glory be over all
the earth.
6 That your beloved may be delivered,
save with your right hand,
and answer us.
7 God has spoken from his sanctuary: "In triumph,
I will divide Shechem, and measure out the Valley
of Succoth.
8 Gilead is mine. Manasseh is mine.
Ephraim also is my helmet.
Judah is my scepter.
9 Moab is my wash pot.
I will toss my sandal on Edom.
I will shout in triumph over Philistia." 10 Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who has led me to Edom?
11 Haven't you rejected us, God?
You do not go forth, God,
with our armies.
12 Give us help against the enemy,
for the help of man is vain.
13 Through God, we will do valiantly.
For it is he who will trample down our enemies.

Psalm 109

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

1 God of my praise, do not remain silent,
2 for they have opened the mouth of the wicked
and the mouth of deceit against me.
They have spoken to me
with a lying tongue.
3 They have also surrounded me with words of hatred, and fought against me

without a cause.
4In return for my love, they are my adversaries;
but I am in prayer.
5They have rewarded me evil for
good,
and hatred for my love.
6Set a wicked man over him.
Let an adversary stand at his right hand.
7When he is judged, let him come forth guilty.
Let his prayer be turned into
sin.
8Let his days be few.[a]
Let another take his office.[b] 9Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.
10Let his children be wandering beggars.
Let them be sought from their ruins.
11Let the creditor seize all that he has.
Let strangers plunder the fruit of his labor.
12Let there be none to extend kindness to him, neither let there be any to have pity on his fatherless children.
13Let his posterity be cut off.
In the generation following let their name be blotted out.
14Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered by
YHWH.
Do not let the sin of his mother be blotted out.
15Let them be before YHWH
continually,
that he may cut off the memory of them from
the earth;
16because he did not remember to show kindness, but persecuted the poor and needy man,
the broken in heart, to kill
them.
17Yes, he loved cursing, and it came to him.
He did not delight in blessing, and it was far from him.
18He clothed himself also with cursing as with his garment.
It came into his inward parts
like water,
like oil into his bones.
19Let it be to him as the clothing with which he covers
himself,
for the belt that is always around him.
20This is the reward of my adversaries from
YHWH,
of those who speak evil against my soul.

21But deal with me, YHWH the Lord[c], for your name's sake,
because your loving kindness is good,
deliver me;
22for I am poor and needy.
My heart is wounded within
me.

[23]I fade away like an evening
shadow.
I am shaken off like a locust.
[24]My knees are weak through fasting.
My body is thin and lacks
fat.
[25]I have also become a reproach to
them.
When they see me, they shake their head.
[26]Help me, YHWH, my God.
Save me according to your
loving kindness;
[27]that they may know that this is your hand;
that you, YHWH, have done
it.
[28]They may curse, but you bless.
When they arise, they will be shamed, but your servant shall
rejoice.
[29]Let my adversaries be clothed with dishonor.
Let them cover themselves with their own shame
as with a robe.
[30]I will give great thanks to YHWH with my mouth.
Yes, I will praise him among the multitude.
[31]For he will stand at the right hand of the needy, to save him from those who judge his soul.

Psalm 110

A Psalm by David.

[1]YHWH says to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."[a] [2]YHWH will send forth the rod of your strength out of
Zion.
Rule in the midst of your
enemies.
[3]Your people offer themselves willingly on the day of your power. On the holy mountains[b] at sunrise[c] the dew of your youth will be yours.
[4]YHWH has sworn, and will not change his mind:
"You are a priest forever[d] in the order of Melchizedek."[e]
[5]YHWH[f] is at your right hand.
He will crush kings in the day of his wrath.
[6]He will judge among the nations.
He will heap up dead bodies.
He will shatter the head throughout a vast territory.
[7]He will drink of the brook in the
way;
therefore he will lift up his head.

[1]Praise YAH.
Praise, you servants of
YHWH,
praise the name of YHWH.
[2]Blessed be the name of YHWH, from this time forth and
forevermore.
[3]From the rising of the sun to the going down of the

YHWH's name is to be praised.
[4]YHWH is high above all nations, his glory above the heavens.
[5]Who is like YHWH, our God, who has his seat on high, [6]Who stoops down to see in heaven and in the
earth?
[7]He raises up the poor out of the dust.
Lifts up the needy from the ash heap;
[8]that he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his
people.
[9]He settles the barren woman in her home,
as a joyful mother of
children.
Praise YAH.

Psalm 114

[1]When Israel went forth out of Egypt,

[a]112:9 2Co 9:9

the house of Jacob from a people of foreign language;
2 Judah became his sanctuary,
Israel his dominion.
3 The sea saw it, and fled.
The Jordan was driven back.
4 The mountains skipped like rams, the little hills like lambs.
5 What was it, you sea, that you fled?
You Jordan, that you turned back?
6 You mountains, that you skipped like rams;
you little hills, like lambs?
7 Tremble, you earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of
Jacob,
8 who turned the rock into a pool of
water,
the flint into a spring of waters.

Psalm 115

1 Not to us, YHWH, not to us, but to your name be the
glory,
for your loving kindness and[a] for your faithfulness.
2 Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God, now?"
3 But our God is in the heavens.
He does whatever he pleases.
4 Their idols are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.
5 They have mouths, but they do

They have eyes, but they do

6 They have ears, but they do not

They have noses, but they do

They have feet, but they do

8 Those who make them will be

them.
9 Israel, trust in YHWH.
He is their help and their

10 House of Aaron, trust in YHWH.
He is their help and their
shield.
11 You who fear YHWH, trust in
YHWH.
He is their help and their

12 YHWH remembers us. He will bless us.
He will bless the house of
Israel.
He will bless the house of Aaron.
13 He will bless those who fear
YHWH,
both small and great.
14 May YHWH increase you more and more,
you and your children.
15 Blessed are you by YHWH, who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 116

1 I love YHWH, because he listens to my[a] voice, and my cries for mercy.
2 Because he has turned his ear to me, therefore I will call on him as long as I live.
3 The cords of death surrounded me, the pains of Sheol got a hold of me.
I found trouble and sorrow.
4 Then I called on the name of YHWH: "YHWH, I beg you, deliver my soul."
5 YHWH is Gracious and righteous.
Yes, our God is merciful.
6 YHWH preserves the simple.
I was brought low, and he saved me.
7 Return to your rest, my soul, for YHWH has dealt bountifully with you.
8 For you have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears,
and my feet from falling.
9 I will walk before YHWH in the land of the living.
10 I believed, therefore I said,[b]
"I am greatly afflicted." 11 I said in my haste,
"All men are liars."
12 What will I give to YHWH for all his benefits toward me?
13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of YHWH.
14 I will pay my vows to YHWH,
yes, in the presence of all his people.
15 Precious in the sight of YHWH is the death of his faithful ones.
16 YHWH, truly I am your servant.
I am your servant, the son of your handmaid.
You have freed me from my chains.
17 I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call on the name of YHWH.
18 I will pay my vows to YHWH,
yes, in the presence of all his people, 19 in the courts of YHWH's house, in the midst of you, Jerusalem.

among thorns.
In the name of YHWH I cut
them off.
13I was pushed[f] hard, to make me
fall,
but YHWH helped me.
14YAH is my strength and my song,[g]
He has become my
salvation.
15The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous.
"The right hand of YHWH does valiantly.
16The right hand of YHWH is exalted.

17 I will not die, but live, and declare the works of YAH.
18 YAH has punished me severely, but he has not given me over to death.
19 Open to me the gates of
righteousness.
I will enter into them and
praise YAH.
20 This is the gate of YHWH; the righteous will enter into
it.
21 I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me,
and have become my
salvation.
22 The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.[a] 23 This is YHWH's doing.
It is marvelous in our eyes.
24 This is the day that YHWH has made.
We will rejoice and be glad
in it.
25 Save us now, we beg you,
YHWH.
YHWH, we beg you, send prosperity now.
26 Blessed is he who comes in the name of YHWH.[b]
We have blessed you[c] out of the house of YHWH.
27 YHWH is God, and he has given us light.
Bind the sacrifice with cords, even to the horns of the altar.
28 You are my God, and I will give thanks to you.
You are my God, I will exalt
you.
29 Oh give thanks to YHWH, for he is good,
for his loving kindness
endures forever.

Psalm 119

1 Blessed are those whose ways are blameless,
who walk according to the law of YHWH.
2 Blessed are those who keep his decrees,
who seek him with their whole heart.
3 Yes, they do nothing wrong.
They walk in his ways.
4 You have commanded your precepts,
that we should fully obey
them.
5 Oh that my ways were steadfast to obey your statutes.
6 Then I wouldn't be disappointed, when I consider all of your
commandments.
7 I will give thanks to you with uprightness of heart, when I learn your righteous judgments.
8 I will observe your statutes.

[c] 118:26 DSS Ms adds "by (your) name," possibly lost by homoioteleuton: m-m

Do not utterly forsake me.

9How can a young man keep his way pure?
By living according to your
word.
10With my whole heart, I have sought you.
Do not let me wander from your commandments.
11In my heart I have hidden your word, that I might not sin against you.
12Blessed are you, YHWH.
Teach me your statutes.
13With my lips,
I have declared all the ordinances of your
mouth.
14I have rejoiced in the way of your testimonies,
as much as in all riches.
15I will meditate on your precepts, and consider your ways.
16I will delight myself in your statutes.
I will not forget your word.

17Deal bountifully with your
servant,
that I may live and keep your word.
18Open my eyes,
that I may see wondrous things out of your
Law.
19I am a stranger on the earth.
Do not hide your commandments from
me.
20My soul is consumed with longing for your ordinances at all times.
21You have rebuked the proud who are cursed,
who wander from your
commandments.
22Take reproach and contempt
away from me,
for I have kept your statutes.
23Though princes sit and slander
me,
your servant will meditate on your statutes.
24Indeed your statutes are my delight,
and my counselors.

25My soul is laid low in the dust.
Revive me according to your
word.
26I declared my ways, and you answered me.
Teach me your statutes.
27Let me understand the teaching of your precepts.
Then I will meditate on your
wondrous works.
28My soul is weary with sorrow: strengthen me according to your word.
29Keep me from the way of deceit.
Grant me your Law graciously.
30I have chosen the way of truth.
I have set your ordinances
before me.
31I cling to your statutes, YHWH.
Do not let me be disappointed.
32I run in the path of your
commandments,
for you have set my heart
free.

33Teach me, YHWH, the way of your statutes.
I will keep them to the end.
34Give me understanding, and I will keep your Law.

Yes, I will obey it with my whole heart.
35Direct me in the path of your
commandments,
for I delight in them.
36Turn my heart toward your
statutes,
not toward selfish gain.
37Turn my eyes away from looking at worthless things.
Revive me in your ways.
38Fulfill your promise to your
servant,
that you may be feared.
39Take away my disgrace that I dread,
for your ordinances are
good.
40Look, I long for your precepts.
Revive me in your
righteousness.

41Let your loving kindness also come to me, YHWH, your salvation, according to
your word.
42So I will have an answer for him who reproaches me,
for I trust in your word.
43Do not snatch the word of truth out of my mouth, for I put my hope in your
ordinances.
44So I will obey your Law continually,
forever and ever.
45I will walk in liberty, for I have sought your
precepts.
46I will also speak of your statutes before kings,
and will not be disappointed.
47I will delight myself in your
commandments,
because I love them.

48I reach out my hands for your commandments, which I love.
I will meditate on your
statutes.

49Remember your word to your
servant,
because you gave me hope.
50This is my comfort in my
affliction,
for your word has revived
me.
51The arrogant mock me excessively,
but I do not swerve from your Law.
52I remember your ordinances of old, YHWH,
and have comforted myself.
53Indignation has taken hold on
me, because of the wicked who forsake your Law.
54Your statutes have been my songs,
in the house where I live.
55I have remembered your name, YHWH, in the night,
and I obey your Law.
56This is my way,
that I keep your precepts.

57YHWH is my portion.
I promised to obey your
words.
58I sought your favor with my whole heart.
Be merciful to me according to your word.
59I considered my ways, and turned my steps to your
statutes.
60I will hurry, and not delay, to obey your
commandments.

61 The ropes of the wicked bind
me,
but I won't forget your Law.
62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks to you,
because of your righteous
ordinances.
63 I am a friend of all those who fear you,
of those who observe your
precepts.
64 The earth is full of your loving kindness, YHWH.
Teach me your statutes.

65 Do good to your servant, according to your word,
YHWH.
66 Teach me good judgment and
knowledge,
for I believe in your
commandments.
67 Before I was afflicted, I went astray;
but now I observe your
word.
68 You are good, and do good.
Teach me your statutes.
69 The proud have smeared a lie upon me.
With my whole heart, I will keep your precepts.
70 Their heart is as callous as the
fat,
but I delight in your Law.
71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted,
that I may learn your
statutes.
72 The Law you have spoken is better to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

73 Your hands have made me and formed me.
Give me understanding, that I may learn your
commandments.
74 Those who fear you will see me
and be glad,
because I have put my hope in your word.
75 YHWH, I know that your judgments are
righteous,
that in faithfulness you have humbled[a] me.
76 Please let your loving kindness be for my comfort,
according to your word to your servant.
77 Let your tender mercies come to me, that I may live;
for your Law is my delight.
78 Let the proud be disappointed, for they have overthrown me
wrongfully.
I will meditate on your
precepts.
79 Let those who fear you turn to
me.
They will know your
statutes.
80 Let my heart be blameless toward your decrees, that I may not be disappointed.

81 My soul faints for your salvation.
I hope in your word.
82 My eyes fail for your word.
I say, "When will you
comfort me?"

[a] 119:75 Or, afflicted

[83]For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke.
I do not forget your statutes.
[84]How many are the days of your servant?
When will you execute judgment on those who persecute me?
[85]The proud have dug pits for me, contrary to your Law.
[86]All of your commandments are faithful.
They persecute me
wrongfully.
Help me.
[87]They had almost wiped me from
the earth,
but I did not forsake your
precepts.
[88]Preserve my life according to
your loving kindness,
so I will obey the statutes of
your mouth.

[89]YHWH, your word is settled in heaven forever.
[90]Your faithfulness is to all generations.
You have established the earth, and it remains.
[91]Your laws remain to this day, for all things serve you.
[92]Unless your Law had been my
delight,
I would have perished in my
affliction.
[93]I will never forget your precepts, for with them, you have revived me.
[94]I am yours.
Save me, for I have sought your precepts.
[95]The wicked have waited for me, to destroy me.
I will consider your statutes.

[96]I have seen a limit to all perfection, but your commands are boundless.

[97]How I love your Law.
It is my meditation all day.
[98]Your commandments make me wiser than my
enemies,
for your commandments are always with me.
[99]I have more understanding than all my teachers, for your testimonies are my meditation.
[100]I understand more than the aged,
because I have kept your
precepts.
[101]I have kept my feet from every evil way,
that I might observe your
word.
[102]I have not turned aside from your ordinances,
for you have taught me.
[103]How sweet are your promises to my taste,
more than honey to my
mouth.
[104]Through your precepts, I get
understanding;
therefore I hate every false
way.

[105]Your word is a lamp to my feet, and a light for my path.
[106]I have sworn, and have confirmed it,
that I will obey your righteous ordinances.
[107]I am afflicted very much.
Revive me, YHWH,
according to your
word.

[108]Please accept the freewill offerings of my mouth, YHWH, and teach me your
ordinances.
[109]My soul is continually in my[a]
hand,
yet I won't forget your Law.
[110]The wicked have laid a snare for
me,
yet I haven't gone astray from your precepts.
[111]I have taken your testimonies as a heritage forever, for they are the joy of my
heart.
[112]I have set my heart to perform your statutes forever,
even to the end.

[113]I hate double-minded men, but I love your Law.
[114]You are my hiding place and my shield.
I hope in your word.
[115]Depart from me, you evildoers, that I may keep the commandments of my
God.
[116]Uphold me according to your word, that I may live.
Let me not be ashamed of my hope.
[117]Hold me up, and I will be safe, and will have respect for your statutes
continually.
[118]You reject all those who stray from your statutes,
for their deceit is in vain.
[119]You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross.
Therefore I love your
testimonies.
[120]My flesh trembles for fear of
you.
I am afraid of your
judgments.

[121]I have done what is just and
righteous.
Do not leave me to my oppressors.
[122]Ensure your servant's well-being.
Do not let the proud oppress
me.
[123]My eyes fail looking for your
salvation,
for your righteous word.
[124]Deal with your servant
according to your
loving kindness.
Teach me your statutes.
[125]I am your servant. Give me
understanding,
that I may know your
testimonies.
[126]It is time to act, YHWH, for they break your Law.
[127]Therefore I love your commandments more than gold,
yes, more than pure gold.
[128]Therefore I consider all of your precepts to be right.
I hate every false way.

[129]Your testimonies are wonderful, therefore my soul keeps
them.
[130]The entrance of your words gives light.

[a]119:109 MT DSS LXX. LXX(R) Syr OL read "your." A k-y interchange

It gives understanding to the simple.
131 I opened my mouth wide and panted, for I longed for your commandments.
132 Turn to me, and have mercy on me, as you always do to those who love your name.
133 Establish my footsteps in your word.
Do not let any iniquity have dominion over me.
134 Redeem me from the oppression of man, so I will observe your precepts.
135 Make your face shine on your servant.
Teach me your statutes.
136 Streams of tears run down my eyes, because they do not observe your Law.

137 You are righteous, YHWH.
Your judgments are upright.
138 You have commanded your statutes in righteousness.
They are fully trustworthy.
139 My zeal wears me out, because my enemies ignore your words.
140 Your promises have been thoroughly tested, and your servant loves them.
141 I am small and despised.
I do not forget your precepts.
142 Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness.
Your Law is truth.
143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold of me.
Your commandments are my delight.
144 Your testimonies are righteous forever.
Give me understanding, that I may live.

145 I have called with my whole heart.
Answer me, YHWH.
I will keep your statutes.
146 I have called to you. Save me.
I will obey your statutes.
147 I rise before dawn and cry for help.
I put my hope in your words.
148 My eyes stay open through the night watches, that I might meditate on your word.
149 Hear my voice according to your loving kindness.
Revive me, YHWH, according to your ordinances.
150 They draw near who follow after wickedness.
They are far from your Law.
151 You are near, YHWH.
All your commandments are truth.
152 Of old I have known from your testimonies, that you have founded them forever.

153 Consider my affliction, and deliver me, for I do not forget your Law.
154 Plead my cause, and redeem me.
Revive me according to your promise.
155 Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek your

statutes.
156Great are your tender mercies,
YHWH.
Revive me according to your
ordinances.
157Many are my persecutors and
my adversaries.
I haven't swerved from your
testimonies.
158I look at the faithless with loathing,
because they do not observe
your word.
159Consider how I love your
precepts.
Revive me, YHWH,
according to your
loving kindness.
160All of your words are truth.
Every one of your righteous ordinances endures
forever.

161Princes have persecuted me
without a cause,
but my heart stands in awe of your words.
162I rejoice at your word, as one who finds great spoil.
163I hate and abhor falsehood.
I love your Law.
164Seven times a day, I praise you,
because of your righteous
ordinances.
165Those who love your Law have great peace.
Nothing causes them to stumble.
166I have hoped for your salvation,
YHWH.
I have done your
commandments.
167My soul has observed your testimonies.
I love them exceedingly.
168I have obeyed your precepts and
your testimonies,
for all my ways are before
you.

169Let my cry come before you,
YHWH.
Give me understanding
according to your
word.
170Let my petition come before
you.
Deliver me according to your word.
171Let my lips utter praise, for you teach me your
statutes.
172Let my tongue sing of your
word,
for all your commandments are righteousness.
173Let your hand be ready to help
me,
for I have chosen your
precepts.
174I have longed for your salvation,
YHWH.
Your Law is my delight.
175Let my soul live, that I may praise you.
Let your ordinances help
me.
176I have gone astray like a lost sheep.
Seek your servant, for I do not forget your commandments.

Psalm 120

A Song of Ascents.

1In my distress, I cried to YHWH.
He answered me.

[2]Deliver my soul, YHWH, from lying lips,
from a deceitful tongue.
[3]What will be given to you, and what will be done
more to you,
you deceitful tongue?
[4]Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.
[5]Woe is me, that I live in Meshech,
that I dwell among the tents of Kedar.
[6]My soul has had her dwelling too long
with him who hates peace.
[7]I am for peace, but when I speak, they are for war.

Psalm 121

A Song of Ascents.

[1]I will lift up my eyes to the hills.
Where does my help come from?
[2]My help comes from YHWH,
who made heaven and earth.
[3]He will not allow your foot to be moved.
He who keeps you will not slumber.
[4]Look, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
[5]YHWH is your keeper.
YHWH is your shade on your
right hand.
[6]The sun will not harm you by
day,
nor the moon by night.
[7]YHWH will keep you from all
evil.
He will keep your soul.
[8]YHWH will keep your going out and your coming in,
from this time forth, and
forevermore.

Psalm 122

A Song of Ascents. By David.

[1]I was glad when they said to me,
"Let's go to YHWH's
house."
[2]Our feet are standing within your gates, Jerusalem;
[3]Jerusalem, that is built as a city that is joined[a]
together;
[4]where the tribes go up, even the tribes of YAH,
according to an ordinance for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of
YHWH.
[5]For there are set thrones for judgment,
the thrones of David's
house.
[6]Pray for the peace of Jerusalem.
Those who love you will prosper.
[7]Peace be within your walls, and prosperity within your palaces.
[8]For my brothers' and companions' sakes,
I will now say, "Peace be within you."

[a]122:3 Or, "that has a company"

[9]For the sake of the house of
YHWH our God,
I will seek your good.

Psalm 123

A Song of Ascents.

[1]To you I do lift up my eyes, you who sit in the heavens.
[2]Look, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master,
as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress;
so our eyes look to YHWH,
our God,
until he has mercy on us.
[3]Have mercy on us, YHWH, have mercy on us,
for we have endured much
contempt.
[4]Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scoffing of those who are at ease, with the contempt of the proud.

Psalm 124

A Song of Ascents. By David.

[1]If it had not been YHWH who was
on our side,
let Israel now say,
[2]if it had not been YHWH who was
on our side,
when men rose up against
us;
[3]then they would have swallowed us up alive, when their wrath was kindled against us;
[4]then the waters would have overwhelmed us,
the stream would have gone over our soul;
[5]then the proud waters would have gone over our soul.
[6]Blessed be YHWH,
who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.
[7]Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the fowler's snare.
The snare is broken, and we have escaped.
[8]Our help is in the name of YHWH, who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A Song of Ascents.

[1]Those who trust in YHWH are as Mount Zion,
which cannot be moved, but remains forever.
[2]As the mountains surround
Jerusalem,
so YHWH surrounds his people from this time
forth and forevermore.
[3]For the scepter of wickedness won't remain over the allotment of the
righteous;
so that the righteous won't use their hands to do
evil.
[4]Do good, YHWH, to those who are good,
to those who are upright in their hearts.
[5]But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways,

YHWH will lead them away with evildoers.
Peace be on Israel.

Psalm 126

A Song of Ascents.

[1]When YHWH brought back those who returned to Zion, we were like those who dream.
[2]Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with singing.
Then they said among the nations,
"YHWH has done great things for them."
[3]YHWH has done great things for
us,
and we are glad.
[4]Restore our fortunes again,
YHWH,
like the streams in the Negev.
[5]Those who sow in tears will reap in joy.
[6]He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing,
will certainly come again with joy, carrying his sheaves.

Psalm 127

A Song of Ascents. By Solomon.

[1]Unless YHWH builds the house, they labor in vain who build
it.
Unless YHWH watches over the
city,
the watchman guards it in vain.
[2]It is vain for you to rise up early,
to stay up late,
eating the bread of toil;
for he gives sleep to his loved ones.
[3]Look, children are a heritage of
YHWH.
The fruit of the womb is a reward.
[4]As arrows in the hand of a mighty
man,
so are the children of youth.
[5]Blessed is the man who has his quiver full of them.
They won't be disappointed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128

A Song of Ascents.

[1]Blessed is everyone who fears
YHWH,
who walks in his ways.
[2]For you will eat the labor of your
hands;
you will be blessed, and it will be well with you.
[3]Your wife will be as a fruitful
vine,
in the innermost parts of
your house;
your children like olive plants,
around your table.
[4]Look, thus is the man blessed who fears YHWH.
[5]May YHWH bless you out of Zion,

and may you see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life.
6Yes, may you see your children's children.
Peace be upon Israel.

Psalm 129

A Song of Ascents.

1Many times they have afflicted
me from my youth up.
Let Israel now say,
2many times they have afflicted
me from my youth up,
yet they have not prevailed
against me.
3The plowers plowed on my back.
They made their furrows
long.
4YHWH is righteous.
He has cut apart the cords of
the wicked.
5Let them be disappointed and turned backward,
all those who hate Zion.
6Let them be as the grass on the housetops,
which withers before it grows up;
7with which the reaper doesn't fill his hand,
nor he who binds sheaves,
his bosom.
8Neither do those who go by say,
"The blessing of YHWH be on you.
We bless you in the name of YHWH."

Psalm 130

A Song of Ascents.

1Out of the depths I have cried to you, YHWH.
2YHWH,[a] hear my voice.
Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my petitions.
3If you, YAH, kept a record of sins, YHWH,[b] who could stand?
4But there is forgiveness with you, so that you may be revered.
5I wait for YHWH.
My soul waits.
I hope in his word.
6My soul longs for YHWH[c] more than watchmen long for the morning;
more than watchmen for the
morning.
7Israel, hope in YHWH,
for with YHWH there is
loving kindness.
With him is abundant redemption.
8He will redeem Israel from all their sins.

Psalm 131

A Song of Ascents. By David.

1YHWH, my heart isn't haughty, nor my eyes lofty;
nor do I concern myself with great matters,

[a]130:2 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"
[b]130:3 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord"
[c]130:6 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord" or things too wonderful for me.

[2]Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with his mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me.
[3]Israel, hope in YHWH,
from this time forth and forevermore.

Psalm 132

A Song of Ascents.

[1]YHWH, remember David and all his affliction, [2]how he swore to YHWH, and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob: [3]"Surely I will not come into the structure of my house, nor go up into my bed;
[4]I will not give sleep to my eyes, or slumber to my eyelids;
[5]until I find out a place for YHWH, a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob." [6]Look, we heard of it in Ephrathah.
We found it in the field of Jaar:
[7]"We will go into his dwelling place.
We will worship at his footstool.
[8]Arise, YHWH, to your resting place, you and the ark of your strength.
[9]Let your priest be clothed with righteousness.
Let your faithful ones shout for joy." [10]For your servant David's sake, do not turn away the face of your anointed one.
[11]YHWH has sworn to David in truth.
He will not turn from it:
"I will set the fruit of your body on your throne.
[12]If your children will keep my covenant, my testimony that I will teach them, their children also will sit on your throne forevermore." [13]For YHWH has chosen Zion; he has desired it for his dwelling.
[14]"This is my resting place forever.
Here I will live, for I have desired it.
[15]I will abundantly bless her provision.
I will satisfy her poor with bread.
[16]Her priests I will also clothe with salvation.
Her faithful ones will shout aloud for joy.
[17]There I will make the horn of David to bud.
I have ordained a lamp for my anointed.
[18]I will clothe his enemies with shame, but on himself, his crown will be resplendent."

Psalm 133

A Song of Ascents. By David.

[1]See how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live together in unity.
[2]It is like the precious oil on the head,
that ran down on the beard,
even Aaron's beard;
that came down on the edge of his robes;
[3]like the dew of Hermon, that comes down on the hills
of Zion:
for there YHWH gives the
blessing,
even life forevermore.

Psalm 134

A Song of Ascents.

[1]Look. Praise YHWH, all you servants of YHWH,
who stand by night in YHWH's house.
[2]Lift up your hands in the sanctuary.
Praise YHWH.
[3]May YHWH bless you from Zion; even he who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 135

[1]Praise YAH.
Praise the name of YHWH.
Praise him, you servants of
YHWH,
[2]you who stand in the house of
YHWH,
in the courts of our God's
house.
[3]Praise YAH, for YHWH is good.
Sing praises to his name, for that is pleasant.
[4]For YAH has chosen Jacob for
himself;
Israel for his own
possession.
[5]For I know that YHWH is great, that our Lord is above all gods.
[6]Whatever YHWH pleased, that he has done,
in heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps;
[7]who causes the clouds to rise from the farthest parts
of the earth;
who makes lightnings with the rain;
who brings forth the wind out of his treasuries;
[8]Who struck the firstborn of Egypt,
both of man and animal; [9]Who sent signs and wonders into the midst of you,
Egypt,
on Pharaoh, and on all his
servants;
[10]who struck many nations,
and killed mighty kings, [11]Sihon king of the Amorites,
Og king of Bashan,
and all the kingdoms of Canaan,
[12]and gave their land for a heritage,
a heritage to Israel, his
people.
[13]Your name, YHWH, endures
forever;
your renown, YHWH, throughout all
generations.
[14]For YHWH will judge his people, and have compassion on his

servants.
15The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.
16They have mouths, but they can't speak.
They have eyes, but they can't see.
17They have ears, but they can't hear;
neither is there any breath in their mouths.
18Those who make them will be like them;
yes, everyone who trusts in
them.
19House of Israel, praise YHWH.
House of Aaron, praise
YHWH.
20House of Levi, praise YHWH.
You who fear YHWH, praise
YHWH.
21Blessed be YHWH from Zion,
Who dwells at Jerusalem.
Praise YAH.

Psalm 136

1Give thanks to YHWH, for he is
good;
for his loving kindness
endures forever.
2Give thanks to the God of gods;
for his loving kindness
endures forever.
3Give thanks to the Lord of lords;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
4To him who alone does great wonders;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
5To him who by understanding made the heavens;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
6To him who spread out the earth above the waters;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
7To him who made the great lights;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
8The sun to rule by day;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
9The moon and stars to rule by
night;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
10To him who struck down the Egyptian firstborn;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
11And brought out Israel from among them;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
12With a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
13To him who divided the Red Sea
apart;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
14And made Israel to pass through its midst;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
15But shook off Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
16To him who led his people through the
wilderness;

for his loving kindness
endures forever:
17To him who struck great kings;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
18And killed mighty kings;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
19Sihon king of the Amorites;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
20Og king of Bashan;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
21And gave their land as an
inheritance;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
22Even a heritage to Israel his
servant;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
23Who remembered us in our low estate;
for his loving kindness
endures forever;
24And has delivered us from our
adversaries;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
25Who gives food to every creature;
for his loving kindness
endures forever.
26Oh give thanks to the God of
heaven;
for his loving kindness
endures forever.

Psalm 137

1By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down.
Yes, we wept, when we remembered Zion.
2On the willows in its midst, we hung up our harps.
3For there, those who led us captive asked us for songs.
Those who tormented us demanded songs of
joy:
"Sing us one of the songs of Zion."
4How can we sing YHWH's song in a foreign land?
5If I forget you, Jerusalem, let my right hand be forgotten.[a] 6Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I do not remember you;
if I do not prefer Jerusalem above my chief joy.
7Remember, YHWH, against the descendants of Edom, the day of Jerusalem;
who said, "Raze it.
Raze it even to its foundation."
8Daughter of Babylon, doomed to
destruction,
he will be blessed who rewards you,
as you have served us.
9Blessed shall he be who takes and dashes your little ones against the rock.

[a]137:5 LXX. MT reads "hand forget"

Psalm 138

By David.

[1]I will give you thanks, YHWH[a], with my whole heart.
Before the gods[b]
I will sing praises to you.
[2]I will bow down toward your holy temple,
and give thanks to your Name for your loving kindness and for your truth;
for you have exalted your Name and your word
above all.
[3]In the day that I called, you answered me.
You encouraged me with strength in my soul.
[4]All the kings of the earth will give you thanks,
YHWH,
for they have heard the words of your mouth.
[5]Yes, they will sing of the ways of
YHWH;
for great is YHWH's glory.
[6]For though YHWH is high, yet he looks after the lowly;
but the proud, he knows
from afar.
[7]Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you will revive me.
You will stretch forth your hand against the wrath
of my enemies.
Your right hand will save
me.
[8]YHWH will fulfill that which concerns me;
your loving kindness,
YHWH, endures
forever.
Do not forsake the works of your own hands.

Psalm 139

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

[1]YHWH, you have searched me, and you know me.
[2]You know my sitting down and my rising up.
You perceive my thoughts
from afar.
[3]You search out my path and my lying down,
and are acquainted with all my ways.
[4]For there is not a word on my
tongue,
but, look, YHWH, you know it altogether.
[5]You encircle me behind and in front,
and you place your hand
upon me.
[6]This knowledge is beyond me.
It's lofty.
I can't attain it.
[7]Where could I go from your Spirit?
Or where could I flee from
your presence?

[a]138:3 DSS(11QPs (a)) LXX Tg Syr Vg. MT reads "Lord"

[b]138:1 Psa 95:3; 96:5

[8]If I ascend up into heaven, you are there.
If I make my bed in Sheol, look, you are there.
[9]If I take the wings of the dawn, and settle in the uttermost parts of the sea; [10]Even there your hand will lead me, and your right hand will hold me.
[11]If I say, “Surely the darkness will overwhelm me; the light around me will be night;” [12]even the darkness doesn’t hide from you, but the night shines as the day.
The darkness is like light to you.
[13]For you formed my inmost being.
You knit me together in my mother’s womb.
[14]I will give thanks to you, for I am awesomely and wonderfully made.
Your works are wonderful, and my soul knows that very well.
[15]My frame wasn’t hidden from you, when I was made in secret, woven together in the depths of the earth.
[16]Your eyes saw my body.
In your book they were all written,
the days that were ordained for me, when as yet there were none of them.
[17]How precious to me are your thoughts, God.
How vast is the sum of them.
[18]If I would count them, they are more in number than the sand.
When I wake up, I am still with you.
[19]If only you, God, would kill the wicked.
Get away from me, you bloodthirsty men.
[20]For they speak against you wickedly.
Your enemies take your name in vain.
[21]YHWH, do I not hate those who hate you?
Am I not grieved with those who rise up against you?
[22]I hate them with perfect hatred.
They have become my enemies.
[23]Search me, God, and know my heart.
Try me, and know my thoughts.
[24]See if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way.

Psalm 140

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

[1]Deliver me, YHWH, from the evil man.
Preserve me from the violent man;
[2]those who devise mischief in their hearts.

They continually gather themselves together
for war.
3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent.
Viper's poison is under their lips.
Selah.
4 YHWH, keep me from the hands
of the wicked.
Preserve me from the violent men who have determined to trip my feet.
5 The proud have hidden a snare for
me,
they have spread the cords of a net by the path.
They have set traps for me.
Selah.
6 I said to YHWH, "You are my
God."
Listen to the cry of my petitions, YHWH.
7 YHWH, the Lord,[a] the strength of
my salvation,
you have covered my head in the day of battle.
8 YHWH, do not grant the desires of
the wicked.
Do not let their evil plans succeed, or they will become proud.
Selah.
9 As for the head of those who surround me,
let the mischief of their own lips cover them.
10 Let burning coals fall on them.
Let them be thrown into the
fire,
into miry pits, from where they never rise.
11 An evil speaker won't be established in the
earth.
Evil will hunt the violent man to overthrow him.
12 I know that YHWH will maintain the cause of the afflicted,
and justice for the needy.
13 Surely the righteous will give thanks to your name.
The upright will dwell in your presence.

Psalm 141

A Psalm by David.

1 YHWH, I have called on you.
Come to me quickly.
Listen to my voice when I call to you.
2 Let my prayer be set before you like incense;
the lifting up of my hands like the evening
sacrifice.
3 Set a watch, YHWH, before my
mouth.
Keep the door of my lips.
4 Do not incline my heart to any evil thing,
to practice deeds of wickedness with men who work iniquity.
Do not let me eat of their delicacies.
5 Let the righteous strike me, it is
kindness;
let him reprove me, it is like oil on the head;

[a] 140:7 OL(G) lacks "the Lord" do not let my head refuse it; Yet my prayer is always against evil deeds.

6Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock.
They will hear my words, for they are well
spoken.
7"As when one plows and breaks up the earth,
our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol."
8For my eyes are on you, YHWH.[a]
In you, I take refuge.
Do not leave my soul destitute.
9Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me,
from the traps of evildoers.
10Let the wicked fall together into their own nets,
while I pass by.

Psalm 142

A contemplation by David, when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

1I cry with my voice to YHWH.
With my voice, I ask YHWH for mercy.
2I pour out my complaint before
him.
I tell him my troubles.
3When my spirit was overwhelmed
within me,
you knew my path.
In the way in which I walk, they have hidden a snare for
me.
4Look on my right, and see;
for there is no one who is concerned for me.
Refuge has fled from me.
No one cares for my soul.
5I cried to you, YHWH.
I said, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living."
6Listen to my cry,
for I am in desperate need.
Deliver me from my persecutors, for they are stronger than
me.
7Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks to your name.
The righteous will surround me,
for you will be good to me.

Psalm 143

A Psalm by David.

1Hear my prayer, YHWH.
Listen to my petitions.
In your faithfulness and righteousness, relieve
me.
2Do not enter into judgment with
your servant,
for in your sight no man living is righteous.
3For the enemy pursues my soul.
He has struck my life down
to the ground.
He has made me live in dark places, as those who have been long dead.

[a]141:8 Hebrew Mss LXX Ms OL Ms
Sa Syr; Aug. MT adds "the Lord"

4 Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within
me.
My heart within me is desolate.
5 I remember the days of old.
I meditate on all your doings.
I contemplate the work of your hands.
6 I spread forth my hands to you.
My soul thirsts for you, like a parched land.
Selah.
7 Hurry to answer me, YHWH.
My spirit fails.
Do not hide your face from me, so that I do not become like those who go down into the pit.
8 Cause me to hear your loving kindness in the
morning,
for I trust in you.
Cause me to know the way in which I should walk, for I lift up my soul to you.
9 Deliver me, YHWH, from my
enemies.
I run to you for refuge.[a] 10 Teach me to do your will,
for you are my God.
Your Spirit is good.
Lead me in the land of uprightness.
11 Revive me, YHWH, for your name's sake.
In your righteousness, bring my soul out of trouble.
12 In your loving kindness, cut off my enemies,
and destroy all those who afflict my soul,
For I am your servant.

Psalm 144

By David.

1 Blessed be YHWH, my Rock, who teaches my hands to
war,
and my fingers to battle: 2 my loving kindness, my fortress, my high tower, my deliverer, my shield, and he in whom I
take refuge;
who subdues peoples[b] under
me.
3 YHWH, what is man, that you care for him?
Or the son of man, that you think of him?
4 Man is like a breath.
His days are like a shadow that passes away.
5 Part your heavens, YHWH, and come down.
Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.
6 Throw out lightning, and scatter
them.
Send out your arrows, and rout them.
7 Stretch out your hand from above, rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters, out of the hands of foreigners;
8 whose mouths speak deceit,

[a] 143:9 Hebrew Ms LXX. MT reads "To you I have covered"

[b] 144:2 DSS Hebrew Mss. MT reads "subues my people"

Whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
9 I will sing a new song to you, God.
On a ten-stringed lyre, I will sing praises to you.
10 You are he who gives salvation to kings, who rescues David, his servant, from the deadly sword.
11 Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hands of foreigners,
whose mouths speak deceit,
whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

12 Then our sons will be like well-nurtured plants, our daughters like pillars carved to adorn a palace.
13 Our storehouses are full, filled with all kinds of provision.
Our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields.
14 Our oxen will pull heavy loads.
There is no breaking in, and no going away, and no outcry in our streets.

15 Blessed are the people who are in such a situation.
Blessed are the people whose God is YHWH.

Psalm 146

1 Praise YAH.
Praise YHWH, my soul.
2 While I live, I will praise YHWH.
I will sing praises to my God as long as I exist.
3 Do not put your trust in princes, each a son of man in whom

YHWH frees the prisoners.
8 YHWH opens the eyes of YHWH loves the righteous.

9 YHWH preserves the foreigners.

for it is pleasant and fitting

2 YHWH builds up Jerusalem.
He gathers together the outcasts of Israel.
3 He heals the broken in heart, and binds up their wounds.
4 He counts the number of the stars.
He calls them all by their names.
5 Great is our Lord, and mighty in power.
His understanding is infinite.
6 YHWH upholds the humble.
He brings the wicked down
to the ground.
7 Sing to YHWH with thanksgiving.
Sing praises on the harp to
our God,
8 who covers the sky with clouds, who prepares rain for the
earth,
who makes grass grow on the mountains.
9 He provides food for the livestock,
and for the young ravens
when they call.
10 He doesn't delight in the strength of the horse.
He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man.
11 YHWH takes pleasure in those
who fear him,
in those who hope in his
loving kindness.
12 Praise YHWH, Jerusalem.
Praise your God, Zion.
13 For he has strengthened the bars of your gates.
He has blessed your children
within you.
14 He makes peace in your borders.
He fills you with the finest of the wheat.
15 He sends out his commandment to the earth.
His word runs very swiftly.
16 He gives snow like wool, and scatters frost like ashes.
17 He hurls down his hail like pebbles.
Who can stand before his cold?
18 He sends out his word, and melts
them.
He causes his wind to blow, and the waters flow.
19 He shows his word to Jacob; his statutes and his ordinances to Israel.
20 He has not done this for just any nation.
They do not know his
ordinances.

1 Praise YAH.
Praise YHWH from the
heavens.
Praise him in the heights.
2 Praise him, all his angels.
Praise him, all his army.
3 Praise him, sun and moon.
Praise him, all you shining stars.
4 Praise him, you heavens of
heavens,
You waters that are above

5 Let them praise the name of stormy wind, fulfilling his

word;

fruit trees and all cedars;

small creatures and flying birds;
11kings of the earth and all
peoples;
princes and all judges of the
earth;
12both young men and maidens;
old men and children:
13let them praise the name of
YHWH,
for his name alone is exalted.
His glory is above the earth and the heavens.
14He has lifted up the horn of his
people,
the praise of all his faithful
ones;
even of the children of Israel, a people near to
him.
Praise YAH.

Psalm 149

1Praise YAH.
Sing to YHWH a new song, his praise in the assembly of the faithful ones.
2Let Israel rejoice in him who made them.
Let the people of Zion be joyful in their King.
3Let them praise his name in the dance.
Let them sing praises to him with tambourine and
harp.
4For YHWH takes pleasure in his
people.
He crowns the humble with
salvation.
5Let the faithful ones rejoice in glory.
Let them sing for joy on their beds.
6May the high praises of God be in
their mouths,
and a two-edged sword in their hand;
7To execute vengeance on the
nations,
and punishments on the
peoples;
8To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters
of iron;
9to execute on them the written judgment.
All his faithful ones have this honor.
Praise YAH.

Psalm 150

1Praise YAH.
Praise God in his sanctuary.
Praise him in his heavens for his acts of power.
2Praise him for his mighty acts.
Praise him according to his excellent greatness.
3Praise him with the sounding of the trumpet.

Praise him with harp and
lyre.
4Praise him with tambourine and dancing.
Praise him with stringed instruments and flute.
5Praise him with loud cymbals.
Praise him with resounding cymbals.
6Let everything that has breath
praise YAH.
Praise YAH.

Proverbs

1 The proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel:
2To know wisdom and instruction, to discern the words of
understanding.
3To receive instruction in wise dealing,
in righteousness, justice, and equity.
4To give shrewdness to the inexperienced,
knowledge and discretion to the young man.
5A wise man will hear and increase in learning, and a man of understanding will attain to sound counsel.
6To understand a proverb, and parables,
the words and riddles of the
wise.

7The fear of YHWH is the beginning of
knowledge;
but the foolish despise wisdom and
instruction.
8My son, listen to your father's
instruction,
and do not forsake your mother's teaching:
9for they will be a garland to grace your head,
and a necklace around your
neck.
10My son, if sinners entice you, do not consent.
11If they say, "Come with us, Let's lie in wait for blood;
let's lurk secretly for the innocent without
cause;
12let's swallow them up alive like Sheol,
and whole, like those who
go down into the pit.
13We'll find all valuable wealth.
We'll fill our houses with spoil.
14Throw in your lot with us.
We'll all have one purse." 15My son, do not walk in the way with them.
Keep your foot from their path, 16for their feet run to evil.
They hurry to shed blood.
17For in vain is the net spread in the sight of any bird: 18but these lie in wait for their own
blood.
They lurk secretly for their own lives.
19So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain.
It takes away the life of its owners.

20Wisdom calls aloud in the street.

She utters her voice in the public squares.
21 She calls at the head of noisy places.
At the entrance of the city gates, she utters her
words:
22 "How long, you simple ones, will you love
simplicity?
How long will mockers delight themselves in mockery,
and fools hate knowledge?
23 Turn at my reproof.
Look, I will pour out my spirit on you.
I will make known my words to you.
24 Because I have called, and you have refused;
I have stretched out my hand, and no one has paid attention;
25 but you have ignored all my
counsel,
and wanted none of my reproof;
26 I also will laugh at your disaster.
I will mock when calamity overtakes you;
27 when calamity overtakes you like a storm,
when your disaster comes on like a whirlwind;
when distress and anguish
come on you.
28 Then will they call on me, but I will not answer.
They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me;
29 because they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear
of YHWH.
30 They wanted none of my counsel.
They despised all my
reproof.
31 Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own schemes.
32 For the backsliding of the simple will kill them.
The careless ease of fools will destroy them.
33 But whoever listens to me will dwell securely,
and will be at ease, without fear of harm."

2 My son, if you will receive my words,
and store up my commandments within
you;
2 So as to turn your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to
understanding;
3 Yes, if you call out for discernment,
and lift up your voice for
understanding;
4 If you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures:
5 then you will understand the fear
of YHWH,
and find the knowledge of
God.
6 For YHWH gives wisdom.
Out of his mouth comes knowledge and
understanding.
7 He lays up sound wisdom for the upright.
He is a shield to those who walk in integrity;

[8]that he may guard the paths of
justice,
and preserve the way of his faithful ones.[a] [9]Then you will understand righteousness and
justice,
equity and every good path.
[10]For wisdom will enter into your
heart.
Knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.
[11]Discretion will watch over you.
Understanding will keep
you,
[12]to deliver you from the way of
evil,
from the men who speak
perverse things;
[13]who forsake the paths of uprightness,
to walk in the ways of
darkness;
[14]who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the perverseness of evil; [15]who are crooked in their ways, and wayward in their paths: [16]To deliver you from the strange woman,
even from the foreigner who flatters with her
words;
[17]who forsakes the friend of her youth,
and forgets the covenant of her God:
[18]for her house leads down to
death,
her paths to the dead.
[19]None who go to her return again, neither do they attain to the paths of life:
[20]that you may walk in the way of good men,
and keep the paths of the
righteous.
[21]For the upright will dwell in the
land.
The perfect will remain in it.
[22]But the wicked will be cut off from the land.
The treacherous will be uprooted out of it.

3 My son, do not forget my teaching;
but let your heart keep my commandments:
[2]for length of days, and years of
life,
and peace, will they add to
you.
[3]Do not let kindness and truth forsake you.
Bind them around your neck.
Write them on the tablet of your heart.
[4]So you will find favor, and good understanding in the sight of God and
man.
[5]Trust in YHWH with all your
heart,
and do not lean on your own
understanding.
[6]In all your ways remember him, and he will make your paths straight.
[7]Do not be wise in your own eyes.

[a]2:8 MT Qere LXX Syr. MT Kethib reads sg

Fear YHWH, and depart from evil.
[8]It will be health to your body, and nourishment to your
bones.
[9]Honor YHWH with your substance,
with the first fruits of all your increase:
[10]so your storehouses will be filled with plenty,
and your vats will overflow with new wine.
[11]My son, do not despise the discipline of YHWH, nor resent his correction.
[12]For whom YHWH loves he disciplines,
and punishes[a] every[b] son he accepts.[c] [13]Blessed is the man who finds
wisdom,
the man who gets
understanding.
[14]For her good profit is better than getting silver,
and her return is better than
fine gold.
[15]She is more precious than rubies.[d]
None of the things you can desire are to be compared to her.
[16]Length of days is in her right
hand.
In her left hand are riches and honor.
[17]Her ways are ways of pleasantness.
All her paths are peace.
[18]She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her,
and those who hold on to her are blessed.
[19]By wisdom YHWH founded the
earth.
By understanding, he established the
heavens.
[20]By his knowledge, the depths were broken up, and the skies drop down the dew.
[21]My son, let them not depart from your eyes.
Keep sound wisdom and discretion:
[22]so they will be life to your soul,
and grace for your neck.
[23]Then you shall walk in your way securely,
and your foot won't stumble.

[a]3:12 LXX cf. BHS, reading mastigoi de = וייכאב or ויכאיב we yak'ib (Hiphil) "and punishes/inflicts pain," cf. Hol3663; BDB 4309; Proverbs 14:13, Job 5:18. MT reads….. וכאב "and as a father," a scribal misreading of the consonantal text

[b]3:12 LXX, reading panta = kl. MT lacks "every" from homoioarcton by sight confusion: כ-ב

[c]3:12 Revocalization based on LXX, reading paradechetai (Thayer 3983: "2…to accept, receive") = yeratseh (Niph) "accepts" (Hol8041: "nif…be treated as acceptable"). MT vocalizes the same consonantal text as yirtseh (Qal) "delights" (Hol8041: "qal…be pleased with"). LXX translates Heb. yirtseh as eudokeo "delight in, pleased," in Job 14:16 and Psalm 147:10. Hebrews 12:5-6

[d]3:15 LXX adds "nothing evil shall resist her; she is well known to all that draw near to her"

24When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
you will lie down, and your sleep will be sweet.
25Do not be afraid of sudden fear, or of the storm of the wicked when it comes:
26for YHWH will be your confidence,
and will keep your foot from being taken.

27Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due,
when it is in the power of your hand to do it.
28Do not say to your neighbor,
"Go, and come again;
tomorrow I will give it to
you,"
when you have it by you.
29Do not devise evil against your
neighbor,
seeing he dwells securely by
you.
30Do not strive with a man without
cause,
if he has done you no harm.
31Do not envy the man of violence.
Choose none of his ways.
32For the perverse is an abomination to
YHWH,
but his friendship is with the
upright.
33YHWH's curse is in the house of
the wicked,
but he blesses the habitation
of the righteous.
34Surely he is scornful to scoffers,[a] but he gives grace to the humble.[b] 35The wise will inherit glory, but shame will be the promotion of fools.

4 Listen, sons, to a father's instruction.
Pay attention and know
understanding;
2for I give you sound learning.
Do not forsake my law.
3For I was a son to my father, tender and an only child in the sight of my mother.
4He taught me, and said to me:
"Let your heart retain my
words.
Keep my commandments,
and live.
5Get wisdom.
Get understanding.
Do not forget, neither swerve from the words
of my mouth.
6Do not forsake her, and she will preserve you.
Love her, and she will keep
you.
7Wisdom is supreme.
Get wisdom.
Yes, though it costs all your possessions, get
understanding.
8Esteem her, and she will exalt
you.
She will bring you to honor, when you embrace
her.
9She will give to your head a garland of grace.

[a]3:34 LXX reads "The Lord resists the proud." Compare Proverbs 21:24

[b]3:34 James 4:6; 1Peter 5:5

She will deliver a crown of splendor to you."

10 Listen, my son, and receive my sayings.
The years of your life will be many.
11 I have taught you in the way of
wisdom.
I have led you in straight
paths.
12 When you go, your steps will not be hampered.
When you run, you will not stumble.
13 Take firm hold of instruction.
Do not let her go.
Keep her, for she is your
life.
14 Do not enter into the path of the
wicked.
Do not walk in the way of evil men.
15 Avoid it, and do not pass by it.
Turn from it, and pass on.
16 For they do not sleep, unless they do evil.
Their sleep is taken away, unless they make someone fall.
17 For they eat the bread of wickedness,
and drink the wine of violence.
18 But the path of the righteous is like a shining light, that shines brighter and brighter until the full
day.
19 The way of the wicked is like
darkness.
They do not know what they stumble over.

20 My son, attend to my words.
Turn your ear to my sayings.
21 Let them not depart from your eyes.
Keep them in the midst of
your heart.
22 For they are life to him who finds them,
and health to all of his body.
23 Guard your heart with all diligence,
for out of it is the wellspring of life.
24 Put away from yourself a perverse mouth.
Put corrupt lips far from
you.
25 Let your eyes look straight ahead.
Fix your gaze directly before
you.
26 Make the path of your feet level.[a] Let all of your ways be established.
27 Do not turn to the right hand nor to the left.
Remove your foot from evil.

5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom.
Turn your ear to my
understanding:
2 that you may maintain discretion, that your lips may preserve
knowledge.
3 For the lips of an adulteress drip honey.
Her mouth is smoother than
oil,
4 But in the end she is as bitter as
wormwood,

[a] 4:26 Hebrews 12:13

and as sharp as a two-edged
sword.
5Her feet go down to death.
Her steps lead straight to Sheol.
6She gives no thought to the way of life.
Her ways are crooked, and she doesn't know it.

7Now therefore, son,[a] listen to me.
Do not depart from the words of my mouth.
8Remove your way far from her.
Do not come near the door of her house,
9lest you give your honor to others,
and your years to the merciless;
10lest strangers feast on your wealth,
and your labors enrich another man's house.
11You will groan at your latter end, when your flesh and your body are consumed, 12and say, "How I have hated
instruction,
and my heart despised
reproof;
13neither have I obeyed the voice of my teachers,
nor turned my ear to those who instructed me.
14I have come to the brink of utter ruin,
in the midst of the gathered assembly."

15Drink water out of your own cistern,
running water out of your own well.
16Should your springs overflow in the streets,
streams of water in the public squares?
17Let them be for yourself alone, not for strangers with you.
18Let your spring be blessed.
Rejoice in the wife of your youth.
19A loving doe and a graceful deer—
let her breasts satisfy you at all times.
Be captivated always with her love.
20For why should you, my son, be captivated with an adulteress?
Why embrace the bosom of another?
21For the ways of man are before the eyes of YHWH.
He examines all his paths.
22The evil deeds of the wicked ensnare him.
The cords of his sin hold him firmly.
23He will die for lack of instruction.
In the greatness of his folly, he will go astray.

6 My son, if you have become collateral for your neighbor,
if you have struck your hand[b] in pledge for a stranger;

[a]5:7 LXX Vg cf. BHS. MT reads "my sons"

[b]6:1 Hebrew Mss LXX Syr Vg. MT reads "hands"

[2]You are trapped by the words of your mouth.
You are ensnared with the words of your mouth.
[3]Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself,
seeing you have come into the hand of your
neighbor.
Go, humble yourself.
Press your plea with your
neighbor.
[4]Give no sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids.
[5]Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, like a bird from the snare of the fowler.

[6]Go to the ant, you sluggard.
Consider her ways, and be
wise;
[7]which having no chief, overseer, or ruler,
[8]provides her bread in the summer,
and gathers her food in the harvest.
[9]How long will you sleep,
sluggard?
When will you arise out of your sleep?
[10]A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands
to sleep:
[11]so your poverty will come as a robber,
and your scarcity as an armed man.

[12]A worthless person, a man of
iniquity,
is he who walks with a
perverse mouth;
[13]who winks with his eyes, who signals with his feet, who motions with his fingers;
[14]in whose heart is perverseness, who devises evil continually, who always sows discord.
[15]Therefore his calamity will come suddenly.
He will be broken suddenly,
and that without remedy.

[16]There are six things which YHWH hates;
yes, seven which are an abomination to him:
[17]haughty eyes, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent
blood;
[18]a heart that devises wicked
schemes,
feet that are swift in running to mischief, [19]a false witness who utters lies,
and he who sows discord among brothers.

[20]My son, keep your father's commandment,
and do not forsake your
mother's teaching.
[21]Bind them continually on your
heart.
Tie them around your neck.
[22]When you walk, it will lead you.
When you sleep, it will watch over you.
When you awake, it will talk
with you.
[23]For the commandment is a lamp, and the Law is light.
Reproofs of instruction are the way of life,
[24]to keep you from the immoral
woman,
from the flattery of the foreign woman.

[25]Do not lust after her beauty in your heart,
neither let her captivate you with her eyelids.
[26]For a prostitute reduces you to a piece of bread.
The adulteress hunts for your precious life.
[27]Can a man scoop fire into his lap,
and his clothes not be burned?
[28]Or can one walk on hot coals, and his feet not be scorched?
[29]So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife.
Whoever touches her will not be unpunished.
[30]Men do not despise a thief, if he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry:
[31]but if he is found, he must repay seven times.
He shall give all the wealth of his house.
[32]He who commits adultery with a woman is void of
understanding.
He who does it destroys his own soul.
[33]He will get wounds and dishonor.
His reproach will not be wiped away.
[34]For jealousy arouses the fury of the husband.
He won't spare in the day of vengeance.
[35]He won't regard any ransom, neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.

7 My son, keep my
words.
Lay up my commandments
within you.
[2]Keep my commandments and live.
Guard my teaching as the apple of your eye.
[3]Bind them on your fingers.
Write them on the tablet of
your heart.
[4]Tell wisdom, "You are my sister."
Call understanding your relative,
[5]that they may keep you from the strange woman, from the foreigner who flatters with her words.
[6]For at the window of my house, I looked out through my lattice.
[7]I saw among the simple ones.
I discerned among the youths a young man
void of understanding, [8]passing through the street near her corner,
he went the way to her
house,
[9]in the twilight, in the evening of the day,
in the middle of the night and in the darkness.
[10]Look, there a woman met him with the attire of a prostitute,
and with crafty intent.
[11]She is loud and defiant.
Her feet do not stay in her
house.
[12]Now she is in the streets, now in the squares,
and lurking at every corner.
[13]So she caught him, and kissed
him.
With an impudent face she said to him:

14"Sacrifices of peace offerings are
with me.
This day I have paid my
vows.
15Therefore I came out to meet
you,
to diligently seek your face, and I have found you.
16I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry, with striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt.
17I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
18Come, let's take our fill of loving until the morning.
Let's solace ourselves with loving.
19For my husband isn't at home.
He has gone on a long journey.
20He has taken a bag of money
with him.
He will come home at the full moon."
21With persuasive words, she led him astray.
With the flattering of her lips, she seduced him.
22He followed her immediately, as an ox goes to the slaughter,
as a fool to the correction of the stocks.
23Until an arrow strikes through his liver,
as a bird hurries to the snare, and doesn't know that it will cost his life.
24Now therefore, son,[a] listen to me.
Pay attention to the words of
my mouth.
25Do not let your heart turn to her
ways.
Do not go astray in her
paths, 26for she has thrown down many wounded.
Yes, all her slain are a mighty army.
27Her house is the way to Sheol, going down to the chambers
of death.

8 Doesn't wisdom cry
out?
Doesn't understanding raise her voice?
2On the top of high places by the
way,
where the paths meet, she stands.
3Beside the gates, at the entry of the city,
at the entry doors, she cries aloud:
4"To you men, I call.
I send my voice to the sons of humankind.
5You simple, understand prudence.
You fools, be of an understanding heart.
6Hear, for I will speak excellent
things.
The opening of my lips is for right things.
7For my mouth speaks truth.
Wickedness is an abomination to my
lips.

[a]7:24 LXX Vg cf. BHS. MT reads "my sons"

[8]All the words of my mouth are in
righteousness.
There is nothing crooked or perverse in them.
[9]They are all plain to him who understands,
right to those who find
knowledge.
[10]Receive my instruction rather than silver;
knowledge rather than choice gold.
[11]For wisdom is better than rubies.
All the things that may be desired can't be compared to it.

[12]"I, wisdom, have made prudence my dwelling.
Find out knowledge and
discretion.
[13]The fear of YHWH is to hate evil.
I hate pride, arrogance, the evil way, and the perverse mouth.
[14]Counsel and sound knowledge
are mine.
I have understanding and
power.
[15]By me kings reign,
and rulers decree justice.
[16]By me princes rule; nobles, and all the righteous rulers of the earth.
[17]I love those who love me.
Those who seek me diligently will find me.
[18]With me are riches, honor, enduring wealth, and prosperity.
[19]My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold;
my yield than choice silver.
[20]I walk in the way of
righteousness,
in the midst of the paths of
justice;
[21]That I may give wealth to those who love me.
I fill their treasuries.

[22]"YHWH created me in the beginning of his way,
before his works of old.
[23]I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning,
before the earth existed.
[24]When there were no depths, I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water.
[25]Before the mountains were settled in place, before the hills, I was brought forth;
[26]while as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the beginning of the dust of the world.
[27]When he established the heavens, I was there;
when he set a circle on the surface of the deep, [28]when he established the clouds
above,
when the springs of the deep became strong, [29]when he gave to the sea its boundary,
that the waters should not violate his commandment,
when he marked out the foundations of the
earth;
[30]then I was the craftsman by his side.
I was a delight day by day, always rejoicing before him, [31]Rejoicing in his whole world.

My delight was with the sons of men.

32"Now therefore, son,[a] listen to
me,
for blessed are those who keep my ways.
33Hear instruction, and be wise.
Do not refuse it.
34Blessed is the man who hears
me,
watching daily at my gates, waiting at my door posts.
35For whoever finds me, finds life, and will obtain favor from
YHWH.
36But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul.
All those who hate me love
death."

9 Wisdom has built her
house.
She has set up her
seven pillars.
2She has prepared her meat.
She has mixed her wine.
She has also set her table.
3She has sent out her maidens.
She cries from the highest places of the city:
4"Whoever is simple, let him turn in here."
As for him who is void of understanding, she
says to him,
5"Come, eat some of my bread, Drink some of the wine which I have mixed.
6Leave your simple ways, and live.
Walk in the way of
understanding."

7He who corrects a mocker invites insult.
He who reproves a wicked man invites abuse.
8Do not reprove a scoffer, lest he hate you.
Reprove a wise man, and he will love you.
9Instruct a wise man, and he will be still wiser.
Teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning.
10The fear of YHWH is the beginning of wisdom.
The knowledge of the Holy
One is understanding.
11For by me your days will be multiplied.
The years of your life will be increased.
12If you are wise, you are wise for yourself.
If you mock, you alone will bear it.

13The foolish woman is loud, Undisciplined, and knows
nothing.
14She sits at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places
of the city, 15To call to those who pass by,
who go straight on their
ways, 16"Whoever is simple, let him turn
in here."

[a]8:32 LXX Vg cf. BHS. MT reads "my sons"

as for him who is void of understanding, she
says to him,
17"Stolen water is sweet.
Food eaten in secret is pleasant."
18But he doesn't know that the dead are there,
that her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

10 The proverbs of Solomon.
A wise son makes a glad father;
but a foolish son brings grief to his mother.
2Treasures of wickedness profit
nothing,
but righteousness delivers
from death.
3YHWH will not allow the soul of the righteous to go hungry,
but he thrusts away the desire of the wicked.
4He becomes poor who works with a lazy hand, but the hand of the diligent brings wealth.
5He who gathers in summer is a wise son,
but he who sleeps during the harvest is a son who causes shame.
6Blessings are on the head of the
righteous,
but violence covers the
mouth of the wicked.
7The memory of the righteous is blessed,
but the name of the wicked will rot.
8The wise in heart accept
commandments,
but a chattering fool will
fall.
9He who walks blamelessly walks surely,
but he who perverts his ways will be found out.
10The one who winks with the eye causes trouble, but the one who boldly rebukes makes peace.[a] 11The mouth of the righteous is a spring of life,
but violence covers the
mouth of the wicked.
12Hatred stirs up strife, but love covers all wrongs.
13Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has
discernment,
but a rod is for the back of him who is void of
understanding.
14Wise men lay up knowledge, but the mouth of the foolish is near ruin.
15The rich man's wealth is his strong city.
The destruction of the poor is their poverty.
16The labor of the righteous leads to life.
The increase of the wicked leads to sin.
17He is in the way of life who heeds correction,
but he who forsakes reproof leads others astray.

[a]10:10 LXX Syr. MT reads "but a chattering fool will fall," an accidental dittography from v.8b. Cf. M. V. Fox, Proverbs 10-31 (AB), 517

18 He who hides hatred has lying
lips.
He who utters a slander is a fool.
19 In the multitude of words there is no lack of
disobedience,
but he who restrains his lips does wisely.
20 The tongue of the righteous is like choice silver.
The heart of the wicked is of little worth.
21 The lips of the righteous feed
many,
but the foolish die for lack of
understanding.
22 YHWH's blessing brings wealth, and he adds no trouble to it.
23 It is a fool's pleasure to do wickedness,
but wisdom is a man of understanding's pleasure.
24 What the wicked fear, will overtake them, but the desire of the righteous will be granted.
25 When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more;
but the righteous stand firm
forever.
26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to those who send him.
27 The fear of YHWH prolongs
days,
but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.
28 The prospect of the righteous is
joy,
but the hope of the wicked will perish.
29 The way of YHWH is a stronghold to the
upright,
but it is a destruction to
evildoers.
30 The righteous will never be removed,
but the wicked will not dwell in the land.
31 The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom, but the perverse tongue will be cut off.
32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable, but the mouth of the wicked is perverse.

11 A false balance is an abomination to
YHWH,
but accurate weights are his
delight.
2 When pride comes, then comes
shame,
but with humility comes
wisdom.
3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them, but the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them.
4 Riches do not profit in the day of
wrath,
but righteousness delivers
from death.
5 The righteousness of the blameless will direct
his way,
but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.
6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them, but the unfaithful will be trapped by evil desires.

7 When a wicked man dies, hope perishes, and expectation of power comes to nothing.
8 A righteous person is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked takes his place.
9 With his mouth the godless man destroys his neighbor, but the righteous will be delivered through knowledge.
10 When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices.
When the wicked perish, there is shouting.
11 By the blessing of the upright, the city is exalted, but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.
12 One who despises his neighbor is void of wisdom, but a man of understanding holds his peace.
13 One who brings gossip betrays a confidence, but one who is of a trustworthy spirit is one who keeps a secret.
14 Where there is no wise guidance, the nation falls, but in the multitude of counselors there is victory.
15 He who is collateral for a stranger will suffer for it, but he who refuses pledges of collateral is secure.
16 A gracious woman obtains honor, but she who hates virtue makes a throne for dishonor.
The slothful become destitute,[a] and ruthless men grab wealth.
17 The merciful man does good to his own soul, but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh.
18 Wicked people earn deceitful wages, but one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward.
19 He who is truly righteous gets life.
He who pursues evil gets death.
20 Those who are perverse in heart are an abomination to YHWH, but those whose ways are blameless are his delight.
21 Most certainly, the evil man will not be unpunished, but the descendants of the righteous will be delivered.
22 Like a gold ring in a pig's snout, is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion.
23 The desire of the righteous is only good.

[a] 11:16 LXX cf. BHS. MT lacks "but she who…destitute," possibly from haplography by homoioarcton: w-w

The expectation of the wicked is wrath.
24 There is one who scatters, and increases yet more.
There is one who withholds more than is appropriate, but gains
poverty.
25 The liberal soul shall be made fat.
He who waters shall be watered also himself.
26 People curse someone who withholds grain,
but blessing will be on the head of him who sells
it.
27 He who diligently seeks good seeks favor, but he who searches after evil, it shall come to
him.
28 He who trusts in his riches will fall,
but the righteous shall flourish as the green leaf.
29 He who troubles his own house shall inherit the wind.
The foolish shall be servant
to the wise of heart.
30 The fruit of the righteous[a] is a tree of life;
and he who plucks that life is wise.[b] 31 If[c] the righteous is delivered[d] with difficulty,[e] where will the ungodly and the sinner appear?[f]

12 Whoever loves correction loves
knowledge,
but he who hates reproof is stupid.
2 A good man shall obtain favor
from YHWH,
but he will condemn a man of wicked devices.
3 A man shall not be established by wickedness,
but the root of the righteous
shall not be moved.
4 A worthy woman is the crown of her husband,
but a disgraceful wife is as rottenness in his bones.

[a] 11:30 LXX cf. BHS

[b] 11:30 Or, "who wins souls is wise." Cf. L. M. Fields, Proverbs 11:30: Soul-Winning Or Wise Living? JETS 50/3 (September 2007) 517–35. LXX Syr read "captures souls is violent"

[c] 11:31 The Heb. word hen here is usually translated as "look" but also has the meaning of "if," cf. Hol2042, Exodus 4:1, Jeremiah 2:10

[d] 11:31 LXX, reading sozetai = ימלט "delivered" or "escapes," cf. 1Samuel 19:12; Proverbs 28:26. MT reads ישלם "is repaid," a misreading involving a tet-mem confusion in a square script in a damaged scroll, perhaps in reminiscence of Proverbs 6:31

[e] 11:31 LXX, reading molis = במאמץ or בקשי or כמעט "with difficulty." MT reads בארץ "on earth," a possible graphic confusion

[f] 11:31 LXX, reading pou phaneitai = אנה יראה "where will appear." MT has lost these words by homoioarcton: aleph-aleph, with an adjustment by the addition of the words אף כי "how much more." 1 Peter 4:18

[5]The thoughts of the righteous are just,
but the advice of the wicked is deceitful.
[6]The words of the wicked are about lying in wait for
blood,
but the speech of the upright rescues them.
[7]The wicked are overthrown, and are no more,
but the house of the righteous shall stand.
[8]A person is commended according to his good sense, but the one who has a perverse mind is despised.
[9]Better is he who is lightly esteemed, and has a
servant,
than he who honors himself,
and lacks bread.
[10]A righteous man regards the life of his animal,
but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.
[11]He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread,

is void of
understanding.
[12]The wicked desires the plunder of evil men,
but the root of the righteous flourishes.
[13]An evil man is trapped by sinfulness of lips, but the righteous shall come out of trouble.
[14]A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his
mouth.
The work of a man's hands shall be rewarded to
him.
[15]The way of a fool is right in his own eyes,
but he who is wise listens to
counsel.
[16]A fool shows his annoyance the same day,
but one who overlooks an insult is prudent.
[17]He who is truthful testifies honestly,
but a false witness lies.
[18]There is one who speaks rashly like the piercing of a
sword,
but the tongue of the wise heals.
[19]Truth's lips will be established
forever,
but a lying tongue is only momentary.
[20]Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil, but joy comes to the promoters of peace.
[21]No mischief shall happen to the
righteous,
but the wicked shall be filled with evil.
[22]Lying lips are an abomination to
YHWH,
but those who do the truth are his delight.
[23]A prudent man keeps his
knowledge,
but the hearts of fools proclaim foolishness.
[24]The hands of the diligent ones shall rule, but laziness ends in slave labor.
[25]Anxiety in a man's heart weighs
it down,

but a kind word makes it
glad.
[26]A righteous person is cautious in friendship,
but the way of the wicked
leads them astray.
[27]The slothful man doesn't roast his game, but the possessions of diligent men are prized.
[28]In the way of righteousness is
life;
in its path there is no death.

13 A wise son listens to his father's
instruction,
but a scoffer doesn't listen to rebuke.
[2]By the fruit of his lips, a man enjoys good things;
but the unfaithful crave
violence.
[3]He who guards his mouth guards his soul.
One who opens wide his lips comes to ruin.
[4]The soul of the sluggard desires, and has nothing, but the desire of the diligent shall be fully satisfied.
[5]A righteous man hates lies, but a wicked man brings shame and disgrace.
[6]Righteousness guards the way of integrity,
but wickedness overthrows the sinner.
[7]There are some who pretend to be rich, yet have nothing.
There are some who pretend to be poor, yet have great wealth.
[8]The ransom of a man's life is his riches,
but the poor hear no threats.
[9]The light of the righteous shines brightly, but the lamp of the wicked is snuffed out.
[10]Pride only breeds quarrels, but with ones who take advice is wisdom.
[11]Wealth gained dishonestly dwindles away, but he who gathers by hand makes it grow.
[12]Hope deferred makes the heart sick,
but when longing is fulfilled,
it is a tree of life.
[13]Whoever despises instruction will pay for it, but he who respects a command will be rewarded.
[14]The teaching of the wise is a spring of life,
to turn from the snares of
death.
[15]Good understanding brings favor;[a] but the way of the unfaithful leads to calamity.[b] [16]Every prudent man acts from
knowledge,
but a fool exposes folly.
[17]A wicked messenger falls into trouble,
but a trustworthy envoy gains healing.

[a]13:15 LXX adds "and to know the law is the sign of a sound understanding"

[b]13:15 LXX Syr cf. BHS. MT reads "unfaithful is harsh"

[18]Poverty and shame come to him who refuses discipline, but he who heeds correction shall be honored.
[19]Longing fulfilled is sweet to the
soul,
but fools detest turning from
evil.

grows wise,
but a companion of fools suffers harm.

but prosperity rewards the
righteous.

inheritance to his children's children,

is stored for the
righteous.

son,
but one who loves him is careful to discipline
him.

fears YHWH,
but he who is perverse in his ways despises him.

lies.

doesn't find it,
but knowledge comes easily to a discerning person.
[7]Stay away from a foolish man, for you won't find knowledge on his lips.
[8]The wisdom of the prudent is to think about his way, but the folly of fools is
deceit.
[9]Fools mock at making atonement for sins,
but among the upright there is good will.
[10]The heart knows its own bitterness and joy;
he will not share these with a stranger.
[11]The house of the wicked will be destroyed,
but the tent of the upright will flourish.
[12]There is a way which seems right
to a man,
but in the end it leads to
death.
[13]Even in laughter the heart may be sorrowful,
and mirth may end in heaviness.

his own ways;
likewise a good man will be rewarded for his ways.

everything,

but the prudent man carefully considers his ways.

turns away from evil,

angry will commit
folly,
and a crafty man is hated.

but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

good,
and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

by his own neighbor, but the rich person has many friends.
21He who despises his neighbor
sins,
but blessed is he who shows kindness to the poor.
22Do they not go astray who plot
evil?
But love and faithfulness belong to those who plan good.
23In all hard work there is profit, but the talk of the lips leads only to poverty.
24The crown of the wise is their
riches,
but the folly of fools crowns them with folly.

but a false witness is deceitful.

his calamity,
but the righteous has a refuge in his death.[b] 33Wisdom rests in the heart of one who has
understanding,
and is even made known in the inward part of fools.
34Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any
people.

[a]14:16 Or, "fears"

[b]14:32 MT, reading bmwtw "in his death." LXX reads eautou osioteti = btwmw "in his integrity," a possible metathesis. BHS suggests the latter reading. Cf. B. Waltke (AUSS) vol. 34, No. 2, 330-332

35 The king's favor is toward a servant who deals wisely,
but his wrath is toward one who causes shame.

15 A gentle answer
turns away wrath,
but a harsh word
stirs up anger.
2 The tongue of the wise commends knowledge, but the mouth of fools gush out folly.
3 The eyes of YHWH are everywhere,
keeping watch on the evil and the good.
4 A gentle tongue is a tree of life, but deceit in it crushes the spirit.
5 A fool despises his father's correction,
but he who heeds reproof shows prudence.
6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure, but the income of the wicked brings trouble.
7 The lips of the wise spread
knowledge;
not so with the heart of
fools.
8 The sacrifice made by the wicked is an abomination to
YHWH,
but the prayer of the upright is his delight.
9 The way of the wicked is an abomination to
YHWH,
but he loves him who follows after
righteousness.
10 There is stern discipline for one who forsakes the way:
whoever hates reproof shall die.
11 Sheol and Abaddon are before
YHWH—
how much more then the hearts of human beings.
12 A scoffer doesn't love to be reproved;
he will not go to the wise.
13 A glad heart makes a cheerful
face;
but an aching heart breaks the spirit.
14 The heart of one who has understanding seeks
knowledge,
but the mouths of fools feed on folly.
15 All the days of the afflicted are wretched,
but one who has a cheerful heart enjoys a continual feast.
16 Better is little, with the fear of
YHWH,
than great treasure with
trouble.
17 Better is a dinner of herbs, where love is,
than a fattened calf with hatred.
18 A wrathful man stirs up contention, but one who is slow to anger appeases strife.
19 The way of the sluggard is like a thorn patch,
but the path of the upright is a highway.
20 A wise son makes a father glad, but a foolish man despises his mother.

21 Folly is joy to one who is void of wisdom, but a man of understanding keeps his way straight.
22 Where there is no counsel, plans fail;
but in a multitude of counselors they are established.
23 Joy comes to a man with the reply of his mouth.
How good is a word at the right time.
24 The path of life leads upward for the wise, to keep him from going downward to Sheol.
25 YHWH will uproot the house of the proud, but he will keep the widow's borders intact.
26 YHWH detests the thoughts of the wicked, but the thoughts of the pure are pleasing.
27 He who is greedy for gain troubles his own house, but he who hates bribes will live.
28 The heart of the righteous weighs answers, but the mouth of the wicked gushes out evil.
29 YHWH is far from the wicked, but he hears the prayer of the righteous.
30 The light of the eyes rejoices the heart.
Good news gives health to the bones.
31 The ear that listens to reproof lives, and will be at home among the wise.
32 He who refuses correction despises his own soul, but he who listens to reproof gets understanding.
33 The fear of YHWH teaches wisdom.
Before honor is humility.

16 The plans of the heart belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from YHWH.
2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but YHWH weighs the motives.
3 Entrust your works to YHWH, and your plans will be established.
4 YHWH has made everything for its own end—yes, even the wicked for the day of evil.
5 Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to YHWH:
they shall certainly not be unpunished.
6 By mercy and truth iniquity is atoned for.
By the fear of YHWH men depart from evil.
7 When a man's ways please YHWH, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.
8 Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues with injustice.
9 A man's heart plans his course, but YHWH directs his steps.

[10]Inspired judgments are on the lips of the king.
He shall not betray his
mouth.
[11]Honest balances and scales are YHWH's;
all the weights in the bag are his work.
[12]It is an abomination to kings to do wickedness,
for the throne is established by righteousness.
[13]Righteous lips are the delight of kings.
They value one who speaks
the truth.
[14]The king's wrath is a messenger
of death,
but a wise man will pacify it.
[15]In the light of the king's face is life.
His favor is like a cloud of the spring rain.
[16]How much better it is to get wisdom than gold.
Yes, to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.
[17]The highway of the upright is to depart from evil.
He who keeps his way
preserves his soul.
[18]Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.
[19]It is better to be of a lowly spirit with the poor,
than to divide the plunder with the proud.
[20]He who heeds the word finds prosperity,
and blessed is he who trusts in YHWH.
[21]The wise in heart shall be called prudent.
Pleasantness of the lips promotes instruction.
[22]Understanding is a fountain of life to one who has it, but the punishment of fools is their folly.
[23]The heart of the wise instructs
his mouth,
and adds learning to his lips.
[24]Pleasant words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.
[25]There is a way which seems right
to a man,
but in the end it leads to
death.
[26]The appetite of the laboring man labors for him;
for his mouth urges him on.
[27]A worthless man devises
mischief.
His speech is like a scorching fire.
[28]A perverse man stirs up strife, and a gossip separates close
friends.
[29]A man of violence entices his neighbor,
and leads him in a way that is not good.
[30]One who winks his eyes to plot perversities,
one who compresses his lips,
is bent on evil.
[31]Gray hair is a crown of glory.
It is found in the path of
righteousness.
[32]One who is slow to anger is better than the mighty;
one who rules his spirit, than he who takes a city.
[33]The lot is cast into the lap, but its every decision is from
YHWH.

17 Better is a dry morsel with quietness, than a house full of feasting with strife.
2 A servant who deals wisely will rule over a son who causes shame, and shall have a part in the inheritance among the brothers.
3 The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold, but YHWH tests the hearts.
4 An evildoer heeds wicked lips.
A liar gives ear to a mischievous tongue.
5 Whoever mocks the poor reproaches his Maker.
He who is glad at calamity shall not be unpunished.
6 Children's children are the crown of old men;
the glory of children are their parents.
7 Arrogant speech isn't fitting for a fool, much less do lying lips fit a prince.
8 A bribe is a precious stone in the eyes of him who gives it; wherever he turns, he prospers.
9 He who covers an offense promotes love;
but he who repeats a matter separates best friends.
10 A rebuke enters deeper into one who has understanding than a hundred lashes into a fool.
11 An evil man seeks only rebellion; therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.
12 Let a bear robbed of her cubs meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.
13 Whoever rewards evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.
14 The beginning of strife is like breaching a dam, therefore stop contention before quarreling breaks out.
15 He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous, both of them alike are an abomination to YHWH.
16 Why is there money in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, seeing he has no understanding?
17 A friend loves at all times;
and a brother is born for adversity.
18 A man void of understanding strikes hands, and becomes collateral in the presence of his neighbor.
19 He who loves disobedience loves strife.
One who builds a high gate seeks destruction.
20 One who has a perverse heart doesn't find prosperity, and one who has a deceitful tongue falls into trouble.
21 He who becomes the father of a fool grieves.

The father of a fool has no joy.
22 A cheerful heart makes good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.
23 A wicked man receives a bribe in secret, to pervert the ways of justice.
24 Wisdom is before the face of one who has understanding, but the eyes of a fool wander everywhere.
25 A foolish son brings grief to his father, and bitterness to her who bore him.
26 Also to punish the righteous is not good, nor to flog officials for their integrity.
27 He who spares his words has knowledge.
He who is even tempered is a man of understanding.
28 Even a fool, when he keeps silent, is counted wise.
When he shuts his lips, he is thought to be discerning.

18 An unfriendly man pursues selfishness, and defies all sound judgment.
2 A fool has no delight in understanding, but only in revealing his own opinion.
3 When wickedness comes, contempt also comes,
and with shame comes disgrace.
4 The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters.
The fountain of wisdom is like a flowing brook.
5 To be partial to the faces of the wicked is not good, nor to deprive the innocent of justice.
6 A fool's lips come into strife, and his mouth invites beatings.
7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are a snare to his soul.
8 The words of a gossip are like tasty morsels, and they go down into a person's innermost parts.
9 One who is slack in his work is brother to him who is a master of destruction.
10 The name of YHWH is a strong tower; the righteous run into it and are safe.
11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city, like an unscalable wall in his own imagination.
12 Before destruction the heart of man is proud, but before honor is humility.
13 He who gives answer before he hears, that is folly and shame to him.
14 A man's spirit will sustain him in sickness, but a crushed spirit, who can bear?
15 The heart of the discerning gets knowledge.

The ear of the wise seeks
knowledge.
16 A man's gift makes room for
him,
and brings him before great
men.
17 He who pleads his cause first seems right;
until another comes and questions him.
18 The lot settles disputes, and keeps strong ones apart.
19 A brother offended is more difficult than a fortified city;
and disputes are like the bars of a fortress.
20 A man's stomach is filled with the fruit of his mouth.
With the harvest of his lips
he is satisfied.
21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue;
those who love it will eat its fruit.
22 Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing,
and obtains favor of YHWH.
23 The poor plead for mercy, but the rich answer harshly.
24 A man of many companions may be ruined,
but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

19 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity
than he who is perverse in his lips and is a fool.
2 It isn't good to have zeal without
knowledge;
nor being hasty with one's feet and missing the
way.
3 The foolishness of man subverts
his way;
his heart rages against
YHWH.
4 Wealth adds many friends, but the poor is separated from his friend.
5 A false witness shall not be unpunished.
He who pours out lies shall not go free.
6 Many will seek the favor of a ruler,
and everyone is a friend to a man who gives gifts.
7 All the relatives of the poor shun
him:
how much more do his friends avoid him.[a]
He pursues them with pleas, but they are gone.
8 He who gets wisdom loves his own soul.
He who keeps understanding shall find good.
9 A false witness shall not be
unpunished.
He who utters lies shall
perish.
10 Delicate living is not appropriate for a fool,
much less for a servant to have rule over princes.
11 The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger.
It is his glory to overlook an offense.

[a] 19:7 LXX adds "Insight will draw near to those that know it, and the man of good sense will find it. He that does much evil perfects wickedness"

12 The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.
13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father.
A wife's quarrels are a continual dripping.
14 House and riches are an inheritance from fathers, but a prudent wife is from YHWH.
15 Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep.
The idle soul shall suffer hunger.
16 He who keeps the commandment keeps his soul, but he who is contemptuous in his ways shall die.
17 He who has pity on the poor lends to YHWH;
he will reward him.
18 Discipline your son, for there is hope;
do not be a willing party to his death.
19 A hot-tempered man must pay the penalty, for if you rescue him, you must do it again.
20 Listen to counsel and receive instruction, that you may be wise in your latter end.
21 There are many plans in a man's heart, but YHWH's counsel will prevail.
22 That which makes a man to be desired is his kindness.
A poor man is better than a liar.
23 The fear of YHWH leads to life, then contentment;
he rests and will not be touched by trouble.
24 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish;
he will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.
25 Flog a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence;
rebuke one who has understanding, and he will gain knowledge.
26 He who robs his father and drives away his mother, is a son who causes shame and brings reproach.
27 If you stop listening to instruction, my son, you will stray from the words of knowledge.
28 A corrupt witness mocks justice, and the mouth of the wicked gulps down iniquity.
29 Penalties are prepared for scoffers, and beatings for the backs of fools.

20 Wine is a mocker, and beer is a brawler.
Whoever is led astray by them is not wise.
2 The terror of a king is like the roaring of a lion.
He who provokes him to anger forfeits his own life.
3 It is an honor for a person to keep away from strife, but every fool quarrels.
4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the winter;

therefore he shall beg in harvest, and have nothing.
[5]Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.
[6]Many men claim to be men of unfailing love, but who can find a faithful man?
[7]A righteous man walks in integrity; blessed are his children after him.
[8]A king who sits on the throne of judgment scatters away all evil with his eyes.
[9]Who can say, "I have made my heart pure.
I am clean and without sin?" [10]Differing weights and differing measures,
both of them alike are an abomination to YHWH.
[11]Even a child makes himself known by his doings, whether his work is pure, and whether it is right.
[12]The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, YHWH has made even both of them.
[13]Do not love sleep, lest you come to poverty.
Open your eyes, and you shall be satisfied with bread.
[14]"It's no good, it's no good," says the buyer; but when he is gone his way, then he boasts.
[15]There is gold and abundance of rubies;
but the lips of knowledge are a rare jewel.
[16]Take the garment of one who puts up collateral for a stranger; and hold him in pledge for a wayward woman.
[17]Fraudulent food is sweet to a man, but afterwards his mouth is filled with gravel.
[18]Plans are established by advice;
by wise guidance you wage war.
[19]He who goes about as a tale-bearer reveals secrets; therefore do not keep company with him who opens wide his lips.
[20]Whoever curses his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in blackness of darkness.
[21]An inheritance quickly gained at the beginning, won't be blessed in the end.
[22]Do not say, "I will pay back evil."
Wait for YHWH, and he will save you.
[23]YHWH detests differing weights, and dishonest scales are no good.
[24]A man's steps are from YHWH;
how then can man understand his way?
[25]It is a snare to a man to make a rash dedication, then later to consider his vows.
[26]A wise king winnows out the wicked, and drives the threshing wheel over them.

[27]The spirit of man is YHWH's lamp, searching all his innermost parts.
[28]Love and faithfulness keep the king safe.
His throne is sustained by love.
[29]The glory of young men is their strength.
The splendor of old men is their gray hair.
[30]Wounding blows cleanse away
evil,
and beatings purge the innermost parts.

21 The king's heart is in YHWH's hand like the watercourses.
He turns it wherever he desires.
[2]Every way of a man is right in his own eyes,
but YHWH weighs the
hearts.
[3]To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to YHWH than sacrifice.
[4]A high look, and a proud heart, the lamp of the wicked, is
sin.
[5]The plans of the diligent surely lead to profit;
and everyone who is hasty surely rushes to poverty.
[6]Getting treasures by a lying tongue
is a fleeting vapor for those who seek death.
[7]The violence of the wicked will drive them away,
because they refuse to do what is right.
[8]The way of the guilty is devious, but the conduct of the innocent is upright.
[9]It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than to share a house with a contentious woman.
[10]The soul of the wicked desires
evil;
his neighbor finds no mercy in his eyes.
[11]When the mocker is punished, the simple gains
wisdom.
When the wise is instructed,
he receives
knowledge.
[12]The Righteous One considers the house of the wicked,
and brings the wicked to
ruin.
[13]Whoever stops his ears at the cry
of the poor,
he will also cry out, but shall not be heard.
[14]A gift in secret pacifies anger;
and a bribe in the cloak, strong wrath.
[15]It is joy to the righteous to do justice;
but it is a destruction to
evildoers.
[16]The man who wanders out of the way of understanding shall rest in the assembly of the dead.
[17]He who loves pleasure shall be a poor man.
He who loves wine and oil shall not be rich.
[18]The wicked is a ransom for the
righteous;
the treacherous for the
upright.

[19]It is better to dwell in a desert
land,
than with a contentious and fretful woman.
[20]There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the
wise;
but a foolish man swallows it up.
[21]He who follows after righteousness and
kindness
finds life, righteousness, and honor.
[22]A wise man scales the city of the mighty,
and brings down the strength of its confidence.
[23]Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles.
[24]The proud and haughty man, "scoffer" is his name;
he works in the arrogance of
pride.
[25]The desire of the sluggard kills
him,
for his hands refuse to labor.
[26]There are those who covet greedily all day long;
but the righteous give and do not withhold.
[27]The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination:
how much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind.
[28]A false witness will perish, and a man who listens speaks to eternity.
[29]A wicked man hardens his face; but as for the upright, he establishes his ways.
[30]There is no wisdom nor
understanding
nor counsel against YHWH.
[31]The horse is prepared for the day of battle;
but victory is with YHWH.

22 A good name is more desirable than great riches, and loving favor is better than silver and gold.
[2]The rich and the poor have this in common:
YHWH is the maker of them
all.
[3]The shrewd see danger and take cover, but the naive keep on going and suffer for it.
[4]The result of humility and the fear
of YHWH
is wealth, honor, and life.
[5]Thorns and snares are in the path
of the wicked:
whoever guards his soul stays from them.
[6]Train a child in the way he should go,
and when he is old he will not depart from it.
[7]The rich rule over the poor.
The borrower is servant to the lender.
[8]He who sows wickedness reaps
trouble,
and the rod of his fury will fail.

God blesses a cheerful and generous person, but the vanity of his deeds he will bring to an end.[a] 9He who has a generous eye will be blessed;
for he shares his food with the poor.
10Drive out the mocker, and strife will go out;
yes, quarrels and insults will stop.
11He who loves purity of heart and speaks gracefully
is the king's friend.
12The eyes of YHWH watch over
knowledge;
but he frustrates the words of the unfaithful.
13The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside.
I will be killed in the streets."
14The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit:
he who is under YHWH's wrath will fall into it.
15Folly is bound up in the heart of a child:
the rod of discipline drives it far from him.
16Whoever oppresses the poor for his own increase and whoever gives to the rich,
both come to poverty.

17 The words of the wise: Incline your ear and hear my words,[b] and apply your heart to my instruction.
18For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you, if all of them are ready on your lips.
19That your trust may be in YHWH,
I teach you today, even you.
20Haven't I written to you thirty excellent things
of counsel and knowledge, 21To teach you truth, reliable
words,
to give sound answers to the ones who sent you?

22Do not exploit the poor, because he is poor;
and do not crush the needy in court;
23for YHWH will plead their case, and plunder the life of those who plunder them.

24Do not befriend a hot-tempered
man,
and do not associate with one who harbors
anger:
25lest you learn his ways, and ensnare your soul.

26Do not be one of those who strike hands,
of those who are collateral for debts.
27If you do not have means to pay, why should he take away your bed from under
you?

28Do not move the ancient boundary stone,
which your fathers have set
up.

[a]22:8 LXX. MT lacks "God blesses…end" from a two-word homoioteleuton

[b]22:17 LXX. MT has a different word order, and lacks "my words"

[29]Do you see a man skilled in his work?
He will serve kings.
He won't serve obscure
men.

23 When you sit to eat with a ruler,
consider diligently
what is before you;
[2]put a knife to your throat, if you are a man given to appetite.
[3]Do not be desirous of his dainties, seeing they are deceitful
food.
[4]Do not weary yourself to be rich.
In your wisdom, show
restraint.
[5]Why do you set your eyes on that which is not?
For it certainly sprouts wings like an eagle
and flies in the sky.
[6]Do not eat the food of him who has a stingy eye,
and do not crave his
delicacies:
[7]for as he thinks about the cost, so he is.
"Eat and drink." he says to
you,
but his heart is not with you.
[8]The morsel which you have eaten you shall vomit up,
and lose your good words.

[9]Do not speak in the ears of a fool, for he will despise the wisdom of your words.

[10]Do not move the ancient
boundary stone.
Do not encroach on the fields of the fatherless: [11]for their Defender is strong.
He will plead their case
against you.

[12]Apply your heart to instruction, and your ears to the words of
knowledge.
[13]Do not withhold correction from a child.
If you punish him with the rod, he will not die.
[14]Punish him with the rod, and save his soul from Sheol.

[15]My son, if your heart is wise, then my heart will be glad,
even mine:
[16]yes, my heart will rejoice, when your lips speak what is right.
[17]Do not let your heart envy sinners;
but rather fear YHWH all the
day long.
[18]For surely there is a future, and your hope will not be
cut off.
[19]Listen, my son, and be wise, and keep your heart on the right path.
[20]Do not be among ones drinking too much wine, or those who gorge themselves on meat: [21]for the drunkard and the glutton shall become poor;
and drowsiness clothes them in rags.
[22]Listen to your father who gave you life,
and do not despise your mother when she is old.

[23]Buy the truth, and do not sell it.
Get wisdom, discipline, and
understanding.
[24]The father of the righteous has great joy.
Whoever fathers a wise child delights in him.
[25]Let your father and your mother
be glad.
Let her who bore you
rejoice.
[26]My son, give me your heart; and let your eyes keep in my
ways.
[27]For a prostitute is a deep pit; and a wayward wife is a narrow well.
[28]Yes, she lies in wait like a robber,
and increases the unfaithful
among men.

[29]Who has woe?
Who has sorrow?
Who has strife?
Who has complaints?
Who has needless bruises?
Who has bloodshot eyes?
[30]Those who stay long at the wine;
those who go to seek out mixed wine.
[31]Do not look at the wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup, when it goes down
smoothly.
[32]In the end, it bites like a serpent, and poisons like a viper.
[33]Your eyes will see strange
things,
and your mind will imagine confusing things.
[34]Yes, you will be as he who lies down in the midst of the sea,
or as he who lies on top of the rigging:
[35]"They hit me, and I was not hurt.
They beat me, and I do not feel it.
When will I wake up? I can do it again.
I can find another."

24 Do not be envious of evil men;
neither desire to be
with them:
[2]for their hearts plot violence, and their lips talk about mischief.
[3]Through wisdom a house is built;
by understanding it is established;
[4]by knowledge the rooms are filled with all rare and beautiful treasure.
[5]A wise man has great power;
and a knowledgeable man increases strength; [6]for by wise guidance you wage your war;
and victory is in many advisors.
[7]Wisdom is too high for a fool:
he doesn't open his mouth in the gate.
[8]One who plots to do evil will be called a schemer.
[9]The schemes of folly are sin.
The mocker is detested by
men.
[10]If you falter in the time of
trouble,
your strength is small.
[11]Rescue those who are being led away to death.
Indeed, hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter.

12 If you say, “Look, we did not know this;”
doesn’t he who weighs the hearts consider it?
He who keeps your soul, doesn’t he know it?
Shall he not render to every man according to his work?[a] 13 My son, eat honey, for it is good;
the droppings of the honeycomb, which are sweet to your taste.
14 Likewise, know that wisdom is such to your soul;
if you have found it, then there will be a reward,
and your hope will not be
cut off.
15 Do not lie in wait, wicked man, against the habitation
of the righteous.
Do not destroy his resting
place.
16 For the righteous may fall seven times,[b] but gets up
again,
but the wicked will stumble in adversity.
17 Do not rejoice when your enemy falls.
Do not let your heart be glad when he is overthrown;
18 lest YHWH see it, and it displease
him,
and he turn away his wrath
from him.
19 Do not fret yourself because of evildoers;
neither be envious of the
wicked:
20 for there will be no reward to the evil man;
and the lamp of the wicked shall be snuffed out.
21 My son, fear YHWH and the king.
Do not join those who are
rebellious:
22 for their calamity will rise suddenly;
the destruction from them both—who knows?

23 These also are sayings of the wise.
To show partiality in judgment is not good.
24 He who says to the wicked,
“You are righteous;”
peoples shall curse him, and nations shall abhor
him—25 but it will go well with those who convict the guilty, and a rich blessing will come on them.
26 An honest answer is like a kiss on the lips.
27 Prepare your work outside, and get your fields ready.
Afterwards, build your
house.
28 Do not be a witness against your neighbor without
cause.
Do not deceive with your
lips.

[a] 24:12 Romans 2:6

[b] 24:16 The word “times” is implicit. For other cases where times is implicit see e.g. Leviticus 26:18-28

29 Do not say, “I will do to him as he has done to me;
I will render to the man according to his work.”
30 I went by the field of the sluggard,
by the vineyard of the man
void of understanding; 31 Look, it was all grown over with thorns.
Its surface was covered with nettles,
and its stone wall was broken down.
32 Then I saw, and considered well.
I saw, and received
instruction:
33 a little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands
to sleep;
34 so your poverty will come as a robber,
and your want as an armed
man.

25 These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.
2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing,
but the glory of kings is to search out a matter.
3 As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth, so the hearts of kings are
unsearchable.
4 Take away the dross from the silver,
and material comes out for the refiner;
5 Take away the wicked from the king’s presence, and his throne will be established in
righteousness.
6 Do not exalt yourself in the presence of the king, or claim a place among great
men;
7 for it is better that it be said to you, “Come up here,” than that you should be put lower in the presence
of the prince,
whom your eyes have seen.
8 Do not be hasty in bringing charges to court.
What will you do in the end when your neighbor
shames you?
9 Debate your case with your
neighbor,
and do not betray the confidence of another; 10 lest one who hears it put you to shame,
and your bad reputation never depart.

11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.
12 As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover to an obedient ear.
13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest,
so is a faithful messenger to those who send him;
for he refreshes the soul of his masters.
14 As clouds and wind without rain, so is he who boasts of gifts deceptively.
15 By patience a ruler is persuaded.
A soft tongue breaks the bone.

16 Have you found honey?
Eat as much as is sufficient for you, lest you eat too much, and vomit it.
17 Let your foot be seldom in your neighbor's house, lest he be weary of you, and hate you.
18 A man who gives false testimony against his neighbor is like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow.
19 Confidence in someone unfaithful in time of trouble is like a bad tooth, or a lame foot.
20 As one who takes away a garment in cold weather, or vinegar on soda,
so is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.
21 If your enemy is hungry, give him something[a] to eat.[b]
If he is thirsty, give him something[c] to drink, 22 for by doing this[d] you will heap coals of fire on his head,[e] and YHWH will reward you.
23 The north wind brings forth rain:
so a backbiting tongue brings an angry face.
24 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than to share a house with a contentious woman.
25 Like cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.
26 Like a muddied spring, and a polluted well, so is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.
27 It is not good to eat much honey; nor is it honorable to seek one's own honor.[f] 28 Like a city that is broken down and without walls is a man whose spirit is without restraint.

26 Like snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool.
2 Like a fluttering sparrow, like a darting swallow,
so the undeserved curse doesn't come to rest.
3 A whip is for the horse,
a bridle for the donkey,
and a rod for the back of fools.
4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly,

[a] 25:21 LXX Syr Vg. MT adds "bread"
[b] 25:21 Or, "hungry, feed him." Lit. "give him to eat"
[c] 25:21 LXX Syr. MT adds "water"
[d] 25:22 LXX. MT lacks "by doing this" from homoioteleuton by sight confusion: ky-kn [e] 25:21-22 The word "coal" is sometimes used in a metaphorical sense, e.g., 2 Samuel 14:7. To "heap coals of fire on his head" is a figure of speech for an action by someone that will produce remorse in the other person. Romans 12:20 [f] 25:27 LXX cf. Tg Syr read "honey; but it is right to honor notable sayings.

lest you also be like him.
[5]Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes.
[6]One who sends a message by the hand of a fool is cutting off feet and drinking violence.
[7]Like the legs of the lame that hang loose:
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.
[8]As one who binds a stone in a sling, so is he who gives honor to a fool.
[9]Like a thornbush that goes into the hand of a drunkard,
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.
[10]As an archer who wounds all, so is he who hires a fool or he who hires those who pass by.
[11]As a dog that returns to his vomit,[a] so is a fool who repeats his folly.
[12]Do you see a man wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
[13]The sluggard says, “There is a lion in the road.
A fierce lion roams the streets.” [14]As the door turns on its hinges, so does the sluggard on his bed.
[15]The sluggard buries his hand in the dish.
He is too lazy to bring it back to his mouth.
[16]The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who answer with discretion.
[17]Like one who grabs a dog’s ears is one who passes by and meddles in a quarrel not his own.
[18]Like a madman who shoots firebrands, arrows, and death, [19]is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, “Am I not joking?”
[20]Without wood a fire goes out.
Without gossip, contention ceases.
[21]As coals are to hot embers, and wood to fire,
so is a contentious man to kindling strife.
[22]The words of a gossip are as tasty morsels, they go down into the innermost parts.
[23]Like silver dross on an earthen vessel are the lips of a fervent one with an evil heart.
[24]A malicious man disguises himself with his lips, but he harbors evil in his heart.
[25]When his speech is charming, do not believe him; for there are seven abominations in his heart.
[26]His malice may be concealed by deception,

[a]26:11 2Peter 2:22

but his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.
[27]Whoever digs a pit shall fall into
it.
Whoever rolls a stone, it will come back on him.
[28]A lying tongue hates those it hurts;
and a flattering mouth works
ruin.

27 Do not boast about tomorrow;
for you do not know what a day may bring forth.
[2]Let another man praise you,
and not your own mouth;
a stranger, and not your own
lips.
[3]A stone is heavy,
and sand is a burden;
but a fool's provocation is heavier than both.
[4]Wrath is cruel,
and anger is overwhelming;
but who is able to stand before jealousy?
[5]Better is open rebuke than hidden love.
[6]Faithful are the wounds of a friend;
although the kisses of an enemy are profuse.
[7]A full soul loathes a honeycomb; but to a hungry soul, every bitter thing is sweet.
[8]As a bird that wanders from her nest,
so is a man who wanders from his home.
[9]Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart;
so does earnest counsel from a man's friend.
[10]Do not forsake your friend and your father's friend.
Do not go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster:
better is a neighbor who is near than a distant
brother.
[11]Be wise, my son,
and bring joy to my heart, then I can answer my tormentor.
[12]A prudent man sees danger and takes refuge;
but the simple pass on, and suffer for it.
[13]Take his garment when he puts up collateral for a stranger.
Hold it for a wayward
woman.
[14]He who blesses his neighbor with a loud voice early in the morning,
it will be taken as a curse by
him.
[15]A continual dropping on a rainy
day
and a contentious wife are
alike:
[16]restraining her is like restraining
the wind,
or like grasping oil in his right hand.

[17]Iron sharpens iron; so a man sharpens his friend's countenance.
[18]Whoever tends the fig tree shall eat its fruit.
He who looks after his master shall be honored.
[19]As water reflects a face, so a man's heart reflects the man.

[20]Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied; and a man's eyes are never satisfied.[a] [21]The crucible is for silver, and the furnace for gold;
but man is refined by his praise.[b] [22]Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with grain, yet his foolishness will not be removed from him.

[23]Know well the state of your flocks, and pay attention to your herds: [24]for riches are not forever, nor does even the crown endure to all generations.
[25]The hay is removed, and the new growth appears, the grasses of the hills are gathered in.
[26]The lambs are for your clothing, and the goats are the price of a field.
[27]There will be plenty of goats' milk for your food, for your family's food,
and for the nourishment of your servant girls.

28 The wicked flee when no one pursues;
but the righteous are as bold as a lion.
[2]In rebellion, a land has many rulers, but order is maintained by a man of understanding and knowledge.
[3]A needy man who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain which leaves no crops.
[4]Those who forsake the Law praise the wicked;
but those who keep the Law contend with them.
[5]Evil men do not understand justice; but those who seek YHWH understand it fully.
[6]Better is the poor who walks in his integrity, than he who is perverse in his ways, and he is rich.
[7]Whoever keeps the Law is a wise son;
but he who is a companion of gluttons shames his father.
[8]He who increases his wealth by excessive interest gathers it for one who has pity on the poor.
[9]He who turns away his ear from hearing the Law, even his prayer is an abomination.
[10]Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way,

[a]27:20 LXX adds "He that fixes his eye is an abomination to YHWH, and the uninstructed do not restrain their tongue"

[b]27:21 LXX (Syr Vg Mss) add "The heart of wicked seeks evil, but the righteous heart seeks knowledge" he will fall into his own trap;

but the blameless will inherit good.
[11]The rich man is wise in his own eyes;
but the poor who has understanding sees through him.
[12]When the righteous triumph, there is great glory;
but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves.
[13]He who conceals his sins doesn't prosper, but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy.
[14]Blessed is the man who is always reverent; but the one who hardens his heart will fall into evil.
[15]As a roaring lion or a charging bear, so is a wicked ruler over helpless people.
[16]A prince who lacks understanding is a cruel oppressor, but one who hates ill-gotten gain will prolong his days.
[17]A man who is tormented by life blood will be a fugitive until death;
no one will support him.
[18]Whoever walks blamelessly is kept safe; but one with perverse ways will fall suddenly.
[19]One who works his land will have an abundance of food; but one who chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.
[20]A faithful man is rich with blessings; but one who is eager to be rich will not go unpunished.
[21]To show partiality is not good;
yet a man will do wrong for a piece of bread.
[22]A stingy man hurries after riches, and doesn't know that poverty waits for him.
[23]One who rebukes a man will afterward find more favor than one who flatters with the tongue.
[24]Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says, "It's not wrong."
He is a partner with a destroyer.
[25]One who is greedy stirs up strife;
but one who trusts in YHWH will prosper.
[26]One who trusts in himself is a fool;
but one who walks in wisdom is kept safe.
[27]One who gives to the poor has no lack;
but one who closes his eyes will have many curses.
[28]When the wicked rise, men hide themselves;
but when they perish, the righteous thrive.

29 He who is often rebuked and stiffens his neck will be destroyed suddenly, with no remedy.
[2]When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice;

but when the wicked rule,
the people groan.
3 Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father;
but a companion of prostitutes squanders
his wealth.
4 The king by justice makes the land stable,
but he who takes bribes tears
it down.
5 A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.
6 An evil man is snared by his sin, but the righteous can sing
and be glad.
7 The righteous is concerned about justice for the poor.
The wicked does not understand the concern.
8 Mockers stir up a city, but wise men turn away
anger.
9 If a wise man goes to court with a foolish man,
the fool rages or scoffs, and there is no peace.
10 The bloodthirsty hate a man of integrity;
and they seek the life of the
upright.
11 A fool vents all of his anger, but a wise man brings himself under control.
12 If a ruler listens to lies, all of his officials are
wicked.
13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common: YHWH gives sight to the eyes of both.
14 The king who fairly judges the poor,
his throne shall be established forever.
15 The rod of correction gives
wisdom,
but a child left to himself causes shame to his mother.
16 When the wicked increase, sin increases;
but the righteous will see their downfall.
17 Correct your son, and he will give you peace;
yes, he will bring delight to your soul.
18 Where there is no revelation, the people cast off
restraint;
but he who keeps the law is blessed.
19 A servant can't be corrected by
words.
Though he understands, yet he will not respond.
20 Do you see a man who is hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
21 He who pampers his servant from youth will have him become a son in the end.
22 An angry man stirs up strife, and a wrathful man abounds in sin.
23 A man's pride brings him low, but one of lowly spirit gains
honor.
24 Whoever is an accomplice of a thief is an enemy of his own soul.
He takes an oath, but dares not testify.
25 The fear of man proves to be a snare,
but whoever puts his trust in YHWH will be set on high.

[26]Many seek the ruler's favor, but a man's justice comes
from YHWH.
[27]A dishonest man detests the
righteous,
and the upright in their ways detest the wicked.

30 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the oracle:
the man says to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:
[2]"Surely I am the most ignorant
man,
and do not have a man's
understanding.
[3]I have not learned wisdom, neither do I have the knowledge of the Holy
One.
[4]Who has ascended up into heaven, and descended?
Who has gathered the wind in his fists?
Who has bound the waters in his garment?
Who has established every part of the earth?
What is his name, and what is his son's name, if you know?

[5]"Every word of God is flawless.
He is a shield to those who take refuge in him.
[6]Do not add to his words, lest he reprove you, and you be found a liar.

[7]"Two things I have asked of you;
do not deny me before I die: [8]Remove far from me falsehood and lies.
Give me neither poverty nor riches.
Feed me with the food that is needful for me;
[9]lest I be full, deny you, and say,
'Who is YHWH?'
or lest I be poor, and steal, and so dishonor the name of my God.

[10]"Do not slander a servant to his master,
lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.
[11]There is a generation that curses their father,
and doesn't bless their
mother.
[12]There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, yet are not washed from their filthiness.
[13]There is a generation, oh how lofty are their eyes.
Their eyelids are lifted up.
[14]There is a generation whose teeth are like swords,
and their jaws like knives, to devour the poor from the earth, and the needy from among men.

[15]"The leach has two daughters:
'Give, give.'

"There are three things that are never satisfied;
four that do not say,
'Enough:'
[16]Sheol,
the barren womb;
the earth that is not satisfied with water;
and the fire that doesn't say,
'Enough.'

17 "The eye that mocks at his father,
and scorns obedience to his
mother:
the ravens of the valley shall pick it out,
the young eagles shall eat it.

18 "There are three things which are too amazing for me, four which I do not understand:
19 The way of an eagle in the air;
the way of a serpent on a rock;
the way of a ship in the midst of the sea;
and the way of a man with a maiden.

20 "So is the way of an adulterous
woman:
she eats and wipes her
mouth,
and says, 'I have done nothing wrong.'

21 "For three things the earth tremble,
and under four, it can't bear
up:
22 For a servant when he is king;
a fool when he is filled with
food;
23 for an unloved woman when she is married;
and a handmaid who is heir to her mistress.

24 "There are four things which are little on the earth, but they are exceedingly
wise:
25 the ants are not a strong
people,
yet they provide their food in the summer.
26 The conies are but a feeble folk,
yet make they their houses in the rocks.
27 The locusts have no king, yet they advance in ranks.
28 You can catch a lizard with
your hands,
yet it is in kings' palaces.

29 "There are three things which are stately in their march, four which are stately in going:
30 The lion, which is mightiest among animals,
and doesn't turn away for any;
31 the greyhound,
the male goat also;
and the king against whom there is no rising up.

32 "If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself, or if you have thought evil,
put your hand over your mouth.
33 For as the churning of milk brings forth butter, and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood;
so the forcing of wrath brings forth strife."

31 The words of king Lemuel; the oracle which his mother taught him.
2 "Oh, my son.
Oh, son of my womb.

Oh, son of my vows.
3 Do not give your strength to women, nor your ways to that which destroys kings.
4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink
wine,
or for princes to take strong drink,
5 lest they drink, and forget the decree,
and pervert the justice due to anyone who is afflicted.
6 Give strong drink to him who is ready to perish;
and wine to the bitter in
soul:
7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty,
and remember his misery no
more.
8 Open your mouth for the mute, in the cause of all who are left desolate.
9 Open your mouth, judge righteously,
and serve justice to the poor and needy."

10 Who can find a worthy woman?
For her price is far above rubies.

11 The heart of her husband trusts in her.
He shall have no lack of gain.

12 She does him good, and not harm,
all the days of her life.

13 She seeks wool and flax, and works eagerly with her
hands.

14 She is like the merchant ships.
She brings her bread from afar.

15 She rises also while it is yet
night,
gives food to her household, and portions for her servant girls.

16 She considers a field, and buys
it.
With the fruit of her hands,
she plants a vineyard.

17 She girds her waist with strength, and makes her arms strong.

18 She perceives that her merchandise is profitable.
Her lamp doesn't go out by
night.

19 She lays her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle.

20 She opens her arms to the poor; yes, she extends her hands to
the needy.

21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household;
for all her household are clothed with scarlet.

22 She makes for herself carpets of tapestry.
Her clothing is fine linen and purple.

[23]Her husband is respected in the gates,
when he sits among the elders of the land.

[24]She makes linen garments and sells them,
and delivers sashes to the merchant.

[25]Strength and dignity are her clothing.
She laughs at the time to come.

[26]She opens her mouth with
wisdom.
Faithful instruction is on her
tongue.

[27]She looks well to the ways of her household,
and doesn't eat the bread of idleness.

[28]Her children rise up and call her blessed.
Her husband also praises
her:

[29]"Many women do noble things, but you excel them all."

[30]Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain;
but a woman who fears YHWH, she shall be praised.

[31]Give her of the fruit of her
hands.
Let her works praise her in the gates.

Ecclesiastes

1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem:

[2]"Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher; "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity." [3]What does man gain from all his labor in which he labors under the sun? [4]One generation goes, and another generation comes; but the earth remains forever. [5]The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hurries to its place where it rises. [6]The wind goes toward the south, and turns around to the north. It turns around continually as it goes, and the wind returns again to its courses. [7]All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full. To the place where the rivers flow, there they flow again. [8]All things are full of weariness beyond uttering. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. [9]That which has been is that which shall be; and that which has been done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. [10]Is there a thing of which it may be said, "Look, this is new?" It has been long ago, in the ages which were before us. [11]There is no memory of the former; neither shall there be any memory of the latter that are to come, among those that shall come after.

[12]I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. [13]I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under the sky. It is a heavy burden that God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. 14I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and look, all is vanity and a chasing after wind. 15That which is crooked can't be made straight; and that which is lacking can't be counted. 16I said to myself, "Look, I have obtained for myself great wisdom above all who were before me in Jerusalem. Yes, my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge." 17I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also was a chasing after wind. 18For in much wisdom is much grief; and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

2 I said in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with mirth: therefore enjoy pleasure;" and look, this also was vanity. 2I said of laughter, "It is foolishness;" and of mirth, "What does it accomplish?"

3I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold of folly, until I might see what it was good for the sons of men that they should do under heaven all the days of their lives. 4I made myself great works. I built myself houses. I planted myself vineyards. 5I made myself gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit. 6I made myself pools of water, to water from it the forest where trees were reared. 7I bought male servants and female servants, and had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all who were before me in Jerusalem; 8I also gathered silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces. I got myself male and female singers, and the delights of the sons of men—musical instruments, and that of all sorts. 9So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me. 10Whatever my eyes desired, I did not keep from them. I did not withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor, and this was my portion from all my labor. 11Then I looked at all the works that my hands had worked, and at the labor that I had labored to do; and look, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

12I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness, and folly. For what can the man who comes after the king do? Just that which he[a] has already done. 13Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. 14The wise man's eyes are in his head, and the fool walks in darkness—and yet I perceived that one event happens to them all. 15Then said I in my heart,

[a]2:12 Hebrew Mss

"As it happens to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise?" Then said I in my heart that this also is vanity.[a] 16For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no memory for ever, seeing that in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. Indeed, the wise man must die just like the fool.

17So I hated life, because the work that is worked under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a chasing after wind. 18I hated all my labor in which I labored under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the man who comes after me. 19Who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all of my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.

20Therefore I began to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor in which I had labored under the sun. 21For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, with knowledge, and with skillfulness; yet he shall leave it for his portion to a man who has not labored for it.
This also is vanity and a great evil.
22For what has a man of all his labor, and of the striving of his heart, in which he labors under the sun? 23For all his days are sorrows, and his travail is grief; yes, even in the night his heart takes no rest.
This also is vanity. 24There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labor.
This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God. 25For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, apart from him?[b] 26For to the man who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him who pleases God. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

3 For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under
heaven:
2a time to be born,
and a time to die;
a time to plant,
and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
3a time to kill,
and a time to heal;
a time to break down,
and a time to build up; 4a time to weep,
and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn,
and a time to dance;
5a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones
together;
a time to embrace,
and a time to refrain from embracing;
6a time to seek,
and a time to lose;
a time to keep,
and a time to cast away;

[a] 2:16 LXX adds "because the fool speaks of his abundance"

[b] 2:25 Hebrew Mss LXX Syr. MT reads "more than I?"

[7]a time to tear,
and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence,
and a time to speak;
[8]a time to love,
and a time to hate;
a time for war,
and a time for peace.

[9]What profit has he who works in that in which he labors? [10]I have seen the burden which God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. [11]He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in their hearts, yet so that man can't find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end. [12]I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good as long as they live. [13]Also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labor, is the gift of God. [14]I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and God has done it, that men should fear before him. [15]That which is has been long ago, and that which is to be has been long ago: and God seeks again that which is passed away.

[16]Moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of justice, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there. [17]I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work." [18]I said in my heart, "As for the sons of men, God tests them, so that they may see that they themselves are like animals. [19]For that which happens to the sons of men happens to animals. Even one thing happens to them. As the one dies, so the other dies. Yes, they have all one breath; and man has no advantage over the animals: for all is vanity. [20]All go to one place. All are from the dust, and all turn to dust again. [21]Who knows the spirit of man, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, whether it goes downward to the earth?"

[22]Therefore I saw that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion: for who can bring him to see what will be after him?

4 Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and look, the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. [2]Therefore I praised the dead who have been long dead more than the living who are yet alive. [3]Yes, better than them both is him who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. [4]Then I saw all the labor and achievement that is the envy of a man's neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

[5]The fool folds his hands together and ruins himself. [6]Better is a handful, with quietness, than two handfuls with labor and chasing after wind.

[7]Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. [8]There is one who is alone, and he has neither son nor brother. There is no end to all of his labor, neither are his eyes satisfied with wealth. For whom then, do I labor, and deprive my soul of enjoyment? This also is vanity, yes, it is a miserable business.

[9]Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. [10]For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls, and doesn't have another to lift him up. [11]Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one keep warm alone? [12]If a man prevails against one who is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

[13]Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who doesn't know how to receive admonition any more. [14]For out of prison he came forth to be king; yes, even in his kingdom he was born poor. [15]I saw all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the other, who succeeded him. [16]There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was—yet those who come after shall not rejoice in him.
Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

5 Guard your step[a] when you go to the house of God. To draw near to listen is better than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they do evil. [2]Do not be rash with your mouth, and do not let your heart be hasty to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and you on earth.
Therefore let your words be few.
[3]For as a dream comes with a multitude of cares, so a fool's speech with a multitude of words.
[4]When you vow a vow to God, do not defer to pay it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you vow. [5]It is better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay. [6]Do not allow your mouth to lead you into sin. Do not protest before the messenger that this was a mistake.
Why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands? [7]For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, as well as in many words: but you must fear
God.

[8]If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of justice and righteousness in a district, do not marvel at the matter: for one official is eyed by a higher one; and there are officials over them. [9]Moreover the profit of the earth is for all. The king profits from the field.

[a]5:1 Hebrew Mss (cf. LXX Syr Vg Tg). MT reads "steps"

10 He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loves abundance, with increase: this also is vanity. 11 When goods increase, those who eat them are increased; and what advantage is there to its owner, except to feast on them with his eyes?

12 The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep.

13 There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun:
wealth kept by its owner to his harm. 14 Those riches perish by misfortune, and if he has fathered a son, there is nothing in his hand.
15 As he came forth from his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his labor, which he may carry away in his hand. 16 This also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go. And what profit does he have who labors for the wind? 17 All his days are in darkness and mourning,[a] he is frustrated, and has sickness and wrath.

18 Look, that which I have seen to be good and proper is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labor, in which he labors under the sun, all the days of his life which God has given him; for this is his portion. 19 Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God. 20 For he shall not often reflect on the days of his life; because God occupies him with the joy of his
heart.

6 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy on men: 2 a man to whom God gives riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God gives him no power to eat of it, but a foreigner eats it. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 If a man fathers a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many,
but his soul is not filled with good, and moreover he has no burial; I say, that a stillborn child is better than he: 4 for it comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. 5 Moreover it has not seen the sun nor known it.
This has rest rather than the other.
6 Yes, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet fails to enjoy good, do not all go to one place? 7 All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. 8 For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? What has the poor man, that knows how to walk before the living? 9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the

[a] 5:17 LXX, reading penthos = w'bl "mourning." MT reads y'kl "eats" wandering of the desire. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

10Whatever has been, its name was given long ago; and it is known what man is; neither can he contend with him who is mightier than he.
11For there are many words that create vanity. What does that profit man? 12For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he spends like a shadow? For who can tell a man what will be after him under the sun?

7 A good name is better than fine perfume; and the day of death better than the day of one's birth. 2It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men, and the living should take this to heart. 3Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made good. 4The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. 5It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.
6For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity. 7Surely extortion makes the wise man foolish; and a bribe destroys the understanding. 8Better is the end of a thing than its beginning.

The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. 9Do not be hasty in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools.
10Do not say, "Why were the former days better than these?" For you do not ask wisely about this.

11Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. Yes, it is more excellent for those who see the sun.
12For wisdom is a defense, even as money is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it.

13Consider the work of God, for who can make that straight, which he has made crooked? 14In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, God has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything after him.

15All this have I seen in my days of vanity: there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives long in his evildoing. 16Do not be overly righteous, neither make yourself overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself? 17Do not be too wicked, neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time?
18It is good that you should take hold of this. Yes, also from that do not withdraw your hand; for he who fears God will come forth from them all. 19Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city. 20Surely there is not a righteous man on earth, who does good and doesn't sin. 21Also do not take heed to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you; 22for often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others. [23]All this have I proved in wisdom. I said, "I will be wise;" but it was far from me. [24]That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out? [25]I turned around, and my heart sought to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the scheme of things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity, and that foolishness is madness.

[26]I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and traps, whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases God shall escape from her; but the sinner will be ensnared by her.

[27]Look, this have I found, says the Preacher, one to another, to find out the scheme; [28]which my soul still seeks; but I have not found: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found. [29]Look, this only have I found, that God made humankind upright, but they search for many schemes.

8 Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his face is changed. [2]Keep[a] the king's command, because of the oath to God. [3]Do not be hasty to go out of his presence. Do not persist in an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him, [4]for the king's word is supreme. Who can say to him, "What are you doing?" [5]Whoever keeps the commandment shall not come to harm, and his wise heart will know the time and procedure. [6]For there is a time and procedure for every purpose, although the misery of man is heavy on him. [7]For he doesn't know that which will be; for who can tell him how it will be? [8]There is no man who has power over the spirit to contain the spirit; neither does he have power over the day of death. There is no discharge in war; neither shall wickedness deliver those who practice it.

[9]All this have I seen, and applied my mind to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man has power over another to his hurt. [10]So I saw the wicked buried. Indeed they came also from holy place. They went and were praised[b] in the city where they did this. This also is vanity. [11]Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. [12]Though a sinner commits crimes a hundred times, and lives long, yet surely I know that it will be better with those who fear God, who are reverent before him. [13]But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he lengthen days like a

[a]8:2 Hebrew Mss LXX Syr Vg Tg. MT reads 'ny "I" instead of 'et "Keep"

[b]8:10 Hebrew Mss LXX Vg, reading wystbhw "praise/boast." MT reads wystkhw "forget" shadow; because he doesn't fear God.

14There is a vanity which is done on the earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked. Again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity. 15Then I commended mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful: for that will accompany him in his labor all the days of his life which God has given him under the sun.

16When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (for also there is that neither day nor night sees sleep with his eyes), 17then I saw all the work of God, that man can't find out the work that is done under the sun, because however much a man labors to seek it out, yet he won't find it. Yes even though a wise man thinks he can comprehend it, he won't be able to find it.

9 For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hatred, man doesn't know it; all is before them. 2It is the same for all: one event to the righteous and to the wicked, to the good and to the evil,[a] and to the clean and to the unclean, to him who sacrifices, and to him who doesn't sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner; he who swears is as he who fears an oath. 3This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. 4For to him who is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion. 5For the living know that they will die, but the dead do not know anything, neither do they have any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. 6Also their love, their hatred, and their envy has perished long ago; neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun.

7Go your way—eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already accepted your works. 8Let your garments be always white, and do not let your head lack oil. 9Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your life of vanity, which he has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity: for that is your portion in life, and in your labor in which you labor under the sun. 10Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work,

[a]9:2 LXX Syr Vg. MT lacks "and to the evil" from haplography by homoioarcton: lh-lh nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in Sheol, where you are going.

11 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all.
12 For man also doesn't know his time. As the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly on them.

13 I have also seen wisdom under the sun in this way, and it seemed great to me. 14 There was a little city, and few men within it; and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great siege works against it. 15 Now a poor wise man was found in it, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man. 16 Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength. Nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. 17 The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the cry of him who rules among fools. 18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

10 Dead flies cause the oil of the perfumer to send forth an evil odor; so does a little folly outweigh wisdom and honor. 2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand, but a fool's heart at his left. 3 Yes also, when the fool walks by the way, his understanding fails him, and he says to everyone that he is a fool.
4 If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, do not leave your place; for gentleness lays great offenses to rest.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, the sort of error which proceeds from the ruler.
6 Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in a low place. 7 I have seen servants on horses, and princes walking like servants on the earth.
8 He who digs a pit may fall into it; and whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a serpent.
9 Whoever carves out stones may be injured by them. Whoever splits wood may be endangered thereby.
10 If the axe is blunt, and one doesn't sharpen the edge, then he must use more strength; but skill brings success.

11 If the serpent bites before it is charmed, then is there no profit for the charmer's tongue. 12 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but a fool is swallowed by his own lips. 13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness. 14 A fool also multiplies words.

Man doesn't know what will be; and that which will be after him, who can tell him? 15 The labor of fools wearies every one of them; for he doesn't know how to go to the city.
16 Woe to you, land, when your king is a child,

and your princes eat in the morning. [17]Blessed are you, land, when your king is the son of nobles,
and your princes eat in due
season,
for strength, and not for drunkenness.
[18]By slothfulness the roof sinks in;
and through idleness of the hands the house leaks.
[19]A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes the life
glad;
and money is the answer for all things.
[20]Do not curse the king, no, not in your thoughts;
and do not curse the rich in your bedchamber:
for a bird of the sky may carry your voice,
and that which has wings may tell the matter.

11 Cast your bread on the waters;
for you shall find it
after many days.
[2]Give a portion to seven, yes, even to eight;
for you do not know what evil will be on the
earth.
[3]If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on
the earth;
and if a tree falls toward the south, or toward the north,
in the place where the tree falls, there shall it be.
[4]He who observes the wind won't sow;
and he who regards the clouds won't reap.
[5]As you do not know what is the way of the wind,
nor how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child;
even so you do not know the work of God who does
all.
[6]In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening do not withhold your hand;
for you do not know which will prosper, whether this or that,
or whether they will both be equally good.
[7]Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to see the sun.
[8]Yes, if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them
all;
but let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many.
All that comes is vanity.
[9]Rejoice, young man, in your youth,
and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth,
and walk in the ways of your
heart,
and in the sight of your eyes;
but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.
[10]Therefore remove sorrow from
your heart,
and put away evil from your flesh;
for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

12 Remember also your Creator[a] in the days of your youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw near,
when you will say, “I have no pleasure in them;” 2 Before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain; 3 in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few,
and those who look out of the windows are darkened, 4 and the doors shall be shut in the street;
when the sound of the grinding is low, and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low; 5 Also, they are afraid of heights, and of terrors in the way;
and the almond tree blossoms, and the grasshopper is burdened,
and the caper bush fails;
because man goes to his everlasting home, and the mourners go about the streets: 6 before the silver cord is severed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the spring, or the wheel broken at the cistern, 7 and the dust returns to the earth as it was,
and the spirit returns to God who gave it.
8 Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher.
All is vanity.

9 Further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. 10 The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written blamelessly, words of truth. 11 The words of the wise are like goads; and like nails well fastened are words from the masters of collections, which are given from one shepherd. 12 Furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13 This is the end of the matter. All has been heard. Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. 14 For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

Song of Solomon

1 The Song of songs, which is Solomon's.

Beloved
2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth; for your love is better than wine.
3 Your oils have a pleasing fragrance.
Your name is oil poured forth, therefore the virgins love you.
4 Take me away with you.
Let us hurry.
The king has brought me into his chambers.

Friends
We will be glad and rejoice in you.
We will praise your love more than wine.

Beloved
They are right to love you.
5 I am dark, but lovely, you daughters of Jerusalem, like Kedar's tents,
like Solomon's curtains.
6 Do not stare at me because I am dark, because the sun has scorched me.
My mother's sons were angry with me.
They made me keeper of the vineyards.
I haven't kept my own vineyard.
7 Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where you graze your flock,
where you rest them at noon;
For why should I be as one who is veiled beside the flocks of your companions?

Lover
8 If you do not know, most beautiful among women, follow the tracks of the sheep.
Graze your young goats beside the shepherds' tents.

9 I have compared you, my love, to a steed in Pharaoh's chariots.
10 Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings, your neck with strings of jewels.
11 We will make you earrings of gold, with studs of silver.

Beloved
12 While the king sat at his table, my perfume spread its fragrance.
13 My beloved is to me a sachet of myrrh, that lies between my breasts.
14 My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms from the vineyards of En Gedi.

Lover
15 Look, you are beautiful, my love.
Look, you are beautiful.
Your eyes are doves.

Beloved
16 Look, you are beautiful, my beloved, yes, pleasant;
and our couch is verdant.

Lover
17 The beams of our house are cedars.
Our rafters are firs.
Beloved

2 I am a crocus of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

Lover
2 As a lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

Beloved
3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood,
so is my beloved among the sons.
I sat down under his shadow with great delight,
his fruit was sweet to my taste.
4 He brought me to the banquet hall,
and his banner over me was love.
5 Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples;
For I am faint with love.
6 His left hand is under my head.
His right hand embraces me.

7 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
by the roes, or by the hinds
of the field,
that you not stir up, nor
awaken love,
until it so desires.

8 The voice of my beloved.
Look, he comes,
leaping on the mountains,
skipping on the hills.
9 My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag.[a] Look, he stands behind our wall.
He looks in at the windows.
He glances through the lattice.

10 My beloved spoke, and said to
me,
"Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.
11 For, look, the winter is past.
The rain is over and gone.
12 The flowers appear on the earth.
The time of the singing has
come,
and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.
13 The fig tree ripens her green figs.
The vines are in blossom.
They give forth their fragrance.

[a] 2:9 LXX adds "on the mountains of Bethel"

Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come away."

Lover
14 My dove in the clefts of the rock,
In the hiding places of the mountainside,
Let me see your face.
Let me hear your voice;
for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.

15 Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes that spoil the vineyards;
for our vineyards are in blossom.

Beloved
16 My beloved is mine, and I am his.
He browses among the lilies.
17 Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved,
and be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of Bether.

3 By night on my bed,
I sought him whom my soul loves.
I sought him, but I did not find him.
2 I will get up now, and go about the city; in the streets and in the squares I will seek him whom my soul loves.
I sought him, but I did not find him.
3 The watchmen who go about the city found me;
"Have you seen him whom my soul loves?" 4 I had scarcely passed from them, when I found him whom my soul loves.
I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, into the chamber of her who conceived me.

5 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, or by the hinds of the field, that you not stir up, nor awaken love,
until it so desires.

6 Who is this who comes up from the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all spices of the merchant?
7 Look, it is Solomon's carriage.
Sixty mighty men are around it,
of the mighty men of Israel.
8 They all handle the sword, and are expert in war.
Every man has his sword on his thigh, because of fear in the night.
9 King Solomon made himself a carriage of the wood of Lebanon.
10 He made its pillars of silver, its bottom of gold, its seat of purple, its midst being paved with love,
from the daughters of Jerusalem.
11 Go forth, you daughters of Zion, and see king Solomon,

with the crown with which his mother has crowned him,
in the day of his weddings, in the day of the gladness of his heart.

Lover

4 Look, you are beautiful, my love.
Look, you are beautiful.
Your eyes are doves behind your veil.
Your hair is as a flock of goats,
that descend from Mount Gilead.
2 Your teeth are like a newly shorn flock,
which have come up from
the washing,
where every one of them has twins.
None is bereaved among
them.
3 Your lips are like scarlet thread.
Your mouth is lovely.
Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind
your veil.
4 Your neck is like David's tower built for an armory, whereon a thousand shields hang,
all the shields of the mighty
men.
5 Your two breasts are like two fawns
that are twins of a gazelle, which feed among the lilies.

6 Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away,
I will go to the mountain of
myrrh,
to the hill of frankincense.

7 You are all beautiful, my love.
There is no spot in you.
8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride,
with me from Lebanon.
Look from the top of Amana,
from the top of Senir and Hermon,
from the lions' dens,
from the mountains of the leopards.
9 You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride.
You have ravished my heart with one of your eyes, with one chain of your neck.
10 How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride.
How much better is your love than wine.
The fragrance of your perfumes than all manner of spices.
11 Your lips, my bride, drip like the honeycomb.
Honey and milk are under your tongue.
The smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon.
12 A locked up garden is my sister, my bride;
a locked up spring,
a sealed fountain.
13 Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits:
henna with spikenard plants, 14 spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense

tree;
myrrh and aloes, with all the best spices, 15a fountain of gardens,
a well of living waters, flowing streams from Lebanon.

Beloved 16Awake, north wind; and come, you south.
Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow out.
Let my beloved come into his garden,
and taste his precious fruits.

Lover

5 I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride.
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice;
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;
I have drunk my wine with my milk.

Friends
Eat, friends.
Drink, yes, drink abundantly, beloved.

Beloved
2I was asleep, but my heart was awake.
It is the voice of my beloved who knocks:
"Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled;
for my head is filled with
dew,
and my hair with the dampness of the
night."
3I have taken off my robe. Indeed, must I put it on?
I have washed my feet.
Indeed, must I soil
them?
4My beloved thrust his hand in through the latch
opening.
My heart pounded for him.
5I rose up to open for my beloved.
My hands dripped with
myrrh,
my fingers with liquid
myrrh,
on the handles of the lock.
6I opened to my beloved;
but my beloved left; and had gone away.
My heart went out when he spoke.
I looked for him, but I did not find him.
I called him, but he did not answer.
7The watchmen who go about the city found me.
They beat me.
They bruised me.
The keepers of the walls took my cloak away
from me.
8I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
If you find my beloved, that you tell him that I am faint with love.

Friends
9How is your beloved better than another beloved,
you fairest among women?

How is your beloved better than
another beloved,
that you do so adjure us?

Beloved
10 My beloved is radiant and tan.
The best among ten
thousand.
11 His head is like the purest gold.
His hair is bushy, black as a raven.
12 His eyes are like doves beside the water brooks, washed with milk, mounted like jewels.
13 His cheeks are like a bed of spices with towers of perfumes.
His lips are like lilies, dropping liquid myrrh.
14 His hands are like rings of gold set with beryl.
His body is like ivory work overlaid with sapphires.
15 His legs are like pillars of marble set on sockets of fine
gold.
His appearance is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.
16 His mouth is sweetness;
yes, he is altogether lovely.
This is my beloved, and this is my friend,
daughters of Jerusalem.

Friends

6 Where has your beloved gone, you
fairest among women?
Where has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?

Beloved
2 My beloved has gone down to his garden,
to the beds of spices,
to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.
3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine.
He browses among the lilies,

4 You are beautiful, my love, as Tirzah,
lovely as Jerusalem,
awesome as an army with banners.
5 Turn away your eyes from me, for they have overcome me.
Your hair is like a flock of goats, that lie along the side of Gilead.
6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes,
which have come up from
the washing;
of which every one has
twins;
none is bereaved among
them.
7 Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind
your veil.
8 There are sixty queens, eighty secondary wives,
and virgins without number.
9 My dove, my perfect one, is unique.
She is her mother's only daughter.
She is the favorite one of her who bore her.
The daughters saw her, and called her blessed;
the queens and the secondary wives, and they praised her.

[10]Who is she who looks forth as the morning,
beautiful as the moon,
clear as the sun,
and awesome as an army
with banners?
[11]I went down into the nut tree grove,
to see the green plants of the valley,
to see whether the vine budded,
and the pomegranates were in flower.
[12]Without realizing it, my desire set me with my royal people's chariots.

Friends
[13]Return, return, Shulammite.
Return, return, that we may gaze at you.

Lover
Why do you desire to gaze at the Shulammite,
as at the dance of Mahanaim?

7 How beautiful are your feet in sandals, prince's daughter.
Your rounded thighs are like jewels,
the work of the hands of a skillful workman.
[2]Your body is like a round goblet, no mixed wine is wanting.
Your waist is like a heap of wheat, set about with lilies.
[3]Your two breasts are like two
fawns,
that are twins of a gazelle.
[4]Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bathrabbim.
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.
[5]Your head on you is like Carmel.
The hair of your head like purple.
The king is held captive in its tresses.
[6]How beautiful and how pleasant
you are,
love, for delights.
[7]This, your stature, is like a palm tree,
your breasts like its fruit.
[8]I said, "I will climb up into the palm tree.
I will take hold of its fruit." Let your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
the smell of your breath like apples,

Beloved
[9]Your mouth like the best wine, that goes down smoothly for my beloved,
gliding over my lips and my teeth.[a]

[10]I am my beloved's.
His desire is toward me.

[a]7:9 LXX Aquila Symmachus Syr Vg.
MT reads "of sleepers"

[11]Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field.
Let us lodge in the villages.
[12]Let's go early up to the vineyards.
Let's see whether the vine has budded,
its blossom is open,
and the pomegranates are in flower.
There I will give you my
love.
[13]The mandrakes give forth fragrance.
At our doors are all kinds of precious fruits, new and old,
which I have stored up for you, my beloved.

8 Oh that you were like
my brother,
who sucked the breasts
of my mother.
If I found you outside, I would kiss you;
yes, and no one would despise me.
[2]I would lead you, bringing you into my mother's
house,
who would instruct me.
I would have you drink spiced
wine,
of the juice of my pomegranate.
[3]His left hand would be under my head.
His right hand would embrace me.

[4]I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
that you not stir up, nor
awaken love,
until it so desires.

Friends
[5]Who is this who comes up from the wilderness,
leaning on her beloved?

Under the apple tree I aroused you.
There your mother
conceived you.
There she was in labor and bore you.

[6]Set me as a seal on your heart, as a seal on your arm;
for love is strong as death.
Jealousy is as cruel as Sheol.
Its flashes are flashes of fire,
a very flame of YAH.
[7]Many waters can't quench love, neither can floods drown it.
If a man would give all the wealth of his house for love,
he would be utterly scorned.

Friends
[8]We have a little sister.
She has no breasts.
What shall we do for our sister in the day when she is to be spoken for?

[9]If she is a wall, we will build on her a turret
of silver.
If she is a door,
we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

Beloved
[10]I am a wall, and my breasts like towers,
then I was in his eyes like one who found peace.
[11]Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon.

He leased out the vineyard to keepers.
Each was to bring a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit.
12My own vineyard is before me.
The thousand are for you, Solomon;
two hundred for those who tend its fruit.

Lover
13You who dwell in the gardens, with friends in attendance,
let me hear your voice.

Beloved
14Come away, my beloved.
Be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices.

Isaiah

1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.
2Hear, heavens, and listen, earth; for YHWH has spoken:
I have nourished and brought up
children,
and they have rebelled
against me.
3The ox knows his owner, and the donkey his master's crib;
but Israel doesn't know,[a] my people do not understand.
4Ah sinful nation,
a people loaded with
iniquity,
offspring of evildoers, children who deal corruptly.
They have forsaken YHWH.
They have despised the Holy
One of Israel.
They are estranged and
backward.
5Why should you be beaten more, that you revolt more and
more?
The whole head is sick,
and the whole heart faint.
6From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it:
wounds, welts, and open sores.
They haven't been closed,
neither bandaged,
neither soothed with
oil.
7Your country is desolate.
Your cities are burned with
fire.
Strangers devour your land
in your presence,
and it is desolate,
as overthrown by strangers.
8The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard,[b] like a hut in a field of melons,
like a besieged city.

9 Unless YHWH of hosts had left us a few survivors,
we would have been as Sodom,
and[a] we would have been like Gomorrah.[b] 10 Hear the word of YHWH, you rulers of Sodom.
Listen to the law of our God, you people of Gomorrah.
11 "What are the multitude of your sacrifices to me?,"
says YHWH.
"I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams,
and the fat of fed animals.
I do not delight in the blood of bulls,
or of lambs,
or of male goats.
12 When you come to appear before
me,
who has required this at your hand, to trample my courts?
13 Bring no more vain offerings.
Incense is an abomination to
me;
new moons, Sabbaths, and convocations:
I can't bear with evil assemblies.
14 My soul hates your New Moons and your appointed feasts.
They are a burden to me.
I am weary of bearing them.
15 When you spread forth your hands, I will hide my eyes from you.
Yes, when you make many prayers, I will not
hear.
Your hands are full of blood.[c]
16 Wash yourselves,[d] make yourself clean.
Put away the evil of your doings from before my eyes.
Cease to do evil.
17 Learn to do well.
Seek justice.
Relieve the oppressed.
Judge the fatherless.
Plead for the widow."

18 "Come now, and let us reason together," says YHWH:
"Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow.
Though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool.
19 If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the
land;
20 but if you refuse and rebel, the sword shall devour
you;
for the mouth of YHWH has spoken it."

5 Let me sing for my well

My beloved had a vineyard on a very fruitful hill.
2He dug it up,
gathered out its stones, planted it with the choicest
vine,
built a tower in its midst, and also cut out a winepress
in it.
He looked for it to yield grapes,

but it yielded wild grapes.
3"Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah,
please judge between me and my vineyard.
4What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it?
Why, when I looked for it to yield grapes, did it yield wild grapes?
5Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard.
I will take away its hedge,
and it will be eaten up.
I will break down its wall of it, and it will be trampled down.
6I will lay it a wasteland.
It won't be pruned nor hoed, but it will grow briers and
thorns.
I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain on it."
7For the vineyard of YHWH of hosts is the house of Israel,
and the men of Judah his pleasant plant:
and he looked for justice, but, look, oppression;
for righteousness, but, look,
a cry of distress.
8Woe to those who join house to
house,
who lay field to field, until there is no room,
and you are made to dwell alone in the midst of the land.
9In my ears, YHWH of hosts says:
"Surely many houses
will be desolate,
even great and beautiful,
unoccupied.
10For ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath,
and a homer of seed shall yield an ephah."

11Woe to those who rise up early in the morning, that they may follow
strong drink;
who stay late into the night, until wine inflames
them.
12The harp, lyre, tambourine, and flute, with wine, are at their feasts;
but they do not regard the work of YHWH,
neither have they considered the operation of his
hands.
13Therefore my people go into captivity for lack of knowledge.[a]
Their honorable men are famished,
and their multitudes are parched with thirst.
14Therefore Sheol[b] has enlarged its
desire,
and opened its mouth
without measure;
and their glory, their multitude, their pomp,
and he who rejoices
among them, descend
into it.
15So man is brought low,

[a]5:13 LXX reads "because they do not know YHWH"

[b]5:14 Sheol is the place of the dead humankind is humbled,

and the eyes of the arrogant ones are humbled; 16 but YHWH of hosts is exalted in justice, and God the Holy One is sanctified in righteousness.
17 Then the lambs will graze as in their pasture, and kids[a] will eat in the ruins of the rich.

18 Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords[b] of falsehood, and wickedness as with cart[c] rope; 19 Who say, "Let him[d] make speed, let him hasten his work, that we may see it; and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, that we may know it." 20 Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who put darkness for light, and light for darkness;
who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter.
21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight.
22 Woe to those who are mighty to drink wine, and champions at mixing strong drink; 23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe, but deny justice for the innocent.
24 Therefore as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and as the dry grass sinks down in the flame, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust;
because they have rejected the law of YHWH of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.
25 Therefore YHWH's anger burns against his people, and he has stretched out his hand against them, and has struck them.
The mountains tremble,
and their dead bodies are as refuse in the midst of the streets.
For all this, his anger is not turned away, but his hand is still stretched out.
26 He will lift up a banner to the nations from far, and he will whistle for them from the far regions of the earth.
Look, they will come speedily and swiftly.
27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them;
none shall slumber nor sleep;

7 It happened in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Aram, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but they[l] could not prevail against it. 2 It was told the house of David, saying, "Aram is allied with Ephraim." His heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest tremble with the wind. 3 Then YHWH said to Isaiah, "Go out now to meet Ahaz, you, and Shearjashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the highway of the Launderers' Field. 4 Tell him, 'Be careful, and keep calm. Do not be afraid, neither let your heart be faint because of these two tails of smoking firebrands, for[m] the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram, and of the son of Remaliah. 5 Because Aram, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, 20It will come to pass in that day that the remnant of Israel, and those who have escaped from the house of Jacob will no more again lean on him who struck them, but shall lean on YHWH, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. 21A remnant will return, even the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. 22For though your people, Israel, are as the sand of the sea, a remnant will be kept safe.[b] For[c] he will fulfill[d] the word[e] and[f] decisively,[g] overflowing[h] in righteousness; 23because the Lord[i] will carry out the word[j] decisively in the midst of[k] the earth.[l] in the wrath of YHWH of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger. [14]It will happen that like a hunted gazelle, and like sheep that no one gathers, they will each turn to their own people, and will each flee to their own land. [15]Everyone who is found will be thrust through. Everyone who is captured will fall by the sword. [16]Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes. Their houses will be ransacked, and their wives raped. [17]Look, I will stir up the Medes against them, who will not value silver, and as for gold, they will not delight in it. [18]Their bows will dash the young men in pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb. Their eyes will not spare children. [19]Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' pride, will be like when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. [20]It will never be inhabited, neither will it be lived in from generation to generation. The Arabian will not pitch a tent there, neither will shepherds make their flocks lie down there. [21]But wild animals of the desert will lie there, and their houses will be full of jackals. Ostriches will dwell there, and wild goats will frolic there. [22]Wolves will cry in their fortresses, and jackals in the pleasant palaces. Her time is near to come, and her days will not be prolonged.

14 For YHWH will have compassion on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land. The foreigner will join himself with them, and they will unite with the house of Jacob. [2]The peoples will take them, and bring them to their place. The house of Israel will possess them in YHWH's land for servants and for handmaids. They will take as captives those whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors. [3]It will happen in the day that YHWH will give you rest from your sorrow, from your trouble, and from the hard service in which you were made to serve, [4]that you will take up this parable against the king of Babylon, and say, "How the oppressor has ceased. How the attacker[a] has ceased." [5]YHWH has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers, [6]who struck the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, who ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution that none restrained. [7]The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet. They break out song. [8]Yes, the fir trees rejoice with you, with the cedars of Lebanon, saying, "Since you are humbled, no lumberjack has come up against us." [9]Sheol from beneath has moved for you to meet you at your coming. It stirs up the dead for you, even all the rulers of the earth. It has raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. [10]They all will answer and ask you, "Have you also become as weak as we are? Have you become like us?" [11]Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, with the sound of your stringed instruments. Maggots are spread out under you, and worms cover you.

[12]How you have fallen from heaven, morning star, son of the dawn. How you are cut down to the ground, who laid the nations low. [13]You said in your heart, "I will ascend into heaven. I will exalt my throne above the stars of God. I will sit on the mountain of assembly, in the far north. [14]I will ascend above the heights of the clouds. I will make myself like the Most High." [15]Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the Pit.[a] [16]Those who see you will stare at you. They will ponder you, saying, "Is this the man who made the earth to tremble, who shook kingdoms; [17]who made the world like a wilderness, and overthrew its cities; who did not release his prisoners to their home?" [18]All the kings of the nations[b] lie in splendor, everyone in his own house. [19]But you are cast away from your tomb like an abominable branch, clothed with the slain, who are thrust through with the sword, who go down to the stones[c] of the pit; like a dead body trodden under foot. [20]You will not join them in burial, because you have destroyed your land. You have killed your people. The offspring of evildoers will not be mentioned forever. [21]Prepare for slaughter of his children because of the iniquity of their fathers, that they not rise up and possess the earth, and fill the surface of the world with cities. [22]"I will rise up against them," says YHWH of hosts, "and cut off from Babylon name and remnant, and son and son's son," says YHWH. [23]"I will also make it a possession for the porcupine, and pools of water. I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," says YHWH of hosts. [24]YHWH of hosts has sworn, saying, "Surely, as I have thought, so shall it be,[d] and as I have purposed, so shall it stand: [25]that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and tread him under foot on my mountains. Then his yoke will leave them, and his burden leave their shoulders. [26]This is the plan that is determined for the whole earth. This is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations. [27]For what YHWH of hosts[e] has planned, who can turn it back? And his hand is stretched out, who can turn it back?"

31Howl, gate. Cry, city. You are melted away, Philistia, all of you; for smoke comes out of the north, and there is no straggler in his ranks. 32And what is one[a] to answer the messengers of this nation[b]? That YHWH has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people will take refuge.

15 The burden of Moab: for in a night, Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing; for in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing. 2They have gone up to the temple, and to Dibon, to the high places to weep. Moab wails over Nebo and over Medeba. On every head is baldness. Every beard is cut off. 3In their streets, they dress themselves in sackcloth;[c] on their roofs and in their squares, everyone wails, weeping abundantly. 4Heshbon cries out with Elealeh. Their voice is heard even to Jahaz. Therefore the armed men[d] of Moab cry aloud. Their souls tremble within them. 5My heart cries out for Moab. Her Nazirites flee to Zoar, to Eglath Shelishiyah; for they go up by the ascent of Luhith with weeping; for in the way of Horonaim, they raise up a cry of destruction. 6For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate; for the grass has withered away, the tender grass fails, there is no green thing. 7Therefore they will carry away the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have stored up, over the Brook of the Willows. 8For the cry has gone around the borders of Moab; its wailing as far as Eglaim, and its wailing as far as[e] Beer Elim. 9For the waters of Dibon[f] are full of blood; for I will bring yet more on Dibon, a lion on those of Moab who escape, and on the remnant of the land.

16 Send the lambs for the ruler of the land from Sela[g] to the wilderness, to the mountain of the daughter of Zion. 2For it will be that as wandering birds, as a scattered nest, so will the daughters of Moab be at the fords of the Arnon. 3Give counsel. Execute justice. Make your shade like the night in the midst of the noonday. Hide the outcasts. Do not betray the fugitive.

4Let the outcasts[a] of Moab dwell with you; be a hiding place to them from the face of the destroyer. For the extortioner is at an end, destruction has ceased, oppressors have finished[b] from the land. 5A throne will be established in loving kindness. One will sit on it in truth, in the tent of David, judging, seeking justice, and swift to do
righteousness.

6We have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud;
even of his arrogance, his pride, and his wrath. His boastings are nothing. 7Ah, let not[c] Moab wail; let everyone wail for Moab. You will mourn for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth, utterly stricken. 8For the fields of Heshbon languish with the vine of Sibmah. The lords of the nations have broken down its choice branches, which reached even to Jazer, which wandered into the wilderness. Its shoots were spread abroad. They passed over the sea. 9Therefore I will weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah. I will saturate[d] you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh: for on your summer fruits and on your harvest the battle shout has fallen.
10Gladness is taken away, and joy out of the fruitful field; and in the vineyards there will be no singing and[e] there will be no jubilant shouting. Nobody will tread out wine in the presses. I have made the shouting stop. 11Therefore my heart sounds like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir Heres. 12It will happen that when Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself on the high place, and comes to his sanctuary to pray, that he will not prevail. 13This is the word that YHWH spoke concerning Moab in time past. 14But now YHWH has spoken, saying, "Within three years, as a worker bound by contract would count them, the glory of Moab shall be brought into contempt, with all his great multitude; and the remnant will be very small and feeble."

his arm reaps the grain. Yes, it will be like when one gleans grain in the Valley of Rephaim. 6Yet gleanings will be left there, like the shaking of an olive tree, two or three olives in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outermost branches of a fruitful tree," says YHWH, the God of Israel. 7In that day, people will look to their Maker, and their eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel. 8They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands; neither shall they respect that which their fingers have made, either the Asherim, or the incense altars. 9In that day, their strong cities will be like the forsaken places of the Hivites and the Amorites,[a] which were forsaken from before the children of Israel; and it will be a desolation. 10For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the rock[b] of your strength. Therefore you plant pleasant plants, and set out foreign seedlings. 11In the day of your planting, you hedge it in. In the morning, you make your seed blossom, but the harvest flees away in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow. 12Ah, the uproar of many peoples, who roar like the roaring of the seas; and the rushing of nations, that rush like the rushing of mighty waters. 13The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters: but he will rebuke them, and they will flee far off, and will be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm. 14At evening, look, terror. Before the morning,[c] they are no more. This is the portion of those who plunder us, and the lot of those who rob us.

When the trumpet is blown, listen. 4For YHWH said to me, "I will be still, and I will see from my dwelling place, like the clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat[d] of harvest." 5For before the harvest, when the blossom is over, and the flower becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and he will cut down and take away the spreading branches. 6They will be left together for the ravenous birds of the mountains, and for the animals of the earth. The ravenous birds will summer on them, and all the animals of the earth will winter on them. 7In that time, a present will be brought to

19 The burden of Egypt: "Look, YHWH rides on a swift cloud, and comes to Egypt. The idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence; and the heart of Egypt will melt in its midst. [2]I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians, and they will fight everyone against his brother, and everyone against his neighbor; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. [3]The spirit of Egypt will fail in its midst. I will destroy its counsel. They will seek the idols, spirits of the dead, mediums, and spiritists. [4]I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord. A fierce king will rule over them," says[b] YHWH of hosts. [5]The waters will fail from the sea, and the river will be wasted and become dry. [6]The rivers will become foul. The streams of Egypt will be diminished and dried up. The reeds and flags will wither away. [7]The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all the sown fields of the Nile, will become dry, be driven away, and be no more. [8]The fishermen will lament, and all those who fish in the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will languish. [9]Moreover those who work in combed flax, and those who weave white cloth, will be confounded. [10]The pillars will be broken in pieces. All those who work for hire will be grieved in soul. [11]The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish. The counsel of the wisest counselors of Pharaoh has become stupid. How do you say to Pharaoh, "I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?" [12]Where then are your sages? And let them tell you now; and let them know what YHWH of hosts has purposed concerning Egypt. [13]The princes of Zoan have become fools. The princes of Memphis are deceived. They have caused Egypt to go astray, who are the cornerstone of her tribes. [14]YHWH has mixed a spirit of perverseness in the midst of her; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in all of its works, like a drunken man staggers in his vomit. [15]Neither shall there be for Egypt any work, which head or tail, palm branch or rush, may do. [16]In that day the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and fear because of the shaking of the hand of YHWH of hosts, which he shakes over them. [17]The land of Judah will become a terror to Egypt. Everyone to whom mention is made of it will be afraid, because of the plans of YHWH of hosts, which he determines against it. [18]In that day, there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear loyalty to YHWH of hosts. One will be called the City of the Sun.[a] 19In that day, there will be an altar to YHWH in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to YHWH at its border. 20It will be for a sign and for a witness to YHWH of hosts in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to YHWH because of oppressors, and he will send them a savior and a defender, and he will deliver them. 21YHWH will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know YHWH in that day. Yes, they will worship with sacrifice and offering, and will make vows to YHWH, and will perform them. 22YHWH will strike Egypt, striking and healing. They will return to YHWH, and he will listen to their pleas, and will heal them. 23In that day there will be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians. 24In that day, Israel will be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth; 25because YHWH of hosts has blessed them, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance."

20 In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it; 2at that time YHWH spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and loosen the sackcloth from off your waist, and take your sandals[b] off your feet." He did so, walking naked and barefoot. 3YHWH said, "As my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder concerning Egypt and concerning Ethiopia, 4so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. 5They will be dismayed and confounded, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. 6The inhabitants of this coast land will say in that day, 'Look, this is our expectation, where we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria. And we, how will we escape?'"

The treacherous man deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, Elam; attack. I have stopped all of Media's sighing. 3Therefore my thighs are filled with anguish. am dismayed that I can't see. [4]My heart flutters. Horror has frightened me. The twilight that I desired has been turned into trembling for me. [5]They prepare the table. They set the watch. They eat. They drink. Rise up, you princes, oil the shield. [6]For YHWH[a] said to me, "Go, set a watchman. Let him declare what he sees. [7]When he sees chariots, horsemen in pairs, riders[b] on donkeys, riders[c] on camels, let him listen diligently, very diligently." [8]Then the lookout[d] shouted: "Lord, I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime, and every night I stay at my post. [9]Look, here comes a troop of men, horsemen in pairs." He answered, "Fallen, fallen[e] is Babylon; and they[f] have shattered all the engraved images of her gods to the ground. [10]You are my threshing, and the grain of my floor." That which I have heard from YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, I have declared to you.

[11]The burden of Dumah. One calls to me out of Seir, "Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?" [12]The watchman said, "The morning comes, and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire. Come back again."

[13]The burden on Arabia. In the forest in Arabia you will lodge, you caravans of Dedanites. [14]They brought water to him who was thirsty. The inhabitants of the land of Tema met the fugitives with their bread. [15]For they fled away from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the heat of battle. [16]For YHWH[g] said to me, "Within a year, as a worker bound by contract would count it, [h]the glory of Kedar will fail, [17]and the residue of the number of the archers, the warriors of the people of Kedar, will be few; for YHWH, the God of Israel, has spoken it."

Howl, you ships of Tarshish. For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in. From the land of Kittim it is revealed to them. 2Be still, you inhabitants of the coast, you whom the merchants[a] of Sidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. 3On great waters, the seed of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue. She was the market of nations. 4Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, "I have not travailed, nor brought forth, neither have I nourished young men, nor brought up virgins." 5When the report comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish at the report of Tyre. 6Pass over to Tarshish. Wail, you inhabitants of the coast. 7Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days, whose feet carried her far away to travel? 8Who has planned this against Tyre, the giver of crowns, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honorable of the earth? 9YHWH of hosts has planned it, to defile all the pride of glory,[b] to shame all the honored of the earth. 10Cultivate[c] your land like the Nile, daughter of Tarshish; there is no restraint any more. 11He has stretched out his hand over the sea. He has shaken the kingdoms. YHWH has ordered the destruction of Canaan's strongholds. 12He said, "You shall rejoice no more, you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, pass over to Kittim. Even there you will have no rest."

13Look, the land of the Chaldeans, these people who have become nothing. The Assyrians have made it a home for wild animals. They set up their siege towers, they tore down her palaces, they made her a ruin. 14Howl, you ships of Tarshish, for your stronghold is laid waste. 15It will come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king.
After the end of seventy years it will be to Tyre like in the song of the prostitute. 16Take a harp; go about the city, you prostitute that has been forgotten. Make sweet melody. Sing many songs, that you may be remembered. 17It will happen after the end of seventy years that YHWH[d] will visit Tyre, and she shall return to her wages, the kingdoms of the world on the surface of the earth. 18Her merchandise and her wages will be holiness to YHWH. It will not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise will be for those who dwell before YHWH, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

24 Look, YHWH makes the earth empty, makes it waste, turns it upside down, and scatters its inhabitants. 2It will be as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest. 3The earth will be utterly emptied and utterly laid waste; for YHWH has spoken this word. 4The earth mourns and fades away. The world languishes and fades away. The lofty people of the earth languish. 5The earth also is polluted under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the law,[a] violated the statute,[b] and broken the everlasting covenant. 6Therefore the curse has devoured the earth, and those who dwell in it are found guilty. Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left. 7The new wine mourns. The vine languishes. All the merry-hearted sigh. 8The mirth of tambourines ceases. The sound of those who rejoice ends. The joy of the harp ceases. 9They will not drink wine with a song. Strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it. 10The confused city is broken down. Every house is shut up, that no man may come in. 11There is a crying in the streets because of the wine. All joy is darkened. The mirth of the land is gone. 12The city is left in desolation, and the gate is struck with destruction. 13For it will be so in the midst of the earth among the peoples, as the shaking of an olive tree, as the gleanings when the vintage is done. 14These shall lift up their voice. They will shout for the majesty of YHWH. They cry aloud from the sea. 15Therefore glorify YHWH in the east, even the name of YHWH, the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea. 16From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs. Glory to the righteous. But I said, “I pine away. I pine away. Woe is me.” The treacherous have dealt treacherously. Yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously. 17Fear, the pit, and the snare, are on you who inhabitant the earth. 18It will happen that he who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and he who comes up out of the midst of the pit will be taken in the snare; for the windows of heaven are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble. 19The earth is utterly broken. The earth is torn apart. The earth is shaken violently. 20The earth will stagger like a drunken man, and will sway back and forth like a hammock. Its disobedience will be heavy on it, and it will fall and not rise again. 21It shall happen in that day that YHWH[a] will punish the army of the high ones on high, and the kings of the earth on the earth. 22And they will be gathered, a gathering[b] in a dungeon, and shall be shut up in the prison; and after many days shall they be visited. 23Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, for YHWH of hosts will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before his elders will be glory.

25 YHWH, you are my God. I will exalt you. I will praise your name, for you have done wonderful things, things planned long ago, in complete faithfulness and truth. 2For you have made a city into a heap, a fortified city into a ruin, a palace of the insolent[c] is a city no more; it will never be rebuilt. 3Therefore a strong people will glorify you. A city of awesome nations will fear you. 4For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the dreaded ones is like a storm against the wall. 5As the heat in a dry place will you bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shade of a cloud, the song of the dreaded ones will be brought low. 6In this mountain, YHWH of hosts will make all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of choice wines, of fat things full of marrow, of well refined choice wines. 7He will destroy in this mountain the surface of the covering that covers all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all nations. 8He has swallowed up death in victory.[d] YHWH[e] will wipe away tears from off all faces. He will take the reproach of his people away from off all the earth, for YHWH has spoken it. 9It shall be said in that day, "Look, this is our[f] God. We have waited for him, and he will save us. This is YHWH. We have waited for him. We will be glad and rejoice in his salvation." 10For in this mountain the hand of YHWH[g] will rest. Moab will be trodden down in his place, even like straw is trodden down in a dunghill. 11He will spread out his hands in its midst, like one who swims spreads out hands to swim, but his pride will be humbled together with the craft of his hands. 12He has brought the high fortress of your walls down, laid low, and 8 Yes, in the path of your judgments, YHWH, have we waited for you.

Your name and your renown are the desire of our soul. 9 With my soul have I desired you in the night. Yes, my spirit within me will seek you early,[d] for when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness. 10 Let favor be shown to the wicked, yet he will not learn righteousness. seems, only to wind. We have not worked any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen. 19Your dead shall live; my[a] dead bodies shall rise. Awake and shout for joy,[b] you who dwell in the dust; for your dew is like the dew of the dawn,[c] and the earth shall bring forth the departed spirits.

20Come, my people, enter into your chambers, and shut your doors behind you. Hide yourself for a little moment, until the indignation is past. 21For, look, YHWH comes forth out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity. The earth also will disclose her blood, and will no longer cover her slain.

27 In that day, YHWH with his fierce and great and mighty sword will punish leviathan, the fleeing serpent, and leviathan the twisted serpent; and he will kill the serpent that is in the sea. 2In that day, sing to her, "A pleasant vineyard. 3I, YHWH, am its keeper. I will water it every moment. Lest anyone damage it, I will keep it night and day. 4Wrath is not in me, but if I should find briers and thorns, I would do battle. I would march on them and I would burn them together. 5Or else let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me. Let him make peace with me."

6In days to come, Jacob will take root. Israel will blossom and bud. They will fill the surface of the world with fruit. 7Has he struck them as he struck those who struck them? Or have they been killed as their killers were killed? 8In measure, when you send them away, you contend with them. He has removed them with his rough blast in the day of the east wind. 9Therefore, by this the iniquity of Jacob will be forgiven, and this is all the fruit of taking away his sin:[d] that he makes all the stones of the altar as chalk stones that are beaten in pieces, so that the Asherim and the incense altars shall rise no more. 10For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness. The calf will feed there, and there he will lie down, and consume its branches. 11When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off. The women will come and set them on fire, for they are a people of no understanding. Therefore he who made them will not have compassion on them, and he who formed them will show them no favor. 12It will happen in that day, that YHWH will thresh from the flowing stream of the Perath to the Wadi of Egypt; and you will be gathered one by one, children of Israel. 13It will happen in that day that a great trumpet will be blown;

and those who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and those who were outcasts in the land of Egypt, shall come; and they will worship YHWH in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

28 Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley of those who are overcome with wine. 2Look, YHWH [a] has a mighty and strong one. Like a storm of hail, a destroying storm, and like a storm of mighty waters overflowing, he will cast them down to the earth with his hand. 3The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden under foot. 4The fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley, shall be like the first-ripe fig before the summer; which someone picks and eats as soon as he sees it. 5In that day, YHWH of hosts will become a crown of glory, and a diadem of beauty, to the residue of his people; 6and a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate. 7They also reel with wine, and stagger with strong drink. The priest and the prophet reel with strong drink. They are swallowed up by wine. They stagger with strong drink. They err in vision. They stumble in judgment. 8For all tables are completely full of filthy vomit and filthiness. 9Whom will he teach knowledge? To whom will he explain the message? Those who are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts? 10For it is precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little. 11But he will speak to this nation with stammering lips and a strange language;[b] 12to whom he said, "This is the resting place. Give rest to weary;" and "This is the refreshing;" but they would not listen.[c] 13Therefore the word of YHWH[d] will be to them precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, fall backward, be broken, be snared, and be taken. 14Therefore hear the word of YHWH, you scoffers, that rule this people in Jerusalem: 15"Because you have said, 'We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol are we in agreement. He will be angry as in the Valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his unusual work, and bring to pass his act, his extraordinary act. 22And as for you,[e] do not be scoffers, lest your bonds be made strong; for I have heard a decree of destruction from YHWH[f] of hosts, on the whole earth.

Does he keep turning the soil and breaking the clods? 25When he has leveled its surface, doesn't he plant the dill, and scatter the cumin seed, and put in the wheat in rows, the barley in the appointed place, and emmer as its borders? 26For his God instructs him in right judgment, and teaches him. 27For the dill are not threshed with a sharp instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned over the cumin; but the dill is beaten out with a stick, and the cumin with a rod. 28Bread flour must be ground; so he will not always be threshing it. Although he drives the wheel of his threshing cart over it, his horses do not grind it. 29This also comes forth from YHWH of hosts, who is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.

burning place has long been ready.
Yes, for the king it is made ready.
He has made its pyre deep and large with fire[e] and much wood. YHWH's

[a]30:20 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord" breath, like a stream of sulfur, kindles it.

31 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, and rely on horses,
and trust in chariots because they are many,
and in horsemen because they are very strong, but they do not look to the Holy One of Israel, and they do not seek YHWH.
2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring disaster, and will not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against those who help evildoers.
3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God;
and their horses flesh, and not spirit.
When YHWH stretches out his hand, both he who helps shall stumble, and he who is helped shall fall, and they all shall be consumed together.
4 For thus says YHWH to me, "As the lion and the young lion growling over his prey, if a multitude of shepherds is called together against him, will not be dismayed at their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them, so YHWH of hosts will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its heights.
5 As birds hovering, so YHWH of hosts will protect Jerusalem.
He will protect and deliver it.
He will pass over and preserve it."
6 Return to him from whom you have deeply revolted, children of Israel. 7 For in that day everyone shall cast away his idols of silver and his idols of gold—sin which your own hands have made for you.

8 "The Assyrian will fall by the sword, not of man; and the sword, not of humankind, shall devour him.
He will flee from the sword, and his young men will become subject to forced labor.
9 His rock will pass away by reason of terror, and his officers will be afraid of the banner," says YHWH, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

32 Look, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in justice.
2 A man shall be as a hiding place from the wind, and a shelter from the storm,

as streams of water in a dry
place,
as the shade of a large rock in a weary land.
3 The eyes of those who see will not be dim,
and the ears of those who hear will listen.
4 The heart of the rash will understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly.
5 And they will no longer call a fool[a] noble, nor the scoundrel be highly respected.
6 For the fool will speak folly, and his heart plans[b] iniquity, to practice profanity, and to utter error against
YHWH,
To make empty the soul of the hungry,
and to cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.
7 The ways of the scoundrel are
evil.
He devises wicked devices to destroy the humble with lying words,
even when the needy[c] speaks
right.
8 But the noble devises noble
things;
and he will continue in noble
things.
9 Rise up, you women who are at ease. Hear my voice.
You careless daughters, give ear to my speech.
10 For days beyond a year you will be troubled, you
careless women;
for the vintage shall fail.
The harvest won't come.
11 Tremble, you women who are at ease.
Be troubled, you careless
ones.
Strip yourselves, make yourselves naked,
and put sackcloth on your waist.
12 Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields,
for the fruitful vine.
13 Thorns and briars will come up on my people's land;
yes, on all the houses of joy in the joyous city.
14 For the palace will be forsaken.
The populous city will be deserted.
The hill and the watchtower will be for dens
forever,
a delight for wild donkeys,
a pasture of flocks; 15 Until the Spirit is poured on us from on high,
and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field,
and the fruitful field is considered a forest.
16 Then justice will dwell in the wilderness;
and righteousness will remain in the fruitful
field.
17 The work of righteousness will be peace;

[a] 32:5 DSS LXX. MT reads "A fool will be no longer called"
[b] 32:6 DSS LXX. MT reads "works" [c] 32:7 DSS LXX pl. MT sg and the effect of

righteousness,
quietness and confidence forever.
18 My people will abide in a peaceful habitation,
in safe dwellings,
and in quiet resting places.
19 And it will hail when the forest comes down,
and the wood[a] is brought low in humiliation.
20 Blessed are you who sow beside all waters,
who set free the foot of the ox and the donkey.

33 Woe to you who destroy, but you weren't destroyed;
and who betray, but nobody betrayed you.
When you have finished destroying, you will be destroyed;
and when you have made an end of betrayal, you will be betrayed.

2 YHWH, be gracious to us. We have waited for you.
Be our strength every
morning,
our salvation also in the time of trouble.
3 At the noise of the thunder, the peoples have fled.
When you lift yourself up, the nations are scattered.
4 Your spoil will be gathered as the caterpillar gathers.
Men will leap on it as locusts leap.
5 YHWH is exalted, for he dwells
on high.
He has filled Zion with justice and
righteousness.
6 There will be stability in your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and
knowledge.
The fear of YHWH is your
treasure.
7 Look, their valiant ones cry outside;
the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly.
8 The highways are desolate, the traveler ceases.
He has broken the covenant, he has despised the witnesses;[b]
he has no regard for man.
9 The land mourns and languishes.
Lebanon is confounded and withers away.
Sharon is like a desert, and Bashan and Carmel are stripped bare.
10 "Now I will arise," says YHWH;
"Now I will lift myself up.
Now I will be exalted.
11 You will conceive chaff.
You will bring forth stubble.
Your breath is a fire that will devour you.
12 The peoples will be like the burning of lime,

[a] 32:19 DSS, reading hy'r "wood." MT reads h'yr "city"

[b] 33:8 DSS cf. BHS, reading adim. MT reads arim "cities," a dalet-resh (ד-ר) confusion like thorns that are cut down and burned in the fire.

13 Hear, you who are far off, what I have done;
and, you who are near,
acknowledge my might."
14 The sinners in Zion are afraid.
Trembling has seized the godless ones.
Who among us can live with the devouring fire?
Who among us can live with everlasting burning?
15 He who walks righteously, and speaks blamelessly;
He who despises the gain of oppressions,
who gestures with his hands, refusing to take a bribe,
who stops his ears[a] from hearing of blood, and shuts his eyes from looking at evil—16 he will dwell on high.
His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks.
His bread will be supplied.
His waters will be sure.
17 Your eyes will see the king in his beauty.
They will see a distant land.
18 Your heart will meditate on the terror.
Where is he who counted?
Where is he who weighed?
Where is he who counted the towers?
19 You will no longer see the fierce
people,
a people of a deep speech that you can't comprehend,
with a strange language that you can't understand.
20 Look at Zion, the city of our appointed festivals.
Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet
habitation,
a tent that won't be removed.
Its stakes will never be plucked
up,
nor will any of its cords be broken.
21 But there YHWH will be with us in majesty,
a place of broad rivers and streams,
in which no galley with oars will go,
neither will any gallant ship pass by there.
22 For YHWH is our judge.[b] YHWH is our lawgiver.
YHWH is our king.
He[c] will save us.

23 Your rigging is untied.
They couldn't strengthen the foot of their mast.
They couldn't spread the sail.
Then the prey of a great spoil was divided.
The lame took the prey.

24 The inhabitant won't say, "I am sick."

[a] 33:15 DSS LXX. MT reads "ear" [b] 33:22 LXX reads "For my God is great" [c] 33:22 LXX reads "YHWH, he"

The people who dwell in it will be forgiven their iniquity.

34 Come near, you
nations, to hear.
Listen, you peoples.
Let the earth and all it contains hear;
the world, and everything that comes from it.
2For YHWH is enraged against all
the nations,
and angry with all their armies.
He has utterly destroyed them.
He has given them over for slaughter.
3Their slain will also be cast out, and the stench of their dead bodies will come up;
and the mountains will melt in their blood.
4And all the host of heaven will rot away,[a]
and the heavens will be rolled up like a scroll.
And all their host will wither,
as a leaf withering from the vine, and as leaves withering from the fig
tree.
5For my sword has drunk its fill in the sky.
Look, it will come down on Edom,
and on the people of my curse, for judgment.
6YHWH's sword is filled with
blood.
It is covered with fat, with the blood of lambs and
goats,
with the fat of the kidneys of
rams;
for YHWH has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
And a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
7The wild oxen will come down
with them,
and the young bulls with the mighty bulls;
and their land will be soaked with blood,
and their dust made greasy with fat.
8For YHWH has a day of
vengeance,
a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.
9Its streams will be turned into pitch,
its dust into sulfur,
And its land will become burning pitch.
10It won't be quenched night nor
day.
Its smoke will go up forever.
From generation to generation, it will lie waste.
No one will pass through it forever and ever.
11But the pelican and the porcupine will possess
it.
The owl and the raven will
dwell in it.
He will stretch the line of confusion over it,

[a]34:4 DSS(1QIsa(a)) reads "And the valleys will be split, and all the host of heaven will fall." LXX(L) reads "And all the powers of the heavens will dissolve" and the plumb line of emptiness.

12They shall call its nobles to the kingdom, but none
shall be there;
and all its princes shall be
nothing.
13Thorns will come up in its
palaces,
nettles and thistles in its fortresses;
and it will be a habitation of jackals,
a court for ostriches.
14And the wildcats will meet with the hyenas,
and the wild goat will cry to his fellow.
There too, nocturnal animals shall settle,
and shall find themselves[a] a place of rest.
15The owl will make her nest
there,
and lay, hatch, and gather under her shade.
Yes, the vultures will be gathered there, every one with her mate.
16Search in the scroll of YHWH, and read:
not one of these will be missing.
none will lack her mate.
For my mouth has commanded,
and his Spirit has gathered
them.
17He has cast the lot for them, and his hand has divided it to them with a measuring line.
They shall possess it forever.
From generation to generation they will dwell in it.

35 The wilderness and the dry land will be glad.
The desert will rejoice and blossom like the crocus.
2It will blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing.
Lebanon's glory Lebanon will be given to it, the excellence of Carmel and Sharon.
They will see YHWH's
glory,
the excellence of our God.
3Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees.
4Tell those who have a fearful heart, "Be strong.
Do not be afraid.
Look, your God will come with vengeance, God's retribution.
He will come and save you.
5Then the eyes of the blind will be opened,
and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped.
6Then the lame man will leap like a deer,

[a]34:13 DSS LXX, reading "nocturnal animals shall settle, and shall find themselves." MT reads "nocturnal animal shall settle, and shall find for herself" and the tongue of the mute will sing;

for waters will break out in
the wilderness,
and streams in the desert.
7 The burning sand will become a pool,
and the thirsty ground springs of water.
Grass with reeds and rushes will be in the habitation of jackals,
where they lay.
8 And a highway will be there,[a] and it will be called the Way of Holiness.[b]
The unclean shall not pass over it, but it will be for those who walk in the Way.
Wicked fools will not go
there.
9 No lion will be there, nor will any ravenous animal go up on it.
They will not be found
there;
but the redeemed will walk
there.
10 YHWH's ransomed ones will return,
and come with singing to
Zion;
and everlasting joy will be on their heads.
They will obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing will flee away."

36 Now it happened in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all of the fortified cities of Judah, and captured them. 2 The king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem[c] to king Hezekiah with a large army. He stood by the aqueduct from the upper pool on the highway to the Launderers' Field. 3 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder came out to him. 4 Rabshakeh said to them, "Now tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, "What confidence is this in which you trust? 5 Do you think[d] that empty words are strategy and power for war? Now in whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me? 6 Look, you trust in the staff of this bruised reed, even in Egypt, which if a man leans on it, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. 7 But if you[e] tell me, 'We trust in YHWH our God,' isn't that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar?'" 8 Now therefore, please make a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. 9How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? 10Have I come up now without YHWH against this land to destroy it? YHWH said to me, "Go up against this land, and destroy it."'"

11Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; and do not speak to us in the Judean language in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

12But Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you, to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?" 13Then Rabshakeh stood, and called out with a loud voice in the Judean language, and said,
"Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. 14Thus says the king, 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you. 15Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in YHWH, saying,
"YHWH[a] will surely deliver us.
This city won't be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."' 16Do not listen to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria, 'Make your peace with me, and come out to me;
and each of you eat from his vine, and each one from his fig tree, and each one of you drink the waters of his own cistern; 17until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. 18Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, "YHWH[b] will deliver us." Have any of the gods of the nations delivered their lands from the hand of the king of Assyria? 19Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Iwah[c]? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand? 20Who are they among all the gods of these countries that have delivered their country out of my hand, that YHWH[d] should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?'"

21But they remained silent, and said nothing in reply, for the king's commandment was, "Do not answer him."

22Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

37 It happened, when king Hezekiah heard

[a]36:15 LXX reads "Do not let Hezekiah say to you, God" [b]36:18 LXX reads "God"
[c]36:19 2 Kings 18:34. MT lacks "Hena, and Iwah" from haplography with sight confusion: m_hn- to h_hk-

it, that he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into YHWH's house. 2He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. 3They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, 'This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth. 4It may be YHWH your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which YHWH your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer[a] for the remnant that is left.'" 5So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master, 'Thus says YHWH, "Do not be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. 7Look, I will put a spirit in him and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."'"

8So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. 9He heard news concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "He has come out to fight against you." When he heard it, he returned[b] and sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, 10"Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem won't be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." 11Look, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. Shall you be delivered? 12Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar? 13Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?'"

14Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to YHWH's house, and spread it before YHWH. 15Hezekiah prayed to YHWH, saying, 16"YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, who is enthroned among the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. 17Turn your ear, YHWH, and hear. Open your eyes, YHWH, and look. Hear all of the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to defy the living God. 18Truly, YHWH, the kings of Assyria have destroyed all the countries and their land, 19and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them. 20Now therefore, YHWH our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you are YHWH,[a] even you only."

[a]37:4 LXX adds "to YHWH your God"

21Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, 'Because you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, 22this is the word which YHWH[b] has spoken concerning him. The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. 23Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel. 24By your messengers you have taunted YHWH[c], and have said, "With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon. I will cut down its tall cedars and its choice fir trees. I will enter into its farthest height, the forest of its fruitful field. 25I have dug and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet I will dry up all the rivers of Egypt." 26Have you not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it in ancient times? Now I have brought it to pass, that it should be yours to destroy fortified cities, turning them into ruinous heaps. 27Therefore their inhabitants had little power. They were dismayed and confounded. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the rooftops when it is scorched[d] by the east wind.[e] 28But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against me. 29Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in your nose and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came. 30This shall be the sign to you. You will eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs from the same; and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. 31The remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah will again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. 32For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go forth, and survivors will escape from Mount Zion. The zeal of YHWH of hosts will perform this.' 33Therefore thus says YHWH concerning the king of Assyria, 'He will not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither will he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. 34By the way 36The angel of YHWH went out and struck one hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the camp of the Assyrians. When men arose early in the morning, look, these were all dead bodies. 37So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, went away, returned to Nineveh, and stayed there. 38It happened, as he was worshipping in[a] the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

38 In those days was Hezekiah sick and near death. Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him, and said to him, "Thus says YHWH, 'Set your house in order, for you will die, and not live.'"

2Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to YHWH, 3and said, "Remember now, YHWH, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight." Hezekiah wept bitterly.

4Then the word of YHWH came to Isaiah, saying, 5"Go, and tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says YHWH, the God of David your father, "I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Look, I will add fifteen years to your life. 6I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city. 7This shall be the sign to you from YHWH, that YHWH[b] will do this thing that he has spoken. 8Look, I will cause the shadow on the steps, which has gone down with the sun on the upper[c] steps of Ahaz, to go backward ten steps. So the sun returned ten steps on the sundial on which it had gone down."'" 10I said, "In the middle of my life I go into the gates of Sheol.

I am deprived of the residue of my years."

I will not look on humankind any longer

12My dwelling is removed,

like a shepherd's tent.
I have rolled up, like a weaver, my
life.
He will cut me off from the

From day even to night you will make an end of 13I waited patiently until morning.

He breaks all my bones like

From day even to night you

14I chip like a swallow or a thrush.
I moan like a dove.
My eyes weaken looking

15What will I say?
He has both spoken to me,
and himself has done

I will walk carefully all my anguish of my soul.

16YHWH[b] is against them, but they live, and all of them who live have his

Restore me to health and let 17Look, for peace I had great anguish,

but you have in love for my 18For Sheol can't praise you.

And death can't[d] celebrate
you.
And[e] those who go down into the

21Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it for a poultice on the boil, and he shall recover." 22Hezekiah also had said, "What is the sign that I will go up to the house of YHWH[g]?"

39 At that time, Marduk-Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he heard that he had been sick, and had recovered.[a] 2Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, the spices, and the precious oil, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not show them. 3Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah, and asked him, "What did these men say? Where did they come from to you?"

Hezekiah said, "They have come from a country far from me, even from Babylon."

4Then he asked, "What have they seen in your house?"

Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

5Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of YHWH of hosts: 6'Look, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried[b] to Babylon.[c] Nothing will be left,' says YHWH.[d] 7'They will take away your descendants who will issue from you, whom you shall father, and they will be eunuchs in the king of Babylon's palace.'"

8Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "YHWH's word which you have spoken is good." He said moreover, "For there will be peace and truth in my days."

40 "Comfort, comfort my people," says your God.[e] 2"Speak[f] tenderly to Jerusalem; and call out to her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received of YHWH's hand double for all her sins."

Say to the cities of Judah,
"Look, your God."
10 Look,[a] YHWH will come as a mighty one, and his arm will rule for him.
Look, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.
11 He will feed his flock like a shepherd.
He will gather the lambs in his arm, and carry them in his bosom.
He will gently lead those who have their young.

12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and marked off the sky with his span,
and calculated the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?
13 Who has known the mind[b] of YHWH, or who[c] has instructed him as his counselor?[d] 14 From whom did he take counsel with,
and who instructed him,
and taught him in the path of justice, and taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding? Or who has first given to him, and it will be repaid to him again?[e] 15 Look, the nations are like a drop in a bucket, and are regarded as a speck of dust on a balance.
Look, he lifts up the islands like a very little thing.
16 Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor its animals sufficient for a burnt offering.
17 All the nations are like nothing before him.
They are regarded by him as less than nothing, and vanity.
18 To whom then will you liken God?
Or what likeness will you compare to him?
19 A workman has cast an image, and the goldsmith overlays it with gold, and casts silver chains for it.
20 He who is too impoverished for such an offering

Haven't you been told from the beginning?
Haven't you understood from the foundations of the earth?
22 It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers;
who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in;
23 who brings princes to nothing; who makes the judges of the earth meaningless.
24 They are planted scarcely.
They are sown scarcely.
Their stock has scarcely taken root in the ground.
He merely blows on them, and they wither, and the whirlwind takes them away as stubble.

25 "To whom then will you liken me?
Who is my equal?" says the Holy One.
26 Lift up your eyes on high, and see who has created these,
who brings out their host by number.
He calls them all by name;
by the greatness of his might,
and because he is strong in power, not one is lacking.
27 Why do you say, Jacob, and why[a] do you assert, Israel,
"My way is hidden from YHWH,[b] and the justice due me is disregarded by my God?" 28 And now,[c] haven't you known?
Haven't you heard?
The everlasting God, YHWH,[d]
the Creator of the farthest parts of the earth, doesn't faint.
He isn't weary.
His understanding is unsearchable.
29 He gives power to the weak.
He increases the strength of him who has no might.
30 Even the youths faint and get weary, and the young men utterly fall;
31 But those who wait for YHWH[e] will renew their strength.

They will run, and not be weary.
They will walk, and not faint.

The loss of the latter word was later adjusted with the addition of אתמך "I uphold," possibly in reminiscence of 41:10 or 33:15

"Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you.
I have called you by your name.
You are mine.
2When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
and through the rivers, they will not overflow you.
When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned, and the flame will not scorch you.
3For I am YHWH your God,
the Holy One of Israel,

I have given Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in your place.
4Since you have been precious and honored in my sight,

8Bring out the blind people who have eyes,

17 who brings forth the chariot and horse,
the army and the mighty

(they lie down together, they

18 "Do not remember the former and do not consider the 19 Look, I will do a new thing.

It springs forth now.
Do you not know it?
I will even make a way in the

and rivers in the desert.
20 The animals of the field shall honor me,
the jackals and the ostriches;
because I give water in the wilderness and rivers in the desert,
to give drink to my people,
my chosen,
21 the people which I formed

22 Yet you have not called on me,

Haven't I declared it to you long ago, and shown it?
You are my witnesses.
Is there a God besides me?
Indeed, there is not.
I do not know any other Rock.[a]"

[9]Everyone who makes an engraved image is vain.
The things that they delight in will not profit.
Their own witnesses do not see, nor know, that they may be disappointed.
[10]Who has fashioned a god, or molds an image that is profitable for nothing?
[11]Look, all his fellows will be disappointed; and the workmen are mere men.
Let them all be gathered together.
Let them stand up.
They will fear.
They will be put to shame together.
[12]The blacksmith takes an axe, works in the coals,
fashions it with hammers,
and works it with his strong arm.
He is hungry,
and his strength fails;
he drinks no water,
and is faint.
[13]The carpenter stretches out a line.
He marks it out with a pencil.
He shapes it with planes.
He marks it out with compasses, and shapes it like the figure of a man, with the beauty of a man,
to reside in a house.
[14]He cuts down cedars for himself, and takes the cypress and the oak, and strengthens for himself one among the trees of the forest.
He plants a fir tree,
and the rain nourishes it.
[15]Then it will be for a man to burn;
and he takes some of it, and warms himself.
Yes, he burns it, and bakes bread.
Yes, he makes a god, and worships it;
he makes it an engraved image, and falls down to it.
[16]He burns part of it in the fire.
With part of it, he eats meat.
He roasts a roast, and is satisfied.
Yes, he warms himself, and says, "Aha. I am warm.
I have seen the fire."
[17]The rest of it he makes into a god, even his[b] engraved image.
And[c] he bows down to it and worships it, and prays to it, and says,

[18]They do not know, neither do they consider:
for he has shut their eyes,
that they can't see;

[19]No one thinks,

I have roasted meat and Shall I make the rest of it Shall I bow down to a tree

A deceived heart has turned him aside;
and he can't deliver his soul, nor say, "Isn't there a lie in [21]Remember these things, Jacob and Israel;

for you are my servant.
I have formed you.
You are my servant.
Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.
[22]I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, your
transgressions,
and, as a cloud, your sins.
Return to me, for I have redeemed you.

[23]Sing, you heavens, for YHWH[a] has done it.
Shout, you lower parts of the
earth.
Break out into singing, you mountains, O forest, all of your trees,
for YHWH[b] has redeemed Jacob,
and will glorify himself in
Israel.
[24]Thus says YHWH, your Redeemer,
and he who formed you from the womb:
"I am YHWH, who makes all
things;
who alone stretches out the
heavens;
who spreads out the earth by
myself;
[25]who foils the omens of the empty talkers,
and makes fools of diviners;
who turns sages back,
and makes their knowledge foolish;[c] [26]who confirms the word of his
servant,
and performs the counsel of his messengers;
who says of Jerusalem, 'She will be inhabited;'
and of the cities of Judah,
'They will be built,'
and 'I will raise up its waste places;'

[21]Declare and bring it forth.
Yes, let them take counsel together.
Who announced this from long ago, has told it from then? Was it not I, YHWH? And there is no other God

[22]Look to me, and be saved, every

I sworn, the word is gone forth from my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, that to me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear to God.[a] [24]Only in YHWH, it is said of me, is righteousness and strength; even to who were incensed against him shall be disappointed. [25]In YHWH shall all the descendants of Israel be they have gone into captivity.

[12]Listen to me, you stubborn of heart, who are far from righteousness: [13]I bring near my righteousness, it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not wait; and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

47 "Come down, and sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, daughter of the Chaldeans: for you shall no more be called tender and delicate. [2]Take the millstones, and grind meal; remove your veil, strip off the train, uncover the leg, pass through the rivers. [3]Your nakedness shall be uncovered, yes, your shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and will spare no man," [4]says[a] our Redeemer; YHWH of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

[5]"Sit in silence, and go into darkness, daughter of the Chaldeans; for you shall no more be called the mistress of kingdoms. [6]I was angry with my people, I profaned my inheritance, and gave them into your hand: you showed them no mercy; on the aged you have very heavily laid your yoke. [7]You said, 'I shall be a mistress forever;' so that you did not lay these things to your heart, nor did you remember the latter end of it.

[8]"Now therefore hear this, you who are given to pleasures, who sit securely, who say in your heart, 'I am, and there is no other besides me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:' [9]but these two things shall come to you in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood; in their full measure shall they come on you, in spite of your many sorceries and the potency of your spells. [10]For you have trusted in your wickedness; you have said, No one sees me; your wisdom and your knowledge, it has perverted you, and you have said in your heart, 'I am, and there is no other besides me.' [11]Therefore disaster will come on you; you won't know when it dawns: and calamity will fall on you; you will not be able to put it away: and desolation shall come on you suddenly and unexpectedly.

of your counsels; those who 4Because I knew that you are from of old; before it came to pass I showed it to you; lest you should 6You have heard it; see all this; and you, will you not declare it?

which you have not known. 7They are created now, and not from of old; and before this day you did not hear them; lest you should say,
'Look, I knew them.' 8Yes, you did not hear; yes, you did not know; yes, from of old your ear was not opened: for I knew that you dealt very treacherously, and was called a transgressor from the womb. 9For my name's sake will I defer my anger, and for my praise will I refrain for you, that I not cut you off. 10Look, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction. 11For my own sake, for my own sake, will I do it; for how should my 14"Let all of them assemble[a] and 16"Come near to me and hear this:

"From the beginning I have not spoken in secret; from the time that it was, there am I." Now YHWH[c] has sent me, with his Spirit.

17Thus says YHWH, your

I am YHWH[d] your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you by the way that you should go.
18But[e] would that you had listened to my commandments. Then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea. 19Your descendants would have been as the sand, and the offspring of your body like its grains; his name would not be cut off nor destroyed from before me. 20Go forth from Babylon, flee from the Chaldeans; with a voice of singing declare, tell this, send it out throughout the earth. Say, 'YHWH has redeemed his servant Jacob.' 21They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts; he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them; he split the rock also, and the waters gushed out. 22"There is no peace," says YHWH, "for the wicked."

49 Listen, islands, to me; and listen, you peoples, from far:
YHWH has called me from the womb; from the body of my mother has he made mention of my name: 2and he has made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand, he has hidden me; and he has made me a polished arrow, in his quiver has he kept me close: 3and he said to me, "You are my servant; Israel, in whom I will be glorified." 4But I said, "I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely the justice due to me is with YHWH, and my reward with my God."

5Now says YHWH who formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, and that Israel be gathered to him; for I am honorable in the eyes of YHWH, and my God has become my strength. 6And he says, "Is it too on all bare heights shall be their Desolation and destruction, and the

they are full of the wrath of YHWH, the rebuke of your God.[d] [21]Therefore hear now this, you the hand of those who afflict you, who have said to your soul, 'Bow down, that we may walk over you;' and you have laid your back as the who walk over."

You have offered an offering. not fail. 12Those who shall be of you shall build the old waste places; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; and you shall be called The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

13"If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on my holy day; and call the Sabbath a delight, and the holy of YHWH[a] honorable; and shall honor it, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words: 14then you shall delight yourself in YHWH; and I will make you to ride on the high places of the earth; and I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father:" for the mouth of YHWH has spoken it.

59 Look, YHWH's hand is not shortened, that it can't save; neither his ear heavy, that it can't hear: 2but your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hidden his face from you, so that he will not hear. 3For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue mutters wickedness. 4None sues in righteousness, and none pleads in truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. 5They hatch adders' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he who eats of their eggs dies; and that which is crushed breaks out into a viper. 6Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands. 7Their feet run to evil, and they are swift to shed innocent blood. Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; destruction and calamity are in their paths.[b] 8The way of peace they do not know; and there is no justice in their goings: they have made them crooked paths; whoever goes in it does not know peace. 9Therefore is justice far from us, neither does righteousness overtake us: we look for light, but, look, darkness; for brightness, but we walk in obscurity. 10We grope for the wall like the blind; yes, we grope as those who have no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the twilight; among those who are lusty we are as dead men. 11We roar all like bears, and moan bitterly like doves: we look for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12For our transgressions are multiplied before you, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know them: 13transgressing and denying YHWH,[c] and turning away from following our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood. 14Justice is turned away backward, and righteousness stands afar off; for truth is fallen in the street, and uprightness can't enter. 15Yes, truth is lacking; and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey. YHWH saw it, and it displeased him that there was no justice. 16He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his own arm brought salvation to him; and his righteousness, it upheld him.

17He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head; and he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a mantle. 18According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, wrath to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompense.
19So shall they fear the name of YHWH from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun; for he will come as a rushing stream, which the breath of YHWH drives.

Zion, and he will[b] turn away transgression from[c] Jacob,"[d] says

"My Spirit who is on you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your children, nor out of the mouth of your children's children," says YHWH, "from now on and your light has come,

YHWH has risen upon you. 2For, look, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples; but YHWH will arise on you, and his glory shall be seen on you. 3Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.

4"Lift up your eyes all around, and see: they all gather themselves together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far, and your daughters shall be carried in the arms. 5Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart shall thrill and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. 6The multitude of camels shall cover you, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah[f]; all they from Sheba shall come; they shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praises of YHWH. 7All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together to you, the rams of you shall call your walls Salvation,

61 The Spirit of YHWH[a] is upon me, because he[b] has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up[c] the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and an opening of the eyes[d] to the blind;[e] 2to proclaim the year of YHWH's favor,[f] and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; 3to appoint to those who mourn in Zion, to give to them a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of YHWH, that he may be glorified.

4They shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. 5Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and foreigners shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers. 6But you shall be named the priests of YHWH; men will call you the ministers of our God: you will eat the wealth of the nations, and you will boast in their glory.

7Instead of your shame you shall have double; and instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess double; everlasting joy shall be to them.

7I will make mention of the loving kindnesses of YHWH and the praises of YHWH, according to all that YHWH has bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he has bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.
8For he said, "Surely, they are my people, children who will not deal falsely:" so he was their Savior.
9In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bore them, and carried them all the days of old. 10But they rebelled, and grieved his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he himself fought against them.

11Then he remembered the days of old, Moses and his people, saying, Where is he who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? Where is he who put his holy Spirit in their midst? 12who caused his glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses? who divided the waters before them, to make himself an everlasting name?
13who led them through the depths, as a horse in the wilderness, so that they did not stumble? 14As the 15Look down from heaven, and see from the habitation of your holiness and of your glory: where are your zeal and your mighty acts? the yearning of your heart and your compassion is restrained toward me. 16For you are our Father, though Abraham doesn't know us, and Israel does not acknowledge us: you, YHWH, are our Father; our Redeemer from everlasting is your name. 17YHWH, why do you make us to stray from your ways, and harden our heart from your fear?

Return for your servants' sake, the tribes of your inheritance. 18Your while: our adversaries have trodden down your sanctuary. 19We have tear the heavens,

that you would

might quake at your presence, 2as when fire kindles the brushwood, and the fire causes the waters to boil; to make your name known to your adversaries, that the nations may tremble at your presence. 3When you did awesome things which we did not look for, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence. 4Since[a] ancient times no one has heard, and[b] no ear has perceived, and[c] no eye has seen a God besides you,[d] who works for him who waits[e] for him.[f] 5You meet him who rejoices and works righteousness, those who remember you in your ways. Look, you were angry, and we sinned. We have been in sin for a long time; and shall we be saved? 6For we have all become as one who is unclean, and all our righteousness is as a polluted garment: and we all fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. 7There is none who calls on your name, who stirs up himself to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have consumed us by means of our iniquities.

8But now, YHWH, you are our Father, and we are clay,[g] and you our potter; and we all are the work of your hands.[h] 9Do not be furious, YHWH, neither remember iniquity forever: see, look, we beg you, we are all your people. 10Your holy cities have become a wilderness, Zion has become like[i] a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation. 11Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised you, is burned with fire; and all our pleasant places are laid waste. 12Will you refrain yourself for these things, YHWH? Will you hold your peace, and afflict us very severely?

measure their work into their

8Thus says YHWH, "As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one says, 'Do not destroy it, for a blessing is in it:' so will I do for my servants' sake, that I may not destroy them all. 9And I will bring forth offspring from Jacob, and from Judah they shall inherit[a] my mountains; and my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there. 10Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the Valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down in, for my people who have sought me.

11"But you who forsake YHWH, who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune, and who fill up mixed wine to Destiny; 12I will destine you to the sword, and you shall all bow down to the slaughter; because when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not listen; but you did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I did not delight."

13Therefore thus says YHWH,[b]
"Look, my servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry; look, my servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty; look, my servants shall rejoice, but you shall be disappointed; 14look, my servants shall sing in[c] gladness of heart, but you shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall wail for anguish of spirit.
15You shall leave your name for a curse to my chosen; and[d] YHWH will kill you; but he will call his servants by another name: 16so that he who blesses himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he who swears in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hidden from my eyes.

17"For, look, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former things shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. 18But be you glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; for, look, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. 19I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people; and there shall be heard in her no more the voice of weeping and the voice of crying.

[24]"They shall go forth, and look on the dead bodies of the men who have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they will be loathsome to all humankind."[a]

Jeremiah

1 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: [2]to whom the word of YHWH came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. [3]It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. [4]Now the word of YHWH came to me, saying, [5]"Before I formed you in the belly, I knew you. Before you came forth out of the womb, I sanctified you. I have appointed you a prophet to the nations." [6]Then I said, "Ah, Lord YHWH. Look, I do not know how to speak; for I am a child."

[7]But YHWH said to me, "Do not say, 'I am a child;' for to whoever I shall send you, you shall go, and whatever I shall command you, you shall speak. [8]Do not be afraid because of them; for I am with you to deliver you," says YHWH. [9]Then YHWH put forth his hand, and touched my mouth; and YHWH said to me, "Look, I have put my words in your mouth. [10]Look, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant." [11]Moreover the word of YHWH came to me, saying, "Jeremiah, what do you see?"

I said, "I see a branch of an almond tree."

[12]Then YHWH said to me, "You have seen well; for I watch over my word to perform it."

[13]The word of YHWH came to me the second time, saying, "What do you see?"

I said, "I see a boiling caldron; and it is tipping away from the north."

[14]Then YHWH said to me, "Out of the north evil will break out on all the inhabitants of the land. [15]For, look, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north," says YHWH; "and they shall come, and they shall each set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its walls all around, and against all the cities of Judah. 16I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands.

[a]66:24 Targum: "…be quenched, and the wicked shall be judged in Gehenna"

17"You therefore put your belt on your waist, arise, and speak to them all that I command you. Do not be dismayed at them, lest I dismay you before them. 18For, look, I have made you this day a fortified city, and an iron pillar, and bronze walls, against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against its princes, against its priests, and against the people of the land. 19They will fight against you; but they will not prevail against you; for I am with you," says YHWH, "to deliver you."

2 The word of YHWH
came to me, saying,
2"Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says YHWH, "I remember you, the devotion of your youth, the love of your weddings; how you went after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. 3Israel was holiness to YHWH, the first fruits of his increase. All who devour him shall be held guilty. Evil shall come on them,"' says YHWH."

4Hear the word of YHWH, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel. 5Thus says YHWH, "What unrighteousness have your fathers found in me, that they have gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain? 6Neither did they say, 'Where is YHWH who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that none passed through, and where no man lived?' 7I brought you into a plentiful land, to eat its fruit and its goodness; but when you entered, you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination. 8The priests did not say, 'Where is YHWH?' And those who handle the law did not know me. The rulers also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

9"Therefore I will yet contend with you," says YHWH,
"and I will contend with your children's children. 10For pass over to the islands of Kittim, and see; and send to Kedar, and consider diligently; and see if there has been such a thing. 11Has a nation changed its gods, which really are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for that which does not profit.

12"Be astonished, you heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid. Be very desolate," says YHWH. 13"For my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the spring of living waters, and cut them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. 14Is Israel a servant? Is he a native-born slave? Why has he become a prey? 15The young lions have roared at him, and yelled.

They have made his land waste. His cities are burned up, without inhabitant. 16The people of Memphis and Tahpanhes have also shaved[a] the crown of your head.

17"Haven't you brought this on yourself, in that you have forsaken YHWH your God, when he led you by the way? 18Now what have you to do in the way to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Shihor?
Or what have you to do in the way to Assyria, to drink the waters of the River?

19"Your own wickedness shall correct you, and your backsliding shall reprove you.
Know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter that you have forsaken YHWH your God, and that my fear is not in you," says[b] YHWH of hosts. 20"For of old time I have broken your yoke, and burst your bonds; and you said, 'I will not serve;' for on every high hill and under every green tree you bowed yourself, playing the prostitute.
21Yet I had planted you a noble vine, wholly a right seed. How then have you turned into the degenerate branches of a foreign vine to me?
22For though you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap, yet your iniquity is marked before me," says[c] YHWH.

23"How can you say, 'I am not defiled. I have not gone after the Baals'? See your way in the valley. Know what you have done.
You are a swift dromedary traversing her ways; 24a wild donkey used to the wilderness, that snuffs up the wind in her desire.
When she is in heat, who can turn her away? All those who seek her will not weary themselves. In her month, they will find her.

25"Withhold your foot from being unshod, and your throat from thirst. But you said, 'It is in vain.
No, for I have loved strangers, and I will go after them.' 26As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their officials, and their priests, and their prophets; 27who tell wood, 'You are my father;' and a stone, 'You have brought me out:' for they have turned their back to me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say,
'Arise, and save us.'

28"But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves?
Let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble. For according to the number of your cities are your gods, Judah. And according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem they were sacrificing to Baal.[a]

29"Why will you contend with me? You all have transgressed against me," says YHWH.

30"I have struck your children in vain. They received no correction. Your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.[b] 31Generation, consider the word of YHWH. Have I been a wilderness to Israel? Or a land of thick darkness? Why do my people say, 'We have broken loose. We will come to you no more?'

32"Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number. 33How well you prepare your way to seek love. Therefore you have taught even the wicked women your ways. 34Also the blood of the souls of the innocent poor is found in your skirts. You did not find them breaking in; but it is because of all these things.

35"Yet you said, 'I am innocent. Surely his anger has turned away from me.'

"Look, I will judge you, because you say, 'I have not sinned.' 36Why do you go about so much to change your way? You will be ashamed of Egypt also, as you were ashamed of Assyria. 37From there also you shall go forth, with your hands on your head; for YHWH has rejected those in whom you trust, and you shall not prosper with them.

3 "If[c] a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him, and become another man's, will he return to her again?' Wouldn't that land be greatly polluted? But you have played the prostitute with many lovers; yet return again to me," says YHWH.

2"Lift up your eyes to the bare heights, and see. Where have you not been lain with? You have sat for them by the ways, as an Arabian in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with your prostitution and with your wickedness. 3Therefore the showers have been withheld, and there has been no latter rain; yet you have a prostitute's forehead, you refused to be ashamed. 4Will you not from this time cry to me, 'My Father, you are the guide of my youth?'

5"'Will he retain his anger forever? Will he keep it to the end?' Look, you have spoken and have done evil things, and have had your way."

6Moreover, YHWH said to me in the days of Josiah the king,

"Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there has played the prostitute. 7I said after she had done all these things, 'She will return to me;' but she did not return; and her treacherous sister Judah saw it. 8She[a] saw that for all the causes for which faithless Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorce, yet treacherous Judah, her sister, did not fear; but she also went and played the prostitute. 9And it came to pass, through her casual prostitution, that the land was polluted, and she committed adultery with stone and wood. 10Yet for all this her treacherous sister, Judah, has not returned to me with her whole heart, but only in pretense," says YHWH.

11YHWH said to me, "Backsliding Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. 12Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, 'Return, you backsliding Israel,' says YHWH; 'I will not look in anger on you; for I am merciful,' says YHWH. 'I will not keep anger forever. 13Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have transgressed against YHWH your God, and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed my voice,'" says YHWH. 14"Return, backsliding children," says YHWH; "for I am a husband to you. I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion. 15I will give you shepherds according to my heart, who shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. 16It shall come to pass, when you are multiplied and increased in the land, in those days," says YHWH, "they shall say no more, 'The ark of the covenant of YHWH.' neither shall it come to mind; neither shall they remember it; neither shall they miss it; neither shall it be made any more. 17At that time they shall call Jerusalem 'The throne of YHWH;' and all the nations shall be gathered to it, to the name of YHWH, to Jerusalem. Neither shall they walk any more after the stubbornness of their evil heart. 18In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave for an inheritance to your fathers.

19"But I said, 'How I would put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, the most beautiful inheritance of all the nations.' and I said, 'You shall call me "My Father," and shall not turn away from following me.'

20"Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, so you have dealt treacherously with me, house of Israel," says YHWH. [21]A voice is heard on the bare heights, the weeping and the petitions of the children of Israel; because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten YHWH their God. [22]"Return, you backsliding children, I will heal your backsliding."

"Look, we have come to you; for you are YHWH our God. [23]Truly[a] the hills are a delusion, the tumult on the mountains. Truly the salvation of Israel is in YHWH our God. [24]But the shameful thing has devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. [25]Let us lie down in our shame, and let our confusion cover us; for we have sinned against YHWH our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day. We have not obeyed the voice of YHWH our God."

4 "If you will return, Israel," says YHWH, "if you will return to me, and if you will put away your abominations out of my sight; then you shall not be removed; [2]and you shall swear, 'As YHWH lives,' in truth, in justice, and in righteousness. The nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory."

[3]For thus says YHWH to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, "Break up your fallow ground, and do not sow among thorns. [4]Circumcise yourselves to YHWH, and take away the foreskins of your heart, you men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn so that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. [5]Declare in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, 'Blow the trumpet in the land.' Cry aloud and say, 'Assemble yourselves. Let us go into the fortified cities.' [6]Set up a standard toward Zion. Flee for safety. Do not wait; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction."

[7]A lion is gone up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations; he is on his way, he is gone forth from his place, to make your land desolate, that your cities be laid waste, without inhabitant. [8]For this clothe yourself with sackcloth, lament and wail; for the fierce anger of YHWH hasn't turned back from us. [9]"It shall happen at that day," says YHWH, "that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the officials; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder."

[10]Then I said, "Ah, Lord YHWH. Surely you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, 'You shall have peace;' whereas the sword reaches to the heart."

[a]3:23 LXX Syr Vg cf. BHS. MT adds "from"

11At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow, nor to cleanse; 12a full wind from these shall come for me. Now I will also utter judgments against them."

13Look, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as the whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us. For we are ruined. 14Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long shall your evil thoughts lodge within you? 15For a voice declares from Dan, and publishes evil from the hills of Ephraim: 16"Tell the nations; look, publish against Jerusalem, 'Besiegers come from a far country, and raise their voice against the cities of Judah. 17As keepers of a field, they are against her all around, because she has been rebellious against me,'" says YHWH. 18"Your way and your doings have brought these things to you. This is your wickedness; for it is bitter, for it reaches to your
heart."

19My anguish, my anguish. I am pained at my very heart; my heart is disquieted in me; I can't hold my peace; because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.
20Destruction on destruction is proclaimed; for the whole land is laid waste: suddenly are my tents destroyed, and my curtains in a moment. 21How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22"For my people are foolish, they do not know me. They are foolish children, and they have no understanding. They are skillful in doing evil, but to do good they have no knowledge." 23I saw the earth, and, look, it was waste and void;
and the heavens, and they had no light. 24I saw the mountains, and look, they trembled, and all the hills moved back and forth. 25I saw, and look, there was no man, and all the birds of the sky had fled. 26I saw, and look, the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of YHWH; before his fierce anger they were destroyed.[a] 27For thus says YHWH, "The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end. 28For this the earth will mourn, and the heavens above be black; because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and I have not relented, neither will I turn back from it."

29Every city flees for the noise of the horsemen and archers; they go into caves, and they hide themselves[b] in the thickets, and climb up on the rocks; every city is forsaken, and not a man dwells in

it. 30You, when you are made desolate, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with scarlet, though you dress yourselves with ornaments of gold, though you enlarge your eyes with paint, in vain do you make yourself beautiful; your lovers despise you, they seek your life. 31For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, the anguish as of her who brings forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, who gasps for breath, who spreads her hands, saying, "Woe is me now.
For my soul faints before the murderers."

5 "Run back and forth through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places of it, if you can find a man, if there are any who does justly, who seeks truth; and I will pardon her. 2Though they say, 'As YHWH lives;' surely they swear falsely."

3YHWH, do your eyes not look on truth? You have stricken them, but they were not grieved.
You have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction.
They have made their faces harder than a rock. They have refused to return.

4Then I said, "Surely these are poor. They are foolish; for they do not know the way of YHWH, nor the law of their God. 5I will go to the great men, and will speak to them; for they know the way of YHWH, and the law of their God." But these with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the bonds. 6Therefore a lion out of the forest shall kill them, a wolf of the evenings shall destroy them, a leopard shall watch against their cities; everyone who goes out there shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backsliding is increased.

7"How can I pardon you?
Your children have forsaken me, and sworn by what are no gods.
When I had fed them to the full, they committed adultery, and assembled themselves in troops[a] at the prostitutes' houses. 8They were as fed horses roaming at large: everyone neighed after his neighbor's wife. 9Shouldn't I punish them for these things?" says YHWH; "and shouldn't my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10"Go up on her walls, and destroy; but do not make a full end.
Take away her branches; for they are not YHWH's. 11For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me," says YHWH.

12They have denied YHWH, and said, "It is not he; neither shall evil come on us; neither shall we

[a]5:7 Hebrew Mss LXX read "and they lodged." An apparent dalet-resh (ד-ר) confusion see sword nor famine. 13The prophets shall become wind, and the word[a] is not in them.[b] Thus shall it be done to them."

14Therefore thus says YHWH, the God of hosts, "Because you speak this word, look, I will make my words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. 15Look, I will bring a nation on you from far, house of Israel," says YHWH. "It is a mighty nation. It is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know, neither understand what they say. 16Their quiver is an open tomb, they are all mighty men. 17They shall eat up your harvest, and your bread, which your sons and your daughters should eat. They shall eat up your flocks and your herds.
They shall eat up your vines and your fig trees. They shall beat down your fortified cities, in which you trust, with the sword.

18"But even in those days," says YHWH, "I will not make a full end with you. 19It will happen, when you say, 'Why has YHWH our God done all these things to us?' Then you shall say to them, 'Thus says YHWH,[c] Just like you have forsaken me, and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours.'

20"Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, 21'Hear now this, foolish people, and without understanding; who have eyes, and do not see; who have ears, and do not hear: 22Do you not fear me?' says YHWH 'Won't you tremble at my presence, who have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it can't pass it? And though its waves toss themselves, yet they[d] can't prevail; though they roar, yet they can't pass over it.'

23"But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart;
they have revolted and gone.
24Neither do they say in their heart, 'Let us now fear YHWH our God, who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season; who preserves to us the appointed weeks of the harvest.'

25"Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good from you.
26For among my people are found wicked men. They watch, as fowlers lie in wait. They set a trap.
They catch men. 27As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit. Therefore they have become great, and grew rich. 28They have grown fat. They shine; yes, they excel in deeds of wickedness. They do not plead the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they may prosper; and they do not judge the right of the needy.

29"Shall I not punish for these things?" says YHWH. "Shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

30"An astonishing and horrible thing has happened in the land. 31The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule by their own authority; and my people love to have it so. What will you do in the end of it?

6 "Flee for safety, you people of Benjamin, out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and raise up a signal on Beth Haccherem; for evil looks forth from the north, and a great destruction. 2The comely and delicate one, the daughter of Zion, will I cut off. 3Shepherds with their flocks shall come to her; they shall pitch their tents against her all around; they shall feed everyone in his place."

4"Prepare war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe to us. For the day declines, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. 5Arise, and let us go up by night, and let us destroy her palaces." 6For YHWH of hosts said, "Cut down trees, and cast up a mound against Jerusalem. She is the city to be punished; she is full of oppression in the midst of her.
7As a well casts forth its waters, so she casts forth her wickedness:
violence and destruction is heard in her; before me continually is sickness and wounds. 8Be instructed, Jerusalem, lest my soul be alienated from you; lest I make you a desolation, a land not inhabited."

9Thus says YHWH of hosts,
"They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a vine. Pass your hand again as a grape gatherer into the baskets."

10To whom shall I speak and testify, that they may hear? Look, their ear is uncircumcised, and they can't listen. Look, the word of YHWH has become a reproach to them. They have no delight in it.
11Therefore I am full of the wrath of YHWH. I am weary with holding in.

"Pour it out on the children in the street,
and on the assembly of young men together;
for even the husband with the wife shall be taken,
the aged with him who is full of days.
12Their houses shall be turned to others,
their fields and their wives
together;
for I will stretch out my hand on the inhabitants of the land," says YHWH.
13"For from their least even to their greatest,
everyone is given to covetousness;
and from the prophet even to the priest, everyone deals falsely.

14 They have healed also the hurt of my people
superficially, saying, ‘Peace, peace.’ when there is no peace.
15 Were they ashamed when they had committed
abomination?
No, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush.
Therefore they shall fall among those who fall;
at the time that I visit them, they shall be cast down,” says YHWH.

16 Thus says YHWH, “Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, ‘Where is the good way?’ and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls.” But they said, “We will not walk in it.” 17 ”I set watchmen over you, saying, ‘Listen to the sound of the trumpet.’” But they said, “We will not listen.” 18 ”Therefore hear, you nations, and know, congregation, what will happen to them.[a] 19 Hear, earth. ‘Look, I will bring disaster on this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it. 20 To what purpose comes there to me frankincense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices pleasing to me.’

21 Therefore thus says YHWH, ‘Look, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people. The fathers and the sons together shall stumble against them. The neighbor and his friend shall perish.’ 22 ”Thus says YHWH, ‘Look, a people comes from the north country. A great nation shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. 23 They take hold of bow and spear. They are cruel, and have no mercy. Their voice roars like the sea, and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Zion.’”

24 ”We have heard its report; our hands become feeble: anguish has taken hold of us, and pains as of a woman in labor. 25 Do not go forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and terror, are on every side.” 26 ”Daughter of my people, clothe yourself with sackcloth, and wallow in ashes. Mourn, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation; for the destroyer shall suddenly come on us.”

27 “I have made you a tester of metals and a fortress among my people; that you may know and try their way.” 28 ”They are all grievous rebels, going about with slanders; they are bronze and iron: they all of them deal corruptly. 29 The bellows blow fiercely; the lead is consumed of the fire: in vain do they go on refining; for the wicked are not

Jeremiah from YHWH, saying, 2"Stand in the gate of YHWH's house, and proclaim there this word, and say,
'Hear the word of YHWH, all you of Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship YHWH. 3Thus says
YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel,
Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. 4Do not trust in lying words,[a] saying, "YHWH's temple, YHWH's temple, YHWH's temple, are these." 5For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings;
if you thoroughly execute justice between a man and his neighbor; 6if you do not oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your own hurt: 7then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, from of old even forevermore.
8Look, you trust in lying words, that can't profit. 9Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods that you have not known, 10and come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, "We are delivered"; that you may do all these abominations? 11Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Look, I, even I, have seen it, says YHWH. 12But go now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I caused my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.
13Now, because you have done all these works, says YHWH, and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you did not hear; and I called you, but you did not answer: 14therefore I will do to the house which is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh. 15I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brothers, all the descendants of Ephraim.
16Therefore do not pray for this people, neither lift up a cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me; for I will not hear you. 17Do you not see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 18The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven,[b] and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke me to anger. 19Do they provoke me to anger?" says YHWH. "Do they not provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?" 20Therefore thus says[c] YHWH:
"Look, my anger and my wrath shall be poured out on this place, on man, and on animal, and on the trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched." [21]Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel:

"Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat meat. [22]For I did not speak to your fathers, nor command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices: [23]but this thing I commanded them, saying, 'Listen to my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people; and walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you.' [24]But they did not listen nor turn their ear, but walked in their own counsels and in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. [25]Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: [26]yet they did not listen to me, nor inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff: they did worse than their fathers." [27]"You shall speak all these words to them; but they will not listen to you: you shall also call to them; but they will not answer you. [28]You shall tell them, 'This is the nation that has not listened to the voice of YHWH their God, nor received instruction:
truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth. [29]Cut off your hair, and throw it away, and take up a lamentation on the bare heights; for YHWH has rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.'" [30]"For the people of Judah have done that which is evil in my sight," says YHWH: "they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.
[31]They have built the high places[a] of Topheth, which is in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I did not command, nor did it come into my mind. [32]Therefore look, the days come," says YHWH,
"that it shall no more be called Topheth, nor The Valley of Ben Hinnom, but The Valley of Slaughter: for they shall bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury. [33]The dead bodies of this people shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth; and none shall frighten them away. [34]Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land shall become a waste."

8 "At that time," says YHWH, "they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his officials, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves; [2]and they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, which they have loved, and which they have served, and after which they have walked, and which they have sought, and which they have worshiped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried, they shall be for dung on the surface of the earth. 3Death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue that remain of this evil family, that remain in all the places where I have driven them," says YHWH of hosts. 4"Moreover you shall tell them, 'Thus says YHWH: Shall men fall, and not rise up again? Shall one turn away, and not return? 5Why then do these people of Jerusalem[a] turn away in perpetual backsliding? They hold fast deceit; they refuse to return. 6I listened and heard, but they did not speak what is right: no man repents him of his wickedness, saying, "What have I done?" Everyone turns to his course, as a horse that rushes headlong in the battle. 7Yes, the stork in the sky knows her appointed times; and the turtledove and the swallow and the crane observe the time of their coming; but my people do not know YHWH's law. 8How can you say, "We are wise, and the law of YHWH is with us?" But, look, the lying pen of the scribes has worked falsehood.[b] 9The wise men are disappointed, they are dismayed and taken: look, they have rejected the word of YHWH; and what kind of wisdom is in them? 10Therefore I will give their wives to others, and their fields to those who shall possess them: for everyone from the least even to the greatest is given to covetousness; from the prophet even to the priest every one deals falsely. 11They have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people superficially, saying, "Peace, peace;" when there is no peace. 12Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? No. They were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among those who fall; in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, says YHWH. 13I will utterly consume them, says YHWH: no grapes shall be on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.'" 14"Why do we sit still? Assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the fortified cities, and let us be silent there; for YHWH our God has put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against YHWH. 15We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and look, dismay. 16The snorting of his horses is heard from Dan: at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones the whole land trembles; for they have come, and have devoured the land

[a]8:5 Hebrew Ms and LXX lack "Jerusalem"

[b]8:8 The scribe was not only a copyist but a teacher as well, and the claim of "Peace, peace" (v.11) was being taught though there was no peace. They rejected the word of YHWH for their own wisdom. Further evidence that this is not talking about a copying problem of the law but rather a wrong teaching is found in 26:4-5 where God admonishes people to follow his law which he has set before them. and all that is in it; the city and those who dwell in it. 17For, look, I will send serpents, adders, among you, which will not be charmed; and they shall bite you," says YHWH. 18"My joy for me is sorrow.
My heart is faint within me. 19Look, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people from a land that is very far off: 'Isn't YHWH in Zion?
Isn't her King in her?'" "Why have they provoked me to anger with their engraved images, and with foreign vanities?" 20"'The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.' 21For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt: I mourn; dismay has taken hold on me. 22Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then isn't the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

9 Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a spring of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people.
2Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them. For they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men." 3"They bend their tongue as a bow. Falsehood and not truth has grown strong in the land; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they do not know me,"
says YHWH.

4"Everyone be on guard against his neighbor, and do not trust any brother; for every brother is a deceiver, and every neighbor will go about with slanders. 5Everyone deceives his neighbor, and does not speak the truth. They have taught their tongue to speak lies; they do evil, they do not cease so as to return. 6Oppression upon oppression, and deceit upon deceit.[a] They refuse to know me," says YHWH. 7Therefore thus says YHWH of hosts, "Look, I will melt them, and try them; for how should I deal with the wickedness[b] of the daughter of my people?

8Their tongue is a deadly arrow;
it speaks deceit: one speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, but in his heart he lies in wait for him. 9Shall I not visit them for these things?" says YHWH;
"shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?" 10"For the mountains I will take up weeping and wailing, and for the pastures of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are laid waste so that no one passes through; nor can men hear the voice of the cattle. Both the birds of the sky and the animals have fled, they are gone."

11"I will make Jerusalem heaps, a dwelling place of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant."

[a]9:5-6 LXX. MT has misdivided several words, reading "lies; they weary themselves to commit iniquity. Your habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit"

12"Who is the wise man, that may understand this? Who is he to whom the mouth of YHWH has spoken, that he may declare it?
Why is the land perished and burned up like a wilderness, so that none passes through?" 13YHWH says, "Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked in it, 14but have walked after the stubbornness of their own[a] heart, and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them; 15therefore thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, 'Look, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them.'" 17Thus says YHWH of hosts, "Consider, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for the skillful women, that they may come:" 18"and let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters. 19For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, 'How are we ruined. We are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because they have cast down our dwellings.'" 20"Yet hear the word of YHWH,[b] you women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth; and teach your daughters wailing, and everyone her neighbor lamentation. 21'For death has come up into our windows, it is entered into our palaces; to cut off the children from outside, and the young men from the streets.' 22Speak, 'Thus says YHWH, "The dead bodies of men shall fall as dung on the open field, and as the handful after the harvester; and none shall gather them."'" 23Thus says YHWH, "Do not let the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, do not let the rich man glory in his riches; 24but let him who boasts boast in this, that he has understanding, and knows me, that I am YHWH who exercises loving kindness, justice, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight," says YHWH.
25"Look, the days come," says YHWH, "that I will punish all those who are circumcised in uncircumcision: 26Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the people of Ammon, and Moab, and all that have the corners of their hair cut off, who dwell in the wilderness; for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart."

10 Hear the word which YHWH speaks to you, house of Israel. 2Thus says YHWH, "Do not learn the way of the nations, and do not be dismayed at the signs of the sky; for the nations are dismayed at them. 3For the customs of the peoples are vanity; for one cuts a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman with the axe. 4They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it not move. 5They are like a palm tree, of turned work, and do not speak: they must be carried, because they can't go. Do not be afraid of them; for they can't do evil, neither is it in them to do good." 6"There is none like you, YHWH; you are great, and your name is great in might. 7Who should not fear you, King of the nations? For it appertains to you; because among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their royal estate, there is none like you. 8But they are together brutish and foolish, the instruction of idols. It is but wood. 9There is silver beaten into plates, which is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the artificer and of the hands of the goldsmith; blue and purple for their clothing; they are all the work of skillful men. 10But YHWH is the true God; he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth trembles, and the nations are not able to withstand his indignation. 11You shall say this to them: 'The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, these shall perish from the earth, and from under the heavens.' 12He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens: 13when he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the farthest parts of the earth; he makes lightnings for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of his treasuries. 14Every man has become brutish and without knowledge; every goldsmith is disappointed by his engraved image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. 15They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. 16The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; YHWH of hosts is his name." 17 'Gather up your wares out of the land, you who live under siege. 18For thus says YHWH, 'Look, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and will distress them, that they may feel it.' 19Woe is me because of my hurt. My wound is grievous: but I said, 'Truly this is my grief, and I must bear it.' 20My tent is destroyed, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth from me, and they are no more: there is none to spread my tent any more, and to set up my curtains. 21For the shepherds are become brutish, and have not inquired of YHWH: therefore they have not prospered, and all their flocks are scattered. 22The voice of news, look, it comes, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a dwelling place of jackals. 23YHWH, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man who walks to direct his steps. 24YHWH, correct me, but in measure: not in your anger, lest you bring me to nothing. [25]Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you, and on the families that do not call on your name: for they have devoured Jacob, yes, they have devoured him and consumed him, and have laid waste his habitation."

11 The word that came to Jeremiah from YHWH, saying, [2]"Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; [3]and say to them, 'Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel: "Cursed is the man who doesn't hear the words of this covenant, [4]which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace, saying, "Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so you shall be my people, and I will be your God; [5]that I may establish the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey," as at this day.'" Then I answered, and said, "Amen, YHWH." [6]YHWH said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, 'Hear the words of this covenant, and do them. [7]For I earnestly protested to your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. [8]Yet they did not obey, nor turn their ear, but walked everyone in the stubbornness of their evil heart: therefore I brought on them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they did not do them.'" [9]YHWH said to me, "A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [10]They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear my words; and they are gone after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. [11]Therefore thus says YHWH, 'Look, I will bring disaster on them, which they shall not be able to escape; and they shall cry to me, but I will not listen to them. [12]Then shall the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem go and cry to the gods to which they offer incense: but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble. [13]For according to the number of your cities are your gods, Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have you set up altars to the shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal.' [14]Therefore do not pray for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry to me at the time[a] of their trouble." [15]"What has my beloved to do in my house, since she has done many vile deeds? Can holy meat avert your disaster so that you can rejoice?" [16]YHWH called your name, "A green olive tree, beautiful with goodly fruit." With the noise of a great tumult he has kindled fire on it, and its branches are broken. [17]For YHWH of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have worked for themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense to Baal." [18]YHWH gave me knowledge of it, and I knew it: then you showed me their doings. [19]But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter; and I did not know that they had devised devices against me, saying, "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered." [20]"But, YHWH of hosts, who judges righteously, who tests the heart and the mind, I shall see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause." [21]Therefore thus says YHWH concerning the men of Anathoth, who seek my[a] life, saying, "You shall not prophesy in the name of YHWH, that you not die by our hand;" [22]therefore thus says YHWH of hosts, "Look, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine; [23]and there shall be no remnant to them: for I will bring disaster on the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation."

12 You are righteous, YHWH, when I contend with you; yet I would reason the cause with you: why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why are they all at ease who deal very treacherously? [2]You have planted them, yes, they have taken root; they grow, yes, they bring forth fruit: you are near in their mouth, and far from their heart. [3]But you, YHWH, know me; you see me, and try my heart toward you: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter. [4]How long shall the land be parched, and the grass of every field wither? For the wickedness of those who dwell in it, the animals are consumed, and the birds; because they said, "He shall not see our latter end.[b]" [5]"If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? And though in a land of peace you are secure, yet how will you do in the pride of the Jordan? [6]For even your brothers, and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you; even they have cried aloud after you: do not believe them, though they speak beautiful words to you. [7]I have forsaken my house, I have cast off my heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies. [8]My heritage has become to me as a lion in the forest: she has uttered her voice against me; therefore I have hated her. [9]Is my heritage to me as a speckled bird of prey? Are the birds of prey against her all around? Go, assemble all the animals of the field, bring them[a] to devour. 10Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. 11They have made it a desolation; it mourns to me, being desolate; the whole land is made desolate, because no man lays it to heart. 12Destroyers have come on all the bare heights in the wilderness; for the sword of YHWH devours from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh has peace. 13They have sown wheat, and have reaped thorns; they have put themselves to pain, and profit nothing: and you shall be ashamed of your fruits, because of the fierce anger of YHWH. 14Thus says YHWH against all my evil neighbors, who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: 'look, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from among them. 15It shall happen, after that I have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them; and I will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. 16It shall happen, if they will diligently learn the ways[b] of my people, to swear by my name, "As YHWH lives;" even as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built up in the midst of my people. 17But if they will not hear, then will I pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it,'" says YHWH.

13 Thus says YHWH to me, "Go, and buy yourself a linen belt, and put it on your waist, and do not put it in water." 2So I bought a belt according to the word of YHWH, and put it on my waist. 3The word of YHWH came to me the second time, saying, 4"Take the belt that you have bought, which is on your waist, and arise, go to the Perath, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock." 5So I went, and hid it by the Perath, as YHWH commanded me. 6It happened after many days, that YHWH said to me, "Arise, go to the Perath, and take the belt from there, which I commanded you to hide there." 7Then I went to the Perath, and dug, and took the belt from the place where I had hidden it; and look, the belt was marred, it was profitable for nothing. 8Then the word of YHWH came to me, saying, 9"Thus says YHWH, 'In this way I will mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. 10This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and are gone after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this belt, which is profitable for nothing. 11For as the belt clings to the waist of a man, so have I caused to cling to me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah,' says YHWH; 'that they might be my people, for a name, for praise, and for glory. But they would not listen. 12Therefore you shall speak to them this word: 'Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, "Every jar shall be filled with wine."' And if[a] they shall say to you, 'Do we not certainly know that every jar shall be filled with wine?' 13Then you shall tell them, 'Thus says YHWH, "Look, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings who sit on David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. 14I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, says YHWH. I will not pity, nor spare, nor have compassion, that I should not destroy them."'" 15"Hear, and give ear; do not be proud; for YHWH has spoken. 16Give glory to YHWH your God, before he causes darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains, and, while you look for light, he turns it into the shadow of death, and makes it gross darkness. 17But if you will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret for your pride; and my eye shall weep bitterly, and run down with tears, because YHWH's flock is taken captive." 18"Say to the king and to the queen mother, 'Take a lowly seat, for your glorious crowns have come down from your heads.[b] 19The cities toward the Negev are shut, and there is no one to open them: Judah is carried away into exile, all of it; it is wholly carried away into exile.'" 20"Lift up your eyes, and see those who come from the north: where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock? 21What will you say, when he shall set over you as head those whom you have yourself taught to be friends to you? Shall not sorrows take hold of you, as of a woman in travail? 22If you say in your heart, 'Why are these things come on me?' for the greatness of your iniquity are your skirts uncovered, and your heels suffer violence. 23Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? Then may you also do good, who are accustomed to do evil. 24"Therefore I will scatter them, as the stubble that passes away, by the wind of the wilderness. 25This is your lot, the portion measured to you from me,' says YHWH; 'because you have forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood. 26Therefore I will also uncover your skirts on your face, and your shame shall appear. 27I have seen your abominations, even your adulteries, and your neighing, the lewdness of your prostitution, on the hills in the field. [c]13:27 LXX Syr cf. BHS add "for"

14 The word of YHWH that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought. 2"Judah mourns, and its gates languish, they sit in black on the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up. 3Their nobles send their little ones to the waters: they come to the cisterns, and find no water; they return with their vessels empty; they are disappointed and confounded, and cover their heads. 4Because of the ground which is cracked, because no rain has been in the land, the plowmen are disappointed, they cover their heads. 5Yes, the hind also in the field calves, and forsakes her young, because there is no grass. 6The wild donkeys stand on the bare heights, they pant for air like jackals; their eyes fail, because there is no herbage." 7"Though our iniquities testify against us, work for your name's sake, YHWH; for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against you. 8Hope of Israel,[a] its Savior in the time of trouble, why should you be as a foreigner in the land, and as a wayfaring man who turns aside to stay for a night? 9Why should you be like a scared man, as a mighty man who can't save? Yet you, YHWH, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; do not leave us." 10Thus says YHWH to this people, "Even so have they loved to wander; they have not refrained their feet: therefore YHWH does not accept them; now he will remember their iniquity, and visit their sins." 11YHWH said to me, "Do not pray for this people for their good. 12When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and meal offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence." 13Then I said, "Ah,[b] YHWH. Look, the prophets tell them, 'You shall not see the sword, neither shall you have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.'" 14Then YHWH said to me, "The prophets prophesy lies in my name; I did not send them, neither have I commanded them, neither spoke I to them: they prophesy to you a lying vision, and divination, and a thing of nothing, and the deceit of their own heart. 15Therefore thus says YHWH concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, and I did not send them, yet they say, 'Sword and famine shall not be in this land:' 'By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.' 16The people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them—them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness on them." 17"You shall say this word to them, 'Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease; for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous wound. 18If I go forth into the field, then, look, the slain with the sword. And if I enter into the city, then, look, those who are sick with famine. For both the prophet and the priest go about in the land, and have no knowledge.'" 19"Have you utterly rejected Judah?

Has your soul loathed Zion? Why have you struck us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and look, dismay.
20We acknowledge, YHWH, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against you. 21Do not abhor us, for your name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of your glory: remember, do not break your covenant with us.
22Are there any among the vanities of the nations that can cause rain?
Or can the sky give showers?
Aren't you he, YHWH our God?
Therefore we will wait for you; for you have made all these things."

15 Then YHWH said to me, "Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind would not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.
2It shall happen, when they tell you, 'Where shall we go forth?' Then you shall tell them, 'Thus says YHWH: "Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for captivity, to captivity. 3I will appoint over them four kinds, says YHWH: the sword to kill, and the dogs to tear, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the earth, to devour and to destroy.
4I will cause them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.
5For who will have pity on you, Jerusalem? Or who will bemoan you? Or who will turn aside to ask of your welfare? 6'You have rejected me,' says YHWH, 'you have gone backward:' therefore have I stretched out my hand against you, and destroyed you; I am weary with repenting. 7I have winnowed them with a fan in the gates of the land; I have bereaved them of children, I have destroyed my people; they did not return from their ways. 8Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas; I have brought on them against the mother of the young men a destroyer at noonday; I have made anguish and terror to fall on them[a] suddenly. 9She who has borne seven languishes; she has given up the spirit; her sun is gone down while it was yet day; she has been disappointed and confounded:
and their residue will I deliver to the sword before their enemies," says YHWH. 10"Woe is me, my mother, that you have borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth. I have not lent, neither have men lent to me;[a] yet everyone of them[b] curses me." 11YHWH said, "Most certainly I will strengthen you for good; most certainly I will cause the enemy to make petition to you in the time of evil and in the time of distress. 12Can one break iron, even iron from the north, and bronze? 13Your substance and your treasures will I give for a spoil without price, and that for all your sins, even in all your borders. 14I will make you serve[c] your enemies in a land which you do not know; for a fire is kindled in my anger, which shall burn on you." 15"YHWH, you know; remember me, and visit me, and avenge me of my persecutors; do not take me away in your longsuffering: know that for your sake I have suffered reproach. 16Your words were found, and I ate them; and your words were to me a joy and the rejoicing of my heart: for I am called by your name, YHWH, the God of hosts. 17I did not sit in the assembly of those who make merry, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of your hand; for you have filled me with indignation. 18Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuses to be healed? Will you indeed be to me as a deceitful brook, as waters that fail?" 19Therefore thus says YHWH, "If you return, then will I bring you again, that you may stand before me; and if you take forth the precious from the vile, you shall be as my mouth: they shall return to you, but you shall not return to them. 20I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall; and they shall fight against you, but they shall not prevail against you; for I am with you to save you and to deliver you," says YHWH. 21"I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the terrible."

16 The word of YHWH came also to me, saying, 2"You shall not take a wife,[d] neither shall you have sons or daughters, in this place. 3For thus says YHWH concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who became their father in this land: 4They shall die grievous deaths: they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; they shall be as dung on the surface of the ground; and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their dead bodies shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth. 5For thus says YHWH, 'Do not enter into the house of mourning, neither go to lament, neither bemoan them; for I have taken away my peace from this people, says YHWH, even loving kindness and tender mercies. 6Both great and small shall die in this land; they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them; 7neither shall men break bread[a] for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother. 8You shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and to drink. 9For thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: Look, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride. 10It shall happen, when you shall show this people all these words, and they shall tell you, 'Why has YHWH pronounced all this great evil against us? Or what is our iniquity? Or what is our sin that we have committed against YHWH our God?' 11Then you shall tell them, 'Because your fathers have forsaken me, says YHWH, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshiped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law; 12and you have done evil more than your fathers; for, look, you walk every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart, so that you do not listen to me: 13therefore I will cast you forth out of this land into the land that you have not known, neither you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods day and night; for I will show you no favor.' 14Therefore look, the days come," says YHWH, "that it shall no more be said, 'As YHWH lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;' 15but, 'As YHWH lives, who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the countries where he had driven them.' I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their fathers. 16Look, I will send for many fishermen," says YHWH, "and they shall fish them up; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks. 17For my eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from my face, neither is their iniquity concealed from my eyes. 18First I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable things, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations." 19"YHWH, my strength, and my stronghold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, to you shall the nations come from the farthest parts of the earth, and shall say, 'Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies, vanity and things in which there is no profit. 20Shall a man make to himself gods, which yet are no gods?'" 21"Therefore look, I will cause them to know, this once will

I cause them to know my hand and my name is YHWH.

17 "The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is engraved on the tablet of their heart, and on the horns of your altars; 2while their children remember their altars and their Asherim by the green trees on the high hills. 3My mountain in the field, I will give your substance and all your treasures for a spoil, and your high places, because of sin, throughout all your borders. 4You, even of yourself, shall discontinue from your heritage that I gave you; and I will cause you to serve your enemies in the land which you do not know: for you have kindled a fire in my anger which shall burn forever." 5Thus says YHWH:
"Cursed is the man who trusts in man, and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from YHWH.
6For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good comes, but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, a salt land and not inhabited. 7Blessed is the man who trusts in YHWH, and whose confidence is in YHWH. 8For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, who spreads out its roots by the river, and shall not fear when heat comes, but its leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. 9The heart is deceitful above all things, and it is exceedingly corrupt: who can know it? 10I, YHWH, search the mind, I try the heart, even to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings.
11As the partridge that sits on eggs which she has not laid, so is he who gets riches, and not by right; in the midst of his days they shall leave him, and at his end he shall be a fool." 12"A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary. 13YHWH, the hope of Israel, all who forsake you shall be disappointed. Those who depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken YHWH, the spring of living waters. 14Heal me, YHWH, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for you are my praise. 15Look, they tell me, 'Where is the word of YHWH? Let it come now.' 16As for me, I have not hurried from being a shepherd after you; neither have I desired the woeful day; you know: that which came out of my lips was before your face. 17Do not be a terror to me: you are my refuge in the day of evil. 18Let them be disappointed who persecute me, but let not me be disappointed; let them be dismayed, but do not let me be dismayed; bring on them the day of disaster, and destroy them with double destruction." 19Thus said YHWH to me: "Go, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, through which the kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; 20and tell them, 'Hear the word of YHWH, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates: 21Thus says YHWH, "Be careful, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; [22]neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day holy, neither do any work: but make the Sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers. [23]But they did not listen, neither turn their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, and might not receive instruction. [24]It shall happen, if you diligently listen to me," says YHWH, "to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but to make the Sabbath day holy, to do no work in it; [25]then shall there enter in by the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their officials, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain forever. [26]They shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places around Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the lowland, and from the hill country, and from the Negev, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meal offerings, and frankincense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving, to the house of YHWH. [27]But if you will not listen to me to make the Sabbath day holy, and not to bear a burden and enter in at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in its gates, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched."'"

18 The word which came to Jeremiah from YHWH, saying, [2]"Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear my words." [3]Then I went down to the potter's house, and look, he was making a work on the wheels. [4]When the vessel that he made of the clay was marred in the hand of the potter, he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. [5]Then the word of YHWH came to me, saying, [6]"'House of Israel, can't I do with you as this potter?' says YHWH. 'Look, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, house of Israel.' [7]At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy it; [8]if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turn from their evil, I will change my mind about the disaster that I thought to do to them. [9]At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; [10]if they do that which is evil in my sight, that they not obey my voice, then I will repent of the good, with which I said I would benefit them. [11]Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says YHWH: Look, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return now everyone from his evil way, and amend your ways and your doings.' [12]But they say, 'It is in vain; for we will walk after our own devices, and we will do everyone after the stubbornness of his evil heart.'" [13]Therefore thus says YHWH: "Ask now among the nations, who has heard such things; the virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing. [14]Shall the snow of Lebanon fail from the rock of the field? Shall the cold waters that flow down from afar be dried up? 15For my people have forgotten me, they have burned incense to false gods; and they have been made to stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in byways, in a way not built up; 16to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished, and shake his head. 17I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity." 18Then they said,

"Come, and let us make plans against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words." 19"Give heed to me, YHWH, and listen to the voice of those who contend with me. 20Shall evil be recompensed for good? For they have dug a pit for my soul.
Remember how I stood before you to speak good for them, to turn away your wrath from them.
21Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword; and let their wives become childless, and widows; and let their men be slain of death, and their young men struck of the sword in battle. 22Let a cry be heard from their houses, when you shall bring a troop suddenly on them; for they have dug a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet. 23Yet, YHWH, you know all their counsel against me to kill me; do not forgive their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from your sight; but let them be overthrown before you; deal you with them in the time of your
anger."

19 Thus said YHWH,
"Go, and buy a potter's earthen bottle, and take with you[a] some of the elders of the people, and of the elders of the priests; 2and go forth to the Valley of Ben Hinnom, which is by the entry of the Potsherd Gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell you; 3and say, 'Hear the word of YHWH, kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel,
"Look, I will bring evil on this place, which whoever hears, his ears shall tingle. 4Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods, that they did not know, they and their fathers and the kings of Judah; and have filled this place with the blood of innocents, 5and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons in the fire for burnt offerings to Baal; which I did not command, nor spoke it, neither came it into my mind: 6therefore,
look, the days come," says YHWH,
"that this place shall no more be called Topheth, nor The Valley of Ben Hinnom, but The Valley of Slaughter. 7I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life: and their dead bodies will I give to be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth. 8I will make this city an astonishment, and a hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues. 9I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters; and they shall eat everyone the flesh of his friend, in the siege and in the distress, with which their enemies, and those who seek their life, shall distress them."' 10Then you shall break the bottle in the sight of the men who go with you, 11and shall tell them, 'Thus says YHWH of hosts: "Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel, that can't be made whole again; and they shall bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury. 12Thus will I do to this place," says YHWH, "and to its inhabitants, even making this city as Topheth: 13and the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which are defiled, shall be as the place of Topheth, even all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink offerings to other gods."'" 14Then came Jeremiah from Topheth, where YHWH had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of YHWH's house, and said to all the people: 15"Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, 'Look, I will bring on this city and on all its towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it; because they have made their neck stiff, that they may not hear my words.'"

20 Now Pashhur, the son of Immer the priest, who was chief officer in the house of YHWH, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things. 2Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the Upper Gate of Benjamin, which was in the house of YHWH. 3It happened on the next day, that Pashhur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks.
Then Jeremiah said to him, "YHWH has not called your name 'Pashhur,' but 'Magor- Missabib.'[a] 4For thus says YHWH, 'Look, I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall see it; and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive to Babylon, and shall kill them with the sword.
5Moreover I will give all the riches of this city, and all its gains, and all the precious things of it, yes, all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies; and they shall make them a prey, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. 6You, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house shall go into captivity; and you shall come to Babylon, and there you shall die, and there you shall be buried, you, and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied falsely.'" [7]YHWH, you have persuaded[a] me, and I was persuaded. You are stronger than I am, and have prevailed. I have become a laughing-stock all day long; everyone mocks me. [8]For as often as I speak, I cry out; I cry, "Violence and destruction." because the word of YHWH is made a reproach to me, and a derision, all the day. [9]If I say, "I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name," then there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with forbearing, and I can't contain it. [10]For I have heard the defaming of many, terror on every side. "Denounce, and we will denounce him," say all my familiar friends, those who watch for my fall; "perhaps he will be persuaded, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him." [11]But YHWH is with me as an awesome mighty one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail; they shall be utterly disappointed, because they have not dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonor which shall never be forgotten. [12]But, YHWH of hosts, who tests the righteous, who sees the heart and the mind, let me see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause. [13]Sing to YHWH, praise YHWH; for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evildoers. [14]Cursed is the day in which I was born: do not let the day in which my mother bore me be blessed. [15]Cursed is the man who brought news to my father, saying, A boy is born to you; making him very glad. [16]Let that man be as the cities which YHWH overthrew, and did not repent: and let him hear a cry in the morning, and shouting at noontime; [17]because he did not kill me from the womb; and so my mother would have been my grave, and her womb always great. [18]Why came I forth out of the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

21 The word which came to Jeremiah from YHWH, when king Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying, [2]"Please inquire of YHWH for us; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon makes war against us: perhaps YHWH will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us." [3]Then Jeremiah said to them, "You shall tell Zedekiah: [4]'Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, "Look, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans who besiege you, without the walls; and I will gather them into the midst of this city. [5]I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation. [6]I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and animal: they shall die of a great pestilence. [7]Afterward," says YHWH, "I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, even such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life: and he shall strike them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy."' [8]To this people you shall say, "Thus says YHWH: 'Look, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. [9]He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes out, and passes over to the Chaldeans who besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey. [10]For I have set my face on this city for evil, and not for good,' says YHWH: 'it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.' [11]Touching the house of the king of Judah, hear the word of YHWH: [12]'House of David, thus says YHWH, "Execute justice in the morning, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn so that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. [13]Look, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, and of the rock of the plain," says YHWH; "you that say, 'Who shall come down against us? Or who shall enter into our habitations?' [14]I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings," says YHWH; "and I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it shall devour all that is around her."'"

22 Thus said YHWH: "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, [2]Say, 'Hear the word of YHWH, king of Judah, who sits on the throne of David, you, and your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates. [3]Thus says YHWH: "Execute justice and righteousness, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence, to the foreigner, the fatherless, nor the widow; neither shed innocent blood in this place. [4]For if you do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. [5]But if you will not hear these words, I swear by myself, says YHWH, that this house shall become a desolation." [6]For thus says YHWH concerning the house of the king of Judah: "You are Gilead to me, the head of Lebanon. Yet surely I will make you a wilderness, cities which are not inhabited. [7]I will prepare destroyers against you, everyone with his weapons; and they shall cut down your choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. [8]Many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbor, 'Why has YHWH done thus to this great city?' [9]Then they shall answer, 'Because they forsook the covenant of YHWH their God, and worshiped other gods, and served them.' [10]Do not weep for the dead, neither bemoan him; but weep bitterly for him who goes away; for he shall return no more, nor see his native country." [11]For thus says YHWH touching Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, and who went forth out of this place: "He shall not return there any more. [12]But in the place where they have led him captive, there shall he die, and he shall see this land no more." [13]Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his rooms by injustice; who uses his neighbor's service without wages, and doesn't give him his hire; [14]who says, "I will build me a wide house and spacious rooms," and cuts him out windows; and it is ceiling with cedar, and painted with vermilion. [15]Shall you reign, because you strive to excel in cedar? Did not your father eat and drink, and do justice and righteousness? Then it was well with him. [16]He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Wasn't this to know me?' says YHWH. [17]"But your eyes and your heart are not but for your covetousness, and for shedding innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it. [18]Therefore thus says YHWH concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: "They will not mourn for him: 'Alas, my brother. Alas, my sister.' They will not mourn for him: 'Alas, my master. Alas, his majesty.' [19]He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem. [20]Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from Abarim; for all your lovers are destroyed. [21]I spoke to you in your prosperity; but you said, 'I will not hear.' This has been your way from your youth, that you did not obey my voice. [22]The wind shall feed all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity: surely then you will be ashamed and confounded for all your wickedness. [23]Inhabitant of Lebanon, who makes your nest in the cedars, how greatly you will groan[a] when pangs come on you, the pain as of a woman in travail. [24]As I live," says YHWH, "though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet on my right hand, yet would I pluck you there; [25]and I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of them of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. [26]I will cast you out, and your mother who bore you, into another country, where you were not born; and there you will die. [27]But to the land whereunto their soul longs to return, there shall they not return." [28]Is this man Coniah a despised broken vessel? Is he a vessel in which none delights? Why are they cast out, he and his descendants, and cast into a land that they do not know? [29]O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of YHWH. [30]Thus says YHWH, "Write this man down childless, a man who will not succeed in his days; for none of his descendants will succeed in sitting on the throne of David, and ruling in Judah.

23 "Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture." says YHWH. [2]Therefore thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who feed my people: "You have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; look, I will visit on you the evil of your doings," says YHWH. [3"]I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and multiply. [4]I will set up shepherds over them, who shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be lacking," says YHWH. [5"]Look, the days come," says YHWH, "that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. [6]In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name by which he shall be called: 'YHWH our righteousness.'[a] [7]Therefore look, the days come," says YHWH, "that they shall no more say, 'As YHWH lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt'; [8]but, 'As YHWH lives, who brought up and who led the descendants of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries where he[b] had driven them.' They shall dwell in their own land."' [9]Concerning the prophets: My heart within me is broken, all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine has overcome, because of YHWH, and because of his holy words. [10]For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourns; the pastures of the wilderness are dried up. "Their course is evil, and their might is not right; [11]for both prophet and priest are profane; yes, in my house have I found their wickedness," says YHWH. [12"]Therefore their way shall be to them as slippery places in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall in it; for I will bring evil on them, even the year of their visitation," says YHWH. [13"]I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. [14]In the prophets of Jerusalem also I have seen a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies; and they strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that none does return from his wickedness: they are all of them become to me as Sodom, and its inhabitants as Gomorrah.

15Therefore thus says YHWH of hosts concerning the prophets:
'Look, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall; for from the prophets of Jerusalem is ungodliness gone forth into all the land.' 16Thus says YHWH of hosts, 'Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you: they teach you vanity; they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of YHWH. 17They say continually to those who despise me, "YHWH has said, 'You shall have peace'"; and to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart they say, "No evil shall come on you." 18For who has stood in the council of YHWH, that he should perceive and hear his word? Who has marked my word, and heard it? 19Look, the storm of YHWH, his wrath, has gone forth.
Yes, a whirling storm. It shall burst on the head of the wicked. 20The anger of YHWH shall not return, until he has executed, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days you shall understand it perfectly. 21I sent not these prophets, yet they ran: I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied. 22But if they had stood in my council, then had they caused my people to hear my words, and had turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings. 23Am I a God at hand,' says YHWH, 'and not a God afar off?
24Can any hide himself in secret places so that I shall not see him?' says YHWH. 'Do I not fill heaven and earth?' says YHWH. 25'I have heard what the prophets have said, who prophesy lies in my name, saying, "I have dreamed, I have dreamed." 26How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart, 27who think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbor, as their fathers forgot my name for Baal. 28The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he who has my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the straw to the wheat?' says YHWH. 29'Isn't my word like fire?' says YHWH;
'and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces? 30Therefore look, I am against the prophets,' says YHWH, 'who steal my words everyone from his neighbor.
31Look, I am against the prophets,' says YHWH, 'who use their tongues, and say, "He says." 32Look, I am against the prophets[a] who prophesy lying dreams,' says YHWH, 'and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting: yet I did not send them, nor commanded them; neither do they profit this people at all,' says YHWH. 33'When this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask you, saying, "What is the burden of YHWH?" Then you shall tell them, "You are the burden,[a] and I will cast you off," says YHWH. 34As for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, who shall say, "The burden of YHWH," I will even punish that man and his house. 35You shall say everyone to his neighbor, and everyone to his brother, "What has YHWH answered?" and, "What has YHWH spoken?" 36You shall mention the burden of YHWH no more: for every man's own word shall be his burden; for you have perverted the words of the living God, of YHWH of hosts our God. 37You shall say to the prophet, "What has YHWH answered you?" and, "What has YHWH spoken?" 38But if you say, "The burden of YHWH"; therefore thus says YHWH: Because you say this word, "The burden of YHWH," and I have sent to you, saying, "You shall not say, 'The burden of YHWH'"; 39therefore, look, I will surely lift you up[b] and I will cast you off, and the city that I gave to you and to your fathers, away from my presence: 40and I will bring an everlasting reproach on you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.'"

24 YHWH showed me, and look, two baskets of figs set before YHWH's temple, after that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the officials of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths,[c] from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. 2One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first-ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. 3Then YHWH said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" I said, "Figs; the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, that can't be eaten, they are so bad." 4The word of YHWH came to me, saying, 5"Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel: 'Like these good figs, so will I regard the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans, for good. 6For I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up. 7I will give them a heart to know me, that I am YHWH: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God; for they shall return to me with their whole heart.' 8As the bad figs, which can't be eaten, they are so bad, surely thus says YHWH, 'So will I give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his officials, and the remnant of Jerusalem, who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt, 9I will make them a horror, an evil thing, to all the kingdoms of the earth, as a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them. 10I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, until they be consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.'"

25 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (the same was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), [2]which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: [3]"From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, these twenty-three years, the word of YHWH has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; but you have not listened. [4]YHWH has sent to you all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them (but you have not listened, nor inclined your ear to hear) [5]saying, 'Return now everyone from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that YHWH has given to you and to your fathers, from of old and even forevermore; [6]and do not go after other gods to serve them or worship them, and do not provoke me to anger with the work of your hands; and I will do you no harm. [7]Yet you have not listened to me,' says YHWH; 'that you may provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own hurt.' [8]Therefore thus says YHWH of hosts: 'Because you have not heard my words, [9]look, I will send and take all the families of the north,' says YHWH, 'and I will send to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these nations around; and I will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations. [10]Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp. [11]This whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. [12]It shall happen, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, says YHWH, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans; and I will make it desolate forever. [13]I will bring on that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this scroll, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. [14]For many nations and great kings shall make bondservants of them, even of them; and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their hands.'"

[15]For thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, to me: "Take this cup of the wine of wrath at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it. [16]They shall drink, and reel back and forth, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them."

17Then took I the cup at YHWH's hand, and made all the nations to drink, to whom YHWH had sent me: 18Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and its kings, and its officials, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is this day; 19Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his officials, and all his people; 20and all the mixed people, and all the kings of the land of the Uz, and all the kings of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod; 21Edom, and Moab, and the people of Ammon; 22and all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the isle which is beyond the sea; 23Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all who have the corners of their beard cut off; 24and all the kings of Arabia, [and all the kings of the mixed people][a] who dwell in the wilderness; 25and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; 26and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are on the surface of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

27"You shall tell them, 'Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: "Drink, and be drunk, vomit, fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you."' 28It shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then you shall tell them, 'Thus says YHWH of hosts: "You shall surely drink. 29For, look, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name; and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished; for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth,"' says YHWH of hosts.
30Therefore prophesy you against them all these words, and tell them, 'YHWH will roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he will mightily roar against his fold; he will give a shout, as those who tread grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth. 31A noise shall come even to the remotest parts of the earth; for YHWH brings charges against the nations; he will enter into judgment with all flesh: as for the wicked, he will give them to the sword,' says YHWH. 32'Thus says YHWH of hosts, 'Look, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great storm shall be raised up from the uttermost parts of the earth.' 33The slain of YHWH shall be on that day from all areas of the earth. They shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung on the surface of the ground.
34Wail, you shepherds, and cry; and wallow in dust, you principal of the flock; for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are fully come, and you shall fall like a goodly vessel. 35The shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the voice of the cry of the shepherds, and the wailing of the principal of the flock. For YHWH lays waste their pasture. 37The peaceable folds are brought to silence because of the fierce anger of YHWH. 38He has left his covert, as the lion; for their land has become an astonishment, because of the sword of the oppressor, and because of his fierce

anger."

26 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word from YHWH, saying, 2"Thus says YHWH: Stand in the court of YHWH's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in YHWH's house, all the words that I command you to speak to them; do not diminish a word. 3It may be they will listen, and turn every man from his evil way; that I may relent of the evil which I purpose to do to them because of the evil of their doings. 4You shall tell them, 'Thus says YHWH: If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you, 5to listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send to you, even rising up early and sending them, but you have not listened; 6then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.'" 7The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of YHWH. 8It happened, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that YHWH had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold on him, saying, "You shall surely die. 9Why have you prophesied in the name of YHWH, saying, 'This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant?'" All the people were gathered to Jeremiah in the house of YHWH.

10When the officials of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of YHWH; and they sat in the entry of the New Gate of YHWH's house.[a] 11Then spoke the priests and the prophets to the officials and to all the people, saying, "This man is worthy of death; for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears."

12Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and to all the people, saying, "YHWH sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. 13Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of YHWH your God; and YHWH will relent of the disaster that he has pronounced against you. 14But as for me, look, I am in your hands; do with me as is good and right in your eyes. 15Only know for certain that, if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on its inhabitants; for of a truth YHWH has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears."

16Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets: "This man is not worthy of death; for he has spoken to us in the name of YHWH our God." 17Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, 18"Micah the Morashtite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, 'Thus says YHWH of hosts: "Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest."'[a] 19Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Did he not fear YHWH, and seek the favor of YHWH, and YHWH relented of the disaster which he had pronounced against them? Thus should we commit great evil against our own souls.

20"There was also a man who prophesied in the name of YHWH, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath Jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah. 21And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the officials, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt. 22And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt; 23and they fetched forth Uriah out of Egypt, and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people." 24But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

27 In the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah[b] the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word to Jeremiah from YHWH, saying, 2"Thus says YHWH to me: Make bonds and bars, and put them on your neck; 3and send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the people of Ammon, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah; 4and give them a command to their masters, saying, 'Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, You shall tell your masters: 5"I have made the earth, the men and the animals that are on the surface of the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm; and I give it to whom it seems right to me. 6Now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the animals of the field also have I given him to serve him. 7All the nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land come: and then many nations and great kings shall make him their bondservant. 8It shall happen, that the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, says YHWH, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. 9But as for you, do not listen to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreams, nor to your soothsayers, nor to your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon': 10for they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and you should perish. 11But the nation that shall bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, that nation will I let remain in their own land, says YHWH; and they shall till it, and dwell in it."'"

12I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, "Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. 13Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as YHWH has spoken concerning the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? 14Do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon'; for they prophesy a lie to you. 15'For I have not sent them,' says YHWH, 'but they prophesy falsely in my name; that I may drive you out, and that you may perish, you, and the prophets who prophesy to you.'"

16Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, "Thus says YHWH: 'Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, Look, the vessels of YHWH's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you. 17Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: why should this city become a desolation?' 18But if they are prophets and if the word of YHWH is with them, let them now make intercession with YHWH of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the YHWH, and in the house of the king of Judah and at Jerusalem may not go to Babylon. 19For thus says YHWH of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the rest of the vessels that are left in this city, 20which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; 21yes, thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that are left in the house of YHWH, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem: 22'They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be, until the day that I visit them,' says YHWH; 'then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.'"

28 It happened the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of YHWH, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, 2"Thus speaks YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, 'I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. 3Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of YHWH's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried to Babylon: 4and I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, who went to Babylon,' says YHWH; 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"

5Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of YHWH, 6even the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen: YHWH do so; YHWH perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring back the vessels of YHWH's house, and all them of the captivity, from Babylon to this place. 7Nevertheless hear you now this word that I speak in your ears, and in the ears of all the people: 8The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. 9The prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet shall happen, then shall the prophet be known, that YHWH has truly sent him."

10Then Hananiah the prophet took the bar from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and broke it. 11Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Thus says YHWH: 'Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon within two full years from off the neck of all the nations.'" The prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12Then the word of YHWH came to Jeremiah, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the bar from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13"Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, 'Thus says YHWH: You have broken the bars of wood; but you have made in their place bars of iron. 14For thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: "I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the animals of the field also."'" 15Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, "Hear now, Hananiah: YHWH has not sent you; but you make this people to trust in a lie. 16Therefore thus says YHWH, ‘Look, I will send you away from off the surface of the earth: this year you shall die, because you have spoken rebellion against YHWH.’” 17So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

29 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon, 2(after that Jeconiah the king, the queen mother, the eunuchs, the officials of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the metal workers, had departed from Jerusalem), 3by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), saying, 4“Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the captivity, whom I have caused to be carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon: 5’Build houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat their fruit. 6Take wives, and father sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; and multiply there, and do not be diminished. 7Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to YHWH for it; for in its peace you shall have peace.’ 8For thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Do not let your prophets who are in the midst of you, and your diviners, deceive you; neither listen to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed. 9For they prophesy falsely to you in my name: I have not sent them,’ says YHWH.

10“For thus says YHWH, ‘After seventy years are accomplished for Babylon, I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. 11For I know the plans that I have for you,’ says YHWH, ‘plans for your welfare, and not for calamity, to give you hope and a future. 12You shall call on me, and you shall go and pray to me, and I will listen to you. 13You shall seek me, and find me, when you shall search for me with all your heart. 14I will be found by you,’ says YHWH, ‘and I will turn again your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you,’ says YHWH; ‘and I will bring you again to the place from where I caused you to be carried away captive.’

15“Because you have said, ‘YHWH has raised us up prophets in Babylon’; 16thus says YHWH concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, and concerning all the people who dwell in this city, your brothers who haven’t gone forth with you into captivity; 17thus says YHWH of hosts; ‘Look, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that can't be eaten, they are so bad. 18I will pursue after them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations where I have driven them; 19because they have not listened to my words,' says YHWH, 'with which I sent to them my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but you would not hear,' says YHWH. 20'Hear therefore the word of YHWH, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.'

21"Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahiab[a] the son of Kolaiah,[b] and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah,[c] who prophesy a lie to you in my name: 'Look, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall kill them before your eyes; 22and of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captives of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, "YHWH make you like Zedekiah and like Ahiab,[d] whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire"; 23because they have worked folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I did not command them; and I am he who knows, and am witness,' says YHWH."

24"Concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite you shall speak, saying, 25'Thus speaks YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, "Because you have sent letters in your own name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying, 26'YHWH has made you priest in the place of Jehoiada the priest, that there may be officers in the house of YHWH, for every man who is mad, and makes himself a prophet, that you should put him in the stocks and in shackles. 27Now therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself a prophet to you, 28because he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, "The captivity is long: build houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat their fruit?"'"'

concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: “Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I did not send him, and he has caused you to trust in a lie; 32therefore,” thus says YHWH, “Look, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his offspring; he shall not have a man to dwell among this people, neither shall he see the good that I will do to my people, says YHWH, because he has spoken rebellion against YHWH.”’”

30 The word that came to Jeremiah from YHWH, saying, 2“Thus speaks YHWH, the God of Israel, saying, ‘Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a scroll. 3For, look, the days come, says YHWH, that I will turn again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah,’ says YHWH; ‘and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.’”

4These are the words that YHWH spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah. 5For thus says YHWH: “We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. 6Ask now, and see whether a man does travail with child: why do I see every man with his hands on his waist, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness? 7Alas, for that day is great, so that none is like it. It is even the time of Jacob’s trouble; but he shall be saved out of it. 8It shall come to pass in that day,” says YHWH of hosts, “that I will break his yoke from off your neck, and will burst your bonds; and strangers shall no more make him their bondservant; 9but they shall serve YHWH their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up to them. 10Therefore do not be afraid, O Jacob my servant, says YHWH; neither be dismayed, Israel: for, look, I will save you from afar, and your descendants from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. 11For I am with you, says YHWH, to save you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have scattered you, but I will not make a full end of you; but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished.” 12For thus says YHWH, “Your hurt is incurable, and your wound grievous. 13There is none to plead your cause, that you may be bound up: you have no healing medicines. 14All your lovers have forgotten you; they do not seek you: for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased. 15Why do you cry for your hurt? Your pain is incurable: for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased, I have done these things to you. 16Therefore all those who devour you shall be devoured; and all your adversaries, everyone of them, shall go into captivity; and those who plunder you shall be plundered, and all who prey on you I will make a prey. 17For I will restore health to you, and I will heal you of your wounds,” says YHWH; “because they have called you an outcast, saying, 'It is Zion, whom no man seeks after.'" [18]Thus says YHWH: "Look, I will turn again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have compassion on his dwelling places; and the city shall be built on its own hill, and the palace shall be inhabited in its own way. [19]Out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of those who make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small. [20]Their children also shall be as before, and their congregation shall be established before me; and I will punish all who oppress them. [21]Their prince shall be of themselves, and their ruler shall proceed from their midst; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach to me: for who is he who has had boldness to approach to me? says YHWH. [22]You shall be my people, and I will be your God. [23]Look, the storm of YHWH, his wrath, has gone forth, a sweeping storm: it shall burst on the head of the wicked. [24]The fierce anger of YHWH will not return, until he has executed, and until he has performed the intentions of his heart. In the latter days you will understand it.

31 "At that time," says YHWH, "will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people." [2]Thus says YHWH, "The people who were left of the sword found favor in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest. [3]YHWH appeared to him[a] from afar.[b] I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore with loving kindness have I drawn you. [4]Again will I build you, and you shall be built, O virgin of Israel: again you shall be adorned with your tambourines, and shall go forth in the dances of those who make merry. [5]Again you shall plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy its fruit. [6]For there shall be a day, that the watchmen on the hills of Ephraim shall cry, "Arise, and let us go up to Zion to YHWH our God."" [7]For thus says YHWH, "Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the chief of the nations: publish, praise, and say, 'For YHWH has saved[c] your people, the remnant of Israel.' [8]'Look, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the uttermost parts of the earth, along with the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her who travails with child together: a great company shall they return here. [9]They shall come with weeping; and with petitions will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by[d] rivers of waters, in a straight way in which they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.'" [10]Hear the word of YHWH, you nations, and declare it in the islands afar off; and say, "He who scattered

Israel will gather him, and keep him, as shepherd does his flock." 11For YHWH has ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he.

12They shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and they shall be radient over the goodness of YHWH, to the grain, and to the new wine, and to the oil, and to the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all. 13"Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow. 14I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness,"
says YHWH.
15Thus says YHWH: "A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and weeping and great[a] bitterness, Rachel weeping for her children;
she refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are no more."[b] 16Thus says YHWH:
"Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears; for your work shall be rewarded," says YHWH; "and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17There is hope for your latter end," says YHWH; "and your children shall come again to their own border. 18I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus,
'You have chastised me, and I was chastised, as an untrained calf: turn me, and I shall be turned; for you are YHWH my God. 19Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I struck on my thigh: I was ashamed, yes, even confounded, because I bore the reproach of my youth.' 20Is Ephraim my dear son? Is he a darling child? For as often as I speak against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my heart yearns for him; I will surely have mercy on him," says YHWH.

21"Set up road signs, make guideposts; set your heart toward the highway, even the way by which you went: turn again, virgin of Israel, turn again to these your cities. 22How long will you go here and there, you backsliding daughter? For YHWH has created a new thing in the earth: a woman shall encompass a man." 23Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, "Yet again shall they use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I shall bring again their captivity: 'YHWH bless you, habitation of righteousness, mountain of holiness.' 24Judah and all its cities shall dwell in it together, the farmers, and those who go about with flocks. 25For I have satisfied the weary soul, and I have filled every sorrowful soul."

[26]On this I awakened, and saw; and my sleep was sweet to me. [27]"Look, the days come, " says YHWH, "that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of animal. [28]It shall happen that, like as I have watched over them to pluck up and to break down and to overthrow and to destroy and to afflict, so will I watch over them to build and to plant," says YHWH. [29]"In those days they shall say no more, 'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge.' [30]But everyone shall die for his own iniquity: every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge. [31]Look, the days come," says YHWH, "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: [32]not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they broke, and I disregarded[a] them," says YHWH.[b] [33]"But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days," says YHWH: "I will put my law in their minds, and write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people: [34]and they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, 'Know YHWH'; for they shall all know me, from their least to their greatest,[c] for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sins I will remember no more." [35]Thus says YHWH, who gives the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar; YHWH of hosts is his name: [36]"If this fixed order departs from before me," says YHWH, "then the descendants of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me forever." [37]Thus says YHWH: "If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then will I also cast off all the descendants of Israel for all that they have done," says YHWH.

[38]"Look, the days come," says YHWH, "that the city shall be built to YHWH from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. [39]The measuring line shall go out further straight onward to the hill Gareb, and shall turn about to Goah. [40]The whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields to the Kidron Valley, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, shall be holy to YHWH; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more forever."

32 The word that came to Jeremiah from YHWH in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. 2Now at that time the king of Babylon's army was besieging Jerusalem; and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the king of Judah's house. 3For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, "Why do you prophesy, and say, 'Thus says YHWH, "Look, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; 4and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall see his eyes; 5and he shall bring Zedekiah to Babylon, and he shall be there until I visit him," says YHWH: "though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not prosper?"'"

6Jeremiah said, "The word of YHWH came to me, saying, 7'Look, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle shall come to you, saying, "Buy my field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is yours to buy it."' 8So Hanamel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the guard according to the word of YHWH, and said to me, "Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours; buy it for yourself.' Then I knew that this was the word of YHWH. 9I bought the field that was in Anathoth of Hanamel my uncle's son, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver. 10I subscribed the deed, and sealed it, and called witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances. 11So I took the deed of the purchase, both that which was sealed, containing the terms and conditions, and that which was open; 12and I delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my cousin, and in the presence of the witnesses who subscribed the deed of the purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the guard. 13I commanded Baruch before them, saying, 14'Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: "Take these deeds, this deed of the purchase which is sealed, and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel; that they may continue many days."' 15For thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Houses and fields and vineyards shall yet again be bought in this land.' 16Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to YHWH, saying, 17'Ah,[a] YHWH. Look, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm; there is nothing too hard for you, [18]who show loving kindness to thousands, and recompense the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them; the Great, the Mighty God,[a] YHWH of hosts is his name; [19]great in counsel, and mighty in work; whose eyes are open on all the ways of human beings, to give to each person according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. [20]You performed signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, and to this day in Israel and among all humankind, and have made a name for yourself to this day. [21]You brought forth your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror; [22]and gave them this land, which you swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey; [23]and they came in, and possessed it, but they did not obey your voice, neither walked in your law; they have done nothing of all that you commanded them to do: therefore you have caused all this evil to come on them. [24]Look, the mounds, they have come to the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence; and what you have spoken has happened; and look, you see it. [25]You have said to me, Lord YHWH, "Buy the field for money, and call witnesses"; whereas the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.'"

[26]Then came the word of YHWH to Jeremiah, saying, [27]"Look, I am YHWH, the God of all flesh: is there anything too difficult for me? [28]Therefore thus says YHWH: 'Look, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it: [29]and the Chaldeans, who fight against this city, shall come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses, on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger. [30]For the children of Israel and the people of Judah have done only that which was evil in my sight from their youth; for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, says YHWH. [31]For this city has been to me a provocation of my anger and of my wrath from the day that they built it even to this day; that I should remove it from before my face, [32]because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the people of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [33]They have turned to me the back, and not the face: and though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. 34But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.

[a]32:18 Hebrew "haEl haGadol haGibbor." Cf. Isaiah 9:6

35They built the high places of Baal, which are in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through fire to Molech; which I did not command them, neither did it come into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to
sin.'

36"Now therefore thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, concerning this city, about which you say, 'It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence': 37'Look, I will gather them out of all the countries, where I have driven them in my anger, and in my wrath, and in great indignation; and I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely: 38and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: 39and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their good, and of their children after them: 40and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from following them, to do them good; and I will put my fear in their hearts, that they may not depart from me. 41Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.'

42"For thus says YHWH: 'Just as I have brought all this great disaster on this people, so will I bring on them all the good that I have promised them. 43Fields shall be bought in this land, about which you say, "It is desolate, without man or animal; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans." 44Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe the deeds, and seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the hill country, and in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the Negev: for I will cause their captivity to return,' says YHWH."

33 Moreover the word of YHWH came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the guard, saying, 2"Thus says YHWH who made the earth, and[a] who formed it to establish it; YHWH is his name: 3'Call to me, and I will answer you, and will show you great and hidden things, which you do not know.' 4For thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to make a defense against the mounds and against the abundance of peace and truth. [7]I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first.

[8]I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, by which they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, by which they have

[10]"Thus says YHWH: 'Yet and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and

YHWH, 'that I will perform that concerning the house of Judah. [15]In those days, and at that time, will I cause a Branch of righteousness to execute justice and righteousness in the land. [16]In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely; and this is the name by which she shall be called:

"YHWH our righteousness."[a] [17]For thus says YHWH: "David shall never want a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel; [18]neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to burn meal offerings, and to do sacrifice continually."'"

to Jeremiah, saying, 20"Thus says YHWH: 'If you can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, so that there season; 21then may also my Levites the priests, my ministers.

22As the host of heaven can't be the Levites who minister to me.'"

23The word of YHWH came to Jeremiah, saying, 24"Do not consider what this people has spoken, saying, 'The two families which YHWH chose, he has cast them off?' Thus do they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. 25Thus says YHWH: 'If my covenant of day and night fails, if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; 26then will I also cast away the descendants of Jacob, and of David my servant, so that I will not take of his descendants to be rulers over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and will have mercy on them.'"

34 The word which came to Jeremiah
from YHWH, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his dominion, and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of it, saying: 2"Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, 'Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, "Thus says YHWH, 'Look, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: 3and you shall not escape out of his hand, but shall surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and your eyes shall see the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with you mouth to mouth, and you shall go to Babylon.' 4Yet hear the word of YHWH, O Zedekiah king of Judah: thus says YHWH concerning you,
'You shall not die by the sword; 5you shall die in peace; and with the burnings of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so shall they make a burning for you; and they shall lament you, saying, "Ah Lord." for I have spoken the word,'
says YHWH."'"

6Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, 7when the king of Babylon's army was fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these alone remained of the cities of Judah as fortified cities.

8The word that came to Jeremiah from YHWH, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them; 9that every man should let his male servant, and every man his female servant, who is a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, go free; that none should keep a fellow Judean in bondage.

10And all the officials and all the people obeyed, who had entered into the covenant, that everyone should let his male servant, and everyone his female servant, go free, that none should make bondservants of them any more; they obeyed, and let them go: 11but afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids. 12Therefore the word of YHWH came to Jeremiah from YHWH, saying, 13"Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel: 'I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, 14"At the end of seven years you shall let go every man his brother who is a Hebrew, who has been sold to you, and has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you": but your fathers did not listen to me, neither inclined their ear. 15You had now turned, and had done that which is right in my eyes, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbor; and you had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name: 16but you turned and profaned my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom you had let go free at their pleasure, to return; and you brought them into subjection, to be to you for servants and for handmaids.
17Therefore thus says YHWH: "You have not listened to me, to proclaim liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his neighbor:
look, I proclaim to you a liberty, says YHWH, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth. 18I will give the men who have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts; 19the officials of Judah, and the officials of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf; 20I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life; and their dead bodies shall be for food to the birds of the sky, and to the animals of the earth.
21And Zedekiah king of Judah and his officials will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, who have gone away from you. 22Look, I will command, says YHWH, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant."'"

35 The word which
came to Jeremiah
from YHWH in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, 2"Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into the house of YHWH, into one of the rooms, and give them wine to drink." [3]Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites. [4]And I brought them into the house of YHWH, into the room of the sons of Hananiah son of Gedaliah,[a] the man of God, which was by the room of the officials, which was above the room of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the threshold. [5]I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, "Drink wine." [6]But they said, "We will drink no wine; for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, 'You shall drink no wine, neither you, nor your sons, forever: [7]neither shall you build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any; but all your days you shall dwell in tents; that you may live many days in the land in which you live.' [8]We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters; [9]nor to build houses for us to dwell in; neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: [10]but we have lived in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. [11]But it happened, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, 'Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Arameans'; so we dwell at Jerusalem."

[12]Then came the word of YHWH to Jeremiah, saying, [13]"Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Go, and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, "Will you not receive instruction to listen to my words?" says YHWH. [14]"The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; and to this day they drink none, for they obey their father's commandment: but I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; and you have not listened to me. [15]I have sent also to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, 'Return now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and you shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers': but you have not inclined your ear, nor listened to me. [16]Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not listened to me; [17]therefore thus says YHWH, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Look, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the disaster that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them, but they have not listened; and I have called to them, but they have not answered.'"""

18 Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, "Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he commanded you'; 19 therefore thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me forever.'"

36 It happened in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from YHWH, saying, 2 "Take a scroll, and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day. 3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do to them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin."

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of YHWH, which he had spoken to him, on a scroll. 5 Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, "I am shut up; I can't go into the house of YHWH: 6 therefore you go, and read from the scroll, which you have written from my mouth, the words of YHWH in the ears of the people in YHWH's house on the fast day; and also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah who come out of their cities. 7 It may be they will present their petition before YHWH, and will return everyone from his evil way; for great is the anger and the wrath that YHWH has pronounced against this people."

8 Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading from the scroll the words of YHWH in YHWH's house. 9 Now it happened in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before YHWH. 10 Then Baruch read from the scroll the words of Jeremiah in the house of YHWH, in the room of Gemariah the son of Shaphan, the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the New Gate of YHWH's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard from the scroll all the words of YHWH, 12 he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's room: and look, all the officials were sitting there, Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the officials. 13Then Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the scroll in the hearing of the people. 14Therefore all the officials sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Take in your hand the scroll in which you have read in the ears of the people, and come." So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand, and came to them. 15They said to him, "Sit down now, and read it in our ears." So Baruch read it in their ears. 16Now it happened, when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said to Baruch, "We will surely tell the king of all these words." 17They asked Baruch, saying, "Tell us now, How did you write all these words at his mouth?" 18Then Baruch answered them, "He pronounced all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink on the scroll." 19Then the officials said to Baruch, "Go, hide, you and Jeremiah; and let no man know where you are."

27Then the word of YHWH came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the scroll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, 28"Take again another scroll, and write on it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. 29Concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you shall say, 'Thus says YHWH: "You have burned this scroll, saying, 'Why have you written in it, saying, "The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from there man and animal?"'" 30Therefore thus says YHWH concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: "He shall have none to sit on the throne of David; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. 31I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring on them, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they did not listen.”’”

32Then Jeremiah took another scroll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote on it at the instruction of Jeremiah all the words of the scroll which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and there were added besides to them many like words.

37 Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. 2But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, listened to the words of YHWH, which he spoke by the prophet Jeremiah.

3Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, “Pray now to YHWH our God for us.”

4Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison. 5Pharaoh’s army had come forth out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they broke up from Jerusalem. 6Then came the word of YHWH to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 7”Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, ‘You shall tell the king of Judah, who sent you to me to inquire of me: “Look, Pharaoh’s army, which has come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. 8The Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city; and they shall take it, and burn it with fire.” 9Thus says YHWH, “Do not deceive yourselves, saying, ‘The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us’; for they shall not depart. 10For though you had struck the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yes would they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.”’”

11It happened that, when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh’s army, 12then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive his portion there, in the midst of the people. 13When he was in the Benjamin Gate, a captain of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah,[a] the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he laid hold on Jeremiah the prophet, saying, “You are falling away to the Chaldeans.” 14Then Jeremiah said, “It is false; I am not falling away to the Chaldeans.” But he did not listen to him; so Irijah laid hold on Jeremiah, and brought him to the officials. 15And the officials were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

16When Jeremiah had come into the dungeon house, and into the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; 17Then Zedekiah the king sent, and fetched him: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, "Is there any word from YHWH?" Jeremiah said, "There is." He said also, "You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon." 18Moreover Jeremiah said to king Zedekiah, "Wherein have I sinned against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison? 19Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? 20Now please hear, my lord the king: please let my petition be presented before you, that you not cause me to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there." 21Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard; and they gave him daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

38 Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchijah, heard the words that Jeremiah spoke to all the people, saying, 2"Thus says YHWH, 'He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes forth to the Chaldeans shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey, and he shall live.' 3Thus says YHWH, 'This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it.'" 4Then the officials said to the king, "Please let this man be put to death; because he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them: for this man doesn't seek the welfare of this people, but the hurt." 5Zedekiah the king said, "Look, he is in your hand; for the king is not he who can do anything against you." 6Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malkiah the king's son, that was in the court of the guard: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. In the dungeon there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah sank in the mire. 7Now when Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon (the king then sitting in the Benjamin Gate), 8Ebedmelech went forth out of the king's house, and spoke to the king, saying, 9"My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is likely to die in the place where he is, because of the famine; for there is no more bread in the city." [10]Then the king commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, "Take from here thirty men with you, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he dies." [11]So Ebedmelech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took there rags and worn-out garments, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. [12]Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Put now these rags and worn-out garments under your armpits under the cords." Jeremiah did so. [13]So they drew up Jeremiah with the cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

[14]Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet to him into the third entry that is in the house of YHWH: and the king said to Jeremiah, "I will ask you something. Hide nothing from me." [15]Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me." [16]So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, "As YHWH lives, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life."

[17]Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Thus says YHWH, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'If you will go forth to the king of Babylon's officiers, then your soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and you shall live, and your house. [18]But if you will not go forth to the king of Babylon's officiers, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape out of their hand.'" [19]Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who are fallen away to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me." [20]But Jeremiah said, "They shall not deliver you. Obey, I beg you, the voice of YHWH, in that which I speak to you: so it shall be well with you, and your soul shall live. [21]But if you refuse to go forth, this is the word that YHWH has shown me: [22]look, all the women who are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's officers, and those women shall say, 'Your familiar friends have set you on, and have prevailed over you. Your feet are sunk in the mire, they have turned away back.' [23]They shall bring out all your wives and your children to the Chaldeans; and you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and you shall cause this city to be burned with fire."

[24]Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Let no man know of these words, and you shall not die. [25]But if the officials hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you, and tell you, 'Declare to us now what you have said to the king; do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death; also what the king said to you': [26]then you shall tell them, 'I presented my petition before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.'"

27Then all the officials came to Jeremiah, and asked him; and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived. 28So Jeremiah stayed in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

39 It happened when Jerusalem was taken, (in the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and besieged it; 2in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city). 3Then all the officials of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the Middle Gate, Nergal-sar-ezer of Samgar, Nebu-sar-sekim the Rab-saris, Nergal-sar-ezer the Rab-mag, with all the rest of the officers of the king of Babylon. 4It happened that, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls; and he went out toward the Arabah. 5But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him. 6Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon killed all the nobles of Judah. 7Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. 8The Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. 9Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the residue of the people who remained in the city, the deserters also who fell away to him, and the residue of the people who remained. 10But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

11Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon commanded Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard concerning Jeremiah, saying, 12"Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do to him even as he shall tell you." 13So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushazban the Rab-saris, Nergal-sar-ezer the Rab-mag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon; 14they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he lived among the people.

15Now the word of YHWH came to Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the guard, saying, 16"Go, and speak to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying,
'Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: "Look, I will bring my words on this city for disaster, and not for prosperity; and they shall be fulfilled before you in that day.
17But I will deliver you in that day, says YHWH; and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. 18For I will surely save you, and you shall not fall by the sword, but your life will be given to you as a reward; because you have put your trust in
me,"' says YHWH."

40 The word which came to Jeremiah
from YHWH, after that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon. 2The captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said to him, "YHWH your God pronounced this evil on this place; 3and YHWH has brought it, and done according as he spoke: because you have sinned against YHWH, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing has come on you. 4Now, look, I release you this day from the chains which are on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will take care of you; but if it seems bad to you to come with me into Babylon, do not: look, all the land is before you; where it seems good and right to you to go, there go." 5Now while he had not yet gone back, "Go back then," he said, "to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wherever it seems right to you to go." So the captain of the guard gave him food and a present, and let him go. 6Then went Jeremiah to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and lived with him among the people who were left in the land.

7Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, and women, and children, and of the poorest of the land, of those who were not carried away captive to Babylon; 8then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men.
9Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying, "Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. 10As for me, look, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans who shall come to us: but you, gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken."

11 Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab, and among the people of Ammon, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; 12 then all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

13 Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 and said to him, "Do you know that Baalis[a] the king of the people of Ammon has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your life?" But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them. 15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, "Please let me go, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: why should he take your life, that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish?" 16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, "You shall not do this thing; for you speak falsely of Ishmael."

41 Now it happened in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family and one of the chief officers of the king, and ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they ate bread together in Mizpah. 2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him, and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and killed him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. 3 Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with him, with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war. 4 It happened the second day after he had killed Gedaliah, and no man knew it, 5 that there came men from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even eighty men, having their beards shaved and their clothes torn, and having cut themselves, with meal offerings and frankincense in their hand, to bring them to the house of YHWH. 6 Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it happened, as he met them, he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam." 7 It was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah killed them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men who were with him. 8But ten men were found among those who said to Ishmael, "Do not kill us; for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he stopped, and did not kill them among their brothers. 9Now the pit in which Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had killed was a large one[a] that King Asa had constructed in the encounter with Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with those who were killed. 10Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people who were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the people of Ammon.

11But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 12then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. 13Now it happened that, when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, then they were glad. 14So all the people who Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. 15But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the people of Ammon.

16Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon: 17and they departed, and lived in Geruth Kimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt, 18because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.

42 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah,[b] and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near, 2and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Please let our petition be presented before you, and pray for us to YHWH your God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes do see us: [3]that YHWH your God may show us the way in which we should walk, and the thing that we should do." [4]Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard you; look, I will pray to YHWH your God according to your words; and it shall happen that whatever thing YHWH shall answer you, I will declare it to you; I will keep nothing back from you." [5]Then they said to Jeremiah, "YHWH be a true and faithful witness among us, if we do not do according to all the word with which YHWH your God shall send you to us. [6]Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of YHWH our God, to whom we send you; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of YHWH our God."

[7]It happened after ten days, that the word of YHWH came to Jeremiah. [8]Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, [9]and said to them, "Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition before him: [10]'If you will still live in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I grieve over the distress that I have brought on you. [11]Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; do not be afraid of him, says YHWH: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. [12]I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy on you, and cause you to return to your own land.' [13]But if you say, 'We will not dwell in this land'; so that you do not obey the voice of YHWH your God, [14]saying, 'No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell': [15]now therefore hear the word of YHWH, O remnant of Judah: Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, 'If you indeed set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to live there; [16]then it shall happen, that the sword, which you fear, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, about which you are afraid, shall follow close behind you there in Egypt; and there you shall die. [17]So shall it be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to live there: they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring on them.' [18]For thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: 'As my anger and my wrath has been poured forth on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so shall my wrath be poured forth on you, when you shall enter into Egypt; and you shall be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more.' [19]YHWH has spoken concerning you, remnant of Judah, 'Do not go into Egypt': know certainly that I have testified to you this day. [20]For you have dealt deceitfully against your own souls; for you sent me to YHWH your God, saying, 'Pray for us to YHWH our God; and according to all that YHWH our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it': [21]and I have this day declared it to you; but you have not obeyed the voice of YHWH your God in anything for which he has sent me to you. [22]Now therefore know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place where you desire to go to live there."

43 It happened that, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking to all the people all the words of YHWH their God, with which YHWH their God had sent him to them, even all these words, [2]then spoke Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying to Jeremiah, "You speak falsely. YHWH our God has not sent you to say, 'You shall not go into Egypt to live there'; [3]but Baruch the son of Neriah[a] sets you on against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death, and carry us away captive to Babylon." [4]So Johanan the son of Kareah,[b] and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, did not obey the voice of YHWH, to dwell in the land of Judah. [5]But Johanan the son of Kareah,[c] and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, who were returned from all the nations where they had been driven, to live in the land of Judah; [6]the men, and the women, and the children, and the king's daughters, and every person who Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard[d] had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan;[e] and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah; [7]and they came into the land of Egypt; for they did not obey the voice of YHWH: and they came to Tahpanhes.

[8]Then came the word of YHWH to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, [9]"Take great stones in your hand, and hide them in mortar in the brick work, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah; [10]and tell them, 'Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: "Look, I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne on these stones that I have hidden; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. [11]He shall come, and shall strike the land of Egypt; such as are for death shall be put to death, and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword to the sword. [12]I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captive: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment; and he shall go forth from there in peace. 13He shall also break the pillars of Beth Shemesh,[a] that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt shall he burn with fire.”’”

44 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who lived in the land of Egypt, who lived at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Memphis, and in the country of Pathros, saying, 2”Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘You have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah; and look, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwells in them, 3because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, to serve other gods, that they did not know, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. 4However I sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ‘Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate.’ 5But they did not listen, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods. 6Therefore my wrath and my anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is this day.’ 7Therefore now thus says YHWH, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Why do you commit great evil against your own souls, to cut off from yourselves man and woman, infant and nursing child out of the midst of Judah, to leave yourselves none remaining; 8in that you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to live; that you may be cut off, and that you may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? 9Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives which they committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? 10They are not humbled even to this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.’ 11Therefore thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Look, I will set my face against you for evil, even to cut off all Judah. 12I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to live there, and they shall all be consumed; in the land of Egypt shall they fall; they shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine; they shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be an object of horror, an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. 13For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as

I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; 14so that none of the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall escape or be left, to return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return save such as shall escape.'"

15Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, even all the people who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, 16"As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of YHWH, we will not listen to you. 17But we will certainly perform every word that is gone forth out of our mouth, to burn incense to the queen of heaven,[a] and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our leaders, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then had we plenty of food, and were well, and saw no evil. 18But since we left off burning incense to the queen of heaven, and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine." 19And the woman said,[b] "When we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her, without our husbands?"

20Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men, and to the women, even to all the people who had given him an answer, saying, 21"The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your leaders, and the people of the land. Did not YHWH remember them, and did not it come into his mind, 22so that YHWH could no longer bear because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which you have committed? Therefore your land has become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day. 23Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against YHWH, and have not obeyed the voice of YHWH, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil has happened to you, as it is this day."

24Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people, and to all the women, "Hear the word of YHWH, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt: 25Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, 'You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have fulfilled it, saying, "We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the [26]Therefore hear the word of YHWH, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: 'Look, I have sworn by my great name,' says YHWH, 'that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, "As[a] YHWH lives." [27]Look, I watch over them for disaster, and not for good; and all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until they are all gone. [28]Those who escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall know whose word shall stand, mine, or theirs. [29]This shall be the sign to you,' says YHWH, 'that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil': [30]Thus says YHWH, 'Look, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy, and sought his life.'"

45 The message that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a scroll at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, [2]"Thus says YHWH, the God of Israel, to you, Baruch: [3]'You said, "Woe is me now. For YHWH has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest."'"

[4]"You shall tell him, 'Thus says YHWH: "Look, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up; and this in the whole land. [5]Do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for, look, I will bring disaster on all flesh, says YHWH; but your life will I give to you for a reward in all places where you go."'"

46 The word of YHWH came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations. [2]Of Egypt: concerning the army of Pharaoh Necoh king of Egypt, which was by the river Perath in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah. have fled in haste, and do not look back: terror is on every side," says YHWH. 6"Do not let the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; in the north by the river Perath have they stumbled and fallen. 7Who is this who rises up like the Nile, whose waters toss themselves like the rivers? 8Egypt rises up like the Nile, and his waters toss themselves like the rivers: and he says, 'I will rise up, I will cover the earth; I will destroy cities and its inhabitants.' 9Go up, you horses; and rage, you chariots; and let the mighty men go forth: Cush and Put, who handle the shield; and the Ludim, who handle and bend the bow. 10For that day is of the Lord[a] YHWH of hosts,[b] a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour and be satiate, and shall drink its fill of their blood; for the Lord[c] YHWH of hosts[d] has a sacrifice in the north country by the river Perath. 11Go up into Gilead, and take balm, virgin daughter of Egypt: in vain do you use many medicines; there is no healing for you. 12The nations have heard of your shame, and the earth is full of your cry; for the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty, they are fallen both of them together."

13The word that YHWH spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon should come and strike the land of Egypt. 14"Declare in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Memphis and i n Tahpanhes: say,
'Stand forth, and prepare; for the sword has devoured around you.' 15Why are your strong ones swept away? They did not stand, because YHWH pushed them. 16He made many to stumble, yes, they fell one on another: and they said, 'Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our birth, from the oppressing sword.' 17They cried there, 'Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he has let the appointed time pass by.'"

18"As I live," says the King, "whose name is YHWH of hosts, surely like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea, so shall he come. 19You daughter who dwells in Egypt, furnish yourself to go into captivity; for Memphis shall become a desolation, and shall be burnt up, without inhabitant.
20Egypt is a very beautiful heifer; but a horsefly from the north is coming against her. 21Also her hired men in the midst of her are like calves of the stall; for they also are turned back, they are fled away together, they did not stand: for the day of their calamity has come on them, the time of their visitation.
22The sound of it shall go like the serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as wood cutters. 23They shall cut down her forest, says YHWH, though it can't be searched; because they are more than the locusts, and are innumerable. 24The daughter of Egypt shall be disappointed; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north."

25"YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Look, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods, and her kings; even Pharaoh, and those who trust in him: 26and I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants; and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old,' says YHWH. 27'But do not be afraid, Jacob my servant, neither be dismayed, Israel: for, look, I will save you from afar, and your descendants from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. 28Do not be afraid, O Jacob my servant,' says YHWH; 'for I am with you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have driven you; but I will not make a full end of you, but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished.'"

47 The word of YHWH that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before that Pharaoh struck Gaza. 2"Thus says YHWH: 'Look, waters rise up out of the north, and shall become an overflowing stream, and shall overflow the land and all that is in it, the city and those who dwell in it; and the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall wail. 3At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong ones, at the rushing of his chariots, at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers do not look back to their children for feebleness of hands; 4because of the day that comes to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off[a] from Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains: for YHWH will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the isle of Caphtor. 5Baldness has come on Gaza; Ashkelon is brought to nothing, the remnant of their valley: how long will you cut yourself? 6You sword of YHWH, "how long will it be before you be quiet? Put yourself into your sheath; rest, and be still." 7How can it[b] be quiet, since YHWH has given you a command? Against Ashkelon, and against the seashore, there has he appointed it.'"

48 Of Moab. "Thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Woe to Woe to Nebo, because it is about to be destroyed; Kiriathaim will be put to shame, it will be taken captive. The fortress is put to shame and broken down. 2The praise of Moab is no more; in Heshbon they have devised evil against her: "Come, and let us cut her off from being a nation." You also, Madmen, shall be brought to silence: the sword shall pursue you. 3The sound of a cry from Horonaim, "destruction and great calamity." 4Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. 5For by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping shall they go up; for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction. 6"Flee, save your lives, and be like a shrub in the wilderness." 7For, because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you also shall be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity, his priests and his officials together. 8The destroyer shall come on every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed; as YHWH has spoken.

9Give wings to Moab, that she may fly and get her away: and her cities shall become a desolation, without any to dwell in them.' 10Cursed is he who does the work of YHWH negligently; and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood.
11'Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his lees, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed. 12Therefore look, the days come,' says YHWH, 'that I will send to him those who pour off, and they shall pour him off; and they shall empty his[a] vessels, and break their bottles in pieces. 13Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence. 14How can you say, "We are mighty men, and valiant men for the war?" 15Moab is laid waste, and they are gone up into his cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter,' says the King, whose name is YHWH of hosts. 16The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hurries fast. 17All you who are around him, bemoan him, and all you who know his name; say, "How is the strong staff broken, the beautiful rod." 18You daughter who dwells in Dibon, come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the destroyer of Moab has come up against you, he has destroyed your strongholds.

way, and watch: ask him who flees, has been done?" 20"Moab is disappointed; for it is broken down: wail and cry; tell it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste." 21Judgment has come on the plain and on Beth Gamul, and on Beth Meon, 24and on Kerioth, and on Bozrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. 25The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken,' says YHWH. 26'Make him drunk; for he magnified himself against YHWH: and Moab shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision. 27For wasn't Israel a derision to you?

Was he found among thieves? For as often as you speak of him, you shake your head. 28You inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock; and be like the dove that makes her nest over the mouth of the abyss. 29We have heard of the pride of Moab--he is very proud--of his pride, and his vanity, and his arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart. 30I know his wrath,' says YHWH, 'that it is nothing; his boastings have worked nothing. 31Therefore I will wail for Moab; yes, I will cry out for all Moab; I will mourn for the men of Kir Heres.[a] 32With more than the weeping of Jazer will I weep for you, vine of Sibmah: your branches passed over the sea, they reached even to[b] Jazer; on your summer fruits and on your vintage the destroyer is fallen. 33Gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to cease from the wine presses: none shall tread with shouting; the shouting shall be no shouting. 34From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Jahaz have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim, to Eglath Shelishiyah: for the waters of Nimrim also shall become desolate. 35And I will cause to cease in Moab,' says YHWH, 'the one who offers sacrifice[c] upon the[d] high place, and the one who burns incense to his gods. 36Therefore my heart sounds for Moab like pipes, and my heart sounds like pipes for the men of Kir Heres: therefore the abundance that he has gotten is perished. 37For every head is bald, and every beard clipped: on all the hands are cuttings, and on the waist sackcloth. 38On all the housetops of Moab and in its streets there is lamentation every where; for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which none delights,' says YHWH. 39How it is broken down. How they wail. How Moab has turned the back with shame. So shall Moab become a derision and a terror to all who are around him.' 40For thus says YHWH: 'Look, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread out his wings against Moab. 41Kerioth is taken, and the strongholds are seized, and the heart of the mighty men of Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. 42Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against YHWH. 43Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are on you, inhabitant of Moab, says YHWH. 44He who flees from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he who gets up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring on him, even on Moab, the year of their visitation,' says YHWH.

45'Those who fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon; for a fire has gone forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the city[a] of Sihon, and it has destroyed the forehead of Moab, and the crown of the sons of tumult.
46Woe to you, O Moab. The people of Chemosh is undone; for your sons are taken away captive, and your daughters into captivity. 47Yet will I bring back the captivity of Moab in the latter days,' says YHWH. Thus far is the judgment of Moab."

49 Of the people of Ammon. "Thus says
YHWH: 'Has Israel
no sons? Has he no heir? Why then does Milcom possess Gad, and his people dwell in its cities?
2Therefore look, the days come,' says YHWH, 'that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the people of Ammon;
and it shall become a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel possess those who possessed him,' says YHWH. 3'Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste; cry, you daughters of Rabbah, clothe yourself in sackcloth: lament, and run back and forth among the fences; for Milcom shall go into captivity, his priests and his officials together. 4Why do you glory in the valleys, your flowing valley, backsliding daughter? You who trusted in her treasures, saying,[b] "Who shall come to me?" 5Look, I will bring a fear on you,' says[c] YHWH of hosts, 'from all who are around you; and you shall be driven out every man right forth, and there shall be none to gather together the fugitives.
6But afterward I will bring back the captivity of the people of Ammon,'
says YHWH."

7Of Edom. "Thus says YHWH of hosts: 'Is wisdom no more in Teman? Is counsel perished from the prudent? Is their wisdom vanished? 8Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau on him, the time that I shall visit him. 9If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? If thieves by night, wouldn't they destroy until they had enough? 10But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is destroyed, and his brothers, and his neighbors; and he is no more.
11Leave your fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let your widows trust in me.' 12For thus says YHWH: 'Look, they to whom it did not pertain to drink of the cup shall certainly drink; and are you he who shall altogether go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink. 13For I have sworn by myself,' says YHWH, 'that Bozrah shall become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all its cities shall be perpetual wastes.'"

14I have heard news from YHWH, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, "Gather yourselves together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle."

15"For, look, I have made you small among the nations, and despised among men. 16As for your terror, the pride of your heart has deceived you, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill: though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there," says YHWH. 17"Edom shall become an astonishment: everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all its plagues. 18As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities of it," says YHWH, "no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man live in it. 19Look, he shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me? And who will appoint me a time? And who is the shepherd who will stand before me? 20Therefore hear the counsel of YHWH, that he has taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely they shall drag them away, the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them. 21The earth trembles at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise which is heard in the Red Sea. 22Look, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out his wings against Bozrah: and the heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs."

23Of Damascus. "Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil news, they are melted away: there is sorrow on the sea; it can't be quiet. 24Damascus has grown feeble, she turns herself to flee, and trembling has seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail. 25How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of my joy? 26Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be brought to silence in that day," says YHWH of hosts. 27"I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben Hadad."

dwell in the depths, you inhabitants of Hazor," says YHWH; "for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you, and has conceived a purpose against you." 31"Arise, go up to a nation that is at ease, that dwells without care, says YHWH; that have neither gates nor bars, that dwell alone. 32Their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their livestock a spoil: and I will scatter to all winds those who have the corners of their beards cut off; and I will bring their calamity from every side of them," says YHWH. 33"Hazor shall be a dwelling place of jackals, a desolation forever: no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man live in it."

34The word of YHWH that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, 35"Thus says YHWH of hosts: 'Look, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. 36On Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of the sky, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation where the outcasts of Elam shall not come. 37I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before those who seek their life; and I will bring evil on them, even my fierce anger,' says YHWH; 'and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them; 38and I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from there king and officials,' says YHWH. 39'But it shall happen in the latter days, that I will bring back the captivity of Elam,' says YHWH."

50 The word that YHWH spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet. 2"Declare among the nations and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and do not conceal: say, 'Babylon is taken, Bel is disappointed, Marduk is dismayed; her images are disappointed, her idols are dismayed. 3For out of the north there comes up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell in it: they are fled, they are gone, both man and animal. 4In those days, and in that time,' says YHWH, 'the children of Israel shall come, they and the people of Judah together; they shall go on their way weeping, and shall seek YHWH their God. 5They shall inquire concerning Zion with their faces turned toward it. They will come and join themselves to YHWH in an everlasting covenant that shall not be forgotten. 6My people have been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray; they have turned them away on the mountains; they have gone from mountain to hill; they have forgotten their resting place. 7All who found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, "We are not guilty, because they have sinned against YHWH, the habitation of righteousness, even YHWH, the hope of their fathers." 8Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the male goats before the flocks. [9]For, look, I will stir up and cause to come up against Babylon a company of great nations from the north country; and they shall set themselves in array against her; from there she shall be taken. Their arrows shall be like a skilled warrior who does not return empty-handed. [10]Chaldea shall be a prey: all who prey on her shall be satisfied,' says YHWH.' [11]Because you are glad, because you rejoice, O you who plunder my heritage, because you are wanton as a heifer that treads out the grain, and neigh as strong horses; [12]your mother shall be utterly disappointed; she who bore you shall be confounded: look, she shall be the least of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. [13]Because of the wrath of YHWH she shall not be inhabited, but she shall be wholly desolate: everyone who goes by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. [14]"Set yourselves in array against Babylon all around, all you who bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she has sinned against YHWH. [15]Shout against her all around: she has submitted herself; her towers are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of YHWH: take vengeance on her; as she has done, do to her. [16]Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him who handles the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn everyone to his people, and they shall flee everyone to his own land."'

[17]'Israel is a hunted sheep; the lions have driven him away: first, the king of Assyria devoured him; and now at last Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones. [18]Therefore thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: "Look, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. [19]I will bring Israel again to his pasture, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead. [20]In those days, and in that time, says YHWH, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant."'"

[21]"Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: kill and utterly destroy after them," says YHWH, "and do according to all that I have commanded you. [22]A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. [23]How is the hammer of the whole earth cut apart and broken. How is Babylon become a desolation among the nations. [24]I have laid a snare for you, and you are also taken, Babylon, and you weren't aware: you are found, and also caught, because you have striven against YHWH. [25]YHWH has opened his armory, and has brought forth the weapons of his indignation; for the Lord, YHWH of hosts, has a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans. [26]Come against her from the utmost border; open her storehouses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly; let nothing of her be left. [27]Kill all her bulls; let them go down to the slaughter. Woe to them, for their day has come, the time of their visitation."

[28]The voice of those who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of YHWH our God, the vengeance of his temple. [29]"Call together the archers against Babylon, all those who bend the bow; camp against her all around; let none of it escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she has done, do to her; for she has been proud against YHWH, against the Holy One of Israel. [30]Therefore her young men will fall in her streets, and all her men of war will be brought to silence in that day," says YHWH. [31]"Look, I am against you, you proud one," says Lord YHWH of hosts; for your day has come, the time that I will visit you. [32]The proud one shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up; and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all who are around him."

[33]Thus says YHWH of hosts: "The children of Israel and the people of Judah are oppressed together; and all who took them captive hold them fast; they refuse to let them go. [34]Their Redeemer is strong; YHWH of hosts is his name: he will thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. [35]A sword is on the Chaldeans," says YHWH, "and on the inhabitants of Babylon, and on her officials, and on her wise men. [36]A sword is on the boasters, and they shall become fools; a sword is on her mighty men, and they shall be dismayed. [37]A sword is on their horses, and on their chariots, and on all the mixed people who are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is on her treasures, and they shall be robbed. [38]A drought is on her waters, and they shall be dried up; for it is a land of engraved images, and they glory over idols. [39]Therefore the wild animals of the desert with the wolves shall dwell there, and the ostriches shall dwell in it: and it shall be no more inhabited forever; neither shall it be lived in from generation to generation. [40]As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities of it," says YHWH, "so shall no man dwell there, neither shall any son of man live in it."

[41]"Look, a people comes from the north; and a great nation and many kings shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. [42]They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea; and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Babylon. [43]The king of Babylon has heard the news of them, and his hands wax feeble: anguish has taken hold of him, pains as of a woman in labor. [44]Look, the enemy shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me? And who will appoint me a time? And who is the shepherd who can stand before me?"

45Therefore hear the counsel of YHWH, that he has taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: "Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them. 46At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles, and the cry is heard among the nations."

51 Thus says YHWH: "Look, I will raise up against Babylon, and against those who dwell in Lebkamai, a destroying wind. 2I will send to Babylon foreigners who shall winnow her; and they shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her around. 3Do not let him who bends the bow bend it; nor not let him rise up in his armor. And do not spare her young men; utterly destroy her entire army. 4They shall fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and thrust through in her streets.

5"For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah, of his God, of YHWH of hosts; though their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel. 6Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and save every man his life; do not be cut off in her iniquity: for it is the time of YHWH's vengeance; he will render to her a recompense. 7Babylon has been a golden cup in YHWH's hand, who made all the earth drunk: the nations have drunk of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. 8Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: wail for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. 9'We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go everyone into his own country; for her judgment reaches to heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.' 10'YHWH has brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of YHWH our God.'

11Make sharp the arrows; hold firm the shields: YHWH has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes; because his purpose is against Babylon, to destroy it: for it is the vengeance of YHWH, the vengeance of his temple. 12Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set the watchmen, prepare the ambushes; for YHWH has both purposed and done that which he spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon. 13You who dwell on many waters, abundant in treasures, your end has come, the measure of your covetousness. 14YHWH of hosts has sworn by himself, saying, "Surely I will fill you with men, as with the canker worm; and they shall lift up a shout against you." 15He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens.

16When he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the farthest parts of the earth; he makes lightning for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of his treasuries. 17Every man has become brutish without knowledge. Every goldsmith is disappointed by his image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. 18They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. 19The portion of Jacob is not like these, for he is the maker of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; YHWH of hosts is his name. 20"You are my battle axe and weapons of war: and with you will I break in pieces the nations; and with you will I destroy kingdoms; 21and with you will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with you will I break in pieces the chariot and its rider. 22And with you will I break in pieces man and woman; and with you will I break in pieces the old man and the youth; and with you will I break in pieces the young man and the virgin; 23and with you will I break in pieces the shepherd and his flock; and with you will I break in pieces the farmer and his yoke; and with you will I break in pieces governors and deputies. 24I will render to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight," says YHWH. 25"Look, I am against you, destroying mountain," says YHWH, "which destroys all the earth; and I will stretch out my hand on you, and roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burnt mountain. 26They shall not take of you a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but you shall be desolate for ever," says
YHWH.

27Set up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz: appoint a marshal against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough canker worm.
28Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, its governors, and all its deputies, and all the land of their dominion. 29The land trembles and is in pain; for the purposes of YHWH against Babylon do stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant. 30The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they remain in their strongholds; their might has failed; they are become as women: her dwelling places are set on fire; her bars are broken. 31One runner will run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every quarter: 32and the passages are seized, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are frightened.

33For thus says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel: "The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while, and the time of harvest shall come for her.
34'Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me, he has made me an empty vessel, he has, like a monster, swallowed me up, he has filled his maw with my delicacies; he has cast me out. 35The violence done to me and to my flesh be on Babylon,' shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and, 'My blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea,' shall Jerusalem say.

36Therefore thus says YHWH: "Look, I will plead your cause, and take vengeance for you; and I will dry up her sea, and make her fountain dry. 37Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling place for jackals, an astonishment, and a hissing, without inhabitant. 38They shall roar together like young lions; they shall growl as lions' cubs. 39When they are heated, I will make their feast, and I will make them drunk, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake," says YHWH. 40"I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats. 41How is Sheshach taken, and the praise of the whole earth seized. How is Babylon become a desolation among the nations. 42The sea has come up on Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of its waves. 43Her cities are become a desolation, a dry land, and a desert, a land in which no man dwells, neither does any son of man pass thereby. 44I will execute judgment on Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up; and the nations shall not flow any more to him: yes, the wall of Babylon shall fall."

45"My people, go away from the midst of her, and save yourselves every man from the fierce anger of YHWH. 46Do not let your heart faint, neither fear for the news that shall be heard in the land; for news shall come one year, and after that in another year shall come news, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. 47Therefore look, the days come, that I will execute judgment on the engraved images of Babylon; and her whole land shall be confounded; and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her. 48Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is in them, shall sing for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers shall come to her from the north," says YHWH.

49As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the land. 50You who have escaped the sword, go, do not stand still; remember YHWH from afar, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. 51"We are confounded, because we have heard reproach; confusion has covered our faces: for strangers have come into the sanctuaries of YHWH's house."

52"Therefore look, the days come," says YHWH, "that I will execute judgment on her engraved images; and through all her land the wounded shall groan. 53Though Babylon should mount up to the sky, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall destroyers come to her," says YHWH. 54"The sound of a cry from Babylon, and of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans." [55]For YHWH lays Babylon waste, and destroys out of her the great voice; and their waves roar like many waters; the noise of their voice is uttered: [56]for the destroyer has come on her, even on Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, their bows are broken in pieces; for YHWH is a God of recompenses,[a] he will surely requite. [57]"I will make drunk her officials and her wise men, her governors and her deputies, and her mighty men; and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake up," says the King, whose name is YHWH of hosts.

[58]Thus says YHWH of hosts: "The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly overthrown, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the peoples shall labor for vanity, and the nations for the fire; and they shall be weary."

[59]The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was chief quartermaster. [60]Jeremiah wrote in a scroll all the evil that should come on Babylon, even all these words that are written concerning Babylon. [61]Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you come to Babylon, then see that you read all these words, [62]and say, 'YHWH, you have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that none shall dwell in it, neither man nor animal, but that it shall be desolate forever.' [63]It shall be, when you have made an end of reading this scroll, that you shall bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of the Perath: [64]and you shall say, 'Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise again because of the evil that I will bring on her; and they shall be weary.'" Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

52 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. [2]He did that which was evil in the sight of YHWH, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. [3]For through the anger of YHWH it happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. [4]It happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and camped against it; and they built forts against it round about. [5]So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. [6]In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. [7]Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were against the city all around;) and they went toward the Arabah. 8But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. 9Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him. 10The king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he killed also all the officials of Judah in Riblah. 11He put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death. 12Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, who stood before the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem: 13and he burned the house of YHWH, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burned he with fire. 14All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around. 15Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest of the people, and the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude. 16But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vineyard keepers and farmers. 17The Chaldeans broke the pillars of bronze that were in the house of YHWH, and the bases and the bronze sea that were in the house of YHWH in pieces, and carried all their bronze to Babylon. 18They also took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they ministered. 19The captain of the guard took away the cups, the fire pans, the basins, the pots, the lampstands, the spoons, and the bowls; that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver. 20They took the two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the sea,[a] and the stands which king Solomon had made for the house of YHWH. The bronze of all these vessels was without weight. 21As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eight feet seven inches[b]; and a line of twenty feet eight inches[c] encircled it; and its thickness was almost three inches[d] It was hollow. 22A capital of bronze was on it; and the height of the one capital was eight feet seven inches,[e] with network and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of bronze: and the second pillar also had like these, and pomegranates. [23]There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were one hundred on the network all around. [24]The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold: [25]and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and seven men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the midst of the city. [26]Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. [27]The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. [28]This is the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand twenty-three Jews; [29]in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty-two persons; [30]in the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty-five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

[31]It happened in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Awil-Marduk[a] king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison; [32]and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, [33]and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life: [34]and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

Lamentations

1 How the city sits solitary, that was full of people.
She has become as a widow, who was great among the nations.
She who was a princess among the provinces has become a forced laborer.

[a]52:31 MT vocalizes as "Evil-Merodach." Amil-Marduk, pronounced Awil-Marduk, ruled c. 562-560 BC

[2]She weeps bitterly in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks;
among all her lovers she has none to comfort her.
All her friends have dealt treacherously with her;
they have become her
enemies.

[3]Judah has gone into exile because of affliction and harsh servitude;
she dwells among the nations, she finds no rest:
all her persecutors overtook her in the midst of her
distress.

[4]The roads to Zion mourn, because no one comes to the solemn assembly;
all her gates are desolate, her priests groan:
her virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in bitterness.

[5]Her adversaries have become the head, her enemies
prosper;
for YHWH has afflicted her for the multitude of her
transgressions:
her young children have gone into captivity before the adversary.

[6]All majesty has departed from the daughter of Zion:
her leaders have become like deer that find no pasture, they fled exhausted before the pursuer.

[7]Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and wandering all her precious things that were from the days of
old:
when her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and no one helped her.
The adversaries saw her, they mocked at her desolations.

[8]Jerusalem has grievously sinned; therefore she has become as an unclean
thing;
all who honored her despise her,
because they have seen her nakedness:
yes, she groans, and turns away.

[9]Her filthiness was in her skirts; she did not remember her latter end;
therefore her fall was astonishing;
she has no comforter.
“Look, YHWH, on my affliction, for the enemy has magnified himself.”

[10]The adversary has spread out his hand on all her precious things:
for she has seen that the nations have entered into her
sanctuary,
concerning whom you commanded that they should not enter into your assembly.

[11]All her people sigh, they seek bread;
they have given their precious things for food to refresh the soul.

"Look, YHWH, and see, for I am despised."

12 Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look, and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which is brought on me,
with which YHWH has afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From on high he has sent fire into my bones, and it overcame them.
He has spread a net for my feet, he has turned me back.
He has made me desolate and faint
all the day.

14 My transgressions are bound into a yoke; by his hand they are fastened together, they are set upon my neck; he has made my strength to fail. YHWH[a] has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand.

15 YHWH[b] has rejected all my mighty men in my midst;
he has called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men.
YHWH[c] has trodden as in a winepress the virgin daughter of Judah.

16 For these things I weep; my eyes[d] flow with tears;
because the comforter who should refresh my soul is far
from me.
My children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed.

17 Zion spreads forth her hands;
there is none to comfort her.
YHWH has commanded concerning Jacob, that those who are around him should be his
adversaries.
Jerusalem is among them as an unclean thing.

18 YHWH is righteous, for I have rebelled against his commandment.
Please listen all you people, and see my suffering.
My virgins and my young men have gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me.
My priests and my elders perished in the city, while they searched for food to refresh their souls.[e]

[20]See, YHWH, for I am in distress;
my stomach churns;
my heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled.
Outside the sword bereaves, in the house it is like death.

[21]They have heard that I groan;
there is none to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that you have done it.
Bring the day that you have proclaimed, so that they shall end up like me.

[22]Let all their wickedness come before you.
Do to them, as you have done to me for all my transgressions.
For my groans are many, and my heart is faint.

2 How YHWH[a] covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger.
He has cast down from heaven to the earth the splendor of Israel, and hasn't remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

[2]YHWH[b] has swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and has not pitied.
He has thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah.
He has brought them down to the ground; he has humiliated the kingdom and its rulers.

[3]He has cut off in fierce anger all the strength of Israel.
He has drawn back his right hand before the enemy.
He has blazed in Jacob like a flaming fire, which devours all around.

[4]He has bent his bow like an enemy; his right hand he has positioned like an adversary.
He killed all that were pleasant to the eye.
In the tent of the daughter of Zion he has poured out his wrath like fire.

[5]YHWH[c] has become as an enemy;
he has swallowed up Israel;
he has swallowed up all her palaces and has destroyed its strongholds.
He has multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

[6]He has done violence to his temple, as if it were a vineyard;[d] he has destroyed his place of assembly.

YHWH has caused solemn assembly and Sabbath to be forgotten in
Zion,
and he has spurned in his fierce anger king and priest and prince.[a]

7YHWH[b] has rejected his altar, he has disowned his sanctuary, and has given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her
palaces.
They have made a shout in the house of YHWH, as in the day of a solemn
assembly.

8YHWH has determined to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion.
He has stretched out the line, he has not withdrawn his hand from destroying.
He has made the rampart and wall to lament; they languish together.

9Her gates are sunk into the ground; he has destroyed and broken
her bars.
Her king and her princes are among the nations
where the law is no more, and her prophets find no vision from
YHWH.

10The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground in silence.
They have cast up dust on their heads; they have clothed themselves with sackcloth.
The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11My eyes are worn out from weeping, my stomach is churning.
My heart is poured on the earth, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, because the young children and the infants faint in the streets of the city.

12They tell their mothers, "Where is grain and wine?"
When they faint as the wounded in the streets of the city, as their lives fade away in their mothers' bosom.

13What shall I testify of you? What shall I liken to you,
daughter of Jerusalem?
What shall I compare to you, that I may comfort you, virgin daughter of
Zion?
For your ruin is great like the sea.
Who can heal you?

14 Your prophets have seen for you false and deceptive
visions.
They have not uncovered your iniquity, to bring back your captivity, but have seen for you false and misleading oracles.

15 All that pass by clap their hands at you, they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem,
saying,
"Is this the city that men called
'The perfection of beauty,' 'The joy of the whole earth'?"
16 All your enemies have opened wide their mouth
against you.
They hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, "We have swallowed her up.
Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen
it."

17 YHWH has done that which he purposed, he has fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old.
He has thrown down, and has not pitied.
He has caused the enemy to gloat over you and exalted the horn of your
adversaries.

18 Their heart cried to YHWH.[a] O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night.
Give yourself no respite; do not let your tears cease.

19 Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches.
Pour out your heart like water before the face of YHWH.[b]
Lift up your hands toward him for the life of your young children, that faint for hunger at the head of every street.

20 Look, YHWH, and see to whom you have done like
this.
Shall the women eat their fruit, the children that are dandled in the hands?
Shall the priest and the prophet be killed in the sanctuary of YHWH[c]?

21 The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets;
my virgins and my young men have fallen by the
sword.
You have killed them in the day of your anger; you have slaughtered, without pity.

22 You have called, as in the day of a solemn assembly,

my terrors on every side.
There was none that escaped or remained in the day of YHWH's anger.
Those that I have borne and brought up has my enemy destroyed.

3 I am the man that has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2He has led me and caused me to walk in darkness, and not in light.
3Surely against me he turns his hand again and again
all the day.
4My flesh and my skin he has made old; he has broken my bones.
5He has built against me, and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.
6He has made me to dwell in dark places, like those that have been long dead.

7He has walled me in, so I can't escape; he has made my chains heavy.
8Yes, when I cry, and call for help, he shuts out my prayer.
9He has walled up my ways with cut stone; he has made my paths crooked.

10He is to me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion in hiding.
11He has obstructed my path, and torn me in pieces; he has made me desolate.
12He has bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

13He has caused the arrows of his quiver to pierce my inward parts.[a] 14I have become a laughingstock to all peoples,[b] and their song all the day.
15He has filled me with bitterness, he has given me in full measure wormwood.

16He has also broken my teeth with gravel; he has pressed me down in the dust.
17You have removed my soul far away from peace; I have forgotten what prosperity is.
18And I said, "My strength and my hope has perished
from YHWH."

19Remember my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.
20My soul considers them, and is depressed.
21But this I call to my mind;
therefore I have hope:

[a]3:13 Lit. kidneys

[b]3:14 Hebrew Mss Syr cf. BHS. MT reads "to my people"

22 YHWH's faithful love does not cease;[a] his compassion does not fail.
23 They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.
24 "YHWH is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in him."

25 YHWH is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.
26 It is good that a man should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of
YHWH.
27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke while he is young.

28 Let him sit alone and keep silence when he is disciplining him.
29 Let him put his mouth to the dust, there may yet be hope.
30 Let him give his cheek to him who strikes him; let him be filled with insults.

31 For YHWH[b] will not reject
forever.
32 For though he may cause grief, yet he will have compassion according to the abundance of his
loving kindness.
33 For he is not predisposed to bring affliction or suffering to human beings.

34 To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth; 35 to deprive a man of justice before the face of the Most High,
36 to subvert a man in his cause, YHWH[c] does not approve.

37 Who can speak a thing and have it come to pass, unless YHWH[d] has commanded it?
38 Doesn't both calamity and good come out of the mouth of the Most High?
39 Why does a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us examine and search our ways, and return to
YHWH.
41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands to God in the heavens.
42 We have transgressed and have rebelled, and you have not forgiven.

43 You have covered yourself with anger and pursued us;
you killed without sparing.
44 You have covered yourself with a cloud, so that no

45You have made us rubbish and

the peoples.

46All our enemies have opened their mouth wide
against us.

47Fear and the pit have come on us, devastation and
destruction.
48Streams of tears run down from my eyes because of the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49My tears flow and do not cease, without respite,
50until YHWH looks down and sees from heaven.
51My eyes bring my soul grief, because of all the daughters of my city.

52They have chased me relentlessly like a bird, those who are my enemies without
cause.
53They have cut off my life in a pit, and have cast a stone on me.
54Waters flowed over my head; I said, 'I am finished.'

55I called on your name, YHWH, out of the depths of the pit.
56You heard my voice; do not hide your ear at my sighs, to my cry.
57You drew near in the day that I called on you; you said, "Do not be afraid."

58YHWH,[a] you have taken up the case for my soul; you have redeemed my
life.
59You have seen, YHWH, the wrong done to me;
judge my case.
60You have seen all their vengeance and all their plots against me.

61You have heard their insults, YHWH, and all their
plots against me.
62The lips of those that rose up against me, and their plots against me all
day long.
63Look their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their mocking song.

64You will render to them what they deserve, YHWH, according to the work
of their hands.
65You will give them hardness of heart as your curse to
them.
66You will pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens of
YHWH.

4 How the gold has become dim. How the most pure gold has changed.
The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold,
How they are regarded as clay jars, the work of the hands of the potter.

3 Even the jackals offer the breast, they nurse their young ones, but the daughter of my people has become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The nursing infant's tongue sticks to the roof of his mouth for thirst.
The young children ask for bread, but no one gives to them.

5 Those who ate delicacies are destitute in the streets.
Those who were brought up in purple embrace ash heaps.

6 For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom, which was overthrown in an instant, and no hands were laid on her.

7 Her consecrated ones were purer than snow, whiter than milk; their bodies more ruddy than rubies, their appearance was like lapis lazuli.[a]

8 They appear darker than soot; they are not known in the streets.
Their skin cleaves to their bones; it is withered and has become as dry as a stick.

9 Those who are killed with the sword are better than those who are killed with hunger; those who waste away, pierced through, for lack of the fruits of the field.

10 The hands of the compassionate women have cooked their own children; they were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 YHWH has accomplished his wrath, he has poured out his fierce anger; he has kindled a fire in Zion, which has devoured its foundations.

12 The kings of the earth did not believe, neither all the inhabitants of the world,

[a] 4:7 Or, sapphire that the adversary or the enemy would enter into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 It is because of the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her
priests,
that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her.

14 They wander as blind men in the streets, they are polluted with blood, so that men can't touch their garments.

15 "Go away." they cried to them,
"Unclean. Away, away. Do not touch."
When they fled away and wandered, men said
among the nations,
"They shall not live here anymore."

16 YHWH himself has scattered them; he will no more regard them.
They did not respect the priests, they did not favor the elders.

17 Our eyes still fail, looking in vain for our help.
In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save.

18 They hunt our steps, so that we can't go in our streets.
Our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end has come.

19 Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the sky.
They chased us on the mountains, they lay in wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of YHWH,
was taken in their pits;
of whom we said, "Under his shadow we can live
among the nations."

21 Rejoice and be glad, daughter of Edom, that dwell in the land of Uz.
The cup shall pass through to you also; you will get drunk, and shall make yourself naked.
22 The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, daughter of Zion; he will no more carry you away into captivity.
He will visit your iniquity, daughter of Edom; he will uncover your sins.

5 Remember, YHWH,
what has come on us.
Look, and see our
disgrace.
2 Our inheritance is turned over to strangers,
our houses to foreigners.
3 We are orphans and fatherless.
Our mothers are like widows.
4 We have to pay for a drink of
water;
our wood is sold to us.
5 Our pursuers are on our necks;
we are weary, and have no rest.

6We have submitted to the Egyptians and to the Assyrians, to get enough bread.
7Our fathers sinned, and are no
more;
but[a] we have borne their iniquities.
8Servants rule over us:
There is none to deliver us out of their hand.
9We get our bread at the peril of our lives,
because of the sword in the wilderness.
10Our skin is hot like an oven, because of the burning heat of famine.
11They raped the women in Zion, the virgins in the cities of Judah.
12Princes were hung by their
hands;
elders were shown no respect.
13The young men grind at the mill; the boys stagger under loads of wood.
14The elders have gone from the gate,
the young men from their music.
15The joy of our heart has ceased; our dancing is turned into mourning.
16The crown is fallen from our
head;
woe to us, for we have sinned.
17For this our heart is faint; for these things our eyes grow dim.
18For the mountain of Zion, which is desolate;
the foxes walk on it.

19But[b] you, YHWH, abide forever; your throne is from generation to generation.
20Why do you keep on forgetting
us?
Why do you forsake us so long?
21Restore us to you, YHWH, and we shall be restored;
renew our days as in former times, 22unless you have completely rejected us and are angry with us beyond measure.

1 Now it happened in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. 2In the fifth of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, 3the word of YHWH came[c] to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of YHWH came upon him.[d] 4I looked, and look, a stormy wind came out of the north, a great cloud, with flashing lightning, and a brightness around it, and out of its midst as it were glowing metal, out of the midst of the fire. 5Out of its midst came the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man. 6And each one had four faces, and each one of them had four wings. 7Their legs were straight, and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished bronze. 8They had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and the four of them had their faces and their wings thus: 9their wings were joined one to another; they didn't turn when they went; each one went straight forward. 10As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man; and the four of them had the face of a lion on the right side; and the four of them had the face of an ox on the left side; the four of them also had the face of an eagle. 11Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above. Two wings of each one touched another, and two covered their bodies. 12Each one went straight forward: where the spirit would go, they went; they didn't turn when they went. 13And in the midst[a] of the living creatures was an appearance[b] of burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches. The fire went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. 14The living creatures darted back and forth, like the appearance of a flash of lightning. 15Now as I saw the living creatures, look, there was a wheel on the ground beside each living creature with its four faces. 16And[c] the appearance of the wheels and their work was like a beryl: and the four of them had the same likeness; and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel. 17When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn when they went. 18As for their rims, they were high and awesome; and the four of them had their rims full of eyes all around. 19When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures rose from the ground, the wheels also rose. 20They went in whichever direction[d] the spirit would go, and the wheels rose alongside them because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. 21When those [the living creatures] moved, these [the wheels] moved; and when those [the living creatures] stood still, these [the wheels] stood still; and when those [the living creatures] rose from the ground, the wheels rose alongside them because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. 22And over the heads of the living creatures[e]

there was the likeness of an expanse, like glittering ice, it was awesome to look upon, stretched out over their heads above. [23]Under the expanse their wings were straight, the one toward the other. And each one had two which covered its body.[a] [24]When they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of Shaddai, a noise of tumult like the noise of an army: when they stood, they let down their wings. [25]There was a voice above the expanse that was over their heads.[b] [26]Above the expanse that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire[c] stone; and on the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man on it above. [27]I saw as it were glowing metal, as the appearance of fire within it all around, from the appearance of his waist and upward; and from the appearance of his waist and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness around him. [28]As the appearance of the rainbow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of YHWH. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice speaking.

2 He said to me, "Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you." [2]The Spirit entered into me when he spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard him who spoke to me. [3]He said to me, "Son of man, I send you to the house[d] of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me. They and their fathers have transgressed against me even to this very day. [4]The children are obstinate and hardhearted. I am sending you to them, and you shall tell them, 'Thus says[e] YHWH.' [5]They, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house), yet shall know that there has been a prophet among them. [6]You, son of man, do not be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns are with you, and you do dwell among scorpions: do not be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. [7]You shall speak my words to them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious. [8]But you, son of man, hear what I tell you; do not be rebellious like that rebellious house: open your mouth, and eat that which I give you."

9 And I looked and saw a hand was extended to me; and, look,[a] a written scroll was in it. 10 And he spread it before me, and it was written on the front and on the back. And written on it were lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

3 He said to me, "Son of man, eat that which you find. Eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel." 2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat the scroll. 3 He said to me, "Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your belly with this scroll that I give you." So I ate it,[b] and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. 4 He said to me, "Son of man, go to the house of Israel, and speak my words to them. 5 For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel; 6 not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you can not understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. 7 But the house of Israel will not listen to you; for they will not listen to me: for all the house of Israel are obstinate[c] and hard-hearted. 8 Look, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads. 9 As an adamant harder than flint have I made your forehead. Do not be afraid of them, nor be dismayed at their looks,
though they are a rebellious house."

10 Moreover he said to me,
"Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears.
11 And go to the exiles, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, 'Thus says[d] YHWH'; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear. 12 Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, "Blessed be the glory of YHWH from his place." 13 I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing. 14 So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the anger of my spirit; and the hand of YHWH was strong on me. 15 Then I came to them of the exiles at Tel Aviv, that lived by the river Chebar, and to where they lived; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days. 16 It happened at the end of seven days, that the word of YHWH came to me, saying, 17 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel: therefore hear the word from my mouth, and give them warning from me. 18 When I tell the wicked, 'You shall surely die'; and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at your hand. 19 Yet if you warn the wicked, and he doesn't turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.

20"Again, when a righteous man does turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die: because you have not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at your hand. 21Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man, that the righteous not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning; and you have delivered your soul."

22The hand of YHWH was there on me; and he said to me, "Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with you." 23Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and look, the glory of YHWH stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. 24Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet; and he spoke with me, and said to me, "Go, shut yourself inside your house. 25But you, son of man, look, they shall lay bands on you, and shall bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them: 26and I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, that you shall be mute, and shall not be to them a reprover; for they are a rebellious house. 27But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall tell them, 'Thus says[a] YHWH': He who hears, let him hear; and he who forbears, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

4 "You also, son of man, take a tile, and lay it before yourself, and portray on it a city, even Jerusalem: 2and lay siege against it, and build forts against it, and cast up a mound against it; set camps also against it, and plant[b] battering rams against it all around. 3Take for yourself an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city: and set your face toward it, and it shall be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4"Moreover lie on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel on it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity. 5For I have appointed the years of their iniquity to be to you a number of days, even three hundred ninety days: so you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6"Again, when you have accomplished these, you shall lie on your right side, and shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah: forty days, each day for a year, have I appointed it to you. 7You shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm uncovered; and you shall prophesy against it. 8Look, I lay bands on you, and you shall not turn you from one side to the other, until you have accomplished the days of your siege.

9"Take for yourself also wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make bread of it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on your side, even three hundred ninety days, you shall eat of it. 10Your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time you shall eat it. 11You shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: from time to time you shall drink. 12You shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of man." 13YHWH said, "Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations where I will drive them."

14Then I said, "Ah Lord YHWH. look, my soul has not been polluted; for from my youth up even until now have I not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn of animals; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth."

15Then he said to me, "Look, I have given you cow's dung for man's dung, and you shall prepare your bread thereon."

16Moreover he said to me, "Son of man, look, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure, and in dismay: 17that they may want bread and water, and be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their iniquity.

5 "You, son of man, take a sharp sword; You shall take it as a barber's razor to you, and shall cause it to pass on your head and on your beard: then take balances to weigh, and divide the hair. 2A third part you shall burn in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and you shall take a third part, and strike with the sword around it; and a third part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. 3You shall take of it a few in number, and bind them in your skirts. 4Of these again you shall take, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; from it shall a fire come forth[a] into all the house of Israel."

5"Thus says[b] YHWH: 'This is Jerusalem; I have placed her at the center of the nations, and countries

7"'Therefore thus says[a] YHWH: 'Because you are turbulent more than the nations that are around you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my ordinances, neither have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you'; 8therefore thus says[b] YHWH: 'Look, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgments in the midst of you in the sight of the nations. 9I will do in you that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all your abominations. 10Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of you, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments on you; and the whole remnant of you will I scatter to all the winds.'

11"'Therefore as I live,' says[c] YHWH, 'surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you; neither shall my eye spare, and I also will have no pity. 12A third part of you shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of you; and a third part shall fall by the sword around you; and a third part I will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them. 13Thus shall my anger be accomplished, and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I shall be comforted; and they shall know that I, YHWH, have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath on them. 14Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations[d] that are around you, in the sight of all that pass by. 15And you[e] shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the nations that are around you, when I shall execute judgments on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes; I, YHWH, have spoken; 16when I shall send on them the evil arrows of famine, that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine on you, and will break your staff of bread; 17and I will send on you famine and evil animals, and they shall bereave you; and pestilence and blood shall pass through you; and I will bring the sword on you: I, YHWH, have spoken it.'" their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be as an unclean thing; their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of YHWH: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it has been the stumbling block of their iniquity. 20As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things. Therefore I will render it an unclean thing to them. 21I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall profane it. 22My face will I turn also from them, and they shall profane my secret place; and robbers shall enter into it, and profane it.

8 It happened in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of[a] YHWH fell there on me. 2Then I saw, and look, a likeness as the appearance of a man;[b] from the appearance of his waist and downward, fire; and from his waist and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal. 3He put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and the sky, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north; where there was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. 4Look, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain. 5Then he said to me, "Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north." So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and see, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. 6He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they do? Even the great abominations that the house of Israel do commit here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? But you shall again see yet other great abominations."

7He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, look, a hole in the wall. 8Then he said to me, "Son of man, dig now in the wall": and when I had dug in the wall, look, a door. 9He said to me,
"Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here." 10So I went in and saw; and see, every form of crawling creatures, and abominable animals, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed around on the wall.
11There stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel; and in their midst stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, every man with his censer in his hand; and the odor of the cloud of incense went up.

12Then he said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his rooms of imagery?
For they say, 'YHWH doesn't see us. YHWH has forsaken the land.'"

13He said also to me, "You shall again see yet other great abominations which they do."

14Then he brought me to the door of the gate of YHWH's house which was toward the north; and see, there sat the women weeping for Tammuz. 15Then he said to me,
"Have you seen this, son of man?
You shall again see yet greater abominations than these."

16He brought me into the inner court of YHWH's house; and see, at the door of YHWH's temple, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs toward YHWH's temple, and their faces toward the east; and they were worshipping the sun toward the east. 17Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger: and look, they put the branch to their nose. 18Therefore I will also deal in wrath; my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear
them."

9 Then he cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, "Cause those who are in charge of the city to draw near, every man with his destroying weapon in his hand." 2Look, six men came from the way of the Upper Gate, which lies toward the north, every man with his slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man in their midst clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. They went in, and stood beside the bronze altar. 3The glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side. 4YHWH said to him,
"Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark on the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry over all the abominations that are done in its midst." [5]To the others he said in my hearing, "Go through the city after him, and strike: do not let your eye spare, neither have pity; [6]kill utterly the old man, the young man and the virgin, and little children and women; but do not come near any man on whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary." Then they began at the old men that were before the house.

[7]He said to them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go forth." They went forth, and struck in the city. [8]It happened, while they were smiting, and I was left, that I fell on my face, and cried, and said, "Ah,[a] YHWH. Will you destroy all the residue of Israel in your pouring out of your wrath on Jerusalem?" [9]Then he said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perversion: for they say, 'YHWH has forsaken the land, and YHWH doesn't see.' [10]As for me also, my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way on their head."

10 Then I looked, and saw, in the expanse that was over the head of the cherubim there appeared above them as it were a sapphire[b] stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. [2]He spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, "Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the cherubim,[c] and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city." He went in as I watched.

[3]Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. [4]The glory of YHWH mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of YHWH's glory. [5]The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of El Shaddai when he speaks.

[6]It came to pass, when he commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim," that he went in, and stood beside a wheel. [7]The cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took of it, and put it into the hands of him who was clothed in linen, who took it and went out. [8]There appeared in the cherubim the form of a man's hand under their wings.

[9]I looked, and look, four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside each cherub,[a] and the appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone. [10]As for their appearance, the four of them had the same likeness, like a wheel within a wheel. [11]When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn as they went, but to the place where the head looked they followed it; they didn't turn as they went. [12]Their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes all around, even the wheels that the four of them had. [13]As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, "the whirling wheels." [14]Every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third face the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

[15]The cherubim mounted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar. [16]When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also didn't turn from beside them. [17]When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

[18]The glory of YHWH went forth from over the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim. [19]The cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went forth, and the wheels beside them: and they stood at the door of the east gate of YHWH's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

[20]These were the living creatures that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim. [21]Every one had four faces, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. [22]As for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw[b] by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves; they went every one straight forward.

11 Moreover the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of YHWH's house, which looks eastward: and see, at the door of the gate twenty-five men; and I saw in their midst Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, officials of the people.

2He said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity, and who give wicked counsel in this city; 3who say, 'The time is not near to build houses: this is the caldron, and we are the meat.' 4Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, son of man."

5The Spirit of YHWH fell on me, and he said to me, "Speak, Thus says YHWH: 'Thus you have said, house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind.
6You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain.' 7Therefore thus says[a] YHWH: 'Your slain whom you have laid in its midst, they are the meat, and this is the caldron; but I[b] will bring you out of it. 8You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword on you,' says[c] YHWH. 9'I will bring you forth out of its midst, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you.
10You shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and you shall know that I am YHWH. 11This shall not be your caldron, neither shall you be the meat in its midst; I will judge you in the border of Israel; 12and you shall know that I am YHWH: for you have not walked in my statutes, neither have you executed my ordinances, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you.'"

13It happened, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell down on my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, "Ah,[d] YHWH. Will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?"

14The word of YHWH came to me, saying, 15"Son of man, your brothers,[e] the men of your relatives, and all the house of Israel, all of them, to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Go far away from YHWH. This land has been given to us for a possession.' 16Therefore say, 'Thus says[f] YHWH: "Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they have come."'

17Therefore say, 'Thus says[g] YHWH: "I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel." 18They shall come there, and they shall take away all the detestable things of it and all its abominations from there. 19I will

[21]But as for them whose heart

[22]Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, and the wheels were beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.
[23]The glory of YHWH went up from the midst of the city, and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. [24]The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. [25]Then I spoke to them of the captivity all the things that YHWH had shown me.

12 The word of YHWH
also came to me,
saying, [2]"Son of man, you dwell in the midst of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and do not see, who have ears to hear, and do not hear; for they are a rebellious house. [3]Therefore, you son of man, prepare your stuff for moving, and move by day in their sight; and you shall move from your place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider,
though they are a rebellious house.
[4]You shall bring forth your baggage by day in their sight, as baggage for exile; and you shall go forth yourself at even in their sight, as when men go forth into exile.
[5]Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry your stuff out that way.
[6]In their sight you shall bear it on your shoulder, and carry it forth in the dark; you shall cover your face, so that you do not see the land: for I have set you for a sign to the house of Israel."

[7]I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for removing, and in the even I dug through the wall with my hand; I brought it forth in the dark, and bore it on my shoulder in their sight. [8]In the morning came the word of YHWH to me, saying, [9]"Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, 'What are you doing?' [10]Say to them, 'Thus says[c] YHWH: This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel among whom they are.'
[11]Say, 'I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall go into exile, into captivity.'

them shall bear on his shoulder in the dark, and shall go forth. He[a] shall dig through the wall and carry it through: he shall cover his face, because he shall not see the land with his eyes. 13My net also will I spread on him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. 14I will scatter toward every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. 15They shall know that I am YHWH, when I shall disperse them among the nations, and scatter them through the men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they come; and they shall know that I am YHWH."

17Moreover the word of YHWH came to me, saying, 18"Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness; 19and tell the people of the land, 'Thus says[b] YHWH concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, that her land may be desolate, and all that is in it, because of the violence of all those who dwell in it. 20The cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be a desolation; and you shall know that I am YHWH.'"

21The word of YHWH came to me, saying, 22"Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel, saying, 'The days are prolonged, and every vision fails?' 23Tell them therefore, 'Thus says[c] YHWH: I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel'; but tell them, 'The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision.
24For there shall be no more any false vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. 25For I am YHWH; I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall be performed; it shall be no more deferred: for in your days, rebellious house, will I speak the word, and will perform it,' says[d]
YHWH."

26Again the word of YHWH
came to me, saying, 27"Son of man, look, they of the house of Israel say, 'The vision that he sees is for many day to come, and he prophesies of times that are far off.' 28Therefore tell them, 'Thus says[e] YHWH: None of my words shall be deferred any more, but the word which I shall speak shall be performed, says[f] YHWH.'"

13 The word of YHWH came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, 'Hear the word of YHWH: 3Thus says[a] YHWH, "Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing. 4Israel, your prophets have been like foxes in the waste places. 5You have not gone up into the breaches, neither built up the wall for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in the day of YHWH." 6They have seen falsehood and lying divination, who say, "YHWH says"; but YHWH has not sent them: and they have made men to hope that the word would be confirmed. 7"Haven't you seen a false vision, and haven't you spoken a lying divination, in that you say, "YHWH says"; but I have not spoken? 8Therefore thus says[b] YHWH: Because you have spoken falsehood, and seen lies, therefore, look, I am against you, says[c] YHWH. 9My hand shall be against the prophets who see false visions, and who divine lies: they shall not be in the council of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and you shall know that I am[d] YHWH. 10Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, 'Peace'; and there is no peace; and when one builds up a wall, look, they plaster it with whitewash: 11tell those who plaster it with whitewash, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and you, great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind break out. 12Look, when the wall has fallen, shall it not be said to you, 'Where is the plaster with which you have plastered it?'

13"Therefore thus says[e] YHWH: I will even tear it with a stormy wind in my wrath; and there shall be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it. 14So will I break down the wall that you have plastered with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation shall be uncovered; and it shall fall, and you shall be consumed in its midst: and you shall know that I am YHWH. 15Thus will I accomplish my wrath on the wall, and on those who have plastered it with whitewash; and I will tell you, 'The wall is no more, neither those who plastered it; 16to wit, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace,'" says[f] YHWH."

Will you hunt the souls of my people, and save souls alive for yourselves? [19]You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to kill the souls who should not die, and to save the souls alive who should not live, by your lying to my people who listen to lies."

[20]"'Therefore thus says[b] YHWH: "Look, I am against your pillows, with which you there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls go, even the souls whom you hunt to make them fly. 12The word of YHWH came to me, saying, 13"Son of man, when a land sins against me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out my hand on it, and break the staff of its bread, and send famine on it, and cut off from it man and animal; 14though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, says[b] YHWH."

15"If I cause evil animals to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it be made desolate, so that no man may pass through because of the animals; 16though these three men were in it, as I live," says[c] YHWH, "they should deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only should be delivered, but the land should be desolate.

even concerning all that I have brought on it. [23]They shall comfort you, when you see their way and their doings; and you shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it,' says[a] YHWH."

15 The word of YHWH came to me, saying, [2]"Son of man, what is the vine tree more than any tree, the vine-branch which is among the trees of the forest? [3]Shall wood be taken of it to make any work? Or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon? [4]Look, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire has devoured both its ends, and its midst is burned: is it profitable for any work? [5]Look, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less, when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned, shall it yet be meet for any work.

away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. 10I clothed and shod you with sealskin, and I dressed you about with fine linen, and covered you with silk. 11I decked you with ornaments, and I put bracelets on your hands, and a chain on your neck. 12I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your gold and silver; and your clothing was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered work; you ate fine flour, and honey, and oil; and you were exceeding beautiful, and you prospered to royal estate. 14Your renown went forth among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put on you,' says[b] YHWH.

15"'But you trusted in your beauty, and played the prostitute because of your renown, and poured out your prostitution on everyone who passed by; his it was.
16You took of your garments, and made for yourselves high places decked with various colors, and played the prostitute on them: the bread also which I gave you, fine flour, and oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you even set it committed sexual immorality with the Egyptians, your neighbors, great of flesh; and have multiplied your prostitution, to provoke me to anger. [27]See therefore, I have stretched out my hand over you, and have diminished your ordinary food, and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd way. [28]You have played the prostitute also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yes, you have played the prostitute with them, and yet you weren't satisfied. [29]You have moreover multiplied your prostitution to the land of merchants, to Chaldea; and yet you weren't satisfied with this.

[30]"'How weak is your heart, says[a] YHWH, since you do all these things, the work of an impudent prostitute; [31]in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a prostitute, in that you scorn pay.

[32]"'A wife who commits adultery, who takes strangers instead of her husband. [34]You are different from other women in your prostitution, in that no one follows you to play the prostitute; and whereas you give hire, and no hire is given to you, therefore you are different.'

[35]"Therefore, prostitute, hear the word of YHWH: [36]Thus says[b] YHWH, 'Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your prostitution with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your abominations, and for the blood of your children, that you gave to them; [37]therefore see, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those who you have loved, with all those who you have hated; I will even gather them against you on every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. will I cause my wrath toward you to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from you, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43"'Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have raged against me in all these things; therefore, look, I also will bring your way on your head,' says[a] YHWH: 'and you shall not commit this lewdness with all your abominations.

44"'Look, everyone who uses proverbs shall use this proverb against you, saying, "As is the mother, so is her daughter." 45You are the daughter of your mother, who loathes her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was a Hethite, and your father an Amorite. 46Your elder sister is Samaria, who dwells at your left hand, she and her daughters; and your younger sister, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom and her daughters. 47Yet have you not walked in their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were a very little thing, you were more corrupt than they in all your ways. 48As I live,' says[b] YHWH, 'Sodom your sister has not done, she nor her daughters, as you have done, you and your daughters.

49"'Look, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: pride, fullness of bread, and prosperous ease was in her and in her daughters; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. 50They were haughty, and committed abomination before me. So I took them away, as you[c] have seen. 51Neither has Samaria committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all your abominations which you have done. 52You also, bear you your own shame, in that you have given judgment for your sisters; through your sins that you have committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous that you: yes, be also confounded, and bear your shame, in that you have justified your sisters.

53"'I will turn again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives in their midst; 54that you may bear your own shame, and may be ashamed because of all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them. 55Your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate; and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate; and you and your daughters shall return to your former estate. 56For your sister

came to me, saying,
2"Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel; 3and say,
'Thus says[f] YHWH: "A great eagle with great wings and long feathers, full of feathers, which had various colors, came to Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar: 4he cropped off the topmost of the young twigs of it, and carried it to a land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants. 5He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful soil; he placed it beside many waters; he set it as a willow tree. 6It grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and its roots were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7'"There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and look, this vine bent its roots toward him, and shot forth its branches toward him, from the beds of its plantation, that he might water it. 8It was planted in a good soil by many waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine."'

9"Say, 'Thus says[g] YHWH:
"Shall it prosper? Shall he not pull up its roots, and cut off its fruit, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? And not by a strong arm or many people can it be raised from its roots.

10Yes, look, being planted, shall it prosper? Shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind touches it? It shall wither in the beds where it grew.”””

11Moreover the word of YHWH came to me, saying, 12”Say now to the rebellious house, ‘Do you not know what these things mean?’ Tell them, ‘Look, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took its king, and its princes, and brought them to him to Babylon: 13and he took of the royal family, and made a covenant with him; he also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land; 14that the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. 15But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Shall he prosper? Shall he escape who does such things? Shall he break the covenant, and yet escape?

16”’As I live,’ says[a] YHWH, ‘surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die.
17Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company help him in the war, when they cast up mounds and build forts, to cut off many persons. 18For he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and look, he had given his hand, and yet has done all these things; he shall not escape.’

19”Therefore thus says[b] YHWH: ‘As I live, surely my oath that he has despised, and my covenant that he has broken, I will even bring it on his own head. 20I will spread my net on him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against me. 21All the choice men[c] among all his troups will fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered toward every wind: and you shall know that I, YHWH, have spoken
it.’

22”Thus says[d] YHWH: ‘I will also take of the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain: 23in the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all birds of every wing; in the shade of its branches shall they dwell. 24All the trees of the field shall know that I, YHWH, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish; I, YHWH, have spoken and have done it.'" 18 The word of YHWH came to me again, saying, 2"What do you mean, that you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, 'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?' 3As I live, says[a] YHWH, you shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel. 4Look, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul who sins, he shall die.

5"But if a man is just, and does that which is lawful and right, 6and has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither has defiled his neighbor's wife, neither has come near to a woman in her impurity, 7and has not wronged any, but has restored to the debtor his pledge, has taken nothing by robbery, has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; 8he who has not given forth on interest, neither has taken any increase, who has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true justice between man and man, 9has walked in my statutes, and has kept my ordinances, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live," says[b] YHWH.

10"If he fathers a son who is a robber, a shedder of blood, and who does any one of these things, 11and who does not any of those duties, but even has eaten on the mountains, and defiled his neighbor's wife, 12has wronged the poor and needy, has taken by robbery, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination, 13has given forth on interest, and has taken increase; shall he then live? He shall not live: he has done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be on him.

14"Now, look, if he fathers a son, who sees all his father's sins, which he has done, and fears, and does not such like; 15who has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, has not defiled his neighbor's wife, 16neither has wronged any, has not taken anything to pledge, neither has taken by robbery, but has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; 17who has withdrawn his hand from iniquity,[c] who takes no interest nor profit, He practices My ordinances and follows My statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live. 18As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, look, he shall die in his iniquity.

19"Yet you say, 'Why doesn't the son bear the iniquity of the father?' When the son has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live. 20The soul who sins, he shall die: the son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on him.

21"But if the wicked turn from all his sins that he has committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. 22None of his transgressions that he has committed shall be remembered against him: in his righteousness that he has done he shall live. 23Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked?" says[a] YHWH; "and not rather that he should return from his way, and live? 24But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered: in his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them shall he die.

25"'Yet you say, "The way of YHWH[b] is not just." Hear now, house of Israel: "Is my way not just? Aren't your ways unjust?" 26When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and dies in it; in his iniquity that he has done shall he die. 27Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. 28Because he considers, and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. 29Yet the house of Israel says, "The way of YHWH[c] is not just." "House of Israel, aren't my ways just? Aren't your ways unjust?"

30"'Therefore I will judge you, house of Israel, everyone according to his ways,' says[d] YHWH. 'Return, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. 31Cast away from you all your transgressions, in which you have transgressed; and make yourself a new heart and a new spirit: for why will you die, house of Israel? 32For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies,' says[e] YHWH: 'therefore turn yourselves, and live.'"

19 "Moreover, take up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,
2 and say, 'What was your mother? A lioness: she couched among lions, in the midst of the young lions she nourished her cubs. 3 She brought up one of her cubs: he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men. 4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit; and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

5 "'Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her cubs, and made him a young lion. 6 He went up and down among the lions; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men. 7 He devastated[a] their strongholds,[b] and destroyed their cities; and the land was desolate, and its fullness, because of the noise of his roaring. 8 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces; and they spread their net over him; he was taken in their pit. 9 They put him in a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into strongholds, that his voice should no more be heard on the mountains of Israel.

10 "'Your mother was like a vine in your vineyard,[c] planted by the waters: it was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. 11 It had strong rods for the scepters of those who bore rule, and their stature was exalted among the thick boughs, and they were seen in their height with the multitude of their branches. 12 But it was plucked up in fury, it was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up its fruit: its strong rods were broken off and withered; the fire consumed them. 13 Now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land. 14 Fire is gone out of the rods of its branches, it has devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong rod to be a scepter to rule.' This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation."

20 It happened in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of YHWH, and sat before me. 2 The word of YHWH came to me, saying, 3 "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and tell them, 'Thus says[d] YHWH: "Is it to inquire of me that you have come? As I live, says[e] YHWH, I will not be inquired of by you."' 4 Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers;

5and tell them, 'Thus says[a] YHWH:
"In the day when I chose Israel, and swore to the offspring of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, 'I am YHWH your God'; 6in that day I swore to them, to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. 7I said to them, 'Cast away every man the abominations of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am YHWH your God.' 8But they rebelled against me, and would not listen to me; they each didn't throw away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt.
Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. 9But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10"""So I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.
11I gave them my statutes, and showed them my ordinances, which if a man does, he shall live in them. 12Moreover also I gave them me and them, that they might know that I am YHWH who sanctifies them. 13But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they didn't walk in my statutes, and they rejected my ordinances, which if a man keep, he they greatly profaned. Then I said I spared them, and I didn't destroy them, neither did I make a full end of them in the wilderness.

observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols. 19I am statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them; 20and make my

[22]Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them forth. [23]Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; [24]because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. [25]Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and ordinances in which they should not live; [26]and I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that opens the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am YHWH."'

[27]"Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them, 'Thus says[b] YHWH: "In this moreover have your fathers blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. [28]For when I had brought them into the land, which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering; there also they made their pleasant aroma, and they poured out there their drink offerings. son of man, appoint two ways that the sword of the king of Babylon may come; they both shall come forth out of one land: and mark out a place, mark it out at the head of the way to the city. 20You shall appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the people of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem, the fortified. 21For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he shook the arrows back and forth, he consulted the teraphim, he looked in the liver. 22In his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, to build forts. 23It shall be to them as a false divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but he brings iniquity to memory, that they may be taken.

24"Therefore thus says[a] YHWH: 'Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear; because you have come to memory, you shall be taken with the hand.

25"'You, deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day has come, in the time of the iniquity of the end, 26thus says[b] YHWH: "Remove the turban, and take off the crown; this shall be no more the same; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high." 27I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: this also shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.'

28"You, son of man, prophesy, and say, 'Thus says[c] YHWH concerning the people of Ammon, and concerning their reproach; and say, "A sword, a sword is drawn, for the slaughter it is furbished, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning; 29while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies to you, to lay you on the necks of the wicked who are deadly wounded, whose day has come in the time of the iniquity of the end. 30Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your birth, will I judge you. 31I will pour out my indignation on you; I will blow on you with the fire of my wrath; and I will deliver you into the hand of brutish men, skillful to destroy. 32You shall be for fuel to the fire; your blood shall be in the midst of the land; you shall be remembered no more: for I, YHWH, have spoken it."'"

22 Moreover the word of YHWH came to me, saying, 2"You, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Then cause her to know all her abominations. 3You shall say, ‘Thus says[a] YHWH: “Woe[b] to the city that sheds blood in the midst of her, so that her time may come, and that makes idols against herself to defile her. 4You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed, and are defiled in your idols which you have made; and you have caused your days to draw near, and have come even to your years: therefore have I made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries. 5Those who are near, and those who are far from you, shall mock you, you infamous one and full of tumult.

6”’”Look, the princes of Israel, everyone according to his power, have been in you to shed blood. 7In you have they set light by father and mother; in the midst of you have they dealt by oppression with the foreigner; in you have they wronged the fatherless and the widow. 8You have despised my holy things, and have profaned my Sabbaths. 9Slanderous men have been in you to shed blood; and in you they have eaten on the mountains: in the midst of you they have committed lewdness. 10In you have they uncovered their fathers’ nakedness; in you have they humbled her who was unclean in her impurity. 11One has committed abomination with his neighbor’s wife; and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in you has humbled his sister, his father’s daughter. 12In you have they taken bribes to shed blood; you have taken interest and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbors by oppression, and have forgotten me,’ says[c] YHWH.

13”’”Look, therefore, I have struck my hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been in the midst of you. 14Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with you? I, YHWH, have spoken it, and will do it. 15I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries; and I will consume your filthiness out of you. 16You shall be profaned in yourself, in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am YHWH.”’”

17The word of YHWH came to me, saying, 18”Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me: all of them are bronze and tin and iron and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are the dross of silver. 19Therefore thus says[d] YHWH: ‘Because you have all become dross, therefore, look, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. 20As they gather silver and bronze and iron and lead and tin into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire on it, to melt it; so will I gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you there, and melt you. 21Yes, I will gather you, wrath, and you shall be melted in its midst. 22As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so you will be melted in its midst; and you will know that I, YHWH, have poured out my wrath on you.'"

23The word of YHWH came to me, saying, 24"Son of man, tell her, 'You are a land that is not cleansed, nor rained on in the day of indignation,' 25whose princes[a] within her are like a roaring lion tearing its prey: they have devoured souls; they take treasure and precious things; they have made her widows many in its midst.
26Her priests have done violence to my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hidden their eyes from my Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. 27Her officials in its midst are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, that they may get dishonest gain.
28Her prophets have plastered for them with whitewash, seeing false visions, and divining lies to them, saying, 'Thus says[b] YHWH,' when YHWH has not spoken. 29The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery; yes, they have troubled the poor and needy, and have oppressed the foreigner wrongfully.

30"And I searched for a man among them who would build up the wall, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.
31Therefore have I poured out my indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I brought on their heads, says[c]
YHWH."

23 The word of YHWH came again to me, saying, 2"Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother: 3and they played the prostitute in Egypt; they played the prostitute in their youth; there were their breasts pressed, and there was handled the bosom of their virginity. 4Their names were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister: and they became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem Oholibah.

5"Oholah played the prostitute when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors, 6who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses. 7She bestowed her prostitution on them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them; and on whoever she doted, with all their idols she defiled herself. [8]Neither has she left her prostitution since the days of Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her, and they handled the bosom of her virginity; and they poured out their prostitution on her. [9]Therefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, on whom she doted. [10]These uncovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters; and her they killed with the sword: and she became a byword among women; for they executed judgments on her.

[11]"Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet was she more corrupt in her doting than she, and in her prostitution which were more than the prostitution of her sister. [12]She doted on the Assyrians, governors and rulers, her neighbors, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men. [13]I saw that she was defiled; they both took one way. [14]She increased her prostitution; for she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed with vermilion, [15]wearing belts on their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them looking like officers, after the likeness of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their birth. [16]As soon as she saw them she doted on them, and sent messengers to them into Chaldea. [17]The Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their prostitution, and she was polluted with them, and her soul was alienated from them. [18]So she uncovered her prostitution, and uncovered her nakedness: then my soul was alienated from her, like as my soul was alienated from her sister. [19]Yet she multiplied her prostitution, remembering the days of her youth, in which she had played the prostitute in the land of Egypt. [20]She doted on their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. [21]Thus you called to memory the lewdness of your youth, in the handling of your bosom by the Egyptians for the breasts of your youth.

[22]"Therefore, Oholibah, thus says[a] YHWH: 'Look, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your soul is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side: [23]the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; desirable young men, all of them governors and officials, officers and men of renown, all of them riding on horses. [24]And they shall come against you armed[b] with chariots, and wagons, and with a huge army; they shall come against you on every side with large shields and small shields and helmet; and I will commit the judgment to them, and they will judge you by their own standards. [25]I will set my jealousy against you, and they shall deal with you in fury; they shall take away your nose and your ears; and your residue shall fall by the sword: they shall take your sons and your daughters; and your residue shall be devoured by the fire. [26]They shall also strip you of your clothes, and take away your beautiful jewels. [27]Thus will I make your lewdness to cease from you, and your prostitution brought from the land of Egypt; so that you shall not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt any more.

[28]"'For thus says[a] YHWH: Look, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your soul is alienated; [29]and they shall deal with you in hatred, and shall take away all your labor, and shall leave you naked and bare; and the nakedness of your prostitution shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your prostitution. [30]These things shall be done to you, because you have played the prostitute after the nations, and because you are polluted with their idols. [31]You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will give her cup into your hand.'

[32]"Thus says[b] YHWH: 'You will drink of your sister's cup, which is deep and large; you will be ridiculed and held in derision; it contains much. [33]You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Samaria. [34]You shall even drink it and drain it out, and you shall gnaw the broken pieces of it, and shall tear your breasts; for I have spoken it,' says[c] YHWH.

[35]"Therefore thus says[d] YHWH: 'Because you have forgotten me, and cast me behind your back, therefore you also bear your lewdness and your prostitution.'"

[36]YHWH said moreover to me: "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominations. [37]For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands; and with their idols have they committed adultery; and they have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass through the fire to them to be devoured. [38]Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my Sabbaths. [39]For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and look, thus have they done in the midst of my house.

[40]"'Furthermore you have sent for men who come from far, to whom a messenger was sent, and look, they came; for whom you did wash yourself, paint your eyes, and decorate yourself with ornaments, 41and sit on a stately bed, with a you set my incense and my oil.' 42The voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with men of the common sort were brought drunkards from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on their hands twain, and beautiful crowns on their heads. 43Then I said of her who was old in adulteries, 'Now will they play the prostitute with her, and she with them.' 44They went in to her, as they go in to a prostitute: so went they in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the lewd women. 45Righteous men, they shall judge them with the judgment of adulteresses, and with the judgment of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their

hands.

46"For thus says[a] YHWH: 'I will bring up a company against them, and will give them to be tossed back and forth and robbed.
47The company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire. 48'Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. 49They shall recompense your lewdness on you, and you shall bear the sins of your idols; and you shall know that I am[b] YHWH.'"

24 Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month,
the word of YHWH came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, write the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon drew close to Jerusalem this same day.
3Utter a parable to the rebellious house, and tell them, 'Thus says[c] YHWH, "Set on the caldron, set it on, and also pour water into it: 4gather its pieces into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. 5Take the choice of the flock, and also a pile of wood for the bones under the caldron; make it boil well; yes, let its bones be boiled in its midst."'

6"Therefore thus says[d] YHWH: 'Woe to the bloody city, to the caldron whose rust is in it, and whose rust is not gone out of it.
Take out of it piece after piece; No lot is fallen on it. 7For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it on the bare rock; she didn't pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust. 8That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have set her blood on the bare rock, that it should not be covered.'

9"Therefore thus says[e] YHWH: 'Woe to the bloody city. I also will make the pile great. 10Pile on the wood, make the fire hot, boil the meat well, and mix in the spices, and let the bones be burned up. 11Then set it empty on its coals, that it may be hot, and its bronze may burn, and that its filthiness may be molten in it, that its rust may be consumed. 12She has wearied herself with toil; yet her great rust doesn't go forth out of her; her rust doesn't go forth by fire. 13In your filthiness is lewdness: because I have cleansed you and you weren't cleansed, you shall not be cleansed from your filthiness any more, until I have caused my wrath toward you to rest. 14I, YHWH, have spoken it: it shall happen, and I will do it: I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to your ways and according to your deeds I[a] will judge you,' says[b] YHWH."

15Also the word of YHWH came to me, saying, 16"Son of man, look, I will take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke: yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down. 17Sigh, but not aloud, make no mourning for the dead; bind your headdress on you, and put your shoes on your feet, and do not cover your lips, and do not eat men's bread."

18So I spoke to the people in the morning; and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. 19The people said to me, "Won't you tell us what these things are to us, that you do so?"

20Then I said to them, "The word of YHWH came to me, saying, 21'Speak to the house of Israel, "Thus says[c] YHWH: Look, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind shall fall by the sword. 22You shall do as I have done: you shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. 23Your turbans shall be on your heads, and your shoes on your feet: you shall not mourn nor weep; but you shall pine away in your iniquities, and moan one toward another. 24Thus Ezekiel shall be a sign to you; according to all that he has done, you will do. When this comes, then you will know that I am[d] YHWH."'"

25"You, son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their heart, their sons and their daughters, 26that in that day he who escapes shall come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears? 27In that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped, and you shall speak, and be no more mute: so you

25 The word of YHWH came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, set your face toward the people of Ammon, and prophesy against them: 3and tell the people of Ammon, 'Hear the word of[a] YHWH: Thus says[b] YHWH, "Because you said, 'Aha,' against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was made desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity: 4therefore, look, I will deliver you to the people of the east for a possession, and they shall set their encampments in you, and make their dwellings in you; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. 5I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the people of Ammon a resting place for flocks: and you shall know that I am YHWH." 6For thus says[c] YHWH: "Because you have clapped your hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with all the despite of your soul against the land of Israel; 7therefore, look, I have stretched out my hand on you, and will deliver you for a spoil to the nations; and I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries: I will destroy you; and you shall know that I am YHWH."'"

12"Thus says[e] YHWH: 'Because Edom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and revenged himself on them'; 13therefore thus says[f] YHWH, 'I will stretch out my hand on Edom, and will cut off man and animal from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; even to Dedan shall they fall by the sword. 14I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance, says[g] YHWH.'"

26 It happened in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of YHWH came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, 'Aha, she is broken: the gate of the peoples; she is turned to me; I shall be replenished, now that she is laid waste': 3therefore thus says[c] YHWH, 'Look, I am against you, Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up.' 4They shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock. 5She shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea; for I have spoken it," says[d] YHWH; "and she shall become a spoil to the nations. 6Her daughters who are in the field shall be slain with the sword: and they shall know that I am YHWH.

7"For thus says[e] YHWH:
'Look, I will bring on Tyre Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and a company, and many people. 8He shall kill your daughters in the field with the sword; and he shall make forts against you, and cast up a mound against you, and raise up the buckler against you. 9He shall set his battering engines against your walls, and with his axes he shall break down your towers. 10By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover you: your walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wagons, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into your gates, as men enter into a city in which is made a breach. 11With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all your streets; he shall kill your people with the sword; and the pillars of your strength shall go down to the ground. 12They shall make a spoil of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise; and they shall break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses; and they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the midst of the waters. 13I will cause the noise of your songs to cease; and the sound of your harps shall be no more heard. 14I will make you a bare rock; you

15"Thus says[c] YHWH to Tyre:
'Shall not the islands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made in the midst of you? 16Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit on the ground, and shall tremble every moment, and be astonished at you. 17They shall take up a lamentation over you, and tell you, "How you are destroyed, you have vanished[d] from the seas, the renowned city, who was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, who caused their terror to be on all who lived there. 18Now shall the islands tremble in the day of your fall; yes, the islands that are in the sea shall be dismayed at your departure."'

19"For thus says[e] YHWH:
'When I shall make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep on you, and the great waters shall cover you; 20then will I bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make you to dwell in the lower parts of the earth, in the places that are desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit, that you be not inhabited; and I will set glory in the land of the living: 21I will make you a terror, and you shall no more have any being;

saying, 2"You, son

Elishah was your awning. [8]The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers: your wise men, Tyre, were in you, they were your pilots. [19]Vedan and Javan traded with yarn for your wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were among your merchandise. [20]Dedan was your trafficker in precious cloths for riding. [21]Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they were the merchants of your hand; in lambs, and rams, and goats, in these were they your merchants. [22]The traffickers of Sheba and Raamah, they were your traffickers; they traded for your wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. [23]Haran and Canneh and Eden, the traffickers of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad, were your traffickers. [24]These were your traffickers in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and embroidered work, and in chests of rich clothing, bound with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise. [25]The ships of Tarshish were your caravans for your merchandise: and you were replenished, and made very glorious in the heart of the seas.

[26]""Your rowers have brought you into great waters: the east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas. [27]Your riches, and your wares, your merchandise, your mariners, and your pilots, your repairers of ship seams, and the dealers in your merchandise, and all your men of war, who are in you, with all your company which is in the midst of you, shall fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin. 28At the sound of the cry of your pilots the suburbs shall shake. 29All who handled the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships; they shall stand on the land, 30and shall cause their voice to be heard over you, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust on their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: 31and they shall make themselves bald for you, and clothe them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for you in bitterness of soul with bitter mourning. 32In their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, saying, 'Who is there like Tyre, like her who is brought to silence in the midst of the sea?' 33When your wares went forth out of the seas, you filled many peoples; you enriched the kings of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise. 34In the time that you were broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your company fell in your midst. 35All the inhabitants of the islands are astonished at you, and their kings are horribly afraid; they are troubled in their face. 36The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you are become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being."'"

28 The word of YHWH came again to me, saying, 2"Son of man, tell the prince of Tyre, 'Thus says[a] YHWH: "Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, 'I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas'; yet you are man, and not God, though you set your heart as the heart of God— 3look, you are wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that is hidden from you; 4by your wisdom and by your understanding you have gotten yourself riches, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures; 5by your great wisdom and by your traffic you have increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches"—6therefore thus says[b] YHWH: "Because you have set your heart as the heart of God, 7therefore, look, I will bring strangers on you, the terrible of the nations; and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they shall defile your brightness. 8They shall bring you down to the pit; and you shall die the death of those who are slain, in the heart of the seas. 9Will you still say before him who kills you, 'I am a god'? But you are a man, and not a god, in the hand of him who wounds you. 10You shall die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it," says[a] YHWH.'"

[11]Moreover the word of YHWH came to me, saying, [12]"Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and tell him, 'Thus says[b] YHWH: "You seal up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. [13]You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone adorned you: ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper,[c] sapphire[d], turquoise, and beryl. Gold work of tambourines and of pipes was in you. In the day that you were created they were prepared. [14]You were the anointed cherub who covers: and I set you, so that you were on the holy mountain of God; you have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. [15]You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until unrighteousness was found in you. [16]By the abundance of your traffic they filled the midst of you with violence, and you have sinned: therefore I have cast you as profane out of the mountain of God; and I have destroyed you, covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. [17]Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness: I have cast you to the ground; I have laid you before kings, that they may see you. [18]By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your traffic, you have profaned your sanctuaries; therefore have I brought forth a fire from the midst of you; it has devoured you, and I have turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all those who see you. [19]All those who know you among the peoples shall be astonished at you: you have become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being."'"

[20]The word of YHWH came to me, saying, [21]"Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it, [22]and say, 'Thus says[e] YHWH: "Look, I am against you, Sidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of you;" and they shall know that I am YHWH, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her. [23]For I will send pestilence into her, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall fall in the midst of her, with the sword on her on every side; and they shall know that I am YHWH.

I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then shall they dwell in their own land which I gave to my securely in it; yes, they shall build houses, and plant vineyards, and shall dwell securely, when I have executed judgments on all those who do them despite all around them; and they shall know that I am YHWH their God.'"

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of YHWH
came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. 3Speak and say, 'Thus says[b] YHWH: "Look, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great monster[c] that lies in the midst of his rivers, that has said, 'My river is my own, and I have made it for myself.' 4I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will make the fish of your rivers stick to your scales; and I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers, with all the fish of your rivers which stick to your scales. 5I'll cast you forth into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers. You'll fall on the open field. You won't be brought together, nor gathered. I have given you for food to the animals of the earth and to the birds of the sky. 6All the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am YHWH, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. 7When they took hold of you with their hand, you splintered and dislocated their shoulders; and when they leaned on you, you shattered and caused their legs to be unsteady.[d]"

8"'Therefore thus says[e] YHWH: "Look, I will bring a sword on you, and will cut off man and animal from you. 9The land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste; and they shall know that I am YHWH. Because he has said,
'The river is mine, and I have made it;' 10therefore, look, I am against you, and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from the tower of Syene even to the border of Ethiopia. 11No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of animal shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. 12I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be a desolation forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries."

peoples where they were scattered; 14and I will bring back the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their birth; and they shall be there a base kingdom. 15It shall be the base of the kingdoms; neither shall it any more lift itself up above the nations: and I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. 16It shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to memory, when they turn to look after them: and they shall know that I am[b] YHWH."'"

17It came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month,
the word of YHWH came to me,
saying, 18"Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet had he no wages, nor his army, from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it.
19Therefore thus says[c] YHWH:
'Look, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall carry off her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. 20I have given him the land of Egypt as his recompense for which he served, because they worked for me,' says[d] YHWH. 21'In that day will I cause a horn to bud forth to the house of Israel, and I will give you the opening of the mouth in their midst; and they shall know that I am
YHWH.'"

30 The word of YHWH
came again to me,
saying, 2"Son of man, prophesy, and say, 'Thus says[e] YHWH: "Wail, 'Alas for the day.' 3For the day is near, even the day of YHWH is near; it shall be a day of clouds, a time of the nations.
4A sword shall come on Egypt, and anguish shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt; and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down. 5Ethiopia, and Put, and Lud, and all the mixed people, and Cub,[f] and the children of the land that is allied with them, shall fall with them by the sword."'

6"Thus says YHWH: 'They also who uphold Egypt shall fall;
and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword,' says[g] YHWH. 7'They shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted. 8They shall helpers are destroyed. 9In that day shall messengers go forth from before me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid; and there shall be anguish on them, as in the day of Egypt; for, look, it comes.'

10"'Thus says[a] YHWH: 'I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.
11He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain. 12I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men; and I will make the land desolate, and all that is in it, by the hand of strangers: I, YHWH, have spoken it.'
13"'Thus says[b] YHWH: 'I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Memphis; and there shall be no more a prince from the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. 14I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments on No. 15I will pour my wrath on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No. 16I will set a fire in Egypt: Sin shall be in great anguish, and No shall be broken up; and Memphis shall have adversaries in the daytime. 17The young men of On[c] and of Pi-beseth shall fall by the sword; and these cities shall go into captivity. 18At Tehaphnehes also the day shall withdraw itself, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt, and the pride of her power shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity. 19Thus will I execute judgments on Egypt; and they shall
know that I am YHWH.'"

20It happened in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of YHWH came to me, saying, 21"'Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and look, it has not been bound up, to apply healing medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it be strong to hold the sword. 22Therefore thus says[d] YHWH: 'Look, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong arm, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. 23I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. 24I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man. 25I will hold up the arms of the king of Babylon; and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am YHWH, when

of the king of Babylon, and he shall [26]I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; and they shall know that I am YHWH.'"

31 It happened in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of YHWH came to me, saying, [2]"Son of man, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude:
'Whom are you like in your greatness? [3]Look, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, and with a forest-like shade, and of high stature; and its top was among the thick boughs.
[4]The waters nourished it, the deep made it to grow: its rivers ran all around its plantation; and it sent out its channels to all the trees of the field. [5]Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and its boughs were multiplied, and its branches became long by reason of many waters, when it shot them forth.
[6]All the birds of the sky made their nests in its boughs; and under its branches all the animals of the field brought forth their young; and all great nations lived under its shadow. [7]Thus was it beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its root was by many waters. [8]The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it; the fir trees were not like its boughs, and the plane trees were not as its branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like it in its beauty. [9]I made it beautiful by the multitude of its branches, so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied it.'

[10]"Therefore thus said[a] YHWH: 'Because you are exalted in stature, and he has set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; [11]I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations; he shall surely deal with him; I have driven him out for his wickedness.
[12]Strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: on the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him. [13]On his ruin all the birds of the sky shall dwell, and all the animals of the field shall be on his branches; [14]to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, neither set their top among the thick boughs, nor that their mighty ones stand up on their height, even all who drink water: for they are all delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, among human beings who go down to the pit.'

[15]"Thus says[b] YHWH: 'In the day when he went down to Sheol I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained its rivers; and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. [16]I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to Sheol with those who descend into the pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the lower parts of the earth. [17]They also went down into Sheol with him to those who are slain by the sword; yes, those who were his arm, that lived under his shadow in the midst of the nations. [18]To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth: you shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude,' says[a] YHWH."

32 It happened in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of YHWH came to me, saying, [2]"Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and tell him, 'You were likened to a young lion of the nations: yet you are as a monster in the seas; and you broke out with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers.'

[3]"Thus says[b] YHWH: 'I will spread out my net on you with a company of many peoples; and they shall bring you up in my net. [4]I will leave you on the land, I will cast you forth on the open field, and will cause all the birds of the sky to settle on you, and I will satisfy the animals of the whole earth with you. [5]I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. [6]I will also water with your blood the land in which you swim, even to the mountains; and the watercourses shall be full of you. [7]When I shall extinguish you, I will cover the heavens, and make its stars dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light. [8]All the bright lights of the sky will I make dark over you, and set darkness on your land, says[c] YHWH. [9]I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I shall bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. [10]Yes, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for you, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall.'

[11]"For thus says[d] YHWH: 'The sword of the king of Babylon shall come on you. [12]By the swords of the mighty will I cause your multitude to fall; the terrible of the nations are they all: and they shall bring to nothing the pride of Egypt, and all its multitude shall be destroyed. 13I will destroy also all its animals from beside many waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of animals trouble them. 14Then will I make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil,' says[a] YHWH. 15'When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate and waste, a land destitute of that of which it was full, when I shall strike all those who dwell in it, then shall they know that I am YHWH. 16This is the lamentation with which they shall lament; the daughters of the nations shall lament therewith; over Egypt, and over all her multitude, shall they lament therewith,' says[b] YHWH."

17It happened also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of YHWH came to me, saying, 18"Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. 19'Whom do you pass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised.' 20They shall fall in the midst of those who are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword; draw her away and all her multitudes. 21The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of Sheol with those who help him: 'They are gone down, they lie still, even the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.'

22"Asshur is there and all her company; her graves are all around her; all of them slain, fallen by the sword; 23whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the pit, and her company is around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living.

24"There is Elam and all her multitude around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who are gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. 25They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude; her graves are around her; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of those who are slain.

26"There is Meshech, Tubal, and all their multitude around her grave[c]; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for they caused their terror in the land of the living. 27And they are not buried with the fallen warriors of ancient times,[a] who went down to Sheol with their weapons of war, and having their swords placed under their heads, but the punishment for their iniquity rested on their bones; for they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

28"But you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shall lie with those who are slain by the sword.

29"There is Edom, her kings and all her princes, who in their might are laid with those who are slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down to the pit.

30"There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who are gone down with the slain; in the terror which they caused by their might they are put to shame; and they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

31"Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword," says[b] YHWH. 32"For I have put his terror in the land of the living; and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude," says[c] YHWH.

33 The word of YHWH came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and tell them, 'When I bring the sword on a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman; 3if, when he sees the sword come on the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people; 4then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet, and doesn't take warning, if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be on his own head. 5He heard the sound of the trumpet, and didn't take warning; his blood shall be on him; whereas if he had taken warning, he would have delivered his soul. 6But if the watchman sees the sword come, and doesn't blow the trumpet, and the people aren't warned, and the sword comes, and take any person from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.'

7"So you, son of man, I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. 8When I tell the wicked, 'O wicked man, you shall surely die,' and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at your hand. [9]Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he doesn't turn from his way; he shall die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul.

[10]"You, son of man, tell the house of Israel: 'Thus you speak, saying, "Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we pine away in them; how then can we live?"' [11]Tell them, 'As I live,' says[a] YHWH, 'I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn, turn from your evil ways; for why will you die, house of Israel?'

[12]"You, son of man, tell the children of your people, 'The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his disobedience; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither shall he who is righteous be able to live thereby in the day that he sins.' [13]When I say to the righteous "He shall surely live," but he trusts in his righteousness and commits iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but he shall die because of the iniquity he has committed. [14]Again, when I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die'; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right; [15]if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that which he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. [16]None of his sins that he has committed shall be remembered against him: he has done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

[17]"Yet the children of your people say, 'The way of YHWH[b] is not just': but as for them, their way is not just. [18]When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, he shall even die in it. [19]When the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. [20]Yet you say, 'The way of the YHWH[c] is not just.' House of Israel, I will judge every one of you after his ways."

[21]It happened in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, "The city has been struck." [22]Now the hand of YHWH had been on me in the evening, before he who was escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more mute. [23]The word of YHWH came to me, saying, [24]"Son of man, they who inhabit those waste places in the land of Israel speak, saying, 'Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many;

the land is given us for inheritance.' 25Therefore tell them, 'Thus says[a] YHWH: "You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood: and shall you possess the land? 26You stand on your sword, you work abomination, and every one of you defiles his neighbor's wife: and shall you possess the land?"'

27"You shall tell them, 'Thus says Lord YHWH: "As I live, surely those who are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and him who is in the open field will I give to the animals to be devoured; and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves shall die of the pestilence. 28I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment;
and the pride of her power shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, so that none shall pass through. 29Then shall they know that I am YHWH, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed."'

30"As for you, son of man, the children of your people talk of you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, everyone to his brother, saying, 'Please come and hear what is the word that comes forth from YHWH.' 31They come to you as the people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but do not do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain. 32Look, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they do not do them.
33When this comes to pass, (look, it comes), then shall they know that a prophet has been among them."

34 The word of YHWH
came to me, saying,
2"Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and tell them, even to the shepherds, 'Thus says[b] YHWH: "Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves.
Shouldn't the shepherds feed the sheep? 3You eat the fat, and you clothe yourself with the wool, you kill the fatlings; but you do not feed the sheep. 4You haven't strengthened the diseased, neither have you healed that which was sick, neither have you bound up that which was broken, neither have you brought back that which was driven away, neither have you sought that which was lost; but with force and with rigor you have ruled over them. 5They were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became food to all the animals of the field.[c] 6My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill: yes, my sheep were scattered on all the surface of the earth; and there was none who searched or sought."'

7"'"Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of YHWH:
8'As I live,' says[a] YHWH, 'surely because my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became food to all the animals of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and didn't feed my sheep';
9therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of YHWH:
10Thus says[b] YHWH: 'Look, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; and I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not be food for them.'"

11"'For thus says[c] YHWH: "Look, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out.
12As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.
13I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country.
14I will feed them with good pasture; and on the mountains of the height of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie down in a good fold; and on fat pasture shall they feed on the mountains of Israel.
15I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down," says[d] YHWH.
16"I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but the fat and the strong I will destroy;[e] I will feed them in justice."

17"'As for you, O my flock, thus says[f] YHWH: "Look, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the male goats.
18Does it seem a small thing to you to have fed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? And to have drunk of the clear waters, but you must foul the residue with your feet?
19As for my sheep, they eat that which you have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet."

20"'Therefore thus says[g] YHWH to them: "Look, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep.

horns, until you have scattered them abroad; 22therefore I will save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. 23I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. 24I, YHWH, will be their God, and my servant David prince among them;" I, YHWH, have spoken it.

25"'I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil animals to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. 26I will make them and the places around my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season; there shall be showers of blessing. 27The tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am YHWH, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who made slaves of them. 28They shall no more be a prey to the nations, neither shall the animals of the earth devour them; but they shall dwell securely, and none shall make them afraid. 29I will raise up to them a plantation for renown, and they shall be no more consumed with famine in the land, neither bear the shame of the nations any more. 30They shall know that I, YHWH, their God am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people," says[a] YHWH. 31"You my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are men, and I am your God," says[b] YHWH.'"

35 Moreover the word of YHWH came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it, 3and tell it, 'Thus says[c] YHWH: "Look, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make you a desolation and an astonishment. 4I will lay your cities waste, and you shall be desolate; and you shall know that I am YHWH.

who are slain with the sword. 9I will and your cities shall not be

I am YHWH.

10""Because you have said,
'These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it'; whereas YHWH was there: 11therefore, as I live," says[a] YHWH, "I will do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I shall judge you. 12You shall know that I, YHWH, have heard all your insults which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they have been given us to devour.
13You have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard it." 14Thus says[b] YHWH: "When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate.
15As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do to you: you shall be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it; and they shall know that I am
YHWH."'"

36 "You, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, 'You mountains of Israel, hear the word of YHWH. 2Thus says[c] YHWH: "Because the enemy has said against you, 'Aha.' and,
'The ancient high places are ours in possession'"'; 3therefore prophesy, and say, 'Thus says[d] YHWH:
"Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that you might be a possession to the residue of the nations, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people"; 4therefore, you mountains of Israel, hear the word of[e] YHWH: "Thus says[f] YHWH to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which are become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are all around;

have I spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey.'"'

6"Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and tell the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, 'Thus says[h] YHWH: "Look, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you have borne

8"'"'But you, mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come. 9For, look, I am for you, and I will turn into you, and you shall be tilled and sown; 10and I will multiply men on you, all the house of Israel, even all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built; 11and I will multiply on you man and animal; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited after your former estate, and will do better to you than at your beginnings: and you shall know that I am YHWH. 12Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no more henceforth bereave them of children.'"

13"'Thus says[b] YHWH: "Because they say to you, 'You are a devourer of men, and have been a bereaver of your nation'; 14therefore you shall devour men no more, neither bereave your nation any more," says[c] YHWH; 15"neither will I let you hear any more the shame of the nations, neither shall you bear the reproach of the peoples any more, neither shall you cause your nation to stumble any more,[d]" says[e] YHWH.'" 16Moreover the word of YHWH came to me, saying, 17"Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their doings: their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity. 18Therefore I poured out my wrath on them for the blood which they had poured out on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols; 19and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. 20When they came to the nations, where they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, 'These are the people of YHWH, and are gone forth out of his land.' 21But I had respect for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, where they went.

nations, where you went. [23]I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned in their midst; and the nations shall know that I am YHWH[a] when I magnify myself among you before their eyes. [24]For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. [25]I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. [26]And I will also give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. And I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. [27]I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and you shall keep my ordinances, and do them. [28]You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. [29]I will save you from all your uncleanness: and I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine on you. [30]I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that you may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations. [31]Then you shall remember your evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. [33]"'Thus says[c] YHWH: 'In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built. [34]The land that was desolate shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all who passed by. [35]They shall say, "This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited." [36]Then the nations that are left around you shall know that I, YHWH, have built the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I, YHWH, have spoken it, and I will do it.'"

[37]"'Thus says[d] YHWH: 'For this, moreover, will I be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock. down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones. 2And he led me walk all around among them. And look, there were very many on the surface of the valley, and look, they were very dry. 3And he said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" And I answered, "YHWH,[a] you know."

4Then he said to me, "Prophesy over these bones, and tell them, 'Dry bones, hear the word of YHWH.' 5Thus says[b] YHWH to these bones: 'Look, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you will live. 6And I will put tendons on you, and make flesh grow on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you will live. Then you will know that I am YHWH.'"

7So I prophesied as I was commanded; and as I prophesied, there was a sound, and look, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to bone. 8And I watched, and look, there were tendons on them, and flesh grew and skin covered them. But there was no breath in them. 9Then he said to me, "Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and tell the breath, 'Thus says[c] YHWH: Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe on these corpses, that they may live.'" 10So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly great army.

11Then he said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Look, they say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are completely cut off.' 12Therefore prophesy, and tell them, 'Thus says[d] YHWH: Look, I will open your graves and will raise you from your graves, my people. And I will bring you into the land of Israel. 13And you will know that I am YHWH, when I have opened your graves and raise you up out of your graves, my people. 14And I will put my breath in you and you will live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you will know that I am YHWH; I have spoken it and I will do it,' says YHWH."

15And the word of YHWH came again to me, saying, 16"And you, son of man, take one stick and write on it, 'For Judah, and the people of Israel associated with him.' Then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim and all the house of Israel associated with him.' 17Then join them one to another for yourself into one stick, that they may become one in your hand. 18And when your people ask you, saying, 'Will you not tell us what these things mean?' 19tell them, 'Thus says[e] YHWH: "Look, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand

[21]"'Then say to them, 'Thus says[a] YHWH: Look, I am going to take the people of Israel from among the nations where they are gone, and will gather them from all around, and bring them into their own land. [22]And I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and one king will rule over them, and they will no longer be two nations, and no longer be divided into two kingdoms. [23]And they will no longer defile themselves with their idols, or with their detestable things, or with any of their transgressions. But I will save them from all their unfaithfulness[b] in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them. And will they be my people, and I will be their God.

[27]And my dwelling place will be with them; and I will be their God, and they will be my people. [28]Then the nations will know that I am YHWH who sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary is in their midst forever."'"

38 The word of YHWH came to me, saying, [2]"Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him, [3]and say, 'Thus says[c] YHWH: "Look, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal: [4]and I will turn you around, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you out, with all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them armed with swords; [5]Persia, Ethiopia, and Put with them, all of them with shield and helmet; [6]Gomer, and all his troops; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes; even many peoples with you.

shall designate men to travel through the land regularly, burying those who remain on the face of the land, in order to cleanse it. At the end of seven months they shall make a search. 15As they go through the land and anyone sees a human bone, he will put a marker next to it until the gravediggers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon Gog. 16Moreover, Hamonah will be the name of a city. Thus they shall cleanse the land.'

17"'And as for you, son of man, thus says[a] YHWH: Speak to every kind of bird and to all the wild animals, 'Assemble and come, gather from all around to my sacrifice which I am going to sacrifice for you, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, that you may eat flesh and drink blood. 18You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fattened animals of Bashan. 19And you shall eat fat until you are full, and drink blood until you are drunk, at my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. 20And you shall be filled at my table with horses and charioteers, with warriors and with all the soldiers,' says[b] YHWH.

21"'And I will set my glory among the nations, and all the nations shall see my judgment when I have executed it and my hand when I lay it on them. 22So the house of Israel shall know that I am YHWH their God, from that day on. 23And the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity, because they were unfaithful to me, so I hid my face from them, and I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and all of them fell by the sword. 24I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions, and I hid my face from them.'

25"'Therefore thus says[c] YHWH: 'Now will I restore the fortunes of Jacob and have mercy on the whole house of Israel, and I will be jealous for my holy name. 26And they shall feel remorse[d] for their disgrace and all the unfaithfulness they committed against me, when they dwell securely in their land with none to make them afraid. 27When I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, then I will be sanctified through them in the sight of the many nations. 28Then they will know that I am YHWH their God, because I sent them into exile among the nations, and then gathered them into their own land; and I will leave none of them there any more. 29And I will no longer hide my face from them, when I pour out my Spirit on the house of Israel,' says[e] YHWH."

40 In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was struck, in the same day, the hand of YHWH was on me, and he brought me there. [2]In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, whereon was as it were the frame of a city on the south. [3]He brought me there; and, look, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. [4]The man said to me, "Son of man, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I shall show you; for, to the intent that I may show them to you, you are brought here: declare all that you see to the house of Israel."
[5]Look, a wall on the outside of the house all around, and in the man's hand a measuring reed ten feet four inches[a] (based on a standard eighteen inches[b] plus three inches[c]). So he measured the thickness of the building ten feet four inches, and the height ten feet four inches. [6]Then came he to the gate which looks toward the east, and went up its steps: and he measured the threshold of the gate, ten feet four inches broad; and the other threshold, ten feet four inches broad.[d] [7]Every side-room was ten feet four inches long, and one reed broad; and the space between the side-rooms was eight feet seven inches;[e] and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate at the inner end was ten feet four inches. [8]He measured also the porch of the gate toward the house, ten feet four inches long. [9]Then measured he the porch of the gate, thirteen feet nine inches;[f] and its posts, three feet five inches;[g] and the porch of the gate was toward the inner end. [10]The side-rooms of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the jambs had the same measurement. [11]He measured the breadth of the opening of the gate, seventeen feet three inches;[h] and the length of the gate, twenty-two feet five inches;[i] [12]and a barrier in front of the side-rooms, twenty-one inches, and a barrier on the other side, twenty-one inches; and the side-rooms were ten feet four inches[j] square. [13]He measured the gate from the ceiling of the one side-room to the ceiling of the other, a breadth of fourty-three feet one inch;[k] the openings being opposite each other. 14He also measured[a] the porch, one hundred three feet four inches;[b] and to the jamb of the courtyard was the gateway all around. 15From the forefront of the gate at the entrance to the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were eighty-six feet one inch.[c] 16There were closed windows to the side-rooms, and toward their jambs within the gate all around, and likewise to the porches; and windows were around the inside; and on each jamb were palm trees.

17Then brought he me into the outer court; and look, there were rooms and a pavement, made for the court all around: thirty rooms faced the pavement. 18The pavement was by the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates; this was the lower pavement. 19Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate to the forefront of the inner court outside, one hundred seventy-two feet three inches,[d] both on the east and on the north. 20And the gate of the outer court which faced toward the north, he measured its length and its breadth. 21And its side-rooms were three on either side, and its jambs and its porches had the same measurement as the first gate; its length was eighty-six feet one inch,[e] and the breadth fourty-three feet one inch.[f] 22And its windows, and its porches, and the palm trees of it had the same measurement as the gate that faced toward the east. And they went up to it by seven steps; and its porch was in front of them. 23And there was a gate to the inner court across the gate to the north and the east; and he measured from gate to gate one hundred seventy-two feet three inches.[g]

24He led me toward the south; and look, a gate toward the south. And he measured from gate to gate toward the south one hundred seventy-two feet three inches.[j] 28Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate, and it had the same dimensions as the others. 29And its side-rooms, and its jambs, and its porches were

47He measured the court, one hundred seventy-two feet three inches[e] long, and one hundred seventy-two feet three inches broad, a square; and the altar was in front of the house. 48Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured the jambs of the porch, eight feet seven inches[f] on each side. And the breadth of the gate was twenty-four feet one inch,[g] and the sides of the gate[h] were five feet two inches[i] on each side. 49The length of the porch was thirty-four feet five inches,[j] and the breadth twenty feet eight inches.[k] And they went up to it by ten[l] steps; and there were pillars by the jambs on either side.

the entrance, three feet five inches;[a] and the entrance, ten feet four inches;[b] and the breadth of the entrance twelve feet one inch.[c] 4He measured its length, thirty-four feet five inches,[d] and the breadth, thirty-four feet five inches, before the sanctuary. And he said to me, "This is the most holy place."

5Then he measured the wall of the house, ten feet four inches;[e] and the breadth of every side-room, six feet eleven inches,[f] all around the house on every side. 6The side-rooms were in three stories, one over another, thirty in each story. And there were offsets all around the wall to serve as supports for the side-rooms, so that the supports were not supported by the wall of the house. 7And the side-rooms were broader as they encompassed the house at each successive story, for the structure encompassing the house went upward all around the house. Therefore the breadth of the house increased as it went up, and so one went up from the lowest story to the highest by the way of the middle room. 8I saw also that the house had a raised platform all around; the foundations of the side-rooms were a full measuring stick of ten feet four inches.[g]

9The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-rooms, on the outside, was eight feet seven inches:[h] and that which was left was the place of the side-rooms that belonged to the house. 10Between the rooms was a breadth of thirty-four feet five inches[i] around the house on every side. 11The doors of the side-rooms were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was eight feet seven inches[j] all around.

12The building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was one hundred twenty feet seven inches[k] broad; and the wall of the building was eight feet seven inches[l] thick all around, and its length one hundred fifty-five feet.[m]

13So he measured the house, one hundred seventy-two feet three inches[n] long; and the separate place, and the building, with its walls, one hundred seventy-two feet three inches long; 14also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, one hundred seventy-two feet three inches.

15He measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at its back, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred seventy-two feet three inches; and the inner temple, and the porches of the court; 16the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries around on their three stories, over against the threshold, with wood ceilings all around, and from the ground up to the windows, (now the windows were covered), 17to the space above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall all around inside and outside, by measure. 18It was made with cherubim and palm trees; and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces; 19so that there was the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. Thus was it made through all the house all around: 20from the ground to above the door were cherubim and palm trees made: thus was the wall of the temple. 21As for the temple, the door posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance of it was as the appearance of the temple. 22The altar was of wood, five feet two inches[a] high,[b] and three feet five inches[c] long, and three feet five inches[d] wide;[e] and its corners, and its base,[f] and its walls were of wood. And he said to me, "This is the table that is before YHWH." 23The temple and the sanctuary had two doors. 24The doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves: two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other. 25There were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, like as were made on the walls; and there was a threshold of wood on the face of the porch outside. 26There were closed windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side-rooms of the house, and the thresholds.

42 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the room that was over against the separate place, and which was over against the building toward the north. 2The length of the front at the north entrance was one hundred seventy-two feet three inches,[g] and the breadth was eighty-six feet two inches.[a]

3Facing the inner court of thirty-four feet five inches, and facing the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery facing gallery in three stories. 4Before the rooms was a walk of seventeen feet three inches[b] breadth inward, a way of one hundred seventy-two feet three inches[c]; and their doors were toward the north. 5Now the upper rooms were shorter; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middle, in the building. 6For they were in three stories, and they didn't have pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the uppermost was straitened more than the lowest and the middle from the ground. 7The wall that was outside by the side of the rooms, toward the outer court before the rooms, its length was eighty-six feet two inches.[d] 8For the length of the rooms that were in the outer court was eighty-six feet two inches: and look, before the temple were one hundred seventy-two feet three inches.[e]

10In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the south,[f] before the separate place, and before the building, there were rooms. 11The way before them was like the appearance of the way of the rooms which were toward the north; according to their length so was their breadth: and all their exits were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. 12According to the doors of the rooms that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.

13Then he said to me, "The north rooms and the south rooms, which are before the separate place, they are the holy rooms, where the priests who are near to YHWH shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy. 14When the priests enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments in which they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which pertains to the people."

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looks toward the east. 2Look, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shined with his glory. 3It was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. 4The glory of YHWH came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east. 5The Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and look, the glory of YHWH filled the house.

6I heard one speaking to me out of the house; and a man stood by me. 7He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever. The house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their prostitution, and by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places; 8in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their doorpost beside my doorpost, and there was but the wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed: therefore I have consumed them in my anger. 9Now let them put away their prostitution, and the dead bodies of their kings, far from me; and I will dwell in their midst forever.

22"On the second day you shall offer a male goat without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. 23When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish. 24You shall bring them near to YHWH, and the priests shall cast salt on them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering to YHWH.

25"Seven days you shall prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bull, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. 26Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they consecrate it. 27When they have accomplished the days, it shall be that on the eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, says[a] YHWH."

44 Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looks toward the east; and it was shut. 2YHWH said to me, "This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, neither shall any man enter in by it; for YHWH, the God of Israel, has entered in by it; therefore it shall be shut. 3As for the prince, he shall sit in it as prince to eat bread before YHWH; he shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same."

4Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and look, the glory of YHWH filled the house of YHWH: and I fell on my face.
5YHWH said to me, "Son of man, mark well, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I tell you concerning all the ordinances of the house of YHWH, and all its laws; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every exit of the sanctuary. 6You shall tell the rebellious,[b] even to the house of Israel, 'Thus says[c] YHWH: you house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, 7in that you have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house,[d] when you offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and you[e] have broken my covenant, to add to all your abominations. 8You have not performed the duty of my holy things; but you have set performers of my duty in my sanctuary for yourselves.'

9"Thus says[f] YHWH, 'No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall children of Israel. [10]But the Levites who went far from me, when Israel went astray, who went astray from me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity. [11]Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house: they shall kill the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. [12]Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, says[a] YHWH, and they shall bear their iniquity. [13]They shall not come near to me, to execute the office of priest to me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. [14]Yet will I make them performers of the duty of the house, for all its service, and for all that shall be done in it.

[15]"'But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who performed the duty of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister to me; and they shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood, says[b] YHWH: [16]they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my instruction.

[17]"'It shall be that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come on them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. [18]They shall have linen turbans on their heads, and shall have linen breeches on their waists; they shall not clothe themselves with anything that causes sweat. [19]When they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments in which they minister, and lay them in the holy rooms; and they shall put on other garments, that they not sanctify the people with their garments.

[20]"'Neither shall they shave their heads, nor allow their locks to grow long; they shall only cut off the hair of their heads. [21]Neither shall any of the priests drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. [22]Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her who is put away; but they shall take virgins of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest. [23]They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

[24]"'In a controversy they shall stand to judge; according to my ordinances shall they judge it: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts; and they shall make my Sabbaths holy.

25"'They shall go in to no dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband, they may defile themselves. 26After he is cleansed, they shall reckon to him seven days. 27In the day that he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, says[a] YHWH.

28"'They shall have an inheritance: I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession. 29They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs. 30The first of all the first fruits of every thing, and every offering of everything, of all your offerings, shall be for the priest: you shall also give to the priests the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house. 31The priests shall not eat of anything that dies of itself, or is torn, whether it be bird or animal.

45 "'Moreover, when you shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an offering to YHWH, a holy portion of the land; the length shall be the length of eight and one eighth miles,[b] and the breadth shall be six and a half miles.[c] It shall be holy in all its border all around. 2Of this there shall be for the holy place eight hundred sixty-one feet three inches[d] in length by eight hundred sixty-one feet three inches in breadth, square all around; and eighty-six feet two inches[e] for its suburbs all around. 3Of this measure you shall measure a length of eight and one eighth miles,[f] and a breadth of three and one quarter miles:[g] and in it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy. 4It is a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to YHWH; and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary. 5Eight and one eighth miles[h] in length, and three and one quarter miles[i] in breadth, shall be to the Levites, the ministers of the house. 9"Thus says[c] YHWH: 'Let it suffice you, princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute justice and righteousness; dispossessing my people, says[d] YHWH. 10You shall have just balances, and a just ephah,[e] and a just bath. 11The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer[f], and the ephah the tenth part of a homer: its measure shall be after the homer. 12The shekel shall be twenty gerahs. shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it on the door posts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court. [20]So you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who errs, and for him who is simple: so you shall make atonement for the house.

[21]"'In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. [22]On that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering. [23]The seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to YHWH, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a male goat daily for a sin offering. 46 "Thus says[a] YHWH: 'The gate of the inner court that looks toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the Sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. [2]The prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate outside, and shall stand by the post of the gate; and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. [3]The people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before YHWH on the Sabbaths and on the new moons. [4]The burnt offering that the prince shall offer to YHWH shall be on the Sabbath day six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish; [5]and the meal offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but shall go forth straight before him.
10The prince, when they go in, shall go in with of them; and when they go out, he shall go out.

11"'In the feasts and in the solemnities the meal offering shall be an ephah[a] for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 12When the prince shall prepare a freewill offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a freewill offering to YHWH, one shall open for him the gate that looks toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he does on the Sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

13"'You shall prepare a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering to YHWH daily:
morning by morning you shall prepare it. 14You shall prepare a meal offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour; a meal offering to YHWH continually by a perpetual ordinance. 15Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering.'

16"Thus says[b] YHWH: 'If the prince give a gift to any of his sons, it is his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance. 17But if he give of his inheritance a gift to one of his servants, it shall be his to the year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as for his inheritance, it shall be for his sons. 18Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance, to thrust them out of their possession; he shall give inheritance to his sons out of his own possession, that my people not be scattered every man from his possession.'"

19Then he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy rooms for the priests, which looked toward the north: and look, there was a place at the far western end.
20He said to me, "This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the meal offering; that they not bring them forth into the outer court, to sanctify the people." 21Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and look, in every corner of the court there was a court. 22In the four corners of the court there were courts enclosed, sixty-eight feet eleven inches[c] long and fifty-one feet eight inches[d] broad: these four in the corners were of one measure.

[23]There was a wall around in them, around the four, and boiling places were made under the walls all around. [24]Then he said to me, "These are the boiling houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people."

47 He brought me back to the door of the house; and look, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward; (for the forefront of the house was toward the east;) and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar. [2]Then he brought me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me round by the way outside to the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looks toward the east; and look, there ran out waters on the right side.
[3]When the man went forth eastward with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand seven hundred twenty-two feet six inches,[a] and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. [4]Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the waist. [5]Afterward he measured one thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed through. [6]He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?"

Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river. [7]Now when I had returned, look, on the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other. [8]Then he said to me, "These waters issue forth toward the eastern region, and shall go down into the Arabah; and they shall go toward the sea; into the sea shall the waters go which were made to issue forth; and the waters shall be healed. [9]It shall happen, that every living creature which swarms, in every place where the river goes, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters have come there, and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and everything shall live wherever the river comes. [10]It shall happen, that fishermen shall stand by it: from En Gedi even to En Eglaim shall be a place for the spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish of the Great Sea, exceeding many. [11]But the miry places of it, and its marshes, shall not be healed; they shall be given up to salt. [12]By the river on its bank, on this side and on that side, shall grow every tree for food, whose leaf shall not wither, neither shall its fruit fail: it shall bring forth new fruit every month, because its waters issue out of the sanctuary; and its fruit shall be for food, and its leaf for healing."

13"Thus says[a] YHWH: 'This shall be the border, by which you shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. 14You shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I swore to give it to your fathers: and this land shall fall to you for inheritance.
15"'This shall be the border of the land: On the north side, from the Great Sea, by the way of Hethlon, to the entrance of Zedad; 16Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazer Hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran. 17The border from the sea, shall be Hazar Enon at the border of Damascus; and on the north northward is the border of Hamath.
This is the north side. 18The east side, between Hauran and Damascus and Gilead, and the land of Israel, shall be the Jordan; from the north border to the eastern sea [as far as] Tamar.[b] This is the east side. 19The south side southward shall be from Tamar as far as the waters of Meriboth Kadesh, to the Wadi, to the Great Sea. This is the south side southward. 20The west side shall be the Great Sea, from the south border as far as over against Lebo Hamath. This is the west side.

21"'So you shall divide this land to you according to the tribes of Israel. 22It shall happen, that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you and to the aliens who live among you, who shall father children among you; and they shall be to you as the native-born among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. 23It shall happen, that in what tribe the stranger lives, there you shall give him his inheritance,' says[c] YHWH."

48 "Now these are the names of the tribes:
From the north end,
beside the way of Hethlon to Lebo Hamath, Hazar Enan at the border of Damascus, northward beside Hamath (and they shall have their sides east and west), Dan, one portion. 2By the border of Dan,

Asher, one portion. 3By the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, Naphtali, one portion. 4By the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, Manasseh, one portion. 5By the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, Ephraim, one portion. 6By the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, Reuben, one portion. 7By the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, Judah, one portion.

8"By the border of Judah,
from the east side to the west side,
shall be the offering which you shall offer, twenty-five thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the portions,
from the east side to the west side:
and the sanctuary shall be in its midst.
9The offering that you shall offer to YHWH shall be twenty-five thousand reeds in length, and ten thousand in breadth.
10For these, even for the priests, shall be the holy offering:
toward the north twenty-five thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south twenty-five thousand in length:
and the sanctuary of YHWH shall be in its midst.
11It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, who have kept my instruction, who didn't go astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.
12It shall be to them an offering from the offering of the land, a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites.

13"Answerable to the border of the priests, the Levites shall have twenty-five thousand in length,
and ten thousand in breadth:
all the length shall be twenty-five thousand,
and the breadth ten[a] thousand.
14They shall sell none of it, nor exchange it,
nor shall the first fruits of the land be alienated;
for it is holy to YHWH.

15"The five thousand that are left in the breadth, in front of the twenty-five thousand,
shall be for common use,
for the city,
for dwelling and for suburbs;
and the city shall be in its midst.
16These shall be its measures:
the north side four thousand and five hundred,
and the south side four thousand and five[b] hundred,
and on the east side four thousand and five hundred,
and the west side four thousand and five hundred.
17The city shall have suburbs: toward the north two hundred fifty,
and toward the south two hundred fifty,
and toward the east two hundred fifty,
and toward the west two hundred fifty.
18The remainder in the length, answerable to the holy offering,
shall be ten thousand eastward,
and ten thousand westward;
and it shall be answerable to the holy offering;
and its increase shall be for food to those who labor in the city.
19Those who labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it.
20All the offering shall be twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand:
you shall offer the holy offering foursquare, with the possession of the city.

21"The residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy offering and of the possession of the city; in front

of the twenty-five thousand of the offering toward the east border, and westward in front of the twenty-five thousand toward the west border, answerable to the portions, it shall be for the prince: and the holy offering and the sanctuary of the house shall be in its midst. 22Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, it shall be for the prince.

23"As for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west side, Benjamin, one portion. 24By the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon, one portion. 25By the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar, one portion. 26By the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun, one portion. 27By the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad, one portion. 28By the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar to the waters of Meribath Kadesh, to the Wadi, to the Great Sea. 29This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their several portions, says[a] YHWH.

30"These are the exits of the city: On the north side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure; 31and the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one. 32At the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one. 33At the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one. 34At the west side four thousand and five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one. 35It shall be eighteen thousand reeds around: and the name of the city from that day shall be, 'YHWH is there.'"[b]

Daniel

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Jerusalem, and besieged it. 2YHWH[c] gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god: and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of

[3]The king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in some of the people of Israel, even of the royal family and of the nobles; [4]youths in whom was no blemish, but well-favored, and skillful in all wisdom, and endowed with knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the language of the Chaldeans. [5]The king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's royal food, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years; that at its end they should stand before the king. [6]Now among these were, of the people of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. [7]The prince of the eunuchs gave names to them: to Daniel he gave the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abednego. [8]But Daniel determined in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's royal food, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. [9]Now God gave Daniel favor and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. [10]The prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths who are of your own age? So would you endanger my head with the king." [11]Then said Daniel to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: [12]"Test your servants for ten days; and let them give us vegetables to eat, and water to drink. [13]Then let our faces be looked on before you, and the face of the youths who eat of the king's royal food; and as you see, deal with your servants." [14]So he listened to them in this matter, and tested them ten days. [15]At the end of ten days their faces appeared better and fatter than all the youths who ate of the king's royal food. [16]So the steward took away their royal food, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them vegetables. [17]Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. [18]At the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. [19]The king talked with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore they entered the king's service. [20]In every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters who were in all his realm. [21]Daniel

2 In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him. [2]Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. [3]The king said to them, "I have had a dream, and my spirit is anxious to understand the dream." [4]Then spoke the Chaldeans to the king in the Aramaic language, "O king, live forever: tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation." [5]The king answered the Chaldeans, "The thing is gone from me: if you do not make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a rubbish heap. [6]But if you show the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor: therefore show me the dream and its interpretation." [7]They answered the second time and said, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation." [8]The king answered, "I know of a certainty that you would gain time, because you see the thing is gone from me. [9]But if you do not make known to me the dream, there is but one law for you; for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until such time that things might change. Therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me its interpretation." [10]The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, "There is not a man on the earth who can show the king's matter, because no king, lord, or ruler, has asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean. [11]It is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no other who can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh." [12]For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. [13]So the decree went forth, and the wise men were to be killed; and they sought Daniel and his companions to be killed. [14]Then Daniel returned an answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who was gone forth to kill the wise men of Babylon; [15]he answered Arioch the king's captain, "Why is the decree so urgent from the king?" Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. [16]Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the king the interpretation. [17]Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: [18]that they would seek mercy from the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. [19]Then was the secret revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. [20]Daniel answered, "Blessed be the name of God forever and ever; for wisdom and might are his. [21]He changes the times and the seasons; he removes kings, and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who have understanding; [22]he reveals the deep and secret things; he knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him. [23]I thank you, and praise you, God of my fathers, who has given me wisdom and might, and has now made known to me what we desired of you; for you have made known to us the king's matter." [24]Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said this to him: "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation." [25]Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said this to him, "I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Judah, who will make known to the king the interpretation." [26]The king answered Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?" [27]Daniel answered before the king, and said, "The secret which the king has demanded is such that no wise men, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, can show to the king; [28]but there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and he has made known to king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head on your bed, are these: [29]as for you, O king, your thoughts came into your mind on your bed, what should happen hereafter; and he who reveals secrets has made known to you what shall happen. [30]But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than all the living, but in order that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart. [31]You, O king, saw, and look, a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was extraordinary, stood before you; and its appearance was awesome. [32]As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze, [33]its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay. [34]You saw until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. [35]Then was the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold, broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them: and the stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. [36]This is the dream; and we will tell its interpretation before the king. [37]You, O king, are king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory; 38and wherever human beings dwell, the animals of the field and the birds of the sky has he given into your hand, and has made you to rule over them all: you are the head of gold. 39After you shall arise another kingdom inferior to yours; and another third kingdom of bronze, which shall bear rule over all the earth. 40The fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron, because iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes all these, shall it break in pieces and crush. 41Whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with miry clay. 42As the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. 43And[a] whereas you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mix with one another but they shall not hold together, even as iron does not mix with clay. 44In the days of those kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall its sovereignty be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume all those kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. 45Because you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the king what shall happen hereafter: and the dream is certain, and its interpretation sure." 46Then king Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, and worshiped Daniel, and commanded that they should present an offering and incense to him. 47The king answered Daniel and said, "Surely your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing you have been able to reveal this secret." 48Then the king made Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him to rule over the whole province of Babylon, and to be chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon. 49Daniel requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel was in the gate of the king.

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was eighty-eight feet seven inches,[b] and its breadth eight feet ten inches:[c] he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 3Then the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. 4Then the herald cried aloud, "To you it is commanded, peoples, nations, and languages, 5that whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, trigon, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up; 6and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace." 7Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, trigon, harp, pipe,[a] and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 8Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and brought accusation against the Jews. 9They answered Nebuchadnezzar the king, "O king, live for ever. 10You, O king, have made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, trigon, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image; 11and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. 12There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, have not regarded you: they do not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up." 13Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. 14Nebuchadnezzar answered them, "Is it on purpose, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? 15Now if you are ready whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, trigon, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music to fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if you do not worship, you shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands?" 16Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, "Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. 17If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. 18But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up." [19]Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the expression of his face was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Therefore he spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. [20]He commanded certain mighty men who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. [21]Then these men were bound in their cloaks, trousers, their turbans, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. [22]Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. [23]These three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. [24]Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up quickly. He spoke and said to his ministers, "Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?" They answered the king, "True, O king." [25]He answered, "Look, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they are unharmed; and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the gods." [26]Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace. He spoke and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most High God, come forth, and come here." Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came forth out of the midst of the fire. [27]The satraps, the prefects, and the governors, and the king's ministers, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power on their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their trousers changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them. [28]Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel, and delivered his servants who trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. [29]Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything evil against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be reduced to rubble; because there is no other god who is able to deliver in this way." [30]Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

4 "Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. [2]It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has worked toward me. [3]How great are his signs and how mighty are his wonders. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation. [4]I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. 5I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. 6Therefore I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. 7Then came in the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the diviners; and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me its interpretation. 8But finally Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and I told the dream before him, saying, 9"Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation. 10Thus were the visions of my head on my bed: I saw, and look, a tree in the midst of the earth; and its height was great. 11The tree grew, and was strong, and its height reached to the sky, and it could be seen anywhere on earth. 12The leaves of it were beautiful, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all. The animals of the field had shadow under it, and the birds of the sky lived in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it. 13I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and look, a watcher and a holy one came down from the sky. 14He cried aloud, and said this, "Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit. Let the animals get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches. 15Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth. 16Let his mind be changed from man's, and let an animal's mind be given to him; and let seven times pass over him. 17The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the decision is a command of the holy ones; so that[a] the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to anyone he wants, and sets up over it the lowliest of men. 18This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and you, Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation. But you are able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you." 19Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken mute for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered, Belteshazzar, "Do not let the dream, or the interpretation, trouble you." Belteshazzar answered, "My lord, the dream concerns those who hate you, and its interpretation to your adversaries. 20The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to the sky, and its sight to all the earth; 21 whose leaves were beautiful, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all; under which the animals of the field lived, and on whose branches the birds of the sky had their habitation. 22 It is you, O king, that are grown and become strong; for your greatness is grown, and reaches to the sky, and your dominion to the most distant part of the earth. 23 Whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from the sky, and saying,

'Cut down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over him. 24 This is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of the Most High, which is come on my lord the king: 25 that you shall be driven from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field, and you shall be made to eat grass as oxen, and shall be wet with the dew of the sky, and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will.
26 Whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom shall be restored to you. After that you shall have known that the heavens do rule. 27 Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if there may be a lengthening of your prosperity." 28 All this came on the king Nebuchadnezzar. 29 At the end of twelve months he was walking[a] in the royal palace of Babylon.
30 The king spoke and said, "Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the royal dwelling place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?" 31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from the sky, saying, "O king Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken. The kingdom has departed from you, 32 and you shall be driven from men; and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field; you shall be made to eat grass as oxen; and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he wants." 33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled on Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky, until his hair was grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.
34 "At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored him who lives forever. For his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation. 35 All the inhabitants of the earth are according to his will in the host of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or tell him, “What have you done?” 36At the same time my understanding returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and splendor returned to me; and my counselors and my lords sought me out; and I was reinstated[a] over my kingdom, and even more greatness was added to me. 37Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those who walk in pride he is able to humble.”

5 Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. 2Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his lords, his wives and his secondary wives, might drink from them. 3Then they brought the gold and silver[b] vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his secondary wives, drank from them. 4They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of bronze, of iron, of wood, and of stone. 5In the same hour came forth the fingers of a man’s hand, and wrote over against the lampstand on the plaster of the wall of the king’s palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. 6Then the king’s face was turned pale, and his thoughts troubled him; and the joints of his thighs gave way, and his knees began knocking together. 7The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the diviners. The king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, “Whoever shall read this writing, and show me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.” 8Then came in all the king’s wise men; but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation. 9Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his face turned pale, and his lords were perplexed. 10Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house. The queen spoke and said, “O king, live forever; do not let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your face be changed. 11There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and king Nebuchadnezzar your father, your father the king,[a] made him chief of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and diviners; [12]because an extraordinary spirit, and knowledge, and understanding to interpret[b] dreams, explain riddles, and solve knotty problems[c] were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation." [13]Then was Daniel brought in before the king. The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Are you that Daniel, who are of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah? [14]I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and extraordinary wisdom are found in you. [15]Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. [16]But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and solve problems. Now if you can read the writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom." [17]Then Daniel answered before the king, "Keep your gifts for yourself, and give your rewards to another;. Nevertheless I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation. [18]You king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty. [19]And because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. Whom he would he killed, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down. [20]But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was removed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him. [21]And he was driven from the sons of men, and his mind was made like the animals', and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. He was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky; until he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he sets up over it whomever he wants. [22]You his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this, [23]but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven. And they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your secondary wives, have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see, nor hear, nor know. And the God in whose hand your breath is, and whose are all your ways, you have not glorified. [24]Then was the part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed. [25]This is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. [26]This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God has numbered your kingdom, and brought it to an end; [27]TEKEL; you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting. [28]PERES; your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians." [29]Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom. [30]In that night Belshazzar the Chaldean King was slain. [31]Darayavush[a] the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

6 It pleased Darayavush to set over the kingdom one hundred twenty satraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom; [2]and over them three administrators, of whom Daniel was one; that these satraps might give account to them, and that the king might not suffer loss. [3]Then this Daniel was distinguished above the administrators and the satraps, because an extraordinary spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. [4]Then the administrators and the satraps sought to find a charge against Daniel regarding the kingdom; but they could find no charge or fault, because he was faithful. Neither was there any error or fault found in him. [5]Then these men said, "We will not find any charge against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God." [6]Then these administrators and satraps assembled together to the king, and said this to him, "King Darayavush, live forever. [7]All the administrators of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong decree, that whoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except of you, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. [8]Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be changed." [9]Therefore king Darayavush signed the writing and the decree. [10]When Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his chamber toward Jerusalem) and he kneeled on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did before. [11]Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and petition before his God. [12]Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree.[a] "Haven't you signed a decree, that every man who shall make petition to any god or man within thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?" The king answered, "The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be changed." 13Then they answered and said before the king, "That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, doesn't regard you, O king, nor the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day." 14Then the king, when he heard these words, was very displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him. And he labored until the going down of the sun to rescue him. 15Then these men assembled together to the king, and said to the king, "Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no decree nor statute which the king establishes may be changed." 16Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spoke and said to Daniel, "Your God whom you serve continually, he will deliver you." 17A stone was brought, and placed on the opening of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. 18Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting; neither were instruments of music brought before him. And his sleep fled from him. 19Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions. 20When he came near to the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice. The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God. Is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions?" 21Then said Daniel to the king, "O king, live forever. 22My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; because before him innocence was found in me; and also before you, O king, have I done no wrong." 23Then was the king exceedingly glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found on him, because he had trusted in his God. 24The king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions overpowered them, and broke all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den. 25Then king Darayavush wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: "Peace be multiplied to you. 26I make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the living God, and steadfast forever. His kingdom shall not be destroyed; and his dominion shall be to the end. 27He delivers and rescues, and he works signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions." [28]So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darayavush, and in the reign of Koresh the Persian.

7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions in his mind on his bed. Then he wrote the dream and told the summary of it. [2]Daniel spoke and said, "I saw in my vision by night, and, look, the four winds of the sky broke forth on the great sea. [3]Four great animals came up from the sea, different from one another. [4]The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings. I saw until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand on two feet as a man; and a man's mind was given to it. [5]And look, another animal, a second one, like a bear; and it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth. And they said this to it, 'Arise, devour much flesh.' [6]After this I saw, and look, another one, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird.
The animal also had four heads;
and dominion was given to it.
[7]After this I saw in the night visions, and look, a fourth animal, awesome and powerful, and extremely strong. And it had great iron teeth. It devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped what was left with its feet. And it was diverse from all the animals that were before it; and it had ten horns. [8]I considered the horns, and look, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots. And look, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking arrogant things. [9]I saw until thrones were placed, and the Ancient of Days took his seat. His clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool. His throne was fiery flames, and its wheels burning fire. [10]A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him. Thousands of thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him. The court sat in judgment, and the books were opened. [11]I saw at that time because of the voice of the arrogant words which the horn spoke. I was watching until the animal was killed and its body destroyed and was given to be burned with fire. [12]As for the rest of the animals, their dominion was taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.
[13]I saw in the night visions, and look, there came with the clouds of the sky one like a son of man,[a] and he came even to the Ancient of Days, and they brought him near before him. [14]There was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom

[a]7:13 Matthew 8:20; Revelation 1:13 that which shall not be destroyed.

15As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved in the midst of my body, and the visions of my mind troubled me. 16I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the true meaning concerning all this. So he told me, and revealed to me the interpretation of these things. 17These great animals, which are four, are four kings, who shall arise out of the earth. 18But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, forever and ever. 19Then I desired to know the true meaning concerning the fourth animal, which was different from all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its claws of bronze; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped what was left with its feet. 20And concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke arrogant things, whose look was larger than the others. 21I saw, and the same horn made war with the holy ones, and prevailed against them, 22until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was given to the holy ones of the Most High, and the time came that the holy ones possessed the kingdom. 23This he said, 'The fourth animal shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. 24As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise, and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former,
and he shall put down three kings.
25He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall oppress the holy ones of the Most High; and he shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given over to him until a time and times and half a time. 26And the court shall sit in judgment, and they shall take away his dominion, consumed and completely destroyed forever.
27The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the holy ones of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.' 28Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts troubled me greatly, and my face turned pale. I kept the matter to myself."

8 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me previously.
2And I saw in the vision, and when I looked, I was in the citadel of Shushan, which is in the province of Elam. And I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai. 3Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and look, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns. And the two horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one came up last. 4I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no animals could stand before him, neither was there any who could deliver out of his hand. But he did according to his will, and became great. 5As I was considering, look, a male goat came from the west over the surface of the whole earth, and did not touch the ground. And the goat had a prominent horn between his eyes. 6He came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and rushed at him in the fury of his power. 7I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns. And there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he threw him down to the ground and trampled on him, and there was no one who could deliver the ram from his power. 8The male goat became very strong. But when he was strong, the large horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four prominent horns toward the four winds of heaven. 9Out of one of them came forth a little horn, which grew exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the beautiful land. 10It grew so great that it reached to the host of heaven, and some of the host and of the stars it cast down to the ground, and trampled on them. 11And it magnified itself, even against the Prince of the host; and it took away from him the daily sacrifice, and the place of his sanctuary was thrown down. 12The host was given over to it together with the daily sacrifice because of transgression. And it cast down truth to the ground, and kept prospering. 13Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who spoke, "How long shall be the vision concerning the[a] daily sacrifice, and the transgression that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled?" 14He said to me,[b] "To two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be restored to its rightful state." 15It came about when I, Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought to understand it. And look, there stood before me someone who appeared to be a man. 16I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, and called out and said, "Gabriel, make this man understand the vision." 17So he came near where I stood, and when he came I was frightened, and fell prostrate. But he said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision belongs to the time of the end." 18Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and stood me upright. 19He said, "Look, I will make you know what shall be in the latter time of wrath, for it[c] belongs to the appointed time of the end. 20The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. 21The male goat is the king of Greece, and the large horn that is between his eyes is the first king. 22As for that which was broken, in the place where four stood up, four kingdoms shall arise out of his[a] nation, but not with his power. 23In the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have reached their full measure, a rash and deceitful king shall arise. 24His power shall be great, but not by his own strength; and he shall cause terrible destruction, and shall succeed in whatever he does. And he shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. 25Through his cunning he shall cause deceit to prosper by his influence, and he shall be great in his own mind, and without warning he shall destroy many. He shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be shattered, but not by human hands. 26The vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true; but seal up the vision because it refers to many days from now." 27I, Daniel, was overcome, and was ill for days. Then I rose up, and carried out the king's business. And I was astonished by the vision, but there was no one to explain it.

9 In the first year of Darayavush the son of Achashyerosh, of Median descent, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans-- 2in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood from the books the number of the years about which the word of YHWH came to Jeremiah the prophet, for the completion of the desolation of Jerusalem, seventy years. 3And I turned to the Lord God, to seek by prayer and petitions, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. 4I prayed to YHWH my God, and made this confession, "O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps his covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments. 5We have sinned, and have done what is wrong and wicked, and have rebelled, even turning aside from your commandments and from your ordinances. 6Neither have we listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our leaders, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. 7Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but to us open shame, as at this day, to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries where you have driven them, because of their unfaithful deeds that they have committed against you. 8YHWH, to us belongs open shame, to our kings, to our leaders, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you. 9To the Lord our God belong compassion and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against him. 10And have not obeyed the voice of YHWH our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. 11Yes, all Israel has transgressed your law, and turned away, refusing to obey your voice. Therefore has the curse been poured out on us, and the oath that is written in the Law of Moses the servant of God, for we have sinned against you. 12He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us, and against our rulers who ruled us, by bringing on us a great calamity; for under the whole heaven such has not been done as has been done on Jerusalem. 13As it is written in the Law of Moses, all this calamity has come on us. Yet have we not tried to gain the favor of YHWH our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and have discernment in your truth. 14Therefore has YHWH watched over the calamity, and brought it on us, for YHWH our God is just in all he has done, and we have not obeyed his voice. 15"And now, Lord our God, who has brought your people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have made a name for yourself, even to this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. 16Lord, according to all your righteousness, let your anger and please let your wrath be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become a reproach to all who are around us. 17Now therefore, our God, listen to the prayer of your servant, and to his petitions, and cause your face to shine on your sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. 18My God, turn your ear, and hear; open your eyes, and see our desolation, and the city which is called by your name. For we do not present our petitions before you for our righteousness, but for your great mercy. 19Lord, hear. Lord, forgive. Lord, listen and take action. Do not delay, for your own sake, my God, because your city and your people are called by your name." 20While I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my petition before YHWH my God for the holy mountain of my God, 21while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, came to me in my weariness about the time of the evening sacrifice. 22He instructed me, and talked with me, and said, "Daniel, I have now come forth to give you wisdom and understanding. 23At the beginning of your petitions the commandment went forth, and I have come to tell you, for you are greatly loved. Therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision. 24Seventy weeks are decreed on your people and on your holy city, to put an end to the transgression, and to make an end to sin, and to atone for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy place. 25Know therefore and understand that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem until the time of the Messiah, the Prince, there shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks. It shall be built again, with open spaces and a moat, but in times of distress. 26After the sixty-two weeks the Messiah shall be cut off, and shall have nothing. And the people of a ruler who shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and his end shall come with a flood, and until the end there shall be war; desolations are decreed. 27He shall make a firm covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease. And on the wing of abominations shall come one who destroys, and even until a complete destruction, until the decreed end is poured out on the one who destroys."

10 In the third year of Koresh king of Persia a word was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the word was true: a great war. And he understood the word, and had understanding of the vision. [2]In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three whole weeks. [3]I had no pleasing food, neither meat nor wine came into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled. [4]In the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is the Tigris,[a] [5]I lifted up my eyes and looked, and look, a man clothed in linen, around his waist a belt made of pure gold from Uphaz. [6]His body was like beryl, and his face like the appearance of lightning, and his eyes like flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like burnished bronze, and the sound of his words like the sound of a multitude. [7]I, Daniel, alone saw the vision; for the men who were with me did not see the vision; but a great trembling fell on them, and they fled to hide themselves. [8]So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me; for my natural appearance grew deathly pale, and I retained no strength. [9]Yet I heard the sound of his words, and when I heard the sound of his words, then I fell into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground. [10]Look, a hand touched me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my hands. [11]He said to me, "Daniel, man greatly loved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for I have now been sent to you." And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. [12]Then he said to me, "Do not be afraid, Daniel; for from the first day that you did set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard. And I have come because of your words. [13]But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; but, look, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was left there with the kings of Persia. [14]Now I have come to make you understand what shall happen to your people in the latter days; for the vision refers to future days." [15]And when he had spoken to me according to these words, I turned my face toward the ground, and could not speak. [16]And look, something like a man's hand[b] touched my lips. Then I opened my mouth and spoke and said to him who stood before me, "My lord, it is because of the vision anguish has come upon me, and I have no strength. 17For how can this servant of my lord talk with my lord? As for me, no strength remains, and I am breathless." 18Then one like the appearance of a man touched me again and strengthened me. 19And he said, "Greatly loved man, do not be afraid, peace be to you; be strong, be strong."

[b]10:16 DSS Hebrew Mss LXX. MT reads "in the likeness of a human"

When he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me."

20Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia. When I go forth, look, the prince of Greece shall come. 21But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the Book of Truth. And there is no one who contends with me against them except Michael, your prince."

11 "And as for me, in the first year of Darayavush the Mede, I stood up to support and strengthen him. 2And now what I show you is true. Look, there shall arise three more kings in Persia, and the fourth shall be far richer than all of them; and when he has grown strong through his riches, he shall stir up all the kingdom of Greece. 3And a powerful king shall arise, who shall rule an extensive empire, and do as he pleases. 4When he shall arise, his kingdom shall be broken up, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to his authority with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be uprooted, and will go to others besides these. 5The king of the south shall grow strong, and one of his officers shall grow more powerful, and shall have a greater kingdom than his. 6At the end of years they shall join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain her power; neither shall his strength endure; but she shall be surrendered, and her attendants, and he who became the father of her, and he who supported her in those times. 7But out of a shoot from her roots shall arise in his place, who shall come against the army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail. 8Also their gods, with their molten images, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive into Egypt; and he shall withdraw for some years from the king of the north. 9And he shall come into the realm of the king of the south, but he shall return into his own land. 10And his sons shall wage war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall advance and overflow and pass through, and they shall return and wage war, as far as his fortress. 11The king of the south shall be moved with rage and shall come forth and fight against him, even with the king of the north; and he shall raise a great multitude, and the multitude shall be given into his hand. 12The multitude shall be taken away, and his heart shall be exalted; and he shall cast down tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail. 13The king of the north shall return, and shall raise a multitude greater than the former; and he shall advance after some years with a great army and with abundant supplies. 14And in those times many shall rise up against the king of the south: also the violent ones among your people shall rise up in confirmation of the vision; but they shall fail. 15So the king of the north shall come, and build up a siege mound and take a well-fortified city. And the forces of the south shall not prevail, neither his best troops, neither shall there be any strength to resist. 16But he who comes against him shall do as he pleases, and no one shall be able to withstand him. And he shall stand in the beautiful land, and destruction will be within his power. 17He shall set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and will reach an agreement with him which he shall put into effect. And he shall give him a daughter of women to send destruction on him; but it will not last or be to his advantage. 18After this shall he turn his face to the coastal regions, and shall capture many. But a commander shall bring his insolence to an end. In addition, he shall repay him for his insolence. 19Then he shall turn his attention toward the fortresses of his own land, but he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found again. 20Then shall arise in his place one who shall send an exactor of tribute to pass through the kingdom to maintain its glory; but within few days he shall be destroyed, though not in anger nor in battle. 21In his place shall arise a despicable person, to whom the honor of kingship had not been given, but he shall come in a time of prosperity, and shall obtain the kingdom through deceit. 22And large armies shall be swept away and shattered before him, as well as the prince of the covenant. 23And after an alliance is made with him he shall work deceitfully; for he shall become strong with a small force. 24In a time of prosperity he shall come even on the richest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor their fathers; he shall distribute among them plunder, and spoil, and property. He shall devise plans against their strongholds, but only for a time. 25And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall wage war in battle with an extremely large and powerful army; but he shall not stand; for they shall devise plans against him. 26Yes, those who eat of his royal food shall seek to destroy him, and his army shall be swept away; and many shall fall slain. 27As for both these kings, their minds shall be fixed on evil, and they shall speak lies at the table; but it shall not succeed; for still the end shall be at the appointed time. 28Then shall he return into his land with great property; and his mind shall be against the holy covenant. And he shall take action, and then return to his own land. 29At the appointed time he shall return, and come into the south; but this time the outcome shall not be as it was before. 30For ships from Kittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be intimidated, and shall turn back, and be enraged against the holy covenant, and shall take action. He shall turn back, and show regard to those who forsake the holy covenant. 31Forces shall come at his order, and they shall profane the sanctuary and the fortress, and shall take away the daily burnt offering, and they shall set up the abomination that causes desolation.[a] 32And those who act wickedly toward the covenant he shall corrupt by smooth words; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and take action. 33And those who are wise among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by plunder for some time. 34Now when they shall fall, they shall receive a little help. And many shall join with them insincerely. 35Some of those who are wise shall fall, to be refined, purified and cleansed until the time of the end; for the appointed time is still to come. 36And the king shall do as he pleases. And he shall exalt and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak outrageous things against the God of gods. And he shall prosper until the indignation is accomplished; for that which is decreed shall be done. 37Neither shall he regard the gods of his fathers, nor the one desired by women, nor show regard to any other god, because he shall magnify himself above all. 38But instead he shall honor the god of fortresses; a god whom his fathers did not know shall he honor with gold and silver, and with valuable stones, and costly gifts. 39And he shall deal with the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign god. Whoever acknowledges him he shall grant considerable honor; and he shall make them rulers over many, and shall divide the land for a price. 40And at the time of the end shall the king of the south attack him. And the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall invade countries, and pass through like a flood. 41He shall enter also into the beautiful land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall be delivered out of his hand: Edom, and Moab, and the foremost of the sons of Ammon. 42He shall reach out his hand also on other countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. 43But he shall have control over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the riches of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his feet. 44But news out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; and he shall go out with tremendous rage to destroy and utterly sweep away many. 45And he shall pitch his royal tents between the sea and the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he shall come to his end, with no one to help him.

12 "At that time shall Michael arise, the great prince who watches over the children of your people. And there shall be a time of distress unparalleled since the beginning of the nation until that time. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who shall be found written in the book. 2Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. 3And those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who turn many to righteousness like the stars forever and ever. 4But you, Daniel, close up these words, and seal the book, until the time of the end. Many shall roam here and there, and knowledge[a] shall increase."

5Then I, Daniel, looked, and look, two others stood, one on this bank of the river, and one on the other bank of the river. 6And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, "How long shall it be till these wonders take place?" 7I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him who lives forever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when they have made an end of breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. 8And I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said, "My lord, what shall be the outcome of these things?" 9And he said, "Go your way, Daniel, for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end. 10Many shall be purified, cleansed and refined; but the wicked shall act wickedly. And none of the wicked shall understand, but those who are wise shall understand. 11From the time that the daily sacrifice is taken away, and the abomination that causes desolation[b] is set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred ninety days. 12Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred thirty-five days. 13But go your way until the end. For you shall rest, and shall rise to receive your reward at the end of the days.

Hosea

1 The word of YHWH that came to Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel. 2When YHWH

[a]12:4 Hebrew hd't "knowledge." LXX reads adikia = hr't "wickedness." A dalet-resh (ד-ר) confusion

[b]12:11 Matthew 24:15; Mark 13:14

spoke at the first by Hosea, YHWH said to Hosea, "Go, take for yourself a wife of prostitution and children of unfaithfulness; for the land commits great adultery, forsaking YHWH."

3So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and bore him a son.

4YHWH said to him, "Call his name 'Jezreel,'[a] for yet a little while and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. 5It will happen in that day that I will break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel."

6She conceived again, and bore a daughter. Then he said to him, "Call her name 'No Compassion,'[b] for I will no longer have compassion on the house of Israel, that I should in any way pardon them. 7But I will have compassion on the house of Judah, and will save them by YHWH their God, and will not save them by bow, or by sword, or by battle, or by chariots,[c] or[d] by horses, or by horsemen."

8Now when she had weaned No Compassion, she conceived, and bore a son.

9He said, "Call his name 'Not My People,'[e] for you are 'Not my People' and I am 'Not your I AM.'[f]
10Yet the number of the children of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, which can't be measured nor numbered; and it will come to pass that, in the place where it was said to them, "You are 'Not My People,'" they will be called "Children of the Living God."[g] 11The people of Judah and the children of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint themselves one head, and will go up from the land; for great will be the day of Jezreel.

2 "Say to your brothers, 'My People.'[h] and to your sisters, 'Compassion.'[i] 2Contend with your mother.
Contend, for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband;
and let her put away her prostitution from her face, and her adulteries from between her breasts; 3Lest I strip her naked, and make her bare as in the day that she was born, and make her like a wilderness, and set her like a dry land,
and kill her with thirst.

[4]Indeed, on her children I will have no mercy;
for they are children of unfaithfulness;
[5]For their mother has played the prostitute.
She who conceived them has done shamefully;
for she said, ‘I will go after my lovers,
who give me my bread and my water,
my wool and my flax,
my oil and my drink.’
[6]Therefore, look, I will hedge up her[a] way with thorns, and I will build a wall against her,
that she can’t find her way.
[7]She will follow after her lovers, but she won’t overtake them;
and she will seek them,
but won’t find them.
Then she will say, ‘I will go and return to my first husband;
for then was it better with me than now.’
[8]For she did not know that I gave her the grain, the new wine, and the oil,
and multiplied to her silver[b] and gold, which they used for Baal.
[9]Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, and my new wine in its
season,
and will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered her nakedness.
[10]Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her
lovers,
and no one will deliver her
out of my hand.
[11]I will also cause all her celebrations to cease:
her feasts, her new moons, her Sabbaths, and all her solemn assemblies.
[12]I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees,
about which she has said, ‘These are my wages that my lovers have given me;
and I will make them a forest,’
and the animals of the field[c] shall eat them.
[13]I will visit on her the days of the Baals,
to which she burned incense, when she decked herself with her earrings and her
jewels,
and went after her lovers,
and forgot me,” says YHWH.
[14]“Therefore, look, I will allure
her,
and bring her into the
wilderness,
and speak tenderly to her.

15 I will give her vineyards from there, and the Valley of Achor for a door of hope;
and she will respond there,
as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.
16 It will be in that day," says YHWH, "that you will call me 'my husband,' and no longer call me 'my master.' 17 For I will take away the names of the Baals out of her mouth, and they will no longer be mentioned by name.
18 In that day I will make a covenant for them with the animals of the field, and with the birds of the sky, and with the crawling creatures of the ground.
I will break the bow, the sword, and the battle out of the land, and will make them lie down safely.
19 I will betroth you to me forever.
Yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, in justice, in loving kindness, and in compassion.
20 I will even betroth you to me in faithfulness;
and you shall know YHWH.
21 It will happen in that day, I will respond," says YHWH, "I will respond to the heavens, and they will respond to the earth; 22 and the earth will respond to the grain, and the new wine, and the oil; and they will respond to Jezreel.
23 And I will sow her for myself in the land;
and I will have compassion on No Compassion; and I will say to Not My People, 'You are my people;' and they will say,[a] 'My God.'"[b]

3 YHWH said to me, "Go again, love a woman who loves[c] another, and is an adulteress, even as YHWH loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods, and love cakes of raisins."

2 So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer and a half of barley.[d] 3 I said to her, "You shall stay with me many days. You shall not play the prostitute, and you shall not be with any other man. I will also be so toward you."

[4]For the children of Israel shall abide many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without sacred stone, and without ephod or idols. [5]Afterward the children of Israel shall return, and seek YHWH their God, and David their king, and shall come with trembling to YHWH and to his blessings in the last days.

4 Hear the word of YHWH, you children of Israel;
for YHWH has a charge against the inhabitants of the land:
"Indeed there is no truth,
nor goodness,
nor knowledge of God in the
land.
[2]There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery;[a] they break boundaries, and bloodshed causes bloodshed.
[3]Therefore the land mourns, and all those who dwell[b] in it will waste away,
along with the animals of the field
and the crawling creatures of the earth [c]
and the birds of the sky, and even the fish of the sea will be taken away.
[4]"Yet let no man bring a charge, neither let any man accuse; for your people are like those who bring charges against a priest.
[5]You will stumble in the day, and the prophet will also stumble with you in the night;
and I will destroy your
mother.
[6]My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you,
that you may be no priest to
me.
Because you have forgotten your God's law,
I will also forget your
children.
[7]As they were multiplied, so they sinned against me.
They have exchanged[d]
their glory into shame.
[8]They feed on the sin of my
people,
and set their heart on their
iniquity.
[9]It will be, like people, like priest;
and I will punish them for their ways,
and will repay them for their deeds.
[10]They will eat, and not have enough.

They will play the prostitute,
and will not increase;
because they have abandoned giving to
YHWH.
11 Prostitution, wine, and new wine take away
understanding.
12 My people consult with their wooden idol,
and answer to a stick of
wood.
Indeed the spirit of prostitution has led them astray, and they have been unfaithful to their God.
13 They sacrifice on the tops of the
mountains,
and burn incense on the hills, under oaks and poplars and shady[a] terebinths, because its shade is
good.
Therefore your daughters play the prostitute,
and your brides commit adultery.
14 I will not punish your daughters when they play the prostitute,
nor your brides when they commit adultery;
because the men consort with prostitutes,
and they sacrifice with the shrine prostitutes;
so the people without understanding will come to ruin.
15 "Though you, Israel, play the prostitute,
yet do not let Judah offend;
and do not come to Gilgal, neither go up to Beth Aven, nor swear, 'As YHWH lives.' 16 For Israel has behaved extremely stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer.
Then how will YHWH feed them like a lamb in a meadow.
17 17 Ephraim, joined to idols, has placed[b] stumbling blocks[c] against himself.
18 Their drink has become sour.
They play the prostitute
continually.
Her rulers dearly love their shameful way.
19 The wind has wrapped her up in its wings;
and they shall be disappointed because of their sacrifices.[d]

5 "Listen to this, you
priests.
Listen, house of Israel, and give ear, house of the king.
For the judgment is against you;
for you have been a snare at Mizpah,
and a net spread on Tabor.
2 The rebels are deep in slaughter; but I discipline all of them.
3 I know Ephraim,

and Israel is not hidden from me;
for now, Ephraim, you have played the prostitute.
Israel is defiled.
4 Their deeds won't allow them to turn to their God;
for the spirit of prostitution is within them, and they do not know YHWH.
5 The pride of Israel testifies to his face.
Therefore Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their iniquity.
Judah also will stumble with them.
6 They will go with their flocks and with their herds to seek YHWH;
but they won't find him.
He has withdrawn himself from them.
7 They are unfaithful to YHWH; for they have borne illegitimate children.
Now the new moon will devour them with their fields.

8 "Blow the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah.
Sound a battle cry at Beth Aven, behind you, Benjamin.
9 Ephraim will become a desolation in the day of rebuke.
Among the tribes of Israel, I have made known that which will surely be.
10 The princes of Judah are like those who remove a landmark.
I will pour out my wrath on them like water.
11 Ephraim is oppressed, he is crushed in judgment;
Because he is intent in his pursuit of idols.
12 Therefore I am to Ephraim like a moth, and to the house of Judah like rottenness.

13 "When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah his wound, Then Ephraim went to Assyria, and sent to king Jareb:
but he is not able to heal you, neither will he cure you of your wound.
14 For I will be to Ephraim like a lion, and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I myself will tear in pieces and go away.
I will carry off, and there will be no one to deliver.
15 I will go and return to my place, until they acknowledge their offense, and seek my face.
In their affliction they will seek me earnestly."

6 "Come, and let us return to YHWH; for he has torn us to pieces, and he will heal us;
he has injured us,
and he will bind up our wounds.
2 After two days he will revive us.
On the third day he will raise us up, and we will live before him.

3 Let us acknowledge YHWH.
Let us press on to know
YHWH.
As surely as the sun rises,
YHWH will appear.
He will come to us like the rain, like the spring rain that waters the earth."

4 "Ephraim, what shall I do to you?
Judah, what shall I do to
you?
For your love is like a morning cloud,
and like the dew that disappears early.
5 Therefore I have cut them to pieces with the prophets;
I killed them with the words
of my mouth,
and my judgment goes forth as the light.[a] 6 For I desire mercy, and not sacrifice;
and the knowledge of God more than burnt
offerings.
7 But they, like Adam,[b] have broken the covenant.
They were unfaithful to me,
there.
8 Gilead is a city of evildoers;
it is stained with blood.
9 As gangs of robbers wait to ambush a man,
so the company of priests murder in the way toward Shechem, committing shameful crimes.
10 In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing.
There is prostitution in Ephraim.
Israel is defiled.

11 "For you also, Judah, there is a harvest appointed for
you,
when I restore the fortunes of my people.

7 When I would heal
Israel,
then the iniquity of Ephraim is uncovered, also the wickedness of Samaria;
for they commit falsehood,
and the thief enters in,
and the gang of robbers ravages outside.
2 They do not consider in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness.
Now their own deeds have engulfed them.
They are before my face.
3 They make the king glad with their wickedness,
and the princes with their
lies.
4 They are all adulterers.
They are burning like an oven that the baker stops stirring,
from the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened.

5On the day of our king, the princes made themselves sick with the heat of wine.
He joined his hand with mockers.
6For they have made ready[a] their heart like an oven,
while they lie in wait.
Their baker sleeps all the
night.
In the morning it burns as a flaming fire.
7They are all hot as an oven, and devour their judges.
All their kings have fallen.
There is no one among them who calls to me.
8Ephraim, he mixes himself
among the nations.
Ephraim is a pancake not turned over.
9Strangers have devoured his
strength,
and he doesn't realize it.
Indeed, gray hairs are here and there on him,
and he doesn't realize it.
10The pride of Israel testifies to his face;
yet they haven't returned to YHWH their God,
nor sought him, for all this.

11"Ephraim is like an easily deceived dove,
without understanding.
They call to Egypt.
They go to Assyria.
12When they go, I will spread my net on them.
I will bring them down like the birds of the sky.
I will chastise them, as their congregation has heard.
13Woe to them.
For they have wandered
from me.
Destruction to them.
For they have trespassed
against me.
Though I would redeem them, yet they have spoken lies
against me.
14They haven't cried to me with their heart,
but they wail on their beds.
They cut[b] themselves for grain and new wine.
They turn away from me.
15Though I have taught and strengthened their arms,
yet they plot evil against me.
16They return, but not to the Most High.
They are like a faulty bow.
Their leaders will fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue.
This will be their derision in the land of Egypt.

8 "Put the trumpet to your lips.
Something like an eagle is over YHWH's
house,
because they have broken my covenant,
and rebelled against my law.

[2]They cry to me, ‘My God, we Israel acknowledge
you.’
[3]Israel has cast off that which is good.
The enemy will pursue him.
[4]They have set up kings, but not by me.
They have made princes, and I did not approve.
Of their silver and their gold they have made themselves idols,
that they may be cut off.
[5]Let Samaria throw out his calf idol.
My anger burns against
them.
How long will it be until they are capable of purity?
[6]For this is even from Israel.
The workman made it, and it is no God;
indeed, the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.
[7]For they sow the wind, and they will reap the whirlwind.
He has no standing grain.
The stalk will yield no head.
If it does yield, strangers will swallow it up.
[8]Israel is swallowed up.
Now they are among the nations like a worthless thing.
[9]For they have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey wandering alone.
Ephraim has hired lovers for himself.
[10]But although they sold themselves among the
nations,
I will now gather them;
and they begin to waste away because of the oppression of the king of mighty ones.
[11]Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sinning, they became for him altars for sinning.
[12]I wrote for him the many things of my law;
but they were regarded as a strange thing.
[13]As for the sacrifices of my
offerings,
they sacrifice flesh and eat
it;
But YHWH doesn’t accept
them.
Now he will remember their
iniquity,
and punish their sins.
They will return to Egypt, and will eat unclean things in Assyria.[a] [14]For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built
palaces;
and Judah has multiplied
fortified cities;
but I will send a fire on his cities,
and it will devour its fortresses.”

9 Do not rejoice, Israel, to jubilation like the nations; for you were unfaithful to your God.
You love the wages of a prostitute at every grain threshing floor.
2 The threshing floor and the winepress won't feed them,[a] and the new wine will fail her.
3 They won't dwell in YHWH's land; but Ephraim will return to Egypt, and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.
4 They won't pour out wine offerings to YHWH, neither will they be pleasing to him.
Their sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners;
all who eat of it will be polluted;
for their bread will be for their appetite.
It will not come into the house of YHWH.
5 What will you do in the day of solemn assembly, and in the day of the feast of YHWH?
6 For, look, they have gone away from destruction.
Egypt will gather them up.
Memphis will bury them.
Nettles will possess their pleasant things of silver.
Thorns will be in their tents.
7 The days of visitation have come.
The days of reckoning have come.
Let Israel know.[b] The prophet is a fool, and the man of the spirit is mad, because of the abundance of your sins, and because your hostility is great.
8 A prophet watches over Ephraim with my God.
A fowler's snare is on all of his paths, and hostility in the house of his God.
9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah.
He will remember their iniquity.
He will punish them for their sins.
10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness.
I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig tree at its first season;
but they came to Baal Peor, and consecrated themselves to the shameful thing, and became abominable like that which they loved.

11As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird.
There will be no birth, none with child, and no

12Though they bring up their children,
yet I will bereave them, so that not a man shall be left.
Indeed, woe also to them when I depart from
them.
13I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, but Ephraim will bring out his children to the

14Give them—YHWH what will Give them a miscarrying

15"All their wickedness is in for there I hated them.

Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of my

I will love them no more.
All their rulers are rebels.
16Ephraim is struck.
Their root has dried up.
They will bear no fruit.
Even though they bring

17My God will cast them away, because they did not listen to him;
and they will be wanderers

10 Israel is a luxuriant vine that puts forth his fruit.
According to the abundance of his fruit he has multiplied his altars.
As their land has prospered, they have adorned their sacred stones.
2Their heart is divided.
Now they will be found guilty.
He will demolish their altars.
He will destroy their sacred stones.
3Surely now they will say, "We have no king; for we do not fear YHWH;
and the king, what can he do
for us?"
4They make promises, swearing falsely in making covenants.
Therefore judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows
of the field.
5The inhabitants[a] of Samaria will because they refused to repent.

6 The sword will fall on their cities, and will destroy the bars of their gates,
and will put an end to their plans.
7 My people are determined to turn
from me.
Though they call to the Most High,
he certainly won't exalt
them.

8 "How can I give you up,
Ephraim?
How can I hand you over,
Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I make you like Zeboiim?
My heart is turned within me,
my compassion is aroused.
9 I will not execute the fierceness of my anger.
I will not return to destroy Ephraim:
for I am God, and not man;
the Holy One in the midst of you;

[a] 11:1 Matthew 2:15
[b] 11:2 LXX Syr. MT reads "they"
[c] 11:2 LXX Syr. MT reads "from them," a different word division [d] 11:3 LXX Syr Vg. MT reads "their"
[e] 11:5 LXX reads "Ephraim dwelt in Egypt" and I will not come in wrath.

10 They will walk after YHWH, who will roar like a lion;
for he will roar, and the children will come trembling from the west.
11 They will come trembling like a bird out of Egypt, and like a dove out of the land of Assyria;
and I will settle them in their houses," says YHWH.

12 Ephraim surrounds me with
falsehood,
and the house of Israel with deceit.
Judah still strays from God, and is unfaithful to the Holy
One.

12 Ephraim feeds on
wind,
and chases the east
wind.
He continually multiplies lies and desolation.
They make a covenant with Assyria,
and oil is carried into Egypt.
2 YHWH also has a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob
according to his ways
and[a] according to his deeds he will repay him.
3 In the womb he took his brother by the heel;
and in his manhood he contended with God.
4 Indeed, he struggled with the angel, and prevailed;
he wept, and made petition
to him.
He found him at Bethel, and there he spoke with him,[b]
5 even YHWH, the God of
hosts;
YHWH is his name of renown.
6 Therefore turn to your God.
Keep kindness and justice, and wait continually for your
God.

7 A merchant has dishonest scales in his hand.
He loves to defraud.
8 Ephraim said, "Surely I have become rich,
I have found myself wealth.
In all my wealth they won't find in me any iniquity that is sin."

9 "But I YHWH your God brought you up[c] from the land of Egypt.
I will yet again make you dwell in tents,
as in the days of the solemn feast.
10 I have also spoken to the prophets,
and I have multiplied
visions;

[a] 12:2 DSS LXX Tg Mss. MT lacks "and"

[c] 12:9 LXX, reading anegagou se = העלתיך. MT lacks "brought you up" from homoioteleuton: yk-yk and by the ministry of the prophets I have used parables.

[11]If Gilead is wicked, surely they are worthless.
In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls.
Indeed, their altars are like heaps in the furrows of the field.
[12]Jacob fled into the country of Aram, and Israel served to get a wife,
and for a wife he tended flocks and herds.
[13]By a prophet YHWH brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was preserved.
[14]Ephraim has bitterly provoked
anger.
Therefore his blood will be left on him, and his Lord will repay his contempt.

13 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling.
He exalted himself in Israel, but when he became guilty in Baal, he died.
[2]Now they sin more and more,
and have made themselves molten images of their silver,
even idols according to their own understanding,
all of them the work of the craftsmen.
They say of them, 'They offer human sacrifice and kiss the calves.'
[3]Therefore they will be like the morning mist,
and like the dew that passes away early,
like the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing floor, and like the smoke out of the chimney.

[4]"Yet I am YHWH your God[a] from the land of Egypt;
and you shall acknowledge no god but me,
and besides me there is no savior.
[5]I fed[b] you in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.
[6]According to their pasture, so were they filled;
they were filled, and their heart was exalted.
Therefore they have forgotten me.
[7]Therefore I am like a lion to
them.
Like a leopard, I will lurk by the path.
[8]I will meet them like a bear that is bereaved of her cubs, and will tear the covering of
their heart.

against your help.[b] 10Where is your king now, that he may save you in all your cities?
And your judges, of whom you said, 'Give me a king and princes?'
11I have given you a king in my
anger,
and have taken him away in my wrath.
12The guilt of Ephraim is stored
up.
His sin is stored up.
13The sorrows of a travailing woman will come on
him.
He is an unwise son;
for when it is time, he doesn't come to the opening of the womb.
14I will ransom them from the power of Sheol.
I will redeem them from
death.
Death, where is your

Sheol, where is your sting?[d]

east wind will come,
the breath of YHWH coming

wilderness;
and his spring will become

and his fountain will be

He will plunder the 16Samaria will bear her guilt; for she has rebelled against her God.

They will fall by the sword.
Their infants will be dashed
in pieces,
and their pregnant women will be ripped open."

YHWH your God;
for you have fallen
because of your sin.

4"I will heal their waywardness.
I will love them freely;
for my anger is turned away
from him.
5I will be like the dew to Israel.
He will blossom like the lily, and send down his roots like Lebanon.
6His branches will spread,

Lebanon.
7They will return and dwell in his

8Ephraim, what have I to do any more with idols?
I answer, and will take care
of him.
I am like a green fir tree;
from me your fruit is found."

9Who is wise, that he may understand these
things?
Who is prudent, that he may know them?
For the ways of YHWH are
right,
and the righteous walk in
them;
But the rebellious stumble in
them.

Joel

1 The word of YHWH that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel.
2Hear this, you elders,
And listen, all you

Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine;

[a]14:7 LXX, reading kai methusthesontai = וישבו. MT lacks "and be abundantly satisfied" from homoioteleuton: yw-yw

[6]For a nation has come up on my land, strong, and
without number.
His teeth are the teeth of a lion,
and he has the fangs of a lioness.
[7]He has laid my vine waste, and stripped my fig tree.
He has stripped its bark, and thrown it away.
Its branches are made white.
[8]Mourn like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the [9]The meal offering and the drink offering are

The priests, YHWH's ministers, mourn.
[10]The field is laid waste.
The land mourns, for the grain is destroyed,
The new wine has dried up,

[11]Be confounded, you farmers.
Wail, you vineyard keepers;
for the wheat and for the

for the harvest of the field

[12]The vine has dried up, and the fig tree withered;
the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the even all of the trees of the

for joy has withered away from the sons of men.
[13]Put on sackcloth and mourn, you priests.
Wail, you ministers of the Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you ministers of my

God,
for the meal offering and the drink offering are withheld from your God's house.
[14]Sanctify a fast.[a]
Call a solemn assembly.
Gather the elders,
and all the inhabitants of the

YHWH, your God,

[15]Alas for the day.
For the day of YHWH is at

and it will come as destruction from Shaddai.
[16]Isn't the food cut off before our joy and gladness from the 18How the animals groan.

The herds of livestock are perplexed, because they have no pasture.
Even the flocks of sheep

19YHWH, I cry to you, for the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness,
and the flame has burned all for the water brooks have

And the fire has devoured the pastures of the

Let all the inhabitants of the land for the day of YHWH comes,

2A day of darkness and gloominess,
a day of clouds and thick

a great and powerful people;

neither will there be any

3A fire devours before them, and behind them, a flame burns.
The land is as the garden of Eden
before them,
and behind them, a desolate
wilderness.
Yes, and no one has escaped them.
4The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses, and as horsemen, so do they run.
5Like the noise of chariots on the "turn to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning." 13Tear your heart, and not your garments, and turn to YHWH, your God;

for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and relents from sending calamity.
14Who knows? He may turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meal offering and a drink offering to YHWH, your God.
15Blow the trumpet in Zion.
Sanctify a fast.
Call a solemn assembly.
16Gather the people.
Sanctify the assembly.
Assemble the elders.
Gather the children, and those who suck the breasts.
Let the bridegroom go forth from his room,

a byword[a] among the nations.
Why should they say among the peoples,
'Where is their God?'" 18Then YHWH was jealous for his land,
And had pity on his people.

Be glad and rejoice, for YHWH has done great

22 Do not be afraid, you animals of

They have divided my land,

Will you repay me?
And if you repay me,
I will swiftly and speedily

Then Jerusalem will be holy,

[18]It will happen in that day, that the mountains will drop down sweet wine,
the hills will flow with milk, all the brooks of Judah will flow with waters,
and a fountain will come forth from the house of
YHWH,
and will water the Valley of

Amos

1 The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. 2 He said:
"YHWH will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem;
and the pastures of the shepherds will mourn,
and the top of Carmel will wither."

3 Thus says YHWH:
"For three transgressions of Damascus, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because they have threshed the pregnant women of[b] Gilead with threshing instruments
of iron;
4 but I will send a fire into the house of Hazael,
and it will devour the palaces of Ben Hadad.
5 I will break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the Valley of Wickedness,
and him who holds the scepter from Beth Eden;
and the people of Aram shall go into captivity to Kir,"
says YHWH.

6 Thus says YHWH:
"For three transgressions of Gaza,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because they carried away captive the whole community,
to deliver them up to Edom; 7 but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza,
and it will devour its
palaces.
8 I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod,
and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon;
and I will turn my hand against Ekron;
and the remnant of the Philistines will

perish,"
says YHWH.[a]

9Thus says YHWH:
"For three transgressions of Tyre,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because they delivered up the whole community to Edom,
and did not remember the brotherly covenant;
10but I will send a fire on the wall
of Tyre,
and it will devour its
palaces."

11Thus says YHWH:
"For three transgressions of Edom,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because he pursued his brother with the
sword,
and cast off all pity,
and his anger raged
continually,
and he kept his wrath
forever;
12but I will send a fire on Teman,
and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah."

13Thus says YHWH:
"For three transgressions of the people of Ammon,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because they have ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead,
that they may enlarge their border.
14But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah,
and it will devour its
palaces,
with shouting in the day of battle,
with a storm in the day of the whirlwind;
15and their king will go into captivity,
he and his officials
together,"
says YHWH.

2 Thus says YHWH:
"For three transgressions of Moab, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because he burned the bones of the king of Edom
into lime;
2but I will send a fire on Moab,
and it will devour the palaces of Kerioth;
and Moab will die with tumult, with shouting,
and with the sound of
the trumpet;
3and I will cut off the judge from their midst,
and will kill all its officials with him,"
says YHWH.
4Thus says YHWH:

[a]1:8 LXX. MT adds pr "Lord"

"For three transgressions of Judah,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its punishment;
because they have rejected YHWH's law, and have not kept his statutes.
Their false idols[a] which they made,[b] after which their fathers walked, have led them astray.
5But I will send a fire on Judah, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem."

6Thus says YHWH:
"For three transgressions of Israel,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its punishment;
because they have sold the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; 7They trample on the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and deny justice to the oppressed;
and a man and his father use the same maiden, to profane my holy name; 8and they lay themselves down beside every altar on clothes taken in pledge; and in the house of their God they drink the wine of those who have been fined.
9Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks;
yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.
10Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and led you forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.
11I raised up some of your sons for prophets, and some of your young men for Nazirites.
Isn't this true,
you children of Israel?" says YHWH.
12"But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, 'Do not prophesy.' 13Look, I will crush you in your place, as a cart crushes that is full of grain.

says YHWH.

3 Hear this word that YHWH has spoken against you, children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saying:
2"You only have I chosen of all the families of the
earth.
Therefore I will punish you for all of your sins." 3Do two walk together,
unless they have agreed?
4Will a lion roar in the thicket, when he has no prey?
Does a young lion cry out of his den,
if he has caught nothing?
5Can a bird fall in a trap on the
earth,
where no snare is set for
him?
Does a snare spring up from the
ground,
when there is nothing to catch?
6Does the trumpet alarm sound in a city,
without the people being
afraid?
Does disaster happen to a city, unless YHWH has done it?
7Surely YHWH[a] will do nothing, unless he reveals his secret to his servants the prophets.
8The lion has roared.
Who will not fear?
YHWH[b] has spoken.
Who can but prophesy?
9Proclaim in the palaces at Ashdod,
and in the palaces in the land
of Egypt,
and say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountain[c] of Samaria,
and see what unrest is in her,
and what oppression is among them."
10"Indeed they do not know to do right," says YHWH,
"Who hoard plunder and loot in their palaces."

11Therefore thus says[d]
YHWH:
"An adversary will surround[e] the
land;
and he will pull down your strongholds,
and your fortresses will be plundered."

12Thus says YHWH:
"As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion
two legs,

or a piece of an ear,
so shall the children of Israel be rescued who sit in Samaria on the corner of a couch,
and on the silken cushions of a bed."

13"Listen, and testify against the house of Jacob," says[a] YHWH, the God of hosts.
14"For in the day that I visit the transgressions of Israel
on him,
I will also visit the altars of Bethel;
and the horns of the altar will be cut off,
and fall to the ground.
15I will strike the winter house with the summer
house;
and the houses of ivory will
perish,
and the great houses will have an end,"
says YHWH.

4 Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who tell their husbands, "Bring[b] us something to drink." 2YHWH[c] has sworn by his holiness: "Look,
the days shall come on you that they will take you away with hooks,
and the last of you with fish hooks.
3You will go out at the breaks in the wall,
everyone straight before her;
and you will cast yourselves into Harmon," says
YHWH.
4"Go to Bethel, and sin;
to Gilgal, and sin more.
Bring your sacrifices every
morning,
your tithes every three days, 5offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened,
and proclaim free will offerings and brag
about them:
for this pleases you, you children of Israel,"
says[d] YHWH.
6"I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities,
and lack of bread in every town;
yet you haven't returned to
me," says YHWH.
7"I also have withheld the rain from you,
when there were yet three months to the harvest;
and I caused it to rain on one
city,
and caused it not to rain on another city.
One place was rained on,

and the piece where it did not rain withered.
[8]So two or three cities staggered to one city to drink
water,
and were not satisfied:
yet you haven't returned to
me," says YHWH.
[9]"I struck you with blight and mildew many times in your gardens and your vineyards;
and your fig trees and your olive trees have the swarming locust devoured:
yet you haven't returned to
me," says YHWH.
[10]"I sent plagues among you like I did Egypt.
I have slain your young men
with the sword,
and have carried away your horses;
and I filled your nostrils with the stench of your camp,
yet you haven't returned to
me," says YHWH.
[11]"I have overthrown some of you, as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a burning stick plucked out of the fire;
yet you haven't returned to
me," says YHWH.
[12]"Therefore thus will I do to you,
Israel;
because I will do this to you,
prepare to meet your God,
Israel.
[13]For, look, he who forms the
mountains,
and creates the wind,
and declares to man what is his thought;
who makes the morning and[a]
darkness,
and treads on the high places
of the earth:
YHWH, the God of hosts, is
his name."

5 Listen to this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, O
house of Israel.
[2]"The virgin of Israel has fallen;
She shall rise no more.
She is cast down on her land;
there is no one to raise her
up."

[3]For thus YHWH[b]:
"The city that went forth a thousand shall have a hundred left,
and that which went forth one hundred shall have ten left to the house of Israel."

[4]For thus says YHWH to the house of Israel:
"Seek me, and you will live;
[5]but do not seek Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal,
and do not pass to Beersheba:
for Gilgal shall surely go into
captivity,

[a]4:13 Hebrew Mss LXX. MT lacks "and"

and Bethel shall come to nothing.
6 Seek YHWH, and you will live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour, and there be no one to quench it in Bethel.
7 You who turn justice to
wormwood,
and cast down righteousness
to the earth:
8 seek him who made Kimah and Kesil,[a]
and turns the shadow of death into the
morning,
and makes the day dark with
night;
who calls for the waters of
the sea,
and pours them out on the surface of the earth,
YHWH is his name,
9 who brings sudden destruction on the strong,
so that destruction comes on the fortress.
10 They hate him who reproves in
the gate,
and they abhor him who speaks blamelessly.
11 Forasmuch therefore as you trample on the poor, and take taxes from him of wheat:
You have built houses of cut
stone,
but you will not dwell in
them.
You have planted pleasant
vineyards,
but you shall not drink their
wine.
12 For I know how many your offenses,
and how great are your sins—
you who afflict the just,
who take a bribe,
and who turn aside the needy in the courts.
13 Therefore a prudent person keeps silent in such a time,
for it is an evil time.
14 Seek good, and not evil, that you may live;
and so YHWH, the God of hosts, will be with
you,
as you say.
15 Hate evil, love good, and establish[b] justice in the courts.
It may be that YHWH, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph."
16 Therefore thus says YHWH, the God of hosts:[c]
"Wailing will be in all the broad
ways;
and they will say in all the streets, 'Alas. Alas.' and they will call the farmer to mourning,
and those who are skillful in lamentation to wailing.
17 In all vineyards there will be wailing;

18"Woe to you who desire the day
of YHWH.
Why do you long for the day
of YHWH?
It is darkness,
and not light.
19As if a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him;
Or he went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall,
and a serpent bit him.
20Won't the day of YHWH be darkness, and not
light?
Even very dark, and no brightness in it?
21I hate, I despise your feasts, and I can't stand your solemn assemblies.
22Yes, though you offer me your burnt offerings and meal offerings,
I will not accept them;
neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat animals.
23Take away from me the noise of your songs.
I will not listen to the music of your harps.
24But let justice roll on like rivers, and righteousness like a mighty stream.
25"Did you bring to me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, house of Israel? 26You took up the tabernacle[a] of Moloch,[b] and the star of your god Rephan,[c] the[d] images that you made to worship[e] them.[f] 27Therefore I will exile you beyond Babylon,[g]"[h]

[b]5:26 LXX, reading moloch = מלך "Moloch." MT reads מלככם "your king," an adjustment to the misreading of סכת (sukkat) as סכות (sikkut).

[c]5:26 LXX, reading raiphan = ריפן "Rephan," possibly related to Repa, an Egyptian name for Saturn. MT reads כיון "Kiyyun," a misreading in a damaged scroll and or an Akkadian-Babylonian word substitution

[d]5:26 LXX(A-Q(txt) L C-68). MT adds "your"

[e]5:26 Acts 7:43. MT lacks "to worship" from a two-letter homoioarcton: lh-lh

[f]5:26 LXX(490 autous) and Acts 7:43 (autois), reading להם "them." MT reads לכם "yourselves," an adjustment following the loss of "to worship"

[g]5:27 So LXX(26) and Acts 7:43. MT reads "Damascus" in reminiscence of 1:3, 5. Since minuscule 26 lacks proskunein "to worship," the reading of "Babylon" is unlikely to be a harmonization to Acts 7:43 then he will say, 'Hush. Indeed we you a nation, house of

says YHWH, the God of 7 This is what[a] YHWH showed me: And look, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and look, it was the latter growth after the king's harvest. 2It happened that, when they made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said,[b] "YHWH, forgive, I beg you. How could Jacob stand? For he is small."

3YHWH relented concerning this. "It shall not be," says YHWH.

4This is what[c] YHWH showed me: And look,[d] YHWH called for judgment by fire; and it dried up the great deep, and would have devoured the land. 5Then I said,[e] "YHWH, stop, I beg you. How could Jacob stand? For he is small."

6YHWH relented concerning this. "This also shall not be," says[f] YHWH.

7This is what YHWH[g] showed me: And look, he was standing beside a wall built with a plumb line,[h] with a plumb line in his hand. 8And YHWH said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A plumb line." Then YHWH[i] said, "Look, I have[j] set a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more. 9The high places of Isaac will be desolate, the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

10Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words. 11For Amos says, 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.'"

14 Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophet, was a herdsman, and a farmer of me from following the flock, and YHWH said to me, 'Go, prophesy to listen to the word of YHWH: 'You

Yes, it will rise up wholly like the

[c] 1:17 LXX Syr Vg. MT reads "possess their possessions"

Samaria. Benjamin will possess Gilead. 20The captives of this army of the children of Israel, who are among the Canaanites, will possess even to Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev. 21Those who have been saved[a] will go up on Mount Zion to judge the mountains of Esau, and the kingdom will be YHWH's.

Jonah

1 Now the word of YHWH came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2"Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim against it, for their wickedness has come up before me."

3But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of YHWH. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid its fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of YHWH. 4But YHWH sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty storm on the sea, so that the ship was likely to break up. 5Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man to his god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten it. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and he was laying down, and was fast asleep. 6So the shipmaster came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your God[b]. Maybe your God[c] will notice us, so that we won't perish."

7They all said to each other, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is on us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. 8Then they asked him, "Tell us, please, for whose cause this evil is on us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? Of what people are you?"

9He said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear YHWH, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land."

10Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "What is this that you have done?" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of YHWH, because he had told them. 11Then said they to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm to us?" For the sea grew more and more stormy. 12He said to them, "Take me up, and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you; for I know that because of me this great storm is on you."

[a]1:21 LXX Aquila Theodotion Syr. MT reads "Saviors"

[b]1:6 Or, gods

[c]1:6 Or, gods

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they could not, for the sea grew more and more stormy against them. 14 Therefore they cried to YHWH, and said, "We beg you, YHWH, we beg you, let us not perish for this man's life, and do not lay on us innocent blood; for you, YHWH, have done as it pleased you." 15 So they took up Jonah, and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased its raging.
16 Then the men feared YHWH exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice to YHWH, and made vows.

17 YHWH prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2 Then Jonah prayed to YHWH, his God, out of the fish's belly. 2 He
said,
"I called because of my affliction to YHWH.
He answered me.
Out of the belly of Sheol I cried.
You heard my voice.
3 For you threw me into the depths, in the heart of the seas.
The flood was all around me.
All your breakers and waves passed over me.
4 I said, 'I have been banished from
your sight;
yet I will look again toward your holy temple.'
5 The waters surrounded me, threatening my life.
The deep was around me.
The end is upon my head.
6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains.
The earth barred me in
forever:
yet have you brought up my life from the pit, YHWH my God.

7 "When my soul fainted within me, I remembered
YHWH.
My prayer came in to you,
into your holy temple.
8 Those who regard worthless things forsake their faithfulness.
9 But I will sacrifice to you with the voice of thanksgiving.
I will pay that which I have vowed.
Salvation belongs to YHWH."

10 YHWH spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah on the dry
land.

3 The word of YHWH
came to Jonah the second time, saying,
2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I give you."

3 So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to the word of YHWH. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days' journey across. 4 Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried out, and said, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown."

5The people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. 6The news reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and took off his royal robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. 7He made a proclamation and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying,
"Let neither man nor animal, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water; 8but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and animal, and let them cry mightily to God. Yes, let them turn everyone from his evil way, and from the violence that is in his hands. 9Who knows whether God will not turn and relent, and turn away from his fierce anger, so that we might not perish?"

10God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way.
God relented of the disaster which he said he would do to them, and he did not do it.

4 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry. 2He prayed to YHWH, and said, "Please, YHWH, wasn't this what I said when I was still in my own country? Therefore I hurried to flee to Tarshish, for I knew that you are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and you relent of doing harm. 3Therefore now, YHWH, take, I beg you, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live."

4YHWH said, "Is it right for you to be angry?"

5Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made himself a booth, and sat under it in the shade, until he might see what would become of the city. 6YHWH God prepared a vine, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the vine. 7But God prepared a worm at dawn the next day, and it chewed on the vine, so that it withered. 8It happened, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah's head, so that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live."

9God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the vine?"

He said, "I am right to be angry, even to death."

10YHWH said, "You have been concerned for the vine, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night.
11Shouldn't I be concerned for Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred twenty thousand persons who can't discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much livestock?”

Micah

1 The word of YHWH that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah[a], kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.
2Hear, you peoples, all of you.
Listen, O earth, and all that is in it:
and let[b] YHWH be witness against
you,
YHWH [c] from his holy temple.
3For, look, YHWH comes forth out of his place,
and will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.
4The mountains melt under him, and the valleys split apart,
like wax before the fire, like waters that are poured down a steep place.

5“All this is for the disobedience
of Jacob,
and for the sins of the house
of Israel.
What is the disobedience of Jacob?
Isn’t it Samaria?
And what are the high places of Judah?
Aren’t they Jerusalem?
6Therefore I will make Samaria like a rubble heap of
the field,
like places for planting
vineyards;
and I will pour down its stones into the valley, and I will uncover its foundations.
7All her idols will be beaten to pieces,
and all her temple gifts will be burned with fire, and all her images I will destroy;
for of the hire of a prostitute has she gathered them,
and to the hire of a prostitute shall they return.”

8For this I will lament and wail;
I will go stripped and naked;
I will howl like the jackals, and moan like the daughters of owls.
9For her wounds are incurable;
for it has come even to Judah.
It reaches to the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.
10Do not tell it in Gath.
Do not weep at all.
At Beth Leaphrah I have rolled myself in the
dust.
11Pass on, inhabitant of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame.
The inhabitant of Zaanan won’t come out.

[a]1:1 LXX. MT reads “Jehezekiah”
[b]1:2 Hebrew Mss. MT adds “Lord”
[c]1:2 Hebrew Mss. MT reads “Lord”

The wailing of Beth Ezel will take from you his protection.
12For the inhabitant of Maroth waits anxiously for
good,
because evil has come down from YHWH to the gate of Jerusalem.
13Harness the chariot to the swift steed, inhabitant of Lachish.
She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of
Zion;
For the transgressions of Israel were found in
you.
14Therefore you will give a parting gift to Moresheth Gath.
The houses of Achzib will be a deceitful thing to the kings of Israel.
15I will yet bring to you, inhabitant of Mareshah.
He who is the glory of Israel will come to Adullam.
16Shave your heads, and cut off your hair for the children of your delight.
Enlarge your baldness like the vulture;
for they have gone into captivity from you.

2 Woe to those who devise iniquity
and work evil on their beds.
When the morning is light, they practice it, because it is in the power of
their hand.
2They covet fields, and seize them;
and houses, and take them
away:
and they oppress a man and his house,
even a man and his heritage.
3Therefore thus says YHWH:
"Look, I am planning against these people a disaster,
from which you will not remove your necks,
neither will you walk
haughtily;
for it is an evil time.
4In that day they will take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, saying,
'We are utterly ruined.
My people's possession is divided up.
Indeed he takes it from me and assigns our fields to traitors.'" 5Therefore you will have no one who divides the land by lot in the assembly
of YHWH.
6"Do not prophesy."
They prophesy.
"Do not prophesy about these
things.
Disgrace won't overtake us." 7Shall it be said, O house of Jacob:
"Is the Spirit of YHWH
angry?
Are these his doings?
Do not my words do good to him who walks
blamelessly?"
8But lately my people have risen up as an enemy.
You strip the robe and clothing from those who pass by without a care, returning from battle.

9You drive the women of my people out from their pleasant houses;
from their young children you take away my blessing forever.
10Arise, and depart.
For this is not your resting
place,
because of uncleanness that destroys,
even with a grievous
destruction.
11If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood lies:
"I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink;"
he would be the prophet of this people.
12I will surely assemble, Jacob, all
of you;
I will surely gather the remnant of Israel;
I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah,
as a flock in the midst of their pasture;
they will swarm with people.
13The breaker goes up before
them.
They break through the gate, and go out.
And their king passes on before them,
with YHWH at their head.

3 I said,
"Please listen, you
heads of Jacob,
and rulers of the house of
Israel:
Isn't it for you to know
justice?
2You who hate the good,
and love the evil;
who tear off their skin,
and their flesh from off their
bones;
3who also eat the flesh of my
people,
and flay their skin from off
them,
and break their bones,
and chop them in pieces, as for the pot,
and as flesh within the caldron.
4Then they will cry to YHWH, but he will not answer them.
Yes, he will hide his face from them at that time, because they made their deeds evil."

5Thus says YHWH
concerning the prophets who lead my people astray; for those who feed their teeth, they proclaim,
"Peace." and whoever doesn't provide for their mouths, they prepare war against him: 6"Therefore night is over you, with no vision, and it is dark to you, that you may not divine;
and the sun will go down on the prophets,
and the day will be black
over them.
7The seers shall be disappointed, and the diviners confounded.
Yes, they shall all cover their lips;
for there is no answer from
God."

[8]But as for me, I am full of power by the Spirit of
YHWH,
and of judgment, and of
might,
to declare to Jacob his
disobedience,
and to Israel his sin.
[9]Please listen to this, you heads of the house of Jacob,
and rulers of the house of
Israel,
who abhor justice,
and pervert all equity.
[10]They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.
[11]Her leaders judge for bribes, and her priests teach for a price,
and her prophets of it tell fortunes for money:
yet they lean on YHWH, and say,
"Isn't YHWH in the midst of
us?
No disaster will come on
us."
[12]Therefore Zion for your sake will be plowed like a
field,
and Jerusalem will become heaps of rubble,
and the mountain of the temple like the high places of a forest.

4 But in the latter days, it will happen that the mountain of YHWH's temple will be established on the top of the mountains,
and it will be exalted above the hills;
and peoples will stream to it.
[2]Many nations will go and say,
"Come, and let us go up to the mountain of
YHWH,
and to the house of the God
of Jacob;
and he will teach us of his
ways,
and we will walk in his paths."
For out of Zion will go forth the
law,
and the word of YHWH from
Jerusalem;
[3]and he will judge between many
peoples,
and will decide concerning strong nations afar off.
They will beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war any more.
[4]But they will sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree;
and no one will make them
afraid:
For the mouth of YHWH of hosts has spoken.
[5]Indeed all the nations may walk in the name of their gods;
but we will walk in the name of YHWH our God
forever and ever.
[6]"In that day," says YHWH,
"I will assemble that which is lame,
and I will gather that which is driven away,
and that which I have
afflicted;

7 and I will make that which was lame a remnant, and that which was cast far off a strong nation:
and YHWH will reign over them on Mount Zion from then on, even
forever."
8 And you, tower of the flock,[a] hill[b] of the daughter of
Zion,
to you it will come,
the former dominion will
come,
the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.
9 Now why do you cry out aloud?
Is there no king in you?
Has your counselor perished, that pain has gripped you like a woman in labor?
10 Be in pain, and labor to bring forth, daughter of
Zion,
like a woman in travail;
for now you will go forth out
of the city,
and will dwell in the field, and will come even to Babylon.
There you will be rescued.
There YHWH will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.
11 Now many nations have assembled against you, that say,
"Let her be defiled,
and let our eye gloat over
Zion."
12 But they do not know the thoughts of YHWH, neither do they understand his counsel;
for he has gathered them like the sheaves to the threshing floor.
13 Arise and thresh, daughter of
Zion;
for I will make your horn
iron,
and I will make your hoofs
bronze;
and you will beat in pieces many
peoples:
and I will devote their gain to
YHWH,
and their substance to the Lord of the whole
earth.

5 Now you shall gather yourself in troops,
daughter of troops.
He has laid siege against us.
They will strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek.
2 But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, being small among the clans of Judah, out of you one will come forth to me that is to be ruler in Israel;
whose goings forth are from of old, from everlasting.[c] 3 Therefore he will abandon them until the time that she who is in labor gives birth.

[a] 4:8 Or, Migdal Eder
[b] 4:8 Or, Ophel
[c] Matthew 2:6

Then the rest of his brothers will return to the children of Israel.
4He shall stand, and shall shepherd in the strength of
YHWH,
in the majesty of the name of YHWH his God:
and they will live, for then he will be great to the farthest parts of the
earth.
5He will be our peace when Assyria invades our
land,
and when he marches
through our fortresses, then we will raise against him seven shepherds,
and eight leaders of men.
6They will rule the land of Assyria
with the sword,
and the land of Nimrod with the drawn sword.[a]
He will deliver us from the Assyrian,
when he invades our land, and when he marches within our border.
7The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many
peoples,
like dew from YHWH,
like showers on the grass,
that do not wait for man, nor wait for the sons of men.
8The remnant of Jacob will be
among the nations,
in the midst of many
peoples,
like a lion among the animals of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep;
who, if he goes through,
treads down and tears
in pieces,
and there is no one to deliver.
9Let your hand be lifted up above your adversaries, and let all of your enemies
be cut off.
10"It will happen in that day," says
YHWH,
"That I will cut off your horses out of the midst
of you,
and will destroy your
chariots.
11I will cut off the cities of your
land,
and will tear down all your strongholds.
12I will destroy witchcraft from your hand;
and you shall have no soothsayers.
13I will cut off your engraved images and your pillars out of your midst;
and you shall no more worship the work of
your hands.
14I will uproot your Asherim out of your midst;
and I will destroy your
cities.
15I will execute vengeance in
anger,

[a]5:6 Vg Aquila. MT reads "in its gates," an apparent metathesis of chet and yod and wrath on the nations that did not listen."

6 Listen now to what YHWH says:
"Arise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear what you have to say.
2Hear, you mountains, YHWH's controversy,
and you enduring foundations of the
earth;
for YHWH has a controversy with his people, and he will contend with
Israel.
3My people, what have I done to
you?
How have I burdened you?
Answer me.
4For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt,
and redeemed you out of the house of bondage.
I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.
5My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised,
and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of
YHWH."

6How shall I come before YHWH, and bow myself before the exalted God[a]?
Shall I come before him with burnt offerings,
with calves a year old?
7Will YHWH be pleased with thousands of rams?
With tens of thousands of rivers of oil?
Shall I give my firstborn for my
disobedience?
The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
8He has shown you, O man, what is good.
What does YHWH require of you, but to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your
God?

9YHWH's voice calls to the city, and wisdom sees your name:
"Listen to the rod,
and he who appointed it.
10Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked,
and a short ephah[b] that is accursed?
11Shall I be pure with dishonest scales,
and with a bag of deceitful weights?
12Her rich men are full of violence, her inhabitants speak lies,
and their tongue is deceitful in their speech.
13Therefore I also have struck you with a grievous wound.
I have made you desolate because of your sins.

[a]6:6 Elohe Marom
[b]6:10 An ephah is a measure of volume, and a short ephah is made smaller than a full ephah for the purpose of cheating customers

14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied.
Your humiliation will be in your midst.
You will store up, but not save;
and that which you save I will give up to the
sword.
15 You will sow, but won't reap.
You will tread the olives, but won't anoint yourself with oil;
and crush grapes, but won't drink the wine.
16 For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab;
and you walk in their counsels.
Therefore I will make you a desolation,
and her her inhabitants an object of contempt;
and you will bear the scorn of the nations.[a]"

7 Misery is mine.
Indeed, I am like one who gathers the summer fruits, as gleanings of the vineyard:
There is no cluster of grapes
to eat.
My soul desires to eat the early fig.
2 The faithful have vanished from
the earth,
and there is no one upright
among men.
They all lie in wait for
blood;
every man hunts his brother with a net.
3 Their hands are on that which is evil to do it diligently.
The ruler and judge ask for a bribe;
and the powerful man dictates the evil desire of his soul.
Thus they conspire together.
4 The best of them is like a brier.
The most upright is worse than a thorn hedge.
The day of your watchmen, even your visitation, has
come;
now is the time of their confusion.
5 Do not trust in a neighbor.
Do not put confidence in a friend.
With the woman lying in your embrace,
be careful of the words of
your mouth.
6 For the son dishonors the father, the daughter rises up against her mother,
the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
a man's enemies are the men of his own house.
7 But as for me, I will look to
YHWH.
I will wait for the God of my
salvation.
My God will hear me.
8 Do not rejoice against me, my
enemy.

[a] 6:16 LXX. MT reads "of my people"

When I fall, I will arise.
When I sit in darkness,
YHWH will be a light to me.
9I will bear the indignation of YHWH, because I have sinned against him, until he pleads my case, and executes judgment for me.
He will bring me forth to the light.
I will see his righteousness.
10Then my enemy will see it, and shame will cover her who said to me,
where is YHWH your God?
Then my enemy will see me and will cover her shame.
Now she will be trodden down like the mire of the streets.
11A day to build your walls—
In that day, he will extend your boundary.
12In that day they will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt even to the River, and from sea to sea,
and mountain to mountain.
13Yet the land will be desolate because of those who dwell in it, for the fruit of their doings.
14Shepherd your people with your staff, the flock of your heritage, who dwell by themselves in a forest, in the midst of fertile pasture land, let them feed;
in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.
15"As in the days of your coming forth out of the land of Egypt,
I will show them marvelous things." 16The nations will see and be ashamed of all their might.
They will lay their hand on their mouth.
Their ears will be deaf.
17They will lick the dust like a serpent.
Like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their dens.
They will come with fear to YHWH our God, and will be afraid because of you.
18Who is a God like you, who pardons iniquity, and passes over the disobedience of the remnant of his heritage?
He doesn't retain his anger forever, because he delights in loving kindness.
19He will again have compassion on us.
He will tread our iniquities under foot;
and you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.
20You will give truth to Jacob, and mercy to Abraham,
as you have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

Nahum

1 An oracle about Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite. 2YHWH is a jealous God and avenges. YHWH avenges and is full of wrath. YHWH takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he maintains wrath against his enemies. 3YHWH is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. YHWH has his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. 4He rebukes the sea, and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers. Bashan languishes, and Carmel; and the flower of Lebanon languishes. 5The mountains quake before him, and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at his presence, yes, the world, and all who dwell in it. 6Who can stand before his indignation? Who can endure the fierceness of his anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by him.

7YHWH is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knows those who take refuge in him. 8But with an overflowing flood, he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into darkness. 9What do you plot against YHWH? He will make a full end. Affliction won't rise up the second time. 10For entangled like thorns, and drunk as with their drink, they are consumed utterly like dry stubble. 11There is one gone forth out of you, who devises evil against YHWH, who counsels wickedness. 12Thus says YHWH: "Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so they will be cut down, and he shall pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more. 13Now will I break his yoke from off you, and will burst your bonds apart." 14YHWH has commanded concerning you: "No more descendants will bear your name. Out of the house of your gods, will I cut off the engraved image and the molten image. I will make your grave, for you are vile."

15Look, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace. Keep your feasts, Judah. Perform your vows, for the wicked one will no more pass through you. He is utterly cut off.

2 He who dashes in pieces has come up against you. Keep the fortress. Watch the way. Strengthen your waist. Fortify your power mightily. 2For YHWH restores the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel; for the destroyers have destroyed them, and ruined their vine branches. 3The shield of his mighty men is made red. The valiant men are in scarlet. The chariots flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the pine spears are brandished. 4The chariots rage in the streets. They rush back and forth in the broad ways. Their appearance is like torches. They run like the lightnings. [5]He summons his picked troops.[a] They stumble on their way. They dash to its wall, and the protective shield is put in place. [6]The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved. [7]It is decreed: she is uncovered, she is carried away; and her handmaids moan as with the voice of doves, beating on their breasts. [8]But Nineveh has been from of old like a pool of water, yet they flee away. "Stop. Stop." they cry, but no one looks back. [9]Take the spoil of silver. Take the spoil of gold, for there is no end of the store, the glory of all goodly furniture. [10]She is empty, void, and waste. The heart melts, the knees knock together, their bodies and faces have grown pale. [11]Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion's cubs, and no one made them afraid? [12]The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with the kill, and his dens with prey. [13]"Look, I am against you," says YHWH of hosts, "and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions; and I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard."

3 Woe to the bloody city. It is all full of lies and robbery. The prey doesn't depart. [2]The noise of the whip, the noise of the rattling of wheels, prancing horses, and bounding chariots, [3]the horseman mounting, and the flashing sword, the glittering spear, and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is no end of the bodies. They stumble on their bodies, [4]because of the multitude of the prostitution of the alluring prostitute, the mistress of witchcraft, who sells nations through her prostitution, and families through her witchcraft. [5]"Look, I am against you," says YHWH of hosts, "and I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame. [6]I will throw abominable filth on you, and make you vile, and will set you a spectacle. [7]It will happen that all those who look at you will flee from you, and say, 'Nineveh is laid waste. Who will mourn for her?' Where will I seek comforters for you?"

[8]Are you better than No-Amon,[b] who was situated among the rivers, who had the waters around her; whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was of the sea? [9]Cush and Egypt were her boundless strength. Put and Libya were her helpers. [10]Yet was she carried away. She went into captivity. Her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets, and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains. [11]You also will be drunk. You will be hidden. You also will seek a stronghold because of the enemy. [12]All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the first-ripe figs: if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. [13]Look, your troops in your midst are women. The gates of your land are set wide open to your enemies. The fire has devoured your bars. [14]Draw water for the siege. Strengthen your fortresses. Go into the clay, and tread the mortar. Make the brick kiln strong. [15]There the fire will devour you. The sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the grasshopper. Multiply like grasshoppers. Multiply like the locust. [16]You have increased your merchants more than the stars of the skies. The grasshopper strips, and flees away. [17]Your guards are like the locusts, and your officials like the swarms of locusts, which settle on the walls on a cold day, but when the sun appears, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are. [18]Your shepherds slumber, king of Assyria. Your nobles lie down. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them. [19]There is no healing your wound, for your injury is fatal. All who hear the report of you clap their hands over you; for who hasn't felt your endless cruelty?

Habakkuk

1 The oracle which Habakkuk the prophet saw. [2]YHWH, how long will I cry, and you will not hear? I cry out to you "Violence." and will you not save? [3]Why do you show me iniquity, and look at perversity? For destruction and violence are before me. There is strife, and contention rises up. [4]Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice never goes forth; for the wicked surround the righteous; therefore justice goes forth perverted.

[5]"Look, you scoffers,[a] and watch, and be utterly amazed, and perish;[b] for I am[c] working a work in your days which you will not believe, though it is told you.[d] [6]For, look, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the breadth of the earth, to possess dwelling places not his own. judgment will be from himself, and his authority will come from himself.[a] 8His horses are also swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves. And their horsemen press proudly on, and their horsemen come from afar.[b] They fly as an eagle that hurries to devour. 9All of them come for violence. Their hordes face the desert. He gathers prisoners like sand. 10And he will scoff at kings and deride rulers. He laughs at every stronghold, for he builds up an earthen ramp, and takes it.

11Then he sweeps by like the wind, and goes on. He is indeed guilty, whose strength is his god."

12Aren't you from everlasting, YHWH my God, my Holy One? We will not die. YHWH, you have appointed him for judgment. You, Rock,[c] have established him to punish. 13You who have purer eyes than to see evil, and who cannot look on perversity, why do you tolerate those who deal treacherously, and keep silent when the wicked swallows up the man who is more righteous than he, 14and make men like the fish of the sea, like the crawling creatures, that have no ruler over them? 15He takes up all of them with the hook, and[d] he catches them in his net and gathers them in his dragnet. Therefore he rejoices and is glad. 16Therefore he sacrifices to his net, and burns incense to his dragnet, because by them his life is luxurious, and his food is good. 17Will he therefore continually empty his net,[e] and kill the nations without mercy?

2 I will stand at my watch, and set myself on the ramparts,[f] and will look out to see what he will say to me, and what I will answer concerning my complaint.
2YHWH answered me, "Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that he who runs may read it. 3For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hurries toward the end, and won't prove false. He enlarges his desire as Sheol, and he is like death, and can't be satisfied. He gathers all nations to himself, and collects to himself all peoples. 6Won't all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, 'Woe to him who increases that which is not his, and who enriches himself by extortion. How long?' 7Won't your debtors rise up suddenly, and wake up those who make you tremble, and you will be their victim? 8Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you, because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all who dwell in it. 9Woe to him who gets an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil. 10You have devised shame to your house, by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your soul. 11For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the woodwork will answer it. 12Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by iniquity. 13Look, isn't it of YHWH of hosts that the peoples labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for vanity? 14For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of YHWH, as the waters cover the sea.

3 A prayer of Habakkuk, the prophet, set to victorious music.
2 YHWH, I have heard of your fame.
I stand in awe of your deeds, YHWH.
Renew your work in the midst of the years.
In the midst of the years make it known.
In wrath, you remember mercy.
3 God came from Teman,
the Holy One from Mount Paran.
Selah.

His glory covered the heavens, and his praise filled the earth.
4 His splendor is like the sunrise.
Rays shine from his hand,
where his power is hidden.
5 Plague went before him, and pestilence followed his feet.
6 He stood, and shook the earth.
He looked, and made the nations tremble.
The ancient mountains were crumbled.
The age-old hills collapsed.
His ways are eternal.
7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction.
The dwellings of the land of Midian trembled.
8 Was YHWH displeased with the rivers?
Was your anger against the rivers, or your wrath against the sea,
that you rode on your horses, on your chariots of salvation?
9 You uncovered your bow.
You called for your sworn arrows.
Selah.
You split the earth with rivers.
10 The mountains saw you, and were afraid.
The storm of waters passed by.
The deep roared and lifted up its hands on high.
11 The sun and moon stood still in the sky, at the light of your arrows as they went,
at the shining of your glittering spear.
12 You marched through the land in wrath.
You threshed the nations in anger.
13 You went forth for the salvation of your people, for the salvation of your anointed.
You crushed the head of the land of wickedness.
You stripped them head to foot.
Selah.

14 You pierced the heads of his warriors with their own spears.
They came as a whirlwind to scatter me, gloating as if to devour the wretched in secret.
15 You trampled the sea with your horses, churning mighty waters.
16 I heard, and my body trembled.
My lips quivered at the voice.

Rottenness enters into my bones, and I tremble in my
place,
because I must wait quietly for the day of trouble, for the coming up of the people who invade us.
17For though the fig tree doesn't flourish,
nor fruit be in the vines;
the labor of the olive fails,
the fields yield no food;
the flocks are cut off from the fold,
and there is no herd in the stalls:
18yet I will rejoice in YHWH.
I will be joyful in the God of
my salvation.
19YHWH[a] is my strength.
He makes my feet like
deer's feet,
and enables me to go in high places.

Zephaniah

1 The word of YHWH which came to Zephaniah, the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah, the son of Amon, king of Judah. 2I will utterly sweep away everything off of the surface of the earth, says YHWH. 3I will sweep away man and animal. I will sweep away the birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and the heaps of rubble with the wicked. I will cut off man from the surface of the earth, says YHWH. 4I will stretch out my hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place: the name of the idolatrous and pagan priests, 5those who worship the host of heaven on the housetops, those who worship and swear by YHWH and also swear by Milcom, 6those who have turned back from following YHWH, and those who haven't sought YHWH nor inquired after him. 7Be silent at the presence of[b] YHWH, for the day of YHWH is at hand. For YHWH has prepared a sacrifice. He has consecrated his guests. 8It will happen in the day of YHWH's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, the king's sons, and all those who are clothed with foreign clothing. 9In that day, I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and deceit. 10In that day, says YHWH, there will be the noise of a cry from the Fish Gate, a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. 11Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the people of Canaan are undone. All those who were loaded with silver are cut off. 12It will happen at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the men who are settled on their dregs, who say in their heart, "YHWH will not do good, neither will he do evil." 13Their wealth will become a spoil, and their houses a desolation. Yes, they will build houses, but won't inhabit them. They will plant vineyards, but won't drink their wine. 14The great day of YHWH is near. It is near, and hurries greatly, the voice of the day of YHWH. The mighty man cries there bitterly.

[a]3:19 Hebrew(201) Ms. MT adds "Lord"

[b]1:7 Hebrew(29 82 126) Mss. MT adds "Lord"

15That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness, 16a day of the trumpet and alarm, against the fortified cities, and against the high battlements. 17I will bring distress on men, that they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against YHWH, and their blood will be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. 18Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of YHWH's wrath, but the whole land will be devoured by the fire of his jealousy; for he will make an end, yes, a terrible end, of all those who dwell in the land.

2 Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, you nation that has no shame, 2before the appointed time when the day passes as the chaff, before the fierce anger of YHWH comes on you, before the day of YHWH's anger comes on you. 3Seek YHWH, all you humble of the land, who have kept his ordinances. Seek righteousness.
Seek humility. It may be that you will be hidden in the day of YHWH's anger. 4For Gaza will be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation. They will drive out Ashdod at noonday, and Ekron will be rooted up. 5Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites. The word of YHWH is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines. I will destroy you, that there will be no inhabitant. 6The sea coast will be pastures, with cottages for shepherds and folds for flocks.
7The coast will be for the remnant of the house of Judah. They will find pasture. In the houses of Ashkelon, they will lie down in the evening, for YHWH, their God, will visit them, and restore them. 8I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the insults of the people of Ammon, with which they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.
9Therefore as I live, says YHWH of hosts, the God of Israel, surely Moab will be as Sodom, and the people of Ammon as Gomorrah, a possession of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation. The remnant of my people will plunder them, and the survivors of my nation will inherit them. 10This they will have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of YHWH of hosts. 11YHWH will be awesome to them, for he will famish all the gods of the land.
Men will worship him, everyone from his place, even all the shores of the nations. 12You Cushites also, you will be killed by my sword.

13He will stretch out his hand against the north, destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, as dry as the wilderness.
14Herds will lie down in the midst of her, all the animals of the nations. Both the pelican and the porcupine will lodge in its capitals.
Their calls will echo through the windows. Desolation will be in the thresholds, for he has laid bare the cedar beams. 15This is the joyous city that lived carelessly, that said in her heart, "I am, and there is none besides me." How she has become a desolation, a place for animals to lie down in. Everyone who passes by her will hiss, and shake their fists.

3 Woe to her who is rebellious and polluted, the oppressing city.
2She did not obey the voice. She did not receive correction. She did not trust in YHWH. She did not draw near to her God. 3Her princes in the midst of her are roaring lions. Her judges are evening wolves. They leave nothing until the next day. 4Her prophets are arrogant and treacherous people. Her priests have profaned the sanctuary. They have done violence to the law.
5YHWH, in the midst of her, is righteous. He will do no wrong.
Every morning he brings his justice to light. He doesn't fail, but the unjust know no shame. 6I have cut off nations. Their battlements are desolate. I have made their streets waste, so that no one passes by.
Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is no inhabitant. 7I said, "Just fear me.
Receive correction, so that her dwelling won't be cut off, according to all that I have appointed concerning her." But they rose early and corrupted all their doings. 8"Therefore wait for me," says YHWH, "until the day that I rise up as a witness.[a] For my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour on them my indignation, even all my fierce anger. For all the earth will be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. 9For then I will purify the lips of the peoples, that they may all call on the name of YHWH, to serve him shoulder to shoulder. 10From beyond the rivers of Cush, my worshipers, even the daughter of my dispersed people, will bring my offering. 11In that day you will not be disappointed for all your doings, in which you have transgressed against me; for then I will take away out of the midst of you your proudly exulting ones, and you will no more be haughty in my holy mountain. 12But I will leave in the midst of you an afflicted and poor people, and they will take refuge in the name of YHWH. 13The remnant of Israel will not do iniquity, nor speak lies, neither will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth, for they will feed and lie down, and no one will make them afraid."

[a]3:8 Vocalization according to LXX

14 Sing, daughter of Zion.
Shout, Israel. Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem. 15 YHWH has taken away your judgments. He has thrown out your enemy. The King of Israel, YHWH, is in the midst of you. You will not be afraid of evil any more.
16 In that day, it will be said to Jerusalem, "Do not be afraid, Zion.
Do not let your hands be weak." 17 YHWH your God is in your midst, a mighty one who will save. He will rejoice over you with joy. He will calm you in his love. He will rejoice over you with singing. 18 I will remove those who grieve about the appointed feasts from you.
They are a burden and a reproach to you. 19 Look, at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you, and I will save those who are lame, and gather those who were driven away. I will give them praise and honor, whose shame has been in all the earth. 20 At that time will I bring you in, and at that time will I gather you; for I will give you honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says YHWH.

Haggai

1 In the second year of Darayavush[a] the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, the word of YHWH came by Haggai, the prophet, to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, 2 "This is what YHWH of hosts says: These people say, 'The time hasn't yet come, the time for YHWH's house to be built.'"

3 Then the word of YHWH came by Haggai, the prophet, saying, 4 "Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies waste?
5 Now therefore this is what YHWH of hosts says: Consider your ways.
6 You have sown much, and bring in little. You eat, but you do not have enough. You drink, but you aren't filled with drink. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm, and he who earns wages earns wages to put them into a bag with holes in
it."

7 This is what YHWH of hosts says: "Consider your ways. 8 Go up to the mountain, bring wood, and build the house. I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified," says YHWH. 9 "You looked for much, and, look, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?" says YHWH of hosts, "Because of my house that lies waste, while each of you is busy with his own house.

10Therefore for your sake the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit. 11I called for a drought on the land, and on the mountains, and on the grain, and on the new wine, on the oil, and on all[a] what the ground produces, and on men, and on livestock, and on all the labor of the hands."

12Then Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of YHWH, their God, and the words of Haggai, the prophet, as YHWH, their God, had sent him;
and the people feared YHWH.

13Then Haggai, YHWH's messenger, spoke YHWH's message to the people, saying, "I am with you," says YHWH.

14YHWH stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of YHWH of hosts, their God, 15in the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darayavush the king.

2 In the seventh month, in the twenty-first day of the month, the word of YHWH came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 2"Speak now to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, 3'Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Isn't it in your eyes as nothing? 4Yet now be strong, Zerubbabel,' says YHWH. 'Be strong, Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,' says YHWH,
'and work, for I am with you,' says YHWH of hosts. 5This is the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit lived among you. 'Do not be afraid.' 6For this is what YHWH of hosts says: 'Yet once more, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens and the earth[b] and the sea and the dry land; 7and I will shake all nations, and they will come with the treasures of all nations, and I will fill this house with glory, says YHWH of hosts. 8The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,' says YHWH of hosts. 9'The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says YHWH of hosts; 'and in this place will I give peace,' says YHWH of hosts.[c]"

[10]In the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darayavush, the word of YHWH came by Haggai the prophet, saying, [11]"Thus says YHWH of hosts: Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, [12]'If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and with his fold touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any food, will it become holy?'"

The priests answered, "No."

[13]Then Haggai said, "If one who is unclean by reason of a dead body touch any of these, will it be unclean?"

The priests answered, "It will be unclean."

[14]Then Haggai answered, "'So is this people, and so is this nation before me,' says YHWH; 'and so is every work of their hands. That which they offer there is unclean.[a] [15]Now, please consider from this day and backward, before a stone was laid on a stone in the temple of YHWH. [16]Through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty, there were only twenty. [17]I struck you with blight, mildew, and hail in all the work of your hands; yet you did not turn to me,' says YHWH. [18]'Consider, please, from this day and backward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of YHWH's temple was laid, consider it. [19]Is the seed yet in the barn? Yes, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree haven't brought forth. From this day will I bless you.'"

[20]The word of YHWH came the second time to Haggai in the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying, [21]"Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, 'I will shake the heavens and the earth. [22]I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms. I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overthrow the chariots, and those who ride in them. The horses and their riders will come down, everyone by the sword of his brother. [23]In that day, says YHWH of hosts, will I take you, Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel,' says YHWH, 'and will make you as a signet, for I have chosen you,' says YHWH of hosts."

Zechariah

1 In the eighth month, in the second year of

[a]2:14 LXX adds "shall be defiled because of their earlier income; they shall suffer because of their toils. And you have hated those who reprove in the gates," perhaps lost in MT from homoioarcton: hw-hw. Cf. Amos 5:10

Darayavush[a] the word of YHWH came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, 2"YHWH was very displeased with your fathers.
3Therefore tell them: Thus says YHWH of hosts: 'Return to me,' says YHWH of hosts, 'and I will return to you,' says YHWH of hosts.
4Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, saying: Thus says YHWH of hosts, 'Return now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings;' but they did not hear, nor listen to me, says YHWH. 5Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? 6But my words and my statutes, which I commanded by my Spirit[b] to my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? Then they repented and said, 'Just as YHWH of hosts determined to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our practices, so he has dealt with us.'"

7On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darayavush, the word of YHWH came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, 8"I had a vision in the night, and look, a man riding on a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in a ravine;
and behind him there were red, brown, and white horses. 9Then I asked, 'My lord, what are these?'"

The angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these are."
10The man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said to me,[c] "They are the ones YHWH has sent to go back and forth through
the earth."

11They reported to the angel of YHWH who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked back and forth through the earth, and look, all the earth is at rest and in peace." 12Then the angel of YHWH replied,
"YHWH of hosts, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which you have had indignation these seventy years?"

13YHWH answered the angel who talked with me with kind and comforting words. 14So the angel who talked with me said to me,
"Proclaim, saying, 'Thus says YHWH of hosts: "I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. 15I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for I was but only a little angry, but they added to the calamity." 16Therefore thus says YHWH: "I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy. My house will be built in it," says YHWH of hosts, "and a line shall be stretched forth over Jerusalem."'

17"Proclaim further, saying, 'Thus says YHWH of hosts: "My cities will again overflow with prosperity, and YHWH will again comfort Zion, and will again choose Jerusalem."'"

18I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and look, four horns. 19I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these?"

He answered me, "These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

20YHWH showed me four craftsmen. 21Then I asked, "What are these coming to do?"

He said, "These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up his head; but these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

2 I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and look, a man with a measuring line in his hand. 2Then I asked, "Where are you going?"

He said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its breadth and what is its length."

3Look, the angel who talked with me went forth,[a] and another angel went out to meet him, 4and said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Jerusalem will be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it. 5For I,' says YHWH, 'will be to her a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory in the midst of her. 6Come. Come. Flee from the land of the north,' says YHWH; 'for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the sky,' says YHWH. 7'Come, Zion. Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon.' 8For thus says YHWH of hosts: 'For honor he has sent me to the nations which plundered you; for he who touches you touches the apple of my[b] eye. 9For, look, I will shake my hand over them, and they will be a spoil to those who served them; and you will know that YHWH of hosts has sent me. 10Sing and rejoice, daughter of Zion; for, look, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of you,' says YHWH. 11Many nations shall join themselves to YHWH in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that YHWH of hosts has sent me to you. 12YHWH will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem. 13Be silent, all flesh,

[a]2:3 LXX cf. BHS reads "stood (by)"

[b]2:8 LXX(W) Vg. MT reads "his"

before YHWH; for he has roused himself from his holy habitation."

3 He showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of YHWH, and Satan standing at his right hand to be his adversary. [2]YHWH said to Satan, "YHWH rebuke you, Satan. Yes, YHWH who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you. Isn't this a burning stick plucked out of the fire?"

[3]Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the angel. [4]He answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, "Take the filthy garments off of him." To him he said, "Look, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with rich clothing."

So they set a clean turban on his head, and clothed him; and the angel of YHWH was standing by. [6]The angel of YHWH protested to Joshua, saying, [7]"Thus says YHWH of hosts: 'If you will walk in my ways, and if you will follow my instructions, then you also shall judge my house, and shall also keep my courts, and I will give you a place of access among these who stand by. [8]Hear now, Joshua the high priest, you and your fellows who sit before you; for they are men who are a sign: for, look, I will bring forth my servant, the Branch. [9]For, look, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes: look, I will engrave its engraving,' says YHWH of hosts, 'and I will remove[a] the iniquity of that land in one day. [10]In that day,' says YHWH of hosts, 'you will invite every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig tree.'"

4 The angel who talked with me came again, and wakened me, as a man who is wakened out of his sleep. [2]He said to me, "What do you see?"

I said, "I have seen, and look, a lampstand all of gold, with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps thereon; there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are on the top of it; [3]and two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on the left side of it."

[4]I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, "What are these, my lord?"

[5]Then the angel who talked with me answered me, "Do you not know what these are?"

I said, "No, my lord."

[6]Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, "This is the word of YHWH to Zerubbabel, saying, 'Not

[a]3:9 DSS LXX add "all"

by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit,' says YHWH of hosts. 7Who are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you are a plain; and he will bring out the capstone with shouts of 'Grace, grace, to it.'"

8Moreover the word of YHWH came to me, saying, 9"The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house. His hands shall also finish it; and you will know that YHWH of hosts has sent me to you. 10Indeed, who despises the day of small things? For these seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. These are the eyes of YHWH, which run back and forth through the whole earth."

11Then I asked him, "What are these two olive trees on the right side of the lampstand and on the left side of it?"

12I asked him the second time, "What are these two olive branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that pour the golden oil out of themselves?"

13He answered me, "Do you not know what these are?"

I said, "No, my lord."

14Then he said, "These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth."

5 Then again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and look, a flying scroll.
2He said to me, "What do you see?"

I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty-nine feet six inches, and its breadth fourteen feet nine inches."

3Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off according to it on the one side; and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to it on the other side. 4I will cause it to go out," says YHWH of hosts, "and it will enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who swears falsely by my name; and it will remain in the midst of his house, and will destroy it with its timber and its stones."

5Then the angel who talked with me came forward, and said to me, "Lift up now your eyes, and see what is this that is appearing." 6And I said, "What is it?" And he said, "This is the ephah[a] basket that is appearing." And he said moreover, "This is their iniquity[b] throughout the land. 7And look, a

[a]5:6 An ephah is a measure of volume of about 22 litres, 5.8 U. S. gallons, 4.8 imperial gallons, or a bit more than half a bushel

[b]5:6 Hebrew Ms LXX Syr. MT reads "appearance," a waw-yod confusion lead cover was raised up, and there was a woman sitting in the basket.

8And he said, "This is Wickedness;" and he threw her down into the midst of the ephah basket; and he placed the lead cover over its mouth.

9Then lifted I up my eyes, and saw, and look, there were two women, and the wind was in their wings. Now they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah basket between earth and the sky. 10Then said I to the angel who talked with me, "Where are these carrying the ephah basket?"

11He said to me, "To build her a house in the land of Shinar. When it is prepared, she will be set there in her own place."

6 Again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and look, four chariots came out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of bronze. 2In the first chariot were red horses; in the second chariot black horses; 3in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot dappled horses, all of them powerful. 4Then I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

5The angel answered me, "These are the four winds of the sky, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. 6The one with the black horses goes out toward the north country; and the white went out after them; and the dappled went forth toward the south country." 7The strong went out, and sought to go that they might walk back and forth through the earth: and he said, "Go around and through the earth." So they walked back and forth through the earth.

8Then he called to me, and spoke to me, saying, "Look, those who go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country."
9The word of YHWH came to me, saying, 10"Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah; and come the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, where they have come from Babylon. 11Yes, take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest; 12and speak to him, saying, 'Thus says YHWH of hosts, "Look, the man whose name is the Branch: and he shall grow up out of his place; and he shall build the temple of YHWH; 13even he shall build the temple of YHWH; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on his throne; and he shall be a priest on his throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. 14And the crown shall be to Heldai,[a] and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Josiah[b] the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of YHWH.

15Those who are far off shall come and build in the temple of YHWH; and you shall know that YHWH of hosts has sent me to you. This will happen, if you will diligently obey the voice of YHWH your God.”””

7 It happened in the fourth year of king Darayavush that the word of YHWH came to Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Chislev. 2The people of Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem Melech, and their men, to entreat YHWH’s favor, 3and to speak to the priests of the house of YHWH of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, “Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?”

4Then the word of YHWH of hosts came to me, saying, 5“Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month for these seventy years, did you at all fast to me, really to me? 6When you eat, and when you drink, do you not eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? 7Aren’t these the words which YHWH proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and its cities around her, and the Negev and the lowland were inhabited?’”

8The word of YHWH came to Zechariah, saying, 9“Thus has YHWH of hosts spoken, saying, ‘Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every man to his brother. 10Do not oppress the widow, nor the fatherless, the foreigner, nor the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart.’ 11But they refused to listen, and turned their backs, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear.
12Yes, they made their hearts as hard as flint, lest they might hear the law, and the words which YHWH of hosts had sent by his Spirit by the former prophets.
Therefore great wrath came from YHWH of hosts. 13It has come to pass that, as he called, and they refused to listen, so they will call, and I will not listen,” said YHWH of hosts; 14“but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no man passed through nor returned: for they made the pleasant land desolate.”

8 The word of YHWH of hosts came to me. 2Thus says YHWH of hosts: “I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath.”

3Thus says YHWH: “I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Jerusalem shall be called ‘The City of Truth;’ and the mountain of YHWH of hosts, ‘The Holy Mountain.’”

4Thus says YHWH of hosts:
“Old men and old women will again dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand for very age. [5]The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets."

[6]Thus says YHWH of hosts: "If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvelous in my eyes?" says YHWH of hosts.

[7]Thus says YHWH of hosts: "Look, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; [8]and I will bring them, and they will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness."

[9]Thus says YHWH of hosts: "Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets who were in the day that the foundation of the house of YHWH of hosts was laid, even the temple, that it might be built. [10]For before those days there was no wages for man, nor any wages for an animal; neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in, because of the adversary. For I set all men everyone against his neighbor. [11]But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days," says YHWH of hosts. [12]"For the seed of peace and the vine will yield its fruit, and the ground will give its increase, and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. [13]It shall come to pass that, as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and you shall be a blessing. Do not be afraid. Let your hands be strong."

[14]For thus says YHWH of hosts: "As I thought to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath," says YHWH of hosts, "and I did not repent; [15]so again have I thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not be afraid. [16]These are the things that you shall do: speak every man the truth with his neighbor. Execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates, [17]and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor, and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate," says YHWH.

[18]The word of YHWH of hosts came to me. [19]Thus says YHWH of hosts: "The fasts of the fourth fifth, seventh, and tenth months shall be for the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts. Therefore love truth and peace."
[20]Thus says YHWH of hosts: "Many[a] peoples and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come; [21]and the inhabitants of one shall go to another, saying, 'Let us go speedily to entreat the favor of YHWH, and to seek YHWH of hosts. I will go

[a]8:20 2 Hebrew Mss LXX. MT lacks "Many" from homoioteleuton: ym-ym, or with sight confusion in a square script: mym-bym also.' [22]Yes, many peoples and strong nations will come to seek YHWH of hosts in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of YHWH." [23]Thus says YHWH of hosts: "In those days, ten men will take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they will take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, 'We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'"

9 An oracle.
The word of YHWH is against the land of Hadrach,
and will rest upon Damascus;
for the eye of man and of all the tribes of Israel is toward YHWH;
[2]and Hamath, also, which borders on it;
Tyre and Sidon, because they are very wise.
[3]Tyre built herself a stronghold, and heaped up silver like the
dust,
and fine gold like the mire of
the streets.
[4]Look, YHWH[a] will dispossess her, and he will strike her power in the sea;
and she will be devoured with fire.
[5]Ashkelon will see it, and fear; Gaza also, and will writhe in agony;
as will Ekron, for her expectation will be disappointed;
and the king will perish from Gaza,
and Ashkelon will not be inhabited.
[6]Foreigners will dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.
[7]I will take away his blood out of
his mouth,
and his abominations from between his teeth;
and he also will be a remnant for
our God;
and he will be as a chieftain in Judah,
and Ekron as a Jebusite.
[8]I will camp around my house against the army, that none pass through or
return;
and no oppressor will pass through them any more:
for now I have seen with my
eyes.
[9]Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion.
Shout, daughter of Jerusalem.
Look, your king comes to you.
He is righteous, and having
salvation;
lowly, and riding on a donkey,
even on a colt, the foal of a donkey.
[10]I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim,
and the horse from Jerusalem;
and the battle bow will be cut off;
and he will speak peace to
the nations:

[a]9:4 Hebrew Mss. MT reads "Lord" and his dominion will be from sea to sea, and from the River to the farthest parts of the

earth.
11 As for you also, because of the blood of your
covenant,
I have set free your prisoners from the pit in which is no water.
12 Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope.
Even today I declare that I will restore double to
you.
13 For indeed I bend Judah as a bow for me.
I have filled the bow with Ephraim;
and I will stir up your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece, and will make you like the sword of a mighty
man.
14 YHWH will be seen over them;
and his arrow will go forth like lightning;
and[a] YHWH will blow the
trumpet,
and will go with whirlwinds of the south.
15 YHWH of hosts will defend
them;
and they will destroy and overcome with sling
stones;
and they will drink, and roar as through wine;
and they will be filled like bowls,
like the corners of the altar.
16 YHWH their God will save them in that day as the flock of his people;
for they are like the jewels of a crown,
lifted on high over his land.
17 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty.
Grain will make the young men
flourish,
and new wine the virgins.

10 Ask of YHWH rain in the spring time, YHWH who makes lightnings,[b]
and he gives rain showers to everyone for the plants in the field.
2 For the teraphim have spoken vanity,
and the diviners have seen a lie;
and they have told false dreams.
They comfort in vain.
Therefore they go their way
like sheep.
They are oppressed, because there is no shepherd.
3 My anger is kindled against the shepherds,
and I will punish the male
goats;
For YHWH of hosts has visited his flock, the house of Judah,
and will make them as his majestic horse in the battle.

[a] 9:14 Hebrew Ms LXX. MT adds "Lord"

[b] 10:1 Or, "lightning bolts", "thunderstorms", "bright rain clouds"

[4]From him will come forth the cornerstone, from him the nail,
from him the battle bow,
from him every ruler together.
[5]They shall be as mighty men, treading down muddy streets in the battle;
and they shall fight, because YHWH is with them;
and the riders on horses will be confounded.
[6]"I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them back;
for I have mercy on them;
and they will be as though I had not cast them off:
for I am YHWH their God, and I will hear them.
[7]Ephraim will be like a mighty man, and their heart will rejoice as through wine;
yes, their children will see it, and rejoice.
Their heart will be glad in YHWH.
[8]I will signal for them, and gather them;
for I have redeemed them;
and they will increase as they have increased.
[9]I will sow them among the peoples;
and they will remember me in far countries;
and they will live with their children, and will return.
[10]I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria;
and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon;
and there won't be room enough for them.
[11]He will pass through the sea of affliction, and will strike the waves in the sea,
and all the depths of the Nile will dry up;
and the pride of Assyria will be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt will depart.
[12]I will strengthen them in YHWH; and they will walk up and down in his name,"
says YHWH.

11 Open your doors, Lebanon, that the fire may devour your cedars.
[2]Wail, fir tree, for the cedar has fallen, because the stately ones are destroyed.
Wail, you oaks of Bashan, for the strong forest has come down.
[3]A voice of the wailing of the shepherds.
For their glory is destroyed:
a voice of the roaring of young lions.
For the pride of the Jordan is ruined.

[4]Thus says YHWH my God: "Feed the flock of slaughter. [5]Their buyers slaughter them, and go unpunished. Those who sell them say, ‘Blessed be YHWH, for I am rich;’ and their own shepherds do not pity them. 6For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land,” says YHWH; “but, look, I will deliver the men everyone into his neighbor’s hand, and into the hand of his king. They will strike the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.”

7So I fed the flock of slaughter, especially the oppressed of the flock. I took for myself two staffs. The one I called “Favor,” and the other I called “Union,” and I fed the flock. 8I cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me. 9Then I said, “I will not feed you. That which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let those who are left eat each other’s flesh.” 10I took my staff Favor, and cut it apart, that I might break my covenant that I had made with all the peoples. 11It was broken in that day; and thus the poor[a] of the flock that listened to me knew that it was the word of YHWH. 12I said to them, “If you think it best, give me my wages; and if not, keep them.” So they weighed for my wages thirty pieces of silver. 13YHWH said to me, “Throw it to the potter, the handsome price that I was valued at by them.” I took the thirty pieces of silver, and threw them to the potter, in the house of YHWH. 14Then I cut apart my other staff, even Union, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15YHWH said to me, “Take for yourself yet again the equipment of a foolish shepherd. 16For, look, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those who are cut off, neither will seek those who are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which is sound; but he will eat the flesh of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces. 17Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock. The sword will be on his arm, and on his right eye. His arm will be completely withered, and his right eye will be totally blinded.”

12 An oracle. The word of YHWH concerning Israel. YHWH, who stretches out the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him says: 2“Look, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the surrounding peoples, and on Judah also will it be in the siege against Jerusalem. 3It will happen in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples. All who burden themselves with it will be severely wounded, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against it. 4In that day,” says YHWH, “I will strike every horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open my eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. [5]The chieftains of Judah will say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in YHWH of hosts their God.' [6]In that day I will make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they will devour all the surrounding peoples, on the right hand and on the left; and Jerusalem will yet again dwell in their own place, even in Jerusalem. [7]YHWH also will save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem not be magnified above Judah. [8]In that day YHWH will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem. He who is feeble among them at that day will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of YHWH before them. [9]It will happen in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. [10]I will pour on the house of David, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of petition; and they will look to me whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for his only son, and will grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for his firstborn. [11]In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. [12]The land will mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; [13]the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; [14]all the families who remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

13 "In that day there will be a spring opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. [2]It will come to pass in that day, says YHWH of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they will be remembered no more. I will also cause the[a] prophets and the spirit of impurity to pass out of the land. [3]It will happen that, when anyone still prophesies, then his father and his mother who bore him will tell him, 'You must die, because you speak lies in the name of YHWH;' and his father and his mother who bore him will stab him when he prophesies. [4]It will happen in that day, that the prophets will each be ashamed of his vision, when he prophesies; neither will they wear a hairy mantle to deceive: [5]but he will say, 'I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a bondservant from my youth.' [6]One will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your hands?' Then he will answer, 'Those with of my friends.'

7"Awake, sword, against my shepherd,
and against the man who is close to me," says
YHWH of hosts.
"I will[a] strike the shepherd, and the sheep[b] will be scattered;
and I will turn my hand against the little ones.
8It shall happen that in all the land," says YHWH,
"two parts in it will be cut off and die;
but the third will be left in it.
9I will bring the third part into the
fire,
and will refine them as silver is refined,
and will test them like gold is tested.
They will call on my name, and I will hear them.
I will say, 'It is my people;' and they will say, 'YHWH is
my God.'"

14 Look, a day of YHWH comes, when your spoil will be divided in your midst. 2For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city will be taken, the houses rifled, and the women ravished. Half of the city will go out into captivity, and the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city. 3Then YHWH will go out and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. 4His feet will stand in that day on the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in two, from east to west, making a very great valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and half of it toward the south. 5Then you shall flee by the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azel; yes, you shall flee, just like you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then YHWH my God will come, and[c] all the holy ones with him.[d] 6It will happen in that day, that there will not be light, cold, or frost. 7It will be a unique day which is known to YHWH; not day, and not night; but it will come to pass, that at evening time there will be light.

one, and his name one. [10]All the land will be made like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon in the Negev. Jerusalem will be lifted up, and will dwell in her place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses. [11]Men will dwell in it, and there will be no more curse; but Jerusalem will dwell safely. [12]This will be the plague with which YHWH will strike all the peoples who have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh will consume away while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will consume away in their sockets, and their tongue will consume away in their mouth. [13]It will happen in that day, that a great panic from YHWH will be among them; and they will lay hold everyone on the hand of his neighbor, and his hand will rise up against the hand of his neighbor. [14]Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together: gold, and silver, and clothing, in great abundance.

[15]So will be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the donkey, and of all the animals that will be in those camps, as that plague. [16]It will happen that everyone who is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, YHWH of hosts, and to keep the feast of booths. [17]It will be, that whoever of all the families of the earth doesn't go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, YHWH of hosts, on them there will be no rain. [18]If the family of Egypt doesn't go up and enter in, on them will[a] be the plague with which YHWH will strike the nations that do not go up to keep the feast of booths. [19]This will be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to keep the feast of booths. [20]In that day there will be on the bells of the horses, "HOLY TO YHWH;" and the pots in YHWH's house will be like the bowls before the altar. [21]Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to YHWH of hosts; and all those who sacrifice will come and take of them, and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of YHWH of hosts.

Malachi

1 An oracle: the word of YHWH to Israel by Malachi.

[2]"I have loved you," says YHWH. Yet you say, "How have you loved us?"

[a]14:8 Hebrew Mss LXX Syr cf. BHS. MT adds "not"

"Wasn't Esau Jacob's brother?" says YHWH, "Yet I loved Jacob; 3but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness." 4Whereas Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places;" thus says YHWH of hosts, "They shall build, but I will throw down; and men will call them 'The Wicked Land,' even the people against whom YHWH shows wrath forever."

5Your eyes will see, and you will say, "YHWH is great—even beyond the border of Israel."
6"A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If I am a father, then where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is the respect due me? says YHWH of hosts to you, priests, who despise my name. Yet you say, 'How have we despised your name?' 7By offering defiled food on my altar. But you say, 'How have we defiled you?' In that you say, 'YHWH's table is despised, and its fruit, its food, is despised.'[a] 8When you offer the blind for sacrifice, isn't that evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, isn't that evil? Present it now to your governor. Will he be pleased with you? Or will he accept your person?" says YHWH of hosts.

9"Now, please entreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious to us. With this, will he accept any of you?" says YHWH of hosts.
10"Oh that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on my altar in vain. I have no pleasure in you," says YHWH of hosts, "neither will I accept an offering at your hand. 11For from the rising of the sun even to the going down of the same, my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name is great among the nations," says YHWH of hosts. 12"But you profane it, in that you say, 'YHWH's table is defiled, and its fruit, its food, is despised.' 13You say also, 'Look, what a weariness it is.' and you sniff scornfully at it," says YHWH of hosts; "and you have brought that which was taken by violence, the lame, and the sick; thus you bring the offering. Should I accept this at your hand?" says YHWH of hosts.[b]

14"But the deceiver is cursed, who has in his flock a male, and vows, and sacrifices to YHWH[c] a blemished thing; for I am a great King," says YHWH of hosts, "and my name is awesome among the nations."

2 "Now, you priests, this commandment is for you. [2]If you will not listen, and if you will not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name," says YHWH of hosts, "then will I send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them already, because you do not lay it to heart. [3]Look, I will rebuke your seed, and will spread dung on your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and you will be taken away with it. [4]You will know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant may be with Levi," says YHWH of hosts. [5]"My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might be reverent toward me; and he was reverent toward me, and stood in awe of my name. [6]The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity. [7]For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of YHWH of hosts. [8]But you have turned aside out of the way. You have caused many to stumble in the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says YHWH of hosts. [9]"Therefore I have also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according to the way you have not kept my ways, but have had respect for persons in the law. [10]Do we not all have one father? Hasn't one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? [11]Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holiness of YHWH which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. [12]YHWH will cut off, to the man who does this, him who wakes and him who answers, out of the tents of Jacob, and him who offers an offering to YHWH of hosts. [13]This again you do: you cover the altar of YHWH[a] with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, because he doesn't regard the offering any more, neither receives it with good will at your hand. [14]Yet you say, 'Why?' Because YHWH has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously, though she is your companion, and the wife of your covenant. [15]Did he not make one, although he had the residue of the Spirit? Why one? He sought a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. [16]For I hate[b] divorce," says YHWH, the God of Israel, "and him who covers his garment with violence." says YHWH of hosts. "Therefore take heed to your spirit, that you do not deal treacherously. [17]You have wearied YHWH[c] with your words. Yet you say, ‘How have we wearied him?’ In that you say, ‘Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of YHWH, and he delights in them;’ or ‘Where is the God of justice?’

3 “Look, I send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me; and the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, look, he comes.” says YHWH of hosts. 2But who can endure the day of his coming? And who will stand when he appears? For he is coming[a] like a refiner's fire, and like launderer's soap. 3And he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer to YHWH offerings in righteousness. 4Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to YHWH, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years. 5I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the perjurers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and who deprive the foreigner of justice, and do not fear me,” says YHWH of hosts. 6“For I, YHWH, do not change; therefore you, sons of Jacob, are not consumed. 7From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you,” says YHWH of hosts. “But you say, ‘How shall we return?’ 8Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me. But you say, ‘How have we robbed you?’ In tithes and offerings. 9You are cursed with the curse; for you rob me, even this whole nation. 10Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this,” says YHWH of hosts, “if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough for. 11I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before its time in the field,” says YHWH of hosts. 12“All nations shall call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land,” says YHWH of hosts.

13“Your words have been stout against me,” says YHWH. “Yet you say, ‘What have we spoken against you?’ 14You have said, ‘It is vain to serve God;’ and ‘What profit is it that we have followed his instructions, and that we have walked mournfully before YHWH of hosts? 15Now we call the proud blessed; indeed, evildoers prosper. They even tempt God and escape.’ 16Then those who feared YHWH spoke one with another; and YHWH listened, and heard, and a book of remembrance was written before him, for those who feared

13Now when they had departed, look, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him."

14And he arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt, 15and was there until the death of Herod; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I called my son."[a]

16Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the Magi, was exceedingly angry, and sent out, and killed all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all the surrounding countryside, from two years old and under, according to the exact time which he had learned from the Magi. 17Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying, 18"A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation and[b] weeping and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children;
and she would not be comforted,
because they are no more."[c]

19But when Herod was dead, look, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, 20"Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel, for those who sought the young child's life are dead."

21And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel. 22But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in the place of his father, Herod, he was afraid to go there. Being warned in a dream, he withdrew into the region of Galilee, 23and came and lived in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, that he will be called a Nazorean.[d]

3 And in those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea 2and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near." 3For this is he who was spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

[4]Now John himself wore clothing made of camel's hair and with a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. [5]Then people from Jerusalem, all of Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him, [6]and they were baptized by him in the Jordan river[b], confessing their sins. [7]But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for his baptism he said to them, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? [8]Therefore bring forth fruit worthy of repentance, [9]and do not think to yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father,' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

[10]"Even now the axe lies at the root of the trees. Therefore, every tree that does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire. [11]I indeed baptize you in water for repentance, but the one who comes after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and with fire[c]. [12]His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor. He will gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire."

[13]Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptized by him. [14]But John would have hindered him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and you come to me?"

[15]But Jesus, answering, said to him, "Allow it to happen now, for this is the proper way for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed him. [16]And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up directly from the water; and look, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming on him. [17]And look, a voice out of the heavens said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

4 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. [2]And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was hungry afterward. [3]And the tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread."

5Then the devil took him into the holy city. He set him on the pinnacle of the temple, 6and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, ‘He will put his angels in charge of you.’ and,
‘In their hands they will lift you
up,
so that you will not strike

7Jesus said to him, “Again, it is written, ‘Do not test the Lord, your God.’”[c]

8Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory. 9And he said to him, “I will give you all of these things, if you will fall down and worship me.”

10Then Jesus said to him, “Go away,[d] Satan. For it is written, ‘You are to worship the Lord your God, and serve him only.’”[e]

11Then the devil left him, and look, angels came and served him. 12Now when he[f] heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee. 13And leaving Nazareth, he came and lived in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, 14that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

16The people sitting in darkness have seen a great light,
and
those living in the land and 17From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near.”

18And walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers: Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew, his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. 19And he said to them, “Come, follow me, and I will make you fishers of people.”

23And Jesus[a] went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the Good News of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. 24And the report about him went out into all Syria, and they brought to him all who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and torments, possessed with demons, and epileptics, and paralytics; and he healed them. 25And large crowds from Galilee, and Decapolis, and Jerusalem, and Judea, and from beyond the Jordan followed him.

5 And seeing the multitudes, he went up onto the mountain, and when he had sat down, his disciples came to him. 2Then he opened his mouth and taught them, saying, 3"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4Blessed are those who mourn,

9Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called the children of God.
10Blessed are those who have been persecuted for righteousness' sake,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11"Blessed are you when they insult you, persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely, for my sake. 12Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven. For that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

13"You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its flavor, with what will it be salted? It is then good for nothing, but to be cast out and trampled under people's feet. 14You are the light of the world. A city located on a hill cannot be hidden. 15Neither do you light a lamp, and put it under a measuring basket, but on a stand; and it shines to all who are in the house. 16In the same way, let your light shine before people, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

22But I tell you, that everyone who is angry with his brother without a cause[d] will be liable to judgment; and whoever will say to his brother, 'Raqa,' will be in danger of the council; and whoever will say, 'You fool,' will be in danger of the fire of hell.[e]

[11]And I tell you that many will come from the east and the west, and will sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven, [12]but the children[a] of the kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness. [14]And when Jesus came into Peter's house, he saw his mother-in-law lying sick with a fever. [15]So he touched her hand, and the fever left her. She got up and served him[c].
[16]And when evening came, they brought to him many possessed with demons. He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick; [17]that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, "He took our infirmities, and bore our diseases."[d] [18]Now when Jesus saw large[e] crowds around him, he gave the order to depart to the other side.

[27]And the men were amazed, saying, "What kind of person is this[b], that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

[28]And when he came to the other side, into the country of the Gadarenes,[c] two[d] people possessed by demons met him there, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that nobody could pass that way. [29]And look, they shouted, saying, "What do we have to do with you,[e] Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?" [30]Now there was a herd of many pigs feeding far away from them. [31]And the demons begged him, saying, "If you cast us out, permit us to go away into the herd of pigs."

And they came out, and went into the pigs, and look, the whole herd[f] rushed down the cliff into the sea, and died in the water. [33]And those who fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, including what happened to those who were possessed with demons. [34]And look, all the city came out to meet Jesus. And when they saw him, they pleaded with him to leave their region.

9 And he entered into a boat, and crossed over, and came into his own city. [2]And look, they brought to him a man who was paralyzed, lying on a bed. And Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Son, cheer up. Your sins are forgiven.[g]"

7And he arose and departed to his house. 8Now when the crowds saw it, they were afraid[a] and glorified God who had given such authority to men.

9And as Jesus passed by from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax collection office. He said to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him. 10And it happened as he sat in the house, house, look, many tax collectors and sinners came and were reclining with Jesus and his disciples. 11And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, "Why does your Teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

12When he[b] heard it, he said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. 13But you go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,'[c] for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.[d]"

14Then John's disciples came to him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples do not fast?"

15And Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. 16And no one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch would tear away from the garment, and a worse hole is made. 17Neither do people put new wine into old wineskins, or else the skins would burst, and the wine pours out, and the skins ruined. No, they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved."

18While he told these things to them, look, a ruler came and worshiped him, saying, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live."

19And Jesus got up and followed him, as did his disciples. 20And look, a woman who had an issue of blood for twelve years came behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment; 21for she said within herself, "If I just touch his garment, I will be made well."

22But Jesus, turning around and seeing her, said, "Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well." And the woman was made well from that hour.

[25]But when the crowd was put out, he entered in, took her by the hand, and the girl arose. [26]And the report of this went out into all that land. [27]And as Jesus passed by from there, two blind men followed him, calling out and saying, "Have mercy on us, son of David."

[28]And when he had come into the house, the blind men came to him, and Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?"

They told him, "Yes, Lord."

[29]Then he touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith be it done to you." [30]And their eyes were opened. And Jesus strictly commanded them, saying, "See that no one knows about this." [31]But they went out and spread abroad his fame in all that land.

[38]Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees said to him, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from you."

[39]But he answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, but no sign will be given it but the sign of Jonah the prophet. [40]For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. [41]The people of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and look, something greater than Jonah is here. [42]The queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for she came from a distant land[c] to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and look, someone greater than Solomon is here. The last state of that person becomes worse than the first. Even so will it be also to this evil generation."

46While[a] he was yet speaking to the crowds, look, his mother and his brothers stood outside, seeking to speak to him. 47Then one said to him, "Look, your mother and your brothers stand outside, seeking to speak to you."[b]

48But he answered him who spoke to him, "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?" 49And he stretched out his hand towards his disciples, and said, "Look, my mother and my brothers. 50For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother."

13 On that day Jesus went out of the house, and sat by the seaside. 2And large crowds gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat, and sat, and all the crowd stood on the beach. 3And he spoke to them many things in parables, saying, "Look, a farmer went out to sow. 4And as he sowed, some seeds fell by the roadside, and the birds came and devoured them. 5And others fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of earth. 6But when the sun had risen, they were scorched. Because they had no root, they withered away. 7Others fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. 8Still others fell on good soil, and yielded fruit: some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty. 9He who has ears[c], let him hear."

10Then the disciples came, and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?"

11And answering, he said to them, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but it is not given to them. 12For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have abundance, but whoever does not have, from him will be taken away even that which he has. 13Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing, they do not hear, neither do they understand. 14And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says,

'In hearing you will hear,
but will not understand,

and seeing you will see,
but not perceive.
15For the heart of this people has grown dull,
and their ears are sluggish in
hearing,
and they have closed their
eyes,
otherwise they might see with their eyes,
and hear with their ears,
and understand with their heart,
and turn back,
and I would heal them.'[a]

16"But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. 17For truly I tell you that many prophets and righteous people desired to see the things which you see, and did not see them; and to hear the things which you hear, and did not hear them.

18"Hear, then, the parable of the farmer. 19When anyone hears the word of the kingdom, and does not understand it, the evil one comes, and snatches away that which has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown by the roadside. 20And what was sown on the rocky places, this is he who hears the word, and immediately with joy receives it; 21yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles. 22And what was sown among the thorns, this is he who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. 23And what was sown on the good ground, this is he who hears the word, and understands it, who truly bears fruit, and brings forth, some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty."

24He set another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a person who sowed good seed in his field, 25but while everyone slept, his enemy came and sowed tares[b] also among the wheat, and went away. 26But when the blade sprang up and brought forth fruit, then the tares appeared also. 27So the servants of the householder came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where did these tares come from?'

28"And he said to them, 'An enemy has done this.'

"And the servants asked him, 'Then do you want us to go and gather them up?'

29"But he said, 'No, lest perhaps while you gather up the tares, you root up the wheat with them. 30Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the harvest time I will tell the reapers, "First,

[a]13:15 Isaiah 6:9-10

[b]13:25 The darnel tare is a weed that resembles wheat until harvest time, when the difference becomes apparent gather up the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn."'"

31 He set another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field; 32 which indeed is least of all the seeds.[a] But when it has grown it is larger than the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches."

33 He spoke another parable to them. "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast, which a woman took,
and hid in three measures[b] of meal, until it was all leavened."

34 Jesus spoke all these things in parables to the crowds; and without a parable, he did not speak to them, 35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through[c] the prophet, saying,
"I will open my mouth in parables;
I will utter things hidden
since the beginning of the world."[d]

36 Then Jesus sent the crowds away, and went into the house. His disciples came to him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the tares in the field."

37 And he answered them,
"The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man, 38 and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the children of the kingdom; and the tares are the children of the evil one, 39 and the enemy who sowed them is the devil, and the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. 40 As therefore the tares are gathered up and burned with fire; so will it be at the end of the age. 41 The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and those who do iniquity, 42 and will cast them into the furnace of fire.
There will be weeping and the grinding of teeth. 43 Then the righteous will shine forth like the sun in the kingdom of their Father.
He who has ears,[e] let him hear.

44 "The[f] kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found, and hid. In his joy, he goes and sells all that he has,
and buys that field.

45 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a man who is a merchant seeking fine pearls, 46 and having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.

22 Peter took him aside, and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from you, Lord. This will never be done to you."

23 But he turned, and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan. You are a stumbling block to me, for you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of humans." 24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. 25 For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, and whoever will lose his life for my sake will find it. 26 For what will it profit a person, if he gains the whole world, and forfeits his life?
Or what will a person give in exchange for his life? 27 For the Son of Man will come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will render to everyone according to his deeds. 28 Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste of death, until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

17 After six days, Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John his brother, and brought them up into a high mountain by themselves. 2 He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his garments became as white as the light. 3 And look, Moses and Elijah appeared to them talking with him.

4Peter answered, and said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you want, let us make three tents here: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

5While he was still speaking, look, a bright cloud overshadowed them. And look, a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to him.”

6When the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces, and were very afraid. 7Jesus came and touched them and said, “Get up, and do not be afraid.” 8And when they lifted up their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus[a] alone. 9As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, “Do not tell anyone what you saw, until the Son of Man has risen from the dead.”

10The[b] disciples asked him, saying, “Then why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”

11And he answered and said[c], “Elijah indeed comes,[d] and will restore all things, 12but I tell you that Elijah has come already, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they wanted to.
Even so the Son of Man will also suffer by them.” 13Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them of John the Baptist.

14And when they came to the crowd, a man came to him, knelt before him, 15and said, “Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is epileptic, and suffers severely; for he often falls into the fire, and often into the water. 16So I brought him to your disciples, and they could not cure him.”

17Jesus answered, “Faithless and perverse generation. How long will I be with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring him here to me.” 18Jesus rebuked him, the demon went out of him, and the boy was cured from that hour.

19Then the disciples came to Jesus privately, and said, “Why weren’t we able to cast it out?”

20So he[e] said to them, “Because of your little faith. For truly I tell you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” 21[f]

22While they were gathering together[a] in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men, 23and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up."

They were exceedingly sorry. 24When they had come to Capernaum, those who collected the didrachma coins came to Peter, and said, "Does not your teacher pay the didrachma?" 25He said, "Yes."

When he came into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive toll or tribute? From their children, or from strangers?"

26And when he said,[b] "From strangers." Jesus said to him, "Therefore the children are exempt. 27But, lest we cause them to stumble, go to the sea, cast a hook, and take up the first fish that comes up. When you have opened its mouth, you will find a stater coin. Take that, and give it to them for me and you."

18 In that hour the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

2He[c] called a little child to himself, and set him in the midst of them, 3and said, "Truly I tell you, unless you turn, and become as little children, you will in no way enter into the kingdom of heaven. 4Whoever therefore humbles himself as this little child, the same is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5Whoever receives one such little child in my name receives me, 6but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him that a huge millstone should be hung around his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depths of the sea.

7"Woe to the world because of stumbling blocks. 19 It happened when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judea beyond the Jordan. 2Large crowds followed him, and he healed them there. 3And Pharisees came to him, testing him, and saying to him, "Is it lawful for a man[a] to divorce a wife for any reason?"

that Jesus was passing by, shouted, "Have mercy on us, Lord, son of David." 31The crowd rebuked them, telling them that they should be quiet, but they shouted even more, "Have mercy on us, Lord, son of David."

32Jesus stood still, and called them, and asked, "What do you want me to do for you?"

33They told him, "Lord, that our eyes may be opened."

34Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes; and immediately their eyes received their sight, and they followed him.

21 When they drew near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage,[a] to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, 2saying to them, "Go into the village that is opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them, and bring them to me. 3And if anyone says anything to you, you are to say, 'Because the Lord needs them,' and he will send them at once."

4This[b] took place that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying, 5Say to the daughter of Zion,[c]
"Look, your King comes to you, humble, and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey."[d]

6The disciples went, and did just as Jesus directed them, 7and brought the donkey and the colt, and placed their clothes on them; and he sat on them.[e] 8A very large crowd spread their clothes on the road. Others cut branches from the trees, and spread them on the road. 9The crowds who went before him, and who followed kept shouting, "Hosanna[f] to the son of David. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest."[g]

10When he had come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred up, saying, "Who is this?" 11The crowds said, "This is the prophet Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee."

12Jesus entered into the temple,[h] and drove out all of those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the money changers' tables and the seats of those who

[14]The blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. [15]But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying out in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the son of David." they were indignant, [16]and said to him, "Do you hear what these are saying?"

Jesus said to them, "Yes. Did you never read, 'Out of the mouth of babes and nursing babies you have prepared praise?'"[c]

[17]He left them, and went out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there. [18]Now in the morning, as he returned to the city, he was hungry. [19]Seeing a fig tree by the road, he came to it, and found nothing on it but leaves. He said to it, "Let there be no fruit from you forever."

Immediately the fig tree withered away. [20]When the disciples saw it, they were amazed, saying, "How did the fig tree immediately wither away?"

[21]Jesus answered them, "Truly I tell you, if you have faith, and do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you told this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' it would be done. [22]All things, whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

[23]When he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority do you do these things? Who gave you this authority?"

[24]Jesus answered them, "I also will ask you one question, which if you tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. [25]The baptism of John, where was it from? From heaven or from people?"

They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' [26]But if we say, 'From people,' we fear the crowd, for all hold John as a prophet." [27]They answered Jesus, and said, "We do not know."

He also said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things. [28]But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first, and said, 'Son, go work today in the[d] vineyard.' [29]He answered, 'I will not,' but afterward he changed his

the other[a], and said the same thing.
And he answered and said, 'I go, sir,' but he did not go. [31]Which of the two did the will of his father?"

They said[b], "The first."

Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering into the kingdom of God before you. [32]For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him.
When you saw it, you did not even repent afterward, that you might believe him.

[33]"Hear another parable.
There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, set a hedge about it, dug a winepress in it, built a tower, leased it out to tenant farmers, and went on a journey.
[34]When the season for the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants, to receive his fruit.
[35]The tenants took his servants, beat one, killed another, and stoned another. [36]Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they treated them the same way.
[37]But afterward he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will respect my son.' [38]But the tenants, when they saw the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and have his inheritance.' [39]So they took him, and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. [40]When therefore the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?"

[41]They told him, "He will utterly destroy those evil men, and will lease out the vineyard to other tenants, who will give him the fruit in its season."

[42]Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures,
'The stone which the builders
rejected,
the same was made the head of the corner.
This was from the Lord.
It is marvelous in our eyes?'[c]

[43]"Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you, and will be given to a nation bringing forth its fruit. [44]He who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; but on whomever it will fall, it will crush him.[d]"[e]

[45]When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he spoke about them. [46]When they sought to seize him, they feared the crowds, because they considered him to be a prophet.

22 Jesus answered and spoke again in parables to them, saying, 2"The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king, who made a marriage feast for his son, 3and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast, but they would not come. 4Again he sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, "Look, I have made ready my dinner. My cattle and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage feast."' 5But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise, 6and the rest grabbed his servants, and treated them shamefully, and killed them. 7The king[a] was enraged, and sent his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.

8"Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited weren't worthy. 9Go therefore to the intersections of the highways, and as many as you may find, invite to the marriage feast.' 10And those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all they found, both bad and good, and the wedding was filled with those reclining.[b] 11But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who did not have on wedding clothing, 12and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here not wearing wedding clothing?' He was speechless. 13Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot,[c] and throw him into the outer darkness; there is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.' 14For many are called, but few chosen."

15Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how they might entrap him in his talk. 16They sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and teach the way of God in truth, no matter whom you teach, for you are not partial to anyone. 17Tell us therefore, what do you think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

18But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, "Why do you test me, you hypocrites? 19Show me the tax money."

They brought to him a denarius.

20He asked them, "Whose is this image and inscription?"

21They said to him, "Caesar's."

Then he said to them, "Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

22When they heard it, they were astonished, and left him, and went away.

23On that day Sadducees came to him, the ones saying that there is no resurrection. And they asked him, 24saying, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies, having no children, his brother is to marry his wife, and raise up offspring for his brother.'[a] 25Now there were with us seven brothers. The first married and died, and having no offspring, left his wife to his brother. 26In like manner the second also, and the third, to the seventh. 27After them all, the woman died[b]. 28In the resurrection therefore, whose wife will she be of the seven? For they all had her."

29But Jesus answered them, "You are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God. 30For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like the angels[c] in heaven. 31But concerning the resurrection of the dead, Have you not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying, 32'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?'[d] God is not the God of the dead, but of the living."

33When the crowds heard it, they were astonished at his teaching. 34But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, gathered themselves together. 35One of them, a Law scholar, asked him a question, testing him[e]. 36"Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the law?"

37He[f] said to him, "'You are to love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.'[g] 38This is the great and first commandment. 39A second likewise is this, 'You are to love your neighbor as yourself.'[h] 40The whole Law and the Prophets depend on these two commandments."

41Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, 42saying, "What do you think of the Christ? Whose son is he?"

They said to him, "Of David."

43He said to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying, Lord, how is he his son?"

46No one was able to answer him a word, neither did anyone dare ask him any more questions from that day forth.

23 Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples, 2saying, "Upon the seat of Moses the Pharisees and scribes sit. 3All which they will say unto you, observe and do; but their works do not do, because they say, and do not to bear[c] burdens, and lay them on people's shoulders; but they themselves will not lift a finger to do to be seen by others. They make their tefillin broad and enlarge the fringe of their garments, 6and love you are not to be called 'Rabbi,' for

Therefore you will receive greater

32"Now from the fig tree learn this parable. When its branch has now become tender, and puts forth its leaves, you know that the summer is near. 33Even so you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. 34Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away, until all these things are accomplished. 35Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. 36But no one knows of that day and hour, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son,[b] but my Father only.
37"As the days of Noah were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. 38For as in those[c] days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the box-shaped ship, 39and they did not know until the flood came, and took them all away, so[d] will be the coming of the Son of Man. 40Then two will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left. 41Two will be grinding grain with a mill; one will be taken and the other left. 42Watch therefore, for you do not know on what day[e] your Lord comes. 43But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch of the night the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. 44Therefore also be ready, for in an hour that you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.

45"Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his lord has set over his household, to give them their food in due season? 46Blessed is that servant whom his lord finds doing so when he comes. 47Truly I tell you that he will set him over all that he has. 48But if that evil servant should say in his heart, 'My lord is delayed[f],' 49and begins to beat his fellow servants, and eat and drink with the drunkards, 50the lord of that servant will come in a day when he does

14Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests, 15and said,
"What are you willing to give me, that I should deliver him to you?" They weighed out for him thirty pieces of silver.[a] 16From that time he sought opportunity to betray

17Now on the first day of 18He said, "Go into the city to they were eating, he said, "Truly I

He said to him, "You said it."

[42]Again, a second time he

“My Father, if this[c] cannot pass them, “Sleep on now, and take your

and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. 51And look, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. 52Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back into its place, for all those who take the sword will die by the sword. 53Or do you think that I could not ask my Father, and he would even now send me more than twelve legions of angels? 54How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that it must be so?"

55In that hour Jesus said to the crowds, "Have you come out as against a robber with swords and clubs to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me. 56But all this has happened, that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled."

Then all the disciples left him, and fled. 57Those who had taken Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. 58But Peter followed him from a distance, to the court of the high priest, and entered in and sat with the officers, to see the end. 59Now the chief priests[a] and the whole council sought false testimony against Jesus so they could put him to death; 60and they found none, even though many false witnesses came forward.[b] But afterward two came forward, 61and said, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.'"

62The high priest stood up, and said to him, "Have you no answer? What is this that these testify against you?" 63But Jesus held his peace. The high priest answered him, "I adjure you by the living God, that you tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God."

64Jesus said to him, "You have said it. Nevertheless, I tell you, after this you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of the sky."[c]

65Then the high priest tore his clothing, saying, "He has spoken blasphemy. Why do we need any more witnesses? Look, now you have heard his blasphemy. 66What do you think?"

They answered, "He is worthy of death." 67Then they spit in his face[d] and beat him with their fists, and some slapped him, 68saying, "Prophesy to us, you Christ. Who hit you?"

remorse, and returned the thirty

But they said, “What is that 5He threw down the pieces of took the pieces of silver, and said,

[11]Now Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, “Are you the King of the Jews?”

Jesus said to him, “You say so.”

[12]When he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. [13]Then Pilate said to him, “Do you not hear how many things they testify against you?”

[14]He gave him no answer, not even one word, so that the governor was greatly amazed. [15]Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release to the crowd one prisoner, whom they desired. [16]They had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas[a]. [17]When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus, who is called Christ?” [18]For he knew that because of envy they had delivered him up.

[19]While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, “Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.” [20]Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. [21]But the governor answered them, “Which of the two do you want me to release to you?”

They said, “Barabbas.”

[22]Pilate said to them, “What then should I do with Jesus, who is called Christ?”

They all said[b], “Let him be crucified.”

38 Then there were two robbers crucified with him, one on his right hand and one on the left.[a] 39 Those who passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads,[b] 40 and saying, "You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, save yourself. If you are the Son of God, then[c] come down from the cross."

41 Likewise the chief priests also mocking, with the scribes,[d] and the elders, said, 42 "He saved others, but he cannot save himself.
He[e] is the King of Israel; let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him. 43 He trusts in God. Let God deliver him now, if he wants him; for he said, 'I am the Son of God.'" 44 The robbers also who were crucified with him cast on him the same reproach.
45 Now from noon[f] until three in the afternoon there was darkness over all the land.[g] 46 Then at about three in the afternoon Jesus called out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lema shabachthani[h]?" That is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"[i]

47 Some of them who stood there, when they heard it, said, and the rocks were split. 52 The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised; 53 and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection, they entered into the holy city and appeared to many.

54 Now the centurion, and those who were with him watching Jesus, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, "Truly this serving him. [56]Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee. [57]When evening had come, a rich man from Arimathea[a], named Joseph, who himself was also Jesus' disciple came. [58]This man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded that it[b] be released. [59]Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, [60]and placed it in his own new tomb,[c] which he had cut out in the rock, and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. [61]Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb. [62]Now on the next day, which was the day after the Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together to Pilate, [63]saying, "Sir, we remember what that deceiver said while he was still alive: 'After three days I will rise again.' [64]Command therefore that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest perhaps his disciples come[d] and steal him away, and tell the people, 'He is risen from the dead;' and the last deception will be worse than the first."

[65]Pilate said to them, "You have a guard. Go, make it as secure as you can." [66]So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone.

28 Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week[e], Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. [2]And look, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from the sky, and came and rolled away the stone[f], and sat on it. [3]His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. [4]For fear of him, the guards shook, and became like dead men. [5]The angel answered the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus, who has been crucified. [6]He is not here, for he has risen,[g] just like he said. Come, see the place where he[h] was lying. [7]Go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has risen from the dead, and look, he goes before you into Galilee;

[8]They departed quickly from the tomb, frightened yet with great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word. [9]And[a] look, Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!"[b] And they came and took hold of his feet, and worshiped him.

[10]Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go tell my brothers that they should go into Galilee, and there they will see me."

[11]Now while they were going, look, some of the guards came into the city, and told the chief priests all the things that had happened. [12]When they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave a large amount of silver to the soldiers, [13]saying, "Say that his disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. [14]If this comes to the governor's ears, we will persuade him and make you free of worry." [15]So they took the money and did as they were told. This saying was spread abroad among the Jewish people, and continues until this day.

[16]But the eleven disciples went into Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had sent them. [17]When they saw him, they bowed down to him, but some doubted. [18]Jesus came to them and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth.[c] [19]Therefore go, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, [20]teaching them to obey all things that I commanded you. The fever left her, and she served them. 32At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to him all who were sick, and those who were possessed by demons. 33And all the city was gathered together at the door. 34And he healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons. He did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew him.

35And early in the morning, while it was still dark, he rose up and went out, and departed into a deserted place, and prayed there. 36And Simon and those who were with him followed after him; 37and they found him, and told him, "Everyone is looking for you."

38And he said to them, "Let us go somewhere else[a] into the next towns, that I may preach there also, because I came out for this reason." 39And he went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out demons.

[a]3:17 Several proposals for the meaning of Boanerges have been made. McDaniel suggests for boane the Aramaic verb בוע (e.g. Psalm 35:27 Tg; BDB 1076; cf. Proverbs 18:4 Heb. נבע), meaning "rejoice, cry out," with by-form בּוֹעָן and plural בּוֹעֲנֵי boani "those crying out." Keshet proposes Hebrew bochani בֹּחֲנֵי "testers," where ancient Greek lacks the /h/ sound and sometimes the /ch/, e.g. Chenok > Enok, Cheuah > Eua (Eve). For the second Greek part rges proposals have been Aramaic רגשי rgshy for Hebrew רֶגֶשׁ regesh "commotion" (Psalm 2:1), Hebrew רֹגֶז rogez "agitation, excitement, raging, thunder" (Proverbs 29:6; Job 37:2), and Hebrew ra'ash רָעַשׁ "rumble, tremble, rage, shake, commotion" (Ezekiel 3:12), where in Greek transliteration the Hebrew gutteral ayin sometimes received a gamma, e.g. Reu > Ragau, Peor > Pagor. Subsequently, the proposals are Aramaic: Boani-Regshey "those who cry out in the tumult," and Hebrew: Bochani-Regesh "testers of the commotion," though many translate rogez in Job 37:2 as "thunder." Cf. H. Keshet, "Rethinking Mark 3:17." EQ 89.2 (2018); T. F. McDaniel, "Clarifying Mark 3:17 and 9:49"

And immediately they were overcome with amazement. 43And he strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and commanded that something should be given to her to eat.

6 And he went out from there and came into his own country, and his disciples followed him. 2And when the Sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things?" and, "What is the wisdom that is given to this man, that such mighty works come about by his hands? 3Is not this the carpenter[b], the son of Mary, and brother of James, Josi, Judas, and Simon? Are not his sisters here with us?" They were offended at him.

4Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own relatives, and in his own house." 5And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people, and healed them. 6And he was amazed because of their unbelief.

And he went around the villages teaching. 7And he called to himself the twelve, and began to send them out two by two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits. 8And he commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only: no bread, no pack, no money in their belts, 9but to wear sandals, and not to put on two tunics. 10And he said to them, "Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from there. 11And if any place will not receive you or listen to you, as you depart from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony against them.[c]" sending the crowd away. 46After he had taken leave of them, he went up the mountain to pray.

47When evening had come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he was alone on the land. 48He saw them distressed in rowing, for the wind was against them. In the watch between three and six in the morning[a] he came to them, walking on the sea,[b] and he would have passed by them, 49but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was a ghost, and began to scream; 50for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he immediately spoke with them, and said to them, "Cheer up. It is I.[c] Do not be afraid." 51And he got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased.[d] And they were completely profusely[e] astonished among themselves;[f] 52for they had not understood about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

53When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret, and moored to the shore. 54When they had come out of the boat, immediately the people recognized him, 55and ran around that whole[g] region, and began to bring those who were sick, on their mats, to where they heard he was. 56Wherever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they placed the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch just the fringe of his garment; and everyone who touched him were made well.

7 Then the Pharisees, and some of the scribes gathered together to him, having come from Jerusalem. 2Now when they saw that some of his disciples ate bread with defiled, that is, unwashed, hands, they found fault. 3(For the Pharisees, and all Jewish people, do not eat unless they wash their hands and forearms, holding to the Tradition of the Elders. 4They do not eat when they come from the marketplace unless they wash. And there are many other things which they have received and hold to, the washing of cups and pitchers and copper vessels and dining couches.[h]) 5The Pharisees and the scribes asked him, "Why do your disciples not walk according to the Tradition of the Elders, but eat their bread with unwashed hands?"

[2]After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and brought them up onto a high mountain privately by themselves, and he was changed into another form in front of them. [3]His clothing became glistening, exceedingly white,[c] such as no launderer on earth can whiten them. [4]Elijah and Moses appeared to them, and they were talking with Jesus.

[11]They asked him, saying, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

[13]But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they have also done to him whatever they wanted to, even as it is written about him."

[14]And when they came to the disciples, they saw a large crowd around them, and scribes questioning them. [15]Immediately all the crowd, when they saw him, were greatly amazed, and running to him greeted him. [16]He asked them[f], "What are you arguing about with them?"

19And answering, he said to them, "You unbelieving generation, how long must I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him to me."

20They brought him to him, and when he saw him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground, wallowing and foaming at the mouth.

20And he[d] said to him, "Teacher, I have kept all these things from my youth."

21Jesus looking at him loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me, taking up the cross."

22But his face fell at that saying, and he went away sorrowful, for he was one who had great possessions. 23Jesus looked around, and said to his disciples, "How difficult it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God."

24The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus answered again and said to them, "Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches[e] to enter the kingdom of God. 25It is easier for a camel[f] to go through a needle's eye than for a rich person to enter into the kingdom of God."

26They were exceedingly astonished, saying to him, "Then who can be saved?"

27 Jesus, looking at them, said, "With humans it is impossible, but not with God, for all things are possible with God."

28 Peter began to tell him, "Look, we have left everything, and have followed you."

29 Jesus[a] said, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or mother, or father,[b] or children, or land, for my sake, and for the sake of the Good News, 30 but he will receive one hundred times more now in this time, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and land, with persecutions; and in the age to come, everlasting life. 31 But many who are first will be last; and the last first."

32 They were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going in front of them, and they were amazed; and those who followed were afraid. He again took the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were going to happen to him. 33 "Look, we are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to foreigners. 34 They will mock him, spit on him, scourge him, and kill him. After three days[c] he will rise again."

35 James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came near to him, and said to him,[d] "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we will ask."

36 He said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?"

he went out from Jericho, with his

"Call him."

They called the blind man,

He is calling you."

27They came again to Jerusalem, and as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders came to him, 28and they began saying to him, “By what authority do you do these things? And who gave you this authority to do these things?”

They left him, and went away. 13They sent some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians to him, that they might trap him with words. 14When they had come, they asked him, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and do not defer to anyone; for you are not partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? 15Should we pay, or should we not pay?"

is near; 29even so you also, when you see these things coming to pass, know that it is near, at the all these things happen. 31Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. 32But of that day or the[f] hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

33Watch, keep alert, and pray;[g] for you do not know when the time is.

34"It is like a man, traveling to another country, having left his house, and given authority to his servants, and to each one his work, and also commanded the doorkeeper to keep watch. 35Watch therefore, for you do not know when the lord of the house is coming -- at evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning; 36lest coming suddenly he might find you sleeping. 37What I tell you, I tell all: Watch."

14 It was now two days before the feast of the Passover and the unleavened bread, and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might seize him by deception, and kill him. 2For they said, “Not during the feast, because there might be a riot of the people.”

3While he was at Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he was reclining, a woman came having an alabaster jar of ointment of pure nard—very costly. She broke the jar, and poured it over his head. 4But there were some who were indignant among themselves, and saying,[a] “Why has this ointment been wasted? 5For this ointment[b] might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii,[c] and given to the poor.” They grumbled against her.

6But Jesus said, “Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for me. 7For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want to, you can do them good; but you will not always have me. 8She has done what she could. She has anointed my body beforehand for the burying. 9Truly I tell you, wherever this Good News may be preached throughout the whole world, that which this woman has done will also be spoken of for a memorial of her.”

10Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went away to the chief priests, that he might deliver him to them. 11They, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money. He sought how he might conveniently deliver him. 12On the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, his disciples asked him, “Where do you want us to go and make ready that you may eat the Passover?”

13He sent two of his disciples, and said to them, “Go into the city, and there you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, 14and wherever he enters in, tell the master of the house, ‘The Teacher says, “Where is my[d] guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?”’ 15He will himself show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make ready for us there.”

31But he insisted[a], "If I must die with you, I will not deny you." They all said the same thing.

32They came to a place which was named Gethsemane. He said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I pray." 33He took with him Peter, James, and John, and began to be greatly troubled and distressed. 34He said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch."

35He went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him. 36He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible to you. Please remove this cup from me. However, not what I desire, but what you desire."

37He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Could you not watch one hour? 38Watch and pray, that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

39Again he went away, and prayed, saying the same words. 40Again he came[b] and found them sleeping again, for their eyes were very heavy, and they did not know what to answer him. 41He came the third time, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. It is enough. The hour has come. Look, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42Arise, let us be going. Look, he who betrays me is near."

43Immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, came—and with him a[c] crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. 44Now he who betrayed him had given them a sign, saying, "Whomever I will kiss, that is he. 48Jesus answered them, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me? 49I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me. But this is so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled." away to the high priest. All the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes came together[c].

[54]Peter had followed him from a distance, until he came into the court of the high priest. He was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire. [55]Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witnesses against Jesus to put him to death, and found none. [56]For many gave false testimony against him, and their testimony did not agree with each other. [57]Some stood up, and gave false testimony against him, saying, [58]"We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.'" [59]Even so, their testimony did not agree.

[60]The high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, "Have you no answer? What is it which these testify against you?" [61]But he stayed quiet, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?"

[62]And Jesus said, "I am, and you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of the sky."

[63]The high priest tore his clothes, and said, "What further need have we of witnesses? [64]You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?" They all condemned him to be worthy of death. [65]Some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to beat him with fists, and to tell him, "Prophesy." And the officers took[d] him and beat him.

[66]Now as Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the servant girls of the high priest came, [67]and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him, and said, "You were also with the Nazarene, Jesus." [68]But he denied it, saying, "I neither know nor understand what you are saying." And he went out into the forecourt, and a rooster crowed.[e]

began again to tell those who stood by, "This is one of them." [70]But he again denied it. After a little while again those who stood by said to Peter, "You truly are one of them,

15 Immediately in the morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate. 2Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

He answered, "You say so."

3The chief priests accused him of many things. 4Pilate again asked him, "Have you no answer? See how many things they testify against you."

13They shouted again, "Crucify him."

But they shouted all the louder, "Crucify him."

The abrupt (16:8) and short ending are both associated with Egypt, and it is not uncommon for ancient codices to have defective endings, e.g. Ms 03, Hebrews 9:14b to end; Ms 012, Philemon 21 to end; Ms 014, Acts 27:4 to end; Ms 019, John 21:15 to end; Ms 042, Mark 16:14 to end; Ms 63, final leaf containing John 21:25.
Examples of Markan vocabulary in 9-20: 1) 16:9 Anastas cf. 8:31, 9:9,10, 31, 10:34; 2) 16:9 proi cf. 1:35, 11:20, 13:35, 15:1, 16:2; 3) 16:14 sklerokardian cf. 10:5; 4) 16:15 ktisei cf. 10:6, 13:19; 5) 16:16 katakrithesetai cf. 10:33, 14:64; 6) 16:18 arrhostous cf. 6:5, 13; 7) 16:20 pantachou cf. 1:28, 45.
It has been noted that there are 18 once-used words in 16:9-20, but 15:13-24 has 24; 15:13-24 has 23; 14:37-48 has 19; 13:38-14:12 has 20, and there are many other examples.
The most likely explanation for the few manuscripts that lack the verses is that the last leaf or two of a codex of Mark was lost during transportation. The external evidence from very early patristic citations and a wide geographic appearance in all four text-types, along with internal evidence from linguistic, literary, and thematic analysis, point to vv. 9-20 as part of Mark's original composition. Theophilus; [4]that you might know the certainty concerning the things in which you were instructed.

[5]There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zechariah, of the division of Abijah. He had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth[a]. [6]They were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. [7]But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they both were well advanced in years. [8]Now it happened, while he was performing the priest's office before God in the order of his division, [9]according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the temple of the Lord and burn incense. [10]And the whole crowd of people were praying outside at the hour of incense.

[11]An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. [12]Zechariah was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. [13]But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your request has been heard, and your wife, Elizabeth, will bear you a son, and you are to name him John.[b] [14]You will have joy and gladness; and many will rejoice at his birth. [15]For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and he must never drink wine or strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. [16]He will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord, their God. [17]He will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

[19]The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news. [20]And look, you will be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things will happen, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

[21]The people were waiting for Zechariah, and they were wondering why he was delayed in the temple. [22]When he came out, he could not speak to them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple. He continued making signs to them, and remained mute. [23]It happened, when the days of his service were fulfilled, he departed to his house. [24]After these days Elizabeth, his wife, conceived, and she hid herself five months, saying, 25"Thus has the Lord done to me in the days in which he looked at me, to take away my disgrace among

people."

26Now in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27to a virgin pledged to be married to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. 28Having come in, the angel said to her, "Greetings, favored one. The Lord is with you.[a]"

29But when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered what kind of salutation this might be. 30The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. 31And look, you will conceive in your womb, and bring forth a son, and will call his name 'Jesus.' 32He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High.
The Lord God will give him the throne of his father, David, 33and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever.[b] There will be no end to his kingdom."

34Mary said to the angel,
"How can this be, seeing I am a virgin?"

35The angel answered her,
"The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the holy one who is born will be called the Son of God. 36And look, Elizabeth, your relative, also has conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. 37For with God nothing will be impossible."

38And Mary said, "See, the handmaid of the Lord; be it to me
according to your word."

The angel departed from her.
39Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah, 40and entered into the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. 41It happened, when Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, that the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.
42She called out with a loud voice, and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. 43Why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? 44For look, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy. 45Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord."

And they were all amazed. [64]His mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue freed, and he spoke, blessing God. 42When he was twelve years found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them, and asking them questions. 47All who heard him were amazed at his understanding mother said to him, "Son, why have were you looking for me? Did you not understand the saying which he spoke to them. 51And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth.

He was subject to them, and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. 52And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and people.

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, 2in the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John, the son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. 3He came into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins. 4As it is written in the scroll of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
'Prepare the way of the Lord.
Make his roads straight.
5Every valley will be filled, and every mountain and hill will be made low;
and the crooked will be made straight,
and the rough ways smooth.
6And all humanity will see the salvation of God.'"[c]

7He said therefore to the crowds who went out to be baptized by him, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say among yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father;' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. 9Even now the axe also lies at the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire."

10The crowds asked him, "What then must we do?"

11He answered them, "He who has two coats, let him give to him who has none. He who has food, let him do likewise."

12Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what must we do?"

13He said to them, "Collect no more than that which is appointed to you."

14Soldiers also asked him, saying, "What about us? What must we do?"

He said to them, "Extort from no one by violence, neither accuse anyone wrongfully. Be content with your wages."

15As the people were in expectation, and all were wondering in their hearts concerning John, whether perhaps he was the Christ, 16John answered them all, "I indeed baptize you with water, but he comes who is mightier than I, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire, 17whose winnowing fork is in his hand, to[a] clear his threshing floor, and to[b] gather the wheat into his barn; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

18Then with many other exhortations he preached good news to the people, 19but Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias, his brother's[c] wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done, 20added this also to them all, that he shut up John in prison.
21Now it happened, when all the people were baptized, Jesus also had been baptized, and was praying. The sky was opened, 22and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form as a dove on him; and a voice came out of the sky, saying "You are my beloved Son. In you I am well pleased."

He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted,[d] to proclaim liberty to the captives, recovering of sight to the blind, to deliver those who are crushed, 19and to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."[e]

22All testified about him, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth, and they said, "Is not this Joseph's son?"

you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land. [26]Elijah was sent to none of them, except to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. [27]There were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed, except Naaman, the Syrian."

[28]They were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things. [29]They rose up, threw him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill that their city was built on, that they might throw him off the cliff. [30]But he, passing through the midst of them, went his way.

[31]He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. He was teaching them on the Sabbath day, [32]and they were astonished at his teaching, for his word was with authority. [33]In the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and he shouted with a loud voice, [34]saying, "Ah. What have we to do with you, Jesus, Nazarene? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God."

[35]Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him." When the demon had thrown him down in their midst, he came out of him, having done him no harm.

[36]Amazement came on all, and they spoke together, one with another, saying, "What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out." [37]News about him went out into every place of the surrounding region.

[38]He rose up from the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. Now Simon's mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they appealed to him about her. [39]He stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her. Immediately she rose up and served them. [40]When the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. [41]Demons also came out from many, crying out, and saying, "You are the[a] Son of God." But he rebuked them and did not allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.

[42]When it was day, he departed and went into an uninhabited place, and the crowds looked for him, and came to him, and held on to him, so that he would not go away from them. [43]But he said to them, "I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to the other cities also. For this reason I have been sent." [44]And he was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.[a]

5 Now it happened, while the crowd pressed on him and heard the word of God, that he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret. [2]He saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets. [3]He entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. He sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. [4]When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch."

[5]Simon answered him, "Master, we worked all night, and took nothing; but at your word I will let down the nets[b]." [6]When they had done this, they caught a great multitude of fish, and their net was breaking. [7]They beckoned to their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. They came, and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. [8]But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord." [9]For he was amazed, and all who were with him, at the catch of fish which they had caught; [10]and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon.

Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid. From now on you will be catching people."

[11]When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything, and followed him. [12]It happened, while he was in one of the cities, look, there was a man full of leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and begged him, saying, "Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean."

[13]And he stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be cleansed." And immediately the leprosy left him. [14]And he commanded him, "Do not tell anyone, but go your way, and show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." [15]But the report concerning him spread much more, and large crowds came together to hear, and to be healed[c] of their infirmities. [16]But he withdrew himself into the desert, and prayed.

17It happened on one of those days, that he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and teachers of the Law sitting by, who had come out of every village of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. The power of the Lord was with him to heal.[a] 18And look, men brought a paralyzed man on a cot, and they sought to bring him in to lay before him. 19Not finding a way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his cot into the midst before Jesus.
20Seeing their faith, he said,[b] "Man, your sins are forgiven you."

21The scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying,
"Who is this that speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?"

22But Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, answered them, "Why are you reasoning so in your hearts?
23Which is easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you;' or to say, 'Arise and walk?' 24But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" (he said to the paralyzed man), "I tell you, arise, and take up your cot, and go to your house."

25Immediately he rose up before them, and took up that which he was laying on, and departed to his house, glorifying God. 26Amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God. They were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen remarkable things today."

27After these things he went out, and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office, and said to him, "Follow me."

28He left everything, and rose up and followed him. 29Levi made a great feast for him in his house.
There was a large crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them. 30The Pharisees and their scribes[c] grumbled at his disciples, saying,
"Why do you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?" 31Jesus answered them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. 32I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

33They said to him, "The disciples of John[d] often fast and pray, likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink."

6 Now it happened on the second chief[f] Sabbath that he was going through the grain fields. His disciples plucked the heads of grain, and ate, rubbing them in their hands.[g] [2]But some of the Pharisees said,[h] "Why do you do that which is not lawful[i] on the Sabbath day?"

8 It happened soon afterwards, that he went about through cities and villages, proclaiming and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. With him were the twelve, 2 and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out; 3 and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward; Susanna; and many others; who provided for them from their possessions. 4 When a large crowd came together, and people from every city were coming to him, he spoke by a parable. 5 "The farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the road, and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the sky devoured it.
6 Other seed fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. 7 Other fell amid the thorns, and the thorns grew with it, and choked it. 8 Other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit one hundred times." As he said these things, he called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

9 Then his disciples asked him, "What does this parable mean?"

10 He said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables; that 'seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.'[b] 11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.
12 Those along the road are those who hear, then the devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. 13 Those on the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; but these have no root, who believe for a while, then fall away in time of temptation. 14That which fell among the thorns, these are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity. 15That in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it tightly, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16"No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a container, or puts it under a bed; but puts it on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light. 17For nothing is hidden, that will not be revealed; nor anything secret, that will not be known and come to light. 18So consider carefully how you listen. For whoever has, to him will be given; and whoever does not have, from him will be taken away even that which he thinks he has."

19His mother and brothers came to him, and they could not come near him for the crowd. 20It was told him by some saying, "Your mother and your brothers stand outside, desiring to see you."

21But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God, and do it."

22Now it happened on one of those days, that he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples, and he said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." So they launched out. 23But as they sailed, he fell asleep. A wind storm came down on the lake, and they were taking on dangerous amounts of water. 24So they came to him, and awoke him, saying, "Master, master, we are dying." And he awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and it was calm.[a] 25He said to them, "Where is your faith?" But they were terrified and astonished, saying to one another, "Who is this, then, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?" 26They arrived at the country of the Gerasenes[b], which is opposite Galilee.

27And when he came out onto the land he was met by a certain man from the town who had demons. For a long time he had worn no clothes[c], and did not live in a house, but in the tombs. 28When he saw Jesus, he shouted, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, "What do I have to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me." 29For Jesus was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For the unclean spirit had often seized the man. He was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters.

Breaking the bands apart, he was driven by the demon into the desert.

30 Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"

He said, "Legion," for many demons had entered into him. 31 They[a] pleaded with him that he would not command them to go into the abyss.[b] 32 Now there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they begged him that he would allow them to enter into those. He allowed them. 33 The demons came out from the man, and entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, and were drowned. 34 When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then people went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus' feet, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. 36 Those who saw it told them how he who had been possessed by demons was healed. 37 All the people of the surrounding region of the Geresenes[c] asked him to leave them, for they were very much afraid; and he entered into the boat and returned. 38 But the man from whom the demons had gone out begged him that he might go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 "Return to your house, and declare what great things God has done for you." He went his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

40 When[d] Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. 41 And look, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. He fell down at Jesus' feet, and pleaded with him to come into his house, 42 for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went, the crowds pressed against him. 43 A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years (who had spent all her living on physicians)[e] and could not be healed by any, 44 came behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment, and [20]He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Peter answered, "The Christ
of God."

[21]But he warned them, and commanded them to tell this to no one, [22]saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up."

[23]He said to all, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross daily[a], and follow me. [24]For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same will save it. [25]For what does it profit a person if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits his own self? [26]For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed, when he comes in his glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels.
[27]But I tell you the truth: There are some of those who stand here, who will in no way taste of death, until they see the kingdom of God."

[28]It happened about eight days after these sayings, that he took with him Peter, John, and James, and went up onto the mountain to pray. [29]As he was praying, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became white and dazzling. [30]And look, two men were talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah, [31]who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure,[b] which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

[32]Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, but when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him. [33]It happened, as they were parting from him, that Peter said to Jesus,
"Master, it is good for us to be here.
Let us make three tents: one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah," not knowing what he said.

[34]While he said these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud. [35]A voice came out of the cloud, saying,
"This is my Son, my Chosen One.[c] Listen to him." [36]When the voice came, Jesus was found alone. They were silent, and told no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.

[37]It happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a large crowd met him. 38And look, a man from the crowd called out, saying, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child. 39And look, a spirit seizes him, and all at once he cries out, and it convulses him so that he foams, and it hardly departs from him, bruising him severely. 40I begged your disciples to cast it out, and they could not."

41Jesus answered, "Faithless and perverse generation, how long must I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here."

42While he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him violently. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. 43They were all astonished at the majesty of God.

But while all were marveling at all the things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples, 44"Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of Man will be delivered up into the hands of men." 45But they did not understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

46There arose an argument among them about which of them was the greatest. 47Jesus, knowing[a] the reasoning of their hearts, took a little child, and set him by his side, 48and said to them, "Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me. Whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For whoever is least among you all, this one is great."

49John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he does not follow with us."

50Jesus said to him, "Do not forbid him, for he who is not against you is for you[b]."

51It came to pass, when the days were near that he should be taken up, he intently set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52and sent messengers before his face. They went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, so as to prepare for him. 53But they did not receive him, because he was traveling with his face set towards Jerusalem. 54And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from the sky, and consume them[c]?"

12 Meanwhile, when a crowd of many thousands had gathered together, so much so that they trampled on each other, he began to tell his disciples first of all, "Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2 But there is nothing covered up, that will not be revealed, nor hidden, that will not be known. 3 Therefore whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light. 14But he said to him, "Man, who made me a judge or an arbitrator over you?" 15He said to them, "Beware. Keep yourselves from all covetousness, for a man's life does not consist of the abundance of the things which he possesses."

16He spoke a parable to them, saying, "The ground of a certain rich man brought forth abundantly. 17He reasoned within himself, saying, 'What will I do, because I do not have room to store my crops?' 18He said, 'This is what I will do. I will pull down my barns, and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. 19I will tell my soul, "Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. 20"But God said to him, 'You foolish one, tonight your soul is required of you. The things which you have prepared—whose will they be?' 21So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

22He said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious for your life, what you will eat, nor yet for your body, what you will wear. 23Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. 24Consider the ravens: they do not sow, they do not reap, they have no warehouse or barn, and God feeds them. 10 He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath day.
11 And look, a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and she was bent over, and could in no way straighten herself up.
12 When Jesus saw her, he called her, and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your infirmity." 13 He laid his hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight, and glorified God.

14 The ruler of the synagogue, being indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the crowd, "There are six days when work should be done. Therefore come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day."

15 Therefore the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites.[a] Does not each one of you free his ox or his donkey from the stall on the Sabbath, and lead him away to water? 16 Ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound, look, eighteen years, be freed from this bondage on the Sabbath day?"

17 As he said these things, all his adversaries were disappointed, and all the crowd rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 Then he said, "What is the kingdom of God like? And to what can I compare it? 19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took,
and put in his own garden. It grew, and became a[b] tree, and the birds of 20 And again he said, "To what can I compare the kingdom of God? 21 It is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in three measures[c] of flour, until it was all leavened."

22 He went on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and traveling on to Jerusalem. 23 One said to him, "Lord, are they few who are saved?"

He said to them, 24 "Strive to

34"Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to her. How often I wanted to gather your children together, like a hen gathers her own brood under her wings, and you refused. 35Look, your house is forsaken.[b] And I tell you,[c] you will not see me until[d] you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'"[e]

14 And it happened, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching him. 2And look, a certain man who had dropsy was in front of him. 3Jesus, answering, spoke to the Law scholars and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not[f]?"

4But they were silent. He took him, and healed him, and let him go. 5He answered them, "Which of you, if your son[g] or an ox fell into a well, would not immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?"

Then you will be honored in the presence of all[a] who sit at the table with you. [11]For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

[15]Now when one of those who were reclining with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is he who will eat bread[b] in the kingdom of God."

[25]Now large crowds were going with him. He turned and said to them, [26]"If anyone comes to me, and does not hate[b] his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. [27]Whoever does not bear his own cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. [28]For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it? [29]Or perhaps, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, everyone who sees begins to mock him, [30]saying, 'This man began to build, and was not able to finish.' [31]Or what king, as he goes to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? There he wasted his property with riotous living. 14When he had spent all of it, there arose a severe famine in that country, and he began to be in need. 15He went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed pigs. 16And he wanted to fill himself[a] with the carob pods that the pigs ate, but no one gave him any. 17But when he came to himself he said, ‘How many hired servants of my father’s have bread enough to spare, and I’m dying here[b] with hunger. 18I will get up and go to my father, and will tell him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. 19I am no longer worthy to be called your son. 37 They, answering, asked him, “Where, Lord?”

He said to them, “Where the body is, there will the vultures also be gathered together.”

18 He also spoke a parable to them that they must always pray, and not give up, 2 saying, “There was a judge in a certain city who did not fear God, and did not respect people. 3 A widow was in that city, and she often came to him, saying, ‘Give me justice against my adversary.’ 4 He would not for a while, but afterward he said to himself, ‘Though I neither fear God, nor respect people, 5 yet because this widow bothers me, I will give her justice, or else she will wear me out by her continual coming.’”

6 The Lord said, “Listen to what the unrighteous judge says.
7 Won’t God avenge his chosen ones, who are crying out to him day and night, and yet he exercises patience with them? 8 I tell you that he will avenge them quickly.
Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the
earth?”

9 He spoke also this parable to certain people who were convinced of their own righteousness, and who despised all others. 10 “Two men went up into the temple to pray; one was a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector. 11 The Pharisee stood and prayed to himself like this: ‘God, I thank you, that I am not like other people, extortioners, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. 12 I fast twice a week. I give tithes of all that I get.’ 13 But the tax collector, standing far away, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner.’ 14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

15 Now they were also bringing their babies to him, that he might touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them.
16 Jesus summoned them, saying, “Allow the little children to come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. 17 Truly, I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child, he will in no way enter into it.”

18 A certain ruler asked him, saying, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit everlasting life?”

19 Jesus asked him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one—God. 20 You know the commandments: ‘Do not commit adultery,’ ‘Do not murder,’ ‘Do not steal,’ ‘Do not give false testimony,' 'Honor your father and your mother.'"[a]

21And he said, "I have kept all these things from my youth up."

22When Jesus heard it[b], he said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have, and distribute it to the poor. You will have treasure in heaven. Come, follow me."

23But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was very rich.
24And Jesus looked at him[c] and said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God. 25For it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich person to enter into the kingdom of God."

26Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?"

27But he said, "The things which are impossible with humans are possible with God."

28And Peter said, "Look, we have left our own[d] things and followed you."

29He said to them, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the world to come, everlasting life."

31He took the twelve aside, and said to them, "Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written through the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be completed. 32For he will be delivered up to the non-Jews, will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit on. 33They will scourge and kill him. On the third day, he will rise again."

34They understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they did not understand the things that were said. 35It happened, as he came near Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the road, begging. 36Hearing a crowd going by, he asked what this meant. 37They told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. 38He called out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me." 39Those who led the way rebuked him, that he should be quiet; but he shouted all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me."

I am an exacting man, taking up that which I did not lay down, and reaping that which I did not sow.

money in the bank, and at my coming, I might have earned

he sent two of the[d] disciples,

32Those who were sent went had told them. 33As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" 34They said, "Because the Jesus. They threw their cloaks on the colt, and set Jesus on them. 36As the mighty works which they had seen, 38saying, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord.[a] Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest."

39Some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples."

40He answered them, "I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out."

41When he drew near, he saw the city and wept over it, 42saying, "If you, even you, had known today the things that make for peace. But now, they are hidden from your eyes. 43For the days will come on you, when your enemies will throw up a barricade against you, surround you, hem you in on every side, 44and will dash you and your children within you to the ground. They will not leave in you one stone on another, because you did not know the time of your visitation."

45And he entered into the temple, and began to drive out those who were selling and buying in it,[b] 46saying to them, "It is written, 'And my house will be[c] a house of prayer,'[d] but you have made it a 'den of robbers'."[e]

47He was teaching daily in the temple, but the chief priests and the scribes and the leaders among the people sought to destroy him. 48They could not find what they might do, for all the people hung on to every word that he said.

20 It happened on one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the Good News, that the chief[f] priests and scribes came to him with the elders. 2They asked him, "Tell us: by what authority do you do these things? Or who is giving you this authority?"

3He answered them, "I also will ask you one question. Tell me: 4the baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from people?"

5They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why did you not believe him?' 6But if we say, 'From people,' all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet." 7They answered that they did not know where it was from.

[10]At the proper season, he sent a servant to the farmers to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers beat him, and sent him away empty. [25]He said to them, "Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

[26]They weren't able to trap him in his words before the people. And amazed at his answer, they fell silent. [27]Some of the Sadducees came to him, those who deny that there is a resurrection. [28]They asked him, "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies having a wife, and he is[a] childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up children for his brother. [29]There were therefore seven brothers. The first took a wife, and died childless. [30]The second[b] and [31]the third took her, and likewise the seven all left no children, and died. [32]Afterward the woman also died. [33]Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them will she be? For the seven had her as a wife."

[34]Jesus said to them, "The people of this age marry and are given to someone to marry. [35]But those who are regarded as worthy of a place in that age and the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given to someone to marry. [36]For they cannot die any more, for they are like the angels, and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. [37]But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he called the Lord 'The God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'[c] [38]Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to him."

[39]Some of the scribes answered, "Teacher, you speak well." [40]They did not dare to ask him any more questions.

[41]He said to them, "Why do they say that the Christ is David's son? [42]David himself says in the scroll of Psalms,

'The Lord said to my Lord,
"Sit at my right hand, [43]until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet."'[d]

[44]"David therefore calls him Lord, so how is he his son?"

[45]In the hearing of all the people, he said to his disciples, [46]"Beware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts; [47]who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers: these will receive greater condemnation."

21 He looked up, and saw the rich people who were putting their gifts into the treasury. 2He saw a certain poor widow casting in two lepta.[a] 3He said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow put in more than all of them, 4for all these put in gifts[b] from their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, put in all that she had to live on."

5As some were talking about the temple and how it was decorated with beautiful stones and gifts, he said, 6"As for these things which you see, the days will come, in which there will not be left here one stone on another that will not be thrown down."

7They asked him, "Teacher, so when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are about to happen?"

8He said, "Watch out that you do not get led astray, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he[c],' and, 'The time is near.' Therefore do not follow them. 9When you hear of wars and disturbances, do not be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end won't come immediately."

10Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. 11There will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues in various places. There will be terrors and great signs from heaven. 12But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you up to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for my name's sake. 13It will turn out as a testimony for you. 14Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand how to answer, 15for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to withstand or to contradict. 16You will be handed over even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. They will cause some of you to be put to death. 17And you will be hated by everyone because of my name. 18But not a hair of your head will perish.

19"By your endurance you will win your lives.
20"But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is near. 21Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. Let those who are in the midst of her depart. Let those who are in the country not enter it. 22For these are days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. 23Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who nurse infants in those days. 50And look, a man named Joseph, who was a member of the council, a good and righteous man 51(he had not consented to their counsel and deed), from Arimathea[a], a city of the Judeans, who was also waiting for the kingdom of God: 52this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. 53He took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and placed him in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no one had ever been placed. 54It was the day of the Preparation, and the Sabbath was drawing near. 55The women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and saw the tomb, and how his body was placed.
56They returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

24 But on the first day of the week[b], at early dawn, they[c]
came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared.
2They found the stone rolled away from the tomb. 3They entered in, and did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4It happened, while they were greatly perplexed about this, look, two men stood by them in dazzling clothing. 5Becoming terrified, they bowed their faces down to the earth.

They said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? 6He is not here, but is risen.
Remember what he told you when he was still in Galilee, 7saying that the Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again?"

8Then they remembered his words. 9And returning from the tomb, they told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest. 10Now they were Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the mother of James and the other women with them who told these things to the apostles. 11These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they did not believe them. 12But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and looking in, he saw the strips of linen[d] by themselves, and he departed to his home, wondering what had happened.
13And look, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was about seven miles[e] from Jerusalem.
14They talked with each other about all of these things which had happened. 15It happened, while they talked and questioned together, that Jesus himself came near, and went with them. 16But their eyes were kept from recognizing him. 17And he said to them, "What are these words that as you walk?" And they stood still, looking sad.[a]

[18]One of them, named Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things which have happened there in these days?"

[19]He said to them, "What things?"

They said to him, "The things concerning Jesus, the Nazarene, a man who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people; [20]and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. [21]But we were hoping that it was he who would redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened. [22]Also, certain women of our company amazed us, having arrived early at the tomb; [23]and when they did not find his body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. [24]Some of us went to the tomb, and found it just like the women had said, but they did not see him."

[25]Then he said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken. [26]Did not the Christ have to suffer these things and to enter into his glory?" [27]Beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. [28]They drew near to the village, where they were going, and he acted like he would go further.

He went in to stay with them. [30]It happened, that when he had sat down at the table with them, he took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, he gave to them. [31]Their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he vanished out of their sight. [32]And they said to one another, "Weren't our hearts burning within us, while he spoke to us along the way, and while he opened the Scriptures to us?" [33]They rose up that very hour, returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them, [34]saying, "The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon." [35]They related the things that happened along the way, and how he was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.

[36]As they said these things, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, "Peace be to you."

[37]But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 He said to them, "Why are you troubled? Why do doubts arise in your hearts? 39 See my hands and my feet, that it is truly me. Touch me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see that I have." 40 When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. 41 While they still did not believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, "Do you have anything here to eat?"

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish.[a] 43 And he took it and ate in front of them. 44 And he said to them, "This is what I told you, while I was still with you, that all things which are written in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms, concerning me must be

45 Then he opened their minds, that they might understand the Scriptures. 46 He said to them, and[c] forgiveness of sins should be nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

promise of my Father on you. But 50 He led them out as far as Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. 51 It happened, while he blessed them, that he departed from them, and was

John

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. [2]He was in the beginning with God. [3]All things were made through him, and apart from him nothing was made that has been made. [4]In him was life, and the life was the light of humanity. [5]The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome it. [6]There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John. [7]He came as a witness to testify about the light, that all might believe through him. [8]He was not the light, but was sent that he might testify about the light. [9]The true light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world.

[10]He was in the world, and the world was made through him, but the world did not recognize him. [11]He came to his own, and those who were his own did not receive him. [12]But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to become God's children, to those who believe in his name, [13]who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. [14]And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we saw his glory, such glory as of the one and only of the Father, full of grace and truth. [15]John testified about him and shouted out, saying, "This was the one of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me, for he was before me.'" [16]For of his fullness we all received, and grace upon grace. [17]For the Law was given through Moses, grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. [18]No one has seen God at any time. The only Son,[c] who is at the Father's side,[d] has made him known.

[21]And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?"[c] And he said, "I am not."[d] "Are you the Prophet?"[e] And he answered, "No."

[22]They said therefore to him, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

[23]He said, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,'[f] as Isaiah the prophet said."

[24](Now they had been sent from the Pharisees.) [25]And they asked him, "Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

[26]John answered them, saying, "I baptize in water, but among you stands one whom you do not know. [27]He is the one who comes after me,[g] whose sandal strap I'm not worthy to loosen." [28]These things were done in Bethany[h] across the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

[29]The next day, he saw Jesus coming to him, and said, "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. [30]This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me, because he existed before me.'

2 And the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. 2 Now Jesus also was invited, with his disciples, to the wedding. 3 And when the wine ran out, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no wine."

4 Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does that have to do with you and me? My hour has not yet come."

5 His mother said to the servants, "Whatever he says to you, do it." 6 Now there were six stone water jars set there after the Jewish manner of purifying, containing two or three metretes[c] apiece. 7 Jesus said to them, "Fill the water jars with water." They filled them up to the brim. 8 He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the ruler of the feast." So they took it. 9 When the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast called the bridegroom, 10 and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when the guests have drunk freely, then that which is worse. You have kept the good wine until now." 11 This beginning of his signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

12 After this, he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother and brothers, and his disciples; and they stayed there a few days. 13 The Jewish Passover was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 14 And he found in the temple those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, and the money changers sitting. 15 And he made a whip of cords, and threw all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables. 16 To those who sold the doves, he said, "Take these things out of here. was written, “Zeal for your house will consume me.”[a]

18 The Jewish leaders therefore answered him, “What sign do you show us, seeing that you do these things?”

19 Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”

20 The Jewish leaders therefore said, “It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will you raise it up in three days?” 21 But he spoke of the temple of his body. 22 When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this[b], and they believed the Scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in his name after seeing his signs which he did. 24 But Jesus did not trust himself to them, because he knew everyone, 25 and because he did not need anyone to testify concerning man; for he himself knew what was in man.

3 Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jewish people. 2 This man came to him at night, and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with him.”

3 Jesus answered him, “Truly, truly, I tell you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

4 Nicodemus said to him, “How can anyone be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother’s womb, and be born?”

5 Jesus answered, “Truly, truly, I tell you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Do not be surprised that I said to you, ‘You must be born again.’ 8 The wind[c] blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but do not know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit.”

9 Nicodemus answered and said to him, “How can these things be?”
10 Jesus answered him, “Are you the teacher of Israel, and do not understand these things? 11 Truly, truly, I tell you, we speak that which we know, and testify of that which we have seen, but you do not accept our testimony. 12 If I told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I one has ascended into heaven, but he who descended out of heaven,

14And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, 15so that everyone who believes in him[b] may have everlasting life.
16For God loved the world in this way: He gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him would not perish, but have everlasting life. 17For God did not send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world should be saved through him. 18The one who believes in him is not judged, but the one who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. 19And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light, because their works were evil. 20For everyone who does evil hates the light, and does not come to the light, so that his works will not be exposed. 21But the one who does the truth comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been done in God."

22After these things, Jesus came with his disciples into the land of Judea. He stayed there with them, and was baptizing. 23Now John also was baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because there was much water there. They came, and were baptized. 24For John was not

27John answered, “No one can receive anything, unless it has been given to him from heaven.
28You yourselves bear me witness[a] that I said, ‘I am not the Christ,’ but, ‘I have been sent before him.’ 29He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom’s voice. So this joy of mine is now complete. 30He must increase, but I must decrease. 31He who comes from above is above all.
He who is from the earth belongs to the earth, and speaks of the earth.
He who comes from heaven is above all. 32What he has seen and heard, of that he testifies; and no one receives his witness. 33He who has received his witness has set his seal to this, that God is true. 34For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God; for he[b] does not give the Spirit by measure. 35The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand. 36Whoever believes in the Son has everlasting life, but whoever refuses to believe in the Son won’t see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.”

4 Therefore when the Lord[c] knew that the Pharisees had heard, “Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John” 2(although Jesus himself did not baptize, but his disciples), 3he left Judea, and departed again[d] into Galilee. 4He needed to pass through Samaria. 5So he came to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son, Joseph. 6Jacob’s well was there. Jesus therefore, being tired from his journey, sat down by the well. It was about noon.[e]

7A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, “Give me a drink.” 8For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

9The Samaritan woman therefore said to him, “How can you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?” (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

10Jesus answered her, “If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him, and he would have given you living
water.”

11The woman said to him,

where do you get that living water?

13 Jesus answered her,
"Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, 14 but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst again; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to everlasting life."

15 The woman said to him,
"Sir, give me this water, so that I do not get thirsty, neither come all the 16 He said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."

17 The woman answered and said to him,[a] "I have no husband."

Jesus said to her, "You said well, 'I have no husband,' 18 for you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said truly."

19 The woman said to him,
"Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. 20 Our fathers worshiped in this mountain, and you say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship."

21 Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour comes, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, will you worship the Father. 22 You worship that which you do not know. We worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews. 23 But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such to be his worshippers. 24 God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

25 The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah comes," (he who is called Christ). "When he has come, he will declare to us all
things."

26 Jesus said to her, "I am he,
the one who speaks to you." 27 At this, his disciples came. They were surprised that he was speaking with a woman; yet no one said, "What are you looking for?" or, "Why do you speak with her?" 28 So the woman left her water pot, and went away into the city, and said to the people, 29 "Come, see a man who told me everything that I did. Can this be the Christ?"

30 They went out of the city, and were coming to him. 31 In the meanwhile, the disciples urged him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."

32 But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about."

[a] 4:17 M TR omit "to him"

33 The disciples therefore said one to another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?"

34 Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work. 35 Do you not say, 'There are yet four months until the harvest?' Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes and see the fields, that they are white for harvest already. 36 He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to everlasting life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. 37 For in this the saying is true, 'One sows, and another reaps.' 38 I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

39 From that city many of the Samaritans believed in him because of the word of the woman, who testified, "He told me everything that I did." 40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them. He stayed there two days. 41 Many more believed because of his word.
42 They said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the[a] Savior of the world."

43 After the two days he departed from there to Galilee.
44 For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. 45 So when he came into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast, for they also went to the feast. 46 Jesus came therefore again to Cana of Galilee, where he made the water into wine. There was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. 47 When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and pleaded with him that he would come down and heal his son, for he was close to death. 48 Jesus therefore said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will in no way believe." 49 The nobleman said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies." 50 Jesus said to him, "Go your way.
Your son lives." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way. 51 As he was now going down, his servants met him,[b] saying that his son was alive.[c] 52 So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, "Yesterday at one in the afternoon,[d] the fever left him." 53 So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives." He believed, as did his whole house.
54 This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judea into Galilee.

5 After these things, there was a Jewish festival,[a] and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. [2]Now in Jerusalem by the sheep area[b] there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew Beth Hesda,[c] having five porches. [3]In these lay a[d] multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed.[4e]

[5]A certain man was there, who had been sick for thirty-eight years. [6]When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had been sick for a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to be made well?"

[7]The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I am on my way, someone else steps down ahead of me."

[8]Jesus said to him, "Arise, take up your mat, and walk."

[9]Immediately, the man was made well, and took up his mat and walked.

Now it was the Sabbath on that day. [10]So the Jewish leaders said to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry the mat."

However, I say these things that you may be saved. 35He was the burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light. 36But the testimony which I have is greater than that of John, for the works which the Father gave me to accomplish, the very works that I do, testify about me, that the Father has sent me. 37The Father himself, who sent me, has testified about me. You have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form. 38You do not have his word living in you; because you do not believe him whom he sent.

39You search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have everlasting life; and these are they which testify about me. 40But you are unwilling to come to me so that you may have life. 41I do not receive glory from people. 42But I know you, that you do not have God's love in yourselves. 43I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. him, because he said, "I am the bread which came down out of heaven." [42]They said, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he say, 'I have come down out of heaven'?"
[43]Therefore Jesus answered them, "Do not murmur among yourselves. [44]No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up in the last day. [45]It is written in the Prophets, 'And they will all be taught by God.'[a] Therefore everyone who hears and learns from the Father comes to me. [51]I am the living bread which came down out of heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread which I will give for the life of the world[c] is my flesh."

[53]Jesus therefore said to them, "Truly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life in yourselves. [54]He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has everlasting life, and I will raise him up at the last day. [55]For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. 68Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of everlasting life. 69We have come to believe and know that you are the Holy One of God.[b]"

70Jesus answered them, "Did I not choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?" 71Now he spoke of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, for it was he who would betray him, being one of the twelve.

7 After these things, Jesus was walking in Galilee, for he would not walk in Judea, because the Jewish leaders sought to kill him. 2Now the Jewish festival, the Feast of Tabernacles, was near. 3So his brothers said to him, "Depart from here, and go into Judea, that your disciples also may see your works that you are doing. 4For no one does anything in secret when he himself seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, show yourself to the world." 5For even his brothers did not believe in him.[c] 6Jesus therefore said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. 7The world cannot hate you, but it hates me, because I testify about it, that its works are evil. 8You go up to the feast. I am not yet[d] going up to this feast, because my time is not yet fulfilled."

9After he had said this, he stayed in Galilee. 10But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he also went up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. [11]The Jewish leaders therefore sought him at the feast, and said, “Where is he?” [12]There was much murmuring among the crowds concerning him. Some said, “He is a good man.” But others said, “Not so, but he leads the crowd astray.” [13]Yet no one spoke openly of him for fear of the Jewish leaders. [14]But when it was now the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught. [15]Then the Jewish leaders were astonished, saying, “How does this man know such writings, having never been educated?”

[16]Jesus therefore answered them, “My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me. [17]If anyone desires to do his will, he will know about the teaching, whether it is from God, or if I am speaking from myself. [18]He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. [19]Did not Moses give you the Law, and yet none of you keeps the Law? Why do you seek to kill me?”

[20]The crowd answered, “You have a demon. Who seeks to kill you?”

[21]Jesus answered them, “I did one work, and you are all amazed. [22]Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a boy. [23]If a boy receives circumcision on the Sabbath, that the Law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me, because I made a man completely healthy on the Sabbath? [24]Do not judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment.”

[25]Therefore some of them of Jerusalem said, “Is not this he whom they seek to kill? [26]Look, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is[a] the Christ? [27]However we know where this man comes from, but when the Christ comes, no one will know where he comes from.”

[28]Jesus therefore called out in the temple, teaching and saying, “You both know me, and know where I am from. I have not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, whom you do not know. [29]I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me.”

[30]They sought therefore to take him; but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come. [31]But many in the crowd believed in him. They said, “When the Christ comes, he won’t do more signs than those which this man has done, will he?” [32]The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things concerning him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him.

33Then Jesus said, "I will be with you a little while longer, then I go to him who sent me. 34You will seek me, but won't find; and where I am, you cannot come."

35The Jewish leaders therefore said among themselves, "Where will this man go that we won't find him? Will he go to the Diaspora among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? 36What is this word that he said, 'You will seek me, but won't find; and where I am, you cannot come'?"

37Now on the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink. 38He who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, from within him will flow rivers of living water." 39But he said this about the Spirit, which those believing in him were to receive. For the[a] Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

40Some[b] of the crowd therefore, when they heard these[c] words, said, "This is truly the Prophet."[d] 41Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "What, does the Christ come out of Galilee?[e] 42Hasn't the Scripture said that the Christ comes of the offspring of David,[f] and from Bethlehem,[g] the village where David was?" 43So there arose a division in the crowd because of him. 44Some of them would have arrested him, but no one laid hands on him. 45The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why did you not bring him?"

46The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this man."[h]

47The Pharisees therefore answered them, "You are not also led astray, are you? 48Have any of the rulers believed in him, or of the Pharisees? 49But this crowd that

The various relocations of 7:53-8:11 (e.g., John 21:24/25 (f1), Lk 21:38 (f13)) in some Mss come from the 10th century and later, and may be either lection-related or attempts to restore the lost text.
Among the text critical reasons to not prefer the shorter reading is if that which was omitted could have seemed "offensive to pious ears" (B. Metzger, TNT, 115), which has been suggested to have been the cause for the missing verses since Ambrose (4th cent.) and Augustine (5th).
Further evidence is the Johannine vocabulary in the verses: (1) "sin no more" (meketi hamartane): John 8:11, cf. John 5:14, (2) "this they said" (touto de elegen/eipen): John 8:6, cf. John 6:6, 7:39, 21:19, (3) historic present agousin ("brought"): John 8:3, cf. John 9:13, 18:28, (4) vocative gunai ("woman"): John 8:10, cf. John 2:4, 4:21, 19:26, 20:13, 15, (5) scornful use of "this" (outos): John 8:4, cf. John 6:52, 7:15, 9:29, 18:30.
The internal and external evidence subsequently suggests the authenticity of 7:53-8:11 as part of John's original composition.

[22]The Jewish leaders therefore said, "Will he kill himself, that he says, 'Where I am going, you cannot come?'"

[23]He said to them, "You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world. [24]I said therefore to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am[a] he, you will die in your sins."

[25]They said therefore to him, "Who are you?"

Jesus said to them, "Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning. [26]I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. However he who sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these I say to the world."

[27]They did not understand that he spoke to them about the Father. [28]Jesus therefore said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and I do nothing of myself, but as the[b] Father taught me, I say these things. [29]He who sent me is with me. The Father hasn't left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him."

[30]As he spoke these things, many believed in him. [31]Jesus therefore said to those Judeans who had believed him, "If you remain in my word, then you are truly my disciples. [32]You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."[c]

[33]They answered him, "We are Abraham's descendants, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How can you say, 'You will be made free?'"

[34]Jesus answered them, "Truly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is the slave of sin. [35]A slave does not live in the house forever. A son remains forever. [36]So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. [37]I know that you are Abraham's descendants, yet you seek to kill me, because my word finds no place in you. [38]I say the things which I have seen with my Father; and you also do the things which you have heard from[d] your father."

Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham. [40]But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abraham did not do this. [41]You do the works of your father."

They said to him, “We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father, God.”

42 Therefore Jesus said to them, “If God were your father, you would love me, for I came out and have come from God. For I have not come of myself, but he sent me. 43 Why do you not understand my speech? Because you cannot hear my word. 44 You are of your father, the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks on his own; for he is a liar, and its father. 45 But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. 46 Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? 47 He who is of God hears the words of God. For this cause you do not hear, because you are not of God.”

48 Then the Judeans answered him, “Do not we say well that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon?”

49 Jesus answered, “I do not have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. 50 But I do not seek my own glory. There is one who seeks and judges. 51 Truly, truly, I tell you, if a person keeps my word, he will never see death.”

52 Then the Judeans said to him, “Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and you say, ‘If anyone keeps my word, he will never taste of death.’ 53 Are you greater than our father, Abraham, who died? The prophets died. Who do you make yourself out to be?”

54 Jesus answered, “If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say ‘He is our God.’ 55 You have not known him, but I know him. If I said, ‘I do not know him,’ I would be like you, a liar. But I know him, and keep his word. 56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day. He saw it, and was glad.”

57 The Judeans therefore said to him, “You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?”

58 Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I tell you, before Abraham came into existence, I AM.[a]”

59 Therefore they took up stones to throw at him, but Jesus was concealed, and went out of the temple.[b]

The night is coming, when no one can work. So he went away, washed, and came back seeing. [8]The neighbors therefore, and those who saw that he was a beggar[c] before, said, “Is this not the one who used to sit and beg?” [9]Some said, “It is he.” Others said, “He looks like him.”

He said, “I am he.” [10]They therefore were asking him, “How were your eyes opened?”

[11]He answered, “A man called Jesus made mud, anointed my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to[d] Siloam, and wash.’ So I went away and washed, and I received sight.”

[12]Then they asked him, “Where is he?”

He said, “I do not know.”

[13]They brought him who had been blind to the Pharisees. [14]Now it was a Sabbath on the day[e] when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. [15]Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He said to them, “He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and I see.”

[16]Some therefore of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, because he does not keep the Sabbath.” Others said, “How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?” There was division among them. [17]Therefore they asked the blind man again, “What do you say about him, because he opened your eyes?”

He said, “He is a prophet.”

[18]The Jewish leaders therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight, [19]and asked them, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?”

[22]His parents said these things because they feared the Jewish leaders; for the Jewish leaders had already agreed that if anyone would confess him as the Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue. [23]Therefore his parents said, "He is of age. Ask him."

[24]So they called the man who was blind a second time, and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner."

[25]He therefore answered, "I do not know if he is a sinner. One thing I do know: that though I was blind, now I see."

19A[c] division arose again among the Jewish people because of these words. 20Many of them said, "He has a demon, and is insane. Why do you listen to him?" 21Others said, "These are not the sayings of one possessed by a demon. It is not possible for a demon to open the eyes of the blind, is it?"[d]

22At that time Hanukkah[e] took place in Jerusalem. 23It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in Solomon's porch. 24The Jewish leaders therefore came around him and said to him, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly."
25Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name, these testify about me. 26But you do not believe, because you are not of my sheep.[f] 27As I said to you,[g] my sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. 28I give everlasting life to them. 31Therefore the Jewish leaders took up stones again to stone him. 32Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from the[j] Father. For which of those works do you stone me?"

33The Jewish leaders answered him, "We do not stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy: because you, being a man, make yourself God."

39Now[c] they sought again to seize him, and he went out of their hand. 40He went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John was baptizing at first, and there he stayed. 41Many came to him. They said, "John indeed did no sign, but everything that John said about this man is true." 42And many believed in him there.

11 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus from Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister, Martha. 2It was that Mary who had anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother, Lazarus, was sick.
3The sisters therefore sent to him, saying, "Lord, look, the one you love is sick." 4But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that God's Son may be glorified by it." 5Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.
6When therefore he heard that he was sick, he stayed two days in the place where he was. 7Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let us go into Judea again."

8The disciples told him,
"Rabbi, the Jewish leaders were just trying to stone you, and are you going there again?"

9Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours of daylight? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. 10But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." 11He said these things, and after that, he said to them, "Our friend, Lazarus, has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may awake him out of sleep."

12Then the disciples said to him[d], "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover."

13Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that he spoke of taking rest in sleep. 14So Jesus said to them plainly then, your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let us go to him."

16 Thomas therefore, who is called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us go also, that we may die with him."
17 So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days already. 18 Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles[a] away. 19 Many of the Jewish people had come to[b] Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother. 20 Then when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, but Mary stayed in the house. 21 Therefore Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you would have been here, my brother would not have died. 22 Even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." 23 Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

24 Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."

25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will still live, even if he dies. 26 And whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

27 She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, he who comes into the world."

28 And when she had said this, she went away, and called Mary, her sister, secretly, saying, "The Teacher is here, and is calling you."

29 When she heard this, she arose quickly, and went to him. 30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still[c] in the place where Martha met him. 31 Then the Judeans who were with her in the house, and were consoling her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there.[d] 32 Therefore when Mary came to where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you would have been here, my brother would not have died."

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Judeans weeping who came with her, he was deeply moved in spirit and was troubled, 34 and said, "Where have you put him?"

They told him, "Lord, come and see."

35 Jesus wept.

36 The Judeans therefore said, "See how he loved him." 37 But some of them said, “Could not this man, who opened the eyes of him who was blind, have also kept this man from dying?”

38So Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. 39Jesus said, “Take away the stone.”

Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days.”

40Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see God’s glory?”

41So they took away the stone[a]. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, “Father, I thank you that you listened to me. 42I know that you always listen to me, but because of the crowd that stands around I said this, that they may believe that you sent me.” 43When he had said this, he shouted with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out.”

44The man who had died came out, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth.

Jesus said to them, “Free him, and let him go.”

45Therefore many of the Judeans, who came to Mary and had seen the things which he did, believed in him. 46But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done. 47The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, “What are we doing? For this man does many signs. 48If we leave him alone like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.”

49But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, “You know nothing at all, 50nor do you consider that it is advantageous for you[b] that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish.” 51Now he did not say this of himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, 52and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. 53So from that day on they plotted to kill him. 54Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Judeans, but departed from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim; and stayed there with his disciples.

[55]Now the Jewish Passover was near, and many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. [56]Then they sought for Jesus and spoke one with another, as they stood in the temple, "What do you think—that he is not coming to the feast at all?" [57]Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it, that they might arrest him.

12 Then six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was,[a] whom Jesus[b] raised from the dead. [2]So they prepared a dinner for him there; and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those reclining at the table with him. [3]Mary, therefore, took a pound[c] of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. [4]Then Judas Iscariot,[d] one of his disciples, who would betray him, said, [5]"Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii,[e] and given to the poor?" [6]Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the money box, used to steal what was put into it. [7]But Jesus said, "Leave her alone, that she may keep[f] this for the day of my burial. [8]For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

[9]A large crowd therefore of the Judeans learned that he was there, and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. [10]But the chief priests plotted to kill Lazarus also, [11]because on account of him many of the Jewish people went away and believed in Jesus.

[12]On the next day the large crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, [13]they took the branches of the palm trees, and went out to meet him, and were shouting, "Hosanna[g]. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord,[h] the King of Israel."

[14]And Jesus, having found a young donkey, sat on it. As it is written, [15]"Do not be afraid,[i] daughter of Zion. Look, your King comes, sitting on a donkey's colt."[j] [16]His disciples did not understand these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about him, and that they had done these things to him. 17The crowd therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, was testifying about it. 18For this cause also the crowd went and met him, because they heard that he had done this sign. 19The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "See how you accomplish nothing. Look, the whole[a] world has gone after him."

20Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship at the feast. 21These, therefore, came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we want to see Jesus." 22Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn, Andrew came with Philip, and they told Jesus. 23And Jesus answered them, "The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. 24Truly, truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit. 25He who loves his life loses[b] it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it to everlasting life. 26If anyone serves me, let him follow me; and where I am, there will my servant also be. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

27"Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say? 'Father, save me from this hour?' But for this cause I came to this hour. 28Father, glorify your name."

Then there came a voice out of the sky, saying, "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."

29The crowd therefore, who stood by and heard it, said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him."

30Jesus answered, "This voice hasn't come for my sake, but for your sakes. 31Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out. 32And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw everyone to myself." 33But he said this, signifying by what kind of death he should die. 34The crowd answered him, "We have heard out of the law that the Christ remains forever.[c] Then how can you say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up?' Who is this Son of Man?"

Jesus said these things, and he departed and hid himself from them. "Lord, who has believed our

[39]For this cause they could not believe, for Isaiah said again,

[41]Isaiah said these things because[e] he saw his glory, and spoke of him.[f] [42]Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess it, so that they would not be put out of the synagogue, [43]for they loved praise from people more than praise from God.

[44]Then Jesus shouted out and said, "Whoever believes in me, believes not in me, but in him who sent me. [45]And he who sees me sees him who sent me. [46]I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness. [47]And if anyone hears my words and does not keep them[g], I do not judge him. he was troubled in spirit, and

[22]The disciples looked at one

Then Jesus said to him, "What you do, do quickly."

[28]Now none of those reclining knew why he said this to him. [29]For some thought, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus said to him, "Buy what things we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor. [30]Therefore, having received the piece of bread, he went out immediately; and it was night.

[31]When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. 9Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, and still you do not know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father?' 10Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak from myself; but the Father who lives in me does his[b] works. 11Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me; or else believe[c] because of the works themselves. 12Truly, truly, I tell you, he who believes in me, the works that I do, he will do also; and he will do greater works than these, because I am going to the[d] Father. 13And whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14If you ask me[e] anything in my name, I will do it. 15If you love me, you will[f] keep my commandments. 16I will pray to the Father, and he will give you another Helper,[g] that he may be with you forever,—17the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive; because it neither sees him nor knows him; but you know him, for he lives with you, and will be in you. 18I will not leave you orphans. I will come to you. 19Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more; but you will see me. Because I live, you will live also. 20In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. 21The one who has my commandments and keeps them is the one who loves me. And the one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will reveal myself to him."

22Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, "Lord, what has happened that you are about to reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?"

23Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word; and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling place with him. 24He who does not love me does not keep my words. The word which you hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me. 25All this I have spoken to you while I am still with you. 26But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and will remind you of all that I said to you. 27Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28You heard how I told you, 'I am going away, and I will come to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that[a] I am going to the[b] Father; for the Father is greater than
I. 29Now I have told you before it happens so that, when it happens, you may believe. 30I will not speak with you much longer, for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has no hold on me. 31But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father commanded me, so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

15 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. 2Every
branch in me that does not bear fruit, he takes away. Every branch that bears fruit, he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. 3You are already clean because of the word which I have spoken to you.
4Remain in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me. 5I am the vine. You are the branches. He who remains in me, and I in him, the same bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. 6If anyone does not remain in me, he is thrown out as a branch, and withers; and they gather them, throw them into the fire, and they are burned. 7If you remain in me, and my words remain in you,[c] ask whatever you desire, and it will be done for you.

8"In this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples.
9Even as the Father has loved me, I also have loved you. Remain in my love. 10If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and remain in his love. 11I have spoken these things to you, that my joy may be[d] in you, and that your joy may be made full.

12"This is my commandment, that you love one another, even as I have loved you. 13Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. 14You are my friends, if you do whatever I command you. 15No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing. But I have called you friends, for everything that I heard from my Father I have made known to you. 16You did not choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatever you will ask of the Father in my name, he may give it to you.

17"I command these things to you, that you may love one another.
18If the world hates you, you know that it has hated me before it hated you. 19If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, since I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.
20Remember the word that I said to you: 'A servant is not greater than his master.'[a] If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will keep yours also. 21But all these things will they do to you because of my name, because they do not know him who sent me. 22If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. 23He who hates me hates my Father also. 24If I had not done among them the works which no one else did, they would not have had sin. But now have they seen and also hated both me and my Father. 25But this happened so that the word may be fulfilled which is written in their law, 'They hated me without a cause.'[b]

26"When the Helper[c] has come, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will testify about me. 27And you will also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

16 "I have said all these things to you so that you may be kept from stumbling. 2They will put you out of the synagogues, but an hour is coming when whoever kills you will think that he is offering a service to God. 3They will do these things because they have not known the Father or me. 4But I have told you these things, so that when their[d] hour comes, you may remember that I told you about them. I did not tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you. 5But now I am going to him who sent me, and none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' 6But because I have told you these things, sorrow has filled your heart.
7Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper won't come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. 8When he has come, he will convict the world about sin, and about righteousness, and about judgment; 9about sin, because they do not believe in me; 10about righteousness, because I am going to the[e] Father, and you won't see me any more; 11about judgment, because the prince of this world has been judged.

12"I have yet many things to tell you, but you cannot bear them now. 13However when he, the Spirit of truth, has come, he will guide you into all truth, for he will not speak on his own; but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you things that are coming. 14He will glorify me, for he will take from what is mine, and will declare it to you. 15All things that the Father has are mine; that is why I said that he takes of mine, and will declare it to you. 16A little while, and you will no longer see me. Again a little while, and you will see me.[a]"

17Some of his disciples therefore said to one another, "What is this that he says to us, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me;' and, 'Because I go to the Father?'" 18They kept asking, "What is this that he says, 'A little while?' We do not know what he is saying."

19Jesus knew that they wanted to ask him, so he said to them, "Do you inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me?' 20Truly, truly, I tell you, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy. 21A woman, when she gives birth, has pain, because her time has come. But when she has delivered the child, she does not remember the anguish any more, for the joy that a human being is born into the world. 22Therefore you have sorrow now, but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.

23"And in that day you will ask nothing of me. Truly, truly I tell you, whatever you may ask of the Father in my name, he will give it to you. 24Until now, you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made full. 25I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. The[b] hour is coming when I will no more speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you plainly about the Father. 26In that day you will ask in my name, and I am not saying to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf, 27for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came forth from God.[c] 28I came forth from the Father and have come into the 29 His disciples said to him,

"Look, now you are speaking plainly and not in any figure of speech. 30 Now we know that you know all things and do not need anyone to question you. By this we believe that you came forth from
God."

31 Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe? 32 Look, the time is coming, and has[a] come, that you will be scattered, everyone to his own place, and you will leave me alone. But I am not alone, because the Father is with me. 33 I have told you these things, that in me you may have peace. In the world you have oppression; but cheer up. I have overcome the world."

17 Jesus said these things, and lifting up his eyes to heaven,
he said, "Father, the time has come.
Glorify your Son, that your Son may also glorify you; 2 even as you gave him authority over all flesh, he will give everlasting life to all whom you have given him. 3 This is everlasting life, that they may know you, the only true God, and him whom you sent, Jesus Christ. 4 I glorified you on the earth by accomplishing the work which you have given me to do. 5 Now, Father, glorify me with your own self with the glory which I had with you before the world existed. 6 I revealed your name to the people whom you have given me out of the world. They were yours, and you have given them to me. They have kept your word. 7 Now they have known that all things whatever you have given me are from you, 8 for the words which you have given me I have given to them, and they received them, and knew for sure that I came forth from you, and they have believed that you sent me. 9 I pray for them. I do not pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours.
10 All things that are mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. 11 I am no more in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them through your name which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are. 12 While I was with them[b], I kept them in your name[c] which you have given me, and I guarded them, and not one of them perished, except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.
13 But now I come to you, and I say these things in the world, that they may have my joy made full in themselves. 14 I have given them your word. The world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 15 I pray not that you would take them from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one.
16 They are not of the world even as I am not of the world. 17 Sanctify them in the[a] truth. Your word is truth.[b] 18As you sent me into the world, even so I have sent them into the world. 19For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth. 20Not for these only do I pray, but for those also who believe in me through their word, 21that they may all be one; even as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be[c] in us; that the world may believe that you sent me. 22The glory which you have given me, I have given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one; 23I in them, and you in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that you sent me, and loved them, even as you loved me. 24Father, I desire that they also whom you have given me be with me where I am, that they may see my glory, which you have given me, for you loved me before the foundation of the world. 25Righteous Father, the world hasn't known you, but I knew you; and these knew that you sent me. 26I made known to them your name, and will make it known; that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and I in them."

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples over the wadi of the Kidron, where there was a garden, into which he and his disciples entered. 2Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples. 3Judas then, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. 4Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were happening to him, went forth, and said to them, "Who are you looking for?"

5They answered him, "Jesus the Nazorean."

Jesus said to them, "I AM."

Judas also, who betrayed him, was standing with them. 6When therefore he said to them, "I AM," they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7Again therefore he asked them, "Who are you looking for?"

They said, "Jesus the Nazorean."

8Jesus answered, "I told you that I AM. If therefore you seek me, let these go their way," 9that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, "Of those whom you have given me, I have lost none."[d]

10Simon Peter therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. 11Jesus therefore said to Peter, "Put the sword into its sheath. Am I not to drink the cup which the[a] Father has given me?"

12So the detachment, the commanding officer, and the officers of the Jewish leaders, seized Jesus and bound him, 13and led him to Annas first, for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. 14Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jewish leaders that it was expedient that one man should die for the people. 15Simon Peter followed Jesus, as did another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest; 16but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter. 17Then the maid who kept the door said to Peter, "Are you also one of this man's disciples?"

He said, "I am not."

18Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold. They were warming themselves. Peter was with them, standing and warming himself. 19The high priest therefore asked Jesus about his disciples, and about his teaching. 20Jesus answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where all the Jewish people come together[b]. I said nothing in secret. 21Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard what I spoke to them; surely they know what I said."

22When he had said this, one of the officers standing by slapped Jesus with his hand, saying, "Do you answer the high priest like that?"

23Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you beat me?"

24Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas, the high priest. 25Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, "You are not also one of his disciples, are you?"

He denied it, and said, "I am not."

26One of the servants of the high priest, being a relative of him whose ear Peter had cut off, said, "Did I not see you in the garden with him?"

27Peter therefore denied it again, and immediately the rooster crowed.

28They led Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the Praetorium.

[a]18:11 M TR: "my"

[b]18:20 M TR read "where the Jews always meet" instead of "where all the Jewish people come together"

It was early, and they themselves did not enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover. [29]Pilate therefore went out to them, and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

[30]They answered him, "If this man weren't an evildoer, we would not have delivered him up to you."

[31]Pilate therefore said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law."

Therefore the Jewish leaders said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death," [32]that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying by what kind of death he should die.

[33]Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, called Jesus, and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

[34]Jesus answered him, "Do you say this by yourself, or did others tell you about me?"

[35]Pilate answered, "I'm not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you to me. What have you done?"

[36]Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, that I would not be delivered to the Jewish leaders. But now my kingdom is not from here."

[37]Pilate therefore said to him, "Are you a king then?"

Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this reason I have been born, and for this reason I have come into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice."

[38]Pilate said to him, "What is truth?"

When he had said this, he went out again to the Jewish leaders, and said to them, "I find no basis for a charge against him. [39]But you have a custom, that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Therefore do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

[40]Then they[a] shouted again, saying, "Not this man, but Barabbas." Now Barabbas was a robber.

19 So Pilate then took Jesus, and flogged him. [2]The soldiers twisted thorns into a crown, and put it on his head, and dressed him in a purple garment. [3]And they kept coming up to him and[b] saying, "Greetings, King of the Jews." and they struck him with their hands.

[4]Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, "Look, I am bringing him out to you, that you may know that I find no basis for a charge against him."

[5]Then Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. And he said to them, "Look, here is the man."

[6]When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they shouted, saying, "Crucify. Crucify."

Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves, and crucify him, for I find no basis for a charge against him."

[7]The Jewish leaders answered him, "We have a law, and by that[a] law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God."

[8]When therefore Pilate heard this saying, he was more afraid. [9]He entered into the Praetorium again, and said to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. [10]Pilate therefore said to him, "Are you not speaking to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you, and have power to crucify you?"

[11]Jesus answered, "You would have no power at all against me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who delivered me to you has greater sin."

[12]At this, Pilate was seeking to release him, but the Jewish leaders shouted, saying, "If you release this man, you are not Caesar's friend. Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar."
[13]When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called "The Pavement," but in Hebrew, "Gabbatha." [14]Now it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, at about noon.[b] He said to the Jewish leaders, "Look, here is your King."
[15]They shouted, "Away with him. Away with him. Crucify him." Pilate said to them, "Should I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar."

[16]So then he delivered him to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus.[c] [17]And he went out, carrying the cross himself, to the place called "The Place of a Skull,[a]" which is called in Hebrew, "Golgotha," [18]where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the middle. [19]Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. There was written, "JESUS THE NAZOREAN, THE KING OF THE JEWS." [20]Therefore many Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. [21]The chief priests of the Jewish people therefore said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'he said, I am King of the Jews.'"

[22]Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

[23]Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his clothes and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the tunic. Now the tunic was without seam, woven from the top throughout. [24]Then they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it will be," that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says,

"They divided my clothes among themselves, and for my clothing they cast a lot."[b]

Therefore the soldiers did these things. [25]But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleopas, and Mary Magdalene. [26]Therefore when Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing there, he said to his mother, "Woman, look, your son." [27]Then he said to the disciple, "Look, your mother." From that hour, the disciple took her to his own home.

[28]After this, Jesus, knowing[c] that all things were now finished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I am thirsty."[d] [29]A vessel full of sour wine was set there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop, and held it at his mouth. [30]When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, "It is finished." He bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

[31]Therefore the Jewish leaders, because it was the Preparation Day, so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a special one), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

[32]Therefore the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him; [33]but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. [34]However one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. [35]He who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, that you may believe. [36]For these things happened, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "A bone of him will not be broken."[a] [37]Again another Scripture says, "They will look on him whom they pierced."[b]

[38]After these things, Joseph of Arimathea[c], being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jewish leaders, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body[d]. [39]Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds.[e] [40]So they took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, according to Jewish burial practice. [41]Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb in which no one had ever yet been placed. [42]Then because of the Jewish Preparation Day (for the tomb was nearby) they put Jesus there.

20 Now on the first day of the week[f], Mary Magdalene went early, while it was still dark, to the tomb, and saw the stone taken away from the tomb. [2]Therefore she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have put him."

[3]Therefore Peter and the other disciple went out, and they went toward the tomb. [4]They both ran together. The other disciple outran Peter, and came to the tomb first. [5]Stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying, yet he did not enter in. [6]Then Simon Peter came, following him, and entered into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying, [7]and the cloth that had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. [8]So then the other disciple who came first to the tomb also entered in, and he saw and believed. [9]For as yet they did not know the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead.[g] [10]So the disciples went away again to their own homes.

[11]But Mary was standing outside at the tomb weeping. So, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb, [12]and she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. [13]They told her, "Woman, why are you weeping?"

She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have put him." [14]When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, and did not know that it was Jesus.

[15]Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?"

She, supposing him to be the gardener, said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will take him away."

[16]Jesus said to her, "Mary."

She turned and said to him in Hebrew,[a] "Rabboni." which is to say, "Teacher."

[17]Jesus said to her, "Do not touch me, for I have not yet ascended to the[b] Father; but go to my brothers, and tell them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'"

[18]Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples, "I have seen the Lord,"[c] and that he had said these things to her. [19]When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week[d], and when the doors were locked where the disciples were,[e] for fear of the Jewish leaders, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, "Peace be to you."

[20]When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad when they saw the Lord. [21]Jesus therefore said to them again, "Peace be to you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." [22]When he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. [23]Whoever's sins you forgive, they are forgiven them. Whoever's sins you retain, they have been retained."

[24]But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. [25]The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord."

nails, and put my finger into the mark of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

[26]After eight days again his disciples were inside, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, the doors being locked, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace be to you." [27]Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and observe my hands. Reach out your hand, and put it into my side; and do not be unbelieving, but believing."

[28]Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God."

[29]Jesus said to him, "Because you have seen me[a], you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and have believed."

[30]Therefore Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book; [31]but these are written, that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

21 After these things, Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself this way. [2]Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. [3]Simon Peter said to them, "I'm going fishing."

They told him, "We are also coming with you." They[b] went out, and entered into the boat. That night, they caught nothing. [4]But when day had already come, Jesus stood on the beach, yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. [5]Jesus therefore said to them, "Children, have you anything to eat?" They answered him, "No."

[6]And he said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some."

They cast it therefore, and now they weren't able to draw it in for the multitude of fish. [7]That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It's the Lord." So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his coat around him (for he was naked), and threw himself into the sea. [8]But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about one hundred yards[c] away), dragging the net full of fish. [9]So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish placed on it, and bread. [10]Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."

[11]Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fish, one hundred fifty-three; and 12 Jesus said to them, "Come and eat breakfast." None of the disciples dared inquire of him, "Who are you?" knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Then Jesus came and took the bread, gave it to them, and the fish likewise. 14 This is now the third time that Jesus was revealed to his disciples, after he had risen from the dead. 15 So when they had eaten their breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John,[a] do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs."

16 He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep."

17 He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything. You know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep.

18 Truly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself, and walked where you wanted to. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you, and carry you where you do not want to go."

19 Now he said this, signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. When he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me."

20 Then Peter, turning around, saw a disciple following. This was the disciple whom Jesus sincerely loved, the one who had also leaned on Jesus' chest at the evening meal and asked, "Lord, who is going to betray You?" 21 Peter seeing him, said to Jesus, "Lord, what about this man?"

22 Jesus said to him, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow me." 23 This saying therefore went out among the brothers, that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you?" 24 This is the disciple who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that his witness is true. 25 There are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself would not have room for the books that would be written.

Acts

1 The first account[a] I wrote, Theophilus, concerned all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, 2until the day in which he was received up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. 3To these he also showed himself alive after he suffered, by many proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days, and speaking about God's kingdom. 4Being assembled together with them, he commanded them, "Do not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which you heard from me. 5For John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

6Therefore, when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, are you now restoring the kingdom to Israel?"

7He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has set within his own authority. 8But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You will be my witnesses[b] in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the farthest part of the earth."

9When he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. 10While they were looking steadfastly into the sky as he went, look, two men stood by them in white clothing, 11who also said, "You men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who was received up from you into the sky will come back in the same way as you saw him going into the sky."

12Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away. 13When they had come in, they went up into the upper room, where they were staying; that is Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James. 14All these with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer[c], along with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

15In these days, Peter stood up in the midst of the brothers[d] (and the number of names was about one hundred twenty), and said, 16"Brothers, it was necessary that this Scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was guide to those who took Jesus. 17For he was numbered with us, and received his portion in this ministry. 18Now this man obtained a field with the reward for his wickedness, and falling headfirst his body burst open, and all his intestines gushed out. 19It became known to everyone who lived in Jerusalem that in their language that field was called 'Hakel-Dema,' that is, 'The field of blood.' 20For it is written in the scroll of Psalms,

'Let his habitation be made desolate,
and let no one dwell in it;'[a]

and,

'Let another take his office.'[b]

21"Of the men therefore who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22beginning from the baptism of John, to the day that he was received up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of his resurrection."

23They put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. 24They prayed, and said, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all people, show which one of these two you have chosen 25to take part in this ministry and office of apostle from which Judas turned away to go to his own place." 26They drew lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

2 Now when the day of Pentecost[c] had come, they were all together[d] in one place. 2Suddenly there came from the sky a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. 3Tongues like fire appeared and were distributed to them, and one sat on each of them. 4They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit enabled them to speak out. 5Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout people from every nation under the sky. 6When this sound was heard, the crowd came together, and were bewildered, because everyone heard them speaking in his own language. 7They were all amazed and marveled, saying[e], "Look, are not all these who speak Galileans? 8How do we hear, everyone in our own native language? 9Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and people from Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, Asia, 10Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, the parts of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, 11Cretans and Arabians: we hear them speaking in our tongues the mighty works of God." 12They were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying one to another, "What does this mean?" 13Others, mocking, said, "They are filled with new wine."

14But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and spoke out to them, "You men of Judea, and all you who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to my words. 15For these are not drunk, as you suppose, seeing it is only nine in the morning.[a] 16But this is what has been spoken through the prophet Joel:

I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy.

21And it will be that whoever

22"Men of Israel, hear these words. Jesus the Nazorean, a man approved by God to you by mighty works and wonders and signs which God did by him in the midst of you, even as you yourselves know, 23him, being delivered up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God,[c] by the hand of lawless men, crucified and killed; 24whom God raised up, having freed him from the pains of death, because it was not possible that he should be held by it. 25For David says concerning him, 'I saw the Lord always before me, that I should not be 26Therefore my heart was glad,

rejoiced,
and moreover my flesh also my soul in Sheol,[d] neither will you allow your 28You made known to me the

You will make me full of joy they were acutely distressed, and 38Peter said to them, "Repent,

3 Now Peter and John were going up into the temple at the hour of prayer, at three in the afternoon.[b] [2]A certain man who was lame from his mother's womb was being carried, whom they put daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful,[c] to ask gifts for the needy of those who entered into the temple. [3]Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive gifts for the needy. [4]Peter, fastening his eyes on him, with John, said, "Look at us." In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean, get up[d] and walk." [7]He took him by the right hand, and raised him up. Immediately his feet and his ankle bones received strength. [8]Leaping up, he stood, and began to walk. He entered with them into the temple, walking, leaping, and praising God. [9]All the people saw him walking and praising God. 13Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they were amazed. They recognized that they had been with Jesus. 14Seeing the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. 15But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16saying, "What should we do with these men? Because indeed a notable miracle has been done through them, as can be plainly seen by all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. 17But so this does not spread any further among the people, let us severely[b] threaten them, that from now on they do not speak to anyone in this name." 18They called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19But Peter and John answered them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, judge for yourselves, 20for we cannot help telling the things which we saw and heard."

21When they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people; for everyone glorified God for that which was done. 22For the man on whom this miracle of healing was performed was more than forty years old.
23Being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. 24When they heard it, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, "Lord, you are the God who[c] made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that is in them. 25You said through the Holy Spirit,[d] through the mouth of our father David your servant:

but they had all things in common.
33With great power, the apostles gave their testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus.
Great grace was on them all. 34For neither was there among them any who lacked, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold, 35and put them at the apostles' feet, and distribution was made to each, according as anyone had need.
36Joseph[d], who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is translated, Son of Encouragement), a Levite, a native of Cyprus by birth, 37having a field, sold it, and brought the money and put it at the apostles' feet.

5 But a certain man named Ananias[e], with Sappirah, his wife, sold a possession, 2and kept back part of the price, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part, and put it at the apostles' feet. 3But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land[f]? 4While you kept it, did not it remain your own? After it was sold, was not it in your power? How is it that you have conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to people, but to God."

5Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and died. Great fear came on all who heard it[g]. 6The young men arose and wrapped him up, and they carried him out and buried him. 7About three hours later, his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in. 8Peter answered her, “Tell me whether you sold the land for so much.”

She said, “Yes, for so much.”

9But Peter asked her, “How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out.”

10She fell down immediately at his feet, and died. The young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. 11Great fear came on the whole church, and on all who heard these things. 12By the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. They were all with one accord in Solomon’s porch. 13None of the rest dared to join them, however the people honored them. 14More believers were added to the Lord, crowds of both men and women. 15They even carried out the sick into the streets, and put them on cots and mats, so that as Peter came by at the least his shadow would fall on some of them. 16Crowds also came together from the cities around Jerusalem, bringing sick people, and those who were tormented by unclean spirits: and they were all healed.

17But the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy, 18and laid hands on the apostles, and put them in public custody. 19But an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors by night, and brought them out, and said, 20“Go stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.”

21When they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the council together, and all the elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. 22But the officers who came did not find them in the prison. They returned and reported, 23“We found the prison shut and locked, and the guards standing before the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside.”

24Now when the[a] captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these words, they were very perplexed about them and what might become of this. 25One came and told them, “Look, the men whom you put in prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people.” 26Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence, for they were afraid that the people might stone them.
27When they had brought them, they set them before the council. The high priest questioned them,

[28]saying, "Did we not[a] strictly command you not to teach in this name? And look, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood on us."

[29]But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than people. [30]The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed, hanging him on a tree. [31]God exalted him with his right hand to be a Leader and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. [32]We are[b] witnesses of these things; and so also is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

[33]But they, when they heard this, were furious, and wanted[c] to kill them. [34]But one stood up in the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the Law, honored by all the people, and commanded to put the men[d] out for a little while. [35]He said to them, "You men of Israel, be careful concerning these men, what you are about to do. [36]For before these days Todah rose up, making himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nothing. [37]After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the enrollment, and drew away some people after him. He also perished, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. [38]Now I tell you, withdraw from these men, and leave them alone. For if this counsel or this work is of human origin, it will be overthrown. [39]But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them[e], and you would be found even to be fighting against God."

[40]They agreed with him. Summoning the apostles, they beat them and commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. [41]They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the Name[f].

[42]Every day, in the temple and at home, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming that Jesus is the Christ.

Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily service. 2So the twelve summoned the full number of the disciples and said, "It is not appropriate for us to forsake the word of God and serve tables. 3Therefore select from among you, brothers, seven men of good report, full of the[a] Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. 4But we will continue steadfastly in prayer and in the ministry of the word."

5And these words pleased the whole gathering. They chose Stephen,[b] a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch; 6whom they set before the apostles. When they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. 7The word of God increased and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly. A great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8Stephen, full of grace[c] and power, performed great wonders and signs among the people. 9But some of those who were of the synagogue called "The Libertines," and of the Cyrenians, of the Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia and Asia arose, disputing with Stephen. 10They weren't able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke. 11Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God." 12They stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes, and came against him and seized him, and brought him in to the council, 13and set up false witnesses who said, "This man never stops speaking blasphemous words against this holy place and the Law. 14For we have heard him say that this Jesus the Nazorean will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us." 15All who sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face like it was the face of an angel.

He promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his descendants after him, when he still had no child. 6But God spoke in this way, 'His descendants will live as strangers in a foreign land, and that they will be slaves and mistreated, for four hundred years. 7But I will judge the nation to which they will be in bondage,' said God, 'and after that will they come out,[a] and serve me in this place.[b]' 8He gave him the covenant of circumcision. So Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day. Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs.
9"The patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt; and God was with him, 10and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. He made him governor over Egypt and all his house. 11Now a famine came over all the land of[c] Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, and our fathers found no food. 12But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers the first time. 13On the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph's family became known to Pharaoh. 14Then Joseph sent, and summoned Jacob, his father, and all his relatives, seventy-five souls.[d] 15Jacob went down into Egypt, and he died, himself and our fathers, 16and they were brought back to Shechem, and placed in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver from the children of Hamor in[e] Shechem.[f] up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God. 56And he said, "Look, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God."[a] 57But they shouted out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed at him with one accord. 58They threw him out of the city, and stoned him. The witnesses placed their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. 59They stoned Stephen as he called out, saying, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." 60He kneeled down, and shouted out, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." When he had said this, he fell asleep.

8 Saul was consenting to his death. A great persecution arose against the church which was in Jerusalem in that day. They were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except for the apostles. 2Devout men buried Stephen, and lamented greatly over him. 3But Saul ravaged the church, entering into every house, and dragged both men and women off to prison. 4Therefore those who were scattered abroad went around proclaiming the word. 5Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed to them the Christ. 6The crowds listened with one accord to the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard and saw the signs which he did. 7For unclean spirits came out of many of those who had them. They came out, crying with a loud voice. Many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. 8There was great joy in that city.

9But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who used to practice sorcery in the city, and amazed the people of Samaria, making himself out to be some great one, 10to whom they all listened, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is that power of God which is called Great.[b]" 11They listened to him, because for a long time he had amazed them with his sorceries. 12But when they believed Philip as he preached good news concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. 13Simon himself also believed. Being baptized, he continued with Philip. Seeing signs and great[c] miracles occurring, he was amazed.

14Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them, 15who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit; 16for he had not yet fallen upon any of them. They had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus[d]. 17Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. 18Now when Simon saw that the[a] Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, 19saying, "Give me also this power, that whomever I lay my hands on may receive the Holy Spirit." 20But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money. 21You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God. 22Repent therefore of this, your wickedness, and ask the Lord[b] if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you. 23For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bondage of iniquity."

24Simon answered, "Pray for me to the Lord, that none of the things which you have spoken happen to me."

25They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Good News to many villages of the Samaritans. 26But an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise, and go toward the south to the way that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza. This is a desert."

27And he arose and went. And look, there was a man from Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Kandake,[c] the queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge over all her treasure. He had come to Jerusalem to worship, 28and he was returning. And sitting in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah.

29And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go and join up with that chariot."
30And running near, Philip heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

31He said, "How can I, unless someone explains it to me?" So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. 32Now the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this,

"He was led like a sheep to the slaughter,

35 Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture, preached to him Jesus. 36 And as they went on the way, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water. What is keeping me from being baptized?" 37 And he said to him, "If you believe with all your heart, you may." And he answered and said, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."[d] 38 Then he commanded the chariot to stand still, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him any more, for he went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found at Azotus. Passing through, he preached the Good News to all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.

[11]The Lord said to him, "Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus. For look, he is praying, [12]and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight."

[13]But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he did to your saints at Jerusalem. [14]Here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name."

[15]But the Lord said to him, "Go your way, for he is my chosen vessel to bear my name before the nations and kings, and the children of Israel. [16]For I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name's sake."

[17]Ananias departed, and entered into the house. Laying his hands on him, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord, who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me, that you may receive your sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit." [18]Immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he received his sight. He arose and was baptized. [19]He took food and was strengthened. He[a] stayed several days with the disciples who were at Damascus. [20]Immediately in the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus[b], that he is the Son of God. [21]All who heard him were amazed, and said, "Is not this he who in Jerusalem made havoc of those who called on this name? And he had come here intending to bring them bound before the chief priests."

[22]But Saul increased more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ. [23]When many days were fulfilled, the Jews conspired together to kill him, [24]but their plot became known to Saul. They watched the gates both day and night that they might kill him, [25]but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket. [26]When Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join himself to the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. 27But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus. 28He was with them coming in and going out[a] in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord.[b] 29He spoke and disputed against the Hellenists, but they were seeking to kill him. 30When the brothers knew it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him off to Tarsus. 31So the church[c] throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, and were built up. They were multiplied, walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

32It happened, as Peter went throughout all those parts, he came down also to the saints who lived at Lydda. 33There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, because he was paralyzed. 34Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed." Immediately he arose. 35All who lived at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

36Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha (which when translated, means Dorcas).[d] This woman was full of good works and acts of mercy which she did. 37It happened in those days that she fell sick, and died. When they had washed her, they placed her in an upper chamber. 38As Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men[e] to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to us[f]. 39Peter got up and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper chamber. All the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. 40Peter put them all out, and kneeled down and prayed. Turning to the body, he said, "Tabitha, get up." She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. 41He gave her his hand, and raised her up. Calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive. 42And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. 43It happened, that he stayed many days in Joppa with one Simon, a tanner.

10 Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment, 2a devout man, and one who feared God with all his house, who gave gifts for the needy generously to the people, and always prayed to God. 3At about three in the afternoon,[g] he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God coming to him, and saying to him, "Cornelius." 4He, fastening his eyes on him, and being frightened, said, "What is it, Lord?" He said to him, "Your prayers and your gifts to the needy have gone up for a memorial before God. 5Now send men to Joppa, and bring one[a] Simon who is surnamed Peter. 6He lodges with one Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the seaside.[b]"

7When the angel who spoke to him[c] had departed, he called two of his household servants and a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually. 8Having explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa. 9Now on the next day as they were on their journey, and got close to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray at about noon. 10He became hungry and desired to eat, but while they were preparing, he fell into a trance. 11He saw heaven opened and a certain container descending to him, like a great sheet let down[d] by four corners on the earth, 12in which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth,[e] crawling creatures and birds of the sky. 13A voice came to him, "Rise, Peter, kill and eat."

14But Peter said, "Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean."

15A voice came to him again the second time, "What God has cleansed, you must not call unclean." 16This was done three times, and immediately the vessel was received up into heaven. 17Now while Peter was very perplexed in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, look, the men who were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the gate, 18and called and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, was lodging there. 19While Peter was pondering the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Look, three[f] men seek you. 20But arise, get down, and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them."

21Peter went down to the men,[g] and said, "Look, I am the one whom you seek. Why have you come?"

22They said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous man and one who fears God, and well spoken of by all the Jewish nation, was directed by a holy angel to invite you to his house, and to listen to what you say." 23So he called them in and lodged them. On the next day he[h] arose and went out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him. 24On the next day he[a] entered into Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and his near friends. 25When it happened that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet, and worshiped him. 26But Peter raised him up, saying, "Stand up. I myself am also a man." 27And as he talked with him, he went in and found many gathered together. 28He said to them, "You yourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a Jew to join himself or come to one of another nation, but God has shown me that I should not call any man unholy or unclean. 29Therefore also I came without complaint when I was sent for. I ask therefore, why did you send for me?"

30Cornelius said, "Four days ago[b] until this hour, at three in the afternoon,[c] I was praying in my house, and look, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your gifts to the needy are remembered in the sight of God. 32Send therefore to Joppa and summon Simon, who is surnamed Peter. He lodges in the house of Simon, a tanner,[d] by the seaside.'[e] 33Therefore I sent to you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God to hear all things that have been commanded you by the Lord.[f]" him up the third day, and gave him to be revealed, 41not to all the 44While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word. 45They of the circumcision who believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was also poured out on the non-Jewish people. 46For they heard them speaking in other tongues and magnifying God.

Then Peter answered, 47"Can anyone withhold the water, that these who have received the Holy Spirit as well as we should not be baptized?" 48He commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.[a] Then they asked him to stay some days.

11 Now the apostles and the brothers who were in Judea heard that the non-Jewish people had also received the word of God.
2When Peter had come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with him, 3saying, "You went in to uncircumcised men, and ate with
them."

4But Peter began, and explained to them in order, saying, 5"I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a look, immediately three men stood before the house where we were, having been sent from Caesarea to me. 12The Spirit told me to go with them, without discriminating[c].

These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house. 13He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying to him,

‘Send to Joppa, and get Simon, whose surname is Peter, 14who will

Holy Spirit fell on them, even as on us at the beginning. 16I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, ‘John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.’[a] 17If then God gave to them the same gift as us, when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand
God?”

18When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, “Then God has also granted to the non-Jews repentance to life.” 19They therefore who were scattered abroad by the oppression that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except to Jews only. 20But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Greeks,[b] proclaiming the good news of the Lord Jesus. 21The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord. 22And the report concerning them was heard by the church in Jerusalem, so they sent Barnabas to[c] Antioch, 23who, when he had come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad. He exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they should remain true to the Lord. 24For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and many people were added to the Lord.

25Barnabas went out to Tarsus to look for Saul. 26When he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. It happened, that for a whole year they were gathered together with the church, and taught many people. The disciples were first called Christians[d] in Antioch.

27Now in these days, prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28One of them named Agabus stood up, and indicated by the Spirit that there should be a great famine all over the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius[e]. 29As any of the disciples had plenty, each determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judea; 30which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

12 Now about that time, Herod the king stretched out his hands to oppress some of the church. 2He killed James, the brother of John, with the sword. 3When he saw that it pleased the Jewish people, he proceeded to seize Peter also. This was during the days of unleavened bread. 4When he had arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover. 5Peter therefore was kept in the prison, but constant prayer was made by the church to God for him. 6The same night when Herod was about to bring him out, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains. Guards in front of the door kept the prison.

7And look, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side, and woke him up, saying, "Stand up quickly." His chains fell off from his hands. 8The angel said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." He did so. He said to him, "Put on your cloak, and follow me." 9And he went out and followed him. He did not know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he saw a vision. 10When they were past the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them by itself. They went out, and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

11When Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I truly know that the Lord has sent out his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from everything the Jewish people were expecting." 12Thinking about that, he came to the house of Mary, the mother of John whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying. 13And when Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer. 14When she recognized Peter's voice, she did not open the gate for joy, but ran in, and reported that Peter was standing in front of the gate.

15They said to her, "You are crazy." But she insisted that it was so. They said, "It is his angel." 16But Peter continued knocking. When they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. 17But he, beckoning to them with his hand to be silent, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, "Tell these things to James, and to the brothers." Then he departed, and went to another place.

18Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter. 19When Herod had sought for him, and did not find him, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. He went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there. 20Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. They came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus, the king's personal aide, their friend, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the king's country for food. 21On an appointed day, Herod dressed himself in royal clothing, and[a] sat on the throne, and gave a speech to them. 22But the crowd shouted, "The voice of a god, and not of a man." 23Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died.

24But the word of God grew and multiplied. 25Barnabas and Saul returned to[b] Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their service, also taking with them John whose surname was Mark.

13 Now in the church that was at Antioch there were some prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen the foster brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. 2As they served the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Separate Barnabas and Saul for me, for the work to which I have called them."

3Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. 4So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia. From there they sailed to Cyprus. 5When they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. They had also John as their attendant. 6When they had gone through the whole[c] island as far as Paphos, they found a certain man, a magician, a Jewish false prophet whose name was Bar-Jesus,[d] 7who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. 8But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith. 9But Saul, who is also called Paul[e], filled with the Holy Spirit, fastened his eyes on him, 10and said, "Full of all deceit and all fraud, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? 11Now, look, the hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind, unable to see the sun for a time."

Immediately a mist and darkness fell on him. He went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand. 12Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

13Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia, and John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. 14But they, passing on from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia. They went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sat down. 15After the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak."

16Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, "Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen. 17The God of this people Israel[a] chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they stayed as foreigners in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm, he led them out of it. 18For a period of about forty years he put up with them in the wilderness. 19When he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land as an inheritance. 20All this took about four hundred and fifty years.[b] And after these things he gave them judges, until Samuel the prophet. 21Afterward they asked for a king, and God gave to them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. 22When he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king, to whom he also testified, 'I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who will do all my will.' 23From this man's offspring, according to his promise,[c] God has brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus,[d] 24before his coming, when John had first preached the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.[e] 25As John was fulfilling his course, he said, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. But look, one comes after me the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.' 26Brothers, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, the word of this salvation is sent out to us[f]. 27For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they did not know him, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him. 28Though they found no cause for death, they still asked Pilate to have him killed. 29When they had fulfilled all things that were written about him, they took him down from the tree, and placed him in a tomb. 30But God raised him from the dead, 31and he was seen for many days by those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people. 32We bring you good news of the promise made to the fathers, 33that God has fulfilled for us, their children, in that he raised up Jesus. David, after he had in his own

42So when they went out they[e] urged them to speak about these things on the next Sabbath.
43Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God. 44The next Sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of the Lord.[f] 45But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and reviled him.

46Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, and said, "It was [h]13:48 God appoints, but our responsibility is to believe the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium. [52]The disciples were filled with joy with the Holy Spirit.

14 It happened in Iconium that they entered together into the Jewish synagogue, and so spoke that a great number of both of Jews and of Greeks believed. [2]But the disbelieving[a] Jews stirred up and embittered the souls of the non-Jewish people against the brothers. [3]Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, who testified to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. [4]But the population of the city was divided. Some sided with the Jews, and some with the apostles. [5]When some of both the non-Jewish people and the Jews, with their rulers, made a violent attempt to mistreat and stone them, [6]they became aware of it, and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, Derbe, and the surrounding region. [7]There they preached the Good News.

[8]At Lystra a certain man sat, without strength in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. [9]He was listening to Paul speaking, who, fastening eyes on him, and seeing that he had faith to be made whole, [10]said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." He leaped up and walked. [11]When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the language of Lycaonia, "The gods have come down to us in human form." [12]They called Barnabas "Jupiter," and Paul "Mercury," because he was the chief speaker. [13]The priest of Jupiter, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have made a sacrifice along with the crowds. [14]But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they tore their clothes, and sprang into the crowd, crying out, [15]"Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the sky and the earth and the sea, and all that is in them; [16]who in the generations gone by allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways. [17]Yet he did not leave himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling your[b] hearts with food and gladness."

[18]Even saying these things, they hardly stopped the crowds from making a sacrifice to them. [19]But some Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there, and having persuaded the crowds, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead.

[20]But as the disciples stood around him, he rose up, and entered into the city. On the next day he went out with Barnabas to Derbe.

21When they had preached the Good News to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, 22confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many afflictions we must enter into the kingdom of God.
23When they had appointed elders for them in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed.

24They passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.
25When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.
26From there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled.
27When they had arrived, and had gathered the church together, they reported all the things that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith to the nations. 28And they stayed with the disciples a long time.

15 Some men came down from Judea and taught the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised after the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved." 2Therefore when Paul and Barnabas had no small discord and discussion with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas, and some others of them, to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. 3They, being sent on their way by the church, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, describing in detail the conversion of the non-Jewish people. They caused great joy to all the brothers. 4When they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they reported all things that God had done with them.

5But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the Law of Moses."

6The apostles and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter. 7When there had been much discussion, Peter rose up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that a good while ago God made a choice among you[a], that by my mouth the nations should hear the word of the Good News, and believe. 8God, who knows the heart, testified about them by giving the Holy Spirit, just like he did to us. 9He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. 10Now therefore why do you tempt God, that you should put a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11But we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they are."

[a]15:7 M TR: "us"

12 And all the people kept quiet, and they listened to Barnabas and Paul reporting what signs and wonders God had done among the nations through them. 13 After they were silent, James answered,
"Brothers, listen to me. 14 Simeon has reported how God first visited the nations, to take out of them a people for his name. 15 This agrees with the words of the prophets. As it is written,
16 'After these things I will return;[a] and I will rebuild the tabernacle of David
that has fallen,
and I will rebuild its ruins,
and I will restore it, 17 that the rest of humanity may seek after the Lord,
and all the nations who are called by my name, says the Lord, who makes these
things
18 known from long ago.'[b]

19 "Therefore my judgment is that we do not trouble those from among the non-Jewish people who turn to God, 20 but that we write to them that they abstain from things defiled by idols, from sexual immorality, from what is strangled, and from blood. 21 For Moses from generations of old has in every city those who proclaim him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath."

22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, chief men among the brothers.
23 They wrote these things by their
hand:

"The apostles, the elders, and the brothers, to the non-Jewish brothers who are in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia: greetings. 24 Because we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls,[c] to whom we gave no commandment; 25 it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who themselves will also tell you the same things by word of mouth.
28 For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay no greater burden on you than these necessary things: 29 that you abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality, from which if you keep yourselves, it will be well with you. Farewell." 30 So, when they were sent off, they came to Antioch, and having gathered the congregation together, they delivered the letter. 31When they had read it, they rejoiced over the encouragement. 32Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers with many words, and strengthened them. 33After they had spent some time there, they were sent back with greetings from the brothers to those that had sent them forth. 34However, Silas decided to remain there.[a] 35And Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36After some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us return now and visit our brothers in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are doing." 37Barnabas planned to take John, who was called Mark, with them also. 38But Paul did not think that it was a good idea to take with them someone who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia, and did not go with them to do the work.
39Then the contention grew so sharp that they separated from each other. Barnabas took Mark with him, and sailed away to Cyprus, 40but Paul chose Silas, and went out, being commended by the brothers to the grace of the Lord.[b] 41He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

16 He came also to Derbe and Lystra.
And look, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewish woman who believed; but his father was a Greek. 2The brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium gave a good testimony about him. 3Paul wanted to have him go out with him, and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts; for they all knew that his father was a Greek. 4As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered the decrees to them to keep which had been ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem.
5So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6When they had gone through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia. 7When they had come opposite Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus[c] did not allow them. 8Passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas. 9A vision appeared to Paul in the night. There was a man of Macedonia standing, begging him, and saying, "Come over into Macedonia and help us." 10When he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to proclaim the Good News to them. 11Then, setting sail from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; 12and from there to Philippi, which is a principle city of that district of Macedonia, a colony. We were staying some days in this[a] city.

13On the Sabbath day we went forth outside of the gate[b] by a riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer[c], and we sat down, and spoke to the women who had come together. 14A certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one who worshiped God, heard us; whose heart the Lord opened to listen to the things which were spoken by Paul. 15When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and stay." So she persuaded us.

16It happened, as we were going to prayer, that a certain girl having a spirit of Python[d] met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortune telling. 17She followed Paul and us, shouting, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you[e] the way of salvation." 18She was doing this for many days.

But Paul, becoming greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out at once. 19But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers. 20When they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men, being Jews, are agitating our city, 21and set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being Romans."

25But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. 26Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were loosened. [27]The jailer, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. [28]But Paul shouted loudly, saying, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here."

[29]He called for lights and sprang in, and, fell down trembling before Paul and Silas, [30]and brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"
[31]They said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus,[a] and you will be saved, you and your household." [32]They spoke the word of the Lord to him, and to all who were in his house.

[33]He took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was immediately baptized, he and all his household. [34]He brought them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his household, having believed in God.

[36]The jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out, and go in peace."

[37]But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us publicly, without a trial, men who are Romans, and have cast us into prison. Do they now release us secretly? No indeed. Let them come themselves and bring us out."

[38]The sergeants reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans, [39]and they came and apologized to them. When they had brought them out, they asked them to depart from the city. [40]They went out of the prison, and entered into Lydia's house. When they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them, and departed.

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. [2]Paul, as was his custom, went in to them, and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures, [3]explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ."

4Some of them were persuaded, and joined Paul and Silas, as did a large number of the devout Greeks, and not a few of the prominent women. 5But the Jews, being moved with jealousy, [a] took along some wicked men from the marketplace, and gathering a crowd, set the city in an uproar. Assaulting the house of Jason, they sought to bring them out to the people. 6When they did not find them, they dragged Jason and certain brothers before the rulers[b] of the city, crying, "These who have turned the world upside down have come here also, 7whom Jason has received. These all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus." 8The crowd and the rulers of the city were troubled when they heard these things. 9When they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go. 10The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Beroea. When they arrived, they went into the Jewish synagogue.
11Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of the mind, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so. 12Many of them therefore believed; also of the prominent Greek women, and not a few men. 13But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul at Beroea also, they came there likewise, inciting and disturbing[c] the crowds. 14Then the brothers immediately sent out Paul to go as far as[d] to the sea, and Silas and Timothy still stayed there. 15But those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens. Receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy that they should come to him very quickly, they departed.

16Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw the city full of idols. 17So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met him. 18Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also were conversing with him. Some said, "What does this babbler want to say?"

Others said, "He seems to be advocating foreign deities," because he preached Jesus and the resurrection.

19They took hold of him, and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by you? 20For you bring certain strange things to our ears. We want to know therefore what these things mean." 21Now all the Athenians and the strangers living there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

22 Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus, and said, "You men of Athens, I perceive that you are very religious in all things. 23 For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription: 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' What therefore you worship in ignorance, this I announce to you. 24 The God who made the world and all things in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands, 25 neither is he served by human[a] hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself gives to all life and breath, and all things. 26 He made from one blood[b] every nation of the human race to dwell on all the surface of the earth, having determined appointed seasons, and the boundaries of their dwellings, 27 that they should seek God,[c] if perhaps they might reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us. 28 'For in him we live, and move, and have our being.'[d] As some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also his offspring.'[e] 29 Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by human art and design. 30 The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked. But now he commands that all people everywhere should repent, 31 because he has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has ordained; of which he has given assurance to everyone by raising him from the dead."

32 Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, "We want to hear you again concerning this."

33 Thus Paul went out from among them. 34 But some people joined with him, and believed, among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18 After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth. 2 He found a certain Jew named Aquila, a man of Pontus by race, who had recently come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome. He came to them, [3]and because he practiced the same trade, he lived with them and worked, for by trade they were tent makers. [4]He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded Jews and Greeks. [5]But when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was compelled by the word[a], testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ. [6]When they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook out his clothing and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads. I am clean. From now on, I will go to the non-Jewish people."

[7]He departed there, and went into the house of a certain man named Titius[b] Justus, one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue. [8]Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all his house. Many of the Corinthians, when they heard, believed and were baptized. [9]The Lord said to Paul in the night by a vision, "Do not be afraid, but speak and do not be silent; [10]for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city."

[11]He lived there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. [12]But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat, [13]saying, "This one persuades people to worship God contrary to the law."

[14]But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked crime, you Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you; [15]but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves. For I do not want to be a judge of these matters." [16]He drove them from the judgment seat.

[17]Then they all took hold of Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. But none of these things were of concern to Gallio.

[18]Paul, having stayed after this many more days, took his leave of the brothers, and sailed from there for Syria, together with Priscilla and Aquila. He shaved his head in Cenchreae, for he had a vow. [19]They[c] came to Ephesus, and he left them there; but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. leave of them, and saying,[a] "I will return again to you if God wills," he set sail from Ephesus.

22When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church, and went down to Antioch. 23Having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of Galatia, and Phrygia, in order, strengthening all the disciples. 24Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus. He was mighty in the Scriptures. 25This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus[b], although he knew only the baptism of John. 26He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside, and explained to him the way of God more accurately.

27When he had determined to pass over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him. When he had come, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace; 28for he powerfully refuted the Jews, publicly showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

19 It happened that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper country, came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples. 2He said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?"

They said to him, "No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

3He said, "Into what then were you baptized?"

They said, "Into John's baptism."

4Paul said, "John indeed baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe in the one who would come after him, that is, in Jesus."

5When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 6When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke with other tongues and prophesied. 7They were about twelve men in all. 8He entered into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for a period of three months, reasoning and persuading about the things concerning the kingdom of God.

9But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the crowd, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. 10This continued for two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11God worked special miracles by the hands of Paul, 12so that even handkerchiefs[a] or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and the evil spirits went out. 13But some of the itinerant Jews, exorcists, took on themselves to invoke over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, "I[b] adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches." 14There were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did this.

15The evil spirit answered, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are you?" 16And the man in whom the evil spirit was, having leapt on them, having overpowered them all, prevailed against them so that they fled from that house naked and wounded. 17This became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived at Ephesus. Fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. 18Many also of those who had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds. 19Many of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. They counted the price of them, and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver.[c] 20So the word of the Lord was growing and becoming mighty.

21Now after these things had ended, Paul determined in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome."

22Having sent into Macedonia two of those who served him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while. 23About that time there arose no small stir concerning the Way. 24For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought no little business to the craftsmen, 25whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, "Sirs, you know that by this business we have our wealth. 26You see and hear, that not at Ephesus alone, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are no gods, that are made with hands. 27Not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute; but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be counted as nothing, and that she should even be deposed from her magnificence, whom all Asia and the world worships."

28When they heard this they were filled with anger, and began to shout, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians." 29The[a] city was filled with confusion, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians, Paul's companions in travel. 30When Paul wanted to enter in to the people, the disciples did not allow him. 31And also some of the Asiarchs, who were his friends, sent to him and urged him not to venture into the theater. 32Some therefore shouted one thing, and some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most of them did not know why they had come together. 33They brought Alexander out of the crowd, the Jews putting him forward. Alexander beckoned with his hand, and would have made a defense to the people. 34But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice for a time of about two hours shouted, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians."

35When the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he said, "You men of Ephesus, is there anyone who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great[b] Artemis, and of the image which fell down from Zeus? 36Seeing then that these things cannot be denied, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. 37For you have brought these men here, who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our[c] goddess. 38If therefore Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a matter against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls. Let them press charges against one another. 39But if you seek anything further, it will be settled in the regular assembly. 40For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we would not be able to give an account of this commotion." 41When he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

20 After the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the disciples and, after encouraging them,[d] took leave of them, and departed to go into Macedonia. 2When he had gone through those parts, and had encouraged them with many words, he came into Greece. 3When he had spent three months there, and a plot was made against him by Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia. 4He was accompanied[e] by Sopater son of Pyrrhus[f] of Beroea; Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians; Gaius of Derbe; Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia. 5But these had gone ahead, and were waiting for us at Troas. [6]We sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.

[7]On the first day of the week, when we[a] were gathered together to break bread, Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and continued his speech until midnight. [8]There were many lights in the upper chamber where we were gathered together. [9]A certain young man named Eutychus sat in the window, weighed down with deep sleep. As Paul spoke still longer, being weighed down by his sleep, he fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead. [10]Paul went down, and fell upon him, and embracing him said, "Do not be troubled, for his life is in him."

[11]When he had gone up, and had broken bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even until break of day, he departed. [12]They brought the boy in alive, and were greatly comforted.

[13]But we who went ahead to the ship set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there, for he had so arranged, intending himself to go by land. [14]When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard, and came to Mitylene. [15]Sailing from there, we came the following day opposite Chios. The next day we landed at Samos,[b] and the day after we came to Miletus. [16]For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

[17]From Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to himself the elders of the church. [18]When they had come to him, he said to them, "You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you all the time, [19]serving the Lord with all humility, with many tears, and with trials which happened to me by the plots of the Jews; [20]how I did not hold back from declaring to you anything that was profitable, and teaching you publicly and from house to house, [21]testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus. [22]And now, look, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there; [23]except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions wait for me. [24]But I make my life[c] an account of nothing[d] precious to myself, so that I may finish my race[a], and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to fully testify to the Good News of the grace of God.

25"And now, look, I know that you all, among whom I went about proclaiming the kingdom[b], will see my face no more. 26Therefore I testify to you today that I am innocent of everyone's blood, 27for I did not hold back from declaring to you the whole plan of God. 28Watch out for yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of[c] God[d] which he purchased with his own blood. 29For I know that after my departure, vicious wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock. 30Men will arise from among your own selves, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. 31Therefore watch, remembering that for a period of three years I did not cease to admonish everyone night and day with tears. 32Now[e] I entrust you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build up, and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. 33I coveted no one's silver, or gold, or clothing. 34You yourselves know that these hands served my necessities, and those who were with me. 35In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring you ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

36When he had spoken these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. 37They all wept a lot, and fell on Paul's neck and kissed him, 38sorrowing most of all because of the word which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

21 When it happened that we had parted from them and had set sail, we came with a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. 2Having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail. 3When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to unload her cargo. 4Having found the[f] disciples, we stayed there seven days. These said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. 5When it happened that we had accomplished the days, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, brought us on our way until we were out of the city. And after kneeling down on the beach and praying, [6]we said farewell to one another. And we went on board the ship, and they returned to their own.

[7]When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers, and stayed with them one day. [8]On the next day,[a] we departed and came to Caesarea.

We entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. [9]Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied. [10]As we stayed there some days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. [11]Coming to us, and taking Paul's belt, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit: 'So will the Jews in Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and will deliver him into the hands of non-Jewish people.'"

[12]When we heard these things, both we and the people of that place urged him not to go up to Jerusalem. [13]Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

[14]When he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The Lord's will be done."

[15]After these days we took up our baggage and went up to Jerusalem. [16]Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we would stay.

[17]When we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly. [18]The day following, Paul went in with us to James; and all the elders were present. [19]When he had greeted them, he reported one by one the things which God had worked among the non-Jewish people through his ministry. [20]They, when they heard it, glorified God.[b] They said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed, and they are all zealous for the Law. [21]They have been informed about you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the non-Jews to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children neither to walk after the customs. [22]What then? The multitude must certainly meet.[c] They will hear that you have come. [23]Therefore do what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow. [24]Take them, and 26Then Paul took the men, and the next day, purified himself and went with them into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them. 27When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the crowd and laid hands on him, 28crying out, "Men of Israel, help. This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the Law, and this place. Moreover, he also brought Greeks into the temple, and has defiled this holy place." 29For they had previously[b] seen Trophimus, the Ephesian, with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

30All the city was moved, and the people ran together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple. Immediately the doors were shut. 31As they were trying to kill him, news came up to the commanding officer of the regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. 32Immediately he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. They, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, stopped beating Paul. 33Then the commanding officer came near, arrested him, commanded him to be bound with two chains, and inquired who he was and what he had done. 34Some shouted one thing, and some another, among the crowd. When he could not find out the truth because of the noise, he commanded him to be brought into the barracks.

35When he came to the stairs, it happened that he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd; 36for the crowd of the people followed after, crying out, "Away with him." 37As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he asked the commanding officer, "May I speak something[c] to you?"

39But Paul said, “I am a Jew,

40When he had given him silence, he spoke to them in the 22 “Brothers and

2When they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew quiet. He said, 3“I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict manner of the Law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as you all are this day. 4I persecuted this Way to the death, both men and women. 5As also the received letters to the brothers, and traveled to Damascus to bring them also who were there to Jerusalem in bonds to be punished. 6It happened that, as I made my journey, and came close to Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from the sky a great light around me. 7I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’ 8I answered, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ He said to me, ‘I am Jesus the Nazorean, whom you persecute.’

9“‘Those who were with me indeed saw the light, and were afraid,[a] but they did not understand the voice of him who spoke to me.
10I said, ‘What should I do, Lord?’
The Lord said to me, ‘Arise, and go into Damascus. There you will be told about all things which are appointed for you to do.’ 11When I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus. 12One Ananias, a devout man according to the Law, well reported of by all the Jews who lived in Damascus, 13came to me, and standing by me said to me, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight.’
In that very hour I looked up at him.
14He said, ‘The God of our fathers has appointed you to know his will,
and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth.
15For you will be a witness for him to all people of what you have seen and heard. 16Now why do you wait?
Arise, be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on his name.[b]’

17 "It happened that, when I while I prayed in the temple, I fell to me, 'Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not receive testimony he said that; then they lifted up their 23 As they yelled, and threw off their cloaks, and threw dust into the air, 24 the commanding officer commanded him to be brought into the barracks, ordering him to be examined by scourging, that he might know for what crime they yelled at him like that. 25 When they[b] had tied him up with thongs, Paul asked the centurion who stood by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, and not

26 When the centurion heard it, he went to the commanding

27 The commanding officer came and asked him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?"

He said, "Yes."

28 The commanding officer answered, "I bought my citizenship

Paul said, "But I was born a Roman."

29 Immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him, and the commanding officer also was afraid when he realized that he was a Roman, because he had bound him. 30 But on the next day, desiring to know the truth about why he was accused by the Jews, he freed him[d],

4Those who stood by said,
"Do you malign God's high 5Paul said, "I did not know, brothers, that he was high priest.

For it is written, 'You must not speak evil of a ruler of your perceived that the one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he shouted in the council, "Men and brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. Concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged."

7When he had said this, an argument arose between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. 8For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess all of these. 9A great clamor arose, and some of[b] the scribes of the Pharisees part stood up, and contended, saying, "We find no evil in this man. What if a spirit spoke to him, or an angel?[c]"

10When a great argument arose, the commanding officer, fearing that Paul would be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.

Lord stood by him, and said,
"Cheer up[d], for as you have testified about me at Jerusalem, so themselves under a curse, saying

16But Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, and he one of the centurions, and said,

"Bring this young man to the commanding officer, for he has something to tell him."

18So he took him, and brought him to the commanding officer, and said, "Paul, the prisoner, summoned me and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to tell you."

19The commanding officer took him by the hand, and going aside, asked him privately, "What is it that you have to tell me?"

20And he said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow,

22So the commanding officer let the said, "Prepare two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, with seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, at nine provide animals, that they might set Paul on one, and bring him safely letter like this:

26"Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor Felix:

them, when I came with the 24 After five days, the high priest, Ananias, came down with certain[a] elders and an orator, one Tertullus. They informed the governor against Paul. 2When he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and that by your foresight reforms[b] are coming to this nation, 3we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. 4But, that I do not delay you, I entreat you to bear with us and hear a few words. 5For we have found this man to be a plague, an instigator of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. 6He even tried to profane the temple, and we arrested him. And we would have judged him according to our law,7but the chief captain Lysias came, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, 8commanding his accusers to come to you.[c] By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him."

9The Jews also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were so. 10When the governor had beckoned to him to speak, Paul answered, "Because I know that you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I cheerfully make my defense, 11seeing that you can recognize that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem. 12In the temple they did not find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd, either in the synagogues, or in the city. 13Nor can they prove to you[d] the things of which they now accuse me. 14But this I confess to you, that after the Way, which they call a sect, so I serve the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the Law, and which are written in the Prophets; 15having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there will be a resurrection[e], both of the just and unjust. 16This being so, I also do my best to always have a clear conscience toward God and people. 17Now after some years, I came to [22]But Felix,[a] having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, "When Lysias, the commanding officer, comes down, I will decide your case." [23]He ordered the centurion that he[b] should be kept in custody, and should have some privileges, and not to forbid any of his friends to serve him or to visit him. [24]But after some days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, who was Jewish, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus. [25]As he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, "Go your way for this time, and when it is convenient for me, I will summon you." [26]Meanwhile, he also hoped that money would be given to him by Paul[c]. Therefore also he sent for him more often, and talked with him. [27]But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and desiring to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

25 Festus therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea. [2]Then the high priest and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul, and they urged him, [3]asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem; plotting to kill him on the way. [6]When he had stayed among them more than eight or[e] ten days, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he sat on the judgment seat, and commanded Paul to be brought. nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all."

9But Festus, desiring to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paul and said, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem, and be judged by me there concerning these things?"

10But Paul said, "I am standing before Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you also know very well. 11For if I have done wrong, and have committed anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die; but if none of those things is true that they accuse me of, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar."

12Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you will go."

13Now when some days had passed, Agrippa the King and Bernice arrived at Caesarea, and greeted Festus. 14As they[a] stayed there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, "There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix; 15about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the Jewish elders informed me, asking for a sentence against him. 16To whom I answered that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up anyone[b] before the accused has met the accusers face to face, and has had opportunity to make his defense against the charge. 17When therefore they had come together here, I did not delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought. 18Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such things as I supposed; 19but had certain questions against him about their own religion, and about one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. 20Being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters. 21But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept until I could send him to Caesar."

22Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself."

"Tomorrow," he said, "you will hear him."

23So on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing with the commanding officers and principal men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought in. 24And Festus said, "King Agrippa, and all people who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom the whole assembly of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. 25But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and as he himself appealed to the emperor I determined to send him. 26Of whom I have no certain thing to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him forth before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, that, after examination, I may have something to write. 27For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to also specify the charges against him."

26 Agrippa said to Paul, "You may speak for yourself."

Then Paul stretched out his hand, and made his defense. 2"I think myself happy, King Agrippa, that I am to make my defense before you this day concerning all the things that I am accused by the Jews, 3especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which are among Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

4"Indeed, all Jews know my way of life from my youth up, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem; 5having known me from the first, if they are willing to testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. 6Now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers, 7which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving night and day, hope to attain. Concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, O King[a]. 8Why is it judged incredible with you, if God does raise the dead?

9"In fact, I thought to myself that I ought to do many things against the name of Jesus the Nazorean. 10This I also did in Jerusalem. I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them. 11Punishing them often in all the synagogues, I tried to make them blaspheme. Being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

12"Whereupon as I traveled to Damascus with the authority and commission from the chief priests, 13at noon, O King, I saw on the way a light from the sky, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who traveled with me. 14When we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

15"I said, 'Who are you, Lord?'

[a]26:7 M TR add "Agrippa"

"He said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. 16But arise, and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose: to appoint you a servant and a witness both of the things which you have seen me,[a] and of the things which I will reveal to you; 17delivering you from the people, and from the non-Jewish people, to whom I send you, 18to open their eyes, that they may turn[b] from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in me.'

19"Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20but declared first to them of Damascus, at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judea, and also to the non-Jews, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. 21For this reason Jews seized me when I was in the temple, and tried to kill me. 22Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand to this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the Prophets and Moses said would happen, 23how the Christ would suffer, and how, by the resurrection of the dead, he would be first to proclaim light both to these people and to non-Jewish people."

24As he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, you are crazy. Your great learning is driving you insane."

25But he said, "I am not crazy, most excellent Festus, but boldly declare words of truth and reasonableness. 26For the king knows of these things, to whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him, for this has not been done in a corner. 27King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe."

28Agrippa said to Paul, "With a little persuasion are you trying to make me a Christian[c]?"

29Paul said, "I pray to God, that whether with little or with much, not only you, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except for these bonds."

30[d]The king rose up with the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them. 31When they had withdrawn, they spoke one to another, saying, "This man does

27 When it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band. [2]Embarking in a ship from Adramyttium, which was about to sail to places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea; Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. [3]The next day, we landed at Sidon. Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him permission to go to his friends and refresh himself. [4]Putting to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. [5]When we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. [6]There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and he put us on board. [7]When we had sailed slowly many days, and had come with difficulty opposite Cnidus, the wind not allowing us further, we sailed under the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone. [8]With difficulty sailing along it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

[9]When much time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast had now already gone by, Paul admonished them, [10]and said to them, "Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives." [11]But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship than to those things which were spoken by Paul. [12]Because the haven was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised going to sea from there, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there, which is a port of Crete, looking northeast and southeast.

[13]When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to shore. [14]But before long, a stormy wind beat down from shore, which is called Euraquilo.[a] [15]When the ship was caught, and could not face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven along. [16]Running under the lee of a small island called Cauda[b], we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat. [17]After they had hoisted it up, they used cables to help reinforce the ship. Fearing that they would run aground on the Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor, and so were driven along. [18]As we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw things overboard. [19]On the third day, they[c] threw out the ship's tackle with their own hands. 20When neither sun nor stars shone on us for many days, and no small storm pressed on us, all hope that we would be saved was now taken away.

21When they had been long without food, Paul stood up in the middle of them, and said, "Sirs, you should have listened to me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss. 22Now I exhort you to cheer up, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. 23For there stood by me this night an angel, belonging to the God whose I am and whom I serve, 24saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar. And look, God has granted you all those who sail with you.' 25Therefore, sirs, cheer up. For I believe God, that it will be just as it has been spoken to me. 26But we must run aground on a certain island."

27But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven back and forth in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some land. 28They took soundings, and found twenty fathoms.[a] After a little while, they took soundings again, and found fifteen fathoms.[b] 29Fearing that we would run aground on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for daylight. 30As the sailors were trying to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, pretending that they would lay out anchors from the bow, 31Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these stay in the ship, you cannot be saved." 32Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let it fall off.

33While the day was coming on, Paul urged them all to take some food, saying, "This day is the fourteenth day that you wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. 34Therefore I urge you to take some food, for this is for your preservation; for not a hair will perish[c] from any of your heads." 35When he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all, and he broke it, and began to eat. 36Then they all cheered up, and they also took food. 37In all, we were two hundred seventy-six souls on the ship. 38When they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. 39When it was day, they did not recognize the land, but they noticed a certain bay with a beach, and they decided to try to drive the ship onto it. 40Casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time untying the rudder ropes. Hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. 41But coming to a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground. The bow struck and remained immovable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves.

42 The soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim out and escape. 43 But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stopped them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should throw themselves overboard first to go toward the land; 44 and the rest should follow, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. So it happened that they all escaped safely to the land.

28 When we had escaped, then we[a] learned that the island was called Malta. 2 The natives showed us uncommon kindness; for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. 3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and placed them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand. 4 When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said one to another, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped from the sea, yet Justice has not allowed to live." 5 However he shook off the creature into the fire, and was not harmed. 6 But they expected that he would have swollen or fallen down dead suddenly, but when they watched for a long time and saw nothing bad happen to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

7 Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief official of the island, named Publius, who received us, and courteously entertained us for three days. 8 It happened that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery. Paul entered in to him, prayed, and laying his hands on him, healed him. 9 Then when this was done, the rest also who had diseases in the island came, and were cured. 10 They also honored us with many honors, and when we sailed, they put on board the things that we needed.

11 After three months, we set sail[b] in a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was "The Twin Brothers." 12 Touching at Syracuse, we stayed there three days. 13 From there we cast off[c] and arrived at Rhegium. After one day, a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli, 14 where we found brothers, and were entreated to stay with them for seven days. So we came to Rome. 15 From there the brothers, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God, and took courage.

16When we entered into Rome,[a] Paul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

17It happened that after three days Paul called together those who were the Jewish leaders. When they had come together, he said to them,
"I, brothers, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, still was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, 18who, when they had examined me, desired to set me free, because there was no cause of death in me.
19But when the Jews spoke against it, I was forced to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything about which to accuse my nation. 20For this cause therefore I asked to see you and to speak with you. For because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain."

21They said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor did any of the brothers come here and report or speak any evil of you. 22But we desire to hear from you what you think. For, as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against."

23When they had appointed him a day, many people came to him at his lodging. He explained to them, testifying about the kingdom of God, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets, from morning until evening. 24Some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. 25When they did not agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had spoken one word, "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah, the prophet, to your[b] fathers, 26saying,
'Go to this people, and say,
in hearing, you will hear,
but will in no way
understand.
In seeing, you will see,
but will in no way perceive.
27For this people's heart has grown callous.
Their ears are dull of
hearing.
Their eyes they have closed.
Lest they should see with their
eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their heart,
and would turn again,
and I would heal them.'[c]

28"Be it known therefore to you, that the salvation of God is sent to the nations. They will also listen." 29And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, having a great dispute among themselves.[d] 30And Paul stayed two

1 Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus,[a] called to be an apostle, set apart for the Good News of God, [2]which he promised before through his prophets in the holy Scriptures, [3]concerning his Son, who was born of the offspring of David according to the flesh, [4]who was declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord, [5]through whom we received grace and the office of apostle, for obedience of faith among all the nations, for his name's sake; [6]among whom you are also called to belong to Jesus Christ; [7]to all who are in Rome, loved by God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

[8]First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world.[b] [9]For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the Good News of his Son, how I constantly mention you [10]always in my prayers, requesting, if by any means now at last I may succeed by the will of God to come to you. [11]For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you; [12]that is, that you and I may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine.

[13]Now I do not desire to have you unaware, brothers, that I often planned to come to you, and was hindered so far, that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among the other non-Jewish people. [14]I have an obligation both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish. [15]So, for my part, I am eager to preach the Good News to you also who are in Rome. [16]For I am not ashamed of the Good News,[c] for it is the power of God for salvation for everyone who believes; for the Jew first, and also for the Greek. 17For in it is revealed God's righteousness from faith to faith. As it is written, "But the righteous will live by faith."[a] 18For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of people, who suppress the truth by unrighteousness, 19because what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. 20For since the creation of the world his invisible attributes, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made. So they are without excuse. 21Because, although they knew God, they did not glorify him as God or give him thanks, but their thinking became nonsense, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22Claiming to be wise, they became fools, 23and traded the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal humans, and of birds, and four-footed animals, and crawling creatures. 24Therefore God also abandoned them in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the degrading of their bodies among themselves, 25who exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creation rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

26For this reason, God abandoned them to their degrading passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for that which is contrary to nature. 27Likewise also the men, giving up natural relations with women, burned in their lust toward one another, men with men, committing what is shameful, and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error. 28Even as they refused to have God in their knowledge, God abandoned them to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not right; 29being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality,[b] wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil habits, secret slanderers, 30slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31foolish, promise-breakers, heartless, unforgiving,[c] unmerciful; 32who, knowing the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also approve of those who practice them.

2 Therefore you are without excuse, everyone of you who passes judgment. For in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things. [2]Now we know that the judgment of God is in accordance with truth against those who practice such things. [3]And do you think this, you who judge those who practice such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of God? [4]Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? [5]But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you are storing up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; [6]who "will pay back to everyone according to their works:"[a] [7]to those who by perseverance in good works seek glory and honor and immortality -- everlasting life. [8]But to those who are self-seeking, and do not obey the truth, but obey wickedness -- wrath and anger, [9]affliction and distress, on every human being who does evil, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

[10]But glory, honor, and peace for everyone who does good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. [11]For there is no partiality with God. [12]For as many as have sinned without the law will also perish without the law. As many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. [13]For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be justified. [14]For when the non-Jews who do not have the law do by nature the things of the law, these, not having the law, are a law to themselves, [15]since they show the work of the law written on their hearts, their conscience bearing witness, and their thoughts either accusing or defending them, [16]in the day when God will judge the secrets of people, according to my Good News, by Christ Jesus.

[17]But if you call yourself a Jew, and rely on the law, and boast in God, [18]and know his will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, [19]and are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, [20]a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of children, having in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth. [21]You therefore who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal? [22]You who say that one should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who detest idols, do you rob temples? [23]You who boast in the law, do you, by disobeying the law, dishonor God? 24For because of you the name of God is blasphemed among the nations,[a] just as it is written. 25For circumcision indeed profits, if you are a doer of the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. 26If therefore the uncircumcised keep the requirements of the law, won't his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision? 27Won't the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfills the law, judge you, who with the letter and circumcision are a transgressor of the law? 28For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh; 29but he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, by the Spirit, not in the letter; whose praise is not from people, but from God.

3 Then what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the profit of circumcision? 2Much in every way. Because first of all, they were entrusted with the oracles of God. 3For what if some were without faith? Will their lack of faith nullify the faithfulness of God? 4Absolutely not. Let God be found true, but every human being a liar. As it is written,

"That you may be justified in your words, and prevail when you judge."[b]

5But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what will we say? Is God unrighteous who inflicts wrath? (I am speaking in human terms). 6Absolutely not. For then how will God judge the world? 7For if the truth of God through my lie abounded to his glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? 8And why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), "Let us do evil, that good may come?" Their condemnation is just. 9What then? Are we better than they? No, in no way. For we previously warned both Jews and Greeks, that they are all under sin.

no, not one."[d]

19Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be closed, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God. 20Because by the works of the law, no flesh will be justified in his sight. For through the law comes the knowledge of sin. 21But now apart from the law, a righteousness of God has been revealed, being testified by the Law and the Prophets; 22even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ to all[e] who believe. For there is no distinction, 23for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; 24being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus; 25whom God displayed publicly as a mercy seat,[f] through faith in his blood, for a demonstration of his righteousness, because in God's forbearance he had passed over the sins previously committed; 26to demonstrate his righteousness at this present time, so that he would be just, and the justifier of him who has faith in Jesus.

27Where then is the boasting? It is excluded. By what manner of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith. 28For we maintain[g] that one is justified by faith apart from the works of the law. 29Or is God for Jews only? Is he not the God of the non-Jews also? Yes, of the non-Jews also, 30since indeed there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith. 31Do we then nullify the law through faith? Absolutely not. No, we establish the law.

4 What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather,[h] has found according to the flesh? 2For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. 3For what does the Scripture say? "And Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness."[a] 4Now to the one who works, the pay is not counted as a gift, but as an obligation. 5But to him who does not work, but believes in him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited as righteousness. 6Even as David also pronounces blessing on the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works,

7"Happy are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven,
and whose sins are covered.
8Happy is the one whom the Lord will not charge with sin."[b]

9Is this blessing then pronounced on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was credited to Abraham as righteousness. 10How then was it credited? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. 11He received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision, that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they be in uncircumcision, so[c] that righteousness might also be credited to them. 12The father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had in uncircumcision. 13For the promise to Abraham and to his descendants that he should be heir of the world was not through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. 14For if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of no effect. 15For the law works wrath, for where there is no law, neither is there disobedience. 16For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace, to the end that the promise may be sure to all the descendants, not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all. 17As it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations."[d] This is in the presence of him whom he believed: God, who gives life to the dead, and calls the things that are not, as though they were. 18Who hoped in spite of hopeless circumstances, with the result that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, "so will your descendants be."[e] 19And not being weak in faith, he considered[f] his own body, which was as good as[g] dead (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb. 20Yet, looking to the promise of God, he did not waver through unbelief, but grew strong through faith, giving glory to God, [21]and being fully assured that what he had promised, he was able also to perform. [22]And therefore "it was "credited to him as righteousness."[a] [23]Now it was not written that it was credited to him for his sake alone, [24]but for our sake also, to whom it will be credited, who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, [25]who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

5 Being therefore justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; [2]through whom we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. [3]Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering works perseverance; [4]and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope: [5]and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us. [6]For while we were yet weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. [7]For rarely does one die for the righteous[b]. Yet perhaps for a good person someone might dare to die. [8]But God commends his own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

[9]Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we will be saved from God's wrath through him. [10]For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we will be saved by his life.

[11]Not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation. [12]Therefore, as sin entered into the world through one man, and death through sin; and so death passed to all people, because all sinned. [13]For until the law, sin was in the world; but sin is not charged when there is no law. [14]Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those whose sins weren't like Adam's disobedience, who is a foreshadowing of him who was to come. [15]But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many. [16]The gift is not as through one who sinned: for the judgment came by one to condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses to justification. [17]For if by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; so much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ. 18So then as through one trespass, all people were condemned; even so through one act of righteousness, all people were justified to life. 19For as through the one man's disobedience many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one, many will be made righteous. 20The law came in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace abounded more exceedingly;

[b]5:7 Syr reads "ungodly" instead of "righteous"

21that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to everlasting life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 What should we say then? Should we continue in sin, that grace may abound? 2Absolutely not. We who died to sin, how could we live in it any longer? 3Or do you not know that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? 4We were buried therefore with him through baptism to death, that just like Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. 5For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will also be part of his resurrection; 6knowing this, that our old self was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be in bondage to sin. 7For he who has died has been freed from sin. 8But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him; 9knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dies no more.
Death no more has dominion over him. 10For the death that he died, he died to sin one time; but the life that he lives, he lives to God. 11In the same way, consider yourselves dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus[a].

12Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. 13Neither present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. 14For sin will not have dominion over you. For you are not under law, but under grace. 15What then? Should we sin because we are not under law, but under grace?
Absolutely not. 16Do you not know that when you present yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, whether of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? 17But thanks be to God, that, whereas you were servants of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching to which you were entrusted. 18Being made free from sin, you became slaves of
righteousness.

[a]6:11 M TR add "our Lord"

[19]I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh, for as you presented your members as slaves to uncleanness and to wickedness upon wickedness, even so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.
[20]For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. [21]What fruit then did you have at that time in the things of which you are now ashamed?
For the end of those things is death.
[22]But now, being made free from sin, and having become slaves of God, you have your fruit of sanctification, and the result of everlasting life. [23]For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is everlasting life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 Or do you not know, brothers (for I speak to those who know the law), that the law has authority over a person for as long as he lives?
[2]For the married woman is bound by law to her husband as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is released from the law concerning the husband. [3]So then if, while the husband lives, she is joined to another man, she is called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress, though she is joined to another man. [4]Therefore, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you would be joined to another, to him who was raised from the dead, that we may bear fruit to God. [5]For when we were in the flesh,[a] the sinful passions which were through the law, worked in our members to bring forth fruit for death. [6]But now we have been released from the law, having died to that which held us captive, so that we serve in newness of the Spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

[7]What should we say then? Is the law sin? Absolutely not.
However, I would not have known sin, except through the law. For I would not have known covetousness, unless the law had said, "Do not covet."[b] [8]But sin, taking opportunity through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of covetousness. For apart from the law, sin is dead. [9]I was alive apart from the law once, but when the commandment came, sin became alive, and I died. [10]The commandment, which was for life, this I found to be for death; [11]for sin, taking the opportunity through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me.
[12]Therefore the law indeed is holy,
and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good.
[13]Did that which is good, then, become death to me? Absolutely not. But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; that

[a]7:5 Or, "were living according to the sinful nature"

[b]7:7 Exodus 20:17; Deuteronomy 5:21

through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful. 14For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin. 15For I do not know what I am doing. For I do not practice what I desire to do; but what I hate, that I do. 16But if I do what I do not want to do, I agree with the law that it is good. 17So now it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. 18For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh,[a] dwells no good thing. For the desire is present in me, but the doing of the good[b] is not. 19For the good which I desire, I do not do; but the evil which I do not desire, that I practice. 20But if what I do not desire, that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. 21I find then the law, that, to me, while I desire to do good, evil is present. 22For I delight in God's law in my inner being, 23but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity under the law of sin which is in my members. 24What a wretched man I am. Who will deliver me out of the body of this death? 25Thanks be to[c] God through Jesus Christ, our Lord. So then with the mind, I myself serve God's law, but with the flesh, the sin's law.

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus.[d] 2For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you[e] free from the law of sin and of death. 3For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God did, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh; 4so that the requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. 5For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. 6For the mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace; 7because the mind set on the flesh is hostile towards God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. 8And those who are in the flesh cannot please God. 9But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if it is so that the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to him. 10And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit gives life because of righteousness. 11But if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised up Christ[f] from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. [12]So then, brothers, we have no obligation to the flesh, to live after the flesh. [13]For if you live after the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. [14]For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. [15]For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba[a]. Father."

[16]The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God; [17]and if children, then heirs; heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ; if indeed we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him. [18]For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which will be revealed to us. [19]For the creation waits with eager expectation for the sons of God to be revealed. [20]For the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will, but because of him who subjected it, in hope [21]that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of decay into the glorious freedom of the children of God. [22]For we know that the whole creation groans and suffers with labor pains together until now. [23]And not only this, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for adoption, the redemption of our body. [24]For we were saved in hope, but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for that which he sees? [25]But if we hope for that which we do not see, we wait for it with patience. [26]And in the same way, the Spirit also helps us in our weakness, for we do not know how to pray as we ought. But the Spirit himself makes intercession for us with inexpressible groanings. [27]And he who searches the hearts knows what is on the Spirit's mind, because he makes intercession for the saints in accordance with God.

[28]And we know that all things work together for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to his purpose. [29]For whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. [30]Whom he predestined, those he also called. Whom he called, those he also justified. Whom he justified, those he also glorified.

[31]What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? [32]He who did not spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how would he not also with him freely and more than that, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.

35Who will separate us from oppression, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

36Even as it is written, "For your sake we are killed all day long. We were regarded as sheep to be slaughtered."[a] 37No, in all these things, we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, 39nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I tell the truth in Christ.
I am not lying, my conscience testifying with me in the Holy Spirit, 2that I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. 3For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brothers' sake, my physical relatives according to the flesh, 4who are Israelites; whose is the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service, and the promises; 5of whom are the patriarchs, and from whom is the Christ, as concerning the flesh, who is over all, God, blessed forever.
Amen.

6But it is not as though the word of God has come to nothing.
For they are not all Israel, that are of Israel. 7Neither, because they are Abraham's descendants, are they all children. But, "In Isaac will your descendants be called."[b] 8That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as descendants. 9For this is what the promise said, "At the appointed time I will come, and Sarah will have a son."[c] 10And not only that, but Rebekah also had conceived by one, our father Isaac. 11For being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him who calls, 12it was said to her, "The elder will serve the younger."[d] 13Even as it is written,
"Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."[e]

14What should we say then?
Is there unrighteousness with God?
Absolutely not. 15For he said to compassion."[a] [16]So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who has mercy.

[17]For the Scripture says to Pharaoh,
"For this very purpose I caused you to be raised up, that I might show in you my power, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."[b] [18]So then, he has mercy on whom he desires, and he hardens whom he desires. [19]You will say then to me, "Why does he still find fault? For who withstands his will?" [20]But who indeed are you, a human being, to reply against God?
Will the thing formed ask him who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?"[c] [21]Or hasn't the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel for honor, and another for dishonor?
[22]What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath made for destruction, [23]and that he might make known the riches of his glory on vessels of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory,

[30]What should we say then? That the non-Jews, who did not follow after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith; [31]but Israel, following after a law of righteousness, did not arrive at that law[c]. [32]Why? Because they did not seek it by faith, but as it were by works[d]. They stumbled over the stumbling stone; [33]even as it is written,

10 Brothers, my heart's desire and my prayer to God is for them[h], that they may be saved. [2]For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. [3]For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. [4]For Christ is the end[i] of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. [5]For Moses writes about the righteousness of the law, "The one who does them will live by them."[j] [6]But the righteousness which is of faith says this, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will go up into heaven?'[k] (that is, to bring Christ down); [7]or, 'Who will go down into the deep?'[l] (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.)" [8]But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth, and in your heart;"[m] that is, the message of faith that we proclaim: [9]If you acknowledge with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. [10]For with the heart one believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth acknowledgment is made, resulting in salvation. [11]For the Scripture says, "Whoever[n] believes in him will not be put to shame."[o] same Lord of all is rich to all who call on him. 13For, "Whoever will on him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in him whom they have not heard?

And how will they hear without someone preaching? 15And how will they preach unless they are sent? As it is written:
"How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news of peace, who bring good

16But they did not all listen to the Good News. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?"[d] 17So faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.[e] 18But I ask, isn't it rather that they did not hear? On the contrary,
"Their voice has gone out to all
the earth,
their words to the farthest

19But I ask, did not Israel know? First Moses says,
"I will provoke you to jealousy

I will make you angry with a foolish nation."[g]

20Isaiah is very bold, and seek me.

I was revealed to those who did not ask for me."[h] 21But as to Israel he says,
"All day long I have stretched out my hands to a disobedient and obstinate people."[i]

rejected his people?[j] Absolutely not. For

Benjamin. [2]God did not reject his people, which he foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says about Elijah? How he pleads with God against Israel: [3]"Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have broken down your altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life."[a] [4]But how does God answer him? "I have kept for myself seven thousand people, who have not bowed the knee to Baal."[b] [5]Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. [6]And if by grace, then it is no longer of works;
otherwise grace is no longer grace.[c]

[7]What then? That which Israel seeks for, that he did not obtain, but the chosen ones obtained it, and the rest were hardened. [8]According as it is written, God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, to this very day.[d] [9]David says,
"Let their table be made a snare, and a trap,
a stumbling block, and a retribution to them.
[10]Let their eyes be darkened, so that they can't see,
and their backs be bent continually."[e]

[11]I ask then, did they stumble that they might fall? Absolutely not. But by their fall salvation has come to the non-Jews, to provoke them to jealousy. [12]Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the non-Jews;
how much more their fullness?
[13]For I speak to you who are the non-Jews. Since then as I am an apostle to the non-Jews, I glorify my ministry; [14]if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and may save some of them. [15]For if the rejection of them is the reconciling of the world, what would their acceptance be, but life from the dead? [16]If the first part is holy, so is the whole batch. If the root is holy, so are the branches.
[17]But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them, and became partaker with them of the rich root of the olive tree;[f] [18]do not boast over the branches. But if you boast, it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you.
[19]You will say then, "Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in." [20]True; by their unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by your faith. Do not be conceited, but fear; [21]for if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. [22]See

God. Toward those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in his goodness; otherwise you also will be cut off. 23They also, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. 24For if you were cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more will these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? 25For I do not desire you to be ignorant, brothers, of this mystery, so that you won't be wise in your own conceits, that a partial hardening has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the non-Jews has come in, 26and so all Israel will be saved. Even as it is written,

"There will come out of Zion the

he will turn away

27This is my covenant to them, when I will take away their 28Concerning the Good News, they are enemies for your sake. But concerning the election, they are loved for the fathers' sake. 29For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. 30For as you in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience, 31even so these also have now been disobedient, that by the mercy shown to you they may now[b] also obtain mercy. 32For God has bound everyone over to disobedience, that he might have mercy on all.

33Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God. How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past tracing out.

12 Therefore I urge you, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. 2And do not[e] be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what is the good, well-pleasing, and perfect will of God. 3For I say, through the grace that was given me, to everyone among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, as God has apportioned to each person a measure of faith. 4For even as we

and all the members do not have the

to the proportion of the faith; 7if

Cling to that which is good. 10In love of the brothers be tenderly 12rejoicing in hope; enduring in with those who rejoice. Weep with those who weep. 16Live in harmony with one another. Do not be humble. Do not be conceited.

17Repay no one evil for evil.
Respect what is honorable in the sight of all people. 18If it is possible, as much as it is up to you, be at peace with all people. 19Do not seek revenge yourselves, beloved, but leave room[b] for the good, and you will have praise from the same, [4]for it is a servant of God to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, be afraid, for it does not bear the sword in vain. It is God's servant to administer retribution on those who do what is wrong. [5]Therefore it is necessary to be in subjection, not only because of this retribution, but also as a matter of conscience. [6]For this reason you also pay taxes, for they are servants of God, concerned with this very thing. [7]Give therefore to everyone what you owe: taxes to whom taxes are due; customs to whom customs; respect to whom respect; honor to whom honor. [8]Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

[9]For the commandments, "Do not commit adultery," "Do not murder," "Do not steal," "Do not give false testimony,"[a] "Do not covet,"[b] and whatever other commandments there are, are all summed up in this saying, namely, "You are to love your neighbor as yourself."[c] [10]Love does not harm a neighbor. Love therefore is the fulfillment of the law. [11]Do this, knowing the time, that it is already time for you to awaken out of sleep, for salvation is now nearer to us than when we first believed. [12]The night is far gone, and the day is near. Let us therefore throw off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. [13]Let us walk decently, as in the daytime; not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and lustful acts, and not in dissension and jealousy. [14]But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, for its lusts.

14 Now accept one who is weak in faith, but not for disputes over opinions. [2]One person has faith to eat all things, but the one who is weak eats only vegetables. [3]Do not let the one who eats despise the one who does not eat. Do not let the one who does not eat judge the one who eats, for God has accepted him. [4]Who are you who judge another's servant? To his own lord he stands or falls. Yes, he will be made to stand, for the Lord[d] has power to make him stand.

one who does not observe the day, he does not observe it to the Lord.[a]
The one who eats, he eats to the Lord; since he gives thanks to God.
And the one who does not eat, he does not eat to the Lord, and gives thanks to God. 7For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself. 8For if we live, we live to the Lord. Or if we die, we die to the Lord. If therefore we live or die, we are the Lord's. 9For to this end Christ died,[b] and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

10But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God.[c] 11For it is written,
"'As I live,' says the Lord, 'to me every knee will bow.
Every tongue will confess to God.'"[d]

12So then each one of us will give account of himself to God.
13Therefore let us not judge one another any more, but judge this rather, not to put a stumbling block in a brother's way, or an occasion for falling. 14I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself; except that to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.
15Yet if because of food your brother is grieved, you walk no longer in love. Do not destroy with your food him for whom Christ died. 16Then do not let your good be slandered, 17for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. 18For he who serves Christ in these things is acceptable to God and approved by people.
19So then, let us follow after things which make for peace, and things by which we may build one another up. 20Do not overthrow God's work for food's sake. All things indeed are clean, however it is evil for anyone who creates a stumbling block by eating. 21It is good to not eat meat, drink wine, or do anything by which your brother stumbles, or is offended, or is made weak.[e]

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus[b] by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes, [2]to the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, both theirs and ours: [3]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

[4]I always thank my God concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; [5]that in everything you were enriched in him, in all speech and all knowledge; [6]even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: [7]so that you are not lacking in any gift, as you wait for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed; [8]who will also strengthen you to the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. [9]God is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. [10]Now I appeal to you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement, so that there may be no divisions among you, and to be united by the same mind and conviction. [11]For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are from Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you. [12]Now I mean this, that each one of you says, "I follow Paul," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Cephas," and,
"I follow Christ." [13]Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of Paul? [14]I thank God[c] that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, [15]so that no one should say that you had been baptized[a] into my own name.

16(Now I also baptized the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized any other.) 17For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Good News—not in wisdom of words, so that the cross of the Christ would not be made void.
18For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. 19For
it is written,
"I will destroy the wisdom of the
wise,
and the discernment of the discerning I will nullify."[b]

20Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of this[c] world?
21For seeing that in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom did not know God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the preaching to save those who believe. 22For Jews ask for signs, and Greeks seek after wisdom, 23but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to the non-Jews[d], 24but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God. 25Because the foolishness of God is wiser than man's, and the weakness of God is stronger than man's. 26For consider your calling, brothers, that not many were wise from a human perspective, not many powerful, not many of noble birth. 27But God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise. And God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong. 28And God chose the lowly of the world, and the despised, what is considered to be nothing, to bring to nothing what is considered to be something, 29that no flesh might boast before God.
30And because of him you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption, 31so that, as it is written, "Let him who boasts, boast in the Lord."[e]

brothers, I did not come you the mystery[a] of God.[b] 2For I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. 3When I was with you, I was weak and afraid and I shook. 4My speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of[c] wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, 5that your faith would not rest on human wisdom, but on the power of God. 6We speak wisdom, however, among those who are mature, but a wisdom not of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are passing away. 7But we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the wisdom that has been hidden, which God determined in advance before the ages for our glory, 8which none of the rulers of this age has understood. For had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. 9But as it is written, No eye has seen, and no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined the things which God has prepared for those who love him.[d] 10But to us God revealed it through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God. 11For what person knows the things of a person except the spirit of the person that is in him? So also, no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. 12But we received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, that we might know the things that were freely given to us by God. 13And we speak of these things, not with words taught by human wisdom, but with those taught by the[e] Spirit, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. 14Now the natural person does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned. 15But he who is spiritual discerns all things, and he himself is judged by no one. 16For, "Who has known the mind of the Lord? Who will instruct him?"[f] But we have the mind of Christ.

3 And I, brothers, could not address you as spiritual, but as fleshly, as infants in Christ. 2I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you weren't yet ready. And even now you are still not ready, 3for you are still fleshly. For insofar as there is jealousy and strife[g] among you, are you not fleshly,

There is no reason for the words to have fallen out and living by human standards? 4For when one says, “I follow Paul,” and another, “I follow Apollos,” are you not merely human?[a] 5What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, and each as the Lord gave to him. 6I planted. Apollos watered. But God made it grow. 7So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who makes it grow. 8Now he who plants and he who waters are the same, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. 9For we are God’s fellow workers. You are God’s field, God’s building. 10According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each one be careful how he builds on it. 11For no one can lay any other foundation than that which has been laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12But if anyone builds on this[b] foundation with gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or straw; 13each man’s work will be revealed. For the Day will declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself will test what sort of work each man’s work is. 14If any man’s work remains which he built on it, he will receive a reward. 15If any man’s work is burned, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as through fire.

16Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and that God’s Spirit lives in you? 17If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him; for God’s temple is holy, which you are. 18Let no one deceive himself. If anyone thinks that he is wise among you in this age, let him become a fool, that he may become wise. 19For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, “He traps the wise in their craftiness.”[c] 20And again, “The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise,[d] that they are futile.”[e] 21Therefore let no one boast about people. For all things are yours, 22whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All are yours, 23and you are Christ’s, and Christ is God’s.

faithful. [3]But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's judgment. Yes, I do not judge my own self. [4]For I know nothing against myself. Yet I am not justified by this, but he who judges me is the Lord. [5]Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each one will get his praise from God.

[6]Now these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that in us you might learn not to go[a] beyond the things which are written, that none of you be puffed up against one another. [7]For who makes you different? And what do you have that you did not receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it? [8]You are already filled. You have already become rich. You have come to reign without us. Yes, and I wish that you did reign, that we also might reign with you. [9]For, I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last of all, like men sentenced to death. For we are made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and people. [10]We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You have honor, but we have dishonor. [11]Even to this present hour we hunger, thirst, are naked, are beaten, and have no certain dwelling place. [12]We toil, working with our own hands. When people curse us, we bless. Being persecuted, we endure. [13]Being defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the dirt wiped off by all, even until now. [14]I do not write these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children. [15]For though you have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet not many fathers. For in Christ Jesus, I became your father through the Good News. [16]I appeal to you therefore, be imitators of me. [17]Because of this I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every church. [18]Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. [19]But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord is willing. And I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power. [20]For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. [21]What do you want? Should I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even[b] among the nations, that one has his father's wife. 6Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole lump? 7Purge out the old yeast, that you may be a new lump, even as you are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed for us.[e] 8Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old yeast, neither with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 9I wrote to you in my letter to have no company with sexual sinners; 10yet not at all meaning with the sexual sinners of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or with idolaters; for then you would have to leave the world. 11But as it is, I wrote to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother who is a sexual sinner, or covetous, or an idolater, or a slanderer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner. Do not even eat with such a person. 12For what have I to do with also judging those who are outside? Do you not judge those who are within? 13But those who are outside, God judges. And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? 3Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life? 4If then, you have to judge things pertaining to this life, do you set them to judge who have no standing in the church? 5I say this to move you to shame. his marital duty[a] to his wife, and likewise also the wife to her husband. 4The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband. Likewise also the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife. 5Do not deprive one another, unless it is by consent for a season, that you may give yourselves to[b] prayer, and may be together again, that Satan does not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

6But this I say by way of concession, not of commandment. 7Yet I wish that all people were like me. However each one has his own gift from God, one of this kind, and another of that kind. 8But I say to the unmarried and to widows, it is good for them if they remain even as I am. 9But if they do not have self-control, let them marry. For it's better to marry than to burn. 10But to the married I command—not I, but the Lord—that the wife not leave her husband 11(but if she departs, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband not leave his wife.

12But to the rest I—not the Lord—say, if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is content to live with him, let him not leave her. 13The woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he is content to live with her, let her not leave her husband[c]. 14For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the brother[d]. being a slave? Do not let that bother you, but if you get an opportunity to become free, use it. [22]For he who was called in the Lord being a slave is the Lord's free person. Likewise he who was called being free is Christ's slave. [23]You were bought with a price. Do not become slaves of people. [24]Brothers, let each one, in whatever condition he was called, stay in that condition with God.

[25]Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy. [26]I think that it is good therefore, because of the distress that is on us, that it is good for a person to remain as he is. [27]Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be freed. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife. [28]But if you marry, you have not sinned. If a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such will have oppression in the flesh, and I want to spare you. [29]But I say this, brothers: the time is short, that from now on, those who have wives should be as though they had none; [30]and those who weep, as though they did not weep; and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess; [31]and those who use the world, as not using it to the fullest. For the form of this world is passing away. [32]But I desire to have you to be free from cares. He who is unmarried is concerned for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord; [33]but he who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife, [34]and is divided. And the woman that is unmarried, or a virgin, is concerned about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But the one that is married is concerned about the things of the world, how she may please her husband. [35]This I say for your own profit; not that I may ensnare you, but for that which is appropriate, and that you may attend to the Lord without distraction. [36]But if anyone thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and if need so requires, let him do what he desires. He does not sin. Let them marry. [37]But he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own heart, to keep his own virgin, does well. [38]So then both he who gives his own virgin[a] in marriage does well, and he who does not give her in marriage does better. [39]A wife is bound[b] to her husband as long as he lives; but if the husband is dead, she is free to be married to whomever she desires, only in the Lord. [40]But she is happier if she stays as she is, in my judgment, and I think that I also have God's Spirit.

8 Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. 2But if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he does not yet know as he ought to know. 3But if anyone loves God, the same is known by him. 4Therefore concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no[a] God but one. 5For though there are things that are called "gods," whether in the heavens or on earth; as there are many "gods" and many "lords;" 6yet to us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we for him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we live through him. 7However, not all have this knowledge. But some, being so accustomed[b] to idols until now, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. 8But food will not commend us to God. For neither, if we do not eat, are we the worse; nor, if we eat, are we the better. 9But be careful that by no means does this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to the weak. 10For if someone sees you who have knowledge sitting in an idol's temple, won't his conscience, if he is weak, be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols? 11And through your knowledge, he who is weak perishes, the brother for whom the Christ died. 12Thus, sinning against the brothers, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. 13Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will eat no meat forevermore, that I do not cause my brother to stumble.

9 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus[c] our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? 2If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my office of apostle in the Lord. 3My defense to those who examine me is this. 4Have we no right to eat and to drink? 5Have we no right to take along a wife who is a believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? 6Or have only Barnabas and I no right to not work? 7What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard, and does not eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and does not drink from the flock's milk? 8Do I say these things according to human authority? Or does not the Law also say the same thing? 9For it is written in the Law of Moses, "Do not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain."[d] Is it for the oxen that God cares, 10or does he say it assuredly for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because he who plows ought to plow in hope, and he who threshes in the hope of having a share[e]. 11If we sowed to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reap your fleshly things? 12If others partake of this right over you, do not we yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right, but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the Good News of Christ. 13Do you not know that those who serve around sacred things eat from the things of the temple, and those who wait on the altar have their portion with the altar? 14Even so the Lord ordained that those who proclaim the Good News should live from the Good News. 15But I have used none of these things, and I do not write these things that it may be done so in my case; for I would rather die, than that anyone should make my boasting void. 16For if I preach the Good News, I have nothing to boast about, because I am compelled to do this. Woe to me if I do not preach the Good News. 17For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward. But if not of my own will, I have a stewardship entrusted to me. 18What then is my reward? That, when I preach the Good News, I may present the Good News[a] without charge, so as not to abuse my authority in the Good News. 19For though I was free from all, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more. 20To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, not being myself under the law,[b] that I might gain those who are under the law; 21to those who are without law, as without law (not being without law toward God, but under law toward Christ), that I might win those who are without law. 22To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all people, that I may by all means save some. 23Now I do all things[c] for the sake of the Good News, that I may be a joint partaker of it. 24Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run like that, that you may win. 25Now everyone who competes in the games exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. 26I therefore run like that, as not uncertainly. I fight like that, as not beating the air, 27but I beat my body and bring it into submission, lest by any means, after I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

10 Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; 2and were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea; 3and all ate the same spiritual food; 4and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. 5However with most of them, God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. 6Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. 7Neither be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."[a] 8Neither let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell. 9Neither let us test the Christ,[b] as some of them tested, and perished by the serpents. 10Neither grumble, as some of them also grumbled, and perished by the destroyer. 11Now these things happened to them by way of example, and they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages have come. 12Therefore let him who thinks he stands be careful that he does not fall.

13No temptation has taken you except what is common to humanity. God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the temptation also make the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. 14Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. 15I speak as to wise people. Judge what I say. 16The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a sharing of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a sharing of the body of Christ? 17Because there is one loaf of bread, we, who are many, are one body; for we all partake of the one loaf of bread. 18Consider Israel according to the flesh. Do not those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar?
19What am I saying then? That a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? 20But I say that the things which pagans sacrifice, they sacrifice[c] to demons, and not to God, and I do not desire that you would have fellowship with demons. 21You cannot both drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot both partake of the table of the Lord, and of the table of demons. 22Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? 23"All things are lawful[d]," but not all things are profitable. "All things are lawful[e]," but not all things build up. 24Let no one seek his own, but[f] his neighbor's good. 25Whatever is sold in the butcher shop, eat, asking no question for the sake of conscience, 26for "the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness."[a] [27]But if one of those who do not believe invites you to a meal, and you are inclined to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no questions for the sake of conscience. [28]But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," do not eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience.[b] [29]Conscience, I say, not your own, but the other's conscience. For why is my liberty judged by another conscience? [30]If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced for that for which I give thanks? [31]Whether therefore you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. [32]Give no occasions for stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the church of God; [33]even as I also please all people in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved.

11 Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ. [2]Now I praise you,[c] that you remember me in all things, and hold firm the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. [3]But I would have you know that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God. [4]Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head. [5]But every woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as if she were shaved. [6]For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it is shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered. [7]For a man indeed ought not to have his head covered, because he is the image and glory of God, but the woman is the glory of the man. [8]For man is not from woman, but woman from man; [9]for neither was man created for the woman, but woman for the man. [10]For this cause the woman ought to have authority on her head, because of the angels.

[11]Nevertheless, neither is the woman independent of the man, nor the man independent of the woman, in the Lord. [12]For as woman came from man, so a man also comes through a woman; but all things are from God. [13]Judge for yourselves. Is it appropriate that a woman pray to God unveiled? [14]Doesn't even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? [15]But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given to her[d] for a covering. [16]But if anyone seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither do God's churches.

[17]But in giving you this command, I do not praise you, that you come together not for the better but for the worse. [18]For first of all, when you come together in the church, I hear that divisions exist among you, and I partly believe it. [19]For there also must be factions among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you. [20]When therefore you assemble yourselves together, it is not the Lord's supper that you eat. [21]For in your eating each one takes his own supper first. One is hungry, and another is drunk. [22]What, do you not have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise God's church, and put them to shame who do not have? What should I tell you? Should I praise you? In this I do not praise you.

[23]For I received from the Lord that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which he was betrayed took bread. [24]When he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "[a]This is my body, which is[b] for you. Do this in memory of me." [25]In the same way he also took the cup, after the meal, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink, in memory of me." [26]For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. [27]Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the Lord's cup in a manner unworthy[c] will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. [28]But let a person examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. [29]For he who eats and drinks[d] eats and drinks judgment to himself, if he does not discern the[e] body. [30]For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep. [31]For if we discerned ourselves, we would not be judged. [32]But when we are judged, we are punished by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world. [33]Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait one for another. [34]But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest your coming together be for judgment. The rest I will set in order whenever I come.

12 Now concerning spiritual things, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant. [2]You know that when you were unbelievers, you were led away to those mute idols, however you might be led. [3]Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by God's Spirit says, "Jesus is accursed." No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," but by the Holy Spirit. [4]Now there are various kinds of gifts[f], but the same Spirit.

[5]There are various kinds of service, and the same Lord. [6]There are various kinds of workings, but the same God, who works all things in all. 7But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the profit of all. 8For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit; 9to another faith, by the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, by the one[a] Spirit; 10and to another workings of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discernings of spirits; to another different kinds of tongues; and to another the interpretation of tongues. 11But the one and the same Spirit works all of these, distributing to each one separately as he desires.

12For as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ. 13For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all given to drink of[b] one Spirit. 14For the body is not one member, but many. 15If the foot would say, "Because I'm not the hand, I'm not part of the body," it is not therefore not part of the body. 16If the ear would say, "Because I'm not the eye, I'm not part of the body," it's not therefore not part of the body. 17If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? 18But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as he desired. 19If they were all one member, where would the body be? 20But now they are many members, but one body. 21The eye cannot tell the hand, "I have no need for you," or again the head to the feet, "I have no need for you." 22No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary. 23Those parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, on those we bestow more abundant honor; and our unpresentable parts have more abundant propriety; 24whereas our presentable parts have no such need. But God composed the body together, giving more abundant honor to the inferior part, 25that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. 26When one member suffers, all the members suffer with it. Or when one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

27Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually. 28God has set some in the church: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracle workers, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and various kinds of tongues. 29Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all miracle workers? 30Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? 31But earnestly desire the greater[a] gifts. Moreover, I show a most excellent way to you.

13 If I speak with the tongues of humans and of angels, but do not have love, I have become sounding bronze, or a clanging cymbal. 2If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. 3If I dole out all my goods to feed the poor, and if I surrender my body so that I may boast,[b] but do not have love, it profits me nothing.

4Love is patient and is kind; love does not envy. Love does not brag, is not proud, 5does not behave itself inappropriately, does not seek its own way, is not irritable, does not keep a record of wrongs; 6does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; 7bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. 8Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will be done away with. Where there are tongues, they will cease. Where there is knowledge, it will be done away with. 9For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; 10but when that which is complete has come,[c] that which is partial will be done away with. 11When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become an adult, I have put away childish things. 12For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I was also fully known. 13But now faith, hope, and love remain—these three. The greatest of these is love.

14 Follow after love, and earnestly desire spiritual things, and especially that you may prophesy. 2For the one who speaks in another language speaks not to people, but to God; for no one understands; but in the Spirit he speaks mysteries. 3But he who prophesies speaks to people for their encouragement, strengthening, and comfort. 4He who speaks in another language edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church. 5Now I would like you all to speak in tongues, but even more that you would prophesy, and[d] he is greater who prophesies than he who speaks with other languages, unless he interprets, that the church may be built up.

6But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with other languages, what would I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching? 7Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they did not give a distinction in the sounds, how would it be known what is piped or harped? 8For if the trumpet gave an uncertain sound, who would prepare himself for war? 9So also you, unless you uttered by the tongue words easy to understand, how would it be known what is spoken? For you would be speaking into the air. 10There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none[a] is without meaning. 11If then I do not know the meaning of the sound, I would be to him who speaks a foreigner, and he who speaks would be a foreigner to me. 12So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may abound to the building up of the church. 13Therefore let him who speaks in another language pray that he may interpret. 14For if I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. 16Otherwise if you bless with the spirit, how will he who fills the place of the unlearned say the "Amen" at your giving of thanks, seeing he does not know what you say? 17For you truly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. 18I thank[b] God I speak in tongues more than you all. 19However in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in another language.

20Brothers, do not be children in thoughts, yet in malice be babies, but in thoughts be mature. 21In the law it is written, "By people of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people; but even then they will not listen to me," says the Lord.[c] 22Therefore tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving; but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to those who believe. 23If therefore the whole church is assembled together and all speak in tongues, and unlearned or unbelieving people come in, won't they say that you are crazy? 24But if all prophesy, and someone unbelieving or unlearned comes in, he is reproved by all, and he is judged by all. 25And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed. So he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is among you indeed.

26What is it then, brothers? When you come together, each one[d] has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has another language, has an interpretation. Let all things be done to build each other up. 27If anyone speaks in another language, let it be two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let one interpret. 28But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the church, and let him speak to himself, and to God. 29Let the prophets speak, two or three, and let the others discern. 30But if a revelation is made to another sitting by, let the first keep silent. 31For you can all prophesy one by one, that all may learn and all may be encouraged. 32The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets, 33for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace.

As in all the churches of the saints, 34let the women[a] keep silent in the churches, for it has not been permitted for them to speak; but let them be in subjection, as the Law also says. 35If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is shameful for a woman to chatter in the church. 36What? Was it from you that the word of God went out? Or did it come to you alone? 37If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him recognize the things which I write to you, that they are the commandment of the Lord. 38But if someone does not recognize this[b], he is not recognized. 39Therefore, my brothers, desire earnestly to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. 40Let all things be done decently and in order.

15 Now I declare to you, brothers, the Good News which I preached to you, which also you received, in which you also stand, 2by which also you are saved, if you hold firmly the word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. 3For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received:

that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, 4that he was buried,
that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, 5and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve.
6After that he appeared to over five hundred brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have also fallen asleep.
7After that he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, 8and last of all, as to the child born at the wrong time, he appeared to me also.

9For I am the least of the apostles, who is not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. 10But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace which was bestowed on me was not futile, but I worked more than all of them; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11Whether then it was I or they, this is what we preach, and this is what you believed.

12Now if Christ is preached, that he has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised. 14If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, and your faith also is in vain. 15Yes, we are found false witnesses of God, because we testified about God that he raised up Christ, whom he did not raise up, if it is so that the dead are not raised. 16For if the dead are not raised, neither has Christ been raised. 17If Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. 18Then they also who are fallen asleep in Christ have perished. 19If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are of all people most to be pitied.
20But now Christ has been raised from the dead,[a] the first fruits of those who are asleep. 21For since death came by a man, the resurrection of the dead also came by a man. 22For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. 23But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then those who are Christ's, at his coming.
24Then the end comes, when he will deliver up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he will have abolished all rule and all authority and power. 25For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. 26The last enemy that will be abolished is death.
27For, "He put[b] all things under his feet."[c] But when he says, "all things" are put under, it is evident that the one who put all things under is the exception. 28When all things have been subjected to him, then the Son will also himself be subjected to him who subjected all things to him, that God may be all in all. 29Or else what will they do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them[d]?
30Why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour? 31I affirm, brothers,[e] by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.
32If I fought with animals at Ephesus for human purposes, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, then "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."[f] 33Do not be deceived: "Bad company corrupts good morals."[g] 34Become sober-minded, and do not sin, for some are ignorant about God. I say this to your shame. 35But someone will and, "With what kind of body do they come?" 36You foolish one, that which you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies. 37That which you sow, you do not sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, maybe of wheat, or of some other kind. 38But God gives it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own. 39All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of humans, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds. 40There are also celestial bodies, and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial differs from that of the terrestrial. 41There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory. 42So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption. 43It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. 44It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is also a spiritual body.

45So also it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living soul."[a] The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. 46However that which is spiritual is not first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual. 47The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is[b] from heaven. 48As is the one made of dust, such are those who are also made of dust; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. 49As we have borne the image of those made of dust, let us[c] also bear the image of the heavenly. 50Now I say this, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.

51Look, I tell you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, 52in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed. 53For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 54But when this corruptible will have put on incorruption, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then what is written will happen: "Death is swallowed up in victory."[d]

55"Death, where is your victory?
Death[e], where is your sting?"[f]

56The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. 57But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. [58]Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the Lord's work, because you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

16 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I commanded the churches of Galatia, you do likewise. [2]On the first day of the week, let each one of you save, as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come. [3]When I arrive, I will send whoever you approve with letters to carry your gracious gift to Jerusalem. [4]If it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me. [5]But I will come to you when I have passed through Macedonia, for I am passing through Macedonia. [6]But with you it may be that I will stay, or even winter, that you may send me on my journey wherever I go. [7]For I do not wish to see you now in passing, but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Lord permits. [8]But I will stay at Ephesus until Pentecost,[a] [9]for a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries. [10]Now if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without fear, for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. [11]Therefore let no one despise him. But set him forward on his journey in peace, that he may come to me; for I expect him with the brothers.

[12]Now concerning Apollos, the brother, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers; and it was not at all his desire to come now; but he will come when he has an opportunity.

[13]Watch. Stand firm in the faith. Be courageous. Be strong. [14]Let all that you do be done in love.

[15]Now I appeal to you, brothers (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have set themselves to serve the saints), [16]that you also be in subjection to such, and to everyone who helps in the work and labors. [17]I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus; for that which was lacking on your part, they supplied. [18]For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge those who are like that.

[19]The churches of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you much in the Lord, together with the church that is in their house. [20]All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.
[21]This greeting is by me, Paul, with my own hand. [22]If anyone does not love the Lord,[b] a curse be on him.[c] Our Lord, come.[d] [23]The grace of the Lord Jesus[e] be with you. [24]My love to all of you in Christ Jesus.[f]

2Corinthians

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia: [2]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

[3]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort; [4]who comforts us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. [5]For as the sufferings of Christ abound to us, even so our comfort also abounds through Christ. [6]But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer. [7]Our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that, since you are partakers of the sufferings, so also are you of the comfort. [8]For we do not desire to have you uninformed, brothers, concerning our affliction which happened[a] in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, so much that we despaired even of life. [9]Yes, we ourselves have had the sentence of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead, [10]who delivered us out of so great a death, and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope that he will also deliver us again; [11]you also helping together on our behalf by your petition; that, for the gift bestowed on us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on our[b] behalf. [12]For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that with pure motives[c] and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God we conducted ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you. [13]For we write no other things to you, than what you read or even acknowledge, and I hope you will fully acknowledge; [14]as also you acknowledged us in part, that we are your boasting, even as you also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus. [15]In this confidence, I was determined to come first to you, that you might have a second benefit; [16]and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and to be sent forward by you on my journey to Judea. 17When I therefore was planning this, did I do it lightly? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the "Yes, yes" and the "No, no?" 18But as God is faithful, our word toward you is[a] not "Yes and no." 19For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not "Yes and no," but in him is "Yes." 20For however many are the promises of God, in him[b] they are "Yes." Therefore also through him they are "Amen," to the glory of God through us.

21Now he who establishes us with you in Christ, and anointed us, is God; 22who also sealed us, and gave us the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts. 23But I call God as a witness to my soul, that to spare you I did not come again to Corinth. 24Not that we rule over your faith, but are fellow workers with you for your joy. For you stand firm in faith.

2 For[c] I determined this for myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow. 2For if I make you sorry, then who will make me glad but he who is made sorry by me? 3And I wrote this very thing[d], so that, when I came, I would not have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy would be shared by all of you. 4For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be made sorry, but that you might know the love that I have so abundantly for you. 5But if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I not press too heavily) to you all. 6Sufficient to such a one is this punishment which was inflicted by the many; 7so that on the contrary you should rather[e] forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his excessive sorrow. 8Therefore I urge you to confirm your love toward him. 9For to this end I also wrote, that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things. 10Now I also forgive whomever you forgive anything. For if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the presence of Christ, 11that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

12Now when I came to Troas for the Good News of Christ, and when a door was opened to me in the Lord, 13I had no relief for my spirit, because I did not find Titus, my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went out into Macedonia. 14Now thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and reveals through us the sweet aroma of his knowledge in every place. [15]For we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God, in those who are saved, and in those who perish; [16]to the one a stench from death to death; to the other a sweet aroma from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? [17]For we are not, like so many, peddling the word of God. But as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, we speak in Christ.

3 Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? We do not need, as do some, letters of commendation to you or[a] from you, do we? [2]You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by everyone; [3]being revealed that you are a letter of Christ, served by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in tablets that are hearts of flesh. [4]Such confidence we have through Christ toward God; [5]not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; [6]who also made us sufficient as servants of a new covenant; not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. [7]But if the service of death, written engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly on the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which was passing away: [8]won't service of the Spirit be with much more glory? [9]For if the service of condemnation has glory, the service of righteousness exceeds much more in glory. [10]For truly that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasses. [11]For if that which passes away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.

[12]Having therefore such a hope, we use great boldness of speech, [13]and not as Moses, who put a veil on his face, that the children of Israel would not look steadfastly on the end of that which was passing away. [14]But their minds were hardened, for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains, because in Christ it passes away. [15]But to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart. [16]But whenever one turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. [17]Now the Lord is the Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. [18]But we all, with unveiled face looking as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord, the Spirit.

4 Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we do not faint. [2]But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 3Even if our Good News is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing; 4in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, so they would not see the light of the glorious Good News of Christ, who is the image of God. 5For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus[a] as Lord, and ourselves as your slaves because of Jesus. 6For it is God, who spoke for light to shine out of darkness,[b] who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ.[c]

7But we have this treasure in clay vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves. 8We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not to despair; 9pursued, yet not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed; 10always carrying in the body the death of[d] Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. 11For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be revealed in our mortal flesh. 12So then death works in us, but life in you. 13But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke."[e] We also believe, and therefore also we speak; 14knowing that he who raised the Lord[f] Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will present us with you. 15For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God. 16Therefore we do not become discouraged, but even though our outer nature is wearing away, yet our inner nature is being renewed day by day. 17For this momentary light affliction is working for us a far more exceeding and everlasting weight of glory; 18while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are everlasting.

5 For we know that if the earthly house of our tent is dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, everlasting, in the heavens. [2]For truly in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven, [3]since, after we have put it on, we will not be found naked. [4]For indeed we who are in this tent do groan, being burdened; not that we desire to be unclothed, but that we desire to be clothed, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. [5]Now he who made us for this very thing is God, who also gave to us the down payment of the Spirit.

[6]Therefore, we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord; [7]for we walk by faith, not by sight. [8]We are of good courage, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord. [9]Therefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well pleasing to him. [10]For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. [11]Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade people, but we are revealed to God; and I hope that we are revealed also in your consciences. [12]For we are not commending ourselves to you again, but speak as giving you occasion of boasting on our behalf, that you may have something to answer those who boast in appearance, and not in heart. [13]For if we are out of control, it is for God. If we are in a reasonable way, it is for you. [14]For the love of Christ constrains us; because we judge thus, that one died for all, therefore all died. [15]He died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to him who for their sakes died and rose again. [16]Therefore we know no one after the flesh from now on. Even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we no longer know him in this way. [17]Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away. Look, new things have come.[a] [18]But all things are of God, who reconciled us to himself through Jesus Christ, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation; [19]namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and having committed to us the word of reconciliation. [20]We are therefore ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. [21]For him who knew no sin he made to be sin on our behalf; so that

6 Working together, we entreat also that you not receive the grace of God in vain, [2]for he says,
"At an acceptable time I listened
to you,
and in a day of salvation I helped you."[a]

Look, now is the "acceptable salvation." [3]We give no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our service may not be blamed, [4]but in everything commending ourselves, as servants of God, in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, [5]in beatings, in imprisonments, in

Or what portion has a believer with an unbeliever? [16]What agreement

we[b] are a temple of the living God.
Even as God said, "I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will before, that you are in our hearts to die together and live together. 4Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I overflow with joy in all our affliction. 5For even when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side. Fightings were outside. Fear was inside. 6Nevertheless, he who comforts the lowly, God, comforted us by the coming of Titus; 7and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, while he told us of your longing, your mourning, and your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced still more.

8For though I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it. For I see that my letter made you sorry, though just for a while. 9I now rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you were made sorry to repentance. For you were made sorry in a godly way, that you might suffer loss by us in nothing. 10For godly sorrow works repentance to salvation, which brings no regret. But the sorrow of the world works death. 11For look at this very thing, that you were made sorry in a godly way. What diligence it produced in you, what clearing of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what vindication. In everything you proved yourselves to be innocent in the matter. 12So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be revealed in you in the sight of God. 13Therefore we have been comforted. In our[a] comfort we rejoiced the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. 14For if in anything I have boasted to him on your behalf, I was not disappointed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth. 15His affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembers all of your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him. 16I rejoice that in everything I am of good courage concerning you.

8 Moreover, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the churches of Macedonia; 2how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality. 3For according to their power, I testify, yes and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, 4begging us with much entreaty to receive this grace and the fellowship in the service to the saints. 5This was not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own

[a]7:13 M TR read “your” instead of “our” selves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God. [6]So we urged Titus, that as he made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this grace. [7]But as you abound in everything, in faith, utterance, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love from us that is in you,[a] see that you also abound in this grace. [8]I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. [9]For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might become rich. [10]I give a judgment in this: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to start a year ago, not only to do, but also to be willing. [11]But now complete the doing also, that as there was the readiness to be willing, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. [12]For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what you have, not according to what you do not have. [13]For this is not that others may be eased and you distressed, [14]but for equality. Your abundance at this present time supplies their lack, that their abundance also may become a supply for your lack; that there may be equality. [15]As it is written, "He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack."[b]

[16]But thanks be to God, who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. [17]For he indeed accepted our exhortation, but being himself very earnest, he went out to you of his own accord. [18]We have sent together with him the brother whose praise in the Good News is known through all the churches. [19]Not only so, but who was also appointed by the churches to travel with us in this grace, which is served by us to the glory of the Lord himself, and to show our readiness. [20]We are avoiding this, that no one should blame us concerning this abundance which is administered by us. [21]For we have regard for what is honorable, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of others. [22]We have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he has in you. [23]As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you. As for our brothers, they are apostles of the churches, the glory of Christ. [24]Therefore show the proof of your love to them in front of the churches, and of our boasting about you.

9 It is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you concerning the service to the saints, [2]for I know your readiness, of which I boast on your behalf to them of Macedonia, that Achaia has been prepared for a year past. Your zeal has stirred up very many of them. 3But I have sent the brothers that our boasting on your behalf may not be in vain in this respect, that, just as I said, you may be prepared, 4so that I won't by any means, if there come with me any of Macedonia and find you unprepared, we (to say nothing of you) should be disappointed in this confidence[a]. 5I thought it necessary therefore to entreat the brothers that they would go before to you, and arrange ahead of time the generous gift that you promised before, that the same might be ready as a matter of generosity, and not of greediness. 6Remember this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly. He who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. 7Each person should give according as he has determined in his heart; not grudgingly, or under compulsion;

for God loves a cheerful giver.
8And God is able to make all grace abound to you, that you, always having all sufficiency in everything, may abound to every good work. 9As it is written,

"He has scattered, he has given to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever."[b]

10Now[c] he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, will supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness; 11you being enriched in everything to all liberality, which works through us thanksgiving to God. 12For this service of giving that you perform not only makes up for lack among the saints, but abounds also through many thanksgivings to God; 13seeing that through the proof given by this service, they glorify God for the obedience of your confession to the Good News of Christ, and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all; 14while they themselves also, with petition on your behalf, yearn for you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you. 15Thanks[d] be to God for his inexpressible gift.

10 Now I Paul, myself, entreat you by the humility and gentleness of Christ; I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am of good courage toward you. 2But I implore you that when I am present I may not have to be bold with the confidence with which I intend on showing against some, who consider us to be walking according to the flesh. 3For though we walk in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh; 4for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty in God for the tearing down of strongholds, 5throwing down imaginations and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ; 6and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience will be made full. [7]Do you look at things only as they appear in front of your face? If anyone trusts in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ's, so also we are Christ's. [8]For though I should boast somewhat abundantly concerning our authority, (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down) I will not be disappointed, [9]that I may not seem as if I desire to terrify you by my letters. [10]For, "His letters," they say, "are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is despised." [11]Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. [12]For we are not bold to number or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding. [13]But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but within the boundaries with which God appointed to us, which reach even to you. [14]For we do not stretch ourselves too much, as though we did not reach to you. For we came even as far as to you with the Good News of Christ, [15]not boasting excessively in the work done by others, but having hope that as your faith grows, we will be abundantly enlarged by you in our sphere of influence, [16]so as to preach the Good News even to the regions beyond you, not to boast in what someone else has already done. [17]But "he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."[a] [18]For it is not he who commends himself who is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

11 I wish that you would bear with me in a little foolishness, but indeed you do bear with me. [2]For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy. For I married you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Christ. [3]But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve[b] in his craftiness, so your minds might be corrupted from the sincerity and purity[c] that is in Christ. [4]For if he who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if you receive a different spirit, which you did not receive, or a different "good news", which you did not accept, you put up with that well enough. [5]For I reckon that I am not at all behind the very best apostles. [6]Even though I am unskilled in speech, I am not unskilled in knowledge. But in every way we have made this known[a] to you in all things. [7]Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached to you God's Good News free of charge? [8]I robbed other churches, taking wages from them that I might serve you. [9]When I was present with you and was in need, I was not a burden on anyone, for the brothers, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my need. In everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and I will continue to do so. [10]As the truth of Christ is in me, no one will stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. [11]Why? Because I do not love you? God knows. [12]But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them that desire an occasion, that in which they boast, they may be found even as we. [13]For such people are false apostles, deceitful workers, masquerading as Christ's apostles. [14]And no wonder, for even Satan masquerades as an angel of light. [15]It is no great thing therefore if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

[16]I say again, let no one think me foolish. But if so, yet receive me as foolish, that I also may boast a little. [17]That which I speak, I do not speak according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting. [18]Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I will also boast. [19]For you bear with the foolish gladly, being wise. [20]For you put up with it if someone makes slaves of you, if someone exploits you, if someone takes advantage of you, if someone exalts himself, if someone strikes you on the face. [21]I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet however any is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. [22]Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I. [23]Are they servants of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I am more so; in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths often. [24]Five times from the Jews I received forty stripes minus one. [25]Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck. I have been a night and a day in the deep. [26]I have been in travels often, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from my countrymen, perils from those who are not Jews, perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false brothers; [27]in labor and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, and in cold and nakedness.

[28]Besides those things that are outside, there is that which presses on me daily, anxiety for all the churches. [29]Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation? 30If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness. 31The God and Father of the Lord Jesus,[a] he who is blessed forevermore, knows that I do not lie. 32In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king guarded the city of the Damascenes, desiring[b] to arrest me. 33Through a window I was let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

[a]11:6 M TR read "we have been made known" instead of "we have made this known"

12 It is necessary to boast[c], though it is not profitable. But I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. 2I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I do not know, or whether out of the body, I do not know; God knows), such a one was caught up into the third heaven. 3I know such a man (whether in the body, or apart[d] from the body, I do not know; God knows), 4how he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a human to utter. 5On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. 6For if I would desire to boast, I will not be foolish; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, so that no one may think more of me than that which he sees in me, or hears from me. 7And because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations, therefore, to keep me from exalting myself, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to pound away at me, to keep me from exalting myself. 8Concerning this thing, I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might depart from me. 9He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for[e] power is made perfect in weakness." Most gladly therefore I will rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest on me.

10Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake. For when I am weak, then am I strong. 11I have become foolish[f]. You compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you, for in nothing was I inferior to the very best apostles, though I am nothing. 12Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs and wonders and mighty works. 13For what is there in which you were made inferior to the rest of the churches, unless it is that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong.

14 Look, for the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I seek not what is yours, but you. For the children ought not to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. 15 I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? 16 But be it so, I did not myself burden you. But, being crafty, I caught you with deception. 17 Did I take advantage of you by anyone of them whom I have sent to you? 18 I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? Did not we walk in the same spirit? Did not we walk in the same steps? 19 Have you been thinking all this time[a] that we have been defending ourselves before you? In the sight of God we speak in Christ; and all things, beloved, are for your edifying. 20 For I am afraid that by any means, when I come, I might find you not the way I want to, and that I might be found by you as you do not desire; that by any means there would be strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, whisperings, proud thoughts, riots; 21 that again when I come my God would humble me before you, and I would mourn for many of those who have sinned before now, and not repented of the uncleanness and sexual immorality and lustfulness which they committed.

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. "At the mouth of two or three witnesses will every word be established."[b] 2 I have said beforehand, and I do say beforehand, as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent,[c] to those who have sinned before now, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare; 3 seeing that you seek a proof of Christ who speaks in me; who toward you is not weak, but is powerful in you. 4 For indeed[d] he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives through the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him through the power of God toward you. 5 Test your own selves, whether you are in the faith. Test your own selves. Or do you not know as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is[e] in you?—unless indeed you are disqualified. 6 But I hope that you will know that we are not disqualified.

[10]For this cause I write these things while absent, that I may not deal sharply when present, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for tearing down.

[11]Finally, brothers, rejoice. Be perfected, be comforted, be of the same mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. [12]Greet one another with a holy kiss. Galatians

1 Paul, an apostle (not from humans, nor through humans, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead), [2]and all the brothers who are with me, to the churches of Galatia: [3]Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the[c] Lord Jesus Christ, [4]who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father—[5]to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

[6]I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting him who called you by the grace of Christ[d] to a different "good news"; [7]and there is not another "good news." Only there are some who trouble you, and want to pervert the Good News of Christ. [8]But even though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you a "good news" other than that which we preached to you, let him be cursed. [9]As we have said before, so I now say again: if anyone preaches to you a "good news" other than that which you received, let him be cursed. [10]For am I now seeking the favor of people, or of God? Or am I striving to please people? For if I were still pleasing people, I would not be a servant of Christ. [11]But I make known to you, brothers, concerning the Good News which was preached by me, that it is not of human origin. [12]For neither did I receive it from a human, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of Jesus Christ. [13]For you have heard of my former way of life in Judaism,[a] how I severely persecuted the church of God, and tried to destroy it. [14]I advanced in Judaism[b] beyond many of my own age among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. [15]But when God,[c] who had set me apart from my mother's womb, and called me through his grace, was pleased [16]to reveal his Son to me, that I might preach him among those who are not Jewish, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood, [17]nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia. Then I returned to Damascus. [18]Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Cephas[d] and get information from him,[e] and stayed with him fifteen days. [19]But of the other apostles I saw no one, except James, the Lord's brother. [20]Now about the things which I write to you, look, before God, I'm not lying. [21]Then I came to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. [22]I was still unknown by face to the churches of Judea which were in Christ, [23]but they only heard: "He who once persecuted us now preaches the faith that he once tried to destroy." [24]And they glorified God because of me.

2 Then after a period of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. [2]I went up by revelation, and I explained to them the Good News which I preach among those who are not Jewish, but privately before those who were respected, for fear that I might be running, or had run, in vain. [3]But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. [4]This was because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who stole in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage; [5]to whom we gave no place in the way of subjection, not for an hour, that the truth of the Good News might continue with you. [6]But from those who were reputed to be important (whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God shows no favoritism between people)—they, I say, who were respected imparted nothing to me, [7]but to the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcision, even as Peter with the Good News for the circumcision [8](for he who appointed Peter to be an apostle of the circumcision appointed me also to the non-Jews); [9]and when they perceived the grace that was given to me, James and Cephas and John, they who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the non-Jews, and they to the circumcised. [10]They only asked us to remember the poor—which very thing I was also zealous to do.

[11]But when Cephas[a] came to Antioch, I resisted him to his face, because he stood condemned. [12]For before some people came from James, he ate with those who were not Jewish. But when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. [13]And the rest of the Jewish believers joined him in his hypocrisy; so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy. [14]But when I saw that they did not walk uprightly according to the truth of the Good News, I said to Cephas[b] before them all, "If you, being a Jew, live as the non-Jews do, and not as the Jews do, how can you compel the non-Jews to live as the Jews do?

[15]"We, being Jews by birth, and not non-Jewish sinners, [16]yet knowing that no one is justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law, because no flesh will be justified by the works of the law. [17]But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a servant of sin? Certainly not. [18]For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a law-breaker. [19]For I, through the law, died to the law, that I might live to God. [20]I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I that live, but Christ living in me. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me. [21]I do not make void the grace of God. For if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nothing."

3 Foolish Galatians, who has cunningly deceived[c] you,[d] before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly set forth[e] as crucified? [2]I just want to learn this from you. Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? [3]Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now completed in the flesh? [4]Did you suffer so many things in vain, if it is indeed in vain? [5]He therefore who supplies the Spirit to you, and works miracles among you, does he do it by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? [6]Even as Abraham "believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness." 7Know therefore that those who are of faith, the same are sons of Abraham. 8The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the non-Jews by faith, preached the Good News beforehand to Abraham, saying, "Through you all the nations will be blessed."[a] 9So then, those who are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham.

10For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them."[b] 11Now it is evident that no one is justified by the law before God, for, "The righteous will live by faith."[c] 12The law is not of faith, but, "The one who does them will live by them."[d] 13Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree,"[e] 14that the blessing of Abraham might come on the non-Jews through Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. 15Brothers, I am speaking in human terms.
Though it is only a human covenant, once it has been ratified, no one annuls it or adds to it. 16Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his offspring.[f] He does not say, "And to offsprings," as of many, but as of one, "And to your offspring,"[g] which is Christ.
17Now I say this: the law, which came four hundred thirty years later, does not annul a covenant previously ratified by God,[h] so as to cancel the promise. 18For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by promise.

19What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the offspring should come to whom the promise has been made.
It was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator. 20Now a mediator is not between one, but God is one. 21Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not.
For if there had been a law given which could give life, most certainly righteousness would have been of the law. 22But the Scriptures imprisoned all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. 23But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, confined for the faith which should afterwards be revealed. 24So that the law was our guardian to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. 25But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian. 26For you are all sons of God, through faith in Christ Jesus. 27For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. 28There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. [29]If you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring and heirs according to promise.

4 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, though he is lord of all; [2]but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed by the father. [3]So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elemental principles of the world. [4]But when the fullness of the time came, God sent out his Son, born to a woman, born under the law, [5]that he might redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive the adoption as sons. [6]And because you are sons, God sent out the Spirit of his Son into our[a] hearts, crying, "Abba, Father." [7]So you are no longer a slave, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God[b]. [8]However at that time, not knowing God, you were slaves to those who by nature are not gods. [9]But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, why do you turn back again to the weak and miserable elemental principles, to which you desire to be enslaved all over again? [10]You observe days, months, seasons, and years. [11]I am afraid for you, that I might have wasted my labor for you. [12]I beg you, brothers, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You did me no wrong, [13]but you know that in physical weakness I preached the Good News to you the first time; [14]and though my condition was a trial to you, you did not despise nor reject; but you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

[15]Where was the blessing you enjoyed? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. [16]So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth? [17]They zealously seek you, but for no good purpose; they desire to alienate you, that you may be zealous for them. [18]But it is always good to be zealous in a good cause, and not only when I am present with you.

[19]My children,[c] of whom I am again in travail until Christ is formed in you—[20]but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone, for I am perplexed about you. [21]Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, do you not listen to the law? [22]For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman, and one by the free woman. [23]However, the son by the slave woman was born according to the flesh, but the son by the free woman was born through promise. [24]These things contain an allegory, for these are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children to slavery, which is Hagar. [25]For this Hagar is

"Rejoice, you barren who do not bear.
Break forth and shout, you that do not travail.
For more are the children of the desolate than of her who has a husband."[b]

28Now you,[c] brothers, as Isaac was, are children of promise. 29But as then, he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. 30However what does the Scripture say? "Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman will not inherit with the son" of the free woman.[d] 31So then, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

5 Stand firm therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage. 2Listen, I, Paul, tell you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. 3Yes, I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. 4You are alienated from Christ, you who desire to be justified by the law. You have fallen away from grace. 5For we, through the Spirit, by faith wait for the hope of righteousness. 6For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision amounts to anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love. 7You were running well. Who interfered with you that you should not obey the truth? 8This persuasion is not from him who calls you. 9A little yeast grows through the whole lump. 10I have confidence toward you in the Lord that you will think no other way. But he who troubles you will bear his judgment, whoever he is.

11But I, brothers, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling block of the cross has been removed. 12I wish that those who disturb you would cut themselves off. 13For you, brothers, were called for freedom. Only do not use your freedom for gain to the flesh, but through love be servants to one another. 14For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in this: "You are to love your neighbor as yourself."[e] 15But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you do not consume one another. 16But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not carry out the desires of the flesh. 17For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, that you may not do the things that you desire. 18But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

19Now the works of the flesh are obvious, which are:[a] sexual immorality, uncleanness, lustfulness, 20idolatry, sorcery, hatred, strife, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, divisions, heresies, 21envyings, murders,[b] drunkenness, orgies, and things like these; of which I forewarn you, even as I also forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.
22But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23gentleness, and self-control.
Against such things there is no law.
24Those who belong to Christ[c] have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts. 25If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. 26Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, and envying one another.

6 Brothers, even if someone is caught in some wrongdoing, you who are spiritual must restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to yourself so that you also are not tempted. 2Bear one another's burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ. 3For if anyone thinks himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself. 4But let each one test his own work, and then he will take pride in himself and not in his neighbor. 5For every person will bear his own load. 6But let him who is taught in the word share all good things with him who teaches. 7Do not be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a person sows, that he will also reap. 8For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption. But he who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap everlasting life. 9Let us not be weary in doing good, for we will reap in due season, if we do not give up. 10So then, as we have opportunity, let us do what is good toward all people, and especially toward those who are of the household of the faith.

11See with what large letters I write to you with my own hand.
12As many as desire to make a good showing in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. 13For even they who receive circumcision do not keep the law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh. 14But far be it from me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

Ephesians

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints in Ephesus who are faithful in Christ Jesus: 2Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ; 4even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and without blemish before him in love; 5having predestined us for adoption as sons through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his desire, 6to the praise of the glory of his grace,[c] which he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved One, 7in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, 8which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, 9making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in him 10to an administration of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth, in him; 11in whom also we were assigned an inheritance, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who works all things after the counsel of his will;
12to the end that we should be to the praise of his glory, we who had before hoped in Christ: 13in whom you also, having heard the word of the truth, the Good News of your salvation,—in whom, having also believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, 14who is a pledge of our inheritance, to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of his glory. 15For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is among you, and the love which you have toward all the saints, 16do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers, 17that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him; 18having the eyes of your heart enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, 19and what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to that working of the strength of his might 20which he worked in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places, 21far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come. 22He put[a] all things under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things for the church, 23which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

2 You were made alive when you were dead in your[b] transgressions and sins, 2in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience; 3among whom we also all once lived in the lust of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest.
4But God, being rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us, 5even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ[c] (by grace you have been saved), 6and raised us up with him, and made us to sit with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, 7that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus; 8for by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, 9not of works, that no one would boast. 10For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared before that we would walk in them.

11Therefore remember that once you, the non-Jews in the flesh, who are called "uncircumcision" by that which is called "circumcision," (in the flesh, made by hands); 12that you were at that time separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and foreigners to the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world. 13But now in Christ Jesus you who formerly were far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ.
14For he is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of partition, 15having abolished in the flesh the hostility, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man of the two, making peace; [16]and might reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, by which he put to death their enmity. [17]He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace[a] to those who were near. [18]For through him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father. [19]So then you are no longer foreigners and noncitizens, but you[b] are fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God, [20]being built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief cornerstone; [21]in whom the whole building, fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord; [22]in whom you also are built together for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

3 For this cause I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you the non-Jews, [2]if it is so that you have heard of the administration of that grace of God which was given me toward you; [3]how that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I wrote before in few words, [4]by which, when you read, you can perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ; [5]which in other generations was not made known to people,[c] as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit; [6]that the non-Jews are fellow heirs, and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the[d] promise in Christ Jesus through the Good News, [7]of which I was made a servant, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me according to the working of his power. [8]To me, the very least of all saints, was this grace given, to proclaim to the non-Jews the unsearchable riches of Christ, [9]and to bring to light for all what is the administration[e] of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in God, who created all things[f]; [10]to the intent that now through the church the manifold wisdom of God might be made known to the rulers and the authorities in the heavenly places, [11]according to the purpose of the ages which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord; [12]in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through our faith in him. [13]Therefore I ask that you not be discouraged because of my sufferings for you, which is your glory.

[14]For this cause, I bow my knees before the Father,[g] [15]from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, [16]that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that you may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inner person; [17]that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that you, being rooted and grounded in love, [18]may be strengthened to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, [19]and to know Christ's love which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. [20]Now to him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, [21]to him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.

4 I therefore, a prisoner in the Lord, urge you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, [2]with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love; [3]being eager to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. [4]There is one body, and one Spirit, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling; [5]one Lord, one faith, one baptism, [6]one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in[a] all. [7]But to each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
[8]Therefore he says, "When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, and[b] gave gifts to people."[c] [9]Now this, "He ascended," what is it but that he also[d] descended into the lower parts of the earth? [10]He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.

[11]He gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; [12]for the perfecting of the saints, to the work of serving, to the building up of the body of Christ; [13]until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature person, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; [14]that we may no longer be children, tossed back and forth and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of people, by cleverness in deceitful schemes; [15]but speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all things into him, who is the head, Christ; [16]from whom all the body, being fitted and knit together through that which every joint supplies, according to the proper working of each individual part, makes the body increase to the building up of itself in love.

[17]This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you no longer walk as the nations also walk, in the futility of their mind, understanding, alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their hearts; [19]who having become callous gave themselves up to lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness. [20]But you did not learn Christ that way; [21]if indeed you heard him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus: [22]that you put away, as concerning your former way of life, the old self, that grows corrupt after the lusts of deceit; [23]and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind, [24]and put on the new self, who in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

[25]Therefore, putting away falsehood, speak truth each one with his neighbor. For we are members of one another. [26]"Be angry, but do not sin."[a] Do not let the sun go down on your anger, [27]neither give place to the devil. [28]Let him who stole steal no more; but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing that is good, that he may have something to give to him who has need. [29]Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for building up as the need may be, that it may give grace to those who hear. [30]Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. [31]Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outcry,[b] and slander, be put away from you, with all malice. [32]And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, just as God also in Christ forgave you[c].

5 Be therefore imitators of God, as beloved children. [2]And walk in love, even as Christ also loved us,[d] and gave himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling fragrance. [3]But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be mentioned among you, as becomes saints; [4]nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not appropriate; but rather giving of thanks.

[5]Know this for sure, that no sexually immoral or impure or greedy person, that is, an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God.

[6]Let no one deceive you with empty words. For because of these things, the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience. [7]Therefore do not be partakers with them. [8]For you were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord. Walk as children of light, [9]for the fruit of the light[e] is in all goodness and righteousness and truth, [10]proving what is well pleasing to the Lord. [11]Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even reprove them. [12]For the things which are done by them in secret, it is a shame even to speak of. [13]But all things, when they are reproved, are revealed by the light, for everything that reveals is light. [14]Therefore he says, "Awake, you who sleep, and rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you."

[15]Therefore watch carefully how you walk, not as unwise, but as wise; [16]redeeming the time, because the days are evil. [17]Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. [18]Do not get drunk with wine, which is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, [19]speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making music in your heart to the Lord; [20]giving thanks always concerning all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father; [21]subjecting yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ[a].

[22]Wives, submit to your husbands as to the Lord. [23]For the husband is the head of the wife, and Christ also is the head of the church, being himself the savior of the body. [24]But as the church is subject to Christ, so let the wives also be to their own husbands in everything.

[25]Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself up for it; [26]that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word, [27]that he might present the church to himself gloriously, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. [28]Even so husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself. [29]For no one ever hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ[b] also does the church; [30]because we are members of his body, of his flesh and of his bones.[c] [31]"For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh."[d] [32]This mystery

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. [2]"Honor your father and mother," which is the first commandment with a promise: [3]"that it may be well with you, and that you may live long in the land."[a]

[4]And fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but nurture them in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

[5]Servants, be obedient to those who according to the flesh are your masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ; [6]not in the way of service only when eyes are on you, as people-pleasers; but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; [7]with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to people; [8]knowing that whatever good thing each one does, he will receive the same again from the Lord, whether he is bound or free.

[12]For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world's rulers of this darkness,[d] and against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places. [13]Therefore, put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand. [14]Stand therefore, having the belt of truth buckled around your waist, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, [15]and having fitted your feet with the preparation of the Good News of peace; [16]above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. Philippians

1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus;[b] To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers and deacons: 2Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3I thank my God whenever I remember you, 4always in every prayer of mine for all of you, making my requests with joy, 5for your partnership in the Good News from the first day until now; 6being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of Christ Jesus. 7It is even right for me to think this way about all of you, because I have you in my heart, because, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the Good News, you all are partakers with me of grace. 8For God is my witness, how I long after all of you in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus.

9This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; 10so that you may approve the things that are excellent; that you may be pure and blameless for the Day of Christ; 11being filled with the fruit[c] of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

12Now I desire to have you know, brothers, that the things which happened to me have turned out rather to the progress of the Good News; 13so that it became evident to the whole praetorian guard, and to all the rest, that my bonds are in Christ; 14and that most of the brothers in the Lord, being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word[d] without fear. 15Some indeed preach Christ even out of envy and strife, and some also out of good will. [16]The latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the Good News. [17]The former insincerely preach Christ from selfish ambition, thinking that they add affliction to my chains.

[18]What does it matter? Only that in every way, whether out of false motives or in truth, Christ is proclaimed. I rejoice in this, yes, and will rejoice. [19]For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance, through your petition and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, [20]according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will in no way be disappointed, but with all boldness, as always, now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death. [21]For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. [22]But if I live on in the flesh, this will bring fruit from my work; yet I do not make known what I will choose. [23]But I am in a dilemma between the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. [24]Yet, to remain in the flesh is more needful for your sake. [25]And since I am persuaded of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith, [26]that your rejoicing may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again.

[27]Only let your manner of life be worthy of the Good News of Christ, that, whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your state, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving for the faith of the Good News; [28]and in nothing frightened by the adversaries, which is for them a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that from God. [29]Because it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on his behalf, [30]having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear is in me.

2 If there is therefore any exhortation in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender mercies and compassion, [2]make my joy full, by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind; [3]doing nothing through rivalry or through conceit, but in humility, each counting others better than himself; [4]each of you not just looking to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others.

[5]Have this in your attitude, which was also in Christ Jesus, [6]who, existing in the form of God, did not consider equality with God a thing to be grasped, [7]but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness 1241 lat {two lat} vg syr(p) sa bo arm eth geo goth; Cl) add “of God” of men. [8]And being found in human form, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, yes, the death of the cross. [9]Therefore God also highly exalted him, and gave to him the name which is above every name; [10]that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, those on earth, and those under the earth, [11]and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord[a], to the glory of God the Father.

[12]So then, my beloved, even as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with awe and reverence. [13]For it is God who works in you both to will and to work, for his good pleasure. [14]Do everything without complaining or arguing, [15]that you may be blameless and pure, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you are seen as lights in the world, [16]holding up the word of life; that I may have something to boast in the day of Christ, that I did not run in vain nor labor in vain. [17]Yes, and if I am poured out on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and rejoice with you all. [18]In the same way, you also rejoice, and rejoice with me.

[19]But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered up when I know how you are doing. [20]For I have no one else like-minded, who will truly care about you. [21]For they all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. [22]But you know the proof of him, that, as a child serves a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the Good News.
[23]Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it will go with me. [24]But I trust in the Lord that I myself also will come shortly.
[25]But I counted it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, fellow soldier, and your apostle and servant of my need; [26]since he longed for you all, and was very troubled, because you had heard that he was sick. [27]For indeed he was sick, nearly to death, but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. [28]I have sent him all the more eagerly, therefore, so that when you see him again you may rejoice, and that I may be less anxious. [29]Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy, and hold such in honor, [30]because for the work of Christ he came near to death, risking[b] his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

3 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you is no trouble to me, and is a safeguard for you. [2]Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision. 3For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh; 4though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If anyone else thinks that he has confidence in the flesh, I yet more: 5circumcised the eighth day, of the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee; 6concerning zeal, persecuting the church; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless.

7However, what things were gain to me, these have I counted loss for Christ. 8More than that, I count all things to be a loss compared to the far greater value of knowing Christ Jesus, my Lord, for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and count them nothing but refuse, that I may gain Christ 9and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith; 10that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed to his death; 11if by any means I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. 12Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect; but I press on, if it is so that I may take hold of that for which also I was taken hold of by Christ Jesus.[a]

13Brothers, I do not regard myself as having taken hold of it, but one thing I do. Forgetting the things which are behind, and reaching forward to the things which are ahead, 14I press on toward the goal for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. 15Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, think this way. If in anything you think otherwise, God will also reveal that to you. 16Nevertheless, to what we have attained, let us walk by the same rule, being of the same mind.[b] 17Brothers, be imitators together of me, and note those who walk this way, even as you have us for an example. 18For many, of whom I have often told you, and now tell you with tears, live as enemies of the cross of Christ, 19whose end is they labored with me in the Good

4Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, Rejoice. 5Let your gentleness be evident to all people.
The Lord is near. 6Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. 7And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

8Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think on these things. 9And the things you learned and received and heard and saw in me, do these things. And the God of peace will be with you. 10Now I rejoice in the Lord greatly that at last you have revived your concern for me; in which you were indeed concerned, but you lacked opportunity. 11I'm not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content in any circumstance. 12I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have a lot. In any and all circumstances I have learned the secret, whether full or hungry, whether having a lot or being in need 13I can do all things through him[a] who strengthens me.
14Still, you have done well to share my hardship. 15And you Philippians yourselves know that in the beginning of the Good News, when I departed from Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you only. 16For even in Thessalonica you sent me aid

I seek the fruit that increases to your account. 18But I have received

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, 2to the saints and faithful brothers in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.[c]

3We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, 4having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have toward all the saints, 5because of the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, of which you heard before in the word of truth, the Good News, 6which has come to you; even as it is in all the world and is bearing fruit and growing, as it does in you also, since the day you heard and knew the grace of God in truth; 7even as you learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on our[d] behalf, 8who also declared to us your love in the Spirit. 9For this cause, we also, since the day we heard this, do not cease praying and making requests for you, that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10that you may walk worthily of the Lord,[e] to please him in every way, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; 11strengthened with all power, according to the might of his glory, for all endurance and perseverance with joy; 12giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you[f] to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light; 13who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and transferred us into the kingdom of the Son of his love; [14]in whom we have our redemption,[a] the forgiveness of our sins; [15]who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. [16]For by him all things were created, in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities; all things have been created by him and for[b] him. [17]He is before all things, and in him all things are held together. [18]He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead;[c] that in all things he might have the preeminence. [19]For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in him, [20]and through him to reconcile all things to himself, making peace through the blood of his cross through him,[d] whether things on the earth or things in heaven.

[21]You, who once were alienated and were hostile in your minds, doing evil deeds, [22]yet now he has reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without blemish and blameless before him, [23]if it is so that you continue in the faith, established and firm, and not moved away from the hope of the Good News which you heard, which is being proclaimed[e] in all creation under heaven; of which I, Paul, have become a servant.

[24]Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and I am completing in my flesh what is lacking in the sufferings of Christ for the sake of his body, which is the church; [25]of which I was made a servant, according to the stewardship of God which was given me toward you, to fulfill the word of God, [26]the mystery which has been hidden for ages and generations. But now it has been revealed to his saints. [27]To them God was pleased to make known the glorious riches of this mystery among the non-Jews, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory; [28]whom we proclaim, admonishing everyone and teaching everyone all wisdom, that we may present everyone perfect in Christ Jesus; [29]for which I also labor, struggling according to his power, which works in me mightily.

those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; 2that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and gaining all riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God,[a] namely, Christ, 3in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden. 4Now this I say that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech. 5For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. 6As therefore you received Christ Jesus, the Lord, walk in him, 7rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it[b] with thanksgiving. 8Be careful not to allow anyone to captivate you through an empty and deceptive philosophy, according to human tradition, according to the elementary principles of the world, and not according to Christ. 9For in him all the fullness of Deity dwells in bodily form, 10and in him you are made full, who is the head of all principality and power; 11in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of[c] the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ; 12having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. 13You were dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh. He made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, 14wiping out the handwriting in ordinances which was against us; and he has taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; 15having disarmed the rulers and authorities, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16Therefore do not let anyone judge you about food and drink, or with respect to a feast day or a new moon or a Sabbath day, 17which are a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's. 18Let no one rob you of your prize by a voluntary humility and worshipping of the angels, dwelling in the things which he has[d] seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, 19and not holding firmly to the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and ligaments, grows with God's growth. 20If you died with Christ from the elementary principles of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject not on the things that are on the impurity, lust, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry.

[6]Because of these, the wrath of God is coming on the children of disobedience.[b] [7]You also once them; [8]but now you also put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and shameful speaking out heart of compassion, kindness, gentleness, humility, and patience; [13]bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as the Lord[c] forgave you, so you also do.

[14]Above all these things, walk in love, which is the bond of perfection. [15]And let the peace of Christ[d] rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. [16]Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your heart to God[e].

[17]Whatever you do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father, through him.

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace[e].

[2]We always give thanks to God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers, [3]remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father. [4]We know, brothers loved by God, that you are chosen, [5]and that our Good News came to you not in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and with much assurance. You know what kind of persons we showed ourselves to be among you for your sake. [6]You became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit, [7]so that you became an example to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. [8]For from you the word of the Lord has been declared, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone out; so that we do not need to say anything. [9]For they themselves report concerning us what kind of a reception we had from you; and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, [10]and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who delivers us from the wrath to come.

2 For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit to you was not in vain, [2]but having suffered before and been shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi, we grew bold in our God to tell you the Good News of God in much conflict. [3]For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in deception. [4]But even as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News, so we speak; not as pleasing people, but God, who tests our hearts. [5]For neither were we at any time found using words of flattery, as you know, nor with a pretext for greed (God is witness), [6]nor seeking glory from people (neither from you nor from others), when we might have claimed authority as apostles of Christ. [7]But we were gentle[a] among you, like a nursing mother cherishes her own children.

[8]Even so, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you, not the Good News of God only, but also our own souls, because you had become very dear to us. [9]For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail; for working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached to you the Good News of God. [10]You are witnesses with God, how holy, righteously, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves toward you who believe. [11]As you know, as a father with his own children, [12]we exhorted, comforted, and implored every one of you to lead a life worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory. [13]For this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that, when you received from us the word of the message of God, you accepted it not as a human word, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also works in you who believe. [14]For you, brothers, became imitators of the churches of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they did from the Judeans; [15]who killed both the Lord Jesus and the[b] prophets, and drove us out, and did not please God, and are hostile to all people; [16]forbidding us to speak to those who are not Jewish that they may be saved; to fill up their sins always. But wrath has come on them to the uttermost.

[17]But we, brothers, being bereaved of you for a short season, in presence, not in heart, tried even harder to see your face with great desire, [18]because we wanted to come to you—indeed, I, Paul, once and again—but Satan hindered us. [19]For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is it not even you, before our Lord Jesus[c] at his coming? [20]For you are our glory and our joy.

3 Therefore, when we could not stand it any longer, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone, [2]and sent Timothy, our brother and God's fellow worker[a] in the Good News of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; 3that no one be moved by these afflictions. For you know that we are appointed to this task. 4For truly, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we are to suffer affliction, even as it happened, and you know. 5For this cause I also, when I could not stand it any longer, sent that I might know your faith, for fear that by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor would have been in vain. 6But when Timothy came just now to us from you, and brought us glad news of your faith and love, and that you have good memories of us always, longing to see us, even as we also long to see you; 7for this cause, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith. 8For now we live, since you stand firm[b] in the Lord. 9For what thanksgiving can we render again to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God; 10night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith? 11Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus,[c] direct our way to you; 12and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love for one another and for all,, even as we also do toward you, 13to the end he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

4 Finally then, brothers, we ask and urge you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to live and to please God, even as you are living[d], that you excel more and more. 2For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. 3For this is the will of God: your sanctification, that you abstain from sexual immorality, 4that each one of you know how to possess himself of his own vessel in sanctification and honor, 5not in the passion of lust, even as the nations who do not know God; 6that no one should take advantage of and wrong a brother or sister in this matter; because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we forewarned you and testified. 7For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification. 8Therefore he who rejects this does not reject man, but God, who has also given his Holy Spirit to you.

9But concerning brotherly love, you have no need that one write to you. For you yourselves are taught by God to love one another, 10for indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brothers, that you abound more and more; [11]and that you make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, even as we instructed you; [12]that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and may have need of nothing.

[13]But we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you do not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. [14]For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus. [15]For this we tell you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left to the coming of the Lord, will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep. [16]For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with God's trumpet. The dead in Christ will rise first, [17]then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together[a] with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. So we will be with the Lord forever. [18]Therefore comfort one another with these words.

5 But concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that anything be written to you. [2]For you yourselves know well that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the night. [3]Now[b] when they are saying, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction will come on them, like birth pains on a pregnant woman; and they will in no way escape. [4]But you, brothers, are not in darkness, that the day should overtake you like a thief. [5]You are all sons of light, and sons of the day. We do not belong to the night, nor to darkness, [6]so then let us not sleep, as the rest do, but let us watch and be sober. [7]For those who sleep, sleep in the night, and those who are drunk are drunk in the night. [8]But let us, since we belong to the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and, for a helmet, the hope of salvation. [9]For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, [10]who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. [11]Therefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as you also do. [12]But we ask you, brothers, to recognize those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you, [13]and to respect and honor them in love for their work's sake.

Be at peace among yourselves. [14]We exhort you, which you endure. 5This is an obvious sign of the righteous judgment of God, to the end that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer. 6Since it is a righteous thing with God to repay affliction to those who afflict you, 7and to give relief to you who are afflicted with us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, 8giving vengeance to those who do not know God, and to those who do not obey the Good News of our Lord Jesus, 9who will pay the penalty: everlasting destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might, 10when he comes to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at among all those who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed.

11To this end we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith, with power; 12that the name of our Lord Jesus[a] may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Now, brothers, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our gathering together to him, we ask you 2not to be quickly shaken in your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as from us, saying that the day of the Lord[b] had come. 3Let no one deceive you in any way. For it will not be, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness[c] is revealed, the son of destruction, 4he who opposes and exalts himself against all that is called God or that is worshiped; so that he sits[d] in the temple of God, setting himself up as God. 5Do you not remember that, when I was still with you, I told you these things? 6Now you know what is restraining him, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season. 7For the mystery of lawlessness already works. Only there is one who restrains now, until he is taken out of the way. 8Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord[e] will kill with the breath of his mouth, and destroy by the manifestation of his coming; 9even he whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, 10and with all deception of wickedness for those who are perishing, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11And because of this, God sends them a strong delusion,[a] that they should believe the lie, 12in order that all might be judged who did not believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. 13But we are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers loved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning[b] for salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth; 14to which he called you through our Good News, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15So then, brothers, stand firm, and hold the traditions which you were taught by us, whether by word, or by letter.

16Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us everlasting comfort and good hope through grace, 17comfort your hearts and establish you in every good work and word.

3 Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified, even as also with you; 2and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil people; for not all have faith. 3But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you, and guard you from the evil one. 4We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you both do and will do the things we command. 5May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.

6Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks in an undisciplined life, and not after the tradition which they received from us. 7For you know how you ought to imitate us. For we were not undisciplined among you, 8neither did we eat bread from anyone's hand without paying for it, but in labor and travail worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you; 9not because we do not have the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, that you should imitate us. 10For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: "If anyone will not work, neither let him eat." 11For we hear that some among you are living an undisciplined life, who do not work at all, but are busybodies. 12Now those who are that way, we command and exhort in the[c] Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God our Savior, and Christ Jesus our hope; 2to Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the[b] Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3As I urged you when I was going into Macedonia, stay at Ephesus that you might command certain people not to teach a different doctrine, 4neither to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which cause speculation,[c] rather than God's stewardship, which is in faith—5but the goal of this command is love, out of a pure heart and a good conscience and unfeigned faith; 6from which things some, having missed the mark, have turned aside to vain talking; 7desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor about what they strongly affirm. 8But we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully, 9as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous person, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who kill their father or mother, for murderers, 10for the sexually immoral, for men who have sexual relations with men,[d] for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers, and for whatever else is contrary to sound teaching; 11according to the Good News of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. 12And I thank him who enabled me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he counted me faithful, appointing me to service; 13although I was before a blasphemer, a persecutor, and insolent. However, I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. 14The grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
15The saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. 16However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Jesus Christ might display all his patience, for an example of those who were going to believe in him for everlasting life. 17Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God[a], be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

18This instruction I commit to you, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies which led the way to you, that by them you may wage the good warfare; 19holding faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust away made a shipwreck concerning the faith;
20of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I delivered to Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

2 I exhort therefore, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings, be made for all people: 2for kings and all who are in high places; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and reverence. 3For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior; 4who desires all people to be saved and come to full knowledge of the truth. 5For there is one God, and one mediator between God and humanity, a human, Christ Jesus, 6who gave himself as a ransom for all; the testimony in its own times; 7to which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I am telling the truth[b], I am not lying), a teacher of the non-Jews in faith and truth.

8I desire therefore that the men in every place pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and doubting. 9In the same way, that women also adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and propriety; not just with braided hair, gold, pearls, or expensive clothing; 10but (which becomes women professing godliness) with good works. 11Let a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. 12But I do not permit a woman to teach or to exercise authority over a man, but to be in quietness. 13For Adam was first formed, then Eve[c].
14Adam was not deceived, but the woman, being deceived, has fallen into disobedience; 15but she will be delivered[d] through the childbirth, if they continue in faith and love and holiness, with self-control.

3 This is a faithful saying:
If someone aspires to the office of bishop, he desires a good work. 2The bishop, therefore, must be beyond criticism, the husband of one wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, good at teaching; 3not a drunkard, not violent,[e] but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money; 4one who rules his own house well, having children in subjection with all reverence; 5(but if someone does not know how to manage his own house, how will he take care of the church of God?) 6not a new convert, lest being puffed up he fall into the same condemnation as the devil. 7Moreover he must have good testimony from those who are outside, to avoid falling into disgrace and the trap of the devil.

8Deacons, in the same way, must be reverent, not double-tongued, not devoted to a lot of wine, not greedy for money; 9holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 10Let them also first be tested; then let them serve as deacons, if they are blameless. 11Their wives in the same way must be reverent, not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things. 12Let deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. 13For those who have served well as deacons gain for themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly; 15but if I wait long, that you may know how people ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 16Without controversy, the mystery of godliness is great:
He[a] was revealed in the flesh, justified by the Spirit,
seen by angels,
preached among the nations,
believed on in the world,
and received up in glory.

4 But the Spirit says expressly that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, 2through the hypocrisy of liars, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; 3forbidding marriage and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. 4For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it is received with thanksgiving. 5For it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer. 6If you instruct the brothers of these things, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which you have followed. 7But refuse profane and old wives' tales. Exercise yourself toward godliness. 8For bodily exercise has some value, but godliness has value in all things, having the promise of the life which is now, and of that which is to come. 9This saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance. 10For to this end we both labor and strive[a], because we have set our trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe. 11Command and teach these things.

12Let no one despise your youth; but be an example to those who believe, in word, in your way of life, in love,[b] in faith, and in purity. 13Until I come, pay attention to reading, to exhortation, and to teaching. 14Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the elders. 15Be diligent in these things. Give yourself wholly to them, that your progress may be revealed to all. 16Pay attention to yourself, and to your teaching. Continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

5 Do not rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brothers; 2the older women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. 3Honor widows who are widows indeed. 4But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety towards their own family, and to repay their parents, for this is[c] acceptable in the sight of God. 5Now she who is a widow indeed, and desolate, has her hope set on God, and continues in petitions and prayers night and day. 6But she who gives herself to pleasure is dead while she lives. 7Also command these things, so that they will be without fault. 8But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. 9Let no one be enrolled as a widow under sixty years old, having been the wife of one man, 10being approved by good works, if she has brought up children, if she has been hospitable to strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, and if she has diligently followed every good work.

11But refuse younger widows, for whenever their passions lead them away from Christ, they desire to marry; 12having condemnation, because they have rejected their first pledge. 13Besides, they also learn to be idle, going about from house to house. Not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not. 14I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, and give no occasion to the adversary for reviling. 15For already some have turned aside after Satan. 16If any believing woman has widows, she must assist them, and do not let the church be burdened; that it might help those widows who are truly in need.

17 Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in teaching. 18 For the Scripture says, "Do not muzzle the ox when it treads out the grain."[a]
And, "The laborer is worthy of his wages."[b]
19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder, except at the word of two or three witnesses. 20 Those who sin, reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear. 21 I command you in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the chosen angels, that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. 22 Do not ordain[c] anyone hastily, nor participate in the sins of others.
Keep yourself pure. 23 Be no longer a drinker of water only, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are evident, preceding them to judgment, and some also follow later. 25 In the same way also there are good works that are obvious, and those that are otherwise cannot be hidden.

6 Let as many as are slaves under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the doctrine not be blasphemed. 2 Those who have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brothers, but rather let them serve them, because those who partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. Teach and exhort these
things.

3 If anyone teaches a different doctrine, and does not consent to sound words, the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, 4 he is conceited, knowing nothing, but obsessed with arguments, disputes, and word battles, from which come envy, strife, reviling, evil suspicions, 5 constant friction of people of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain.[d]

6 But godliness with contentment is great gain. 7 For we brought nothing into the world, so[e] neither can we carry anything out.
8 But having food and clothing, we will be content with that. 9 But those who are determined to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful lusts, such as plunge people into ruin and destruction. 10 For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil.
Some have been led astray from the [11]But you, man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. [12]Fight the good fight of faith. Lay hold of the everlasting life to which you were called, and you confessed the good confession in the sight of many witnesses. [13]I command you before God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate testified the good confession,[a] [14]that you keep the commandment without spot, blameless, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ; [15]which in its own times he will show, who is the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; [16]who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light; whom no human has seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and eternal power. Amen.

[17]Charge those who are rich in this present world that they not be haughty, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on [b]God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy; [18]that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to communicate; [19]laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold of that which is truly life[c].

2Timothy

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus[e] through the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in Christ Jesus, [2]to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

[3]I thank God, whom I serve as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience. How unceasing is my memory of you in my petitions, night and day [4]longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy; [5]having been reminded of the unfeigned faith that is in you; which lived first in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice[a], and, I am persuaded, in you also.

6For this cause, I remind you that you should stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. 7For God did not give us a spirit of fear, but of power and love and of a sound mind.[b] 8Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but endure hardship for the Good News according to the power of God, 9who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before time began, 10but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News. 11For this, I was appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher[c]. 12For this cause I also suffer these things.

Yet I am not ashamed, for I know him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard that which I have committed to him against that day.

13Hold the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 14That good thing which was committed to you, guard through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

15This you know, that all who are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. 16May the Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain, 17but when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and found me 18(the Lord grant to him to find the Lord's mercy in that day); and in how many things he served at Ephesus, you know very well.

2 You therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful people, who will be able to teach others also. 3You therefore must share in hardship, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. 4No soldier on duty entangles himself in the affairs of life, that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. 5Also, if anyone competes in athletics, he is not crowned unless he has competed by the rules. 6The farmers who labor must be the first to get a share of the crops. 7Consider what I say, for the Lord will give[d] you understanding in all things.

[8]Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, a descendant of David, according to my Good News, [9]in which I suffer hardship to the point of chains as a criminal.
But God's word is not chained.
[10]Therefore I endure all things for the chosen ones' sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with everlasting glory. [11]This saying is faithful:
"For if we died with him,
we will also live with him.
[12]If we endure,
we will also reign with him.
If we deny him,
he also will deny us.
[13]If we are faithless, he remains faithful,
for he cannot deny himself."

[14]Remind them of these things, charging them in the presence of God,[a] not to wrangle about words, to no profit, to the subverting of those who hear.

[15]Do your best to present yourself approved by God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, properly handling the word of truth. [16]But shun empty chatter, for they will proceed further in ungodliness, [17]and their word will consume like gangrene,
of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; [18]who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is already past, and overthrowing the faith of some.
[19]However God's firm foundation stands, having this seal, "The Lord knows those who are his,"[b] and,
"Let every one who names the name of the Lord[c] depart from unrighteousness." [20]Now in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay. Some are for honor, and some for dishonor. [21]If anyone therefore purges himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, and suitable for the master's use, prepared for every good work.

[22]Flee from youthful lusts;
but pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
[23]But refuse foolish and ignorant questionings, knowing that they generate strife. [24]The Lord's servant must not quarrel, but be gentle towards all, able to teach, patient, [25]in gentleness correcting those who oppose him: perhaps God may give them repentance leading to a full knowledge of the truth, [26]and they may recover themselves out of the devil's snare, having been taken captive by him to his will.

the last days terrible times will come. [2]For

Turn away from these, also. [6]For among them are those who crawl into households and take captive weak-willed women weighed down with sins, led away by various passions and pleasures,[a] [7]always learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. [8]Even as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so do these also oppose the truth; people corrupted in mind, disapproved concerning the faith. [9]But they will proceed no further. For their folly will be evident to all, as theirs also was. [10]But you did follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, steadfastness, [11]persecutions, and sufferings: those things that happened to me at Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. I endured those persecutions. Out of them all the Lord delivered me. [12]Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. [13]But evil people and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. [14]But you remain in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them. [15]From infancy, you have known the holy Scriptures which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith, which is in Christ Jesus. [16]All Scripture is God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, [17]that the person of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

4 I command you therefore before God and Christ Jesus,[b] who will judge the living and the dead, and by[c] his appearing and his kingdom: [2]preach the word; be urgent in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with all patience and teaching. [3]For the time will come when they will not listen to the sound doctrine, but, having itching ears, will heap up for themselves teachers after their own lusts; [4]and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside to myths. [5]But you be sober in all things, endure hardship,[d] do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

[5]I left you in Crete for this reason, that you would set in order the things that were lacking, and appoint elders in every city, as I directed you; [6]if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, who are not accused of loose or unruly behavior. [7]For the bishop must be blameless, as God's steward; not self-pleasing, not easily angered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain; [8]but given to hospitality, as a lover of good, sober minded, fair, holy, self-controlled; [9]holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict those who contradict him.
[10]For there are many rebellious people, empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, [11]whose mouths must be silenced; who are upsetting whole families, teaching things which they should not, for the sake of dishonest gain. [12]One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, and idle gluttons." [13]This testimony is true. For this cause, reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, [14]not paying attention to Jewish myths and commandments of people who reject the truth. [15]To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. [16]They profess that they know God, but by their works they deny him, being abominable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.

2 But say the things which fit sound doctrine, [2]that older men should be sober-minded, worthy of respect, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, and in patience: [3]and that older women likewise be reverent in behavior, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; [4]that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, [5]to be self-controlled, pure, working at home, kind, and being subject to their own husbands, so that God's word may not be discredited.
[6]Likewise, exhort the younger men to be self-controlled; [7]in all things showing yourself an example of good works. In your teaching show integrity, seriousness,[a] [8]and a sound message that cannot be condemned; that he who opposes you may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us[b]. [9]Exhort servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing in all things; not contradicting; [10]not stealing, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God, our Savior, in all things. [11]For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all people, [12]instructing us to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly desires, and to live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present age; [13]looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ; [14]who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify for himself a people for his own possession, zealous for good works. [15]Say these things and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one despise you.

3 Remind them to be in subjection to rulers and to authorities, to be obedient,[a] to be ready for every good work, [2]to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing courtesy to all people. [3]For we were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. [4]But when the kindness of God our Savior and his love toward humankind appeared, [5]not by works of righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy, he saved us, through the washing of rebirth and renewing by the Holy Spirit, [6]whom he poured out on us richly, through Jesus Christ our Savior; [7]that, being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of everlasting life. [8]This saying is faithful, and concerning these things I desire that you affirm confidently, so that those who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable for people; [9]but shun foolish questionings, genealogies, strife, and disputes about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. [10]Reject a divisive person after a first and second warning; [11]knowing that such a one is perverted, and sins, being self-condemned.

[12]When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there. [13]Send Zenas, the Law scholar, and Apollos on their journey speedily, that nothing may be lacking for them. [14]Let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful.

[15]All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith. Grace be with you all.[b]

4I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers, 5hearing of your love, and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints; 6that the fellowship of your faith may become effective, in the knowledge of every good thing which is in you[a] in Christ.[b] 7For I have much joy[c] and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

8Therefore, though I have all boldness in Christ to command you that which is appropriate, 9yet on the basis of love I rather appeal, being such a one as Paul, the aged, but also a prisoner of Christ Jesus.[d] 10I appeal to you for my child, whom I have become the father of in my chains, Onesimus,[e] 11who once was useless to you, but now is useful to you and to me. 12I am sending back to you[f], him who is my very heart, 13whom I desired to keep with me, that on your behalf he might serve me in my chains for the Good News. 14But I was willing to do nothing without your consent, that your goodness would not be as of necessity, but of free will. 15For perhaps he was therefore separated from you for a while, that you would have him forever, 16no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much rather to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

17If then you count me a partner, receive him as you would receive me. 18But if he has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, put that to my account. 19I, Paul, write this with my own hand: I will repay it (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self besides). 20Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Christ[g]. 21Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say.

22Also, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.

23Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you, 24as do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers.

Hebrews

1 God, having in the past spoken to the fathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways, 2in these last days has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the ages.[c] 3He is the radiance of his glory, the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had made[d] purification for[e] sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; 4having become so much better than the angels, as he has inherited a more excellent name than they have. 5For to which of the angels did he say at any time,
"You are my Son.
Today I have become your Father"?[f]

And again,
"I will be his Father,
and he will be my Son"?[g]

6And again, when he brings in the firstborn into the world he says, "Let all the angels of God worship him."[h] 7Of the angels he says,
"Who makes his angels winds, and his servants a flame of fire."[i]

8But of the Son he says,
"Your throne, O God, is forever
and ever,
and the righteous scepter is the scepter of your[j]
kingdom.
9You have loved righteousness, and hated iniquity;
therefore God, your God,
has anointed you with

14Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to serve for the sake of those who will inherit
salvation?

2 Therefore we ought to pay greater attention to the things that were heard, so that we will not drift away. 2For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense; 3how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation—which at the first having been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard; 4God also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders, by various works of power, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, according Jesus, because of the suffering of 10For it became him, for whom are

[16]For, truly, he did not come to help the angels, but to help the offspring of Abraham. [17]Therefore he was obligated in all things to be made like his brothers, that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make atonement[d] for the sins of the people. [18]For in that he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

3 Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Jesus; [2]who was faithful to him who appointed him, as also was Moses in[e] his house.[f] [3]For he has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, just as he who built the house has more honor than the house. [4]For every house is built by someone; but he who built all things is God. [5]Moses indeed was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken, [6]but Christ is faithful as a Son over his house; whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the boast of our hope.[g] [7]Therefore, even as the Holy Spirit says, [11]as I swore in my wrath, 'They will not enter into my rest.'"[a]

[12]Beware, brothers, lest perhaps there be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God; [13]but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called "today;" lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. [14]For we have become partakers of Christ, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm to the end: [15]while it is said,
"Today if you will hear his voice, do not harden your hearts, as in the rebellion."[b]

[16]For who, when they heard, rebelled? No, did not all those who came out of Egypt by Moses? [17]With whom was he displeased forty years? Was not it with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? [18]To whom did he swear that they would not enter into his rest, but to those who were disobedient? [19]We see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

4 Let us fear therefore, lest perhaps anyone of you should seem to have come short of a promise of entering into his rest. [2]For indeed we have had good news preached to us, even as they also did, but the word they heard did not profit them, because they[c] were not united by faith with those who heard. [3]For we who have believed do enter into that rest, even as he has said, "As I swore in my wrath, they will not enter into my rest;"[d] although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. [4]For he has said this somewhere about the seventh day, "And God rested on the seventh day from all his works;"[e] [5]and in this place again, "They will not enter into my rest."[f]

[6]Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and they to whom the good news was before preached failed to enter in because of disobedience, [7]he again appoints a certain day, "Today," saying through David so long a time afterward (just as has been said),
"Today if you will hear his voice, do not harden your hearts."[g]

[8]For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of another day. [9]There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God. [10]For he who has entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, as God did from his. [11]Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience. [12]For the word of God is living, and active, and thoughts and intentions of the heart.

13 There is no creature that is hidden from his sight, but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do. 14 Having then a great high priest, who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold tightly to our confession.
15 For we do not have a high priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but one who has been in all points tempted[a] like we are, yet without sin. 16 Let us therefore draw near with boldness to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace for help in time of need.

5 For every high priest, being taken from among people, is appointed for people in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins.
2 The high priest can deal gently with those who are ignorant and going astray, because he himself is also surrounded with weakness.
3 Because of this, he must offer sacrifices for sins for the people, as well as for himself. 4 Nobody takes this honor on himself, but he is called by God, just like Aaron was.
5 So also Christ did not glorify himself to be made a high priest, but it was he who said to him,
"You are my Son.
Today I have become your Father."[b]

6 As he says also in another place,
"You are a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek."[c]

7 In the days of his flesh, he offered up prayers and petitions with loud cries and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. 8 Although he was a Son, he learned obedience by the things which he suffered. 9 Having been made perfect, he became to all of those who obey him the author of everlasting salvation, 10 named by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. 11 About him we have many words to say, and hard to interpret, seeing you have become dull of hearing. 12 For when by reason of the time you ought to be teachers, you again need to have someone teach you the rudiments of the first principles of the oracles of God. You have come to need milk, not solid food. 13 For everyone who lives on milk is not experienced in the word of righteousness, for he is a baby.
14 But solid food is for those who are full grown, who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

[a] 4:15 M reads "tried" instead of "tempted"

[b] 5:5 Psalm 2:7

[c] 5:6 Psalm 110:4

6 Therefore leaving the doctrine of the first principles of Christ, let us press on to perfection—not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith toward God, 2of the teaching of washings, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of everlasting judgment. 3And this we will do if God permits. 4For concerning those who were once enlightened and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, 5and tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the age to come, 6and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify the Son of God for themselves again, and put him to open shame. 7For the land which has drunk the rain that comes often on it, and brings forth a crop suitable for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receives blessing from God; 8but if it bears thorns and thistles, it is rejected and near being cursed, whose end is to be burned.

9But, beloved, we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, even though we speak like this. 10For God is not unrighteous, so as to forget your work and the[a] love which you showed toward his name, in that you served the saints, and still do serve them. 11We desire that each one of you may show the same diligence to the fullness of hope even to the end, 12that you won't be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherited the promises. 13For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he could swear by none greater, he swore by himself, 14saying, "I will indeed bless you, and I will greatly multiply you."[b] 15Thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. 16For people[c] swear oaths by something greater, and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation. 17In this way God, being determined to show more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the immutability of his counsel, interposed with an oath; 18that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to take hold of the hope set before us. 19This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is within the curtain; 20where as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

7 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, 2to whom also Abraham divided "a tenth part of everything"[d] (being first, by interpretation, king of righteousness, and then also king of Salem, which is king of peace; 3without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God), remains a priest continually. 4Now consider how great this man was, to whom even Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the most valuable plunder. 5They indeed of the sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the Law, that is, of their brothers, though these have come out of the body of Abraham, 6but he whose genealogy is not counted from them has accepted tithes from Abraham, and has blessed him who has the promises. 7But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater.

8Here people who die receive tithes, but there one receives tithes of whom it is testified that he lives.
9We can say that through Abraham even Levi, who receives tithes, has paid tithes, 10for he was yet in the body of his father when Melchizedek met him. 11Now if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people have received the law), what further need was there for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron?
12For the priesthood being changed, there is of necessity a change made also in the law. 13For he of whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. 14For it is evident that our Lord has sprung out of Judah, about which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priests[a]. 15This is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there arises another priest, 16who has been made, not after the law of a fleshly commandment, but after the power of an endless life: 17for it is testified[b],

"You are a priest forever,
according to the order of Melchizedek."[c]

18For there is an annulling of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and uselessness 19(for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God. 20Inasmuch as he was not made priest without the taking of an oath, 21for they indeed have been made priests without an oath, but he with an oath by him that says of him,

"The Lord swore and will not change his mind,

[c]7:17 Psalm 110:4

'You are a priest forever,

[22]Accordingly Jesus has become the guarantor of a better covenant. [23]Many, indeed, have been made priests, because they are hindered from continuing by death. [24]But he, because he lives forever, has his priesthood unchangeable. [25]Therefore he is also able to save completely those who draw near to God through him, seeing that he lives forever to make intercession for them.

[26]For such a high priest was indeed[c] fitting for us: holy, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; [27]who does not need, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices daily, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people. For he did this once for all, when he offered up himself. [28]For the Law appoints men as high priests who have weakness, but the word of the oath which came after the Law appoints a Son forever who has been perfected.

8 Now in the things which we are saying, the main point is this. We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, [2]a servant of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord set up, and not man. [3]For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer. [4]Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are priests who offer the gifts according to the Law; [5]who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses was warned when he was about to make the tabernacle, for he said, "See that you make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain."[d] [6]But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, by so much as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which on better promises has been given as Law. [7]For if the first had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second. [8]For finding fault with them, he said,

"Look, the days are coming," says the Lord,

13In that he says, "new," he has made the first old. But that which is becoming old and grows aged is near to vanishing away.

9 Now indeed even the first had ordinances of divine service, and an earthly sanctuary. 2For a tabernacle was prepared. In the first part were the lampstand, the table, and the show bread; which is called the Holy Place. 3After the second curtain was the tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies, 4having a golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which was a gold jar containing the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant; 5and above it cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat, of which things we cannot speak now in detail. 6Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tabernacle, performing their duties. 7But into the second the high priest alone, once in the year, not without blood, which he offers for himself, and for the sins of the people committed in ignorance. 8The Holy Spirit is indicating this, that the way into the Holy Place was not yet revealed while the first tabernacle was still standing; 9which is a symbol of the present age, where gifts and sacrifices are offered that are incapable, concerning the conscience, of making the worshipper perfect, 10but deal only with foods and drinks and various washings; they are regulations for the flesh imposed until the time of setting things right.

[11]But Christ having come as a high priest of the good things that have come,[a] through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, [12]nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the Holy Place, having obtained everlasting redemption. [13]For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify to the cleanness of the flesh: [14]how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, cleanse our[b] conscience from dead works to serve the living God?
[15]For this reason he is the mediator of a new covenant, since a death has occurred for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, that those who have been called may receive the promise of the everlasting inheritance. [16]Now where there is a will, the death of the one who made it must be proven. [17]For a will is in force where there has been death, for it is never in force while the one who made it lives. [18]Therefore even the first has not been dedicated without blood. [19]For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the Law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats,[c] with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people, [20]saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you."[d]

[21]Moreover he sprinkled the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry in like manner with the blood. [22]According to the Law, nearly everything is cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no forgiveness. [23]It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.
[24]For Christ hasn't entered into holy places made with hands, which are representations of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; [25]nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy place year by year with blood not his own, [26]or else he must have suffered often since the foundation of the world.
But now once at the end of the ages, he has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.
[27]Inasmuch as it is appointed for people to die once, and after this, judgment, [28]so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many,[e] will appear a second time, without sin, to those who are eagerly waiting for him for
salvation.

10 For the Law, having a shadow of the good to come, not the very image of the things, [a]can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect those who draw near. [2]Or else would not they have ceased to be offered, because the worshippers, having been once cleansed[b], would have had no more consciousness of sins? [3]But in those sacrifices there is yearly reminder of sins. [4]For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins.
[5]Therefore when he comes into the world, he says,
"Sacrifice and offering you did not desire,
but a body you prepared for me.
[6]Whole burnt offerings and sin-offerings you took no pleasure in.
[7]Then I said, 'Look, I have come.
It is written about me in the scroll of a book; to do your will, God.'"[c] [8]Previously saying, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sin-offerings you did not desire, nor took pleasure in" (which are offered according to the Law), [9]then he said, "Look, I have come to do your will.[d]" He takes away the first, that he may establish the second, [10]by which will we have been sanctified[e] through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. [11]Every priest indeed stands day by day serving and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins, [12]but this one[f], when he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God; [13]from that time waiting until his enemies are made the footstool of his feet.
[14]For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are being sanctified.
[15]The Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,

'After those days,' says the Lord,
'I will put my laws on their hearts,
I will also write them on their minds.'"[g] [17]"And I will remember their sins and their iniquities no more."[h]

[18]Now where forgiveness of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

with a true heart in fullness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and having our body washed with pure water, [23]let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering; for he who promised is faithful.

[24]Let us consider how to motivate one another to love and good works, [25]not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as you see the Day approaching.
[26]For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more a sacrifice for sins, [27]but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which will devour the adversaries. [28]Anyone who disregards the Law of Moses dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses.
[29]How much worse punishment, do you think, will he be judged worthy of, who has trodden under foot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant with which he was sanctified an unholy thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace?
[30]For we know him who said, "Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay[a]."[b] Again, "The Lord will judge his people."[c] [31]It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. [32]But remember the former days, in which, after you were enlightened, you endured a great struggle with sufferings; [33]partly, being exposed to insults and abuse in public, and sometimes you came to share with others who were treated in the same way. [34]For you both had compassion on them that were in[d] chains, and joyfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, since you knew that you yourselves had a better[e] possession and an enduring one[f].
[35]Therefore do not throw away your boldness, which has a great reward. [36]For you need patient endurance so that, having done the will of God, you may receive the promise.
[37]"For in just a little while,
he who is coming will come

39But we are not of those who shrink back[c] to destruction, but of those who have faith to the saving of the soul.

11 Now faith is being confident of what we hope for, convinced about things we do not see. 2For by this, the people of old were attested. 3By faith, we understand that the ages[d] were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen has not been made out of things which are visible. 4By faith, Abel[e] offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain,[f] through which he was attested as righteous, God testifying with respect to his gifts; and though he died he still speaks through it. 5By faith, Hanoch was taken away, so that he would not see death, "and he was not found, because God took him away."[g] For before he was taken he was attested as having pleased God. 6Now without faith it is impossible to be well pleasing to him, for he who comes to God must believe that he exists, and that he is a rewarder of those who seek him. 7By faith, Noah, being warned about things not yet seen, in reverence prepared a box-shaped ship for the salvation of his household,[h] through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith. 8By faith, Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out to a[i] place which he was to receive for an inheritance.[j] He went out, not knowing where he was going. 9By faith, he sojourned in a land of promise, as a foreigner, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. 10For he looked for the city which has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. 11By faith, even barren[k] Sarah herself received considered him faithful who had the stars of the sky in multitude, and as innumerable as the sand promises, but having seen them[a] and embraced them from afar, and having acknowledged that they were foreigners and noncitizens on the earth. 14For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own. 15If indeed they had been thinking of that country from which they went out, they would have had enough time to return. 16But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their

them.

Egyptians tried to do so, they were swallowed up.[a] 30By faith, the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been encircled for seven days.[b] 31By faith, Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient,[c] having received the spies in peace.[d] 32And what more should I say? For the time would fail me if I told of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets; 33who, through faith subdued kingdoms, worked out righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,[e] 34quenched the power of fire,[f] escaped the edge of the sword,[g] from weakness were made strong, grew mighty in war, and caused foreign armies to flee. 35Women received their dead by resurrection.[h] Others were tortured, not accepting the payment for release,[i] that they might obtain a better resurrection. 36Others were tried by mocking and scourging, yes, moreover by bonds and imprisonment. 37They were stoned,[j] they were sawed apart, they were put to the test,[k] they were killed with the sword.[l] They went around in sheepskins[m] and in goatskins,[n] being destitute, afflicted, mistreated 38(of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts, mountains, caves, and the holes of the earth. 39These all, having had testimony given to them through their faith, did not receive the promise, 40God having provided some better thing concerning us, so that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

12 Therefore let us also, seeing we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, 2looking to Jesus, the founder and completer of the faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has sat down at the 3For consider him who has endured such hostility from sinners against himself, so that you may not become tired and give up. 4You have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood in your struggle against sin; 5and you have forgotten the exhortation which reasons with you as with sons,

"My son, do not take lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor lose heart when you are corrected by him.
6For whom the Lord loves he disciplines,
and punishes every son he accepts."[a]

7If you are enduring discipline, God is dealing with you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline? 8But if you are without discipline, of which all have been made partakers, then you are illegitimate, and not sons. 9Furthermore, we had earthly fathers who disciplined us, and we paid them respect. Should we not much rather be subject to the Father of spirits, and live? 10For they indeed, for a few days, disciplined us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we may be partakers of his holiness.
11All discipline seems for the moment painful, not joyful; yet afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. 12Therefore, lift up the hands that hang down and know that even when he afterward was rejected, for he found no place sought it diligently with tears. 18For

[25]See that you do not refuse him who speaks. For if they did not escape when they refused him who warned on the earth, how much more will we not escape who turn away from him who warns from heaven, [26]whose voice shook the earth then, but now he has promised, saying, "Yet once more I will shake[b] not only the earth, but also the heavens."[c] [27]This phrase, "Yet once more," signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain. [28]So since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks[d], through which we may offer service pleasing to God, with reverence and awe, [29]for our God is a consuming fire.[e]

13 Let brotherly love continue. [2]Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for in doing so, some have entertained angels without knowing it. [3]Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them; and those who are ill-treated, since you are also in the body. [4]Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled: for[f] God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers.

[5]Be free from the love of money, content with such things as you have, for he has said, "I will never leave you or forsake you."[g] [6]So we can confidently say,
"The Lord is my helper;[h] I will not fear. What can humans do to me?"[i]

[7]Remember your leaders, who spoke to you the word of God, and considering the results of their conduct, imitate their faith. [8]Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all generously and without finding fault; and it will be given to him. [6]But let him ask in faith, without any doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven and tossed by the wind. [7]For let that person not think that he will receive anything from the Lord. [8]He is a double-minded person, unstable in all his ways.

[9]But let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his high position; [10]and the rich, in that he is made humble, because like the flower in the grass, he will pass away. [11]For the sun arises with the scorching wind, and withers the grass, and the flower in it falls, and the beauty of its appearance perishes. So also will the rich person fade away in his pursuits.

[12]Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial, for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life, which he[a] promised to those who love him. [13]Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God," for God cannot be tempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one. [14]But each one is tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. [15]Then the lust, when it has conceived, bears sin; and the sin, when it is full grown, brings forth death. [16]Do not be deceived, my beloved brothers. [17]All generous giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, nor turning shadow. [18]Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

[19]This you know[b], my beloved brothers. But let every person be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger; [20]for human anger does not produce[c] the righteousness of God. [21]Therefore, putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls[d]. [22]But be doers of the word, and not only hearers, deluding your own selves. [23]For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like someone looking at his natural face in a mirror; [24]for he sees himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of person he was. [25]But he who looks into the perfect Law of freedom, and continues, not being a hearer who forgets, but a doer of the work, this person will be blessed in what he does.

[26]If anyone[e] thinks himself to be religious while he does not control his tongue, but deceives his heart, this one's religion is worthless. [27]Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

2 My brothers, do not hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory with partiality. [2]For if someone with a gold ring, in fine clothing, comes into your synagogue, and a poor person in filthy clothing also comes in; [3]and you pay special attention to the one who wears the fine clothing, and say[a], "Sit here in a good place;" but you tell the poor person, "Stand there," or "Sit by my footstool." [4]Have you not discriminated among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? [5]Listen, my beloved brothers. Did not God choose those who are poor in this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he promised to those who love him? [6]But you have dishonored the poor person. Do not the rich oppress you, and personally drag you before the courts?

[7]Do not they blaspheme the honorable name by which you are called? [8]However, if you fulfill the royal law, according to the Scripture, "You are to love your neighbor as yourself,"[b] you do well. [9]But if you show partiality, you commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. [10]For whoever keeps the whole law, and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all. [11]For he who said, "Do not commit adultery,"[c] also said, "Do not commit murder."[d] Now if you do not commit adultery, but murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. [12]So speak, and so do, as those who are to be judged by a law of freedom. [13]For judgment is without mercy to him who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

[14]What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith, but has no works? Can faith save him? [15]And if a brother or sister is naked and in lack of daily food, [16]and one of you tells them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled;" and yet you did not give them the things the body needs, what good is it? [17]Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead in itself. [18]But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without works, and I by my works will show you my faith.

[19]You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and shudder. [20]But do you want to know, foolish person, that faith apart from works is useless?[e] [21]Wasn't Abraham our father justified by works, in that he

God.[b] 24You see[c] that a person is justified[d] by works and not by faith alone. 25In like manner was not Rahab the prostitute also justified by works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? 26For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.

3 Let not many of you be teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive heavier judgment. 2For in many things we all stumble. If anyone does not stumble in word, this one is a perfect person, able to bridle the whole body also. 3Now if[e] we put bits into the horses' mouths so that they may obey us, we guide their whole body. 4And look at the ships also, though they are so big and are driven by fierce winds, are yet guided by a very small rudder, wherever the pilot desires. 5So the tongue is also a little member, and boasts great things. See how a small fire can spread to a large forest. 6And the tongue is a fire. The world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by hell.[f] 7For all kinds of animals, and birds, of reptiles and sea creatures, are being tamed and have been tamed by humankind. 8But nobody can tame the tongue. It is a restless[g] evil, full of deadly poison. 9With it we bless our Lord[h] and Father, and with it we curse people, who are made in the image of God. 10Out of the same mouth comes forth blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so.
11Does a spring send out from the same opening fresh and bitter water? 12Can a fig tree, my brothers, yield olives, or a vine figs? Nor is salt water able to produce sweet[i].

13Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good conduct that his deeds are done in gentleness of wisdom. 14But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not boast and do not lie against the truth. 15This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic. 16For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed. [17]But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality,[a] without hypocrisy. [18]Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

4 Where do conflicts and quarrels among you come from? Do they not come from your passions that war in your members? [2]You lust, and do not have. You kill, covet, and cannot obtain. You fight and make war. You do not have, because you do not ask. [3]You ask, and do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it for your pleasures. [4]You adulterers and adulteresses,[b] do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Therefore whoever wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. [5]Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Spirit which he made to dwell[c] in us yearns jealously"? [6]But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.[d] [7]Be subject therefore to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you. [8]Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. [9]Lament, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to gloom. [10]Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will exalt you.

[11]Do not speak against one another, brothers. He who speaks against a brother or[e] judges his brother, speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge. [12]Only one is the lawgiver and judge,[f] who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbor[g]?

[13]Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow let us go into this city, and spend a year there, trade, and make a profit." [14]Whereas you do not know what tomorrow will be like. What is your life? For you are[h] a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away.

who knows to do good, and does not do it, to him it is sin.

5 Come now, you rich, weep and cry aloud for your miseries that are coming on you. 2Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten. 3Your gold and your silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be for a testimony against you, and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up your treasure in the last days. 4Look, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you have kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of hosts[a].
5You have lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure. You have nourished your hearts[b] in a day of slaughter. 6You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous one. He does not resist
you.

7Be patient therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Look, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it receives the early and late rain. 8You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near.

9Do not grumble, brothers, against one another, so that you won't be judged.[c] Look, the judge stands at the door. 10Take,[d] brothers, for an example of suffering and of patience, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. 11Look, we call them blessed who endured. You have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the Lord in the outcome, and how the Lord[e] is full of compassion and mercy. 12But above all things, my brothers, do not swear, neither by heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath; but let your "yes" be "yes," and your "no," "no;" so that you do not fall under judgment.[f]

13Is anyone among you suffering? He should pray. Is anyone cheerful? He should sing praises. 14Is anyone among you sick? He should call for the elders of the church, and they should pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. 15And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. 16Therefore[g] confess your sins[h] to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerfully effective. 17Elijah was a human

1Peter

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen ones who are living as foreigners in the Diaspora in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 2according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, that you may obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with his blood: Grace to you and peace be multiplied. 3Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4to an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance that does not fade away, reserved in Heaven for you, 5who by the power of God are guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 6Wherein you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, 7that the genuineness of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes even though it is tested by fire, may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed—8whom not having seen[c] you love; in whom, though now you do not see him, yet believing, you rejoice greatly with joy inexpressible and full of glory—9receiving the result of your faith, the salvation of your souls. 10Concerning this salvation, the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, 11searching for who or what kind of time the Spirit of Christ, which was in them, pointed to, when he predicted the sufferings of Christ, and the glories that would follow them. 12To them it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to you, they ministered these things, which now have been announced to you through those who preached the Good News to you by the Holy Spirit sent out from heaven; which things angels desire to look into.

13Therefore, prepare your minds for action,[a] be sober and set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you when Jesus Christ is revealed. 14As obedient children, do not be conformed to the desires as in your ignorance, 15but just as he who called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all of your behavior; 16because it is written, "Be holy, for I am holy."[bc] 17If you call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judges according to each man's work, pass the time of your living as foreigners here in reverent fear: 18knowing that you were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from the useless way of life handed down from your fathers, 19but with precious blood, as of an unblemished and spotless lamb, namely Christ. 20He was chosen in advance before the foundation of the world, but was revealed in these last times for your sake, 21who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God.

22Seeing you have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth[d] in sincere brotherly affection, love one another from a pure[e] heart fervently: 23having been born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the living

"All flesh is like grass, and all its[g] glory like the flower in the grass.
The grass withers, and its flower
falls;
25but the word of the Lord endures forever."[h]

This is the word of Good News which was preached to you.

2 Putting away therefore all wickedness, and all deceit, and hypocrisy, and envy, and all slander, 2as newborn babies, long for the pure milk of the word, that you may grow thereby to salvation, 3if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good: 4coming to him, a living stone, though rejected by people but chosen by God, precious. 5You also, as living stones, are built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. 6Because it is contained in[a] Scripture,

"Look, I am laying in Zion Zion a stone, a chosen precious cornerstone,
and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame."[b]

7For you who believe therefore is the honor, but for those who do not believe[c],
"The stone which the builders
rejected,
has become the chief cornerstone,"[d]

8and,
"a stone to stumble over, and a rock to trip over."[e]

For they stumble at the word, being disobedient, to which also they were appointed. 9But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellence of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light: 10who once were not a people, but now are God's people, who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. 11Beloved, I urge you as foreigners and temporary residents, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; 12having good behavior among the nations, so in that of which they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they see, glorify God in the day of visitation.
13fSubject yourselves to every human institution for the Lord's sake: whether to the king, as supreme; 14or to governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evildoers and for praise to those who do well.
15For this is the will of God, that by well-doing you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people: 16as free, and not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but as slaves of God.

17Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king. 18Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the wicked. 19For it is commendable if someone endures pain, suffering unjustly, because of conscience toward God. 20For what glory is it if, when you sin, you patiently endure beating? But if, when you do well, you patiently endure suffering, this is commendable with God. 21For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for you[g], leaving you an example, that you should follow his steps, 22who "committed no sin, nor was deceit found in his mouth."[h] 23Who, when he was cursed, did not curse back. When he suffered, did not threaten, but committed himself to him who judges righteously; 24who his own self bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live to righteousness; by whose wounds[a] you were healed.[b] 25For you were going astray like sheep; but now have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

3 In like manner, wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; so that, even if any do not obey the word, they may be won by the behavior of their wives without a word; 2seeing your pure behavior in fear. 3Let your beauty be not just the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on fine clothing; 4but in the hidden person of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God very precious. 5For this is how the holy women before, who hoped in God also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands: 6as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose children you now are, if you do well, and are not put in fear by any terror.

7You husbands, in like manner, live with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor to the woman, as to the weaker vessel, as being also joint heirs of the grace of life; that your prayers may not be hindered.

8Finally, be all like-minded, compassionate, loving as brothers, tenderhearted, humble[c], 9not rendering evil for evil, or reviling for reviling; but instead blessing; because[d] to this were you called, that you may inherit a blessing. 10For,

"He who would love life, and see good days,
let him keep his tongue from evil,
and his lips from speaking deceit.
11Let him turn away from evil, and do good.
Let him seek peace, and pursue it.
12For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears open to their prayer;
but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil."[e] 13Now who is he who will harm you, if you become zealous[f] of that which is good? 14But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. "And do not fear what they fear, nor be troubled."[a] 15But sanctify in your hearts Christ as Lord[b]; and always be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, yet[c] with humility and fear: 16having a good conscience; so that when they speak evil against you, they may be put to shame who slander your good manner of life in Christ.

17For it is better, if it is God's will, that you suffer for doing well than for doing evil. 18Because Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring you to God; being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit; 19in which he also went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison, 20who before were disobedient, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, while the box-shaped ship was being built. In it, few, that is, eight souls, were saved by means of water. 21This is a symbol of baptism, which now saves you—not the removal of dirt from the body, but an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, 22who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.

4 Forasmuch then as Christ suffered[d] in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind; for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin; 2that you no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh for human desires, but for the will of God. 3For enough time in the past has been spent[e] doing the will of the unbelievers, and having walked in lewdness, lusts, drunkenness, orgies, carousings, and abominable idolatries. 4They think it is strange that you do not run with them into the same flood of debauchery, blaspheming: 5who will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. 6For this reason also the Good News was preached[f] to those who are now dead,[g] that they might be judged according to man in the flesh, but might live according to God in the Spirit.[h] 7But the end of all things is near. Therefore be serious and disciplined in your prayers. 8Above[i] all things be earnest in your love among yourselves, for love[j] covers a multitude of sins. 9Be hospitable to one another without grumbling. 10As each has received a gift, employ it in serving one another, as good managers of the grace of God in its various forms. 11If anyone speaks, let it be as it were the very words of God. If anyone serves, let it be as of the strength which[a] God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

12Beloved, do not be astonished at the fiery trial which has come upon you, to test you, as though a strange thing happened to you. 13But because you are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of his glory you also may rejoice with exceeding joy. 14If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed; because the Spirit of glory[b] and of God rests on you. On their part he is blasphemed, but on your part he is glorified.[c] 15For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil doer, or a meddler. 16But if as a Christian,[d] let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this name.[e] 17For the time has come for judgment to begin with the household of God; and if it begins first with us, what will happen to those who do not obey the Good News of God? 18And "If the righteous is delivered with difficulty, where will the ungodly and the sinner appear?"[f] 19Therefore let them also who suffer according to the will of God in doing good entrust their souls to him, as to a faithful Creator.

1 Simeon[h] Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ: 2Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, 3seeing that his divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own[i] glory and virtue; 4by which he has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. 5Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge; 6and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control, perseverance; and in perseverance, godliness; 7and in godliness, brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. 8For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9For he who lacks these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins. 10Therefore, brothers, be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble. 11For thus you will be richly supplied with the entrance into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

12Therefore I will be ready always[a] to remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth. 13I think it right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you; 14knowing that the putting off of my tent comes swiftly, even as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me. 15Yes, I will make every effort that you may always be able to remember these things even after my departure. 16For we did not follow cunningly devised tales, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. 17For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."[b] 18We heard this voice come out of heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.

19We have the more sure word of prophecy; and you do well that you heed it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the morning star arises in your hearts: 20knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of private interpretation. 21For no prophecy ever came by human will, but people spoke from[c] God, being moved by the Holy Spirit.

2 But false prophets also arose among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction. 2Many will follow their immoral[d] ways, and as a result, the way of the truth will be maligned. 3In covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words: whose sentence now from of old does not linger, and their destruction is not asleep[e]. 4For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them down to the lower parts of hell,[f] and committed them to

chains[a] of darkness, to be reserved for judgment; [5]and did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah with seven others, a preacher of righteousness, when he brought a flood on the world of the ungodly; [6]and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, having made them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly; [7]and delivered righteous Lot, who was very distressed by the lustful life of the wicked [8](for that righteous man dwelling among them, was tormented in his righteous soul from day to day with seeing and hearing lawless deeds): [9]the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptation and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment; [10]but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise authority. Daring, self-willed, they are not afraid to blaspheme the glories; [11]whereas angels, though greater in might and power, do not bring a railing judgment against them before the Lord. [12]But these, as unreasoning creatures, born natural animals to be taken and destroyed, speaking evil in matters about which they are ignorant, will in their destroying surely be destroyed, [13]suffering the penalty as the wages of evil; people who count it pleasure to revel in the daytime, spots and blemishes, reveling in their deceit while they feast with you; [14]having eyes full of adultery, and insatiable for sin, enticing unstable people, having a heart trained in greed. Children under a curse. [15]Forsaking the right way they went astray, having followed the way of Balaam the son of Beor,[b] who loved the wages of unrighteousness. [16]But he was rebuked for his own transgression; a donkey that could not talk spoke with a human voice and stopped the irrationality of the prophet. [17]These are wells without water, and mists driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved[c]. [18]For, uttering great swelling words of emptiness, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by licentiousness, those who actually[d] escape from those who live in error; [19]promising them liberty, while they themselves are slaves of corruption; for a person is brought into bondage by whoever overcomes him.

and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in it and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. 21For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. 22It[a] has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog turns to his own vomit again,"[b] and "the sow that has washed to wallowing in the mire."

3 This is now, beloved, the second letter that I have written to you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by reminding you; 2that you should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through your apostles: 3knowing this first, that in the last days scoffers will come, mocking[c] and walking after their own lusts, 4and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming? For, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation." 5For this they willfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth formed out of water and amid water, by the word of God; 6by which means the world that then was, being deluged with water, was destroyed. 7But the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same[d] word have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly people. 8But do not forget this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. 9The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, as some count slowness; but is patient toward[e] you[f], not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 10But the day of the Lord will come as a thief[g]; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works on it will not[h] be found[i]. 11Therefore since all these things will be destroyed like this, what kind of people ought you to be in holy living and godliness, 12looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, which will cause the burning heavens to be

1 That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we saw, and our hands touched, concerning the Word of life [2](and the life was revealed, and we have seen, and testify, and declare to you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us);
[3]that which we have seen and heard we declare to you also[b], that you also may have fellowship with us.
Yes, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son, Jesus Christ. [4]And we write these things[c], that our joy may be fulfilled.

[5]This is the message which we have heard from him and announce to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. [6]If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we lie, and do not tell the truth. [7]But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus[d], his Son, cleanses us from all sin. [8]If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. [9]If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. [10]If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2 My little children, I write these things to you so that you may not sin. If anyone sins, we have an advocate[a] with the Father, Jesus Christ, the righteous. 2And he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. 3This is how we know that we know him: if we keep his commandments. 4One who says, "I know him," and does not keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. 5But whoever keeps his word, God's love has truly been perfected in him. This is how we know that we are in him: 6he who says he remains in him ought himself also to walk just like he walked.

7Beloved[b], I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard[c]. 8Again, I write a new commandment to you, which is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light already shines. 9He who says he is in the light and hates his brother, is in the darkness even until now. 10He who loves his brother remains in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him. 11But he who hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13I am writing[d] to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning.

I write to you, young people, because you have overcome the evil one.

I write to you, little children, because you know the Father.

14I have written to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning.

I have written to you, young people, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

15Do not love the world, neither the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the Father's love is not in him. 16For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not the Father's, but is the world's. 17The world is passing away with its lusts, but he who does God's will remains forever.

18Little children, these are the end times, and as you heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen. By this we know that it is the final hour. 19They went out from us, but they did not belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have continued with us. But they left, that they might be revealed that none of them belong to us. 20But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things.[a] 21I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. 22Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. 23Whoever denies the Son, the same does not have the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also.[b]

24[c]As for you, let that remain in you which you heard from the beginning. If that which you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son, and in the Father. 25This is the promise which he promised us, the everlasting life. 26These things I have written to you concerning those who would lead you astray. 27As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you do not need for anyone to teach you. But as his[d] anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you[e] remain in him. 28Now, little children, remain in him, that when he appears, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. 29If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone also[f] who practices righteousness is born of him.

3 See what kind of love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God; and we are.[g] For this reason the world does not know us[h], because it did not know him. 2Beloved, now we are children of God, and it is not yet revealed what we will be. [i]We know that, when he is revealed, we will be like him; for we will see him just as he is. 3Everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure. 4Everyone who sins also commits lawlessness. Sin is lawlessness. 5You know that he was revealed to take away[j] sins, and in him is no sin. 6Whoever remains in him does not sin. Whoever sins hasn't seen him, neither knows him.

7Children, let no one lead you astray. He who does righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. 8He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Son of God was revealed, to destroy the works of the devil. 9Whoever is born of God does not commit sin, because his seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. 10In this the children of God are revealed, and the children of the devil. Whoever does not do righteousness is not of God, neither is he who does not love his brother. 11For this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; 12unlike Cain, who was of the evil one, and killed his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his works were evil, and his brother's righteous. 13Therefore do not be surprised,[a] brothers, if the world hates you. 14We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. He who does not love[b] remains in death. 15Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has everlasting life remaining in him[c].

16By this we know love,[d] because he laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. 17But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and closes his heart of compassion against him, how does the love of God remain in him? 18Little[e] children, let us not love in word only, neither with the tongue only, but in deed and truth. 19And by this we will[f] know that we are of the truth, and persuade our heart[g] before him, 20because if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. 21Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God; 22and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do the things that are pleasing in his sight. 23This is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he commanded us[h]. 24He who keeps his commandments remains in him, and he in him. By this we know that he remains in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit who confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3and every spirit who does not confess[i] Jesus is not of God; and this is that of the antichrist, of whom you have heard that it comes. Now it is in the world already. 4You are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world. 5They are of the world. Therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them. 6We are of God. He who knows God listens to us. He who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God, and knows God. 8He who does not love does not know God, for God is love. 9By this God's love was revealed in us, that God has sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. 10In this is love, not that we have[a] loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son as the atoning sacrifice for our sins. 11Beloved, if God loved us in this way, we also ought to love one another. 12No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God remains in us, and his love has been perfected in us.

13By this we know that we remain in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. 14We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as the Savior of the world. 15Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he in God.
16We know and have believed the love which God has for us. God is love, and he who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him. 17In this love has been made perfect among us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because as he is, even so are we in this world. 18There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment. He who fears is not made perfect in love. 19We love[b], because he first loved us. 20If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen.
21This commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should also love his brother.

5 Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God. Whoever loves the Father also loves the child who is born of him. 2By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and do his commandments. 3For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. His commandments are not grievous.
4For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: our[c] faith. 5Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? 6This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and the blood. It is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. [7]For there are three who testify[a]: [8]the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and the three agree as one. [9]If we accept human testimony, the witness of God is greater; for this is God's testimony that he has testified concerning his Son. [10]He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. [11]The testimony is this, that God gave to us everlasting life, and this life is in his Son. [12]He who has the Son has the life. He who does not have God's Son does not have the life. [13]These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have everlasting life[b].

[14]This is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us. [15]And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him.

[16]If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he should ask, and he will give him life for those who sin not leading to death. There is a sin leading to death. I do not say that he should make a request concerning this. [17]All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not leading to death. [18]We know that whoever is born of God does not sin, but he who was born of God protects him, and the evil one does not touch him. [19]We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. [20]We know that the Son of God has come, and has given us an understanding, that we know him who is true, and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

[6]And this is love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, even as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it. [7]For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess that Jesus Christ came in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist. [2]Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in good health, even as your soul prospers. [3]For I rejoiced greatly, when brothers came and testified about your truth, even as you walk in truth. [4]I have no greater joy than this, to hear about my children walking in truth.

You will do well to send them forward on their journey in a manner worthy of God, [7]because for the sake of the Name they went out, taking nothing from the pagans[e]. Not content with this, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and those who would, he forbids and throws out of the church. 11Beloved, do not imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. He who does good is of God. He who does evil hasn't seen God. 12Demetrius has the testimony of all, and of the truth itself; yes, we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true.

1 Jude,[b] a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those who are called, loved[c] by God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ: 2Mercy to you and peace and love be multiplied.

3Beloved, while I was very eager to write to you about our[d] common salvation, I was constrained to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints. 4For there are certain people who crept in secretly, even those who were long ago written about for this condemnation: ungodly people, turning the grace of our God into sensuality, and denying our only Master[e] and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5Now I want to remind you, though you already know all these things, that the Lord,[f] having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. 6Angels who did not keep their first domain, but deserted their own dwelling place, he has kept in everlasting bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day. 7Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, having, in the same way as these, given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the punishment of everlasting fire.
8Yet in like manner these also in their dreaming defile the flesh, despise authority, and blaspheme the glories. 9But Michael, the archangel, when contending with the devil and arguing about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him an abusive condemnation, but said, "May the Lord rebuke you." [10]But these speak evil of whatever things they do not know. What they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason, they are destroyed in these things. [11]Woe to them. For they went in the way of Cain, and ran riotously in the error of Balaam for profit, and perished in Korah's rebellion. [12]These are hidden rocky reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you, shepherds who without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn leaves without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; [13]wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever. [14]About these also Hanoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Look, the Lord comes with ten thousands of his saints, [15]to execute judgment on all, and to convict every person of all their works of ungodliness which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him." [16]These are murmurers and complainers, walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaks proud things), showing respect of persons to gain advantage.

[17]But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. [18]They said to you that "In the end time there will be mockers, walking after their own ungodly lusts."[a]

[19]These are they who cause divisions, and are sensual, not having the Spirit. [20]But you, beloved, keep building yourselves up in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit. [21]Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to everlasting life. [22]And be merciful on those who doubt, [23]and some save,[b] snatching them out of the fire, and on some have mercy with fear[c]; hating even the clothing stained by the flesh.

[24]Now to him who is able to keep you[d] from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory in great joy, [25]to the only[e] God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord,[f] be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen.

Revelation

1 This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show to his servants the things which must happen soon, which he sent and made known by his angel[a] to his servant, John, 2who testified to God's word, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, about everything that he saw.

3Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things that are written in it, for the time is near.

4John, to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from him[b] who is and who was and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits who are before his throne; 5and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us, and freed[c] us from our sins by his blood; 6and he made us to be a kingdom,[d] priests[e] to his God and Father; to him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

7Look, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, including those who pierced him. And all the tribes of the earth will mourn over him. Even so, Amen.

8"I am the Alpha and the Omega,[f]" says the Lord God, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

9I John, your brother and fellow-partner with you in persecution, kingdom, and patient endurance in Jesus,[g] was on the island that is called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.[h] 10I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, like a trumpet[i] 11saying, "[j]What you see, write on a scroll and send to the seven churches[k]: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."

12I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. Having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands. 13And among the[l] lampstands was

His eyes were like a flame of fire. 15His feet were like burnished bronze, as if it had been refined in a furnace. His voice was like the voice of many waters. 16He had seven stars in his right hand. Out of his mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining at its brightest. 17When I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man.

He laid his right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid. I am the first and the last, 18and the Living one. I was dead, but look, I am alive forevermore.[b] I have the keys of Death and of hell[c]. 19Write therefore the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will happen hereafter; 20the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands. Keep it, and repent. If therefore you do not wake up, I will come as a thief, and you won't know what hour I will come to you. 4Nevertheless you have a few names in Sardis that did not defile their garments. 4 After these things I looked and saw a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, like a trumpet speaking with me, was one saying, "Come up here, and I will show you the things which must happen after this."

2Immediately I was in the Spirit; and look, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting on the throne. 3And the one who sat there[b] looked like a jasper stone and a sardius. There was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald to look at. 4Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. On the thrones were twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white garments, with crowns of gold on their heads. 5And from the throne came flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder. And there were seven torches of fire burning before the[a] throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. 6Before the throne was something like a sea of glass, similar to crystal. In the midst of the throne, and around the throne were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. 7The first living creature was like a lion, and the second living creature like a calf, and the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth living creature[b] was like a flying eagle. 8The four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around and within. They have no rest day and night, saying, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come."

9And when the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to him who sits on the throne, to him who lives forever and ever, 10the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives forever and ever, and throw their crowns before the throne, saying, 11"Worthy are you, our Lord and God,[c] to receive the glory, the honor, and the power, for you created all things, and because of your desire they existed, and were created."

5 I saw, in the right hand of him who sat on the throne, a scroll written inside and on the back[d], sealed shut with seven seals. 2I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the scroll, and to break its seals?" 3No one in heaven above,[e] or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the scroll, or to look in it. 4And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the scroll, or to look in it. 5One of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. Look, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome so that he can open the scroll and loose[f] its seven seals." 6I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven[g] Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth. 7Then he came, and he took it out of the right hand of him who sat on the throne. 8Now when he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden

"A choenix[a] of wheat for a 7When he opened the fourth the name Death. Hell[c] followed with him. Authority over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, with famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth was given to him.

9When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of people[d] who had been killed for the Word of God, and for the testimony[e] which they had.
10They called out with a loud voice, saying, "How long, Master, the holy and true, until you judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" 11A long white robe was given to each of them.
They were told that they should rest yet for a little longer, until their fellow servants and their brothers, who would also be killed even as they were, should complete their course.

12I saw when he opened the earthquake. The sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became as blood.

13The stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree dropping its moved out of their places. 15The kings of the earth, the princes, the commanding officers, the rich, the

and in the rocks of the mountains.
16They told the mountains and the

He called out with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea, [3]saying, "Do not harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads." [9]After these things I looked, and suddenly there was a great multitude, which no one could number, out of every nation and of all tribes, peoples, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands. [10]They shouted with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation be to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb."

[11]All the angels were standing around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before the[b] throne, and worshiped God, [12]saying, "Amen. Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might, be to our God forever and ever. Amen."

[13]One of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are arrayed in white robes, who are they, and from where did they come?"

[14]So I said to him, "My lord, you know."

He said to me, “These are the ones who came out of the great tribulation. They washed their robes, and made them white in the Lamb’s blood. 15Therefore they are before the throne of God, they serve him day and night in his temple. He who sits on the throne will spread his tabernacle over them. 16They will hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither will the sun beat on them, nor any heat; 17for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne shepherds them, and leads them to springs of waters of life. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.[a]”

8 When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. 2I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them. 3Another angel came and stood over the altar, having a golden censer. Much incense was given to him to offer up, with the prayers of all the saints, on the golden altar which was before the throne. 4The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel’s hand. 5The angel took the censer, and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it on the earth. There followed thunders, sounds, lightnings, and an earthquake.

6The seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. 7And the first[b] sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth. One third of the earth was burnt up,[c] and one third of the trees were burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8The second angel sounded, and something like a great mountain burning with fire[d] was thrown into the sea. One third of the sea became blood, 9and one third of the living creatures which were in the sea died. One third of the ships were destroyed.

10The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch, and it fell on one third of the rivers, and on the springs of the waters. 11The name of the star is called “Wormwood.” One third of the waters became wormwood. Many people died from the waters, because they were made bitter.

12The fourth angel sounded, and one third of the sun was struck, and one third of the moon, and one third of the stars; so that one third

Woe for those who dwell on the earth, because of the other voices of the trumpets of the three angels, who are yet to sound."

9 The fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from the sky which had fallen to the earth. The key to the pit of the abyss was given to him. 2He opened the shaft of the bottomless pit, and smoke went up out of the shaft, like the smoke from a great[b] furnace. The sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the pit. 3Then out of the smoke came forth locusts on the earth, and power was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power. 4They were told that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those people who do not have God's seal on their[c] foreheads. 5They were given power not to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion, when it strikes a person. 6In those days people will seek death, and will in no way find it. They will desire to die, and death will flee from them. 7The shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for war. On their heads were something like golden crowns, and their faces were like people's faces. 8They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions. 9They had breastplates, like breastplates of iron. The sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, or of many horses rushing to war. 10They have tails like those of scorpions, and stings. In their tails is their[d] power to harm people for five months. 11They have over them as king the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew is "Abaddon,"[e] and in Greek, he has the name "Apollyon."[f] 12The first woe is past. Look, there are still two woes coming after this.

four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates.[a]"

15The four angels were freed who had been prepared for this hour and day and month and year, so that they might kill one third of humanity. 16The number of the armies of the horsemen[b] was two[c] hundred million[d]. I heard the number of them. 17Thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; and the heads of lions. Out of their mouths proceed fire, smoke, and sulfur. 18By these three plagues were one third of humanity killed: from the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur, which proceeded out of their mouths. 19For the power of the horses[e] is in their mouths, and in their tails. For their tails are like serpents, and have heads, and with them they harm. 20The rest of humanity, who were not killed with these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, that they would not worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of bronze, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk. 21They did not repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries,[f] nor of their sexual immorality, nor of their thefts.

10 I saw another[g] mighty angel coming down out of the sky, clothed with a cloud. A rainbow was on his head. His face was like the sun, and his legs[h] like pillars of fire. 2He had in his hand a little[i] open scroll. He set his right foot on the sea, and his left on the land. 3He shouted with a loud voice, as a lion roars. When he shouted, the seven thunders uttered their voices. 4When the seven thunders sounded, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from the sky saying, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders said, and do not write them."

5The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his right[j] hand to the sky, 6and swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there will no longer be delay, 7but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as he declared to his servants, the prophets. 8The they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who saw them. 12 I

They went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies saw them.
13 In that hour[a] there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified, and gave glory to the God of heaven. 14 The second woe is past. Look, the third woe comes quickly.

15 The seventh angel sounded, and great voices in heaven followed, saying, "The kingdom of the world now belongs to our Lord and to his Christ, and he will reign forever and ever."

16 The twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before God's throne, fell on their faces and worshiped God, 17 saying: "We give you thanks, Lord God Almighty, the one who is and who was[b]; because you have taken your great power, and reigned. 18 The nations were angry, and your wrath came, as did the time for the dead to be judged, and to give your servants the prophets, their reward, as well as to the saints, and those who fear your name, to the small and the great; and to destroy those who destroy the earth."

19 God's temple that is in heaven was opened, and the ark of his[c] covenant was seen in his temple. Lightnings, sounds, thunders, an earthquake, and great hail followed.

12 A great sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. 2 She was with child. She screamed out in pain, laboring to give birth.
3 Another sign was seen in heaven. Look, a great fiery red serpent,[d] having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven crowns.
4 His tail drew one third of the stars of the sky, and threw them to the earth. The serpent stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child. 5 She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with an iron scepter. Her child was caught up to God, and to his throne. 6 The woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that there they may nourish her one thousand two hundred sixty days.

7 There was war in the sky. Michael and his angels made war on the serpent. The serpent and his angels made war. 8 They did not prevail, neither was a place found for them[a] any more in heaven. [9]The great serpent was thrown down, the ancient serpent, he who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. [10]I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now is come the salvation, the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ; for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night. [11]They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony. They did not love their life, even to death. [12]Therefore rejoice, heavens, and you who dwell in them. Woe to the land and the sea, because the devil has gone down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has but a short time."

[13]When the serpent saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male child. [14]Two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, so that she might be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. [15]The serpent spewed water out of his mouth after the woman like a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the stream. [16]The earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the serpent spewed out of his mouth. [17]The serpent grew angry with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus.[b] [18]And he[c] stood on the sand of the sea.

13 And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads. On his horns were ten crowns, and on his heads, blasphemous names.[d] [2]The beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The serpent gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. [3]One of his heads looked like it had been wounded fatally. His fatal wound was healed, and the whole earth was amazed and followed the beast. [4]They worshiped the serpent, because he gave his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?" [5]A mouth was given to him speaking proud words and blasphemies. There was given to him authority to act[e] for forty-two months. heaven. 7It was given to him to make war with the saints,[a] and to overcome them. Authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation was given to him. 8All who dwell on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the Book of Life of the Lamb who has been killed. 9If anyone has an ear, let him hear. 10If anyone is to go into[b] captivity,[c] he will go into captivity. If anyone is to be killed with the sword, he must[d] be killed with the sword. Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints.

11I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke like a serpent. 12He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence. He makes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed. 13He performs great signs, even making fire come down out of heaven to the earth in the sight of people. 14He deceives those[e] who dwell on the earth because of the signs he was granted to do in front of the beast; saying to those who dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast who had been wounded by the sword and yet lived. 15It was given to him to give breath to it, to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast could both speak and cause those who would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. 16He causes all, the small and the great, the rich and the poor, and the free and the slave, to be given a mark[f] on their right hand, or on their forehead[g]; 17and that no one could be able to buy or to sell, unless he has that mark, the name of the beast or the number of his name. 18Here is wisdom. He who has understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. His number is six hundred sixty-six.

14 And I looked, and suddenly on Mount Zion stood the Lamb, and with him[h] one hundred forty-four thousand, having his name, and the name of his Father, written on their foreheads. 2I heard a sound from heaven, like the sound of many waters, and like the sound of a great thunder. The sound which I heard was like that of harpists playing on their harps. 3They sing a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand, those who had been redeemed out of the earth. 4These are those who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed[a] from among humanity, the first fruits to God and to the Lamb. 5In their mouth was found no lie; they are blameless.[b]

6I saw another[c] angel flying in mid heaven, having an everlasting Good News to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, tribe, language, and people. 7He said with a loud voice, "Fear God[d], and give him glory; for the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the springs of waters."

8Another, a second[e] angel, followed, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, which has made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality."

9Another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead, or on his hand, 10he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger. He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb. 11The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. They have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name. 12Here is the patience of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus."

13I heard the voice from heaven saying[f], "Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.'"

"Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them."

14And I looked, and suddenly there was a white cloud, and on the cloud one sitting like a son of man,[g] having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. 15Another angel came out from the temple, crying with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, "Send forth your sickle, and reap; for the hour to reap has come; for the

[17]Another angel came out from the temple which is in heaven. He also had a sharp sickle. [18]Another angel came out from the altar, he who has power over fire, and he called with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Send forth your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for its grapes are fully ripe." [19]The angel thrust his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. [20]The winepress was trodden outside of the city, and blood came out from the winepress, even to the bridles of the horses, as far as about one hundred eighty four miles.[a]

15 I saw another great and marvelous sign in the sky: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them God's wrath is finished. [2]I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who overcame the beast, his image,[b] and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God. [3]They sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying,

"Great and marvelous are your works, Lord God

Righteous and true are your ways,
King of the nations.[c] [4]Who would not fear you, Lord, and glorify your name?
For you only are holy.
For all the nations will come and worship before
you.
For your righteous acts have been revealed."

[5]After these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. [6]The seven angels came out of the temple[d] who had the seven plagues, clothed with pure, bright linen, and wearing golden sashes around their chests.

[7]One of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. [8]The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power. No one was able to enter into the temple, until the seven plagues of the seven angels would be finished.

2The first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth, and it became a harmful and evil sore on the people who had the mark of the beast, and who worshiped his image.

3The second one poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of a corpse. And every living thing in the sea died.

4The third poured out his bowl into the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. 5I heard the angel of the waters saying, "You are righteous,[a] who is and who was, the Holy One,[b] because you have judged these things. 6For they poured out the blood of the saints and the prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They deserve this." 7I heard the altar saying, "Yes, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are your judgments."

8The fourth poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given to him to scorch people with fire. 9People were scorched with great heat, and they[c] blasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues. They did not repent and give him glory.

10The fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was darkened. They gnawed their tongues because of the pain, 11and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores. They did not repent of their works.

12The sixth poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates.[d] Its water was dried up, that the way might be made ready for the kings that come from the sunrise. 13I saw coming out of the mouth of the serpent, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, something like frogs; 14for they are spirits of demons, performing signs; which go forth to the kings of the whole inhabited earth, to gather them together for the war of the great day of God the Almighty.

[18]There were lightnings, voices, and peals of thunder; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since man was on the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty. [19]The great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. [20]Every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. [21]Great hailstones, about one hundred pounds each,[b] came down out of the sky on people. People blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for this plague is exceedingly severe.

17 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters, [2]with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality, and those who dwell in the earth were made drunk with the wine of her sexual immorality." [3]He carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored animal, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. [4]The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of her sexual immorality. [5]And on her forehead a name was written, "MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." [6]I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw her, I wondered with great amazement. [7]The angel said to me, "Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. [8]The beast that you saw was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss and is going[c] to destruction. Those who dwell on the earth and whose names have not been written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world will marvel when they see that the beast was, and is not, but is to come. [9]Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits. [10]They are seven kings. Five have fallen, the one is, the other has not yet come. When he comes, he must continue a little while. [11]The beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goes to destruction. [12]The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour. 13These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast. 14These will war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings. They also will overcome who are with him, called and chosen and faithful." 15He said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages. 16The ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the prostitute, and will make her desolate and[a] naked, and will eat her flesh, and will burn her utterly with fire. 17For God has put in their hearts to do what he has in mind, and to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God should be accomplished. 18The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth."

18 After these things, I saw another angel coming down out of the sky, having great authority. The earth was illuminated with his glory. 2He shouted with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and she has become a habitation of demons, a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean bird, and a prison of every unclean and detestable beast.[b] 3For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality, the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from the abundance of her luxury."

4I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, that you have no participation in her sins, and that you do not receive of her plagues, 5for her sins have reached to the sky, and God has remembered her iniquities. 6Return to her just as she returned, and repay her double as she did, and according to her works. In the cup which she mixed, mix to her double. 7However much she glorified herself, and grew wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning. For she says in her heart, 'I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will in no way see mourning.' 8Therefore in one day her plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for the Lord God who has judged her is strong. 9The kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and lived wantonly with her, will weep and wail over her, when they look at the smoke of her burning, 10standing far away for the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city. For your judgment has come in one hour.' 11The merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise any

[14]The fruits which your soul lusted after have been lost to you, and all things that were luxury and splendor have perished from you, and you will never ever find them again. [15]The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand far away for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning; [16]saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls. [17]For in an hour such great riches are made desolate.' Every shipmaster, and everyone who sails anywhere, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood far away, [18]and exclaimed as they looked at the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What is like the great city?' [19]They cast dust on their heads, and shouting, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her great wealth.' For in one hour is she made desolate.

[20]"Rejoice over her, O heaven, you saints, apostles, and prophets; for God has judged your judgment on her." [21]A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down, and will be found no more at all. [22]The voice of harpists, minstrels, flute players, and trumpeters will be heard no more at all in you. No craftsman, of whatever craft, will be found any more at all in you. The sound of a mill will be heard no more at all in you. [23]The light of a lamp will shine no more at all in you. The voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will be heard no more at all in you; for your merchants were the princes of the earth; for with your sorcery all the nations were deceived. [24]In her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on the earth."

19 After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah. Salvation, glory, and power belong to [a]our God: [2]for true and righteous are his judgments. For he has judged the great prostitute, who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his servants at her hand."

3 A second said, “Hallelujah.
Her smoke goes up forever and ever.” 4 The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, saying, “Amen.
Hallelujah.”

5 A voice came forth from the throne, saying, “Give praise to our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, the small and the great.”

6 I heard something like the voice of a great multitude, and like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of mighty thunders, saying, “Hallelujah. For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns. 7 Let us rejoice and be exceedingly glad, and let us give the glory to him. For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready.” 8 It was given to her that she would array herself in bright, pure, fine linen: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

9 He said to me, “Write, ‘Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.’” He said to me, “These are true words of God.”

10 I fell down before his feet to worship him. He said to me, “Look.
Do not do it. I am a fellow servant with you and with your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus.
Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of Prophecy.”

11 And I saw heaven opened, and suddenly there was a white horse, and he who sat on it is called Faithful and True. In righteousness he judges and makes war. 12 His eyes are a flame of fire, and on his head are many crowns. He had[a] a name written which no one knows but he himself. 13 He is clothed in a garment dipped[b] in blood. His name is called “The Word of God.” 14 The armies which are in heaven followed him on white horses,

15 Out of his mouth proceeds a winepress of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty. 16 He has on his garment and on his thigh a name written, “King of kings, and 17 I saw an angel standing in the sun. He shouted with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the sky, “Come. Be gathered together to the great supper of God,[e] 18 that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty people, and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all people, both free and slave, and small and great.” 19 I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army. 20The beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who worked the signs in his sight, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. 21The rest were killed with the sword of him who sat on the horse, the sword which came forth out of his mouth. All the birds were filled with their flesh.

20 I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. 2He seized the serpent, the ancient snake,[a] which is the devil and Satan,[b] and bound him for a thousand years, 3and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years were finished. After this, he must be freed for a short time. 4I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as did not worship the beast nor his image, and did not receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand. They lived, and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. 5The rest of the dead did not live until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. 6Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over these, the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with him one thousand years.

7And after the thousand years, Satan will be released from his prison, 8and he will come out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war; the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. 9They went up over the breadth of the earth, and surrounded the camp of the saints, and the beloved city, and fire came down out of heaven[c] and devoured them. 10The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet are also. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

11I saw a great white throne, and him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. There was found no place for them. 12I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne[d], and they opened books. Another book was opened, which is the Book of Life. The dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. 13The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and hell[a] gave up the dead who were in them. They were judged, each one according to his works. 14Death and hell[b] were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. 15If anyone was not found written in the Book of Life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

21 I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth have passed away, and the sea is no more. 2I[c] saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready like a bride adorned for her husband. 3I heard a loud voice from the throne[d] saying, "Look, the tabernacle of God is with humans, and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people,[e] and God himself will be with them and be their God.[f] 4And he will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, nor will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for[g] the first things have passed away."

5He who sits on the throne said, "Look, I am making all things new." He said[h], "Write, for these words are faithful and true." 6He said to me, "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give freely to him who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life. 7He who overcomes, I will give him these things. I will be his God, and he will be my son. 8But to the cowards, and unbelieving,[i] and detestable, and murderers, and sexually immoral, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

9One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, full of the seven last plagues came, and he spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." 10He carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, 11having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, as if it was a jasper stone, clear as crystal; 12having a great and high wall; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel. 13On the east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. [14]The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. [15]He who spoke with me had for a measure, a golden reed, to measure the city, its gates, and its wall. [16]The city lies foursquare, and its length is as great as its breadth. He measured the city with the reed, one thousand three hundred eighty miles.[a] Its length, breadth, and height are equal. [17]Its wall is one hundred forty-four cubits,[b] by human measurement, that is, of an angel. [18]The construction of its wall was jasper. The city was pure gold, like pure glass. [19]The foundations of the city's wall were adorned with all kinds of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire[c]; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; [20]the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, jacinth; and the twelfth, amethyst. [21]The twelve gates were twelve pearls. Each one of the gates was made of one pearl. The street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass. [22]I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. [23]The city has no need for the sun, neither of the moon, to shine, for the very glory of God illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb. [24]The nations will walk[d] in its light. The kings of the earth bring their splendor[e] into it. [25]Its gates will in no way be shut by day (for there will be no night there), [26]and they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it.[f] [27]There will in no way enter into it anything profane, or one who causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

22 He showed me a[g] river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God[h] and of the Lamb,[i] [2]in the middle of its street. On this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruits, yielding its fruit every month.[j] The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. [3]There will be no curse any more. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants serve him.

PROPHECY

Psalm 22

For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Doe of the Morning." A Psalm by David.

22:1My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from helping me, and from my anguished cries?
22:2My God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; and by night, and have no rest.
22:3But you are holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel.
22:4Our fathers trusted in you. They trusted, and you delivered them.
22:5They cried to you, and escaped. They trusted in you, and were not put to shame.
22:6But I am a worm, not a man; scorned by men, and despised by the people.
22:7All those who see me mock me. They insult me with their lips. They shake their heads, saying, 22:8"He trusts in YHWH; let him deliver him. Let him rescue him, since he delights in him."
22:9You brought me out of the womb. You made me trust at my mother's breasts.
22:10I was cast upon you from my mother's womb. You are my God since my mother bore me.
22:11Do not be far from me, for trouble is near. For there is none to help.
22:12Many bulls have surrounded me. Mighty ones of Bashan have encircled me.
22:13They open their mouths wide against me, lions tearing prey and roaring.
22:14I am poured out like water. All my bones are out of joint. My heart is like wax; it is melted within me.
22:15My strength is dried up like a potsherd. My tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth. You have brought me into the dust of death.
22:16For dogs have surrounded me. A company of evildoers have enclosed me. They have pierced my hands and my feet.
22:17I can count all of my bones. They look and stare at me.
22:18They divide my clothes among them. They cast lots for my clothing.
22:19But do not be far off, YHWH. You are my help: hurry to help me.
22:20Deliver my soul from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dog.
22:21Save me from the lion's mouth. Yes, from the horns of the wild oxen, you have answered me.
22:22I will declare your name to my brothers. In the midst of the assembly I will praise you.

22:23You who fear YHWH, praise him. All you descendants of Jacob, glorify him. Revere him, all you descendants of Israel.
22:24For he has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted, neither has he hidden his face from him; but when he cried to him, he heard.
22:25Of you comes my praise in the great assembly. I will pay my vows before those who fear him.
22:26The humble shall eat and be satisfied. They shall praise YHWH who seek after him. Let your hearts live forever.
22:27Every part of the earth shall remember and turn to YHWH. All the families of the nations shall worship before you.
22:28For the kingdom is YHWH's. He is the ruler over the nations.
22:29All the prosperous of the earth shall eat and worship. All those who go down to the dust shall bow before him, and my soul shall live for him.
22:30Posterity shall serve him. Future generations shall be told about the Lord.
22:31They shall come and shall declare his righteousness to a people that shall be born, for he has done it.

Isaiah 52:13-53:12

52:13Look, my servant shall prosper, he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high.
52:14Just as many were astonished at you (his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men), 52:15so shall he sprinkle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they understand.
53:1YHWH, who has believed our message? And to whom has the arm of YHWH been revealed? 53:2For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground. He has no form nor comeliness. When we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. 53:3He was despised, and rejected by men; a man of sorrows, and familiar with illness; and as one from whom men hide their face. He was despised, and we did not value him.

53:4Surely he has borne our sicknesses, and carried our pains; yet we considered him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted.
53:5But he was pierced for our transgressions, and he was crushed for our iniquities. The punishment that brought our peace was on him; and by his stripes we are healed.
53:6All we like sheep have gone astray. Everyone has turned to his own way; and YHWH has laid on him the iniquity of us all.
53:7He was oppressed, yet when he was afflicted he didn't open his mouth. As a sheep that is led to the slaughter, and as a lamb that before its shearers is mute, so he didn't open his mouth.
53:8In his oppression his justice was taken away; Who will consider his generation? For his life was cut off from the earth. For the transgression of my people he was led to death.
53:9And they made his grave with the wicked, yet with the rich at his death, although he had done no wrong, neither was any deceit in his mouth.
53:10Yet YHWH was pleased to crush him and make him ill. When you make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring. He shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of YHWH shall prosper in his hand.
53:11After the suffering of his soul he will see light and be satisfied by his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, will make many righteous, and he will bear their iniquities. 53:12Therefore I will divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out his soul to death, and he was numbered with transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Zechariah 12

[10]I will pour on the house of David, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of petition; and they will look to me whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for his only son, and will grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for his firstborn.

Jeremiah 31

[31]Look, the days come, says YHWH, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:
[32]not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they broke, and I disregarded them, says YHWH.
[33]But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says YHWH: I will put my law in their minds, and write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people:

[34]and they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know YHWH; for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says YHWH: for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin will I remember no more.

SALVATION

Joshua 24:15 "…choose this day whom you will serve…"

God created humankind, but in the beginning Adam and Eve sinned. The sin nature has been passed down to everyone. In addition, we all have chosen to do sins. Our sins separate us from God and we stand condemned. But God declares that he loves us and wants to have a personal relationship with us always.

If we want to be with God forever, he has provided a way to have forgiveness of our sins and bring reconciliation with him. If one chooses to stay in rebellion against God, that is a choice also. We are to choose this day whom we will serve.

If you want to be with God forever and want to have your sins forgiven, the way he has provided is through faith in his atonement, in the finished work of his Son, the lamb of God, the promised Christ. He gave up his life willingly, taking the punishment for our sins, past, present, & future, so that we can have fellowship with a Holy God forever.

Here is how to invite Christ Jesus (Hebrew: Yeshua) into your heart and life as an act of faith to receive his atonement for your sins. Pray this:

"Dear God, I realize that I am a sinner in need of a Savior. I believe that Christ Jesus died on the cross to pay the penalty for my sins, and that you raised him from the dead. I ask you, Jesus, to come into my heart and life. Thank you, Jesus."

Grow in the knowledge of the Lord, and in your walk with him. Be transformed from a self-centered life to a God-centered life. As you surrender your own plans and will for your life, God's Holy Spirit will guide you in every aspect of your life to fulfill the specific plan that God has for you. Put the word and your faith into action. The Christ is our supreme example. Read the Bible daily, and locate a congregation that believes that the Bible in its entirety is the word of God. Encourage one another, even more as you see the Day approaching.

Assurance of Salvation

"Truly, truly, I tell you, he who hears my word and believes him who sent me has everlasting life and does not come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life." John 5:24

Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ. He anointed us, set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come. 2 Corinthians 1:21-22

yet now has reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without blemish and blameless before him, Colossians 1:22

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 John 1:9

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give everlasting life to them. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. John 10:27

Sins Forgotten

As far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us. Psalm 103:12

Look, for peace I had great anguish, but you have in love for my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption; for you have cast all my sins behind your back. Isaiah 38:17

'I will remember their sins and their iniquities no more.' Now where forgiveness of these is, there is no more offering for sin. Hebrews 10:17-18 {Jeremiah 31:34}

A Spiritual Journey

Forgetting the things which are behind, and reaching forward to the things which are ahead, Philippians 3:13

TRUST / FAITH

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways be mindful of him, and he will make your paths straight. Do not be wise in your own eyes; Fear the Lord and turn away from evil. This will bring health to your body and nourishment to your bones. Proverbs 3:5-8

Look, in the God of my salvation I will trust, and will not be afraid; Isaiah 12:2a

Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him. Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way, because of the man who makes wicked plots happen.
For evildoers shall be cut off, but those who wait for the Lord shall inherit the land. Psalm 37:7,9

God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Therefore we will not be afraid, though the earth trembles, though the mountains are shaken into the heart of the seas; though its waters roar and are troubled, though the mountains quake with their surging. Psalm 46:1-4

Let me hear of your loving kindness in the morning, for I trust in you. Let me know the way in which I should go, for I lift up my soul to you. Psalm 143:8

He himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion, and they woke him up, and told him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are dying?" And he awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace. Be still." And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. He said to them, "Why are you so afraid? How is it that you have no faith?" Mark 4:38-39

For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with God's trumpet. The dead in Christ will rise first, then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. So we will be with the Lord forever. 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17

PROPHETIC

"Therefore, look, I send to you prophets, wise people, and scribes…" (Matthew 23:34)

"My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me…" (John 10:27)

"Having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, if prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith;" (Romans 12:6)

"Now there are various kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit." (1Corinthians 12:4)
"…and to another prophecy" (1Corinthians 12:7)

HEALING

"…they will place their hands on the sick, and they will be made well." (Mark 16:18)

"…Just say the word, and my servant will be healed. (Matthew 8:8)

"He sent his word and healed them… (Psalm 107:20)

"so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and the evil spirits went out. (Acts 19:12)

"Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord, and the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven." (James 5:14-15)

"He called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases." (Luke 9:1)
"Look, I have given you authority…over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will in any way hurt you. (Luke 10:19)

"Therefore go, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to obey all things that I commanded you. And look, I am with you every day, even to the end of the age." (Matthew 28:19-20)

Healing Examples

One ministry gives the following examples.

For 'hands on,' place your hands on the person (Mark 16:18; e.g. shoulders), and say, "Father, in the name of Jesus I lay my hands on this person. Be healed of [x] [or, 'from the top of your head to the bottom of your feet']. I release my faith, and expect a miracle."

For 'hands off' (Matthew 8:8; Psalm 107:20; person in front of you, or not present), say, "Father, in the name of Jesus I send the word for this person to be healed of [x] [or, 'from the top of your head to the bottom of your feet']. I release my faith, and expect a miracle."

Sometimes added, "Come out, in the name of Jesus!" Or, "I rebuke this satanic attack in the name of Jesus! Come out!"

For addition of oil (James 5:14-15). Anoint and pray one of above prayers. Oil is symbolic of the power of God.

For prayer cloths (Acts 19:12). Person touches cloth and prays, releases faith. Give to person that needs to be healed. "A point of contact for people to release their faith." "Symbolic of the name of Jesus."

Also, pray for the healing of one another (James 5:16).

While one should believe for instantaneous healing, an example was given of healing occurring ten days later. Another example was given of praying many verses on healing from the Bible a day, and healing came some time later.

Word of Knowledge

"For to one is given…the word of knowledge according to the same Spirit;" (1Corinthians 12:8)

Types of word of knowledge that have been experienced by someone concerning someone else before or during healing:

-Feel it (feel pain or discomfort somewhere)
-Think it (thought)
-See it (a vision)
-Read it (vision of a word(s))
-Say it (a word during speaking)
-Dream it (a dream prior)

"Lord, I'm here. If you give me a word of knowledge I'll give it."
